Guild Announces Conservation Measures

In order for the College to make a necessary contribution to the energy conservation effort being mounted to cope with the obvious utility crisis, and in preparation for what may be mandatory energy measures under consideration by Acting Governor Lee, I have authorized the implementation of the steps listed below.

I wish to emphasize that the College cannot meet its objectives in conserving electrical energy without the full cooperation of all students, faculty, staff, and employees. If the current crisis continues to the point where electrical consumption must be curtailed even further, the College's ability to remain in operation would be seriously in doubt.

These steps are, of course, in addition to a number of other measures which were implemented earlier to conserve financial resources as well as energy. A complete list of all steps, old and new, is appended to this statement and will remain in effect until further notice.

A. Athletic, recreational, musical, theatrical, and artistic events; 1) The Physical Education Center will be closed at 6 p.m. on weekdays and all day on Saturday and Sundays. Remaining scheduled athletic team events will be rescheduled for daytime events. 2) The swimming pool will be closed at 4 p.m. daily on weekdays and will be closed on weekends. 3) Music recitals, art exhibits, Planetarium programs, and theatrical rehearsals and performances (with the exception of this week's rehearsals and performances of "Two Gentlemen of Verona," which will go on as scheduled) will be rescheduled before 6 p.m. on weekdays or, if necessary, postponed to later dates.

B. Personnel Schedules; Night-time or "cat-eye" cleaning shifts will be eliminated in all buildings except the Lane Center, the Physical Education Center, and the Library.

C. Class and Organizational Meeting Locations: 1) all evening classes will be consolidated into Dunkle Hall, Tawes Hall, and the Fine Arts Building. The Registrar has already published these relocations on February 20. 2) Evening meetings of organizations and committees will be limited to the Lane Center.

D. Building Use; Except for scheduled and specifically authorized use, academic and office buildings will be considered closed from 6 p.m. to 7 a.m. on weekdays and closed Saturday and Sunday. Exceptions other than the following will be considered on an individual basis by the Assistant to the President, in consultation with the appropriate vice president, and compliance with the authorized schedule will be monitored regularly by Campus Police: a) the Saturday Morning Enrichment Program for high school students will be conducted as scheduled, with all four weekly classes held in Dunkle Hall. b) data processing operations will be available at hours required by MSCIC schedules. c) computer terminals will be available at hours required by MSCIC schedules. d) the Alhambra Catholic Invitational Basketball Tournament will be held as scheduled from March 16 to March 18 in the Physical Education Center.

E. Reduced Electrical Service; The Physical plant staff will continue to reduce lighting and elevator service to minimal levels of safe operation.

F. Individual Efforts; 1) All members of the College Community are urged again to do everything possible to minimize electrical consumption. Where fluorescent lights are involved, repeated switching of fixtures on and off can be counterproductive. A useful rule of thumb is that if a fixture will be on in an area which will be unused for less than one hour, it should be left on. If the area is to be unused for more than one hour, the light should be turned off. 2) Individuals should be especially attentive to the use of appliances which consume substantial amounts of electrical current: hair dryers, clothes dryers, television sets, hot plates, heat or sun lamps.

Notice

In an effort to keep the students as well informed as possible, the Editorial Board of State-to-Date has decided to delay this week's publication so that Dr. Guild's response to Governor Lee's Energy plan could be included. The following is Dr. Guild's reply to the anticipated statement by Governor Lee.

Power Saving Reductions

- 1) Portable electric space heaters are not permitted without prior approval of the Director on Physical plant, who is required to submit copies of all approvals to the Maryland Department of General Services.
- 2) Wattage of lights in all College buildings is to be maintained at minimal levels of safe operation (as defined by nationally published foot-candle standards). lighting is to be maintained at minimal levels of safe operation.
- 4) Elevator service is to be reduced to one elevator in Frederick, Westminster and Cambridge Halls.
- 5) The Physical Education Center is to be closed at 6 p.m. on weekdays and day Saturday and Sunday. The swimming pool is to be closed at 4 p.m. weekdays and all day Saturday and Sunday.
- 6) All academic and office

- buildings are to be closed from 6 p.m. until 7 a.m. on weekdays and all day and night Saturdays and Sundays, with specifically authorized and published exceptions related to emergencies, the instructional program, or previous commitments from which the College cannot reasonably withdraw.
- 7) All evening meetings of organizations and committees are limited to the Lane Center.
- 8) Music recitals, art exhibits, Planetarium programs and theatrical rehearsals and performances will, with the specifically authorized and published exceptions, be rescheduled before 6 p.m. on weekdays or, if necessary, postponed to later dates.
- 9) Night-time or "cat-eye" cleaning shifts are eliminated in all buildings except the Lane Center, the Physical Education Center, and the Library.
- 10) All evening classes are consolidated in Dunkle Hall, Tawes Hall, and the Fine Arts Building, according to the schedule published by the Registrar on February 20.

11) Individual members of the College Community are urged to cooperate fully in the implementation of these measures and in their individual practices.

12) Monitoring of steps affecting the availability of buildings and facilities is to be accomplished by Campus Police.

Note: The steps above are intended specifically to reduce consumption of electrical energy. Other steps implemented earlier to reduce expenditures or in compliance with State energy conservation mandates (e.g., building temperature and ventilation settings and certain types of frozen expenditures) are not repeated here but do have an indirect effect upon electrical consumption.

Lay-offs May Occur

by Sindia Patterson

President Guild is considering laying-off employees to close the college's deficit.

There are "no projected faculty lay-offs," according to Guild. Employees who face the possibility of lay-offs are classified employees: maintenance workers, secretaries, and house keepers who earn

Coach of the Year?

Coach Kenneth Kutler has been selected NAIA Area #6 Soccer Coach of the Year. Coach Kutler, along with eight other Coaches of the Year will be candidates for National Soccer Coach of the Year. Should Coach Kutler be selected, he will be honored at the 1978 National Soccer Tournament. Kutler graduated from East Stroudsburg State College in 1964. He was a member of the 1962 NAIA National Soccer Champions and was selected to be in the Mid-Atlantic Regional All-American Team in 1963. Coach Kutler came to Frostburg in 1969. He began as soccer and mens tennis coach and is now assistant athletic director. Kutler has had a brilliant nine years and hopefully will continue to lead Frostburg to may more successes. Congratulations Coach Kutler.

$6, - 10,000 yearly.

Because he does not know the outcome of the deficiency request he has submitted to the governor, Guild is not certain whether lay-offs will be necessary. "If we are assured of at least $100,000 from the state, we can avoid lay-offs," concludes Guild.

Lay-offs could occur "as early as March 1." Although Guild considers lay-offs "a last resort," he observes that "nothing we have been able to work out on paper has eliminated the red ink without lay-offs or additional money."

Guild feels that Frostburg "will be hurt less as an institution by letting classified employees go than by firing faculty and administrators."

During weekly staff meetings, "lists of possible lay-offs have been compiled that vary according to dates and extensiveness." "As many as 26 people may lose their jobs," Guild says.

Lay-offs are being considered for "the purely economic reason of saving money in large chunks." Guild considers lay offs a last resort, because "lay - offs would disrupt lives and families and I am not anxious to do this."

Currently before the Maryland House of Delegates is a bill that will, if passed, create a state fund of five million dollars for the purposes of student loans. House Bill 1047 is before the House Appropriations Committee. The passage of the bill is uncertain, and your support could make the difference. Editorial

The Editorial Board of this publication has recently come under fire from some administrators as to the content of the State-To-Date. These administrators do not choose to criticize the editorial content of the paper nor do they attack the validity of the news which is printed. Rather, these administrators seek to attack the space lent to such articles as: Wanger's World, the Phil Franks cartoon, On the Fringe, and the special Valentines issue which included the Cupidgrams. The fact that some may fail to see the necessity of including such material into a college newspaper makes it necessary for the Editorial Board to redefine its policy.

The goal of a college newspaper is to inform, enlighten and stimulate student thought. Therefore, it has been the editorial policy of this paper to use this journalistic privilege given to it by Dr. Guild and print those things we feel, accomplish those goals.

In essence, the Editorial Board seeks to print those things by which the students can enjoy and yet get further insight into their college community. Hence, such material as the editorial cartoons of Phil Frank and Mark Wamaling along with the satire of "On the Fringe" is printed. Cupidgrams, on the other hand, were printed as a student service, simply for student enjoyment.

If through printing the aforementioned material more students read the news stories and editorials, which take up the majority of the paper, the Editorial Board in using its journalistic license has done its job and will continue to do so.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

After reading the February 15, 1978 issue of State-to-Date, I feel I must register my complete dissatisfaction over the absence of any article or advertisement announcing the appearance of Ruby Dee and Ossie Davis on this campus. You may recall that on February 2, 1978 I sent you a memo requesting that information about this program be included in both the February 8 and February 15 issues of the newspaper. I have enclosed a copy of this memo for your information. While I realize that your job as editor of the paper is a thankless one, I fail to understand the rationale for not informing the student body and the campus community about a major campus event while at the same time including such journalistic drivel exemplified by the "On the Fringe" column on page four of the February 15 issue of State-to-Date. Once again, the students at Frostburg have been cheated only in this case it was not by some faceless budget analyst in Annapolis, rather the student newspaper has shirked its responsibility in presenting "real" campus news in a mature and professional manner. I sincerely hope a review of State-to-Date's journalistic priorities is forthcoming before the primary mode of communicating and informing both the student body and college community is lost to childish game playing.

Sincerely,
Don R. Moore
Chairman, Student Artist & Lecture Series

A number of students have complained to me and other college personnel about obligations they have entered into with companies who have solicited on campus. These students have been displeased with the merchandise or no longer want to continue their obligation to purchase agreed items.

The types of companies vary from life insurance companies to firms selling china, cookware, flatware, linen, apartment furnishings, etc.

I do not want to imply that any of these companies are not reputable or legitimate. Be certain, however, before you sign on the dotted line about the terms of the sale or your continuing obligation.

The college has a policy which restricts or limits these companies from selling on campus at their discretion. Individual students are not permitted to invite outside firms on campus to sell to their friends or acquaintances. The policy does permit certain student groups (Such as Hall Governments) to invite off campus companies to sell on campus. Certain procedures must be followed even if the Hall Government sponsors the vendor, to prevent unwilling people to become involved.

Before you or your organization make plans to sell anything on campus or make arrangements with an off campus vendor to come on campus to sell, please inquire at the Residence life Office or the Lane College Center Office for details.

Extern Program

This past fall the Career Planning & Placement Office at F.S.C. initiated a new program designed to give undergraduates an opportunity to experience, firsthand, a career area of their choice. Fifteen students applied to take part in the program in areas as diverse as Social Work, Computer Science, Business & Accounting, Public Administration, Education and the Natural Sciences. With the exception of the Business & Accounting applicants, all applicants were placed in an Extern site of their choice. As the following comments indicate, most had a valuable and positive experience:

"Before the Extern program, I was a business major. I like helping people more than I like numbers, so I asked myself what I could do with my life in order to help children, and the Extern program gave me an idea of what I could do. My major is now Sociology."

"Yoga Lives - Zen Dies"

Of the two Adult Education courses offered in cooperation with Allegany Community College on our campus this semester, the Tuesday night Yoga Class is more than successful: 27 students are registered Tuesdays for Yoga at A.C.C. and 14 more are now working-out on this campus. Because the Yoga class is in its third year at A.C.C. attendance there is considerably higher; however, it represents a firm beginning for cooperative programs between our colleges that in spite of harsh weather that closed the Physical Education Building during opening classes, and in spite of limited notification and advertisement, the Yoga class did make.

However, since 10 students are the minimum number A.C.C. requires for a class to "make," despite the steady attendance over one half dozen students, failed to meet the minimum requirements. Zen, as well as Yoga, practice may be offered again next semester, but the same restrictions will be mandated: unless at least ten people seriously dedicated to either practice can be found, that particular offering will no longer be available on this campus. Nevertheless, the door is now open for other faculty-staff members to make extra curricular courses available to our students on this campus.

On the Fringe

by Scop Trivium

President Wily Guile, in an effort to impress on the Annapolis guys that the energy/budgetary crunch is not a gilded guise, has announced that the following emergency actions will take place February 29, 1978:

1) Showers will be rationed on a weekly basis--three-minute limit. (When informed of this policy, some male dorm residents protested that they didn't want to be forced to shower that often.)

2) All male students are to stop shaving in order to save water and electricity.

3) All students are to burn candles at both ends in order to implement additional lumen/wattage reductions. (R.A.'s estimate that only 3% of the students will be affected by this request.) Students may not, however, burn the midnight oil. (Faculty state that this policy will result in 95% of the term papers being turned in late.)

4) Department heads will cuddle with their secretaries to compensate for further temperature reductions. (President Guile reports that administrators are readily acceding to this policy. . . those who weren't already doing so.)

5) Faculty will cuddle with their students. (The Business Administration Department will assign excess students to departments with low enrollments except when personal attachments already exist. The Psychology and Sociology Departments will provide guidance on alleviating negative psycho-socio communication relations that may be concomitant to such centralized coalition structures. President Guile feels, however, that faculty-student intercourse -- "interchange between persons or groups; communication" -- will improve.)

6) Hot air from lectures, SA meetings, faculty committee meetings, and hair dryers will be channeled into classroom heating systems. (Estimates are that in some cases building temperatures may become excessive.)

7) The Lane Center snack bar will lower its steam table temperature so as to serve hamburgers at a "warm" rather than a "hot" temperature. (This action will involve no noticeable change among consumers.)

8) All dorm penny ante poker games will raise their stakes to comply with the "nickel and dime" economy measures.

9) To save energy used for lights, the following change in class schedules will occur: 8 a.m. classes will meet at 11 a.m., except for even numbered days on the Gregorian calendar, when they will meet at 3 p.m., except for The History of the Dark Ages 319, Photographic Dark-room Procedures 210, and Florescent Body Painting 412.

10) In case of a dire heating emergency, all minutes, reports, announcements, forms, computer printouts, and handouts sent from Lowndes during the last six months will be sent directly to dorms where they will fire the boilers. (Estimates are that this measure will provide heat for two years. It will, however, significantly reduce in administrative and faculty offices the heat generated from shuffling papers.)

Music Department:

Cello, Piano Recital

The Music Department of Frostburg State College is pleased to announce a joint recital by Anne Marie Munsen, cello, and Sylvia Munsen, piano. The recital will be held on Wednesday, March 1, in Pullen Auditorium, at 8:15 p.m.

Anne Marie Munsen is currently a member of the Symphony Orchestra of Brazil (Rio de Janeiro), Brazil's foremost musical organization. The orchestra has recently completed a highly successful tour of the United States and Canada. Anne Marie's further credentials are equally impressive: besides holding a Master's Degree Cello from Northern Illinois University, she has won the St. Louis Symphony Prize to attend the Aspen Music School, several Young Artist Competitions which enabled her to appear as soloist in concertos by Boccherini, Lalo, and Dvorak, and most recently she has studied with the world-renowned cellists Raya Garbousova, Ron Leonard, and Aldo Parisot.

Sylvia Munsen (Anne Marie's sister) is currently a faculty member in the Department of Music at Frostburg State College. A music education specialist (particularly in Orff-Schulwerk), she is also an accomplished pianist, flutist, and singer. Sylvia graduated from St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota (B.A.) where she was a singer and flute solist with the St. Olaf Choir. After graduation, she was an elementary vocal music teacher in Minneapolis for three years. In 1977 she received the Master's Degree in Music Education from the University of Illinois. Her performance activities include two piano recitals presented at St. Olaf, participation in a Master Class given by the frequently recorded American pianist, Abbey Simon, and finally study with Kenneth Drake at the University of Illinois.

The recital is free and open to the public.

"Two Gentlemen of Verona"

The third production of the 77-78 season at F.S.C. will be the musical version of William Shakespeare's Two Gentlemen of Verona. Hadra, faculty member in the Department of Modern Foreign Languages. Designer and technical director is Mr. Edward Thompson of the Department of Speech and Theatre.

Two Gentlemen of Verona will be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 23, 24, and 25. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. Ticket prices are $3.00 for adults, $1.50 for off-campus students and $.50 for on-campus students. Arts & Letters: "Opinion and Scholarship"

Since its creation last semester, Arts & Letters has sought to provide an effective means by which people can expand their awareness of the world around them. The title of the journal takes its name from post-16th Century England, where the term was used to describe the literate exchange of ideas. In this sense, Arts & Letters attempts to promote, through opinion and scholarship, personal and intellectual interchange between all members of the college community.

By addressing a variety of issues and topics, Arts & Letters may serve as a valuable tool in lessening the strictures of any singular, restrictive curriculum. It affords an atmosphere of open exchange while at the same time it fulfills a necessary criterion for learning.

The journal openly solicits materials from the college community at large. There are no restrictions placed upon the content of the material or the literacy technique employed by the author.

Material for consideration should be addressed to: Arts & Letters, Box 0215 Lane College Center. All material will be read for content before it is considered for publication. Any material not accepted will be returned, with a written explanation regarding the reason for its non-acceptance. The editors reserve the right to edit all material, but publication of such material will be contingent upon the author's approval. The length of the work is flexible, but should not exceed 1200 words.

The deadline for submission of material is March 10, 1978. Anyone not familiar with the journal will find copies of the first issue in the campus library. In the belief that education is not restricted merely to the classroom, it is hoped that Arts & Letters will continue to serve as an effective means for the exchange of ideas.

Intentional Democratic Community

This coming fall, Residence Life is planning on initiating an experimental community in one wing of Cambridge Hall. The program, the Intentional Democratic Community, is defined as a living unit so designed as to foster the sharing of ideas, emotions, work, and a social contract to promote the expression of community. The structure of this living unit provides for the bringing together of individuals and offering them means by which they can foster their own individual actualization by creating conditions that actualize the community. The goals and objectives of this type of community are expressed through a social contract.

"In the social contract the individual gives some power to the community, which in turn, protects rights, provides for the security and promotes the welfare of the individual." (Burns Crookston) The power surrendered by the individuals is not to other individuals but to the community. When this process occurs, the relationship between the individual becomes mutually enhancing. Because of the nature of the relationship, the social contract goes far beyond the typical housing contract. It solicits the total involvement of each individual to work actively toward the fulfillment of community and as a consequence, toward the actualization of self (since by definition the community becomes an extension of the self.) (Crookston)

As a member of the IDC, it is understood that each member will always work for the betterment of the community and adhere to the guidelines of the contract. Also, each member is expected to: 1) Participate in all town meetings. 2) Participate in fall and spring retreats. 3) Aid in the cleaning of facilities. 4) Aid in evaluations, workshops and other community functions.

There will be an information meeting for those who are interested to discuss the IDC concept further on Monday, February 27 at 7:00pm in 202 Lane Center. If you are interested but unable to attend, call or stop by the Residence Life Office (4121) and leave your name.
