Chorale and Choral Society Join MSO to Perform Verdi's 'Requiem'

The Maryland Symphony Orchestra, led by Conductor Elizabeth Schulze, will return to FSU to finish out the Cultural Events Series season with a performance of Giuseppe Verdi's 90-minute masterpiece, "Messa da Requiem," featuring the FSU University Chorale and the Cumberland Choral Society. The two performances on Saturday, April 30, at 8 p.m. and Sunday, May 1, at 3 p.m. will be held in Pealer Recital Hall in the Performing Arts Center.

The large orchestra sound of the MSO will complement the classical "Requiem," which is a Roman Catholic funeral mass written in remembrance of the Italian writer, Alessandro Manzoni. Written for four soloists, double choir and orchestra, the MSO will be accompanied by 120 choral musicians from the Cumberland Choral Society and the University Chorale. Additional guest artists will include soprano Lisa Williamson, mezzo-soprano Maria Dolan Barnes, tenor Jonathan Hodel and baritone Eugene Galvin. This event will bring together some of the most talented musicians in Western Maryland to produce a most enjoyable and emotionally charged music piece.

"Requiem" was first performed in 1874 in the church of San Marco in Milan, Italy, and was conducted by Verdi himself. Throughout the work, Verdi used vigorous rhythms, inspirational melodies and dramatic contrasts to express powerful emotions.

Tickets for Verdi's "Requiem" are $30 for adults and $21 for those under 17. Corporate and group discount ticket rates are also available. Tickets may be ordered by calling x3137 or online at http://ces.frostburg.edu.

Dance

Spring Dance Concert to Celebrate Graduating Artists

Samantha Flowers and Jordan David Kline perform in "RAW" choreographed by Jamie McGreevy.

The Department of Theatre and Dance at FSU will present its Spring Dance Concert May 5, 6 and 7 at 7:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center. With an eclectic mix of group dances choreographed by company members, the concert will celebrate the accomplishments of four seniors and feature styles in ballet, contemporary, modern and jazz/tap.

Seniors Elizabeth Collins, Brieana Jordan, Grace Gonzalez and Rita Peacock will choreograph and perform in their final FSU dance concert.

Collins will perform two diverse pieces. "Don't Come Back at All," inspired by a quote by legendary singer Jim Morrison, is a contemporary dance that explores the similarity of emotions among strangers, and a ballet titled "The Corps" sheds light on the impact of a "corps" dancer within a dance company.

Jordan has teamed with Jaydee Moultrie on a piece titled "Rhythm Nation," where diverse dance styles like hip-hop, ballet, modern and African come together to portray various members of society. The piece focuses on social differences among economic lines, and points toward a world where all are equal.

A dramatic duet will combine Gonzalez's love for dance and theatre. In "Apartment No. 7," she focuses on the struggle between two lovers, one of whom is losing touch with reality.

With a series of collaborative efforts to her credit, Peacock will bring company members together with an energetic jazz and tap piece titled "Heat." This dance focuses on that unique moment when someone meets his or her significant other.

The concert will include 14 pieces, including dances choreographed and performed by faculty member Nicole Frost and company director Jamie McGreevy.

For info, contact the Theatre and Dance Box Office at x7462 (Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 4 p.m.). Tickets are $6 for students and $12 for the general public. Group discounts are available when booked in advance.

Music

Note: Unless otherwise noted, recitals and concerts will take place in PAC Pealer Recital Hall and are free and open to the public. For info, contact the Dept. of Music at x4109.

FSU Presents Concert by Jazz Band and Vocal Jazz Ensemble

The FSU Department of Music will present a concert by the FSU Jazz Band and the Vocal Jazz Ensemble on Thursday, April 28, at 8 p.m.

The 17-member jazz band, under the direction of Timothy Powell, has worked up numerous pieces from which the program will be selected: Dizzy Gillespie's Afro-Cuban work "Manteca"; Joe Garland's chart-topping "In the Mood," popularized by Glenn Miller; Evan Berg's "Hot it Up"; Tony Guerrero's "The Buckethead Shuffle," which combines jazz and Latin pop rhythms; A.R. Jones' mellow "Easy Street"; Paul McKee's "That's What I Thought"; the big band, swing-tunes "Get Up and Go" by Sammy Nestico and "Changing Times" by Lennie Niehaus; and Kevin McElrath's soulful "Blues for Bubber," which features some "low-down" trumpet playing.

The Vocal Jazz Ensemble, under the direction of Dr. Karen Soderberg, will perform Ed Lojeski's arrangement of "Java Jive," which grooves with infectious style; "Words" by Anders Edenroth; "Telephone Song," arranged by Rosana Eckert, whose well-written vocals complement a fun rhythm section; and the sweet and simple "Lullabye (Goodnight, My Angel)" by Billy Joel, arranged by Philip Lawson.

New Time – Conklin Senior Tenor Recital

FSU student Lane Conklin will perform his senior tenor recital on Friday, April 29, at 7 p.m.

Conklin, accompanied by pianist Hannah Lagno and assisted on a duet by soprano Britany Poindexter, will perform selections by Franz Schubert, Claude Debussy, Richard Strauss, Gioachino Rossini, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, Roger Quilter, Igor Stravinsky, Gaetano Donizetti and Franz Lehár.

FSU Flute Studio to Present Solo & Chamber Works

The FSU Flute Studio will celebrate music old and new with FSU students presenting solo and chamber works for the flute and piano. The recital will be held Monday, May 2, at 8 p.m.

The repertoire will include Claude Debussy's "Syrinx" for solo flute, based on the mythology of Pan and Syrinx. The alto flute will be featured on "Eight Pieces" by American composer Lowell Liebermann, and the opera aria "Non più mesta accanto al fuoco," the finale of Gioachino Rossini's opera "La Cenerentola," will be heard in Frederic Chopin's "Variations on a Theme by Rossini."

The FSU Flute Ensemble will perform the second half of the program. Flutists Amanda Kiser and Jessica Bussing will perform with pianist Mengwan Tu. The "Flower Duet" from Léo Delibes' "Lakmé" will be followed by the virtuosic "Waltz di Bravura" by famed brothers and flutists from the 19th century, Franz and Charles Doppler.

Guitar Ensemble and Studio Recital

The FSU Department of Music will present the Guitar Ensemble and Studio Recital on Tuesday, May 3, at 8 p.m.

Stephen Tunstall, FSU guitar studio director and guitar instructor, will perform "The Cathedral" by Agustin Barrios, "one of the most colorful and difficult works in the guitar repertoire." A guitar quartet will perform Phillip Houghton's "Opals." Various duos and trios of the ensemble will perform the dance-like "Moment Musical" by Franz Schubert, the peaceful "Arrulladora Mexican" by Manuel Ponce, the rich, heartwarming "Girl With the Flaxen Hair" by Claude Debussy and the traditional Japanese folk song "Sakura," which depicts spring, the season of the cherry blossom. The guitar uses different techniques to imitate the sound of the koto, a traditional Japanese stringed musical instrument.

Members of the guitar studio will perform solo works, among them Zachary Dodge, performing Fernando Sor's melodic "Etude No. 14." Robert Wallace will perform Leo Brouwer's demanding but very musical piece "Etude No. 6" and "Etude No. 9."

Tunstall is an active performer in the D.C./Baltimore area and a member of Peabody's Creative Access, a community outreach program that gives volunteer performances at hospital wards, hospices and shelters. He teaches and coaches youth bands at Music Workshop in Baltimore and is a regular participant in the Guitar Foundation of America Convention. He has also performed at the Mid-America Guitar Ensemble Festival.

Visual Arts

'Arete' Art Exhibition

FSU's Department of Visual Arts announces the opening of "Arete," an exhibition of student artwork, on view from Saturday, April 30, through Wednesday, May 4, in FSU's Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery. The opening reception will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. on April 30 in the gallery.

"Arete" will feature artwork by senior Bachelor of Fine Arts candidates Lauren Hunkeler, Sarah McLaughlin, Francesca Pehr, Sarah Earing and Gabrieline Amankwaa.

Various photography, ceramics, paintings, illustrations, graphic design and printmaking will be on display.

The Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery has free admission and is open to the public Sunday through Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m. For info, contact the FSU Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

Presentations

Thinking of Getting a Personal Trainer?

As part of its Wellness Initiative, the Office of Human Resources will present Brian Douts '09, personal trainer, on Monday, April 25, and Tuesday, April 26, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. each day. Employees can meet with Douts in the Fitness Room of the Lane Center.

Douts graduated with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. He is certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association as a strength and conditioning specialist and works as a personal trainer at RetroFit Wellness in LaVale and at the Cumberland YMCA.

Employees can learn about the benefits of having a personal trainer and ask questions about the various types of fitness equipment. Wellness information and other handouts will be available. For info, contact Lee Ann Nightingale at x4398 or Tina Rafferty at x4107.

'Learning to Unlearn'

A student documentary by MCOM major Asia Taylor titled "Learning to Unlearn" will be screened Wednesday April 27, at 8 p.m. in Lane 111, followed by a brief question-and-answer session with FSU students who traveled to Beijing and Changsha as part of a LEAD 499 Independent Study course. The nine FSU representatives, who were on a 10-day trip to China, experienced everything from the Great Wall to eating Peking duck to talking with college students at Hunan Normal University.

Anyone interested in studying abroad or who would like to know more about China is encouraged to come.

For info on this LEAD 499 event, contact Dr. Jeff McClellan at jlmcclellan@frostburg.edu or x4372. For info on study abroad, visit the Fuller House, call x4714 or e-mail Victoria Gearhart at vmgearhart@frostburg.edu. Also check out the CIE website at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/stdyabrd.htm.

Spring Festival of Children's Literature

FSU will present the 29th annual Spring Festival of Children's Literature on Friday, April 29, and Saturday, April 30, in the Lane University Center.

The theme for the weekend will be "Children's Literature: Inspiring Compassion, Courage, Friendship and Love." Kathi Appelt, Carol Buckley, Carmen Agra Deedy and Lita Judge are the award-winning authors and illustrators headlining the event.

The agenda for the festival includes informative small-group sessions and large presentations offered in a personal and relaxed environment. Topics range from literature circles to teaching reading with Smart Boards.

Children ages 5 to 12 are invited to the R. Margaret Hamilton Children's Hour on Friday afternoon beginning at 4:15 p.m. This event is free and open to the public, but advance registration is required. Age-specific workshops are presented by the authors, in which they share their work with children, as well as the process of writing and illustrating. Open autographing and book sales will be available from 4 to 4:30 p.m. To register, contact Dr. Jodi Welsch at x3096.

For info, contact Dr. William Bingman at x4420.

Pre-orders are available for the books that will be featured at the festival.

Education to Go – Retirement Planning

Julia Graham, a representative from the Maryland Supplemental Retirement Plans, will offer two "Education to Go" sessions for FSU employees on Monday, May 2, in Lane 108.

The first session, titled "Retirement Planning for Women," will be held from noon to 1 p.m. Topics will include:

- Concerns and challenges for women in the workplace

- Life expectancy, outliving retirement savings
- How to accumulate enough money for retirement

The second session, titled "When the Nest Egg Hatches: Investing and Withdrawing in Retirement," will be held from 1:15 to 2:30 p.m. The following topics will be covered:

- Nest egg planning strategy
- Withdrawal options
- How to avoid mistakes

To register for a workshop, contact Lee Ann Nightingale by April 29 at x4398 or lnightingale@frostburg.edu. Employees are welcome to bring their lunch.

AL Seminar Series

Dr. Mark Engle, USGS, will present "Atmospheric Hg, Deposition and Impact to Coastal Environments (From Puerto Rico to Maine)" Thursday, April 28, at 3:30 p.m. in AL Room 109. For info, go to www.umces.edu/al/seminar/schedule.

Points of Pride

CMST Student, Faculty & Alums Present at ECA Convention

The Department of Communication Studies (CMST) at FSU was well-represented at the Eastern Communication Association convention in Arlington, Va., this April. CMST major Heather Beard presented "How to Slay the Monster of AIDS: A Rhetorical Analysis of Mary Fisher's Speech, 'A Whisper on AIDS.'"

CMST alumni presented as well. Ashley Phillips '10 presented "I Used to Love Him: Fantasy Theme Criticism" and Shavonne Shorter '07 presented "The Ties That Bind: An Exploration of Universal Visual Metaphors." Beard's and Phillips' work will be published in "ACTIVIST: Journal of Undergraduate Research 2011."

CMST faculty members also participated. Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski, chair of Communication Studies, led a short course featuring a new book project with colleague Dr. Annette Holba of Plymouth State University titled "Gender and Power: Teaching Communicative Understandings of Women's Leadership." Ruminski also chaired a Rhetoric and Public Address panel session titled "Power, Subjectivity and the Hope of Rhetorical Community." Dr. Brent Kice presented "Under Armour's New Prototype: A Burke Perspective," and Sheri Whalen held an information session about MCA's upcoming conference to be held at FSU this fall. (For details, see www.marylandcomm.org.)

For info on involvement with or coursework in the CMST major or minor, contact Ruminski at elruminski@frostburg.edu or x7747.

FSU Relay for Life Raises Nearly $51K!

In its most successful year so far, FSU's annual Relay for Life on April 15 had raised nearly $51,000, making a total of more than $250,000 raised for the American Cancer Society since FSU's Relay began 10 years ago.

In advance of Friday's event, 825 people – students, faculty and staff – had registered to walk, with another 50 registering on-site that evening. A total of 61 teams participated, with the What's Up Doc (Pre-Medical Society) team raising the most, $6,160. Relay for Life is the campus' largest single volunteer effort each year.

While pledges are still being collected, the goal set for FSU's Relay was $52,000, and organizers are still trying to reach a "stretch goal" of $54,000. To contribute, visit www.relayforlife.org/fsu or take donations to the Braddock House at 20 Braddock Rd. in Frostburg. For info, call the FSU Office of Leadership and Civic Engagement at x4210.

Alpha Sigma Alpha Raises Almost $1.5K for Relay!

Alpha Sigma Alpha raised $1,455.50 for Relay for Life this year!

Blankenship Wins MRPA Award

Dr. Diane Blankenship, an associate professor in the Department of Recreation and Parks Management at FSU, has been awarded the Writing, Research, or Audio Visual Award by the Maryland Recreation and Parks Association.

In terms of her contribution, Blankenship's writing and research have enhanced MRPA and the profession of parks and leisure services. She conducted conference evaluations for many years until 2008. She also serves as a visitor for the Commission for Accreditation of Park and Recreation Agencies. Last year she published a textbook with Human Kinetics titled "Applied Research and Evaluation Methods in Recreation."

Take Note

Step Into the Civil War

Step into the Ort Library to view the displays on the Civil War. Learn about the war, see library resources and explore on your own. The displays are on floors 3 and 4 and highlight the war in general, as well as West Virginia and Maryland, including the local area.

On April 12, 1861, the provisional Confederate forces at Charleston fired on Fort Sumter in the Charleston Harbor. This began the bloodiest war in the history of the United States with at least 618,000 Americans from the North and South losing their lives. (Some historians fix the number nearer to 700,000.) The four years of the war from April 1861 to April 1865 were the bloodiest in American history; the effects are still visible today.

For info, contact MaryJo A. Price at x4889.

Does Your Dept. Have a Facebook Page?

Have you been asked to develop a Facebook page or some other social media presence for your department or program? If so, take advantage of resources available through FSU's eFrostburg Community. This site includes a downloadable marketing plan with strategies for how to communicate through social media, a social media registry and other useful information.

Also, check out the eFrostburg Community Facebook page, which is used to regularly share ideas and articles about social media and higher education, and highlight how FSU is using social media to get the word out about its programs, initiatives, activities and events.

These resources were developed by FSU's Social Media Group, a group of faculty and staff who are considering how social media can be integrated into FSU's overall educational experience and marketing presence.

For info, e-mail efrostburgcomm@frostburg.edu.

LGLG – Save the Date

The last LGLG Committee Meeting of the semester will be May 17. The meeting will take place from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. in Lane 113.

BSA Upcoming Event

BSA will host a trip to Kings Dominion Sunday, May 1. The event is open to all FSU students. The bus will leave from the PAC lot at 7 a.m. and return at midnight. Tickets are on sale now at the information desk in Lane Center. The cost is $20 per person, and payment is due at sign-up (student ID required).

Help Beautify FSU With the Arboretum Committee

Members of the FSU Arboretum Committee seek volunteers to assist with work days this spring. They are also looking for new volunteer members to join the Arboretum Committee and help coordinate Arboretum efforts. The group removes invasive plants, cleans up, plants and cares for native trees and plants and helps beautify the Arboretum and nearby green space areas of the campus.

Work is scheduled for April 30 and May 6. The group meets at the gazebo near the stadium parking lot at 2 p.m. and works until 5 p.m. Gloves and tools will be provided.

For info, contact Dan Fiscus at x4170 or dafiscus@frostburg.edu, or go to the Arboretum website at www.frostburg.edu/dept/biol/arboretum.

Upcoming UCM Events

Group meetings are in Tawes 161. For info, contact the Rev. Dr. Cindy Zirlott at x7490 or c.zirlott@frostburg.edu. Join "United Campus Ministry at FSU" on Facebook.

The guest speaker will be Liz McDowell, an educator and environmentalist with a master's in wildlife management from the UMCES Appalachian Laboratory at FSU. She will speak about the alien plants invading Western Maryland.

For info, call Liz West at 301-722-6445 or 301-697-4755.

Call for Submissions

Museums on Main Street, a division of the Smithsonian, with the Maryland Humanities Council, will bring the acclaimed exhibit, "Between Fences," to Spruce Forest Artisan Village May 6 through June 26. A partner in this endeavor, the Appalachian Independent (www.appindie.org) seeks essay submissions, creative writing, poetry or short audio/digital explorations (3,000 words or less) complementing the exhibit's themes: boundaries, place and space.

"Between Fences" strives to engage audiences, create conversations and inspire community members to come together across borders and backyard fences to share their unique "fence stories." Submissions will be featured in the Appalachian Independent during the exhibit's stay in Mountain Maryland and may be incorporated into an onsite satellite display.

For info on the exhibition, go to www.museumonmainstreet.org/exhibs_fences/fences.htm. Submissions should be sent to krogersthomas@appindie.org.

Bikes for the World

Bikes for the World collects used bicycles (and portable sewing machines) and ships them overseas where they can be put to good use. On Saturday, May 28, from 10 a.m. to noon, the Western Maryland Wheelmen bicycling club will team up with the Cumberland Rotary for a local collection at Canal Place, near the Western Maryland Station. Donators can drive up and get help unloading their bikes. Donators are asked for a $10 cash donation as well to defray shipping costs. All donations are tax deductible.

Bikes for the World partners with agencies in developing countries where people who really need bikes are taught repair skills and then are given affordable bikes. A bike can mean transportation to otherwise inaccessible healthcare or educational facilities. Additional information is available at www.bikesfortheworld.org.

If someone has a bike to donate and is not available on collection day, he or she can bring it early to the Cumberland Trail Connection or call for pickup before May 28. For info, call Valerie Van Hollen at 301-777-8783.

New 'Down to Earth With Dr. G'

A new episode of "Down to Earth With Dr. G" will air today Monday, April 25, at 9:30 p.m. on FSU-TV3 Comcast's Channel 3. In this episode, co-host Carla Romo and Rhiannon Morgret, the director of Disability Services at FSU, will discuss how the University accommodates students with disabilities. Student Megan Miner will also be interviewed. In the last segment, President Gibralter will answer questions from FSU students.

"Down to Earth With Dr. G" airs Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 9:30 p.m. For info, log on to www.frostburg.edu/fsu-tv3/programming/original/down-to-earth/.

For info, visit the Fuller House, call x4714 or e-mail Victoria Gearhart at vmgearhart@frostburg.edu. Also check out the CIE website at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/stdyabrd.htm.

Study Abroad

The Center for International Education offers ways for FSU students to see the world. In some cases, students can pay FSU tuition, room and board and study abroad for a semester or a year. FSU also offers summer study abroad programs. Financial aid, student loans and scholarships are available.

Limerick, Ireland (Fall 2011)

Students can study for a semester at Mary Immaculate College and pay FSU tuition. Credits will transfer back to FSU. For info, go to www.mic.ul.ie/.

Changsha, China (Fall 2011)

Through the China Exchange Program, FSU students can spend a semester at Hunan Normal University in Changsha, Hunan Province, P.R. China (www.hunnu.edu.cn/english/).

Students pay FSU tuition and fees (based on residency status) through their student e-bill account and pay room and board costs to HNU.

Internships

Upcoming Meetings

Law and society and political science majors are encouraged to attend an internship meeting on Monday, May 2, at noon in Guild 205. For info, contact Tim Magrath in Guild 141 or at x4080.

Volunteers

The Animal Shelter Needs YOU!

Spending your summer in the 'Burg this year? Why not volunteer at the Allegany County Animal Shelter?

Walk dogs, clean kennels, socialize cats, do laundry or dishes, or assist with paperwork – there's a lot of work to go around! And don't forget to dress in comfortable, washable clothing.

Volunteer applications are available at the shelter at 716 Furnace St. in Cumberland. For info, call 301-777-5930 or e-mail trafferty@twrwifi.net.
