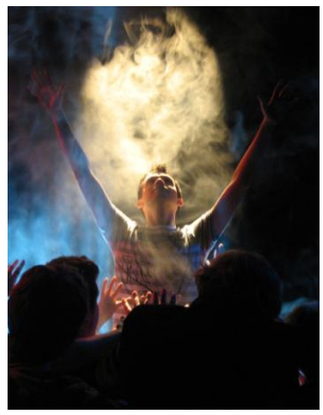
Theatre

'Godspell' Celebrates Life of Jesus

Theatre and Dance at FSU will present "Godspell," a rock musical celebration of the life and teachings of Jesus, featuring alum Ryan Bowie in the title role and live music from members of the Beat Street All Stars.

Performances will take place in the Performing Arts Center April 16 and 17 and April 22 through 24 at 7:30 p.m., with matinee performances April 17 and 24 at 2 p.m.

"Godspell," taken from an ancient word for "Gospel," is one of the most successful musicals in theatre history. Based on John-Michael Tebelak's book highlighting the teachings of St. Matthew, the musical features a lively score by Stephen Schwartz with updated arrangements, and boasts a string of familiar songs, including "Day by Day," that bring the parables of Jesus to contemporary life.



Ryan Bowie as Jesus

Drawing from theatrical traditions of clowning, magic, pantomime, charades, acrobatics and Vaudeville, "Godspell" continues to attract audiences today.

FSU Theatre and Music alum Ryan Bowie has returned to choreograph "Godspell," in addition to playing the title role of Jesus. A full-time actor in New York City, Bowie recently appeared in the New York premiere of "Dotty Dot," a new children's musical, as well as "My Fair Lady," "Sorry! Wrong Chimney!" and "High School Musical" at Maples Repertory Theatre.

For info, call the box office at x7462 (Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 4 p.m.). Tickets are $6 for students and $12 general admission.

Staking Our Claim

Kennedy Awarded FSUF Pinnacle

The FSU Foundation, Inc., has honored Ken Kennedy of Frostburg with the Pinnacle Award, its highest honor, in recognition of the nearly quarter-century of expert guidance and time he has offered to the Foundation.

Kennedy, only the sixth person to receive the award, is retired from Westvaco (now NewPage). He is the current treasurer of the Foundation Board of Directors, serving in that role since 1989, and he served on the board for many years before that.

The award was granted during FSU's Sloop Leadership Institute, named for the late FSU professor Richard Sloop, held at Bedford Springs Resort on March 26.

"Ken's years of service have helped to provide a bright future for FSU and his consistent unrestricted giving to the Annual Fund helps the University fund its most critical and immediate needs," said Sam Griffith, president of the FSU Foundation Board of Directors. "It seems particularly fitting to honor him this evening in conjunction with the Sloop Leadership Institute. Like Dick Sloop, Ken is a principled leader, concerned about the common good and the welfare of our students."

Kennedy retired in 1989 from Westvaco's Luke Mill after 37 years of service. At the time of his retirement, he served as Expansion Program coordinator. He earned a Master of Science in Management degree from FSU in 1972.

Created in 1993, the Pinnacle Award recognizes individuals who have made significant contributions of time, talent or treasures in support of the educational mission of FSU through the FSU Foundation. Previous recipients are Ralph Race, Lillian Wellner, Al Boxley, Walter Hedrick and Leonard Schwab.

Music

CES to Host Paquito D'Rivera

Fluent in multiple musical languages, an electrifying composer and performer, Cuban-born Paquito D'Rivera has influenced American music across Latin, jazz and classical genres. On Friday, April 9, the Paquito D'Rivera Quintet will offer an evening of cool Latin sounds, presented by the FSU Cultural Events Series Jazz Club. The performance will begin at 8 p.m. at Windsor Hall at Towne Centre in Cumberland.

The recipient of 10 Grammy Awards, D'Rivera draws on early Cuban influences. His masterful work on the clarinet, alto saxophone and soprano saxophone, accompanied by brass, bass, percussion and piano, produces an explosive evening of jazz, rock, classical and traditional Cuban music.

Tickets for Paquito D'Rivera Quintet are $17 for adults and $12 for young people under 17. Group rate tickets are also available. Tickets may be ordered by calling 1-866-849-9237 or x3137, or by visiting ces.frostburg.edu.

D'Rivera and his supporting musicians will present an interactive educational outreach session in which D'Rivera will discuss jazz and his experiences working as a professional musician. This opportunity is free and open to the public and will be held at 4:30 p.m., also on April 9 at Windsor Hall. For info on this educational outreach session, contact Melanie Moore at x7420 or cesoutreach@frostburg.edu.

Note: The following recitals will take place in PAC Pealer Recital Hall. The events are free and open to the public.

Dixon to Perform Faculty Piano Recital

Dr. Joan DeVee Dixon, chair of the Department of Music at FSU and a recipient of FSU's Academic Achievement Award, will present a Faculty Piano Recital Sunday, April 11, at 3 p.m. The program will be in the form of a lecture recital, "American Spring: The Legacy of Antonín Dvořák." Musical selections will include piano music by Dvořák and his teacher Antonin Liehmann.

Dixon is a featured soloist for the International Dvořák Society's American Spring Festival, who has performed up to 20 concerts throughout the Czech Republic each summer. She will discuss the mission of American Spring Festival and how the music of Dvořák continues to impact composers, performers and audiences in the U.S. and the Czech Republic.

For info, visit www.joandeveedixon.com or call x4109.

Koehler to Perform Faculty Vocal Recital

FSU's faculty recital series will present Dr. William Koehler in a voice recital Wednesday, April 7, at 8 p.m.

Koehler, a bass and baritone, will perform works from a broad range of composers, including Scarlatti, Donizetti, Poulenc, Hahn, Wolf, Copland and William Grant Still. A first-year professor at FSU, he teaches voice and opera classes.

FSU senior Nicole Sirois will perform her soprano recital Saturday, April 10, at 8 p.m. Sirois will be accompanied by pianist Nancy Witmer. She will also be assisted by pianists Adam Pomeroy and Caroline Shedd and vocalists Katy Baird, Jamie Denton and Erin Drenning.

Sirois will perform several pieces written by composers Antonio Caldara, Antonio Lotti, Benedetto Marcello, Hugo Wolf, Juaquin Rodrigo, Leonard Bernstein, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, Giacomo Puccini, Giorgia Stitt and Jason Howland.

Kuhn to Perform Senior Vocal Recital

FSU senior Lauren Kuhn will perform her vocal recital Sunday, April 11, at 7 p.m. Kuhn will be assisted by Darcy Gagnon, vocals and guitar; Ben Arden, vocals; and Emilie Waymire, percussion.

Kuhn, a mezzo-soprano, will perform selections by Antonio Vivaldi, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, Franz Schubert, Johann Strauss, Gian Carlo Mennotti, Cecil Sharp, John Duke, Richard Hageman, Rodgers and Hammerstein and Meredith Willson.

Maloy to Perform Senior Clarinet Recital

FSU senior Elizabeth Maloy will perform her clarinet recital Friday, April 16, at 8 p.m. Maloy will be accompanied by pianist Dr. Joan DeVee Dixon and Britany Poindexter, soprano.

Maloy will perform selections by Camille Saint-Saëns, Claude Debussy, Franz Schubert and Carl Maria von Weber.

Lagno to Perform Senior Piano Recital

FSU student Hannah Lagno will perform her senior piano recital on Saturday, April 17, at 8 p.m.

Lagno will perform several pieces by Johann Sebastian Bach, Marianne von Martinez, Franz Liszt, John Adams and Alberto Ginastera.

Mass Comm Presents Annual MCOM Project

Each year, the Department of Mass Communication solicits original music to be included on a compilation CD to give students the experience of promoting and producing a music CD and to give local and regional bands another opportunity to be heard.

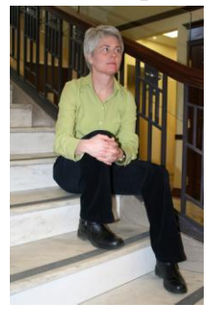
If you have an original song (with or without lyrics), Mass Comm invites you to submit your work. If your song is already produced, submit it on CD to Guild 119. All produced music must be received by Thursday, April 22. All musical acts will be considered for a live show in May.

Mass Comm, with the MCOM project, will host an open mic/karaoke event Saturday, April 10, from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Mountain City Coffeehouse and Creamery in Frostburg.

For more info, contact Mass Comm at x3049 or e-mail mcom@frostburg.edu. You can also visit the Facebook group, Mind Culture Original Music.

Presentations

Philosophical Lecture



The Philosophy Department presents its Spring 2010 Philosophical Forum lecture to be held Tuesday, April 6, at 7 p.m. in Dunkle 218. The lecture, entitled "The Puzzle of Divine Forgiveness," will feature guest speaker Dr. Sharon Ryan, associate professor of philosophy and chairperson of the department at the University of West Virginia, Morgantown. The presentation will be followed by a discussion.

Divine forgiveness is an important element in monotheistic religions, such as Judaism, Christianity and Islam. Ryan will reflect on the apparent contradiction between the belief in divine forgiveness and the belief in divine perfection. To admit that God, the eternal and perfect being, can forgive would seem to imply that the "spirit" or "mind" of God is subject to evolution or development in the same way as human consciousness. The presenter will discuss this puzzle as well as some possible solutions.

For info, contact Dr. Jean-Marie Makang at x3089 or jmakang@frostburg.edu.

'Honoring Our Legacy' to Feature Dr. Joel Freeman

FSU's Black Student Alliance has invited accomplished author Dr. Joel A. Freeman of the Freeman Institute of Black History, who will display and explain artifacts from his personal collection on Saturday, April 10, from 5 to 7 p.m. in the Lyric Theatre at 22 E. Main St. in Frostburg.

Freeman will share 20 to 30 artifacts from his personal collection and explain the history and significance of each to communicate a story of creativity, inventiveness and perseverance.

Then at 7 p.m., in an event open only to the FSU campus community, Freeman will speak again, the dancers of the African Student Association will perform and FSU students will present monologue speeches from historical black figures. Students and staff must register in advance with the Diversity Center, 126 Hitchins. For info, contact the FSU Diversity Center at x4050.

Dizolele to Speak on Congo at FSU

The African American Studies program of FSU will present "Democracy in DR Congo: Dashed Hopes, Expectations and Realities. What the International Community Can Do," a lecture presented by Mvemba Phezo Dizolele on Monday, April 12, at 6:30 p.m. in Compton 226. The event is free and open to the public.

Dizolele, a writer and foreign policy analyst, will discuss the context of democratization in DRC, with a discussion of the geopolitical forces at work in Congo as well as the conflict (mineral resources, foreign intervention, the UN) that has plagued the country. The presentation will also include a discussion of what worked and what did not in the political transition of DRC.

For info, contact Dr. Alem Abbay at x4228.

Bristol to Present Talk on Mexico at FSU

Dr. Joan Bristol, associate professor of history and history undergraduate director at George Mason University, will present her talk on "Virtue and Blackness in Colonial Mexico: Esperanza de San Alberto, Black Nun of Puebla" on Tuesday, April 13, at 7:30 p.m. in Dunkle 218.

Bristol has published several journal articles and book chapters. She is the author of "Christians, Blasphemers and Witches: Afro-Mexican Ritual Practices in the 17th Century" and is researching the history of pulque and mescal.

For info contact Dr. Paul Charney at x3120 or pcharney@frostburg.edu.

FSU to Host MLK Celebration

Maryland's Lieutenant Governor, FSU Students Featured

In memory of the life and achievements of Martin Luther King Jr., FSU will hold its annual MLK Celebration, featuring keynote speaker Anthony G. Brown, lieutenant governor of Maryland, with musical performances and student speakers offering inspirational stories. The event will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 15, in PAC Pealer Recital Hall.

These student stories, with Brown's reflections, will be a powerful and stirring tribute to Dr. King. It is also an opportunity for everyone, especially student groups and organizations, to come show their admiration for the life and contributions of this great civil rights leader.

Brown is a Harvard-educated attorney and has been a member of the Active and Reserve Components of the United States Army since 1984. He was inaugurated as Maryland's eighth lieutenant governor on Jan. 17, 2007. He is a former chair of the Prince George's Community College Board of Trustees and has traveled the state visiting community colleges and opening a dialogue with students and administrators alike.

Harmony Walk to Feature Student Groups

The second annual Harmony Walk will take place Thursday, April 15, with the University's MLK Celebration.

Student groups are encouraged to participate and create banners that reflect the theme of the walk – Walking in Harmony, Fulfilling the Dream. The banners will be judged for creativity in expressing the theme, and cash prizes will be awarded to the top three selections.

Participants are asked to meet at the clock tower at 6 p.m. The walk will travel through campus, ending at the Performing Arts Center in time for the celebration.

For info, contact Harriet Douglas at x4481, or Robert Cooper at x4049.

Save the Date for FOCUS FROSTBURG!

FOCUS FROSTBURG, sponsored and organized by FSU's Learning Green, Living Green Sustainability Initiative, is FSU's annual Day of Learning on sustainability and climate awareness that is open to FSU students, faculty, staff and the community. On Wednesday, April 21, many 50-minute presentations will be scheduled throughout the day on campus, with visual displays and outdoor activities.

Faculty members are asked to encourage students to attend by incorporating this event into class activities and potentially including this in course syllabi.

Hunter Smith to Speak at FSU

Hunter Smith, former athletic trainer for the Baltimore and Indianapolis Colts and the 2010 FSU Lillian Wellner distinguished scholar, will present two lectures at FSU on Tuesday, April 27, and Wednesday, April 28. Both programs are free and open to the public.

The Tuesday program will be "Athletic Training in Professional Football," presented from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Cordts Leake Room. The Wednesday program, presented from 9 to 11 a.m., also in the Leake Room, will be "Athletic Training: Past, Present and Future."

Smith has more than 30 years experience as an athletic trainer. He is the head athletic trainer for the New York Sentinels of the United Football League.

For info about the programs, call the Department of Health and Physical Education at x7017. For info about supporting the Wellner Scholar program or the FSU Foundation, visit foundation.frostburg.edu or call x4161.

Herbalist Series

The Appalachian Center for Ethnobotanical Studies, in partnership with Mountain City Traditional Arts, presents "The Mountain Herbalist Series." Events will be Mondays from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at MCTA, 25 E. Main St. in Frostburg. The programs are free and open to the public.

Mimi Hernandez is the coordinator for this series.

On April 12, come take a look at the "Weeds, Healing From Your Backyard." Weeds such as dandelion, violets, plantain, chickweed and knotweed can all be put to good use.

Hernandez will explore the practical uses of kudzu on April 26. The last event will be held May 10, showcasing "Medicinal Mints."

For info, call 301-687-8040 or e-mail mhernandez@frostburg.edu.

Spring Seminar Series

Dr. Michael Weintraub, University of Toledo, will present "The Below-Ground Effects of Invasive Plants" Thursday, April 8, at 3:30 p.m. in AL Room 109.

'Hoops for Haiti' Event a Success

FSU capped a successful "Hoops for Haiti" fundraising event Feb. 21, when the FSU men's basketball team hosted D'Youville College at Bobcat Arena. The men's team defeated the Spartans 102-86 and $2,776 was raised to help support the relief effort in Haiti.

Student Athlete Advisory Committee members Busha Koffa, a member of the FSU men's basketball team, and Terryl Monroe, a member of the FSU football team, with Theo Gardiner, organized the event and helped generate interest throughout campus and the community. Funds were raised through a T-shirt sale, bake sale and concession stand and pie-in-the-face contest at the game.

On March 26, the money was donated to the local American Red Cross chapter. Executive Director Bill Crawford was on hand to accept the check on behalf of the Western Potomac Chapter in Cumberland.

FSU S.E.A.L. of Excellence SPOTLIGHT Engagement

MCTA Exemplifies Spirit of Engagement

Dedicated to the education, sales, documentation and perpetuation of traditional arts in the Appalachian region, Mountain City Traditional Arts partners take seriously FSU's commitment to engagement. The venue, at 25 E. Main St., is a partnership of the Allegany Arts Council, Frostburg First: A Main Street Community and Folklore and Folklife Programming at FSU. The space serves as an experiential, educational and retail venue, with over 50 participating featured artists.

FSU students' energy and dedication have been crucial components in the venue's development and ongoing success. In 2009, students were involved in cleaning, painting and designing the space, planning the venue's activities and providing documentation to enhance the presentation of featured arts and artists. Students also participate in the Appalachian Teaching Project supported by the Appalachian Regional Commission. The venue is entirely student staffed and offers internship opportunities. Over the next year, FSU students will design photographic, audio and visual presentations of featured work at MCTA.

For info, contact mountaincity tradarts@gmail.com or visit them on Facebook.

Room Registration

The Residence Life Office is conducting room registration for the residence halls for the coming year. Regardless of where they wish to live on campus, students must preregister online at www.welcome-mat.net/frostburg_terms. Students wishing to sign up for their current room have the option of bringing new roommates into their cluster in the high-rise halls. Students who register will sign a contract that will be in effect for the academic year.

Here is the room lottery schedule:

- Single room lottery for students who want to sign up for a single room in Cambridge Hall: Tuesday, April 6, Tawes Hall, 5 p.m.
- Cluster/group sign-up for students who want to sign up in a cluster in Frederick or Westminster Hall (with at least three others): Wednesday, April 7, Tawes Hall, 8 p.m.
- Regular room lottery for students who wish to sign up for a room in Frederick or Westminster Hall or any other available rooms on campus: Wednesday, April 7, Tawes Hall, 9:30 p.m.

Off-campus students and other students who did not take part earlier may come to RLO weekdays beginning April 12 between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.

You + U.S. Census = More $ for FSU!

When the last census was completed in 2000, most FSU students were still in grade school. Now, you have a chance to directly impact your and fellow bobcats' futures by filling out the 2010 U.S. Census. It's really simple; fill out the form (mailed to off-campus students), list Allegany County as your residence and mail it back. Lots of federal dollars and congressional seats are at stake.

For info, visit census.gov or one of the local Census centers: Frostburg City Hall, 59 E. Main St., 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and City Place, 14 S. Water St., Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, 2 to 7 p.m. through April 19.

International

Interested in Study Abroad?

The Center for International Education offers ways for FSU students to study for a semester in Ireland, England, Spain, France, China, Italy, Mexico, Malta, Botswana or many other countries. FSU also offers summer study abroad programs. For info, visit the Fuller House (across the street from Braddock House), call x4714 or e-mail Victoria Gearhart at vmgearhart@frostburg.edu.

Study Abroad in Limerick, Ireland

Students can study abroad for the fall 2010 semester in Ireland at Mary Immaculate College and pay FSU tuition. Credits will transfer back to FSU. Financial aid can be used to help cover the costs of room and board. Check out the Web site for Mary Immaculate College at http://www.mic.ul.ie/.
