Hi Susan,

One of our faculty, Margie Burns, published an article in Persuasions No. 33 in 2011, titled "Comic Resolution, Humorous Loose Ends in Austen's Novels" and is now submitting it to appear for free in our institutional repository. I understand from your website the author retains the copyright, but that you want authors to ask permission to reprint elsewhere, so I'm asking on Margie's behalf. Are you ok with this work being included in our institutional repository?

Michelle
