The Somerset Herald.

GEORGE L. WHIT.

THE FAVORITE NEWSPAPER OF THE NEW YEAR.

ISSUE NO. 127.

TUESDAY, JAMES, 1870.

WANTED.

Wanted, a reliable person to take charge of the Woodberry Farm, in the town of Greenfield, for the coming summer season. The farm is well watered and stocked with good stock. The location is excellent, and the work is not excessive. Applicants should have previous experience in farm management. Address: Mr. John Smith, P.O. Box 123, Greenfield, Vermont.

OBITUARY.

In memory of Mr. Samuel Johnson, a lifelong resident of the town of Westfield, who passed away peacefully on Sunday, January 8th, at the age of 75. Mr. Johnson was a respected member of the community and leaves behind a legacy of hard work and dedication. Services will be held on January 15th at 11 AM at the Westfield Church of the Nazarene. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the local food bank.

LOCAL NEWS.

An announcement has been made of the upcoming winter sports season, with events scheduled at the local recreation center. The center will be hosting a series of winter sports activities, including ice skating, snowboarding, and skiing lessons, for all ages. Registration begins on January 10th, and spaces are limited, so interested individuals are encouraged to sign up early.

ADVERTISMENTS.

For Sale: A fine herd of dairy cows, well-documented and tested for milk production. Located in the town of Brookfield, contact Mr. James Baker at 555-1234. For Rent: A charming cottage in the heart of the countryside, perfect for a quiet getaway. Available for the month of February. Inquire for details at 444-5678.