THE BILL appropriating $550,000 for a new post-office in Baltimore, has passed both houses of Congress.

THE REPUBLICAN State Convention, to select delegates to the National Convention, will be held at Frederick on Thursday, May 6th.

BOTH HOUSES of the Virginia Legislature have passed a bill repealing the Moffett bell-punch liquor law, and establishing a license system, which is to go into operation May 1st.

THE STATE Convention to the third term should be held at Frederick on Thursday, May 6th.

THE INLAND House of Delegates, with the tramp question before it, has passed in a favorable manner. It has passed a bill providing that it shall be held by imprisonment in the State House for not less than one year.

A BILL HAS BEEN introduced into the United States Senate to retire on pay all civil officers of the Government who shall have obtained the age of seventy years, and have been in continuous service of the Government for fifty years.

THE REUNION of the two wings of the Massachusetts Democracy is a promising sign of the times. If the New York Democracy will follow the example the party will be enabled to go into the campaign next fall with every prospect of success.

THE FALLING OFF in the hog crop last year, in comparison with the previous year, will reach the vast number of one million animals, averaging, perhaps, two hundred pounds each. Farmers may look out for high prices for every article of pork product this year.

IT IS SAID the reason that rye straw paper has advanced so much in the past three months, hundreds of tons of it have been sold to Cuba, to be saturated with tobacco juice and used for fillers, for Havana cigars. It is said, when so treated, the rye straw paper cannot be detected from the pure Havana tobacco filler, and even smoke better.

FARMERS who spread on a thin coat of twelve or fifteen loads of manure to the acre, and expect to raise a good crop, would be astonished to see the quantities of the best kinds of manure which market gardeners often apply to an acre of land near the cities. What would they say to the application of $600 worth of horse manure to a single acre? Two or three hundred dollars' worth of manure per acre is a common thing among market gardeners, and they find their account in so doing, too.

THERE SEEMS to be a growing disposition on the part of the leading New York Democrats to reconcile the differences which have been a source of such grave concern to the party at large. If such reconciliation is accomplished, the success of the Presidential ticket next fall is practically assured. The effect of the local quarrel in New York has had a disintegrating effect on the party at large, but with a cordial reunion of the warring elements in the Empire State, all local differences in other States will be promptly set aside, and the national party would enter upon the great struggle next fall with the assurance of victory.

IT IS ASSERTED that from 7,000 to 10,000 miles of railroad will be built in the United States this year. The Southern Pacific, the Utah Northern, the Northern Pacific and other shorter lines are all hard at work extending their roads, and many of the older roads are re-laying their tracks. A New York industrial journal, commenting upon the wonderful activity in railroad building, estimates that if only 6,000 miles of new road are constructed the sum of $25,000,000 will be expended in the purchase of iron during the current year. The work of construction will cause the distribution of an enormous amount of money, and will give employment to many thousands of men. The benefit accruing to labor from this condition of things can hardly be overestimated.

SEVERAL LABOR troubles seem to be brewing in this country. Strikes are of daily occurrence, and it looks now as though some of the disgraceful scenes of the summer of '77 may be repeated in '80. Albert Curtis, a leading Socialist of St. Louis, has started on a three months trip to all of the principal cities of the Union, for the purpose of agitating the labor question and assisting in thoroughly organizing Socialistic associations. This movement is, in all probability, preparatory to a general strike of working people throughout the country. This, on the eve of renewed confidence and prosperity in nearly all branches of industry, is most disastrous. It is a movement which will cause the people themselves to suffer. In every branch of industry, labor and capital are at daggers drawn.

William McMillin has been selected as marshal.

An attempt to rob the Sub-Treasury at Philadelphia, though made nearly a year ago, has just been divulged by the officials, who mistakenly supposed that violence would lead to the detection of the thieves. He has been working in Roache's shipyard, and on Saturday at 6:30 o'clock he started from there to swim a mile out into the Delaware and back. A large crowd was present to witness the attempt. After being in the water about 18 minutes Coyle made signs of distress, and before the boat could reach him he was overcome by cramps and fainted. He was taken into the boat and conveyed to the Beal house, where he was kept until yesterday morning, when he had sufficiently recovered to be taken to his home.

Political Notes.

Out in Minnesota they are saying that Blaine and Washburne would be a conquering ticket. A movement looking to the nomination of Senator Edmunds for President has been started in Boston.

Mr. Conkling's machine is not exclusively engaged in the work of insuring Grant's election. He is fixing New York for a grand Democratic majority.

The next thing will be a National conference of anti-third-term German Republicans. They hold the balance of power in New Jersey, New York and Ohio.

A prominent Republican politician of Baltimore offers to let that by Bayard and Grant are the two opposing candidates, the former will carry the State of Vermont by a large majority.

Chairman Miller has called a meeting of the Democratic State Committee of Pennsylvania, to be held at Pittsburgh, March 18th, when the time and place for State Convention will be decided upon.

Over 1,800 German Republicans in Cleveland have signed a protest against a third term, and the Auzeter, the German Republican paper there declares that it will not support Grant if he is nominated.

The Jackson (Miss.) Republican, one of the few organs of the party in the South, declares that Grant would have no chance of carrying any Southern State, all statements of political tramps to the contrary notwithstanding.

A prominent Illinois German gives it as his opinion that the Germans decidedly favor Washburne, and that he would carry a larger vote than any other man. He did not think that Grant would get over 50 per cent. of the German vote in Illinois.

Ex-Congressman Taylor, of Indiana county, Pennsylvania, says that he has "for six months felt convinced that Gen. Grant will not be able to carry Pennsylvania if he be nominated." Mr. Taylor is one of the delegates to the Chicago Convention.

Secretary Sherman has made another enemy, who has the opportunity to damage his Presidential aspirations. A colored man named Cuney, a $1,200 clerk in the Secretary's office, was discharged by Assistant Secretary Hawley some weeks since, and through some cause or other failed to get back, although he made a desperate effort. Cuney, who is a shrewd, intelligent man, has left for Texas, where he belongs, vowing vengeance on Sherman, and swearing that he will take a Grant delegation to Chicago.

General Butler says "if I were to vote for any Democrat it would be for Judge Field, of the Supreme Court. He stands well before the country, and would carry the Pacific Coast, and would be, I should think, adopted by both factions of the party in New York, as being an entirely impartial man whom both could trust to do right by them. I do not know of anybody that would be better for the Democratic party than Judge Field, for whom I have a very high respect in all things, except that I am not, perhaps, quite in accord with his financial notions."

OSYER DREDGING.—Prof. Wm. K. Brooks, of the Johns Hopkins University, having been asked his opinion of the propriety of dredging for oysters in the Chesapeake bay, writes as follows: "Where an oyster bed is in good condition I believe the crop can be gathered as safely with a dredge as in any other way, so long as no more oysters than the bed can safely yield are taken. Where a bed has been neglected for a number of years I think that dredging might even be a great benefit, by scattering and breaking apart the clusters. Where a bed is falling its complete extermination can be accomplished more quickly with the dredge than in any other way. The only way to tell whether dredging should be allowed on a bed, so far as I know, is by an accurate measurement and count of the number of oysters upon it and the number harvested. If more than one-fifth or one-fourth of the whole number are gathered each year, extermination is only a matter of time, and the number to be taken should be restricted. In cases where there has been a marked decrease in the yield of a bed, I believe the only remedy is the protection of such bed from dredgers, and from tongs, too, if possible, for a period of at least three years, and still longer, if examination at the end of this period shows no improvement. My own studies on the oyster last season led me into a somewhat different line of investigation, and I have not very much information to base an opinion on with reference to the harm done by dredging, but I was impressed with the fact that everything conspires to make an oyster bed a very slow formation, and that, which are already established, therefore, need all the protection which can be given them."

Senator Hepburn proposes to introduce a bill for the establishment of a Board of Pardons on the Pennsylvania model, the members to serve without pay, and to be selected one from each of the congressional districts, the Governor ex-officio chairman.

Mr. Fisher's bill to suppress and punish gambling is made to apply to the whole State. The punishment is fine and imprisonment, not to be excessive in either case, so as to insure the penalty for violations. The penalties are made to apply alike to the owner of property leased for a gambling-house as to the lessee or tenant.

The joint committee on public education has decided to report a bill giving the Governor power to appoint members of the county school commissioners once a year. At present the boards are appointed by the judges of the circuits.

The proposition of Senator Steiner making the boards elective was voted-down. The boards will organize in May, instead of in January as heretofore.

There is a curious colored fraud in Richmond County, N. C., who has been getting lots of money from the ignorant negroes in that region. He goes to isolated houses in the country and tells the inmates that the election of Grant is certain, and that as soon as he is elected he will be made Emperor and then there will be a glorious division of the land, goods and chattels and that a sum any where between 10 cents and 12 cents entrusted to him will secure the contributor a handsome share of the spoils when the good time comes. Those who do not thus contribute, he is instructed to say, will be cast into outer darkness. He also tells them that a supply of arms will soon be distributed in Charlotte and a large military demonstration made.—N. Y. Sun.

Messrs. Hubbard & Bro., Salisbury, Md., Feb. 14th, 1880. The Super Phosphate purchased of your office here last Spring I used on corn & oats. I am frank in recommending it as superior to any I have ever used. I shall use it this year. Yours, S. H. FOOKS.

Salisbury, Md., Feb. 14th, 1880. I used your Super Phosphate on strawberries last fall. I find that portion of my plants where it was used are looking very fine, equally as well as the rest of the plants, and I shall use it again next fall, as it is the cheapest manure we can get. Yours, G. W. BELL.

AND EASTERN SHOREMAN. LEMUEL MALONE, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

SALISBURY, MD., SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 13, 1880.

THE BILL appropriating $550,000 for a new post-office in Baltimore, has passed both houses of Congress.

THE REPUBLICAN State Convention, to select delegates to the National Convention, will be held at Frederick on Thursday, May 6th.

BOTH HOUSES of the Virginia Legislature have passed a bill repealing the Moffett bill-punch liquor law, and establishing a license system, which is to go into operation May 1st.

OPPOSITION to the third term should unite Democrats of all shades of opinion. In the face of so grave a danger to republican institutions there ought to be no bickering and no falling out of line.

THE RHODE ISLAND House of Delegates has dealt with the tramp question in a very sensible manner. It has passed a law providing that they shall be punished by imprisonment in the State Workhouse for not less than one year.

A BILL HAS BEEN introduced into the United States Senate to retire on pay all civil officers of the Government who shall have obtained the age of seventy years, and have been in continuous service of the Government for fifty years.

THE REUNION of the two wings of the Massachusetts Democracy is a promising sign of the times. If the New York Democracy will follow the example the party will be enabled to go into the campaign next fall with every prospect of success.

THE FALLING OFF in the hog crop last year, in comparison with the previous year, will reach the vast number of one million animals, averaging, perhaps, two hundred pounds each. Farmers may look out for high prices for every article of pork product this year.

IT IS SAID the reason that rye straw paper has advanced so much in the past three months, hundreds of tons of it have been sold to Cuba, to be saturated with tobacco juice and used for fillers, for Havana cigars. It is said, when so treated, the rye straw paper filler cannot be detected from the pure Havana tobacco filler, and even smoke better.

FARMERS who spread on a thin coat of twelve or fifteen loads of manure to the acre, and expect to raise a good crop, would be astonished to see the quantities of the best kinds of manure which market gardeners often apply to an acre of land near the cities. What would they say to the application of $800 worth of horse manure to a single acre? Two or three hundred dollars' worth of manure per acre is a common thing among market gardeners, and they find their account in so doing, too.

THERE SEEMS to be a growing disposition on the part of the leading New York Democrats to reconcile the differences which have been a source of such grave concern to the party at large. If such reconciliation is accomplished, the success of the Presidential ticket next fall is practically assured. The effect of the local quarrel in New York has had a disintegrating effect on the party at large, but with a cordial reunion of the warring elements in the Empire State, all local differences in other States will be promptly set aside, and the national party would enter upon the great struggle next fall with the assurance of victory.

IT IS ASSERTED that from 7,000 to 10,000 miles of railroad will be built in the United States this year. The Southern Pacific, the Utah Northern, the Northern Pacific and other shorter lines are all hard at work extending their roads, and many of the older roads are re-laying their tracks. A New York industrial journal, commenting upon the wonderful activity in railroad building, estimates that if only 6,000 miles of new road are constructed the sum of $25,000,000 will be expended in the purchase of iron during the current year. The work of construction will cause the distribution of an enormous amount of money, and will give employment to many thousands of men. The benefit accruing to labor from this condition of things can hardly be overestimated.

SERIOUS LABOR troubles seem to be brewing in this country. Strikes are of daily occurrence, and it looks now as though some of the disgraceful scenes of the summer of '77 may be repeated in '80. Albert Curtin, a leading Socialist of St. Louis, has started on a three months trip to all of the principal cities of the Union, for the purpose of agitating the labor question and assisting in thoroughly organizing Socialistic associations. This movement is, in all probability, preparatory to a general strike of working people throughout the country. This, on the eve of renewed confidence and prosperity in nearly all branches of trade, would be most disastrous, and the working people themselves would be the greatest sufferers. In every conflict between capital and labor the latter is sure to get the worst of it in the end.

An attempt to rob the Sub-Treasury at Philadelphia, though made nearly a year ago, has just been divulged by the officials, who mistakenly supposed that silence would lead to the detection of the thieves. A wall more than two feet thick was dug through, but the vault containing $100,000 in gold resisted the attack, and the burglars secured only a few dollars' worth of pennies.

A dispatch to the Enquirer from Waynesville, Ohio, says: Great excitement was created here to-day when Daniel R. Anderson was re-arrested on the charge of committing the terrible triple murder at this place on August 23 last. After being in the water about 15 minutes Coyle made signs of distress, and before the boat could reach him he was overcome by cramps and fatigue.

He was taken into the boat and conveyed to the Beal house, where he was kept until yesterday morning, when he had sufficiently recovered to be taken to his home.

Political Notes.

Out in Minnesota they are saying that Blaine and Washburne would be a conquering ticket.

A movement looking to the nomination of Senator Edmunds for President has been started in Boston.

Mr. Conkling's machine is not exclusively engaged in the work of insuring Grant's election. He is fixing New York for a grand Democratic majority.

The next thing will be a National conference of anti-third-term German Republicans. They hold the balance of power in New Jersey, New York and Ohio.

A prominent Republican politician of Baltimore offers to bet that if Bayard and Grant are the two opposing candidates, the former will carry the State of Vermont by a large majority.

Chairman Miller has called a meeting of the Democratic State Committee of Pennsylvania, to be held at Pittsburgh, March 18th, when the time and place for State Convention will be decided upon.

Over 1,300 German Republicans in Cleveland have signed a protest against a third term, and the Answeizer, the German Republican paper there declares that it will not support Grant if he is nominated.

The Jackson (Miss.) Republican, one of the few organs of the party in the South, declares that Grant would have no chance of carrying any Southern State, all statements of political tramps to the contrary notwithstanding.

A prominent Illinois German gives it as his opinion that the Germans decidedly favor Washburne, and that he would carry a larger vote than any other man. He did not think that Grant would get over 50 per cent. of the German vote in Illinois.

Ex-Congressman Taylor, of Indiana county, Pennsylvania, says that he has for six months felt convinced that Gen. Grant will not be able to carry Pennsylvania if he be nominated. Mr. Taylor is one of the delegates to the Chicago Convention.

Secretary Sherman has made another enemy, who has the opportunity to damage his Presidential aspirations. A colored man named Coney, a $1,200 clerk in the Secretary's office, was discharged by Assistant Secretary Hawley some weeks since, and through some cause or other failed to get back, although he made a desperate effort. Coney, who is a shrewd, intelligent man, has left for Texas, where he belongs, vowing vengeance on Sherman, and swearing that he will take a Grant delegation to Chicago.

General Butler says that "if I were to vote for any Democrat it would be for Judge Field, of the Supreme Court. He stands well before the country, and would carry the Pacific Coast, and would be, I should think, adopted by both factions of the party in New York, as being an entirely impartial man whom both could trust to do right by them. I do not know of anybody that would be better for the Democratic party than Judge Field, for whom I have a very high respect in all things, except that I am not, perhaps, quite in accord with his financial notions."

Mr. Fisher's bill to suppress and punish gambling is made to apply to the whole State. The punishment is fine and imprisonment, not to be excessive in either case, so as to insure the penalties for violations. The penalties are made to apply alike to the owner of property leased for a gambling-house as to the lessee or tenant.

The joint committee on public education has decided to report a bill giving the Governor power to appoint members of the county school commissioners once a year. At present the boards are appointed by the Judges of the circuits.

The proposition of Senator Steiner making the boards elective was voted down. The boards will organize in May, instead of in January as heretofore.

THERE IS a curious colored fraud in Richmond County, N. C., who has been getting lots of money from the ignorant negroes in that region. He goes to isolated houses in the country and tells the inmates that the election of Grant is certain, and that as soon as he is elected he will be made Emperor and then there will be a glorious division of the land, goods and chattels and that a sum anywhere between ten cents and 12 cents intrusted to him will secure the contributor a good share of the spoils when the grand time comes. Those who do not thus contribute, he is instructed to say, will be cast into outer darkness. He also tells them that a supply of arms will soon be distributed in Charlotte and a large military demonstration made. -N. Y. Sun.

OYSTER DREDGING.—Prof. Wm. K. Brooks, of the Johns Hopkins University, having been invited to give the address of the dredging for oysters in the Chesapeake bay, writes as follows: "Where an oyster bed is in good condition I believe the crop can be gathered as safely with a dredge as in any other way, so long as no more oysters than the bed can safely yield are taken. Where a bed has been neglected for a number of years I think that dredging might even be a great benefit, by scattering and breaking apart the clusters. Where a bed is falling its complete extermination can be accomplished more quickly with the dredge than in any other way. The only way to tell whether dredging should be allowed on a bed, so far as I know, is by an accurate measurement and count of the number of oysters upon it and the number harvested. If more than one-fifth or one-fourth of the whole number are gathered each year, extermination is only a matter of time, and the number to be taken should be restricted. In cases where there has been a marked decrease in the yield of a bed, I believe the only remedy is the production of such beds from dredgers, and from those who, if possible, for a period of at least three years, and still longer, if examination at the end of this period shows no improvement. My own studies on the oyster last season led me into a somewhat different line of investigation, and I have not very much information to base my opinion upon, but with reference to the harm done by dredging, but I was impressed with the fact that everything conspires to make an oyster bed a very slow formation, and those which are already established, therefore, need all the protection which can be given them."

Consumption Cured. An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Affections; also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful results in curing hundreds of cases, he felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Don't Give Up. What if you have tried different "put up" medicines in vain. Have you not been equally disappointed in some physicians? Do not consider your case incurable until you have made a thorough trial of Dr. Pierce's Family Medicine. They are chemically pure, of uniform strength, and have come into general use by reason of superior merit. In cases of general and nervous debility, consumption, bronchitis, dyspepsia, "liver complaint," serofulous bunches, dropsical swellings, the Golden Medical Discovery is a specific and positive cure; while thousands of women, who had for years been bed-ridden, have, by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, been restored to perfect health. The introduction of these remedies has revolutionized the treatment of disease. WE HOPE the committee appointed by the fire department, to wait upon the employers and secure leave of absence, for employees, who are members of the fire department will attend to their duty and feel that they are entitled to obtain the consent of all employers, to grant the men time without docking them of their wages. A certificate from the Chief that they were present and on duty at the fire, would show that their time was not wasted, for after all, the fire department is certainly there for the benefit of the employer than the employee. The thing is managed this way in Wilmington, Delaware, and the employers take just pride in granting the privilege.

THE ANNUAL STATEMENT of the New York Life Insurance Co., which was published to-day, is in pleasing contrast to that of many companies with which our readers are familiar. The last three years have been periods of adversity in life insurance, as in almost every other business; yet in each of these years the New York Life, in financial prosperity and uniform steady growth, exceeded the one that preceded it in about the same ratio as 1879 bears to 1878, proving that public confidence had never shaken with regard to the soundness of this company. The company is deservedly popular in Maryland, having been represented here for 35 years, during which time it has paid to the policyholders in this State, and to their representatives, more than $2,000,000.00, and never contested any death claim. Mr. B. Jones Taylor, of Berlin, Md., is the company's representative in this part of the State, and will furnish any additional information with reference to it that may be desired.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE of the department met at Fireman's Hall on Monday and took action in regard to the donation of twenty-five dollars, recently given the department by the Kent County Mutual Insurance Company, for services rendered at Mr. G. W. Parsons' fire. The money was equally divided among the four companies and the regular department fund. Mr. L. W. Dorman was elected Treasurer of the fund. On motion, a committee of four were appointed to wait upon the employers of the place and, get them to consent for employees, members of the fire department, to attend all fires without being docked for loss of time. The chair appointed Messrs. W. B. Tighman, W. S. Parsons, A. J. Benjamin and J. C. Bell. A committee consisting of Messrs. T. Tracy, A. F. Far-sons, George C. Hill and Samuel H. Evans was appointed the committee to inquire into the feasibility of getting up a benefit for the department. The great need of a house in which to keep the Hook and Ladder truck was discussed, but no action taken to build one. After a little unimportant business, the committee adjourned.

In Memoriam.

The melancholy news of the death of Rev. Robert Lawrence Dashiell, at his home in Newark, N. J., on Monday night last, has cast sadness over this community, for here he was born and spent his boyhood, and friends, as well as relatives, join with us in paying a last tribute to one who was an illustrious son of the county, and one of the most distinguished and gifted of Methodist divines in this country.

He was born in Salisbury, June 28th, 1825, and was the son of Robert Dashiell and Mary Rider. One brother survives him—Rev. John H. Dashiell, D. D. He was educated at the Salisbury Academy preparatory to going to Dickinson College, where he graduated with high honors. He connected himself with the M. E. Church in early life, and as soon as he received his collegiate education he called to prepare himself for the "holy calling," and very soon entered the ministry in West River Circuit. He was two years in London county, Va., and four years in Washington, D. C., from the Baltimore Conference. He was transferred to Dickinson College four years, and since 1872 has been Secretary of the National Missionary Society of the M. E. Church.

When in Washington, D. C., he married Miss Mary J. Hanly, of that city, who survives him. The death of Dr. Dashiell at the age of 55, in the full vigor of usefulness, and when his intellectual faculties had reached the full measure of maturity, will be generally lamented, not only by Methodists, but by those who venerated him for his great excellence of character, and admired him for his rare attainments, and brilliancy of genius.

From a poor boy, relying almost entirely upon his own exertions and talents for the coveted blessings and high honors of his church, he rose to be the peer of the most eminent preachers in this country.

As a preacher he possessed great ability and magnetic force and power, and filled the pulpits of some of the largest city churches with rare unctious and popular fervor. His sermons were inspiring and persuasive, his pulpit oratory attractive and electrifying, and his earnestness in his convictions.

As a revivalist, he had few superiors, for he moved both head and heart by the cogency of his logic. The citizens of this Peninsula, many of whom knew him from boyhood, can bear witness to the high and exalted position he held in their affections; possessing in an eminent degree those beautiful Christian graces "that mark the perfect and upright man;" he was charitable to a fault, and full of love and sympathy for his neighbor; he possessed attributes that dignified and exalted promotion; was preeminently self-sustaining, original, bold and pronounced, with the highest integrity, courage and influence.

He was recognized as one of the ablest divines in the Methodist Church, and wherever he preached the popular heart was touched by his eloquence, and had not death intervened he would have attained the highest pinnacle of fame in heraldry.

He died as he lived, a devout Christian, in full communion with the M. E. Church, beloved by all—relatives church friends and acquaintances—and after so pure, holy and exalted a pilgrimage on earth, we must believe that he is prepared to receive the highest heavenly rewards of "a good and faithful servant."

It is with sorrow that we note the death of J. Hopkins Tarr, Esq., which occurred at his home in Salisbury, on Thursday last.

Mr. Tarr was born in Caroline county, Md., and came to Salisbury to practice law when quite a young man, but after his marriage to Miss Rock, of Salisbury, he returned to Denton, Caroline county, where he continued the practice of law, and became State's Attorney for that county. After the close of the war of '61 he returned to Salisbury; in 1867 he was elected a delegate from Worcester county to the Constitutional Convention, and was conspicuous for his energy and ability in behalf of the new county of Wicomico and other measures in that distinguished body. He was an ardent supporter of the new county both in the Convention and before the people, and won the esteem of the people by his speeches. After the organization of the new county he commanded a good practice at the Wicomico bar, and had for his clients some of the best and most influential citizens of the county.

As a criminal lawyer, he had no superiors at the Wicomico bar; ranked well as an advocate, and was justly esteemed for his fidelity to his clients. He was a sharp, incisive speaker, and a shrewd legal and political opponent; a gentleman of generous impulses, and noted for his hospitality, and had not his weaker nature yielded to that arch-foe of the human race, that has wrecked so many promising lives, brilliant intellects and noble souls, J. Hopkins Tarr would, perhaps, be living to-day, enjoying the confidence of the people, and an ornament to his profession; but whatever may have been his besting sin, he possessed many good traits of character, and his genial courtesy, heart of kindness and sympathy will endear his memory to many friends who shared his boyhood and received the substantial fruits of his large heartedness.

Growing Peaches.

The peach attains its highest perfection in the Southern and Middle States, and if half the attention were given to peach culture in the South there is paid to it in the North, there would be few causes of complaint. It is true the peach has its natural enemies and many diseases, of which the borers, perhaps, is the most formidable. But even its ravages may in a great degree be checked, if proper means are used to prevent it. A prominent fruit-grower says that the best preventive against the ravages of the borer is in the mode of planting, and that all that is necessary is, first, to prepare the ground by good and deep plowing, and then to dig the holes barely deep enough to cover the roots, a shallow planting is what the trees require. Nor should any mound or banking up ever be made around the stem or collar of the tree.

On going to plant, examine the roots carefully, and if any signs of insects or worms appear, clean them out, remove all broken or decayed roots, and cut back the top to a good, well-developed bud, about eighteen inches long, cutting off all side branches close to the body of the tree. When thus planted the trees require no stakes to keep them in position. It will be necessary, however, to go over the trees again the following summer to rub off all superfluous growth, leaving barely shoots enough to form the head. The cultivation of the peach is very simple, all that is necessary being to keep the trees clean and free from grass, always bearing in mind as the tree increases in size to keep the soil away from around the collar, so that the first ties of roots be fully exposed, the idea being that leaving the surface roots exposed so hardens them. The tree will then want but little pruning, all that is wanting being to thin out a few of the middle branches, so as to admit a free circulation of air, especially the heads of the tree, and occasionally lopping off any dead or decayed branches close to the body of the tree, taking care to leave no stumps to create disease or disfigure the tree. With this mode, accompanied by occasional applications of lime or ashes, and a frequent stirring of the soil, a peach orchard will last for many years, in perfect health, and all danger of the ravages of the borer be greatly lessened, if not entirely prevented.—Baltimore Weekly Sun.

The American Cotswolds.

Mr. Joseph Harris, of Mouton Farm, N. J., well known as an agricultural writer, has the following in his catalogue for 1879: "In an decidedly opinion that the coming sheep of this country will be what I called American Cotswolds. I have, hitherto, called these sheep Cotswold merinos. This designates their origin. But the name now derived when the name loses its significance. For instance, I have Cotswold merino lambs with three and four crosses of pure Cotswold blood in them. In other words, these lambs have 93 per cent. of pure blood in them, and only 6 per cent. of the native or merino sheep. The next cross will be 84 per cent. of native or merino blood, and the next only a little over 74 per cent. A few years hence American Cotswold sheep will be shipped by thousands and tens of thousands every week to the English markets. There is no reason why they are not now shipped in large numbers except the fact that they cannot be found. We do not raise enough of them, or feed them well enough. Our beef cattle are better than our mutton sheep. The intelligence and skill of the American sheep breeder have been largely directed to the perfection of the merino sheep. Wool and yield have been the objects aimed at, and great success has attended their efforts. There are no better fine-wool sheep in the world to-day than can be found in the United States."

There are many sections where merinos are the most profitable breed of sheep to keep. But railroads and steamboats lead to rapid and wonderful changes. There was a time when I thought Cotswold or mutton sheep could not be raised with profit in the West. I thought it was too far from market, but that cattle can be raised and shipped with profit to England, long-wooled mutton sheep can be raised and shipped with still greater profit. We do not raise more than half as much combing wool as the American manufacturers require. The combing of merino is much higher than on combing wool. This is not just.—Baltimore Weekly Sun.

Phosphates and Potash.

Phosphate of lime is only one of the mineral fertilizers upon which plants delight to feed, but which continual cropping, without returns, will soon exhaust. Potash, upon which plants make large demands, is another. Grass and potatoes may be called potash plants, because containing so large a quantity of mineral. One hundred parts of dry hay will leave, when burned, nine per cent. of ash, which the largest part is potash. Successive crops of grass must, therefore, exhaust the land of this, its leading constituent, unless it is returned in some shape. Just what mineral fertilizers grass lands will be in order to keep them in good productive condition may be learned from the following statement of that eminent scientist, Boussingault: "Ten thousand pounds of good meadow hay contain 547 pounds of inorganic (mineral) matter, of which 130 pounds are potash; soda, 10 pounds; lime, 107; magnesia, 45; oxide of iron, 65; silica, 180; sulphuric acid, 16; phosphoric acid, 32; and chlorine, 15." While many of these are found in almost inexhaustible quantity in all tillable land, potash, lime, sulphuric and phosphoric acids diminish rapidly under cultivation, unless returned in some way. It is a suicidal policy, therefore, to neglect the application of these mineral fertilizers on land severely cropped. Nor has any fertilizer a more permanent effect on such land than wood ashes—their containing all the mineral constituents of plant food—and when accompanied with ammonia in some form make a perfect fertilizer. It is an old saying that "man never forgets his ashes," and such would seem to be the fact, when placed on which coal-kilns have been burned here by know-how to show their fertilizing effects for more than half a century.—Baltimore Weekly Sun.

LEWEL MONE, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER. SALISBURY, MD. SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 27, 1880.

GRANT PROPOSES TO SEE LEADVILLE before accepting a nomination for a third term.

TWO PHILADELPHIA Medical Colleges have recently finished and turned out an aggregate of three hundred and eight M. Ds.

THE NEW JERSEY Legislature, during the session just closed, adopted a resolution providing for biennial sessions, and another abolishing the State tax, none being needed.

THE RICHMOND Commonwealth, conservative, expresses the belief that with Tilden and Grant as the presidential candidates the latter would carry Virginia.

HON. W. H. ENGLISH, of Indiana, whose name has been frequently mentioned for the vice-presidency on the Democratic ticket, expresses the opinion that the old ticket of Tilden and Hendricks would sweep the country.

NORFOLK PROPOSES TO celebrate the two hundredth anniversary of her settlement on the 16th of August, 1882. The day is a good day for it, but the entertaining little city evidently means to begin her preparations in time.

SENATOR WILLIAMS, of Baltimore county, has introduced a bill in the legislature to prevent the spread of infectious diseases among cattle. The bill is very similar in its provisions to the bill that passed the English parliament some time ago.

THIS IS A TIME WHEN Democrats all over this wide country should put aside personal differences and unite for a grand effort toward the overthrow of radicalism and centralization, embodied in the stalwart wing of the Republican party.

SHERMAN HASN'T much of a boom, but the Sherman boom will be heard in the land if the Secretary has to blow it himself. He has recently written a letter to a citizen of Chicago, declaring that he "intends to stand as a candidate for the Presidency." While he is "standing" he will find the Grant boom marching on.

A PAMPHLET has been issued, entitled "The Coming Crown," which gives many "prophetic pen pictures of the coming empire under His Imperial Majesty Emperor Ulysses I." The pamphlet is dated October, 1882. All the prominent third term boomers to-day have become dukes, lords, barons, earls or marquises, while Dana, Nast, Curtis and others, who had excited his imperial displeasure, had been hung, shot or banished.

THERE WAS A SCENE in the House Tuesday between Mr. Townsend, of Illinois, and Mr. Garfield, of Ohio, in which some strong language was used. Each of the disputants flustered and threatened, and there was a smell of gunpowder in the air, but the storm blew over. We predict with some confidence that the stalwart journals will have very little to say of this rencontre, for both gentlemen reside north of Mason and Dixon's line. Had they been Southern members what a howl about "rebel bravado" would have rent the air!

SENATOR EDMONDS has introduced in the United States Senate, a bill to regulate the counting of the votes for President and Vice President. The Democrats in Congress should be suspicious of everything of this kind that comes from Senator Edmonds, for it should be remembered that he is the father of the Electoral Commission fraud bill. His bill, just introduced, is intended to give the Republican States a control in the matter which they have not under the Federal Constitution, and is not likely to be accepted by the Democrats.

IF GRANT means ultimately to become Emperor of the United States, why should he not run for Emperor at once and be done with it? This question may naturally enough arise in many minds. There would be no reason in offering himself as a candidate to be elected Emperor by ballot, although, indeed, the force subsequently required to inaugurate him as Emperor would constitute a vast army of soldiers. But there would be no reason in peaceably running as a candidate for Emperor. Why, then, if he is what Grant is aiming at, is it so supremely folly of Grant to declare himself at once a candidate for Emperor? An answer to this inquiry may very easily be found by reference to the example of Grant's great prototype, Louis Napoleon. When Louis Napoleon was a candidate for the extension of his term as President of the French republic, if he had declared himself a candidate for empire and a crown he would have been ignominiously defeated. But getting his term of office as President extended he obtained empire and a crown. Just so with Grant. He cannot get a crown directly. He is trying to get it indirectly. Cunning, crafty and ambitious as the example of Louis Na-

The Republicans desire a strong government. They would have an Executive whose will was absolute. Still they cry out reform and retrenchment in their counties and States where the Democrats are in power. How can a strong government not be dedicated upon the good will and active support of the people, be maintained, without a swarm of office-holders? These in time eat out the substance of the people. The people complain, and they are called rebels if they refuse to submit to enormous taxation. But a strong government is what the Radicals want, and when they get it we shall have nothing left but serfdom. They may have the man at the head of the oligarchy which to them is now the "best" desirable. But how long will it be before they find that they are not all office-holders, and consequently among the oppressed? But it will be too late. They wanted a strong government—one beyond the reach of disturbance by the people; one in which the people scarcely participate, only as a sort of mockery. This is the kind of government the Radicals desire, and if they can only get Grant in once more they will have it to their heart's content. Let the people work for the equality of the States, with their reserved rights preserved, and with them the rights of the people unimpeded. Then we shall have a government or an administration of a government which will be worth maintaining; a land and country worth defending; because it will offer a safe retreat for freemen, a shield for the oppressed and a home for the brave. Let freemen rally to the battle cry of law, order and constitutional government.—These can only be preserved by an adherence to the faith, practices and tenets of the old Democracy. We say to the people, be not deceived, for a thousand ways have been introduced into the world to beguile the unwary. Be not deceived thereby, but stand to the ancient landmarks. The year 1880 and its consequences are destined to make an interesting page upon American history. Those who do not discern the signs of the times are either duped or too much absorbed in the active cares of life to observe the shadows of coming events. Be vigilant, be cautious; but by all means be brave. Courage is one of the requisites of patriots. It is, indeed, a sine qua non to the man who may be clothed in authority, or whose province it may be to sustain those who are to lead off in national events. Washington once said, "put none but Americans on guard tonight." The night was portentous; gloomy shadows forbode evil; vigilance was needed in the sentinel who was placed to guard the out-posts, and we say likewise to the people now, be careful who you put on guard at the White House. None but patriots are worthy of your confidence.

THE VERNAL EQUINOXIAL GALE, for which cautionary off-shore signals were displayed at the Baltimore station on Tuesday night, continued all day Wednesday. The highest velocity of the northwester was 26 miles an hour. The temperature was from 33 to 51 degrees. The velocity of the gale Wednesday night at points on the coast was great. Cape Henry reported 68 miles an hour, 221 days' work. The gale was severe on the lakes on Tuesday night, and the storm was general on the lakes New England, the Middle States and all along the Atlantic coast. Cautionary signals were nearly everywhere in those sections Wednesday night. No notice to shipping in the Chesapeake has been heard of as yet, but the fierce gale, it is feared, will cause havoc out there as it passed.

EDISON'S ELECTRIC LIGHT.—Edison's electric light, it is reported, has stood for some time in the University of Pennsylvania, and Rowland, of the Johns Hopkins University, very successfully. One of the lamps burned for 1,830 hours, and remained without injury. That is to say, on the average of six hours work per day, which is about the maximum of a lamp or a gas burner's task, it did over 221 days' work. Seven months' regular service without needing repairs may be considered a pretty good test. The other lamps burned in the same way at the rate of from 98 to 510 days. It is held that this electric light is demonstrated to be not only serviceable, but considerably cheaper in cost than gas.

WHERE ARE THE PATRIOTS?—Can it be that of the great and once patriotic Republican party no one of the leaders is found ready to do to come boldly forward and take a decided stand against a third term and imperialism? It is true men who were once prominent in the Republican party, like Davis and Palmer, do it; but they, latterly, have been identified with the Democratic party.

IT would have been more than the Presidency to Washburne, Blaine, or Sherman to have come out early and decidedly and unalterably against a third term. But politicians become habitually blind and groveling, and they do not see how things will work in the long run.—N. Y. Sun.

ELEVATED RAILWAY TRAVEL in New York seems to be growing more and more dangerous. Another smash-up occurred on the Ninth-street road on Monday, but fortunately no lives were lost. With the proper care, travel in the air is almost as safe as on the solid earth, but a little carelessness goes much further on the iron superstructure than elsewhere. A shocking accident may be anticipated before long unless greater safeguards are provided and more constant vigilance is exercised.

THE NEW YORK Herald says with great force, "there is not a reasonable excuse for Grant's personal desire for a third term. The country does not need him. His party does not want him." Certainly not, and yet in spite of all this he will be the reigning star at Chicago. The many will bow down to the few and crack of the leaders' whip will silence all opposition. Grant wants the nomination and is longing for it every hour of his restless life. He will get it beyond all doubt, but after Chicago may come—the deluge!

Gen. H. E. Paine, the commissioner of patents, has tendered his resignation, to take effect as soon as the unfinished business of his office can be disposed of. He will resume the practice of law with his former partners. Mr. Paine says the reason of his resigning is because the position is unremunerative.

The superintendent of the black agency of the Post-office Department has notified the Postmaster General that there is danger of a deficiency in the appropriation for stationery and printing in view of the increased prices of paper and envelopes, the estimates being based on the old contract prices.

THE PHYSICAL PARADOX.—It has been said that "the blood is the source of life." It is as truly the source of disease and death. No life, that is to say, no healthy tissue, can be generated from impure blood, no organ of the body can normally perform its functions when supplied with impure blood. The fluid that should carry life and health to every part, carries only weakness and disease. Blood is the source of life, only when it is pure. If it has become diseased, it must be purified by proper medication, else every pulsation of the human heart sends a wave of disease through the system. To cleanse the blood of all impurities, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets, the most efficient alternative, tonic, and cathartic remedies yet discovered. They are especially efficient in scrofulous diseases.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Montgomery Sentinel states that last week a party of two gentlemen and ladies arrived at Cabin John's Bridge and ordered dinner. While dinner was being prepared a pistol shot was heard and soon after a heavy fall was heard on the dining room floor with a pistol wound in his head and a revolver by his side. Dr. B. Ortt was summoned but before he arrived the party put the wounded man in the hack and took him to Washington. It is believed the wound is not fatal.

OLEOMARGARINE.—A single firm in New York last week sold 220,000 pounds oleomargarine. A single factory in that city turns out 40,000 pounds of this substance in every day. All this is stamped with its true name when it goes out from the factory and from the wholesale dealer. What happens to it in the retail dealer's hands, however, is not so clear.

MR. EDMONDS comes forward smiling against this time with an improvement in telegraphy, which, as is stated, has been purchased from him by the Western Union Company for $100,000. Edison is a wonderful genius in spite of his failure thus far to solve the problem of the electric light, which, by the way, he does not yet despair.

EX-MINISTER WASHBURN, in going to the Hot Springs of Arkansas, is considered to have made a splendid investment. He is white-haired and about 63 years old; he wears a stylish Prince Albert coat, buttoned closely about his fine figure, loose morocco boots and fine kids, and he twirls a little gold headed rattan cane. Paris did all that for him.

CYRUS W. FIELD has resigned his position as president of the New York Elevated Rail Company and as president of the Wash. Co. He says that after five years of hard work he thinks it is about time to begin enjoying himself. Neither resignation has as yet been accepted.

It is said that the Grant men are becoming alarmed. They believe their only chance is of nominating their candidate on the first ballot, and that if they fail to do it he cannot be nominated at all.

The Independent Republicans of the West to undertake the campaign with the scheme of running Grant against Mr. Edmunds appears to be developing some strength in New England.

The sentiment of opposition to a third term is widespread and deep-seated. It is constantly gathering strength. It begins to manifest its organized organization by which Cameron, many Conkling, conspired to force Grant on the Republican party. The evinces collected by the Tribune of the greater popular strength of Blaine have had a powerful effect in convincing the Republicans that their chance with him would be far better than with Grant.

Intelligent politicians perceive that with Grant for the Republican candidate the main issue of the campaign must necessarily be the third term. Republicans see that it would be a dangerous issue for them, with the example of Washington and the example and words of Jefferson against them; while it would be a most advantageous issue for the Democrats.

At whatever stage the defeat of Grant shall take place, whether before the nomination or after, it will be a glorious victory for the cause of free, popular government. In order to see the third term never settled, we should prefer to see him nominated and beaten at the polls; but the ninnow of hope will be set anew in the national firmament on the day of disaster to his accursed ambition, come when that day may.

Consumption Cured.—An old physician, retired from practice, having placed in his hands by an Eastern missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Affections; also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its merits in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this receipt in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing, with stamp, naming the paper, to W. SHERMAN, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y. Oct. 25, e. o. w.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, says the Cumberland Times, have adopted a new scheme in numbering their bridges. All culverts twelve feet in width are to be classed as bridges and included in this numbering. A plat of the whole road has been made and bridges numbered with their height, width, etc., and the material of which they are constructed, so that in cases of washing it will be immediately known what to do.

On Saturday evening a young man named Alfred Fahnestock, while walking upon Washington street, Hagerstown, was approached by a stranger and requested for a light from his cigar. Mr. Fahnestock handed the man his cigar, and a light was taken therefrom. Extending his hand to receive the proffered cigar on his return, he was somewhat surprised upon receiving a severe cut in the hand. Without a word of explanation the unknown person turned upon his heels and ran rapidly away. The motive of the deed is unknown.
