Don McLean to Present Homecoming Concert

This fall's All-American Homecoming at FSU features a capstone concert with American popular music icon, Don McLean, now on his "30th Anniversary Tour" commemorating his 1971 smash hit, "American Pie." The concert is set for Saturday, Oct. 7, at 9 p.m. in the Cordts Center Main Arena.

Citing influences like the Weavers, Roy Orbison, Buddy Holly and Jim Croce, McLean has written more than 200 songs that have, in turn, inspired others. Madonna's version of "American Pie," which McLean praises as "contemporary and sexy," has filled the radio airwaves around the globe since its release. Roberta Flack's Grammy-winning hit "Killing Me Softly with His Song" was penned by a songwriter impressed by one of McLean's performances, and Garth Brooks calls McLean his "idol."

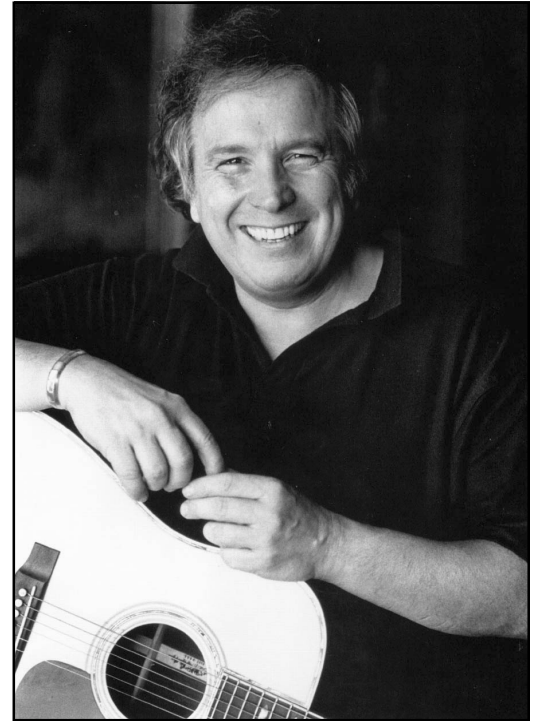

Besides "American Pie," his tour features well-known hits including

"And I Love You So," "Vincent (Starry Night)," "Castles in the Air" and "Crying."

This event is presented as part of the 2000-2001 Cultural Events Series in partnership with the FSU Alumni Association.

For information and ticket reservations, contact the CES Box Office in the Lane Center, Monday through Friday between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., at x4411. Extended box office hours will be offered Homecoming weekend. On Friday, Oct. 6, tickets can be purchased from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Lane Center Box Office. This is the last chance to buy tickets at the advance ticket price. On Saturday, Oct. 7, from 1 p.m. to show time, tickets can be purchased in the Leake Room of the Cordts P.E. Center.

Two seating options are available: reserved floor seats and general admission bleacher seats.

Don McLean

"Funny Thing Happened on the Way" to the PAC

The hit musical comedy "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" opens the University Theatre's 2000-2001 season at FSU on Friday, Oct. 6, at 8 p.m. Additional evening performances are Oct. 7, 12, 13 and 14 at 8 p.m. A Saturday matinee is set for Oct. 7, at 2 p.m. All performances will take place in FSU's Performing Arts Center Drama Theatre.

With credits by the master of the modern musical Stephen Sondheim, along with television/radio greats Larry Gelbart and Barry Sheelove, this throwback to vaudeville is, according to The New York Times, a "glorious old-fashioned farce."

Set in Rome, circa 200 B.C., we meet Pseudolus, the laziest slave in Rome, who will do anything to earn his freedom. The fun begins when he is left in charge of his owner's young son, who has fallen madly in love with a beautiful young virgin in the house of Lysuc. The youth promises Pseudolus his freedom if the slave can arrange the boy's marriage to the lovely virgin before his father returns. Of course, Pseudolus agrees and havoc ensues.

Information about and reservations for this and future productions can be obtained by calling x4145 between 1 and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. Season Discount Cards are available for $21, a value of four shows for the price of three. Tickets are $7 for non-students and $3 for students.

Meningitis, Flu Shots to Be Offered Oct. 5

FSU and VACCESSHealth will again offer the meningitis vaccine to members of the FSU campus community. Flu shots will also be offered.

The cost will be $75 for the meningitis vaccine and $15 for the flu shot. The shots will be offered in the Lane Center Multi-Use room from 1 to 7 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 5.

A new Maryland law states that students living on campus must either have the meningitis vaccine or have signed a waiver saying they decided against it. That law doesn't cover students living in off-campus housing who are still at risk.

More than half of the outbreaks from 1992 to 1996 occurred in schools, colleges, universities and similar settings. Studies have suggested that college students are more susceptible because they live and work close to one another in dormitories and classrooms. Behavior and social aspects of college life also appear to be risk factors, with smoking, exposure to second-hand smoke, excessive alcohol consumption and bar patronage all increasing the chance that you will contract meningitis from an infected individual.

Symptoms often mimic flu, including fever, severe headache, stiff neck, rash, nausea, vomiting and lethargy. The infection can lead to permanent disabilities or even death. The infection is spread by direct contact, for example from sharing a glass or cigarette or by kissing, or through the air when an infected person coughs or sneezes.

Speakers

Noted Poet to Appear

Acclaimed poet James Harms will present a poetry reading at FSU on Monday, Oct. 2, to at 7:30 p.m. in the F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre of the Performing Arts Center.

This event is sponsored by the FSU Western Maryland Writer's Workshop and the Department of English.

Now director of the creative writing program at West Virginia University, Harms is a native of California. His two collections of poems, "Modern Ocean" (1992) and "The Joy Addict" (1998), are published by the Carnegie Mellon University Press. "The Joy Addict" won him a PEN/Revson Fellowship and the following praise from the judges: "James Harms has a real gift for engaging his reader with the palpability of loss and what he terms 'the stillness that follows loss.'"

Harms' poetry is heralded for "the dailiness of revelation," the importance of small gestures and the need to see more clearly. His awards include the John Ciardi Fellowship from the Bread Loaf Writers' Conference, two Pushcart Prizes, the Academy of American Poets Prize and Fellowships in Creative Writing from the West Virginia Commission on the Arts and the Pennsylvania Councils on the Arts.

The reading is free and open to the public. A reception and book-signing will follow. For more information, call the FSU Department of English at x4221.

Appalachian Lab Seminar

"Landscape Pattern In The Sierra Nevada: A Model-Integrated Research Program," a seminar in spatial ecology, will be the topic of the Thursday, Sept. 28, edition of the Appalachian Laboratory Fall Seminar Series. The presentation will be by Dean L. Urban, Nicholas School of the Environment, Duke University, Durham, N.C., at 3 p.m. in AL Room 109.

Simpson To Speak On Presidential Election

Dr. Stephen J. Simpson, professor and chair of the Political Science Department, will be the guest speaker at the October meeting of the Frostburg Branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW). Dr. Simpson will discuss the current presidential election, especially candidate strategies and the role of media in the campaign. This program is open to the public and will be held at the community room of the Frostburg Public Library on Main Street on Tuesday, Oct. 3, at 7:30 p.m.

Lecture on Quilts Part of African Am. Forum

Susan Allen, writer and professor of English at FSU, will present "Gathering of Spirits: A Lecture on African-American Quilts" on Tuesday, Sept. 26, at 7 p.m. in the Atkinson Room of the campus Lane Center.

Ms. Allen's lecture is the sixth event of FSU's African American Studies Forum 2000, which celebrates the cultural contribution of African Americans in the second millennium. This celebration started in September 1999 and will conclude this December.

For more information, contact Dr. Jean-Marie Makang, coordinator of the African American Studies Forum, x3089.

Entertainment

International Film: "La Cage aux Folles"

FSU's 2000-2001 International Film Series continues with "La Cage aux Folles" on Tuesday, Oct. 3, at 7 p.m. in Lane Center room 201. The series is sponsored by Center Stage and the Lane Center & Campus Activities.

Also known as "Birds of a Feather," this 1978 French comedy inspired the hit movie "The Birdcage" starring Robin Williams. The original film features the predicament faced by two gay men, Renato and Albin, when Renato's beloved son Laurent announces his impending marriage.

Renato and Albin, who have lived happily together for 20 years in St. Tropez and co-own the La Cage aux Folles, a nightclub featuring Albin's act as the drag queen "Zaza," agree to disguise their relationship for one night, when they agree to meet Laurent's fiancée Andrea's pompous and conservative parents.

However, their good intentions are unable to prevent what turns into an evening of hilarious havoc.

This and future film series showings are free and open to the public. "La Cage aux Folles" is in French with English subtitles and runs for just over an hour and a half.

For information, contact the Lane Center Information Desk at x4411.

Guitarist Edgar Cruz Kicks Off Cafe Frostburg

Cafe Frostburg 2000 at FSU kicks off with a performance by the innovative and inventive guitarist Edgar Cruz Thursday, Sept. 28, at 8 p.m. in the Lane Center Loft. The event is free and open to the public.

Cruz is renowned for his unique guitar arrangements of everything from the classics to "Bohemian Rhapsody" by Queen. His "Top 10 Greatest Guitar Licks" is always a smash hit.

Cafe Frostburg is sponsored

by Lane Center and Campus Activities. For information, contact the Lane Center Information Desk, x4411.

"No Way Out" Part of African Am. Film Series

"No Way Out," the first film of FSU's African American Film Series will be shown Thursday, Sept. 28, at 7 p.m. in room 201 of the Lane Center. The showing is free and open to the public.

Starring Sidney Poitier and Richard Widmark, "No Way Out," centers on race and social justice issues. After a black doctor fails to save a gangster's brother's life, the criminal seeks revenge by inciting race riots and ordering mob slayings. This movie, released in 1950, was nominated for two Academy awards and lasts one hour and 45 minutes.

The FSU African American Film Series will feature four classic films, with one scheduled per month through December.

Jen Chapin

"Urban Folk" Artist Jen Chapin to Perform

FSU's Center Stage presents Jen Chapin, playing her own, unique "urban folk" music, Friday, Sept. 29, at 8 p.m. in the Lane Center Appalachian Station. The program is free and open to the public.

Chapin's earthy sound has been called "urban folk" — an acknowledgement of both her father Harry Chapin's fertile folk-rock legacy and of her own background. She studied jazz at the Berklee College of Music and also taught the History of Black Music at a Brooklyn high school. She writes songs of searching for solitude, of the city and boys and guns, of loss, of loves both pure and bittersweet.

For information, contact the Lane Center Information Desk, x4151.

Bauman's Composition to Be Performed in Italy

A music composition written by Dr. Jon Bauman, professor of music at FSU, has been selected for performance at the International Composition "Aleo Gigli" Festival in Bologna, Italy, in October. The composition is titled "Duo for Violin and Cello."

Last Year, Dr. Bauman was commissioned to write a music composition for the string orchestras of the Community High Schools of Downers Grove, Ill. The new composition, "Horizons," was premiered last March on the spring concert of the suburban Chicago school system. Bauman conducted the performance, played by approximately 90 string players.

Other recent commissions include the "Frostburg Overture," for Frostburg's Arion Band, to celebrate its 120th Anniversary and the entire score for the Civil War music drama, "McNeill's Rangers," for the Apple Alley Players.

Dr. Tom Serfass, Assistant Professor of Wildlife Ecology, Department of Biology, participated with graduate students and colleagues at Purdue University in the following presentations:

- Giordano, A. J., and T. L. Serfass, "Seasonal Food Habits of a Reintroduced River Otter Population in Pennsylvania" (a paper) at 80th annual meeting of the American Society of Mammalogists, Durham, N.H., June 17-21.

- Serfass, T. L., M. R. Dzialak, R. N. Williams, and O. E. Rhodes, Jr., "Fisher Reintroduction In Pennsylvania: Integrating Science And Conservation" (a poster) at 3rd International Martes Symposium - Martes 2000, "Martes in Managed Landscapes", Corner Brook, Newfoundland, August 13-16.

On Sept. 16, Dr. Amy Harman, Biology, and Dr. Judy Pula, English, presented reports to the Maryland State Executive Board of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International in Aberdeen, MD.

Established in 1929, the international honorary society of 150,000 key women educators in 14 countries (including 1600 in Maryland) promotes professional and personal development, excellence in education, and improved opportunities for qualified women employed at every level of education. Membership by invitation is extended to those women educators whose distinguished contributions and achievements in the field of education and to their communities are identified as outstanding.

Harman is Second Vice-President at the state level of the society; Pula is President of the Alpha Alpha (Garrett County) local chapter.

Volunteers

American Red Cross Needs YOUR Blood

The American Red Cross will hold a blood drive Friday, Oct. 20, in the Lane Center from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Volunteer blood donations help patients being treated for accidents, routine surgeries and serious diseases such as leukemia, lymphoma and other cancers, heart disease, sickle cell anemia and hemophilia. Despite the fact that giving blood is easy, safe and takes less than one hour, only 5 percent of eligible Americans donate blood. To donate blood, one must be healthy, at least 17 years old and weigh 110 pounds or more.

Plan Now for an Intersession in Quebec!

Students interested in spending three weeks in Quebec this year are invited to attend an information session Tuesday, Sept. 26, at 3 p.m. in the Fuller House. Applications are being taken now for the intersession "French and Snow" program at the Universite du Quebec at Chicoutimi. Students immerse themselves in a French-speaking culture and take one 3-credit course in French along with a 1-credit course in snow sports. French courses are offered at all levels — beginners, intermediate and advanced. The application deadline for students who want to apply for a scholarship is Oct. 10.

Study Abroad Programs

The Center for International Education offers a variety of ways for FSU students to see the world. In many cases students register at FSU during a semester abroad, and can take all financial aid with them and transfer course credit back to FSU. For information on any of the programs or scholarships that may be available, check with Dr. Amy Simes at the CIE in the Fuller House on Braddock Road, call her at x3091 or e-mail her at asimes@frostburg.edu.

Don't Just Conjugate Verbs

The International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) offers hundreds of study abroad programs around the world. Many places are still open for spring 2001. Programs are available for both English-speakers and for students who wish to immerse themselves in a foreign language. FSU students may register at FSU, transfer back all credit, and use all financial aid. Ask for an application form at the CIE.

First Pre-Departure Orientation Meeting for Ireland 2001

Students planning to go to Ireland during the spring semester 2001 should attend the first pre-departure orientation meeting on Monday, Sept. 25, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. in Room 237 of the Ort Library.

Go Down Under to Australia for a Semester or Summer

FSU is now affiliated with AustraLearn, an organization that provides unique opportunities for students to study at a variety of universities in Australia. AustraLearn arranges cheap flights, a weeklong orientation program, pre-registration, and transcript evaluation. Students may choose from a variety of Australian and New Zealand universities, all offering a broad range of course offerings at campuses set in beautiful and exotic surroundings. Deadline for spring semester is Oct. 15.

Pubs & Clubs in Newcastle, UK

Students interested in studying at the University of Northumbria in Newcastle, England, during the spring semester 2001 should contact the CIE for an application. Newcastle is one of the liveliest cities in the UK, just across the Channel from Amsterdam, and three hours north of London (one hour south of Edinburgh) by train. Courses are available in a wide variety of subjects. The cost is the same as one semester (in-state) at FSU, and all financial aid will transfer. Application deadline for spring 2001 is Oct. 1.

Many Ways to Experience Culture Shock

FSU affiliates with the American Institute for Foreign Study (AIFS), which offers study abroad programs at universities around the world. Programs are open to all majors. Currently the CIE is taking applications for spring semester 2001 programs. Spaces are still available in many locations. You may register at FSU and use your financial aid for all programs.

Denmark for Future Teachers

FSU has established an exchange program for education majors at the Day and Evening Teacher's College in Copenhagen. Students spend spring semester with other international students, taking part in practice teaching and other academic projects. Application deadline for spring 2001 is Oct. 10.

Octoberfest und Mayfest in Germany

FSU students who would like to take part in UMUC's semester programs in Schwabisch Gmund in southern Germany are advised to apply to the CIE. The campus is part of the University of Maryland system, and all credits transfer back to FSU. Live in a beautiful village and study on a campus with international students from over 80 countries. All teaching is in English. Application deadline for spring 2001 is Oct. 10.

Work/Volunteer Overseas - Enhance Your Resume!

Students interested in working abroad should come by the CIE for information about internships, volunteer organizations and paid work overseas. Many organizations help students obtain jobs and work permits, and some help to arrange housing as well. Students can choose from short experiences (1-2 months) to longer experiences (4-12 months), or even look into a more serious commitment (1-3 years). Destinations are available throughout the world.

Scholarships for Intersession and Spring

Students planning to study overseas during the spring semester or the 2001 intersession may apply for scholarships from the CIE. The deadline is Oct. 15. Scholarships are awarded in the amounts of $500 and $1,000. Students must be accepted in an FSU-sponsored program to apply.

Information Sessions Every Tuesday at the Fuller House

Each Tuesday students are invited to come by the Fuller House for a free information session about study abroad. Sessions begin at 3 p.m. in the CIE library. Students may access catalogs, videos and the Internet. During September, students who want to attend the University of Northumbria or any of the ISEP or AIFS programs are encouraged to come to one of these sessions.

Listen to the World on WFWM

Every Wednesday evening from 7 to 8 p.m., listen to "Planet Frostburg" on WFWM, 91.9 on your FM dial. Amy Simes plays music from around the world and catches everyone up on the latest news in overseas study and international programs.
