THE SALMAGUNDI, AND NEWS OF THE DAY. EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF COMIC ENGRAVINGS.

A NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1886. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the ridiculous, lively and pungent sallies which are daily flung along the tide of literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the coming world. Original wit and humor of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it—(those out of the city, will forward their orders, postage paid.)—If Paul he pleases himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that more than will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—there, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of satire, Criticism, Humour and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to render him successfully and profitably along with it.

The Terms of THE SALMAGUNDI will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. The papers are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Engravings which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

All orders must come postage paid. Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, German Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

TOBACCO LANDS.

THE undersigned offers for Sale his valuable Real Estate, situated on the north side of Severn River, opposite the city of Annapolis, containing upwards of

ONE THOUSAND ACRES.

About Six Hundred covered with wood and heavy timber, consisting of White Oak, Black Walnut and Poplar, &c. the residue for the most part under good fences—the whole nearly surrounded by the waters of Severn River, and a wide navigable creek, emptying into the Chesapeake Bay, which affords convenient water carriage for wood and produce from almost every part of the land.

It is at present divided into two farms, both in a promising state of improvement, and possessing large banks of oyster shells, and other sources of manure in great abundance. Plaster has been found to act with great effect on those lands in promoting the growth of clover—the soil is naturally of an excellent quality, for grain and other crops, and particularly well adapted to the culture of first quality Tobacco. There is a good water mill adjoining these lands, and a steam mill in Annapolis, both very convenient to this estate.

The buildings on both the farms are beautifully situated on eminences commanding extensive views of the river and bay, and are in tolerable repair. As persons inclined to purchase will view and judge for themselves, it is deemed unnecessary to be more particular in the description of this property. It will be found on examination to be worthy the attention of those who may have money to invest in real estate, and particularly of such as are skilled in cutting and selling timber, of which there is a great quantity near the water, and none more remote than half a mile.

These farms will be divided, to suit purchasers. The terms will be moderate and a long credit given for part of the purchase money, or for the whole, if well secured—possession may be had at any time.

For further particulars enquire of N. Brice Baltimore, or to the subscriber living on the premises.

Mr. Ely presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, praying the passage of an act, to appropriate a portion of the school fund, to a school in the vicinity of Ridgely's Forge, in said county.

Mr. Carpenter, chairman of the committee on divorce, made an unfavorable report upon the petition of Alexander Todd, of Talbot county, praying to be divorced from his wife, Margaret Todd.

Which was read the first and second time by special order, and concurred in.

The house then resumed the consideration of the motion of Mr. Mercer, to take up the preamble and resolution submitted by him, on the 3rd inst. in relation to the expunging from the journals of the Senate of the United States, a part of its proceedings.

On the question being put on giving a second reading to said preamble and resolutions,

It was resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Ely then offered as a substitute for said preamble and resolutions, the following:

Whereas the senate of the United States, did, on the 28th day of March, 1834, adopt the following resolution, viz:

Resolved, that the President in the late executive proceedings in relation to the public revenue, has assumed upon himself authority and power not conferred by the constitution and laws but in derogation of both."

Which resolution now stands upon the journal of the senate.

And whereas the General Assembly of Maryland regard this act of the senate as an assumption of power not warranted by the constitution, and calculated to subvert the rights of the House of Representatives, and the fundamental principles of our free institutions.

And whereas, this General Assembly deem it their solemn duty to assert in behalf of themselves and the people of Maryland, the right of the constituent to instruct, and the duty of the representative to obey, or resign—Therefore,

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, that the Senators from this State, in the Congress of the United States, be, and they are hereby, instructed to vote for, and to use their best exertions to secure the passage of a resolution directing the aforesaid resolution of the Senate of the 28th day of March, 1834, declaring that the President in the late executive proceedings in relation to the public revenue, has assumed upon himself authority and power not conferred by the constitution and laws, but in derogation of both," to be expunged from the journals of the Senate of the United States, by causing black lines to be drawn around the said resolution, as it stands on the original manuscript journal, and that the following words be plainly written across the face of the said resolution and entry—Expunged by order of the Senate of the United States.

Resolved, that the Governor be requested to transmit a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolution to each of the Senators and Representatives from this State, in the Congress of the United States, with the request that they lay the same before their respective bodies.

Which was read;

On the question being put, will the house adopt the substitute.

It was determined in the negative—Yeas 21, nays 42.

So the house refused to adopt said substitute.

The question then recurred upon the preamble and resolutions submitted by Mr. Mercer.

Mr. Berry moved to postpone said preamble and resolutions indefinitely.

Determined in the negative.

Mr. McLan then moved to amend said preamble and resolutions, by inserting in the 2nd resolution after the word "Senators," these words, "in Congress be instructed."

Determined in the negative.

So the house refused to adopt the amendment.

Mr. Carpenter called for the previous question, that is, "shall the main question be now put?"

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Wharton then offered a substitute for said preamble and resolutions.

Mr. Brown rose to a point of order, considering the substitute not relevant to the subject under consideration.

The Speaker gave it as the opinion of the Chair, that it was competent to offer the substitute.

From which decision of the chair, Mr. Heard appealed to the house, and the question was propounded.

Will the house sustain the chair?

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Wharton then offered as a substitute for said preamble and resolutions, the following:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Senate of the United States, in the passage of the following resolution—Resolved, that the President, in the executive proceedings in relation to the public revenue, has assumed upon himself authority and power not conferred by the constitution and laws, but in derogation of both," assumed upon itself authority and power not conferred by the constitution and laws, but in derogation of both.

Which was read.

On the question being put, will the House adopt the substitute.

It was determined in the negative.

The house then adjourned.

Mr. Merrick submitted the following message, which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

An order having been adopted by this house on a former day, to hear at the bar of the house the counsel for the memorialists who have prayed for indemnity, for losses sustained by the late riots in the City of Baltimore, on this day at 12 o'clock, we most respectfully invite your honorable body to attend in this hall at the hour designated above, to hear the arguments of said counsel.

The Clerk of the Senate delivered the following message.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have received your message, informing us that an order has been adopted by your honorable body, to hear at the bar of the house, counsel for the memorialists who pray indemnity for losses sustained by them, by the late riots in the city of Baltimore; and also inviting us to attend in your house this day at 12 o'clock, to hear the argument—which invitation we respectfully accept.

On motion of Mr. Merrick, it was ordered, that a committee of two members be appointed by the chair, to wait upon the honorable Senate, and inform them that the house is now in session, and prepared to hear the address of the counsel, in support of the memorials of John B. Morris and others, praying indemnity for losses sustained by the late riots in the city of Baltimore, and invite their attendance.

And, thereupon Messrs. Merrick and Hamilton, were appointed the deputation, pursuant to this order, who having repaired to the senate chamber, returned and reported, that they had performed the service required of them.

The President, and the other members of the Senate, were then received and conducted to the seats provided for their accommodation, within the bar of the house.

Mr. Merrick moved to take up the report of, and testimony taken before the joint committee of the Senate and House of Delegates, to which was referred the memorials of John B. Morris, Reverdy Johnson, and others praying indemnity for losses sustained by reason of the riots in Baltimore, in the month of August, 1835.

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. McLan presented a communication from John Nelson and Albert Constable, Esqrs. counsel on behalf of the city authorities of Baltimore.

Which was read, and is as follows:

To the Honourable,

The House of Delegates of Maryland.

The undersigned respectfully represent, That they have repaired to the Seat of Government, under the instructions of the City Authorities of Baltimore, as the counsel of said city, for the purpose of revisiting the passage of a bill reported by your honorable body by a select committee, to whom had been referred the memorials of John B. Morris, Reverdy Johnson and others, asking indemnity for the losses sustained by them in consequence of the riots of the 29th, 30th, and 10th, of August last.

That as soon as the City Councils of Baltimore were advertised of the tenor and provisions of the bill reported by your committee, they communicated to your honorable body their belief that, "to place the matter fully and fairly before the Legislature" additional and explanatory testimony, which they had in their power to offer, should be adduced, and with that view respectfully asked that the bill before referred to, with the report accompanying it might be recommitted, and such testimony received as might serve to elucidate the delicate and important subject to which it relates. That in pursuance of this request your honorable body did, by an order of the 7th inst. grant permission for the adduction of further testimony on or before this day, and directed that counsel should then be heard for and against the bill. That the City Councils of Baltimore were not apprised of this action of your honorable body until the afternoon of the 8th inst. and finding it impracticable within the time to which they were restricted, to produce the evidence which it was their desire to offer, adopted a resolution which was communicated to your honorable body on yesterday, respectfully requesting a further delay to enable them to avail themselves of the privilege extended to them by the order of the 7th inst.

Under this state of facts, the undersigned have been informed that your honorable body yesterday determined,

First, that the argument of Counsel, for and against the memorial of John B. Morris and others, should not be postponed.

Secondly, that the argument proposed to be heard, should not be confined to the question of right in the Legislature, to legislate on the subject, constitutionally, and,

Thirdly, that the bill and report of the joint committee should, after the argument, be recommitted to the committee, with instructions to take additional testimony and to report thereon, on or before Thursday the 17th inst.

Under these circumstances, the undersigned feel it to be due to the important interest they represent, to assign to the House of Delegates, the reason which restrains them respectfully to decline a participation in the discussion which it is proposed shall take place this day. It is this, that the whole case to which the discussion is to be made applicable, is not before the House. The authorities of Baltimore believe, that they will be enabled, if opportunity be afforded them, to produce testimony, to verify the aspect of the question involved in the bill, now pending before your honorable body.

In the existing state of the case, testimony having been heard but upon the part of the memorialists, it must be obvious, that no satisfactory discussion upon the facts, at least none that do justice to the views of the Corporation, upon whose peculiar interests the bill proposes to operate, can be had. If the Council of the City therefore, should appear before your honorable body under the order of yesterday, they must either rest their arguments upon assumed facts, or submit themselves to a discussion of the claims of the memorialists, upon circumstances which, it is the belief of the corporate authorities of Baltimore, do not present the question in issue, in a fair and just light. To consent to do this, would, in the apprehension of the undersigned, be to surrender the interests committed to their charge, and to violate the express instructions under which they are acting.

The desire of the city of Baltimore is, to be heard upon the whole case, as the evidence when taken may exhibit it, and for authorities never can consent, upon the bill, which in their judgment, deeply implicates the character, and encroaches upon the clearest constitutional rights of the Corporation to test her liability upon the testimony purely ex parte.

The undersigned have the honour to be, With the profoundest respect, &c. &c.

JOHN NELSON.

ALBERT CONSTABLE.

Mr. Richardson then submitted the following order,

Ordered, that inasmuch as it is the desire of this house, to have a full and thorough examination of the important points connected with the riots in the city of Baltimore, and as the Council for said city have declared, that they are unprepared in the absence of the testimony on the part of the City, to do justice to the important interests committed to their charge,

It is hereby ordered, that the Council for said city may appear at the bar of this House on behalf of the city on Thursday next, after such Friday, March 11th.

Mr. Annan presented a petition of Frederick A. Hobbey, G. M. Eichelberger and others, praying an act of incorporation for the benefit of the members of the Presbyterian Church in Frederick city.

Mr. Gough presented a petition of John Watkins, of H. Ford county, praying a law may pass making valid an indenture therein mentioned.

Mr. Bryan presented a petition of Ann E. Goddard, of Prince George's county, praying to be placed on the pension roll of said county.

Mr. McCullough presented a petition of Catherine Coyle, of Cecil county, praying to be divorced from her husband Terrence Coyle.

The committee upon grievances and courts of justice, to whom was referred the draft of a proposed act, to provide for the settlement of all controversies at present existing, or which may hereafter arise between persons, claiming title to lands under conflicting grants from the States of Maryland and Virginia, situated along the unadjusted boundary line between this State and the commonwealth of Virginia, have had the same under consideration.

The preamble of the contemplated act, recites that serious controversies daily occur between individuals owning lands in the vicinity of the disputed boundary line between Maryland and Virginia, resulting from the conflicting grants of said lands, heretofore made by said States, and suggests that the passage of the proposed act is the only remedy which can be had to quiet the minds of all future legal controversies, arising between citizens of this State, or a citizen or citizens of this State and a citizen or citizens of the State of Virginia, in regard to the title to lands lying along the disputed boundary line between this State and the State of Virginia, the title of the parties claiming under the older grant, and the grant of the one State, or the other, shall in all cases provide a final law by which the State of Virginia.

There are other provisions in the proposed bill which your committee deem unnecessary to recite. It is the opinion of the committee that the effect of the proposed law, would be materially to interfere with, and invalidate the operation of many existing valid grants, emanating from the State of Maryland, they therefore recommend the rejection of the bill in question, and that they be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

All which is respectfully submitted.

(Nothing appears to have been done with it.)

TUESDAY, January 31, 1836.

Mr. Tyson presents a petition from Jane White of the City of Baltimore, praying relief, referred to Messrs. Tyson, Howard, Merrick, Eskin and Thomas.

[No report seems to have been made.]

For the Maryland Gazette.

Mr. Editor:—American enterprise will lay its flag to no nation on earth after the year 1836. Every State in the Union is now projecting the most stupendous schemes for unloading and redistributing its resources, to the exclusion of which hardy and adventurous citizens yield a ready and intelligent aid—Pennsylvania and Maryland, Philadelphia and Baltimore, lay in the van; and the foremost station would surely be Baltimore's, if her respectable and orderly population would master the spirit of soul and ignorant licentiousness, which excludes from her precincts the enriching investments of foreign capitalists, and clenches the hand of bounty stretched out by the sister departments of the State in the spirit of beneficent patronage. Last week, the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means of the Maryland Legislature, recommended the vast addition of near ten millions of capital to the existing commercial facilities of Baltimore; the liberal and intelligent county members of the committee were willing in behalf of their Metropolitan City, to acquire the power of bestowing this bounteous accommodation, by pledging the faith of the whole State for the repayment of a foreign loan. How do the proposed beneficiaries thank them? How do they induce European resources to invest themselves within her borders? By reviling the patroness, and exhorting open contumacy to her power; by sending out with the very commissioners whom this committee advise should go abroad soliciting the confidence of transatlantic wealth, the most unflattering evidence of the character of the contemplated deceptions respects ability and confidence. What else can be inferred from the open publication of such sentiments as the annexed, quoted from "Baltimore," whose article appeared in the Baltimore Gazette of Sunday last, and which I ask you to republish. Mr. Merrick, the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and played through the Loan Office to the amount of $3,540,000 Thirty—They propose to lend all the balance just above mentioned, through the agency of two Loan Offices, one on each shore—and at 6 per cent. interest, except on such portion thereof as shall be expended in the draining of lands, or applying marl or other mineral manures, in the rearing of plantations of the mulberry tree and producing silk—and they estimate such part at one million of dollars.

Fourthly—They infer from known facts in like cases and the preceding propositions, 1st. That the dividends which may be declared on the contemplated subscriptions to works of internal improvement, will meet all of the interest that can accrue on the amounts so subscribed—after the end of the first three years provided for as above noticed.
2dly. That the interest which will be realized at the Loan Offices, on one half of the sum of two millions proposed to be borrowed for the exclusive use of the farmers and planters of Maryland, will provide for the interest which the State would have to pay on the said half, pro-3dly. They are aware that on the other half part, to wit, on the sum of one million of dollars, that would doubtless be applied to the draining of lands, &c. &c., the State would have to pay two per cent. per annum interest more than would be received thereon at the Loan Offices, and that this difference would be, in fact, as it is desired that it might be, a premium, usefully and profitably given for the improvement of agriculture and promotion of manufactures.
Fifthly. Upon the foregoing data the committee arrive at the following conclusions:
1st. The bonus or advance that would be received on the sale of ten millions of State stocks or bonds, would be, as above stated, $2,500,000 —from which $900,000, or two years interest on the sum of $9,000,000 invested in works of Internal Improvement, being deducted, there will be left, and may be lent through the Loan Offices for the term of 50 years, an excess acmounting to $1,540,000
2d. At the end of twelve years—computed from the opening of said offices—by compounding the interest on said sum or excess, it would produce the sum of 3,540,000 3d. At the end of twenty-four years, so compounding, this would become 6,130,000
4th. At the end of thirty-six years, the same course being continued, it would produce 12,320,000
5th. And at the end of the forty-eight years, it would produce 24,040,000
6th. If from this accumulated fund the whole debt incurred by the State as well as the two millions borrowed in order to lend the same to Farmers and Planters, the eight millions borrowed to be invested in works of internal improvement—should be paid off and be 10,000,000
7th. There would still thereafter remain in the Loan Offices a surplus of $14,040,000 8th. If from the aforesaid surplus there shall be deducted the sum which two per cent per annum repaid on one million of dollars lent to those who drain their lands &c. &c. and which for fifty years would be 100 per cent in all, or $1,000,000

own, exclusive of their present investments, eight millions of capital stock in shares of the Canal and Rail Road Companies aforementioned, that would be worth far more than they cost;
and also two millions of dollars of claims, being the original sum borrowed for and lent to the farmers and planters of this State.
Finally. If the government of Maryland should then think it to sell said shares and pay off the debt now proposed to be incurred, in order to subscribe to them—the proceeds of such sale would undoubtedly yield ten millions of dollars, that would discharge said debt, and leave in the Loan Offices of this State, subject only to the aggregate expenses incurred in their original management, the grand sum of $22,140,000
APPREHENDED LOSS OF THE AR-MY UNDER GENERAL GAINES.
We received from our attentive correspondent of the Charleston Mercury the annexed pleasant intelligence, which leaves little to be expected from the overbearing power of the Indians by whom it had been surrounded.
It is evident that the forces of the Indians are much underrated by our officers, and if this was the case the notion continues to prevail, the the army sent against them will be cut up in detail, and nothing eventuate from the expeditions but defeat and mortification. We regret the fears of the latter writer have induced unnecessary alarm, but the statements are certainly very unpleasant respecting the position of Gen. Gaines.

From our Correspondent.
Mercury Office,
CHARLESTON, March 6—4 P. M.
FROM FLORIDA.
Battle with the Indians.
The schr. S. S. Mills, Capt. Southwick, arrived here yesterday morning from St. Augustine, furnishing us with the Herald of the 2d inst.
It will be seen that Gen. Gaines had encountered the Indians in considerable force near the Outhlacoochee.
The particulars of the engagement, is given in the following letters from our correspondent, dated,
ST. AUGUSTINE, March 5.
Dear Sir:—I have purposely refrained from transmitting you any account of the Seminole Campaign, as the various contradictory statements in regard to the movements of the enemy until within a few days since, did not deserve notice, and were too brazen to be credited.
The simple fact, however, that St. Augustine, Jacksonville, Picolata, Camp King, Tampa and Key West, have been for such a length of time kept in a constant state of alarm, and each momentarily dreading an attack, is evidence of an enemy never before displayed by Indians—conduct they always exhibit—but that a body of fifteen hundred, or two thousand men, should in such demonstrations, and such dispositions of their force, is like the massacre of Major Dade—unparalleled. We knew that they must be concentrating on some point, and so the result has proved. You are aware that General Gaines approached within four or five miles of Fort Drane—took eight days provisions, and returned to the Outhlacoochee, for the purpose of discovering whether any Indians were on the point. On arriving at the stream his party was disputed by a body of savages, amounting it is surmised to fifteen hundred—a fight commenced across the river, which, although narrow, is deep and rapid—and continued two days, neither party gaining any material advantage.
The third day Gen. Gaines retired, and threw up a breast work—after which he advanced to the river with two hundred men, recommenced the skirmish, and then retreated with a hope of deceiving his enemy, and deceiving them into an ambush. After dark on the same day, the entire body of Indians, now largely reinforced by the arrival of scattering squads, crossed the river and had the bravery to attack him in his trenches. The stratagem was thus successful, the cannon opened upon them, and played with such effect, that it is presumed three hundred Indians and Negroes were killed. I say presumed, as it is not known whether that number was destroyed in the single engagement, or in the entire rencontre. When the cannon opened, the savages began a terrible howling, and no wonder, for I am told that all the trace chains belonging to the waggon were used instead of balls, and literally mowed them down like grass beneath the scythe. Two of our officers were wounded in that engagement—one of whom, it is understood, has since died. Gaines has since sent in to Clinch for provisions; but afterwards countermanded the order, as the Indians would capture the waggon. He is understood to be surrounded. His provisions must be gone—and unless a reinforcement has been sent by Scott, his fate, and that of his gallant army, are sealed.
I was in Camp—between this and Hanson's —when Prince, the express, came in; the Indians having attacked him in true military style, within eleven miles of this, and ordered him to the "right about," with a shower of fifteen or twenty bullets. The top of his cap was literally shot away, and several balls passed through his coat. A detachment from Lieut. Colonel Howitt's Battalion was on this morning ordered out to skin the country, and cut up the var-lets—like a gourd.
ST. AUGUSTINE, March 5,
10 o'clock—Night.
Dear Sir:—The express, Munroe, came in today from Picolata, with despatches; but nothing further is heard from Gen. Gaines. One hundred and forty men from the country adjacent to the Outhlacoochee, had gone to join him—and cattle, to what amount I do not know, had been driven down at the same time.
The officer supposed to be dead, or mortally wounded, is Lieut. Izard.
I was wrong in saying that Gaines had approached Fort Drane—it was Camp King.
Forty horsemen left here about dark to scour a place called Turnbull's Swamp; and also to assist the detachment from H-witt's Battalion.
The troops from Darien have returned home.
THE INDIAN WAR.
Gen'l. Gain's Battle with the Indians confirmed.
The Washington Globe of Tuesday says, that by official information received at the Adjutant General's Office from Major General Scott, intelligence was received that the force which marched from Tampa Bay, under Major General Gaines, while reconnoitering on the Winlacoochee, near General Clinch's battle ground, was met by a considerable number of hostile Indians, on the 28th of February and a slight skirmish took place, which resulted in the loss of two Louisiana volunteers killed, and ten regulars and volunteers wounded. Lieutenant Izard, of the United States Dragoons, was among the wounded.
Whilst making preparations to cross the Winlacoochee, on the 29th instant, a spirited attack was made on General Gaines' camp by the Indians, who were repulsed with very considerable loss. The General states that the officers concur with him in opinion that the enemy's force amounted to not less than 1500.
Of General Gaines' command (supposed to consist of ten or eleven hundred men) there was on the 29th, one sergeant of the regular army killed, and one officer (Lieut. Duncan, 2d artillery) and ten privates wounded. Of the volunteers, there were one officer and twenty privates wounded.

Fourth Year of Waldie's Library.
BOOKS BY MAIL.
PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOL-UMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been whole-

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere percentage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty similar attempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment, mental and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying police literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social betterment, reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious anecdotes, &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London shillings is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan thus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has become so universally diffused in every part of the Union as to form no inconsiderable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in society.

The Library as now conducted disseminates books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good reading for a whole circle or family; for a cent and a half a day, postage included, a miscellaneous book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Ross's Cyclopaedia. One volume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty entire works, can be bound at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and constitutes a concentrated collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left with minds unoccupied, or thrown into unprofitable and unenjoyable society. This immense supply of periodical reading has thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or idle listlessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, "The Journal of Belles Lettres," containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5 00 per annum, or clubs of five individuals obtain five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.

This periodical contains half as much matter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6 00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chamber's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to suit the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2 50, postage paid.

A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio one; an individual may now form a club by himself, and paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1835 and 1836, the whole can be had for $20 00. For this amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

Address, post paid,
ADAM WALDIE,
Fourth, two doors south of Chesnut street, Philad.

THE MUSEUM OF FOREIGN LITERATURE
AND BOOKS, price $5 00 per annum, the Library and Port Folio, will be all supplied for $15 00.

PROSPECTUS

WASHINGTON MIRROR.
SECOND VOLUME.
THE subscriber having purchased the Washington Mirror from its former proprietor, will in future be its conductor. The general plan of the Mirror is, we believe, satisfactory to all our subscribers, and forming a complete view of the city affairs in a manner unattempted by any other paper. This plan will be strictly adhered to. Our leading object being to lay hold of those local subjects and occurrences which have not been noticed in the daily papers, including Police Reports, and all such matter as is of general interest, we have engaged the valuable services of Mr. WILLIAM THOMPSON as assistant editor, whose special acquaintance with the city has rendered his name an eminently successful one.

We propose to furnish brief abstracts of all judicial decisions which shall more particularly interest the citizens of this District. Also, a brief and comprehensive summary of Congressional proceedings.

We propose, further, during the session of Congress, to publish an Evening Edition, by which an urgent and distant source of news will receive the latest Congressional Intelligence one day and a half sooner than through any other Washington paper.

We intend, if possible, to publish a weekly list of all New Patents, Bank-note Tables, and Prices Current of Washington, Alexandria, and Georgetown, corrected with the greatest accuracy. Also, Stage, Steamboat, and Rail Road Registers.

We shall exert our best endeavours to elevate the literary character of the Mirror.—This can only be done by the co-operation of those minds which are able and willing to aid in the advancement of letters. We cannot, however, be so unjust to our subscribers as to make the Mirror an arena for the unskilful, since far more desirable, it must be allowed, would be judicious selections than mediocre originality.

We believe that the prospects of Washington demand such a paper as we intend to publish. She is already closely allied, by her rail road, to a great and flourishing city, and is destined to be her competitor, rather than rival, in exchanging the products of the country; by means of her stupendous canal, she is about to be thrown, as it were, into the centre of an immense territory, where the resources of industry defy the reach of imagination, and where an amount of capital must soon be created, which will attract the most sanguine economist. Washington, Baltimore, or any other city, must receive and return the current which will give vitality to the commerce of twenty millions of men.—Such, in fact, are our advantages, that prosperity must come in spite of causes which conspire to oppress us; but a sense of duty, carried out into action, will relieve our embarrassments, and produce results of incalculable magnitude.

We propose, then, to supply a paper in some degree adapted to the wants of an important community; a literary and miscellaneous family paper; a journal of current literature; a repository of commercial intelligence. And we appeal to an enlightened and liberal community to sustain us in our undertaking.

Terms of the paper—two dollars, payable in all cases semi-annually in advance.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED

"The Catholic Periodical Library."
Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.

THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the price of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadian has resolved to put it to press forthwith, and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS:

The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, double column size, on fine royal paper, beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.

N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.

The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion; Bossuet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; Hayward's True Church of Christ shown; Hayward's Charity and Truth; Mores, Catholic, or Ages of Faith; Mumford's Question of Questions; Mumford's Catholic Scripturist; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr. M'Haue's Evidence of the Catholic Church; Pieu's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Lannegan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventure's Life of Christ; Challoner's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received, and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.
Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for one year.

THE THIRD VOLUME OF

THE CULTIVATOR.

Will be commenced on the first of March next. The terms will continue to be FIFTY CENTS per annum, payable in advance.

We tender our thanks to gentlemen who have kindly aided in the circulation of the CULTIVATOR, and respectfully solicit a continuance of their good offices in its behalf.—If this paper enables one man, by the information it affords him, to add to the profits of his farm ten dollars a year,—and we mean to be modest in our supposition,—it will benefit ten men who take it one hundred dollars,—and it will effect the most good in districts and towns where it has the greatest subscription; and hence every intelligent man who wishes to promote the interests of his neighbourhood, (and who does not?) will be able to do so by increasing its circulation.

The Cultivator is a monthly publication of 16 quarto pages, devoted to Agricultural Improvement.

THE SALMAGUNDI, AND NEWS OF THE DAY.

EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF
COMIC ENGRAVINGS.

A NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it—(those out of the city, will forward their orders, postage paid)—and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that MORE THAN

will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

The Terms of THE SALMAGUNDI will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Embellishments which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

All orders must come postage paid.

ALEXANDER'S MODERN ACTING DRAMA, NEW SERIES.

Embellished with Splendid Engravings.

THE publisher has been induced, from the extensive patronage bestowed on his work, materially to change its typographical appearance and to improve and enlarge its pages—it is already known to be the most popular edition of Plays which has ever been attempted in this country, and the prospect of its further success is ample and satisfactory. In future the Modern Acting Drama will be published in monthly numbers of 48 pages each—12 of which will constitute a volume, or one year's subscription—embracing in all 576 pages. Every Play or Farce is to be accompanied by a beautiful and appropriate Engraving—making in the course of the year nearly Fifty-Two Engravings—to which will be added as a Frontispiece to the work, a full and beautiful Engraving, containing the likenesses of six distinguished Actors and Actresses. Every person who desires to procure an invaluable collection of the best Dramatic Authors should forward his name forthwith, as the edition will be limited to the number which is absolutely subscribed for. The publisher pledges himself to make this work equal in interest and superiority of execution to the Gentleman's Vade Mecum, and he will refund the price of subscription, two of all charges.

The first number of the new series will appear about the first of March; this delay is occasioned by the time necessarily consumed in preparing the Engravings. The terms of the Modern Acting Drama is Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance. Subscribers to the Gentleman's Vade Mecum will be furnished with both works for Five Dollars.

Any person collecting four subscribers to the Gentleman's Vade Mecum, or the Modern Acting Drama, and remitting the amount of one year's subscription ($3) for each—shall be presented with the Novelist's Magazine, in two volumes, a work of considerable popularity, and which is now selling for $3—it contains the productions of eight different authors, well known to the public as among the most interesting writers of the day.

A large and beautiful white sheet, imperial size, filled on both sides with humorous and costly engravings, will be published every quarter as a supplement to the Salmagundi. It will be furnished gratuitously to all new subscribers to the Gentleman's Vade Mecum, or the Modern Acting Drama, and to all the old subscribers of these works who forward their subscriptions for the present year, in advance, without further solicitation.

TOBACCO LANDS.

THE subscriber offers for Sale his valuable Real Estate, situated on the north side of Severn River, opposite the city of Annapolis, containing upwards of

ONE THOUSAND ACRES.

About Six Hundred covered with wood and heavy timber, consisting of White Oak, Black Walnut and Poplar, &c., the residue for the most part under good fences—the whole nearly surrounded by the waters of Severn River, and a wide navigable creek, emptying into the Chesapeake Bay, which affords an excellent water carriage for wood and produce from almost every part of the land.

It is at present divided into two farms, both in a promising state of improvement, and possessing large banks of oyster shells, and other sources of manure in great abundance. Plaster has been found to act with great effect on those lands in promoting the growth of clover—the soil is naturally of an excellent quality, for grain and other crops, and particularly well adapted to the culture of first quality tobacco. There is a good water mill adjoining these lands, and a steam mill in Annapolis, both very convenient to this estate.

The buildings on both the farms are beautifully situated on eminences commanding extensive views of the river and bay, and are in tolerable repair. As persons inclined to purchase will view and judge for themselves, it is deemed unnecessary to be more particular in the description of this property. It will be found on examination to be worthy the attention of those who may have money to invest in real estate, and particularly of such as are skilled in cutting and selling timber, of which there is a great quantity near the water, and none more remote than half a mile.

These farms will be divided, to suit purchasers. The terms will be moderate and a long credit given for part of the purchase money, or for the whole, if well secured—possession may be had at any time.

For further particulars enquire of N. Price Baltimore, or to the subscriber living on the premises.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

Three lives lost—thirty-four horses burnt.

About five o'clock this morning, a fire broke out in the Wheelwright and Blacksmith shop of Mr. Ely in 11th street, near the 3d avenue, New York, which communicated to the extensive stable of Mr. Jas. Murphy, in 11th street, near 3d avenue, which were destroyed, together with nearly all their contents, and what is melancholy to relate, three men perished in the flames! Their names were Patrick Dorcy, J. Kinney, and John Conway. Two of them slept in the stable, and the other had gone in to assist in rescuing the horses. Their bodies were found at 6 o'clock amongst some burned straw, and so dreadfully burned as to render it impossible to identify them. A boy is also missing who is supposed to have been burned to death. Mr. Murphy runs a line of stages from Wall street up the Bowery, and as might be supposed, had a great number of horses, thirty-two of which perished. Five stages and most of the harnesses belonging to the establishment were also burnt. The whole loss is estimated at $10,000; and no insurance.

A three story brick house, occupied by Mr. Murphy, corner of 12th street and 3d avenue, was very badly damaged. It was owned by David S. Mills, who had no insurance. A frame building occupied by Mr. V. Tassel, formerly City Marshal, was destroyed, with most of its contents.

The fire, when at its height, raged with great fury, on account of the extreme combustibility of the materials, and at a distance had the appearance of an extensive conflagration.

It is suspected that the fire was caused by an incendiary, as no work had been done in the shop by Mr. Early for some time past.

Fourth Year of Waldie's Library.
BOOKS BY MAIL.
PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOL-UMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been whole- some.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, sub- scriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a more per centage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty per- cent of its patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intel- lectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and im- prove the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procure- ment of works of an elevated standard of in- tellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fasti- dious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social belles lettres read- ing and conversation. The variety thus col- lected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious ad- ventures &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London shillings is required to be annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan thus embraces the whole range of popular lit- erature, and the work has now become so uni- versally diffused in every part of the Union as to form no inconsiderable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in society.

The Library has now conducted dissemin- ates books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good reading for a whole circle or family; for a cent and a half a day, postage included, a duodecimo book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Bosc's Cyclopaedia. One volume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty entire works, can be sent at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and constitutes a concentrated collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left with minds unoccupied, or thrown into unprofitable and uncongenial society. This immense supply of periodical reading has thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or idle listlessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tues- day, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Journal of Belles Let- tres, containing reviews of new books, liter- ary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5 00 per an- num, or clubs of five individuals obtain five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.

This periodical contains half as much mat- ter as the Library, at half the price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6 00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best mat- ter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chambers's Edinburgh Jour- nal. Its object is popular instruction and am- usement, combined in such a manner as to ex- cite the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circula- tion; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2 50, postage paid.

A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio once an individual may now form a club by himself, and by pay- ing for the past three years and the volumes for 1835 and 1836, the whole can be had for $20 00. For this an amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

Address, post paid,
ADAM WALDIE,
Seventh, two doors south of Chesnut street, Philad.

THE MUSEUM OF FOREIGN LITERATURE AND SOUVENIRS, price $5 00 per annum, the Library and Port Folio will be all supplied. In $12 00.

PROSPECTUS
WASHINGTON MIRROR.

THE subscriber having purchased the Washington Mirror from its former pro- prietor, will in future be its conductor. The general plan of the Mirror is, we be- lieve, satisfactory to all our subscribers.—at- tending a comprehensive view of the city af- fairs in a manner unattempted by any other paper. This plan will be strictly adhered to. Our leading object being to lay hold of those local subjects and occurrences which have not been noticed in the daily papers, including Police Reports, and all such mat- ter as is of general interest, we have engaged the valuable services of Mr. WILLIAM FROST as assistant editor, whose spirit and untiring exertions to establish this paper have been so eminently successful.

We propose to furnish brief abstracts of all judicial decisions which shall more par- ticularly interest the citizens of this District. Also, a brief but comprehensive summary of Congressional proceedings.

We propose further, during the session of Congress, to publish an Evening Edition, by which arrangement our distant subscribers will receive the latest Congressional Intellig- ence one day and a half sooner than through any other Washington paper.

We intend, if possible, to furnish a weekly list of all New Patents; a Bank-note Ta- ble, and Prices Current of Washington, Al- bany, and Georgetown, corrected with the greatest accuracy; also, Stage, Steamboat, and Rail Road Registers.

We shall exert our best endeavours to ele- vate the literary character of the Mirror.— This can only be done by the co-operation of those minds which are able and willing to aid in the advancement of letters. We cannot, however, be so unjust to our subscribers as to make the Mirror an arena for the unskil- ful, since far more desirable, it must be al- lowed, would be judicious selections than mediocre originality.

We believe that the prospects of Washing- ton demand such a paper as we intend to pub- lish. She is already closely allied, by her rail road, to a great and flourishing city, and is destined to be her competitor, rather than rival, in exchanging the products of the coun- try; by means of her stupendous canal, she is about to be thrown, as it were, into the centre of an immense territory, where the resources of industry defy the reach of im- agination, and where an amount of capital must soon be created, which will establish the most sanguine economist. Washington and Bal- timore, as one mighty heart, must receive and return the current which will give vitality to the commerce of twenty millions of men.— Such, in fact, are our advantages, that pros- perity must come in, spite of causes which conspire to oppress us; but a sense of duty, carried out into action, will relieve our em- barrassments, and produce results of incal- culable magnitude.

We propose, then, to supply a paper in some degree adapted to the wants of an im- portant community; a literary and miscel- laneous family paper; a journal of current lit- erature; a repository of commercial intelligence. And we appeal to an enlightened and liberal community to sustain us in our undertaking. Terms of the paper—two dollars, payable in all cases semi-annually in advance.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICA-TION TO BE CALLED

The Catholic Periodical Library.
Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Lan- guage, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.

THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and ob- serving Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enter- prising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionally high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been com- piled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certain- ly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the price of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Peri- odical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libra- ries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increas- ing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the ex- pectation that it will meet with sufficient en- couragement to enable him to conduct it suc- cessfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confid- ing entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canada has resolved to put it to press forthwith; and he therefore throws him- self on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally en- couraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in gen- eral, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by af- fording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will ex- ert their powerful influence in order to in- crease the popularity of the work and to ob- tain a sufficient number of subscribers to en- able him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual com- forts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denomina- tions are unfortunately blinded.

THE SALMAGUNDI. AND NEWS OF THE DAY.

EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF
COMIC ENGRAVINGS.

A NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it (those out of the city, will forward their orders, postage paid).—And he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that MORE THAN

will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour, and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

The Terms of THE SALMAGUNDI will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Engravings which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

All orders must come postage paid.

TOBACCO LANDS.

THE subscriber offers for Sale his valuable Real Estate, situated on the north side of Severn River, opposite the city of Annapolis, containing upwards of

ONE THOUSAND ACRES.

About Six Hundred covered with wood and heavy timber, consisting of White Oak, Black Walnut and Poplar, &c., the residue for the most part under good fences—the whole nearly surrounded by the waters of Severn River, and a wide navigable creek, emptying into the Chesapeake Bay, which affords convenient water carriage for wood and produce from almost every part of the land.

It is at present divided into two farms, both in a promising state of improvement, and possessing large banks of oyster shells, and other sources of manure in great abundance. Plaster has been found to act with great effect on those lands in promoting the growth of clover—the soil is naturally of an excellent quality, for grain and other crops, and particularly well adapted to the culture of first quality Tobacco. There is a good water mill adjoining these lands, and a steam mill in Annapolis, both very convenient to this estate.

The buildings on both the farms are beautifully situated on eminences commanding extensive views of the river and bay, and are in tolerable repair. As persons inclined to purchase will view and judge for themselves, it is deemed unnecessary to be more particular in the description of this property. It will be found on examination to be worthy the attention of those who may have money to invest in real estate, and particularly of such as are skilled in cutting and selling timber, of which there is a great quantity under the water, and none more remote than half a mile.

These farms will be divided, to suit purchasers. The terms will be moderate and a long credit given for part of the purchase money, or for the whole, if well secured—possession may be had at any time.

For further particulars enquire of N. Brice Baltimore, or to the subscriber living on the premises.

From the Baltimore Republican of yesterday.
The Honourable ELIAS GLENN, yesterday resigned the office of District Judge of the United States for the Maryland District.

To the Female Orphan Society of the City of Annapolis.

In accordance with our duty, we, the Managers of the Female Orphan Society of the city of Annapolis, render an account of our proceedings during the year ending on this day; in doing which we would observe first, that the arrival of our eighth anniversary finds the institution in a state of progressive improvement, which calls for, and we would hope, produces sensations of gratitude in the hearts of its friends.

The commencement of the present year as exhibited in our report, found six orphans in the Asylum, the removal of one pupil, for whom a suitable situation had been procured, and the admission of one who was in a destitute state, forms the only change that has occurred in the Asylum, except the gradual, but visible improvement in those that remain. The six children now under our care are all too young to be useful, and of course it is necessary that they should retain their present situation until they are prepared for service. As soon as they are, we are satisfied from past experience that there will be no difficulty in procuring suitable situations for them. These children are docile and interesting, taken from utter destitution and received in the orphan home, where kindness, instruction and support are afforded them, they present a picture of security and comfort which is gratifying to contemplate. The world smiled not upon their infancy, for they were destitute of ought to win its favour, but the Father of the fatherless has conducted them by his providence to an asylum from the evils that encompassed their dawn of life, where they might learn to reap his praise and read his holy word, and those who aid in their support may safely believe that inasmuch as they give unto one of the least of these, their bounty will be regarded as given to Him.

Our annual Fair was held on the 2d day of February, the highly flattering proceeds of which, together with the receipts and expenditures of the society will be found by reference to the treasurer's report. We received for that exhibition a valuable donation from the ladies of the Adelphiad, (Baltimore) in addition to the usual liberal offering of our benevolent citizens.

Friends and members of this interesting society, we have no new motives to urge upon you for perseverance in this good and hitherto successful cause. Yet we continue to feel the full force of those already exhibited, and you will be persuaded be furnished by your own hearts with powerful incentives. To do good is not only the imperative command of duty, it is also the source of present gratification—time is ever on the wing, and therefore, the good that we would do we must do promptly—the period in which we can work is rapidly passing away, and we shall soon lose the power of action in the stillness of the grave—of this truth we have a melancholy illustration, in the removal of one who a few weeks ago took an active part in this Society, and who formed one of this Board. She is now shrouded in the vestments of the grave, and we shall see her no more in the flesh—we have every reason to believe that her desire on earth was to do her master's will, and that resting from her labours her works have followed her. Let us also strive to be ready, for in such an hour as we think not, the son of man cometh.

The Tomato.—A writer, under the signature of Medicus, in a New York paper, is putting a word in time for the Tomato, so that farmers and gardeners may have a plentiful supply for the next season. From its uncertain whole some, he says, the demand for it was double last year of what it ever was before, and he anticipates a similar increase during the coming season. A gentleman near New York cleared, he says, eighteen hundred dollars last summer on a small farm by rearing the tomato.

From the Savannah Georgian Extra, March 20. FROM FLORIDA—IMPORTANT!

The Steam Packet Bliven, Captain Bessard, arrived yesterday afternoon, from Jacksonville, brought up a ship from the office of the Jacksonville Courier, which contains the following intelligence from Gen. Gaines's army. For the want of provisions, they have been obliged to retire to Fort Drane, where the gallant Gaines yielded the demand to the no less gallant Clinch, and set out for the West.

We are of opinion, that Gen. Gaines has left the forces at Fort Drane, not because, as others think, he does not Clinch's authority first duty, but because he is in Florida, pressing for Gaines his with.

Fourth Year of Waldie's Library.
BOOKS BY MAIL.
PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOL-UMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been whole-

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a more moderate price than any other attempt at institution; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying the literature of a character to enlighten and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a rallying point for all its members, of no ordinary social letters reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the works of published authors, mostly a new, untried, Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, persons, memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventures, &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London volumes is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan is to publish a new volume of popular literature, and the work has now become so universally diffused in every part of the Union as to form no inconsiderable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in society.

The Library has now conducted disseminates works of all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good reading for a whole circle of family for a year and a half a day, postage included, a student book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Ross's Cyclopaedia. One volume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty entire works, can be obtained at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and constitutes a complete collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been continuously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left with minds unoccupied, or thrown into unprofitable and ungenial society. This immense supply of periodical reading has thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or the listlessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, "The Journal of Belles Lettres," containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5 00 per annum, or club of five individuals obtain five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.

This periodical contains half as much matter as the Library, at half its price, or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6 00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chamber's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to enlist the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2 50, postage paid.

A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio one; an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1836 of the Library, and the Port Folio for $20 00. For this an amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

Address, post paid, ADAM WALDIE, Seventh, two doors south of Chestnut street, Philad.

THE BOOKS OF FOREIGN LITERATURE AND BIOGRAPHY, price 50 per annum, the Library and Port Folio will be at supply for $12 00. Oct. 8.

PROSPECTUS OF THE WASHINGTON MIRROR.

THE subscriber having purchased the Washington Mirror from its former proprietor, will in future be its conductor. The general plan of the Mirror is to believe, satisfactory to all our subscribers, as forming a comprehensive view of the city affairs in a manner unattainable by any other paper. This plan will be strictly adhered to. Our leading object being to lay hold of those local subjects and occurrences which have not been noticed in the daily papers, including Police Reports, and all such matter as of general interest, we have engaged the valuable services of Mr. WILLIAM FREDERICKS as assistant editor, whose spirited and untiring exertions to establish this paper have been so eminently successful.

We propose to furnish brief abstracts of all judicial decisions, which shall more particularly interest the citizens of this District. Also, a brief but comprehensive summary of Congressional proceedings.

We propose further, during the session of Congress, to publish an Evening Edition, by which arrangement our distant subscribers will receive the latest Congressional Intelligence one day and a half sooner than through any other Washington paper.

We intend, if possible, to furnish a weekly list of all New Patents, Bank Note Tables, and Prices Current of Washington, Alexandria, and Georgetown, corrected with the greatest accuracy; also, Stage, Steamboat, and Rail Road Registers.

We shall exert our best endeavours to elevate the literary character of the Mirror. This can only be done by the co-operation of those minds which are able and willing to aid in the advancement of letters. We cannot, however, be so unjust to our subscribers as to make the Mirror an arena for the unsolicited, since far more desirable, it must be allowed, would be judicious selections than uninduced originality.

We believe that the prospects of Washington demand such a paper as we intend to publish. She is already closely allied, by her rail road, to a great and flourishing city, and is destined to be her competitor, rather than rival, in exchanging the products of the country; by means of her stupendous canal, she is about to be thrown, as it were, into the centre of an immense territory, where the resources of industry draw the reach of imagination, and where a demand of capital must soon be created, which will attract the most sanguine economist. Washington and Baltimore, as one mighty heart, must receive and return the current which will give vitality to the commerce of twenty millions of men. Such, in fact, are our advantages, that prosperity must come in spite of causes which conspire to oppress us; but a sense of duty, carried out into action, will relieve our embarrassments, and produce results of incalculable magnitude.

We propose, then, to supply a paper in some degree adapted to the wants of an important community; a literary and miscellaneous family paper; a journal of current literature; a repository of commercial intelligence. And we appeal to an enlightened and liberal community to sustain us in our undertaking. Terms of the paper—$2 dollars, payable in all cases semi-annually in advance.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED

The Catholic Periodical Library. Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at a cents each.

THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the price of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadas has resolved to put it to press forthwith, and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS: The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.

N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents. The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religious Boswell's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; Hayward's True Church of Christ shown; Hayward's Charity and Truth; Mores Catholic, or Ages of Faith; Mumford's Question of Questions; Mumford's Catholic Scriptural; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr. M. Hare's Evidence of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Lanigan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventure's Life of Christ; Challoner's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received; and some translations will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y. Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending their papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for one year.

THE THIRD VOLUME OF THE CULTIVATOR

WILL be commenced on the first of March next. The terms will continue to be FIFTY CENTS per annum, payable in advance.

We tender our thanks to gentlemen who have kindly aided in the circulation of the CULTIVATOR, and respectfully solicit a continuance of their good offices in its behalf. If this paper enables one man, by the information it affords him, to add to the profits of his farm ten dollars a year,—and we mean to be modest in our supposition,—it will benefit ten men who take it one hundred dollars—and it will effect the most good in districts and towns where it has the greatest subscription; and hence every intelligent man who wishes to promote the interests of his neighborhood, (and who does not?) will be able to do so by increasing its circulation.

The Cultivator is a monthly publication of 16 quarto pages, devoted to Agricultural Improvement.
