Massenkoff Russian Folk Festival to Perform

The Massenkoff Russian Folk Festival will appear at FSU on Saturday, Sept. 29 to open the 2001-2002

Cultural Events Series and celebrate Parents' Weekend. The performance is set for 8:30 p.m. in the Cordts Center Main Arena.

Nikolai Massenkoff

Starring world celebrated singer Nikolai Massenkoff and featuring a Balalaika ensemble and soloists, plus the Russian Souvenir Dancers, this show expresses the Russian spirit in song and dance. The performance offers audiences a tantalizing glimpse of Russian history and traditions.

Massenkoff's resonant bass voice, the musicians' virtuosity and the graceful movements of the colorfully clad dancers have mesmerized audiences in seven countries and 38 states. The show has appeared with the Boston Symphony Orchestra and at a variety of venues, including Carnegie Hall, Las Vegas, the Epcot Center and the recent Olympics in Korea. Massenkoff has shared the stage with such stars as Liberace, Jerry Lewis, Bob Hope, Glen Campbell and Ray Charles.

"Massenkoff has an astonishing voice and charisma," says the Chatauquan Daily of New York. He developed his unique vocal style as a child in a Russian Orthodox orphanage.

The entire family will enjoy this unforgettable cultural journey into the heart of Russia, the Ukraine, Moldavia and Armenia.

Dinner theatre specials are available prior to the performance at one of the following dinner theatre partner restaurants: Fratelli's Italian Restaurant, Giuseppe's Italian Restaurant, JB's Steak

Cellar, Leone's Italian Restaurant, Larry's Blues Cellar, and Oxford House and can be purchased through the CES Box Office. Each special includes a uniquely designed meal with non-alcoholic beverages, tax and gratuity.

All tickets for this performance are general admission. Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for children under 17. There is no ticket charge for this Parents' Weekend performance for FSU students and family as well as FSU faculty and staff with a valid FSU ID.

For information and ticket purchases, and for dinner-theatre menu selections and reservation purchases, contact the FSU CES Box Office Monday through Friday from 10 a.m to 4 p.m. at x3137 or toll-free at 1-(886) TIXX CES. Order requests can also be faxed to x7049 or emailed to CES@frostburg.edu. Based on availability, tickets may also be purchased at the Cordts Center Arena Box Office one hour prior to the performance. For information and ticket availability on the day of the show, call x4411. All patrons must have a ticket, and all ticket sales are final.

This tour of The Massenkoff Russian Folk Festival is presented in partnership with the FSU Campus Activities Board. Additional information can be obtained by visiting FSU's Cultural Events Series at www.frostburg.edu/events/ces.

We Want YOU at Parents' Weekend

Parents' Weekend 2001 is scheduled for Sept. 28-30. The program of events has been sent to parents with an invitation to attend. As in the past, there will be a reception for parents and students on Saturday, Sept. 29 from 7:15 p.m. to 8:15 p.m. in the Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall. For the past few years, we have set up tables for all members of the FSU community so parents have the opportunity to meet with representatives from your division or department.

In order to plan enough tables, please contact Gary Van Zinderen Director of Student Activities, at x4151 or gvanzinderen@frostburg.edu, no later than Monday, Sept. 17th.

Music

K.J. James Brings Blues to FSU

One of the blues' big voices, K.J. James, brings his music to FSU on Friday, September 21. Performing Live at the Loft in the Lane University Center at 8 p.m., James will accompany himself on acoustic guitar. The show is free and open to the public.

K.J. James

Acclaimed as a champion of classic country blues, James was one of the opening artists at the Woodstock '99 Festival. His powerful baritone, combined with forceful footwork, fluid finger-picking and some wicked bass lines, gives his music a sound of its own while staying true to the acoustic blues tradition of Blind Lemon Jefferson. He can make his guitar resonate like an empty oil drum or ring like a country dinner bell.

With a repertoire of 500-plus songs, James performs at more than 200 shows a year at colleges, clubs, coffeehouses and festivals throughout the U.S. His sense of harmony, dexterity and sense of humor earned him two nominations for Campus Entertainer of the Year. Fellow blues greats John Jackson, John Hammond, John Cephas and Phil Wiggins have expressed respect for his artistry. He has recorded with the "Salt City Blues" project on Blue Wave Records.

Come and "get the joint jumping" with some foot-stompin' blues n' boogie, K.J.-style.

For more information, call the Lane Information Center at x4411.

Tribute to Noted Composer Planned

The FSU Department of Music will celebrate the achievements of American composer Emma Lou Diemer in a special concert Saturday, Sept. 22 at 8 p.m. in the PAC's Pealer Recital Hall.

The composer will be in attendance. The event is free and open to the public.

Highlighting the evening will be the world premiere of Diemer's "Trio for Piano, Violin and Cello," commissioned for FSU's Chamberlain Trio, with Dr. Ellen Grolman Schlegel on cello, Dr. Joan DeVeve Dixon on piano and Dr. Laura Kobayashi on violin. The Collegium Music, under the direction of Dr. Karen Soderberg, will perform "Three Madrigals" and "Kyrie." FSU percussionist Ron Horner will present "Toccatina for Marimba," and trombonist Bryan Anton will perform "Psalms 1 and 122 for Bass Trombone and Piano." The Laurel Brass, composed of Anton, Lori Anton and Sandra Woodward, will conclude the concert with the world premiere of the "Quartet for Trumpet, Horn, Trumpet and Piano."

Before the concert, at 7 p.m., Diemer will speak regarding her life in music and career as a composer. At the concert's conclusion, audience members will have the opportunity to speak with the composer and all participating musicians. During the week preceding the concert, Diemer will be composer-in-residence at FSU to speak with students, lecture in selected music classes and act as mentor and advisor to students interested in composition.

On Sunday, Sept. 23, at 4 p.m., Diemer will present an organ recital of her compositions at St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Centre St., Cumberland.

Best known for her choral and keyboard works, Diemer has produced a diverse and sophisticated repertoire that also includes works for orchestra, symphonic band, chamber ensemble, voice, solo instruments and electronic instruments. More than 100 of her 350 compositions have been recorded, with many considered standard pieces.

Throughout her 50-year career, Diemer has considered communication with her audience as her highest musical priority. Her style is characterized by motoric, driving rhythms, along with lyrical, sweeping melodies and unusual, provocative harmonies.

Now in her mid-seventies, Diemer is busy with commissions, which include "Homage to Tchaikovsky" for the Santa Barbara Symphony. She is the subject of a 300-page biography written by FSU Department of Music faculty member Dr. Grolman Schlegel. The book was recently published by Greenwood Press.

For information, contact Grolman Schlegel at x4117.

Guitar Virtuoso Edgar Cruz to Perform

The sounds of the acoustic guitar will fill FSU's Lane University Center on Friday, Sept. 28 when Edgar Cruz performs Live at the Loft. The concert, which is free and open to the public, is set for 9:30 p.m.

With a repertoire of more than 400 songs, Cruz is known for playing requests during his performances. His playlist encompasses classical, pop, rock, Latin, international, standards and easy listening, including such classics as "Bohemian Rhapsody," "Tequila," "Pipeline" and "Sabre Dance."

Born and raised in Oklahoma City, Cruz grew up with the sounds of Latin mariachi music under the inspiration of his father Manuel. After obtaining a bachelor's degree in music from Oklahoma City University in 1986, he embarked on a full-time career performing, arranging, publishing, recording, distributing and marketing his music internationally.

"...Edgar Cruz is a wizard. How else can one explain how he captures the sounds of an entire band and reduces them to a single guitar?" says John Schroder, publisher of Fingerstyle Guitar Magazine.

For more information, call the Lane University Center Information Desk at x4411.

hypnosis for positive change and goal achievement.

This show, which is free and open to the public, promises an unforgettable evening of hypnotic hilarity.

Exhibits

'The Storm is Passing Over' at Roper

"The Storm is Passing Over," an exhibit celebrating the musical life of Maryland's African American Community from Emancipation to Civil Rights, will be presented in FSU's Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery through Wednesday, Oct. 3.

A public reception will be held Friday, Sept. 28, from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

One of the most endangered resources in Maryland are materials documenting the musical history of the African-American community. Peabody Institute Archivist Elizabeth Schaaf has been interviewing musicians and their families, collecting oral histories, precious photographs, and other cherished memorabilia and has put together this dramatic exhibition of photographs, vintage recordings and documents.

"The Storm is Passing Over" shows much of the wealth of material that has been gathered together at Peabody. It is hoped that this exhibition will demonstrate the importance of continuing the search for lost materials and encourage the preservation of what we have.

Speakers

National Safe Sex Educator to Speak

Joel Goldman, an award-winning educator, will present "Sex Under the Influence" at FSU on Wednesday, Sept. 12, from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall.

Sponsored by the SAFE office and the BURG Peer Education Network, Goldman's presentation is free and open to the public.

"My job is to help students make the connection between alcohol and sex, and the consequences we're likely to face when we mix the two," says Goldman, who shares stories from his own and others' college experiences to illustrate his message.

Because statistics indicate that approximately 80 percent of all sexual assaults on campus involve alcohol, Goldman believes excessive alcohol use is the most important topic for discussion on campus today.

"There is no judgment anywhere in this presentation, and the point is not to get students to stop drinking altogether," Goldman says. "Instead, I hope to give them some tools they can use to make better decisions."

Entertainment

Hypnotist 'The Amazing Sandman' to Appear

"The Amazing Sandman," otherwise known as hypnotist Dan Sanders, will appear at FSU's Alice R. Manicur Hall in the Lane University Center on Friday, Sept. 28 at 8 p.m.

Considered one of the hottest performing hypnotists on the entertainment circuit today, Sanders specializes in the art of hypnosis comedy with audience participation. While unlocking the imagination and summoning the creative power of the subconscious, he captivates his audience with high-energy fun.

Sanders, a certified hypnotherapist, is also active in promoting and using

During the past six years, he has spoken to students at more than 700 campuses and 48 national conferences.

For more information, contact the SAFE Office at x4761.

Appalachian Lab

"Behavioral and Population Ecology of the White-Footed Mouse" will be the topic of the next UMCES Appalachian Lab seminar. The presentation will be made by Stephen H. Vessey, of the National Science Foundation and Bowling Green University, on Thursday, Sept. 20, at 3:30 p.m. in AL room 109.

Take Note

Brown Bag Brainstorming

The Center for Teaching Excellence is sponsoring its first Brown Bag Lunch of the semester on Friday, Sept. 21 from 11:30 to 1 p.m.

Organizers will use this first lunch as an open forum to suggest topics for future lunches in the series. Everyone is invited to bring a lunch and some ideas. Dessert will be provided.

In addition, anyone wishing to conduct a lunch or a workshop should attend or should contact Pat Coward at x4696. If you have a class conflict with the times, come early and leave early or come late.

Scheduling and Religious Observances

FSU President Catherine R. Gira requests sensitive and responsible compliance by all students, faculty and staff to the following FSU and Board of Regents policy:

"It is the policy of FSU that the academic programs and services of the University shall be available to all qualified students who have been admitted to its programs, regardless of their religious beliefs. Students shall not be penalized because of observances of their religious holidays and shall be given an opportunity to make up, within a reasonable time period, any academic assignment that is missed due to the individual participation in religious observances. It is the responsibility of the student to notify his/her instructor of conflicts between religious observances and scheduled course activities."

Courtesy suggests that students should notify their instructors of conflicts and make arrangements for making up missed work PRIOR to an absence due to religious observance.

All faculty and staff have been sent a calendar of Religious and Ethnic Holidays for reference.

Bass Tournament Set For Sept. 23

The 3rd Annual David Sanford Memorial Bass Tournament will be held from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 23, at Deep Creek Lake State Park. A portion of each registration benefits the David Sanford endowed fund and contributions may be made directly through the FSU Foundation.

Each boat may weigh a maximum of five bass and winners will be determined to eight places in addition to a lunker contest. Daron Winters and J.T. Kenney both of Frostburg are the defending champions and weighed a total of 13 pounds, 8 ounces last year.

For a registration form, contact the FSU Foundation at x4161 or visit the Web site at www.fishdeepcreek.com/default.htm.

Alumni/Fund-Raising Events on Tap

On Oct. 4, the Uncle Tucker's/FSU College of Business Annual Scholarship Social will be held at Uncle Tucker's Pizza Cellar and Brew House in Cumberland to benefit the College of Business. On Nov. 3 will be the Annual Varsity Club Social for all FSU Varsity Letter Winners. The social will be from 4 to 6 p.m. at the Elks Lodge in Frostburg. Call x4758 for details.

Collective Bargaining Primer

What are the choices on the ballot when an election is held?

You would choose between "No Representation" (i.e., no exclusive representation) and at least one union. The winning option would be the one receiving a simple majority of the votes cast. If there are two or more unions on the ballot and none of the choices receive a majority, a runoff election is held between the two highest choices on the ballot. If "No Representation" is chosen by vote, you would continue to participate in the University's personnel programs.

Points of Pride

You will be pleased to know that in the latest edition of "U.S. News and World Report" Frostburg State University has jumped from third tier to the second tier in ranking of northern master's granting universities. There are four tiers of rankings, based on a wide range of criteria. Salisbury and Towson are also listed in tier two.

Although we are already aware of the strength of our institution, validated recently by the very positive evaluation we received from the Middle States reviewers of our Periodic Review Report, it is always good to know that others recognize our strengths, as well. We also ranked very well in the specific category that ranks institutions based on campus diversity.

I know that none of the achievements for which we are credited would be possible without the excellent work of our faculty and staff. To all of you who make us what we are, thank you!

Catherine R. Gira
President

"Horizons," a composition by FSU music professor Dr. Jon Bauman, will be performed by the Chamber Orchestra Kremlin on Saturday, Sept. 22, as part of the Garrett Lakes Arts Festival (GLAF). This concert is scheduled for 8 p.m. at Garrett Community College.

Music composed by Dr. Bauman has been performed in Europe and across the United States. Last year, his "Duo" for violin and cello was selected for performance at the Alfeo Gigli Festival in Italy. His "Adagio" for orchestra was recorded by the Slovak Radio Orchestra for the Master Musicians Collective compact disc series.

For concert tickets and information, call GLAF at (301) 378-3082 or visit the Web site at www.artsandentertainment.org.

In the wake of last week's national tragedies with the terrorism attacks in New York, Washington, D.C. and Pennsylvania, the University wants to say "thank you" to the members of its community that rose to the challenge to offer assistance to those in need. From the FSU Counseling Center to faculty and staff who lent support.

A special thank you goes to the members of the Allen HallSTARS! and the V.O.I.C.E. Clearinghouse who quickly organized a candlelight vigil in the upper quad on the night of Sept. 11th. Approximately 450 students, faculty and staff attended the event to grieve, show support and join together in a time of national crisis. Thank you to all who participated!

Study Down Under: Australia, New Zealand

FSU is affiliated with AustraLearn, an organization that provides unique opportunities to study at a variety of universities in Australia and New Zealand. AustraLearn arranges cheap flights, an orientation program on the Great Barrier Reef, pre-registration and transcript evaluation. Students may choose from a broad range of course offerings at campuses set in beautiful and exotic surroundings. Scholarships are available from both FSU and AustraLearn. Applications for spring 2002 are now being accepted.

Study in Newcastle, England

Students interested in studying at the University of Northumbria in Newcastle, England, may apply now for next spring semester. Newcastle is one of the liveliest cities in the UK, just across the Channel from Amsterdam and three hours north of London (one hour south of Edinburgh) by train. Course offerings are available in a wide variety of subjects. The cost of the program about the same as one semester at FSU and all financial aid will transfer.

Do Your Student Teaching in Copenhagen

Education majors who would like to earn a semester of FSU credits while studying in Denmark should apply now for next spring semester's exchange program with the KDAS School of Teacher Training in Copenhagen. Students complete projects and spend several weeks in Danish schools practicing student teaching skills. All courses are in English. Financial aid transfers and scholarships are available.

See Oktoberfest or Mayfest in Germany

FSU students who would like to take part in UMUC's semester programs in Schwabisch Gmund in southern Germany are advised to apply to the CIE. The campus is part of the University of Maryland system, and all credits transfer back to FSU. Live in a beautiful medieval village and study on a campus with students from over 100 countries. All teaching is in English, and German instruction is offered as well. Scholarships are available from both FSU and UMUC. Students may apply for fall or spring semester.

Study in Limerick - a Few Places Left!

Students who are interested in taking part in the Ireland Exchange Program in Limerick should come by the CIE for more information about the spring 2002 program. A few places are still open. Participants in the program study at Mary Immaculate College and take one FSU class and three MIC classes. Next spring Dr. Steve Hartlaub (Political Science) will accompany the group and offer three course options in political science, including POSC 211, "Introduction to World Politics." All financial aid will transfer and scholarships are available.

Semester Overseas for Same Price as FSU

The International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) allows FSU students to register at FSU, pay FSU tuition and housing, and then study overseas for a semester, year or summer at one of over 200 foreign locations. Students may take financial aid with them and may apply for scholarships from the CIE. Students may choose programs taught in either English or other languages. For the price of an airline ticket, this is a great way to earn credit towards your FSU degree while enjoying life in a foreign culture. Apply now for summer and fall 2002.

Choose from over 20 Locations to Study

FSU affiliates with the American Institute for Foreign Study (AIFS) which offers study abroad programs in a variety of locations at universities around the world. Programs are open to all majors. Study in Prague, South Africa or Japan. You may register at FSU and use your financial aid for all programs. AIFS offers scholarships to qualified students. Apply now for spring 2002.

Scholarships Available for Overseas Study

In addition to taking financial aid overseas, students may apply for a variety of scholarships for study abroad programs. The CIE offers scholarships for all FSU programs in the amount of $500 and $1,000. Some departments also offer scholarships for overseas study. There are additional scholarships available from study abroad organizations, such as AustraLearn and ISEP, and there are two new scholarships available for residents of Maryland (MIEA) and for U.S. students on financial aid (Gilman). There are also national scholarships, such as the Rotary scholarship, the NSEP scholarship and the Fulbright.

Gain Work/Volunteer Experience Overseas

Students interested in working abroad should come by the CIE for information about internships, volunteer organizations and paid work overseas. Many organizations help students obtain jobs and work permits, and some help to arrange housing as well. Students can choose from short experiences (1 to 2 months) to longer experiences (4 to 12 months), or even look into a more serious commitment (1-3 years). Destinations are available throughout the world.

Learn More About Study Abroad

Students who would like to learn more about study abroad opportunities and how they fit into a degree program, may come to the Center for International Education in the Fuller House. The CIE staff will provide an overview of study abroad programs and requirements, and have application forms available. Scholarship and financial aid information will also be available. Students may use the CIE library and computer to search for programs. Many videos are also available.

Student Telemarketing Positions

Thirty positions are available. The positions are part-time evenings for three months (November, March and April), paying $6.50 to $8.50 per hour. The Office of University Advancement, Office of Annual Giving is now hiring experienced telemarketers to help with the 2001-2002 Annual Fund Telemarketing Campaign. This is an excellent opportunity to earn extra money and gain experience in telemarketing. Candidates will be responsible for soliciting contributions from alumni, friends and parents for unrestricted gifts to the University.

The position requires prior telemarketing experience, excellent organization and communication skills. Advanced marketing and sales skills are a must. Candidates must be available to work Sundays through Thursdays from 5:30 to 9 p.m.

Interested candidates may pick up an application on or before Oct. 1 at the Office of Annual Giving, Hitchins Building Room 228.

Student Telemarketing Manager

This position is a part-time, six-month position paying $8 to $10 per hour. It is an excellent opportunity to learn all aspects of telemarketing. The candidate will be responsible for recruiting, training, motivating and retaining a staff of approximately 30 student employees. The candidate will assist in developing program goals and objectives, write scripts, devise key strategies and incentives, track statistical program results and oversee budgets.

The position requires at least two years of telemarketing experience, preferably in a management capacity. Also required is computer literacy (Excel, MS Word), excellent organization and communication skills.

Interested candidates may submit cover letter, resume and at least three references on or before Sept. 24. to the Office of Annual Giving, Hitchins Building Room 228.

Local Employers Sought for Job Fair

The FSU Office of Career Services is now recruiting area employers to participate in a Local Employer Job Fair to be held at FSU on Thursday, Oct. 11, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Lane University Center's Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall.

The Job Fair gives local employers the opportunity to present information to students, alumni and the public on possible full-time and part-time jobs, summer jobs, internships and externships.

"Our local employers are a valuable resource to FSU students and alumni," says Dr. Robbie L. Cordle, director of the FSU Office of Career Services.

To register, please send an e-mail message to careerservices@frostburg.edu with a contact name, address, telephone number, the number of representatives attending, whether you are bringing a display and whether you will need an electrical outlet (you must furnish extension cords). You will receive a confirmation letter prior to the fair.

For more information, call the FSU Office of Career Services at x4403.
