AN OPEN ADDRESS

TO THE

Democrats of Wicomico County.

FROM THE

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

To the Democrats of Wicomico County:

We are now on the home-stretch of the present campaign in Wicomico County, and we take this opportunity to call upon all Democrats to line-up for the triumphant election of our State and Local tickets. The present fight in this county means much to every citizen, no matter what his political affiliation might be; but we especially urge the Democratic voters and those of Independent thought to vote the Democratic ticket.

The Democratic party has successfully managed our financial affairs for the past 42 years; organized and formed the county; built up all her internal improvements, and has so successfully, honestly, and faithfully performed its duties that to-day we have one of the most prosperous and growing counties in the State. It is distinctively a county without graft. Our moneys are honestly spent and our affairs honestly managed. We stand to-day on the eve of an era of greater improvements in all departments of our local government. Our County Commissioners have done some splendid work in the way of building roads, and are now in the midst of carrying this work to far greater lengths. We therefore call upon all our Democrats, as well as those of other political faith, who are interested in seeing this work carried on to completion, to stand out boldly for the Democratic ticket. The conditions in Wicomico County, under Democratic control, have improved year by year, and at the same time our tax rate has been kept down to a minimum, and our assessments on a low basis.

Taking all these things into consideration, we believe that we can appeal to the sounder judgment of our voters, without regard to politics, to "LET WELL ENOUGH ALONE." There certainly can be nothing gained by a change in our local government, and the class of men nominated this year by the Democrats is a guarantee of faithful performance of public duty, along conservative, but progressive lines adopted by the Democratic party in Wicomico County—the bed-rock upon which we have built up one of the most prosperous, peaceful, and happy communities in the State of Maryland.

Senator Blair Lee says that every Democrat in Maryland should vote the Democratic State Ticket. He claims it is a duty as well as a privilege to vote for the successful candidates in the last primary fight. He says the doctrine of Majority Rule is the fundamental principle of the Democratic party, and he calls on all his friends in the State who voted for him in the Primaries to vote for Senator Gorman and his associates.

We appeal to every White Man in Wicomico County to vote for the Hon. Arthur Pue Gorman for Governor and his associates, Messrs. Poe and Harrington. Mr. Gorman's election will mean four more years of progress and good government in Maryland. He is equipped by training to handle our affairs with credit to the State and with credit to the Democratic party. The election of Goldsborough would mean a return to the conditions prevailing in Maryland from 1895 to 1900, when crime, debauchery and negro rowdiness was rampant in Maryland. The election of Goldsborough will also mean the loss of Maryland to the Democratic National Ticket next year, when everything points to the election of a Democratic President and the relief of the people from the yoke of oppression by the Trusts and Republican Monopolies of the Country. The Presidency may depend upon Maryland's vote next year, and it is the duty of every Democrat in Wicomico County to stand by their guns this year and keep from power the gang of Federal Spoilsmen who grabbed the State in 1895, and who are again attempting to do the same thing.

Democrats, do not forget the dreadful days following 1895. The white women of Southern Maryland and the Eastern Shore who trembled with fear during those four dreadful years of Republican blight and disorder are holding up their hands to you to-day to vote the Democratic ticket this year and elect a Democratic Governor to keep away the terror of another four years of Republican misrule and negro aggressiveness.

We therefore ask you to stand true to the Democratic party in this contest, and to get out and do what you can to help along Democratic victory, both for the Ticket and the Amendment.

With best wishes for Democratic success, we are,

Yours Very Truly,

Democratic State Central Committee,

JAS. T. TRUITT, Chairman.

M. V. BREWINGTON, Secretary.

GREAT MEETING IN SALISBURY—Thousands Of Democrats Present—Overflow Meetings Held.

As forecasted in this paper in its last week's issue, Salisbury gave the Democratic candidates, one of the most enthusiastic meetings held here in recent years. Early in the day the streets commenced to fill up with farmers and residents of other towns in the County, all anxious to see and meet the Democratic candidates and the other big men of the party who were present on that occasion. The afternoon meeting which was held in Ulman's Opera House was a great success both from the standpoint of attendance and interest taken. The stage was fittingly decorated for the occasion and the Southern Band furnished music.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. W. C. Mitchell, one of Wicomico's most progressive and prosperous farmers. In a few brief words he explained the purpose of the meeting and then introduced the speakers.

One of the first speakers was Edgar Allen Poe, candidate for Attorney General, who called the attention of the audience to the different methods used to nominate the Republican and Democratic tickets, showing that he and his associates on the Democratic ticket were named in a primary in which close to 100,000 Democrats participated, while Mr. Goldsborough and his associates on the Republican ticket were named by a few of the party leaders.

Sen. Blair Lee, the opponent of Mr. Gorman in the recent primaries, followed Mr. Poe, and it is saying nothing to the discredit of any of those present to say his was the real oration of the day. Democrats all over the state unite in praising Senator Lee for his open and manly course in supporting Mr. Gorman's candidacy for Governor. So many men when defeated in a bitter and close primary are so embittered by their defeat, that the support given their successful rival is but lukewarm to say the least. Not so, however, with Mr. Lee. He recognizes the merits of his opponents, and it is true to his word to give him the same hearty support he would have expected if the fates had reversed the verdict given in the primaries. A man who is able to so gracefully accept defeat, is bound to be some day as graceful a winner. Mr. Lee is a great believer in the Direct Primaries, and says that is the right place to fight out party differences. We quote a portion of his speech:

"I appreciate the support you people gave me last summer. From all sources I have looked into the details of the alleged irregularity in the primary election, but fail to see how it can affect the State ticket and I am confident that Mr. Gorman is my legal candidate for Governor. Now is the time that the two great wings of the party should come together and co-operate."

"Some people have acquired the habit of moving from party to party and may continue to do so without regard to the past. This fall we have an excellent opportunity for cleaning up the troubles of the party. It is no reflection to say that the party needs cleaning. We must clean up everything now and then, no matter how much we respect and revere it. And, moving from one party to another party which is more dirty than ours shows very poor judgment."

I have been called a hero by some of my friends because I am out in the interest of Mr. Gorman and I don't like it. I am not a hero; I'm simply a plain regular Democrat."

"Let no man attempt to gain the judgment of the whole people but rather let them ratify this State ticket, which they have nominated from top to bottom."

Mr. Emerson C. Harrington, candidate for Comptroller made the last speech in the afternoon. Mr. Harrington in his speech ably defended the policies of his past and pointed with pride to the record. He ended his address with a strong plea to the Democrats present to stand by their party and their party's nominees in the coming election.

Evening Session.

In the evening, the meeting was called to order by the Hon. L. Atwood Bennett, who made an eloquent appeal to the Democrats of the county to stand together and elect the ticket state and county. The first speaker of the evening was Mr. Albert O. Ritchie, of Baltimore, who gave an address in which he ably discussed the issues of the campaign and reviewed the merits of the two parties. Immediately after Mr. Ritchie's address came Mr. Gorman, the democratic standard bearer in this fight. Mr. Gorman was given a hearty and enthusiastic reception by those who filled the Opera House to overflowing. Mr. Gorman made a manly open address and gave the people his assurance that if elected Governor that he would carry out in spirit as well as in letter every pledge of the Democratic platform and those which he had advocated in addition to these. Mr. Gorman is a man whose manner and character gives the people confidence in giving Day. Thursday, November 30th. Set Apart As Day Of Prayer And National Holiday.

TAFT PROCLAIMS THANKS—

President Taft on Monday issued his annual Thanksgiving proclamation, calling upon citizens of the United States to celebrate Thursday, the 30th of November, next as a day of thanksgiving and prayer. The proclamation reads as follows:—

"The people of this land having by long sanction and practice set apart toward the close of each passing year a day on which to cease from their labors and assemble for the purpose of giving praise to Him who is the author of the blessings they have enjoyed, it is my duty as Chief Executive to designate at this time the day for the fulfillment of this devout purpose."

Our country has been signally favored in many ways. The round of the seasons has brought rich harvests. Our industries have thriven far beyond our domestic needs, the production of our labors are daily finding enlarged markets abroad. We have been freed from the curses of pestilence, of famine and of war.

Our national councils have furthered the cause of peace in other lands and the spirit of benevolence has brought us into closer touch with other peoples, to the strengthening of the bonds of fellowship and good will that link us to our comrades in the universal brotherhood of nations. Strong in the sense of our own right and inspired by a strong sense of the rights of others we live in peace and harmony with the world.

"Rich in the priceless possession and abundant resources, wherewith the unstinted bounty of God has endowed us, we are unselfishly glad when other peoples pass onward to prosperity and peace. That the great privileges we enjoy may continue and that each coming year may see our country more firmly established in the regard and esteem of our fellow nations is the prayer that should arise in every thankful heart."

"Wherefore, I William Howard Taft, President of the United States of America, designate Thursday, the thirtieth of November next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer and earnestly call upon my countrymen and upon all that dwell under the flag of our beloved country, then to meet in their accustomed places of worship to join in offering praise to Almighty God and devout thanks for the loving mercies he has given to us."

"In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed."

Done at the city of Chicago this thirtieth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and eleven and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and thirty sixth.

By the President.

P. O. Knox, Secretary of State.

his promises, which was very evident from the manner those present took his speech. We quote a portion of his speech.

"I want to say that I deeply appreciate the loyal support given to me in the recent Democratic primaries, and hope that at the end of the four years of my administration and I say this because I believe that the Democratic party will be triumphant on November 7th, that no man that voted for me, or my friend, Senator Lee may have cause to be ashamed of the executive of the State."

"I will go into the office with one desire and one purpose, to serve the people of the state. I am a Democrat and I am a politician, as I have said. I believe that politics are essential and necessary to manage and control the destinies of any State or country. Without the country cannot develop or progress. I therefore come before you as one who is interested in the government in good government, and I unhesitatingly say that I believe that the only way that Maryland can have good government is by Democratic administration."

Following Mr. Gorman was our most excellent Governor, Hon. Austin L. Crothers. To appreciate the warmth of his reception by the Democrats and all others there one would have to be present. Gov. Crothers is deservedly very popular with Wicomico countians for his efforts in behalf of good roads, as well as his fight to carry through every platform made in the convention which nominated him for Governor. Upon the splendid record made by his party during his administration, the Democrats are making this campaign, without its record of achievement and promises fulfilled they would not have much to go before the people asking them to continue the party in power.

Governor Crothers made what is generally regarded as the best speech of the day, and one that probably had a great effect upon those who were debating as to the proper course to pursue in regard to the coming election. Altogether the meetings held here on Saturday were very successful from whatever standpoint they may be considered. They had the effect of further solidifying Democratic sentiment and will doubtless prove a valuable aid in getting out the vote to the polls on Tuesday.

DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS

Seems Certain. Outlook Bright In Most Sections—Local Conditions Satisfactory.

Immediately after the Primary election, especially after the discovery of fraud in the counting of the ballots in Baltimore City, the outlook for democratic success was not of the brightest. Sen. Blair Lee's frank and manly attitude together with the hard work of others in sympathy with him, did much to smooth over any feeling left by the hard fought primary contest. Mr. Gorman's attitude in regard to the falsifying of the returns in Baltimore City has had a big effect upon public sentiment which at first was prone to throw the blame upon everything and everybody democratic. It has come to be recognized that without his support the count by the grand jury in Baltimore City would never have been allowed to proceed. This stand has convinced the people that no matter who else in the party may have been guilty, Mr. Gorman's hands were clean.

When all these came to be considered by the people a very noticeable change began to take place in public sentiment. Those who had been silent, or openly denouncing the party began to take an active interest in its success. This movement has continued to grow until today—a few days before election—there is hardly a man prominently connected with the democratic party in the State but who is giving his party even and active support. In Baltimore City where the effect of the primary cheating was felt to its greatest extent, this feeling of the democrats to get together and support the party's nominees is more pronounced than in other sections of the State. This great change in public sentiment there is the basis for the confidence now seen in democratic circles everywhere. While a few weeks ago this city was classed by our leaders in private conversation as sure to give the republican candidacy a majority today they are publicly and privately claiming the city for the entire state democratic ticket by majorities variously estimated from 5,000 to 10,000.

In all other portions of the state with few exceptions the same confidence exists in the party ranks. In Western Maryland, where it has been reported that the republican party would give Mr. Goldsborough an old time majority, the democrats are claiming that if the republicans carry it at all, it will be by a very small margin. Southern Maryland will probably give Mr. Goldsborough its usual republican vote. Baltimore County is confidently counted upon by the democrats to roll up a majority of from 1500 to 2500.

On the Eastern Shore, Somerset and Dorchester, and maybe Kent, will probably be found in the republican column. With these exceptions the other Counties are expected to give their usual Democratic majority. It is estimated that Gorman's majority on the Eastern Shore will surely reach 1500 and may go as high as 2500.

As far as one can judge here in Wicomico the ticket will receive its usual support and Mr. Gorman leave here with not less than 500 majority. Worcester is expected to come over with at least 800 majority. Somerset is a very uncertain proposition owing to the big mix up on local affairs. An independent Democratic ticket is in the field, while the Republicans did not nominate a local ticket. It is claimed by the Democrats that the independent ticket will not hurt the Democratic candidates as both factions are

JOHN VALENTINE DENNIS

Passes Into The Great Unknown—Leaves Many Descendants.

Entered into the life eternal October the 29th, 1911. John Valentine Dennis, aged 81 years, 34 days. Deceased was the eldest son of the late Littleton and Betsy R. Dennis. He leaves besides his aged widow, the following children: Mrs. Charles Cooper of Whaleyville, Mrs. Urie Wilkins of Farmington, Del., Mrs. Sidney Gault, Mrs. Wm. Holland, Mrs. Andrew Coulbourn and Mrs. Hilary Hudson of near St. Martins, Messrs. Cyrus W. of New Jersey, J. Lee of Wango, John L. and Charles W. of near St. Martins. Also 58 grand children and 19 great grand children; one brother, Washington I. Dennis and one sister, Amanda E. Dennis, of Berlin.

He was a farmer and an industrious worker until the infirmities of age robbed him of his strength. He was a kindly natured gentleman. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and a faithful attendant upon its services, until failing health, strength and loss of hearing rendered such attendance impracticable.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. John L. Nichols, of Whaleyville, were held in the Southern M. E. Church at St. Martins. Interment was in Buckingham Presbyterian Cemetery on October the 31st.

Death of Ralph Hamblin.

Mr. Ralph Hamblin, a well known citizen of Wango, died Thursday evening, October the 26th, after an illness of six weeks at the age of 81, leaving a wife and one daughter, aged four years. The wife is a daughter of Mr. Deard Q. Atkins, of this county.

Funeral services were conducted on Saturday afternoon by Elder A. B. Francis in Forest Grove Church, interment being in the family lot. The funeral was largely attended by relatives and friends.

giving it their hearty support. The best informed however concede this county to the Republicans. Just what effect the policy of the Republican party in refusing to nominate a ticket in the Wilson Ballot Law Counties is going to have upon the vote in these counties, is a question that has politicians of both sides figuring. The Republicans did it in hopes that it would make the ticket less complicated for their side to vote and thus defeat the object of the law, which is to keep the colored man from voting in these counties. If it has the effect of doing this in these counties some big surprises will probably be in store for the Democrats when the vote is tabulated.

The Democrats, however, say that it will do the Republicans more harm than good as the absence of the local ticket will have the effect of making the Republicans in those counties look warm in the present fight, as well as cause hard feeling among many who had ambitions for the nomination. Which side is correct can only be told after the election. Although both sides are claiming the election both are anxious to know how the great silent vote of the state is going to be cast. On this point the Democrats seem to be more confident because the great independent leaders of this silent vote are far the most part out in the open supporting Mr. Gorman and his associates. Baltimore City is recognized as the pivotal point as either side may need it to win. The Democrats may win if it goes against them, a small majority, but the Republican candidates as both factions are

YOURS VERY TRULY,

T. M. Dinsmore & Co., Baltimore, Md.Bullock—Spence.

A very pretty wedding took place at the "Arlington" Hotel on the evening of Thursday, October the twenty-sixth, the contracting parties being Miss Mary Leannora Spence, daughter of the late Irving Spence, Esq., of Snow Hill, Maryland, and Mr. William Robert Bullock, of Greenwood, South Carolina.

The bride entered the parlors on the arm of her brother, Prof. Thomas Humphreys Spence, Vice President of the Maryland Agricultural College. She wore a gown of white Parisian fibre and carried lilies of the valley. Her attendant was Miss Margarette Loraine Mattie, of Hyattsville, Maryland, who wore a Princess gown of yellow messaline, veiled in marquisette of pale lavender and carried yellow roses. The best man was Mr. John W. Bullock, of Atlanta, Georgia, brother of the groom. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the members of the two immediate families, Mr. Wallace Radcliffe, of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, officiating.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Bullock received the congratulations of their many friends at a reception given by the bride's brother and sister, Professor and Mrs. Thomas Humphreys Spence, of College Park, Maryland.

The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion in palms, white and yellow chrysanthemums, and an orchestra composed of harp and violin, furnished music while light refreshments were served under the Arlington management.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Bullock were driven to the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Malcolm Price, "The Iowa," and left on the ten o'clock train for the far south. They will make their home in Greenwood, South Carolina.

Miss Spence comes of the distinguished family of Spences on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, being a daughter of the late Irving Spence, a member of the Bar of Snow Hill for many years and a man of letters whose pretty home "Landdowne" within two miles of that town was noted in olden days for the proverbial hospitality of the Eastern Shore to be enjoyed within its gates. On her mother's side she is descended from the Humphreys of Salisbury, Md., both families being prominent in both literary and social circles for many years.

Mr. Bullock is a member of the well known Georgia family of that name and has filled successfully several responsible political positions in his native town of Greenwood, where he is very popular among his constituency.

Among the out of town guests were: Mr. Walter C. Humphreys, Mrs. Belle Humphreys Jones, Misses Letitia and Mary Houston, of Salisbury, Md.; Mr. John W. Bullock, Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. Coke Turner, Greenwood, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Malcolm Price, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Stanley, Laurel, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Calvert, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Richard W. Silvers, Prof. and Mrs. W. T. L. Talliferro, Miss Talliferro, Director and Mrs. Harry B. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. B. Symons, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Turner Harrison, Dr. and Mrs. Thos. Hardy Talliferro, Dr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Buckley, Prof. and Mrs. Frank B. Bomberger, Mr. Herschel Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Olose, Mr. Herman Beckenstrater, Mr. L. B. Broughton, Mr. Octavus Everfield, Miss Lillian Everfield, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. White, Mr. and Mrs. Julian J. Palmer, College Park, Md.; Misses Davila, Milford, Del.; Mr. Frank E. Kent, Miss Virginia McGaw, Miss Milnesbeth Brown, Baltimore, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Koeh, Towson, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Graham, Starkeville, Miss; Miss Maude Lattice, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Spicknall, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Fuller, Mrs. H. C. Dobbs, Mr. John Leper, Hyattsville, Md.

At The New Academy Of Music.

The new Academy of Music, Baltimore, certainly are giving their patrons an unusually fine line of plays, and that the theatre going public are appreciating the efforts of the management is shown by the excellent business that this theatre is doing every week. For the week of November the fifth, another very strong attraction is announced: it being Lulu Glaser, who has been called the queen of the light opera stage, in a new Venetian opera, with the title of "Miss Dudesack."

This European sensation, with its fascinating melodies, played last year in nearly 300 continental cities. Its charming title role proved to be exactly what Miss Glaser had been seeking ever since her well remembered triumph in "Dolly Warden."

HOW SHE CAUGHT HIM.

Fixed Things So Young Man Wouldn't Get Cold Feet.

Amaranth was known to those who knew her best as a most thorough young person in everything she undertook to do. Whenever she embarked upon any sort of an enterprise it was pretty safe to assume that when the end came there would be no loose ends to be gathered up, and for that reason the young men of the community had come to fear her slightly, with the result that after ten seasons had passed since her debut in society she was still in the market. Men seemed to find in her many of the desirable qualities of a sister, but they feared that in a home she might prove too much of a manager for them to risk a venture upon the matrimonial sea with such a person. There was one exception to this rule among the swains of the city, however, and that was Billie Wilbraham. He could see in her to a rich degree the qualities that would make her a most admirable wife for just such a person as himself, but unfortunately he was timid.

"My heart is warm, but my feet are cold," he had once observed to his friend Dawson, who had remonstrated with him for his cowardice in putting the only question that could bring his little romance to an issue. "I've been up there four nights this week," he went on, "and just as I get myself screwed up to the point where the fatal words are to be spoken something slumps inside me, and I switch off on to something else."

Amaranth herself was keen enough to see what was going on in the poor fellow's mind and, inasmuch as she fully reciprocated the feeling which she knew she had inspired in his breast she resolved to take the matter in hand herself. So it happened that when he called upon a certain Friday evening she was ready for him, but she bided her time. She received him cordially, as usual, and they talked about the weather, and the motor show, and how to raise green peas in a flat in winter, and various other subjects, until the clock struck 10, when, as usual, Wilbraham began to get uneasy. The symptoms of an approaching proposal were all there, and Amaranth perceived the fact with anxious pleasure.

"I—er—I've had something I wanted to speak to you about for some time, Amaranth," he began in the usual faltering manner. "I have fully made up my mind that you—that you are the—the—the only—um—ha—hum—the only er—"

"Just wait a minute, William," she interrupted, with a soft smile and a gracious glance at the stammering lover. "Let me pull your chair up closer to the hearth."

He rose, and together they drew the chair to the very edge of the fireplace.

"There," she said. "Now just you sit down right there and keep quiet for a minute."

Wilbraham sat, watching her with interested eyes and wondering what on earth she was up to.

"Now," she went on after she had got him comfortably settled in the chair, "put both your feet on the fender—not crossed that way, but separately—there—that's it," she added as he obeyed. Then, striking a match under the marble mantelshelf, she turned on the natural gas log and it lit in a moment the whole room was illuminated with a golden glow from the flickering flames.

"Why, Amaranth," said he, "what is the meaning of all this? I was really quite comfortable without all this, although it is very nice."

"Oh, I only wanted to fix things nice and comfy," she answered demurely. "It was so chilly over on the other side of the room that I was afraid you would have an attack of cold feet before you finished what you were saying. What was it, just that you thought you would ask me, William?"

"I'll give you two guesses!" he answered with a grin.

"One is enough," she replied. "I guess yes!"

And it turned out to be the proper answer.—Harper's Weekly.

Saved Many From Death.
W. L. Mook, of Mook, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grippe, croup, asthma, or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe it is the best throat and lung medicine that's made."

Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidney, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Hoes Alley, P. O. Box 233, Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Thus The World Moves On

Returning from Europe, where he had been spending his first real vacation in twenty years, Thomas A. Edison, the other day made the prediction that it is only a question of time when the airship will supplant the steamship as a swift, safe and practical medium of trans-oceanic travel. As reflecting the marked change that has occurred within recent years in the popular belief in man's ability to accomplish the seemingly impossible it is significant that no one dissents from "the wizards" picture of our future means of locomotion.

Yesterday such a prophecy would have been laughed to scorn; today we not only accept it as within the realm of probability but look ahead to the day when the big levitation of the air will replace, not only the steamship but the railroad as well, for all forms of transportation. For the well meaning clergyman and church people who denounced Ben Franklin from their pulpits as a usurper of the Divine prerogative, because he showed his fellow countrymen, who by means of a lightning rod, they could protect their lives and property we have nothing but pity.

Thomas Jefferson tells in his memoirs of one of his neighbors who was "agin" the public schools because, "when every body gets so they can read and write nobody will want to work." Bishop Berkeley thanked God there was not a printing press in all Virginia, because "printing presses printed mostly lies and their business was to deceive the people." Even so broad gauged a man as Ruskin declared the introduction of railroads would ruin England by driving the stages out of the business and killing the demand for horses. Pater Cooper, builder of the first locomotive operated in the United States was made the laughing stock of the whole country-side, because in a ten mile race with an old grey horse near Baltimore, his boiler sprang a leak and the horse won. Robert Fulton was declared a fraud by the boatmen of the Hudson River who doubted his ability to make the "Clermont" navigate its waters by steam and without the use of sails. Arkwright, who invented the spinning frame which revolutionized the weaving business of the world was mobbed and Jacques, whose loom is still the world's standard came near being thrown into the river by an angry crowd of fabric workers who feared his machine.

The invention of Elias Howe's sewing machine caused riots in New York and a Pennsylvania woman said of Samuel F. B. Morse's telegraph which the financiers of Wall Street believed impractical and refused to finance: "I suppose no one can spank their brats now, without the whole world knowing all about it." Alexander Graham Bell's telephone was said to be a toy until the Emperor Dom Pedro finding it in a corner of the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia, pronounced it one of the marvels of the age. Edison was thought to be possessed of a mild form of dementia when he announced that by injecting electricity into the carbon filament of a lamp from which the air had been removed he had discovered the secret of what is today the world's universal illuminant. Patrick B. DeLany excited the same popular misgivings among the angelicists with his multiplier, by which six messages were transmitted simultaneously over a single wire and taxed our imagination to the limit by his telepost system of automatic telegraphy by which he sends 1000 words a minute over one wire. Finally when Marconi, the beardless youth from Bologna showed us how without the use of any wires at all, it was possible to communicate over sea, we admitted that there was nothing left to challenge our credulity.

Thus the world has moved on. Each step has broadened our perspective, strengthened our confidence and added to our length of days, our peace, power and joy. No longer do we deprecate any one or decry his invention. Rather have we got to that point in our evolution where we believe the apparently impossible is attainable and that mankind is at last largely master not only of his own destiny but of that of generations yet unborn to a great extent.

These women are likely a few of thousands of living witnesses of the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to cure female diseases. Not one of these women ever received compensation in any form for the use of their names in this advertisement—but are willing that we should refer to them because of the good they may do other suffering women to prove that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a reliable and honest medicine, and that the statements made in our advertisements regarding its merit are the truth and nothing but the truth.

THE REASON.

INTO my smiling rosy mouth
The smiling barber deftly hooks
His finger and pulls it away
To get the whiskers in the nooks
At either corner, and he adds
And gives my head a scratch or two
"Your head is very dirty. Don't
You think you need a nice shampoo?"

Then he says, "You need a massage."
But I insist that I do not.
And then he blusters my poor face
Within a towel reeking hot:
Then he insists I ought to have
A mass of tonic on my hair.
And that's why I hate to sit
Me in a barber's easy chair.

And all the while the barber breathes
His onion breath into my face
And hooks his finger 'neath my lip
And drags my mouth all out of place
A bootblack fumbles at my feet
And begs and begs me, with a whine,
To loosen up and come across
And let him give my shoes a shine.

Because I do not want a shave.
Because I hate the barber's hooks,
Because I want no shampoo and
Because my face the barber crooks,
Because I care for no massage
And want no tonic rubbed in me,
I hate to do it, but am forced
To use a safety razor. See?

—Houston Post.

Starting the Stopped.

One day an old farmer borrowed a mule from his neighbor. After he had finished his work he sent his fourteen-year-old boy to take it home. The boy had gone about half a mile when the mule stopped and positively refused to go any further. After the boy had almost pulled his arms off trying to get him to go an old doctor came along and asked, "Why, my son, what is the matter with your mule?"

"Why, sir, can't you see, he has balked," cried the boy.

"Well," said the old man, opening his case and taking out a bottle labeled carbolic acid, "I'll see what we can do for him," and he poured some of the acid on the mule's back, and in much less time than it takes to write it the mule was galloping down the road at a rate he had never gone before.

The boy looked up in surprise and said, "Doctor, have you got any more of that stuff?"

"Yes," answered the man.

"Well, doctor, are you sure you have got a whole lot more of it?" he asked.

"I think I have plenty. What did you want to know for?" he asked, with a smile.

"Well, I wish you would pour some on me, doctor, for I've got to catch that mule," answered the boy.—National Monthly.

Puzzled Philosopher.

The philosopher had purchased a three pound steak for dinner. A little later his cook, having burned the meat, threw it away and reported that the cat had eaten it.

"Bring me the cat and I'll see," said the philosopher.

The cat was brought and placed on the scales. It weighed exactly three pounds.

"You were right," said the philosopher. "There are the three pounds of meat, but where is the cat?"—Chicago News.

BILL JONES AND HIS AEROPLANE.

BILL JONES he took his aeroplane and ascended through the air. He flew from Mexico to Maine. He soared most everywhere. But when he started to come down, As he at evening planned, There was no place in all the town Where they would let him land.

He flew along until he saw A park not far ahead, That which he wanted a landing for. Though filled with solemn dread, For as he neared its gates below, For why he landed there, He saw painted on a sign of wood, "Keep Off the Grass!"

Next thing he saw was just a church— A Baptist church, I think. He sped toward it with a lurch That made poor Billy blink. But when he got up close to it— Oh, amen dark and dire!— It bore a painted sign—to wit, "Keep Off the Steps!"

Again he mounted to the blue And gazed this way and that Until there rose before his view An eighteen story flat. "Ah, that's the spot for me," said Bill, "To land without reproach!" But there he read the message chill, "Keep Off the Steps!"

And so it is that Billy Jones Still speeds along the sky. He has to keep his weary bones Forever on the fly. And no one lives to say him nay Up in the ether there, With shouting voices that say, "Keep Off the Steps!" —Harper's Weekly.

The Trouble.

Two old settlers sat smoking in a cabin far away in the backwoods. No woman's hand decried that domain, and grime reigned supreme and triumphant. The conversation drifted from politics to cooking.

"Yaas," said the elder of the two, with a drawl. "I did get one of them there cookbooks wunst, but I could never do nothing with it."

"What was the hitch?" inquired the other.

"Well, every one of those recipes begun in the same way, with the same words. Every one said, 'Take a clean dish,' and I never got no further." —Tit-Bits.

TIERED OF SLAVERY TO

Political Ring—Woodrow Wilson Scores Unholy Alliance Of Interests And Machine.

At Gov. Woodrow Wilson's address to the Publicity Club, of Minneapolis, Minn., he devoted most of his speech to a discussion of the connections between business and legislation, speaking particularly about the business interference with legislation. He said in part:

"It is perfectly legitimate, of course, that the business interests of the country should enjoy the protection of the law and be in every way furthered and strengthened and facilitated by legislation. The country has no jealousy of any connection between business and politics which is a legitimate connection.

Alliance With Machine.

"But the illegitimate connections between business and legislation are another matter. Every community is vaguely aware that the political machine upon which it looks askance has certain very definite connections with men who are engaged in business on a large scale, and the suspicion which attaches to the machine itself has been to attach also to business enterprises but because these connections are known to exist.

"If these connections were open and avowed, there would be no difficulty in keeping an eye upon affairs and in controlling them by public opinion. But, unfortunately, the whole process of lawmaking in America is a very obscure one.

"There is no central force in any Legislature which can itself guide the course of lawmaking. There is no publicly responsible man or group of men who are known to formulate legislation.

"It has, therefore, been possible for an outside force—the political machine the body of men who nominated the legislators and who conducted the contest for their election—to assume the role of control.

Supply Money For Protection.

"Business men who desired something done by way of changing the law under which they were sold or who wished to prevent legislation which seemed to them to threaten their own interests have known that there was this definite body of persons to resort to.

"They have agreed to supply them with money for campaign expenses and to stand by them in all other cases where money was necessary if in return they might resort to them for protection.

"Most of our legislators are men engaged in one kind of business or another or engaged in one sort of employment or another. They therefore have their own individual business interests and connections and again and again it has happened that individual legislators who wished to render concessions and independent public service found themselves suddenly embarrassed when they refused to serve particular business interests which were seeking legislative favors. They have found credit denied them and obstacles put in their way in the conduct of their business.

Money Necessary.

"Unhappily money is necessary at every turn of the political game. A man cannot get into office without the expenditure of a good deal of money even if he confines the expenditure to perfectly legitimate objects. The sources of money are therefore the sources of political opportunity and of power and those who supply the power can generally control the nominations. And opportunity does not stop at election. The men elected to office generally hope to have some political future and they find that future in turn controlled at the source; so that those who supply the money of war are so often able to exercise a kind of command which deprives representatives of the people of their own real independence.

Judging The Tariff.

"One of the best instances that could be cited is the whole disappointing business of our legislation with regard to import duties. Almost every kind of business is affected directly or indirectly by the tariff laws and it has in recent years become notorious that the schedule is of the tariff were arranged by the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives and Finance Committee of the Senate with a very tender regard for particular business interests.

"It has again and again happened, therefore, to the scandal of the whole country, that items and clauses have been inserted into our tariff laws which were not even explained to the members of Congress, which received no exposition at all, which were a matter of private arrangement and understanding between the representatives of certain great business interests and the members of the Ways and Means Committee of the House and the Finance Committee of the Senate. The Finance Committee of the Senate in particular during many years was the stronghold of these special interests. I am not intimating direct corruption of any kind. I am speaking now only of the subtle corruption of the will to which I have already referred. The will dominate in the Finance Committee of the Senate has for many decades together been subservient to the dictates and to the interests of particular groups of men.

Business Tired Of Alliance.

"The country has definitely made up its mind that it will get at the root of this matter and of all other matters like it, and that it will break up this alliance. There was a time when it looked as if to accomplish this would involve a very dangerous sort of strife between the general mass of voters in the country and those who had exhibited splendid talents in building up the business of America. But, happily, that threat has disappeared. It is one of the happy circumstances of our time that the most intelligent and progressive of our business men have seen the mistake as well as the immorality of the whole bad business. The alliance between business and politics has been a burden to them—an advantage no doubt upon occasion, but a very questionable and burdensome advantage. It has given them great power, but it has also subjected them to a sort of slavery and a sort of subservience to leading politicians. They are anxious to be freed from the bondage as the country is to be rid of the influences and methods it represents.

"I think it will become more and more obvious that the way to purify our politics is to simplify them and the way to simplify them is to establish responsible leadership. We now have no leadership at all inside our legislative bodies—at any rate, no leadership which is definite enough to attract the attention and watchfulness of the country. Our only leadership being that of irresponsible persons outside the legislatures, who constitute the political machines it is extremely difficult for even the most watchful public opinion to keep track of the circulation methods pursued."

Drop by drop the offensive discharge caused by Nasal Catarrh falls from the back of the nose into the throat, setting up an inflammation that is likely to mean Chronic Bronchitis. The most satisfactory remedy for catarrh is Ely's Cream Balm, and the relief that follows even the first application cannot be told in words. Don't suffer a day longer from the discomfort of Nasal Catarrh. Cream Balm is sold by all druggists for 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

HUNDREDS ARE COMING

To Salisbury For The Virginia Conference Sessions Beginning Next Week.

Rev. J. Franklin Carey, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, South has completed the work of arranging for the entertainment of the Virginia Conference which opens in Salisbury on the 14th inst. About 450 clerical and lay delegates and representatives of connectional interests will be present. To find homes for such a large body of visitors was no small matter, but the energetic pastor of Trinity, aided by the church committees, has accomplished the desired results and when the visitors arrive they will find comfortable quarters and hospitable entertainment for which Salisbury is noted. All the churches of Salisbury have assisted nobly in the entertainment of the conference, thus showing a brotherly spirit which is commendable.

Salisbury has never before entertained the Virginia Conference although several other church conferences have met in this city. Salisbury is proud to entertain the Virginia Conference at this time and the gate of the city will be thrown wide open to the visitors who will come from the grand old State of Virginia and from our beloved State of Maryland in view of the coming of this great body of church workers, a brief sketch of Southern Methodist in Salisbury will be interesting.

Was Organized in 1867.

Trinity Church was organized in 1867, and has been a force for good in this community for nearly 45 years. At first a mere handful of faithful men and women banded together to erect a place of worship, and the fruit of their labor was the erection of a little chapel on Water St., overlooking Lake Humphreys. The little congregation grew steadily and a few years later a very pretty church edifice was built. This was destroyed by fire a few years later and from its ashes arose the building now used by the Catholics, in which the congregation of Trinity worshipped until the present magnificent stone edifice was built in 1905 by Ex-Governor E. E. Jackson and presented to the congregation. From the small membership in 1867 Trinity Church has grown until its present membership is more than 400. The Sunday School enrollment is about 800, of which number the Jackson Barrow Class has 400.

Most of the good men and women who organized Trinity Church nearly half a century ago have fallen asleep, but their descendants are carrying on the good work with a zeal which betokens greater things for Trinity than the past has witnessed.

The leaders in the movement of organizing Trinity Church were Hugh and Isaac Jackson, Wm. B. Gordy, Henry J. Brewington, Wm. B. Tilghman, Levin K. Dorman, Levin M. Dashiell, James Cannon and Ellis E. Jackson; and there were some elect ladies, of whom were Mrs. Margaret A. Rider, Mrs. J. D. Hank, Mrs. Ella Dashiell, Mrs. Mary A. Gordy and Mrs. James Cannon. These faithful women stood shoulder to shoulder with the men in pushing forward the work of the church here, and helped to lay the foundation for a strong denomination in our midst.

Death of Mr. Thomas.

The sudden death of Mr. Otto Fitch Thomas, of Deals Island, occurred Saturday evening at eleven o'clock. Mr. Thomas was attending a political meeting when taken sick, being hurriedly conveyed to his home in a car by the public speakers, died shortly after his arrival. Death was due to apoplexy. Mr. Thomas served five years as State Counselor of the Daughters of America, and two years as Justice of the Peace, holding both offices at the time of his death. Deceased was also a member of the Junior Order of Mechanics. He was unmarried and was thirty six years old. The community was greatly bereaved.

Mr. Thomas was a great grand-son of the Rev. Joshua Thomas, a son of the Hon. Hybrand Thomas, and a nephew of Mrs. Herbert Hitch, of this city.

Funeral services were held from his late home Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. The floral offerings were handsome and numerous.

Improvements To Stores.

Mr. Harold N. Fitch has made a decided improvement to his optical parlor on Main Street by the removal of the shelving and the repapering of the entire room. He will install some additional glass cases and counters.

Mr. G. M. Fisher, jeweler, is making extensive improvements to his store on Main Street. The room has been lengthened eight feet and a new metal ceiling has been put in. Several new glass counters and wall cases will be added to the store's equipment, giving much more room for the display of goods.

—Money to lend on first mortgage, amoungs to suit. F. Grant, Salis- Attorney.

GOLDSBOROUGH ELECTED

Governor. Democratic Comptroller And Attorney General. Wilcomico Gives A Normal Majority.

Election Day was marked in this County and elsewhere in the State by fair weather after a storm on the night before, and perhaps in this can be seen some explanation of the size of the rural vote. In this County although the Democrats had charged the Republicans with the use of large sums of money to hire the Democratic voters to stay away from the polls, one of the largest votes in the history of the County was cast.

Owing to the fact that so many of the tickets were out, the returns were very slow in coming in. Nothing at all dependable was heard in this County as to the State at large until Wednesday morning, when news came in indicating the election of Mr. Goldsborough and the rest of the Republican ticket. As more reliable news drifted slowly through, it was found that Messrs. Harrington and Poe were winners for Comptroller and Attorney General respectively. This victory of the Democrats means that the State will be under Democratic control in all departments except that of Governor and his appointees. The Democrats will have a clear majority in both Senate and House, and will be able to pass in these bodies any laws they want.

Mr. Goldsborough will have the appointment of many state officials, and as he will probably make a clean sweep, many office holders are today in mourning. In this County, Justices of the Peace, School Commissioners, Notaries of the Public, are the main ones together with the State Commissioner of Immigration and Deputies under the Fish Commission.

The election machinery in his hands and will probably appoint new election supervisors, etc.

Altogether the change in Governor will upset political circles quite a little. Many explanations are given to account for the results, but the fact of the throwing out of so many votes in Baltimore City due to the casting of more votes for men to serve as Judges of the Orphan Court than there were vacancies is the biggest factor.

The victory of Harrington and Poe while Gorman was defeated is probably due in part to their personal popularity and more to the fact that the Republicans were making a dead set for their candidate for Governor and for fear of spoiling ballots if their ignorant voters attempted to vote for all, instructed this vote to support the head of the ticket alone. In Wilcomico County a phenomenally large vote was cast and resulted in a victory for both State and County tickets far in excess of the hopes of the Democrats. General interest shown in this election is attributed for the most part to the adoption of the Direct system of making nominations. All got interested in this fight and continued their interest up to the election day. The vote in the State on Governor and the vote of the County on all will be found below.

GENERAL ELECTION

Returns—Both Parties Win And Lose And Issues, Not Party.

Outside of the State of Maryland the election returns do not show much that either party can take special encouragement from, although on whole the Democrats seem to have better of it. But while neither party can feel special encouragement, not the case with those who look good government as better than one party government. Almost out exception the voters all country have exercised a discriminating vote that goes far to protect themselves against the scandals in connection with national, as well as the rule of Morphy caused the people to swing back to the original Republican ticket, and assistance of Philadelphia, that republican City, has repudiated the Democratic party, under the cry of down with Contractor government. Kentucky has swung back to Democratic rule, so has Massachusetts kept to her decision in the last election. New Jersey has elected a Republican legislature and apparently gone back to her old moorings.

The lesson to be learned from the elections in the country at large as well as in the State of Maryland, is that the people of this country have made up their minds to support hereafter—at least to pay more attention to the nominees than has ever been the case before. It will matter little hereafter what promises a party makes to the voters they must put up with in whom the people have confidence to carry out these promises and pledges before the voters are going to elect their candidates. Men and Measures, but men are to be judged as well as parties and measures. Those who hope to fill positions of honor must see that their records are kept clean and straight. The oldtimers must be aside and let those who are in touch with modern thought and feeling come to the front. Corruption favors the present but the way to win political success is to be subservient to any interest but that of the people of any value, but on the contrary a great hindrance. Party loyalty and party fealty have to a great extent lost their potency to force in line an intelligent electorate, who refuse to be lured by unadvised promises and whose only claim on party principles is their name on the ticket, and who represent first of all their own personal interests.

GRANGE MEETING HELD

At Hebron—Members Enjoy A Big Day In The Grange Hall.

The Wisconsin County, or Pomona Grange, held its third annual meeting at Hebron's Hall, Hebron, Thursday, October 26th. Pittsville, Powellville and Parsonsburg Grangers not represented. All the others sent delegates, Salisbury being well represented.

After opening by the Worthy Master, Theodore S. Hearn, music and address of Welcome by Jas. A. Waller, the regular routine work of the order was taken up which was soon disposed of. The Grange decided to refer the election of officers to the State Grange because it was only recently that the present officers were elected. It was also decided to hold an open meeting for the public after dinner which was served from 12:30 to 1:30. Almost everybody has heard of Grangers' picnics. You have seen pictures of them in farm papers. It would have done your heart good to see the long rows of tables, loaded down with the choicest food, all kinds of Maryland food, ham, fried chicken, a la Maryland, Maryland biscuits, Maryland peaches, pickles, salads, etc., etc.

The whole family was there from baby in mother's arms to gray-haired size, a company of earth producers.

After noon-day exercises all repaired to place of meeting of which, Mr. James A. Waller was made to chairman, who introduced Dr. Aug. Stabell, State Grange Lecturer. Now the Dr. was in a talkative mood, and after such a good dinner fairly outdid himself, nitrification and bacterization and such terms he handled without gloves.

It will not be out of place to mention a few things he said because if the other farmers had known of the good things in store for them that day, you couldn't have kept them away, except one poor old one-mule-one-gallous farmer who said upon being told of the meeting "I reckon that Dr. don't know no more 'bout farming than I do."

In explaining relation of atmosphere and soil he proved that the more air the soil contains the more life it contains. That is one vote for our sand. That when soil is filled with water it drowns or drives out the harmless bacteria that gather nitrogen from air, that nitrification takes place always in the shade so that if you don't want to throw away money for ammonia the soil should be kept shaded, and if in no other way a dust mulch is always to be had. That such dirt or dust mulch need be no more than an inch or two deep. He showed how it had been found that clay soils need but little potash; that chemists had tried soaking some New England clay soils in water and found that they contained enough potash to last a million years. That the more sandy the soil the more potash it needs and that the sulphate is the best form of potash.

In reference to lime he said oyster shell lime was cheapest and hydrated most expensive.

He gave the fruit growers a hint that they can get fruit in off years by pruning, fertilizing and spraying with lime sulphur just as blossoms are bursting. The Dr. didn't forget the ladies. He told them how to make $9 clear profit per hen, and gave a detailed account of how his brother handles the poultry business so as to clear that much. And yes the Dr. was not through with his talk when the whistle of the approaching train gave him the necessary warning. He grabbed his bundles and made a bee-line for the station.

The meeting was over. Invitation had been accepted to meet with Salisbury Grange the last week in January, 1912. The day itself had been delightful, but Hebron hospitality was its equal. W. C. MITCHELL.

Unclaimed Wealth of Foreign and American Heirs.

In an effort to trace heirs, who, unknown to themselves, are in positions to claim fortunes in foreign lands and this country, the International Claim Agency has an old established "next-of-kin" office at Pittsburgh, Pa., and is prepared to trace claims to foreign estates. While it is not generally known, there are many fortunes awaiting American claimants according to the data secured by this agency.

To aid in the work, the agency has issued a publication of 400 pages, containing in alphabetical order names of persons, who have been advertised for in the last 200 years up to the present, including many names from the chancery courts of England and Ireland and lists of lost relatives, unclaimed bank dividends, etc. Thousands of names appear in the book which may lead to claims to unclaimed estates. Correspondents have long been established by the agency in Europe to aid in the work. My writing to the International Claim Agency, Pittsburgh, Pa., including a stamp and mentioning the name of this paper, anyone may secure one of their free booklets.

A Splendid Offer.

It is unofficially announced that the Salisbury Realty Company will donate a valuable lot on the Humphreys property for the erection of a Y. M. C. A. Building in Salisbury. The site fronts on South Division Street 120 feet and has a depth of 100 feet and adjoins the former flour mill. The privilege, we understand will be given to the Y. M. C. A. Building Association to acquire the lot by the sale of the building. This lot is so situated as to render the erection of a Y. M. C. A. Building unnecessary. This is a splendid offer and those interested in the erection of a Y. M. C. A. Building should at once acquire the lot by the sale of the building. Twenty five cents a lot.
