Homecoming

Homecoming Parade

FSU will be conducting its 2004 Homecoming Parade on Saturday, Oct. 23, at 10:30 a.m. on Main Street in Frostburg. The parade is part of FSU's "Rockin' Down the Highway" Homecoming celebration.

The parade will be led by the parade marshal, Frostburg Mayor Jim Cotton, and feature a float competition and performances by local marching bands. The parade will also have appearances by Miss Teen Maryland and Miss Teen Frostburg. Riding in the parade will be many local car show participants including George's Creek Cruisers Car Club, Early Edition Street Rodders and the Classy Car Club. Also, many local fire departments will be on hand. During the parade, St. Michael's Church will be holding a bake sale. All are welcome to attend the FSU Campus Carnival after the parade.

For more information, contact Dina Poland, FSU director of alumni programs and Homecoming parade coordinator, at x4068.

President's Concert

The FSU Homecoming Weekend will come to a close with the President's Concert on Sunday, Oct. 24, at 3 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center, Pealer Recital Hall. This year's concert features alumnus Baritone Eugene Galvin, outstanding student musicians, the FSU Jazz Ensemble, the Percussion Ensemble and the Chamber Choir.

The FSU Jazz Ensemble, under the direction of James Moore, will open the concert with John La Barbera's "Fly Me to the Moon," featuring soprano Belita Williams.

The Percussion Ensemble, Ronald Horner, director, will perform "Head Talk" by Mark Ford.

Alumnus Eugene Galvin will perform Rossini's Alidoro's Aria from "La Cenerentola" and selections by Franz Schubert. Galvin holds a D.M.A. in Opera Performance from the University of Maryland, an M.M. degree from the Catholic University of America, and a B.A. from FSU. He currently teaches voice at The Catholic University of America and University of Maryland, where he also directs the Opera Workshop. Galvin has sung with the Washington, Wolf Trap, Cincinnati, Sarasota and National operas, Opera New England, Opera Theater of Northern Virginia and Summer Opera Theater companies, at Constitution Hall as Sarastro in "Magic Flute" under the baton of Victor Borge, and as the title character in "Marriage of Figaro" with the New York Grand Opera. His roles also include Basilio, Don Giovanni, Colline, Dulcamara and Alidoro. Most recently he created two roles in Wolf Trap Opera's critically acclaimed world premiere of John Musto's "Volpone."

The Chamber Choir, under the direction of Dr. Karen Soderberg-Sarnaker will conclude the concert with "Fabodpsalm fran Dalarna" featuring Lauren Spinnenweber, soprano and Lisa Wenzel, flute. They will also perform vocal jazz selections "Straighten up and Fly Right" by Billy Strayhorn and arranged by Stephen Zegree and "Asthma" by Scott Joplin and arranged by Ward Single. Betty Jane Phillips will accompany the Chamber Choir.

All student musicians selected to perform were adjudicated by a rigorous audition.

The President's Concert is free and open to the public.

Alumni Expo

Alumni Expo is a university-wide event on Friday, Oct. 22, designed to give students an idea of the variety of careers available to graduates of any major or academic discipline. FSU alumni are available to discuss with students their transitions from college to career.

Some students approach speakers to explore opportunities for job shadowing, mentoring, internships and prospective jobs. Students may ask speakers about these opportunities and how they may follow up with them.

A complete program of speakers and their locations for Alumni Expo 2004 will be available at the Expo registration table, Lane University Center second floor on Friday, Oct. 22 at 9 a.m. Programs will also be available prior to the event.

Speakers are scheduled during one of four time slots: 9 a.m., 10 a.m., 11 a.m. and noon. Each participant will be asked to make a short informal presentation (10-20 minutes in length) and then respond to student questions.

For more information, contact the Career Services Office at x4403.

Children's Production 'The Mischief Makers'

University Theatre will present Lowell Swortzell's "The Mischief Makers" to young audiences on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 23 and 24, at 2 p.m. in the Drama Theatre of the FSU Performing Arts Center.

The Mischief Makers gathers together three famous tricksters from the folklore world: the Native American trickster, Raven (Larry Lewis), Anansi the Spider from Africa (Kimberly Edmonds) and Europe's Reynard the Fox (Nathan Kurtz). We also meet the African Goddess of the skies, Nyame (Bee Fisher), who, along with her assistant (Katy Lansinger), brings the tricksters together in an attempt to reform their mischievousness. After our three mischief-makers enter a contest to see who is the most clever, they must act out their own tale and try to outwit the others along the way. With the help of the audience and Nyame, the characters share stories of their finest moments in trickery. Directed by Justine Poulin and stage-managed by Diana Abrecht, "The Mischief Makers" explores trickster tales from across cultures and is sure to please all audiences.

All tickets are $2 and can be purchased at the door on the dates of performances. For information call x7462.

Speakers

'Oil in Nigeria: A Blessing or Curse?'

Ann Genova, a FSU graduate student, will present an informative talk on "Oil in Nigeria: A Blessing or Curse" on Thursday, Oct. 21, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. in the Leake Room of the FSU Cordts Physical Education Center.

Genova recently returned from a trip to Nigeria where she found more facts about the oil located there. She has submitted for publication a manuscript on the politics of oil. In addition to writing her book, Genova is a Ph.D. candidate at the University of Texas. The FSU College of Business, the African American Studies Program, Politics, Law and Society Club and the African American Studies Society are sponsoring her presentation.

This presentation is free and open to the public and will be followed by a question and answer period.

BSA Presents Motivational Speaker

FSU's Black Student Alliance will present motivational speaker Andres Lara, on Wednesday, Oct. 27, at 7 p.m. in the Lane University Center Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall.

Lara, also known as "The Cuban Guy," will be offering messages from his own life experiences. At 16 years old, Lara escaped Cuba to come to the United States. He had no money and was unable to speak English. By the age of 24, he became a nationally known speaker, the president of "Inspiration Time Magazine," authored many books and was CEO of his company "A. Success Training, Inc."

Lara will be presenting his motivational workshop titled "How to Move Forward When You Feel Like Quitting: Becoming Unstoppable." Following the workshop, there will be a book signing. Copies of Lara's book will also be given as door prizes and copies of his e-magazine and an e-copy of "Inspire the Sleeping Giant Within" will be available for everyone in attendance.

Panel: 'Election 2004 - Issues & Processes'

FSU's Department of Political Science and the International Relations Club will sponsor a panel discussion entitled "Election 2004: Issues & Processes" on Monday, Oct. 25, at 7 p.m. in FSU Lane University Center's Manicur Assembly Hall.

The discussion will look at the electoral process and how foreign policy, the media, the Electoral College and public opinion polls influence the election. Panelists will include FSU professors and administrators: Dr. David Lewis, Dr. Steve Twing, Dr. Steve Simpson, and Dr. Steve Hartlaub. Moderator for the discussion will be Dr. Sally Boniece.

Lewis, an associate professor of political science, will discuss the topic of, "After the Election, Opportunities and Constraints for the Next President." Twing, an associate professor of political science, will discuss the topic, "Foreign Policy: Bush II or Kerry—more than a dime's worth of difference." Simpson, a professor of political science and Provost, will discuss the topic, "The Media, and the Public Opinion Polling in the 2004 election." Hartlaub, associate professor and Chair of the political science department, will discuss the topic, "The Electoral College, Serving or frustrating Democracy?" Boniece, an associate professor of the History Department, will serve as moderator for the discussion.

This discussion is free and open to the public. For more information, call x4211.

Appalachian Lab

"Approaching Contaminant Issues from an Ecological Perspective" will be presented by Christopher L. Rowe of the Chesapeake Biological Laboratory, UMCES, Solomons, Md., the next in the UMCES Appalachian Lab fall seminar series. talk will be Thursday, Oct. 21, at 3:30 p.m. in AL Room 109. Refreshments will follow in the AL Lobby.

Hadra Forum: Mind, Body and Spirit

The free weekly forums named for James Hadra will continue Monday, Oct. 18, at noon in Ort Library room 237 with Dr. Fred Sargent of the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation presenting "Psychoneuro Immunology: Applying the Mind, Body, Spirit to Our Personal and Professional Lives."

The 50-minute program is free and open to the public. Attendees are encouraged to bring a bag lunch; coffee and tea will be provided.

On Oct. 25, Dr. Ray Morgan of UMCES Appalachian Laboratory will speak on "In a Perfect World . . ."

On Nov. 1, the speaker will be Dr. Steve Hartlaub on "Alienation and the University."

The forum is sponsored by Catholic Campus Ministries, United Campus Ministries and Hillel. For more information, call Gary Horowitz at x4271.

Entertainment

UPC Presents FSU Comedy Night

FSU presents a comedy night with Megan Mooney and Mike Ricca on Saturday, Oct. 30, at 8 p.m. in the Lane

University Center Alice R. Manicur Assembly Hall.

Mooney has performed at the prestigious HBO U.S. Comedy Arts Festival and has been seen on Comedy Central's "Premium Blend." Her comedy has been noted as being "sarcastic with truly original topics." Ricca, a Brooklyn native, has also performed in the "HBO U.S. Comedy Arts Festival," Comedy Central's "Premium Blend" and NBC's "Late Friday." Ricca has appeared on MTV's "Singled Out" and "Lyricist Lounge Show," "In Living Color" and sketches on "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno."

This event is free and open to the public. For more information, contact the Lane University Center Information Desk at x4411.

Music

Gala Recital Highlights Faculty Musical Talents

The FSU Foundation and FSU Music Department will present a Faculty Gala Recital Sunday, Oct. 31, at 3 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center's Pealer Recital Hall.

The Gala is a highly anticipated event featuring the multi-talented faculty members of the FSU Music Department. Do you like classical music? Jazz? Contemporary? Solos? Chamber music? Funny/entertaining music? This concert has something for everyone. For the 2004 Gala, lead arranger of the Navy Jazz Band and former FSU saxophone teacher Scott Wilbert has arranged — especially for this group of FSU musicians — a fantastic jazz piece to end the Gala.

The afternoon begins with a pre-recital reception beginning at 2:15 p.m. in the lobby of the Performing Arts Center; the concert follows at 3 p.m. Tickets are $5 for the general public and $3 for students. All proceeds benefit the Music Department Scholarship Fund through the FSU Foundation Inc.

Film

Lecturer to Discuss Tarantino, Other Films

The English Department and the Faculty Development and Sabbatical Committee will present a public lecture by Professor Alan Manton on two Quentin Tarantino films ("Kill Bill" and "Kill Bill 2") and Pedro Almodovar's 2002 film "Talk to Her."

The lecture, with film clips, will be given on Thursday, Oct. 28, in Compton Science Center, room 226, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Munton, currently senior research fellow in English, University of Plymouth, U.K., will discuss the hyperactive and violent film "Kill Bill" as it draws upon earlier films, and, despite its innovative techniques, pursues known narrative tropes. "Talk to Her" revolves around two characters, each in a coma, like the protagonist of "Kill Bill"; the narrative direction is strikingly original. In this illustrated lecture, Munton sets the film cultures of the U.S. and Europe against each other, yet finds in these films unexpected convergences in method and intention. Audiences should be aware that the presentation will include film clips from the three films discussed. One clip parodies a fictional silent film, "The Shrinking Lover," and contains imagery that some viewers might find disturbing. Other scenes are also graphically violent.

Theatre

Season Too! Presents 'The Piano Lesson'

FSU's Season Too! will present August Wilson's Pulitzer Prize-winning play "The Piano Lesson" on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 29 and 30, at 8 p.m. in the F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre of the FSU Performing Arts Center.

The play focuses on the Charles' family and their elaborately sculpted piano, which has survived in their family for 137 years. The piano has been kept in the basement of Berniece Charles' home and has served as a reminder of the struggles her family has endured. When her brother, Boy Willie, comes to town in an attempt to purchase the land that their family has worked on as slaves, the two siblings encounter a tough decision on whether to sell the piano for money or keep it for the sentimental value it contains. "The Piano Lesson" is directed by Larin Walker.

All tickets are $5. For reservations and information, call the FSU Theatre Box Office at x7462, Monday through Friday, 9 - 4 p.m.

Literature

Celebration, Reading Set for Banned Books Week

Members of the English department and Sigma Tau Delta, the English honor society, will sponsor a Banned Books Celebration and Reading on Monday, Oct. 25, at 7 p.m. in Lane University Center Room 202.

The event is in conjunction with the American Library Association's Banned Books Week, which is held nationwide during October.

The event is free and open to the public. For more information, contact the FSU Department of English at x4221.

Marathon Poe Reading on Halloween

The Frostburg Center for Creative Writing is sponsoring its first Literature Comes Alive event with a marathon reading of the work of Edgar Allan Poe on Halloween afternoon at City Place, 14 S. Water St. in Downtown Frostburg. The reading runs from 1 to 6 p.m., is free and open to the public and will feature faculty, students and community members reading their favorite Poe work.

This is the first of four planned Literature Comes Alive events the Center will sponsor. These events are planned to celebrate an occasion and bring literature to the community. Other events include a marathon reading of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol at the LaVale Public Library (Saturday, December 4) and a night of Love Poetry in downtown Cumberland to help celebrate Valentine's Day. The last event, to commemorate baseball's opening day will be held in early April and feature baseball poetry.

For more information about the Poe reading, or to sign up to read a particular Poe story or poem, people can contact the Frostburg Center for Creative Writing at x4024 or nightsun@frostburg.edu.

Take Note

Spring Commencement to Require Free Tickets

Tickets will be required for admission to FSU Spring Commencements as of May 2005, according to Dr. Jim Limbaugh and Gary Van Zinderen, co-chairs of Commencement. Tickets will be free, but limited in number.

"Because our spring commencement ceremonies have grown in size, we are implementing access by ticket in order to recognize the arena's seating capacity and to adhere to state fire laws," Limbaugh said.

The ticket policy and distribution guidelines will be announced in January 2005, upon the beginning of the spring semester.

No tickets will be required for the December Commencements, including the upcoming ceremony, because fewer students traditionally graduate in December.

For further information, please contact Limbaugh, assistant to the Provost (jlimbaugh@frostburg.edu; x3130) or Van Zinderen, director, Lane University Center (gvanzinderen@frostburg.edu; x4151).

USM Staff Awards Nominations Accepted

The FSU Staff Awards Review Committee now is accepting nominations for the 2004-2005 Board of Regents' University System of Maryland Staff Awards. The Staff Awards represent the highest honor the Board of Regents bestows for achievements of exempt and nonexempt employees from institutions of the University System, and are presented to staff members who have demonstrated excellence in one of the following categories:

- Exceptional contribution to the institution and/or unit to which the person belongs.
- Outstanding service to students in an academic or residential environment.
- Extraordinary public service to the university or to the greater community.

Two Staff Awards are given in each category – one exempt (salaried employee) and one nonexempt (hourly employee) – for a total of six awards across the University System. The Board of Regents will announce the 2004/2005 award winners in the spring, with prizes including a $1,000 stipend for each honored staff member.

Detailed information on the BOR Staff Awards nomination process has been distributed to employees. Refer to the campus mailing for eligibility requirements and required documentation. Complete nomination packets are due no later than 4 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 11. Any nominations received after this deadline will not be considered. Questions can be directed to Kelly Durst at kdurst@frostburg.edu or x7487, or to Patrick McLane at pmclane@frostburg.edu.

Please consider nominating yourself or a fellow employee for a BOR Staff Award.

Employees Invited to TIAA-CREF Seminar

All University employees are invited to attend a financial education seminar, "Planning for Retirement and Other Goals," to be presented by TIAA-CREF Individual Consultant Christopher Spence on Thursday, Oct. 28. This presentation will begin at 11 a.m. in Lane University Center 140-141 and will last approximately an hour. Whether you are a new employee in TIAA-CREF or have been participating for a few years, all are encouraged to attend. No advance registration is required.

Commencement News for Graduate Students

Students who plan to graduate in December 2004 need to complete the "Application for Graduation" as soon as possible. The forms are available at the Office of Graduate Services 141 Pullen Hall, or by calling x7053.

Information Meeting on MAT-Secondary Oct. 18

FSU will present information for prospective applicants for its Master of Arts in Teaching program for secondary education on Monday, Oct. 18, at 7 p.m. in Framptom Hall.

MAT-Secondary Program Coordinator Dr. William Childs will speak to prospective applicants for the group beginning studies in summer 2005. The Master of Arts in Teaching – Secondary program is offered in Frostburg. The deadline for summer 2005 cohort applications is April 1, 2005.

FSU's Master of Arts in Teaching program is designed for career changers or recent college graduates who want to pursue a career in teaching. The full-time program that lasts just over a year provides its students with all the necessary coursework and classroom experience to obtain teacher certification in the State of Maryland.

For more information, call the FSU Graduate Services Office at x7053 or contact Childs at x3087.

Info Meeting Set for MAT – Elementary

FSU will present an information meeting for prospective applicants for its Master of Arts in Teaching programs, elementary.

Elementary Program Coordinator Dr. Kim Rotruck will be at the FSU Hagerstown Center, on Public Square in Hagerstown, on Wednesday, Oct. 20, at 6:30 p.m., to speak to prospective applicants for the group beginning studies in summer 2005.

The Master of Arts in Teaching – Elementary is offered at FSU's Hagerstown Center. The deadline for Summer 2005 cohort applications is May 1, 2005. The summer 2005 applicant fall admissions interviews will be scheduled for the evening of Tuesday, Nov. 23, at the Hagerstown Center.

For more information, call the Graduate Services Office at x7053 or contact Rotruck at x4026.

Financial Planning Certificate Registration

Registration for the fall term of FSU's Financial Planning Certificate Program (FPCP) is now open. The course being offered this term is "FPCP III: Investment Planning." Classes will begin on Saturday, Oct. 23 (meeting times will be 9 a.m. – 1 p.m.) and end on Dec. 11.

Registration will occur on a first-come, first served basis. Program structure is flexible and allows students to take five of the six required courses in any order, with Estate Planning as the final course. Course registration form can be downloaded directly from the program Web link www.frostburg.edu/fpcp/FPCPform.pdf.

FPCP is a non-credit program that can be completed in 15 to 18 months. The program is being offered at the Frostburg main campus as well as the Hagerstown Center using Distance Education (interactive video) technology. Required courses are offered on a rotating basis in four eight-week terms, annually. Courses are taught at the junior or senior undergraduate level and the pace of each course is intensive. Completion of Frostburg's CFP Board-registered FPCP will fulfill the educational requirements and enable students to sit for the CFP® Examination.

FPCP invites all working professionals in insurance, banking, investments, accounting, law and other finance-based businesses, current students in business, accounting, and economics, as well as individuals interested in switching careers to consider enrolling in the program. Financial planning is a rapidly growing field that serves the needs of individuals in all income groups.

For more information, contact program co-director Dr. Sudhir Singh at x4093 or fpcp@frostburg.edu. Program features are provided in more detail on the Web at www.frostburg.edu/fpcp.

Points of Pride

FSU housekeeping employee Wallace J. "Wally" Beery, a resident of Cumberland, received the 2004 Staff Award in the category of Outstanding Service to Students from the University System of Maryland Board of Regents.

Beery, who is a housekeeper in Frost Residence Hall, was nominated by FSU's Assistant Director of Residence Life Elizabeth Frost for his devotion to both the university and its student population.

The Regents' Staff Award is the highest honor bestowed by the Board of Regents to recognize the achievements of salaried and hourly employees of the USM. Each reward recipient receives a certificate presented during a ceremony at a Board of Regents meeting and a monetary prize of $1,000.

Beery's honor gives FSU the distinction of having an award winner for three consecutive years. In 2003, Jamie Winters, FSU police officer, won for Outstanding Service to Students, while in 2002, Susan Eisel, H.P.E.R. administrative assistant, won for Exceptional Contribution to the Institution.

Dr. Randall Rhodes (Visual Arts) and two students, Jennifer Berkow (sophomore) and Ashley Labrie (junior) will be presenting papers at the National Conference on Liberal Arts and the Education of Artists Oct. 20 to 22 in New York City. As the theme of the conference is "Art and Story," the three papers address religious, feminist, and historical narratives: "Jewish Narrative: Story as Non-Image" (Rhodes), "Ann Hamilton: Media Becoming the Message" (Berkow), and "Art and Narrative under the Third Reich" (Labrie). Berkow and Labrie are completing double majors in Art and Design (BFA) and Art History (LBST). National conference presentation is required as the Art History Program's capstone.

V-Day 2005 Kickoff

V-Day 2005 will have its first meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 20, at 6:30 p.m. in the Lane University Center Loft. V-Day is a worldwide movement to end violence against women and girls. V-Day is a catalyst that promotes creative events to increase awareness, raise money and revitalize the spirit of existing anti-violence organizations. Money raised goes towards local organizations such as the Family Crisis Resource Center and Dove Center. For more information, contact Patty Gray at VDayFrostburg@hotmail.com.

College Bowl Coming

College Bowl is coming Saturday, Nov. 20. Teams of 5 people compete in a "Jeopardy"-style competition. You can sign a team up or help with the event itself. Contact Ob at x5318 or oobotette0@frostburg.edu.

For more information, ask at the information desk in the Lane Center.

African Student Association Formed

The newly formed African Student Association invites the campus community to its next meeting at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 21, in Ort Library room 237. ASA meets every other Thursday.

Geography Club Raffle

The FSU Geography Club is raffling off a gift certificate for $250 to the Savage River Lodge. Tickets are $5 and a maximum of 200 will be sold. The drawing will be held on Dec. 1. The proceeds will help students attend the Association of American Geographers' annual meeting in Denver this spring. If you are interested, see a Geography Club member or call Danny Welsch in Geography at x4891.

International

Apply Now for Intersession, Spring

Students are encouraged to stop by the Center for International Education to pick up an application form for intersession and spring semester study abroad programs. Intersession programs to Ecuador, Quebec and Madagascar have mid-October deadlines.

Scholarships are available for these programs. Students may also apply for a range of programs during the spring semester, including programs in Ireland, England, Australia/New Zealand, Denmark, Italy, and in over 150 locations through AIFS, SIT and ISEP. For more information, call Dr. Hank Bullamore at x4714 or e-mail him at hbullamore@frostburg.edu. Information brochures are also available at the CIE office.

Semester Overseas for Same Price as FSU

The International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) allows FSU students to register at FSU, pay FSU tuition and housing, and then study overseas for a semester, year or summer at one of more than 140 locations. Students may take financial aid with them and apply for scholarships from the CIE and from ISEP. Students may choose programs taught in English or other languages. For the price of an airline ticket, this is a great way to earn credit toward your FSU degree while enjoying life in a foreign culture. Stop by the CIE office to apply.

Safety Message

Good Housekeeping at Your Work Station

A neat work station is a safe work place/station

- Avoid unnecessary clutter.
- Avoid crowding; provide racks or containers for tools, jigs and fixtures.

- Keep free of material, finished parts and scraps of papers, magazines and papers.
- Follow appropriate storage procedures: big/heavy on the bottom small/light on the top.
- Organize cables, wires, extension cords and attach them properly to the work station, cove molding etc.
- Keep floors dry and free of trip hazards. Report worn floor covering that may cause someone to trip.
