FROM A LATE NORTHERN PAPER.

My Dear COUNTRYMEN,

WHILE our Courts of Justice are shut up, in Deference to a Law passed in Defiance to the first Principles of the Constitution, and my Country is groaning under the Difficulties arising from it, as well as exposing Herself to infinitely greater, I cannot be silent. I cannot help giving Vent to the Fulness of my Heart on this alarming Occasion, and hope my Forwardness will be forgiven, as it flows from a strong Solitude for our common Interests. Perhaps some Gentlemen of Abilities may take the Hint to set the Subject in the striking Light this Conjunction deserves.

It has been demonstrated, that our stopping Business will draw after it the most ruinous Consequences, and that the most effectual Method to obtain a Repeal of that detestable Act, is, perfectly to disregard it, and behave ourselves as far as possible in all Respects as if it did not exist. If more Arguments are required to fasten a full Conviction of this in every Mind, I could easily add them: When I reflect on the Subject with but very small Attention, they pour in upon me from every Quarter—but they are needless. The public Voice concurs in this Sentiment. What then do we wait for? Is it not as clear as the Sun at Noon Day, that it is absurd to pay any Regard to a Law made by a Body of Men, who have no more Legislative Authority over us than those that lived before the Flood? Do we not all profess an inviolable Attachment to our Constitution, and an unalterable Resolution to maintain it? Why then do we in the least give Way to a wicked Attempt to subvert it altogether? Have we not the Means in our Hands to baffle all such Attempts effectually, without failing in our Duty to Great-Britain or our native Country? The Means of Defence proposed are of the most pacific Nature: they cannot offend the most scrupulous Consciences, all Denominations may join heartily in them. Frugality, Industry, steady Resolution and Unanimity are the only Weapons our Cause requires, and these every One may wield from the Highest to the Lowest. Are we waiting to see what the neighbouring Provinces will do? They probably are also waiting to see what we will do, and at this Rate, while each is hanging back till others begin, we may wait on to Eternity. But we are not without Examples of a glorious Forwardness to break the Shackles of Tyranny. Boston, Rhode-Island, and Maryland have generously led the Way; they have opened their Courts and administered Justice as usual. Shall we then stand trifling and hesitating, when some of the smaller and weaker Colonies have exposed themselves foremost in the common Cause? But why wait for Examples in so clear a Case? We ought to be nobly emulous of the Honour of being First to manifest our Love of Liberty and Contempt of every insolent Attack upon it: Backwardness is dishonourable as well as hurtful in the highest Degree, as it shows great Meanness of Spirit, and is one of the strongest Invitations of Oppression in the World.

Can any be at a Loss how we must proceed to open the Courts of Justice? We have nothing to do but assemble ourselves together in such Places as are most convenient, and declare our united Resolution to submit to and maintain the Laws of our Country. Let Magistrates of all Ranks be requested to discharge their Offices, and let all that have any Weight or Influence join to support them. We have an inalienable Right to have Justice administered; none pretends to say we have forfeited it: Let us then boldly claim it: While it is denied us we are robbed of the most essential Benefit of Society: Let us endure the Robbery no longer, every Moment we patiently submit to it we are shamefully neglecting our Duty to Ourselves, and Posterity. Public Officers have no Right to oppose the Voice of their Country, she supports them in Dignity to do Justice, not to restrain it. He that shows any Reluctance against doing his Duty, deserves the Brand of a public Enemy. But I hope better Things of all our Magistrates: I dare answer for them, that they will be as ready to comply with our Requests as we are to make them. I am not recommending Riots and Tumults: It can be no Breach of the Laws of Nature nor of our Country for People to assemble together peaceably and resolve to submit to those Laws, and demand their Execution, though Tyrants may call it Seditious and Treasonable; and so they will every Thing that is done in Opposition to their lawless Will and Pleasure.

Tyranny, my dear Countrymen, is rattling her Chains over our Heads, and will rivet them upon us, if we sleep much longer; Tyranny, that worst of Plagues angry Heaven ever inflicts on a Rebel World! This extirpates Mankind more effectually than the Sword, Famine, Pestilence, or wild Beasts. It has laid waste many of the finest Regions of the Earth, and transformed whole Countries, once swarming with Inhabitants, and the delightful Seats of Liberty and Learning into little better than a howling Wilderness. Italy, Greece, Asia Minor, and Palestine, Once were Free; and for Populousness like one continued City, but ever since they have lost their Liberty they have been losing their People, and now many Parts of them are quite depopulated. Little strikes the Traveller but Scenes of Ruin and Desolation; and the few remaining Inhabitants are in the lowest Degree of Wretchedness imaginable. This will be the woeful Condition of these Colonies, if ever they shall be enslaved. Let us not expect gentler Treatment than others; unlimited Power is not to be trusted in the Hands of any but a Being of infinite Wisdom and Goodness; Men always have and will abuse it. It is the very Nature of Tyranny to produce these tremendous Effects: to submit to it is to deliver up ourselves and all our Posterity to be butchered by Peace-meal; it is virtually to murder unnumbered Millions. Such a Complication of Misery and Despair is too shocking for the Imagination to dwell upon; what then must it be to see and feel its unmitigated Horrors! Who would not prefer Gibbets, Fires, and Racks, if by them he could save his Country from such a horrid Train of Woes? Can there be found such a Miscreant as One not determined to run the utmost Risk to keep out this infernal Monster? Surely such a Wretch does not disgrace the Continent. Our Blood should boil at her first Approaches, and the least Appearance of a sneaking Submission should be the Object of our Abhorrence. But our suffering the Channels of Justice to be stopped, because a villainous Ministry have contrived one of the most hellish Schemes to ruin us, that ever was hatched by merciless Policy, has at least such an Appearance. It is a vile Badge of Slavery lying at our Doors. It is putting it out of our Power to stand our Ground long against a Destruction that will waste at Noon Day. Oh my Country! my Country! Are there none to arise and resent thy Wrongs! Has the Genius of Liberty fled never to return! Is it come to this that we are ready to give up our dearest Rights without any farther Struggle, after all our boasted Love of them! Oh Shame! Oh Scandal! Shall thou be enslaved by the paricious Conduct of thy free-born Sons! It cannot be. We dare rise and dash the most horrid Engine of Tyranny that ever was framed. We scorn to let our Enemies suspect we have not the Spirit of Freemen. Ye Gentlemen of the Law, your Country calls upon you to exert yourselves to vindicate her from Oppression; and you love her too well to let her call in vain. You have shown her what she may expect from you by your noble Example of disinterestedness in sacrificing your private Gain to the public Good, when you cheerfully resolved to give up your Business, rather than touch the fatal Stamps. Your known Acquaintance with the Constitution is such that you cannot doubt of the Propriety of the Measure proposed. You have been strenuous Assertors of our Rights; our Eyes are upon you. We expect you, Gentlemen, will lead the Way, as your Profession requires, and you will fix yourselves in the Esteem of every free-born Son of America.

Ye Merchants, who have also given a generous Specimen of your Zeal in the common Cause by stopping your Orders for Goods; you have disdained to reap the Profits of a Trade your Country's Interest forbids you to carry on. You have by this secured the public Esteem, and shown an Example of Patriotism fit for the Imitation of future Ages. Your Influence, Gentlemen, is very considerable, and can do much towards our Deliverance in this critical Juncture. Resolve to maintain the Validity of all Writings on unstamped Paper, and their Credit will soon be as universal as before. Your Country calls for your Assistance, and I am sure you have too keen a Sense of her Wrongs to deny it.

Ye Sons of LIBERTY in every Province, who have proved yourselves her true Votaries by your undaunted Struggles to defend her. Your glorious Efforts animated the most drooping Spirits and almost dissipated our fears. Your injured, insulted Country places her chief Confidence in you; she implores, she demands your Courage and Unanimity once more; and I am sure you are better Patriots than ever to let her demand in Vain. You bravely prevented the Distribution of the Stamps, and put it beyond the Power of the hardiest Ministers of Oppression to issue them; so that our Fears are over from that Quarter. For this you are never thought of but with Gratitude. But while Justice is denied to the Injured, and the Honest, and Industrious are embarrassed in their most necessary Business by the Occlusion of the Courts of Law, your Victory is not complete. One vigorous Effort more, and the Day is your own; unite your Influence to open every public Office; let it be insisted upon as our Right: Take no Denial, and none will dare to risk your Re-entment. Then will the Cause of Liberty be triumphant, and Tyranny lie gasping at her Feet. But let the Peace of Individuals, unless they declare themselves Enemies to their Country, be undisturb'd: This your generous Behaviour hitherto gives us a Right to expect.

We cannot be enslaved unless we enslave Ourselves; nothing is necessary to break at once the Fetters that have been forged for us, so that it shall be forever beyond the Power and Skill of all the first Ministers that may ever plague the Nation, to mend them, but our unanimous Resolution to do it. Let us only strike the Stroke, the Undertaking will afterwards finish itself. If we lie still, all Posterity will scorn and detest us as Traitors to the Cause of Liberty. Many of us have vindicated our Country's Wrongs in the bloody Field, have despised the Yells of Savages and trod down the Armies of France. Shall we then crouch to Tyranny obtruding itself under the Sanction of a Law, when we have defied foreign Legions to force it upon us? Have Native Americans stood undaunted before the roaring Cannon, and shall they be affrighted at the Threats of haughty Ministers, and their vile Instruments? We have shown our Firmness of Soul in facing the most hideous Forms of Death, we may show it now in a Way not less beneficial to our Country. The steady Patriot deserves no less Honour than the Hero. How would our glorious Ancestors have behaved in this juncture; would those renowned Worthies, who with such infinite Toil formed and delivered to us their generous Plan of Liberty, have stood hesitating and trifling when an outrageous Attempt was made to subvert it at once? The immortal Hampden would not pay one Farthing thing of the illegal Ship Money, though exacted with the whole power of the Court, but boldly flood a Suit with the Crown. The Judges in the infatuated Reign of James the Second baffled his dispensing Power before his Race. But why mention Instances? A Train of illustrious Heroes rises before me, who sealed their Love of Liberty and Hatred to Tyranny with their richest Blood: In many a well-fought Field has the glorious Cause been maintained, and we have enjoyed the Fruits of their generous Toils. They knew, that small Encroachments of Power, if tolerated, are fatal: And therefore would not give one Inch of Ground to the Insults of Despotism, or the more insidious Contrivances of cunning Statesmen. Shall they have Fought and Bled in Vain? Shall we be so Degenerate, as not to have Spirit to maintain what they purchased at so Dear a Rate? This would be Infamy and Baseness beyond the Power of Language to express. It cannot be, that any who has one Drop of their generous Blood flowing in his Veins, can endure a Thought of so vilely dishonouring those from whom we sprung. Let us like them Defy any Power on Earth to rob us of our Rights. They are Spectators of our Conduct, and O may they be always Witnesses of our Bravery! Awake, awake, thou Genius of LIBERTY, from thy temporary Slumber! inspire us with their intrepid Spirit! Rouze, Rouze, my Countrymen, from this Langour, if continued it must be fatal. What? are we ashamed of our Cause? Do we think it better to sink into the lowest Gulph of Wretchedness than struggle any longer? Shall Liberty after all our noble Efforts be torn from our eager Grasp? Shall we lie down and suffer lawless Tyrants to tread upon us at Pleasure? I conjure you by the Genius of the Ancient Britons! by the Spirit of our glorious Constitution, the Work of Ages, the Wonder and Envy of Nations! by our renowned Forefathers, who rather than be Slaves planted this howling Wilderness, the Haunts of wild Beasts, or Men more Savage than they! by all their glorious Toils and Hazards, by your Love to all Posterity! by the Happiness of unborn Millions! by the unbounded Prospect of future Empire opening before us! by all that is Tender, all that is Great, all that is Sacred! Arise with the Courage of Men, of Heroes; break this cursed Enchantment; finish the Deliverance of your insulted Country; disdain the least Badge of a vile Submission. Let us act in all Respects like Freemen. Let the Brand of indelible Infamy be the Lot of all that Sleep, that are Inactive or Cowardly at this ALARMING CRISIS.

PHILELEUTHERUS.

WILMINGTON, (N. CAROLINA) Dec. 18.

THE Sloop....., Capt. Pindar, who sail'd from this Port some Time ago, for New River, is cast away; the Vessel and Cargo lost.

Dec. 25. Thursday last his Excellency Governor Tryon came up to Town from his Seat near Brunswick. He was received at the Market-Wharf by the Mayor, Aldermen, and other Gentlemen of the Borough; the New-Hanover Regiment of Militia, with their Officers, lining the Streets on both Sides, from the Wharf to his Excellency's House. He was then saluted by the Discharge of 17 Pieces of Artillery, plac'd at the Foot of Market-Street for that Purpose. The Ships in the Harbour, commanded by the Captains Moore, Fuller, Foster, English, &c. displayed their Colours on the Occasion; and, in short, every Mark of Honour and Respect was paid to his Excellency; especially by Captain English, who oblig'd the Town with the Loan of his Guns, &c. and permitted his Men to assist in managing them.

Captain Phipps, Commander of his Majesty's Sloop Diligence, came up with his Excellency from Brunswick, where his Vessel now lies, and had the Stamp Paper on board:—Mr. Phipps was pleas'd to take Offence at the Captains of the Merchantmen having hoisted their Colours; particularly Capt. English's, which were a Green Field, with a Harp and Crown; and immediately demanded them of the Captain:—as also the Pennants of the other Ships:—These Gentlemen thought, that as they had done it in Honour to the Governor, and, as no King's Vessel was then in Sight, that Capt. Phipps might have excus'd it; though the Act might be somewhat illegal, according to the strict Rules of the Navy. However, he persisted in his first Demand, and the Populace being made acquainted therewith, went in a Body, seized on his Boat, haul'd her out of the Water, and dragg'd her up Market-Street, huzzaing as they went along, until they came to an open Place, where they intended to have burned her; which certainly would have been the Case, had not the Worshipful Frederick Gregg, the present Mayor of this Borough, (who was remarkably careful to preserve Regularity and good Order therein) and many other Gentlemen in the Town, interceded with the People to spare the Boat:—which they agreed to do, provided that the Colours were brought to them in Fifteen Minutes Time;—which Request (in Order to prevent the Boats Destruction) was complied with: The Populace received them with Three Cheers; and, after hoisting them on board the Boat, haul'd her through the public Streets, then launched her safe into the Water, and then dispersed, without any other disorderly proceedings.

Jan. 1. Since our Last arriv'd the Sloop Favourite, (late Capt. Fitton, who died the Night he came up to Brunswick) Capt. Pennell from Jamaica:—Mr. Pennell was oblig'd to take Stamp Paper Clearances, as the People of that Island have suffer'd the Stamps to be foisted on them; which they might have prevented with the greatest Ease imaginable; two Negroes only, having the Care of Carting them by Land 14 Miles; and the Owner of the Slaves gave them Orders, that in Case they should be attacked, immediately to run off.----If so, may they want the Necessaries of Life, and as they deserve no better Fate, may they be Slaves of Slaves to the latest Generation.

Jan. 8. Since our Last arriv'd in this River from Philadelphia, the Sloop Patience, William Ward, Master. As soon as it was known by Capt. Lobb, that the Vessel was arriv'd, and that she had been cleared out without Stamp Paper Clearances, he sent down and seized her at Fort Johnson: And it being discover'd that the Small Pox was on Board, she is order'd to perform 30 Days Quarantine. This is a distressing Circumstance, as we have at present a severer Frost and Snow than has been known here for many Years. There are a great many Passengers on board, but the Disorder has appear'd only on One. The Vessel 'tis expected, will be condemn'd, tho' Capt. Ward's Clearances were the same with those of 14 Sail which left the Port of Philadelphia at the same Time he did.

Several Captains of Vessels in this River, had determin'd to Sail with such Clearances as they could get, but the Seizure of this Sloop has put them entirely off such Determination.

B O S T O N, January 20.

At a legal Meeting of the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the Town of Boston, at Faneuil-ball, on Wednesday the 18th of December, 1765, and continued by Adjournment to January 16, 1766; the following Votes pass'd, viz.

WHEREAS the Inferior Court of Common Pleas for this County, together with the Court of Probate, is now open, and Business going on as usual.—VOTED UNANIMOUSLY, That the Representatives of the Town be and hereby are instructed to use their utmost Endeavours in the General Assembly at the present Session, that Measures may be taken that Justice be also duly administered in all the Counties throughout the Province; and that Inquiry may be made into the Reasons why the Course of Justice in the Province has been in any Measure obstructed.

It is further VOTED UNANIMOUSLY, That their Representatives be also instructed to use their Influence in the General Court, that proper Enquiry be made into the Behaviour of any Person or Persons who by their Misconduct have either contributed towards the Difficulties we labour under respecting the Stamp-Act, or have basely neglected to use their upright and best Endeavours to relieve us from those Difficulties.

C O N N E C T I C U T.

At a Meeting of the respectable Populace, held at Lyme, in the County of New-London, on the second Tuesday of January, A. D. 1766.

The following Resolves were unanimously agreed to and to be inserted in the New-London Gazette.

1. THAT we have an inviolable Right by the God of Nature, as well as by the English Constitution, (which is unalienable even by ourselves) to those Privileges and Immunities, which by the Execution of the Stamp-Act we shall be for ever stript and deprived of.

2. That we are unalterably fix'd to defend our aforesaid Right and Immunities, by every lawful Way and Means, against every unjust Attack.

3. That our Aversion and Threats to any Person in public Character, or others in the Colony, is, and shall be only, on Account, and according as they are more or less engaged and active, directly or indirectly, to carry into Execution the Detestable and Oppressive Stamp-Act, which would be an indelible Stain to England's Glory, and perpetual Chains to American Liberty.

4. That since Mr. Ingersol has made a public and solemn Resignation of his Office of Distributor, and confirm'd the same by Oath (as is inserted in the Connecticut Gazette of the 10th Inst.) as also assures us by private Letters, though not in every Respect as we should be glad to have heard, and though we had Reason heretofore to distrust his Veracity, yet willing to extend our Charity as far as possible, do rely on and confide in his Veracity, that he will preserve his said Oath and Engagement inviolate.

5. That whereas Mr. Ingersol has resign'd as aforesaid, no Copies of his Letters or Papers are desired by the People of New-London County, but that the Gentlemen in whose Hands they are, take a Copy of the whole, and keep for the Use of the Public, and return the Originals as soon as may be.

6. That whereas it is believed that the Stamp-Papers for this Colony are hovering on our Coast on board the Cygnet Man of War stationed in this Colony; it is Resolv'd, that the Sons of LIBERTY keep a vigilant Watch, and on any Attempt to Land the same, we engage our united Assistance to take and secure them for his Majesty's Use.

7. That whereas we conceive the general Safety and Privileges of all the Colonies to depend on a firm Union in Support of the British Constitution, we therefore, do declare, we will do our utmost to resist all such Enemies to his Majesty and the British Constitution, as shall attempt to dispossess the Colonies of their most sacred Rights, and will be ready, on all Occasions, to assist our Fellow Subjects in the Neighbouring Provinces, to repel all Violent Attempts which may be made to subvert their and our Liberties.

8. That Major Durkee in the County of New-London, be desired to correspond with the Sons of Liberty in the neighbouring Colonies, and from Time to Time inform them of the Sentiments of the Populace here, and receive and publish from them such Things as shall be thought of general Concern; and that the Populace of Windham and the other Counties are desired to appoint Persons for the same Purpose.

9. That the Inhabitants of this Colony, are desired to be cautious in believing, or adhering to any Insinuations from designing Persons, who, at Times, have endeavour'd to cast Contempt, and put false Construptions on the Meetings of the Populace, which are formed and kept up with righteous Intentions, and have had the most salutary Effects.

10. That whereas the adjacent Colonies proceed in Business without Regard to the Stamp-Act; 'tis earnestly desired that the civil Authority of this Colony, do follow their laudable Example, as the delay of Business will be construed an implicit Acknowledgment of the Validity of the Stamp-Act, and a practical Contradiction of the principal Argument urg'd in our Petitions at Home, for the Repeal of the same; and for that Purpose, the Eyes of all are on the Superior Court of this Colony, to give the Example to the subordinate Authority.

At a Meeting of the Inhabitants of the Town of Wallingford, legally assembled and held by Adjournment on Monday the 13th Day of January, 1765.

WHEREAS it appears from ancient Records and other Memorials of incontestible Validity, that our Ancestors, with a great Sum purchased said Township: At their only Expence, plant'd, with great Peril possess'd and defend'd the same; (and we were Free born) having never been in Bondage to any, an Inheritance of inestimable Value.

Voted and Agreed, That if any of said Inhabitants shall introduce, use, or improve any Stamp Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, for which, tax or tribute is or may be demandable; such Person or Persons, shall incur the Penalty of 20s. to be recovered by the Select Men of said Town, for the Time being, for the Use of the Poor of said Town. This order to continue in Force until the next Meeting of said Inhabitants in Town Meeting.

At a Meeting of a Number of the true Sons of Liberty, in Wallingford, in New-Haven County, on the Evening of the 13th Day of January 1766. After duly form'd by choosing a Moderator and Clerk the following Resolves were come into, viz.

- Resol. 1. THAT the late Act of Parliament called the Stamp-Act, is unconstitutional, and intended to enslave the true Subjects of America.
- Resol. 2. That we will oppose the same to the last Extremity, even to take the Field.
- Resol. 3. That we will meet at the Court-House in New-Haven, on the third Tuesday of February next: And we desire all the Sons of Liberty in each Town in the County, would meet then by themselves, or Representatives. There to Consult what is best to be done in order to defend our Liberties and Properties, and break up the stop to Public Affairs.

N E W - Y O R K, January 30.

By a Letter from Jamaica we learn, that Bread is like to be a very scarce Article in that Island.

Private Letters from England by the last Vessels advise, that great Uneasiness prevails among the Manufacturers in General, and all that have any Connection with them; that several Petitions were preparing to be presented to the Parliament, as soon as it met, to represent Grievances and obtain a Repeal of the Acts that have occasioned them; particularly the Stamp-Act, which was becoming as odious in England, as in America: That great Numbers, warmly interested themselves against it, both by speaking and writing: That the Opposition made to it in America, was in General highly approved in England, and it was the current Report and Opinion in London, that the Act would be immediately Repealed or Suspended, as soon as the Parliament met: That General Amherst was often consulted, and always gave Advice and acted as a true Friend to the Colonies, contrary to the Opinion that had been conceived of him by many People in America. That there were various Opinions among the great Men, concerning the Sentiments, that the Ministry and Parliament would have of our determined Opposition to the Stamp-Act, and what would be their Proceedings thereupon. Some, who had been so intoxicated with Power, as to think themselves intitled to an implicit Obedience, whatever Contradiction might appear between their Actions, and the Design of their Appointment, received the News of our Proceedings with high Resentment and Rage, and seemed disposed to enforce the Act, whatever Absurdities it might lead them to, or however ruinous the Consequences to Great Britain, as well as the Colonies; but the Nation in General thought more reasonably: And as the Act so plainly appeared, to be unconstitutional and destructive in its Nature, both to Great Britain and her Colonies, it was tho't that those Persons who had been most Active in preventing its Execution, and thereby the Mischiefs it would have occasioned, will at Home be considered as the greatest Friends to the English Government and Nation; and that those who have been most officious in promoting its Operation, will be considered in a contrary Light, and as being more attentive to preserve the Favour of Men in Power, than the Rights and Privileges of their Country.

We hear Capt. Chambers, brought over 8 Packages of Stamped Papers, &c. which were lodged in the City Hall. As the Noise of the American Resentment to the Stamp-Act must have been known in London before this Cargo was shipped, it is a little surprizing that any Captain should be so Hardy as to take them on board.

Feb. 3. On Thursday last Capt. Macky arrived here from Barbados in 22 Days: He says 2 Vessels lately arrived there from the Continent without Stamped Papers, and were admitted to an Entry; but that a Man of War was dispatched to Antigua to the Admiral, to know his Sentiments of the Matter.

The same Morning arrived Capt. Lindsey, from St. Eustatia, in 22 Days, but last from South Carolina in 8: He says there has been much Disturbance in Georgia about the cursed Stamp-Act, and 150 Sail of Vessels lay ready loaded at Charles-Town, when he came away, and that not One then could obtain a Clearance for Departure.

Last Night arrived here from Amsterdam, but last from Falmouth, in 6 Weeks, the Brig Bristol Packet, Capt. Brigstock; but came away in such a Hurry, he left all his English Papers behind: By this we also learn, that great Indulgences were intended to be granted America; that an Account of all the American Proceedings were arrived there by Captain Boulderson, in the Earl of Halifax Packet, who got into Falmouth the 10th of Decemb.

PHILADELPHIA, February 6. Thursday last arrived here Capt. Ashmead, from Cork, but last from Cove, which Place he left the 12th of December, by him we learn, that the Ministry in England held Councils twice every Week, on the Affairs of this Continent: The People of Ireland are highly pleased at the Opposition the Stamp-Act meets with in America; their general Toasts are Destruction to the American Stamp-Act: The noble Spirit of the Americans, a Continuation of that Spirit, and many other such like Healths. In Ireland it was generally thought that the Stamp Act would be repealed or suspended at the Meeting of the Parliament.

Extract of a Letter from Northampton County, in this Province, January 31.

"The Magistrates of this County, taking into Consideration the repeated Complaints of the Inhabitants, for want of a due Distribution of Justice, by shutting up the Courts of Law, have Resolved, from the extreme Necessity of the Case, to open the Courts and proceed to Business as usual: By their Orders all the Law-Offices are opened accordingly."

By an Abstract of a Letter (which we may depend upon) from Halifax, we learn that Lord Colville does not molest any Vessels that arrive there without Stamp Clearances, &c. But allows them to pass and repass as usual, and likewise that the Stamp Distributor there, has Orders (tis supposed from home) not to prosecute for Breach of the Stamp-Law.

Extract of a Letter from St. Kitts, Dec. 23, 1765.

"Two Vessels, said to be from New-York, for Antigua, appeared off St. John's Harbour, but they would not go in on Account of the Stamps taking Place there, but proceeded farther, the People made heavy Complaints, and not a Man in the Island would keep the Stamp Officer Company (tho' before he was universally beloved) that he resigned his Office, since which several Vessels have been Cleared without Stamps, all Offices go on without them, and tis thought the Rest of the Islands will follow their Example."

A N N A P O L I S, February 20.

We hear a Vessel is arrived in Virginia after a short Passage from England, which has brought Letters of the 19th of December, informing, "That there was little or no Doubt in England, but that the Stamp Act would be suspended; except another Gale should rise up, the former being as much despised there, as he was in America."

By a Gentleman very lately arrived in this Province, from England and Scotland, we are told, that "PERSEVERANCE TO THE SONS OF LIBERTY IN AMERICA" was a very common Toast in both Places.

The General Assembly of this Province, which stood Prorogued to the Third of March, is further Prorogued to Monday the Fifth of May next.

In our last GAZETTE, [N^o. 1067, Jan. 30.] among the Titles of the Laws, passed last Session, accidentally was omitted, "A Supplementary Act to the Act entitled, An Act relating to the Standard of English Weights and Measures."

Sunday Evening last, THOMAS JOHNSON, Esq; one of the Representatives for this County, was Married by the Rev. Mr. READ, to Miss ANNE JENNINGS; (Daughter of the late Mr. Justice JENNINGS) an amiable young Gentlewoman, possess'd of every Qualification to render the Connubial State happy.
