BURG Makes International Waves

FSU's BURG Peer Education Network has been honored as International Outstanding Network Affiliate by BACCHUS & GAMMA Peer Education Network at this year's General Assembly, held Nov. 11 to 15 in Orlando, Fla.

BURG is one of some 900 affiliates of the BACCHUS & GAMMA Peer Education Network, an international association of college and university based peer education programs focusing on alcohol abuse prevention and other related student health and safety issues. BURG's award came in its division of schools between 4,000 and 12,000 students.

"It was definitely a suror us," said BURG President Jennifer Stevenson. "This will continue our growth and motivate us for the future." BURG won the international award three years ago as well.

In addition, FSU student Philip Stamper was selected as the Student Advisory Committee Area 12 Representative, acting as the student voice to BACCHUS & GAMMA for all of the colleges in the Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia, Delaware, Washington, D.C., and North Carolina region.

BURG advisor Don Swogger said, "I was exhilarated to see several thousand college students creating ideas and brainstorming on how to become more effective on their campuses. It is a privilege to know we belong to such an awesome network."

"It's very competitive," said Drew Hunter, BACCHUS & GAMMA executive director. "You've got a great group of people there, and they're making a difference."

BURG participants in the conference included Chrissy Clark, Shaun Golden, Jarrett Johnson, Daniel Lindner, Mike Llewellyn, Julie Petr, Wayne Porter, Debbie Sellers, Philip Stamper, Jennifer Stevenson, "Toby" Tobiason and advisor Don Swogger. AIDS Peer Educators Jennifer Fitch, Sophia Paulos, Kathryn Reilly and advisor Sherri Schubert also attended the conference.

At the four-day assembly, participants took part in 10 education sessions, each with 10 available workshops. Various keynote and "edu-tainment" presentations were provided by nationally renowned speakers, including Dr. Robin Bake, Don Parker and Wendy Fox.

For information about BURG, contact the FSU S.A.F.E. Office at x7692. For information on AIDS Peer Educators, contact Brady Health at x7529. For more information about BACCHUS and GAMMA, visit their Web site at www.bacchusgamma.org.

Eleanor Smeal to Visit

Eleanor Smeal, president and co-founder of the Feminist Majority Foundation and past president of NOW, will be on campus Thursday, Dec. 2. Smeal will speak at 2 p.m. in Lane Center 201 on "Forging Feminism and Fighting the Backlash."

This event is free and open to the public.

Smeal is a renowned leader in the feminist and civil rights movements. She was also the longest-standing president of the National Organization for Women and a key leader in the campaign to ratify the Equal Rights Amendment.

She is trained as a political scientist and was the first to identify the "gender gap" – the difference in the way women and men vote. She is the author of How and Why Women Will Elect the Next President (Harper and Row, 1984). Smeal is known as a "political analyst, strategist and grassroots organizer."

Interested parties should contact John O'Rorke, POSC, x4277, for more information.

Step into the Past at the Madrigal Dinner

Everyone is invited to step into the past by attending one of the FSU Madrigal Dinners, where diners will be greeted by roving minstrels and cries of "Wassail, Wassail" and entertained with fine music. The dinners will be Friday and Saturday, Dec. 3 and 4, at 6:30 p.m. and Sunday, Dec. 5, at 3 p.m., presented in the Lane Center Multi-Use Room.

The event will recreate the pomp and charm of Renaissance England, and diners can expect a royal banquet and participants in ornate costumes.

Jugglers, beggars and musicians will mingle with the audience, offering their Yuletide greetings in word and song. The FSU Collegium Musicum, Brass Ensemble and Guitar Consort, as well as a jovial court jester and other highlights will be presented, all performed by Music Department students.

Heralded by the Court Brass Ensemble, the menu will include Regal Roasted Beef, Roasted Royal Potato, Queen's Beans Almondine, Browned Loaf from the Hearth and Imperial Plum Pudding.

Tickets are $16.50 for the general public, FSU faculty and staff and $12 for students and children. For information, call the Lane Center Information Desk at x4411 Mondays through Fridays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Proceeds benefit the FSU Department of Music and Music Scholarship Fund.

University Theatre Offers "The Glass Menagerie"

University Theatre will present Tennessee Williams' "The Glass Menagerie" on Dec. 2, 3 and 4 at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center Studio Theatre.

Williams' work, often described as being "translucently autobiographical," tells the story of the Wingfield family through the "memory" of son and narrator, Tom. Meet Amanda, the mother, a daughter of the Old South who is out of step and out of time in the tumultuous world of the 1930s, along with her daughter, Laura, a frail misfit whose fragile existence is defined by her cherished collection of delicate glass animals.

Originally produced in 1944, this play has charmed both theater professionals and audiences for nearly 55 years. It continues to be one of the most frequently produced plays at all levels of the theater.

For information and ticket reservations, call x4145 Mondays through Fridays between 1 and 4:30 p.m.

AC and FSU to Present Mantovani Orchestra

Allegany College and FSU proudly present "Christmas with the Mantovani Orchestra and Chorus," a Mainstage Production, Tuesday, Nov. 30, at 7:30 p.m. in the Allegany High School Auditorium.

Mantovani's Christmas concerts are rich in the size and variety of their offerings. This big and dramatic performance will include ballet selections by Tchaikovsky, festive and fun favorites such as "Santa's Sleigh Ride," devotional pieces like "Onward Christian Soldiers" and numerous traditional melodies made special by the indelible stamp of the Maestro's cascading strings.

The Mantovani Orchestra has been delighting audiences for more than 50 years with a sound made famous by its founder, Annunzio Paolo Mantovani. With a string section as its centerpiece, Mantovani would compose, arrange, transcribe and conduct the orchestra molding the sounds that he heard into interpretations of the music he wanted to present to his audiences. This formula produced the unmistakable "Mantovani sound."

By the time of Mantovani's retirement in 1975, he had become a household name in the field of popular entertainment. Late in 1981, one year following his death, at the urging of a family friend, the Mantovani children, Ken and Paula, made their father's library of music available to symphony orchestras. From this, an idea was born to form another Mantovani Orchestra and send them on tour. Since 1983, the more than 41 performers have toured steadily, continuing to delight audiences throughout the world.

The Orchestra is led today by Charles Ellis, a conductor who has led the concerts of numerous symphonies including the Baltimore Symphony, Rochester Philharmonic, Jacksonville Symphony, East Texas Symphony and South Bend Symphony, among others.

For further information on this event, contact the Allegany College Continuing Education Office, (301) 784-5108.

Tickets are $12 for adults, $8 for children, ages 17 and younger. Seating is by general admission. Tickets may be purchased at Allegany College, Continuing Education Office, Mondays through Thursdays, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Fridays, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., (301) 784-5108; FSU Lane Center Box Office, Mondays through Fridays, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., x4411; Main Street Books of Frostburg, (301) 689-5605 and Book Center of Cumberland, (301) 722-2284.

This performance is presented in association with the Allegany Arts Council. This event marks the first time that Allegany College and FSU have joined forces to offer a unique and entertaining cultural event to the people of Western Maryland.

Celebrate Thanksgiving Before Thanksgiving

Before everyone departs for Thanksgiving break, students, faculty and staff are invited to join together in the spirit of gratitude Monday, Nov. 22, at 7:30 p.m. in Cook Chapel, on the first floor of Frost Hall, for an Interfaith Thanksgiving Service. FSU's Collegium Musicum will perform "All Things Bright and Beautiful" and Kim Andrews will be the pianist. Dr. Greg Latta will share his award-winning music. Students and others will share readings from diverse religious backgrounds. There will be informal opportunities to express personal sharing with others. As the semester winds down, come and be lifted up by this memorable event. Questions or comments? Call the Rev. Larry Neumark at x7490. The service is sponsored by the Interfaith Council.

McAuliffe Memorial Education Awards

The Sharon Christa McAuliffe Memorial Teacher Education Award provides funding to full- or part-time students who have completed 60 credits and wish to pursue teacher certification in a critical shortage subject area. The shortage areas for academic year 2000-2001 are career and technology education (agriculture, technology education); computer science; English for speakers of other languages (ESOL); foreign languages (German, Spanish); science (chemistry, earth/space science, physical science, physics); and special education (generic infant to grade 3, generic grades 1 to 8, generic grades 6 to adult, hearing impaired, severely and profoundly handicapped, visually impaired).

The deadline to apply is Dec. 31.

For additional details and an application form, stop by the Financial Aid Office in Pullen Hall or call the Md. State Scholarship Admin. at 1-800-974-1024, x145 or (410) 974-5370, x145.

Pick Up Your Scholarship Brochures Now

Scholarship brochures for the 2000-2001 academic year are now available. These brochures provide information about departmental and institutional awards.

Pick up a brochure in the Financial Aid Office, 114 Pullen Hall, or on the second floor of Ort Library in the section identified for scholarship information.

Department of Social Work Sets Info Session

The Department of Social Work will hold an information session Tuesday, Nov. 30, from 3 to 5 p.m., for persons interested in a career in social work. The meeting will include information on the curriculum requirements of the social work program at FSU.

The session will be at the Department of Social Work Offices in room 029, Guild Center, on the FSU campus.

The session is designed for people who want to learn more about the social work profession and FSU's undergraduate social work program. For those who intend to apply to the FSU program, the session serves as orientation to the major and provide details about admissions criteria, course requirements, curriculum planning, social work licensing and continued study beyond the undergraduate level.

Those who plan to attend are asked to call the Department of Social Work at x7497 at least one day in advance. For information, contact Department Chair Kathleen H. Powell, M.S.W., at x4695.

Study Abroad Opportunities

It's Never too Early to Think About Summer Overseas!

FSU sponsors several study abroad programs during the summer months. Students who would like more information should come by the Center for International Education, Fuller House, or phone x3091 and speak with Amy Simes. Or visit our web page at <http://www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/cie.htm>. Scholarships are available for all FSU-sponsored programs through the CIE. Here is what's on offer for next summer:

Study in Oxford, England, in August

Students who would like to spend three weeks in Oxford at St. Edmund Hall, Oxford University, and earn credit towards their FSU degree should apply for this program, co-sponsored by Indiana University in Pennsylvania. Two FSU faculty members are offering courses next summer: Dr. Judy Dieruf

(Fine Arts), who also coordinates the program, will be teaching Watercolor in Britain – Art 221, 421 or 621, and Dr. Eira Patnaik (English) will be teaching Greco-Roman Mythology (Engl 290). The program fee includes excursions to points of interest within the area. For more information, visit their web site at <http://www.iup.edu/intserv/oxford.html>. Study/Work Experience in Limerick, Ireland

Social Work and Human Services students are invited to apply for a four week program during the first summer session in Limerick, Ireland. Students will be placed in social service agencies in the Limerick area and complete up to 100 hours of field experience. They will also have the option of taking one three-credit course. This program is co-sponsored with Hood College, and students may get more detailed information from Dr. Maureen Connelly, Coordinator of the program, at x4998.

Take an FSU Course in Germany

Students may apply for a four-week program at the Schwabisch Gmund branch campus of the University of Maryland, near Stuttgart. Human Geography (GEOG 104) and Geography of Europe (GEOG 401) will be offered by Dr. George White, and will be taught during the first summer session. More information is available from the CIE at x3091, or from program coordinator Dr. Armond Rossi, x4407. For more information about the Schwabisch Gmund campus, visit their Web site at <http://www.sg.umuc.edu/>.

Spend Six Weeks in Ghana, West Africa

Co-sponsored by FSU and North Carolina State University, students may take part in a six-week program at the University of Ghana, in either Art and Design, or the Social Sciences and Humanities. For more information, see the Program coordinator, Dr. Jean-Marie Makang, x3089, or visit the NCSU web site at http://www2.ncsu.edu/ncsu/intl_programs/ghana/program.html for Art and Design or <http://courses.ncsu.edu/classes/mds495a001/ghana98.htm> for the Social Sciences and Humanities. Study in Ecuador in the Andes

Students may study Spanish or other programs during the summer through Augustana College, Illinois. The program takes place at the Centro de Estudios Interamericanos in Cuenca. For further information, contact Dr. MacGregor O'Brien, x4287, or visit the Augustana web site at <http://helios.augustana.edu/snsummer/>. Education Majors, Do You Want to Go to Denmark?

FSU is beginning a new exchange program with the KDAS Teaching College in Copenhagen. This semester we are hosting two students from

KDAS, and spring semester 2000 we hope to send two FSU students to Copenhagen. If you are interested in this program, please contact Amy Simes at the Center for International Education, x3091, or e-mail asimes@frostburg.edu. You may also contact Dr. William Bingman in the Educational Professions Dept., x4420, 223 Frampton Hall Study Abroad Information Sessions

Students who are interested in studying abroad for a semester, intersession, summer session or full academic year should attend an information session at the Center for International Education at the Fuller House. Sessions will be held each Tuesday at 3 p.m. in the Fuller House library. Students will have access to overseas catalogs, online searching, financial aid information and travel information. Guidance will be provided for application to all study abroad programs. For further information, please contact Dr. Amy Simes, CIE Director, x3091, or by email at asimes@frostburg.edu.

Hear Poetry in Spanish and English

A bilingual poetry reading (Spanish-English) by Dr. MacGregor O'Brien will be Wednesday, Dec. 1, at 7 p.m. in the Lewis Ort Room (fourth floor of the library). This event is sponsored by Sigma Delta Pi and the Spanish club.

Scholarship for Women Returning to Work Force

Frostburg Soroptimist Club is seeking applicants for the Training Awards Program, which presents a $300 scholarship to the applicant who clearly indicates her need to return to the labor force and shows financial need. This award aids mature women who must enter or return to the job market and need additional skills, training and education to upgrade their employment status. Candidates should be heads of households completing undergraduate programs or entering vocational or technical training programs. The deadline for applications is Dec. 15.

Applications and information are available in the Financial Aid Office in Pullen Hall.

Celebrate Advancement of Women of Color

Women faculty members and administrators are invited to join in the 13th annual celebration of the advancement of women of color sponsored by the American Council on Education's National Network for Women Leaders in Higher Education. This year's luncheon and program will be Wednesday, Dec. 8, 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m., at Prince George's Community College. Registration and a check for $30 are due by Nov. 30. Registration forms and a sign-up list for shared, free transportation are available from Bonny Griffith in the Office of the Provost, Hitchens 213, x4212. Let us celebrate together!
