MISCELLANEOUS.

HOW TO GET almost Everything.

Do you know how to get in the easiest way and to best advantage what you want for dress and house-furnishing?

First, how? Write for a catalogue; see what you can learn from it about the things you want. If samples can be useful to you, ask for them

and state your wants so plainly that exactly the right

samples can be sent.

Second, where? The place where goods are kept in the greatest variety; where they are sold for what they really are in respect to quality;

where prices are lowest;

where most care is taken to serve customers acceptably; and where you have the right to return whatever is not satisfactory.

There—no matter where you are—if you make your wants known and avail yourself of your privileges, you will get the best things in the best way, promptly and without trouble or risk;

sometimes, by mail, sometimes by express, almost always at less cost for carriage, than the money you save in the price.

DECEDED.

Into all lives some rain must fall,

Into all eyes some tear must dwell,

Or like the fire from an abiding heart,

Into all hearts some sorrow must creep,

Into all souls some doubt must come,

Leading the waves of life's great deep

Down to the dust in the bitter pain.

Over all paths some clouds must lower,

Over all hearts some shadows must spring,

Tearing the flesh to bitter wounds,

Or like the death angel, the latter sting

Upon all brows rough winds must blow,

Over all shoulders a cross be laid,

Bowing the form in its lofty height

Down to the dust in the bitter pain.

Intolant hands some duty thrust,

Intolant feet some path must tread,

Crushing the heart with its dreary weight,

Crushing the heart with its dreary weight,

Into all hearts and homes and lives,

Into all hearts and homes and lives,

Guiding the ruins of life's great dream

Weaving for all a golden dream.

THE ELECTORAL MACHINERY.

You act on your own responsibility and by virtue of a commission, only restricted by the law. The Secretary of War is the mouth-piece of a President.

You are not. If neither candidate has a constitutional majority of the Electoral College, or the Senate and House, on the occasion of the count, do not unite in declaring some person legally elected by the people, there is a lawful machinery

already provided to meet such contingencies. It has not been recently used, no occasion presenting itself, but our forefathers provided it. It has been exercised and has been recognized and submitted to as lawful on every hand.

This machinery would probably elect Mr.

Tilden President and Mr. Wheeler Vice President. This would be right enough, for the law provides that in a failure to elect by the people the House shall immediately elect the President and the Senate the Vice President. Some tribunal must decide whether the people have duly elected a President. I personally, of course, think it is in the joint affirmative action of the Senate and House, or why are they present to witness the count if not to see that it is fair and just? If a failure to agree arises between the two bodies there can be no lawful affirmative decision that the people have elected a President and the House must then proceed to act on the Senate. The Senate elects Vice President, and President, and President in case of a failure by the House to elect a President by the 4th of March,

President of the Senate (if there be one)

would be the legitimate persons to exercise presidential authority for the time being, or until the appearance of a lawful President, or for the time laid down in the constitution. Such a course would be peaceful and, I have a firm belief,

will be successful. I have no doubt Gov.

Hayes would make an excellent President.

I have met him and know of him. For a brief period he served under my command;

but, as the matter stands, I can't see any likelihood of his being duly elected by the people, unless the Senate and House come to be in accord as to that fact, and the House would, of

THE FUTURE OF THE REPUBLIC.

When in 1776 the thirteen North American Colonies put forth that Declaration of Independence which precluded the birth of a nation, the combined white population inhabiting them did not exceed 2,500,000 souls. Yet they had the courage to throw down the gauntlet of war to a Power "with which," in Daniel Webster's words, "for purposes of foreign conquest and subjugation Rome in the height of her glory was not to be compared." A Power which has dotted over the surface of the whole globe with her possessions and military posts—

whose morning drum-beat, following the sun and keeping company with the hours, circles the earth with one continuous and unbroken of martial airs

of England.

THE SALISBURY ADVERTISER
FOR THE CAMPAIGN
FOR 50 CENTS.

The campaign now opened will decide whether the right of each State in this Union to self-government shall remain inviolate. The Republican party, which aims at the creation and maintenance of a centralized despotism, will battle for its very existence. In this crisis the duty of every Democrat and every man who loves the Republic is plain. Every man in Wisconsin county or elsewhere who wishes to keep posted on the issues and movements of the campaign can have THE ADVERTISER sent to him from now till the end of the year by sending us his address and FIFTY CENTS.

THE ADVERTISER will be kept alive with the great tidal wave of Democracy which is fast setting in, and will give full reports of the great preliminary battles of September and October, and of the final grand struggle in November. The sooner you subscribe the more you get for your money. Send in your names at once; but be careful to send the hard cash in each instance. Remember, the Campaign ADVERTISER for Fifty Cents.

STILL IN A MUDGLE.

Last week we promised to give our readers a guess as to who would be the candidate in the first District for Congress. An Ocean City correspondent, writing to the Centerville Observer, says it looks now as if the contest was to be narrowed down between Mr. John B. Brown, of Queen Anne's, and Mr. T. F. J. Rider, of Wicomico, while the Somerset Herald seems quite sanguine that Mr. James U. Dennis will be the man. The Democratic Messenger puts down the man as Mr. George W. Covington, while the Eastern Star is quite confident that Mr. C. H. Gibson will be nominated by acclamation. The Cambridge Democrat and News says many kind words for Mr. Henry D. Goldsborough, of Caroline, also mentioned.

Now for the chances. Mr. Brown and Mr. Dennis are classed as anti-ring candidates, and the chances are about equal between them, either of whom would make a first-class Congressman. Each man goes into the Convention with his county squarely at his back, with a strong feeling in favor of their political status to be found among the delegates from Worcester, Wicomico, Dorchester, and perhaps Caroline. We mean one-half of the Delegates in Wicomico, the other half being entirely subject to the rule of the ring. Mr. Gibson will bring a solid delegation from Talbot, and was, until a few weeks ago, the choice of the ring, but their tactics being found out, like foxes, they move their meat to another hiding place, when their tracks are discovered. So now it may be Gibson, Covington or Rider, as circumstances may suit—most likely one of the latter—and from some of the moves made upon the political chess board last week, and discovered by our reporter, Mr. Rider is somewhat likely to be the man, unless Talbot county undertakes to pay Worcester for her loyalty to Gov. Thomas four years ago. In that case, if Kent follows suit, Mr. Covington would soon draw away from Mr. Rider, even that which he hath or seems to have. Yet, at present, we are inclined to think that Mr. Rider's chances are not very indifferent, but have increased within the last few days.

All the above has been written without regard to Caroline and her claims, which we are not (at this writing) able to judge, as her delegates are not yet chosen. She may, as she is entitled to consideration, present a formidable candidate, or favor a dark horse, whose ghost has already commenced to haunt some of the more sanguine candidates. If the choice is made from the present field, the ring will choose between Rider, Covington and Gibson. The opposition will concentrate either upon Mr. Dennis or Mr. Brown. As the time approaches the straws will more fully indicate the driving events.

SAMUEL J. TYLDES evinces his satisfaction over the result of the Cincinnati Convention by contributing one hundred thousand dollars towards the expense of the campaign. This munificent gift shows that the old man does not feel so terribly ill-used by his party as the Republican organs would make out.

WELSHMEN news comes from Ireland in the announcement that, so abundant are the harvests, the relief committees are preparing to disband. But what the suffering would have been had not prompt and generous relief been extended from this side of the water no man can say.

Gen. Hancock Accepts.
GEN. HANCOCK'S ENDORSEMENT OF THE CINCINNATI PLATFORM—THE PUBLIC CREDIT TO BE MAINTAINED, AMERICAN INDUSTRIES DEVELOPED, AND AN ECONOMIC ADMINISTRATION TO BE SECURED—CLEAR IDEAS OF CIVIL SERVICE REFORM—A FREE VOTE BALLOT, A FULL VOICE AND FAIR COUNT.
NEW YORK, July 30.—The following is Gen. Hancock's letter of acceptance: "Gentlemen: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of July 23, 1880, appointing me formally my nomination to the office of President of the United States by the 'National Democratic Convention' lately assembled in Cincinnati. I accept the nomination with grateful appreciation of the confidence reposed in me.

The principles enunciated by the convention are those I have cherished in the past and shall endeavor to maintain in the future. The thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the constitution of the United States, embodying the results of the war for the Union, are inviolable. It called to the presidency I should deem it my duty to resist with all of my power any attempt to impair or nullify the force and effect of the constitution, which, in every article, section and amendment, is the supreme law of the land. The constitution forms the basis of the government of the United States. The powers granted by it to the legislative, executive and judicial departments define and limit the authority of each; and no man, no body, no power, no delegated to the United States by the constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, belong to the States respectively or to the people. The general and State governments, each acting in its own sphere without trenching upon the lawful jurisdiction of the other, constitute the Union. This Union, comprising all the people, is governed by general powers, and State governments with State powers for purposes local to the States, is a polity, the foundations of which were laid in the profoundest wisdom.

This is the Union our fathers made, and which has been so respected abroad and so benefited at home. Tried by blood and fire it stands to day a model in the form of free popular government; a political system which, rightly administered, has been and will continue to be the admiration of the world. May we not say nearly in the words of Washington: 'The unity of government which constitutes us one people is justly dear to us; it is the main pillar in the edifice of our free independence, the support of our peace, safety and prosperity, and of that liberty we so highly prize and intend to preserve at every hazard.' But no form of government, however carefully devised, no principles, however sound, will protect the rights of the people unless administration is faithful and efficient. It is a vital principle in our system that neither fraud nor force must be allowed to subvert the rights of the people. When fraud, violence or incompetence controls the noblest constitutions and wisest laws are useless. The layonet is not a fit instrument for collecting the votes of freemen. It is only by a full vote, free ballot and fair count that the people can rule in fact, as required by the theory of our government. Take this foundation away and the whole structure falls.

Public office is a trust, not a bounty, bestowed upon the holder; no incompetent or dishonest person should ever be intrusted with it, or if appointed it should be promptly rejected. The basis of substantial, practical civil-service reform must first be established by the people in filling the elective office; if they fix a high standard of qualifications for office and sternly reject the corrupt and incompetent the result will be decisive in governing the action of the servants whom they intrust with appointing.

The war for the union was successfully closed more than fifteen years ago. All classes of our people must share alike in the blessings of the Union and are equally concerned in its perpetuity and in the proper administration of public affairs. We are in a state of profound peace. Henceforth let it be our purpose to cultivate sentiments of friendship and not of animosity among our fellow-citizens.

Our material interests, varied and progressive, demand our constant and united efforts. A sedulous and scrupulous care of the public credit, together with a wise and economical management of our governmental expenditures, should be maintained, in order that labor may be lightly burdened and that all persons may be free to the exercise of their rights to the fruits of their own industry. The time has come to enjoy the substantial benefits of reconciliation; as one people we have common interests. Let us encourage the harmony and generous rivalry among our own industries, which will revive our languishing merchant marine, extend our commerce with foreign nations, assist our merchants, manufacturers and producers to develop our vast natural resources and increase the prosperity and happiness of our people.

If elected I shall, with the divine favor, labor with what ability I possess to discharge my duties with fidelity, according to my convictions, and shall take care to protect and defend the Union and to see that the laws be equally and faithfully executed in all parts of the country alike. I will assume the responsibility, fully conscious of the fact that to administer rightly the functions of government is to discharge the most sacred duty that can devolve upon an American citizen.

I am, very respectfully, yours,
WINFIELD S. HANCOCK.

To the Hon. John W. Stevenson, president of the convention; Hon. John P. Stockton, chairman, and others, committee of the National Convention.
A PROMISED EXPOSURE—John McDonald, of St. Louis, one of the convicted members of the whisky ring, is soon to publish a book entitled, "Secrets of the Great Whisky Ring," which he announces will give a "complete exposure of the illicit whisky frauds emanating in 1875, and the connection of Grant, Babcock, Douglas, Chester H. Krum, and other administration officials, established by positive and unequivocal documentary proofs, comprising confidential letters and telegrams emanating from the White House, respecting the management of the ring."

At midnight Tuesday a man in a buggy drove off the north abutment of Wells street bridge Chicago, while the draw was open for the passage of a vessel. He paid no heed to the warning cries of tugmen who were seated on a railing the approach to the bridge. The horse snorted with terror as it fell into the river, but no sound came from the driver. The horse leaped and dashed in some way from the buggy and swam to a neighboring dock and was saved. The body of the drowned man was recovered Wednesday afternoon and identified as that of Richard Gilbert.—Mr. John F. Engelke made an experiment Tuesday with poisons after stating the belief that he was poison-proof. He dissolved sulphur from his father's estate, and attempted to take oxalic acid in beer at Page's saloon this afternoon, but was prevented. He subsequently drank a spoonful of acid out of a vial. The poisons so far have had no bad effects. He refused to take any remedies.—The Cumberland News of Tuesday says: "It is reliably reported that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company have in view the erection of a large summer hotel at Frostburg. It is further reported that President Garrett and other officials will shortly visit Frostburg with a view to the examination of the site."—Dora Young, a favorite daughter of the late Brigham Young, is in Chicago. Dr. Hall said Wednesday that the captain had died of nervous prostration, induced by a malignant type, and that there is no reason for alarm.

It is the most complete work of the kind for the least money ever offered.

Political Topics.
Gen. Garfield is the author of the law under which the present census is taken. The Indianapolis Telegraph, the leading German paper in Indiana, sings out its banner for Hancock and English.

Major W. F. Halleck, United States army, thinks that Hancock will carry all of the Pacific States.

A large Hancock and English club has been organized by the Scandinavians residing in New York.

Senator Garland, of Arkansas, says the people of that State are having as much trouble with the debt question as his Virginia.

The last Iowa Legislature passed a law making women eligible to the office of county recorder, and several ladies are candidates for nomination.

Col. David W. Magraw, a republican, who commanded the 116th Pennsylvania regiment in the late war, says he intends to support Hancock.

Judge Long of Missouri, Grant's best friend in the West, is but for Hancock. He has got a full dose of Schurz. He says Schurz asked Grant for nearly two hundred pieces for his friends; he got nearly a hundred and then got mad because Grant wouldn't give him the rest. And Schurz is a boss reformer.

Indiana Democrats give most encouraging reports of the canvass in that State. They not only predict the success of the State and National tickets, but expect to elect nine Congressmen.

Or, of fragment nature, is running on the Republican ticket in one of the districts and will hardly pull through. He and Garfield together are a trifle too heavy a load.

The last hope for Garfield's success in New York has vanished. The Tammany Democrats last week withdrew their electoral ticket which they held as a menace over the head of Tilden and agreed to support the regular electoral ticket headed by Hon. Abram S. Hewitt. Bets are freely offered with few takers on fifty thousand majority in the Empire State for Hancock and English.

The Republican campaign powder wasn't struck by the lightning. "It was only wet." It's drying gradually, and we are hearing of Rebel war claims, murdered Union veterans, paralyzed industries, enslaved freedmen, Ku-Klux and all the old dodges in detail. The bloody shirt, too, is getting patched up and darned. They'll have to come to it—a bloody shirt campaign with money.

What Better Evidence
could the people seek to substantiate the merits of Dr. Fiebig's Family Medicines than the fact that they have not only yearly grown in popular favor in this country, but the foreign demand for them has become so great as to necessitate the establishing a branch of the celebrated World's Dispensary in London, England, that these blessings to the afflicted may be dispatched from that greatest commercial center of the world to every country and people? Golden Medical Discovery is a concentrated, potent, alternative, or blood cleansing remedy, that wins golden opinions of all who use it for all humors from the common pimple, blotch, or eruption, to the formidable scrofulous swelling. Internal fever, constipation and indigestion, yield to its benign influences. Consumption, which is but a form of scrofulous affection of the lungs, may in its early stages be cured by a free use of this God-given remedy. Worcester, Mass., Feb. 3d, 1879.
Dr. R. F. Fiebig:
Dear Sir:—With trembling hands, from my extreme age, being eighty-five, I write to inform you of the grand benefit your Golden Medical Discovery and Pills have been to me. Three years ago I was prostrated with pneumonia, and no one thought I would recover. By the use of those medicines I was raised to health, and by the blessing of God and your medicine I have enjoyed pretty good health since, though for years before this I suffered from weak lungs and a bad cough. Gratefully yours,

The Contest in Indiana.
Senator McDonald was at democratic headquarters in New York Tuesday evening, having left Indianapolis Sunday. He says that although the campaign has not really opened in Indiana a large number of Hancock and English clubs have sprung into being spontaneously throughout the State. The democratic campaign will be formally opened on the 14th of August, on which day a meeting will be held in every county in the State. Thomas A. Hendricks will speak in Fort Wayne, and Senator Dan W. Voorhees in Indianapolis. Judge Claypole in Richmond, and Senator McDonald in Evansville. Joseph Pulitzer will speak on that day in Indianapolis in reply to Carl Schurz. After this formal opening there will be meetings in every county almost every day until the October elections. Senator McDonald expresses absolute confidence in a democratic victory in October and in November. He says that the organization of the party is perfect, and that William H. English, nominee for Vice-President, is assisting in the direction of the canvass with industry and ability. He believes that the democratic majority in October will be at least 50,000, and hopes that it will be double that figure.

ROCKAWAY'S BIG HOTEL.—The property of the Rockaway Beach Improvement Company, consisting of the immense hotel, water works, bath-houses, wharves, etc., through a friendly proceeding has passed temporarily into the hands of a receiver. By this move it is supposed the company will be enabled to borrow money, pay off its debts and adjust its financial difficulties. Mr. John A. Rice, of the Tremont House, Chicago, and the lessee of the Rockaway Beach Hotel, is the receiver. The property is valued at $1,600,000. The big hotel will be completed and opened in a few days.

It is impossible for a woman after a faithful course of treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, to continue to suffer with a weakness of the uterus. Enclose a stamp to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for her pamphlet.

Majorities in Alabama.
MOBILE, Ala., Aug. 4.—A special dispatch from Montgomery says: "Madison county gives 800 majority for the democratic county and State tickets; St. Clair gives 1,000 majority; Etowah gives 2,000; Autauga gives $35; Lowndes gives 1,200. Lee county gives 800 majority for the democratic State ticket, but is mixed on the county and legislative tickets. Limestone county is largely democratic on all the tickets. Elmore county gives 350 democratic majority. Macon gives the democratic ticket, 2,500 majority. Jefferson gives the democratic State 500 majority, but is doubtful on the legislative and county tickets. Morrow, independent, beats Phelan, democrat, for judge in this county. Bullock county gives the democratic ticket 900 majority; Perry county gives 1,400; Macon county gives 1,800; Blount county gives 1,500; Chilton county gives 1,800; Conecuh county gives the democratic State ticket 1,000 majority, and the county ticket 300 majority. Butler county elects Powell, democrat, by 78 majority, and gives the rest of the democratic ticket an overwhelming majority."

There was no regularly organized opposition in three-fourths of the counties, and democrats contesting for county offices with each other brought out all the voters. The democratic State ticket received the benefit of this great local struggle, and will have a majority of over 60,000. The greenback independent party was thoroughly organized in but one county, the State and that was in the counties composing the district now represented by Congressman Lowe, a greenbacker, Madison, Limestone and Morgan, which gave him majorities two years ago, and gave handsome democratic majorities this year, and the greenback State and county tickets will probably be defeated in every county of the district. The judges and chancellors, and nearly all the legislators and county officers.

Consumption Cured.
An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Affections; also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its curative powers in thousands of cases, he felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing, with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. SERRAVALLO, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y. Oct. 25, c. o. w.
