THE French, under the Duke de Broglie, were at last 12,000, and the Prussians de Soult's Regiment with 12,000 more. The Allies killed 500 French, were wounded at last 1000. The Prussians were but about 1500 Men, and 7 Pieces of Cannon; the French were but above 1000. Sunday, July 31. The French have become Masters of all Halle, which greatly alarms the Allies; but their Feats are much surpassed by the great Marshal Prince Soubise's conduct in his late Operations.

Monday, July 31. The King of Prussia has sent off his Heavy Artillery and Artillery towards Glat, and says to be in Progress, where it is said to be much to be desired. Our Army is situated in the most improved Situation and Advantages, from whence they can observe all the Movements of the Prussians; there is nothing but the Elbe that parts the two Armies.

Tuesday, July 31. We have Advice from the West, that the King of Prussia has demanded of the Duke of Saxe-Gotha a Million of Crowns to be paid to him.

The Russian Fleet has taken Port of Nordheim, with 100 Men, and the Principality of Calenberg is said to be a very large Sum. The Prince of Ansbach continues to Elbeck with the Remains of his Forces, where he was attacked last Night by a Body of French Troops, whom he repulsed with Loss. We are in Expectation that the English Troops, that have landed at Embden, will march directly to join his Highness, and in that Case, it is hoped he will be able to make a Stand.

Friday, August 3. We have this Moment Advice that a great Battle has happened between 6000 Men of the Allies, and a strong Corps of French Troops, in which the latter have had the worst, and are said to have lost 18 or 20 Pieces of Cannon; but we have the Particulars of this Affair in a very confused Manner, and must wait for a Circumstances.

July 27. Cardinal Charles Remyssio, a noble Venetian, Bishop of Padua, aged 67, was elected Pope, the 6th of this Month, and has taken the Name of Clement XIII. He was raised to the Purple in 1737, by Clement XII.

We are informed by a private Letter from the King of Prussia's Army, that his Majesty has been ill with a Fever for more than a Month past, but is now happily recovered.

And that in the late Attack of the Prussian Convoy, the Austrians had taken no more than 207 Waggoners, instead of 2000 mentioned in the British Gazette; and the Prussians left only 100 Men on that Occasion.

Friday, August 7. Yesterday Admiral Anson and Admiral Boscawen, with the Fleet of the West Indies, were in the Bay of St. Vincent, and the West Indies.

Saturday, August 8. News came from Prince Ferdinand's Army, that they were on the 19th Instant, in a very long Engagement, between a great number of French and 1000 of the Allied Forces, who were commanded by the Hereditary Prince of Prussia, in which the French on both Sides were so well as it was possible for us to be, though they had the worst, being 10 Pieces of Cannon, and 1000 Men, and a great many Officers and Men Prisoners. The rest of the Army was not much less; but on the Part of the Allies, and General Wurmser, in the great Engagement, the whole Army, is said to be severely wounded.

The French are endeavoring to prevent our Forces and Prince Ferdinand's Army, in order to prevent their Junction.

The Tatar Privateer of London has taken, and sent into Falmouth three French Ships, bound from Rochelle to Quebec, viz. the Deux Amis, of 200 Tons; Le Grand Gideon, of 300; and Les deux Freres, of 300 Tons. The above Ships had sailed the Day before a Brig bound from Jamaica to Barbadoes.

His Grace Highness, the Landgrave of Hesse, with his Royal Highness the Hereditary Prince, and his Children, arrived at Rhinow on the 21st of July; and on the 22d the French took Possession of Cassel; but it was supposed, that upon the Junction of the Forces from Heister, with the Detachment of 10,000 Men from Prince Ferdinand's Army, the Hessians would be able to make the Enemy in the Field.

Yesterday Admiral Saunders took Leave of his Majesty at Kensington, he being soon to sail with a Squadron.

Extract of a private Letter from the Hereditary Prince of Prussia, July 14.

As I have a Quarter of an Hour's Leisure, and a few Conveyances, I will give you a short Account of all our Proceedings, upon the Track of which you may be every Particular, depend. On our removing from Zewitaw, the Army continued its March to Leutenau, and after a Day's March arrived at Hohenauer; and having passed the Silesia on the 12th, we again encamped. The Effort of our Artillery and Baggage Waggoners, which ever preceded us on the March, discovered the Enemy at Helles, where they had taken Post in a Chapel, and had thrown up some Works about the Town, in which they had 1100 Men, and some Regiments of Foot.

We immediately made Dispositions for attacking the Place; but the Action was scarce begun, when General Field Marshal Keith arrived, and directing the Enemy's Infantry to be attacked, the Austrians, quitting all Thoughts of Defence, and resolved to give themselves in the adjacent Wood, by which many of them escaped. This rendered the Affair less bloody than it would have been, but as it was, the Enemy received some Loss, consisting of six Officers, and 360 Men, who were made Prisoners.

While the General Field Marshal was thus employed, his Majesty in Person marched from Leutenau, and arrived on the 15th before Koenigsgratz; there he found General Boscawen, with 7000 Men, who was not only brought forward on the Side of the Elbe, but had also thrown up the Works all round the Town, and had made all possible Preparations for its Defence. As the Bridge over the River was broken down, it caused some Delay before any Part of our Cavalry could pass; when this was done, and while the Dispositions were making for a general Attack, General Boscawen thought proper to abandon all his Attachments, and retire. We are at 7 last Masters of the Place, and every Thing the Garrison had in it. Our own Train of heavy Artillery is here, and all our Stores of every Kind, the Sick and Wounded are safely arrived, and the Garrison for Choice will be the Winner. I shall only say, that you may expect some important Events before it is ended.

Truly, Monday a Loan of 20 Millions of Pounds of England, for 100,000,000, was offered to the Public, which was filled by the following Government.

PHILADELPHIA, October 10.

On the 9th ult. we had a hard Gale of Wind from the West with an Shower of Rain and of Vexatious Clouds, the Sun appearing some times.

The Brig Franklin Privateer, of Barbados, Captain Brown, arrived from North-Carolina, with his Cargo.

Our 118 Arrivals from the Westward are, the Ship Grant and Lewis, Capt. Hugh M'Kinley, and George Miller, with about 30 private Men, and been made Prisoners, and carried into Fort Mifflin, where they were all well used; and the Major and Capt. M'Kinley, were sent to Canada; Sullivan Höller, being wounded, was kept at the Fort. The Ensign John M'Donald was Prisoner with the Indians, for whom the Governor of the Fort offered another Prisoner, and some Money, but was refused. That Parties of the Enemy Indians were continually hovering about our Encampment at Loyal Hanning, one of which, about 16 Days ago, attacked the Grays Guard, and killed two of our People, but had not Time to scalp them; and the same Party, it is thought, took about the same Time, carried off five or six of our Horses, and killed 22 many. — A Party of our Indians had come in, and brought two Scalps with them. — Our Troops are in high Spirits.

The following Ships of War, we hear, are to winter at Halifax, viz.

Of the Line, Princess Amelia, Rear Admiral Durell, Captain Bray, of 80 Guns; Bedford, Fowke, 64; Devonshire, Gordon, 66; Vanguard, Swanton, 70; Captain, Amherst, 64; Prince Frederick, Roth, 64; Pembroke, Simcoe, 31; Priscilla of Orange, Ferguson, 60; Sutherland, Ross, 40; and Norwich, Captain Darby, 40 Guns.

Frigates, — Nightingale, Capt. Campbell, of 24 Guns; Squirrel, Wheelock, 22; Kennington, 24; Hind, Bond, 22; and Hunter, Captain Adams, of 12 Guns.

We have Advice from the West Indies, that the Spy Prisoner, Caposh Spring, of this Port, had taken two Dutch Sloops, loaded with Sugar and Coffee, and ordered them for this Place; but that one of them was obliged to put into Anguilla, where she was condemned; the other we have no certain Account yet what is become of her.

Captain Burrows, from Jamaica, advises, that two French Merchantmen, one of 30, the other of 18 Guns, with four Sloops and Brigantines, all homeward bound, were sent in there, by the Edinburgh and Dresdenought Men of War, on the Eighth of August.

ANNAPOLIS, October 16.

Monday last the General Assembly of this Province met here, when the Honourable the Lower House unanimously made Choice of Col. HENRY HOOPER (a Member of Dorchester County) for their Speaker; and his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Esq; our Governor, opened the Session with the following SPEECH, viz.

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly,

As many of you are already acquainted with what passed between the Two Houses of Assembly during our late Sessions, and the Rest of you may easily inform yourselves by recurring to their Journals, I will not enter into a Detail of the Measures which were then pursued; but shall only observe to you, that they were such as unhappily gave Occasion for an odious Distinction to be made between the Inhabitants of Maryland and those of the neighbouring Colonies; and inclined his Majesty's Councils, who were appointed to command his Forces in these Parts, to entertain a very unfavourable Opinion of the People of this Province.

Being however well satisfied myself, that it was far from the Desire of the People in general, to be separated from contributing their Quota for the Revolution, which General Forbes, in Obedience to his Majesty's special Order, was then about to undertake, and in the Event whereof, none could be more interested than themselves, I thought it my Duty to advise the General when I paid him a Visit on the Frontiers of Pennsylvania, that if such Assistance he might have expected from us were not granted, it might seem to be enclosed as a Want of Indignity in the People of Maryland to prosecute the Service, but to an accidental Disturbance in Opinion, and an unhappy Disagreement between the Two Houses of Assembly about the Mode of raising the necessary Supplies, which I sincerely trust would not be the Cause of any future Separation.

By this Representation the General was induced, at your Invitation from a Letter of his which shall be laid before you, to advance a Sum of Money on the Credit of the Province, to encourage the Maryland Troops to continue in the Service during the Campaign, and until the Legislature should meet again, and grant on a Bill for reimbursing his Excellency, and paying off the Arrears, that might be due to Lieutenant Colonel Duguerre, and the Companies under his Command. You will also see, that in Compensation to Mr. Bell, who having Visited our Troops at Fort Cumberland and Fort Mifflin, in Consequence of an Agreement made last Year with the Agents, was greatly distressed by the Assembly's breaking up without paying it in those Gentlemen's Power to pay him, his Excellency hath been pleased to advance him likewise some Money, to support his Credit, until Supplies shall be raised, and the Agents be empowered to pay, what, upon a Settlement, shall appear due to him. I do not exactly know what Mr. Bell's Claim, and the Arrears of Pay that are now due to our Troops, amount to; but I believe the Whole doth not exceed Thirteen or Fourteen Thousand Pounds at the most; a Sum that is very inconsiderable in Comparison of the Supplies which have been granted this Year by the other Colonies for his Majesty's Service, and much less, I am persuaded, than the Inhabitants of this Province can afford, and would cheerfully give, for the same Purpose.

Gentlemen,

What has been now communicated to you, I am desired to recommend, in the first Place, to your Consideration; and that your Attention might not be diverted, I decline mentioning any other Matters; until you shall have come to some Resolution with Regard to the General's Letter, to which, I hope, you will very soon enable me to give such an Answer as might convince him that you insert the Confidence he hath been pleased to repose in this Assembly, and that you Meet determined to demonstrate by your Proceedings, more than by Professions, that you are pleased with the extraordinary Zeal which our Troops have shown for his Majesty's Service, and the Honour of the Province; and that notwithstanding the ill Opinion which some, who are Strangers to the real Principles of the Inhabitants of Maryland, have been led to entertain of them, there are not in his Majesty's Dominions, more loyal nor more dutiful Subjects.

(The Address to be in our next.)

We have several Accounts from the Westward, of the Action on Loyal Hanning on the 13th Instant; but what we think most likely to be depended on, is the following, from a Soldier, who is just come to Town, and left Ray's Tavern on the 10th: That on Friday the 13th about 9 o'Clock in the Morning, about 700 French, and a few Indians, were discovered by our Ballock Guard, which was commanded by Lieutenant Lewis Beall, consisting of about 40 Men, and a Mills or Mile and Half from the Camp: Lieut. Beall immediately sent a few Men off with the Beavers to the Camp, and Advice to Col. Bouquet, and with the Remainder of his Party fought Retiring, so as to prevent the Enemy's making themselves Masters of the Castle; in his Retreat he lost 7 of his Men and some more of them were Wounded. As soon as Col. Bouquet was advised of the Enemy's being so near, he ordered all his Men under Arms, and when Lieutenant Beall, with his Party, was come within 1 or 300 Yards of the Breast-work, the Enemy pursuing him, he was ordered to fall with his Men to the Left, which he did instantly, and three Cannon, which had been planted on the Breast-work, were then fired on the Enemy and did great Execution; upon this the Enemy fled with Precipitation; and a great Number of our Troops, the Highlanders in particular, being ordered to pursue (which they did Six Miles) killed between 2 and 400 of them (among them 4 Indians) and took near 400 Prisoners: Not one of our People was killed before the 7 above mentioned. A good deal of Snow fell more than a Foot high on the Allegany Mountains, so that Waggons could not pass for some Days.

Yesterday last Afternoon proved to be very Rainy, and the Race for Three Pitches, which was to have been then run for, was put off to next Day, when Mr. Barnard's Horse Children, Colonel BARBER's Run, and Mr. Nicholson's Cart the Third, started. The Prize was won by Col. Barber.

Next Day the Twenty Pitches, for which Six Royal, was won by TAYLOR's Oxy, who got the Two last Races.
