

Campus Leaders To Be Honored In Assembly

On May 17, there will be an honor assembly, the first of its kind at STC. The purpose of the assembly will be to recognize all those students who have earned various honors throughout the year. Among those honored will be persons who have been awarded the Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges nominations, the Achievement Keys, and individuals singled out for outstanding work, such as the person chosen to receive the annual Chemistry Handbook and the campus leaders.

The awards will be presented by Dr. Howard E. Bosley, and the honor students will, at this time, be officially recognized by Dr. Devilbiss and the student body. There will be a speaker and possibly some music supplied by the College Chorus, although no definite program has been planned at this time.

The nominees for Who's Who are eligible only if they are members of the Senior Class; thus only seven per cent of the student body is eligible. These persons must have a C average or better and a superior accumulation of honor points.

Those persons who receive an Achievement Key must have honor points and an academic average of B plus or better. Five per cent of the student body of STC is eligible to receive Achievement Keys. They may be chosen from any class. They are judged on two semesters' grades and honor points, except for freshmen who are judged on only one semester. The first award is a key, and a ruby is given for each consecutive award. If a person should win four years in a row, he is awarded a diamond in his key.

Army-Navy Competition Seen By STC Gymnasts

On Saturday, March 3 a group of STC gymnastic enthusiasts journeyed to the Naval Academy to see Navy meet Army in gymnastic competition. The meet consisted of competition on the mats, side horse, parallel bars, high horizontal bar, rope climb and flying rings. These two teams are as bitter rivals in this sport as in others, never knowing who is going to win. Army got off to a fast lead on the mats and maintained their margin of victory throughout the meet.

The members who went from the college were: Mr. and Mrs. Benn Maggs, Mr. and Mrs. Frank White, Bill Brown, John Shaheen, Bob Hall, Mitzi Sasajima, Ralph Forbush, Tom Falin, Mr. Fred Foltz, Grayson Wheatley, Kellam Turner, Archie Ellis and Bob Gallion. The gym team had a chance to see just what may be accomplished in the field of gymnastics through hard work and training.

Dr. Wilbur Devilbiss to be inaugurated as President of State Teachers College on April 15, 1956.

Students From Eight Counties Visit STC

March 19th, 20th, and 22nd were the dates set to invite Maryland high school seniors interested in furthering their education to visit the college. Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester counties were invited on the 19th. On the 20th, Talbot, Cecil, Queen Anne's and Kent counties attend and the 22nd is Wicomico county's day. Approximately 80-100 students were expected on each of the three days, accompanied by guidance counselors, supervisors, or principals of the respective high schools.

Insofar as possible, the guides were from the same county as their guests. From 9:30 until 11:30, the seniors were taken by their guides to the classes in session. At 11:30 the guests toured the building and visited the dormitories. Lunch was served at 12:30. Entertainment in the assembly and gymnasium was scheduled from 1:30 until 2:30. A reception was planned at 2:30; the guides and teachers not in class attended.

The seven Who's Who Award Winners, who are, namely Barbara Bailey, Maurice Bozman, Carolyn Bundick, Joanne Jones, Mozelle Pardew, Peggy Ross, and Grayson Wheatley, spoke on dormitory life, student activities, the function of various clubs and publications, athletics, and actually everything about college life including both academic and extracurricular activities. The Music Department, Physical Education Department, and the Department of Dramatics supplied entertainment. This year, the college endeavored to give a clearer picture of college life by adopting a new policy. This event was prepared for by both the students and the faculty to give a true picture of the program, objectives and advantages of STC.

College Closes For Vacation

The college will close at 12:05 P.M., Wednesday, March 28, for Easter vacation. Classes will be resumed at 8:30 A.M. on Tuesday, April 3.

SCA TO SPONSOR EASTER PROGRAM

On March 27th the Christian Association is sponsoring an Easter Assembly. The assembly committee, which includes Betty Lee Shawn, chairman, Jean Pusey, Alice Wilson and Barbara Fuchs have done much planning for this occasion. As one of the highlights of the program, the College Chorus under the direction of Dr. Jessie Fleming will perform.

Since this beautiful and meaningful holiday is approaching time should be taken to appreciate its meaning. The student body will worship together at one of the most sacred holidays of the year.

Activities Planned For Spring Season

As spring and warm weather approach and beyond that the end of the semester the various activities of the season are presented.

Heading the list of activities was the series of high school visiting days which began on March 19th and continued through March 20th and 21st to the 22nd. Prospective students from the high schools of this region were invited as guests to observe a preview of life at STC.

On April 15th a ceremony will be held to inaugurate Dr. Devilbiss officially as the President of STC.

On May 3rd the Sophanes Players will present their second play of the season called "Bell, Book and Candle." Proceeds will go to the town Civic Club fund. In the afternoon of that same day the May Day celebration will be held followed the next evening by the May Dance. On the 16th of May the College Chorus will have a concert followed on the 24th by a music recital. A violinist and pianist from Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore will perform. Finally on May 17th the Honors Assembly will be held to name the year's honor students.

In June the first social function will be the gala June Ball, which is always a favorite affair. On the 3rd and 5th of June the Baccalaureate sermon (Continued on page 2)

President Devilbiss To Be Inaugurated

Gov. McKeldin to Give Welcome Address; Dr. Lowell Ensor to Participate in Program

The inauguration of Dr. Wilbur Devilbiss as President of State Teachers College will be held on Sunday, April 15 at 2:30 P.M. in the college auditorium. He will be installed by Mr. Jerome Frampton, Jr., of Federalburg, vice-president of the Board of Trustees.

Delegates will register at the Music Building at 1:30 P.M. and form in academic procession. Delegates will be followed by members of the State Board of Trustees, special guests, county superintendents of schools, the college faculty, and the president with those participating in the ceremony.

The Reverend J. Leas Green, D.D., pastor of the Bethesda Methodist Church of Salisbury, will deliver the invocation, which will be followed by a welcome by Governor Theodore R. McKeldin. The Reverend Lowell S. Ensor, D.D., President of Western Maryland College, will deliver the installation address. Dr. Devilbiss will be presented by Dr. Thomas G. Pullen, Jr., State Superintendent of Schools. After the inaugural address by Dr. Devilbiss, Dr. Green will pronounce the benediction. The College Chorus directed by Dr. Jessie L. Fleming will accompany the academic procession with Elgar's "Land of Hope and Glory" and following the installation address will sing Roff's anthem, "I Look to Thee in Every Need." Immediately following, the Board of Trustees and the College Faculty will be hosts at a reception to those attending the ceremony.

Invitations to send a delegate to participate in the academic procession have been extended to all member institutions of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education east of the Mississippi River, member institutions of higher education in Delaware, the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia, and school authorities in Maryland.

This will be the first formal inauguration to be held at State Teachers College. The first principal, Dr. William J. Holloway, took office in 1925. He was succeeded by the first president, Dr. J. D. Blackwell, in 1935. The inauguration will mark the formal recognition of Dr. Devilbiss as third administrator of this college. He officially began his administration on July 1, 1955.

The State Board of Trustees is the body inaugurating the president, assisted by the faculty and student body. Dr. Howard E. Bosley, Dean of Instruction, is general chairman for the occasion, with Dr. Maurice C. Fleming serving as chairman of the committee on invitations and procession; Mr. A. L. Fleming serving as chairman of the program committee; Mr. Russell Rickert as chairman of the committee on physical arrangements; and Dr. Carolyn Dunlap, chairman of the reception committee. Dr. John B. May and Dr. Maurice C. Fleming will serve as Marshalls.

Parents of students are cordially invited to attend the ceremony and the reception immediately following. The general public is also urged to attend.

STC Volleyball Squad Wins League Trophy

STC Varsity Volleyball girls were in high spirits on March 8, 1956 as they won the Wicomico Women's Volleyball League Championship by defeating Bounds-Phillips in the last of the play-off games. The scores were 37-32 and 32-23.

All through the season STC carried a good lead. With an 8-4 standing STC tied with Hebron and Victor Lynn carried the lead of 10-2. As the season was nearing an end, STC fought well, despite the loss of three team members.

In the playoffs, the team played Bounds-Phillips to break the tie, leaving STC in third place. After losing to them, a game was played with Victor Lynn who was in first place. The college squad won 2 out of 3 games in the first match but to complete the competition, another match was necessary. The STC girls came through again holding their own with Bounds-Phillips now to be overcome.

New System Installed For Off-Campus Leaves

On February 28, a new "sign-out" book was installed in the office for girls residing in the dorm. The book is divided into two sections with cards in alphabetical order for each girl. When going off of the campus, a girl must sign her card giving the following information in the proper spaces: Date, time of departure, destination, means of transportation, escort or companion, expected time of return, means of transportation, and type of leave. When returning a girl must record the actual time on her card.

There is a blue tab that is placed on the left when a girl is in the dorm. However, if she takes a regular leave or late leave the tab is placed in the middle. If she takes a week-end or overnight leave the tab is placed on the right. This arrangement shows quickly and easily where each girl is.

In addition to being a time-saver, the new book is neater and more convenient for everyone involved.

AS THE EDITORS SEE IT

By Virginia Bradley

Once again spring comes to STC and the world and with it the Easter season. What is uppermost in the mind of the STC student at this joyous time? New spring outfits, Easter lilies, an English log due, or just a welcome holiday from the daily grind of classes. This is not the true meaning of Easter. So often in the hubbub of everyday living, we do not take time to really appreciate the real thought behind Easter. Easter is the most inspirational concept that the Christian faith reveres—the time when Jesus Christ, son of God, was crucified to save the world from eternal death. He gave to the world the promise of eternal life, and all too often we choose to overlook this greatest of gifts in our pursuit of materialistic objectives. Pause for a moment as you read this—stop and consider. Are you disregarding the spiritual meaning of Easter? Have you become too busy to be grateful for the gift of life everlasting? Is there anything that takes precedence over communication with God?

As you visit the church of your choice this Easter, take your eyes from the hat in front of you and lift them to a higher level. Be grateful and give thanks. There is no greater gift.

Dr. Wilbur Devilbiss presents address at dedication of Campus Elementary School on March 4.

Campus School Dedicated Here

On Sunday, March 4, 1956 at 2:30 P.M. on the grounds of the State Teachers College, Salisbury, dedication of the Campus Elementary School was held.

Mr. Jerome Framptom, Jr., Vice-president of the State Board of Trustees for Maryland State Teachers Colleges, presided. The program opened with the entire assembly singing "The Star Spangled Banner," and an invocation by Rev. J. Robert Mackey, pastor of Asbury Methodist Church. "America, the Beautiful" was then sung by the Sixth Grade Chorus and the College Ladies' Ensemble, after which came an address by President Wilbur Devilbiss entitled "The Place of the Campus School in Teacher Education."

Next on the program was the presentation of the school by Mr. James J. O'Donnell, Director, State Department of Public Improvements, and the acceptance of the school by Mr. Wendell D. Allen, (Continued on page 4)

Players to Benefit City's Civic Center

The time is Christmas Eve; the place is a New York apartment in the once fashionable Murray Hill district. In such an atmosphere the Sophanes Players plan to entertain their audience on the evening of May 3. "Bell, Book and Candle" is the name of the play. This delightful three-act comedy by John Van Druten literally "bewitched" Broadway audiences for several successive seasons with Lilli Palmer and Rex Harrison appearing in the leading roles.

As this paper goes to press, the cast has yet to be chosen. However, the following persons have been appointed to various positions of responsibility: Connie Hildebrand and Mimi Ralph, co-producers; Jack Weise, director; Fred Kille, sets; Anne Gorman, stage manager; Richard Dana and William Lilliston, advertising managers; and William Stubbs, construction.

An admission fee will be charged and the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the Salisbury Civic Center.

Brown's Blunders

By Joe Brown

Several people smiled when I sat down to write this column. I forgot that the finance company took away my typewriter. Long-hand was out. When I wrote to my girl last summer she mistook my letter for a Chinese laundry ticket. Instead of writing back she sent me five Arrow shirts. Ever since then my penmanship has caused me untold agony. (The shirts were two sizes too small.) I adjusted to the fact that Mrs. A. L. would have to be called in for interpretation and proceeded to write the first line seven times. Fortunately, as in all good westerns, Mavro walked in. In his hand was a letter from his uncle . . . Sam. I could see that a mere phrase would snap him out of it. "John, where else but in the army can you lie in bed until four A.M."

With three of my fingers raised vertically, I turned back to the eighth line but nothing came. Then it struck me . . . a secretary! I couldn't afford one so Mozelle came to my aid. What ideas she gave me! If we could only print them. Together we formulated thought after thought until we had a page full of thoughts. Now if we could have them make sense everything would be great. After hours of feverish labor the masterpiece was completed. As I turned in the manuscript I thought about my family. My grandfather writes novels no one will read; my father writes plays no one will direct; I write checks no one will cash. My brother Jim came down to see me the other day. What a face. When bats get drunk they see him. He has so many wrinkles that he has to screw his hat on. He asked me if I ever intended getting married on a teacher's salary. "Sure," I said, "I'm going to marry a girl with lockjaw."

I feel it my duty to enlighten all students as to the use of the cages on the second floor. Miss Purnell is starting a zoo. All Barbara Bailey needs is a leash for her dinosaur.

"This is Martha Scott saying: Can you explain it? Is it fact or fantasy?"

If you are driving home for the Easter holidays, drive slowly. I'm walking.

Social Committee Are Hosts At Dinner-Dance

The Social Committee, in tribute to St. Patrick's Day, invited all boarding students and the faculty advisors to the students, Dr. Elderdice and Mrs. A. L. Fleming and their families to a buffet and a dance on March 15. At 5:15, tomato cocktails were served as an appetizer in the social room. The group then sat down to a delicious dinner of baked ham, chicken, scalloped potatoes, peas and rolls. Everyone's favorite, apple pie a la mode, topped the meal. The tables were spread with white cloths and beautifully decorated with symbols of St. Patrick's Day. Shirley James furnished the excellent dinner music with solos on the piano. The dance was held from 8:00 to 11:00 in the Snack Bar to the music of Bob Fields' Orchestra. Two STC students, Mahlon Trout and Russell Miles, were members of the band.

Ladies' Ensemble Has Busy Second Semester Schedule

By Shirley Powell

One of the hardest working groups on this campus is the group of fourteen girls popularly known as the Ladies' Ensemble. Started in 1951, this group of songsters has had a short but spectacular history. Each year the group loses members, but it also gains new members. The only prerequisites for being chosen are the possession of a fairly good singing voice and a love for singing. Under the direction of Dr. Jessie L. Fleming, the girls have learned songs in three-part harmony of many types: religious songs, art songs, folk songs, semi-popular songs, and novelty songs, to mention only a few.

The fourteen girls composing this group are first sopranos Mozelle Pardew, Carolyn Bundick, Mary Jane Wright, Jane Thorsell and Aimee McCabe; second sopranos Rebecca Matthews, Kathy Subers, Joan Hayman and Mary Evelyn Doepp; and altos June Bennett, Peggy Ross, Millie Gillilan, Carol Knapp and Shirley Powell.

These girls have performed for many civic clubs and other organizations. Their entertainment has been enjoyed by guests at the High School Student Council Convention, by the Women's Clubs of Salisbury and Federalsburg, by the Federalsburg Rotary Club, and by various college groups who have heard their renditions.

The last program in which the ensemble participated was the dedication exercises for the new Campus Elementary School in which they sang with a group of elementary school students. In the near future they will appear on such programs as the inauguration of Dr. Wilbur Devilbiss, the concert at Maryland State College, and the concert to be given by the College Chorus in May.

Watch the calendar for their appearances and help keep the songbirds singing!

Music Hour Planned Featuring Classics

A cozy fire and soft music, the menu for a pleasant evening. Music for all tastes is played, semi-classics, classics and jazz. The March program, for example, consisted of selections from Dvorak's "New World Symphony," George Gershwin's "An American in Paris," the "1812 Overture" by Tchaikovsky and Jackie Gleason and Bob Hackett playing "Music for Lovers."

An "Anniversary Album," of Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey was loaned by Dr. Elderdice. Also heard were pieces from Benny Goodman and Glenn Miller, selections from "Student Prince" and "Autumn Nocturne" by the Ray Charles Singers. The unusual touch was the narration of Edgar Allan Poe's "Tel-Tale Heart," which was recorded in Europe.

Cocoa and doughnuts (sugar and cinnamon) were served to the guests, including Dr. and Mrs. Devilbiss, Dr. Carolyn Dunlap and Mrs. A. L. Fleming. Mozelle Pardew, Chairman of the Social Committee, said that she would like to see many more people attending the Quiet Hours of Listening, which are sponsored for them. The next program is to be held in April.

NATIONAL TESTS GIVEN AT STC

The annual National College Sophomore Testing Program was conducted at STC on Wednesday, February 29, and Thursday, March 1, under the direction of Dr. John May and Mr. James Focht.

These national tests, conducted by the Co-operative Test Division of the Educational Testing Service, were given in order to provide a means for counseling and guiding the students as they plan their years of specialization.

The program tests included a measure of general cultural background, a test in understanding of contemporary affairs, and a test of English expression.

ACTIVITIES PLANNED

Commencement will be held. Other events this semester are: a lecture by Rabbi Isaac Mose-son on the Israeli situation, a Community Players' Presentation in assembly of a dramatic reading of "The Flattering Word," a Student Christian Association sponsored sock hop on April 11th, and a WAA sponsored game night on April 20th.

Sport Beat

By Bill Livingston

One of the strangest and most unusual sports cases to be dragged before the public's critical eye is the Wes Santee case. Santee, as you probably well know, has recently been suspended by the AAU.

Santee was suspended by the Association for spending more than what was allotted by the Amateur rules. Wes, however, has won a slight victory by taking the issue to the higher courts and winning his point.

The Association accuses America's top flight miller and Olympic prospect of spending well over the fifteen dollars a day expense money, and for charging for the passage of his wife to different track meets.

The issue is a very complicated one that leaves the sporting world wondering whether the issue is against Santee or amateurism as a whole.

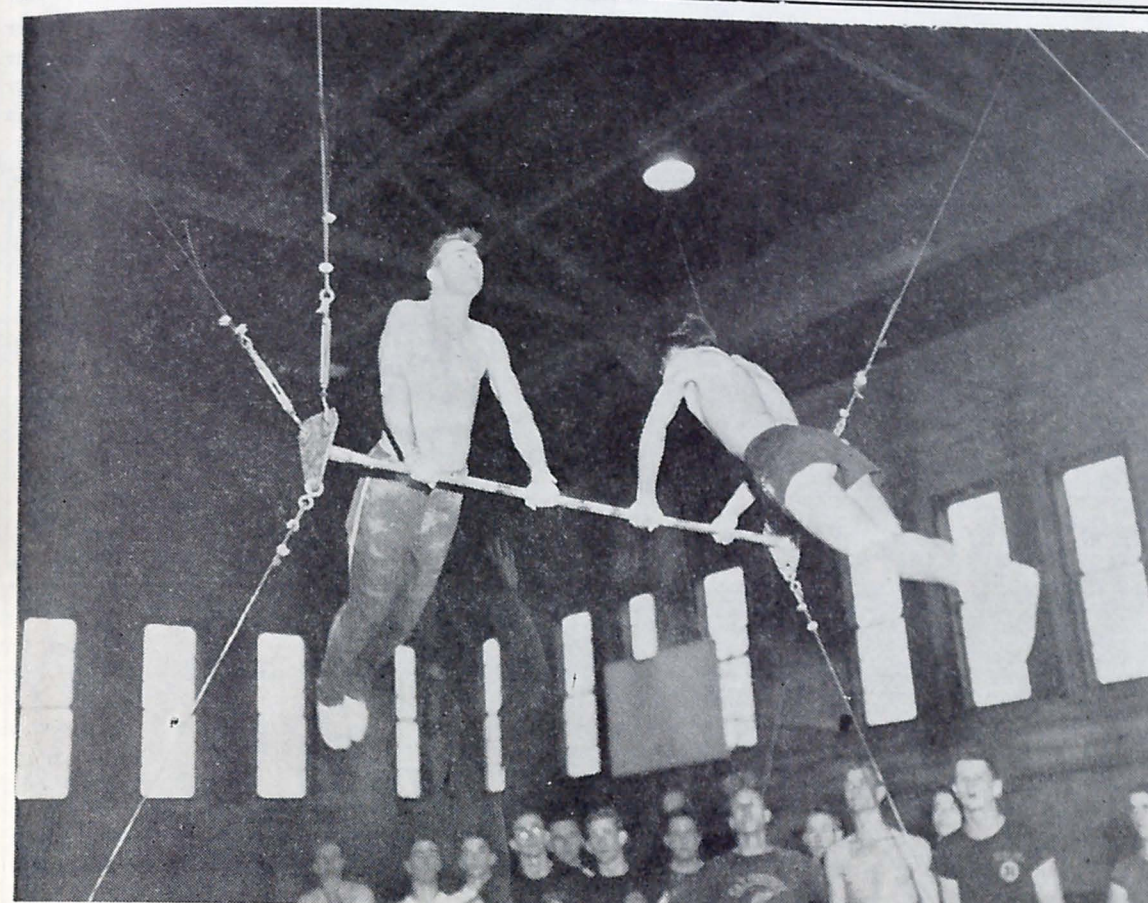

It is certainly evident that the Amateur rules in the United States need a good face lifting. In England, where it is very important that an amateur's record remain unblemished, the (Continued on page 4)

Baseball Prospects Bring Enthusiasm

Spring is sweet music to the ears of the American sportsman. Spring is the blaring trumpet that announces the approach of the eternal institution commonly referred to as baseball. The feeling is universal in America, and STC is not left untouched by the "baseball fever."

Coach Maggs called for enlistees for the Gull nine, and the results are startling. The material is of a high calibre, and competition is bound to be tough.

In the outfield enlistment are Bob Hall, Tom Fallin, Charlie Nossick, John Potter, Pete Reddish, "Cappy" Forbush, Mitzi Sasajima, Tom Comer, Maurice Rozman and George Mills; in the infield are Bob Spedden, Phil Slacum, Woodrow Robbins, Bill Brown, Bill Livingston, Stubb Smith, Ronnie Burke, Roland Foskey, Wayne Bethards and Lloyd Harrington. The hurling duties will go to Tom Dorman, Archie Ellis and Phil Slacum. The other half of the battery will be derived from the volunteers Grayson Hurley, Les Hatton and John Mavronmatis. The manager is Bruce Richardson.

Grayson Wheatley and Mitzi Sasajima perform as other members of the STC Gymn Club look on.

Gymnast Group Present Series of Programs

The summer of 1956 may see one of the best, if not, one of the most publicized gymnastic meets on record. It is doubtful whether anyone reading this paper will know even slightly any of these talented and hard-working athletes who participate in the competition.

As in baseball, football, and other more popular sports, there are those who have a genuine interest and love in gymnastics. This form of athletics is almost entirely an amateur program, popular in colleges and localities where a higher form of physical training is desired.

Here at STC is a group of men and women who spend long hours in practicing and perfecting the various phases of gymnastics. This group has, in the past, functioned mainly as a Senior Day exhibition. This year however, under the direction of Coach Maggs, they have expanded their program to include exhibitions in various public schools of the area.

The first of these outside performances was held at North Dorchester High School on Wednesday, March 7. The students who participated were: Ronnie Burke, Bob Gallion, Jim Rawlins, Ronnie O'Brien, Lucy Hitt, Tom Rallin, Ralph Forbush, Ronnie Miles, Ina Ray Calloway, Bill Brown, Fred Baker, Mitzi Sasajima, Phil Slacum, John Shaheen, (Continued on page 4)

Girls' Varsity Tops St. Marys - 43-39

The STC girls' varsity basketball team ended its successful season with a 43-29 win over St. Mary's Seminary.

The game was a nip and tuck one from the moment the game started until the final whistle blew. STC showed difficulty in getting warmed up. In the first quarter, St. Mary's outscored them 10-5; but they came through with 12 points in the second, and, with the guards holding St. Mary's to a low 4 points, STC held a 17-14 lead at the half. St. Mary's came back hard in the third quarter and outscored our girls 15-9. STC overpowered their opponents in the fourth and came through with 17 points, while Luzetky, Gardner and Holbrook held St. Mary's to 10 points. STC came on the floor with the score in their favor 43-39.

Delores Cooling led the scoring for STC with 18 points to her credit. Phyllis Williams, who hit the nets for 8 points in the last quarter, was next with 12 points on the scoreboard. Jackie Richardson pumped 8 points through the nets for STC, followed by Ruth Nielsen with 4 points.

The STC-St. Mary's game ended the season for the local lassies. They have a record of five wins and no set-backs. They handed defeats to Notre Dame, Villa Julie, and also won two games over Wesley Jr. College.

Delores Cooling was high scorer for the season on the STC

Gulls Top Guardsmen; Lose To Wesley Five

The STC Maggsmen broke their losing streak against the Pocomoke City Guardsmen recently in Pocomoke. The game was an ideal thriller for the spectator. Both teams were evenly matched and it was a nip and tuck battle until the final seconds. At the end of the third quarter the score was tied at 57-57. With less than a minute to go in the ball game the Guardsmen held the lead 84-83. But a lay-up by Hurley in the closing seconds gave STC an 85-84 edge and the game. Hurley also was high scorer for STC with 41 points. This is the highest number of points scored by a Gull this season.

Salisbury returned to college competition on February 23 when the Wesley College five visited to finish Salisbury's season. The STC squad played a fast first quarter and led Wesley 21-20 at the end of the first period. Wesley gained the lead and had a comfortable margin in the third quarter when an STC rally flared. But Wesley extinguished the STC rally and counter-attacked with their own rally. Wesley played a brilliant fourth quarter and ended with a 75-47 win. George Mills was the spearhead for STC with 18 points.

Thus STC finished the campaign with a 2-10 record. Hopes are high for next year, however. With an influx of new material and the return of the present freshmen and underclassmen, next year might be an entirely different story.

Whether Santee is guilty or not doesn't seem important to the American public, for almost overnight he has become an American hero.
