FIRE.—Tuesday afternoon the roof of the house on Church street occupied by Mrs. Trader and sons caught fire from sparks from the chimney, and for a short time, things looked favorable for a disastrous conflagration. Not a hook-ladder could be obtained anywhere, and the roof had to be knocked off from the inside. We hope to see that hook and ladder company now organized at once and we would earnestly advise our people to burn out their chimneys at least once in three months. It is not much trouble, and may save the town.

Persons visiting the Centennial, can find a first-class Hotel by taking the 15th St. cars at the depot, get off at Chestnut St. and walk up a few doors to the West End Hotel, where excellent rooms can be had, while the restaurant is one of the best in the city. This house has recently been opened to the public on the European Plan, and is one of the best kept houses in the country. The West End is kept by Mr. Jones, formerly of the Hoffman House, N. Y., and managed by Mr. James McDermott, of Barnum's Hotel notoriety, who is one of the best Hotel men to be found. Call and try the West End.

STILL ANOTHER FIRE.—About three o'clock yesterday morning Messrs. L. W. Gunby and A. L. Richardson, who occupy the front room of the Eastern Shoreman office as a sleeping apartment, were aroused from their slumbers by smelling smoke in their room. Hastily getting up, they soon found the cause. An employee in the Shoreman office had been carelessly saving ashes in a box, and the box had ignited from live coals contained in the ashes, burned through and fired the flooring and wall of the house as also a pile of waste paper lying near. A good supply of water was fortunately at hand and the flames were soon extinguished. Cannot our town commissioners pass a rigid act prohibiting all parties from saving ashes in or near any building? If done at all it should be done at once, and not after the town is destroyed by negligence.

PENNY ANTE.—On Saturday night last, two gentlemen who were up, rather late, discovered a light in one of the largest manufacturing establishments of the place. Knowing that no work was carried on there at night, he was naturally somewhat interested, not knowing but that the place was on fire. Going to the residence of the proprietor, and hastily awaking him from his slumbers, the trio with a brace of revolvers hurried to the building. On nearing an open door, suppressed voices were heard, and it was evident that some persons who had no business there, had charge of the building. A charge was made on the room, and the crowd captured. All hands were surprised, for instead of seeing some drunken fellows in possession, a crowd of darkies were sitting around a board on which was a greasy deck of cards, numerous small piles of pennies, and a small piece of candle stuck to the board in the most primitive fashion. They took in the situation at a glance, and considering "discretion the better part of valor," beat a hasty retreat. As this is the first offense, we suppress all names, and hope the lesson thus opportunely taught them will be heeded.

ELOPEMENT.—Yesterday week, one of our most popular justices was called to Delmar, to attend to some legal business. At the depot on his way home he was introduced to Miss Kate Conaway, a very pretty and interesting Delaware lady. The lady being young and supposed by her friends to be travelling alone, was placed in charge, with instructions to see her safely to her destination in Salisbury. The cars had barely started when a spruce young gentleman emerged from rear end of the car and came down and occupied the vacant seat beside Miss Kate. The Judge looked on and wondered, but his astonishment very visibly increased when he saw that the young man had a ticket only to Salisbury. As they neared this place he told the lady that the next station was Salisbury and that he would see her to her house of visit. She now thanked him kindly for past attention, but said that the gentleman by her side—Mr. Shepherd Tindal, would escort her up, his judicious smelling a big "mice" but said nothing.

The train got into Stevens' hack and were carried to the Peninsula House. After ten they proceeded to hunt up a divine to make them one Rev. Mr. Urie officiated, and soon satisfied them on this score. The newly married pair left the hotel on Saturday afternoon and proceeded to the house of a friend where the bride still is, the husband who owns a nice farm near Concord, going home the early part of the week. We understand that there was no opposition to the match, but that the romantic young hearts could not resist the temptation to create a sensation. The stern realities of house-keeping with shad at fifty cents a pair and spring chickens at thirty cents a pound will however soon bring them down to the level of the old stagers. No cards.

Messrs. J. H. Bahrenburg & Bro., whose card may be found in another column, can be found at No. 262 Washington St., N. Y., and are good and reliable men, who will make safe returns, and good sales.

In another column will be found the card of A. S. Cook, commission merchant, 145 and 146 West street, N. Y. Mr. Cook has been established since 1855, and his long experience and extensive knowledge of trade enables him to get good prices and make safe contracts. He is so well and favorably known in this community that we need do no more than call special attention to him, as one who can be found at his post, and relied on to make good sales and quick returns.

At 81 Dey street may be found Messrs. Huyler & Wood, whose card you will see in another column. These gentlemen are safe, reliable and discreet merchants, who will not fail to give satisfaction to persons who send them stuff in good order. They will make safe returns, and faithfully account for all shipments.

Messrs. Edwards & Voorhees, at 104 Barclay street, are well and favorably known among the trade, and are well recommended, and we presume will give satisfaction to all shippers. They have a convenient place to obtain good prices and strike the early morning trade.

Messrs. Jameson Brothers are represented here by Wm. A. Trader, Esq., and he will be pleased to give any information of his firm that may be needed, while shippers may be satisfied that all will be right. Their place is Nos. 43 and 45 Fulton Pier, W. W. Market.

Mr. W. Johnson, at 236 Washington street, whose card will also be found in another column, will be pleased to receive consignments and guarantees good sales and quick returns. Try him.

A. V. B. Fountain, produce and commission merchant, at 185 Reade street, N. Y., will give prompt attention to all shipments consigned to him, while a long experience in business enables him to get good prices and make quick returns. Consignments solicited.

Messrs. Perrine & Bennett, at No. 55 Merchants Row, are young, active, enterprising men, who will be pleased to give our shippers a chance to see that they can get good prices and make safe returns.

Messrs. Bell & Henry, at No. 230 Washington St., are good and reliable men, well known to the shipping community, and will be pleased to have consignments from our people, that they may have an opportunity to show what they can do in the way of obtaining good prices.

Messrs. Titus Brothers are represented here by Mr. H. D. Spence, who will always be on hand to attend to shippers. These gentlemen are so well known here that it is useless to say more.

Mr. Spence also represents Messrs. Wm. S. Phillips & Co., Philadelphia, who can do as well as most men with goods shipped to them.

Messrs. Wm. E. Collins & Co., successors to Huston, Collins & Co., at 313 South Front St., Philadelphia, whose card may be found in another column, will be pleased to receive the continued patronage of our people. They will assure good sales and quick returns. They are worthy gentlemen, and we would be pleased to see our people favor them with a good patronage.

Messrs. Brower Brothers, at 86 Park Place, whose card appears in another column, are a good live firm, safe to deal with, and generally reliable. Mr. W. N. Hastings represents them at Delmar and Salisbury. Shippers will find it to their advantage to patronize this firm.

Local Advertiser.

DE. T. S. BELL, Editor.

SATURDAY, MAY 20TH, 1876.

This paper has double the circulation of any paper published on the Peninsula.

Several small lots of strawberries were shipped from this place last Monday.

A very superior stock of men's Fine Cut Goggles now offered for sale at Cannon's, No. 24 Main St.

THE KING OF ALL CIGARETTES, for sale only by Gordy Bros.

Mr. John Buchanan has been in the city the past week purchasing goods for the new store he intends opening.

Mr. John Tracy shipped the first peas on Wednesday last. They were shipped on the same day.

Destiny's knitting cotton 8 cts per ball at A. G. Toad-vine's.

If you want good beef, go to Nat. Parsons, Division street, head of Main.

The Wisconsin Falls Mills are manufacturing large quantities of strawberry crates for Southern markets.

If you wish a good meal stop with Parsons at the Salisbury House. He knows how to set a good table and do it.

Any one who wants a first class Parlor Organ, any make, can be accommodated by calling at this office.

The strawberry crate and basket business is quite a trade in our country. About thirty thousand crates and a half million baskets are the annual product.

Cannon has a fine assortment of 'Chevrolet' suits for spring and summer, also a nice line of Worsteds and vests. No 24 Main St.

For choice Family Groceries, go to J. P. Owens.

Fresh Fish, oysters in every style, and on short notice at No. 2 Mill street. Call and see Mr. H. H. Spencer.

The Young Men's Christian Association of this place will hold a strawberry and ice cream festival at their house early in June, to assist in procuring funds to establish a reading room.

For a fine second hand Printing Press, capable of printing a Newspaper 21x28 inches. In good order and will be sold cheap. Inquire at this office.

Messrs. Wainmaker & Brown will accept of leaving out their advertisement this week. We have made arrangements with the Salisbury Sentinel to publish it on Tuesday next and it will appear in these columns next week.

Those Calf French Ties at Cannon's are selling very fast. He has the finest and cheapest stock of Ladies' Button Gaiters we have ever seen. No. 24 Main street.

Persons needing Dry Goods will find a large and well selected stock at A. G. Toad-vine's one price cash store. Give him a call.

Black-eyed peas should not be planted while the wind is blowing from the north-east, as they will not prosper if planted on that wind. A south or south-west wind is best, and this will hold good with most kinds of vegetation.

A. C. Smith & Co., notify all boats not to stop at their wharf unless they wish to pay wharfage. This is no more than fair. Mr. Smith pays rent for the wharf and cannot afford to give the use of it to other parties.

Cheese for sale at A. G. Toad-vine's. White suits from 8 to 18 dollars.

Mr. Parsons is constantly receiving first-class seed from Wilmington, which he is selling at reasonable prices. Give him a call at Division street, head of Main.

Mr. Wm. W. Johnson has our thanks for some of the largest strawberries we have yet seen, (about the size of Apples) left at our sanctum last Monday. Mr. Johnson lives on the banks of the Wisconsin where vegetation starts early and matures slowly.

Rev. Wm. H. Chapman, pastor of M. E. Church, Georgetown, D. C., writes: "Having had an opportunity to test the excellent qualities of Dr. Bell's Cough Syrup, I hesitate not to say, it is the best remedy I have ever used in my family."

When in want of Groceries call and see Gordy Bros. They have a very fine stock and sell at very low figures. All goods guaranteed as represented or money refunded.

The festive bull-frog croaks with fear at sight of the dangerous gunnaris. Its dull head hides its wily eyes. He is an omen and yet so false. Joems dreamt this piece after setting up until two o'clock in the A. M., with his girl who is fond of frogs.

FOR SALE—One new Dearborn. For Terms &c., Apply to B. L. GILLIS & SONS, Salisbury, Md. apr. 1.

The case of William Gray vs Robert Price was decided in favor of the latter. Gray claimed $25 damages because Price, who was in his employ turned out some bad barrow teeth, which Gray said injured his reputation as a barrow-tooth maker.

WALKING CANES FROM THE BIRTH-PLACE OF WASHINGTON.—At Farlow's planing mill, the first lot of canes from the above named locality has been received, and they will be rapidly finished up and sent to Philadelphia. Every patriotic American should buy one of these canes. Full particulars of this enterprise will be given.

HARNESS.—Persons in want of cheap and durable Harness will please call on Messrs. Taylor & Gillis, No. 62 Main St., where a first-class suit of Harness can be put up on short notice out of the best material. Suits from $12 to $30, according to quality.

For choice confectionaries, foreign and domestic fruits, &c., go to J. P. Owens.

The fishing season on the Wisconsin is about winding up, and the fishermen say that they have lost money, not having made enough to pay for their nets, boats, &c. We are of the opinion that our people would be as well off if not a fish ever came up river, as the present time takes so many people away from useful employment.

Our readers will excuse us for the small amount of reading matter contained in our issue of to-day, as we desired to get as many of the laws published this week as possible. In the future we will give them the story of the great wheel, written for, and published in the Baltimore Weekly Sun.

F. C. Todd has reduced prices on all groceries. "B" sugar 10 cts, "A" sugar 11 cts. Granulated sugar 12 cts. Buckwheat 4 cts. Commercial Extra Flour $6.50, Super $6.00 Family $7.50. Stock complete, and all goods guaranteed to suit or money refunded.

ASCENSION DAY.—Next Thursday is the anniversary of the Ascension of our Blessed Lord. There will be morning service of the administration of Holy Communion on that day in St. Peter's church. Service to commence at 10 A. M.

GORDY BROTHERS have now in store a large lot of Flour consisting of Super, Extra and Family, that they bought before the advance, which enables them to sell at city figures, all orders will be promptly filled and at the very lowest figures.

REMOVAL.—Lewis Ladomus & Co., Jewelers, have removed from their old stand, No. 802 Chestnut St. to their new store, No. 1016 Chestnut St., next door to St. Stephen's Hotel, where they will be pleased to see their old customers and the public in general. Citizens of the Eastern Shore of Maryland are cordially invited to call and see them.

Don't forget to attend the Democratic Primaries to day at 2 o'clock, P. M., to select Delegates to the Convention which meets here on Tuesday next, to send Delegates to Baltimore on the 31st inst. It is the duty of Democrats to be always on hand and see that good men are chosen to all Conventions.

Norfolk berries are now going in market and the probability is that their largest shipments will be over before our berries. At any rate such we hope will be the case, so that we may hear no more such reports as "Market glutted with Norfolk berries, selling at one to two cents per quart."

FOR SALE.—A draught and driving horse, 9 years old, weight about 1200 lbs, quiet and gentle to all harness. For terms, Apply to GORDY BROS.

Juvenile marriages are not entirely out of style. Mr. Joseph Hayman, aged 22, of Trappe district, came to Salisbury this week and carried away and led to the altar, Miss Martha Tindall, aged 12 years and 6 months. May they live long and be happy.

[As we go to press we learn the parties were not married, but would be this Friday evening.]

H. D. Spence will continue to represent the well known firm of W. S. Phillips & Co., at 305 S. Front street, Philadelphia, during the coming season. Cards and stencils furnished by Mr. Spence who will be pleased to meet his old patrons at the depot. Thankful for past patronage he solicits a continuance of the same. [April 15-3m.]

We have just received from A. B. Flemming & Co., Edinburgh, Scotland, their advertising sheet, which is a literary curiosity. It is published in every known language of the civilized world, and is calculated to amuse and entertain any one who is fond of classic lore. It can be seen at our sanctum, as we desire to preserve it as a curiosity.

For splendid Roll Butter, go to John P. Owens at 40 cents per lb.

THE NEW REPUBLIC.—We have received the first number of the New Republic, a neat and well executed eight page monthly. It is well gotten up, and its leading articles touch upon the money question, as it effects the trade and commerce of the country, and its editor handles the subject with great ability. It is published at 39 & 41 26th St., N. Y., at 50 cts per annum.

If you want cheap Harness, go to Gordy Bros. Full suits from $11 to $17.

We understand that if those persons who own wharves on the Wisconsin will put them in order, that either of the steamboat companies will put a boat on this river this year. (Will not our wharf owners take the hint and enhance their property by causing a boat to run on our river? It will pay well to give the use of your wharves and act as agents for nothing for the sake of having a boat.

A STRANGE PHENOMENON.—It is a fact that the top of every tall cherry tree points to the north-east, and persons who are lost on a cloudy day may always ascertain the cardinal points of the compass, by seeking a cherry tree, as its higher branches are sure to point to the north-east. One sawed accounts for this by saying that they grow on the south-west wind, hence the bearing over to the leeward.

The Old Dominion Steamship Company's ships leave Pier 37 North River, N. Y., at 3 o'clock, P. M., on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, for Lewes, Del., connecting with the various railroads on the Peninsula early the following morning. Passengers returning from New York, should bear this in mind, as the boats leave one hour sooner than formerly.

WANTED.—By a good reliable Produce Commission House in New York, an agent who can procure influence liberal consignments of berries and other fruits. A live man can make a good arrangement. For further information apply to the Editor of this paper. March 25th, 81.

The young men of our town have now a chance to place a small amount of their spare change where it will do the most good. Dr. Bell has a splendid pleasure sail-boat which he will dispose of dirt cheap. There is no other town on the shore but what contains at least one sail-boat. The ladies are fond of sailing and we hope for the credit of the place, that the boat will be kept here. A club of ten could buy her and get the full worth of their money the first season.

MARRIED.—On Tuesday night Miss Maggie Ellis, daughter of Thomas Ellis, Esq., was married to Mr. Joseph Dowdell. The whole affair was intended to be kept a profound secret for a short time, but all the witnesses were not members of any regularly organized secret society, so on Wednesday morning bright and early the thing was known far and wide.

We congratulate Mr. Dowdell on his choice. In future there will be no necessity for him to carve roses buds on marble. He has one at home. We tender the happy couple our best wishes.

H. D. Spence, with TITUS BROS., 154 West St., New York, will continue to represent this well known House, during the coming fruit season. Cards and stencils furnished by myself. Shall be pleased to meet my old patrons at the Depot. Thankful for past patronage, I solicit a continuance of the same. [April 15-3m.]

SAD ACCIDENT.—On the 10th inst. a son of Wm. T. Howard, aged 14 years, of this county, met with a severe accident by getting caught by the belt of the steam mill of Messrs. George Waller & Co. He was carried over the fly wheel several times, and before the machinery could be stopped, he had received several severe cuts about the head and face, and was otherwise injured, so that his life was despaired of. Dr. Kerr was called to his assistance, and it is said that he is doing as well as could be expected.

Mrs. A. E. Williams & Co., Milliners and Dress Makers, at No. 50 Main street, have also rented the second story of No. 52, where dress-making is extensively carried on. They are now prepared to do all kinds of work on short notice and warranted to please. The latest styles, best qualities of goods, and elegant fits guaranteed. Eggs taken at market prices for work and goods. Give them a call and see their pretty bonnets, hats and notions. Don't forget the place, 2 doors below the ADVERTISER building.

The Sentinel, a weekly newspaper will issue from the office formerly occupied by the Granger in this town, on Tuesday next, 23rd inst. It will be independent in politics, and devoted to the general welfare and progress of the county. Dr. L. S. Bell, formerly of the Bachelor, will drive the quill, and as the Dr. has always been regarded as a spicy writer, we predict that the Sentinel will be as great a favorite with the people as was the Bachelor before his marriage with the ADVERTISER.

GLUT OF HERRINGS.—Last Sunday afternoon the mill race above the iron bridge was fairly alive with herrings. It was estimated that there were several thousand in the school, and the bridge was crowded with persons looking at their antics. The temptation to attempt their capture was great, but a majority of our fishermen are too religiously inclined to break the Sabbath and concluded to wait until next day. Monday came, but the fish had disappeared, no one knows whether, and a more sorely disappointed crowd than were those fellows who expected to catch them by the boat load, you would not find in a week's travel.

BARNEN CREEK TERMS.—The schools of the village closed on Friday, the 19th inst. One of our teachers will be married at an early day. Dr. Louis Wilson will commence practicing his profession in a short time at this place.

Farmers are done planting corn principally in this section. Potato bugs are numerous, playing havoc in general.

No cards are played now at this place. Mr. Jackson has good rules and order in his place of business. It is rumored that a new store is to be opened here in a short time. The more the merrier.

A. P. Trader, at 31 Main street is prepared to do all kinds of custom-made work at the lowest cash prices possible for first-class work. In all cases a fit guarantee. Will compare stock and workmanship with work made anywhere in this county.

Repairing done with neatness and dispatch. Half-soleing done with square same as new. In all cases the money must be paid before removing the work. Give me a trial, as I intend to get up the best work ever made in the county or out of it.

The Atlantic Hotel, at Ocean City, will open on Thursday next, for the reception of visitors, and we predict for the Atlantic, under its new management, a prosperous career.—Messrs. Tracy & Dougherty are well known here, and it is believed that they will do all in their power to make their guests comfortable and happy. Mr. Tracy is a model hotel keeper, and thoroughly understands his business.

Disregarded.—The ordinance prohibiting the throwing of shells or other materials in the river within the corporate limits of the town is daily disregarded. This ordinance should be printed in bold type and posted up near the wharves. First let the stranger who brings oysters to this market know the rules of the town, and then if he willfully violates them make him pay the penalty. This not only applies to oystermen, but to numerous bad boys who seem to delight in filling up the river.

During the storm on last Sunday night, the residence of Mr. J. W. Murrell, a short distance below Harris' landing, was struck by lightning. The chimney was entirely demolished, and Mr. Murrell who was asleep in an upper room was rendered senseless, and did not speak until the following morning. His wife and children who were in the bed-room on the first floor were not injured at all. The house was filled for sometime with a heavy sulphurous smoke.

Mrs. A. E. Williams & Co., Milliners and Dress Makers, at No. 50 Main street, have also rented the second story of No. 52, where dress-making is extensively carried on. They are now prepared to do all kinds of work on short notice and warranted to please. The latest styles, best qualities of goods, and elegant fits guaranteed. Eggs taken at market prices for work and goods. Give them a call and see their pretty bonnets, hats and notions. Don't forget the place, 2 doors below the Advertiser building.

The Salisbury Sentinel made its appearance on Tuesday last, and is a neat 28 column newspaper. Judging from its initial number, it will be a lively sheet. It is published by R. L. Morgan & Co., Edited by Dr. L. S. Bell, whose name and style has won for him a good reputation as a terse and spicy writer. It is independent on all subjects, and we would suppose from the Doctor's salutatory that he will be still more independent if the people will only subscribe liberally and pay promptly, and favor the Sentinel with a good run of advertisements. That is right, Doc. it is well to look out for number one these hard times, but always remember that three things are essential to run a newspaper successfully. The first is money, the other two are back bone and brains, of the two last, it is hard to tell which ought to predominate, they are both so nearly allied to each other, and if either is feeble or sickly, the other soon becomes greatly impaired. We believe the Sentinel has a good combination of powers, and we predict for it a prosperous career. May it long live, prosper, and guard carefully the best interests of the people of Wicomico, and of the good old commonwealth.

A. P. Trader, at 31 Main street is prepared to do all kinds of custom-made work at the lowest cash prices possible for first-class work. In all cases a fit guaranteed. Will compare stock and workmanship with work made anywhere in this county.

Repairing done with neatness and despatch. Half-soles done with square all same as new. In all cases the money must be paid before removing the work. Give me a trial, as I intend to get up the best work ever made in the county or out of it.

Ignominious Retreat of the Calithumpian Brigade.—According to custom, the leader of the Calithumpians issued his manifesto on Thursday last for the Brigade to meet in front of Mr. T. Ellis'—whose daughter had recently married—at ten o'clock in the P. M. for the purpose of serenading the newly married couple. Promptly at the hour mentioned, the members with their various and original musical instruments put in an appearance at the appointed rendezvous. Be it known to all good members of the S. O. C. (Secret Order of Calithumpians) that when the mud-machine finished work here last Winter, the order lost three of its most active, valiant and useful members, and that their loss is sadly felt the denouement will show. A Small and Upright couple who dearly loved a good Singsong, had as it were become to be recognized as men of music and good musicians. The first two played sweetly on the horse fiddle, while the latter tottered ravishing strains on a tin horn. They were not here on Thursday night, not having received their notification. Well, as we said before, the Brigade came together and as promptly dispersed when the bride's brother, to see how brave the serenaders were, poked an old musket with about a double handfull of powder in her through the fence and let her off. The report was terrific and the leader went down behind "hoss-fiddle" No. 1 to keep any stray shot from hitting him. In the darkness he crawled away, a second edition of Ben Butler at Big Bethel. Demoralization now reigns supreme among the troops and a new leader will have to be elected ere they can hope to regain their lost prestige.—Sentinel.

TIDES OF THE CHESAPEAKE.—We republish by request the following article, written by us three years ago upon the subject of the tides of the Chesapeake Bay and the seeming mysteries connected therewith: This subject has been one of some interest to the mariner and landsman for a long time. The most curious fact is, that it is always ebb tide at Cape Henry at moon rising or setting—it is always high tide at New Point Comfort at moon rising or setting—it is always low tide at Hooper's Straits at moon rising or setting and high tide at Sandy Point at the same time, and flood tide at all points above Sandy Point, when the moon rises or sets. A vessel entering the Capes with a strong fair wind, at the beginning of the flood tide may carry the same tide to Baltimore. But a vessel leaving Baltimore for the Capes will encounter three flood tides on her way, no matter how fast she may sail, and it may be she will have to contend against several more if she has a head wind. Every flood tide that enters the Chesapeake Bay goes to the head of every tide, water stream or tributary of the Bay, while the same ebb tide does not run more than sixty miles, and sometimes a great deal less, so that there are always two ebb tides and two flood tides in Chesapeake Bay at the same time, and sometimes three of one or the other. The flood tide runs about six hours, the ebb runs a little longer, so that twelve hours and forty minutes are required for a flood tide, and ebb tide to pass the same point. It is always flood tide in the Wicomico River on the morning of Easter, and the same at Whitesville.

COUNTY CONVENTION.—Democratic primaries were held on Saturday, 20th inst., to send delegates to the county convention, which convened here on Tuesday, 23rd. General H. Humphreys, chairman of State central committee for Wicomico county called the convention to order at 12 o'clock M., when on motion, Wm. Birchhead was called to the chair, and H. N. Crawford appointed secretary. Credentials were handed in, when the following delegates were found to be present: First District—T. L. Jackson and R. L. Lloyd. Second District—L. M. Bradley and H. N. Crawford. Third District—James R. Willing and Levin J. Dashiell. Fourth District—Wm. G. Gordy and James C. Littleton. Fifth District—J. B. Perdue and James T. Truitt. Sixth District—James Laws and A. P. Bethards. Seventh District—T. W. H. White and Wm. S. Moore. Eighth District—S. H. Fooks and John L. Morris. Ninth District—Wm. Birchhead and H. W. Anderson.

The tenth district was not represented. Nominations being in order, James R. Willing, J. Augustus Parsons and Lemuel Malone were selected delegates to the State Convention, which meets in Baltimore on Wednesday next, to select 16 delegates to the St. Louis Convention, and S. P. Toadwine, James Laws and James Gillis were appointed alternates.

A motion was made and withdrawn to instruct the delegates to support Hon. E. K. Wilson for one of the delegates for the State at large to St. Louis. It being well known, however the Convention and the delegates selected by it were decidedly in favor of the proposition, it was regarded as superfluous to do so, unless it was known that he would sove.

The best of feeling prevailed the convention, and a unanimous expression of confidence in the delegates precluded the necessity of any instructions being given them as to the contingencies which might arise. The convention adjourned sine die.
