

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1768.

FRONTIERS OF POLAND, May 11.

THEY write from Warsaw, that Advice has been received there, that the Confederates of Halicz have made themselves Masters of the Town of Brezany, and taken Prisoners several Hundred Poles, who were in Garrison in the Castle; they also possessed themselves, by this Means, of a great Quantity of Military Stores, and 50 Pieces of Cannon.

WARSAW, May 13. Prince Repnin received, on the Third of this Month, Advices from Podolia, which are since confirmed by other Letters, and import, that there has been an Action at Constantinow, between the Confederates and the Russians, commanded by General Padhoroczanin. This General having, with his Cavalry, attacked the Confederates with the View of obliging them to surrender, the latter defended themselves to vigorously, that 300 Russians were left dead on the Spot, and the General forced to beat a Retreat.

May 14. According to some Letters from Courland, 50,000 Russian Troops are marching towards Poland. The Government is afraid to march the Crown Troops against the Confederates, lest they should refuse to fight their Countrymen, or even be inclined to join them.

There is a Discovery just made, of a Plot formed by the Regiment of Dragoon-Guards (which is the King's Body-Guard) who have declared for the Confederates. The Officers of this Regiment are nearly all Protestants.

Extra of a Letter from Warsaw, May 14. "The Confederates of Podolia are daily reinforced, so that their Number now amounts to upwards of 30,000, and the Roads between this City, Lemberg, and Kaminnick, are dangerous to travel. The Confederates entered upon the Estate of Prince Czatoriski, Waywode of Resic, beat all the Militia there, and took away a great Quantity of Arms and Ammunition, which is the Way they treat all who will not join their Party. Prince Caspar Lubomirsky, General of the Russian Troops fell into their Hands: They treated him pretty roughly, and obliged him to acknowledge himself Debtor to their Confederacy 2,000,000 of Polish Florins.

"The Contagion of the Rebellion spreads to that Degree, that even the King's Troops seem to be animated with it; some of whom it is pretended have declared for the Confederates."

Copies of POLAND, May 19. The Tartars are forbid by their Chief, to engage in the Service of the Confederates. And we learn from good Hands, that the Porte, informed of the true State of Things, will not take any Part therein. As to the Russians, they are entrenching themselves under Warsaw, in order to wait for their Reinforcements.

PARIS, May 23. They write from Rochfort, that a Ship, arrived there from Goree in Africa, has brought Advice, that an epidemical Distemper prevailed in that Island, which had carried off the Governor, and several other Persons; that an English Governor having caused the Son of a Moorish King to be put to death, several Sovereigns upon the Coast had entered into an Alliance, in order to revenge themselves against the English, and for that Purpose had assembled a very considerable Army.

L O N D O N,

May 24. If it be true, that the Genoese have ceded the Island of Corfica to France, have not the maritime Powers of Europe reason to dread the increasing naval Force of the French in the Mediterranean?

A Report prevails, that an Ambassador at the Court of a Potentate in the South, will soon be recalled.

May 26. It is said Lord Barrington will be appointed Secretary of State, in the room of the Earl of Shelburne.

And that Sir George Macartney will succeed Lord Barrington as Secretary of War.

A Correspondent remarks on the Circumstance of not going into Mourning, that Mr. Wilkes's Friends consist of all those who cannot afford it, and almost all who can.

May 27. Letters from Rome advise, that the Pope told the Spanish Minister, at his last Audience, that it would be to no Purpose to say any Thing more about revoking his Brief against the Court of Parma; that what he had done, was to ease his Conscience, and in conformity to the Oath which he had taken, to defend the Rights of the Holy Church. "We are drawing (added the Pontiff) towards the last Day of our Life, and we would willingly appear before the Tribunal of the Almighty, not as perjurer, but conscious of having done our Duty. We know that this our Proceeding will be disapproved, perhaps will give much Offence to the Potentates of the Earth. Nevertheless we have taken our Resolution, and are prepared against all Events. Should we be obliged to shed our Blood, even to the last Drop, we shall be content to make such Sacrifice, and render Thanks to God, who may perhaps place us amongst the Holy Pontiffs that are revered by the Church, though in the Number of them we have not the Merit to be reckoned." The Ambassador asked the Holy Father, in what Terms he should deliver an Answer to his Court? "In the precise Terms (replied the Pope) wherein I have just expressed myself."

May 28. Lord Bute is so ill, that he hath little or no Appetite, and is in a deep Consumption: We hear that it is determined that his Lordship shall go abroad for the Recovery of his Health.

May 30. By an Expreis which came over Land from India, and arrived on Saturday, there is Advice, that Peace was restored in those Parts, and that, by an Article of the Treaty, the English were to be indemnified for the Expences of the War.

By some Preparations making at Deptford, one or more of the Royal Yachts is going to be fitted for a foreign Voyage; but the Personages to embark on board thereof, are not yet certainly known, but variously spoken of.

On Saturday there was a great Proof of Small Arms in the Tower, which are to be deposited in the Magazines there, to be in Readiness for his Majesty's Troops, who, by a late Order, are all to receive new Arms once in Three Years.

May 31. Sunday the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor went to one of the Secretaries of State, and acquainted him with the unhappy Situation of the Masters of Colliers, Deputy Coal-Meters, &c. upon which he wrote to Justice Pell, Justice Hudson, &c. informing them, that if any Disturbance should happen on Account of working the Coal-Ships, by the Sailors, they might send to the Tower, and the Guards should immediately march to their Protection. Yesterday several of the Coal-Meters, &c. informed his Lordship, that the Work was at present carried on without any Obstruction; but a Number of Sailors boarded the outward-bound Ships at Deptford, and unrigged them, to prevent their sailing, the Masters and Owners not having complied with their Demands.

We hear that a Marriage will be solemnized in a few Days, between the Earl of Hillsborough, and the Right Hon. Lady Legge, Baroness of Stawell, Relict of the late Right Hon. Henry Bilson Legge, Chancellor of the Exchequer.

It is said that Intelligence has been received from Boston, in New-England, that the People have refused to pay the Custom-House Duties, and have solicited, by Circular Letters, all the Colonies upon the Continent to join in this Resolution; and that the Bostonians sent Word to the Custom-House Officers, that they might live there as private People, but if they attempted to execute their Orders, they must take the Consequence.

The Right Hon. the Lord Mayor has given a public Caution to all Persons to be careful how they approach any Ship in the Thames after it is dark, as the Sailors now keep Watch every Night on board each Ship, in order to defend their Persons and Property from the Outrages of the Labourers employed in unloading Coal Ships, &c. These Labourers (his Lordship has informed the Public) at a Meeting before the Justices of Middlesex, refused to accept of the Masters and Owners of Ships 1 s. 6 d. per Score, which at the lowest Calculation amounts to 6 s. a Day each Man; neither will they suffer the Masters and Owners to employ their Seamen in delivering their Ships.

The Yachts at Deptford, it is said, have received Orders to be in Readiness to preserve the free Navigation of the River, at present greatly interrupted.

June 2. This Day both Houses of Parliament met for the farther Dispatch of Business. Yesterday a Body of Sailors assembled again at Deptford, and unrigged such outward-bound Ships as were ready to sail.

June 3. They write from Gibraltar, that a great Number of Corican Families were preparing to remove themselves, and their Effects, to the Island of Minorca, on the intended arrival of French Troops in their Country.

Corfica is now the Subject of much Discourse; we hear that the French persist in their Design of taking Possession of it for themselves, which hath occasioned much Altercation between our Ambassador in France, and the French Ministry.

It is said the Reason of [the Parliament continuing to sit by short Adjournments, is to have the immediate Advice of the Great Assembly of the Nation, in case of any future Riots, not only in, and about this Metropolis, but in other Parts of this Kingdom.

It has been reported, but with what Truth we pretend not to say, that a Law will be proposed for empowering the Military to act in Conjunction with the Civil Power in a more effectual Manner than now permitted.

June 6. Letters from Constantinople advise, that Provisions, particularly Corn and Rice, were never before known so dear in that City, and that the Government, in order to prevent Sedition, which is there most commonly the Consequence of Scarcity, had taken the Precaution to double all the Guards.

Accounts from North-America, mention a general Discontent of the Inhabitants there, at their Increase of Taxes, and other Impositions.

Saturday Mr. Wilkes entertained his Friends with a Turtle for Dinner, in Honour of his Majesty's Birthday.

We are informed that a celebrated Historian has sold the Copy of his new Work to a Bookseller in London for 4000l. Sterling.

Saturday the North-Briton Extra, No. IV, was read in Westminster-Hall, introduced by the Attorney-General, with an Affidavit annexed, that it was bought publicly; when among other Things, it was pronounced to be the Standard of Rebellion, &c.

His Majesty's Ship Deal-Castle, Captain Jacobs, bound for America, is arrived at Plymouth.

June 7. It is reported that Admiral Howe is to command a Fleet of Nine Men of War of the Line, to be sent this Summer on an Expedition of Importance to the Mediterranean.

It is said that an Ambassador is shortly expected in Town from the Emperor of Morocco.

We hear it is resolved not to submit to the arbitrary Demands of the Emperor of Morocco. Orders are given for two Transport Ships to be taken up in the River on Government Contract, to carry over Ammunition and Stores for his Majesty's Garrison of Gibraltar.

June 8. A Letter from Leghorn, dated May 13, says, "As the French Polacre, which brought hither the Minister going from the Bey of Tripoli to the Hague, lost Two Men in her Passage (which was made in 8 Days) has two more sick; and a Frenchman, who came Passenger in her, is dead in our Lazaretto. The Envoy was ordered with all his Retinue, to reembark immediately, and the Polacre is guarded by one of our Tartanes, on board of which are some Soldiers belonging to the Board of Health."

Letters received, on Monday, from Paris, import, that the Embarkation of the Troops for Corfica, would be made sooner than had been expected; and that the Duke de Lauzun, the Count de Buzancois, and several other young Noblemen, had desired Permission to accompany the Marquis de Chauvelin to that Island, which Request the King had granted to a limited Number.

Sunday last died at Marlborough, on his Journey to Bath, George Cooke, Esq; one of the Knights of the Shire, for the County of Middlesex, Joint-Paymaster of his Majesty's Forces, and Colonel of the Western Battalion of the Middlesex Militia.

June 9. Letters from Schafhausen, dated May 28, say, "The Deputies who were sent from Neufchatel, to the Canton of Berne, to solicit that the Expence of the Process, between the Inhabitants of Neufchatel, and the King of Prussia, might be mitigated, were not able to succeed in their Commission; so that the City of Neufchatel are obliged to pay the whole Expence, which amounts to upwards of 2000 Louis d'ors."

General Lentulus is encamped at Anet, about a League from the Frontiers of the Territories of Neufchatel, with an Army of Observation, of 1400 Men, and 20 Pieces of Cannon.

We hear from Sunderland, that the Keelmen and Sailors, near 2000 in Number, have risen on account of the Fitters not paying their Wages as usual, and made them pay their Demands for Twenty Years back, by which they have collected upwards of 500l. They made the Masters, who did not directly comply, ride the Poll, &c. A Party of Soldiers were sent from Newcastle, but they were soon drove back.

The Coalheavers still keep in Bodies, and lie in Wait for every Sailor they can meet with, to put them to death. There were a large Body of them assembled in Stepney-Fields, last Sunday, armed with Pistols, Cutlasses, &c. who attacked about Forty Sailors, that had landed at Blackwall, just come from India, whom they used in a cruel Manner, notwithstanding they assured them they did not belong to any Ships in the Coal-Trade. There are not above 150 of these Coalheavers but what would be glad to go to work again, if they were not overawed by the above Number, who call themselves The White-Boys, and they are really so.

Monday Night, some Sailors, belonging to Colliers, going ashore at Wapping, to buy Provisions, were attacked by several Coalheavers; but the Sailors having Fire-Arms, let fly among their Opposers, Two of whom were dangerously wounded, and carried to the London-Hospital, and it is said that one was killed on the Spot; after which the Coalheavers retreated.

Tuesday Night, a Gang of Coalheavers attempted to seize a Collier's Boat, on landing at Rotherhith-Stairs, but were repulsed by the Crew, armed with Cutlasses; Two of the Rioters were taken Prisoners, but were afterwards released by a Party of their Companions. Others paraded about Wapping, and obliged several Persons to deliver them what Arms they had in their Houses.

They write from Algier, that the Dey had demanded a large Supply of Gunpowder and Naval Stores, by way of Present, from the British Consul, in consequence of which that Gentleman had transmitted Dispatches to his Court.

Yesterday the Publisher and Vender of the North Briton Extraordinary, No. IV, attended the Court of King's-Bench, when they were ordered to appear again this Day; at which Time the Publisher and Venders of the North-Briton, No. 50, also attended.

This Morning No. 51, of the North Briton, was read in the Court of King's-Bench, Westminster-Hall, before the Judges, which occasioned a good deal of Pleasantry; and we hear no Attachments have yet been granted against any of the Publishers of the North-Britons. The Publisher of No. 50, is to give in Bail To-Morrow, for his Appearance the last Day of Term.

Should the Emperor of Morocco commit any Infract on the British Flag, in the Mediterranean, it is said a Squadron of our Men of War will be dispatched on an Expedition to bombard Magadore, Laracee, Sallee, and some other principal Ports, both within and without the Straits.

Yesterday Morning, at 8, Mr. Wilkes was brought from the Prison of the King's-Bench, to the Court. The Judges came about Nine. It had been mentioned the last Term, that a new Argument was desired, and that new Ground might be taken for the Reversal of the Outlawry. At the opening of the Court, Mr. Wilkes made a short Speech, that he was perfectly satisfied with the State of the Argument, as it was left by Mr Serjeant Glynn, that he did not mean to quit the firm and solid Ground on which it rested, and was persuaded, from the Justice of the Court, that his Outlawry must be reversed. The Attorney-General, then, in the Support of the Outlawry, entered upon a very long Argument, to which no one of Mr. Wilkes's Counsel replied. The Judges afterwards delivered their Opinions very fully, and were unanimous that the Outlawry was illegal, and must be reversed. Their Lordships differed as to their Reasons, but all concurred in the Reversal, and Irregularity of the Proceedings.

The Attorney-General then demanded Judgments on the Two Verdicts. Mr. Wilkes then desired to avail himself of several Points in Arrest of Judgment. He said, that when he had the Honour of appearing before that Court, on the 20th of April, he had stated the Cafe of the Alteration of the Records at Lord Mansfield's own House; that his Lordship had replied; but that however his Lordship had delivered only his own Opinion; and the Opinion of one Judge, however distinguished for great Ability, was not the Judgment of the Court, which he desired, and submitted to, and begged that his Counsel might argue that, and some other Points of Importance. Several Things were afterwards mentioned by the Attorney-General, and by Mr. Wilkes's Counsel. At last the Court fixed next Tuesday to debate, whether both Verdicts ought not to be set aside, on the Objections as to the Records having been altered, that the Informations were not filed by the proper Officer, but by the Solicitor-General, so it is possible that Mr. Wilkes will be discharged, or receive Judgment, on Tuesday next.

ANNAPOLIS, SEPTEMBER 1.

August CUSTOM-HOUSE, ENTERED INWARD. From 29, Sloop Philadelphia, Abner Lowell, Piscataqua. August CLEARANCES. For 30, Schooner Molly, Stephen Vanhebbler, Lisbon. 31, Ship Albion, Thomas Spencer, Bristol.

TO THE PRINTERS.

FREDERICK County, July 12, 1768.

THE Conduct of the intended Successor to ALL-SAIN'T'S Parish, in Frederick County, vacant by the Death of our late worthy Rector, and the Opposition made to the Reverend Mr. A's taking Possession of the Parish Church, have not only become a Topic of much Conversation, but have also excited this last Gentleman's scribbling Fury.

From a Consciousness of my slender Abilities, I find myself very little inclined to appear in Print; but am induced, by Reflection, that Truth is easily told, and Fairness thereby detected. To attempt an Answer to Mr. A's Hand-Bill, left by an untrue State of Facts, the Public should be made believe, what did not happen, or, by a partial Account of the Transaction, be left ignorant of what really did happen.

The Parson made his first Appearance at Frederick-Town, on Tuesday the 31st of May last; where he continued quiet, and without any other remarkable Occurrence, 'til Saturday following; when, suddenly infuriated, by what Power, I know not, he employed, or hired, a tippling itinerant Barrister, to procure the Keys of the Church, which the Barrister (being in his Element) performed, with a secret Subtlety, becoming himself. The Parson, in this Manner, having got Possession of the Keys, cunningly stole up to the Church, and (as he says) read Prayers, accompanied by the Person who came up with him, the noble Barrister aforesaid, and another Mifcreant, whose Age is rendered despicable, by his Folly. The Sexton, in a short Time, complained to a Vestryman, that the Church-Keys had been taken out of his House, without his Privity; the Vestryman, upon the Parson's Return, insisted for a Delivery of the Keys, without Effect.

On the ensuing Sunday Morning, earlier than usual, the Parson went to Church; some of the Vestrymen followed, and remonstrated to him, the Indecency and Irregularity of his Behaviour; that no Induction, or Infringment, had been shewn to them, by which he ought to be admitted into the Church; and, that the Parishioners, under much Uneasiness, had strongly recommended to them, not to receive him, 'til the Event of their Petition, for a Divison of the Parish, was known; for which Reasons, they could not, nor would give him Possession of the Church: Upon which the Parson, determined to enter, at all Events, rushed into the Desk, and with an Appearance of Rage and Anger, driving Meekness from the Altar, began, what ought to be, Divine Service. The Vestrymen, shocked at this Conduct militant, and deeming it improper to profane the once sacred Walls, with Confusion and Strife, retired to Town, leaving the collected People, so very much exasperated, at the contumacious and ungentle Behaviour of the Parson, that they were, with much Difficulty, dissuaded from sacrificing him, with his Associates: Determined, however, not to submit quietly to the Insult, the People earnestly requested the Parson to withdraw; one of them approaching the Desk, the Parson, is it possible! presented a Pistol, swearing, by the awful G—d, if the Person offered to touch him, he would shoot him through! The Plebians, startled at the impious Sound, from the Place, where they were used to be delighted with tender Lessons of Religion and Morality, retired; but returning, resolutely told the Parson, if he did not quit the Church, they would make the Neglect very disagreeable in its Consequences: Here the mock Hero's Courage sunk! And, however well prepared with Fire-Arms, he found a Lack of Resolution to use them: Prudent, for once, he complied; but still retained his favourite Keys, enamoured with the Manner in which they were obtained. The People knowing this, threatened, and did throw Stones, until the Keys were dropped: The Parson run! His Companion cried Peccavi: The Barrister sneaked into a Loft, where he —; and the Parishioners shut the Church.

From this Relation of Facts, which can be verified, not by a few picked Sycophants, but by an independent, and unbiassed Number, what Inference will be made by the judicious; and on whom will their Censure fall? He surely ought to be held culpable, who first shewed an affrontive Contempt to Decency, Regularity, and Religion.

The Vestry, could not, consistent with their Oath, admit a Man, whom they knew not; and who disdainfully refused to exhibit to them any Instrument, or Induction, by which it might appear, he had a Right to be their Minister. The Parson does not attempt to allege the usual Application was made to the Vestry. Why this was neglected, I am at a Loss to suggest, unless it is, that the Parson imagined, doing it, would operate against his favourite Scheme, of annihilating that very beneficial Part of our Ecclesiastical Constitution.

The Warmth of the Parishioners, in this Affair, may be thought extravagant, by those who have not experienced such a Trial; but it must admit of much Palliation, with the most phlegmatic, when considered, as flowing from a laudable Passion, for preserving their Rights and Privileges, against the Exertions of a Man, who came to them, rather as a Wolf, than a Shepherd.

The Parishioners of All-Saint's, think they have a Right, at least to polite Treatment, from those who are to receive the immense Revenue, arising from their 30 per Poll Tax; and expect better Fate, than to have one imposed upon them, whose pecuniary Attachments, seem to absorb every other Quality.

The Parson's Insinuation, that the Vestry were under the Influence of, and guided by C. D. in their Conduct, is equally groundless, and dirty; and brings to my Mind, the Reveries of the famous Don Quixote, who attributed all his Misfortunes to Enchantment, as this Gentleman, his vexatious Disappointments, to the terrible Power of C. D. You mistake, good Sir: Search calmly and deliberately, and you will most certainly find the Cause of all your Ills, is fixed and sealed in your own dear Heart; as that of the above valourous Knight was, in his distemper'd Brain.

However frightful a Spectre C. D. may be to the Parson, yet, from my Knowledge of the Gentlemen who compose the Vestry, I can say, with Truth, they are independent, and not to be biased or guided by the Directions of any Man, however powerful, or discerning; but will resolutely pursue the Duty, arising from their Oath, disregarding Connections, or Consequences.

Let the Parson but steadily determine to falsify the biting Reflections of his Adversaries, by a thorough Change of Conduct, and he will then experience all that indulgent and tender Usage, from the Vestry, and Parishioners of All-Saint's, which is due to a penitent and reformed Sinner.

The Parson tells us, in his Hand-Bill, that he had, by his affable and polite Conduct, in Frederick-Town, removed the ill Impressions made upon the Minds of the Inhabitants, by his Enemies: Fortunate for him, had he left them under this Deception! A Week would have been but a short State of Probation! But oh! Nature! Nature! The transformed Cat could bear to forego an Opportunity of seizing the strolling Mouse: Send now your Emisary to hunt Applause; and, if he finds more Parishioners, to whom you are agreeable, (except always the Two Worthies before mentioned) than there were good Men in Sodom and Gomorrah, I'll engage for your peaceable Enjoyment of the much-desired 30 per Poll.

Whether Mr. A's Lawyer advises him right, that he is Parson in Persons, of All-Saint's Parish, or whether the Church is now full, are Questions, which I, being no Lawyer, shall not presume to determine; but it would seem clear, if a Possession of the Church Freehold, is absolutely necessary to constitute the Incumbent's Right to the Tax, it ought to be a legal Investiture; and it would seem equally evident, that an Entry, by Fraud and Secrecy, can never have the Sanction of Legality. These are Points which may be hereafter scrutinized, and don't come within my Sphere, who only aim to vindicate the Conduct of an abused and irritated People; in which, if I succeed, shall think myself happy; if not, must content myself with being one of that Number, to whom a good Intention affords Satisfaction.

A PARISHIONER OF ALL-SAIN'T'S.

Virginia, June 20, 1768.

THE Earl of Tankerville's Concurrence being now had, and in the Country, to the Purchaser I sometime ago made of his Agents, in Virginia, so that Deeds can be had to the Part thereof, in Frederick County, Maryland, I proposed again to dispose off, which prevented its being done when formerly advertised, I now give Notice to all Persons, inclinable to purchase the Whole, or any Part thereof, that it is now on Sale, and can be completed, for which Purpose I will attend at the next August Frederick County Court, (which begins on the Third Tuesday in August) at the House of Mr. Charleston, ready to treat with any Person inclinable to purchase it. It is a Tract of choice good Land, remarkably suitable for Farming and Plantation Business, and very commodiously situate for Trade, being not far from Frederick-Town, and the Advantage of Navigation on Potowmack River, the usual Landing the Boats now carry from, being upon the Land. It is well watered, and has great Quantities of Meadow Ground interspersed amongst it. It contains between Six and Seven Thousand Acres, and is usually known by the Name of COLVILL'S TRACT, called MERRYLAND. Any Person, who, in the Interim, wants to view or treat for it, may apply to Messrs. John Carrey, Merchant, in Frederick-Town; or Francis Hamilton, at Keep-Trust Furnace, who have Power and Directions to treat for it, or to the Subscriber himself, at Occoquan Forges. It being mostly fine tendable Land, would make a good Settlement for a Number of People wanting to remove and seat themselves in one Neighbourhood. If there was more of them than the Tract could commodiously serve, the Subscriber has 16000 Acres of Land, equally good, on the opposite Side of Potowmack, which will be soon settled out: It is almost adjoining the above Tract, excepting the Separation by the River, on which they might seat themselves contiguous to one another. Should not Purchasers offer soon for it, to the Subscriber's Liking, it will be leased out to good Farmers, there having been many Applications made for it, in that Way, and which can be let out at a very great Rent. Those who formerly applied to purchase, and still incline to do so, on giving Notice, in Time, will have Preference given them.

WATCH and CLOCK-MAKER,

IMRESSED with a grateful Sense of the Favours he has received from the Gentlemen of this, and the neighbouring Provinces, takes this Method of returning his sincere Thanks for the Countenance and Encouragement he has hitherto been honoured with; and, as he is solicitous to merit a Continuance of their Approbation, he has lately procured, at a very considerable Expence, a complete Apparatus, for the more effectual Execution of the different Branches in his Business, without which it is impracticable to give that Satisfaction he is studious to render, and he is determined, by unremitting Assiduity, and the utmost Exertion of his Abilities, to justify and secure the Public Confidence.

It is with Concern he finds himself reduced to the disagreeable Necessity of cautioning the Public against the continued Botcheries practised by many Pretenders to the Business, whose Inabilities are too frequently experienced by the Employer, as heavy Charges inevitably follow; to rectify the Errors of those Tinkering Performers, and the Mechanism of the Piece is often destroyed, beyond the Power of Art to repair.

He has, of his own Make, GOLD, SILVER, and PINCHBECK WATCHES, of the best and newest Construction, finished in the genteel Taste, some with Seconds in the Center, commonly called Stop-Watches, Eight-day and Alarm Clocks: The Qualities and Prices of all which are contrived to prevent Importation, as he flatters himself those Gentlemen, who have already dealt with him, can testify, and such as shall please to honour him with their Commands, will agreeably experience: The commendable Ardour which has been happily manifested for the Promotion of American Manufactures, induces him to hope for the Encouragement of all who are inclined to protect and countenance social Industry amongst us; and he doubts not but they will clearly perceive the Advantages of dealing with the Maker on the Spot, where they can previously examine what they purchase, and who will engage to keep his Work in Repair, at the trifling Charge of 3 s. 6 d. Annually (general Accidents excepted) He will receive and complete, with the greatest Expedition, Orders either for Watches or Clocks, made on any Principle, and agreeable to any Fashion, and will allow, in Exchange, the best Prices for old Watches and Clocks.

He will wait on any Gentleman in, or near this City, to repair their Clocks.

N. B. To be sold, just imported, Six PRINTS, elegantly framed and glazed, being Views of London, designed and engraved by the most eminent Masters in England.—They are very proper Furniture for a Parlour, or Study.

Queen-Anne's County, May 25, 1768.

RAN away from the Subscriber, on the 25th of December last, a Country-born Negro Man, named WILL, a well set black Fellow, about 5 Feet 9 Inches high. Whoever takes up said Negro, and secures him in Anne-Arundel County Jail, shall have a Reward of Four Pounds Ten Shillings, if brought home to his Master, living near Queen's-Town, in the above County, Five Pounds, paid by (1) FRANCIS HALL.

WANTED,

A PERSON well acquainted with the Business of a COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE. Such a one, on Application to the Printer, will be duly encouraged.

It was this Morning currently reported on the Royal Exchange, that the French Court have actually threatened to attack Minorca, should Great-Britain interfere with the French King's Designs upon Corsica.

They write from Paris, that an Express had arrived there, with Advice that the landing of the French Troops in Corsica, had not been attended with the least Opposition on the Part of the Islanders.

Letters from Gibraltar, mention, that the Emperor of Morocco's Ambassador, who lately arrived there, demanding the Payment of a large Sum of Money, had been obliged to return home, without receiving the least Satisfaction to the insolent Demands of his Master.

No material Changes or Alterations in the Ministry, will take Place, 'til the Parliament meets for Business, which is expected in November next.

Some very discerning Politicians pretend to have discovered that the French have taken Possession of Corsica, with the Design of erecting it into a Monarchy for the Infant Duke of Parma, Grandson of his most Christian Majesty.

On the Arrival of his Danish Majesty, in these Dominions, great Expectations are formed by the Politicians at the West End of the Town; one Party assures us, this Tour of his Majesty, is not merely to see the Country, but to set on Foot a new Commercial Treaty between the Two Nations, particularly regarding the present Trade of the Danes in the West-Indies. As we are possessed of many useless Islands in those Parts, which at present are of little or no Account to us, it is proposed to cede some Portions thereof to the Danes, for a valuable Consideration. On the other Hand, it is said, this Journey will put the finishing Stroke to some recent Affairs, lately transacted on the Continent.

It is now said the D. of B. takes the Lead in all Public Concerns.

A new Battalion, of 500 Men, is ordered to be immediately raised, and added to the Train of Artillery, which will cause a considerable Promotion in that Department.

A Proclamation is issued out in Dublin, for the new Parliament of Ireland, to meet the First of August.

It is rumoured, that during a late private Negotiation, a very considerable Post was offered conditionally to Three several Peral Personages, who thought proper to decline accepting it.

A Correspondent says, "Who knows but that the Thirty Ships, fitting out by the Genoese, for the Service of France, may be employed in an Embarkation to invade Great-Britain, so soon as the French have subdued Corsica, which it seems is considered to be a preliminary Step?"

July 5. A certain Nobleman, who was lately offered a considerable Post in the Administration, is said to have declared he will never accept any Place, in which, from the present Fluctuation of Affairs, he could only be considered as a Locum Tenens.

It is reported, that a Person of Distinction will be speedily appointed to examine the State of the Bastion and Fortifications of Dunkirk.

It is reported, that the Reason why the French met with no Opposition at landing their Troops in Corsica, is, because they only took Possession of such Places as were formerly occupied by the Genoese Troops, and have made no Attempts, whatever, to extend their Possessions any farther than the Genoese had before they took Leave of the Island. And it is strongly asserted, by those well acquainted in that Affair, no Hostility will be commenced, on the Part of his Most Christian Majesty's Forces, unless first attacked by the Corsicans.

Portuguese Gratitude is arrived to such a Pitch, that as England has constantly assisted them, in all Emergencies, they now deal with the French, and other Nations, in Preference to the English, for every Article with which those Nations can supply them.

A Commission is preparing to pass the Great Seal, for appointing a new Board of the Commissioners of the Police in Scotland.

By some late Advices received from France, we are informed that the Protestant Religion daily gains great Ground in that Kingdom.

We hear that Orders are given for One of the Royal Yachts at Greenwich, to be in Readiness to sail for Holland, to bring over his Danish Majesty, escorted by a Man of War.

We hear the Apartments in St. James's Palace lately occupied by his Serene Highness, the Prince of Brunswick, will be superbly fitted up, and ornamented for the Reception of his Majesty, the King of Denmark.

It is reported the French Ambassador has fully justified, to the Satisfaction of our Ministry, the Proceeding of his Court, in regard to Corsica.

This Morning a Packet with Dispatches, was sent off from the Secretary of State's Office, in Cleveland-Row, St. James's, for his Excellency, Sir James Grey, his Majesty's Ambassador at Madrid.

It is rumoured, that we are upon the Point of commencing a serious Quarrel with a maritime State in the Mediterranean.

The Utrecht Gazette, under the Head London, June 14, has the following Article:—"Mr. Wilkes is not the only Object of the frequent Councils held at Court, and at which the King very often assists. The new Subjects of Complaint of the Americans, who obstinately refuse to submit to the Imposts laid on them in 1767; the sending of the French Troops to Corsica; the Troubles which agitate Poland, are, among others, the great Objects which demand the Attention of the Ministry."

July 7. The Unstablens of the Ministry, and the various Opinions that are now propagated by the interested, is more conspicuous than ever, amongst the Great. The quarreling a certain great Person on the Shoulders of an old Placeman, is not easily digested; few People now-a-Days can bear voluntary Incumbrances, much less consent to a Competitor in Office, or a Party in receiving the Emoluments.

We are informed that a Rupture has happened between Two Noblemen, which will open a Scene, in which the Public are deeply interested.

On Sunday Night, the Brother of a great Personage, paid a Visit to Mr. Wilkes, in the King's Bench.

Extra of a Letter from Paris, June 20.

"The Court hath received Advice, that the King's Troops, destined for Corsica, continue to arrive there successively; and that a Detachment having presented itself before the Town of Bonifaccio, the Genoese Garrison marched out, and embarked for Genoa. It is certain that these Proceedings are in consequence of a Treaty between his Majesty and the Republic; but what will be the Fate of the Corsican Malcontents, is unknown to the Public."

ANNAPOLIS, SEPTEMBER 8.

By the Public Prints, from Virginia, it appears that there has been the most unsuitable Riots in, and about Norfolk, occasioned by some Gentlemen desirous of having their Families inoculated for the Small-Pox. After several Meetings, for and against, it was agreed, that Inoculation should be carried on at a House belonging to Dr. Campbell, about Three Miles from Town; and, to prevent the Infection spreading, every Precaution was taken—notwithstanding which, after the several Patients had been inoculated, and under a Course of Physic, (many of them Ladies, used to the most tender and delicate Treatment) a Number of Persons armed, assembled, and ordered them away to a Pest-House, about Five Miles distant, not then cleansed from the Filth and Stench occasioned by a Parcel of new Negroes, who had been lodged there a little Time before, to be cured of the Small-Pox, Flux, and other epidemical Disorders, incident to long Voyages.—The above Distance, they had to walk in the Night, during a severe Gust, and heavy Rain; neither could they have found the Road, had it not been for the Lightning, which was almost incessant. It is remarkable, that every Patient recovered.

We are informed, by a Gentleman from Norfolk, that the Mob have since burnt Dr. Campbell's House to the Ground.

Last Week, at an Adjourned Court, held at Baltimore-Town, several of the Attornies practising in that County, unluckily left their Papers in the Court-House, which were clandestinely taken away, on Thursday Night. It is said, that from the prudent Measures since pursued, Suitors, &c. will not sustain any great Prejudice from this new invented Species of Villainy.

Yesterday, Negro Sam was executed at the Gallows, near this City, pursuant to his Sentence: There were Two convicted; One of which his Excellency was pleased to pardon.

Death Warrants are gone up to Frederick County, against Dennis Igo, James Johnson, and Joseph Frampton, under Sentence, for Felony; as likewise to Dorchester County, against Negro Daniel, for the same Crime.

Since our last, sailed from this Port, the Snow Sally, Capt. Thomas Smith, for London.

Upper-Marlborough, August 29, 1768.

THE Subscriber intending to quit Store-keeping, at the above Place, will dispose of the Goods, now on Hand, for Tobacco, Bills of Exchange, or Cash. The Goods were mostly landed in May last, and there is yet a good Assortment of Summer and Winter Goods.

EIGHT POUNDS REWARD,

RAN away last Night, from Kingbury Furnace Mine-Bank, near Baltimore-Town,

WILLIAM HATTON, (otherwise JACKSON) a Convict, by Trade a Stocking-Weaver, about 28 or 30 Years of Age, 5 Feet 6 or 7 Inches high; has a Down-look, and a remarkable Way of staring in any Person's Face, that speaks to him; he has a Scar on the Corner of his Mouth, to his Chin, stout made, fresh Complexion, light brown Hair: Had on, and took with him, a new Osnabrig Shirt, that never was washed, a Cotton Country-made, and a Fearnought Jacket, Osnabrig Trowsers, a Pair of English Falls, Metal Buckles, and Felt Hat, bound with black Binding.

Negro CYRUS, a stout well made gruff speaking Fellow: Had on a Cotton, and a Fearnought Jacket, an Osnabrig Shirt, and short Osnabrig Trowsers, Monmouth Cap, and a Pair of good English Flatts, nailed all round.

THOMAS STRINGER, about 25 Years of Age, 5 Feet 6 Inches high, short brown Hair, has Two Moles on his Face, and speaks pretty fast: Had on, when he went away, a white Russia Drab Coat, Double-breasted Cotton Jacket, fine Linen Shirt, Osnabrig Breeches, Thread Stockings, and Country-made Pumps, striped Silk Handkerchief, a pretty good Felt Hat, and sundry other Things, unknown.

Whoever apprehends the said Runaways, so that they may be had again, shall receive FIFTY SHILLINGS for each of the Convicts, and THIRTY SHILLINGS for the Negro, if taken in the Province; and, if out of the Province, THREE POUNDS each, for Hatton and Stringer, and TWO POUNDS for Negro Cyrus, paid by

FRANCIS PHILLIPS.

(5w) The said Stringer went off, by himself, the first of the Month.

September 1, 1768.

TEN POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away from the Subscriber, in Loudoun County, on the Night of the 30th of August last, Two Convict Servant Men, both Blacksmiths by Trade.

JOHN BENHAM, 28 Years of Age, 5 Feet 5 Inches high, stoops in his Shoulders, has a very hoarse Voice, is slender made, and his Hair cut off, has a Scar or two in his Neck, which he says was by Shot; and was clothed in Osnabrig.

JOHN MILLER, 28 Years of Age, 5 Feet 2 Inches high, a thick-sett Fellow, and wears his own Hair; has a large Scar in his Forehead, has been in the Country before, talks much, and very impudent, and is the most deceitful Fellow I ever knew, is very capable of deceiving by his Polaver: He was dressed in Osnabrig, and had on a Felt Hat. 'Tis likely they will change their Dress, as they were endeavouring to steal Cloaths the Night they went away. They are the Two Servants that ran away last May, from me, and advertised in the several Gazettes of the several adjoining Colonies. They were then taken up in Maryland; and, I am satisfied, they will endeavour to get on board some Vessel, so as to get a Passage home, or to the West-Indies; so Masters of Vessels are cautioned not to entertain them. They had each of them large Steel Collars about their Necks, but possibly will get them off. Whoever takes them up, and delivers, or causes them to be delivered, at my House, in the said County, shall receive the above Reward, or FIVE POUNDS for either, if taken separate, paid by (3w) WILLIAM CARR LANE.

THERE is at the Plantation of Col. Hammond, in Anne-Arundel County, taken up as a Stray, a white HORSE, about Ten Hands high, branded on both Shoulders, Part of it like W, but cannot perceive what the other Part is; he paces and trots.

The Owner may have him again, on proving Property, and paying Charges.

August 28, 1768.

STOLEN out of the Subscriber's Pasture, on the Night of the 8th of August, a very likely dun HORSE, 4 Years old, about 14 Hands high, branded on the near Shoulder and Buttock, R, it is very plain to be seen: He had on a Pair of Leather Spannels, which was carried off with him: He is a Horse of great Spirit, and it is supposed he is carried up the Country. Whoever takes up said Horse, and brings him to the Subscriber, living within Two Miles of Port-Tobacco, shall have One Piñole Reward, paid by RICHARD GAMBRA.

THE little Regard that has been paid to repeated

Notice given, in this GAZETTE, by Persons indebted to the late Mr. Jonas Green, requesting them to settle, and pay off their respective Balances, makes it incumbent on me, to assure them, without Distinction, that, however disagreeable to myself, yet, in Justice to his Creditors, I am determined to take every legal Step, to obtain a Settlement of about Twelve Hundred Open Accounts, many of which have been so long standing, that, if immediately paid, the Injury sustained, by lying out of the Money, without Interest, is more than adequate to any Profit arising from the Articles charged. Persons having such Accounts, cannot take it amiss, if I should print a Supplement, as many of them do not now take the GAZETTE, and insert a List of their Names, and Sums due, which will enable their Neighbours and my Friends, to expostulate with them, probably convince them, of the absolute Necessity of settling their Accounts; and, if they cannot pay immediately, they ought to pass their Notes, for the just Balances due. Such a Conduct would enable the Subscriber to satisfy every just Claim against the Deceased.

ANNE CATHARINE GREEN, Administratrix.

We request the Favour of such of our Customers as may have omitted to settle for the preceding Year ending at No. 1170, being the 10th Day of February last, to give us their Assistance, annually, and those who have not any Intention of paying regularly, we hope will favour us with a Line, inclosing the Needful, to that Date.

ANNAPOLIS, August 25, 1768.

AS I have declined Public-House-Keeping; and, in Time past, gave Notice of my Intention so to do, desiring all those indebted to me, to settle and pay off their Accounts; yet there are many who neglect even to call and settle. Wherefore this is once more, to request such as are indebted to me, for Public-House Expences, or otherwise, to call and pay off their respective Balances, or settle them to my Satisfaction, before next November Court, as I shall order Writs and Warrants for those who do neglect the same.

As I am now more at Leisure, than when I kept Public-House, I purpose to give more Attention to the HATMAKING-BUSINESS: My former Customers, and others, may be supplied with HATS of any Sort, of the best Quality, for the usual Prices, and Ladies Riding Hats, furr'd, with Gold or Silver Trimmings, in the genteelst Mode, by, Their humble Servant,

Virginia, June 20, 1768.

THE Earl of Tankerville's Concurrence being now had, and in the Country, to the Purchases I sometime ago made of his Agents, in Virginia, so that Deeds can be had to the Part thereof, in Frederick County, Maryland, I proposed again to dispose off, which prevented its being done when formerly advertised, I now give Notice to all Persons; inclinable to purchase the Whole, or any Part thereof, that it is now on Sale, and can be completed, for which Purpose I will attend at the next August Frederick County Court, (which begins on the Third Tuesday in August) at the House of Mr. Charleston, ready to treat with any Person inclinable to purchase it. It is a Tract of choice good Land, remarkably suitable for Farming and Plantation Business, and very commodiously situate for Trade, being not far from Frederick-Town, and the Advantage of Navigation on Potowmack River, the usual Landing the Boats now carry from, being upon the Land. It is well watered, and has great Quantities of Meadow Ground interspersed amongst it. It contains between Six and Seven Thousand Acres, and is usually known by the Name of COLVILL'S TRACT, called MERRY-LAND. Any Person, who, in the Interim, wants to view or treat for it, may apply to Messrs. John Carrey, Merchant, in Frederick-Town, or Frances Hamilton, at Keep-Triste Furnace, who have Power and Directions to treat for it, or to the Subscriber himself, at Occoquan Forges. It being mostly fine tendable Land, would make a good Settlement for a Number of People wanting to remove and seat themselves in one Neighbourhood. If there was more of them than the Tract could commodiously serve, the Subscriber has 16000 Acres of Land, equally good, on the opposite Side of Potowmack, which will be soon settled out: It is almost adjoining the above Tract, excepting the Separation by the River, on which they might seat themselves contiguous to one another. Should not Purchasers offer soon for it, to the Subscriber's Liking, it will be leased out to good Farmers, there having been many Applications made for it, in that Way, and which can be let out at a very great Rent. Those who formerly applied to purchase, and still incline to do so, on giving Notice, in Time, will have Preference given them.

JOHN SEMPLE.

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1768.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 17.

On the Night between the 5th and 6th Instant, a Fire broke out in the Jews Quarter, which destroyed upwards of One Hundred and Fifty Houses.

ROME, May 19. When the Ministers of France, Spain, and Naples, demanded a joint Audience of the Pope, his Holiness declared that he would not receive them all together, but each separately, on account of the different Ceremonials to be observed; according to which, one of them being a Cardinal, must have leave to sit down; another, not having made his Entry, must be standing; and the Third, having no Character, must be upon his Knees. To obviate these Difficulties, the Three Ministers agreed among themselves, that the Spanish Minister should represent them all, and deliver to his Holiness the Memorial of their respective Courts. The Pope, without giving him Time to expatiate upon the Subject of these Memorials, asked if they contained any Thing more than a Representation to him, to induce him to revoke the Brief he had issued, relative to the Court of Parma? and being answered, that that was the only Subject of them, his Holiness said, "We have done nothing but what we ought to do, and we cannot revoke it. The Menace of invading our Dominions, with an armed Force, is unnecessary; for, even if we had Troops sufficient to defend them, I would not make Use of them. As the common Father of the Faithful, I would not go to War, even with any Christian Princes, much less with the Catholics. The Princes ought not, on this Account, to fall upon my Subjects, who are not concerned in the Affair; but if their Aim is against my Person, and they will even drive me away from Rome, we declare, that after the Example of our Predecessors, we will go into Exile, wherever they think proper, rather than betray the Interests of Religion, and of the Church." To this, his Holiness added, "That it was not the Custom of the Holy See to revoke its Judgments, which were never passed 'til after the most mature Deliberation, and always with the Assistance of the Holy Ghost. His Holiness had no sooner done speaking, than he gave the Signal to the Porter to open the Door, and the Minister withdrew.

June 15. Yesterday an Express arrived here with Advice, that a Body of Neapolitan Troops took Possession of Benevento the 11th Instant, and that the Prelate Lante, Governor of that Place, had left it, in Order to return here. It is assured, that these Troops intended likewise to take Possession of Ponte-Corvo, another Town belonging to the Pope.

WARSAW, May 19. M. Potocki, Cup-bearer of the Great Duchy of Lithuania, has taken a small Fortress, within 6 Miles of Lemberg, where he found 50 Pieces of Cannon, with Uniforms and Arms for Two Regiments, and 100 Quintals of Powder. His Intention was to join the Confederates with several Thousand Cossacks; but 400 Russians have thrown themselves into Lemberg, in order to cut off his Passage, whilst their Detachments make Reprisals on his Estates in Lithuania. The Confederates have entered the King's Hereditary Estates, and are committing great Disorders there.

An Officer of Houlans, who commanded 100 Men, in Quarters at Kackroczim, has been grievously insulted by a Russian Officer, who arriving there, with a Detachment of 300 Men, insisted on the Houlans yielding up their Lodgings to them. The injured Officer, in Revenge, made his Men mount their Horses, exhorted them to second him, and they all, Sword in Hand, fell upon the Russians, and cut them to Pieces. Upwards of 20 Waggons, laden with the wounded have been brought hither; amongst them is the Officer who commanded them. The Houlans, who were in the King's Pay, have been disbanded.

May 22. The Confederates, who daily increase, received a considerable Reinforcement a few Days ago, by being joined by great Part of the Corps commanded by the Regimentary of Podolia, Dziedwizicki: This Officer went to oppose the Progress of the Confederates, at the Head of about 3000 Men; but as soon as they came up to them, most of his Troops went over to the Confederates, who afterwards dispersed, and pursued the rest beyond the Niefter, into Moldavia. The Town of Zalezick, where the King had established different Manufactures, has been plundered and burnt; and all the Manufacturers, Officers, belonging to the King, and other Inhabitants, obliged to fly for Refuge into Moldavia.

June 18. The Day before Yesterday, Advice was brought here, that the Russians had beaten the Confederates of Great Poland, under the Command of Sieur Raydzinski, and in Number about 3000, Part of which had escaped into Silesia; and that on this Occasion the Town of Pifdry was reduced to Ashes. The Report of a Confederacy at Cracow, is without Foundation.

BERLIN, June 14. We learn from Lansperg, upon the Warta, that a Fire broke out there, the 31st of last Month, which in Three Hours Time burnt down 255 Houses, besides Stables and Barns, and that Eight Persons perished in the Flames.

LONDON, June 2.

We are told, that an extraordinary Council is shortly to be summoned, on Purpose to consider of the last Advices from Boston.

There was a Report Yesterday, but we hope it is without Foundation, that the Plague had made its Appearance at a great Trading Sea-Port in the Mediterranean.

June 7. It is said Orders are issued for double Quarantine to be performed on board all Ships coming from any Port in the Mediterranean.

From the SHERBORN MERCURY, June 13.

Mr. Bingley, who has lately been served with an Attachment for publishing the North-Briton, No. 50, when he appeared in the Court of King's-Bench, on Tuesday last, to shew Cause why an Attachment should not be issued against him, intended to make a Defence himself, Council having declined undertaking to make it for him; but he was not permitted by the Court to do it: He has however since appealed to the Public, by publishing the Defence he intended to have made in Court, in which the Spirit of the Liberty of antient Rome, even in its purest Days of Freedom, breathes forth. After asserting, and shewing how the Charges brought in No. 50, against Lord M——, are founded in FACT, he concludes, "However, my Lords, what ever my Offence may be, I desire to have it determined by a Jury of my own Countrymen. The favourable and glorious Appeal of Englishmen, is to GOD, and their Country. To them I stand or fall. I shall REFUSE to answer any Questions, by Way of Interrogatories, on ATTACHMENT. There can be no Pretext for denying me a Trial by Jury. The Way of Attachment, is a STAR-CHAMBER Process; to which I will not submit; it is UNLAWFUL; it is unprecedented in such a Case. My Lords I am an Englishman, and I DEMAND, as my RIGHT, a Trial by Jury."

June 14. Letters from Rome advise, that upon the Pope's Refusal to withdraw the Brief against the Duke of Parma, the Ministers of France and Spain said, "Your Holiness must not then be surprized, if you should soon hear the News of Avignon, Castro, and Ronciglione, being taken."

It is reported, that in a late Council, a patriotic Member strongly urged the Necessity of Great-Britain's effectually interposing in the Affair of Corsica.

The Error assigned by Lord M—— for the Reversal of Mr. Wilkes's Outlawry, was, that the Proceedings were stated at the County Court, for the County of Middlesex; whereas the form ought to have been, at the County Court of MIDDLESEX, for the County of Middlesex; which was suggested by Mr. Serjeant Glynn, in the Pleadings, near Two Months ago: Lord M—— declared that Form of Words absolutely necessary, and on that Failure only, he reversed the Outlawry.

It is confidently asserted in the Political World, that the Arrival of his Prussian Majesty, on the Territories of Holland, will put the finishing Hand to some Treaties that have been a considerable Time in Agitation, tending to introduce a new System of Politics in the Trade, Connections, and future Grandeur of that Republic.

June 16. A noble Lord said lately to a Gentleman, his Acquaintance, "I am informed that you got Mr. Wilkes 61 Votes at his late Election; but hoped for his Sake, it was not true, as he should be sorry to hear that any of his Friends, voted for a Person of Mr. Wilkes's Principles." The Gentleman, after thanking his Lordship for his candid Opinion, answered, "It is not true, on my Honour: I did not get Mr. Wilkes 61 Votes; but I assure your Lordship, I and my friends made just 221 single Votes for Mr. Wilkes; and as I am independent, on any future Occasion, will get 200, without one Shilling Expence to Mr. Wilkes."

It is said, that an Offer has lately been made to a certain popular Gentleman, of a Present, equal to the Amount of the capital Prize in the Lottery, if he would sign a general release to a noble L——, and Three others, for some illegal Proceedings, formerly exercised upon the Person and Property of a certain Gentleman, then resident in Westminster; which Offer he refused, being determined to make no other End, than by the Laws of his Country.

It is said Mr. Bingley will stand a Candidate for Middlesex in the room of Geo. Cooke, Esq; if he succeeds, Middlesex will have one Member in King's-Bench Prison, and the other in N——.

At a considerable Meeting of Freeholders, in the County of Middlesex, on Thursday last, they unanimously agreed to support the Interest of Mr. Serjeant Glynn, at the ensuing Election, for his spirited and disinterested Behaviour in a certain great popular Affair.

June 18. There is Advice from Constantinople, of the Plague being broke out in the Suburbs of Galata and Pera.

Letters from Sicily, assure, that a Barbary Squadron, consisting of Six large Xebecs, and a Ship of 20 Guns, continues to infest the Southern Coasts of that Kingdom, and has taken 12 Vessels, with rich Cargoes, Four of them Maltese, and Seven Neapolitan. An Armament is fitting out at Naples, with great Activity, to go in Pursuit of this Squadron.

June 21. We are informed, that the Island which Captain Wallace has discovered, in the South-Sea, and named George's Land, is about 1500 Leagues to the Westward, and to Leaward of the Coast of Peru, and about 35 Leagues in Circumference; that its principal, and almost sole national Advantage is, its Situation for exploring the Terra Incognita of the Southern Hemisphere.

This Day there was a full Board of Admiralty, and it is reported that some Changes will soon take place therein.

It is said that divers Samples of Mineral Ores, have been sent hither from North-America, consisting of Lead, Iron, Copper, and Silver, from Mines lately discovered there, all of which are said to be valuable.

June 25. It is said that another Prince of the Continent will favour this Metropolis with a Visit, when we are honoured with the Presence of his Danish Majesty.

To the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of MIDDLESEX.

GENTLEMEN,

AFTER every kind of Opposition from the Tools of ministerial Power, and every Hour of Delay which could be gained by the Chicane of Law, I find myself at last happy, even under this Day's severe Sentence, that by the unanimous Determination of all the Judges of the Court of King's-Bench, I am restored to my Birthright, to the noble Liberties and Privileges of an Englishman. The Outlawry, which is now reversed, has appeared clearly to be an Act of equal Injustice and Cruelty; from the very Beginning, erroneous and illegal. In the whole Progress of ministerial Vengeance against me, for several Years, I have shown, to the Conviction of all Mankind, that my Enemies have trampled on the Laws, and been actuated by the Spirit of Tyranny and Arbitrary Power. The General Warrant, under which I was first apprehended, has been adjudged illegal. The Seizure of my Papers was condemned judicially. The Outlawry, so long the Topic of virulent Abuse, is at last declared to have been contrary to Law; and on the Ground first taken by my learned Counsel, Mr. Serjeant Glynn, is formally reversed. It still remains in this public Cause, that the Justice of the Nation should have Place against the first, and great Criminal, the late Secretary of State, Lord ———, not so much for the Punishment he has merited, as for the Example of Terror, to any present or future Minister, who might otherwise be tempted to invade the sacred Liberties of our Country. I pledge myself to you, that my strongest Efforts shall be exerted, to carry this through with a Spirit and Firmness becoming an Affair of national Consequence, yet without the smallest Degree of private Rancour or Malice, which neither my long and hard Imprisonment, nor the past Provocations, shall make me harbour against any Man.

After this tedious and harsh Confinement, I hope, Gentlemen, to pass the rest of my Life a Freeman among you, my freeborn Countrymen; and give me Leave to declare, on every Emergency, whenever the Rights of the People are attacked, I shall be ready to stand forward, and to risk all, for what is nearest to my Heart, the Freeborn of England. In this glorious Cause, we are equally engaged. We have only one common Interest, that of our Country, its Laws and Liberties, and in Consequence, the Preservation of our Sovereign, and the Brunswick Line. These Objects we will steadily pursue, and Freedom shall not perish among us, neither by the Treachery and Corruption of Ministers, nor by the Fate of Arms, while we remain Men and Englishmen.

I observe, Gentlemen, in the Speech of the Lords Commissioners, at the opening of this Parliament, that no Matters of general Business are to come on this Session. Before the Winter I beg to be honoured with your Commands for the next Session on any Points of Importance, which you may judge proper to be submitted to the great Council of the Nation, either respecting the Kingdom in general, or our County in particular. In all our common Concerns, I entreat for myself, your Candour and Indulgence, of which I feel that I stand in great Need. My Views however will be approved by you, for they shall be Public-spirited, and in no Instance selfish or partial. I would not for a Moment lie under the Suspicion of a mean, private, interested Plan of Conduct, or personal Ambition. I am determined to remain entirely independent, uncorrupted, even unbiassed in an improper Manner, and never to accept from the Crown, either Place, Pension, Gratuity or Emolument of any kind. I will live and die in your Service, a private Gentleman, perfectly Free, under no Controul, but the Laws, under no Influence, but yours; and I hope, by your Favour and Kindness, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Middlesex. On these Terms only, I expect through Life the Continuance of your Support, as well as the favourable Opinion of you, and all other good Men, the Friends of Liberty, and of my Country.

I am, with Gratitude and Esteem,
GENTLEMEN,
Your faithful and obedient humble Servant,
JOHN WILKES.

King's-Bench Prison, Saturday, June 18, 1768.

July 2. It is said that the Chief Governor of a neighbouring Kingdom, has repeatedly and positively declared, that he will not attempt to influence Electors in the Choice of their Representatives in the great national Council, either by Bribery, Corruption, or any other Means whatsoever.

We are told by Letters from Milan, that Cardinal Borromeo was set out for Turin, charged with Instructions on the Part of the Holy See, to engage the King of Sardinia to use his good Offices, to bring about an Accommodation between the Court of Rome, and that of Parma.

July 5. At a late Conference which the French Ambassador, the Count de Chatelet, had with the Earl of ———, the Count observed, "That the King of France, in sending so many Troops to Corsica, did no more than his Duty, in assisting his Ally, the Republic of Genoa, against their rebel Subjects. Lord S—e replied, "We do not consider the Corsicans as Rebels." "Your Proclamations stile them so," answered the Count.

Mr. Bingley, who has lately been served with an Attachment for publishing the North-Briton, No. 50, when he appeared in the Court of King's-Bench, on Tuesday last, to shew Cause why an Attachment should not be issued against him, intended to make a Defence himself, Council having declined undertaking to make it for him; but he was not permitted by the Court to do it: He has however since appealed to the Public, by publishing the Defence he intended to have made in Court, in which the Spirit of the Liberty of antient Rome, even in its purest Days of Freedom, breathes forth. After asserting, and shewing how the Charges brought in No. 50, against Lord M——, are founded in FACT, he concludes, "However, my Lords, what ever my Offence may be, I desire to have it determined by a Jury of my own Countrymen. The favourable and glorious Appeal of Englishmen, is to GOD, and their Country. To them I stand or fall. I shall REFUSE to answer any Questions, by Way of Interrogatories, on ATTACHMENT. There can be no Pretext for denying me a Trial by Jury. The Way of Attachment, is a STAR-CHAMBER Process; to which I will not submit; it is UNLAWFUL; it is unprecedented in such a Case. My Lords I am an Englishman, and I DEMAND, as my RIGHT, a Trial by Jury."

They write from Paris, that, on the 11th of last Month, a Fire broke out in the Village of Bisseul, in Champagne, which, in the Space of Five Hours, destroyed 195 Houses. Twelve or Fifteen Persons, with 200 Cattle, perished in the Flames; and the Bells in the Steeple were melted; but one Half of the Church, and Nine Houses escaped.

July 7. We hear that all the marching Regiments, on the English Establishment, are ordered to be reviewed separately, by their Officers, and to make a due Return thereof to the War-Office, on or before the first of August next.

We also hear that a general Survey of the Navy is ordered to be made forthwith, and a due return made to the Lords of the Admiralty, with all speed; to which End, on Tuesday next, the proper superior Officers, will be appointed by the Lords of the Admiralty.

We are informed that Advice has been received of Four French Men of War having lately failed from Brest, for the Coast of Africa.

It is rumoured, that several Men of War of the Line, will speedily be put in Commission, for an important Expedition.

They write from St. Petersburg, that the French Agents are industriously buying up all kinds of War-like Stores, to be shipped in Russian Bottoms, for the Ports of Brest and Rochfort.

They write from Dublin, that great Quantities of Irish Provisions are now buying up in different Parts of the Kingdom, for the Use of the French garrisons in Corsica.

It is said Orders are given for a watchful Eye to be kept upon the Operations of the French at Dunkirk.

We hear Orders are sent to Ireland, for all the Fortifications of that Kingdom to be immediately put into a proper State of Defence.

July 9. Letters from Warfaw, of the 15th Ult. gives us the following Account of the Confederacy newly formed at Prosnick, Three (Polish) Miles from Cracow. The Nobility having assembled there, in order to hold the Diet, as soon as Mass was over, which they always begin with, on a Signal given, every one drew their Sabres. A Member of the Regency having asked what they meant by it, was told, they were going to confederate. It was in vain he represented to them the Consequences; they cried out, "Confederacy! Confederacy!" He asked them, "Would they rebel then against the King?" They replied, "No; if the King will join us, then we will join him, and all present shall sign it;" on which the Confederacy was immediately formed.

The News that the Noblesse of Samogitia had entered into a Confederacy, is confirmed.

Yesterday some Dispatches said to be of Importance, were received at the Secretary of State's Office, from Commodore Spry, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Squadron in the Mediterranean.

Some Letters from Leghorn, mention, that the Genoese had been lately thrown into the greatest Consternation, on the receipt of a Memorial from Great-Britain.

They write from Genoa, that the Senate had received Advice, that the Corsicans had sent off their Wives, Children, and Effects, to certain strong Holds in the Mountains of Nebbio, while the whole Strength of the Island had been mustered, to watch the Motions of the French.

It is said Admiral Keppel will soon be appointed to the Command of a Squadron, now sitting out at Portsmouth, and Plymouth.

July 12. One Day last Week, at a certain Coffee-House, not 100 Miles from St. James's, a Wager of 1000 Guineas, to 20, was laid, that War would be declared between Great-Britain on the one Part, and France and Genoa on the other, before the 3d Day of August next.

It is reported, but we know not how true it is, that many Persons residing at Dunkirk, have been commanded to leave that Place.

By a Gentleman just arrived from Calais, we are informed, that the common Topic of Conversation, at that Place, Dunkirk, and other Sea-ports in France, is of an approaching War with England. He further says, that he was surprized to see in Calais many of the Doors and Windows of Houses, Churches, and on some Carriages, "No. 45, and Liberty," chalked.

We hear Orders are sent to the Out-Ports, to the Shipwrights to work a Day and one Tide in fitting out several Men of War intended for immediate Service.

Extract of a Letter from LEONHORN, June 14.
"We have received Advice from Corsica, that at the General Assembly, held at Corte, it was resolved to treat all those, as Enemies, who should make any Attempts against the Liberty of the Inhabitants of that Kingdom, and to defend, with Vigour, the Rights of the Country, which have been acquired by the Blood of so many Citizens. Pursuant to this Resolution, all the Inhabitants are forbidden, on Pain of Death, to furnish with Provisions, any of the Places occupied by the French. The Inhabitants of Capraia have likewise received Orders not to lend their Gondolas to the French; and General Paoli has promised the Inhabitants his Protection, and that of the whole Nation, and has sent some Detachments of Troops to the Coast, to watch the Motions of the French. These Advices add, that the Inhabitants of the Islands, are so highly animated in the Defence of their Liberty, that the very Women offer themselves to fight against all those who would endeavour to reduce them under the Yoke of the Genoese."

Extract of a Letter from Berlin, June 29.
"Sir Andrew Mitchell, Envoy Extraordinary from the Court of London, is gone to the King at Potsdam, in consequence of an Invitation made him, on the Part of his Majesty; but what is the Motive of it, is absolutely unknown to the Public."

They write from Gibraltar, that a Moorish Admiral had just entered the Mediterranean, with Nine Sail of stout Corsairs, fitted out by the Emperor of Morocco, to cruise against the several European Powers with whom that Prince is at War.

BOSTON, August 29.

A Letter from Halifax, mentions, that the Troops from Louisbourg, St. John's, and the other Out-Posts, were arrived there; and those which were there before, lay in readiness to embark, and that it was currently reported they were destined for this Port.

We also learn, that there was in Halifax Harbour, the following King's Ships, viz. Launceston, Glasgow, Beaver, Martin, Bonetta, and Magdalene, and two or three more Men of War are hourly expected from England.

We further learn, that Fort Cumberland has been dismantled, and the Cannon, Stores, &c. together with the Troops, were arrived at Halifax.

NEW-YORK, September 5.

The Ship, Earl of Hertford, Captain John Pym, of New-York, left the Cape de Verd Islands, with a Load of Salt, the 18th of July last, bound for this Place: On the 18th of August about Six in the Evening, they met with a violent Thunder-Gust, one Clap of which gave the Ship a prodigious Shock; and on trying the Pumps they found she had sprung a Leak:—They continued to labour hard at the Pumps till near two o'Clock in the Morning, when finding the Water above the Salt in her Hold, they hoisted out their Boat, into which the Captain and Crew got, consisting of 15 Persons in all, with some Provisions. It rained and was dark towards Morning, when they lost Sight of the Ship, and when Day-light came on, they could see nothing of her, so the must have gone down:—Two Days after they happily fell in with Captain Buck, in a Sloop from Salteruda for New-London, who took them all up; but being short of Provisions, a second Distress threatened them:—On the 28th they met with Captain Jones, in a Brig from Lisbon to Philadelphia, who took 8 of them on board, and carried them into that Port; and on Friday last, being about 4 Leagues from Barnagat, Captain Pym, with the Remainder of his Men, took to their Boat again, and arrived here on Saturday last.

Yesterday Morning Captain Hunt arrived here in 21 Days from South Carolina, who says, that 14 Days ago, he fell in with Captain Rogers, in a Brig from the Bay for this Port, who had in Company with him a Snow, which he said he had come up with a few Days before, adrift, having neither Man nor Papers on board, to discover where she belonged to, her Sails all to Rags, and about 5 Feet Water in her Hold; Captain Rogers's Men soon pumped her out, and having some spare Sails in the Brig, they had got them up on the Snow, and were bringing her along here.

THE little Regard that has been paid to repeated Notice given, in this GAZETTE, by Persons indebted to the late Mr. Jonas Green, requesting them to settle and pay off their respective Balances, makes it incumbent on me, to assure them, without Distinction, that, however disagreeable to myself, yet, in Justice to his Creditors, I am determined to take every legal Step, to obtain a Settlement of about Twelve Hundred Open Accounts, many of which have been so long standing, that, if immediately paid, the Injury sustained, by lying out of the Money, without Interest, is more than adequate to any Profit arising from the Articles charged. Persons having such Accounts, cannot take it amiss, if I should print a Supplement, as many of them do not now take the GAZETTE, and insert a List of their Names, and Sums due, which will enable their Neighbours and my Friends, to expostulate with them, probably convince them, of the absolute Necessity of settling their Accounts; and, if they cannot pay immediately, they ought to pass their Notes, for the just Balances due. Such a Conduct would enable the Subscriber to satisfy every just Claim against the Deceased.

ANNE CATHARINE GREEN, Administratrix. We request the Favour of such of our Customers, as may have omitted to settle for the preceding Year, ending at No. 1170, being the 10th Day of February last, to give us their Assistance, annually, and those who have not any Intention of paying regularly, we hope will favour us with a Line, inclosing the Needful, to that Date.

TEN POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away from the Subscriber, in Loudoun County, on the Night of the 30th of August last, Two Convict Servant Men, both Blacksmiths by Trade. JOHN BENHAM, 28 Years of Age, 5 Feet 5 Inches high, stoops in his Shoulders, has a very hoarse Voice, is slender made, and his Hair cut off, has a Scar or two in his Neck, which he says was by Shot; and was clothed in Osnabrig.

JOHN MILLER, 28 Years of Age, 5 Feet 2 Inches high, a thick-set, Fellow, and wears his own Hair; has a large Scar in his Forehead, has been in the Country before, talks much, and very impudent, and is the most deceitful Fellow I ever knew, is very capable of deceiving by his Polaver: He was dressed in Osnabrig, and had on a Felt Hat. 'Tis likely they will change their Dress, as they were endeavouring to steal Cloaths the Night they went away. They are the Two Servants that ran away last May, from me, and advertised in the several Gazettes of the several adjoining Colonies. They were then taken up in Maryland; and, I am satisfied, they will endeavour to get on board some Vessel, so as to go: a Passage home, or to the West-Indies; so Masters of Vessels are cautioned not to entertain them. They had each of them large Steel Collars about their Necks, but possibly will get them off. Whoever takes them up, and delivers, or causes them to be delivered, at my House, in the said County, shall receive the above Reward, or FIVE POUNDS for either, if taken separate, paid by (3w) WILLIAM CARR LANE.

August 31, 1768.

EIGHT POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away last Night, from Kingsbury Furnace Mine-Bank, near Baltimore-Town, WILLIAM HATTON, (otherwise JACKSON) a Convict, by Trade a Stocking-Weaver, about 28 or 30 Years of Age, 5 Feet 6 or 7 Inches high; has a Down-look, and a remarkable Way of staring in any Person's Face, that speaks to him; he has a Scar from the Corner of his Mouth, to his Chin, stout made, fresh Complexion, light brown Hair; Had on, and took with him, a new Osnabrig Shirt, that never was washed, a Cotton Country-made, and a Fearnought Jacket, Osnabrig Trowsers, a Pair of English Falls, Metal Buckles, and Felt Hat, bound with black Binding.

Negro CYRUS, a stout well made gruff speaking Fellow; Had on a Cotton, and a Fearnought Jacket, an Osnabrig Shirt, and short Osnabrig Trowsers, Monmouth Cap, and a Pair of good English Flatts; nailed all round.

THOMAS STRINGER, about 25 Years of Age, 5 Feet 6 Inches high, short brown Hair, has Two Moles on his Face, and speaks pretty fast: Had on, when he went away, a white Russia Drab Coat, Double-breasted Cotton Jacket, fine Linen Shirt, Osnabrig Breeches, Thread Stockings, and Country-made Pumps, striped Silk Handkerchief, a pretty good Felt Hat, and sundry other Things, unknown.

THE Earl of Tankerville's Concurrence being now had, and in the Country, to the Purchases I sometime ago made of his Agents, in Virginia, so that Deeds can be had to the Part thereof, in Frederick County, Maryland, I proposed again to dispose off, which prevented its being done when formerly advertised, I now give Notice to all Persons, inclinable to purchase the Whole, or any Part thereof, that it is now on Sale, and can be completed, for which Purpose I will attend at the next August Frederick County Court, (which begins on the Third Tuesday in August) at the House of Mr. Charlton, ready to treat with any Person inclinable to purchase it. It is a Tract of choice good Land, remarkably suitable for Farming and Plantation Business, and very commodiously situate for Trade, being not far from Frederick-Town, and the Advantage of Navigation on Potowmack River, the usual Landing the Boats now carry from, being upon the Land. It is well watered, and has great Quantities of Meadow Ground interperfed amongst it. It contains between Six and Seven Thousand Acres, and is usually known by the Name of COLVILL'S TRACT, called MERRY-LAND. Any Person, who, in the Interim, wants to view or treat for it, may apply to Messrs. John Carrey, Merchant, in Frederick-Town, or Frances Hamilton, at Keep-Trifle Furnace, who have Power and Directions to treat for it, or to the Subscriber himself, at Occoquan Forges. It being mostly fine tendable Land, would make a good Settlement for a Number of People wanting to remove and seat themselves in one Neighbourhood. If there was more of them than the Tract could commodiously serve, the Subscriber has 16000 Acres of Land, equally good, on the opposite Side of Potowmack, which will be soon settled out: It is almost adjoining the above Tract, excepting the Separation by the River, on which they might seat themselves contiguous to one another. Should not Purchasers offer soon for it, to the Subscriber's Liking, it will be leased out to good Farmers, there having been many Applications made for it, in that Way, and which can be let out at a very great Rent. Those who formerly applied to purchase, and still incline to do so, on giving Notice, in Time, will have Preference given them.

There are belonging to the Tenement, a Kitchen, Stable, Milk, Meat, Corn, Chaise, and Store-Houses, all in good Order, a large Yard adjoining, under Posts and Rails, with a good Well in it, and a Eiliard-Room and Table. The many Advantages attending the Situation of the above, being well known, make it left necessary to be particular. There will be let, with the above, Five Acres of exceeding fine Meadow, under a good Inclosure of Posts and Rails, and a Pasture. If the Subscriber meets not with an agreeable Offer in a short Time, he will be willing to take in a Partner, well qualified to keep a Tavern, whilst he carries on his other Business at his Mill, where he intends to reside.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1768.

LONDON, June 21.

URING the Trial for printing the Essay on Woman, Mr. Kearly declared in Court, that Mr. Wilkes could not have the least Intention of publishing that Poem, as he only desired a very few Copies to be printed for his particular Friends. When he was asked by Mr. Wilkes's Counsel, how the Letters (which were then read, and sworn to be Mr. Wilkes's Hand-Writing, by Jonathan Scott) were obtained, he declared they were forcibly taken off his File, and out of his Bureau, by the King's Messengers, when they executed the GENERAL WARRANT; but as the Court seemed not to recollect that Circumstance on Tuesday last, when the Errors in the Proceedings were agreed, Mr. Kearly made an Affidavit of it the next Morning, which was laid before the Judges, prior to Mr. Wilkes's receiving Sentence.

June 23. The young Queen of Naples, on her first Interview with her Royal Consort, said, "She hoped to find in him a Husband, a King, and the Love of a Father, which it should ever be her Study to deserve." Monday the Court of Common Pleas was moved, that as Mr. Wilkes's Outlawry was now reversed, he might be at Liberty to withdraw his Demurrer to Lord Halifax's Plea and Reply; but the Court were of Opinion, that it was proper to give a Terra's Notice of this Motion, and Mr. Wilkes's Attorney has given Notice accordingly. The same Day Mr. Serjeant Nares moved for an Attachment against the Printer of a daily Paper, for publishing Mr. Wilkes's Address to the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Middlesex, as he apprehended that the same tended to infame the Jury of the County, before whom the Cause was to be tried. The Court asked him, Whether he made that Motion on Behalf of the Attorney-General? Which he averring, the Address was read, but the Court refused the Attachment.

EDINBURGH, May 24. We hear from Caithness, that a horrid Conspiracy has been lately discovered there. A Gang of Villains, to the Number of 24, or upwards, had combined together, to murder and rob several Persons of the best Families in that Country; the Plot was laid so as to have been put into Execution at the same Hour on an affixed Night, at all the different Places where they expected to find Money; and a Vessel was prepared at a central Place, to carry them off next Morning; but, luckily, this horrid Plot was discovered Two Days before the appointed Time of Action. We hear that several of the Villains are apprehended, and, we hope, they will soon meet a just Punishment for such hellish Villainy.

GRENADA, August 31.

Last Tuesday Evening, about 8 o'Clock, it began to blow very violently from the N. W. and continued with unabating Fury, accompanied with heavy Rain and Lightning, 'til near 11. As the Wind shifted to every Point of the Compass, during the Storm, there is too much reason to fear that it was only the Tail of a Hurricane, and that some of the neighbouring Islands must have suffered greatly from its Effects. 'Tis not yet possible to ascertain the Damage occasioned by it in this Island; but by all Accounts it must be pretty considerable, as a Number of Negro Huts have been blown down, and a great Quantity of Provisions, particularly Plantains and Cassada, destroyed. The Town has escaped without the least Hurt; but the Shipping in the Bay have not been so lucky. The Damage they have sustained is great, as will appear from the following Account:

- The Brig Lelah and Sufannah, Capt. Phinias Stanton, ashore and bilged.
The Sloop Industry, Wilkinfon, from Barbados, ashore and lost.
The Sloop Simpson, from St. Eustatia, sunk.
The Sloop Prince of Orange, Cooper, belonging to this Place, ashore, but got off, much damaged.
The Snow Molly, Woodburn, belonging to Lancaster, last from Africa, with 140 Slaves ashore in Grand-Anc; but it is thought will be got off. The Slaves were saved.
The Ship Capt. Troupe, belonging to London, last from Antigua, drove on Shore, but was got off last Thursday, with little Damage.
A Shallop, belonging to Capt. Smith, of the Ship General Woody, ashore near Halifax Harbour; got off with the Loss of her Mast.
The Sloop Sally, Jeremiah Brown, belonging to Rhode-Island, ashore at St. Patrick's; but it is thought will be got off.
The Schooner, belonging to this Place, ashore at St. Patrick's, and bilged, with 8 Hotheads of Sugar on board.
The Brig Cesar, Augustine Searle, and Sloop Chamberboard, Thomas Fairwell, drove out of Levera, and since arrived here.

Besides the above, we hear that some other Vessels have been stranded on different Parts of the Island, but have not yet been able to learn the Particulars. The Loss suffered on this Occasion, by the Shipping in the Bay, it is said, might have been less considerable, had they had the Precaution to put their Vessels in a better State of Safety, as early in the Afternoon, the Weather was equally, and portended a Storm; but this may partly be attributed to their not suspecting the Gale would be so violent, and partly to their not being so much on their Guard as Vessels commonly are, at this Season, in the Islands where those Disasters are frequent; this Storm being the most severe that has happened here within the Memory of the oldest Inhabitants.

The Captains of his Majesty's Ships did every Thing in their Power to assist and relieve those in Distress; and 'tis in a great Measure owing to their spirited Efforts, that so many Vessels have been got off. Their Conduct in short, on this melancholy Occasion, reflects equal Honour on their Humanity, as on their Abilities.

On the 6th Instant, about 9 o'Clock at Night, the Brig Nancy, Captain George Hamilton, bound from Bristol to this Port, ran ashore on the Island of Little St. Vincent, which the Captain mistook for Carriacou, and afterwards by some unknown Accident, the Vessel took Fire, and was totally consumed: A small Part of the Cargo is saved.

BOSTON, September 5.

We hear by the Packet, that the greatest Enemy to America, is likely soon to be recalled.

By Letters from Rhode-Island, we learn, that John Robinson, Esq; one of the Commissioners, after his late Elopement, travelled very privately in Bye-Ways, 'til he got to Newport, where, on Wednesday last, he made his public Entry, as much to the Surprize of most of the Inhabitants, as if he had dropped from the Clouds. It was even imagined by some of the credulous and timid, that he had been killed at Boston, and that the pale and trembling Figure presenting itself to View, was indeed but the Ghost of their old Friend Jack Robinson. However, the next Morning was found posted up at the Swing-Bridge, on the Long-Wharf, an Advertisement to the following Purport, viz. "This is to desire all the true Sons of Liberty, and none else, to appear under Liberty-Tree, in Newport, at 8 o'Clock this Evening, to consult what Measures are necessary to be taken with the infamous John Robinson, who had the Impudence to make his public Appearance in our Streets Yesterday, having, before he made his Elopement, boasted among his Brother-Commissioners, that he could be well supported in the Execution of his Office at Rhode-Island, and be fully protected from the least Insult." At the Time and Place appointed, some Hundreds, not to say Thousands, assembled, and went in Quest of Master-Commissioner, to the Tavern where it was said he lodged the Night before. But, after a very diligent Search (not by Virtue of any Writ of Assistance, but by Candle-Light) of the House, Out-houses, Bales, Barrels, Meal-Tubs, Trunks, Boxes, Packs and Packages, packed and unpacked, and in short of every Hole and Corner sufficient to conceal a Ram-Cat, or a Commissioner, they could find neither. On this they returned peaceably to their respective Habitations, without the least Injury to the Person or Property of any Man. What has become of Master Jacky, we cannot, says our Correspondent, yet learn. Some think he is gone to Virginia, to enquire if they will now give 10,000 l. Sterling for the Beatitudes attendant more immediately on the Colony where the American Board is fixed, as it was given out last Fall that their Agent had offered it. Others think he is on his Return to Massachusetts, Where once more pent in William's Castle, Be he shut up as if in Battell!

Last Night lodged at Dorchester, John Robinson, Esq; and this Morning proceeded to the Castle.

S A L E M, August 23.

Last Friday a very uncommon Accident happened off Manchester, and the following Account is related by a Person who saw it.—Nicholas Whipple, Abraham Wyatt, and Daniel Poland, all of Beverly, were fishing in a Canoe, near Little-Misery Island, which lies within Two or Three Leagues of this Harbour, and had out a Kellogg, or small Anchor; while they were employed at their Business, to their inexpressible Surprize, the Canoe suddenly shot forward, with very great Rapidity, without any apparent Cause, and, before they could cut the Painter, ran the Distance of about 70 or 80 Feet, when she was pulled so low as to fill and overset, and then stopped. One of the Men swam ashore, another saved his Life by getting upon the Bottom of the Canoe, and remaining there 'til relieved by some People in a Fisherman's Canoe, then in view getting Ballast; and the Third, Daniel Poland, was unfortunately drowned, who, we hear, has left a Wife and Seven or Eight Children. It is supposed that some large Fish ran foul of the Painter, dragged the Canoe the abovementioned Distance, and was then disengaged.

Capt. Farmar, from Lisbon left that Place the 17th of July last, but heard no Talk of any Commotions in Europe there, except some Surmises of a Rupture with the Moors, from the English: In his Passage Capt. Farmar spoke with the following Vessels, viz. July 23, Capt. Tennant in a Ship from Lisbon, for Philadelphia; August 30, the Sloop Amelia, for St. Kitts, from Philadelphia, out 3 Days.

An Arret and Ordinance of the French King, was registered at Martinico, the 9th of July last, for establishing the Port of Carenage on the Island of St. Lucia, a FREE PORT, to admit of all foreign Vessels laden with Wood of every kind, dying Wood, live Stock and Cattle of all kinds, green and tanned Hides, Skins or Furs, Pitch and Tar; also Rice, Indian Corn, Beans, Peas, Coffee, Cotton and Cocoa, and there to unload and trade with the aforesaid Commodities and Merchandize, paying the Duties ordained by the 2d Article of the Arret of July 29, 1767.

Saturday last his Majesty's Ship Fowey, Capt. Tillet, Commander, arrived at Sandy-Hook, from South Carolina, and we hear she is soon to sail for Boston: The Viper sailed for Halifax Thursday last.

Wednesday last the Ship Success, Joseph Hudson, Master, arrived here from Cadix, in Seven Weeks and Three Days, and acquaints us, that the Spaniards have not the least Thoughts of a War; that Cash was so scarce in Spain, there was not a Sufficiency to pay either the Navy or the Army; and that they had not the least Account of any English Men of War being expected in the Mediterranean.

A Copy of the RESOLVES subscribed by the Merchants in New-York, dated the 27th of August, 1768.

I. THAT we will not send for from Great-Britain, either upon our own Account, or on Commission, this Fall, any other Goods than what we have already ordered.

V. AND we further agree, that if any Person or Persons, Subscribers hereto, shall take any Advantage, by importing any kind of Goods, that are herein restricted, directly or indirectly, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Agreement; such Person or Persons, shall, by us, be deemed Enemies to their Country.

VI. LASTLY, we agree, that if any Goods shall be consigned, or sent over to us, contrary to our Agreement in this Subscription; such Goods, so imported, shall be lodged in some Public Warehouse, there to be kept under Confinement, until the forementioned Acts are repealed.

Subscribed by nearly all the Merchants and Traders in Town.

The following RESOLVES are agreed to by the TRADESMEN of this City, September 5, 1768.

REFLECTING on the salutary Measures entered into by the People of Boston, and this City, to restrict the Importation of Goods from Great-Britain, until the Acts of Parliament, laying Duties on Paper, Glass, &c. were repealed; and being animated with a Spirit of Liberty, and thinking it our Duty to exert our selves by all lawful Means to maintain and obtain our just Rights and Privileges, which we claim under our most excellent Constitution, as Englishmen, not to be taxed but by our own Consent, or that of our Representatives; and in order to support and strengthen our Neighbours, the Merchants of this City, we the Subscribers, uniting in the Common Cause, do agree to and with each other as follows;

First, That we will not, ourselves, purchase, or take any Goods or Merchandize imported from Europe, by any Merchant, directly or indirectly, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of an Agreement of the Merchants of this City, on the 27th of August last.

Secondly, That we will not, ourselves, or by any other Means, buy any Kind of Goods from any Merchant, Storekeeper or Retailer (if any such there be) who shall refuse to join with their Brethren, in signing the said Agreement; but that we will use every lawful Means in our Power to prevent our Acquaintance from dealing with them.

Thirdly, That if any Merchant, in, or from Europe, should import any Goods, in order to sell them in this Province, contrary to the above Agreement, that we ourselves will, by no Means, deal with such Importers; and as far as we can, by all lawful Means endeavour to discourage the Sale of such Goods.

Fourthly, That we will endeavour to fall upon some Expedient to make known such Importers or Retailers, as shall refuse to unite in maintaining and obtaining the Liberties of their Country.

Fifthly, That we his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the City of New-York, being filled with Love and Gratitude to our present most gracious Sovereign, and the highest Veneration for the British Constitution, which we unite to plead as our Birthright; and are always willing to unite, to support and maintain, give it as our Opinion, and are determined to deem that Person, who shall refuse to unite in the Common Cause, as acting the Part of an Enemy to the true Interest of Great-Britain, and her Colo-

ANNAPOLIS, September 22.

The General Assembly of this Province, which stood prorogued to the First Tuesday in October, his Excellency the Governor has been pleased further to prorogue to the Third Tuesday in March next.

As we have not been favoured this Week with any foreign Intelligence, we must beg Leave to fill up a Blank, with the following Piece, taken from the PENNSYLVANIA CHRONICLE, for which we hope to stand excused, as it relates to a Controversy, which originally took Rise here, concerns only the Inhabitants of this Province, and would probably, ere this, have been buried in Oblivion, had not Calumny, and a partial Representation of Facts, been industriously propagated to our Prejudice.—We had Reason to hope a different Conduct would have influenced the Author, especially, as his Sphere in Life, makes it a Duty particularly incumbent on him, to be an Example worthy Imitation.—We shall only add, the most solemn Declaration, on our Part, that, upon equal Terms with his Opponents, the Maryland Press always has been, and now is, at his Service.

Philadelphia, September 27 1768.

Mr. GODDARD,

THE Maryland Gazette, of the first Ult, is this Moment come to my Hand, in which is published a most virulent and abusive Piece against me—and though it gives me infinite Concern to draw my private Difficulties into the Public Prints of another Province (which I have hitherto cautiously avoided) yet this Piece is of too great Consequence to let pass unnoticed.—The grossest Language, the vilest Abuse, the most horrid Labels have been weekly printed against me in the Maryland Gazette, and when I attempted to reply, Mr. Clapham, Correcor of the Press, would one Week send back my Pieces for Correction, then would plead his Obligations, next scruple my Security, so that at length my Reputation, my Fortune and my Life were brought into the most imminent Danger.—The impartial and extensive Principles upon which you first proposed to act, and in which you have in Spite of all Opposition continued, induce me to hope, or rather insist upon an Act of Justice in giving this Answer an immediate Place in your Paper, as not only my Character, but a considerable Part of my Property depends upon it,—at the same Time, I will readily bear you o. t of Harm, and will satisfy you for your extraordinary Trouble, nor do I doubt but your Readers, who are not at all concerned in, and never heard any Thing of, the Merits of the Cause, will excuse your indulging me with a Niche in your Paper,—an Indulgence which every injured Man would expect, and every reasonable Man allow.

The Writer of a Paper in the Maryland Gazette, signed A Parishioner of All-Saints, how justly soever he complains of slender Abilities, seems to be actuated upon the present Occasion, by that Insolence and Arrogance, that Malignity and Rancour of Heart, which has through the whole Dispute distinguished the Party whose Cause he has espoused. That the Piece was written by a real Parishioner of All-Saints, I cannot believe.—Ex Pede Herculeum.—The Scribbler Tom Fun, or Tom Fool, or Tom Tit, Tom (fill up the Blank) is herein conspicuous; but I hope by this Time that there is not a real Parishioner of All-Saints so prejudiced, so callous, so dead to every Feeling, as not to see through the vile and infamous Treatment I received—encouraged, if not recommended, by the most unprincipled and revengeful Man alive. I had for some Time entertained Hopes, that the Spirit of Ambition, Envy, Jealousy and Malice, that had long disturbed not only my own Peace, but that of the Province, would finally, like the Canker, eat itself away, and for Want of Reply, gnaw only on its own Vitals; but I find the Dregs of that Spirit still remain which delights in Mischief, and follows me wherever I go—a Spirit that blasted my Character, and shut up the Press against my Vindication; that when I expected Satisfaction for an Affront, introduced a Blunderbus into the Field; that when I went to take peaceable Possession of a Church, raised a Mob against me, who had I not been miraculously preserved, would have torn me into a Thousand Pieces.—A Spirit that conjured up the blackest Fiends in Hell, to ruin my Fortune,—Prevarication, Lying, Corruption, Bribery, and all this to effect what? To save Mr. W. D.—Twelve Pounds Current Money a-Year in the Education of his Children—To which Consideration my Reputation, my Life, my Fortune were nothing worth.—This remains to be proved—Had not the Bystander's Fourth Letter been rejected for Six Weeks together at the Maryland Press, it would not have remained unproved.—Yet this is the Man, who, in Possession of an honourable and lucrative Office of 1000l. a-Year, insults his noble and generous Benefactor by his Words, defies him by his Actions, and wrecks the Government of the Province out of his Hands, by the Fury of a Mob.

In Answer to the Misrepresentation of the Riot in Frederick-Town, published in the Maryland Gazette, I beg you will give the following Account a Place in your Paper, which I do declare in the most solemn Manner, to be true in every Tittle, and which can be proved not only by a few picked Sycophants, as this Writer would insinuate, but by a considerable Part of the Congregation. The Cause of my getting the Keys, he owns Ignorance of. Quiet, as he says, all the Week, why should I have any Fears on Saturday, unless some Grounds had been given me.—I did receive Information, that I was to be shut out of the Church on Sunday, and this has been confirmed to me by every Man I have seen from Frederick-Town since. After I had read Prayers, I did offer the Keys of the Church to a Vestryman to keep, on condition he would let me perform Duty there on Sunday; this he would not promise, and declined accepting them.—To be kept out of a Church, as which (if there be any such Thing in this Province) I have a legal Title, was a very galling Circumstance, but I gave not the least contumelious Language to any Man, notwithstanding the Injuries I received.—The Pistol, and the Expression, it is said, I made use of (which I was not conscious of at that Time) are charged as heinous Offences.—Is there a Man breathing so partial, so insensible, as to blame another for preparing to defend himself, when he was sure of being insulted and overpowered by Numbers? But the carrying of Pistols was merely accidental, and owing to a Caution that the Road was infested with Robbers, and I saw a Man myself who had been robbed and severely handled the Week before. The Expression, it is said, I made use of, is, to be sure, an extraordinary one for a Pulpit, but not more extraordinary than the Attack there. The Crisis was not a little alarming, and I well knew that had I permitted a certain Rascal to have taken hold of me, and thrown me amongst the Mob, I should have been torn in Pieces, the People being exasperated by the most malicious, though absurd Stories, almost to Madness.—I thank GOD, whatever the Expression, that it preserved my Life, and the Life of a Desperado.—However he might have deserved his Fate, I should have been sorry to have been the Instrument, and should have thought my Preferment too dearly bought (though an Hundred Times more valuable) by the Loss of a single Life. If so dangerous a Crisis could not palliate such an Exclamation in the Breast of the most rigid Devotee, he can have but little Claim to the Graces of Charity, or even the Feelings of Humanity.—“The Parson ran”—He avoided a Stone, which, if he had not been a little nimble, would have broken both his Legs. This, says the Writer, is Mock-Heroism. “His Companion cried Pecavi.” He might have uttered a little Groan, upon receiving a Contusion in a Place where Uncle Toby was disabled at the Siege of Namur.—“The Barrister skulked into a Loft, and”—Had our heroic Parishioner been in the Circumstances of either of us, he would hardly have had Time to have got into the Loft, but his Fears would have operated so strongly, that he might have been secure in the Midst of a Mob, defending himself like a certain Animal, and some dirty Fellows are used to do, by their Stink.

I designed complying with every Custom of the Parish; I never intended, nor gave the least Affront to the Vestry, or to any Individual, and notwithstanding the Reception I met with, I bear no Man the least Ill-Will there.—The Custom in every Parish, by particular Inquiries of every Clergyman I have seen, exactly corresponds with my Conduct in this Respect, which is to register the Induction, for Security against Fire or Accident, the next Vestry-Day, but Possession was always taken before. This was what I practised in Two Parishes, and not the least Objection was made in either. Mr. Chase, of Baltimore, assured me, that in a former Parish he held, upon a Dispute happening in the Vestry, he never did exhibit his Induction to them at all.

When the Vestry asked me to let them see my Induction, I showed it them willingly, would have had it then registered, if they chose it; they had it in their Hands, and read it, and at that Time seemed well satisfied. But if Vestries assume to themselves illegal Powers, and arbitrary Privileges, it is the Duty of Lord Baltimore's great Officers of State to see that the Laws be duly executed, and his Prerogative kept inviolate, and the Security of his Prerogative will be the Security of my Property. If Vestries have by Law a Power of Admission, I desire not to divest them of it. I have inquired of almost every Lawyer in Maryland concerning the Matter, and they are universally of Opinion that they have no such Power by Law.—I do not wish to abridge, much less annihilate the Power of Vestries, I think it stands on a good Footing both for the Parish and the Minister; and I should be very glad to concur with the Vestry of All-Saints, in any reasonable Expedient to restore quiet to the Parish.

“The Parson's Insinuation that the Vestry were under the Influence of, and guided by C. D. in their Conduct, is equally groundless and dirty.” How groundless? Were not private Letters sent up to influence them? Was not a Bag full of C. D.'s curious, close, concise elegant Compositions remitted?—whose Style wanted nothing but Grammar, whose Argument wanted nothing but common Sense, and whose Assertions wanted nothing but Truth, to recommend them to general Acceptation.—Was not the smart, the lively, the witty Tom Fun carried in the same Bag?—Is it astonishing that the united Efforts of Two such Genius's should work such Effect? Was not, in the Interim, the poor Bystander kept in Durance vile by the Printer's Devil, not able to stir Hand or Foot to the Assistance of his Friend?—Vile Infidelity! infamous Partiality!

The People in Frederick considered me as a Monster rather than a Man. I was accused of every Crime that ever filled human Nature, that I had, like Naboth, cursed God, and my King; whereas my only Fault, like his, was to have a Vineyard too well situated. A few Days, would indeed have been, as Tom Fun observes, too little by my Conduct to have removed Prejudices, but a few Minutes, with the Use of a Press, would have been sufficient. General Accusations against a Man's moral Character, are particularly ungenerous, as they do not admit of a Defence, it being impossible to prove a Negative. A Man, for Instance, who would undertake to prove he never was in Liquor, in his Life, must bring every Man he ever sat down with, and this would not do; for they would say, as it was said of Mr. Addison, that he got drunk in his Closet.—The only Opening was to retort and prove the same Vices, by proper Vouchers upon my Antagonist. This the Bystander did.—The Piece was laughable enough.—I showed it Mr. Chase, who returned it with this Declaration, if you publish it, The Party will murder you. Is not my Character as dear to me as another Man's?—What Right has any Man to attack my Reputation upon whom I have not an equal Right to retort? Is C. D. so far my superior in FAMILY, Fortune, Connexions, Education and Abilities, that I dare not move my Pen, or wag my Tongue against him?—Let him proceed in his dirty Path—let him work like a Mole under Ground,—let him (though Heaven he cannot) move all Hell to distress me—let him stir up, or lead Mobs against my Life, and raise Law-suits against my Property, yet shall he in the End find, that I have personal Courage to defend my Life, Money to secure my Property, and a Mind superior to every Difficulty he can throw in my Way.

TO THE PRINTERS.

I HAVE neither Leisure nor Inclination to trouble the Public, thro' the Channel of a News-Paper, but the Author of a Piece, inserted in the Pennsylvania Chronicle, of the 12th Instant, having endeavoured to stigmatize my Character, renders it absolutely necessary for me to publish my Justification, with respect to the Part I innocently took in a Dispute, carried on with great Acrimony for a considerable Time in your Gazette.

The Declaration now made in the Chronicle, that the Bystander, and Principal, are one and the same Person, convinces me, that the Author will stick at nothing; that Truth and Falshood are but Expletives, and occasionally necessary, otherwise he would not have the Effrontery to admit, what he has all along publicly denied. Mr. GODDARD is not only acquainted with the Author, but is likewise to be saved himself. A Note, privately, to Mrs. GREEN, to the same Effect, as I shall be able to shew, would have removed, long ago, every Cause of Complaint.—Mr. ALLEN is pleased to call me the Correcor of the Press, an Office I shall never assume, being conscious of my Inabilities; but my Friendship and Affinity to the Family, make it a Duty incumbent on me, to give them any Advice and Assistance, in my Power. Every Piece, penned with Decency, whether relative to the Public, or Individuals, ought not to be rejected; but whenever Scurrility and Personal Invective is introduced, in the Course of a Dispute, the Printers, for their own Safety, ought to demand and receive, a sufficient Indemnity: On these Terms, to my Knowledge, the Maryland Press has been always at Mr. ALLEN'S Command.

I shall now endeavour to clear myself from the several Charges alleged against me, in the Chronicle, “of having sent back his Pieces for Correction, pleading Obligations, and scrupling his Security; by which his Reputation, Fortune and Life, were brought in to the most imminent Danger:” Heavy Assertions! But, happily for me, want only Truth to support them. To illustrate this Matter, I shall beg Leave to relate the Substance of a Conversation I had with Mr. ISAAC DAKEN, of this City; and as it will be from Memory, if I should omit any material Part of it, I hope he will be kind enough to set me right, it being the sole Foundation on which Mr. ALLEN supports his unjustifiable Refutation.

A Piece, signed A Bystander, having been brought to the Press, was refused by the Printers, for want of the Author's Name, or an Indemnity. Mr. DAKEN, whom I afterwards met with, told me, “he would indemnify the Printers, and that he was to have a Security from the Bystander, (he did not say Mr. ALLEN) and mentioned his Intentions of going to England in the Fall: I then asked him, who the Printers were to look to, during his Absence? He answered, “that before he embarked, he would clear himself of the Affair; that he thought all Parties ought to have put their Names to their Pieces from the Beginning; and that he was no otherwise concerned, but in the Conteyance of the Bystanders to the Press, and would pay for what he brought. I mentioned One or Two Paragraphs, as very exceptionable, to which he acquiesced, and said, he would endeavour to get them altered, or struck out: I then said, if he could do that, I would engage the Printers should publish that Piece, upon his Word; but, that if any more Pieces came, an Indemnity, or the Author, must be produced; for, that it was unreasonable for Mr. ALLEN, (whom I supposed the Author) to expect his Pieces should be published on any other, than equal Terms with his Antagonists; who had not only sent their's in their own Writing, but had also engaged to save the Printers harmless; had been always Friends to the Family, and were People of Power and Influence: That a Law-Suit might be the Ruin of the Printers; and, consequently, it would be very imprudent in them, to run any Risque, for the small Profits that would accrue from the Publications.” Mr. DAKEN further said, that if I would write “what was necessary, he would sign it.” This was not my Business: The Piece, however, was altered, and, I think, published that Week.—A Second came, with a Note at the End, “to be continued Weekly, and was refused, for the Reasons above assigned, and no Indemnity having been produced.—As there was not a Bystander, or Third Person, during the above Conversation, I shall beg Leave to present the Public with a Specimen of Mr. ALLEN'S Indemnity, which he was at the Trouble of going to Baltimore-Town, to get printed; first mentioning, that he demanded of the Printers, that they should acknowledge the Receipt of the Pieces, and their Refusal to publish them, as in a former Dispute was done by the late Mr. GAYL: The Piece refused by him, was signed by the Author, and of course not similar.

June 18. 1768.

Whereas the Printers of the Gazette have been in an hand bill, and their Paper of the 11th ult. been pleased to call a Report, scandalous, which prevails, that they rejected the Bystander's compositions, I do hereby aver, that Mr. Allen signed an indemnity to a third Person in favour of the Bystander, to secure the Printers; which Person offered one to the Correcor of the Press, who answered, he would take his word. So many palliations were required, that many Subterfuges, Evasions, and delays ensued, that of three Bystanders sent to the Press in Easter week, one only has made its appearance, and the receipt of the rest was refused to be acknowledged. No Character can want vindication from low abuse, with only serves, with man of common sense, to reflect disgrace, and Infamy upon the writer, and may tend to bring down deserved Ruin upon the Printer of it. The Bystander.

Mr. ALLEN'S Treatment to Mrs. GREEN, left a Widow, with a large Family, he never can justify. On the 27th of May, he called at the Printing-Office, and endeavoured to intimidate her, by threatening to knock up her Press, if ever he published any more Pieces against him: Accordingly, next Morning,

 Assembly then sitting, and the Office of Provincial Printer vacant, by which (tho' not intended) he did
 Printer vacant, by which (tho' not intended) he did her real Service; for, she was so happy, soon after, as to be unanimously chosen. It is generally supposed, had he acted a contrary Part, and given her a Recommendation to the Public, she wou'd not, for that very Reason, have received so general a Mark of Friendship and Approbation.—I shall now beg Leave to acquaint the Reader, that several Pieces sent to the Press, under fictitious Names, (prejudicial to Mr. ALLEN'S Character) were never published; and, at the same Time, to assure him, notwithstanding any Doubts he may have about the Matter, that the Author of the Piece, sign'd A PARISHIONER OF ALL-SAINTS, is a real Parishioner of ALL-SAINTS, if not his particular Friend and Acquaintance, who, 'tis even said, assisted him in taking Possession of the Church—the very identical Person, "the Barrister skulked into a Loft, and—"
 For such a Change of Conduct, the Reader is left to exercise his own Judgment; but, for my Part, I am inclined to believe, that Gentleman, on cool Reflection, found he had been too precipitately drawn into Measures prejudicial to his Interest; and, to prevent being censured by his Friends, avails himself of the Proverb—"A wife Man will acknowledge his Faults."—Mrs. GREEN, still averse to renewing the Dispute, received a second Letter, dated the 10th of August, with an Indemnification, from a Freeholder in that Parish, and requesting it to be published in the next Gazette. I shall only insert the Copy of a Note sent to the Bylander's Friend, and then submit to the Public, whether the Printers have not acted, thro' the whole Affair, with the greatest Candour and Impartiality.

"S I R,
 UNLESS the Author of the Piece, intended for Publication, shall think proper to discover himself to the PRINTERS, he cannot expect it will meet with a Place in the GAZETTE; for, when personal Invektive, is the result of a long Dispute, we contend it as a Matter of Right, and have never been refused for reasonable Demand; neither shall we publish any more Papers for either Party, relative to the Controversy, unless that previous Information. We shall not divulge that Secret, unless there should be an absolute Necessity for so doing; and, in that Case, we shall act with the utmost Impartiality to all concern'd. I therefore return the Copy: If it is to be printed, please to return it as speedily as possible, I am,
 Yours, &c.
 WILLIAM GREEN."

I hope I have convinced every unprejudiced Reader, that Mr. ALLEN'S Allegations against me, proceed only from a Malignity of Disposition, peculiar to himself, without the least Truth for their Support, and that my Reputation is as free from Censure, as it was before the late public and virulent Attempt by that Gentleman to falsify and asperse it.
 JOHN CLAPHAM.

 Water, known by the Name of WINTER'S RUN; and they being but about 6 Miles from Bush-River, Landing, and 7 Miles from Joppa, in said County, and in a populous Neighbourhood, it renders the Grist-Mill extraordinary well situate getting Grain, for either constant Employ, there being always a great Demand

 ALL Persons indebted to the Subscriber, are hereby requested to discharge their respective Accounts immediately, without further Notice. And, whereas I have, through a Course of several Years Dealing, given large and extensive Credits, so as in many Instances to be a considerable Sufferer thereby; yet, from Principles of Lenity and Forbearance, and a Conviction of the Difficulties arising to Debtors in general, from the great Scarcity of Cash in the Province.
 I have hitherto neglected to take the necessary Steps to compel Payment; I am however at last reduced to the Necessity of taking this preparatory Step, towards collecting my outstanding Debts. Those therefore who are interest'd, will, by a speedy Compliance with this Requisition, avoid the Trouble and Expence attending the usual Method of Recovery by Law.

 Servant Men, viz. On the 16th Ult. one named THOMAS PHILIPS, about 35 Years of Age, full 5 Feet 8 Inches high, has dark Eyes, short brown Hair, which curls, a pretty pleasant Countenance, but looks down, and is very mannerly in his Address, but somewhat slow in his Speech, and is crippled in the little Finger, of his left Hand: He took with him, besides his working Cloaths, an old blue Broad-Cloth Coat, and a short red Jacket, with a double Breast: It is supposed he has also taken with him, a dark ground Chintz Gown, a green Damask Petticoat, Four Holland Shifts; and sundry other Things, which he will, no doubt, try to dispose of, or change for Mens Cloaths.—And; on the 30th Ult. one named JAMES CALLIS, about 30 Years of Age, near 5 Feet 5 Inches high, has short light Brown Hair, which also curls a little, and is very thin on the Top of his Head, so as to appear almost bald; he has a pale whitish look, a fair Complexion, and is very pert in Conversation: Had on, and took with him, a Bearskin Jacket, with short close Cuffs, lapelled, or double breasted; with large Metal Buttons, a spotted Swanskin Jacket, a Cañor Hat, Check Shirt, and one white ditto: It is supposed they have got forged Passes, and have changed their Names and Cloaths. Whoever apprehends

 AN away from the Subscriber, in Loudoun County, on the Night of the 30th of August last, Two Convict Servant Men, both Blacksmiths by Trade.
 JOHN BENHAM, 28 Years of Age, 5 Feet 4 Inches high, stoops in his Shoulders, has a very hoarse Voice, is slender made, and his Hair cut off, has a Scar or two in his Neck, which he says was by Shot; and was clothed in Osnabrig.

JOHN MILLER, 28 Years of Age, 5 Feet 2 Inches high, a thick-sett, Fellow, and wears his own Hair; has a large Scar in his Forehead, has been in the Country before, talks much, and very impudent, and is the most deceitful Fellow I ever knew, is very capable of deceiving by his Polaver: He was dress'd in Osnabrig, and had on a Felt Hat. 'Tis likely they will change their Dress, as they were endeavouring to steal Cloaths the Night they went away. They are the Two Servants that run away last May, from me, and advertised in the several Gazettes of the several adjoining Colonies.
 They were then taken up in Maryland; and, I am satisfied, they will endeavour to get on board some Vessel, so as to get a Passage home, or to the West-Indies; so Masters of Vessels are cautioned not to entertain them.
 They had each of them large Steel Collars about their Necks, but possibly will get them off. Whoever takes them up, and delivers, or causes them to be delivered, at my House, in the said County, shall receive the above Reward; or FIVE POUNDS for either, if taken separate, paid by (3w) WILLIAM CARR LANE.

 Face, that speaks to him; he has a Scar from the Corner of his Mouth, to his Chin, stout made, fresh Complexion, light brown Hair: Had on, and took with him, a new Osnabrig Shirt, that never was wash-

It appears from Intelligence received, that he crossed the Bay, from Talbot County, near Poplar-Island, with an Intent to go over to the Western Shore.

And, as he keeps the best Entertainment, and as good Boats and Hands, as any that cross the Bay, hopes to meet with Encouragement. Those who shall favour him with their Custom, will greatly oblige, Their humble Servant, SAMUEL MIDDLETON.

Virginia, June 20, 1768.

THE Earl of Tankerville's Concurrence being now had, and in the Country, to the Purchases I sometime ago made of his Agents, in Virginia, so that Deeds can be had to the Part thereof, in Frederick County, Maryland, I proposed again to dispose off, which prevented its being done when formerly advertised, I now give Notice to all Persons, inclinable to purchase the Whole, or any Part thereof, that it is now on Sale, and can be completed, for which Purpose I will attend at the next August Frederick County Court, (which begins on the Third Tuesday in August) at the House of Mr. Charleston, ready to treat with any Person inclinable to purchase it. It is a Tract of choice good Land, remarkably suitable for Farming and Plantation Business, and very commodiously situate for Trade, being not far from Frederick-Town, and the Advantage of Navigation on Potowmack River, the usual Landing the Boats now carry from, being upon the Land. It is well watered, and has great Quantities of Meadow Ground interspersed amongst it. It contains between Six and Seven Thousand Acres, and is usually known by the Name of COLVILL'S TRACT, called MERRY-LAND. Any Person, who, in the Interim, wants to view or treat for it, may apply to Messrs. John Carrey, Merchant, in Frederick-Town, or Frances Hamilton, at Keep-Trifle Furnace, who have Power and Directions to treat for it, or to the Subscriber himself, at Occoquan Forges. It being mostly fine tendable Land, would make a good Settlement for a Number of People wanting to remove and seat themselves in one Neighbourhood. If there was more of them than the Tract could commodiously serve, the Subscriber has 16000 Acres of Land, equally good, on the opposite Side of Potowmack, which will be soon settled out: It is almost adjoining the above Tract, excepting the Separation by the River, on which they might seat themselves contiguous to one another. Should not Purchasers offer soon for it, to the Subscriber's Liking, it will be leased out to good Farmers, there having been many Applications made for it, in that Way, and which can be let out at a very great Rent. Those who formerly applied to purchase, and still incline to do so, on giving Notice, in Time, will have Preference given them.

JOHN SEMPLF.

St. Mary's County, July 22, 1768.

BROKE Jail, on Tuesday Night last, the Three following Negroes, viz. KINGSTON, a thick well-set Fellow, 5 Feet 3 Inches high: Had on, an old Osnabrig Shirt, and an old Cotton Jacket and Breeches.

JACOB, a slim-made Fellow, 5 Feet 7 Inches high: Had on, an old Osnabrig Shirt, old Cotton Jacket and Breeches.

BOB, a likely stout young Fellow, Country-born, 5 Feet 2 1/2 Inches high: Had on, Two Cotton Jackets, One Pair Cotton Breeches, an old Osnabrig Shirt, and a new Felt Hat. The above Negroes came from Virginia about Five Weeks ago; they gave themselves different Names, and probably now will alter their Names again.—It is imagined they have made up the Bay, or attempting to travel by Land to Frederick-Town, or Baltimore County.—Whoever takes up said Negroes, or secures them, so as I may have them again, shall have a Reward of Three Pounds Currency, and reasonable Charges paid, if brought home.

ROBERT WATTS, Sheriff.

THE Subscriber having taken out Letters of Administration on the Estate of her late Husband, the Reverend Mr. Thomas Bacon, deceased, requests the Indulgence of the several Creditors, until she can ascertain the Amount of the whole Debts; which she begs the several Creditors to make known to Mr. Thomas Bowles, of Frederick-Town, their several Claims, particularly distinguished, whether on Bonds, Notes, or open Accounts, so that Preference may be given to those Creditors the Law directs, as she is determined to complete the Administration, within the Time limited by Law. ELIZABETH BACON, Administratrix of THOMAS BACON.

Those Gentlemen who have Books belonging to the Estate, are requested to send them to Mr. Jacques, in Annapolis, or, if more convenient, to Elizabeth Bacon, in Frederick-Town.

Annapolis, July 23, 1768.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 1. PRAYERS are ordered in all the Royal Mosques, for the happy Delivery of one of the Grand Signior's Wives; which Event his Highness is determined to have celebrated with very great Rejoicings. LISBON, June 30. The Tribunal of Royal Censors have forbid the Booksellers of this City to publish a Work, entitled, A Letter upon the Ex-

WARSAW, June 18. On the 10th of this Month, the Treasury gave public Notice, that a Pardon will be granted to the Marshal of the Confederacy of Great Poland, and all his Partisans, provided they surrender in Three Weeks, and make Submission for their Fault. June 29. Colonel Bock, and Prince Baratow. BOLOGNA, June 20. We have received Advice, that the Neapolitan Troops took Possession of Bene-vento, an Edict had been published, ordering all Strangers, without Distinction, to quit the Town in 24 Hours. At the same Time, Guards were posted at all the Doors of the Church and College, belonging to the

Notwithstanding the Acts of Violence committed in the Towns under the Dominion of the Pope, the Three allied Courts have declared, that they intend to keep up a good Understanding with the Holy See. Accordingly that of Naples proposed, at the Feast of St. Peter, to make the usual Present to the Pope, of a Spanish Genet, and a Purse of 7000 Ducats. BORDERS OF ITALY, June 20. The Corfican Force is very strong in the Neighbourhood of San Fiorenzo, Calvi, Ajaccio, Bonifaccio, and Angiola. The Province of Elpomonte has offered General Paoli a Thousand Volunteers, completely armed, who are to be commanded by an Officer of their own, to provide their own Necessaries, and to serve as a Flying Camp during the War. They are mostly robust young Men, between 18 and 30. They have each a large Dog, a Mucket, Pistols, and a Stiletto. DRESDEN, June 22. Greater Levies of Men have been made within some Months past, than for several Years before. These Recruits are not only destined to complete the Troops already on Foot, but likewise to form new Corps. It is computed, that the whole of the Forces, now on Foot, amount to 40,000 Men. BERLIN, July 9. The Count de Finckenstein, Minister of State for Foreign Affairs, has been at Potsdam upwards of Ten Days past, and holds frequent Conferences with the King: And the Baron de Diekau, Major-General of the Artillery, is just returned from thence, where he has assisted in several Plans of Operations, which have been concerted under his Majesty's Direction. Before he left Potsdam, the King was pleased to honour him with the Order of the Black Eagle, and created him a Lieutenant-General. From the above-mentioned Circumstances, it is inferred, that some interesting Affairs are upon the Carpet, especially as the Troubles in Poland seem more likely to increase than diminish. As Part of his Majesty's Dominions border upon that Kingdom, our Court is extremely attentive to what passes there, on which Account several Detachments of Hussars, and other Light-Troops, are sent to the Frontiers of Polish Prussia. Mr. Fleich, Privy-Counsellor of the Grand Directory, is also gone to the Frontiers, in order to provide Magazines, and have every Thing ready against a Sur-

L O N D O N. July 7. Orders are given for Three Men of War of the Line to be built at Milford-Haven, in Pembroke- It is said an additional Body of 15,000 Seamen will soon be taken into the Government's Service. It is said, a numerous Body of British Merchants intend to petition his Majesty against the arbitrary Designs of France upon the Liberties of Corfica. We hear from Corfica, that Mr. Murati, who lately commanded at Capraia, is to have the Command in the Gulf of San Fiorenzo, and the Direction of the Towers and Batteries there, which are all to be furnished with large Artillery. Considerable Magazines are forming, and the Garrisons have been augmented. July 9. Many People are so sanguine that Mr. W. will be called up by an august Assembly, the next Winter, to take his Seat, that they have backed their Opinion with exceeding high Wagers. If it be true that the Genoese have engaged to build Thirty Ships for the Service of France, is it not high Time that the English begin to build for the Service of Liberty? We are told that large Bodies of French Troops are ordered down to the Sea Coasts; which gives Ground for political Speculation.

July 12. It is reported that a Treaty is negotiating between his Prussian Majesty, and Paoli, General of the Corficans. It is reported that a Number of English Ship-Carpenters are now employed at Genoa, in the Construction of some Men of War of the Line, which are building in Consequence of a late Contract with France. We are assured, that a Vessel is fitted out in the River, with a proper Machine on board, to dive for the Wreck of the Victory Man of War, the Rudder of which was lately found on the Coast of Guernsey. July 13. It is rumoured the Marquis de Bussy is soon expected here from Paris, to succeed his Excellency Count de Chatelet Lamont, as Ambassador from France. All the Regiments of Foot, Horse, and Dragoons, are now arrived at their destined Quarters for the Year, and those Regiments that have not their full Complement of Men, are ordered to be completed forthwith. We are informed that a Scheme is on Foot to apply Part of the Crown Revenues in America, towards the Construction of a certain Number of Ships of War, and the establishing regular Arsenals and Dock-Yards, in the principal maritime Provinces on the Continent. By a Person arrived in Town from Bombay, who came home in the Earl of Middlesex East-Indiaman, we are informed, that a considerable Quantity of Treasure, in Gold and Silver, with very antique Inscriptions thereon, had, a few Days before the said Ship sailed from that Place, been dug up in a Cave within a few Miles of Bombay, supposed to have been deposited there, long before any European Settlements had been made on that Part of the Coast. His Excellency Governor Bernard, of New-England, is shortly expected to arrive from America, where the unhappy Differences still subsist between him and the House of Assembly of that Province. July 14. They write from Genoa, that a large Dutch Transport, laden with Gun-Powder and Ordnance Stores, for the Service of the Corficans, had been taken by a French Man of War in the Gulf of St. Fiorenzo. A French Mantua-Maker has lately retired from London to Paris, with a Fortune of 15,000 l. where she lives in great Splendor, on what she emphatically calls, "La Folie des Dames Angloises."

Yesterday there was a Levee at St. James's, and also a Privy-Council, at which most of the great Officers of State assisted, which did not break up 'til near Four o'Clock, when his Majesty returned to Richmond. A Letter from Leghorn, dated June 18, says "Advices received here from Corfica, inform, that the Corficans have received great Quantities of Arms and Military Stores from England, and that some English Ships are cruising round that Island. These Letters add, that a Body of those Islanders being posted under Furiani, near Baitia, with Orders to attack the French, if they went out of their Lines, a smart Encounter happened between them, in which the French had 150 Men killed. The Corficans keep a very watchful Eye over the Places which the French are in Possession of." A Gentleman of Fortune in Berkshire, who kept Three Maid-Servants, was married to One of them on Friday last, and on Sunday, his Two Sons followed his Example, by marrying the other Two. By Accounts from Corfica, we are informed, that in a General Assembly which had been held at Corte, it was resolved to assemble all the Militia of the Island, to augment the Pay of the regular Troops, and to lay a Tax of 4 per 1000 on all Real and Personal Estates and Merchandize. The Clergy are to pay a Tenth of all their Benefices; the Convents are rated at a fixed Sum; and the Produce of the whole is to be solely employed in Support of the War. General Paoli, it seems, has declared, "That if all the Maritime Powers subscribe to the Treaty between the French and Genoese, he must subscribe thereto likewise; if not, that the Corficans will defend their Liberty to the last Drop of their Blood." Letters directly from Corfica say, that the Treaty in question, is not of the Nature of a Mortgage, as has been insinuated by some Accounts, but a free and entire Cession, in virtue of which the Genoese have obtained great commercial Advantages both in France and Spain. From Naples we have the following little Anecdote. The King being at Table with his new-married Queen, and the Grand Duke and Dutchess of Tuscany, her Majesty presented to the King a Plate, which she said had been prepared by her own Hands, and which, on had been prepared by her own Hands, and which, on being uncovered, was found to contain several written Memorials. His Majesty, at the pressing Instances of the Queen, read them before he rose from Table; and it is added, that this Lecture would probably produce a Change in some of the first Posts of the Government. Letters from Poland intimate, that from some secret Dispositions, it was presumed the King and the Russian Ambassador would soon find their Preference more necessary elsewhere, than at Warlaw. It is said, that the great Addition of so many respectable Persons to the Board of Trade, mentioned in the last Gazette, is intended as a Council upon the Affairs of America, which are every Day becoming more serious. July 16. Yesterday Summonses were sent to the Right Hon. the Privy Council, to meet this Day at St. James's, on Business of Importance. We hear that the King of Denmark proposes to arrive here on the Third of next Month.

Orders are given to several of the Inhabitants of Somerset-House to quit their Apartments as soon as possible, in order to make room for some Families from St. James's, who now occupy the Apartments there that are intended for the Reception of his Danish Majesty. We are told that several costly Trinkets, in Gold and Jewels, are preparing here for a great Personage, to be occasionally presented by him in the Course of his Travels. The Two Princes of Saxe-Gotha went Yesterday to view the Curiosities in the British Museum. A Letter received Yesterday, dated Gibraltar, June 14, says, "The Communion with Barbary is entirely stopt at present." Yesterday there was a grand Council held at St. James's, at which his Majesty was present. There have been this Week Two Conferences at a great Man's House a few Miles from London, between the D. of G. the E. of B. the E. of C. the D. of B. and a great Personage (not the L. C.) of the Law. On Thursday the Earl of Hillsborough, Secretary of State for the Colonies, took his Seat at the Board, as first Lord of Trade and Plantations. Yesterday a Number of Men were employed in fitting up the Apartments at St. James's, lately occupied by the Prince and Princess of Brunswick, for the Reception of his Danish Majesty. By a Gentleman lately arrived from France, we are informed, that there had been, about Three Weeks ago, an Insurrection at Rouen in Normandy, on Account of the Dearness of Provisions, when the Mob attacked the Parliament-House at that Place, on which the Military had Orders to fire, and it was conjectured, that about Six Hundred Persons were killed or wounded. Another Insurrection happened likewise at Abbeville, where a great Number were also shot by the Soldiers. Bread is sold at Five Sous per Pound, which is Three-Pence English Money. No Corn is allowed to be exported; and armed Troops guard all the Corn that is sold at the different Markets. Besides the Bombardment threatened to a certain City in the Mediterranean, as mentioned in the Papers, some other Places belonging to the Barbary State, are likely to feel the Effects of provoking a maritime Power. People have got such a Notion of an approaching War with France, that Wagers are daily laid on that Subject, in almost all the Coffee-Houses.

July 18. Saturday Morning some Dispatches of great Importance, were sent off from the Secretary of State's Office, for his Excellency the Earl of Rochford, at Paris. They write from Marseilles, that the Naval Commanders, both there, and at Toulon, have Orders to give every possible Encouragement to Corfican Seamen to enter into the French Service. We are assured, that the Squadron fitting out at Plymouth, designed to reinforce Commodore Spry in the Mediterranean, is ordered to be got ready for sailing with the utmost Expedition. It is likewise said, that upon its joining the Commodore, he will hoist his Flag as a Rear-Admiral of the Red. We are told that a new Fashion in the Dress of the Gentlemen at the West-End of the Town, is going to be introduced, in Compliment to his Danish Majesty. It is said that a Number of Silk Weavers are now engaging, by Prussian Agents, to go to Berlin, where they are promised the utmost Encouragement. July 19. They write from Chatham, that the Man of War just finished there, which is the finest ever built, is to be launched the Beginning of next Month, and that his Danish Majesty is expected to be present. She is to be called the Barbeur, and to carry 90 Guns. There is now living in a Village in Kent, a Woman, aged 92, who has a Daughter aged 73, a Grand-Daughter 44, a Great Grand-Daughter 36, which last has a Daughter aged 17, and on the Point of Marriage. The Retinue that will attend his Danish Majesty to England, will be much more numerous than at first expected, in Consequence of which, Orders are given to get in Readiness 60 Beds, for their Reception. We are informed that his Majesty the King of Denmark, in consequence of an Invitation from their Graces the Duke and Dutchess of Northumberland, will honour them with his Company at Alnwick, in Northumberland, where a grand Entertainment will be provided, and a select Band of Music is already engaged to go down on the first Notice. It is said that the Title of Earl of Yarmouth will speedily be conferred on the younger Branch of a certain noble Family. It is said, that for the future, no Salt will be exported from Ireland, but to Great-Britain and her Colonies. We are told by Letters from Warlaw, that such Malice is entertained by certain Gentlemen, against the City of Thorn, that they even openly vow Vengeance, and threaten to lay it in Ashes, because, as they pretend, the Plan of all the Advantages granted to the Protestants in the late Diet, was formed in that City. They are taking there all the Precautions against a Surprise, and some Companies of Burghers actually mount Guard on the Ramparts. There has certainly been an Engagement between the Corficans and the French, wherein the latter are said to have had at least 500 Men killed and wounded. They write from Modena, that Recruits are raising, by Order of the Pope, in the Ecclesiastical-State, and particularly in the Marche of Ancona, to be sent into the Ferrareze and the Dutchy of Castro.

We are informed that his Majesty the King of Denmark, in consequence of an Invitation from their Graces the Duke and Dutchess of Northumberland, will honour them with his Company at Alnwick, in Northumberland, where a grand Entertainment will be provided, and a select Band of Music is already engaged to go down on the first Notice. It is said that the Title of Earl of Yarmouth will speedily be conferred on the younger Branch of a certain noble Family. It is said, that for the future, no Salt will be exported from Ireland, but to Great-Britain and her Colonies. We are told by Letters from Warlaw, that such Malice is entertained by certain Gentlemen, against the City of Thorn, that they even openly vow Vengeance, and threaten to lay it in Ashes, because, as they pretend, the Plan of all the Advantages granted to the Protestants in the late Diet, was formed in that City. They are taking there all the Precautions against a Surprise, and some Companies of Burghers actually mount Guard on the Ramparts. There has certainly been an Engagement between the Corficans and the French, wherein the latter are said to have had at least 500 Men killed and wounded. They write from Modena, that Recruits are raising, by Order of the Pope, in the Ecclesiastical-State, and particularly in the Marche of Ancona, to be sent into the Ferrareze and the Dutchy of Castro.

Orders are given to several of the Inhabitants of Somerset-House to quit their Apartments as soon as possible, in order to make room for some Families from St. James's, who now occupy the Apartments there that are intended for the Reception of his Danish Majesty. We are told that several costly Trinkets, in Gold and Jewels, are preparing here for a great Personage, to be occasionally presented by him in the Course of his Travels. The Two Princes of Saxe-Gotha went Yesterday to view the Curiosities in the British Museum. A Letter received Yesterday, dated Gibraltar, June 14, says, "The Communion with Barbary is entirely stopt at present." Yesterday there was a grand Council held at St. James's, at which his Majesty was present. There have been this Week Two Conferences at a great Man's House a few Miles from London, between the D. of G. the E. of B. the E. of C. the D. of B. and a great Personage (not the L. C.) of the Law. On Thursday the Earl of Hillsborough, Secretary of State for the Colonies, took his Seat at the Board, as first Lord of Trade and Plantations. Yesterday a Number of Men were employed in fitting up the Apartments at St. James's, lately occupied by the Prince and Princess of Brunswick, for the Reception of his Danish Majesty. By a Gentleman lately arrived from France, we are informed, that there had been, about Three Weeks ago, an Insurrection at Rouen in Normandy, on Account of the Dearness of Provisions, when the Mob attacked the Parliament-House at that Place, on which the Military had Orders to fire, and it was conjectured, that about Six Hundred Persons were killed or wounded. Another Insurrection happened likewise at Abbeville, where a great Number were also shot by the Soldiers. Bread is sold at Five Sous per Pound, which is Three-Pence English Money. No Corn is allowed to be exported; and armed Troops guard all the Corn that is sold at the different Markets. Besides the Bombardment threatened to a certain City in the Mediterranean, as mentioned in the Papers, some other Places belonging to the Barbary State, are likely to feel the Effects of provoking a maritime Power. People have got such a Notion of an approaching War with France, that Wagers are daily laid on that Subject, in almost all the Coffee-Houses.

July 21. They write from Marfeilles, that several Frigates of War, and long Gallies, are now building in the Ports of Trieste and Fiume, for the French Service.

July 28. It is said, that a Number of Officers in several Departments under the Government, will speedily be discharged as unnecessary.

July 29. They write from Leghorn, that General Paschal de Paoli, had very narrowly escaped being surprised by the Enemy lately, while at the Head of a small reconnoitring Party, in the Neighbourhood of Erbalonga.

Letters from the Hague, dated July 1, says, "Notwithstanding the Vigilance of French Spies, dispersed all over the Seven Provinces, many private Subscriptions are every Day procured for the brave Corsicans."

Wednesday Orders were sent to Portsmouth, for a Sloop of War to be immediately got in Readiness, to carry over some important Dispatches to his Excellency General Gage, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces in North-America.

It was Yesterday reported, that Ten Regiments of Infantry, are speedily to be embarked for America, to support the Measures of Government more effectually.

There is a Report that the Dutch intend speedily to send a strong Naval Force to their East-India Settlements; but for what Purpose is not even guessed at.

Sunday last arrived at Whitby, the Jenny Greenlandman, Capt. Banks, with 9 Whales, 600 Seals, and 3 Bears.

July 30. By some recent Accounts from a Gentleman, who is just arrived from France, we are told, the French have actually at this very Time, no less than Twenty Sail of the Line, besides Frigates, and Two Bomb Vessels, now in the several Wet-Docks, and Harbour of Brest, which have all undergone a thorough Repair this Summer; lower Masts are in, and rigged; Topmasts just run up, and entered through the Caps; Top-sail-Yards thrown fore and aft, lay in the Tops ready for Rigging. These Ships can all be ready for Sea on an Emergency, at a Month's Notice.

August 2. Notwithstanding it has been asserted in some of the Papers, that Ten Regiments have been ordered for North-America, we are authorized to assure the Public, that no more than Two Regiments are to be sent thither, viz. 64th and 65th, commanded by the Colonels Mackay, and Pomeroy.

Extract of a Letter from Gibraltar, June 6.

"Our Friends, the Moors, are fully determined to enhance the Duties on all Provisions, exported for this Garrison, and are getting ready all their Cruizers to watch the Coast, where they apprehend any Trade has been carried on, and have assured the Governor, that they will seize upon all such Vessels and People, as may be met with on the Coast, Eastward of Tetuan, as far as the Algerine Dominions. We are not, however, apprehensive that they mean to differ with us."

ANNAPOLIS, September 29.

The Printers of this GAZETTE, would have inserted the Reply, mentioned in the following Letter, had it been offered them for Publication.

Mr. GREEN, Sept. 26, 1768.

As the Affinity between you, and Mr. Clapham, may render it too disagreeable a Task to you, to print an Answer to his last Piece, it being necessary to treat him with that Austerity his Insolence deserves: I beg you will inform the Public, that Mr. Dakein has sent a proper Reply to the Pennsylvania Chronicle; and, as you do, in the most solemn Manner, declare, that the Maryland Press (always has been, which remains to be proved) and now is, at my Service: I should hope, that as you publish'd a partial Narrative of the Riot in Frederick-Town, you will give this candid and impartial Account, a Place, which I printed at Baltimore-Town, in a Hand-Bill, under a Notion that you would admit nothing that bore any favourable Representation of my Side, how just soever, or well founded. I should be very glad in being deceived, as I owe you no ill Will, but what proceeded from your partial Conduct. The Circulation of Hand-Bills, was very confused; and, if you give this Narrative a Place, by which will be seen, what infinite Pains were taken to raise a Mob, amongst a People, whose Disposition was remarkably averse to it. I beg the Favour of Mr. Goddard to transcribe it into the Pennsylvania Chronicle, from your Paper. My Name will be sufficient Indemnity on this Occasion, either for Damages, or any Demand.

B. ALLEN.

Conclusion of a SERMON, intended to have been preached at All-Saints Church, in Frederick County, on Sunday, June 5, 1768: By the Reverend BENNET ALLEN, Rector of that Parish.

BEFORE I conclude, I cannot but condole with you, upon the great Loss you sustained in this Parish, by the Decease of your late worthy Incumbent; who, after having passed through various Scenes of Life, experienced extraordinary Turns of Fortune, travelled through many Countries, and fraught with the Knowledge, both of Books and Men, came at length to lay his Bones amongst you.—From the long Acquaintance with his Virtues and Worth, that each Individual of this Congregation has had, his Memory must be so strongly impress'd on every Man's Heart, that it needs not the Power of Words, or any Recommendation of mine, to make the Impression lasting.—If we view him in respect of his public Character, we find him assiduous, and sparing neither Pains nor Cost to accomplish a public Work, which will transmit to Posterity, his Name with Honour and Respect.—If we view him as a Minister of a Parish, we see him a sincere Christian, a diligent Pastor, an able Dispenser of the Word of GOD.—If we view him as a Father of a Family, we see him a kind Husband, an affectionate Father, an easy Master.—If we view him as a neighbour, we see him ready to advise, speedy to assist, compassionate and charitable.—Yet could not all these Virtues, nor yet the Love of Mankind, nor the united Prayers of this Congregation, preserve, beyond its appointed Limits, a Life, which, though not full of Years, was full of Glory.

What a Contrast shall we find, when we turn our Eyes to his Successor,—if we take his Character from the Public Prints:—How sad, how deplorable the Change!—View him painted with every Crime that ever sullied human Nature, or blackened any Man's Character, and you have Reason to lament the Change; but it is an Happiness, that Characters, drawn by Passion, Malevolence, and Envy, are so extravagant, and out of Nature, that they destroy their own Credit.—There is not a Monster in Iniquity, who has every Vice united in his own Person.—The Improbability of such a Charge, is a sufficient Confutation of it; but if we examine the Grounds upon which it is made, on the present Occasion, how will you be astonished? How will you pity, or rather how will you despise the Authors?—Apply the Case to yourselves: Your Opinions, or your Interests, may one Day clash with theirs, and your Reputation is to be the Sacrifice; but I would not involve you in Differences; pursue your Connexions; you will not find me less a Friend to any Man, because another's Dependancy.—My Understanding, my moral Character, even my Person, is attacked. I am ashamed to recapitulate Particulars, which they, without one single Proof, ought to have been ashamed to advance.

They say, among the rest, that I did not dare to show my Face in my former Parish. This is false.—I preached there several Sundays: I met, except from one Individual, with every Mark of Civility, from every Person in that Parish, and on Whitsunday last, I experienced the greatest Tokens of Good-Will from them.

The greatest, and best Men, in all Ages, have been ever exposed to Malevolence and Obloquy.—Socrates, one of the wisest, and the most virtuous of the Antients, had a Comedy written, on purpose to expose him to the Contempt of the People.—Our Blessed Saviour was insulted, as an Impostor, a Wine-Bibber, a Friend of Publicans and Sinners, and Coadjutor of the Devil.—I mention these Examples by Way of Illustration; not of Comparison.—You all know how the Character of your late worthy Minister suffered, when he expected less than deserved Reward for his public Services. And you see, before your Eyes, a Character of your present Minister, which I hope in GOD, the worst Man in this Congregation does not merit; and which, I have Charity enough to think, no Man upon Earth does merit.

The Division of the Parish is much desired:—Do not think I am the sole, or chief Obstacle:—with my Consent a Division is yet practicable; without, it is impossible; and my Consent is not to be obtained by Violence:—Whilst the Boundaries remain upon the present Footing, the different Parts shall be as well provided for, by myself, and Assistants, as by any Three distinct Rectors.—As far as my Power lies, both in a public and private Capacity, I shall exert it, in promoting the Prosperity of the Province in general, and the Happiness of this Parish in particular; which cannot more effectually be done, than by recommending due Obedience to Government, Respect to Religion, and Good-Will to all Mankind.

APPENDIX.

AS the Opposition I met with, in Frederick-Town, must become a Subject of public Notoriety; to prevent the ill Impressions that will maliciously be given of it, by my Enemies, I am under the Necessity of drawing off the following circumstantial Detail of the whole Affair, the Truth of which I can prove by credible Witnesses.

From the Reception I met with, in Frederick-Town, from Tuesday, May 31, to Friday, June 3, I did not apprehend of surmise the least Opposition or Uneasiness. On Saturday Morning, whilst I was writing the Conclusion of my Sermon, I received Information, that Instructions had been brought to Town, from Annapolis, together with a Bag, full of C. D.'s last curious Performance, recommending to certain Persons, under Influence, to keep me out of the Church on Sunday, by secreting the Keys, if it may be done, otherwise by Violence; but, at all Events, to keep me out; and, to enforce this Design, it was urged, that it was a Pity I should have so good a Parish, not worthy of a Tenth Part. I resolv'd immediately to perform the ceremonial Part, of taking Possession of my Church, according to the Practice and Custom in England: That is, The Minister to be inducted, goes into the Church, with Two or Three Friends, reads the public Prayers, and the Thirty-nine Articles, which he has properly attested, (which is generally done on a Week-Day, not to encumber the Service on Sunday) and when he goes out of the Church, he locks the Door himself, and puts the Key into his Pocket, signifying, by this Act, that he has a Property in that Church, that it is his Freehold, and he then becomes, what the Lawyers call, Parson imparsoned, and the Church is full against the King.—This Form I literally complied with, (though Force would have been held a sufficient Plea, for Non-compliance with any Part) and then offered the Keys of the Church to the Custody of a Vestryman, (the only one in Town) upon Provision of a Promise of my being admitted to perform my Duty there, the next Day, which he not only refused to give; but, upon being pressed, did own, that on Friday Night, Application was made to him, (from the Parishioners, he said, though others said, from another Quarter) to prevent my Entrance into the Church.

A new Lock having been put on the Gate, and Bolts on the Doors, I was surpris'd to find them open on Sunday Morning; the Vestry came up to me, and complain'd of my taking Possession of the Keys, without notifying my Induction to them: I answered, "I intended to have complied with every Custom of the Parish; what I did, was not out of any Disrespect to you, but for my own Security: I do not accuse you of all of a Design of excluding me the Church; but you, Sir," addressing myself to one of them, "I hear, received private Instructions." They then urg'd me to wait the Success of their Petition; I said, "My entering into the Church, and performing Divine Service there, will not affect it any Way: What the Legislature determines, we must abide by: Violence will not promote your Cause, nor mine." One of them answer'd, there is no Violence intended, let us see your Induction; if you will take Possession of the Church, you must; and so we parted. A certain young Man was seen to take aside Two of the Vestrymen, and whisper them. They then came up in a Body, and peremptorily forbid my entering into Church.—I said, you have no Right of Admission, or of Denial; it is your Duty to assist me in the Discharge of my Function, not to prevent it; you are required so to do, by your Oath of Office; the Mayor of the Governor signs an Induction, your Disposal of 30 per Poll ceases. I hold my Church by the same Title, and by the same Authority, as you do your Land, both being held by Patent from the Lord Proprietor. An Attempt was made to secure the Doors, but I happened to be too quick for an old Gentleman, who he clubbed his Whip. I proceeded in the Service, regularly, into the Litany, though they drove out all the Congregation, Six Persons only excepted: A Com-motion without, put me upon my Guard: A picket Man entered, with a Crowd at his Heels.—Come, this Minute, said he, or I'll pull you out. He drew near, but finding me better prepared for his Reception than he expected, he returned, after a hearty Curse. Way he came in—Happy I am, that he did not put under the disagreeable Alternative of sacrificing him, of permitting myself to be dragged out of the Church, and thrown amongst an enraged Mob, who, at that instant, would very probably have torn me to Pieces, had they could not give any Reason for their Violence, as would have repented of the Act, as soon as they had perpetrated it. Poor Satisfaction to me! That Villain deserved his Fate, had he met with it: Few Men in my Circumstances would have restrained themselves. I am glad I left him to the Laws of his Country. The Insulting, upon my quitting the Church, d—n that Parson, stone him, stone him, was not from a Christian, but a Jew; and, from the Principles upon which his Forefathers crucify'd our Blessed Saviour, as stoned the Apostles.

The Story rais'd, to draw the Dutch into the Quarrel was artful enough; they reported, that I should level their Steeple with that of the Church.—I look upon the Dutch, as excellent Members of a Commonwealth; frugal, laborious, and honest; warm in the Attachments, and steady in their Friendships; and, far from desiring to make their Steeple lower, I would contribute as largely as any Man, to raise it higher, they wish'd it.—The Dutch, with whom I converse, can testify, that I always express'd myself very kind towards them, and had employ'd a Master of the Dutch Language, in which I intended sometimes to have preached. It was insinuated, that I kept Two Parishes besides: This Story had its Weight; the Truth is, I gave up Two Parishes. It would be hard indeed to be deprived of all.

The Character industriously propagated of me, by my malignant and unforgiving Enemies, is some Excuse for the Treatment I received from the deluded Populace. They were made to expect rather a Minister, than a Man. Is this Mr. Allen? Said some Persons often in the Presence of the Gentlemen that accompanied me:—He is free, familiar, and agreeable.—We were told, that he was the proudest, and haughtiest Man alive; and withal, a Man of no Character.

Another Report, calculated to irritate the People was, that I wish'd the Death of Mr. Bacon. This had been inform'd of, before his Decease; which gave occasion to the following Letter, and which, I am told, he did not read without Tears, and pray'd for Strength to return me a suitable Answer.

My dear SIR,

IF any Thing that the Malice of Man can invent, I could astonish me, it would be what has been related to me this Night. I am inform'd, that you have heard, that I, and my Sister, wish'd your Death.—I own, the Story has made me uneasy, from the Unpleasantness, I am told, it occasioned you. He was not my Friend that carried you that Report, supposing it true, and left your Friend. Why should I wish your Death? My Income is equal to my Desires, and superior to my Wants. Why should my Sister wish your Death? She never wish'd the Death of an Insect, except it was very troublesome to her. Even had we wish'd your Death, we should have had Prudence enough, not to have expressed such Wishes. The Folly of such Conduct, would be as great as the Inhumanity; and you cannot take us for Fools. If our united Wishes could avail any Thing, it would be, that you should live as long as possible; and, if my disclaiming any Prospect of Succession, would preserve your Life, but a single Day, or abate the Violence of your Fever, but a single Hour, I would readily do it. I thought of writing to you, upon a Surmise, that you took to yourself some Reflections in the Gazette: Tho' I do not take upon myself the Authorship of the Productions there, yet I believe, as far as my Knowledge extends, that you never were hinted at, intended, or thought of. I look upon you as a Man of too much Honour, to take away an innocent Person's Reputation, from Resentment, Pique, or private Views. I have always lov'd your Character, for that Milkiness of Blood, (as Dryden expresses it) and Goodness of Heart, for which you are remarkable; and respect'd you as a Man of Letters, a Friend of the Lord Proprietary; and a Benefactor to the Public: Nor can it be a displeasing Reflection, that you have a Monument to leave behind you, which will transmit your Name, with Credit, to After-Ages; and which will, if there be any Gratitude in Mankind, redound to the Advantage of your Family.—My Lord often mentions you, and always with Kindness, and has sent a small Present, which he desires your Acceptance of.—My Sister joins with me, in sincere Wishes, for the Recovery of your Health, and in Compliments to Mrs. Bacon; and may that great Being, in whose Hands alone, is the Power of Life and Death, make, as the Psalmist expresses himself, your Bed in your Sickness.

I am, dear SIR, your affectionate Friend, and obedient humble Servant, BENNET ALLEN.

Virginia, June 20, 1768.

THE Earl of Tankerville's Concurrence being now had, and in the Country, to the Purchaser I sometime ago made of his Agents, in Virginia, so that Deeds can be had to the Part thereof, in Frederick County, Maryland, I proposed again to dispose off, which prevented its being done when formerly advertised, I now give Notice to all Persons, inclinable to purchase the Whole, or any Part thereof, that it is now on Sale, and can be completed, for which Purpose I will attend at the next August Frederick County Court, (which begins on the Third Tuesday in August) at the House of Mr. Charleton, to treat with any Person inclinable to purchase. It is a Tract of choice good Land, remarkably suitable for Farming and Plantation Business, and very commodiously situate for Trade, being not far from Frederick-Town, and the Advantage of Navigation on Potowmack River, the usual Landing the Boats now carry from, being upon the Land. It is well watered, and has great Quantities of Meadow Ground interspersed amongst it. It contains between Six and Seven Thousand Acres, and is usually known by the Name of COLVILL'S TRACT, called MERRY-LAND. Any Person, who, in the Interim, wants to view or treat for it, may apply to Messrs. John Carrey, Merchant, in Frederick-Town, or Frances Hamilton, at Keep-Triste Furnace, who have Power and Directions to treat for it, or to the Subscriber himself, at Occoquan Forges. It being mostly fine tendable Land, would make a good Settlement for a Number of People wanting to remove and seat themselves in one Neighbourhood. If there was more of them than the Tract could commodiously serve, the Subscriber has 16000 Acres of Land, equally good, on the opposite Side of Potowmack, which will be soon settled out: It is almost adjoining the above Tract, excepting the Separation by the River, on which they might seat themselves contiguous to one another. Should not Purchasers offer soon for it, to the Subscriber's Liking, it will be leased out to good Farmers, there having been many Applications made for it, in that Way, and which can be let out at a very great Rent. Those who formerly applied to purchase, and still incline to do so, on giving Notice, in Time, will have Preference given them.
