

Prince-George's County, June 29, 1765.

Mr. GREEN,

AT a Time, when even the Authority of the British Parliament to Tax the Colonies is hardly understood, and reluctantly admitted by some People, no one seems to doubt the Right of our FACTORS, or (if you chuse an Appellation less proper, and more common) MERCHANTS in London, to impose what Tallages they please upon the Shippers of Tobacco, and every one submits to their Exercise of this Right with an Alacrity of Acquiescence, equal to the Clearness of it's Principles, and the Certainty of their Operation.

The Doctrine of VIRTUAL REPRESENTATION, like that of substantial Forms among the Schoolmen, is deduced from Ideas too refined for the gross Conceptions of Men, unexercised in nice, and subtle Disquisitions, and unimproved by curious and profound Researches; but the immediate Representation by the Merchants, with the Powers incident to it of disposing of the Property of the Planters at Discretion, charging what they please for all Services, whether secret or divulged, and of rendering what Accounts they think proper of their Administration, is obvious and striking.

The Existence of this extensive Representation can't be denied by those who feel, and placidly submit to the genuine yearly Effects of it: For it is incredible, that the Planters would suffer their FACTORS (I beg Pardon, I should have said, MERCHANTS) to charge what they please, if the Constituents were not convinced, that it would be inconsistent with the Nature of the Representation to examine into, and controvert, the Validity of any Acts done by their Deputies. In common Affairs, from which the Notion of Representation is excluded, as soon as an unjust Charge is perceived, an Objection is started, and a Rectification firmly insisted upon. If the Claimant should not be prevailed upon, by the mild Course of Exposition, to recede from the Exaction, this Behaviour would not only blemish his Character, and make all prudent Men averse from dealing with him, but prove also incompetent to the Accomplishment of his fraudulent Purpose, since the other would still have an effectual Remedy to protect himself from Oppression: For the Exactor is either Debtor or Creditor; if the former, and he strives to diminish his Debt by indefensible Charges, the Payment of the whole may be compelled by a Suit; if the latter, and he endeavours to swell his Demand by unconscionable Articles: it may be safely refused, unless reduced by a just Abatement.

A Stranger, who should inspect an Account of Sales from a Tobacco Merchant, might be at a Loss to find out the Propriety of Commissions upon Payments not made, or of charging Commissions, on his Trouble in paying himself.

On observing POSTAGE charged upon every Hoghead, he would be apt to express his Admiration, that the Shippers should universally be tainted with an Itch for Scribbling; and after all other Matters should be ingeniously explained to him, he would not probably comprehend a Factor's Right to burthen his Principal with any Charge not actually incurred; but an Hint of the Doctrine of Representation would at once clear up all Difficulties, and dissipate every Cloud of Hesitation.

If Merchant and Planter could properly be considered in the confined Relation of Debtor and Creditor, I make no Doubt, but all the new Charges introduced since the Year 1759, which are yet too recent to pretend to the Character of Establishments, would be given up on a few expostulatory Letters; but since the Merchant is vested with an unlimited Authority to lay what Impositions he pleases, the more heavy and frequent they are, the more conspicuous, and meritorious, is the humble Resignation, and implicitly submissive Acquiescence of the Planter.

I have observed, this Year, great Variety in the Article POSTAGE OF LETTERS. I have seen it charged at Three Pence, Four Pence, Six Pence, Eight Pence, and One Shilling. Why should it not in a few Years take a new Start from Twelve Pence?

The Difference specified hath not arisen from the Number of Letters written by the Shippers, because the Shilling hath been charged, tho' not a single Letter was written, nor is there any Circumstance known, or guessed at, to account for the Difference.

How many Shippers have been affected by the Addition to the Charge of Postage I can't say; but taking it for granted that it will be passed over, without Animadversion, by those who have been affected, I presume it will become general, and very soon, justly obtain the same Sanction, and plead the Title many other Articles have done, that of Usage, and the Course of Business.

Should this Supposition appear well founded, permit me, with all due Deference to superior Wisdom, to recommend it to those who have not yet been affected by the additional Charge, to write to their Merchants, beseeching them to insert it in their next Accounts of Sales, and I flatter myself they will be most graciously pleased to comply with the Request, if Care be taken to express it in all the Humiliation of the petitionary Style.

This Step will entitle the Body of Planters to the Praise of more than passive Merit, and that too, without any real Expence at the Bottom, if my Prophecy of what may be, may be grounded upon my Observation of what uniformly hath been.

A very remarkable, and apposite Instance on this Head lately occurred. Some of the Merchants had charged a Commission on the new Imposition of 1759, others had not; but there being no serious Objection to the Article, it hath become, I believe, general, and the Reason given, for following the Example of the honest Introducers of the Charge, by those who had not at first made it, at the same Time that it afforded a Proof of their courteous Condescension, (for surely Condescension it was to give any Reason at all) established likewise the undeniable and very useful Maxim, that what one hath a Right to do, another in the same Situation hath an equal Right to do. Wherefore, inasmuch as Men have a powerful Propension to exercise their Right, when a Profit results from it, I have been tempted to conjecture, that the additional Postage will not stop with the acute Inventors of it.

There appearing, I trust, to be no Foundation for the Reproach of Ignorance, I shall next shew against all invidious Detractors, that the Minuteness of the Tallages, occasionally enacted by Accounts of Sales, can't be the Reason, why they are paid with so much Complacence. I don't mean to meddle with old Establishments, they are too sacred to be impeached, too venerable to be arraigned. All Government depends upon them; and it is the Remark of a very celebrated Writer on the Subject of Polity, that "ancient Foundations cannot be weakened, nor Land Marks removed, be the Pretences never so plausible, without great Danger, or great Injury."

Of these then I speak not. Fifteen Pence per Hoghead was the Fond, upon which our Paper Money was emitted; One Shilling per Hoghead is paid for the Support of Government, and is deemed a very great Matter; and when Three Half Pence per Hoghead have been now and then added, the Compliment hath been thought too expensive by some of the good People of Maryland, and the Givers have always been very politely thanked for their Munificence; but the Planters in a very few Years past have been taxed by their Delegates, the Merchants, to a greater Amount than the Fifteen Pence, the Twelve Pence, and the Three Half Pence, per Hoghead, all added together, and they are so far from repining, that they don't even require any Reason for it, but are contented with the Contemplation of Figures, the Amusement in explicating the Meaning of the Abbreviations in their Accounts of Sales, and with admiring the Elegance of the Composition, which informs them, that "inclosed have Account Sales of ——— Hogheads of Tobacco, nett Proceeds carried to Credit in Account current herewith sent, which doubt not will find right." It is evident then that the Tenuity of the Tax, is the Reason why it is submitted to. It may at first Sight be suspected, perhaps, that the Merchants think the Impositions too trivial to deserve a civil Notice, and too frequent not to make the Ceremony of it troublesome: But I must do them the Justice to say, it is not for this Reason, nor any Want of Gratitude, or good Manners, that they do not thank the Planters upon every new Taxation; for, upon these Occasions, Representatives never do Thank their Constituents, Thank Them indeed they do, when They are appointed Delegates, and have, with this Character, the Power of taxing conferr'd on them, and so do the Merchants, when They receive the Tobaces, which confers on Them the same Power. Let it not then be objected to the worthy Merchants, that They are wanting in Politeness, or due Acknowledgments, when They do not observe the Language of Compliment, where it would be unsuitable to the Subject. From Him to whom any Thing is given, Thanks may be expected, but not from him who takes.

Would the Merchants exercise their Right of taxing with so little Reserve, had They not been encouraged, by long Experience of the dutiful and ready Obedience of their Constituents, and would their Constituents have display'd this admirable Obedience, if They were not the most quiet, the most passive, the most submissive, People, in the Universe?

The reciprocal Conduct of Merchant and Planter then, in their Intercourse, will, (as it doubtless ought) prevent all Imputations on the good People of Maryland of a disobedient or refractory Spirit, should they hint a little Discontent at the late Stamp-Act, since, upon a fair Examination, it can't, with an Appearance of Candour, be derived from any other Source, than their Ignorance of political Fictions, of the latent Principles of a refined Contexture, and of that exquisitely artificial Concatenation of Consequences, upon which the important and most salutary Doctrine of Virtual Representation is constructed.

Since we see what good-natured, easy, patient, tame, Folks, the Planters are, in their ready Resignation, unattended by the least Murmur, or Complaining, Whimper of Disapprobation, or shrug of Diffidence, when their Merchant Representatives publish, by an Account of Sales, a new Imposition, there is the greatest Reason to expect, that They will not only obey without Reluctance, but even applaud the Stamp-Act, as soon as it shall appear to Them to be the legitimate Offspring of Constitutional Authority, and not the Production of oppressive Domination.

Far from me be the Attempt to draw into Question, the Rights and Prerogatives of the Merchants, by direct Impeachment, or covert Insinuation. It would be impertinent in him to dispute a Power, who is but little affected by it, when those, who are a great deal, pay a willing Obedience to it. Besides, were the Power palpably usurped, I have not sufficient Resolution to accuse of Iniquity, Extortors, or to convince the willingly oppressed, that they deserve what they suffer by their Tameness in bearing it, and instead of hoping for any Diminution of their Burthens, that they ought to expect an Addition to their present Pressures, as great as they can Bear, like the Ass in the Fable, without being rendered totally useless to their Lords and Masters: For even that Man, who is so meek and lowly of Spirit, as not only to truckle to the Power of the imperious and lawless Oppressor, but to resign himself patiently to the Rule of a feeble Woman, might be roused to a very furious and dangerous Resentment, at the sound of the Word, Hen-peck'd.

Having, as I hope, established the pacific and long suffering Character of the Planters, and accounted fairly for any Uneasiness some of them may express at the late Stamp-Act, upon the Hypothesis of their not understanding the recondite Doctrine of Virtual Representation, to which, I am confident, they will assent, and yield all Obedience to the Effects of, as soon as it shall be levelled, by a happy Explanation; the common Apprehension, and reconciled with common sense I beg Leave to offer a very important Proposition to the Consideration ation of the Public, not doubting a candid Acceptation.

It is notorious what Pains were taken by the weighty and respectable Body of Maryland Merchants to avert the Imposition of the Stamp, how early they formed a Committee to concert the proper Means for warding off the dreadful Blow, with what Wisdom they laid their Plan, with what Zeal, Vigour, Address, and Perseverance, they directed, urged, and enforced, their Applications. These Things we all equally know, such Merit being too illustrious for the most Inattentive to overlook. 'Tis true, alas! 'tis too true, their Endeavours, so generous, so laudable, so indicative of their Gratitude, their Attachment to our Interests, failed, but it was not their Fault.

After such pregnant Proofs of their friendly Regard, I can't doubt that any reasonable Overture for the Relief of the Planters will be favourably received by them. Upon this just Presumption, therefore, I have framed the Proposition, that, instead of their charging Commissions hereafter upon Payments of future Duties they shall not make, they may be intitled, by Way of Composition, to the additional Sum of One Shilling per Hoghead, over and above the Amount of the highest Charges in any Account of Sales hitherto transmitted, to be annually levied of the Body, Goods, and Chattels, Lands and Tenements of the Shipper, by Order of the Justices of the County wherein the Shipper shall reside; and to be paid to the Attorney in Fact of the Merchant-Representative, in Case the Tobacco shou'd not, as sometimes happens, sell for enough to defray the Charges, and that the Justices may not through Remissness, or otherwise, suffer the Merchant-Representative to be defrauded of his Due, the Attorneys in Fact to appoint proper Persons to attend the respective Courts, and superintend the Demerour of the Justices. Shou'd the Merchants be so indulgent as to signify their Willingness to accept of the proposed Composition, the Assembly will, without Doubt, pass an Act to secure it, since great Advantage will, most probably, redound from it to his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the good People of Maryland.

I suppose the Consent of the Merchants previous to the Act of Assembly, since, without it, any Attempt to introduce a Restriction or Regulation of the Intercourse between her Sons in Law in America, and her own Sons in England, might probably alarm the Affections of, and be deemed inconsistent with the Duty we owe to, the Mother Country.

I have mentioned the Advantage of the People. Few Words will sufficiently explain it. Whilst the Merchants are intitled to a Commission (and intitled to it they are, if they claim and receive it) upon all Duties on Tobacco, whether actually paid, or not, their Interests and the Planters are Opposite. Merchants, hereafter, actuated by selfish Passions, may have more Inclination to promote their own Emolument, than Tenderness towards those, at whose Expence their Profit shall arise, and therefore, there is Reason to fear, that, instead of the ardent Opposition lately formed to the Stamp-Act, they may, if not compounded with, privately solicit new Imposts on Tobacco. The Utility of the proposed Law would therefore consist in it's taking away the Temptation the Merchants may be under of employing their secret Endeavours to bring about such Imposts.

The Stamp Duty, we are told, is only an Earnest of what we are to expect. The next Imposition may be upon Tobacco, and should a new Impost be laid upon Tobacco, what Reason could be assigned, what Distinction invented, to shew that a Charge of Commission upon a Duty to be imposed in 1769, might not be introduced as reasonably and conscientiously, as on the Duty of 1759.

It is a dangerous Thing to trust the most upright Men, even the Merchants of London, with Temptations of Interest, which have been found so powerful in seducing frail Mortals from the Paths of Integrity and Honour: If any Men deserve to be trusted in such a Situation, I must grant that the Merchants in London do.

Who has not heard how indefatigable they were to prevent the new Impost in the Year 1759, what dejected, woe-be-gone Countenances, they wore when it took place? How much drier their Lips were than their Eyes on the Evening they spent together after that Event, an Event, on which neither could Joy-inspiring Bacchus in his Purple Dress exhilarate, nor Care-dispelling Punch, relieve the Grief-stricken Club?

After a Disappointment so cruel, a Distress so severe, who can blame or envy the Consolation they have found in the comforting Cordial of a Commission on the new Duty?

The additional Charge for Postage of Letters, &c. being not yet established, let me hope that the Three Pence may stand; for as we are to pay Postage for Letters to be written to Us by our Correspondents, it looks a little odd at this Time to enhance the Charge of Postage for Letters not written by Us to our Correspondents.

I do not express my Hope with any sinister Aim against a new Perquisite, nor am I so idle as to hope at all, that after having made it's Appearance it will vanish, and be no more heard of, unless some Substitute equally profitable is recommended in it's Stead, and therefore I humbly propose, that the old Three Pence may stand without Augmentation, and a new Charge be introduced, to run thus, for the CHANCERIZING Nine Pence per Hoghead, or let it be abbreviated CHANCE if they please. The Trouble the Merchants have, must needs be very great, when they sell a great Number of Hogheads at a general undistinguishing Price by the Pound, to CHANCERIZE the Matter, as it is called, among the Shippers, i. e. to allot a Price for each Hoghead according to it's Quality.

Of their admirable Equity and Impartiality in their arduous Office of CHANCELLORS, I could produce various and irrefragable Testimonies; but shall, to avoid Prolixity, barely hint at one Proof, which is abundantly sufficient.

It is notorious, that a Debtor to a Merchant never gets a higher Price, than one who is clear, when the Quality of their Tobaccos is in all Respects as equal as possible, notwithstanding the great Temptation the Merchant is undoubtedly under to make a Difference in Favour of his Debtor, to enable him to discharge his Score, and get out of Debt.

Yours, &c. Y. Z.

L O N D O N, April 20.

IT appears that it was legal to Quarter Troops in private Houses in Scotland before the Union, and it never having been altered by Law since, Troops are to this Day in that Country Quartered at Discretion, on those who neglect or refuse to pay the Land Tax. This is now urged as a Precedent for the like Measure in America, though we cannot learn any of our Colonies ever refused to pay any Taxes imposed upon them. As Scotland has been produced as a Precedent for America, is it not too much to be feared, that e'er long both Scotland and America may be urged for doing the like in England? If once this happens, adieu to all that is dear and valuable to Men.

April 23. We hear the King of Prussia had like to have been burnt by Reading in Bed; he had fallen asleep, during which the Sheets had taken Fire.

The Bill for Quartering Soldiers in North-America, is put off till next Year.

April 24. We are assured that the Result of some late important Councils, relating to the present untoward Disposition of Affairs in North-America, has been, to remove not only Measures, but Men, so far as shall be found necessary, to encourage Commerce, and restore the public Tranquility in that Quarter.

We hear that a certain Sum of Money arisen, or which may arise, from the Duties granted by an Act of last Sessions, for laying certain Duties on Goods and Merchandize in the American Colonies, is to be applied for the Payment of his Majesty's Troops that are kept for the Defence of the said Colonies and new acquired Settlements.

April 25. Yesterday his Majesty went in State to the House of Peers, attended by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Master of the Horse, and the Earl of Pomfret, and gave the Royal Assent to such Bills as were ready for that Purpose; when his Majesty made a Speech to both Houses of Parliament, in which he told them, That the tender Concern which he felt for his faithful Subjects, made him anxious to provide for every possible Event which might affect their future Happiness or Security.

That his late Indisposition, tho' not attended with Danger, had led him to consider the Situation in which his Kingdoms, and his Family, might be left, if it should please God to put a Period to his Life, whilst his Successor was of tender Years.

That the high Importance of this Subject to the public Safety, good Order and Tranquility; the paternal Affection, which he bore to his Children, and to all his People; and his earnest Desire, that every Precaution should be taken, which might tend to preserve the Constitution of Great-Britain undisturbed, and the Dignity and Lustre of its Crown unimpaired; had determined him to lay this weighty Business before his Parliament, and as his Health, by the Blessing of God, was now restored; he took the earliest Opportunity of meeting them, and of recommending to their most serious Deliberation the making such Provision as would be necessary, in Case of any of his Children should succeed to the Throne, before they shall respectively attain the Age of Eighteen Years.

That to this End, he proposed to their Consideration, whether, under the present Circumstances, it would not be expedient to vest in him the Power of appointing, from Time to Time, by Instruments in Writing, under his Sign Manual, either the Queen, or any other Person of his royal Family, usually residing in Great-Britain, to be the Guardian of the Person of such Successor, and the Regent of these Kingdoms, until such Successor shall attain the Age of Eighteen Years, subject to the like Restrictions and Regulations, as are specified and contained in an Act, passed upon a similar Occasion, in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of the late King, his royal Grandfather: The Regent so appointed to be assisted by a Council, composed of the several Persons, who, by Reason of their Dignities and Offices, are constituted Members of the Council established by that Act, together with those whom they might think proper to leave to his Nomination.

A particular Clause in the Marriage-Act, so far as regards his Majesty's American Islands and Plantations is expected to take Place this Session.

We hear the late Act for calling in the American Paper Currency will not be repealed.

The Alarm taken at the Clause for Quartering Troops in private Houses in America is not groundless.

April 27. It is now said the American Provinces will have a Liberty to melt down Bullion for establishing a Gold and Silver Currency; not to be coined as in Europe, but stamped, after the Manner practised in the neighbouring Spanish Provinces.

B O S T O N, June 13.

We hear from Newport, Rhode-Island, that his Majesty's Ship Maidstone, having pressed a Number of Seamen belonging to that Place, their Brethren on Shore were so much irritated, that on Tuesday last (King's Birth Day) they seized upon her Barge, which having drawn up into the Street, they made a Bonfire of; and it is said one of the Lieutenants making some Resistance, was also much abused.

The following Advertisement is in the London Printer's STAMP OFFICE, April 11, 1765.

THE Commissioners for managing his Majesty's Stamp Duties, finding it necessary to alter the Officers Hours of Attendance, give Notice, that for the future all Stationers and other Persons wanting any Vellum, Parchment and Paper to be stamped, are to apply in the Forenoon; the Afternoons being appropriated for the Service of Stamping for AMERICA and THE WEST-INDIES.

N E W - Y O R K, June 20.

Extract of a Letter from Detroit, May 19, 1765.

"Since the Arrival of the Shallop CHARLOTTE, we have been informed that Maisonneville, and Andrew, the Huron, who, you may remember, were sent from this to Fort-Pitt, were sent from thence with some Englishmen to the Illinois, whom it is supposed are burnt; as Pondiac's Nephew arrived at the Miamces from thence the 9th Instant, and told the Indians that Pondiac had seized six Englishmen, one Freschman, and three Indians, that had been sent from Fort Pitt to that Place, and carried them to Ouistatanos, where they were all burnt, except two, which he intends to bring to the Miamces for a Present.

"Pondiac is now raising the St. Joseph Indians, the Miamces, the Mascoutins, Ouistatanos, Piant and Illinois, to come to this Place the Beginning of next Month, to make what Essets they can against us, for which Purpose he has procured a large Belt for each Nation, and one larger than the Rest for a Hatchet for the Whole: They are to be joined by some of the Northern Indians, as is reported. This, they say, is to be an Undertaking of their own, as they are not to have any Assistance from the French.

"When Pondiac left the Miamces, he told them to remain quiet till he came back, as it should then be all Peace or all War.

"I make no Doubt of their Intention to perform what we have been informed of, though I do not think it will come to any Head; and I am likewise well convinced if Pondiac could be made believe he would be well received at this Place,

ANNAPOLIS, July 4.
On the 13th of last Month, Died at Boston, of a lingering Illness, Captain EDMUND RUTLAND, of this City; and, on the 15th, his Remains were decently Inter'd, being attended to the Grave by a great Number of Gentlemen belonging to that Place. He was well respected by his Neighbours and Acquaintance.

Yesterday arrived here, in 16 Days from Barbados, the Brig Achfab, Capt. Noel, of Baltimore, who brings Word that Markets were low, and Provisions very plenty.

This GAZETTE "is of few Days, and full of Trouble." Poor JOB. ch. xiv.

We have had several MS Copies of some late Resolves of the House of Burgesses in Virginia, just before their Dissolution, desiring a Place for them in this Paper. The following are received from a Gentleman in that Colony; and, if any Error in them, the Fault lies not here.

RESOLVES of the House of Burgesses in VIRGINIA, June 1765.

THAT the first Adventurers and Settlers of this his Majesty's Colony and Dominion of Virginia, brought with them, and transmitted to their Posterity, and all other his Majesty's Subjects since inhabiting in this his Majesty's Colony, all the Liberties, Privileges, Franchises, and Immunities, that at any Time have been held, enjoyed, and possessed, by the People of Great Britain.

That by Two Royal Charters, granted by King James the First, the Colonies aforesaid are Declared Entitled, to all Liberties, Privileges and Immunities, of Denizens and Natural Subjects (to all Intents and Purposes) as if they had been Abiding and Born within the Realm of England.

That the Taxation of the People by themselves, or by Persons Chosen by themselves to Represent them, who can only know what Taxes the People are able to bear, or the easiest Method of Raising them, and must themselves be affected by every Tax laid upon the People, is the only Security against a Burthenome Taxation; and the Distinguishing Characteristic of British FREEDOM; and, without which, the antient Constitution cannot exist.

That his Majesty's Lige People of this his most Ancient and Loyal Colony, have, without Interruption, the inestimable Right of being Governed by such Laws, respecting their internal Polity and Taxation, as are derived from their own Consent, with the Approbation of their Sovereign, or his Substitute; which Right hath never been Forfeited, or Yielded up; but hath been constantly recognized by the Kings and People of Great Britain.

Resolved therefore, That the General Assembly of this Colony, with the Consent of his Majesty, or his Substitute, HAVE the Sole Right and Authority to lay Taxes and Impositions upon its Inhabitants: And, That every Attempt to vest such Authority in any other Person or Persons whatsoever, has a Manifest Tendency to Destroy AMERICAN FREEDOM.

That his Majesty's Lige People, Inhabitants of this Colony, are not bound to yield Obedience to any Law or Ordinance whatsoever, designed to impose any Taxation upon them, other than the Laws or Ordinances of the General Assembly as aforesaid.

That any Person who shall, by Speaking, or Writing, assert or maintain, That any Person or Persons, other than the General Assembly of this Colony, with such Consent as aforesaid, have any Right or Authority to lay or impose any Tax whatever on the Inhabitants thereof, shall be Deemed, AN ENEMY TO THIS HIS MAJESTY'S COLONY.

SUPPLEMENT

To the MARYLAND GAZETTE, [N^o. 1052.]

Annapolis, July 4, 1765.

To the Printer of the Westminster Journal.

S I R,

AS it is said, that in the Bill which is soon to be brought into the House, for the better paying and regulating the Army in his Majesty's American Dominions, there is to be a Clause, that Soldiers may be Billeted, or Quartered, upon private Families, I should take it as a Favour if any of your ingenious Correspondents would answer the following Questions. 1. Whether the Subjects of the Crown of Great-Britain, in whatsoever Part of its Dominions they may be settled, are not to be esteemed a free People, and treated as such? 2. Whether they are not entitled to, and ought to enjoy, all the essential Rights of Englishmen? 3. Whether an Englishman forfeits all his Rights, and is no more a Freeman, when he goes abroad and settles in some of the Colonies of this Kingdom? 4. Whether such People are, or can by any Means be deemed free, who are subject to have Soldiers Quartered upon them at Pleasure? 5. Whether the Passing a Law for Quartering Soldiers on private Families in our Plantations abroad, will not be a large Stride towards enslaving us in the same Manner at home? 6. And whether our tamely submitting to fix Shackles on our Fellow-Subjects in America, would not shew that we Ourselves were ripe for the same in England?

WHEREAS the Subscriber's Worldly Affairs are so circumstanced that he is under a Necessity of leaving this Province in a short Time, in Order to settle them, and the many Favours he has already received at the Hands of many of the Gentlemen residing here, encourages him to make a further Trial of their benevolent Disposition in helping him to dispose of the Tickets in the following LOTTERY, whereof a Scheme is annexed. The House and Store are situated in the most advantageous Spot of Ground for Trade in the City of Annapolis, and at these dull Times would be reckon'd very reasonable at the yearly Rent of Fifty Pounds Currency, so that whoever gets the two first Prizes will lay out his Money well, and should it so happen that two are concern'd, they will see their Advantage in selling out or buying in as they can agree. The Land is situated in Dorchester County, very valuable, and could the Subscriber wait for the Money, would sell among the Neighbours, for as much Sterling as it is valued at present in Currency; it will be divided in Three equal Lots of 45 Acres, for the Conveniency of Buying or Selling. The remaining 127 Tickets are to be paid off in European Goods, rated very low in Pennsylvania Currency.

As the Sale of the Tickets in this Lottery, will enable the Subscriber to get clear of all the Eff^{ts} whereof he stands at present possessed in this Province, in a speedy Manner, he takes this Method of acquainting the Public, that their good Offices in assisting him to perfect the same, will never be forgot by him, and to convince them that the Whole will be carried on with the greatest Integrity, he has made Choice of the following Gentlemen in this City to be Managers of the Whole in his Absence, and they are empowered to make Deeds to the fortunate Adventurers for the Houses and Land, and deliver the several Goods, as numbered in their respective Lots.

The Managers are, Messieurs Lancelot Jacques, Anthony Stewart, Thomas Richardson, Richard Macubin, Charles Wallace, William Stewart, Reverdy Gbifelin, and Colin Campbell, and the two Book-keepers, George Clarke and George Digges.

The Drawing will be on the first Tuesday in August next, or sooner if the Tickets are all sold; Fourteen Days Notice whereof will be given in the Maryland Gazette, that as many of the Adventurers as chuse to attend may be present.

The Convenience to good Navigation for Sea Vessels, to the Town of Fredericksburg, distant one Mile, to the Town of Falmouth, which stands on the North Side of the River, opposite to the Mills, and a good Fording Place between them, and to a fertile Back Country, where large Quantities of Grain may be purchased, are Advantages very obvious, and afford a Prospect for carrying on the Flour and Baking Trades to great Extent and Profit, especially the latter, as most of the Ships in Rappahannock River have Occasion to send to the above Towns for Tobacco, Iron, &c.

THE Subscribers beg Leave to inform the PUBLIC, That they have lately Erected, at BALTIMORE-TOWN, in MARYLAND, A DISTILLERY for making RUM; which, (by many good Judges who have seen it) is allow'd to be one of the largest, completest and best constructed STILL-HOUSE of any in NORTH-AMERICA: And having furnished themselves with an expert DISTILLER, and a plentiful Stock of MOLASSES, they purpose to carry on the DISTILLING BUSINESS extensively, and to supply constantly the Demand for Home-made RUM, at nearly the same as the Philadelphia Prices, at least on much lower Terms than the Province of MARYLAND has been generally supplied with that Article. The RUM already made by them has been highly approved by the best Judges, and deemed superior to either Philadelphia or New-England RUM; and they hope to give Satisfaction to the Public, as well as maintain their own Reputation, by continuing to make always of the same approved Quality.

As this Undertaking is so well calculated to promote the general Trade of the Province, and so convenient for supplying the Country Traders, Farmers, &c. who bring their Produce to Baltimore Market, as well as to promote the private Emolument of the Owners; it is hoped the Public will give proper Encouragement to a Branch of Trade so useful, and so much wanted in the Province.

Any Gentlemen wanting Quantities of RUM for Exportation, by giving timely Notice may be supplied, and proper Allowance made to such, by

Their humble Servants,

SAMUEL & ROBERT PURVIANCE, & Comp.

Whoever takes up the said Fellow, and secures him, so that he may be had again, shall have Eight Dollars Reward.

(23) ROBERT TYLER.

WHEREAS one JOHN HUNT, who left England, and in the Year 1748 lived in St. Paul's Parish, Baltimore County, Maryland, as a Saddler, and removed to Western Parish in the same County; from thence, 'tis said, he went to Cumberland in Georgia, and from thence to St. Augustine; and in January, 1764, as it is also said, he ordered a Cargo of Goods from London, to be directed to Messrs. Banton and Rogett in St. Augustine; to be left with Messrs. Hoopers and Swallows, in Charles-Town, South-Carolina: If the said John Hunt be still Alive, and will apply to the Subscriber, living in Baltimore-Town, Maryland, he will hear of Something to his Advantage. LONDON, April 19.

HERE is no Liberty in this Country, which is held more dear than that of the PRESS, nor indeed with so much Reason; for if that is destroyed, what we have else to boast of, is gone in an Instant. Arbitrary Ministers (and none but such) are Enemies to this Liberty, because it ever has been a Check upon their Tyranny. But, if ever that Time should come when the Press may be punished without a JURY (that great and solemn Privilege of Englishmen delivered down to us by our virtuous and spirited Ancestors) may we not fear the Liberties of this Country, and all the Blessings which it boasts above other Nations, will be departed forever? While we have JURIES, we may be free, or if we are not, it is our own fault.— And if these are taken from us, we shall be the mere Slaves of a Minister, who may do as he pleases; may by innuendo and illegal Construction, order his Myrmidons to hunt Printers and Publishers, till he is entirely rid of the PRESS.

To the PRINTER.

I AM just come to Town, and the first News I heard was, that the PRINTERS and PUBLISHERS are all frightened out of their Wits, and that the LIBERTY of the PRESS was upon the Verge of Destruction. As I know not what Ground there might be for these Assertions, I made some Enquiry, and found sure enough that you PRINTERS and PUBLISHERS have but too much Reason to be alarmed; for during the last Twelve Months, there have been no less than EIGHT Attacks upon the PRESS. Indeed this is serious Business and well deserves some sober Consideration, and in my Opinion, (would in any Times, but the present) make a Minister think so. However, I cannot think the People quite so Lethargic as some Folks in Power tell me; they say the People are quite satisfied, are perfectly easy in their Minds, and sincerely believe that their Liberties and their Interests are undoubtedly secure in the Hands of the present Administration.—May be so.—Nobody desires to have the Liberty of this Country more secure than I do: But I cannot help saying, that this Court Cant, very ill agrees with certain very public Transactions. Can our Liberties be secure, when that great and essential One of the PRESS is daily attacked, and PRINTERS and BOOK-SELLERS are so terrified by uncommon Rigour, that they will neither print nor publish? Can our Liberties be secure, if that highest and most valuable of all our Liberties, a JURY, be taken from us? To destroy the Liberty of the PRESS, and take away Trials by JURY, are what despotic Ministers have ever aimed at, as the only Bars to their arbitrary Designs. Therefore if any Steps are taken for accomplishing these, can the great People think, the little Ones are such Fools, as to still believe their Liberties are secure? It is such an Absurdity, that one can compare it to nothing but the deceitful Conduct of a certain Martyr, who, while he pretended to be a Friend to Liberty, was making the most alarming Strides towards Tyranny.—From such Times, good Lord deliver us! Yes, and in North-America we offer up the same Prayer.

INTELLIGENCE EXTRAORDINARY.

Est in Viris, est in Equis Virtus Parentum.

WESTMINSTER RACES.

THE greatest Match that ever was made, is now depending between John Bull, Esqr's old blood-bay Horse Public, and Lord Caledonia's grey Mare Regency. It is to be run over the Dodging Course, Public carrying twelve Stone, Regency only a Feather.

Public was got by Brunswick Honesty, his Grandfire by Revolution William a well-bred Son of the famous Horse Liberty. Public's Dam was English Bess, that beat old Lord Bolingbroke's

Mary Scot, Daughter of Highlander. English Bess was got by the Hampden Stallion, out of a Ludlow Mare, full Sister to Oliver Tartar, Parliament John, and Joyce's Lopptop, all of the old Blood of the Magna Charta Stallion.

Regency was got by the Stuart Stallion Scabby Jemmy, out of the Old Pretender's Mare Passive Obedience, full Sister to Non-Resistance, Daughters of the Pope's Milk white Stallion Infallibility, out of the noted Inquisition Mare Firetail.

Scabby Jemmy is a Son of Highland Mac, out of the terrible Mountain-Mare Mangey Moggie, whose Blood is in high Estimation at present, and preserved in the Luton Stud.

The Odds are at present ten to one Regency against Public, Public being very aged, and manifestly in a deep decline of Constitution.

Public won several very great Matches against Lewis Baboon, Esqr's best Cattle, and never was beat, when fairly and honestly rode. Public won the great Sweepstakes over Culloden moor, April 16, 1746, beating James Stuart, Esqr's Highland Laddie, Lewis Baboon, Esqr's Bravo, Mr. Provost's Flower of Edinburgh, the Manchester Gelding Wrong-head, Mr. Wales's Watkin, and Mr. Irish's Whiteboy; but this was won, in a great Measure, by the Resolution and Skill of Will Royal, who rode him, as Public was almost run off his Legs, and had been beat a little before in two Matches, wholly owing to the want of Judgment in his Riders.

Public had most Success when rode by Will Royal, Brunswick Ferdi, or Ned Hawk, and when trained and brought to the Post by old Newcastle Tom, or Pincent Will.

Public's Legs began to swell, and to appear full of Humours, about the Time of signing the Peace of Paris; since which Time his Coat has never looked well, and he has been very Short-winded, and quite out of order. It was a very near Thing last Year, between Public, and the Scotch Horse Prerogative, Public winning by only half a Neck, a very up-hill Course, and Prerogative's Rider, Jack Doublesee, did not only crofs and jostle, but made several Attempts to throw old Public down, whose Weakness he well knew; but honest Phil Jurymen, who rode Public, was too knowing for him. This last Match strained the old Horse very much, so that little now can be expected from the good old Horse, who is also very much overweighted.

Regency is now in very high Condition, having been highly fed, and is so frisky, and has such a way of kicking, that it is to be feared he will drive old Public quite out of the Course: The only chance Public can possibly have of winning, will be by having a very honest and able Rider. It has been reported that Charles Changeable is to ride old Public, and wear a Party coloured black and white, or Magpye Jacket, but all Well-wishers hope that it will be honest Pincent Will in Orange. Regency's Rider is fixed, Sandy Stuart in Plaid, and a Bonnet. However, we are sorry to add, that it is also reported that Pincent Will does not care to ride, as he says Public is very much out of Condition, and has been growing so a-pace, ever since he lost his good old Master George Steady, Esq; whose chief Delight was to take the greatest Care of Public, his only Favourite.

In case Pincent Will should decline riding, a good steady honest Rider is wanted. Great Encouragement will be given.—Enquire at the Bar of Wildman's.

N. B. Crossing and jostling Regency's Owners call fair play.

LONDON, April 30.

IT is said, that a Great Personage has signified a Desire to visit some of the Northern Provinces of America this Summer, on which Occasion Lord Edgcombe will hoist a Flag at Plymouth.

'Tis said the principal Merchants concerned in the Trade of a certain American Colony, have lately received such Accounts from thence, that an Application above has been judged absolutely necessary, and we are told the same will take place in a few Days.

An Express is arrived in Town with the agreeable News, that the large Chest of Money, which was lost in December 1763 by the Loss of the Lisbon Packet, is, by the Help of the Divers, found, and was brought safe on Shore at Falmouth on Friday. It contained upwards of 30,000 l.

Part of a Letter from Quebec says, "The very Existence of this Place as a Commercial Province, depends upon a total Change of the unhappy and preposterous Measures now adopted. I can do no more, for my Senfes are lost in the tumultuous Noise of the Populace, who are just carrying out to Execution a certain Effigy, with the most bitter Excretions."

We hear such of the American Colonies as have not been reimbursed their Proportion of the Expenses in the Expeditions of the Year 1762, will soon have the King's Warrant on the Treasury for discharging the same.

We hear some Dispatches of Consequence have within these few Days been received from Chief Justice Gregory of his Majesty's Province of Quebec, which have already been laid before a Cabinet Council.

A Person of considerable Eminence in the literary World has made Choice of a modern Story for the Subject of a Tragedy. General Wolfe is to be the Hero, and the Title of the Play, The Siege of Quebec.

It is said that Duelling will be made a capital Offence, without Distinction of Persons, with regard to the Aggressor.

It is said a great Personage won 12,000 l. last Monday at New-market, in the Match between his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland's King Herod, and the Duke of Grafton's Antonius.

May 4. It is said, that not only a certain Governor in North-America, is ordered home, but that a whole Regiment is ordered to return from thence.

Monday last his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland's Horse King Herod, beat the Duke of Grafton's Horse Antonius at New-market, for 1000 Guineas.

Such a Gentleman is said to have Publicly bet on New-market Races, the Sum of Thirteen thousand Pounds Sterling.

NEWPORT, (in Rhode-Island) June 10. Mr. HALL.

TUESDAY Evening last, about IX o'Clock, his Majesty's Ship the Maidstone's Boat was taken from one of the Wharves, by a Mob consisting chiefly of Sailors, Boys and Negroes, to the Number of above Five Hundred, haul'd up thro' Queen-Street to the Common, at the upper End of the Town, where they burnt her, in the Circle of the exasperated Tumult; which I believe every sensible Man in Town much regrets, and am persuaded was out of the Power of the Authority to prevent her Fate, as it was but a few Minutes from the Time of their taking her to her being in Flames.

The Cause of this Mischief was, the Officers of the Maidstone, a few Hours before, impressing all the Men out of a Brigantine from Africa, last from Jamaica, after some small Resistance made by the Crew, and not a little Severity exercised by the Officers and People of the Maidstone; which, together with the Behaviour of this Set of Myrmidons, for 4 or 5 Weeks past, who have visited every Vessel entering the Harbour, (our Wood-Boats, and the very smallest Coasters, not excepted) to impress Men, and have generally taken all that did not belong to the Town of Newport (as Capt. Antrobus had given his Word to the Sheriff, that he would take none of those; yet the Consequence of these arbitrary and illegal Measures, especially in Time of profound Peace, proves as fatal to the Inhabitants of the Town) We already feel the Effects; Seamen's Wages advanced nearly one Dollar and a Half per Month, our Wood Wharves almost clear of Wood, the Coasters from the neighbouring Governments shunning our Port, to escape the hottest Prefs ever known in this Town; and if a speedy Stop does not take Place, the lamentable Condition of the poorer Part of the Inhabitants, the approaching Winter, will be truly affecting, as in May, June, July, and August, the Town is mostly supplied with Wood.

The Measures taken by the Rabble is by no Means to be countenanced, much less approved of; yet it is to be hoped, the Authority of the principal Part of the Gentlemen in Town, will interpose in its Relief, (before our Distresses are more sensibly felt, or past Remedy for this Season) either by persuasive Arguments with Capt. Antrobus, to desist pursuing or allowing these unpopular Methods of manning his Majesty's Ship, by impressing in the very Bowels of the Town; or, if this should fail, an Exertion of every Power, which ought, and must necessarily take Place, for Self-preservation, for Safety of Life and Property.

Is it not amazing, that one of the least of his Majesty's Ships, in perfect Tranquility, should distress us in this unheard of Manner?—These are serious Truths, which I only hint at, in hopes some one of more Leisure, and better Capacity, will delineate in a proper Light. Our Seamen impressed, and driven from our Service; the Coasters, who supply the Inhabitants with Necessaries of Life, driven from our Harbour, the few who visit us, often brought to, under the Maidstone's Stern, and perhaps detained some Days, for having only Two or Three Hundred Feet of Boards upon Deck, on their Wood, brought not Twenty Miles from our Harbour, their Release obtained by arduous Solicitations, and great Importunity with the Officer in Command on board the Maidstone, the principal, often absent.

I am credibly informed by those Masters of Vessels, who went on board the Maidstone to pay Seamen their Wages, that were impress'd, that they were treated with all imaginable Contempt and Disrespect, and used in such a Manner as it would be no Credit to his Majesty's Officers to relate. Others that went on board to carry Seamen their Chests and Bedding, had their Boat turn'd adrift and themselves put under Confinement, and detained all Night, and this previous to their Boat's being burnt, or the least Disrespect shewn them on Shore; on the contrary, I may aver, with Truth, suitable Regard has always been paid his Majesty's Sea Officers by the Gentlemen of the Town.—Our Fish Market, a considerable Support of the Town, is greatly distressed, as few of the Fishermen dare venture out, it being reported none shall escape the Impres.

I have not exaggerated Matters, but studied more to extenuate our Misery, and only throw a few Hints together, as they occurred, hoping the Subject may employ an able Head, to set the Matter of the Loss of the Maidstone's Boat, with every Circumstance that fired the Mob and Boat, in an impartial and true Light.

I am, &c. O. G.

I TAKE this Opportunity of returning my most grateful Thanks to those Ladies and Gentlemen from whom I have met Encouragement since I settled in Town: And as some Reports of a malicious Nature have been industriously spread, intentionally to injure me in my Profession, I hope the kind Intentions of my Friends may not be lessened thereby, nor the Minds of the Public prejudiced against me, by such unjust, and really ungentle, Assertions; and which, I am sorry to apprehend, have been most cruelly made use of against me by a Person of some Distinction of that Sex, which are rather more remarkable for distinguishing themselves in Instances of Tenderness than Cruelty: However I hope my Enemy in Town will desist from endeavouring to hurt me, and consider the Consequence of injuring (merely from Calumny) a young Man at his first Entrance into the World. And those in the Country, will, I suppose, decline exercising their Spite, as they perceive it's Impotence, and will, I hope, had to their Discredit, that low Insinuations seldom influence, but with Minds as despicable as the Authors of them.

I beg Leave humbly to request the farther Encouragement of the Public, which I shall desire no longer than till I shall cease from endeavouring to deserve it, as I am determined to use all possible Diligence for the Improvement of the Youth committed to my Care, as well as to deserve the Approbation of the Public in other Respects.

To be SOLD, and Entered upon the First of January next, by Virtue of a Power of Attorney from the Hair at Law,

A VERY valuable Plantation, Part of the Estate of Robert Duncan, deceased, containing about 535 Acres, in Frederick County, on the North River, Shenando, in Virginia, about Half Way between Woodstock and Stover's Town, within Miles of the main Provincial Road leading from Pennsylvania to the Carolinas, and 25 from Winchester. This Land is extremely capable of Improvement, as a considerable Part of it may be converted into fine Meadows, without much Expence or Labour; and the low Grounds, of which there are computed to be about 150 Acres, well adapted for Hemp. Great Part of the Bottom Land is yet to clear, and consists chiefly of large Walnuts, and only two Crops made off the greatest Part of what has been already cut down. There are also 70 or 80 Acres lying in a Body, besides the low Grounds on the River, which may be made into an excellent Meadow. The Remainder of the Tract is well wooded, and such as will produce any Kind of Grain. The Buildings have been lately erected, and consist of three Dwelling-Houses fit for Tenants or Overseers, and two new Tobacco and Corn Houses, with an Apple Orchard. Any Person inclining to purchase may know the Terms by applying to the Subscriber in Frederickburg, in Virginia, by whom a sufficient Title will be made; and who, upon being advised, will authorize a Person to treat with the Purchaser on the Premises, or at Winchester, if inconvenient for him to attend at Frederickburg. Credit will be allowed, if required, and the Payments made easy to the Buyer, upon giving good Security.

NEW-YORK.

The SENTINEL. N^o XIX.

It is indeed amazing, that any Man, who thinks at all of the Public, should be indifferent about it; it is more amazing, that any Man, who has a Stake in it, can avoid thinking of it, or be without Zeal for it; but it is most amazing, that great Men, Men of Dignity and Fortune, of Splendor and Title, all which can only be secure whilst the Public is so, should not always, and in all Countries, be upon perpetual Guard against their own Ruin and Debatement, and continually studying to support public Liberty, which must support them.

Lukewarmness, from such Men, would seem incredible, if it had never happened; and is infamous whenever it happens, as well as the Effect of the most gross Blindness and Infatuation. Yet thus lukewarm were many of the great Romans, even when they saw Cæsar's Sword already waving dreadfully over them. Well might Cicero say of them, as he does, with just Severity and Contempt, Ita Stulti sunt, ut, amisâ Republicâ, Piscinas suas salvas ferè videntur: "They were such Fools to conclude, that, tho' the Republic were lost, their Fish Ponds would remain secure." Fools indeed! When Liberty was gone, no Man could be secure, nor any Man's Possessions. This Discovery, which a Man might have made at first, they made afterwards; when their not having made it sooner, only served to upbraid and torment them. They indeed felt it, and felt it with a Vengeance, under the Triumvirate, when a Price was set upon their Heads, and their Possessions and darling Fish Ponds, seized by the Tyrants who succeeded their Friend Cæsar, whose Clemency was not perpetuated with his Usurpation. This, too, was very easy to have been foreseen; as also the future State of their Families, which were all persecuted; most of them cut off by the following Tyrants, without any Exception, or Favour to the Descendants of such as had helped to establish the Tyranny.

Here is a Lesson and Warning to all Nations, especially to Men of Name and Figure amongst them, how dearly they ought to prize public Spirit and Patriots: How much it becomes and behoves them to possess and cherish that Spirit; and how nearly it imports all Men to love their Country. It is only Self-Love generously applied; and he who loves himself judiciously, will certainly love the Public and Liberty. It is moreover virtuous and honourable; and is entitled to solid Fame, to the Affections and Praises of all Men. What other Motive needs there? He who has not this Spirit may, perhaps, be a harmless Man; but he is a very bad Citizen. He who dislikes or despises it, is an Enemy to his Fellow-Citizens; and must expect a natural Return, that of Hate and Infamy. Is Life, or any Thing in Life, worth enjoying upon such melancholy Terms? A virtuous Man may bear Dislike and Obloquy, because he knows that he deserves it not: But Detestation abroad, accompanied with Guilt within, and occasioned by it, is a heavy and a doleful Lot! What does the World produce to atone for it? Guilty Greatness is, at best, but a great Burden and Reproach.

The Love of our Country is such an amiable Quality, indeed such an important Duty, attended with so many Recommendations to enforce it, that it is a Pity, as well as a Wonder, it should not be common. How natural it is, to love and respect a Man of this Spirit! It melts me into Compassion and Sympathy, and fills me with Reverence and Esteem, when I find, in my Reading, such a Character as that of the Sieur Baptiste du Mesnil, Advocate General in France, in the Time of that Monster in a Diadem Catherine de Medicis. He loved his Country so passionately, that it broke his Heart to see its Misfortunes. This Testimony he has from Monsieur De Thou, that great Historian and Patriot; and this Testimony is a glorious Reward for so virtuous a Mind, for a Grief so pious, and so honest an End.

Cicero used to ask himself, what Men would say of him when he was gone; and was more afraid of the Judgment of future Historians, than of all the common Prate and Censure of the present Times. This was agreeable to the good Sense of Cicero. A Man who loves Fame, will labour to deserve it: If he be indifferent about it, it is a shrewd Presumption, that he is equally indifferent about his Morals: If he utterly despise it, he does as surely despise the Means of acquiring it, even Virtue and worthy Actions. Fame is always the sure Portion of the Patriot, first or last (for sometimes he is eclipsed for a while); and a glorious Portion it is. Flatterers and Parricides, with the great and small Vulgar, may traduce him; but this only confirms his Merit, and adds to his Renown. The best Lot that can befall the Parricide, is to be forgot: A very comfortable Lot! Especially to a Man who has Cause to wish for it. It was a laudable Passion for Glory in Cicero, when he grew jealous, lest the Services done by Pompey for the Republic, might seem to Posterity to surpass his.

[The foregoing is taken from Cato's Letters, agreeable to the Sentinel's Promise.]

FROM THE NEW-YORK GAZETTE, JULY 4. [The following LETTERS which came to the Printer, with the Table of the Stamp Act, Post paid, from Williamsburg in Virginia, some Months ago, are supposed to have been sent by a Gentleman who has been long eminent for his Abilities and Knowledge of the Law.] To the PRINTER of the NEW-YORK THURSDAY'S GAZETTE.

SIR, AS I thought an alphabetical Table of the Stamp Duties mentioned in the Votes of the House of Commons, would be better adjusted, and more intelligible to Persons subject to that Duty, than a Publication of the Resolves themselves, I framed the inclosed Table for that Purpose, which our Printer understanding, desired my Copy to publish in the Virginia Gazette, I sent it to him, with the inclosed Introduction, which he promised to print; but the Gentleman's hearing of it, called on him, and expressly forbid him to publish any Remarks or Observations on the Matter. Upon which it was returned to me. I have since consented that he shall have the Table itself to publish, as I think it necessary we should all have the earliest Notice of the Chains forging for us, by those, whose Protection, and indeed, Indulgence, I think we are by all the Rules of Law, Justice and Compassion, as well as their own Interest, fully intitled to, and justly deserving of, more especially when we find their Liberality and Encouragement extended so far to the Indians, by whom his Majesty's Subjects and Dominions here have so severely suffered. But that it may not be said or pretended, that we patiently crouch under our Burden, as no Complaint or Apprehension of our suffering under so unconstitutional a Pressure, can appear from our Press, which, in several Instances I am glad to find is not the Case to the Northward; I have inclosed you a Copy of both, in Hopes of seeing them published in your Press, from which, as well as all other Free Presses in America, I hope to see other Remarks more to the Purpose than mine; which you should not have been troubled with, if it was not to declare, in the only Manner we can, that we are as sensible of the Injustice done us, as any other of the Plantations or Islands in America can be; and that whatever Regard may be paid to the Liberties of the Subject in Great-Britain, the English Subjects in America are in every Respect considered as intitled to none of them; but as to them, Magna Charta may be justly stiled as it was by one who had got the Power in his own Hands, Magna Farta. ANGLO-AMERICANUS.

To the PRINTER of the VIRGINIA GAZETTE. MR. PRINTER,

BEFORE your Press is stopped, which I doubt will shortly be the Case, you should publish in your Gazette (as should be done in every other Gazette, News-Paper, and Pamphlet, printed in every Part of the British Dominions in America) the inclosed Table, by which the Inhabitants will find how great Regard the British House of Commons has for their Fellow-Subjects, exposed to such Incurfions and Rapines of the Indians, and their more faithless Allies the French, for so many Years past, that we were thereby first stripped of our Gold and Silver, and when obliged to substitute Paper in its Room (which might have tolerably supplied our Necessities) that has been by sinister Practices, first extremely depreciated, and now almost annihilated; and when reduced to the extremest Necessity, we are yearly to find a larger Sum of Sterling Money, for procuring common Justice in our Courts of Law and Equity, than this Colony could ever have raised in their most flourishing Circumstances. I have heard that in Magna Charta it is said, Nulli negabimus, nulli vendemus aut deferemus justitiam vel redimam. But at this Rate, we must not only be obliged to buy, but at such a Price, that not one in a Hundred will be able to pay the Purchase Money; poor Americans! we may well say we are, Procul a Jove, oh! could we add, et procul a fulmine. What, not one Patriot! None that thought the Sir-name of Americanus worth acquiring, by stepping in, to divert the fatal Thunderbolt! We are at length reduced to a worse Condition than the Israelites.

And Pharaoh commanded the same Day the Taskmasters of the People and their Officers, saying, ye shall no more give the People Straw to make Bricks as heretofore, let them go and gather Straw for themselves: And the Tale of the Bricks which they did make heretofore, you shall lay upon them, you shall not Diminish ought thereof. Exod. V. Ch. 6, 7, 8 Ver.

There was Straw in Egypt, but no Sterling Money to be gathered in Virginia, and I am afraid there is no Moses or Aaron at Hand to deliver us. Had a reasonable Tale of Hemp, which they have expressed so great a Desire of our cultivating, been laid upon us, I would willingly have contributed my Proportion; and I don't in the least Doubt, but most of my Countrymen would have joined with, Your humble Servant, ANGLO-AMERICANUS.

L O N D O N, May 2.

Extract of a Letter from Quebec.

WE have strange Sort of Proceedings in this Government. One of our Judges, sent from hence to Montreal to act in that Capacity, having committed a Military Officer to Prison, was attacked in his own House about Ten at Night, by six Men, with Crape over their Faces and Hands, and was saluted with, "Who the D—l made you a Justice, and never cropped your Ears?" and immediately cut off his Ears, slit his Nose, and left him for dead. Our Governor is gone up to Montreal, in order to find out the Offenders, and bring them to condign Punishment, and a very considerable Reward is offered for their Discovery.

Extract of a Letter from Quebec to a Merchant in London, dated December 16.

At present here seems to be a very strong Contest between the Civil and Military. Great Jealousy prevails, and it is believed Persons are employed to bring an Account of what is said. Paquinades are very frequent, and many of them have come up by the Post from Montreal. One was found pasted up in the Market Place at Quebec, of which I have sent you a Copy. Several Councils are held, but the Objects of them are kept an entire Secret.

The Governor and Council have issued an Order for lodging the Troops in private Houses. A commissioned Officer of or above the Rank of a Captain, is to have a good Bed-chamber, Dining-room, or Parlour, furnished, with one Cellar, entirely to his own Use, and the Use of the Kitchen in common with the Family. Every commissioned Officer under the Degree of Captain, is to have a good Bed-chamber, with the Use of a Dining-room or Parlour, Kitchen and Cellar; and every common Soldier is to be furnished with good Quarters, and be permitted to warm himself in common with the Family. Besides this, a commissioned Officer is to have a Cord of Wood furlithed him per Week, which will cost from 7/6 to 10/ the Cord, but for which he is to be charged no more than 5/0. The Houses in which the Troops are to be quartered, consist, for the most part, of no more than four Rooms, including the Kitchen, for which the Inhabitants pay a Rent equal to what you pay near the Royal Exchange, London, so that it is really hard upon them to be obliged thus to let the Officers have their Rooms gratis. On the Canadians, in particular, it is very hard, most of them having their Houses destroyed in the Bombardment, to rebuild which they had borrowed Money, and had nothing to depend upon, but the letting them out in Lodgings. The English have sent a Letter to the G— of C—, wherein they represent their distressed Condition, and propose to repair the Barracks, till his Majesty's Pleasure be known, &c.

Advice is just now come from Montreal, that Things are arrived there to such a Height, that the Inhabitants never dine, nor even sit in their own Houses, without Pistols before them. When a Soldier enters, and demands a Pound of Sugar, or any other Thing which dare not be denied him, they present a Pistol to him to prevent his committing any Outrage, and hold it in that Posture till he retires. People dare not even go out into the Street in the Day Time, without Arms. Two Officers are taken up on Suspicion of being concerned in Mr. Walker's Affair, of which I wrote you Word in my last. [See the Letter above] A Serjeant, his Wife, and a common Soldier, are also taken up on the same Account, and are brought down to Quebec for fear of a Rescue at Montreal. There is no fear of their rescuing the Officers there, as the Inhabitants would murder them if they could do it privately, and the Soldiers will not obey the Officers in any Thing. It is greatly feared the Troops in general will either lay down their Arms, or join the Canadians and Indians, who it is feared, have some Intentions to attempt to repossess themselves of the Province, there being 800 or 1000 of the latter assembled at Frontinac, who murder all they meet with, without Exception, though they give out they are going against the Niagaras, another Party of Indians, with whom they are at Variance. The Arrival of these Indians so near Montreal has thrown the Inhabitants into the greatest Confusion, and may probably end, not in an Indian War, but a Provincial One.

Copy of the Pasquinade pasted up in the Market-Place at Quebec.

By good Intelligence from New-York, we can assure the Public, that the Society for the Encouragement of Arts and Sciences has sent there, to be forwarded to Quebec, as a Present to that infant Colony, a high finished Picture, executed by a masterly Hand, and expecting it to be fixed up in their Town House, to stimulate the Inhabitants to a Defence of Trade and Commerce, which is ever founded on Liberty, and Property, and adds, that our House of Legislature sits on Wool Bags for the same Purpose.

Principal Figure, as large as Life, a Madman, endeavouring to ascend a Pile of Books, lettered, English Laws. Six Asses, bellowing his praise, and aiding him. In his left Hand Magna Charta, much torn and abused, which he swears to destroy as soon as he can gain the Summit. Behind the Six Asses is Britannia fainting: Time tries to comfort her by pointing to the Madman and the Pile of English Laws, signifying that the Madman will tumble before he can destroy the Scroll that is in his Hand; near Britannia is Liberty, much frightened and weak, endeavouring to take Leave of her: Time prevents her, by pointing with his left Hand to Judges and Civil Courts. On the Back Ground is a Ship bilged on Rocks; Casks, Bales, and other Emblems of Merchandize; floating down with the Tide of Destruction.

The opposite Corner, is filled with a Group of meagre Bodies, called Louis's Outcast, grinning at the Scene, in like Manner as Milton describes Death's Gf in his Paradise Lost.

QUEBEC, June 6.

In Justice to the Merit and distinguished Generosity of the Troops at Montreal, you are desired to publish the following Paragraph of a Letter transmitted to the Governor and Council, who cannot sufficiently applaud the Behaviour of the Officers and Soldiers upon the late melancholy and trying Occasion.

Montreal, May 29, 1765.

Yesterday, in the Forenoon, we wrote to Capt. Brown, That as, upon Enquiry, we found the Behaviour of the Soldiers had been so zealous for, and necessary to, the Safety of the Town, we thought it incumbent upon us to make them a Present, in order to replace the Necessaries they lost during the Time of the Fire, and begged that he would set-de with the other Commanding Officers of the Corps, what Time would be most convenient to meet us, in order to consult about the intended Reward.

In Consequence of our Letter to Capt. Brown, he, with Captains Hope and Johnson, waited upon us, and thanked us, in the Name of the Soldiers, for our Intentions; that, sensible they had done their Duty, and pleased with the Governor and Council's Approbation of their Conduct, they renounced any pecuniary Reward, as there were but too many necessitous Sufferers, who required the Assistance of Government; as to themselves, they had their Pay to support them." Signed, ADAM MARANE, BENJAMIN PRICE.

By Order of his Excellency in Council, HEN. KNELLER.

BOSTON, July 1.

Funerals without Mourning or the giving of English Gloves is become so fashionable, that there has been but one Burial for many Months past, and that a Negro, in the old fashion way. We are much indebted to those Patriots who first set this Example of Frugality, by which it is said this Town only has made a Saving the last Year of near 10,000 l. Sterling. Other Towns and Provinces have copied the Example, and will experience its Utility. It is a Pleasure to behold what other Savings are made by laying aside a Multitude of superfluous Articles of British Manufactures and British Produce, as without these Sacrifices we should have nothing to pay by way of Stamp-Duty.—The British Merchants and Manufacturers have hitherto had all our Cash in pay for Articles, six-eighths of which are proper Luxury: And if they chuse to have it go by way of Revenue to Capts. of Guarda-Costas, New Courts of Admiralty with Concurrent Powers, &c. &c. rather than to receive it in Pay for their Manufactures, in the Name of Wonder let them be pleased. Without going into one Branch of Manufactures ourselves, we may for one barter Part of the Amount of what goes annually for the Purchase of superfluous Articles be furnished with every Thing really necessary; and if in Consequence of this Retrenchment Two Millions of People in Britain are left without Employ, they will then have Leisure to inquire into the Conduct of those who have deprived us of the Means to procure Luxury, and the Propriety of Measures calculated to enlarge the Revenue at the Expence of Trade.

We hear from Dunstable, that about 14 Days since a Flash of Lightning struck 15 Sheep (lying down under a large Oak Tree, within a very small Distance from a House) dead upon the Spot, and the Tree not broke.

KILLINGLY, June 17.

On Monday last, the House of James Bruce of this Place, was struck with Lightning; which entered in at the Roof, near the Chimney, took off several Boards and a Rafter, which were split into small Splinters, and some of them carried ten or twelve Rods distant from the House; the Lightning then running down a Post, entered a Room where eight Persons were sitting, tearing up the Floor next the Chimney, splitting a Sleeper adjoining the Hearth, in so small Pieces, that none could be found exceeding three Feet in Length, and two Inches in Diameter, without hurting any Person, except a Woman, who received a small Wound on her Leg, by the Lightning, which soon turned of a purple Colour, swelled much, and was extreme painful. A Man was sitting in the Garret, separating Hemp from Tow that was intermixed; and the Tow was set on Fire, without his receiving any Harm. No Person in the House was sensible of hearing the Thunder, tho' they imagined they heard some uncommon Noise.—Two Hogs that lay near the House were killed.

NEWPORT, July 1.

Capt. John Thurston arrived here last Saturday, in 19 Days from the West-Indies. Before he sailed he received Information of a free Trade being opened at Martinico and Guadaloupe, for all Sorts of North-American Produce, Pork, Beef, Bread, and Flour, excepted.

NEW-YORK, July 4.

We are informed from Jamaica, that the Difference between the Governor and General Assembly of that Island, arose in the following Manner: The Carriage of one of the Members of the Assembly, which had brought him to the House, was arrested by the Marshal, for a Debt of 50 l.—The House resent it, and imprisoned the Marshal. The Governor immediately prorogued the Assembly, whereby the Marshal was released of Court.

When the Assembly met again, their first Work was to imprison the Marshal, upon which the Governor dissolved the Assembly.—The same Members were all re-elected, and when they met, immediately imprisoned the Marshal, and the Governor again dissolved them.—Since which we have received no further Advices.

ANNAPOLIS, July 18. Sunday last Died here of the Small-Pox (at the House of her Brother Mr. Chief-Justice BRUCE,) Mrs. ANNE DENTON, Widow, a Gentlewoman of a Pious and Exemplary Life and Conversation.

Yesterday arrived the Ship Dolphin, Capt. Robert Johnson, from Gibraltar, in Five Weeks, And.

From the BOSTON GAZETTE, July 8.

THE People of Virginia have spoke very sensibly, and the frozen Politicians of a more Northern Government say, They have spoke Treason: Their spirited RESOLVES do indeed serve as a perfect Contrast for a certain tame, pusillanimous, daub'd, insipid Thing, delicately touch'd up, and call'd an Address; which was lately sent from this Side the Water, to please the Taste of the Tools of Corruption on the other.—Pray, Gentlemen, is it Treason for the Deputies of the People to assert their Liberties, or to give them away? Dare any of these Sycophants to say, that the American Subjects are not intitled to British Liberties? I hope the Times will not yet bear it: These Rights belong to us; we may claim them in Compensation for the most substantial Services done to the Mother Country: But broad as this Bottom is, we scorn to rest it wholly here. These Liberties are derived to us in common with our Fellow-Subjects in Britain, from Nature, and the happy British Constitution; it is therefore as much Treason, and as impious in one Man to compliment, as in another to force them away.—We have been told with an Insolence the more intolerable, because disguised with a Veil of public Care, that it is not Prudence for us to assert our Rights in plain and manly TERMS: Nay, we have been told, that the Word RIGHTS must not be once named among us! Curs'd Prudence of interested designing Politicians! who have done their utmost to have the Liberties of Millions of honest and loyal, and let me add, brave and free-born American Subjects,—brave because free-born,—sacrificed to their own Ambition and Lust of Dominion and Wealth.—See ye hungry Wolves,—ye insatiable Vultures,—ye devouring Monsters,—who have aim'd at placing yourselves in a State of unconstitutional Independence, who have swell'd with the proud Hopes of one Day striding over the Backs of your Superiors, or making them your Beasts of Burthen.—See what is already the Consequence of your impudent Temerity—a whole Continent awakened—alarm'd—restless—I had almost said—disaffected.

These dirty Sycophants, these ministerial Hacks, would fain have us believe that his Sacred Majesty, ever lov'd by his American Subjects, would be displeas'd to hear their Murmurs at the Sight of Chains!—that the Parliament who sit to redress Grievances, would be displeas'd with our Remonstrances, when we are aggrieved! What an idle flimsy Pretence is this! What a scandalous Impeachment of the Wisdom and Rectitude of Parliament! What an Affront to our dread Sovereign himself! Do any of these Traducers of Majesty eat Bread at the King's Table? Do these Defamers of Government live upon the Bounty of the People? And will they have the Effrontery to say, that his Majesty will be displeas'd with his People for asserting those Rights, which we claim upon no less Authority than the Word of a King.—Will they dare to tell us, that the Parliament will take it ill, that the remotest Members of the British Empire, maintain and boast of those Liberties, which their own former Aets declare them to be entitled to? Is not this an high Affront both to the King and his Parliament?—Say then ye Sons of Prudence—ye Lovers of constitutional Liberty—ye Friends of Religion and good Government—ye Men of Age and Experience—ye Sages of the Law—ye Ministers of sacred Things,—judge every Man of common Sense, of every Order, Age and Rank whatever—for I appeal to all Men, except a few detestable Villains who want to be exalted, and richly deserve it.—Who are guilty of Treason? Where are they? Point them out—and once again unite Britain and her Colonies, ever inseparable in their Interest, in one common perpetual Band of Allegiance to Britain's lawful King.

From the NEW-YORK GAZETTE, July 11.

AS the Israelites were in the Eyes of the Egyptians, yea still worse we seem to be in the Eyes of our Mother Country. In order to support this Opinion, I would observe, that when the Egyptians increased the Burden of the Israelites, they only insisted on their delivering the same Tale of Bricks, when they were not supplied with Straw, and were obliged to gather it themselves, where they could best find it, that used to be exacted when it was found them; but our Mother Country not only with-holds from us the Benefit of several valuable Branches of Trade, as the Egyptians with-held Straw from the Israelites, but even demand of us a much greater Tale of Silver or Gold than we could have raised if those Branches of Trade had not been with-held from us: And how is this Silver and Gold to be come at?—From the Mines of Peru? No, for the Channel from thence is entirely stopp'd.—How then? Why as well as we can. It seems the Israelites made Stubble answer instead of Straw: But what Invention will answer the Demands of our kind Mother Country instead of Sterling Money? The Egyptians looked on the Israelites as Foreigners, as they really were; but are not the Inhabitants of the Colonies in general the genuine Offspring of British Parents, and entitl'd to the same Liberty and Property as they! The Israelites, by GOD's extraordinary Appointment, increased very fast, which made the Egyptians their Enemies, who therefore thought it good Policy to oppress them. But do we increase faster than the common Course of Nature,—or is there any Reason for a worse than Egyptian Jealousy?—But as the future Increase will be in Proportion to the Extent of Territory, and the Means of Subsistence; the American English must in some few Ages be much more numerous than their Brethren in Great-Britain and Ireland.—And is there not Reason to dread what may then happen?

Is it supposable that they will bear what they think a most grievous Oppression, (by whatever Name it may be call'd by those that impose it) when they have sufficient Power to throw it off? And what will those have to answer for, who lay the Foundation for future Scenes of Blood and Desolation!

The Egyptians paid dear for their Oppression, and the Israelites were removed from their Government,—neither of which I desire to be the Case, with Respect to our Mother Country and us, but only that we should be dealt with as Children of the same Parent, enjoying the same Freedom and Property as our Brethren in England, in Trade and Commerce, and being taxed only by our Legal constitutional Representatives.—But this Subject has already been treated by several masterly Hands, to the general Approbation of all Lovers of their Country.

Perhaps some Task-Masters have reported of us, that we are become idle thro' Wealth, because some Individuals of our Countrymen, by the Smiles of Providence or some other Means, are enabled to roll in their four-wheel'd Carriages, and can support the Expence of good Houses, rich Furniture, and luxurious Living. But, is it equitable that 99, or rather 999, should suffer for the Extravagance or Grandeur of one? Especially when it is consider'd, that Men frequently owe their Wealth to the Impoverishment of their Neighbours; so that it would be most unjust to suppose a People generally to be rich because some wealthy Men live among them.

Perfect Equity indeed is not to be expected in this World, but surely both Individuals, and Legislative Bodies, can come much nearer to the Standard of Right and Wrong than they generally do, For, do unto all Men as you would (being in their Circumstances) reasonably desire they should do unto you, is a Precept that has the most full and rational Approbation of the Consciences of ALL MEN, whether consider'd as Individuals or collective Bodies.

A. B. C. &c.

From the PUBLIC ADVERTISER, May 29, 1765.

S I R,

THE 29th of May!—that auspicious! that ever memorable Day! we are now call'd upon to commemorate; a Day! which surely must excite every English Breast with the warmest Acknowledgments for the numerous Blessings derived to this Nation by the glorious Restoration of that pious Prince!—that virtuous! that amiable Stuart! King Charles the Second.

As the restoring of that illustrious Prince was wonderfully compleated on this important Day in 1660, it was (by the profound Wisdom of Providence) appointed to be for ever kept holy; and I trust, that all grateful Minds will be suitably thankful for such superabundant and unspeakable Mercies.

The eminent Virtues, and remarkable Sincerity of that divine Monarch, were such, that by his Example, Lustre and Influence, those superlative Virtues, were diffus'd through the whole Court, and all over the Kingdom. His noble Soul was equally as much averse to Luxury, Effeminacy, Corruption and Debauchery, as to all Lewdness, low Cunning, Deceit and Dissimulation; and such was that sacred Prince's amazing close Application to public Affairs, and unwearied Attention to the Advancement of the Interests and Prosperity of his People, that by his consummate Wisdom, Dignity and Magnanimity; his Impartiality, Candour, and Economy; his paternal Affection, and conscientious Regard to their Laws and Liberties, to their religious and civil Rights; his Abhorrence of all Adulation and Hypocrisy; his Attention to the Complaints of a brave and generous People; his redressing their Grievances, and anxious Solitude for their future Felicity, were equally as much his Study and Attention as the Uprightness of his own Virtues and unblemish'd Life.

But we have, Sir, another substantial Motive for our sincerest Joy and Exultation on the Return of this glorious Day. It was on this Day, the ever blessed 29th of May in 1762, that Providence gave us a noble Stuart for a Prime Minister in the Treasury Department, by whose Virtues, Abilities, Integrity, and Economy, we have been restored to such Peace and Plenty, such universal Joy, Harmony and Content, as must lay an everlasting Obligation on every Englishman, who seriously reflects on our blessed Situation.

I am, Sir, a strict Observer of all Holydays; and as the Form of Prayer, appointed for the 29th of May, is deserving of our Attention, so should our Fervency, according to the Season, be always in Proportion: Therefore I must beg to be permitted to give you an Extract from the last Collect, which I think must animate the People with the most earnest Supplication to our Maker, and to implore his Protection with a Zeal suitable to the Times and Occasion.

The humble Petition to Almighty GOD is as follows: "Infatuate and defeat all the secret Councils of deceitful and wicked Men against us; abate their Pride, assuage their Malice, and confound their Devices;" and "strengthen the Hands of our gracious Sovereign King George;" which GOD of his infinite Mercy grant.

I am, Sir, yours, &c. U. C.

From the LONDON GAZETTE, May 2, 1765.

The North American Agents beg you will insert the following Card, in Answer to Mr. C. D.'s Letter in your Saturday's Paper.

THE Agents of North-America present their most grateful Compliments to Mr. C. D. (who they conceive to be the Secretary at the first Clerk) and are extremely obliged to him for the Alternative, which his Right Honourable Master has allowed him to offer. Conceiving themselves the only Representatives of America, they most cheerfully acquiesce in his last Proposition, and hereby declare their Choice to defend themselves without any military Aid. They dread no Enemy but the Mother Country, and wish to preserve America as an Asylum for the Wrecks of Liberty. Mr. C. D. must pardon the Agents if they think his Knowledge is inferior to his Zeal! There are no Want of Barracks in Quebec, or any Part of America; but if any Increase of them is necessary, at whose Expence should that be? What is the Practice in England? All that the Agents contend for, is, that the same Protection of Property and domestic Security which prevails in England, should be preserved in America. Let Mr. C. D. or his Master, first try the Effects of Quartering Soldiers on Butchers, Bakers, or other private Houses here, and then transport the Measure to America, parental Example may produce filial Obedience.— But—no S----- at S-----, or his Clerk, can ever conceive, that the People of America, or those in England, (whose Interest depend on a commercial Connection and strictest Amity with them) will tamely submit to Incroachments on so dear a Part of their Liberties, which they call on the Bill of Rights to defend. The People of England and America are the same; one King, and one Law; and those who endeavour to promote a Distinction are truly Enemies to both.

LONDON, May 16.

AN Act of Bankruptcy, for the Use of the American Colonies, is upon the Carpet.

Yesterday a great Number of Journeymen Weavers, with a black Flag carried before them, accompanied by their Wives and Children, went up to St. James's, to represent to his Majesty their distressed Condition for Want of Work, occasioned by the Importation of French Silks and other foreign Goods. Their Majesties being gone for Richmond before they reached St. James's, most of them went to Richmond; where one of the Lords in waiting brought them Word from his Majesty, that he would do all in his Power for their Relief.

Yesterday a Noble Peer, on his Return home from the House of Peers, was insulted by a Number of the Spitalfield Weavers.

May 17. Wednesday Afternoon a Mob attacked the Coach of a Noble Peer in Old Palace Yard, broke the Glasses to Pieces, and wounded him in the Face with a Stone.

Wednesday last a Mob of upwards of a Thousand Men and Women assembled in Bloomsbury Square, armed with Stones, &c. in order to destroy the Windows of a certain House in that Place, which they were happily prevented from doing, by the good Conduct of Saunders Welch, Esq; and Mr. Clay, High Constable of Holbourn Division, with the Peace Officers, who attended for that Purpose.

May 29. In such universal Esteem is the high Character of Mr. PITT, that nothing is more common at any of the Foreign Courts in Europe, when any English Gentlemen are there, than to enquire whether he be alive? And how he does? An Instance of this happened very lately at Rome, where some English Gentlemen were viewing the Palace of his Holiness, who happening to see them, and finding they were English Gentlemen on their Travels, instantly enquired after Mr. Pitt, in the above Words. How happy would it be for our amiable Sovereign, and these distracted Kingdoms, if he were once more at the Head of Affairs! but such is the Force of Intrigue, that the Preservation of a M----- is preferred to that of Mankind!

BOSTON, July 8.

The House of Representatives in their last Session, appointed the Hon. James Otis, Timothy Ruggles, and Oliver Partridge, Esquires, a Committee to meet the Committees of the Assemblies of the WHOLE CONTINENT, if they see Cause, at New-York, the first of October, to unite in a Petition to his Majesty and the Parliament, for Relief under the Insupportable Grievance of the STAMP ACT, &c.—It is hoped neither the Governor of Virginia, or any other Governor on the Continent, will think this so improper a Step as to DISSOLVE their Assemblies to prevent it.—For we cannot think any of their Excellencies and Honours altogether unacquainted with the Act of Parliament, made immediately after the GLORIOUS REVOLUTION, which declares, IT IS THE RIGHT OF THE SUBJECT TO PETITION THE KING, —and—PARLIAMENTS SIT FOR THE REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES.

The People of Canada are in an ill Temper, and groaning out their Grievances.—The Savages threatening the Southern Governments with a new War.—Trade burthened beyond all possible Bearings, bleeding, dying.—The whole of English America in the Depths of Despair, upon the Loss of Privileges, the most dear and invaluable; such as, a Right to levy Taxes by their own Representatives, Trials by Juries, and the secure and quiet Possession of ones own House; What aggravates our Misery is, that thro' some Fatality or great Corruption, the Colony Assemblies have not at this Time had the Privilege which even the French Parliaments are indulged with, viz. That of laying their Grievances before their Grand Monarque, and remonstrating against Measures supposed unequal or unconstitutional.—I glory in the Name of Briten, henceforward pronounced before Frenchmen, must only excite their Ridicule and Contempt.

NEWPORT, July 8.

We have a Report in Town, concerning an Insurrection of the Inhabitants of Mexico, something of which, under the South-Carolina Head, was inserted the Week before last.—Our Account which is thought to be authentic, is, That an Edict some Time since arrived from the Court of Spain, with Orders, that every Inhabitant capable of bearing Arms, should be subject to be regularly exercised, and apparelled in one particular Uniform. This excited a Disaffection; and some Delinquents being prosecuted with Rigour, caused the whole Country to join in one general Revolt, and pursued it with such Vigour and Success, that the Viceroy was obliged to make a precipitate Flight, and to quit the Country.

Mexico is of so great Extent, as to form a powerful Empire. The Viceroy, who is sent from Spain, exercises as much Despotism as any Prince in Europe. It is divided into Old and New-Mexico, the former is about 2000 Miles in Length, and from 71 to 550 in Breadth.

NEW-YORK, July 11.

Extract of a Letter.

"We hear from Virginia, that the Stamp Act has filled the whole Colony with the utmost Contention and Astonishment. The General Assembly which met in April, was the thinnest ever known—owing perhaps to the general Perplexity of People's Minds, and the Difficulty of determining how to act in so strange a Case.—Reduced to the Dilemma, of either counter-acting the Proceedings of their King, (whom they love and honour with the most affectionate Loyalty) and the British Parliament, (whom they esteem and reverence as the most respectable Assembly in the Universe, and whose Rights they desire to preserve, as much as their Own) or to give up their Relation to Both, by meanly parting with those Rights and Liberties which alone entitled them to the Name of Englishmen, and which is dearer than Life to every true and faithful Subject of his Majesty. What could they do in such a Situation! When the Assembly met, they seem'd quite at a Loss how to act in the Matter, but postponed taking it into Consideration till they had dispatch'd the necessary Business that was immediately before them, when many of the Members, I suppose, knowing what was to come on, and irresolute how to act—retired—so that there was but a very thin House, when their Rights and Liberties (affected by the Stamp Act) were taken into Consideration, and several spirited Resolutions thereupon, agreed to by the House.—I am inform'd, that the Governor hearing of these Resolves, came into the House and required a Sight of their Journal, which having seen, he immediately Dissolved the Assembly. It is said that at the next Election every Man that voted for these Resolves will be re-elected, and not a Man on the other Side; and that an Assurance of a strenuous Opposition to the Stamp Act, by all lawful Means, will be a Condition required of every Member to be chosen. I am inform'd that Associations are forming, to which several Thousands have subscribed, in that Government, in New-Hampshire, and Massachusetts, in Concert with the other American Governments, to draw up Remonstrances to his Majesty, &c. and to oppose this tremendous Act by all lawful Means.

ANNAPOLIS, July 25.

Last Monday Noon we had a Thunder Gust from the Westward; but about Two o'Clock, the Wind very suddenly changed to South-east, and for a few Minutes blew with great Violence, forcing in a good many Windows, blowing up and breaking to Pieces, Trees, Fences, &c. It pass'd in a narrow Vein, and in some Parts of the Town was scarcely felt.

Since our last arrived the Four Friends, Capt. Hamilton, from London, with 32 Indented Servants, having had 8 or 9 Weeks Passage.

STRAY'D or STOLEN away from Baltimore-Town, about the First of June last, a Bay Mare, about 12½ Hands high, remarkably long body'd for her Height, she Trots fast, and carries herself well, has got a Snip over one of her Nostrils, and had on a Pair of light Shoes before; but she has no perceivable Brand the Owner knows of.

Whoever brings the said Mare to Baltimore-Town, or secures her so that the Owner may have her again, shall receive Twenty Shillings Reward, paid by JACOB SWOPE.

I THINK it necessary to inform my Customers and Others, That I have now a large Assortment of the best of STAY-GOODS, and will furnish all that favour me with their Orders for STAYS on the shortest Notice, if required; and as there have been Complaints of my Charge being too high, I beg Leave to assure them, that I sell at the same Prices Mr. Wallace did, make the same Abatement for Ready Money or Short Credit, and shall endeavour to oblige them in every Respect as he did, and therefore hope for a Continuance of the same respectable Customers to the Business, which that Gentleman has transferr'd to me; and finding myself embark'd in this expensive Business, with few Friends, and very little Money, I flatter myself that my Customers will all make speedy Payments, as I assure them their Neglect to do it will be very hurtful to

JOSEPH BOARD.

ANNAPOLIS, July 24, 1765.

HAVING had the Honour of the Encouragement of several Gentlemen and Ladies, and hoping for the Countenance and Encouragement of the Public in general, I have opened a SINGING SCHOOL, in St. Anne's Church in this City, where I propose teaching the NEW VERSION of PSALMS, with all the TUNES, both of particular, and Common Measure; and, if agreeable to young Ladies, will attend them at their own Houses, where such as play on the Spinnet, may, in a short Time, and with the greatest Ease, learn the different Psalm-Tunes: And, in order that those Youths who are engaged in other Studies, may not lose Time from them, I have appointed the Hours of Attendance at Church, on Thursday and Friday, from Five o'Clock in the Morning, till Eight, and from Five to Seven in the Afternoon; and, on Saturday, the above-mentioned Time in the Morning, and, in the Afternoon, from Two to Six. And as this Part of Divine Worship is much wanting in this City, I hope that all Lovers of so Noble and Delightful an Exercise, will not be backward to promote and encourage it: And I shall endeavour, by due Attendance, and particular Care, to give Satisfaction to such as favour with Commands, their most obedient, and very respectful, humble Servant,
