DEDICATION

We would like to dedicate the 1977 Nemacolin to Mr. Rene Atkinson and President Guild. Without the help and concern of these two men this book would have never existed. On behalf of the Nemacolin staff and the student body we thank you.

Frostburg
Landscaping our minds
Changes reflect our years
An environment that
Shapes our growth
Learning, loving, living it
The whole time we experience it
Sometimes
Cursing, hating defying it
Our surroundings
Frostburg
Thanks for letting us know you
Thanks for letting us grow with you

CONSUMER AWARENESS DAY

NBC comes to FSC

The Frostburg State College Business Club sponsored the Consumer Awareness Day April 19 as an effort to inform the public of methods by which personal consumer effectiveness can be improved. It was a huge success due to the hard work of the Business Club and the participation of the student body.

Senior Picnic

Graduation, May 1977

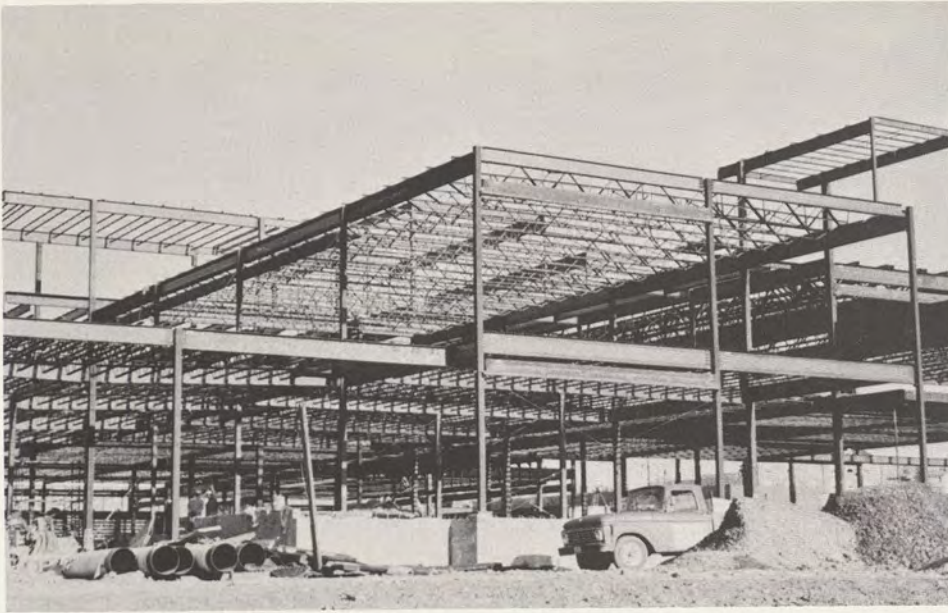

Remember The Days When ...

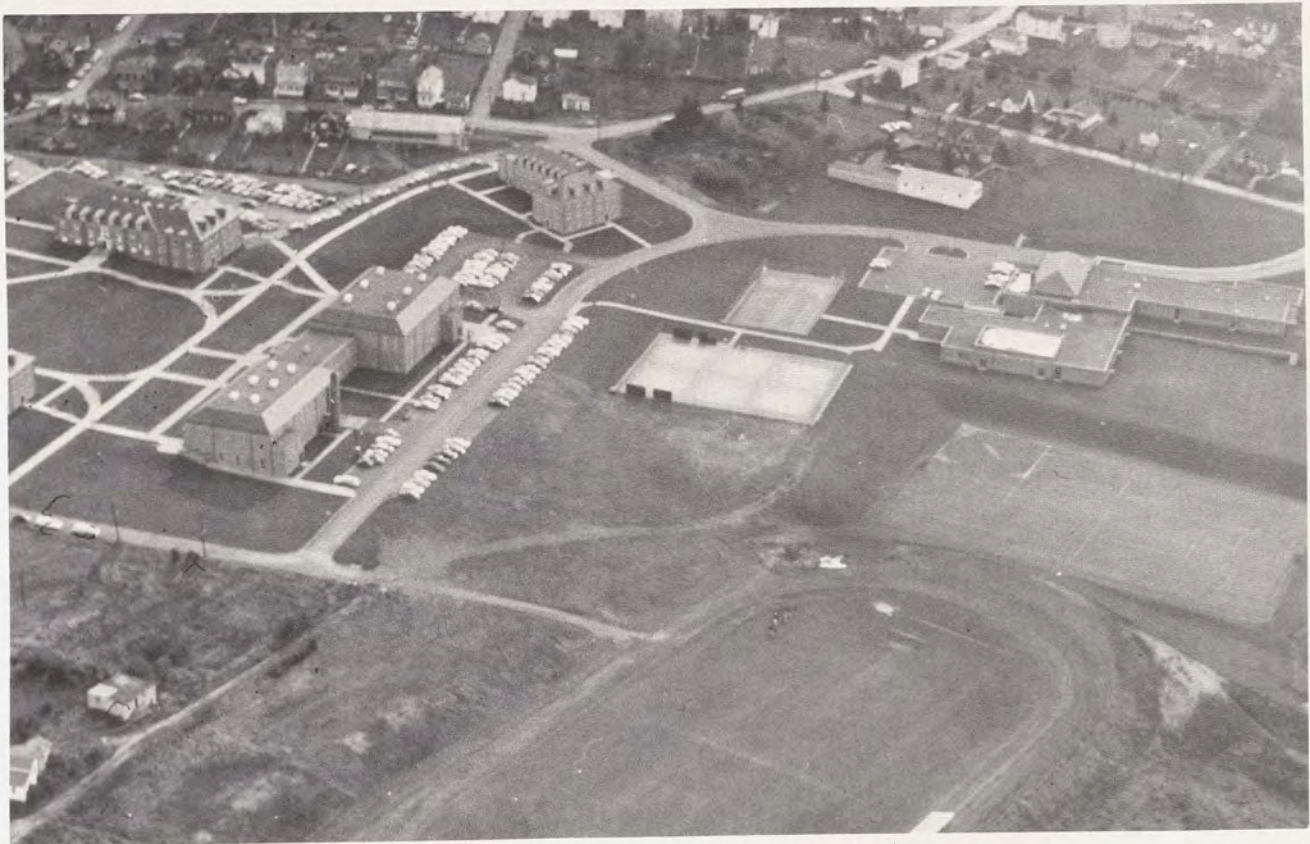

It never stopped raining.

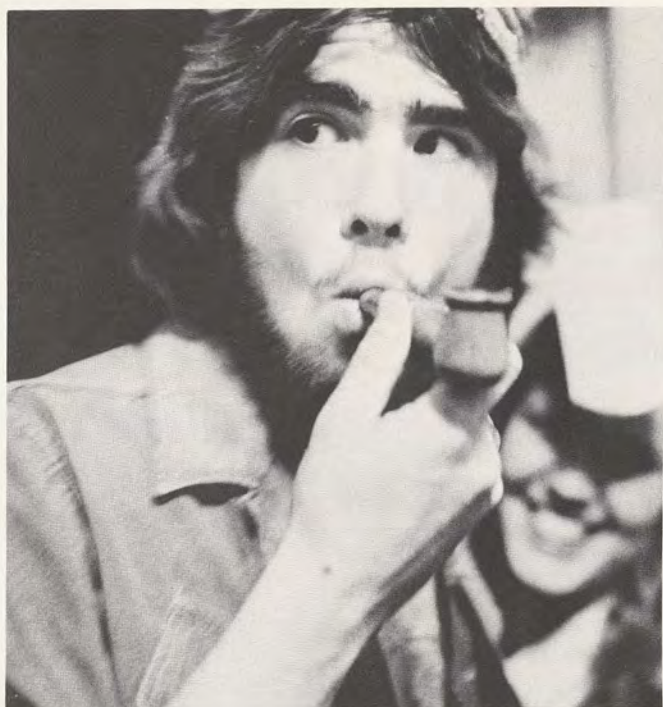

Laughing was so easy.

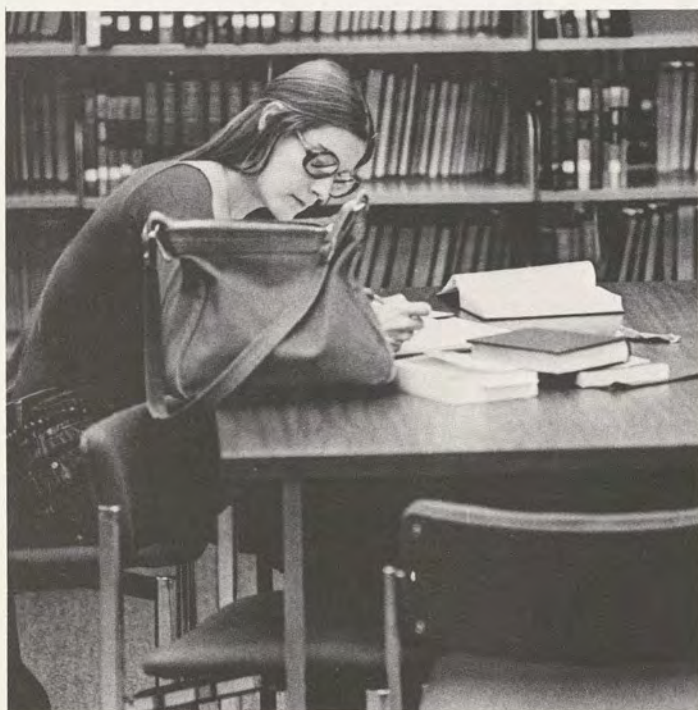

The Lane Center was under construction.

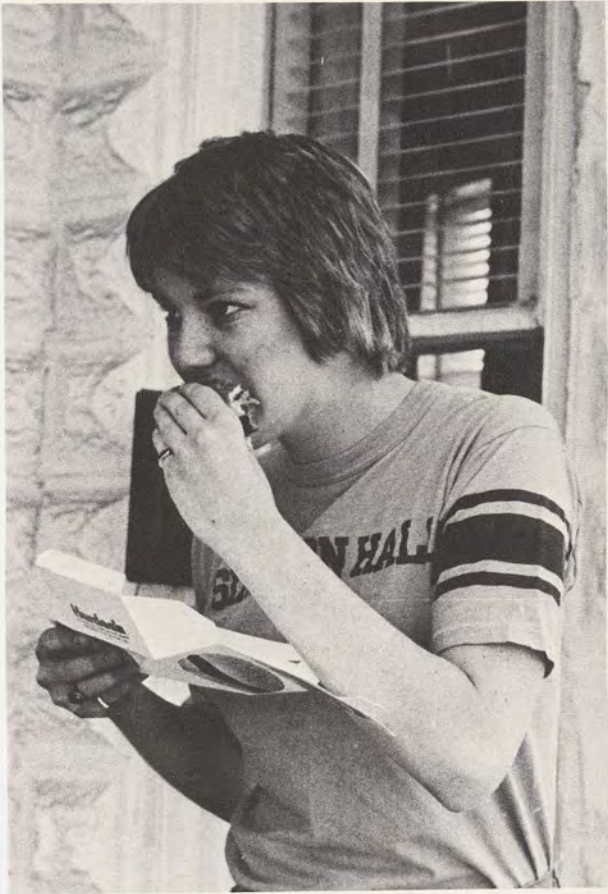

This was all there was to campus.

These four pages are dedicated to the
Things We Do Best

ATTENTION

To some areas in the country, the winter of 1977 was the worst ever. To students at Frostburg State College, it was just another winter. The snow was deep and the wind blew, but it wasn't anything new.

Find Yourself In A Crowd

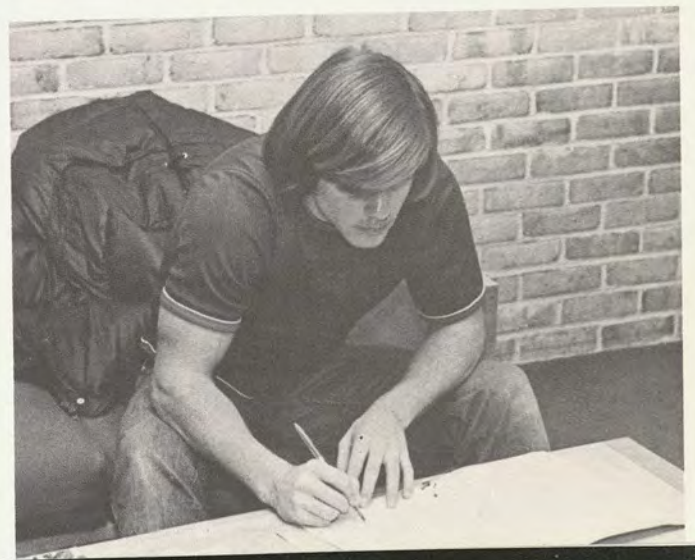

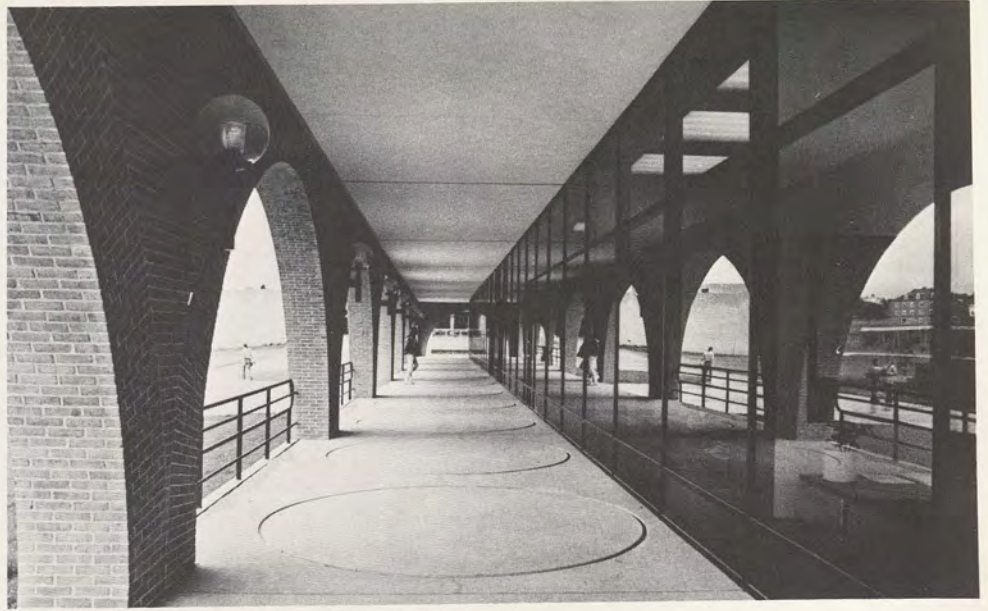

The Lane College Center

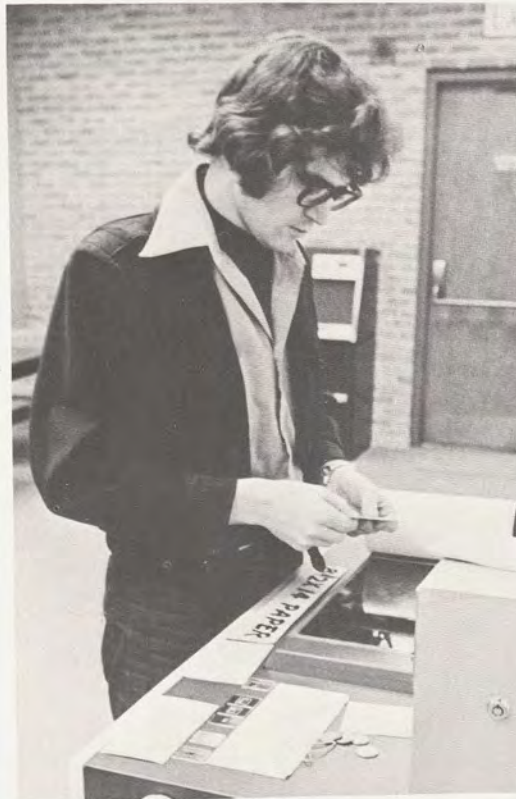

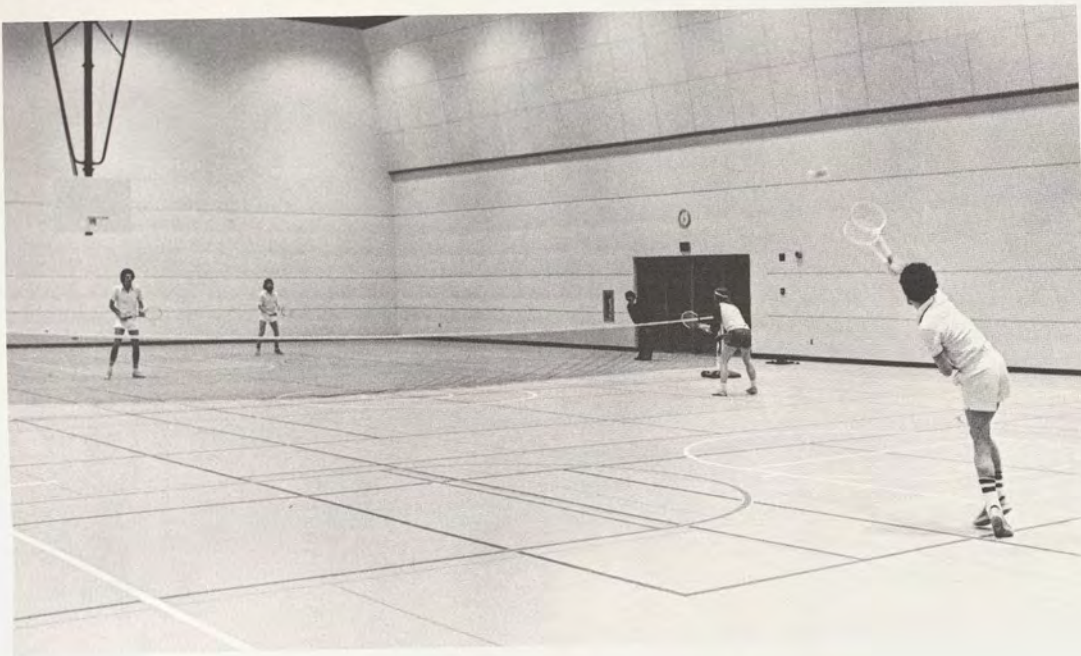

The "New Library" opened in the Spring of 1976. Since that time it has become the second home of many students. Some people find the silence unbearable and succumb to the temptation of falling asleep.

The Physical Education Center

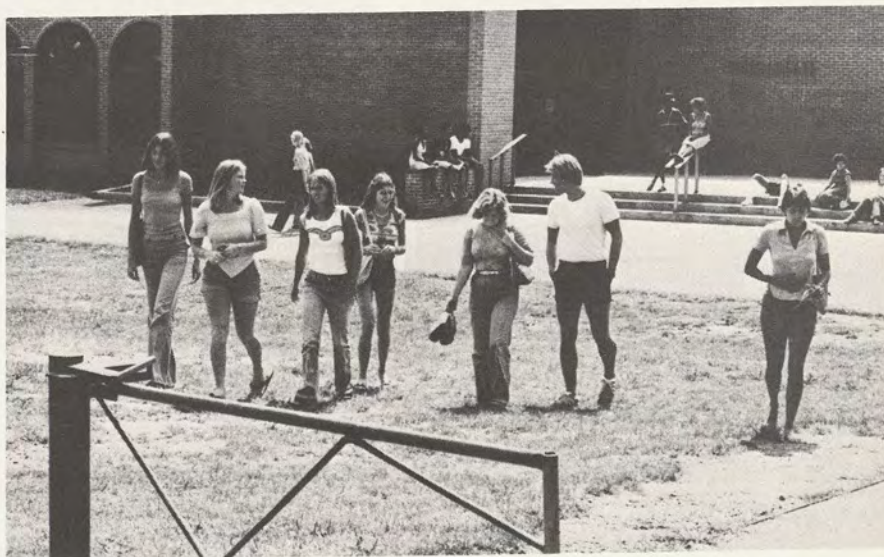

Chesapeake Hall, better known as "The Home of Saga", is the center of daily attention. Nothing can beat the small talk of: "What's for dinner" and the explicit details of the meals. There were a few high points of our life there; how about the evenings it literally rained food.

AESTHETIC FROSTBURG STATE

I remember the ancient
 You offering to share
 A hollow between mountain shoulders:
 We came with fingers
 Still clutched to love
 Left home,
 Like fledgling
 Peripheral nest,
 To master masters of men.
 Where lies the beauty of this place
 This pit between mountain shoulders
 This Eden
 This slow paced euphoria
 Of uterine comfort.

Fog rolls the mountainside
 Like Achaens across plains of Troy
 To cover even the obvious
 From shortsighted view.
 A blue cup holds milky
 Pails of life
 That foretell sweet gasp
 Like squirrel surprised seeing
 The foolish chase of men.

Seasons come in patient colors
 That hold the eye in view
 And appraise a look within.
 Autumn canopy rings the hillside
 In beauty more than peacock sway
 And snatches foreign eye at tender ease,
 While breath breaks from sight supernal.
 Winter is cruel chill wind
 Constant down snow stripped Coal ripped
 Mountainside.
 Dandelions reign in spring,
 Like veil across Islamic faith.

Ah this beauty
 Makes one wonder
 To wonder
 Any other place,
 To dream more supernal valley,
 A more wind swept face.
 We leave in the gladness we came
 Like bird at learning
 The thoughts of wing.
