

Students scheduled for a common exam (e.g. English, History, Psych, Math, Chem) as one of three exams on a single day should be required to take the common exam whenever in the day it is scheduled as opposed to the current policy allowing students to reschedule the “middle” exam.