

Faculty Senate Issues

The Chronicle of Higher Education

- Faculty Workload and the associated reward systems (promotion etc.) are the central issues for the senate to address this fall. Discussions began last year and will continue.
- Several standing committees and an ad hoc committee have been working on a standard grievance policy for the university. The Senate Approved it in March but the Attorney General has reservations. The senate & other involved committees will meet with her on May 11 to resolve the issue. A current draft is attached.

General Education Task Force

Comments and questions about this page can be directed to the Senate Webmaster.