P A R I S, March 4.

ACCORDING to the Accounts brought from Pondicherry by the Lys, lately arrived at Port l'Orient, the English at Madras were reduced to a sad Condition, by Sickness among their Troops and Sailors: The Marrattes, who laid Angria's Defeat very much to Heart, have wreaked their Revenge upon Bombay, and carried off a great Booty from that Settlement; and the Affairs of the English would be in a worse Situation, had they not in their Interest one of the principal Nabobs of the Country, who is very hearty in their Cause, and capable of holding the French Forces in play.

L O N D O N, February 11.

Extrañ of a Letter from Corunna, Jan. 1.

"This Day Orders came from the Spanish Court for the Release of a Ship called the N. S. del Carmen, Capt. Joseph del Torre, a Spanish Ship, bound from London to Seville, laden with Bale Goods, which was taken by a French Privateer, and carried into a small Port near Cape Finisterre, and this Day a Declaration from the King of Spain was made public in the Streets, signifying, that all Goods (Ammunition and Provisions excepted) on board of Ships under Spanish Colours, were to go unmolested, the Property of whomsoever."

The Master of an English Ship, lately released from Bayonne for three Months, in order to be exchanged, declares that the English Prisoners are used there more like Pirates than Prisoners of War; he further says, that there are sitting out at said Port, and at Sea, 40 Sail of Privateers, of 14, 16, 24, and 36 Guns each, all which will be ready to put to Sea in May next.

March 12. Yesterday an Account came, that a small Privateer of Guernsey having chased a large French Merchant Man into Bourdeaux Harbour, went in after her, and notwithstanding the latter had cast Anchor, engaged her closely Half an Hour, and then boarded the French Ship, the Crew of which took to their Boats, and the Privateer's Men set Fire to their own Ship, and cut the Cables of the Prize, and have brought her into Portsmouth.

The Ship cut out of Bourdeaux River by a Guernsey Privateer of 16 Guns, we hear, is the Jeune Louise, richly laden from Domingo.

By a Gentleman arrived in Town from Dover we are informed that 600 French Prisoners have been sent on board the Cornwall Man of War at Chatham, and that Dover and the Castle were full of Prisoners that they knew not where to place them.

By an Express this Morning from Bristol there is an Account that a Ship laden with Tobacco from Virginia is lost.

We hear that a Squadron is sailed from Brest; but what Force it consists of, or where bound to, we know not yet; however, it is probable we may soon hear of an Action in the Bay of Biscay, which may, possibly, throw some Light on this much debated Question since the Fight off Mahon, Whether we have a moral Certainty of Victory, when we engage the French on our own Element upon equal Terms?

It is assured proper Measures have been taken to have powerful Squadrons out early this Spring; also for sending sufficient Reinforcements to different Stations, and to augment and repair the Navy.

We learn from Cologne, that the French Train is to be composed of 100 Pieces of Cannon, 24 Pounders; 60 large Mortars, and Ten Hundred Thousand Weight of Powder; all which have been already brought out of the Magazines at Strasburgh.

Some Baggage Waggons are preparing to embark for Germany, and some Pieces of Artillery will shortly be embarked for those Parts.

This Day was shipped for America, Shoes and Leather, to the Amount of 2000 l.

Saturday Night put into Torbay, Admiral Coates and Commodore Stevens, with the Trade under their Convoy.

March 15. On Sunday Morning about nine o'Clock died, in the 66th Year of his Age, at his Grace's Palace at Croyden, the Most Reverend Doctor Thomas Herring, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Primate and Metropolitan of all England, President of the Corporation of the Sons of the Clergy, a Governor of the Charterhouse, and one of the Lords of his Majesty's Most Hon. Privy Council.

His Grace was first elected Bishop of Bangor in 1737, on the Decease of Dr. Cecil; and in 1743 was translated to the See of York, in the room of Dr. Blackburn; and in 1747 was advanced to Canterbury, upon the Death of Dr. Potter.

It is imagined, the Most Reverend Dr. Matthew Hutton, Archbishop of York, who succeeded Dr. Herring in the Bishopricks of Bangor and York, will also succeed him in the Archbishoprick of Canterbury.

We likewise hear that the Bishop of Salisbury will be translated to the Archbishoprick of York; and the Bishop of Peterborough to the See of Salisbury.

Our last Letters from Stockholm acquaint us, that there died lately at Sandso, not far from Eckesid, one Mr. Lawrence Swenson, at the Age of one hundred and ten Years and five Months. He married a third Wife when he was 99, and had by her two Children at a Birth. Instances of this Kind are not very rare in Sweden, where a pure Air, much Exercise, great Temperance, and a regular Course of Life, defend People alike from acute and chronical Distempers.

By private Letters from Dresden, we learn, that the Young Count Sintzendorff Gavernits, Captain of the Saxon Life Guards, who came lately from Warsaw, by the Way of Vienna and Prague, was upon his Arrival arrested. As to the beating up of our Quarters at Hirschfeld, we have some Particulars that are pretty singular; Major Van Goetz and other Officers of Prince Henry's Regiment were invited to a Sapper the Night before, where they sat up pretty late, and the Person who invited him is arrested, as being suspected of having done it by Collusion with the Austrians, who, after all, have no great Occasion to boast, since they left fifty dead upon the Place, and filled seventy Waggons with dying and wounded Persons, among whom was a Prince of Lichtenstein and a Prince of Wirtemberg. This City is to be forfeited, and his Prussian Majesty will have an Army of Observation in the Neighbourhood.

March 3. Yesterday a Message was sent by the House of Commons to the Lords of the Admiralty, with a Bill, desiring their Concurrence, that the Members of the Court-Martial that sat upon Admiral Byng, might be released from their Oath of Secrecy.

The said Court-Martial were ordered to attend the House of Lords, and were examined separately:—The following Questions were ask'd:

1st. Whether you know any Matter that pass'd previous to the Sentence pronounc'd upon Admiral Byng, which may shew that Sentence to be unjust?

2d. Whether you know any Matter that pass'd, previous to the said Sentence, which may shew that Sentence to have been given through any undue Practice or Motive?

3d. Whether you are desirous that the Bill under Consideration of the House, for dispensing with the Oath of Secrecy, should pass into a Law?

4th. Whether you are of Opinion that you have any Particulars to reveal, relative to the Case of, and the Sentence pass'd upon Admiral Byng; which you may judge necessary for his Majesty's Information, and which you think likely to incline to Mercy?

5th. Whether you think yourself restrained, by your Oath of Secrecy, from laying before his Majesty for Mercy, those Matters for inducing his Majesty, which are mentioned or referred to, in that Letter to Lord Lyttleton?

The several Answers of the Court-Martial.

Admiral SMITH's Answer,

To the 1st, Indeed I do not. To the 2d, Indeed I do not. To the 3d, As to myself, I have no Desire of it; but if it will be a Relief to the Consciences of any of my Brethren, it will not be disagreeable to me. To the 4th, I have not indeed, further than I wrote what seemed at that Time the Sense of the whole Court, to a right honourable Member of this House, Lord Lyttleton, signifying, that if it was thought necessary, the Members would willingly attend, to set forth their Reasons that induced them to recommend him to his Majesty's Mercy. To the 5th, As the Sentence and Application for his Majesty's Mercy were the unanimous Resolution of the Court, I apprehend, I am at Liberty to give the Reasons why I requested that Mercy.

Admiral Holbourne, next answered, No, To the four first Questions.

Admiral Norris, To the 1st, I beg to be excused answering that Question, while I am under an Oath of Secrecy. To the 2d, Not I. To the 3d, Yes. To the 4th, declin'd answering.

Admiral Broderick, to all, No.
 Capt. Holmes, to all, No.
 Capt. Geary, to all, No.
 Capt. Boyes, to all, No.
 Capt. Moore, To the two 1st, No. To the 3d, I am desirous it should pass into a Law. To the 4th, Thought himself not at Liberty to answer it.
 Capt. Simcoe, to all, No.
 Capt. Douglass, to all, No.
 Capt. Bently, to all, No.
 Commodore Keppel, No, To the two 1st. To the 3d, Yes, undoubtedly. To the 4th, Not at Liberty.
 Capt. Dennis, No, to all.

After which, the Bill was rejected.

It appeared on Examination of the Court-Martial in the House of Lords Yesterday, that there was but three out of the thirteen that desired the Act to pass, the other ten being satisfied that the Verdict they had given did not proceed from any Influence, English) to mount 16 Carriage Guns, and to be commanded by one Palankey (a very noted Commander) to come on the same Coast.

WILLIAMSBURG, May 13.

On Wednesday arrived in Town about 100 Catawbas, who are returned from Fort-Cumberland with two Shawanese Scalps; and Yesterday, King Heigler, with several of the principal Warriors, had a long private Conference with the Hon. Edmund Atkin, Esq;

And this Day came to Town about 30 Tuscaroras, who have brought with them one Scalp, which they got in a Skirmish with the Shawanese, about 40 Miles above Fort-Cumberland.

May 20. An Express arrived Yesterday from Augusta, who informs us, that last Saturday three Persons were killed and scalped in the Calf-Pasture, in that County, about 40 Miles from the Court-House; and that several Families were missing: The Indians, by their Tracks, were supposed to be between 40 and 50.

Letters from Fort-Cumberland acquaint us, that Serjeant Fent and a Catawba Indian, who were supposed to be killed by the Enemy near Fort Du Quesne, are both come into that Fortress, and have brought with them two Scalps, taken from two Shawanese Indians, whom they prevailed on to accompany them within Sight of the Fort, when watching a proper Opportunity, they killed them both, and scalped them.

All the Indians who were in this City, have left it this Week, on their Way Home.

NEW-YORK, May 16.

Extra of a Letter from Falmouth, dated March 16.

"The Impudence of the French Privateers in these Parts, is unaccountable; not many Days ago, one of them, a Ship of about 20 Guns, took several Vessels in Sight of this Place, and chased the Lisbon Packet, who had Forty Thousand Moldores on board, quite into the Harbour, and came so nigh, that a Gun from the Castle was fired at her; but, as we suppose; she had made her Cruise by the Vessels she took before, stood off, and we have not seen her since.—'Tis said 36 Ships of the Line are to be sent to the Mediterranean, and 18 of the Line also destined for America, which we hope will be with you by the latter End of May, Wind and Weather permitting."

May 23. Captain Barham, of Connecticut, is taken by the French.

Friday last Capt. Dunbar, late of the Snow Polly, from Philadelphia, came here by Land from Boston, having arrived at Cape-Anne the 11th Instant from Louisburg, with 73 others, that had the Misfortune to be taken and carried into Cape-Breton, as has been already mentioned under the Boston Head. Capt. Dunbar informs us,

That he sailed from Cape-Henlopen the 19th Day of December, and was taken the 25th following, by a Privateer Sloop, of 8 Carriage Guns, belonging to Louisburg, to which Place he was sent; that 29 Sail of English Vessels had been sent in there since September last, most of which were already mentioned in the Papers; that the Garrison of Louisburg consisted of about 2500 Men, who were so much in Want of Provisions, that Part of them offered to release a Number of English Seamen, over whom they were Centries, provided they would carry them to Halifax in a Privateer then in the Harbour; which the Seamen agreed to, but the Soldiers, afraid of being detected, fell out among themselves, and put a Stop to the whole; and that not one Vessel of Force was in the Harbour of Louisburg the 3d of this Instant May.

The Price of Provisions, at Louisburg, was, Bread, 6 d. Sterling, per lb. Rum, 20 s. a Gallon; Mutton, 40 Livres a Quarter; Geese and Turkeys the same; and Wine 6 Livres a Bottle.

We hear from Albany, that a few Days ago, a Party of our People were marching between Fort-Edward and Fort William-Henry, they were fired upon by a large Body of French and Indians, and that four of them were killed, and four taken Prisoners.

We hear from Bermuda, that on the 4th of April last, they had a Shock of an Earthquake there, which continued about Half a Minute, but did no Damage, although it was very hard in some Parts of the Country.

On Tuesday last, one Christopher Hefsee, a Grenadier in the 4th Battalion of Royal-Americans, desirous to exercise his Sword, insisted upon a Comrade of his, one Michael Falt, to fight him; which Falt refusing, retreated several Times, 'til the other, at length, obliged him to draw his Sword in his own Defence; when Hefsee, too eager to come to Action, and posted on an Eminence, some how or other unluckily stumbled from thence, and falling on the Point of Falt's Sword, wounded himself in such a Manner that he died immediately. The Coroner's Inquest brought in their Verdict, Se Defendendo.

Yesterday a retaken Snow arrived here. She is called the Enterprize, Capt. Gromwell, from Limerick, bound to Barbados, taken first by a French Letter of Marque Ship from Marfeilles, and 13 Days after Capt. Ball of this Port retook her, laden with Beef, Butter, Neats Tongues, Candles, &c.

PHILADELPHIA, May 26.

On Friday last the Eagle, Capt. Tomlinson, arrived here from London, but last from Torbay, in nine Weeks Passage. He sailed with the East and West-India Convoys; the former under Commodore Stevens, the latter commanded by Admiral Coates.

The same Day came up the William and Mary, of Bristol, Captain Southcot, from Cadiz: On his Passage, the 25th of April, about Two in the Morning, it being very dark, and squally Weather, he met with the Thomas and Mary, Captain Reed, from Jamaica for London, and neither of the Vessels seeing the other, they ran foul; by which Captain Reed's Vessel had the Rails of her Head, Fore Shrouds and Chains, Foretopmast, and Sheet Anchor carried away, and her Bows stove in; and Captain Southcot's Vessel lost her Head, Cutwater, Bolt-sprit, Head of her Fore Mast, and Foretopmast, and received considerable other Damage. The Thomas and Mary filled so fast, that notwithstanding their continual Pumping, and using all other Endeavours to clear her, she sunk betwixt Five and Six in the Morning; but Captain Southcot seeing her sinking about Five o'Clock, six or seven Miles from him, made for her, in order to save the People, who had got into the Long-boat, and came up with them about Eight o'Clock, all which he took on board, and brought in here with him.

We hear from Carlisle, that John Paul, and one Martin, were lately taken by six Indians, near Maxwell's Fort, in Conococheague, and carried to the Great Cove; but that Paul made his Escape from them in the Night, not being very securely tied, and got into Fort Loudoun. It is said he offered to untie Martin, and take him with him; but he was afraid of the Indians tracking them, and refused to go.

We also hear from the same Place, That one William Walker was lately killed near M'Corrick's Fort, about six Miles from Shippensburg, and his Servant Girl carried off Prisoner.

Since our last we received Advice from Lancaster, that on the 17th Instant, five Men and a Woman (who was big with Child) were killed and scalped by the Indians, about 30 Miles from that Place, and that the Bodies of three of the Men, and the Woman, had been brought down there by some in the Neighbourhood where the Murders were committed.

We are likewise informed, that an Express arrived in Lancaster on Saturday Morning last, with an Account of seven People being killed in one House the Night before. And there are Letters in Town, which advise of more Murders being committed, the Number uncertain; but it is thought there are above Twenty destroyed, besides what may be carried off; and that the Frontier Inhabitants are in great Distress, and moving from their Plantations as fast as they can. The Number of the Indians that have done, and are doing the Mischief, not known. These late Murders have been done in Hanover, Lebanon, Bethel and Paxton Townships, all in Lancaster County.

On Tuesday Night a Fire happened in the Bake-house of one Frederick Baker, in Second-street, which entirely consumed the same; but by the immediate Assistance of the Inhabitants (for which they are remarkable on such Occasions) and it being a still Night, it was prevented from doing further Damage.

ANNAPOLIS, June 2

This Morning Charles Carroll, senior, Esq; of this Place, left the Town, in order to embark in the Anne-Galley, Capt. Hamilton, for London, who will sail from Patuxent To-morrow or next Day.

Last Week Mr. Reverdy Ghifelin, was appointed Clerk of the Provincial Court Office, in the Room of Mr. William Slighs, Deceased.

A very considerable Trader to the West-Indies, in a Letter to Mr. Matthew Dockery, at Chester-Mill, writes thus, "I am pleased to find, that

THE Subscriber having by a great Application acquired a reasonable Knowledge of the ENGLISH GRAMMAR, he proposes to Teach the same at the FREE SCHOOL of Annapolis. Those Parents who cannot afford their Sons spending several Years in the learning of Greek and Latin, may, by this Proposal, procure to them the only Benefit commonly expected from these Languages, THE LEARNING OF THEIR OWN: Besides, their Daughters can as easily enjoy the same Advantage. As he does not take upon himself to Teach English Pronunciation (which will be Taught, as usual, by Mr. Wilmot) he hopes no judicious Person will make any Objection to his being a Foreigner; and that, as his Proposal is of a self-evident Advantage to Youth, he will meet with good Encouragement. His Terms are very moderate, being only Thirty Shillings, additionally to what is allowed to Mr. Wilmot. WILLIAM CLAJON.

N. B. This will make no Alteration to the Price given me for Teaching French, Latin and Greek.

BOOK-BINDING is now carried on at the Sign of the BIBLE in Charles-Street, Annapolis, in the neatest, best, and cheapest Manner.

Annapolis, May 5, 1757.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Inhabitants of Anne-Arundel County, That the Tenth of June, being the Time affix'd by Law for paying the Public, Clergy, and Officers Fees, draws very near, and as very few have yet paid, I give this public Notice, to all Persons that are indebted for Tobacco, or Money, on their Sheriff's Accounts, that they may take due Care to make due Payments by the Time the Law directs, or else such Measures as are legal will be taken to secure such Debts as shall be due. And, as this will be my last Year's Collection, I think no Gentleman can or will expect that I should lie so long out of my Tobacco, or Money, as to be obliged to put it into some other Sheriff's Hands to collect. Constant Attendance will be given every Wednesday and Thursday, at my Office, in Annapolis, to settle with all Gentlemen who are indebted for Sheriff's Accounts, &c.

And as very little Regard has yet been paid to my repeated Advertisements for the Payment of his Lordship's Quit-Rents, or the Land-Tax, I once more give this friendly Notice, to all Persons concerned, That if they do not, without Loss of Time, comply, I will collect them at their Expence, though much against my Inclination.

All Retailers are desired to be more punctual in their Payments, to prevent the Law being put in Force against them: All private Consumers are desired to make their Payments which were due the 25th of last Month: And, all wholesale Dealers are desired to make their Returns, every three Months, at least, agreeable to Law, or expect to have it put in Force against them. A due Compliance with the above, will greatly oblige

JOHN RAITT, Sheriff, Collector, and Receiver, in Anne-Arundel County.

ANDREW THOMPSON, ROPE-MAKER,

In Annapolis, who formerly lived with Mr. James Dick, in London-Town,

IS now removed to Mr. John Golder's, near the Town-Gate, where he carries on the ROPE-MAKING BUSINESS in all its Branches, and where all Persons may be supplied with ROPES of any Kind, black or white: And all those who shall be pleased to favour him with their Custom, may depend on being faithfully served with the best of Ropes, by

Their most humble Servant,

ANDREW THOMPSON.

N. B. He has plenty of TRACES and PLOUGH-LINES by him, which he will sell at the most reasonable Rates.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living near Pig-Point, in Anne-Arundel County, some Time in January last, Two Country-born Negro Men; the one called Ned, and the other Will: They are both young active Fellows, and it is supposed have been harboured for some Time in the Neighbourhood. One of the said Negroes has got the following Cloaths with him, viz. one red and white striped Waistcoat, one Pair of Cherry-derry Trowsers, one Pair of white Trowsers, one Pair of Cloth Breeches, one fine white Linen Shirt, one Pair of white Cotton Stockings, one Pair of black Leather Shoes, Shoe Buckles, and a pretty good Hat with Gold Lace set round the Brim, besides Working Cloaths; from whence it is thought that they may endeavour to go to some other Province.

Whoever takes up the said Negroes, and secures them in any Goal, shall have a Reward of Forty Shillings for each, besides what the Law allows.

SUSANNA JOHSON.

To be Sold by the Subscriber, for ready Money, at Mr. Carroll's Warehouse, in Annapolis,

THERE is at the Plantation of Rearnhart Swider, in Frederick County, taken up as a Stray, a Black Mare about 7 Years old, paces a little, and has a small Snip upon her Nose.

The Owner may have her again, on proving his Property, and paying Charges.

THERE is at the Plantation of Christian Tomer, at Little Pipe-Creek, in Frederick County, taken up as a Stray, a small Bay Horse, branded on the near Buttock P R.

The Owner may have him again, on proving his Property, and paying Charges.

April 7, 1757.

FOUR PISTOLES REWARD.

RAN away on the 6th of March last, from the Subscriber, living at London-Town, a Convict Servant Man, named Edward Merriott, by Trade a Joyner, he is about 5 Feet 4 Inches high, much pitted with the Small-Pox, has a hoarse Way of Speaking, is a well-set Fellow, with large Eye-Brows, and a full red Face, like one that drinks hard, he is about 50 Years of Age, and has short, black, curl'd Hair. Had on when he went away, a blue Fearnought Jacket, much worn, another light colour'd Jacket, lined with red, a Pair of grey Halfthick Breeches, light Yarn ribb'd Stockings, much darned, Country made Shoes, an Osnabrigs Shirt, and an old Worsted Cap. He has got a forged Pass.

Whoever takes up the said Servant, and secures him, so as he may be had again, after the Date of this Advertisement, shall receive Four Pistoles Reward; and reasonable Charges paid, if brought home, by WILLIAM BROWN.

N. B. He was taken up and carried before Mr. George Fraser, living on Patowmack River; but, on being examined, he told Mr. Fraser, that he belonged to Capt. Hamilton, lying in Patuxent; whereupon he was ordered to be carried to the Ship, and in his Way escaped from them.

WHEREAS the Subscriber has made a Practice, for some Time past, of Letting out of Horses, &c. for Hire, to Travellers; but having had several Kill'd, and others very much Abused, he is determined to Hire out no more, of which he gives this Public Notice, that no Body may be disappointed in expecting them from him.

N. B. He keeps Ferry as usual; and has good Boats to carry Passengers either up the Bay, or down to any Part of Virginia.

H A G U E, March 3.

COUNT D'Affry, Minister Plenipotentiary from France, in Obedience to his Majesty's Order, has had a solemn Conference with the Deputies of the States-General, to whom he presented the following Memorial:

High and Mighty Lords,

THE King, my Master, exclusive of the defensive Engagements which he has contracted with the Empress Queen, by Virtue of the Treaty of Versailles, of the first of May last, is bound as Guaranty of the Peace of Westphalia, and of the Germanic Constitution and Liberties, to assist those Princes, who, being unjustly oppressed or threatened with approaching Oppression, require the Performance of such Guaranty.

"In Consequence of the Request made by the several States of the Empire, his Majesty intends to assemble, on the Lower Rhine, an Army more or less numerous, and to act in one Body, or to be divided into several Corps, as the Situation and Interest of his Allies may require.

"The King having in View the Safety and Tranquillity of his Friends and Neighbours, desires nothing more sincerely, than to contribute to re-establish Peace, as soon as possible, upon sure and equitable Terms. His Majesty's Troops will begin their March from the 14th, to the 30th of March, to encamp between the Rhine and the Maese, near Dusseldorf. Great Care will be taken to prevent giving any just Cause of Complaint to any Power whatsoever, but more especially to the States-General.

"The King depending upon their High Mightinesses inviolable Observance of the Treaty of Neutrality they have entered into, will, on his Part, on all Occasions, continue to give them the clearest Proofs how much he has their Prosperity at Heart.

"The King's Troops, so far from undertaking any Thing which can cause any Uneasiness to their High Mightinesses, will act in their Defence, and for their Protection, in Case that in Consequence of their Neutrality, any Attempts should be made upon their Tranquillity, Liberty, or Commerce.

"The King, my Master, will voluntarily communicate to the States-General, such further Resolutions as he shall determine, in Pursuance of his Foresight and Engagements, as Circumstances may require.

"His Majesty expects, from the Equity and Friendship of their High Mightinesses, that they will not listen to any false Insinuations that may be made Use of, to impose upon them, and that they will place an entire Confidence in the Assurances given them by his Majesty of the Sincerity, and evident Sentiments of the Esteem and Affection he has for their Republic. Sign'd, Count D'AFFRY.

From hence we may see how dangerous it would be for France to have the House of Austria rendered as absolute in the German Empire, as the Power of the House of Bourbon is in the Kingdom of France. But this might probably in a very little Time, be the Consequence, should France now assist in demolishing the House of Brandenburg; for we know how much the great Houses of Germany, to wit, the Saxon, the Palatine, and the Bavarian, have formerly suffered by the Quarrels with the House of Austria, which were spirited up by the Intrigues of France; and if the House of Brandenburg should now be ruined, or reduced by the same Means, it will hereafter be very difficult for France to raise up any Opposition to the House of Austria in Germany, or to prevail with any Prince of the Empire to join with her in an Alliance against any future Emperor of the House of Austria; especially if that House should once be strengthened and established, by having a considerable Number of Male Heirs, and the imperial Dignity, as well as the Succession to the Austrian Dominions, thereby secured to the Male Heir of that Family.

We must therefore conclude, that the French Court never had a more difficult Game to play than at this present Conjunction: It is very much their Interest to prevent the House of Brandenburg's being much reduced: On the other Hand, it will be very difficult for them to preserve their Alliance with the House of Austria, without giving effectual Assistance to the Queen of Hungary, for pushing her Conquests against Prussia, as far as she may be prompted by a Spirit of Revenge; and if, by the Trimming of the Court of France between the Two, they should themselves come to an Accommodation, it may unite Germany in a Confederacy of the most dangerous Consequence to France. From all which we must see, that Great-Britain never had more need of able Ministers at home, and able Negotiators at the several Courts of Europe, than it has at this present Crisis; for by them we may do more Service both to ourselves and to Europe, than we can do by all the Money, and all the Troops we can send to the Assistance of the King of Prussia.

THE Commons have granted 48,926l. to defray the Expence of four Regiments on the Irish Establishment in North-America for 1757. Late last Night the House agreed to the Amendments on the Militia Bill, and ordered it to be ingrossed.

The two following Letters are those that were transmitted to Mr. Byng by the Secretary of State. The first was writ in English, by Mr. Voltaire, and inclosed another from the Duke de Richelieu to that celebrated Writer; of which the second printed here is a Translation.

To the Honourable JOHN BYNG, Esq;
 S I R,
THOUGH I am almost unknown to you, I think 'tis my Duty to send you the Copy of the Letter which I have just received from the Marshal Duke de Richelieu: Honour, Humanity, and Equity, order me to convey it into your Hands. This noble and unexpected Testimony from one of the most candid, as well as the most generous of my Countrymen, makes me presume your Judges will do you the same Justice. I am with Respect, Sir, &c.
 VOLTAIRE.

S I R,
I AM very sensibly concerned for Admiral Byng; I do assure you, whatever I have seen or heard of him, does him Honour. After having done all that Man could reasonably expect from him, he ought not to be censured for suffering a Defeat. When two Commanders contend for Victory, tho' both are equally Men of Honour, yet one must necessarily be worsted; and there is nothing against Mr. Byng but his being worsted; for his whole Conduct was that of an able Seaman, and justly worthy of Admiration. The Strength of the two Fleets was at least equal: The English had 13 Ships, and we 12, much better equip'd, and much cleaner. Fortune that presides over all Battles, and especially those that are fought at Sea, was more favourable to us than our Adversaries, by sending our Balls into their Ships with greater Execution. I am persuaded, and it is a generally received Opinion, that if the English had obstinately continued the Engagement, their whole Fleet would have been destroyed. In short, there can be no higher Act of Injustice than what is now attempted against Admiral Byng: And all Men of Honour, and all Gentlemen of the Army, are particularly interested in the Event. RICHELIEU.
 I received this original Letter from Marshal Duke Richelieu the first of January 1757. In Witness of which I have signed my Name.

March 3. The French King, in his Letter to his Daughter the Dutchess of Parma, on his Recovery from the late Accident, expressed himself in the following Manner. "The Wound in my Body is healed; but so deep a Wound is left on my Mind, that I would willingly part with Life to efface so great a Blot from the Annals of my Reign."

Saturday Morning 130000l. Sterling in Silver Coin was sent to Portsmouth under a proper Guard. It is to be embarked on board his Majesty's Ship the Newark, bound for America; and is for the Use of the Forces in North-America, and those going thither.

A PRINT is privately Sold at the Hague, which Represents, the Empress-Queen in a Coach, the French King on the Coach-Box, and the Elector of Saxony (in a Polish Dress, behind the Coach) as a Footman. The Coach comes to a Gate, where the King of Prussia stands Centry: He asks the Queen, Whither she is Driving? She answers, My Coachman will tell you: The Coachman says, I am driving her into a Slough: Then, Drive on Coachman, says the Centry.

Yesterday were shipped for New-England 10,000 lb. of Gun-Powder, and 938 ct. of Lead and Lead-Shot; also 200 Pieces and 4000 Yards of British Linn for Jamaica. And this Day were shipped for Virginia 6500l. of Gun-Powder, and 80 ct. of Iron.

March 24. It is reported, that four Men of War are failed to reinforce Admiral West: And the Report continues, that four French Men of War and a Frigate have put back to Brest.

Admiral Byng has bequeathed to his Nephew, the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Torrington, the fine Picture of the King of Sardinia, enriched with Diamonds, which was presented him by that Monarch, for his Services in the Mediterranean during the last War.

Extract of a Letter from Jersey, dated on board the Charming-Nancy Privateer of that Island, Captain Winter, who has been out about three Weeks.

"We have brought in here a French Privateer of six Carriage Guns, 14 Swivels, and Fifty Men; also a French Sloop loaded with Wheat and Peas; and a Brig from Bourdeaux to Nantz, laden with Wine and Flour, and six 12 Pounders, Guns and two Anchors for a Privateer; we took a Brig which we had but just Time to ransom; we also took another Brig, loaded with Cheese, but retaken; we afterwards chased three large Ships going into Bourdeaux River, who run up the Bank, called the Olive, two of which, in less than an Hour after were lost, and the Men went ashore in their Boats; the third, being about 400 Tons, our Boats were manned, and got her off the Bank, and proved to be a St. Domingo Man, laden with Sugar, Coffee, Cotton, and Indico; but she was so damaged with striking on the Banks, that our Men could not possibly keep her free; upon which we brought her to an Anchor, and took out about 50 or 60 Hogsheds of Indico; soon after which she sunk. And in the Interim a French Bark taking us for a Man of War of the same Nation, that was assisting this Ship, came in close to us, tho' we had English Colours, which she took for a Signal: This Bark we also made a Prize of; she is laden with fine Wines, Hams, Pitch, Oars, &c. All for the French King's Account.

Some Time ago a Paper was found under the French King's Napkin, on which was written, 'Our Father, and uncontrollable Monarch, who art at Versailles, glorious is thy Name, and thy Kingdom will be established whilst thou rulest in Righteousness, with Justice and Clemency; and thy Will by all thy peaceable, loving and dutiful Subjects, not only at Versailles, but through the whole Kingdom of France, will be obeyed; and we pray that our Tranquillity may be restored; and forgive us all our lesser Faults; but do thou avenge thine and our Cause on the Archbishop of Paris, and all his cursed Fraternity: And O King, from the Scarlet Whore, and the Devil d'Argenson, deliver us; for thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory; and we will pray that thy Reign may be long and prosperous while here on Earth, and at Death thou mayest exchange this fading Crown for an Everlasting Crown of Glory, Amen.' From hence the Motive for the late Attempt on his Majesty's Life seems explained; and that the Design has not been sooner executed, as probably arose for Want of finding a more proper Instrument than Inclination.

Portsmouth, March 22. To satisfy your Enquiry, as to the Ceremony used in the Execution of the late Admiral Byng, I am to acquaint you, that the Place where Offenders generally die by shooting is on the Forecastle; but he was so far indulged as to suffer on the Quarter-Deck.

Twelve o'Clock being the Time fixed for his Death, Capt. Montague looking at his Watch, acquainted him the Time was come. The Admiral returned for Answer, it wanted some Minutes, and he would stay to the last; however he soon came up with a becoming Steadiness, though there was a visible Trembling, as the Struggles of Nature cannot be hid from an observing Eye. A white Neckcloth he tied over his Eyes. A Canvas Cushion being laid, and upon that a green Velvet one, on which he kneeled, he gave the Signal for firing, by dropping a red and white Handkerchief. Nine Marines were appointed, six to fire first, three kneeling and three standing; five Shot went through his Body into the Ship's Side, and so far, that they could not be bored out with a Gimblet and one lay in his Body.—The Reason assigned for no Blood issuing is, that his Body was wrapped round with Cotton in such a curious Manner, as that not one Drop appeared.

He fell on his Left Side, and made but one Shudder in the Agonies of Death, upon which a Cloak was thrown over him till the Coffin was ready to receive him, into which he was put, with all the Cloaths he had on except his Coat.

The Chaplain of the Monarque attended him from Thursday Morning to the last, and it is said had a Prefert of six 36 Shilling Pieces.

The Shot-Holes in the Monarque's Sides have since been plugg'd up.

The Inscription on the Coffin is: The Hon. JOHN BYNG died March 14, 1757, aged 52.

March 23. Admiral Osborn is returned to take the Command, and this Morning hoisted his Flag on board the Barfleur at Spithead, having succeeded Mr. Byng in his Flag.

H A L I F A X, May 7.

Saturday last a Party arrived here from Pisquit, who brought Advice, that a Number of French having collected together about 90 Head of Cattle, with an Intent to carry them off, which the English having Intelligence of, sent out a Party of Men to intercept them; that the French drew up together, in order for an Engagement, but seeing the English too numerous for them, they immediately betook themselves to the Woods, and made their Escape, leaving the Cattle, which were drove to the Fort by our Party.

B O S T O N, May 23.

Captain Spender, in eight Weeks from Torbay, in England, came out with a Fleet of between one and two Hundred Sail of Merchantmen, chiefly bound to the West-Indies, under Convoy of Admiral Coates with 7 Sail of the Line: That the Men of War kept such a good Look-out, that scarcely a French Vessel escaped them.—In Capt. Spender came his Majesty's Pardon for Capt. Hewes, who was tried and condemned at Providence, in Rhode-Island Government, last Fall, for beating his Cooper on the High-Seas to such a Degree that he died.

Wednesday the Privateer Ship Hertford, commanded by Capt. Thomas Lewis, lately fitted out from this Place, brought into our Harbour a valuable Prize, a Ship of about 240 Tons, which he took about three Weeks ago, to the Southward of Bermuda, in Lat. 29. She was bound from Porto Prince, in Hispaniola, to Old-France; her-Cargo is said to consist of 400 Hogsheds of Sugar, and a considerable Quantity of Indico, Cotton, Wool, Hides, &c. valued at about 9000l. Sterling. She failed out with four other Vessels bound also to France, which parted from her a Day or two before she was taken: One of which is the Prize carried into Bristol, as undermentioned; and another of them is said to be the trading Sloop that was seized at Rhode-Island as mentioned in our last. The two other Vessels, they say, failed the Day before them for Cape-Breton.

Several French Letters found on board this Prize confirm the Arriyal of the Squadron commanded by Mons. Beaufremont; and that he had sent out two Frigates to clear the Coast of our Privateers; but that the English Squadron approaching, they ran into Porto Paix, and informed the French Admiral thereof; who thereupon put to Sea, and a great Number of Cannon were heard for several Hours; so that we may expect to hear of some smart Engagement.

'Tis said that four French Ships of War have been cruising on the Windward Coast of Guiney, and cleared that Coast of most of the English Vessels trading there.

The same Day failed from this Harbour on a Cruize, the Province Ship of War, King George, Capt. Hallowell.

We hear from Bristol, in Rhode-Island Government, that Capt. Mark Anthony De Wolf, in a Privateer Sloop of 50 Tons, with 40 Hands, and 6 Guns, belonging to Warren, failed from thence the 24th of April, and put into Newport, from whence she failed three Days after; and on the Fourth of this Instant May, to the Northward of Bermuda, took a French Snow of 150 Tons, with 11 Men, who made but little Resistance, having but two Guns, and not one killed or wounded on either Side. The Privateer returned with her Prize to Bristol the 15th, having finished this Cruize in three Weeks to an Hour. The Cargo of the Snow consists of 200 Hogsheds of Sugar, a Quantity of Coffee, Indico, Elephants Teeth, Logwood, &c. and was bound from St. Domingo for Old-France.

Capt. Jones, who arrived here last Friday in 12 Days from Halifax, informs us, that he failed from thence in Company with about 16 Sail of Vessels for different Parts, under Convoy of his Majesty's Ship Success, Capt. Rous: That between Cape Nichola and the Isle of Sables, he saw a Sail, which he took to be a Rogue, when he stood to the Success, and acquainted the Captain with the same, who immediately gave Chace, soon came up with her, and fired a Gun, when she hove to, and proved to be a black Schooner. Capt. Jones says he saw her lay along Side the Success about an Hour, after which he saw about 50 or 60 Hands on board her, standing direct for Halifax, which makes him conclude she was a French Privateer.

We have Advice from George's Fort, at the Eastward, that the Beginning of last Week a Number of Indians were seen skulking round the Fort, upon whom the Soldiers fired, and killed and scalped one, but it was thought they killed more, as they recovered three or four Guns, and about 90 lb. of Beaver.

We hear from Providence in Rhode-Island, that last Friday Night was sent in there a Prize Sloop of about 70 Tons, taken by the Privateer Sloop Black Snake, of said Providence, on the 13th of April last, Captain Tyler Commander, laden with Logwood, Hides, and a great Quantity of Indico, &c. Capt. Sweeting, who went out Commander of the above Privateer, and who put in Capt. Tyler for this Cruize, took a Snow, and in Consort with a Privateer belonging to New-Providence, took a Ship, richly laden, and carried them both into New-Providence. Capt. Tyler was taken at the Commencement of the present War, and carried into one of the French West-India Islands, where he was close confined in Goal, and very ill treated, till he got his Release by a Flag of Truce.

Extract of a Letter from Halifax, dated May 7, 1757.

"The Indians have carried off 4 Men (one of them named William Fillis) from the Head of the North-West Arm, about three Quarters of a Mile from Town, where they were working at a Saw-mill: It is thought they are carried to Louisburg, as we think the Enemy want Intelligence very much at this Time. Parties have been out, but to no Purpose."

Extract of a Letter from Cadiz, dated April 16, 1757.

"As to News, we have an Account by Yesterday's Post of 6 Sail of French Men of War (4 being of 70 Guns) putting into Malaga Road; and from Gibraltar we hear, that as soon as Admiral Saunders heard of them, he immediately put out, with six Sail, viz. two of 70, two of 60, and two of 50 Guns. The above is confirmed by a Ship who fell in with Admiral Saunders standing for Malaga, so by next Post we expect to hear of a smart Engagement. 'Tis said the above French Men of War are coming through the Streights, bound to the Westward."

N E W - Y O R K, May 30.

Thursday and Friday last returned here from their Cruizes, the following Privateers, viz. the Brig Hawke, Capt. Alexander; the Sloop Charming-Sally, Capt. Harris, and Brig Johnson, Capt. Grig, each of 12 Carriage Guns; and brought in with them Five French Prizes, to wit, Three Ships, a Snow, and a Brig, which they took out of a Fleet of 27 Sail, between the 7th and 12th Instant, off the West-Caucases, as they were bound from Cape Francois to Bourdeaux;—They were under Convoy of Five French Men of War of the Line, and a Frigate, when our Privateers descried them, and left the Cape but 2 Days before they were taken. Guns each, are Letters of Marque, flood a hot Engagement of some Hours, and our Vessels were obliged to board them before they struck;— they are at least 300 Tons, the Snow is about 250, and the Brig about 200 Tons, deep loaded with Sugar, Coffee, Cotton, &c. And, we hear, one of the Ships has between 80 and 100,000 lbs. of Indico on board. The Whole, at the lowest Computation, is valued at about 70 Thousand Pounds Currency.

Capt. Grig had 3 Men killed in the Engagement, William Coils, Hugh M'Ates, and Duncan M'Cullum, and himself and 14 others wounded; but the Captains Alexander and Harris happily had none either killed or wounded.

Capt. Alexander, in the Hawke, a Day or two before they fell in with the abovementioned Fleet, took a valuable Schooner, bound from the Cape to Europe, and ordered her for Bermuda, where she was to lay a Fortnight, and then to proceed hither, so that, in all Probability, her Arrival here may be look'd for every Day.

Some of the Prisoners taken in the above Prizes, say, That the Five Line of Battle Ships and Frigate, when they left the Convoy, in a certain Lat. were to proceed directly for Louisburg; and that the Greenwich Man of War, lately taken from the English, was at Anchor in the Cape; from which it is natural to think, that either the Want of Men or Provisions, render the French unable to fit her out.

Capt. Lyel arrived here Yesterday in 6 Weeks from the Bay of Honduras: He came out in Company with Capt. Guilford, of this Port, and off Cape Antonio; they saw Twelve Sail of large French Ships, one of which he took to be of 80, and another of 74 Guns, steering, he was well assured, for the Mississippi.

The Doctor and some of the Crew late belonging to the Privateer Snow Earl of Loudoun, Capt. Valentine, of this Port, came home in the abovementioned Privateers, having joined them at Jamaica, and acquaint us, That on the 18th of March last they had the Misfortune to fall in with two French Frigates, whom they engaged for some Time, in Hopes of getting clear, but was at length obliged to strike, after having Mr. Forfey, their Master, and another Man, killed: And in a Day or two after, they were, to their very great Joy, retaken by the Privateer Sloop Elizabeth, Capt. Horton, of this Port, and Capt. Hanfen, of Antigua, and sent down to Jamaica.

We have now in this Port 20 Privateers, who only wait Permission to proceed on their respective Cruizes; and three Ships, two of which are to carry Twenty-four 9 Pounders, and the other Eighteen 6 Pounders, will be launched in a few Weeks, belonging to this Port also.

PHILADELPHIA, June 2.

By Captain Allison, from Antigua, we have an Account of the following Vessels, bound to Antigua, being taken by the French, and carried into Guadaloupe, viz. Capt. Butler, in a Snow from Boston; Capt. Townsend, in a Schooner, and Capt. Parker, in a Sloop, both from Maryland.

Captain Tallin, of Lancaster, in a Snow from Guiney, bound also for Antigua, was likewise taken; but the Captain of the Privateer that took him, after taking out above 160 Negroes, returned the Vessel, and put some English Prisoners on board her, who arrived at Antigua the First of May.

Since our last Captain Rench arrived here from Newry, which Place he left the Eighth of April. They had then no Advice there of the Men of War being arrived at Cork that were to convoy the Transports with the Forces to North-America, but they were looked for every Hour; that the Troops were all ready to embark upon their Arrival; and that it was thought they might sail about the Middle of April.

We hear from Carlisle, that several skulking Indians are daily seen near that Place, which gives the Inhabitants a good Deal of Uneasiness.

Extra of a Letter from Heidelberg, in Berks County, dated the 30th ult.

“Just now a Messenger arrived, who informs, than on Saturday last one Eckinrod, of Linn Township, in Northampton County, was shot and scalped by some Indians behind his House, near the Wood Side; that one of his Sons, about eight Years of Age, was carried off; and his Daughter, about six Years old, shot through her Right-arm, but escaped, and is likely to do well. She says she saw two Indians; and another of Eckinrod's Sons saw two Indians scalping his Father, but had Time to run off.”

ANNAPOLIS, June 9.

The Embargo on all Shipping, bound from this Province for Great-Britain or Ireland, was last Week taken off.

On the 27th past, John Grimshaw was Executed at Upper-Marlborough, pursuant to his Sentence at their last Assizes, for Burglary.

We just now hear, that Capt. Judson Coolidge, in the John and Anne, is arrived in Patuxent, from London, but last from Falmouth in seven Weeks; with whom came Passenger Mr. Lloyd Buchanan, of Baltimore-Town. That there came two other Ships into the Bay with him, one of them the Duke, Capt. Maitland, into Patuxent; and the Trial, Capt. Scott, now coming up the Bay.

For what News they may have brought, we must refer our Readers to our next Week's Gazette; if Good, 'twill be then Welcome; if Bad, 'twill be soon enough.—It is said the great Mr. Pitt is removed, on Account of his bad State of Health, and Inability of Attendance, from being one of the principal Secretaries of State, and Lord Egmont put in his Place: That the Kings of Denmark and Sweden having declared they would stand by the King of Prussia, in case the Russians should assist the Empress Queen, the latter had stopp'd their March: That his R. H. the Duke was gone over to Hanover to take the Command of an Army of 70,000 Men, &c. &c.

CUSTOM-HOUSE, ANNAPOLIS, Enter'd NONE. Cleared for Departure.

Schooner Anson, Henry Coffin, for Newry; Ship Hayfield, Robert Henderfon, for Newry; Brig Betty and Peggy, Patrick M'Entegart, for Dublin;

Snow Eugene, John Cole, for Bristol; Ship Betsey, Nicholas Andrew, for Bristol; Brig Defiance, William Street, for Southampton.

H. CALLISTER, Agent for FOSTER CUNLIFFE and SONS, Esqrs. desires all Debtors to their Concern at Oxford, to make Payment in Cash or Tobacco, or in Wheat so long as he is willing to take it; and those who are not able to make immediate Payment, are desired to come and settle.

As he is conscious of having hitherto treated his Debtors with exemplary Lenity, notwithstanding the malicious Aspersions on his Character by a Set of abandon'd and ungrateful Wretches, whose desperate Circumstances constrain'd him to take the Steps necessary to secure the Interest he has Charge of, and such Aspersions have been with more Ill-Nature fomented by others: As it must be evident to all dispassionate and discerning honest Men, that he has hitherto adhered to the strictest Rules of Humanity in collecting the Debts due to his Constituents, and given their Debtors the fairest and happiest Alternative in the Method of Payments that the Heart of an honest Man can desire, and which they cannot with Justice claim, having constantly given higher Prices to his Debtors than he could purchase for of others, and taking a losing Commodity; he is still consistent, and will have all the Patience a reasonable Man can wish, on taking Bonds, or good Surety, where the Circumstances of the Debtor appear to him precarious. This he is induced to from the Consideration of the present Times bearing hard on many, and purely for their own Sakes, for he has had his Patience already tried and abused, and does not think himself obliged to suspend the Rigour of Justice. This, it is hoped, People will reflect upon, and alter their Conduct with regard to him.

He has still on Hand, a considerable Quantity of European and West-India GOODS, both old and fresh, which he will sell cheap for ready Tobacco, Cash, or Wheat.

June 9, 1757.

ALL Persons indebted to the PAPER CURRENCY OFFICE, are required to pay the INTEREST due on their BONDS within Six Months from the Date hereof, otherwise the Bonds will be put in Suit.

Signed per Order of the Commissioners,

RICHARD DORSEY, Clerk of the Paper Currency Office.

THE Reverend Mr. MALCOLM does hereby let the Subscribers, for his LATIN GRAMMAR, know, That the First Volume is ready to be delivered to them, at Mr. Green's PRINTING-OFFICE in Annapolis, either in Sheets, Stitched, or Bound; they paying for the Stitching or Binding.

THOMAS WILLS, BARBER and PERUKE-MAKER, From LONDON,

At his Shop near the Inspection-House in BALTIMORE-TOWN,

UNDERTAKES to serve all Gentlemen, who shall be pleased to favour him with their Employ, in WIGS of all Kinds and Fashions, as undernoted: In which Particular he promises they shall be as good as from London, as he has now purchased a large Stock of English Hairs of all Colours, and as he proposes to keep the best Workmen in his Employ, and to regulate his Fashions by the Mode from London: He makes no Doubt of giving entire Satisfaction, both in the Goodness and Cheapness of his Work, which will be considerably under the London Prices:— Full Dress Wigs of all Kinds from 1 l. 10 s. to 5 l. Currency. Cut Bobs and Ques of all Kinds from 1 l. 10 s. to 5 l. Currency.

The Method he proposes to take in answering his Commissions is, That the Gentlemen forward their Orders to himself, or to any of their Friends living in Baltimore-Town, expressing the Colour and Fashion of the Wig, and Dimensions of the Caul, and the Price about which they would have them, and he will immediately on Receipt thereof, have the Wigs made up, agreeable to the Directions, and sent by the first Opportunity; and on Receipt of the Wigs, the first Cost and other Charges to be paid. And that the Gentlemen may be the better satisfied that Justice is done them in the Prices, if they don't please at Sight, they are not bound to take them from

Their most humble Servant,

THOMAS WILLS.

STRAYED away from the Patuxent Iron-Works, on the 29th of April last, a middle-siz'd Sorrel Horse, branded F G, he has a large Star in his Forehead, a hanging Mane, a bushy Tail, and paces and trots; he has been used to draw in a Waggon, and had on a small Bell when he went away.

Also Strayed away, at the same Time, a middle-siz'd Bay Mare, branded on the Buttock T S, and on the Shoulder T; she trots and gallops, and has been used to draw in a Waggon. It is thought they will keep together, as they both came from the back Parts of Frederick County.

Whoever takes up the said Creatures, and brings them to the Subscriber, shall have Twenty Shillings Reward for both, or Ten Shillings for either of them, paid by THOMAS SNOWDEN.

THE Subscriber having by a great Application acquired a reasonable Knowledge of the ENGLISH GRAMMAR, he proposes to Teach the same at the FREE SCHOOL of Annapolis. Those Parents who cannot afford their Sons spending several Years in the learning of Greek and Latin, may, by this Proposal, procure to them the only Benefit commonly expected from these Languages, THE LEARNING OF THEIR OWN: Besides, their Daughters can as easily enjoy the same Advantage. As he does not take upon himself to Teach English Pronunciation (which will be Taught, as usual, by Mr. Wilmot) he hopes no judicious Person will make any Objection to his being a Foreigner; and that, as his Proposal is of a self-evident Advantage to Youth, he will meet with good Encouragement. His Terms are very moderate, being only Thirty Shillings, additionally to what is allowed to Mr. Wilmot. WILLIAM CLAJON.

N. B. This will make no Alteration to the Price given me for Teaching French, Latin and Greek.

BOOK-BINDING is now carried on at the Sign of the BIBLE in Charles-Street, Annapolis, in the neatest, best, and cheapest Manner.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living near Pig-Point, in Anne-Arundel County, some Time in January last, Two Country-born Negro Men; the one called Ned, and the other Will: They are both young active Fellows, and it is suppos'd have been harboured for some Time in the Neighbourhood. One of the said Negroes has got the following Cloaths with him, viz. one red and white striped Waistcoat, one Pair of Cherriderry Trowsers, one Pair of white Trowsers, one Pair of Cloth Breeches, one fine white Linen Shirt, one Pair of white Cotton Stockings, one Pair of black Leather Shoes, Shoe Buckles, and a pretty good Hat with Gold Lace set round the Brim, besides Working Cloaths; from whence it is thought that they may endeavour to go to some other Province.

Whoever takes up the said Negroes, and secures them in any Goal, shall have a Reward of Forty Shillings for each, besides what the Law allows.

SUSANNA JORSON.

ANDREW THOMPSON, ROPE-MAKER, In Annapolis, who formerly lived with Mr. James Dick, in London-Town,

IS now removed to Mr. John Golder's, near the Town-Gate, where he carries on the ROPE-MAKING BUSINESS in all it's Branches, and where all Persons may be supplied with ROPES of any Kind, black or white: And all those who shall be pleased to favour him with their Custom, may depend on being faithfully served with the best of Ropes, by

Their most humble Servant,

ANDREW THOMPSON.

N. B. He has plenty of TRACES and PLOUGH-LINES by him, which he will sell at the most reasonable Rates.

Annapolis, May 5, 1757.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Inhabitants of Anne-Arundel County, That the Tenth of June, being the Time affix'd by Law for paying the Public, Clergy, and Officers Fees, draws very near, and as very few have yet paid, I give this public Notice, to all Persons that are indebted for Tobacco, or Money, on their Sheriff's Accounts, that they may take due Care to make due Payments by the Time the Law directs, or else such Measures as are legal will be taken to secure such Debts as shall be due. And, as this will be my last Year's Collection, I think no Gentleman can or will expect that I should lie so long out of my Tobacco, or Money, as to be obliged to put it into some other Sheriff's Hands to collect. Constant Attendance will be given every Wednesday and Thursday, at my Office, in Annapolis, to settle with all Gentlemen who are indebted for Sheriff's Accounts, &c.

And as very little Regard has yet been paid to my repeated Advertisements for the Payment of his Lordship's Quit-Rents, or the Land-Tax, I once more give this friendly Notice, to all Persons concerned, That if they do not, without Loss of Time, comply, I will collect them at their Expence, though much against my Inclination.

All Retailers are desired to be more punctual in their Payments, to prevent the Law being put in Force against them: All private Consumers are desired to make their Payments which were due the 25th of last Month: And, all wholesale Dealers are desired to make their Returns, every three Months at least, agreeable to Law, or expect to have it put in Force against them. A due Compliance with the above, will greatly oblige

JOHN RAITT, Sheriff, Collector, and Receiver, in Anne-Arundel County.

To be Sold by the Subscriber, for ready Money, at Mr. Carroll's Warehouse, in Annapolis,

CHOICE good white Sugar at 10 d. per Pound, Salt at 3/9 per Bushel, Mahogany Bureaus, Corner Cupboards, Desks, and Square Tables. FRANCIS FAIRBROTHER.

WHEREAS the Subscriber has made a Practice, for some Time past, of Letting out of Horses, &c. for Hire, to Travellers; but having had several Kill'd, and others very much Abused, he is determined to Hire out no more, of which he gives this Public Notice, that no Body may be disappointed in expecting them from him.

N. B. He keeps Ferry as usual; and has good Boats to carry Passengers either up the Bay, or down to any Part of Virginia.

JAMES HUTCHINGS.

THE Subscriber intending for London this Summer, requests all Persons indebted to him to come and make Payment, or settle their Accounts by Note, or Bond: And those who have any just Demands against him, are desired to come and receive Payment of the same.

JAMES WARDROP.

JOHN BENNETT, in ANNAPOLIS, sells all Sorts of manufactured TOBACCO, in small or large Quantities.

B R E S T, March 5.

THE pompous Lists of the English Fleets destined for Europe, Asia, and America, give us no Uneasiness, because we know the Lists to be false, and the Ships to be ill manned. As to their Threats of besieging Quebec, we cannot think that they themselves expect to succeed in such an Enterprize by only augmenting their Troops in America with 10,000 Men, and giving the Officers of the American Troops the same Rank with those of the Regular Forces.

Hanover, March 18. Our Troops, which lately returned from England, have resumed their old Quarters; and no Part of our Army hath yet received any Orders to march. However such Dispositions are made, as seem to indicate, that we shall regulate our Motions by those of the French; of whose Design to invade us we have now the strongest Apprehensions.

We see a List here of an Army consisting of 400,000 Men, designed to act this Year against the King of Prussia, exclusive of the French Auxiliaries, viz. 170,000 Austrians, 120,000 Russians, 10,000 from Italy, and 100,000, which the Empire is to furnish.

Toulon, March 18. Yesterday the Centaur Man of War was launched here, and the following Evening the Squadron commanded by M. de Reveft set sail from this Port with a fair Wind. The Destination of this Squadron is at present unknown, as he is not to open his Commission till he comes to a certain Latitude.

Paris, March 28. Last Saturday Sentence was pronounced by the Parliament against Damien, to the following Purpose: 'The said Robert Francis Damien, is duly convicted of High Treason, on Account of the wicked, abominable, and most detestable Parricide committed on the Person of the King. The Parliament condemned the said Damien, for Reparation of his Crime, to be brought in a Tumbril in his Shirt before the principal Door of the Cathedral at Paris, and there kneeling down, and holding a Wax Torch, weighing two Pounds, he shall declare, That wickedly and traiterously he committed the said wicked, detestable and most abominable Parricide, by wounding the King with a Knife on the right Side, for which he repents, and asks Pardon of God, of the King, and of Justice. This done, he shall be carried in the said Tumbril to the Greve, and upon a Scaffold, there erected, to be pinched with hot Irons in the Breasts, Arms, Thighs, and Calf of the Leg, and his right Hand, holding the Knife with which he committed the said Parricide, shall be burnt with Fire and Brimstone; and on the Places where he shall be pinched, there shall be poured melted Lead, boiling Oil, burning Pitch, and Wax and Brimstone melted together; after which his Body shall be drawn and dismembered by four Horses, and his Limbs and Body be burnt to Ashes, and scattered in the Wind. The Court confiscates all his Goods, moveable and immoveable, to the King; and orders, that before the said Execution, he shall undergo the Torture, both Ordinary and Extraordinary, to procure a Discovery of his Accomplices; order moreover, that the House in which he was born shall be demolished (the Owner being indemnified for the Loss) and that no other House shall ever be built on the Premises.

Paris, March 29. Yesterday Damien was executed pursuant to his Sentence, at Three in the Afternoon; and tho' the Horses were very vigorous, they made five or six Efforts without being able to tear off his Limbs; Permission was therefore asked (and at last with Difficulty obtained) to cut off his Limbs, and he even then gave some Signs of Life. His Limbs were then thrown upon the Pile of Fire, which continued burning this Morning at seven o'Clock. All the Windows and Tops of Houses were full of Spectators.

Paris, April 1. The Parliament has issued an Arret against Damien's Family, whereby his Wife and Daughter, and his Father, are ordered to leave the Kingdom within a Fortnight, and never to return, upon Pain of being hanged; and his Brothers, and their Wives, together with all his other Relations of the Name of Damien, are enjoined to change their Names, under the same Penalties. Damien declared before his Execution, that there was no Plot formed, neither had he any Accomplices.

Dublin, April 5. We are assured that the two Highland Regiments, raised in Scotland, are to embark at Portpatrick, and land at Donaghadee, and march from thence to Cork, in order for Embarkation to North-America.

A large Sum of Money, escorted by a Party of Dragoons, was sent from the Treasury to Cork, for the Payment of the several Regiments that are there, in order for Embarkation.

The Master of a Ship just arrived from Bourdeaux, brings certain Advice of the general Concern which is expressed at that Place, and other Parts of France, on Account of the Sentence and Execution of Admiral Byng.

L O N D O N, April 5.

Notwithstanding the many Reports we have had of the speedy March of the Russians into Germany, it is now positively asserted that she will take no Part in the present War.

We hear from Falmouth, that three Ships of War are at that Place detained by bad Weather, one of them has Dispatches for Lord Loudoun, and is going Express to New-York.

Sunday at two o'Clock the Yachts fell down the River to Harwich, to be in Readiness to carry his Royal Highness the Duke of Holland; and Tomorrow Morning his Highness sets out for Harwich.

The Number of Forces provided for by Parliament this Year amounts to 49749 Men, including 4008 Invalids.

Orders are dispatched to the North, for the two Battalions of Highlanders immediately to march to Portpatrick, from whence they are to proceed with all Expedition to Cork, in order to embark for America. It is said each of the Battalions have about 200 Men above their Complement.

The following Alterations are made in his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland's Household: Colonel Hodgson is appointed Master of the Horse to his Royal Highness, and Col. John Boscawen is appointed Groom of the Bedchamber.

The Earl of Albemarle, Col. Kepple, Lord Frederick Cavendish, Lord Lenox (who is appointed one of his Royal Highness's Aids de Camp) Capt. Carlton, and Col. West, go abroad with his Royal Highness.

The Minerva, —, from Carolina to London, said to have on board 132,000 lb. of Indico, and valued at upwards of 30,000 l. is taken.

It is said that the Dover and her Prize were seen in Leigh Road last Saturday.

Extract of a Letter from Portsmouth, dated April 4. "The Squadron at St. Helen's with the Transports are still detained by the Wind; however, as it is N. W. and seems to incline still more to the N. we are in Hopes they will leave us this Afternoon."

"It is reported Admiral Smith will command the Fleet going to the Mediterranean; the following Ships are said to be some of those ordered for that Service, Prince, Ramillies, St. George, Invincible, Buckingham, Monmouth, Nassau, Lancaster, Revenge, Monarch, St. Alban's, and Windsor."

Extract of a Letter from Capt. Foster, of the Antigallican, dated Cadiz, March 2.

"Since my last the Governor, on the 28th ult. sent for me to acquaint me he had Orders from the King to deliver the Prize up to the French, upon which I went on board her: He immediately gave Orders for a 60 Gun and a 30 Gun Ship of War to lay along-side of us; and about 9 this Morning the Commander sent Orders to me to strike my Colours, which on my refusing to do, both Ships began their Fire; they shot away my Ensign, and on my endeavouring to send a Man to strike the Pendant he was killed; they continued firing on us three Quarters of an Hour, one Quarter of which was after all our Colours were struck: The Ship is shattered in a most terrible Condition: The whole Time, for fear of giving Umbrage to the Spanish Flag, I did not even fire one Gun, but lay to their Mercy: They took Possession of the Ship by Men armed: I now refer you to the Consul's Letter to the Secretary of State, wherein he gives a full Account of this Affair, a Copy of which is sent to our Ambassador at Madrid. I hope, as I have done my Duty in this Affair, you will use all your Endeavours and Interest in laying this unprecedented and national Affair before his Majesty, to meet with Redress and Justice: In the mean Time I hope to hear from Madrid. I have been with the Governor, who tells me he has no further Commands with me. I shall endeavour to go for Madrid To-morrow, to wait on the King in Person, the Result of which I shall send with all Expedition."

'Tis said that Sir William Burnaby, who with two Privateers has taken 24 Prizes, and carried them into Tunis, is blocked up there by seven French Men of War from Toulon, and that Admiral Saunders is gone with six Ships of the Line to relieve him.

We hear the French Court has demanded in Form a Passage for a numerous Body of Troops through the Electorate of Hanover, which has been peremptorily refused.

It is said that Advice was received Yesterday that the Court of Spain has released the Antigallican Privateer's Prize, and cautioned the Captain not to stir from thence till a proper Convoy is arrived from England to guard him Home.

April 7. We hear that a Twenty Gun Ship is ordered to cruise between Helvoet and Harwich, to protect the Packet at this very critical Juncture.

Extract of a Letter from Captain William Foster, Commander of the Antigallican private Ship of War, to his Owners, dated Cadiz, March 9.

"You will see we have not only run the Hazard of an Engagement for our India Prize, but have been cruelly treated in this Bay, and since imprisoned: I am in Health and in good Spirits, and make no Doubt, as the whole Affair, in respect to us, is founded in Honour and Truth, if Justice take Place, it must end in our Favour. The Consul has been very kind, and active in his Endeavours to serve us; the whole City is greatly alarmed at the unjust and severe Treatment we have met with from the Governor: However, the Antigallican is fitting out, and will lose no Time in repairing the Prize. Nothing shall be wanting for your Interest; the Ship's Company and Officers who survived the Cannonading and Imprisonment, are all well."

Gosport, April 3. This Morning, about Six o'Clock, Admiral Holbourne, &c. and General Hopson, Commander in Chief of the Land Forces, went on board the Fleet at St. Helens.

Portsmouth, April 4. God be thanked, a fine fair Wind, so that the Ships cannot fail of putting immediately to Sea for America, and the other Parts they are destined for.

Extract of a Letter from Portsmouth, April 5.

"The Fleet for America got under sail Yesterday; but were forced to come to an Anchor again, the Wind shifting. Wind now West. The Litchfield, Captain Barton, Centaur, Captain Brown, and the Raven Sloop, Captain Bower, with two Buffes, in his Majesty's Service, are bound the first fair Wind to the Coast of Guiney, to protect the Trade. The Mediterranean Squadron, it is said, will sail in about twenty Days from Spithead."

Whitehall, April 6. The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint the Right Honourable Daniel Earl of Winchelsea and Nottingham; Sir William Rowley, Knight of the Bath; Edward Boscawen, and Gilbert Elliot, Esquires; the Right Honourable John Lord Carysfort; Savage Moxton, and Edward Sandys, Esquires, to be Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great-Britain and Ireland, and the Dominions, Islands, and Territories thereto respectively belonging.

Whitehall, April 9. On Wednesday last the Right Honourable Mr. Pitt, by his Majesty's Command, resigned the Seals of Secretary of State for the Southern Department.

The King has been pleased to grant unto the Right Honourable William Lord Mansfield, Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, the Office of Chancellor of his Majesty's Exchequer, in the Room of the Right Honourable Henry Legge, Esq;

St. James's, April 9. This Morning, about Six o'Clock, his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, set out for Harwich, to embark there, in his Way to Hanover.

London, April 9. We hear the Duke of Bedford and the Earl of Sandwich will be Secretaries of State, and the Earl of Holderness Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

We are informed, that there is on board the three Ships from South-Carolina, taken by the French, at least 200,000 lb. Weight of Indico.

The Right Honourable the Earl of Egremont is appointed Secretary of State, in the Room of the Right Honourable William Pitt, who has been dismissed.

We hear that a certain great Personage sent a Messenger on Wednesday Afternoon to a great Commoner, informing him that he had no further Occasion for his Service; upon which the worthy Commoner nobly replied, that as he received his Commission directly from his Majesty, he could not resign without a formal Order from the same Hand.

We are further informed, that on the above Answer being received, considerable Appointments were offered to several of the Nobility and Gentry, in Connection with the present Ministry, and that they all begged to be excused from accepting any such Posts, while a certain Person (very lately appointed to a new Place) continued in any public Employment that had any Connection with theirs.

We are assured that the City of London will speedily present the Right Hon. William Pitt, and the Right Hon. Henry Legge, Esqrs. with the Freedom of the City in a Gold Box, as a Mark of the entire Satisfaction they have given that respectable Body, by their Prudence and Integrity in the Conduct of public Affairs.

Gilbert Elliot, Esq; having declined taking upon him the Office of a Lord of the Admiralty, William Gerard Hamilton, Esq; is appointed to fill up that Commission.

We hear that a noble Earl has refused going Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland.

They write from Toulon, of the 16th of last Month, that the Fleet in that Port designed for the Mediterranean, is to consist of 20 Men of War of the Line, and six Frigates, but they are not to sail till the End of this Month, and to take on board great Quantities of Stores and Provisions for Minorca, as also a Reinforcement of Troops for the Garrison at Port-Mahon. Several armed Vessels fitted out there, are failed to cruise on the English.

They write from divers Counties, that the Ground this Spring has turned up very rich, and there is a Prospect of a plentiful Harvest.

The Subscription to the Ladies Resolution Privateers (three in Number, to be commanded by the brave Capt. Walker) upon the Books at Sir Charles Apgill's, and Mr. Drummond's, already amounts to 8000 l. at the Head of which stands the respectable Name of the Right Hon. the Countess of Northumberland.

It is reported five Ships have been taken on the North Coast by three French Privateers.

We hear that the Right Hon. the Lord Tyrwally, Governor of Gibraltar, is coming home, and that the Earl of Home is to succeed him.

Yesterday the Honourable Sir Richard Littleton, Knight of the Bath, and Major-General of his Majesty's Forces, resigned the Office of Master of the Jewel-Office.

As did the Hon. James Greenville that of one of the Lords of the Treasury; and Thomas Potter, Esq; the Office of Joint Pay-Master of his Majesty's Forces.

The Right Hon. Henry Fox is appointed Pay-Master General, in the room of Lord Viscount Duplin, and Thomas Potter, Esq;

We hear the Right Hon. Henry Fox, Esq; has just obtained a reverendary Grant for himself and his two Sons, of the beneficial Post of Clerk of the Pells in Ireland, now enjoyed by George Bub Doddington, Esq; and valued at 2000 l. per Annum.

We are now told that the French find themselves so much embarrassed for Want of Seamen, of which we have such great Numbers Prisoners in England, that they have proposed Terms for a Cartel, or general Exchange of Prisoners.

We hear that some Conferences have been had with the Spanish Minister residing here, upon Advice received of the Detainer of the Antigallican's Prize; and also that a categorical Answer is demanded to a grand Question.

There is a List of 36 Privateers said to be now out from Bayonne, and St. John de Luce, most of which mount from 20 to 30 Guns.

The Prince de Soubize, a French Privateer, fitted out by the Ladies of France (which had taken 14 Prizes without Damage) is taken at last herself by the Dunkirk Man of War, Captain Howe, purchased for 2500 l. by the Union Society meeting at the Feathers Tavern in Cheapside, together with her Provisions and Ammunition. She now rides off Limehouse, and is going out under the Name of the Boscawen Privateer.

April 12. By Advices from Hanover, the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel will add 4000 Men to the 8000 Hessians who are to return from England; and it is said, their Army of Observation will amount to about 58,000 Men, which is to be joined by the Saxon Regiments that have entered into the Service of the King of Prussia.

It is reported that nine Sail have been taken in the North Seas, supposed to be all English Coasters.

On Sunday Sir Edward Hawke set out from his House in Great George-Street for Portsmouth.

A Dutch Vessel arrived Yesterday in the River from Seville, in 16 Days, brings Advice, that the Antigallican's Prize was delivered up to the French Consul, and sailed from thence for France.

We hear that one Part of France's Plan of Operations against Hanover, is to conquer Bremen and Verden, and then make a Present of them to Sweden, in order to purchase the Concurrence, or at least the Neutrality, of that Crown in the present War.

It is reported that several English Ships have been seized at Ostend, by an Order from the Empress Queen.

We hear that his Royal Highness goes by Sea to Hamburgh.

We are assured, that there is no Account of the Pondicherry French Indiaman, a Prize to the Dover Man of War, since he was in Yarmouth Roads. Upwards of 30,000 l. has been insured upon her. She had 280 Men on board.

Falmouth, March 31. Last Tuesday was sent in here a French Snow, homeward bound from Martinico, taken by the King of Prussia Privateer of London. Also a French Schooner Privateer of 16 Carriage Guns, 12 Swivels, and 80 Men, taken by the Lion Privateer of Bristol.

Portsmouth, April 8. Yesterday a Court-Martial was held on board the St. George, but cannot as yet learn the Occasion.

KINGSTON, (in Jamaica) May 7.

By the Hardman, Capt. Yoward, who came in last Monday from the Coast of Guiney, and left Cape-Coast Castle the 13th of last February, we learn, that on the 24th of that Month, the French Squadron appeared in Sight of the Castle, at 11 o'Clock, consisting of a 74 and 64 Gun Ship, besides a Frigate which lay by in the Offing with 4 Prizes, but where the Prizes were taken the Captain could not hear. The Two Men of War fired at the Castle, and continued the same with great Fury for about half an Hour, but did no material Damage, the Compliment being as briskly returned from the Castle, so that the Monsieurs, thought proper to proceed down the Coast so low as Tatum Query; there they manned their Launches and destroyed several trading Shallops, &c. In two Days after, Account came to the Castle of their taking four trading Vessels at Anamaboe. They afterwards went to Whiddaw, but no Accounts were as yet arrived what Damage they might have done there.

BOSTON, May 30.

From Albany we hear, that scouting Parties of the Enemy appear often near the Ports at Lake-George, and, that last Week two of the Regulars being out for some Wood, were fired upon and killed by them; also, that they had taken two or three of the Rangers Prisoners, and killed two others: One of the Regulars was knock'd on the Head with a Hatchet, about 30 Yards from Fort Edward.

We hear by a Coaster arrived at Cape-Anne from Dammariscotta, by at or near that Place, as a Number of Fishermen were catching Alewives for Bait, the Indians came upon, kill'd and took near twenty of them.

WILLIAMSBURG, May 27.

As the Dissatisfaction of the Catawbas, which shewed itself too much at their leaving this Place on the 16th and 17th of this Month (not being to be prevailed on to stay longer on the Frontiers, or to Promise to return, or send others in their Stead) and which was owing to some concurring Circumstances, gave great Uneasiness to the Inhabitants, it may be proper to inform them, for their Quiet and Satisfaction, that the Honourable Edmund Atkin, Esq; his Majesty's Agent for Indian Affairs, according to a private Agreement with their King and his Captains, followed them in the Night of the 17th to James-Town Ferry, where after another private Conference with them on Behalf of this Colony, he made a long Speech publicly on the 19th, in the Presence of several Inhabitants, in the Name of his Majesty, to King Heigler and all his Warriors, which produced an Effect that surprized all present. He delivered, as from the King, at the different Periods or Parts of his Speech, a large Belt of white Wampum, recommending a mutual Friendship between them and all his Subjects whatsoever on this Side the great Water; then several Strings of black Wampum, with a Hatchet, to be made Use of against all the Enemies whatsoever of his said Subjects, more especially against the Ohio Indians; and lastly, some other Strings of white Wampum, with a Proposition for their future Assistance of Virginia against those Indians in particular, by relieving Parties on the Frontiers, only under his Passports; and a Regulation recommended, which is calculated to reduce the present great and growing Expence upon Indians, to obtain a more effectual Assistance from them, and to render the Settlements more quiet and secure.

King HEIGLER, after some Pause, made the following ANSWER.

I AM glad to hear this Talk from King George. It hath entered my Heart; I will never forget it, but remember it so long as I live. The white People and my People are like two Brothers that came out of one Womb, and we will live as such for ever. We were at War heretofore with the Six-Nations; the white People took the Hatchet out of our Hands, and threw it into the Water [alluding to the Peace made at New-York, 1751, by the repeated Invitations of the Governors of that Province, and by the Persuasions of the Governors of South-Carolina] and now they have put it again into our Hands, we will use it, till they bid us throw it into the Water again. When I was at New-York, to make Peace with the Six-Nations, I said, that I and my People would always fight against the Enemies of the white People. The Shawanese have behaved badly; and the Six-Nations, and I and my People, are now all ready to join and go against them.

I cannot say much now; for we are like Travellers met on the Road, who are in Haste and have not Time enough to talk together. This Wampum and Hatchet shall remain in the Catawba Nation so long as it is a Nation; for the King that comes after me shall have them, and take the same Care to deliver them to the next.

I and my Warriors give Thanks to the Governor of Virginia for what he hath given us.

I have no more to say at present; but shall be very glad to see you in our Towns: We shall have Time to talk more together, and I will mind whatever you shall then say to me.

Then the King shook Hands with the Agent, locking his own Arm in his at full Length. The Agent then replied,

NOW you have spoke like a Catawba; I never knew the Catawbas asked twice to do any Thing: I have been so vexed and uneasy at what hath passed since I met you in Williamsburg, that it hath broke my Sleep; but now I am glad to hear what you have said, and my Heart is light at parting.

Soon after the King and his People came and took Leave affectionately, and crossed the River.

The Persons who afterwards conducted them thro' the Settlements to the Boundary Line of North-Carolina, report, That no Men could behave better than they did in all their March; that they were continually talking of the Agent and his Speech

Speech with the greatest repeated that they would Frontiers.

Speech with the greatest Satisfaction, and often repeated that they would send fresh Parties to our Frontiers.

'Tis to be hoped that those who were present, and know what passed, while those Indians were here in Williamsburg, and in what a Temper they left it, will, when they read the above, be convinced what an Injury Gentlemen do to their Country and themselves, who not having had sufficient Opportunities of knowing Indians and their Affairs or Manners, yet, with an ill-timed, though well meant Intention, concern themselves too much with them, and interfere in the Management committed by his Majesty to the said Agent, for the general Good of his Subjects.

Captain Arbuthnot, in his Majesty's Ship the Garland, is arrived in Hampton Road, having under his Convoy six Sail of Transports, with five Companies of the Royal American Regiment, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Bouquet; but we do not hear they have brought any of the Provincial Troops from Pennsylvania: He only waits for the 200 Men to be sent from this Colony, and then proceeds for South-Carolina.

And Yesterday passed through this City, in their Way to Hampton, 200 of the Provincial Troops of this Colony, under the Command of Lieutenant-Col. Stephen, in order to their Embarkation for South-Carolina.

NEW-YORK, June 6.

By a Vessel arrived at Rhode-Island the 29th ultimo, from Anamaboe, we have the following List of the French Squadron, and English Ships taken by them on the Coast of Africa, and elsewhere, viz. French Ships, l'Intrepide, Commodore Faeron, of 74 Guns; l'Opiniat, of 64; l'Unicorne, of 36; and le Calipso, of 16 Guns; in all 190 Guns.

The English Vessels taken by the above Squadron, are, the Boscawen Privateer, of 14 Guns, from Southampton, taken at Cape de Verd. The Spencer Frigate, in the Bay of Biscay, and kept for an Hospital Ship. The Prince of Orange, Jackson, of Liverpool, at Cape-Mount, Jan. 1, with 175 Slaves, 14 lb. of Ivory, and one Ton of Cam Wood. The Elizabeth and Mary, Caruthers, of Liverpool, at Little Cape-Mount, Jan. 2, with 50 Slaves. The Nancy, Gill, of Liverpool, at Junk, Jan. 3, with 70 Slaves. The Arabella, of Liverpool, at Bashaw, Jan. 4, with 45 Slaves. The Black Prince, Noble Beans, and Whittington, Kennedy, both belonging to Whitehaven.

On the 24th Day of January the abovementioned Men of War arrived at Anamaboe, and took the following Vessels, viz. The Cafada Garden, Thomas T. Taylor, of Rhode-Island, near Winiba, Jan. 26, with 60 Slaves. The Camellion, Michael Molton, of Rhode-Island, at Winiba, Jan. 26, with 46 Slaves. The Polly, Jeremiah Clark, of Rhode-Island, near Winiba, Jan. 26, with 75 Slaves. And Capt. Loc, of Liverpool, missing till the 18th of March, and supposed to be taken.

Besides the abovementioned French Ships of War, two others, viz. Le St. Michael, of 64 Guns, and Le Lathee, of 32 Guns, stopped at St. Jago to water, and were, between the 20th and 25th of January, spoke with by a Portuguese Vessel, off Cape-Palmas, who reported, that they steered down the Coast for Angola, supposed to join the other Squadron.

Friday last Capt. Goodin arrived here in 26 Days from Jamaica, by whom we learn, That a Fleet of 25 Sail, under Convoy of his Majesty's Ships Roebuck and Lively, arrived at that Island in the Month of April last, from Ireland.

The following Men of War were at Jamaica when Capt. Goodin sailed from thence, viz. Edinburgh, of 70 Guns, Princess Mary 60, Portsmouth 60, Augusta 60, Assistance 50, Humber 40, Roebuck 20, Sphinx 20, Shoreham 20, Rye 20, Wager 20, and Lively, of 20 Guns.

The same Day Capt. Tingley arrived here in 13 Days from Halifax, by whom we are told, that the Bombketch Speedwell, Capt. Bond, arrived there in 5 Weeks from Falmouth, two Days before he sailed, the Captain whereof informed him, that the Earl of Halifax Packet, Captain Morris, from this Place, was safe arrived there; and that the following Regiments were those designed for America, viz. Two Battalions of the Royals, Forbes's, Blakeney's, Brag's, Kennedy's, Murray's, and Perry's.

Capt. Tingley likewise says, That two French Indians were lately taken at Malagash, and sent to Halifax; and that a Day or two after he came out, he met with the Boston Country Snow standing in for Halifax, with six Vessels loaded with Provisions under her Convoy.

Since our last came to Town, one William Morris, a Ranger, who was taken Prisoner by the French, in the Engagement near Ticonderoga, on the 21st of January last, with Capt. Rogers (now promoted to the Rank of Major) and informs us, That immediately upon his being captivated, he was carried, with six more of his Companions, to Ticonderoga (one of which died three Weeks after, having received eleven Shot in his Body) where there were only 40 Men in Garrison, 200 Regulars, 45 Indians, and 36 Canadians, having sallied out to attack Major Rogers (whose Party consisted of only 75 Men) of which Number 30 were killed on the Spot, and 32 more died soon after they reached the Fort, having remained a Month at Ticonderoga, he was sent to Crown-Point, where he halted only one Night, being carried from thence by some of the Ottowaway Indians, whose Prisoner he was, and who proposed to carry him to their Country, and adopt him for one of their Children; but the Severity of the Weather obliging them to remain some Time at Montreal, he found an Opportunity, when the Indians were gone upon a Scout, to make his Escape, with three more, having left Montreal the 7th of May, with about 4 Days Provision, a Gun, and some Powder and Ball, which he took out of the Indian Hutt, as he was left to take Care of their Things in their Absence: They all arrived safe at Fort William Henry the 18th of May, much fatigued. A few Days before he left Montreal, two Regiments of Regulars, and some Canadians and Indians, marched towards Crown-Point, in order, as he imagined, to strengthen that Fort, and Ticonderoga; that very great Preparations were making in Canada, to open the Campaign very early; that the Army that attacked Fort William Henry, the 17th of March, was returned to Montreal, much fatigued, and that many of them were killed by the Garrison, and several more died on their Way Home; that he imagined the City of Quebec was much in Want of Provisions, some Sloops having sailed from Montreal for that Place, as soon as the River was open, loaded with Wheat and Fish.

Last Week George Kawkel, one of Colonel Peter Schuyler's Regiment, taken at Oswego, came to Town from Albany, having made his Escape from the Enemy. He says, That during his Stay among the French, he was used extremely well, and indulged in almost every Respect:—That he had Liberty to work for his Living, and was frequently employed in and about their Fortifications:—That from Quebec, which he left about two Months since, he was sent to work at various different Forts between that Place and Crown-Point; and that the last he was fixed at, was Ticonderoga, where, he says, there is but a small Garrison:—That he was well assured, there were scarce one Hundred Men at Crown-Point, the Scarcity of Provisions, and other Necessaries of Life, having reduced the French Forces to abundantly less than 7000 Men:—That Colonel Schuyler lived by himself, in Quebec, and was in Health; as were also about 20 or 30 others, that are still remaining in that Place, and that were not sent to France. That he was six Days and seven Nights out before he got to Fort William-Henry, sustaining Life no otherwise than with the Buds of Trees:—That 25 Indians were sent out to fetch him back, and that by screening himself in the Thickets, he happily escaped and got into Fort Henry, almost reduced to a Skeleton.

PHILADELPHIA, June 9.

By Captain Falls, who left Londonderry the 27th of April, there is Advice, that the Fleet from England was seen off Kinfales on the 20th of that Month, on their Way to Cork, to join the Men of War and Transports there bound to North-America.

We hear from Lancaster, that nine Waggon Load of Powder and Ammunition arrived there on the third Instant from Winchester, in Virginia, for the Use of his Majesty's Forces at Carlisle.

From Fort Frederick, in Maryland, we learn, that Major Lewis, with a Party of Cherokees, has brought in five Scalps, and nineteen Prisoners. It is supposed they surprized the Enemy on their March this Way, as Capt. Paris and his Company did lately.

ANNAPOLIS, June 16.

We hear that Two Waggoners were killed by the Enemy near Fort-Frederick on Thursday last.

Since our last arrived here the Snow Trial, Capt. Mills, from London, with upwards of Seventy of his Majesty's SEVEN YEAR PASSENGERS. She was formerly commanded by Capt. Scott, but he was unfortunately Drowned, with two of his Hands, as they were going ashore in the Yaul at Falmouth.

Friday last, being a very hot Sun-shining Day, a young Man in Frederick County, about Two or Three and Twenty Years of Age, Healthy, Strong and Able, but of a very Lazy Disposition, for the Sake of Two Shillings, stripp'd himself quite Naked from Head to Foot, and stood in the Sun from Seven o'Clock in the Morning till Night; but has since suffer'd very deservedly for his Folly, for the Sun stripp'd off his Skin.

From a late NEW UNIVERSAL MAGAZINE.

SKETCH of an ACT for the Defence of the BRITISH Colonies in NORTH-AMERICA.

WHEREAS the present Exigency requires the strictest Union between the several British Colonies in North-America for their common Defence, Be it enacted, That the Governors, Councils, General Assemblies, and all other Persons within those Colonies, shall, for the Space of — Years from the Time of passing this Act, be in all Things subject to the Orders of one Captain and Governor-General, to be commissioned by his Majesty in Council; and this under the Penalty of forfeiting their Governments, Offices, Places, Privileges, and Charters, during his Majesty's Pleasure.

And whereas the present Necessity of raising a sufficient Army for the Defence of the said Colonies is so very Urgent, as not to admit of Time for the Calling their several Assemblies, and their agreeing among themselves upon the respective Quotas and Proportions of Men and Monies necessary towards the said Armament, Be it farther enacted, That the Colony commonly called — shall forthwith raise, and compleatly furnish with all necessary Arms, Stores, Ammunitions, Provisions, and Artillery, a Body of — Men, Officers included; the Colony commonly called —, a Body of —, [and so on for each Colony] making in the Whole an Army of — Thousand Men, to be under the Command and Direction of the said Captain, and Governor-General, any Law, Custom, Charter, or Privilege, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided nevertheless, That if the Regulation above recited shall, upon humble Representation made to his Majesty in Council, be made appear to be in any Respect grievous or unequal with Regard to any of the said Colonies, it shall be lawful for his Majesty to order such Alterations to be made therein as to his Majesty shall seem meet: Provided that till his Majesty shall direct any Alteration, the said Regulation be complied with, even by such Colony as may think itself aggrieved.

Provided also, That over and above the respective Quotas of Men and Monies to be raised, by Virtue of this Act for a general and principal Army, it shall be lawful for all the said Colonies to raise whatever Men and Money they shall judge necessary for the Defence and Safety of such Colony, to be entirely at the Disposal of the respective Governments of such Colony, any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

This Act to be in Force — Years, and to the End of the next Session of Parliament.

Miscellaneous Observations, by GEORGE SAVILLE, Marquis of HALIFAX.

TO Love, and to be in Love with any Thing, are Things as differing, as good Sense and Impertinence. When we once go beyond bare Liking, we are in Danger of parting with good Sense; and it is not easy for good Sense to get so far as Liking.

When by Habit a Man cometh to have a bargaining Soul, its Wings are cut, so that it can never soar. It bindeth Reason an Apprentice to Gain, and instead of a Director, maketh it a Drudge.

The being kind to a Liar, is abetting a Treason against Mankind. A Man is to inform the first Magistrate, that he may be clapp'd up. Lies are embroidered with Promises and Excuses. A known Liar should be Out-lawed in a well-ordered Government. A Man that renounceth Truth, runneth away from his Trial in the World. The Use of Talking is almost lost in the World by the Habit of Lying. A Man that doth not tell all the Truth, ought to be hanged for a Clipper. Half the Truth is often as arrant a Lye, as can be made. It is the more Dexterous, but not the less criminal Kind of Lying.

Names to Men of Sense are no more than Fig-Leaves; to the Generality they are thick Coverings that hide the Nature of Things from them. Fools turn good Sense upon its Head, they take Names for Things, and Things only for Names.

A Man who is Master of Patience, is Master of every Thing else. He that can tell how to bear in the right Place, is Master of every Body he dealeth with.

Positive is the Perfection of a Coxcomb, he is then come to his full Growth.

It sheweth Mens Nature, that when they are pampered in any Kind, they are very apt to play jadtish Tricks. One of the Tricks of any Creature that is wanton, is to kick what is next them.

Every Thing that doth us good is so apt to do us hurt too, that it is a strong Argument for Men to be quiet. If Men would think more, they would act less. The greatest Part of the Business of the World, is the Effect of not Thinking.

Most Men put their Reason out to Service to their Will. The Master and the Man are perpetually falling out. A third Man will Hazard a Beating, if he goes about to part them. Nothing hath an uglier Look to us than Reason, when it is not of our Side. We quarrel so often with it, that it maketh us afraid to come near it. A Man that doth not use his Reason, is a tame Beast; a Man that abuses it, is a wild one.

It is a self-flattering Contradiction, that wise Men despise the Opinion of Fools, and yet are proud of having their Esteem.

Self-Love, rightly defined, is far from being a Fault. A Man that loveth himself right, will do every Thing else right.

A Man who doth not think he is punished when he is blamed, is too much hardened to be ever reformed. The Court of Shame hath lately lost much of its Jurisdiction. It ought by Right both to judge in the first Instance, and to exclude all Appeals from it. Shame is a Disease of the last Age, this seemeth to be cured of it.

Singularity may be good Sense at home, but it must not go much abroad. It is a Commendation to be that which a Crowd of mistaken Fools call Singular. There can hardly be a severer Thing said to a Man in this Age, than that he is like the Rest of the World.

Slander would not stick, if it had not always something to lay hold of. A Man who can allow himself the Liberty to slander, hath the World too much at his Mercy. But the Man that despiseth Slander, deserveth it.

Speakers in Public should take more Pains to hold in their Invention than to raise it. Invention is apt to make such Sallies, that it cannot secure its Retreat. A patient Hearer is a sure Speaker. Men are angry when others do not hear them, yet they have more Reason to be afraid when they do.

Mispending a Man's Time is a Kind of Self-Homicide, it is making Life to be of no Use.

Truth is not only stifled by Ignorance, but concealed out of Caution of Interest; so if it had not a Root of Immortality, it must have been long since extinguished.

The most useful Part of Wisdom is for a Man to give a good Guess what others think of him. It is a dangerous Thing to guess Partially, and a melancholy Thing to guess Right. Nothing would more contribute to make a Man wise, than to have always an Enemy in his View. A wise Man may have more Enemies than a weak one, but he will not so much feel the Weight of them. Indeed the being wise doth either make Men our Friends, or discourage them from being our Enemies.

Wisdom is only a comparative Quality, it will not bear a single Definition.

A Man hath too little Heat, or Wit, or Courage, if he hath not sometimes more than he should. Just enough of a good Thing is always too little. Long Life giveth more Marks to shoot at, and therefore old Men are less well thought of, than those who have not been so long upon the Stage. Other Mens Memories retain the ill, whilst the good Things done by an old Man, easily slip out of them. Old Men have in some Degree their Reprifals upon younger, by making nicer Observations upon them, by Virtue of their Experience.

LONDON, February 3.

WE hear from Aberdeen, that on Thursday Se'nnight a Spermaceti Whale was cast ashore on the Sands of Belhelvie, about six Miles from that Place. The Length of this Fish is 62 Feet, 45 Feet in Circumference, and the Breadth of her Tail 16 Feet. The under Jaw measures in Length 9 Feet and an Half, with a Row of Teeth on each Side, and the upper Jaw has no Teeth, but is full of Sockets to receive those on the other Jaw. The Teeth are four Inches in Length, as thick at the Root as a Man's Wrist. It is thought there may be as much Blubber as will produce from eight to ten Tons of good Oil, besides Spermaceti to a considerable Value.

Letters from Paris, of the 27th of January, bring Advice, that at Five in the Morning, some Officers of the City Watch, pursuant to the Orders they had received in the Night, repaired to the Houses of sixteen Members of the Parliament of Paris that had resigned their Places, and served them with Letters de Cachet, exiling them to various Towns, with an Injunction to set out in 24 Hours; in which Interval they were not allowed to stir out of Doors, nor to see any Body but the Persons of their Household; the Officers were charged to stay with them till the Moment of their Departure, and to accompany them 60 Miles on the Road from Paris; after which they were to let them proceed to the respective Places of their Exile. The whole Town is alarmed at this Affair; and all the Lawyers, as well as the People, are so discontented, that the Grand Chamber of the Parliament can get no Attornies nor Advocates to bring any Causes before it.

When the Transports with the Forces from Minorca were in the Bay of Biscay, on their Return to England, and the Officers taking the Air upon Deck, a little Boy, of eight Years old, the only Son of Captain D—, of Cornwallis's Regiment, who was playing with a Soldier's Boy of his own Age, by a sudden Roll of the Ship, the Sea running high, with a great Swell, as is common there, fell over-board in Sight of his Father and Mother: The poor Woman, in her Distraction, was madly following her Child, but was held by Colonel R—. A Soldier who was near the Boy, as he generally was (being very fond of him) in an Instant pulled off his Coat and Shoes, and nobly threw himself into the Sea after him. The Confusion was so great, that not a Soul thought of keeping their Eye upon the Boy, to mark which Way the Sea carried him, except his little Play-Fellow, who never took his Eye from him; and by pointing directed the Soldier to him, who luckily got to him, and took him in one Hand, swimming with the other, and had the Presence of Mind to tear open the Boy's Shirt Collar. The Ship was brought to, and the Boat got out; but that was a Work of Time in a rolling Sea, when the Vessel went above five Miles an Hour. The Boat took them up just as the poor Fellow was spent. The little Boy, when brought on board, was to Appearance dead; but by proper per Care, in about two Hours recovered; when he laughing told his Mother, if he would not be frightened, he would tell her a Dream he had in the Night; (for so it appeared to him) and then related all that had happened to him. The generous and heroic Soldier is promoted to be a Sergeant.

March 12. It is said that a certain great Person, who at present engages the Attention of this Country, as well as the greatest Part of Europe, while at his House at Hayes, was resorted to by Persons of the highest Rank, to express their Satisfaction at his Majesty's Choice of him for their Deliverer. Two noble Dukes, in the most eminent Stations, paying their Respects one Day, and staying late, were interrupted by a Servant acquainting his Master that Dinner was on the Table. Mr. P*** could not avoid asking their Graces to be Partakers; "though, my Lords" (says he) my Mode of Life is so different from your Graces, that I can scarce flatter myself with the Hopes of your Company; but if you can bear the Sight of a Leg of Mutton and Pudding, you will find them in the next Room, with an hearty Welcome. The two Dukes readily accepted the Offer, and after emptying the Dishes, and a Bottle of old Port, returned to Town full of Astonishment to find Nature so easily satisfied; confessing to each other, they never made so good a Dinner, and determined instantly to dismiss their French Cooks and Claret.

Glasgow, Jan. 17. Thursday last died, at his House in Kirkland of Renfrew, James Duncan, Farmer, who lived to the extraordinary Age of some Months more than 104 Years: He was fit for most Business about his Farm till within these last three Years; bound his own Corn, after seven Reapers, every Harvest, till Ninety-nine; he had all his Life an almost uninterrupted Health, never was Sick but once of a Fever, of which he recovered by the uncommon Cure of a strong Dose of Rum Punch; he lived soberly and laboriously all his Life, had deservedly a fair honest Character, and was often very facetious after he was a Hundred Years of Age: He retained all his Faculties till within these ten Months, and so much Strength as to enable him to rise once a Day till his Death.

KINGSTON, (in Jamaica) May 7.

A few Days ago arrived here the Blakeney Privateer belonging to New-York, Nicholas Horton, Commander, mounting 10 Carriage Guns, 3 Pounds, and 65 Men; who on the 27th of last Month fell in (off the East End of this Island) with a large French Privateer, mounting 12 Carriage Guns, 6 Pounds, and 120 Men; whereupon an Engagement immediately ensued, and was very hot on both Sides. Captain Horton put 23 of his Men in his Craft, in order to cut the Frenchman off his Wind, so that there were only 37 Hands on board the Blakeney when she first engaged; nevertheless, the Battle lasted with great Fury for two Hours and an Half; but Captain Horton finding the Frenchman's Metal too heavy for him, he resolutely and bravely laid him on board, at which Time he received a Shot in his Bow-sprit, which totally disabled him. The Frenchman perceiving his Distress, and knowing he could not make Sail after him, he took that Opportunity to haul his Wind to the Southward, and so got clear. Captain Horton had 6 Men killed, and 8 wounded, two of which are in a very dangerous Way; several Musket Balls went through his Hat, and his Vessel is greatly damaged both in her Sails and Rigging, so that he was obliged to put back to Port-Royal to refit. It is not doubted but the Frenchman suffered greatly, as there was a Man at the Blakeney's Mast-head the whole Engagement, who observed there were several dead Bodies thrown overboard, and scarce ten Men appeared on his Deck at the Time the Frenchman made off.

Portsmouth, (in New-Hampshire) June 3.

We hear from Fort Halifax, at the Eastward, that one Day last Week, as four Men and a Boy were going up the River, they were fired upon by 12 Indians, who wounded the four Men, so that one is like to die: The Boy fired and killed one of the Indians, and by timely Assistance from the Fort, prevented the dead Indian from being carried off, and by that Means saved his Scalp.

Extract of a Letter from Black River, in Jamaica, dated April 15.

"—I suppose, 't'is this comes to Hand, you'll bear of the Danger this Island is in,—for we are certain of four Men of War, and two Frigates being arrived at Hispaniola; and we hear by a Rhode-Island Captain, who has given his Affidavit, that he fell in with 20 large Ships, among which was a French Flag, and we are in hourly Expectation of bearing that they are at Port-Royal, where they have made as good Defence as possible, for all the Men of War are well mann'd, and ready to receive them;—the Merchant Ships of Force are all hauled along Side of the Men of War to lend a Hand."

BOSTON, June 6.

By a Letter from John Townsend, Master of a Schooner belonging to Rhode-Island, dated at St. Thomas's, the 18th of April last, we are informed, that in his Passage from Barbados, 6 Days after he left that Island, he had the Misfortune to be taken by a French Privateer of 4 Carriage and 6 Swivel Guns, with 33 Men; who took him, his Mate, and two of his People, on board the Privateer, and put six Frenchmen in the Schooner, and sent her into St. Thomas's the Night following; where, after she had been at Anchor about 2 or 3 Hours, 5 Men from an English Privateer Brig belonging to St. Kitts, and about 20 Men from the Shore, who left another English Privateer and in a particular Manner, without any Commission, cut the Schooner's Cables, and carried her out of the Harbour from under the Danish Fort, notwithstanding it fired a Number of Guns at them:—The next Day Capt. Ellery, of a Snow Privateer from Boston, came up with her, and carried her into Tortola, where all the Pirates that had taken her ran away; and 'tis thought they have overboard 3 Frenchmen that were on board the Schooner.—The French took every Thing from the Master, except what he had upon his Back; and he intended, that Day he wrote, for Tortola, to make a Demand of the Schooner.

Last Week a large white bottomed Schooner of 14 Guns, supposed to be a French Privateer, was seen to take a Sloop within a League of Block-Island; upon which the People there sent an Account of the same to Rhode-Island, where, in a few Hours, they equipped a Brig and a Sloop which they sent in Quest of her, but we have not yet heard of their Success.

A fishing Schooner which arrived last Week at Newbury, brought in Capt. Lawrence and his Crew, belonging to the Ship that Capt. Comrin and others saw ashore on the Ile of Sables (as formerly mentioned) she was bound from Gibraltar for Virginia, but taken by the French, who, after they were ashore, upon having some Difference, fired upon Capt. Lawrence's Men, and wounded two of them, and after taking out some of her Effects, proceeded in a Schooner to Louisburg, leaving all the English on the Island.

On the first of April last, eleven Men went out upon a Scout after the Enemy, to the North, as far as Arseguntacook River, when they separated on different Branches; one Party of three Men, on the 16th of May last, early in the Morning, advancing towards a Point of Land, were fired upon by five Indians, and two of the Men, viz. Capt. Whitney, and Lieutenant French, both of Dunstable, were killed, the other named — Holt, with much Difficulty, got safe to North Yarmouth: The others are since returned safe.

Last Week Messieurs John Croghill, and James Hodge, received out of the Province Treasury, Six Hundred Pounds, Lawful Money, for the Scalps of the two Indians, whom they lately killed on an Island in Penobscot Bay, as mentioned in this Paper.

We hear from Piscataqua, that a Coaster who arrived there last Week from Falmouth, in Calco-Bay, informed, that he met a Schooner (who had been out on the Scalping Account) going in there, with two Indian Canoes in tow, and a Scalp on a Pole in each; and they were saluted by the Fort; he doubts not of their having more Scalps with them, as they designed to decoy the Enemy on board, and went well armed for the Purpose.

NEW-YORK, June 13.

Monday Morning last arrived here the Sloop Speedwell, of Rhode-Island. She was taken on the 9th of May last off Hispaniola, by the Privateer Snow Hornet, Capt. Spelling, of this Port, as carrying on a Contraband Trade.

Copy of a Paper found amongst the Papers in the Possession of John Boutin, taken in the Sloop Speedwell, of Rhode-Island, in her Passage from Port Dauphin, in Hispaniola, to Monte Christi, in the same Island, by the Hornet Privateer, Spelling Master, and is as follows.

Capt. John Boutin, Newport, March 7, 1757.

"Our Orders to you are, in Case you should happen to meet with a Man of War, private Man of War likewise, that should put you out of your Way, or carry you into any other English Port but this, to prosecute said Captain for Five Thousand Pounds, Sterling, and draw upon us for the Charges of Prosecution, which we shall answer with Honour.

EBEN RICHARDSON,
THO. RICHARDSON,
LEMUEL WYATT."

We hear, that as soon as the above Sloop came into Sandy-Hook, proper Care was taken of the Captain and Merchant.

On the 13th of May, four Days after Captain Spelling seized the aforementioned Sloop, being in Company with a small Bermuda Privateer, called the Samuel, they fell in with a large French Ship of considerable Force, thought to be a Frigate, which they were obliged to fight for some Time, when the Samuel struck, and Capt. Spelling having an extraordinary Sailer at Command, he proceeded in Chace of a French Fleet of Merchantmen, which he gained Intelligence of a few Days before.

The same Day returned here from a Cruize, the Privateer Sloop Harlequin, Captain Doran, and brought in with her a Brig which she retook the 17th of May last. She is called the Salem, one Mason, Master; and was taken by the French two Days before the Harlequin came a-crofs her. She was loaded at Eustatia with Sugar, Rum, &c.

Yesterday Morning arrived here the Pliny Privateer Brig, Benjamin Stoddard Commander, from a Cruize of Eight Months, in which she has proved very successful; for besides the rich Ship she carried into So. Carolina, as mentioned some Months ago, on the 25th of May last, 40 Leagues to the Eastward of Bermuda, in Company with the Privateer Brig Wasp, of Halifax, Capt. M'Namara, of 12 Guns; and the King of Prussia Privateer Brig, of Rhode-Island, of 10 Guns, Capt. Roof, they fell in with a large French Ship of 350 Tons, called Le Amiable Jane, Mons. Arnaud, Commander; and a Snow of about 150 Tons, called St. Rene, both of whom they took after a short Dispute. The Ship mounted 16 Four Pounders, and had 50 Men; the Snow mounted 10 Guns, and had 30 Men; both richly laden with Indico, Coffee, Sugar, Cotton, &c. bound from Cape-Francois to Bourdeaux, and had been out 70 Days.—They are under Convoy of the Wasp and King of Prussia, sent to Boston, where we hope they are safe arrived.

The Prisoners taken in the before-mentioned Prizes, inform, That the Brig Dolphin, of Rhode-Island, bound from thence to Jamaica; as also a Packet-Boat from London to Jamaica; likewise, a Guineyman, with 350 Slaves, were all taken by Monsieur Palanqui, in a Privateer Snow of 16 Carriage Guns, the latter End of March last, off Hispaniola, and carried into Cape-Francois.

The Young-Bachelor, Samuel Johnston, of Rhode-Island, was taken near Winiba, on the Coast of Africa, the 27th of January last, by the four French Men of War, mentioned in our last, with 60 Slaves on board.

The Casada Garden, Captain T. Taylor, of Rhode-Island also, taken by the same Ships of War, had when taken 175 Slaves on board.

The Prince of Orange, Jackson, of Liverpool, was taken by the same Ships likewise, and had 14,00 lb. of Ivory on board.

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.

We hear from Cumberland County, that on Monday, the Sixth Instant, two Persons were killed and scalped by the Indians near Shippenburgh, and that they carried off four Prisoners.

By a Letter from Williamsburg, in Virginia, dated the Fourth Instant, there is Advice, that the Day before the Assembly of that Province passed a Bill for giving Eighty Thousand Pounds to the King's Use.

ANNAPOLIS, June 23.

The Two Waggoners whom we mentioned to have been kill'd by the Enemy on the 9th Instant, were Peter Falkner and George Long, who were shot and scalp'd about a Mile from Fort-Frederick.

Last Saturday Evening his Excellency our Governor received by Express from the Westward, Letters acquainting him that some Cherokee, who were just returned, had brought in an Account, that they saw, on this Side the Valley of Destruction, the Place of General Braddock's fatal Defeat, a large Number of French and Indians, with some Waggoners and Artillery, on their March towards our Frontiers: And we hear the same Account was sent by Express to Col. Stawwyn.

Next Day his Excellency, with some Gentlemen of this Place, set out for Frederick County.

On Monday Morning a Number of young Gentlemen of this Place, well Arm'd, went Volunteers from hence, to join what other Force is or may be raised for our immediate Defence.

[Just at committing this to the Press, we are informed, That the above-mentioned Body of the Enemy, consisted of only about 300 Men.]

Part of a Letter from a Gentleman at Winchester, dated the 15th Instant, to One here, "Lieutenant Baker, of the Virginia Troops, returned the 10th to Fort-Cumberland. He had been out with Swallow, a famous Cherokee, with Indians. About 35 Miles from Fort Duquesne they met a Party of 10 Frenchmen, as they were returning from our Frontiers. This Party had the Day before separated from 60 Shawanese. After giving the Enemy their Fire, the Cherokees threw away their Guns, and ran in with their Tomahawks. The French lost Six Men, Five were killed, and One taken Prisoner. The Prisoner is an Ensign, and Two of the Killed were also Officers. The Cherokees lost their great Warrior Swallow, and another of them was shot through both Thighs."

THERE

THERE is at the Plantation of John Brightwell, living near Linganore Chapel, in Frederick County, taken up as a Stray, a middle-fiz'd Strawberry Roan Mare, branded on the near Shoulder with something like the Bottom of a Woman's Stirrup Iron, with a Top to it; she is about 5 Years old, with a grey Star in her Forehead.
The Owner may have her again, on proving his Property, and paying Charges.

THERE is at the Plantation of John Quirk, near Rock-Creek, in Frederick County, taken up as a Stray, a Sorrel Mare, about 13 Hands high, 4 or 5 Years old, branded on the near Buttock with something like this ++, and has a small Blaze in her Forehead.
The Owner may have her again, on proving his Property, and paying Charges.

THERE is at the Plantation of John Martin, living on the Bear Ground Hundred, in Anne-Arundel County, taken up as a Stray, a Dark Bay Gelding, with a few grey Hairs, he has a small white Spot on his off Flank, is a natural Pacer, about 12½ Hands high, is neither dock'd or branded, and appears to be about 3 Years old.
The Owner may have him again, on proving his Property, and paying Charges.

H. CALLISTER, Agent for FOSTER CUNLIFFE and SONS, Esqrs. desires all Debtors to their Concern at Oxford, to make Payment in Cash or Tobacco, or in Wheat so long as he is willing to take it; and those who are not able to make immediate Payment, are desired to come and settle.

As he is conscious of having hitherto treated his Debtors with exemplary Lenity, notwithstanding the malicious Aspersions on his Character by a Set of abandon'd and ungrateful Wretches, whose desperate Circumstances constrain'd him to take the Steps necessary to secure the Interest he has Charge of, and such Aspersions have been with more Ill-Nature fomented by others: As it must be evident to all dispassionate and discerning honest Men, that he has hitherto adhered to the strictest Rules of Humanity in collecting the Debts due to his Constituents, and given their Debtors the fairest and happiest Alternative in the Method of Payments that the Heart of an honest Man can desire, and which they cannot with Justice claim, having constantly given higher Prices to his Debtors than he could purchase for of others, and taking a losing Commodity; he is still Consistent, and will have all the Patience a reasonable Man can wish, on taking Bonds, or good Surety, where the Circumstances of the Debtor appear to him precarious. This he is induced to from the Consideration of the present Times bearing hard on many, and purely for their own Sakes, for he has had his Patience already tried and abused, and does not think himself obliged to suspend the Rigour of Justice. This, it is hoped, People will reflect upon, and alter their Conduct with regard to him.

He has still on Hand, a considerable Quantity of European and West-India GOODS, both old and fresh, which he will sell cheap for ready Tobacco, Cash, or Wheat.

June 9, 1757.

ALL Persons indebted to the PAPER CURRENCY OFFICE, are required to pay the INTEREST due on their BONDS within Six Months from the Date hereof, otherwise the Bonds will be put in Suit.

Signed per Order of the Commissioners,
RICHARD DORSEY, Clerk of the Paper Currency Office.

ALEXANDER & ANDREW SYMMER.

THE Reverend Mr. MALCOLM does hereby let the Subscribers, for his LATIN GRAMMAR, know, That the First Volume is ready to be delivered to them, at Mr. Green's PRINTING-OFFICE in Annapolis, either in Sheets, Stitched, or Bound; they paying for the Stitching or Binding.

TO BE SOLD, as usual, at the Warehouse of CHARLES CARROLL, Esq; in Annapolis,

BAR-IRON of all Sizes, Plough-Shear Moulds, &c. &c. by
RICHARD MACKUBIN.

THOMAS WILLS,
BARBER and PERUKE-MAKER,
From LONDON,

At his Shop near the Inspection-House in BALTIMORE-TOWN,

UNDERTAKES to serve all Gentlemen, who shall be pleased to favour him with their Employ, in WIGS of all Kinds and Fashions, as undernoted: In which Particular he promises they shall be as good as from London, as he has now purchased a large Stock of English Hairs of all Colours, and as he proposes to keep the best Workmen in his Employ, and to regulate his Fashions by the Mode from London: He makes no Doubt of giving entire Satisfaction, both in the Goodness and Cheapness of his Work, which will be considerably under the London Prices:—
Full Dress Wigs of all Kinds from 1*l.* 10*s.* to 5*l.* Currency. Cut Bobs and Ques of all Kinds from 1*l.* 10*s.* to 5*l.* Currency.

The Method he proposes to take in answering his Commissions is, That the Gentlemen forward their Orders to himself, or to any of their Friends living in Baltimore-Town, expressing the Colour and Fashion of the Wig, and Dimensions of the Caul, and the Price about which they would have them, and he will immediately on Receipt thereof, have the Wigs made up, agreeable to the Directions, and sent by the first Opportunity; and on Receipt of the Wigs, the first Cost and other Charges to be paid. And that the Gentlemen may be the better satisfied that Justice is done them in the Prices, if they don't please at Sight, they are not bound to take them from
Their most humble Servant,
THOMAS WILLS.

N. B. The Measure to be taken from the Peak to the Neck, and round the Head; either sent, or the Inches mentioned.

Upper-Marlborough, June 4, 1757.

STOLEN from the Subscriber's Plantation, near Herring-Bay, in the Night of Wednesday the 25th of May, a middle-fiz'd Brown Mare, about 13 Hands high, she has a blazed Face, her hind Feet white, and branded on the near Buttock H. Whoever brings the said Mare to the Subscriber, shall have Twenty Shillings; and Three Pounds Reward for discovering and securing the Thief, so that he may be brought to Justice.

To be Sold by the Subscriber, for ready Money, at Mr. Carroll's Warehouse, in Annapolis,

CHOICE good white Sugar at 10*d.* per Pound, Salt at 3/9 per Bushel, Mahogany Bureaus, Corner Cupboards, Desks, and Square Tables.
FRANCIS FAIRBROTHER.

THE Subscriber having by a great Application acquired a reasonable Knowledge of the ENGLISH GRAMMAR, he proposes to Teach the same at the FREE SCHOOL of Annapolis. Those Parents who cannot afford their Sons spending several Years in the learning of Greek and Latin, may, by this Proposal, procure to them the only Benefit commonly expected from these Languages, THE LEARNING OF THEIR OWN: Besides, their Daughters can as easily enjoy the same Advantage. As he does not take upon himself to Teach English Pronunciation (which will be Taught, as usual, by Mr. Wilmat) he hopes no judicious Person will make any Objection to his being a Foreigner; and that, as his Proposal is of a self-evident Advantage to Youth, he will meet with good Encouragement. His Terms are very moderate, being only Thirty Shillings, additionally to what is allowed to Mr. Wilmat.
WILLIAM CLAJON.

N. B. This will make no Alteration to the Price given me for Teaching French, Latin and Greek.

ANDREW THOMPSON,
ROPE-MAKER,

In Annapolis, who formerly lived with Mr. James Dick, in London-Town,

IS now removed to Mr. John Golder's, near the Town-Gate, where he carries on the ROPE-MAKING BUSINESS in all it's Branches, and where all Persons may be supplied with ROPES of any Kind, black or white: And all those who shall be pleased to favour him with their Custom, may depend on being faithfully served with the best of Ropes, by
Their most humble Servant,
ANDREW THOMPSON.

N. B. He has plenty of TRACES and PLOUGH-LINES by him, which he will sell at the most reasonable Rates.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living near Pig-Point, in Anne-Arundel County, some Time in January last, Two Country-born Negro Men; the one called Ned, and the other Will: They are both young active Fellows, and it is supposed have been harboured for some Time in the Neighbourhood. One of the said Negroes has got the following Cloaths with him, viz. one red and white striped Waistcoat, one Pair of Cherry-derry Trowsers, one Pair of white Trowsers, one Pair of Cloth Breeches, one fine white Linen Shirt, one Pair of white Cotton Stockings, one Pair of black Leather Shoes, Shoe Buckles, and a pretty good Hat with Gold Lace set round the Brim, besides Working Cloaths; from whence it is thought that they may endeavour to go to some other Province.
Whoever takes up the said Negroes, and secures them in any Goal, shall have a Reward of Forty Shillings for each, besides what the Law allows.
SUSANNA JOHSON.

WHEREAS the Subscriber has made a Practice, for some Time past, of Letting out of Horses, &c. for Hire, to Travellers; but having had several Kill'd, and others very much Abused, he is determined to Hire out no more, of which he gives this Public Notice, that no Body may be disappointed in expecting them from him.

N. B. He keeps Ferry as usual; and has good Boats to carry Passengers either up the Bay, or down to any Part of Virginia.
JAMES HUTCHINGS.

THE Subscriber intending for London this Summer, requests all Persons indebted to him to come and make Payment, or settle their Accounts by Note, or Bond: And those who have any just Demands against him, are desired to come and receive Payment of the same.
JAMES WARDROP.

THURSDAY, June 30, 1757.

From the SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE.

GEORGIA, April 28.

To the Honourable HENRY ELLIS, Esq; Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief, of his Majesty's Province of GEORGIA.

The ADDRESS of the Lodge of the Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons, in Savannah.

May it please your Honour,

AMIDST the general Joy and affectionate Congratulations that have been manifested on your Honour's Arrival here, it would ill become us to be silent on the Occasion, who profess ourselves Promoters of Universal Benevolence, and are by every endearing Obligation interested in the Welfare of this Province: Though, as Masons, we cannot interfere in controversial Points of Religion or Politics, it is, nevertheless, a Duty expressly enjoined us, and shall be our constant Endeavour, to accomplish the desirable End of Public Utility, by inculcating every necessary Duty to effect it.

When we recollect his Majesty's Goodness to this Province, in the speedy Relief afforded us in Distress, and that a Gentleman (whose amiable Qualifications those who know him seem fond to speak of) is appointed to preside over us; our Hearts, Sir, overflow with grateful Sentiments, to which we can find no adequate Utterance.

That the great Work of rendering this Province flourishing and happy (so essential to our Good, and the Interest of our Mother-Country) may be completed under your Honour's Administration, is our sincere Wish and unfeigned Prayer, withal recommending our Fraternity to your Protection and Favour.

The GOVERNOR'S ANSWER.

Gentlemen,

IRECEIVE this honourable Mark of your Respect with Gratitude: A Society actuated by your Principles, can accept no other Return. Illustrious Artists, who build a Temple to the social Virtues, upon the solid and extensive Basis of Humanity and Universal Benevolence: It were greatly to be wished, that these generous Dispositions, which dignify Human Nature and are the peculiar Characteristics of your Society, were diffused over the whole Earth, as we might then hope to find Mankind better and consequently happier.

DRESDEN, March 20.

THE Week before last the Duke of Bevern marched out of Zittau with a Body of near 9000 Men, in order to destroy the Dens the Austrians keep upon their Frontiers. In which Expedition he took the Austrian Magazine at Friedland in Bohemia, consisting of 9000 Sacks of Meal, and great Store of Ammunition; and, after making himself Master of Keichenberg, he returned to Zittau. The Van of his Troops, consisting of 150 Hussars of the Regiment of Furkammer, met a Body of 600 Croats, sustained by 200 Austrian Dragoons of Bathiani, at their entering Bohemia; and immediately fell upon them, sword in Hand, killed about 50 of them, took 30 Horses, and made ten Dragoons Prisoners. The Prussians did not lose one single Man on this Occasion, two of them only were slightly wounded, the Austrians having been immediately put to Flight.

Brussels, March 22. The Letters from Paris confirm the Return of the French Fleet to Brest on the 6th Instant, occasioned by a Hurricane, in which several of the Ships lost their Masts.

March 25. The Dolphin Packet Boat, Capt. Cockrill, bound from Helvoet to Harwich, was taken and carried into Calais the 20th Instant, by a French Privateer Snow, of 14 Guns, and 130 Men, called the General Lally, Pierre Sauve, Commander, belonging to Boulogne. The Mail was thrown overboard. The Letters just arrived from France tell us likewise, that the Hanover Packet Boat, bound from Falmouth to Lisbon, has been taken and carried into Brest by the Comtesse de Bentheim, belonging to St. Malo.

Dresden, March 12. This City is fortified in such a Manner, that it resembles a Fortress. At little Distances Forts and Batteries are erected, whereon 90 Pieces of Cannon are placed; and the whole is surrounded with an Intrenchment capable of containing, in case of Necessity, a large Body of Troops.

Paris, March 18. There are some People here who think that the Armament made at Port L'Orient is not designed for the East-Indies, but may go only Part of the Way, and fall upon St. Helena; the Conquest of which Island, they observe, would prove as great a Detriment to the India Trade of the English, as the Loss of Minorca has been to their Mediterranean and Levant Commerce.

LONDON, March 26.

Some of the small Vessels taken into the Government's Service, are under sailing Orders, to cruise near Shore along the Coasts, for the better protecting of the Coasting Trade.

The Esperance, from Rochelle for Mississippi, laden with Provisions, Bale Goods, and Military Stores, a Letter of Marque, with 59 Soldiers and Seamen, was taken the 14th Instant, by the Cæsar Privateer of Bristol.

Letters from Lisbon advise, that the King of Portugal has prohibited all his Sailors from entering into the Service of others, upon Pain of having their Effects confiscated, and being sent to the Gallies for ten Years.

The Lisbon Packet, in her Voyage home, was so closely chased by a large French Privateer, that she was obliged to stand away for Penzance in Cornwall, instead of going for Falmouth, and is safe arrived there, having, as it is said, upwards of 100,000 broad Ports on board.

The Duke of Cumberland, from the Groyne, with two Mails, is taken into St. Maloes.

March 31. 'Tis said the King of Prussia has marched his Army in three Columns into Bohemia, in order to execute some important Enterprize.

Letters from Lisbon bring an Account that a violent Shock of an Earthquake was felt there on the first of this Month.

A great Quantity of Stores and Provisions are preparing to be embarked for the Garrison of Gibraltar.

The Leostoff Man of War has taken a homeward bound St. Domingo Ship of 400 Tons, richly laden, and has brought her safe into Plymouth.

Thursday was buried in the most private Manner, agreeable to his own Desire, the Most Rev. Father in God the Archbishop of Canterbury, at Croydon, in Surry.

Portsmouth, March 30. The Maria Victoria, taken by the brave Capt. Baily, in the Tartar, is a new Ship, was out but three Days, of 386 Tons, 238 Men, 108 Feet by the Keel, 28 Feet broad, 24 Guns on her Deck; she cost, with fitting out, 11000 Louis d'Ors.

DUBLIN, April 5.

Extract of a private Letter from London, March 22.

"This Day there was the greatest Satisfaction given to the H. of C. upon enquiring into the Importation of Bar and other Iron from Russia, Sweden, Spain and North-America, when the Preference was given to the last, as answering all Purposes for that Work, from the largest Anchor to the smallest Spring or Stud in a Watch; and it appeared to the Satisfaction of the House, that the Swedes have many Times raised the Price of their Iron, and laid new and heavy Duties on it; and that the Russians have struck off several of their Iron-Works, in order to advance the Charge to Foreigners; that the American Iron is very good, and answereth all Purposes; that they have great Woods in that Country, which have been much destroyed in England and Ireland of late Years, by the Iron-Works that are near them; that it will be an Advantage to America to clear away those Woods, to make Arable, Pasture and Meadow of them; that the Importation will employ many Ships and Sailors in that Trade; and that they can never want Freight to Europe, as the Pig and Bar Iron may lie at the Bottom of the Vessels for Ballast, and Pitch or Tar over them, or Skins, Hemp and Flax, which will be of the greatest Advantage to our Navigation."

Extract of a private Letter from London, March 26.

"The Militia Bill hath passed the Commons without Opposition. Many Papers and Instructions to and from Ambassadors, Governors, Admirals, and General Officers, have been, and are to be laid before the House. By those from Sir B. K. at Madrid, it appears that he sent Accounts very early in February 1756, that the French did actually intend to invade Minorca; that they had 12 Ships of the Line completely manned and rigged, besides Frigates and Transports, and 16000 Men at Toulon, ready for that Purpose. These Letters have opened a surprising Scene, which will be very strictly enquired into the 19th of April, when there will be a Call of the House, and such Members as do not attend that Day will be taken into Custody. It is confidently asserted, that a Motion will soon be made to have only triennial Parliaments for the future. Upon some Enquiries lately made, a certain great Member said, there was so much Profusion and squandering away of Money of late Years, that even the Stationary Ware of the Government and P. amounting yearly to more Money than was granted by Parliament to Queen Elizabeth to oppose the Spanish Armado."

ST. CHRISTOPHERS.

Basseterre, May 11. On Monday last sailed his Majesty's Ship Marlborough, Rear Admiral Coates, and the Hornet Sloop of War, with the Fleet under their Convoy for Jamaica.

The same Day arrived the Middlethorpe, Thomas Baxter, from Hull. She came out with the Fleet, under Convoy of his Majesty's Ship Marlborough, but was separated from the Convoy by bad Weather, in the Bay of Biscay. On Thursday last, about 30 Leagues to the Eastward of Barbuda, he was attacked by a French Privateer of 12 Guns, and 140 Men. His Ship mounted 10 four Pounders between Decks, he had 25 Men, and was well provided with close Quarters. The Action began at One in the Afternoon, and continued till Seven in the Evening, when the Privateer thought proper to sheer off: The Ship's People gave him three Cheers, and the Captain taking up the Speaking-Trumpet, asked him if he would have any more, and desired him to come on board; but he answered by taking off his Cap, and making a low Bow; having, it seems, more already than he could well digest. As soon as the Privateer (according to the modern Phrase) had made herself scarce, Capt. Baxter was sufficiently employed in knotting and splicing his Rigging, and repairing his other Damages, which were very great, as they had engaged all the Time within Pistol-shot. He now thought his Danger was all over; but at Two next Morning, he was hailed by another French Privateer of 10 Guns, and about 120 Men, who ordered him to bring to, and hoist out his Boat, but the gallant Captain not chusing to understand him, kept on his Course, and the Frenchman not willing to quit, nor daring to

to engage him in the Night, went Cheek by Joll with him till Five in the Morning; when having taken a thorough Survey of his Force, he ranged boldly up under his Quarter, and gave him his whole Broadside, which the Middlethorpe as boldly returned. This Action, which Capt. Baxter says was smarter than the former, continued till Noon; the Privateer sheering off several Times during the Engagement, to repair, and then coming again along-side. Capt. Baxter, who gives a very modest Account of this Affair, says, he is well assured he must have killed a great Number of Men on board these two Sloops; for he thinks that Vessels of their Force, and manned as they seemed to be, would not have quitted him so easily. He nailed up his Colours to the Ensign-staff before the first Engagement, and was determined that the Ship should sink before he would strike. His Hull is full of Iron Bolts and Bars from the Enemy's Guns, and he has several Shot between Wind and Water. They shot away his Fore and Main-Stays, his Topmast Stays, several of his low Shrouds, and all his Back-Stays; his Top-sail Sheets, and the Sails he engaged under, were all shot to Pieces. As they fought their Guns between Decks, and could not go upon the Upper Deck to sound the Pump, the Carpenter proposed to scuttle it between Decks to make Room for the Pump-founder, but the Captain desired him to look down the Hatchway, and when he perceived the Water among the Casks in the Hold, it would then be Time enough for them to think of hoisting out their Boat.

May 21. By a Gentleman arrived from Antigua on Thursday last, there is Advice, that a French Schooner Privateer of 12 Carriage Guns, and 160 Men, was brought into St. John's on Saturday last. She was taken by his Majesty's Ship Lynn.

May 25. On Sunday last was brought into the Road of Basseterre, a French Sloop, taken by the Brigantine Oliver Cromwell, Capt. Read.

We are assured by private Letters from England, that Admiral Broderick may be daily expected with six Ships of the Line, one Bomb, and four Frigates, for protecting the Trade of these Islands, and to take the Command of his Majesty's Ships in these Seas.

On Monday Night last arrived in the Road of Basseterre, a French Flag of Truce, from Guadaloupe, with a very small Number of English Prisoners.

CHARLES-TOWN, (in South-Carolina) April 21.

Last Thursday arrived an Express from our Agent in the Creek Nation, where, we have the Pleasure to assure our Readers, that our Friends continue firm, notwithstanding the redoubled Efforts of the French to extend their Influence. And, as his Excellency continues to give the closest Application to Indian Affairs, and our Agent to be very active, we have great Reason to hope, that those People will at length be brought to join in the Common Cause.

April 28. On Saturday last arrived here, the Weazle Privateer of New-York, commanded by Capt. Fenton, from a Cruize; who informs us, that on the 26th of March, being in Isabella Bay, with two other Privateers, he saw 9 large Ships, to which he gave Chace, but did not come up with them 'til late in the Evening, when he plainly discern'd that they were large Men of War, yet none that he knew; upon which he returned to Isabella Bay, and the next Day went to Monte Christo for Intelligence, where he was informed, that they were French; that six of them went in to the Cape, and three to Port au Prince; that eight more were to follow, and then hourly expected, with 30 Transports, and 130 loaded Merchant Ships from Martinique, which were to proceed Home with whatever Ships might be ready at the Cape, &c. under one Convoy, of two Frigates, while the Line of Battle Ships proceeded upon some important Expedition,—perhaps only to block up Admiral Townshend's Squadron at Jamaica, and give their Merchantmen an Opportunity of escaping that vigilant Commander. Capt. Fenton cruized ten Days on this Coast, in Hopes of meeting with any French Privateers that might have come upon it, but found it quite clear of Enemies.

The same Evening arrived an Express from Fort Loudoun at Tennessee, with certain Advice, that 200 Cherokee Warriors, well equipped, are gone from the Lower Towns, for Virginia, in order to be employed in the Common Cause against the French; and that all's well at the Fort.

May 5. 'Tis said, that, lest our Enemies Privateers should, during the present Summer, attempt to land upon and plunder any Plantations on the Sea Shore, one or two Troops of Rangers will be raised and properly stationed, so as to repel such Attempts, or alarm the Inhabitants, whenever they appear on the Coast, by certain Signals to be appointed.

May 14. On Monday arrived Capt. Roberts from Providence, by whom we have the following Advice, viz. That the Cargo and Specie on board the Snow Vrow Cornelia, being adjudged French Property, were condemned; as was also, the Sloop Laurentia: That a Virginia Privateer had sent in there, a Rhode-Island Vessel, laden with Horses, Provisions, &c. which she took just entering a French Port: That this Vessel had spoke with the Cockspur Privateer of Georgia, commanded by Capt. Braddock, who had a 5 Hours Engagement with, and several Times boarded, a French Privateer Schooner, of superior Force, off Cape-Francois, which killed three of his Men and wounded several more, and so terribly maul'd the Cockspur, that while they repaired her Sails and Rigging, the Frenchman escaped, and got safe into the Cape; Braddock soon after met with some New-York Privateers, who supplied him with every Thing he stood in Need of: That the Greyhound Privateer, of Montserrat, commanded by Capt. Devereux, was arrived there, and made seven Prizes during his Cruize, the last of them a Privateer of 8 Swivel Guns with 36 Men: That a Fifth Privateer, called the Polly, commanded by Capt. Henderson, was fitted out and sail'd on a Cruize from thence; and one more fitting, to be commanded by Capt. Joseph Thompson; both which Vessels had been French Privateers: That since the Arrival of the Men of War au Cap, and our Privateers have quitted the Coast, French Vessels sail as usual to and from all Ports of Hispaniola: And, that between the 1st and 19th of April, there had been taken and carried into Port au Prince, a large Snow, laden with King's Stores, from Antigua for Jamaica, by a French Privateer of 4 Guns and 18 Men, four Snows and Brigs from Philadelphia, and as many Schooners and Sloops from Rhode-Island and other North-American Ports.

We have also Advice, that a large Philadelphia-built Brig is fitting out at Port au Paix, purposely to cruize upon this Coast, mounting 16 Six Pounders and carrying 200 Men, besides a large Philadelphia-built Schooner, from which the French promise themselves great Success: But, they may have reckoned without their Host, if it is true, that this Government is going to fit out or employ one or two stout Vessels, to keep the Coast clear, in which Case we hope to see the Messieurs safely brought in here.

H A L I F A X, May 28.

In his Majesty's Sloop Baltimore, Capt. Owen, who arrived here last Week from New-York, came Passengers, Capt. Oram, who is appointed to command his Majesty's Ship Success, in the Room of Capt. Rous, who is appointed to command the Arc en Ceil, taken by the Litchfield and Norwich, as also the Officers appointed for said Ship.

Last Saturday arrived here his Majesty's Sloop Dispatch, Capt. Bond, in about 5 Weeks from Portsmouth, and we hear he has brought Dispatches for his Excellency our Governor, and Lord Loudoun. In the Dispatch came—Campbell, Esq; Engineer and Inspector General of all his Majesty's Forts and Garrisons in North-America. We hear it was expected, when the Dispatch left England, that the Fleet of Men of War and Transports, destined for America, would sail in a few Days.

On Tuesday Capt. Rous hoisted his Pendant on board the Arc en Ceil, which is now fitting out with the utmost Dispatch. The same Day Capt. Oram took the Command of the Success.

B O S T O N, June 13.

Last Friday was brought to Town the two Scalps (mention'd in our last) and burnt before the Hon. his Majesty's Council, for which a Reward of 600 l. was paid out of the Province Treasury. The Company that went out for this Purpose, failed from Falmouth the 20th of April last, and having made several Attempts by Sea and Land up Penobscot River, at Isle of Holt, Burncoat Island, Mount Defart, and Gall-Rock, about a League to the Eastward of Mount Defart, where they lay ten Days; on the 26th of May departed from said Rock, leaving their Whale Boat, and Part of their Company, and proceeded in a Schooner to the Northward, up the Bay, about five or six Leagues; and on Saturday the 28th of May, about 7 o'Clock, as they were sailing up a certain Island in said Bay, espied two Indians in a Canoe paddling, whom they called to and offered Quarters, but they refusing, fired upon them, and killed one in the Canoe; the other still striving to get away, they continued firing at him, and he returning the Fire for some Time, at last perceiving he had a Shot through his Body, he paddled ashore, took his Gun, and went into the Woods; they pursued and found him dead, scalped him, and came off. One of the Indians was pitted with the Small-Pox, which confirms the Account we had last Fall, of the Penobscots having that Distemper among them at Canada.

By Letters from Halifax, dated the 2d Instant, we have Advice, that a Vessel was just arrived there from Philadelphia, the Master of which affirmed, that on his Passage he fell in with six French Men of War 15 or 16 Leagues to the Eastward of Halifax; upon which Advice, his Majesty's Ship Winchelsea, of 20 Guns, a prime Sailer, was sent out to look into Louisburg Harbour, and several small armed Vessels were out on the Cruize to make Discoveries. We are also told by the Master of a Vessel that came in here since the Receipt of the foregoing Advice, that just as he came out of Halifax, Capt. Martin arrived there in 7 Weeks from London, and reported, that the Fleet for America was not failed when he came out.

Wednesday last arrived at Rhode-Island, a French Prize Snow of six Carriage Guns, besides Swivels, and 36 Men, taken off Bermuda, by the Privateers Brig King of Prussia, Capt. Roff, of Rhode-Island, of 10 Carriage Guns, and 58 Men, and Capt. M'Namara, of Halifax: She is about 150 Tons Burthen, laden with Sugars, Cotton, Coffee, and about 10,000 lb. of Indico. The above Privateers also took at the same Time, a Letter of Marque Ship (Confort with the above Snow) mounting 12 Carriage Guns, and had 60 Men, 300 Tons Burthen: Her Cargo likewise consists of Sugars, Cotton, Coffee, and a vastly greater Quantity of Indico, and was left by the Snow last Wednesday, with the Privateers, the Back of Nantucket, bound to this Port, and may be hourly expected. Capt. Roff engaged them both two Glasses before Capt. M'Namara came up, and had one Man killed, besides himself and three others wounded.

W I L L I A M S B U R G, June 17.

Monday last came to Town Otafite, with 30 Warriors of the Cherokee Nation, who are going to war against the French and Indians on the Ohio.

N E W - Y O R K, June 20.

Our Accounts from Albany since our last, are, That on the 8th Instant one other of Rogers's Rangers, who was taken in the Battle Rogers had last Winter, came in there from the Enemy, and gave out, That in that Battle there were 23 Whites and 9 Indians killed outright, on the Side of the French: That 39 were dangerously wounded, in so much that they all died with their Wounds, save five; and that when he made his Escape, one of them was dying: That he, together with the others his Brother-Prisoners, were carried to Ticonderoga, where there were not above 30 Men posted (all Invalids): That he was carried from thence to Montreal, where he was employed in cutting and rafting Timber from the West Side of Lake Champlain, from which Place he made his Escape: That the French and Indians at Ticonderoga, when they returned from Rogers's Battle, and afterwards from Fort William-Henry, came in scattered, and much dejected, Numbers being killed, and many perished in the Woods returning: That Provisions were very scarce among the French, in so much that in some Places they were reduced to Horse Flesh: That Monsieur Montcalm, with a Body of Regulars and Canadians (a few Days before this Ranger made his Escape) marched from St. John's towards our Frontiers; but that on some Intelligence they had received, two Runners were sent after them, and the Forces returned.

This Ranger also gave out, That it was rumoured in Montreal that two of our Sailors, taken at Oswego, in Company with one of the best Pilots in Quebec, had cut out of that Harbour a small Provision Sloop, and made their Escape down the River St. Lawrence, and were not heard of for ten Days or a Fortnight before he came off.

We further learn from Albany, That the Captains Rogers and Ogden, with a Body of Men, about the 6th or 8th Instant, went to attack the advanced Guard on this Side Ticonderoga, and coming up to the Place, fired on the Centries, and killed three of them, when a French Officer was seen to jump up on the Breast-Work, but soon fell from thence on the Outside of the Works by a Ball from our Party: That the Alarm Gun was thereupon fired, and the whole Garrison sallied, but

From Fort Edward, we have Advice, That on Thursday, the 9th Instant, a Party of Carpenters were sent out at some Distance to cut Timber, with about 15 Soldiers to cover them; that the Centries were no sooner fixed than the whole Body were fired on by a Scout of 60 French and Indians in Ambush, which killed and wounded several of our Men, and that the Remainder got safe into Lyman's Camp, situated a little below the Fort: That Mr. Lyman directly ordered out three Parties of 30 Men each, ordering their Routs, the one to the Right, another something to the Left, while himself with the Third went to the Place from whence the Carpenters were routed, where they found a Path, and following it a little Way, they discovered some Tracks, when he detached ten out of his thirty to trace it: That Lyman with his 20 Men kept the Path, and soon after came upon the French and Indians sitting down, immediately fired upon them, and took 14 of their Packs: That they afterwards saw them carry off some of their Dead and Wounded, and found large Quantities of Blood about the Place, but the English were too weak in Number to pursue: And, that one Capt. Putman was out on a Scout towards the South Bay, and it was hoped he would meet and entirely disperse them.

ELIZABETH-TOWN, June 10.

Last Sunday Morning three Indians who were fed the Day before by a Person from Hyndshaw's Fort, fired upon three Men and two Women in a Scow, going over from our Fort at Walpack, to Hyndshaw's Fort: They killed Stofel Demark, wounded his Wife through both Thighs near the Knee, thought to be mortal, and her Sister through the Side, grazed the Ribs. On Wednesday some Indians called to our Men, at Cole's Fort, to come out, but being only a Serjeant and 7 Men, they refused. The same Evening the Indians were heard on the Hills near Hyndshaw's Fort, which is opposite to Walpack.

June 12. "Lieutenant Holliday, with Twenty-five Men, went last Week from Fort Loudon to the Great Cove, where he was attacked by a Party of Indians, and I am afraid we shall have but a bad Account of the greatest Part of them."

June 13. "A Person, from Conococheague, just now tells me, that Lieut. Holliday, and three of his Party, are found dead, and that four more are missing: That on Saturday last a Woman was carried off by the Indians, a little Way from Jacob Sneveby's, near the Maryland Line: And that Indians are daily seen in different Parts of that Settlement."

Extract of a Third Letter from Carlisle, June 17. "This Minute an Express, from Fort Frederick, arrived here, with Letters to Colonel Stanwix, informing him of a large Body of French and Indians being seen by a Party of the Cherokees at Colonel Dunbar's encamping Place, the other Side of the Great Meadows, with a large Number of Waggon, and other Carriages: Colonel Stanwix marches to-morrow to the Relief of Fort-Cumberland, as, by the Enemy's Course, it is supposed they are destined for that Place; I believe he will take as many of the Provincials with him as are, or can be soon, in Readiness."

The Privateer Spry, Capt. Bowne, of this Port, in Company with Capt. Davis, in a Privateer belonging to New-York, has taken a French Schooner, laden with Sugar, Coffee, &c. bound to Bourdeaux from Martinico, and carried her into St. Christophers.

ANNAPOLIS, June 30.

Friday last his Excellency our Governor returned to Town from Frederick County.

Tuesday last the Embargo on Shipping (which had been for about fifteen Weeks) was entirely taken off.

We have an Account from the Westward, that a few Days ago, one Man was Kill'd and Scalp'd by the Enemy, and another Shot through the Belly, but he made his Escape, though it was thought he could not recover. The Person Kill'd, was Shot as he was standing at his own Door, and a Boy and a Girl carried away into Captivity.

By a Ship from Liverpool, we have an Account that Mr. JOHN LOMAS, who was many Years an Inhabitant of this City, died there last Winter.

This Day several Ships from London came up the Bay; by whom we learn that on the 18th of May, a large Fleet of Merchantmen, for different Parts, sail'd from Plymouth under Convoy, to a certain Distance, of 6 Sail of Men of War, when Thirty-two Sail for North-America, under Convoy of the Ludlow-Castle, Capt. Clarke, parted from the rest. All those for Chesapeake Bay, consisting of 23 Ships, are safe arrived; they parted with those for Philadelphia, New-York, and Carolina, on the Coast. Just before they sail'd, it was currently reported, that the King of Prussia had beat an Army of the Queen of Hungary, and killed 12,000 Men. The French King has been shot at as he was Hunting, and narrowly escaped; but the Assassin had got off. No Papers being yet come to Hand, we cannot give any Particulars.

We hear that Capt. French, just come in from Barbados, has brought Advice, that Eleven Sail of French Men of War had Block'd up Jamaica; and that Six Sail of Ours had Block'd up Martinico.

In the GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE for April, is the following Paragraph, viz. "Saturday 16. (April) Admiral Holbourne, with the Men of War and Transports destined for America, sail'd from St. Helen's with a fair Wind. He is still to wait for the Embarkation of the Troops from Ireland. And as certain Advice has been received, that a Squadron of Men of War with good Land Forces has already sail'd from Brest, under the Command of Lieut. Gen. Lally on the same Voyage, it is feared our Reinforcements will again be too late. Besides this Squadron, another has lately sail'd from Toulon, consisting of four Ships of the Line and a Frigate, under the Command of M. de Reveil, which is victualled for seven Months, and has a considerable Number of Land Forces on board; but its Destination is not certainly known."

By the LOWER HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY:

H. CALLISTER, Agent for FOSTER H. CUNLIFFE and SONS, Esqrs. desires all Debtors to their Concern at Oxford, to make Payment in Cash or Tobacco, or in Wheat so long as he is willing to take it; and those who are not able to make immediate Payment, are desired to come and settle.

As he is conscious of having hitherto treated his Debtors with exemplary Lenity, notwithstanding the malicious Aspersions on his Character by a Set of abandon'd and ungrateful Wretches, whose desperate Circumstances constrain'd him to take the Steps necessary to secure the Interest he has Charge of, and such Aspersions have been with more Ill-Nature fomented by others: As it must be evident to all dispassionate and discerning honest Men, that he has hitherto adhered to the strictest Rules of Humanity in collecting the Debts due to his Constituents, and given their Debtors the fairest and happiest Alternative in the Method of Payments that the Heart of an honest Man can desire, and which they cannot with Justice claim, having constantly given higher Prices to his Debtors than he could purchase for of others, and taking a losing Commodity; he is still Consistent, and will have all the Patience a reasonable Man can wish, on taking Bonds, or good Surety, where the Circumstances of the Debtor appear to him precarious. This he is induced to from the Consideration of the present Times bearing hard on many, and purely for their own Sakes, for he has had his Patience already used and abused, and does not think himself obliged to suspend the Rigour of Justice. This, it is hoped, People will reflect upon, and alter their Conduct with regard to him.

He has still on Hand, a considerable Quantity of European and West-India GOODS, both old and fresh, which he will sell cheap for ready Tobacco, Cash, or Wheat.
