

THIRD and LAST SUPPLEMENT TO THE Maryland GAZETTE, of the Tenth Instant.

Annapolis, October 31, 1765.

READER,

Y means of a late - - - - - B A of Parliament, a Stoppage is put to the Publication of all Gazettes or Papers of Public Intelligence, and Advertisers, after this Date, except on such Intolerable and burthenome Terms as cannot at present be complied with here, of course This must now Cease and Determine. The Printer hereof returns his grateful Thanks to the Public, for their past Encouragement, and hopes he has in some Degree contributed to their Entertainment and Amusement, which he has always en-deavour'd, and would still continue so to do, but for the Reasons well known. If the Stamp-A& should be Repealed, or the Operation of it Suspended, he proposes to revive the MARYLAND GAZETTE, and again Publish in the same Manner, for the same Price, and with the same Impartiality and Freedom, as heretofore, provided there shall appear a sufficient Number of Encouragers for the carrying on a Work so Necessary, and of such general Utility. All those who shall be inclinable to give a helping Hand thereto [on the Terms ONLY that the A& be Suspended] are desired to leave their Names at these Places where the late Gazette used to be Lodg'd, or at the Printing-Office: And as soon as possible, it will be Reviv'd, and a New Letter of a proper Size, provided for the Purpose. None are desired to Subscribe, except such as intend to Pay regularly. And all those who are in Arrears, either to Myself and Mr. Rind, or on my own Account only, are earnestly requested to make speedy Payment. Reader, Farewell! Farewell, Reader.

JONAS GREEN.

N. B. Single Advertisements, or any Kind of PRINTING, the GAZETTE only excepted, is carried on as usual.

LONDON, August 8.

A GENTLEMAN of Distinction, at the West End of the Town, remarkable for his great Strength and Athletic Constitution, has laid a Wager of 1000 Guineas that he throws a Stone 50 Pounds Weight 50 Yards. Great Bets are depending on the Decision.

On Thursday one Carr, a Waterman, laid a Wager that he and his Dog would jump from the Centre Arch of Westminster Bridge, and be both at Lambeth within a Minute of each other.
The Dog seeing his Master go off, jumped immediately after him into the River, seized him by the Nape of the Neck, and would not let go his Hold until he had by force landed him at the Bridge Foot on the Surry Side, to the great Diversion of the Spectators. A Gentleman present offered 5 Guineas for the Dog, which was refused.

NEW-YORK, October 17.

We hear that a Design of establishing in this City a Market, to commence on Wednesday the 1st Instant, for all Kinds of Home Manufactures, meets with universal Approbation; as many were at a Loss to know how to come at what they wanted in these Articles; and it is expected that it will be equally convenient for those who have such Goods on Hand, and that quick Sale, and ready Money, will induce them and many others to increase their Diligence, and bring their Goods to Market.

On Tuesday last arrived the Sloop William, Captain Rivers, in 36 Days from Pensacola; by whom we learn, that ten Sail of Transports, with Troops (to relieve those on that Station, who are going Home) were arrived there, and that there has been a great Mortality amongst them, ten or twelve dying of a Day, amongst which was that gallant and worthy Officer, Brigadier General BOUQUET, whose eminent Services, and amiable Character, demand the Tears of his Country and Acquaintance. He arrived the 23^d of August, and died the 2^d Day of September. Out of six Officers Ladies, who accompanied them, five were dead, and the other very ill, and not likely to recover. The Place, we are told, is barren and uncomfortable, and as no Trade has been permitted with the Spaniards, 400,000 Dollars having been turned away, the Design and Use of it is not very discernible, unless it be for a Burying Ground.

PHILADELPHIA, October 24.

Extract of a Letter from Bristol, August 15.

"The present Situation of the Colonies alarms every Person who has any Connection with them; and if our new Ministry do not repeal the A& made by the old One, we shall all be ruined. The Avenues of Trade are all shut up. We have no Remittances, and are at our Wits End for Want of Money to fulfil our Engagements with our Tradesmen. How this will end, Time only can evince; however we dread the Consequences."

We hear from Antigua, that a Ship from London, bound for Jamaica, but put in to unload some Goods for the Merchants of Antigua, had brought over three Persons, said to be the Distributors of Stamps for the Island of Jamaica, &c. who were in so great a Hurry to get to the Spot, where, with Impunity, they might rob and tear from the Inhabitants of those Isles their Money and Liberties, that they offered any Price for a Vessel to go down immediately to Jamaica.

We hear from New-Jersey, that one Family in that Province, had manufactured and wore as much Cloth, &c. as would, by a moderate Computation, have cost 50 l. had they purchased it. A noble Example, worthy the Imitation of at least every One who lives in the Country. If one Family can save the Country 50 l. in a Year, how much would 20,000 in each Province save?

We have the Pleasure of informing our Readers, that the important Business of the GENERAL CONGRESS at New-York is in great Forwardness, and, it is thought, will be finished this Week; in the transacting of which, we are assured, there has been the most perfect Harmony and Unanimity.

In the New-York Mercury there is the following Character of the late brave General BOUQUET.

"This Gentleman served his Majesty all the last War with great Distinction. He was promoted from conscious Merit, not only unenvied, but even with the Approbation and good Wishes of all who knew him; his superior Judgment and Knowledge of Military Matters; his experienced Abilities, known Humanity, remarkable Politeness, and constant Attention to the CIVIL RIGHTS of his Majesty's Subjects, rendered him an Honour to his Country, and a Loss to Mankind."

ANNAPOLIS, October 31.

This Day the General Assembly of this Province is to meet here; the Hon^{ble} Speaker, and a Number of the Gentlemen of Both Houses, being already in Town.

On Sunday last, being a very windy Day, a Schooner loaded with a light Cargo, by carrying too much Sail was overfet near the Mouth of Patuxco, and one Man Drowned.
She afterwards drove ashore at the lower End of Kent-Island.

Friday last Died in Dorchester County, the Rev^d. Mr. Thomas Airy, Rector of a Parish there.

Yesterday arrived here the Brig Free-Mason, Capt. M^r Kirdy, in Seven Weeks from Cadiz.
She spoke the Brig Sally, Captain Richard Thompson, from New-York for Madeira, in Lat. 32° 25'. Out 43 Days. All well.

Mr. GREEN,

"Your late Pamphlet relative to the Parliamentary Taxation of the Colonies, I have had a curfery Reading of; and as it abounds with so much good Sense, sound Reason, plain and demonstrative Arguments, true Spirit of Patriotism and Loyalty, that I am in Love with the Author; as a Testimony of which I shall be obliged by your sending me a Dozen of them."

THE FIRST Impression of, CONSIDER-ATIONS ON THE PROPRIETY OF IMPOSING TAXES ON THE BRITISH COLONIES, FOR THE PURPOSE OF RAISING A REVENUE, by ACT OF PARLIAMENT, being nearly all Sold, a Second is now in the Press, and will be publish'd in a few Days.

The ingenious Author of a Piece from Virginia, mention'd some Time ago, should have been obliged with a Publication, but it's coming so late, just as the Gazette was at it's last Gasps, and so many other Things to do, render'd it impossible, and he must excuse the Omission.

In the first Page of last Week's Paper, the middle Column, in a Recital of a Paragraph of the Charter, there is Discretion, instead of Discretions.

This PAPER has never had Occasion to appear in Deep Mourning, since the Death of our late good KING, until NOW.

Annapolis, October 30, 1765.

GEORGE ISENBURG, intending to spend a few Months in this City, takes this Method to acquaint those Gentlemen inclining to learn or perfect themselves on the German Flute, that they may be Taught by him to perform in a short Time. He may be spoke with at Mr. John Bull's.
He also intends not to take above 8 Schollars.

I have laid before you my Sentiments on your present affecting Situation; and may Divine Providence inspire you with Wisdom to act in such a Manner as will most advance that Happiness I ardently wish you may enjoy.
