BY AUTHORITY.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

By the House of Delegates,
March 21st, 1835.

Resolved, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Governor and Council be requested to publish such Laws of public nature, as they shall consider expedient, in one newspaper in each county in this State, in which paper it is published, and in two newspapers in the city of Baltimore, and the governor is hereby authorized to draw on the Treasurer of the Western Shore, for the sum necessary to pay the cost of such publication, which sum shall not exceed seventy dollars for each paper.

A supplement to an act, entitled, an act to lay the income of wills, and attach certain rights in this Province, and limiting the extent of them.

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from henceforth, any person or persons having obtained judgment in any court of this State, against any person or persons, shall and may be lawfully entitled the said plaintiff or plaintiffs in the said judgment, to head or any other writ or writs issued on any execution against the defendant or defendants, shall and ought to be deemed, taken and considered to be, to all intents and purposes, as the said plaintiff or plaintiffs, in the said judgment,

REAL ESTATE BANK.

[COMMUNICATED.]

It is very common, I said the Farmer, to hear the Bill for a Real Estate Bank in the state, denounced as a dangerous measure, with the change of a little word, and restore the capital—coin—to its place, where our ancestors placed it, and it would be no despotism of the city and state, to be employed in the business of loan and discount with the people, upon a foundation well known and approved in practice, long prior to the United States existing as a nation. Let the Bank be incorporated by the Legislature, with the power of issuing bills of exchange, payable at the Bank, to the order of the person, who purchased the bill, or to any other person, who may have purchased it of the first purchaser, or to bearer, payable on demand, in specie, or in paper, that is equal to specie, in value, and receivable in payment of all debts due to the state, and to the Bank, and let the Bank be required to redeem its paper in specie, on demand, at the Bank, or at any other place, or places, where it may be required, by the holders of its paper, and let the Bank be required to redeem its paper in specie, at the
