Who Shall Govern Us in the Future, White Men or Negroes?

Six years ago the question was asked, and the people of Maryland emphatically answered it in the affirmative. Two years later the same issues were presented, and the people desired to return the same answer, and in some sections of the State, in spite of their weak-kneed leaders, they did, with an echo that ought to have been sufficient to settle the question for all future time. Yet, at a more recent date we had men among us who desired to conciliate Republicans and negroes, and by that means bring them over to the Democracy. Did they not know that for each negro vote won in that way two white ones would be lost? while we can gain nothing by conciliating the negro. We then told our friends of the utter utility of such a course, and that it could only lead to disorganization, while the negro will naturally cling to the Republican party, at least the great body of them, and we always said so.

Fortunately for the cause of truth and well being of society we are not longer left to circumstantial evidence, or the interpretation of a policy which may be denied or explained away. We have the open, avowed acknowledgment and declaration of an oracle of the Republican party on the floor of the United States Senate, confirming every charge and declaration we have ever made in this regard. No less a person than the Hon. Oliver P. Morton, in one of the most carefully prepared and elaborate speeches we have ever read, delivered in his place in the Senate of the United States on the nineteenth day of January, openly and unblushingly proclaims the doctrine of negro equality to its full extent and in all its heinousness. He not only admits but boastfully proclaims to the country that the Republican party are responsible for the present condition of affairs and status of the negro in the Southern States in relation to the whites but declares that it is the duty of that party to maintain and perpetuate that relation. In the speech alluded to he advances a step further than we ever expected any public man of his eminence would dare venture. He invades the sacred precincts of the social relations of communities throughout the Southern States and bitterly complains that social companionship is denied by the cultivated and enlightened white people of the South to the companions and allies of worthless and brutal negroes. He charges that the refusal of the white people of the South to recognize contemptible carpet-baggers and scoundrels and admit them into their society and confidence, as a crime, and complains most bitterly that the white men of the South won't vote the Republican ticket and consort with the thieves and vagabonds from the North, who have gone down to that unfortunate country with the single view of embittering the negroes against the whites with a view of using them to secure position whereby they may the more readily rob the native white population and eat out their substance. He attempts to cast obliquely, reproach and ridicule upon the elite of southern society by denouncing them as "white-liners." He plainly says that the Republican party cannot afford to be without a party in the Southern States, and rather covertly and in ambiguous terms intimates that if the Southern people continue to deny fellowship and social relations to carpet-baggers, scoundrels and thieves, they must be punished as criminals. He ridicules members of his own party who dare express the opinion that good government and peaceful relations among the Southern people are more important than making the negro the governing race. He stigmatizes those of his own party who entertain and express these sentiments as "political dandies," attempting thereby to deter them from giving honest expression to their interest and kindly feeling towards their own race. We desire our readers to remember who the Hon. Oliver P. Morton is. He is no ordinary man. He is an acknowledged leader of the Republican party in the Senate of the United States, and without doubt the ablest man among them. He is said to stand nearer the present Federal Administration than any public man in the country. He is a very prominent candidate for the nomination of the Republican party for President, and is to-day nearer the embodiment of the principles and sentiments of that party than any other man. His deliberately expressed sentiments may therefore be taken as the exposition of the principles and sentiments of the Republican party, and in the speech referred to, the most carefully prepared of any speech of his life, he boldly and emphatically proclaims negro equality as the cardinal principle, the corner-stone of his party. Upon this declaration by Mr. Morton of the distinguishing questions dividing the two parties we join issue, as an organ of the Democratic party, with Mr. Morton and the party for which he speaks. We raise again the white man's banner. We accept the issue presented; and upon that issue we intend to fight the battle in the approaching political canvass. President Grant has made his bid for a third term by attempting to bring the interest of religion into party politics, and attempts to distract and demoralize the public schools by raising questions connected with their management as political partisan issues. Blaine, too, made his bid for the Presidency by tearing open the half-healed wounds of the lacerated and bleeding South. But Morton has struck the key note of his party by presenting the question of the domination of race as the real issue dividing parties. It is evident that he realizes the fact that the only hope of the Republican party is based on the negro vote.

O. P. Morton still holds up the bloody shirt, and tells his Republican followers to worship that as the Egis that is to lead them on to victory next November. This is merely an insult to the people. It implies that voters are fools, and do not know what questions have been settled, or what the country needs. Mr. Morton knows that the question of the treatment of the reconstructed States has been settled forever; that it is entirely beyond his power to get any new legislation on the subject, or even to obtain respectful consideration, in Congress or before the country, for any proposal to remedy existing evils at the South by further Federal interference. He knows that the shameful misconduct and misgovernment of Southern Republicans have caused the Northern people to regard with entire satisfaction the return to power in the Southern States of white Democrats, although they were formerly rebels. The Northern people have definitely concluded to let the South take care of itself; to let the knaves who have been robbing under the name of Republicanism go to the bottom; to trust to time and the constant pressure of self-interest and commercial and industrial necessity, rather than to harsh enactments or naked bayonets, for the removal of unavoidable evils in Southern society. Knowing that this question has been settled, that Congress will not reopen it, and that any political party attempting to reopen it would be beaten as badly as the Republicans were in 1874, Mr. Morton only insults the people when he pretends that it is still the one urgent and all-important question of the day.

The Maryland Editorial Association will meet at Annapolis on Tuesday, 8th inst., for the purpose of electing officers, attending to financial matters, and it is probable that they will determine whether or they will take an editorial trip next Summer. We see from some of our exchanges that cold water has been thrown upon the free excursions of newspaper men by some of the city papers. While we might endorse a part of what has been said on the subject, yet we believe that the average newspaper man does as much work to entitle him to the bounty of corporations as any class of men in the world, and perhaps more, yet, whenever he steps forth to make the least demand upon the generosity of the world, his motives are impugned by those who are doing so much for good pay that they can't take time to join with those who are not so fortunate, financially, in a little recreation for the sake of renovating the overworked mind and body in order that he may return to his arduous duties better prepared to discharge them more acceptably. We must say that while we are in favor of an excursion by the fraternity with their families or friends, yet we are not disposed to ask any favor further than to make the best contract we can with railroads, steamboats and hotels for our entertainment a few days, at such time as a majority of the Association may agree upon. Let the trip be to some agreeable place, not too far from our homes, so that it may not necessarily be attended with too much expense at this time of financial stringency. We are content, however, to abide the action of the majority.

The country was visited by one of the most terrific hurricanes last Tuesday night that has occurred for thirty years. It commenced at Lake Superior, and from telegrams received it is supposed to have been quite as bad on the other side of the Atlantic. Houses were blown down, trees laid flat, hay, fodder, fowls, &c., scattered over the face of the earth. We fear we will yet hear of sad disasters on the water.

OUR HIGH SCHOOL.—We clip the extract from Prof. Newell's Report to the General Assembly of Maryland. It will be soon made favorable mention of our High School:

"I visited the high schools at Waverly, Woodbury, Rowntown, Hazzards, and Salisbury during the year 1875; the remaining high schools I hope to visit in 1876. The first three are graded schools, well organized and admirably conducted, but they have hardly had time to reach the rank of high schools. The school at Salisbury is also a graded school, but with a high school excellently managed. The school at Salisbury is a high school proper, so thoroughly organized and so skillfully arranged that it might serve as a model of a county high school."

[COMMUNICATED.]

Mr. Editor.—What means this Bill that is being pushed through the Legislature, directing the Commissioners of our county to levy two hundred and twenty-five dollars for the support of Wm. B. Gordy, an insane man, in the State Hospital for the Insane? Has not the State made provision for such unfortunate? particularly for those who are not able to provide for themselves, or have no one to provide for them? The State has kindly provided a home for all her insane who are not taxed with property to a certain amount, or who have parents unable to provide for them. Now, if Mr. Gordy's parents are in a condition to protect him, as contemplated by the law, it is a hardship upon the taxpayers of the county to be burdened with his support. As reform and retrenchment is the order of the day, we must protest against any such legislation, and will hold our representatives in the Legislature responsible for any such acts. As the Bill originated in the House we hope our Senator will put the "quid pro quo" in when it comes as into his body. We are sure that but few of our people are aware of such a movement, and the only way to call their attention to the fact is through the public press.

TAXPAYER.
Jan. 31st, 1876.

THE AMERICAN FARMER for February, is promptly issued and will be found of unusual value, containing as it does numerous papers suitable to the season and the times. A very interesting essay from Mr. J. Allee, reviewing the Progress of Agriculture for the past century, gives a general outline of the improvement in every branch, and is instructive and encouraging to the farmer. The reports of numerous agricultural clubs and associations, with the results of their experience within the past year, convey a vast amount of instruction from many of the best known practical men of Maryland and other States. This time-honored old Pioneer of Agriculture, Mr. Allee says in his essay, was established in 1819, "and is supposed to have been the first periodical started strictly in the interest of agriculture has continued to be published up to the present, and although it has survived for more than half a century and seen many co-laborers in the same good cause fall by the way-side, it has shown no signs of decrepitude, but with each succeeding season comes freighted with encouragement and good cheer to the tiller of the soil." The correspondents of the Farmer are very numerous and able, and from all the States from Pennsylvania to Mississippi; and every subject connected with agriculture in all its branches receives full attention. Published monthly by Samuel Sands & Son, Baltimore, Maryland, at $1.50 per year; or 5 copies for $5.00. Specimens may be had on application.

PERSONNEL OF THE LEGISLATURE.—There are in the Legislature this session three Smiths, Messrs. Robert S. Smith, of Baltimore County; Lewis C. Smith, the Speaker, of Washington county; and Dr. Washington A. Smith, of Dorchester county, and one Jones, Somerset O., of Montgomery county. This is an unusually large number of gentlemen of these well-known names, and quite a reaction from the condition of things last session when neither House contained a gentleman with either of these popular cognomines. There are in the present Senate ten farmers, five lawyers, four doctors, two merchants, one pilot, one hotel proprietor, one president of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, one railroad president, and one gentleman of leisure. In the House of Delegates there are thirty farmers, fourteen lawyers, eleven doctors, two druggists, one oyster packer, one manufacturer, one slater, one civil engineer, five merchants, one accountant, one stevedore, one machinist, one contractor, three clerks, one builder, one insurance agent, one hardware dealer, one shipcarpenter, one teacher, one justice of the peace, one banker, two hotel keepers, one railroad agent and one miller.

The Chicago Times publishes this, but the public will do as they please about accepting it as gospel truth: A negro known as "Uncle Ben," has been found on the Filson plantation, eight miles from Chappell Hill, in Washington county, Texas, who says he was a good-sized boy, blowing the bellows in a blacksmith shop in Virginia, at the time of Braddock's defeat in 1754. He lost his eyesight at about 60 years of age, but in the course of 20 years it returned to him, and he sees as well as anybody now. His hair turned white with age, turned black again, and is now white the second time. He now manifests with his third set of teeth. He has had 14 wives, is the father of 85 children, and is hale, hearty and active. From his statements he must be 140 or 155 years old. The Centennial can have him if they want him!

A WHITE WOMAN, named Nancy Scott, was found lying in a thicket, where she had been murdered, on the 22nd day of January, near Onancock, Va. Several colored persons were examined before the coroner's inquest and from the facts elicited it would seem that a colored man was the guilty party.

All best prints such as Cocheco, Merino, &c., for 8 cts; other good makes of prints for 6 cts. The well known celebrated Palmetto Cotton yarn, the best in use, for $1.00 per block.

Geo. A. Clark's O. N. T. machine thread 6 cts. All goods at low prices.

I do not promise to sell goods for these prices any longer than to dispose of this stock, as it is not probable that the goods can be purchased so low again.

A. G. TOADVINE.

N. B.—Terms cash on the spot, and one price to all.

The first real snow storm of the season set in on Thursday night.

Wicomico county has neither prisoner in jail, but one tenant of the Alms House.

In this sloppy time you should go to Cannon's and get your long boots, which he is selling very low.

The past few days have raised the hopes of the ice dealers again. We wish they may not be disappointed.

Go to John P. Owens & Co's for best Buckwheat, and all kinds of family groceries, confectionaries, &c.

Munson has the youngest apprentice of any painter on the Shore. It only began to draw last week, and now its a regular sucker.

Charley Dougherty is spending a week at Ocean City. As he is a crack shot, the wild game will no doubt suffer terribly.

The best thing in the world to prevent cold and the expense of sickness is to go immediately to Cannon's at No. 24 Main street, and invest in a pair of his superior over-shoes.

An up country fur dealer was in town this week and purchased the stock of fur in the hands of Salisbury dealers. There was quite a pile of it.

John P. Owens & Co., have on hand best family flour, sugar, coffee, &c., &c., all cheap for cash.

Gordy is still looking about for somebody's reeoler to come up and whip him. Won't some of our country friends accommodate him?

For SALE.—Two first class new sewing machines, and one second hand. Apply at this office.

Fishermen are now getting their seines in order for the fast approaching season. We predict a greater scarcity of fish than last year.

The billiard tables are not kept quite so busy as they were six months ago. Saucy attributes to the scarcity of cash among the young men.

Mr. Joseph S. Davis has recently had a neat little house built on the corner of William street and Poplar Hill Avenue, where he intends to reside.

Gordy Bros have just received a large lot of New York cheese, and are retailing it at 15c. per lb.

Wild ducks are scarce this winter in the river, and ponds of this neighborhood than ever we knew them to be. The lack of cold weather is probably the cause.

We are glad to hear it. Our druggist informs us that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup sells better than any other medicine, and always gives satisfaction.

For choice family groceries, go to Gordy Bros.

Mr. J. B. Blizard has opened a new house opposite the restaurant S. H. Hayman, on Mill street, where all his friends can get a roast, or eat on short notice. Mr. Blizard will supply families with oysters at all times.

Messrs E. E. Jackson & Co., contemplate enlarging their mill at an early day. This is actually necessary to accommodate their rapidly increasing business.

Notice.—There will be baptizing to-morrow (Sunday) at the usual place in Jersey, at 11 o'clock, A. M. Rev. Geo. E. Braxton, Pastor.

Leap year has bursted up the champagne chances of one of Salisbury's spruce young men. He will cut his eye-teeth in early Spring, if report be true. There is no Tomfoolery about this.

For SALE.—Three new iron Safes, Miller's and Marvin's make. Inquire at this office.

Chicken cholera is playing the dence with the feathered population in the country. Powdered charcoal used frequently is said to be a preventive, and given even when the chicken is sick is said to have completely cured them.

For SALE.—Fifteen building Lots, four Houses and lots in Town, and 10,000 acres of land in the county. Apply to L. MALONE.

Salisbury came near having a small sized fire twice on Wednesday. In both cases it was the result of chimneys not being burned at proper times. Is it carelessness or lack of sense that prevents people from burning out their chimneys in rainy weather?

A Wilmington paper says that the P. W. & B. R. R. is not going to build any hotel at Ocean City this season, but that some of its officials will put up a house to accommodate fifty families. We fail to see the difference between the proposed building and a hotel. "A rose by any other name," &c.

The undersigned has for sale a large number of organs, comprising the Burdett, Estey, Mott's, Estey, Aeolian, Osbourne, &c.

L. MALONE.

It would be a judicious act for the Legislature to pass laws prohibiting the inhabitants of another State from fishing in the waters of Maryland. Philadelphia annually sends out hundreds of their fresh water sharks, who do incalculable injury to the interest of the native fishermen.

This must be the highest oyster market in the world. In Crisfield oysters have been selling at six cents a bushel. In Baltimore at ten to fifteen, while here the dealers do not hesitate to ask you from forty to sixty cents for a much inferior article.

WANTED.—About the first of March next, six first class Milch Cows. Any person having such for sale will please leave the information at this office before that time.

The Lyceum will hold a public debate on Monday evening, the 14th inst. Question, "Resolved, That the Bible should be abolished in the public schools." Warren and Graham in the affirmative, Cooper and Malone in the negative. The public are cordially invited to attend.

We would ever so gently remind a few second-rate gunners that the time for shooting partridges or quail has expired by law, and a fine of five dollars is the penalty for each bird now killed. A certain officer of the law was seen with several in his possession one day last week. The next time he shall certainly have the pleasure of paying for his sport.

F. C. Todd has reduced prices on all groceries. "B" sugar 10 cts., "A" sugar 11 cts., Granulated sugar 12 1/2 cts., Buckwheat 4 cts., Commercial Extra Flour $6.50, Super $6.00, Family $7.50. Stock complete, and all goods guaranteed to suit or money refunded.

FIRE.—The liquor store kept by W. S. Holland, at New Hope Mills, in this county, was burned on Wednesday night last. The house belonged to J. S. Hamblin, and there was no insurance on the house, while there was $300 insurance on the stock of liquors, which had been very much reduced by sale and drinking. The fire was supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

We desire to call attention to the advertisement of L. H. Nock, in today's paper. His prices for carriages are commensurate with the times, and he is determined to do work as good and as cheap as any factory in Wilmington or South of that city. He has lately secured the services of a first-class city painter and in that department of work, as well as all the other, his work will be first-class.

We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. J. W. Hunt & Co., 1125 and 1127 Cherry Street, Philadelphia, extensive dealers in carriages and harness. They furnish a good article at a low price; and those desiring to purchase double or single harness, buggies, family, deerbon, and all other kinds of wagons, will find it to their advantage to give him a call.

Drum.—On Monday last, on the Island of Santa Cruz, W. I., in the 84th year of his age, Charles A. Wailes, of Baltimore city, but formerly of this place, Mr. Wailes went to the West Indies last fall for the benefit of his health, but continued to grow worse until death ended his sufferings. He leaves two small children to mourn his early demise, his wife having preceded him about two years to the grave.

Our readers—or at least that portion of them living in Wicomico county—will be gratified to learn that there is every indication of the General Assembly enacting a much needed law for the protection of game in this county. If something is not done our birds will soon be a thing of the past, while with proper protection they would soon become as numerous as they were years ago, when they were not so ruthlessly slaughtered for market.

We are in receipt of The World Almanac, for 1876. It is most valuable for the statistical and political information it furnishes. We have given it a choice place over our desk, and most heartily thank the publishers of The World for their kindness. The New York World is the recognized leading Democratic daily newspaper in America and as this is the Presidential campaign year, we commend it to our readers, who are in want of a first class New York daily newspaper.

WIND STORM.—Wednesday last this part of the county was treated to a genuine full grown "nor-wester." Trees were uprooted, fencer stacks and fences innumerable were blown down, vessels dragged their anchors and landed themselves high and dry on the sandbars. The E. B. Jones, which was fastened to Mr. J. White's wharf, broke from her moorings and went over to the high bank on the opposite side of the river. At low water she is high and dry. So far as we can learn no serious damage was done.

The bill now before the Legislature in regard to a market house for this place simply authorizes the commissioners to buy a piece of land and erect a house thereon if in their judgment it seems best to do so. Not more than five thousand dollars worth of bonds are to be issued for this purpose and to pay off these bonds not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars shall be levied each year, in addition to the regular town levy. It will therefore be seen that the bill is not compulsory at all, and can therefore do no harm, if it does no good.

We have been informed by persons in whom we place implicit confidence, that the instruments manufactured by Daniel F. Beatty of Beatty Piano and Beatty's Golden Tongue Parlor Organ, at Washington, N. J., are constructed by a score of skillful workmen, who have been in his employ for years, and are noted for the great interest they take in promoting and maintaining the already enviable reputation of his instruments. His advertisements appear in this issue of our paper, it would be well for persons interested to examine them.

Mr. A. F. Parsons having resigned the delivery and collecting agency of the Adams Express Company at this place, Captain Noah has been appointed in his stead, and will call at any place on Main or Division Streets, on his way to the depot from Squire Fooks' office for the collection of small packages intended to go by Express. All small packages for country citizens will be left at Mr. Fooks' office, where they can get them at any hour of the day. A slate on which to write your wants will hang in the office for the convenience of customers. Persons wishing for goods to stop at their places for EXPRESS or else put out a red flag. Neatly printed cards for summing the wagon can be obtained cheap at this office.

A convention of the friends of Local Option, from Somerset, Worcester and Wicomico Counties, assembled here on Thursday last at 2 o'clock, P. M. The meeting was called to order by Mr. F. C. Todd nominating Rev. A. M. Henton, of Somerset, to the chair, and on motion J. E. Blizard was appointed Secretary. The first business in order was a call for the delegates from the several churches, districts and townships, and organizations to report to the secretary. For want of space we are compelled to omit the names of the delegates. Resolutions were then adopted appointing committees of conference, committees to prepare bills and petitions to the Legislature, &c. After some other preliminary work and questions asked and answered as to the working of local option in Worcester and Somerset, the convention passed an order to hold a Mass Meeting at 7 o'clock, P. M. to hear addresses on the subject of temperance from Hon. Wm. Daniel, Rev. Dr. Gilbert and Rev. Mr. Poulson of Baltimore city. At the hour appointed the Court House was packed to its uttermost capacity, when those gentlemen in the order named addressed the meeting. The speeches were excellent, and were listened to with a great deal of enthusiasm manifested. We are sure that considerable good was accomplished. The convention met again at 9 o'clock yesterday, but we were compelled to go to press before we could get a further account of the proceedings, a full account of which will appear next week.

"Good Will" Lodge, No. 112, I. O. F., of Barron Creek Springs, Wisconsin county, gave a supper on the evening of Friday, 28th ult., to which the officers and members of "New-Town Lodge," No. 56, of Salisbury, and "Good Intent" Lodge, No. 99, of Sharptown were invited, as well as a large number of ladies, who attended in considerable force. There were about thirty visiting brethren of other lodges present, while "Good Will" Lodge turned out in full force. The order of exercises was as follows: "Good Will" Lodge, with the visiting lodges met in the Odd Fellows' Hall at 7 o'clock, when the regular order of business was gone through. Bro. John Robertson, of Newton Lodge acting as Noble Grand for the occasion, and Bro. Gravenor, of Sharptown Lodge acting as Vice Grand. As soon as the rules of order had been disposed of, the Lodge adjourned to the hotel, where supper had been prepared by T. L. Jackson, Esq., for about two hundred persons at the expense of "Good Will" Lodge, and we are happy to say that "mine host" of the Barron Creek Springs Hotel, did his very best, for we have not seen the supper excelled on any occasion for many years. It would have done credit to one of the best caterers in the land. Suffice is to say that there was nothing that a person ought to desire to eat but was on the table. The most fastidious could not complain, nor did any one find fault. It was a banquet of the first order.

It had been arranged that the invited guests from abroad were first to be seated. They were provided with tickets, and after all had been seated, others were invited to fill up the table, which was a large one. From 8 o'clock to 10 o'clock was taken up in disposing of the supper, at which time J. B. Armstrong Esq., secretary of "Good Will" Lodge called the assembly to order in the large parlor of the hotel, which was filled with ladies and gentlemen, and all standing room in the spacious hall and porch was crowded, and after making some remarks upon Odd Fellowship, and the cause of their assembling on that occasion, called on L. Malone, of Newton Lodge to address the assembly, who did so in a speech of about twenty five minutes, calling attention to the history of Odd Fellowship both in England and in this country, but more especially to its working and progress here since 1814, with a reference to its foundation in America and more particularly in the State of Maryland.

After the conclusion of Mr. Malone's speech and a general shaking of hands and bidding good night, the party broke up and departed to their homes, better pleased with each other and especially with the working of Odd Fellowship. Many expressed a wish to enjoy another reunion of our friends, on which occasion so many faces of the fair sex will greet the order of the three links of Friendship, Love and Truth.

Before leaving this subject we desire to say that we are happy to see so much improvement going on at the Springs. They are a live people there and deserve success. There is no district in the county which can turn out more good looking men and handsome ladies. Long will we remember our last visit to Barron Creek Springs.

MARRIED.

PARSONS—FARLOW.—On Wednesday last, at the residence of the bride's father at Parsonsburg, in this county, by the Rev. Mr. Creamer, Mr. George E. Parsons to Miss Caroline Farlow.

ADKINS—HITCH.—On the same day, by Rev. Dr. Fulton, Mr. Lambert Adkins to Miss Ida Hitch, of this county.

ADAMS—COOPER.—On the 1st inst., by the Rev. Dr. Fulton, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Frank P. Adams to Miss Alice E. Cooper, both of Wicomico County.

In Memoriam.

Every day is fraught with the havoc of death. It needs no exhortation to the living to make plain the fact that we are nearing eternity. The Bible, which is the standard, lays the great foundation, and foreshadows every event to which humanity is subject. Daily demonstrations fulfill every word of divine truth, yet without how do we live? Ayne, we live as it were that death is far in the distance and eternity beyond some boundless ocean that lies far beyond some distant planet. It is so hard to count ourself one of the number who will follow next, and why is it so? The vain glories of this kind can we count within the past few years, and yet how heedless we live in death and follow him to the church, where the minister of God preaches the truth to the living over his dead body. Our thoughts are solemn, and we feel resolved to follow in the true path. But alas! we return from the scene, engage in our daily avocations, and soon forget the solemn truths declared. Only a short time since, as late as Monday of the present week we witnessed such a scene. An other neighbor has fallen a victim to death, a quiet, civil citizen, always at or near his home. Only a little while ago he attended and witnessed the funeral services of a neighbor, and how little did he think death would call for him so soon, the same servant of Christ to preach the sacred truths over his remains.

And to-day, how many of us are looking for the monster death? It may be that few are, and it may not one, but no matter whether we look or not, death is close at hand and will soon do his office again. Can't we consent to lay by our mantle of worldly mindedness and accept the overtures of a free salvation. Let us resolve to do so, and when death comes we will hail him gladly, looking to the fair lands of Immanuel, a glorious change from this poor sin-cursed world.

Samuel J. K. Morris has left us. He died on Saturday, 28th ult., aged 48 years, 8 months and 21 days. His remains were conveyed to the M. E. Church of this place, attended by a large circle of relatives and friends. The obsequies were performed by the Rev. Mr. Heaton, Presbyterian minister. His text was in Ecclesiastes, 9th chapter and 10th verse, "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whether thou goest." The discourse was practical and comprehensive, with the strongest possible appeal to live right and make ready for death, showing plainly what Christianity is, and how it must be treated.

After the services at the church were concluded, the remains were taken to the old burying ground now owned by Mr. Thomas C. Morris, where they were interred, there to remain with his father and other departed friends and relatives. He leaves a bereaved widow and one child only. Let us remember them at the foot-stool of mercy. COLEMANITY.

Fruitland, Feb. 3rd, '76.

All persons favorable to the organization of a Young Men's Christian Association are requested to meet in the Missionary Baptist Church, Monday evening at 7 P. M.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1876.

For the information of all concerned

we will state we do not give the author's name of any communication which may appear in this paper until we ask his consent, and sometimes not then unless it seems best for us to do so. We are not responsible for the views entertained

by our correspondents, but are anxious and willing at all times to give both sides a hearing on any subject of general interest.

WM. HENRY LEO, Esq., editor of the Denton Journal, was present at the meeting of the Association at Annapolis, and we are happy to find him quite as full of energy and vim

in his new avocation of editor as he was in that of Legislator, during our acquaintance with him in 1868. We have not had an opportunity of meeting our friend since he left the ancient capital at that time, until this occasion, yet we have always hailed the advent of his excellent Journal to our Sanctum with great pleasure. Mr.

Leo is a good journalist, and in ad-

diti on to his goodness of heart and amiable manners he is brim full of energy.

The Beecher Business Again.

It seems now to be definitely settled that sooner or later the end of the above misadventure will be reached. Mr. Bowen has at last broken his silence and now

charges Beecher with perjury, adultery and hypocrisy. A council has been called to consider Mrs. Moulton's case, but as Plymouth church has the lead in selecting its members, it may be that a whitewashing job only is intended. Be that as it may, however, the public will demand of Mr. Beecher that he either

"step down and out" or that he refute

the charges that are now being brought against him by responsible men. Falling back on his professional greatness and past good works will not answer the requirements of the occasion, and his withdrawing or causing the suits to be withdrawn against his accusers looks much more like guilt than innocence.—

Let him face the music, and in a judicial court where witnesses can be forced to attend and answer all proper questions,

let him have the subject fully ventilated,

if he dare to.—Let no legal quibbles be resorted to by either party, but make every witness tell all he or she knows about the affair. If Beecher is innocent, he has nothing to fear, while it would be an expensive experiment to his accusers.—The New York Sun has day after day proclaimed its belief in his guilt and given him more free advertising than any man ever before received. Whether or not he has been benefited by it is quite a different thing. In the Congregational Council which Plymouth church has elected, it is well known that every thing will be done to help Mr. Beecher's guilt, even if he is guilty, and its decision alone, if it be in favor of its leading minister, will not satisfy the people.—

They demand a free trial and fair play,

and then if Mr. Beecher comes out unscathed we will be one of the first to announce to the world his innocence, and by all means in our power do what we can to remove the stigma that now rests upon him.

journalists. Thou hast been faithful to thy patrons, to the craft, and to the world. No duty has been left unper-formed, no labor however arduous damaged or daunted your energies."

Maryland Editorial Association.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., February 8, 1876.

The Maryland Editorial Association

met in Annapolis at the City Hotel to-day, George W. Wilson, president, in the chair, and a fair attendance. The officers present besides the president were C. Cole and Geo.

Cole, vice-presidents; W. H. Vander-

ford and C. M. Ransom, secretaries;

C. C. Bombaugh, treasurer and Wm.

H. Ruby and L. Victor Baughman, of executive committee. Also the following members: C. Sullivan,

Cambridge Chronicle; J. Cloud Nor-

ris and John Wills, Sunday Telegram,

Baltimore; L. Malone, Salisbury

Advertiser; Julius A. Johnson,

Journal, Easton; A. F. McCoombs,

Republican, Harro de Grace; Geo.

W. Cruikshank, Cecil Democrat, Elk-

ton; J. Guest King, Maryland Gazette, Annapolis; S. S. Mills, Maryland (Baltimore) Farmer; F. W.

Baker, Crisis, Bel Air; E. Wells, Port

Tobacco Times, and James H. Plummer, Chestertown News.

New members were elected as follows: Wm. H. Legg, Denton

Journal; John S. Button, Maryland

Independent, Port Tobacco; Dr.

Wm. H. Ripport, American Sentinel,

Westminister; Dr. Wm. H. Cole,

Baltimore Gazette; Hiram P. Tasker,

Garrett County Herald; Dr. Wm. D.

Noble, Maryland Courier, Federalis-

burg, Dorchester county.

The Treasurer reported dues received during the year $82; amount expended $75.95; balance on hand

$6.05.

On motion of Dr. Bombaugh, suitable resolutions were unanimously adopted on the death of Charles A.

Wailes, who had long been a member and efficient officer of the association,

as well as one of its originators, and who died suddenly January 31, 1876,

of pulmonary disease, at Santa Cruz,

where he had gone for the benefit of his health. The resolutions paid a high tribute to the character of Mr.

Wailes.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Geo.

W. Wilson; Vice Presidents, Charles

Cole, Peter Negley, S. S. Mills, Wm.

H. Legg, Lemuel Malone and F. W.

Baker; Corresponding Secretary, W.

H. Vanderford; Recording Secretary,

C. M. Ransom; Treasurer, C. C. Bom-

baugh; Executive Committee, W. J.

Ruby, George Savage, L. V. Bangh-

man, C. H. Keeler and C. M. Ranson.

On invitation, through L. Victor

Banghman, the association visited

Gov. John Lee Carroll at the government house at 3 o'clock, P. M., a reception having been taken for that purpose. The association proceeded in a body to the Governor's mansion,

where after a pleasant conversational interview with Mr. Carroll, the members were invited to partake of a handsome collation. The first toast after dinner was to Governor Carroll, to which the executive responded in a very felicitous manner. Afterwards brief remarks were made by Col. S.

Mills, Dr. W. W. Watkins, L. Victor Baughman, John Wells, C. Sulli-vane and others. The members then visited the Naval Academy.

At eight o'clock the body reassem-

bled at the City Hotel, where after a general discussion of matters appertaining to the editorial fraternity, the company enjoyed its annual dinner,

a most recherche affair, served by

Messrs. L. F. Colton & Co. About

thirty persons were present. Secretary of State Holliday was one of the invited guests. Wm. T. Iglehart, of the Anne Arundel Advertiser, delivered the annual address. The festivanities continued till after midnight.

The Association, concluded their labors Tuesday night by electing Mr.

Geo. W. Cruikshank, of the Cecil

Democrat, as the orator of the next meeting, and by appointing Frederick

City as the next place of meeting, the time for which has been left with the executive committee to decide.

Poetry.
Home and Friends.
Oh! there's a power
To make each hour
As sweet as Heaven designed it;
Nor need we roam
To bring it home,
Though few there be who find it.
We seek too high
For things close by,
And lose what nature found us;
For life hath here
No charms so dear
As home and friends around us.
We oft destroy
The present joy
For future hopes, and praise them,
While flowers are sweet
Bloom at our feet
If we'd but stoop to raise them.
For things afar
Still sweeter are
When youth's bright spell hath bound us;
But soon we're taught
The earth hath naught
Like home and friends around us.
The friends that speed
In time of need,
When hope's last need is shaken,
Do show us still,
That, come what will,
We are not quite forsaken,
Though all were night,
If but a light
From friendship's altar crowned us,
'Twould prove the bliss
If earth were this:
Our home and friends around us.

Roadside Colloquy.
"And so, Squire, you don't take your county paper?"
"No, Major, I get the city papers on much better terms, and so I take a couple of them."
"But, Squire, the home papers of ten prove a great convenience. The more we encourage them the better their editors can make them."
"Why, I don't know of any convenience they are to me."
"The farm you sold last fall was advertised in one of them and there by you obtained a customer. Did you not?"
"Very true, Major; but I paid
three dollars for it."
"And you made much more than three dollars by it. Now if the neighbors had not maintained and kept it ready for use you would be without the means to advertise your property. But I think I saw your daughter's marriage in one of those papers; did that cost anything?"
"No, but—"
"And your brother's death was thus published with a long obituary notice. And the destruction of your neighbor Brigg's house by fire. You know that these things are exaggerated but the authentic accounts of the newspaper set them right."
"Oh, true, but—"
"And when you were elected Squire, the printer printed your name, and afterwards kept it before the people in his official directory for which—"
"Yes, yes, but these things are news to the reader. They cause the people to take the paper."
"No, no, Squire, judge, not if all were like you. For I tell you the day will come when some one will write a very long eulogy of your life and character, and the printer will put it in type with a heavy black line over it; and with all your riches this will be done for you as a grave in the cemetery. Your wealth, liberality and all such things will be spoken of, but the printer's boy as he spells the words in arranging the types of these sayings, will remark of you: "Poor, mean devil, he is even sponging an obituary!" Good morning, Squire."

PRESIDENTIAL TERM.—The United States House committee on the judiciary reported a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States as follows:
"No person who has held or may hereafter hold the office of President shall ever again be eligible to said office."
Mr. Fryer, on behalf of the minority of the committee, proposed a substitute for the report of the majority, as follows:
"From and after March 4, 1885,
the term of office as President and Vice-President of the United States shall be six years, and any person having held that office, shall be ineligible for re-election."

They Carried It Too Far.
Mr. Butterwick called in to see me the other day, and in the course of the conversation, he said:
"I'm going to move. I can't stand those Thompsons, next door to me any longer. They're the awfulest people to borrow things that I ever saw. Coffee, and butter, and sugar, and flour, I don't mind so much, although when a woman borrows high-priced sugar and Java coffee, and sends back sad and chicky, a man naturally feels bilious and mad.—
But they've borrowed pretty near everything in the house. First it's one thing and then it's another, from morning till night, right straight along."
"Now there's the poker. A poker is a piece of machinery that you'd think anybody might go around and buy, or if they couldn't afford it, they might use a fence paling to shake up the fire. But Mrs. Thompson seems to hanker after our poker.
She borrows it fifteen or twenty times a day, and last Saturday she sent for thirty-four times. She pays a boy two dollars a week to run over and borrow that poker; and she's used it so much that it's all bent up like a corkscrew."
"Now, take chairs for instance.—
She asks us to lend her our chairs three times a day at every meal, and she borrows the rocking-chair when ever she wants to put the baby to sleep."
"A couple of times she sent over for a sofa, and when the boy came back with it he said Mrs. Thompson was mad as thunder, and kept growling around the house all day, because there were no castors on it. Last Monday she borrowed our wash-boiler, and we had to put off our washing till Tuesday. She did her preserving in it, and the consequence was, all our clothes were full of preserved peaches. I've got on an under-shirt now that I'm mighty doubtful I'll ever get off, it's stuck to me so tight."
"Every now and then she has company, and then she borrows our hired girl and all the parlor furniture;
once, because I wouldn't carry the piano over for her and take down the chandelier, she told our girl that there were rumors about town that I was a reformed pirate."
"Perfectly scandalous! They think nothing of sending over after a couple of bedsteads or the entry carpet; and the other day Thompson says to me:
"Butterwick, does your pump-pull up easy?"
And when I said I thought maybe
it did, he said:
"Well, I would like to borrow it for a few days till I can get one, for mine's all rotted away."
"The only wonder to me is, that he didn't try to borrow the well along with it."<

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1876.

REVERDY JOHNSON, the Solon among the lawyers of Maryland (and indeed of the whole country), is dead. He died from injuries received from a fall on Thursday night of last week at Annapolis. Mr. Johnson had attained a ripe old age, being eighty years old, and was as ripe in learning as in years. That he was considered as standing at the head of the Bar in this country will never be doubted. His life has been one of active labor and profound research. He has occupied many high offices and responsible positions, beginning in the Senate of the State of Maryland, railroad director and counsel, bank director, counsel and president, United States Senator, Attorney General and Foreign Minister, and in these positions he always showed a qualification adequate to the requirements of his place. He was truly a great man in what the world calls greatness, and if a great man has not fallen in Israel, certainly a great red has been shaken in the wilderness, and has fallen. He leaves a large family, many of whom are not unknown to fame, and but for his extravagance he would perhaps have left one of the largest estates in Maryland, but he was liberal to a fault, and never tried to hoard the wealth which his large and lucrative practice was adequate to acquire, yet his family are amply provided for. The name and fame of Reverdy Johnson will live as long as law may be regarded as a science or a profession, and will be pointed to as one of the brightest lights in the great constellation of renowned advocates.

The Lyceum argued last Monday night in public debate the question, "Resolved, that the Bible should be excluded from the public schools." The question was ably debated by Messrs. Wm. H. Warren and Joseph A. Graham in the affirmative, and by Mr. Geo. W. M. Cooper for the negative. Mr. Malone, who had been appointed with Mr. Cooper on the negative, was considerably indisposed, and took but little part in the argument, leaving his colleague to do most of the work, which was so well and acceptably done by him that a majority of the committee decided in his favor.

This question just now seems to agitate the public mind to a considerable extent, and men of all denominations are willing to see the Bible excluded from the public schools. We regret to see this, not so much for the sake of having it read or expounded there as the effect to be produced by excluding it. We are not a stickler for the precepts of the Bible being constantly thrust at and upon the pupil, but we believe it should always be on hand, and occasionally passages can be read from it with excellent effect. We are opposed to have schools made sectarian in any way, nor do we believe the Bible and its simple teaching can have the effect to produce this, although we have others among us who think that if the Bible is expounded by any others than persons of their persuasion, that its teachings are not entirely clear of bias. To go into this subject, in order to make ourselves understood, would require more time and space than we can spare just now, and we will defer any further remarks upon the subject to some future time.

Mr. A. Brown, Gen'l Agent for the Junction & Breakwater and Frankfort railroads, paid our town a visit last Wednesday and called at our sanctum, where we are always glad to see Mr. B. He is a live man, and we think the Old Dominion Steamship Company did well to secure the services of such a wide-awake man. His railroad projects are going ahead finely, notwithstanding the dull times. We are inclined to think that the Old Dominion Company's enterprise will put some one else to work before the summer ends, to keep the trade from passing into the hands of their more energetic (and we like to have said more deserving) competitors. They commenced under embarrassing circumstances, but are making rapid strides toward complete success.

Turn will be the lucky year to raise watermelons. They can be carried to the Schuylkill by water, and that will be our best market. The water supply at the Centennial grounds will be none of the best, and watermelons will supply that want. Farmers take note.

4th of July.
It has been proposed by the leading newspapers of the country that in every county in the United States some suitable person be appointed whose duty it shall be, while preparing his oration for delivery on the centennial anniversary, to compile a short history of the leading events which have transpired in said county, which may be published in the newspapers and preserved for future reference. We therefore suggest that at the first meeting of the Agricultural and Mechanical Association of Wicomico county that such person be appointed and requested to prepare such a history of Wicomico county, and should the attendance of citizens be small on that day, that it then be announced when such appointment shall be made.

APPOINTMENT.—Our worthy townsman, John W. Dougherty, Esq., has been appointed by Governor Carroll Assistant Grain Weigher of Baltimore city. This is a good appointment, inasmuch as Mr. D. is a worthy and competent gentleman. His appointment gives great satisfaction to his friends and the party generally. Our county presented several worthy names for executive patronage, any of whom would have been acceptable and worthy appointments, and the only thing we have to regret is, that any such good men should be disappointed.

We have heard it rumored that the Eastern Shore Steamboat Company would probably put on a boat between here and Baltimore next season, in time to accommodate the passengers to Ocean City. We hope this is true, and would like to see a boat here twice or three times a week. We think that the freight and passenger carriage here would pay one boat amply. Will some person or persons try the experiment? We hope so.

The best way to get clear of bad debts is to pay them, even if it happens to be subscriptions to newspapers. The best way to get clear of idlers is to go to work yourself, and if they don't leave then, put them to work. If you don't believe what a person tells you, you can just remark, "Strange, if true," and look a little serious and they will soon betray signs of guilt if it is false.

WILLIAM McKEE, one of the proprietors of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, is another of the latest whiskey fraud victims. "Let no guilty man escape."

Will the Republican papers who are so fond of publishing the above please let their readers know that the Globe-Democrat is a Republican paper? And its editor a staunch Republican? Come, be honest, if you can.

We paid a visit on Wednesday last to the planing mills, box and turning factory of General Humphreys, and it is a curiosity to see the various kinds of machinery operating. Here you will see a machine turning carriage hubs, another mortising them, another making spokes, and so on till the whole process is complete. It certainly looks like business up at the Wicomico Falls Mills.

A GENTLEMAN is just now engaged in shipping oysters to England from Clintonville Island, via Old Dominion Steamship Company to New York, thence by ocean steamers. They are put in strong barrels and headed up nicely, and reach England in about ten days from the start.

ONE hundred years ago there were no Confederate Generals in Congress.—American Union.

But there were lots of rebels, and they were all white. Now we have Radicals and negroes. How do you like the change, Bro. Emerson?

The Advisory Committee in the Beecher case are going on with the examination of his case. We hope at the end of their investigation the whole matter will be suffered to drop, whether he is right or wrong.

Black and White.

Discord-laden Morton, in his speech in the Federal Senate on the Pinchback case, concluded with this remark: "The State of Louisiana must be represented."

Be it known that D. H. Morton is in favor of the State of Louisiana being represented in the Federal Senate by a nigger, but he is opposed to the State of Mississippi being represented by a white man.

When Radical politics have got to be so low, degraded, and contemptible that the Radical party is willing to vote for a negro to represent a State, and refuses to allow Lamar to come into the Senate because he is white and an honest, able, patriotic statesman, then it is about time to drive out of all places of respectable position this Radical negro party.

Morton and Pinchback will both vote for the Texas, El Paso and Pacific Railroad plunder, and for the Boss Chepheard ring et al., and anything else that strikes a blow at the interests of the people.

Hotel & Boarding-House Association.
No. 721 Arch Street, PHILADELPHIA.
Among the numerous plans for making the hotel and boarding-house accommodations of Philadelphia available to visitors during the Centennial year, is that of the Hotel and Boarding-House Association.
On the first of May next, according to late estimates the hotels will have a capacity of 25,000 guests, and the boarding-house accommodations 2,500 in number, a capacity of 30,000.
To which may be added a large number of private dwellings available to visitors during the Centennial year, is that of the Hotel and Boarding-House Association.
On the first of May next, according to late estimates the hotels will have a capacity of 25,000 guests, and the boarding-house accommodations 2,500 in number, a capacity of 30,000.
To which may be added a large number of private dwellings available to visitors during the Centennial year, is that of the Hotel and Boarding-House Association.

The hotels, of course, will be always accessible, but with the boarding-houses it is different, they being widely distributed and unregistered, and to render this class of accommodations available to visitors is the object of the Association.
To this end there is being kept at the central office a register of all reputable boarding-houses in the city, which will show at any time the vacancies and schedule of rates of each, and offices will be opened at every Hotel co-operating with the association or in the immediate vicinity where visitors who fail to secure lodging at the hotels will be afforded a choice of rooms and board at any of the houses where vacancies occur, together with a guarantee of the quality and costs of the lodgings offered.

In connection and in telegraphic communication with the central office, the association has located twenty-nine branch agencies in different parts of the city, where vacancies as they occur, will be registered and reported to the main office, enabling agents at the hotels or other places, to transfer visitors from hotels, where they are full, to boarding-houses, where there are vacancies.

It has already registered and is in co-operation with forty-three Hotels and more than one thousand five hundred Boarding-Houses, having a Capacity of Forty-five Thousand Guests, the number daily increasing. It has also at command, through the American District Telegraph Company, two hundred and fifty Messengers to show strangers to their lodging and for other purposes. Thus at a trifling cost and avoiding all annoyance and disappointment, strangers can secure such accommodations as they desire by applying at the hotels, or at the office of the Association, 721 Arch Street, Philadelphia, if desirous of securing rooms in advance, by letter or telegraph.

The above plans were adopted after having been submitted to the Proprietors of the Hotels, who are best judges of the wants of visitors, and to a large number of business firms and universally approved. Having the Co-operation of the hotels and Boarding-house of the city, gives the Association facilities that no other association or agency can have, and enables them to furnish such accommodations to visitors as they may require.

Specie Payments at Last.

Dr. Linderman, the director in chief of the mints of the United States, was before the committee of Congress on Wednesday last, and stated that there was now on hand enough silver coin to resume silver money payment in place of the fractional paper currency. Let the Democratic House of Representatives in Washington pass the law substituting silver coin in place of this miserable paper, which now represents the fractions of the dollar.

The people will then have money instead of paper. It is the beginning of the end of the rag baby. Repeal at once the legal tender law, made constitutional by Grant's packed bench of the Supreme Court of the United States. This decision was unconstitutional, and was the beginning of the inflation which has prostrated all the industry of the country. Specie is coming!

A Nice Party.

Babecock has gone to St. Louis to plead "not guilty" to a charge of plundering the Government of which his friend Grant is the supposed head, sworn to support the Constitution and laws of his country.

With "Bab" goes a fine lot of patriots: Avery, a convicted criminal; Landan Williams; McDonald, a convicted criminal, and a few more of the same sort. If there is any justice Grant can't corrupt "Bab" and follow Joyce, Avery, McDonald, and McKee. Why not? Edward, a honest man in this land ought to support Bristow in his single handed efforts to "let no guilty man escape." The people will take care of Grant when they assemble at the great jury of the country. Then it will be seen that no guilty man escapes.

EMINENT NAMES.—A lady in our town is the mother of a Mrs. Davis, a Mrs. Stevens, a Mrs. Johnson and a Mrs. Parsons, and they are all handsome ladies, and only one widow among them. The husband of Mrs. J. is not Andy, but Richard M. Johnson, and a clever fellow is he.

He tried the experiment, and the result was that he completely ruined the girl's new dress, and she didn't learn to love worth a cent. He now inquires if benzine will take it off.

A WORD TO DELINQUENTS.—During the past week we have sent out a postal to many of our subscribers with the amount due us for subscription upon it. While some may think this rather an abrupt way to dun a debtor, yet we are not able to see that there is any harm in it, while they must confess that it is a much more mild and pleasant way than to send a Constable, and this is our apology. Don't forget that he may come next.

Goods of all descriptions in our line lower than they have ever been sold before. Call and see. J. P. OWENS & CO.

The cold weather has killed nearly all the peaches, and it is feared that peaches and apples will be affected, as the buds are in a forward state. Strawberries are always safe, because if one lot of blossoms are killed another crop immediately take their place. Strawberries should be manured and mulched at an early day. Can't get it done too soon now. The crop will be a forward one this season and bids fair to be a large one. They will be wanted at Philadelphia. The cry of "Here's your cash!" will bring them along.

The largest stock of Landreth's celebrated Garden Seeds on the Shore is to be found at Dr. Collier's Drug Store.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.—Monday is the 14th Anniversary of the birthday of Washington. So far as we can learn, no preparations are being made for its proper celebration. We are an excessively patriotic people when it does not cost anything, but do not invest much money in celebrating any occasion unless there is a good show for an early return of the money.

The young men will give a ball at night, and take their pay in the smiles and approbation of the fair sex. Services have been held in nearly all of the churches this week in aid of the Young Men's Christian Association. We earnestly hope the organization may be successful. In all the principal cities the rooms of the Association have a gymnasium attached. This is a good feature of the affair and does not fail to enlist the attention of the young. The third floor of the Laundry building could be fitted up nicely for this purpose and at a very little expense. We are sure it would increase the membership at least one hundred.

FOR SALE.—Fifteen building lots, four Houses and lots in Town, and 10,000 acres of land in the county. Apply to L. MALONE.

THROAT CUT.—Powellville is fast getting a reputation which does it no good. Minus Figgis is the keeper of a drinking house in that place, and under his fostering care disorder reigns supreme. On Saturday J. O. Perkins and I. P. Dennis, after imbibing sufficient quantity of Figgis' fighting whiskey, quarrelled over the estate of a dead mother-in-law, amounting in the aggregate to about ten dollars. Words soon led to blows, and blows to something worse as Perkins, drawing a huge knife, made a wipe at Dennis' throat. Dennis fell backward and by this means saved his life. The gash was a fearful looking one, but not very deep.

FOX HUNT ON THE BEACH.—Companions and a chosen crowd of bayonards have long contemplated a chase after Kennard on the beach, where the country being open a full view of the chase could be obtained. This resolve was put into execution last week, and the boys say they had fun alive. Two foxes were run down by the hounds and captured, two more were driven to their dens, while a fifth was shot by one of the party, much to the disgust of the real lovers of the sport. The races were in full view of the Hotel at Ocean city. Bayard has a running pack of dogs, and if our up the country friends don't think it fun let them come down and try a day out.

WANTED.—About the first of March next, six first-class Milch Cows. Any person having such for sale will please leave the information at this office before that time.

INSTRUCTED.—A. H. Bradley, W. D. G. Ephor for Dorchester, Wicomico, Worcester and Somerset counties, Instituted "Chi Conclave No. 22, Heptastoe, or S. W. M." at Spring Grove, Wicomico Co., Md., February 14th, 1876. Installed the following officers for the remainder of the term which expires June 30th. J. W. Bradley, Eminent Archon; C. W. Bradley, Worthy Provost; J. J. Graham, Secretary.

J. W. Taylor, Treasurer; O. W. Ellis, P. S.; J. H. Giles, Prelate; L. J. Howard, Inspector General. A. H. Bradley was appointed Representative to the Grand Conclave which meets in Baltimore, May, 15th, 1876.

RELIGIOUS.—Our church people have been during the present week anxiously looking for the coming of a deputation of gentlemen from the Y. M. C. A. of Baltimore to hold a series of meetings in the various churches of our town, with a view of awakening an interest upon the subject of religion among the young people of our community. They were expected yesterday. An interesting programme of services has been proposed.

Meetings of marked interest have been held each night during the present week in some of the churches. Wednesday afternoon a Union Prayer Meeting was held in the Lecture Room of the Presbyterian church, as preparatory to the services commenced yesterday afternoon. This looks like business, brethren, and if the work is pushed on this line, it must result in great and lasting good. It is very much desired that the people of the country around shall attend and participate in the meetings. The following is the order of services:

As preparatory to the Conference a Prayer meeting was held in the Methodist Episcopal Church on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. On Friday evening at 7 1/2 o'clock a mass meeting was held in the M. E. Church, followed by singing and prayer. The following is the order of the Conference and discussion of topics. The morning prayer meeting will be held in the M. E. Church at 7 1/2 o'clock, commencing at 7 1/2 o'clock, followed by discussion. The afternoon prayer meeting will be held in the M. E. Church at 2 o'clock, followed by singing and prayer. Sunday morning prayer meeting in the Methodist Episcopal Church at 10 o'clock, followed by singing and prayer. Regular services at regular hours in the churches. Addresses may be expected from members of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon children's Union Mass Meeting in the Presbyterian church at 4 o'clock. Young Men's meeting in the M. P. church at 4 p. m. the same day. Sunday evening Farewell meeting in the M. P. and Presbyterian churches at 7 o'clock, opened by prayer and singing of 20 minutes each, followed by addresses. Let Y. M. C. Associations, their objects and work, their demand and promise. Let Association in our midst. What is the best plan for organization? How can they be best supported? And how can the work be most successfully prosecuted? Let every Christian pray for success. The public is cordially invited to all meetings of the Conference, and all the ministers are earnestly solicited to be present and participate.

Fresh stock of Toys and Fancy Goods just received by John P. Owens & Co.

We desire to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of "Forest and Stream," a weekly paper devoted to Field and Aquatic sports, Practical Natural History, Fish culture, Protection of game and the proper Preservation of our Forests which are yearly being depleted. It is full of very interesting reading, and we believe that when once it gets hold of a subscriber that death alone stops his subscription, so infatuated does he become with its contents. A father could make a son no more useful present, and the paper has only to be seen to be appreciated.

F. C. Todd is selling Dry Beef, best in market, 20 cts.

And some say there is no profit in raising chickens or keeping hens.

WANTED.—At Gordy Bros., 100 pairs of Pigeons by the last of this month.

Daniel F. Beatty, of Washington, N. F., by his perseverance and well directed efforts, has attained the reputation, so far as meritorious Pianos and Organs are concerned, and with the ancient philosopher, can with confidence proclaim the much abused word "Eureka!" his instrument gives unmistakable evidence of it, the Press applauded them, and those who have thoroughly tested them express their entire satisfaction in the most happy manner. He wishes good substantial agents in proper localities. You who contemplate purchasing an instrument, or desire an agency, write for particulars.

F. C. Todd has reduced prices on all groceries. "B" sugar 10 cts, "A" sugar 11 cts, Granulated sugar 12 1/2 cts, Buckwheat Flour Commercial Extra Flour $6.50, Super $6.00, Family $7.50. Stock complete, and all goods guaranteed to suit or money refunded.

THE HOME.—We have received copies of a neatly printed and illustrated young folks' paper, of the above name, published by S. L. Thorpe, No. 14 Boliver St., Cleveland, Ohio. It is printed on clear white paper, and is filled with a variety of interesting and instructive reading for youth. It is issued monthly for 30c per year, or semi-monthly at 50c. The publishers offer very liberal inducements to agents and guarantee each subscriber a fine chromo. They also offer to send sample copies free to all who desire to examine it.

You can get Geo. A. Clarke's "O. N. T." cotton for 5 cents a spool, at J. P. Owens & Co's.

ALL THE WAY FROM EMER.—Saturday Paddy McFlannigan, and very respectable gentleman from Ethiopia, named Jim Green, hands on an oyster boat, which was lying at Shad Point came to town to splice the main brace, as all good sailors are wont to do when they are in port. Paddy spliced his most too many times and getting very noisy and full of light attempted to put a figure head on his companion. For this he was arrested and placed in the lock-up, where he was kept until Sunday morning when the captain of the vessel came to town paid Paddy's fines and took aboard, a man fully convinced that Salisbury whiskey would make drunk come quicker than any other liquor this side of St. Louis.

In this connection it might not be out of place to ask if our town authorities have any legal right to imprison a person in a cold room, and keep him there all night without a spark of fire? We believe that justice should always deal out punishment to the guilty, but humanity and justice should ever walk hand in hand. When the lock-up was first built, it had a good and substantial stove placed in it for the comfort of the confined. Two well known offenders broke the stove to pieces, and nothing was ever done with them for this act of vandalism. In our opinion they should be made even at this late day, to make good the damage they did.

If you want your pictures neatly and cheaply framed go to R. D. Ellegood's store head of Main street. Frames of all sizes and prices on hand or made to order. A choice assortment of pictures for sale.

Caroline county jail has six inmates.

The Agricultural Society of Talbot County will hold a cattle show next fall.

Denton has been raising money to light her streets at night, by an entertainment consisting of Charades, and Tableaux and Music. If their town is to be no better lighted than ours, they had as well let it remain in its primitive darkness.

The Sheriff of Cecil County must have had a hot contest last fall, for over since the election he has been cooling.

Brother Hand of the Citizens wants calithumpian serenades abolished. We hope the fellows about Centerville will give him a rousing one—one that he will appreciate, you know.

Mr. Charles Judson, of East New Market, calmly stated the muzzle of his gun on his foot, and proceeded to let down the hammer. It was only necessary to slack off the first one. He thinks that way of doing it is however too thin. The Dr. has some hopes that the whole foot will not have to be amputated.

Centerville is anxious for a town-hall. So are we. Have been so for years.

Will Evans has resigned the editorial chair of the Crisfield Leader, for "reasons of a private character, and which would not interest the public." Evans was a good, whole souled, mirth-loving fellow, and always gave his readers a good paper. We shall miss him much, but are certain that the Leader will miss him more.

Crisfield is excited over the spoken of repeal of the local option law. Our people are just the reverse of this. We are excited over its proposed passage, or non-passage, which is it?

Dr. E. R. Waller, of Deal's Island, died on the 15th inst.

A little colored girl, daughter of Robert Brown, was burned to death near St. Michaels, one day last week.

A new steamboat line between Baltimore and St. Michaels is to be started soon.

The roads near Easton are in bad repair.

The barn of William Hunter, of Ross's Corner, Queen Anne's county, was destroyed by fire on the 17th inst. Two hundred and twenty-five barrels of corn, and two hundred bushels of wheat were burned. The barn is supposed to have been set on fire by a negro named Robert Brown, who was living with Mr. Hunter, and was displeased over some trifling matter. He was arrested and carried to Centerville jail.

The Democrat and News advises the farmers of Dorchester county to plant apple instead of peach or pear trees this Spring.

The name of a recently organized literary society in Cambridge is the "Dorset Club."

The Easton Star is anxious for a new jail, and all who read the following description of the old, will be about of his opinion.

So rotten are the walls of the Easton jail, the prisoners confined in it, go through them like water when they are in the jail at best, is a relic of barbarism. It is a miserable place to confine human beings in, and all the aches and excruciations from the prisoners' quarters have to be brought down in buckets through the apartments occupied by the sheriff. This is disgraceful. There is no means for prisoners taking air and exercise, but they are barbarously confined from month to month in a room sometimes half a dozen together in one room. This is not right. Humanity demands that this should be changed. We need a new jail; a good and strong one, with modern improvements, so that prisoners will be secure, and at the same time have facilities for exercise; and the sheriff should not be subjected to existing annoyances. We may improve, but we have no right to torture prisoners. If legislation is necessary to make necessary improvements we ought to have the legislation, and that without delay.

DIED.

BALL.—Died at camp, February 16th, 1876 in Somerset county, JOHN E. BALL, son of William and Elizabeth Ball, aged 3 years, 6 months and 18 days.

Dear parents, don't think of little Johnny as in the tomb. For he did not see its dark shadow and gloom, through the rhye the dark and wide, Jesus has taken him safely over the tide. I. R. H.

Waters' Concerto Organ is so voiced as to have a tone like a full rich alto voice. It is especially human in its tone, powerful, yet sweet.—Rural New Yorker.
