

Mini-Conference:
College and Career Ready
Comprehension
Saturday, December 5, 2015

Presented by the full-time Ed.D.
students of the Seidel School

To register, contact

nlmichelson@salisbury.edu

Session D: ____

Supporting Strategic College Readers

9:45-10:45 a.m.

TETC 155

Presenters:

Heather Porter,
Assistant Director,
Center for Student
Achievement, Salisbury
University

Courtney Harned,
Lecturer, Department of English and Modern Languages, University of Maryland, Eastern Shore

The transition from secondary to postsecondary reading expectations can be challenging for many first year students, requiring students to adapt and develop strategic reading comprehension skills. This session will explore the reality of “College and Career-Ready” for students moving from high school texts and teaching to university expectations.

Intended Audience: College faculty teaching introductory/general education coursework for first-year students; content-area teachers of college bound high school juniors and seniors