

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the latest Advices foreign and domestic.

THURSDAY, May 7, 1761.

M A D R I D, January 15.

On the 8th Instant the King signed an Order for fitting out fifty Ships of War and Frigates, ready to put to Sea by the 4th of March. This Order, and the Convention signed by our Court and those of London and Turin, occasion much Speculation. Mr. Wall and M. de Squilace, the two Secretaries of State, are ordered to fix their Residence at Madrid. Some new Regulations are made for excluding all foreign Nations from the South-America Trade.

Naples, Jan. 20. Orders are issued from the War-Office for raising 4000 Recruits, for completing all our Regiments.

Paris, Feb. 6. They are actually coining at our Mint thirty Millions of Pistres, which Spain has sent hither for the Support of the present War. Besides the powerful Armies we shall have this Year in Germany, our remaining Naval Force may possibly put to Sea: We have still thirty Ships of the Line in our Ports, and they talk at Court of sending them in the Spring.

Paris, Feb. 13. The King has created Lieutenant-General of his Forces, the Chevalier de Levy, who commanded last Year in Canada, under the Marquis de Vaudreuil, and was also promoted several other Officers who behaved well in that Country.

From the Head-Quarters of Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, Feb. 9. The French attacked both Ends of our Line the 6th and 27th of January last; Prince Xavier made his Attack upon the Prussian Quarter at Sondershausen on our Left, and carried off Part of Wunfch's Battalion; but General Muelner coming up with four Battalions and fifteen Squadrons, found the Enemy upon the Retreat, and pursued them beyond Langensaltze, seized one of their Magazines at Daifnitz, and took Prisoners two Officers and thirty Men who were posted there.

M. de St. Victor attacked our Post at Stadburgen, where part of a Battalion of the British Legion was surprized, and he lost 130 Men. The Commandant who preferred Death to the Disgrace of being surprized, was killed in his Bed-chamber. As we have but little Cavalry upon the Dymel, M. de St. Victor's Corps retreated without being pursued, especially as General Bock who commanded at Ruden, was at that Time attacked by M. de Meanpeon, who was also surprized.

It is computed that the French employed in that Expedition at least 30,000 Men in this bad Season, while our Army enjoyed a perfect Repose. It seems as if Marshal Broglio had a Mind to cloise the Campaign with that fatiguing Expedition.

Our Army is on the Point of entering again into Hesse, and we shall do our utmost, with the Assistance of Heaven, to relieve that unhappy Country.

Naples, Jan. 20. The 8th Instant, at Night, Mount Vesuvius began to throw up in the Air, with uncommon Violence, Trees, Stones, and bituminous Matter. In the Evening of the 9th this Eruption ceased. On the 12th a very terrible Noise proceeded from the Mountain, and soon after it was discovered, that the whole Top was fallen in: at present it sends out neither Lava, Fire, nor Smoke; and instead of a Volcano, one would take it for a cultivated Hill. The Owners of the Lands on it are labouring there with the same Unconcern as if there never had been any Eruption; yet the Damage caused by the last amounts to a Million of Ducats. The Proprietors of the Lands on it propose to raise a Fund to indemnify such as shall hereafter suffer by Eruptions. They reckon that the cultivated Lands amount to 200,000 square Toises; and they compute that twenty Sows yearly for each Toise will be sufficient. This Matter is at present before the Ministry.

L O N D O N, February 14.

Twenty-seven Ships have arrived in the Ports of Scotland, from Virginia and Maryland, in the last three Months. What is remarkable, the same Number of Ships, from Virginia and Maryland, bound to the Port of London, in the same Space of Time, have been taken by the Enemy.

We hear that his Majesty will be enthron'd at Windsor, on St. George's Day, in the Stall of his Grandfather; and that Prince William will be installed a Knight of the Garter at the same Time.

Orders are given for buying up 2000 Horses, to remount the Cavalry in the allied Army in Germany.

We hear that twenty new Highland Companies, of 100 Men each, are raising in Scotland.

The Hon. Commodore Keppel is to command the Expedition now concerted, and is to hoist his Broad Pendant on board his Majesty's Ship Valiant, now getting ready at Portsmouth for that Purpose; and Adam Duncan, Esq; is appointed the Commodore's Captain.

'Tis now assured, that as the War is like to continue, an Augmentation of the Three Regiments of Foot Guards will be made with 2000 Men each, besides 900 additional Marines; with several marching Regiments, for our better Security against the French, &c.

The last Letters from Madrid say, that the King of Spain had ordered his Land Forces to be augmented with 20000 Men; and the Spanish Navy to be complete, and ready to put to Sea in the Month of April next.

Some Vessels will shortly sail for the Island of Jamaica, with warlike Stores, Recruits, and a Draught of Men from some Marching Regiments.

The Collections made on the Fast Day at the Rev. Mr. Whitefield's Tabernacle, and the Chapel in Tottenham-Court, for the Sufferers by the late terrible Fire in Boston in New-England, and the plunder'd Protestants in the New-Marche of Brandenburg, &c. amounted to upwards of Five Hundred and Fifty Pounds.

Feb. 17. Last Sunday arrived in the Downs his Majesty's Ship Arethusa, Capt. Vane, and has taken and brought in with him a French Cutter Privateer of Calais, having eight Carriage Guns and 45 Men.

The Niger Frigate, Capt. Fitzherbert, has brought into Plymouth, the Count de Artois Privateer, of Dunkirk, of 16 Guns, and 110 Men.

Feb. 18. An Express which arrived last Monday by a Scheveling Fishing Vessel, has brought Advice of the Death of Clement Augustus of Bavaria, Uncle to the Elector of Bavaria, born August 16, 1700, Bishop of Munster and Paderborn 1719, Elector and Archbishop of Cologne Nov. 12, 1723, Bishop of Hildesheim Feb. 3, 1724, Bishop of Osnabrug Nov. 4, 1728, and Grand Master of the Teutonic Order 1732.

The Bishoprick of Osnabrug is alternately held by Roman Catholics and Protestants, and one of the Royal Family of England will now succeed to it.

The Betsey, Cain, from North-Carolina, last from Virginia, to London, is taken and carried into St. Maloes.

Feb. 20. According to a moderate Calculation, the late Elector of Cologne was able to maintain and pay, as Elector 6000 Troops, as Bishop of Munster 3000, as Bishop of Paderborn 3000, and as Bishop of Osnabrug 2500.

Feb. 21. The Guerrier Privateer took on the 16th of January, a Brig, with Pitch and Skins from New-York, bound to London.

Advice is said to be received from Germany, that a Body of 8000 Austrian Troops was so surrounded, that they must certainly be cut off, or surrender themselves Prisoners.

The Government has contracted for 20,000 Tons more of Shipping for the Transport Service.

The Report that has been propagated for several Days past, of a Peace being on the Carpet, is without Foundation.

Letters Yesterday by the Groyne Mail brought an Account, that two French East-India Ships (one from China) were arrived there in 110 Days from the Isle of Bourbon. They were several Days on the Coast, had buried many of their People, and the rest were so sickly, that an English Frigate might have taken them both.

Feb. 23. It is said there is Advice that the King of Prussia has concluded a Treaty of Peace with the King of Sweden.

Letters from Saxony represent the Prussian Army as upon a very formidable Footing, and say, that since the Commencement of the War they have not seen such prodigious Magazines as are now forming there.

Letters from Hamburg advise, that five Battalions and five Squadrons of Mecklenburg Troops are entered into the Service of Great-Britain.

Last Friday seventy Transports were taken up for the Use of the Government.

We hear that Orders are given for a Draught of 500 Men to be made out of the three Regiments of Foot-Guards, and that they may be ready to march at a short Notice, in order to embark for Germany.

On Friday was tried in the Court of Common Pleas in Westminster-Hall, by a Special Jury, a very extraordinary Cause, in which a Lady was Defendant, on an Action to recover the Penalty of 20 l. for having refused, and wilfully neglected to be at Church one whole Month, according to an Act of Queen Elizabeth, whereby even the Papists, if called upon, must prove they have been at some Church or Chapel tolerated by Law within one Month, or they are liable, if above the Age of Sixteen, to pay the Penalty. The Jury found for the Defendant, as there was Evidence to prove that she was in a bad State of Health.

Lady Clinton, Maid of Honour to the Queens of King Charles II. and James II. of England, died lately at Boulogne in France, aged 203.

February 25. A Person of great Distinction is expected from the Court of Russia, in order to propose some Measures for bringing about a good Understanding between that Court and the King of Prussia.

The Halifax Packet-Boat, Capt. Balderson, which arrived at Dartmouth with the Mail from New-York, in her Passage fell in with four French Privateers, but got clear from them after some Hours Chace. The next Day she fell in with two more, one of which ordered her to bring to, and fired several Times at her; but being only within random Shot, she received no Damage; and tho' they chased her several Hours, yet she happily escaped them. Soon after she met with two more Ships, which proved to be English Frigates; and having acquainted the Captains with what had happened, they immediately went in Pursuit of the Privateers.

Extract of a Letter from Portsmouth, Feb. 17.

"Our Expeditions are carried on with the utmost Vigour; and every Thing for putting them in Execution, will be ready very speedily."

Bath, Feb. 6. Last Thursday Evening died, aged Eighty-eight, at his House in St. John's Court in this City, Richard Nash, Esq; a Gentleman in the Course of his Life universally known, and deservedly respected.

We are credibly assured, that the Astronomers throughout all Europe are preparing to exert their utmost Skill, in observing the Transit of Venus over the Sun, the 6th of next June; and that on Account of the Uncertainty of the Weather, of the Sun's being under the Horizon, whereby the Beginning or End of the Transit may not be visible, several ingenious Methods have been proposed to secure the Advantages of this Phenomenon, as the like has never been properly observed, and will not happen again for many Years. Mr. Dunn has proposed the ascertaining the Approach of the Planet to such principal Spots as are on the Sun at that Time, and also the Beginning and End from the Mean of a Number of Observations whilst the Planet is on the Sun's Disk. The Longitude of the Place of Observation to be inferred from the Mean of a sufficient Number of Emissions and Occultations of Jupiter's Satellites.

Whitehall, February 24. This Day an Express arrived at the Earl of Holderness's Office, with Letters of the 21st Instant, from the Hon. Major-General Yorke, his Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary at the Hague, with the following Account that had been received there of the Operations of his Majesty's Army in Hesse, dated the 16th Instant from Nidenstein, the Head Quarters of his Serene Highness Prince Ferdinand of Brunsvick.

The Army being assembled on the 9th Instant, at their different Points of Rendezvous, on the Dymel, the Rhume, and in Sauerland, Prince Ferdinand went the same Day to Geismar, where Lieutenant-General Gilsac had marched with the Corps under his Orders. The next Day the Troops halted, and the Dispositions for the Motion of the Whole were communicated to the Generals.

The Army marched off on the 12th in four Columns by Way of Warbourg, Liebenau, Sielen and Driengelburg, and advanced towards Cassel on the Side of West Uffel. Each Column was preceded by a Van-Guard composed of the Piquets, which were formed into Battalions and Squadrons, for securing the Head of our Cantonnments; that under Lieutenant-General Gilsac was pushed on as far as Kalle. The Hereditary Prince marched by the Road of Stadburgen for Mengeringhausen; and Lieutenant-General Breidenbach went from Brilon to Sand: At Casselberg he took 100 Prisoners; General Sporken, with Kilmannlegge's and Wangenheim's Corps united, was advanced by the Way of Paderstadt and Heiligenstadt, as far as Dingelstadt, where he arrived on the 10th; since which Time there have been no Accounts from him.

The Army begun again its March on the 12th, in the same Order as they had done the Day before, and arrived in the Neighbourhood of Zierenberg. Lieutenant-General Gilsac marched to Deurenberg; and the Van-guards or Piquets of the four Columns being rejoined and augmented with some Cavalry, the Marquis of Granby was appointed to command that Corps, and fixed it at Ehlen, from whence he sent Detachments to the Cascade and to Weissenstein. The Hereditary Prince cantoned his Corps about Zuschen; and receiving Advice that the Garrison of Fritzlar was not prepared for an Attack, he went thither with a few Battalions, in Hopes of being able to carry that Place at once. He attacked it with great Spirit, but the Enemy defending it resolutely, and taking all Advantages their Situation afforded them, the Hereditary Prince thought it advisable to desist from the Attempt, and to wait for the Arrival of some Cannon to reduce it. Lieut. Gen. Breidenbach marched to Munchausen.

On the 13th the Army came, and cantoned in the Neighbourhood of Nidenstein. The Corps under the Marquis of Granby march'd to Kirchberg and Metz, that of Lieut. Gen. Gilsac remained in their former Position. The Hereditary Prince cantoned his Troops about Hademar, not far from Fritzlar. Lieut. Gen. Breidenbach took Possession of a Magazine of 40,000 Rations at Rosenthal, and advanced towards Marburg. The Attempt he made upon that Town did not succeed, the Enemy being upon their Guard. He himself was even killed in the Attack; and the Loss of that excellent General is much lamented. General d'Okeim has been appointed to that Command.

On the 14th the Army halted, and the Hereditary Prince detached Major General Zaltrow to Feltzberg, and order'd a Part of the Cavalry to pass the Eder. An Attempt was made to intimidate the Garrison of Fritzlar, by firing some Cannon Shot, but to no Purpose. In the mean while, my Lord Granby made some Demonstrations towards Gudersberg, the Garrison of which, consisting of 200 Men, retired into the old Castle there; and in the Village, when enter'd, were found some Provisions and Forage.

Yesterday Morning some Bombs having been thrown into the Town of Fritzlar, Colonel De Narbonne offered to capitulate, if the most honourable Terms were allowed him. Answer was returned him, that such should be granted him, in Consideration of his brave Defence, upon Condition however, that the Garrison should not serve during the present Campaign; and that the Battalions of Waldeck and Wildungen should be included in the Capitulation. The Commandant having refused to subscribe to that Condition, a brisk Cannonade was begun again, and continued for Half an Hour, after which the Terms were accepted.

Yesterday Afternoon the Enemy attacked the Post of Gentsungen near Feltzberg, but were repulsed with the Loss of two Officers and twenty Soldiers. A Magazine was found at Fritzlar; but the Strength of the Garrison is not at present ascertained.

We have further Accounts, that Guderberg had surrendered to the Marquis of Granby. And, by Advice just received from General Sporcken, dated the 15th Instant, at Thomaspurck, upon the Unfruit, between Mulhausen and Eissenach, we likewise learn, that he, in Conjunction with the Prussians, had attacked the Saxons in those Parts, and that, besides cutting great Numbers of them to Pieces, he had taken five Saxon Battalions Prisoners of War.

March 5. All the Artillery and Baggage of the five Saxon Battalions, made Prisoners by General Sporcken, likewise fell into his Hands.

March 6. The Empress Queen of Hungary has disposed of the Regiment of Foot that was vacant by the Death of Count Henry Joseph Daun, lately deceased, in Favour of Lieutenant-General O Kelly, an Irish Gentleman.

In Consequence of the Quadruple Alliance, said to be lately concluded, a Squadron of Men of War, consisting of 16 Sail, will speedily be ordered to the Mediterranean.

All the intended Men of War and Transports, are ordered to rendezvous next Week.

The Officers that are to go on the intended Expedition, it is said, are to take Leave of his Majesty next Week, and then proceed to Portsmouth directly, where every Thing is preparing with the greatest Diligence.

The Expedition Fleet are ordered to take in eight Months Wine, and Provisions of all Sorts.—The following is a List of the Ships that compose it, viz. Valiant, Commodore Kippel, of 74 Guns; Sandwich 90, Torbay 74, Modeste 74, Superbe 74, Temeraire 74, Dragon 64, Swiftsure 70, Hampton-Court 70, Essex 64, Achilles 60, Prince of Orange 60, Launceston 40, and Lynn of 40 Guns. Frigates and Fireships, Southampton, Alderney, Infernal, Vesuvius, Aetna, Fernal, Firedrake, Laurel, and Garland.

At Spithead, Admiral Geary, with 31 Sail of Men of War.

Last Tuesday the Swallow Sloop of War arrived at Plymouth from a Cruise, and brought in a Snow Privateer, belonging to Bayonne, called the Sultan, of 12 Guns, and 70 Men.

Last Monday the Anna Maria, of and for London, from Virginia, arrived at Plymouth. She was taken by the French, and retaken by the Melampe Frigate.

We hear that Orders are issued from the Admiralty, that a proper Force be stationed to guard the North Seas from the Enemy's Privateers, to cruise from the Highland Isles, to at least 100 Leagues West of Tory, to continue from the Opening of Spring to the Approach of Winter.

The Parnassus, Gilman, from Africa to America, was taken by two French East-Indiamen, homeward bound, and sent for Martinico.

Eight Ships are taken up by the Government, at Portsmouth, to go to Fyall, to take in Wines there for the Use of the Expedition Fleet, bound to the West-Indies.

Monuments are going to be erected in Westminster-Abbey for the late Lord Howe, General Wolfe, and Admiral Vernon.

We hear that the 17th Day of March is fix'd for the dissolving the present Parliament.

Extract of a private Letter from Dublin, Feb. 3.

On Tuesday last an Hon. Gentleman eloped with an Actress belonging to Crow-Street Theatre: Diligent Search was made after them, but to no Effect, as they went in a Wherry to the Isle of Men. Several Missengers were sent after them.

The young Gentleman belonging to the College, who murdered the Man at Temple-Bar a few Days ago, are to be tried the 16th Instant. Thirty Thousand Pounds Bail was offered for them, but refused.

Admiralty-Office, Feb. 28. Capt. Johnstone, of his Majesty's Sloop the Hornet, gives an Account, by Letter dated at Lisbon the 29th of January, that he had taken and carried into that Port, a French Privateer, called the Society of St. Maloes, of 6 Guns and 60 Men.

Kinsale, January 27. Arrived the Volunteer of Whitby, Burthen 400 Tons, with Tobacco from Maryland, bound to London; she was taken by a French Privateer, and retaken by one of his Majesty's Ships of War.

Glasgow, Feb. 5. The Polly of Glasgow, Capt. Gemmel, bound to Virginia, on the 14th of November last, in Lat. 39: 10, and Long. 41: 38 W. was taken by the Bourbon Privateer of 18 Guns six Pounders, with 200 Men, commanded by Capt. Pierre Maiguille, who after taking out Part of the Cargo, ransomed her for 11000. The Privateer had cruised between the Latitudes of 39 and 42, about a Month, and had taken four Ships bound from Virginia for London, and gave out that she was to continue on that Station six Weeks longer. The Polly's Ransomers are now at Bayonne.

Edinburgh, Feb. 18. We are inform'd that the following noble Lords are Candidates to represent the Peerage of Scotland, next Election, Duke of Argyll, Marquis of Tweedale, Earls of Rothes, Morton, Eglington, Murray, Home, Abercorn, Loudoun, Breadalbine, Dunmore, March, Marchmont, Bute, Viscount of Stormont, and Lord Cathcart.

Lately died George Forbes, Farmer, in the Parish of Maryculter, Aberdeen, in the 106th Year of his Age.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.

From the English Papers we find the following French Vessels of War taken by his Majesty's Ships, viz. The Warwick, of 34 Guns, but pierced for 60, the same as when she belonged to his late Majesty, taken by Captain Hood, after a desperate Engagement; who also took a Bayonne Privateer of 14 Guns.

The Felice, a French Frigate, of 32 Guns, destroyed by the Richmond Frigate, Captain Eipbinstone, after an obstinate Action as it supposed to have happened this War.—Two Privateers belonging to Dunkirk, one of 18, the other of 6 Guns, taken by the Sebay, Amazon and Vengeance Men of War.—The Dutchess of Gramont Privateer, of St. Maloes, of 12 Guns (formerly his Majesty's Sloop Hawke) taken by the Juno Man of War.—A Privateer, of 18 Guns, taken by the Quebec.—The Mazarine Privateer, of Bristol, of 12 Guns, taken by the Niger.—A Bayonne Privateer, of 10 Guns, taken by the Stag.—And the Count de Gramont, of Bayonne, of 20 Guns; another of 10; and a third, of smaller Force; all taken by the Aquillon.

Captain Montgomery, from Maryland to London, is taken, and sent to Vigo; and the Tiger, from Bristol to Virginia, Causey, is also taken, and sent to the same Place. Captain Craig, from Virginia to Glasgow, is taken and carried into Bayonne; as is Captain Reid, from London to Virginia.

His Majesty's Ships Falkland, Sutherland, Repulse, Forway, and Lizard, are arrived at New-York from Halifax.

The Frigate (about 2000 Men) it is said, were to sail from New-York on Wednesday last, but were detained, was not known.

Yesterday the Fanny, Captain Lane, arrived here from London, which she left the 13th of March, and Spithead the 15th; when the Expedition Fleet was not sailed.

The Ship Friendship, Captain Falconer, from this Port for London, is taken and carried to Bayonne.

Captain Basset, from Antigua, on his Passage took a French Schooner from the Mississippi to Martinico, laden with Pitch, Tar, &c. and sent her to Bermuda.

ANNAPOLIS, May 7.

Friday last came to Town, from London, Capt. Robert Bryce, of this Place, who came Passenger in a Ship to Philadelphia. He informs us, that the Mary, Capt. Day, from this Province, was safe arrived in London; but that the Buchanan, Capt. Slator, from hence, was taken and carried into Bayonne.

Capt. Bryce likewise informs us, that the Fleet for Maryland and Virginia was to sail about the 17th of April, under Convoy of a 50 and a 20 Gun Ship.

Last Week Died, in Queen-Anne's County, after a tedious Indisposition, much regretted by all who had the Pleasure of her Acquaintance, Miss SALLY HOPPER, Eldest Daughter of Colonel WILLIAM HOPPER: A well accomplish'd, and most amiable young Lady.

Yesterday Afternoon his Excellency the Governor Prorogued the General Assembly of this Province to the First Monday in August next. No Law passed at this Meeting.

THURSDAY, May 14, 1761.

WHITEHALL, March 3.
THIS Day an Express arrived at the Earl of Holderness's Office, with Letters of the 10th of February, from the Hon. Major-General Burke, his Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary at the Hague, with the following Account of the Progress of his Majesty's Army in Hesse.

Since Ferdinand's Head-Quarters at Hausen, near Ober-Aula, February 21, 1761.

THE Commandant of Fritzlar having accepted the Conditions offered him, except those concerning the Garrisons of Waldeck and Wildungen, which were no longer insisted on, upon his declaring, that the Troops in those Places were not under his Command, he marched out of the Town the Evening with his Corps, consisting of seven Regiments drawn from the Irish Battalions, and 965 Men of the Royal Grenadiers, besides 105 wounded or sick, agreeable to the Capitulation. My Lord Granby sent Word the next Day to the Commandant of the Castle of Gudensburg, that he was ready to grant the same Conditions to him as M. de Narbonne had obtained, with which Proposal the Commandant very readily accepted, as Provisions, and particularly Water, began to fail them.

The Army renewed their March on the 17th, and advanced as far as Ober-Vorschutz. The Vanguard took Possession of the Pass of Feltberg: Major-General Zastrow of that at Nieder-Mellech. The Hereditary Prince posted himself in the Neighbourhood of Falckenberg, and was before-hand with the Enemy in taking Possession of the Post of Hombourg with a Party of his Hussars. The Reigning Count of Schaumbourg-Lippe took the Command of a great Body of the Army which remained in the Neighbourhood of Cassel, and was joined by the Corps under General Gillfac.

The same Day our Troops entered Melsungen, which Marshal Broglie left the preceding Evening, in order to repair to Hirschfeld. The Enemy had only Time to destroy a part of the Magazine there, and there was found remaining a Quantity of Meal and Forage. Our Troops seized another considerable Magazine at Ober-Morschen. A Courier, who was dispatched by Messrs. de Stainville and de Solms, expecting to find the Marshal at Melsungen, was taken by our Hussars; and we learnt from the Letters he carried, the Defeat of the Saxon Troops by M. de Sporcken near Langensaltze.

The Army passed the Eder on the 11th at Felsberg, and at Nieder-Mellerich, and was cantoned between the Assie and the Fulda, in the Neighbourhood of Hombourg. The Hereditary Prince was a Day's March before them towards Hirschfeld. My Lord Granby marched to Prittendorff, by the Way of Ziegenhayn.

The Enemy having re-assembled a Body of Troops near Ober-Weimar, and Nieder-Weimar, not far from Marbourg, Lieut. Gen. Oheim determined at first to attack them, but altered his Intention, on receiving an account of the March of a Body of the Enemy, under the Command of the Chevalier de Maupeou, who had come from Siegen, with an Appearance of making some Attempt by Padberg and Berleberg, upon Franckenberg.

On the 16th M. d'Oheim left Wetteren to go to Franckenberg, and he found the Enemy posted near Rodenau, in order to defend the Passage of the Eder which was made difficult by the marshy Ground there. The Bridge of Franckenberg being broken by the swell of the Water, M. d'Oheim was obliged to stop to repair it. The Enemy took Advantage of these Obstacles to withdraw themselves in the Night towards Hallenberg, after having destroyed the Bridge of Rodenau: M. d'Oheim was no sooner informed of that Retreat, than he ordered a Part of his Cavalry to ford the River, and to occupy the Heights on the left Bank of the Eder; and sent Parties to Sachsenberg and Hallenberg, to get Intelligence of the Enemy. The Repair of the Bridge of Franckenberg was finished. M. d'Oheim having learnt the 17th, that M. de Maupeou was with his Corps at Sachsenberg, after having sufficiently provided for the Security of the Post of Franckenberg, and of the heavy Artillery, put himself in Motion on the 18th, early in the Morning, to march towards the Enemy, whose advanced Guard he met with between Sachsenberg and Neuenkirchen. It was that Instant attacked and routed; M. de Maupeou, Lieutenant-General, who was there in Person, was taken, with a Lieut. Colonel, 5 Officers, and 50 Soldiers. The Enemy having fell back towards Hallenberg, M. d'Oheim returned to Franckenberg to give his Troops some rest there, and observe the Motions the Enemy might make on the Side of Marbourg, towards which several of their Regiments had filed off. Major Scheiter attacked, the same Day, a Detachment of the Enemy near Padberg, dispersed it, and took 140 Prisoners, amongst whom there were four Officers.

The Army arrived the 19th in the Neighbourhood of Sohwartzenborn. The Hereditary Prince's Corps posted itself at Ober-Giese, and pushed Detachments on to Gittersdorff. My Lord Granby went to Neuenkirchen; the Enemy's Detachments at Ober and Neider Grentzbach falling back upon Zeigenhayn. The Patroles of the Hereditary Prince reported in the Night between the 19th and 20th, that they saw a Fire at Hirschfeld, which gave Reason to suppose the Enemy had abandoned that Place, and had set Fire to the Magazine. This Suspicion was confirmed the next Morning, and our Troops entered Hirschfeld, where there had been 15 French Battalions, which marched away in the Night towards Fulda. Great Part of the Magazine was saved, which had consisted of Eighty Thousand Sacks of Meal, Fifty Thousand Sacks of Oats, and a Million of Rations of Hay.

This Day the Army marched to Hausen, the Hereditary Prince to his Quarters at Neider-Aula.

On the 19th, News came from M. de Sporcken (by Capt. de Borch, his Aid de Camp) whom he had dispatched the Day after the Affair of Langensaltze, with the Account of his Motion since the 8th of this Month, the Substance whereof follows:

M. de Sporcken, having divided the Corps under him into two Columns, one of which was commanded by Count Keilmansegg, and the other by Lieutenant General Wangenheim, put Major General de Luckner at the Head of a strong advanced Guard, who marched the 9th to Heiligenstadt.

The first Column arrived at Buren, and the second at Stadthorbes. The Troops halted the 10th. M. de Luckner marched the next Day to Kulfstedt, Count Keilmansegg to Helmstorff, and M. de Wangenheim to Beberstedt.

M. de Sporcken went to reconnoitre the Enemy, several of whose Regiments of Infantry had passed the Werra, at Eschwege. There were Five Thousand French in the City of Muhlhausen: That of Langensaltze, and the Villages in its Neighbourhood, were occupied by Saxons. M. Sporcken found on the Heights of Dorne four Battalions of Grenadiers of France, ranged in Order of Battle, and the Infantry posted in the Wood towards

Eschwege, to protect the Communication of the Werra with Muhlhausen and Langensaltze. M. de Luckner had Orders to attack them the next Day in the Morning with his Corps, which was to be sustained by two Battalions and six Squadrons. The same Day M. de Belsunce appeared before Duderstadt, with 3000 Men, and some Cannon of the Garrison of Gottingen; he summoned Lieutenant-Colonel Rehbom, who commanded in that Town, three Times; and, upon the negative Answers received from him, he caused the Gates to be battered for three Hours; but his Attempts were fruitless, and he returned the same Night.

M. de Luckner attacked, the 12th, the French and Swiss Grenadiers, who had passed the Night under Arms, in the Wood of Dorne, over against his advanced Posts at Anerode and Buckewriede. He pushed them as far as the Heights of Egerieden, where they gained a thick Wood, which Count de Solms had fortified with Trees. They cannonaded each other. The Enemy received Reinforcements from the Saxons on the Werra, and those of the Saxons.

The Night coming on, M. de Sporcken could not assemble his Men, so as to undertake any Thing against the Enemy; he contented himself with making some Changes in the Disposition of his Quarters, and so push the Posts farther on. The Skirmishes of this Day cost him forty Men killed and wounded. The Loss of the Enemy was more considerable, and four Officers and fifty of their Men were taken.

M. de Sporcken put his Troops in Order of Battle the 13th, at seven o'Clock in the Morning, upon the Height called Eisberg; but having found the Enemy considerably reinforced; that they had occupied all the Woods where the Horse could not act; and that the Troops of his Prussian Majesty were at the Distance of three Marches, he resolved to pass the Unstrut at Silberhausen and Hortsimar, to draw near them by forced Marches.

He informed M. de Sibourg of his Intentions, and the Motion was executed in Presence of the Enemy, without the least Loss. The Troops were cantoned between Kayserthager and Marolderode.

The Corps of Prussians advanced the 14th to the Height of Langensaltze, which was occupied by 3000 Saxons. M. de Sporcken occupied the Village on the left Side of the River Unstrut, with the Troops of his first Line, and drew those of his second Line as near it as possible.

He agreed with M. de Sibourg, that the Prussian Troops should pass the Unstrut at Merxleben, whilst he passed it at Thomastruck, and M. de Luckner at Bolstedt. In the Night the Bridges, which the Enemy had broken, were repaired.

On the 15th, at seven in the Morning, all the Troops came to the River Side in Order to pass it, but the Thaw had increased the Waters to such a Degree in twice 24 Hours, that there was an Inundation from Muhlhausen almost to Langensaltze.

The Prussian Cavalry got through the Passage of Merckleben, while their Cannon was battering the Town of Langensaltze. Eight Squadrons of M. de Sporcken's first Line passed at Thomastruck, with a Brigade of Chasseurs, and a Squadron of Luckner's, whose whole Corps could not pass, the Waters continuing out all the Day. In the mean time the Prussian Cavalry fell upon the Enemy, who were going out of Langensaltze, and M. de Sporcken's Corps did so likewise upon the Troops that were coming down the Hills to their Assistance.

M. de Sporcken computes the Enemy's Loss that Day at 5000 Men, at the same Time that his own scarcely exceeds 100. Lieutenant-General Hodenberg was wounded, and taken Prisoner.

The Prussians took three Battalions, and seven Pieces of Cannon; and M. de Sporcken's Troops took two Battalions and six Pieces of Cannon.

During the Action, the Infantry of M. de Sporcken's first Line passed the Unstrut at Thomastruck; but the Troops being greatly fatigued, M. de Sibourg cantoned his Troops at Langensaltze, and General Sporcken's re-entered his former Quarters, on the Left of the Unstrut, except M. de Luckner's Body, which remained at Mulverstedt and Schonstedt.

On the 16th the first Line, under the Command of General Sporcken, passed the Unstrut again, at Bolstedt, and advanced cantoning as far as Gros Gultern and Oppershausen. The second Line passed passed the Unfrut at the same Place, and cantoned at Muhlhausen, where still 53 of the Enemy's Sick were found, and made Prisoners of War.

On the 17th Major-General Luckner, with his Corps, composed the Van-guard, and marched to Eisenach, which he attacked, and forced the Enemy, who was still there, under the Command of the Generals Stainville and Solms, to retire to Vacha. About forty Prisoners were taken there, and two Sixon Officers. The Army made a forced March in two Columns, and cantoned in the Neighbourhood of Streck, and Neukirchen. Luckner's Corps remained at Eisenach.

On the 18th they halted. This Day came in above 100 Swifs and Saxon Deserters.

On the 19th, Luckner's Corps, reinforced with four Squadrons of Veltheim's and Bremer, marched as far as Vacha (the Bridge of which was barricaded) attacked and forced the Enemy to abandon it about Midnight. Six of our Men were killed, and about thirty of the Enemy's wounded. General Luckner lodged the Light Troops in Vacha, and cantoned the rest of his Corps on the Right of the Werra near Vacha. The first Line marched to Ober-Eilin, and Forda, and the second to Eisenach.

On the 20th Luckner's Corps halted. The first Line of Sporken's Corps marched to Heringen and Kieselbach and the second to Vehren Brietenbach and Frauensee. The Prussian Troops marched this Day to Gotha, to observe the Army of the Circles, which was re-assembled at Arnstedt.

On the 21st Luckner's Corps marched to Manzbach, and passed the Werra at Vacha. The first Line marched to Freidenwald, Hamelshausen, and Lengers, passing the Werra at Vacha and Lengers. The second marched to Heringen and Vacha. Many Deserters came in from Stainville's Corps, which made its Retreat by Manzbach to Fulda.

LONDON, January 31.

His Prussian Majesty's Affairs are at present in excellent Order; his Army is very numerous; his Magazines properly disposed, and well replenished. He has fought Peace while he was preparing for War; and the Public will receive the most authentic Proofs of the Veracity of these Assertions from his early Operations, which may possibly decide the Fate of the Campaign almost as soon as it is begun.

Some Letters from Paris say, that they are fitting out both at Rochfort and Brest all the Ships of War and Frigates that are fit to go to Sea.

These Letters add, that it had been computed that the Number of French Ships taken by the English last Year amounted to 944; and the Number of English Ships taken by them, to 2539.

The Prince Frederick, Robinson, from Maryland for London, is taken and carried into St. Maloes.

The Triton, Hardy, from Maryland to London, is taken and carried into Bayonne.

The Duke, —, and the Hicks, Smith, both from Maryland, are arrived at Whitehaven.

The Nancy and Molly, Kingsbay, from Maryland to London, is taken and carried into St. Maloes.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, January 23.

"The Ships that lately got out of the Villaine, are happily arrived at Brest.

"The Courageux, of 74 Guns, is sailed from that Port with several Frigates, having on board 500 Royal Grenadiers; but we know not the Destination of this small Squadron.

February 5. His Majesty's Ship the Loo, commanded by Captain Penny, in a late Cruise to the Westward, retook, on the 23d of November, the Ruby Brigantine, of Whitby, from Maryland bound to London, which had been taken the Day before by a Bayonne Privateer.

February 14. We may form a Judgment of the immense Trade the Dutch have acquired during the present War, from the following List of the Fleet which sailed from the Texel the 26th ult. which consisted of 72 Sail for France, 20 for Lisbon, 22 for Cadiz, 30 for the Straights, 10 for England, 8 for Cococoa, 17 for Eustatia, 17 for Surinam, and 10 for East-India, all under Convoy of Men of War.

Feb. 17. The Right Hon. Mr. Secretary Pitt is so much indisposed, that he could not attend the House of Commons Yesterday; therefore some Business of Consequence that was expected to have come on, was postponed.

It is said that the Number of Prisoners in the different Goals in England, at the least Computation, amounted to near 60,000.

Feb. 21. The Master of a Vessel who was taken and carried into Bayonne, is just come Home in a Cartel Ship from thence, and says, that there are belonging to that Port and St. Juan de Luz, sixty Sail of Privateers, and when he came away, there were near forty of them at Sea, some of which cruise to the Westward of the Western-Islands: He further says, that several Spaniards and Portuguese were come there to purchase English Vessels, but that an Order was come from Court not to sell any of them but to their own People.

The Assistance Man of War of 50 Guns, and the Aldborough of 20, are appointed Convoy to the Trade bound to Virginia and Maryland. The said Men of War are to bring the Trade home.

The Nettleton, Reid, from Virginia to London, is taken by the Duc de Gramont Privateer of Bayonne.

Admiralty-Office, Jan. 30. Captain Elphinstone, Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Richmond, of 32 Guns, and 220 Men, being on a Cruise upon the Coast of Flanders, received Intelligence the 23d Inst. of a French Frigate which had the Day before taken and ransomed the Dorothy and Esther, William Benson, Master. Captain Elphinstone immediately went in Quest of her, and fell in with her about Eleven o'Clock, the same Night. She bore down upon the Richmond for a short Time after being in Sight, but then suddenly hauling her Wind, endeavoured to get away. Captain Elphinstone pursued, and came up with her about Half past Ten o'Clock the next Morning, when they began to engage, standing towards the Land; and at Half past Twelve, both Ships run ashore along Side of each other, still continuing the Engagement for a short Time, when the Enemy fled from their Quarters. The Richmond soon afterwards got on Float, and being drove by the Tide a little to Leeward, the Enemy quitted their Ship, and escaped, but the Ship is intirely destroyed. The French Frigate was called the Felicite, and carried 32 Guns, was bound to Martinico, with a Cargo valued at 30,000 l. Sterling. Her Consort the Harmonie, another French Frigate, of the same Force and Value, was lost coming out of Dunkirk. Captain Donell, Commander of the Felicite, was killed in the Engagement, and near 100 others of the Enemy were killed or wounded. The Richmond had only 3 Men killed and 13 wounded.

March 3. The last Letters from Spain speak positively, that a Treaty between the Courts of London, Madrid, and Turin, is actually concluded; and that, by Virtue of it, his Catholic Majesty has ordered some of his Troops to file off towards Barcelona, to embark there for Italy.

March 7. A Mail will be made up and dispatched from the Post-Office the 14th Instant, for New-York, by the Halifax Packet Boat, Captain Boulderson.

NEW-YORK, April 29.

Captain Finglass, from London, sailed from Spithead the 12th of March, in Company with Captain Ouchterlony, for this Port, Captain Hooper for Boston, and several others for Carolina and Virginia, under Convoy of his Majesty's Ship Success, Captain Hamilton, of 20 Guns, bound for South-Carolina: He parted with Captain Ouchterlony about five Weeks ago, all well on board; and last Week, to the Westward of Bermuda, he spoke with three Letter of Marque Brigs from Virginia, bound to the West-Indies.

Captain Finglass says, that the Day before he sailed from Spithead, the Admirals Hawke and Hardy arrived there from Quiberon-Bay, and brought in with them several Prizes, some of them Privateer Ships, several Lug-sail Cruizers, and a Sloop from Martinico with Sugars: That the Channel was very well cleared of French Privateers, Numbers of them having been lately taken by our Frigates: That the Fleet was still at Spithead, and the Troops in their Quarters in different Parts of England.

Thursday the 16th Instant was sent in here, by the Privateer Brig Mars, Captain M'Gillycuddy, the Snow La Fortune, Captain Chrest, taken the 16th of March, from the Grenades, bound for Marcellis, in Old France. Her Cargo consists of Sugar and Coffee, and is esteemed a valuable Prize.

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.

In a Letter from London, by Captain Lane, there is the following Paragraph:

"The Grand Expedition, which had been laid aside for some Time past, is now going forward again; the young King continues to give great Satisfaction; the War is still to be pushed on in Germany; the Parliament is to be dissolved the 19th of March; the same Unanimity continues; and as the French seem obstinate, we are resolved to see them cut, rather than give up the Advantages we have gained."

ANNAPOLIS, May 14.

Yesterday arrived here Captain Charles Courtney, in the Ship Sally of Whitehaven, in 24 Days from St. Kitts; but brings no News. There was no Talk there of any Expedition against Martinico.

We hear from Somerset, that Mr. John Adams is Elected a Representative for that County, in the room of Major Henry Waggaman, Deceased.

From St. Mary's we hear, That the Negro Man who Murder'd Mrs. Booth, her Child, and the Negro Wench, has been Tried, and Condemn'd.

"By the UPPER HOUSE of ASSEMBLY, 6th of May, 1761.

"RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That for the future no Account be allowed by this House upon the Journal of Accounts, unless the same, or a Copy thereof, with a Copy of the Probate (if any) attested to be a true Copy of such Account and Probate (if any) by some Magistrate, or by the Oath of the Party taken before some Magistrate, be laid before this House, at the same Time that such Account, or a Copy thereof, be laid before the Committee of Accounts of the Lower House of Assembly: And that all Persons may have due Notice hereof, and conduct themselves accordingly, it is hereby Ordered, That Mr. Jonas Green, Printer, make public the foregoing Resolve, by Printing the same in his Six succeeding Gazettes. Signed per Order, J. Ross, Cl. Up. Ho."

Annapolis, 12th May, 1761.

THE Subscriber hereby gives Notice to the Public, That he is determined, from the generous Encouragement he hath been honoured with by some worthy Gentlemen, who have largely subscribed and advanced their Money for that Purpose, to Print his COLLECTION of the LAWS of MARYLAND, and give immediate Orders for the Importation of Paper, Types, and all other necessary Materials, that it may be committed to the Press, and published with the utmost Expedition so extensive and important a Work will admit of.

He therefore requests the several Gentlemen who have kindly favoured him with their Assistance in taking in Subscriptions, to send their respective Lists of Subscribers, together with the Money received thereon, to Mr. Lancelot Jacques, of the City of Annapolis, Merchant, by the very first Opportunity, that the Number to be Printed, and other Circumstances relating to the Publication, may be ascertained without farther Delay.

No Subscription List can be received, which shall not be transmitted, together with the Money, to Mr. Jacques, by the 15th Day of July next; nor any more Copies than those already engaged, be Sold for less than Forty five Shillings each.

HENRY STEELE,
JOHN HENRY.

FOUR PISTOLES REWARD,

Beside what the Law allows.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living at the Head of Bush-River, in Baltimore County, a Convict Servant Lad named John Simmons, about 18 Years of Age, 5 Feet 4 Inches high, he has a florid Complexion, is pitted with the Small-Pox, has short light colour'd Hair, wears a blue Coat and Waistcoat, Buff colour'd Breeches, and a blue Surtout Coat with a Velvet Collar. He is a forward, pert, agreeable looking Lad, born in England, speaks well and fluently. He may forge a Pass, and change his Cloaths. It is probable he is gone over the Bay, as there were several Vessels going that Way from Baltimore-Town, at which Place he was on the 16th Instant. ALEXANDER STENHOUSE.

N. B. The above Servant has, I understand, cut off his Hair and wears a grey Wig, or, sometimes a red Night Cap. A. S.

THE Subscriber gives Four Pence per Bushel in ready Cash, or Bar Iron, for OYSTER SHELLS, delivered at the Baltimore Iron-Works, on Patuxco, and will find a Flat and Hands to unlade large Vessels that cannot come to the Landing. R. CROXALL.

THE Subscriber gives this Public Notice to all his good Customers, that he will be extremely obliged to them to pay off their Accounts, that he may thereby be enabled to carry on his Calling to their Satisfaction, as he hopes he has hitherto done. Those who will please to comply, will very much befriend Their most humble Servant, HENRY GASSAWAY.

Baltimore County, April 25, 1761.

ON the 24th Instant broke out of the Subscriber's Goal, Charles Cullens, who was to have been hanged the Wednesday following. His Apparel is not well known, as it chiefly consisted of Rags while in Prison. TEN PISTOLES will be paid as a Reward to any Person that will bring him to ROGER BOYCE.

IF RICHARD DOWDALL, Nephew to Major Dowdall of Chester River, Kent County, Maryland, be alive, and will apply to the Printers hereof, he may hear of something to his Advantage.

TO BE SOLD,

THE Tools of Andrew Whyte, late of Lower-Marlborough, Cabinet-Maker, and some Pieces of Cabinet Ware.

HANNAH WHYTE, Administratrix.

Any Person inclinable to take the whole Tools together, may have them very reasonably.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living on the Eastern Branch of Patowmack, a Servant Man named John Anderson, a Scotchman, aged about 40, of a middle Stature, brown Complexion, with short black Hair; he floops much, has a down Look, is pitted with the Small-Pox, and is remarkable for a Scar across his Nose. He has a Cloth Coat with a Velvet Cape, and a Waistcoat of white Plaiding. He carried with him Seven Pounds in Money, besides sundry Goods. Thirty Shillings Reward for bringing him to the Subscriber, or Mr. George Ross, Merchant, at the Mouth of Conococheague, which Way it is supposed he is gone, he having been a Soldier in the Maryland Service. *3 CATHARINE FERGUSON.

THE MARYLAND GAZETTE, [Numb. 837.]

Containing the latest Advices foreign and domestic.

THURSDAY, May 21, 1761.

PARIS, January 16. THE War in Germany will be pushed next Summer with such Vigour, that former Campaigns will appear but a Jest to the next.

Vienna, January 31. Count Henry Joseph Thierry Daun, Field Marshal of the Austrian Forces, died this Day in the eighty-third Year of his Age.

LONDON. Jan. 17. Last Week as much Woollen and Linen Cloth as amounted to the Value of 95 l. was distributed at Kingston to poor People that received no Alms of the Parish.

Feb. 10. Yesterday came Advice that the Marshal de Belleisle, Minister and Secretary of State to the French King at the War Department, died at Versailles on the 24th past, aged 78.

The following Promotions are reported: The Right Hon. Charles Townshend, to be Secretary of War; And Lord Harrington to be Treasurer of the Navy.

There are said to be two Persons in Trade in this City, but have Orders for Goods of different Sorts for Quebec, to the Amount of 32,000 l.

Eight of the twenty Gun Frigates that are now almost completed in the King's Yards, it is said, will be launched at the Beginning of next Month.

It is now said that an Expedition against the French Forts on the River Mississippi, will soon take Place: If it should succeed, a speedy Stop will doubtless be put to the Indian War at the Back of Carolina.

The Crews of the French Privateers taken by our Ships, are found to consist nearly in a Proportion of two Thirds Spaniards, especially Spaniards and Portuguese, who, allured by the Prospect of Gain and the uncommon Success the Enemy have had, flock to France in Shoals.

From the Measures that are taking for the next Campaign, it seems impossible that the Enemy can ward off the Blows that are meditating against them.

Our Court are justly afraid that they shall be obliged to divide their Forces, and send some Troops next Spring towards Italy. The King of Spain, instead of postponing the adjusting of the Affairs of Italy, as we hoped, till a general Peace, seems determined to avail himself of our present Embarrassment.

Our Court are well informed that he is augmenting his Forces by Sea and Land, and that he is endeavouring to gain England to favour his Design against the Austrian Claims in Italy.

This Affair gives the more Vexation and Anxiety in the present Situation of Affairs, as the Court were in Expectation, by continuing the War a little longer, to be able to dictate Peace on their own Terms; well knowing that the first Reverse of Fortune would totally depress those who are so much elated by their Success.

The following is an authentic List of the Ships of War to be armed this Spring, by Order of his Catholic Majesty, dated Buen Retiro, Jan. 6, 1761.

At CARTHAGENA, Nine Ships: Galicia 70, Atlante 70, Aquillon 70, Triumfante 70, Soberano 70, Terrible 70, Septentrion 64, Astuto 60, Firme 70. Two Frigates, four Bombs, one Fireship, one Hospital, one Provision Ship.

At CADIZ, Thirteen Ships: Fenix 80, Rayo 80, Vencedo 70, Tigre 70, Asia 64, Africa 70, Tridente 60, Princesa 70, Conquistador 70, Aquiles 70, Glorioso 70, St. Philippe 70, Hector 70.

At FERROL, Thirteen Ships: Principe 70, Victoriouso 70, Arrogante 70, Orrente 70, Goerretto 70, Gallando 70, Elelo 70, Monarcha 60, Serio 70, Campeon 70, Dichofo 70, Macnanimo 70, Brillante 70. Two Frigates, one Hospital, two Fireships, one Provision Ship.

Total 35 Line of Battle Ships, four Frigates, four Bombs, three Fireships, two Hospital, and two Provision Ships. On Monday last 300 Quarters of Wheat Meal for Guadalupe, and 1400 Gallons of Corn Spirits for North-America, were entered for Exportation.

Yesterday 6000 Gallons of Corn Spirits were entered for Exportation to Quebec; and 4272 Beaver, 3464 Racoon, 4791 Deer, 380 Otter, and 41 Wolves Skins, were imported from Quebec.

Extra of a Letter from the Hague, Jan. 27. There has perhaps been no Naval Action this War, in which the Reputation of the English Arms has been so duly impressed on the Minds of all Nations, as that which happened the 24th Instant, between the Frigates Felicite and Richmond, the Cannon of the Combat being fairly heard at this Place, which was about 8 English Miles from the Scene, and which terminated within three Quarters of a Mile of the Shore, near a Village called Freeheyd.

Captain Donell, of the Felicite, behaved till his Death with all the persevering Courage of a resolute Commander; as did the second in Command, who was more happy in escaping, and who left his Ship with the Colours flying, when she was a perfect Wreck; that had not the Shore taken her up, she must at that Instant inevitably have foundered, as near 200 Shot had lodged in her Hull, and the greatest Part near and under the Water.

Monfieur D'Affry, the French Minister, has promised to recommend the surviving Captain of the Felicite, Monsieur Laugarrou, to his Court, to their particular Notice. He has made strong Remonstrances to the States-General, about the Infraction of the Neutrality of their Territories; and the Dutch Ministry sent off Captain Blackwell of their Guards with a Letter to remonstrate with Capt. Elphinstone, who, as we are informed, has sent them a judicious Reply, which is properly supported.

The States likewise gave Orders to their Strand-master, who is the proper Officer on that Occasion, to interpose in hoisting Dutch Colours on board, and in saving the Wreck; but it was too late, for before these Orders could be executed, she was on Fire, and consumed to Low Water-mark, which as she keeled, was on one side destroyed to near the Keel.

Monfieur D'Affry, notwithstanding his great Chagrin in seeing his Master's Ship, sent on an important Service, so unluckily destroyed, and the Number of Wounded brought on Shore, among which was the brave, but dead Captain Donell, could not, amidst this affecting Scene, decline doing Justice to the Magnanimity and Conduct of the English Commander, who, from the Beginning to the End, acted with that determined Heroism and Judgment that could not be surpassed.

The superior Seamanship and Manœuvres of the English in the Richmond, was apparent to all, as she was equally ashore with the Frenchman, and with her, notwithstanding the other was stranded, and the Richmond got off.

The Felicite came originally from Brest, last from Dunkirk; took in Part of her Cargo at Havre de Grace, which consisted of Cloathing, Flour, Wine, Brandy, Cordage, and other Naval Stores for the Colonies; and was proceeding North about. Her Consort the Hermione being lost, the Felicite had not only her own, but the other's Packets and Dispatches, besides her Passengers, which were numerous, and some of them Governors.

General Yorke, who viewed the Transaction, and always most sensibly feels for the Honour and Welfare of his Countrymen, seems greatly elated at this good Success, which appears hourly more important, and omits no Circumstance to confirm what Thousands say; that if the Breach of Neutrality is disputed, the Frenchman was an equal Aggressor, and that the English Ship being ashore, fired for her own Preservation, and ceased when the Enemy did.—In fine, the Hollanders, who in these Parts are well inclined to the English, are not displeas'd with the Catastrophe of the French Ship, as a casual Rencontre upon their Coast.

February 28. Advices from Paris and Vienna agree, that the Court of Madrid insists upon a Settlement in Italy for the Infant Don Lewis, and a better Establishment for Don Philip, and also upon an Indemnification for the King of Sardinia's Claims. It was thought the Marriage of the Arch-duke Joseph with the Princess of Parma, might have contributed to the getting these Matters referred to the future Congress; but it seems Spain is too urgent about them, and will not let slip the present Opportunity, when the House of Austria can make no Opposition; and thus, to gain her favourite Point, Silesia, she runs the Risk of losing the Netherlands and some of her Italian Dominions at least, and probably will never recover Silesia.

One of the French King's Ships, called the Protee, of 64 Guns, is lent to the Merchants, and fitted out, which Ship, together with a Frigate, are cruising 80 or 100 Leagues to the Westward. Some of our Men of War are under sailing Orders, to go in search of them.

Mr. Maubert tells us, that more English Prizes are brought into the single Port of St. Maloes, than there are French carried into all the Ports of England; and adds, it should seem that the English have undertaken to provide us with every Kind of Commodities gratis; for Goods, which in Time of Peace might cost us 4 or 500,000 Livres, are now purchased at the Expence of a few Broadfides.

It is said that his Majesty has settled 300 l. per Annum on the Rev. John Hume, Author of Douglas, a Tragedy, and other Pieces.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Alexander Hood, Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Minerva, of 32 Guns, and 220 Men, to Mr. Cleveland, dated at Spithead the 3d of February, 1761.

BEG you will be pleased to acquaint the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that on the 23d of January, at Day-light in the Morning, being in the Lat. of 45 Deg. 22 Min. N. Cape Pinas bearing S. by E. distant 30 Leagues, I saw and gave chase to a large Ship, steering to the Westward, which I soon discovered to be an Enemy of two Decks. At 20 Minutes after Ten, with a fresh Gale Easterly, and a great Sea, I began a close Engagement with her: At Eleven her Main and Fore-top-mast went away, and soon after she came on board us on the Starboard Bow, and then fell along Side, but the Sea soon parted us, when the Enemy fell a-stern: About a Quarter after Eleven, the Minerva's Bow-sprit went away, and the Fore-mast soon followed it. These were very unfortunate Accidents, and I almost despaired of being able to attack the Enemy again; however, I cut the Wreck away as soon as possible; and, about One o'Clock, cleared the Ship of it, by the Loss of one Man and the Sheet Anchor, I then wore the Ship, and stood for the Enemy, who was then about three Leagues to Leeward of me. At Four o'Clock I came up close to the Enemy, and renewed the Attack. About a Quarter before Five she struck, when Possession was taken of the Warwick, of 34 Guns, but pierced for 60, commanded by M. le Yeger de Belair, who has a King's Commission to rank as Captain of a Fireship, having on board 295 Men, 74 of which are a Detachment of King's Troops, from the Company of Besson, with two other Officers, and four Passengers; the latter were destined for Pondicherry. She sailed from Rochfort the 20th of January, and was bound to the Isle of France and Bourbon, loaded with Provisions, Ammunition, and Stores; and by the Account given me, the Enemy had 14 killed, and 32 wounded. I have given my Thanks to the Officers and Crew of his Majesty's Ship for their firm and spirited Behaviour; and I have great Pleasure in acquainting their Lordships with it.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE, March 3, 1761.

WESTMINSTER, March 3. HIS Majesty gave the Royal Assent to several public, and 23 private Acts; after which his Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen, UPON granting new Commissions to the Judges, the present State of their Offices fell naturally under Consideration.

In Consequence of the Act passed in the Reign of my late glorious Predecessor King WILLIAM the Third, for settling the Succession to the Crown in my Family, their Commissions have been made during their good Behaviour; but, notwithstanding that wise Provision, their Offices have determined upon the Demise of the Crown, or at the Expiration of six Months afterwards, in every Instance of that Nature which has happened.

I look upon the Independency and Uprightness of the Judges of the Land, as essential to the impartial Administration of Justice, as one of the best Securities to the Rights and Liberties of my loving Subjects; and as most conducive to the Honour of the Crown; and I come now to recommend this interesting Object to the Consideration of Parliament, in order that such further Provision may be made, for securing the Judges in the Enjoyment of their Offices, during their good Behaviour, notwithstanding any such Demise, as shall be most Expedient.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons, I must desire of you in particular, that I may be enabled to grant and establish upon the Judges such Salaries, as I shall think proper, so as to be absolutely secured to them, during the Continuance of their Commissions.

My Lords and Gentlemen, I have nothing to add, but my Thanks for the great Unanimity and Application, with which you have carried on the public Business, and to desire you to proceed with the same good Disposition, and with such Dispatch, that this Session may be soon brought to a happy Conclusion.

March 5. Yesterday the Lords and Commons presented their Addresses to his Majesty, for his gracious Speech the Day before.

The same Day the Judges also waited on his Majesty at St. James's, with an Address of Thanks.

Tuesday the Board of Ordnance contracted for a considerable Number of Potatoes, and other necessary Utensils of Tin, for the Service of the grand Expedition.

We are credibly informed, that the last great Convoy from the East-Indies, consisting of seventeen Ships, which came under Convoy of Admiral Pocock, when he returned to Europe, had Effects on board valued at near Nine Millions Sterling.

March 6. When the House of Lords addressed his Majesty for his most gracious Speech from the Throne, he was pleased to return the following Answer.

My Lords, I thank you for this very dutiful, grateful, and unanimous Address. I am very glad, that what I have laid before you gives you so much Satisfaction.

Last Friday the Audry, Lawrence, of and from New-York for London, arrived at Plymouth: She had been taken by a French Privateer; but four of the Crew rose upon the Frenchmen that were on board, and brought her into Plymouth; for for which gallant Action, we hear, the Insurers in London made them a Present of an 8th Part of the Vessel and Cargo. We hear from Hull, that there is an Island in the River Humber, called Cherry Cob, now grown so considerable, that the Government has taken Cognizance of it, and commissioned the Mayor, and other Gentlemen of Repute in the Neighbourhood, to view and estimate the Value, in order to grant a Lease thereof. It is found to contain upwards of 1500 Acres of good Grass Land, ready for embanking, valued at about 600 l. at present, and at above 1100 l. a Year when embanked. It lies further up the River than Sunk-land, the Level higher, and will be less Charge in embanking.

CHARLES-TOWN, South-Carolina, April 11.

Extract of a Letter from Ninety-Six, dated the 5th Instant.

"Last Night arrived here Timothy Rarden (late one of the Fort Loudoun Garrison) Express from Fort Prince George, with Dispatches from the Commandant there, to his Hon. the Lieut. Governor, &c. Our Accounts from thence are, that 47 more Prisoners have been purchased from and delivered up by the Cherokee, 36 of them Soldiers, making in all 67 since Captain M'Intosh has been there.—That Talks to and from the Nation were frequent, from and to the Fort, those from the Indians in a pacific Strain; and from the Fort, adapted to the present Circumstances of Affairs. That the young Warrior of Effatawib was returned from his Incursion to Long-Cane, &c. with such Plenty of Cattle, as enabled him to spare 23 of them, which he sold and delivered for the Use of the Garrison (Some Letters say he made a Present of them to Captain M'Intosh as a Proof of his Desire of Reconciliation). That he pretended he had been down as far as Ninety-Six, and seen many White People, but did not offer to molest one, although he could have killed them at Pleasure, and that he was sorry for what had happened, but looked upon the Path to be now straight again, and hoped it would remain so. That amongst other Things, he said, he found that the Nation had given out he was the Cause of the War's Continuance, but they were as much to blame as himself.—That the Want of Provisions had made a great Part of the Nation desirous of a speedy Accommodation; and their Eagerness to procure some Cloathing was what had induced them so readily to give them up their Prisoners, and (together with the Difficulty of finding them Subsistence) would influence them to bring in the Rest soon. For further Particulars I must refer you to the Express, not having Time to enlarge.—We expect Major Moultrie here in two Days, and are making proper Provision for him. There are some Whispers here about Peace; but believe, at least here, there is no Foundation for them, and that the Cherokees will first receive the proper Reward for their Perfidy and Cruelty."

We hear, that the regular Troops at Menck's Corner, were to march forward from thence as this Day.—The Highlanders which Colonel Grant sent for from Providence, are returned to Town in Order to embark forthwith for New-York, whither General Amherst has ordered them. Near 77 Sick, of the Independents, came to Town at the same Time.

BOSTON, April 27.

We hear that the Honourable House of Representatives, in their last Session, hath made Provision, for Captain Saunders, in the Province Sloop, to convey John Winthrop, Esq; Hollisian Professor of Mathematicks and Philosophy at the College in Cambridge, with the Apparatus and other Necessaries, in said Sloop, to the North East Part of Newfoundland, or to such other Place as said Professor shall think proper, in order to observe the Transit of Venus over the Sun's Disk, on the 6th of June next; and when his Observations are completed, to attend and convey him back to Boston.

May 4. Tuesday last came to Town from Plymouth, Captain Emerson, late of the Ship Neptune, who informs, that he sailed in said Ship from Piscataqua, about 5 Weeks ago, bound for the West-Indies; that, after being out eight Days, he was taken by a Letter of Marque Polacco, bound from Port-au-Prince to Marieilles: The Frenchman sent the Ship to Port-au-Prince.—That on the 5th of April, in Lat. 36: 55. Long. 45: 15, the Polacco also met with and took the Brig Stork, Captain Cotton, from Cadiz, bound to Plymouth, who, after detaining him three Days, and plundering him to a considerable Value, taking his Arms from him, and throwing his Cannon overboard, gave him the Privilege to ransom, as they had but 31 Men on board, and could not spare any to carry her into Port; upon which Captain Cotton thought proper to comply with their Terms, which was 1000 l. Sterling. The Polacco was called the Victoire, Joseph Bevest, Commander, richly laden with Indigo, Sugar, &c.—Captain Emerson, and his People (except five) were put on board Captain Cotton's Vessel, and arrived at Plymouth about ten Days since.

On Monday last arrived here Capt. John Andrews, in the Brig Catharine, from the West-Indies, and informs, that on the 11th ult. in Lat. 24: 30, Long. 71, he was taken by a French Privateer from the Cape, commanded by Martin Arnauld, with about 20 Men, and some Cannon and Swivels.—Captain Andrews ransomed his Vessel for 700 l. Sterling.

NEW-YORK, May 11.

Wednesday last Captain Deal arrived here in 7 Weeks and 3 Days from Cadiz, but brings no remarkable News. The Spaniards are somewhat stricter than usual in examining the English Vessels that enter their Ports, not allowing any to break Bulk, till they have been searched, and have produced their Manifests, and Officers are kept on board while Vessels are loading.

On the 23d of April Captain Ouchterlony, in Lat. 30: 34, Long. 64: 12, fell in with a French Privateer Sloop, of 10 Guns, who fired several Shot at him, but as soon as he began to play his 6 Pounds upon her, she thought proper to make the best of her Way.—Captain Finglas, lately arrived from London, was chased by a Sloop much in the same Latitude.

Saturday last his Majesty's Ship the Fowey, Capt. TONYNE, sailed for England, and took under Convoy several Merchantmen bound to the Eastward. CHRISTOPHER KILBY, Esq; Agent Victualler, is gone home Passenger in the Fowey.

PHILADELPHIA, May 14.

The Rebecca, Captain Stewart, from this Port for Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, was lost as she was going over the Bar into that Place.

A Gentleman wrote from Wilmington on Tuesday last, That he was just arrived there in the Schooner Success, Captain Flint, from St. Christophers, who, on his Passage, was taken by a Brig of 16 Guns, and ransomed for 2000 Dollars: That there was a Frigate of 40, and a Sloop of 12 Guns, in Company with the Brig: And that they sailed with a Fleet of about 50 Sail of Vessels, 22 of which for North America, a Number of them thought to be taken, as Captain Flint's Vessel made the fifth Prize that was known of; one of which Captain Flower of this Port, from St. Christophers, taken by the Frigate and ransomed for One Hundred and Seventy-five Pounds Sterling.

The Snow Friendship, Captain Urie, from this Place for Barbados, is taken, and carried into Martinico.—The French Privateers are still very numerous among the Islands, and take many Vessels, notwithstanding the Diligence of Commodore Douglas, who we hear, has his Ships always at Sea.

ANNAPOLIS, May 21.

On Monday last Week, two very valuable Slaves, who were Fishing at the Falls of Patowmack, were, by a sudden Fresh, wash'd from the Rocks and Drowned.

Yesterday Capt. Pitt, in the Molly, arrived here in eight Days from Boston, but brings no News.

By the UPPER HOUSE of ASSEMBLY,

6th of May, 1761.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That for the future no Account be allowed by this House upon the Journal of Accounts, unless the same, or a Copy thereof, with a Copy of the Probate thereto (if any) attested to be a true Copy of such Account and Probate (if any) by some Magistrate, or by the Oath of the Party taken before some Magistrate, be laid before this House, at the same Time that such Account, or a Copy thereof, be laid before the Committee of Accounts of the Lower House of Assembly: And that all Persons may have due Notice hereof, and conduct themselves accordingly, it is hereby Ordered, That Mr. Jonas Green, Printer, make public the foregoing Resolve, by Printing the same in his Six succeeding Gazettes. Signed per Order,

2 "J. Ross, Cl. Up. Ho."

THURSDAY, May 28, 1761.

LONDON, March 19.

HIS Majesty's most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament, on Thursday the 19th Day of March, 1761.

My LORDS and GENTLEMEN, I CANNOT put an End to this Session, without declaring my entire Satisfaction in your Proceedings during the Course of it. The Zeal you have shewn for the Honour of my Crown, as well as for my true Interest, and that of your Country, which are ever the same, is the clearest Demonstration of that Duty and Affection to my Person and Government, of which you have so uniformly assured me at your first Meeting. Nothing could so much add to the Pleasure which these Considerations afford me, as that I am now able to acquaint you with the great Progress made of late by the Combined Army in Germany, under the Command of Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick. I formerly told you, That the Nature of the War, in those Parts, had kept the Campaign there still depending; and it now appears, to the Surprise of my Enemies, that the superior Ability, and indefatigable Activity of my General, and the Spirit and Ardour of my Officers and Troops, have greatly profited of this Perseverance, notwithstanding the Difficulties arising from the Season.

By your Assistance, I have taken the best Care to recruit that Army in an effectual Manner; and have made such a Provision of my Fleet, for next Summer, as may most advantageously defend my Kingdoms; protect the Commerce of my Subjects; maintain and extend our Possessions and Acquaintances; and annoy the Enemy. As in all my Measures I have nothing in View but the Security and Felicity of my Dominions, the Support of my Allies, and the restoring of the public Tranquillity, I trust in the Divine Providence, to give a happy Issue to our farther Operations.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons, I cannot sufficiently thank you for your Unanimity and Dispatch, in providing for the Expenses of my Civil Government, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown: And think myself as much obliged to you, for the prudent Use, which, in framing that Provision, you have made of my consent to leave my own Hereditary Revenues to such Disposition of Parliament, as might best conduce to the Utility and Satisfaction of the Public, as for what more immediately concerns myself.

In making my Acknowledgments for the large and extensive Supplies which you have granted me this Session, I am at a Loss whether most to applaud your Chearfulness in giving, or your Wisdom in proportioning them to the extraordinary Occasions of the Public, notwithstanding those uncommon Burthens, which I heartily regret. No Care shall be wanting, on my Part, to see them duly applied to the national Ends for which you intended them.

My Lords and Gentlemen, The Expiration of this Parliament now drawing very near, I will forthwith give the necessary Orders for calling a new One: But I cannot take my Leave of you, without returning my Thanks for the many eminent Proofs you have given of your Fidelity and Affection to my Family and Government, and of your Zeal for this happy and excellent Constitution.

During this Parliament, the Flame of War was kindled by the injurious Encroachments and Usurpations of our Enemies; and therefore it became just and necessary on our Part. In the Prosecution of it you have given such Support to my Royal Grandfather and myself, and such Assistance to our Allies, as have manifested your public spirited Concern for the Honour of the Nation, and the Maintenance of its undoubted Rights and Possessions, and been attended with glorious Successes, and great Acquisitions, in various Parts of the World; particularly the entire Reduction of Canada, a Conquest of the utmost Importance to the Security of our Colonies in North-America, and to the Extension of the Commerce and Navigation of my Subjects.

My God Almighty grant Continuance to these Successes! The Use which I propose to make of them is, to secure and promote the Welfare of my Kingdoms, and to carry on the War with Vigour, in order to procure to them the Blessings of Peace, on safe and honourable Conditions for me and my Allies; to which I have been always ready to hearken. Firm in these Resolutions, I do, with entire Confidence, rely on the good Dispositions of my faithful Subjects in the Choice of their Representatives; and I make no doubt but they will thereby demonstrate the Sincerity of those Assurances, which have been so cordially and universally given me, in the loyal, affectionate, and unanimous Addresses of my People.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Majesty's Command, said; My Lords and Gentlemen, It is his Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the seventh Day of April next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the seventh Day of April next.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE. Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters at Grebenau, Feb. 25. ON the 23d we marched to this Town; eight Battalions, under the Command of Major-General Scheele, were detached from Gen. Sporcken's Corps, to reinforce the Count of Buckeburg, and will arrive this Day at Fritlar.

We are in hourly Expectation of hearing, that the Trenches are opened before Cassel, where there are seventeen Battalions, and the Volunteers of St. Victor, under the Command of the Count of Broglie.

When we arrived here, Lord Granby, with the British Guards, and Elliot's Regiment, was blockading Ziegenhayn, where M. de Luchmantle commands a Garrison, said to consist of seven Hundred Men. Lieutenant General Oheimb, who is under Lord Granby's Orders, is advanced to Kirchain.

Yesterday his Lordship was relieved by Major General Schluter, of the Hessian Artillery, who is charged with the Blockade of Ziegenhayn, and Lord Granby marched to Kirchain. In the Castle of Amanenberg, which is within Cannon Shot of it, a Party of two Officers, and fifty Men, belonging to the Irish Brigade, were made Prisoners.

Our Hessians pushed Yesterday to Homburg, where there was a Detachment of the Enemy, who retired on seeing them; and the Officer writes, that all Accounts agree in saying, that M. de Broglie is making his Retreat to Frankfort.

The Hereditary Prince is at Schlitz. A Courier, who came from his Quarters the 23d, said, it was reported there, that our Hussars had taken Possession of Fulda the Night before. This was confirmed the 24th, with the agreeable Intelligence, that the Enemy had left a very great Magazine of Flour and Oats untouched, and had only burnt their Magazine of Hay. General Luckner took 300 Prisoners in Fulda, and the neighbouring Villages, in most of which we have taken some Forage. In this respect we have been extremely fortunate, having found in all our Cantonnements hitherto, since we passed the Eder, enough for our Subsistence. To-morrow we shall proceed on our March to Alsfeld.

The Army of the Empire, which was in the Neighbourhood of Gotha, when Gen. Sporcken attacked the Enemy at Langen Saltz, retired precipitately, and is supposed to have taken the Road to Bamberg. The Prussian Corps, which acted in Conjunction with General Sporcken, and which took three of the five Saxon Battalions, will check them in their Attempts to advance farther. A very large Magazine has been found at Eysenach.

Hanover, March 3. Major Scheither hath taken the Castle of Battenberg by Assault, and made Prisoners one Lieutenant-Colonel, one Captain, four Officers, and 250 Swits, with ten Hossars: He also took four Cannon.

Port L'Orient, Feb. 20. By the Berrier East Indiaman, arrived from the Isle of Bourbon, we have received Advice, that Pondicherry was vigorously pressed by the English in the Month of June last, and that there was no Likelihood of their raising the Siege; from whence it is plain, that the Report of their having abandoned that Place in April, was without Foundation.

Brandenburg, March 7. Considerable Augmentations are still making in our Troops. The King has ordered four new Corps, called Legions, to be formed. The first, under the Command of Col. Quintus Icilius, and the second, called the Brandenburg Legion, will consist of 6500 Men each. The third, named the Green Legion, is to be 3000 Men. We are actually raising the fourth, which is to be called the Foreign Royal Legion.

Frankfort, March 11. The first Division of the Troops from the Lower Rhine, consisting of 6000 Men, reached the strong Camp of Bergen the 8th Instant, the 2d and 3d Divisions, each of 4000 Men, arrived there the 9th and 10th. The French Troops collected in our Neighbourhood may amount to near 40,000 Men.

The Allied Army is falling back, not chusing to risk a Battle with so many Places behind them. They seem determined to take Ziegenhayn, where there is a good Garrison, and a large Quantity of Ammunition. The Trenches before that Place were opened on the 9th.

Hague, March 13. No Letters have been received here from Prince Ferdinand's Quarters since the 4th; but we have an Account from those Parts, that the allied Army continued in two Lines, with the Right to the Ladns, and the Left extended towards Fulda: That the Siege of Ziegenhayn still continued: That the Town of Marburg had been abandoned by the French upon Lord Granby's approach; and the Castle thereof, in which they had left a Garrison, would soon be attacked. General Hardenberg had taken post at Statbergen.

The Accounts from the French Quarters of the 8th Instant mention, that the Corps under General Killmansegge, which had advanced towards Freyberg, and another under Marshal Broglie in Person, were on the 6th in Sight of each other, but that nothing had passed, except skirmishing between the light Troops; that the French continued fortifying themselves at Hanau, Vilbet and Bergen, and expected some Reinforcements from the Lower Rhine to join them in a few Days. The same Advices add, that General Luckner had taken Possession of Aschaffenburg, and had, on the 7th in the Night, thrown a Bridge over the Meyne at Seligenstadt.

Frankfort, March 14. The Allies continue to draw back. The Corps under the Hereditary Prince is retired from Bodingen, by the Way of Gedetz and Vogelberg, to the Neighbourhood of Amenebourg. Gen. Luckner is falling back by the Way of Blanckenaw and Herstein, towards Weteravia. As the Allies retire, the French advance. Marshal Broglie's Head-quarters were removed Yesterday from Friedberg to Butsbach.

Frankfort, March 15. Our Advices from the Allied Army import that the Allies had given over the Siege of Ziegenhayn, and that the French were continuing their Dispositions to march forward. General Quafco, with 200 Men, is at Fulda. We also learn that Lieut. Gen. Hardenberg, with the Troops under his Command, is gone from the Neighbourhood of Dulmen, by Munster and Hamm, towards Stadberg.

Hanover, March 23. We are informed, that the Count de la Lippe-Buckebourg, who commands before Cassel, hath sent an Express to Zell to acquaint the Landgrave of Hesse, that he expected that the Breach made in the Ramparts of Cassel would be practicable by the 15th or 16th, and that he hoped to be Master of the Place by Assault, without damaging the Houses by a Bombardment.

Genoa, February 28. It is reported, that the Corsican Malecontents have taken San Fiorenzo, Sword in Hand.

Hague, March 17. The Letters from the Army under Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, of the 8th Instant inform us, that his Serene Highness's Quarters continued at Schewinsberg. We have received by them, a Confirmation of the News of the Sally that was made on the 7th Instant by the Garrison at Cassel; in which the French took Possession of the Treaches, and carried off four Mortars, and nailed up one Piece of Cannon, and destroyed the Works of the grand Battery. But Count La Lippe, at the Head of the Hessian Guards, and Wangenheim Grenadiers, drove them back into the Town.

Our last Accounts from the French Army of the 12th Instant mention, that Marshal Broglie had moved his Head-Quarters from Bergen to Freidberg; and that the Reinforcement expected by him from the Lower Rhine, was preparing upon the Meyne.

By Letters of the 11th from Leipzig, every Thing was quiet in those Parts. The King of Prussia, it was expected, would soon visit the Posts of Chemnitz and Freybourg, and afterwards fix his Quarters at Meissen. General Sibourg, with the Corps under his Command, was returned to his Quarters of Cantonment.

LONDON, March 12. Extraet of a Letter from Turin, February 3.

It is confidently reported, that an Alliance is concluded between our Court, and those of London, Madrid, and Naples, for bringing a powerful Army into the Field next Spring in Italy. Those four Powers are to assist each other to make a Conquest of Lombardy, Tuscany, and Final, and a Part of the Duchy of Mantau. The Infant Don Philip is to have Lombardy; Don Lewis, Tuscany; the King of Sardinia, the Parmesan and Final. The Catholic King is to lead an Army of 50,000 into Italy, which will be joined by 40,000 effective Men of our King's Forces, to act as Occasion may require.

We are further informed, that 8000 Bavarians are to be taken into the Service of our Monarch, but that they are to be paid by England, from whom his Majesty is likewise to receive a considerable Subsidy. Our Accounts from Genoa mention, that the Republic is not a little uneasy about what may happen in Italy, being apprehensive of losing both Final and Corsica.

March 14. The Embarkation of the Troops for Germany will commence between the 16th and 20th Inst. Some General Officers, who have not been abroad this War, with several Persons of Distinction as Volunteers, will accompany them.

'Tis confidently reported that a Suspension of Hostilities is agreed on between the Courts of Russia and Prussia, till a Negotiation for a Peace is set on Foot between the several Powers concerned.

Extraet of a Letter from Portsmouth, March 12.

We expect in here daily, Whitmore's and Erskine's Regiments, for our Expedition. Our vast Preparations begin now to take Place.

At Spithead, the Admirals Hawke, Hardy, and Geary, with 35 Ships of War.

Major General Erskine's Regiment of Foot is on its March for Portsmouth, and is said to be destined for the Expedition.

A Transport Ship is arrived at Falmouth from Cork, with 300 Soldiers; the Captain says, that another Transport with the same Number of Troops on board for the said Place, was taken a few Days ago by two French Frigates, who were cruising seventeen Leagues to the Westward of Scilly.

The Province of Virginia has appointed Edward Montague, Esq; their Agent, with a Salary of 500 l. Sterling.

March 19. By some Letters from Madrid, there is an Account, that the Earl of Bristol, the British Ambassador, had, at an Audience of his Catholic Majesty, been assured, that he remain'd firm in his Resolution to maintain the present Treaties subsisting between the Courts of Great-Britain and Spain.

The Battalion now lying in the Tower has received Orders to be ready to march at a few Hours Notice for Portsmouth, where they are to embark.

Extraet of a Letter from the Hague, March 20.

The Empress Queen is determined to risk another Campaign before she will listen to any Terms of Peace. The Czarina being informed that some Steps had been taken for accommodating Matters between France and England, under the Mediation of Spain, hath ordered her Minister at Vienna to desire the Empress Queen, to give herself no Unaffinens about that Negotiation: That their own Forces were more than sufficient to crush the King of Prussia, without requiring even the 24,000 Men which France is obliged by Treaty to furnish to the House of Austria.

We hear the Earl of Bute is appointed one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the Room of Lord Holdernesse.

We are informed that Lady Bute will, in a few Days, be created a Countess, by the Title of Wootley Montague.

The Earl of Bute took his Place last Night as Secretary of State in the Room of Lord Holdernesse, made Groom of the Stole.

Yesterday Netborne Berkeley, Esq; General Cornwallis, George Pitt, Esq; and Edward Northey, Esq; kissed the King's Hand on being appointed Grooms of the Bedchamber to his Majesty.

His Majesty's Ship Launceston and Alderney, at Portsmouth, are to sail to Madeira, in Order to save Time in receiving Wines for the Expedition Fleet, which joins them at that Place.

The Bay of Quiberon is now evacuated by the English, and the Fleet disposed of in the following Manner. All the Three-deckers are come home, with some others of less Force; a small flying Squadron cruizes off Brest; and some single Ships are sent to the Westward.

Joseph Hardy, Esq; Brother to Sir Charles Hardy, Rear Admiral of the Blue, an eminent Merchant of this City, is appointed Governor of New-Jersey.

March 21. This Day arrived a Mail from Holland, with Letters from Germany of the 21th Instant, which advise that the Allies had marched back, and that Prince Ferdinand's Head-quarters were at Schiftenberg, and those of the Hereditary Prince at Nidda.

There are Letters from Germany which speak of an Insurrection in Hungary, occasioned by some Austrian Officers taking Hungarians by force to recruit their Troops. Several Detachments of Horse and Foot have, it is said, marched from Vienna to Buda on this Occasion.

From Poland a Report is sent, that some Russian Horse and Foot had been sent to Courland, to suppress a Rebellion in that Dutchy.

This Day the Honourable Charles Townshend took his Seat as Secretary at War.

March 24. On Saturday Orders were issued at the War-Office, for all Officers that are going on the Expedition, to repair immediately to Portsmouth.

It is said all the Regiments in England have Orders to hold themselves in Readiness to march on the first Notice.

Extract of a Letter from Rotterdam, March 17.

This Day's French Letters bring an Account of an English homeward bound Indiaman being taken and carried into Brest, called the Ajax, from Bengal and Madras, laden with 4000 Bags of Saltpetre, 500 Bales of Bengals, and 300 Ditto Mouchoirs de Madras (Handkerchiefs) and one Chest of Diamonds, besides many other Products of the Ports she came from. A King's Frigate took her, viz. the Prothee, Capt. Cornei. The Indiaman mounted 26 Carriage Guns, and 100 Men, Burthen 750 Tons. She is a new Ship, being her first Voyage, and was commanded by Capt. Lindsay.

The following Gentlemen are created Knights of the Bath:

Lord Carysfort, late Knight of the Shire for Huntingdonshire.

Lieutenant-General Yorke, his Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary at the Hague.

Sir James Gray, Bart. Envoy at Naples.

Major-General Amhurst.

Major-General John Griffin Griffin, Colonel of the 33d Regiment of Foot, and late Member for Andover.

George Pocock, Esq; Admiral of the Blue Squadron.

Sir William Beauchamp Proctor, Bart. late Knight of the Shire for Middlesex.

Sir John Gibbons, Bart. late Member for Stockbridge.

Francis Blake Delaval, Member for Andover.

Charles Frederick, Esq; Surveyor General of the Ordnance, Comptroller of his Majesty's Laboratory at Woolwich, and late Member for Queenborough.

George Warren, Esq; late Member for Lancaster.

It is reported that Capt. Lindsay, of the Ajax East-Indiaman, was killed in the Action when his Ship was taken; which is said to be worth 200,000 l.

The Denham East-Indiaman, that failed from Bengal before the Ajax, is apprehended to be taken or lost; and Yesterday 50 l. per Cent. Insurance was made upon her.

The Molly, Hunter, from North-America for Ireland, with Flax Seed and Sugar, is taken by a Bayonne Privateer of 16 Guns, and carried into some Port in Spain.

Letters from Paris pretend, that the Ministry had received Advice of a considerable Advantage gained over the English in India. The same Letters add, that as Martinico was still threatened to be attacked, the Governor insisted warmly on the sending him a Reinforcement, and promised to keep the Place provided they would let him have some Ships of War, and between two and three Thousand Land Forces, with some Stores, particularly Gunpowder, of which he is in great Want.

These Letters, which are dated the 16th, farther say, "We begin to make ourselves easy about Marshal Broglio, since he received the greatest Part of his Reinforcements. The last Letters from his Army advise, that Prince Ferdinand hath fallen back chiefly to draw Marshal Broglio out of his advantageous Position, and bring on a general Engagement, which the Prince will be obliged to risk, in order to procure Provisions and Forage for his Troops. It is even said, that he would have attacked our Army before now, if the Badness of the Roads had not hindered the bringing up of his Cannon."

Marshal Daun is to set out for the Army on the 16th Instant.

Father Charlevoix, a Jesuit, well known to the Republic of Letters, died lately at the College of La Fleche, in a very advanced Age.

Letter from a Gentleman at Hexham, Northumberland, Monday Night, March 9.

"The Deputy-Lieutenants and Justices met this Day about the Militia; and as many of the Fellows, who lately made the Disturbance at Newcastle, threatened to be here, four Companies of the Yorkshire Militia came to Town last Night. This Morning Thousands of the Rioters came into Town in the most desperate Manner. The Cryer went about by Order of the Justices, to desire all the Inhabitants to keep within Doors; for in case any Person behaved in a Riotous Manner, the Militia should be ordered to fire upon them.

About ten, the Gentlemen went to the Foot-ball, and the Militia were drawn up before the Gate to prevent any of the Mob going into the Hall. At the same Time the Major told them all their Complaints should be heard, if they would but be quiet and peaceable. They accordingly remained pretty orderly, till a large Body of Pit-men, between two and three Hundred, came into Town about twelve o'Clock, who attempted to break through the Militia to get to the Hall. Upon which the Militia received orders to fire. 'Tis said that a shocking sound! for near ten Minutes Fellow-Subjects firing upon one another, and what a horrible Scene was beheld afterwards! Some carried away dead in Carts, others, on Horses. Many were led along just dying of their Wounds, and all covered with Blood! Shocking Spectacles! and then to hear the dreadful S shrieks of the Women, whose Husbands or Sons were among the Rioters, was enough to pierce a Heart of Stone. One poor Creature, whose Husband had been carried by dead a little before, came by screaming in such a Manner, that we heard her as far as the Abbey-gate. His Name was Daniel Bowman, a labouring Man, and a very inoffensive one, but would go out to see what was going forward; he has left seven Children. A poor Woman, a Widow with eight Children, and big with another (one Carter) going into the Market to look after her Son, was shot Dead, and her Son shot thro' the Thigh, and they lay cannot live. A Woman who was come from Newcastle for a few Days to see a Relation, and was with Child, was shot through the Belly as she was standing at a Window. Besides these I have mentioned, there are several ill who came from Britley, some from Gungerton, Acton, Wall, and some from the Shire. Twenty wounded were carried to one House, 3 of whom are now dead, and it is feared not above 2 or 3 of the others will survive. There are sixteen also now lying dead in the Church to be owned, most of whom are Pitmen, who have been the Cause of all this horrid Slaughter. Many have been found dead upon the Road, who had been wounded, and were making their Escape. Among the Militia there is only one Grenadier killed, besides those I mentioned. They reckon in all about 100 killed and wounded; but I am afraid the Number will be greater by and by, for they are continually finding more who had run away wounded, and died by themselves in the Holes where they lived."

By an exact Account received of the late Riot at Hexham, it appears that 45 of the Rioters were killed, and 300 wounded, some of them mortally.

St. James's, March 20. The King in Council was this Day pleased to declare the Right Hon. George Dunk Earl of Halifax, Lieut. General, and General Governor of his Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland.

This Day the Right Hon. Sir Francis Dashwood, Bart. Treasurer of his Majesty's Chamber, was, by his Majesty's Command, sworn of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

Last Friday his Majesty in Council was pleased to order the Lord Chancellor to cause Writs to be forthwith issued, for electing Members for the Convocation of the Clergy.

Whitehall, March 21. The King has been pleased to grant unto Lord Talbot, and his Heirs Male, the Dignity of an Earl of Great-Britain, by the Title of Earl Talbot. And, Lord De La Warr, and his Heirs Male, the Dignity of a Viscount and Earl of Great-Britain, by the Title of Viscount Cantalupe, and Earl De La Warr.

The King has been pleased to appoint his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Lord Barrington, Lord North, James Oswald, and Gilbert Elliot, Esquires, Lords of the Treasury.

Lord Barrington, Chancellor and Under-Treasurer of the Exchequer.

Lord Anson, Dr. Hay, Thomas Ormsby Hunter, John Forbes, and Hans Stanley, Esquires; Lord Villiers, and Thomas Pelham, Esq; Lords of the Admiralty.

Dr. Hay, Advocate General.

The Lord Chancellor, and several other Ministers of State now and for the Time being, and also Lord Sandys, Andrew Stone, Soame Jenyns, Edward Elliot, and Edward Bacon, Esqrs. together with John York, Esq; Sir Edmund Thomas, Bart. and George Rice, Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

Whitehall, March 21. His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Hon. William Pitt, Esq; to be one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Oath of Secretary of State was this Day by his Majesty's Command, administered to him in Council.

The Writs for calling a new Parliament bore Test on Saturday the 21st Instant, and to be returnable on Tuesday the 19th of May next.

NEW-YORK, May 18.

On Thursday last arrived here, the Earl of Halifax Packet-Boat, Captain Boulderston, in 6 Weeks and 4 Days from Falmouth. He was twice chased on the Passage by French Vessels, but outwail'd them. By him we hear that the General Wall Packet, Capt. Lutwidge, who sail'd from hence the 4th of March, was, about 150 Leagues to the W. of the Lizard, after a smart Engagement of 3 Hours and a Half, taken by a French Privateer Frigate of 24 Guns, 6 and 9 Pounders. Capt. Lutwidge ranfomed the Vessel for about 600 l. Sterling, and she arrived at Falmouth 5 Days after, in 21 Days from New-York. But Captain Lutwidge did not live to re-visit his native Country, for having in the Engagement, received a mortal Wound in the Hip, by a Cannon Ball, he died 40 Hours after, before the Ship's Arrival at Falmouth. He has left in this Town, a Widow and two Children, to lament the Loss of a kind Husband and Parent, and his Country, of a worthy Man; but all his Acquaintance have the Pleasure to know that he died like an Englishman.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated March 15.

"There are within these 24 Hours great Changes at Court; it is said many will kiss the King's Hand next Monday; the Chief are as follows, Lord Bute to be Secretary of State, in the Room of Lord Holdernesse; Lord Halifax to be Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; and Lord Sandys, to be first Lord of the Board of Trade; Lord Barrington, to be Chancellor of the Exchequer; Mr. Charles Townshend to be Secretary of War: Several Peers to be promoted in their Titles, and many to be advanced in the Treasury and Navy; Gen. Monkton, to be Governor of New-York, Mr. Hardy (Brother to Sir Charles) Governor of New-Jersey; Mr. Boone Governor of South-Carolina, and several other Governments to be filled up, &c.

Extra of a Letter from London, March 14, 1761.

"Our Parliament will rise and be dissolved the 19th Instant, and the New be immediately formed, what Sort it will be, a very little Time will prove; and indeed the Disposition with regard to Peace or War will shew itself. At present Opinions about the one or the other are various as ever; one Day we see Peace near, the next it's vanished, and all the while the most vigorous Measures are pursued in Planning a warm Campaign in Germany and Expeditions elsewhere, by our Naval Force, but their Destination a profound Secret. The King of Prussia you will find is rising in greater Glory than ever, he has since his late Victory, sent 15,000 Troops to assist Prince Ferdinand, who by a Master-stroke of Generalship (beyond any Thing Turene ever did) has dispersed the French Army under Broglio, tho' almost double his Number and Cantoned to all Advantage, he is now pursuing them as fast as he can, but they surpass his Swiftnefs in their Flight out of Hesse, what the Event will be we are daily expecting to hear, 'tis said that the Czarina seems inclin'd to withdraw her Assistance from the Austrians, and that Spain and Sardinia have designed to Attack her in Italy, these last are probably no more at present than the Coffee House Conjectures, and yet if the War continues may be brought about."

Captain Scull, in a Letter of Marque Sloop, belonging to Philadelphia, took lately off Coracoa, a French Brig loaded with 104 Hogheads of white Sugar, 5000 lb. of Indigo, and several other valuable Effects: The Vessel was bound to Old-France, but sprung her Foremast in the Latitude of Bermuda, and was putting back to refit.

The following French Privateers have lately been taken by our English Cruizers, and are carried into England, viz.

The Auguste of St. Maloes, of 10 Guns and 70 Men, by the Frigate Vengeance.

The L'Annemame and Sardoine, two King's Frigates, carrying 14 Guns each, armed by the Merchants, and designed for the Coast of Guinea.

The Zephyr of 12 Guns, and 140 Men by the Aquilon, Capt. Ogle. The Marshal Broglio Privateer of Morlaix, by the Unicorn. A Privateer of 10 Guns, and 140 Men, by the Jersey, in the Straights. The Le Lutem of 8 Guns, and 70 Men, of Cherburgh, by the Alarm. The St. Joseph and St. Antoine, of 12 Guns, and 85 Men.

A Letter from Barbados, dated April 10, 1761.

ON Tuesday the 31st of March, about half an Hour after Four, P. M. being near Low Water, the Sea suddenly retired from the Shore, and in about Three Minutes it returned again, to the Height of near Four Feet. This Flux and Reflux, lasted about Eight; but about Ten it increased again, for some short Time; then decreased, 'till Six the next Morning.

The Flux and Reflux was not always regular; after the first Three Hours it was sometimes performed in Three Minutes, and at other Times in not less than Six.

On November 1st, 1755, the very Day the Earthquake happened at Lisbon, there was then here in this same Manner, an Agitation of the Water; so that, we have Room to fear, there has now been another — GOD knows where!

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.

Yesterday arrived here the Ship Joseph & Nancy, Captain Taylor, from Belfast, which he left the 13th ult. By him we have Irish Papers to the 7th of April, which contain Advices from London to the 28th of March, the Purport of which is as follows: That on the 27th of that Month, the Embarkation on board the Grand Expedition Fleet ended, and it was thought would sail the next Day, as positive Orders had been given for Sailing the first fair Wind: That the Allies still carried on the Sieges of Ziegenhayn and Cassel, which, it was thought, would soon capitulate: That a War in Italy was expected; and that his Sardinian Majesty would open the Campaign with 50,000 Men: That the Swedish Court had resolved to raise no more Men for the War: And that the King of Prussia would quickly begin his Operations with the Siege of Dresden.

The 31st of March, there was 'at Madeira a Shock of an Earthquake, on the North-East Part of the Island, which did some Damage.

In the Papers there is an Account, that on the 28th of March died that Great, Learned and Pious Divine, the Rev. Mr. GEORGE WHITEFIELD.

ANNAPOLIS, May 28.

Sunday last arrived here, from London, the Ship Neptune, Captain Benjamin Dawson, who left the 30th of March.

Capt. Dawson informs us, that the Day before he left Spithead, the Grand Expedition Fleet sailed; but where they were bound remain'd a Secret. There were 14 Sail of the Line, 20 Frigates, 10 Bombs, &c. and about 200 Sail of Transports, with 10,000 Land Forces. Commodore Keppel had the Command of the Fleet; and the Troops were under the Command of General Hodgson.

Capt. John Johnston, in the Ship Sally, came in with Capt. Dawson, and is arriv'd in Patowmack.

By Letters from London, we are inform'd, that Capt. Cramer, of the Fletis, from Patapsco, was attacked in her Passage home by a Privateer of 60 Guns, whom, after a sharp Engagement, he oblig'd to sheer off: But had hardly got out of sight from her, before a Frigate came up, and oblig'd him to strike. The Fletis had only 4 Guns, and 15 Men.

JUST IMPORTED,

the Ship NEPTUNE, BENJAMIN DAWSON Commander, and to be Sold by the Subscribers on board the said Ship, lying at ANNAPOLIS, on Tuesday the Second Day of June.

PARCEL of likely healthy CONVICTS, consisting of Men, Women and Boys; among the former of which are some Tradesmen.

STEWART and LUX.

THE said LUX has imported in the said Ship, a Variety of European and East-India GOODS suitable for the Season, to be Sold at his Store at Elk-Ridge Landing.

For LONDON, Mr. West

THE Ship Alexander, DANIEL CURLING Master, Burthen about 450 Hogheads, a prime Sailer, now lying at Piscataway Landing in Patowmack River, having good Accommodations for Passengers, will sail in about 2 Months. Any Gentlemen inclinable to take their Passage on board the said Ship, may apply to Mr. West at Upper-Marlborough, or the Master on board. DANIEL CURLING.

To be FREIGHTED or CHARTERED,

THE Sloop Molly, a new Vessel, now lying in the Dock at Annapolis, Burthen 76 Tons, will carry about 3700 Bushels of Grain. Any one inclinable to Freight or Charter the said Vessel, is desir'd to apply to John Pitt in Annapolis.

TO BE SOLD

By the Subscriber, at UPPER-MARLBOROUGH, on Wednesday the 24th of June,

PARCEL of likely COUNTRY-BORN SLAVES, (Women, Boys and Girls); and a Variety of good Household Furniture.

Likewise, Cattle, Sheep, and Hogs. Time will be allowed for Payment, on Interest, and giving Security if required.

DANIEL CARROLL.

STOLEN or Stray'd some Time since, from Mr. James Cary's in Baltimore-Town, a small black Horse, with an hanging Mane, and a small white Spot on one of his Shoulders; trots and gallops. There was on his Back a neat Hunting-Saddle almost new, without Saddle-Cloth or Housing.

Also Stolen from the Subscriber about a Month since, a good Saddle with a Buff Seat, and green fringed Housing quite new; one of the Stirrup Irons something larger than the other; the Leathers very little wore, and a new English Girth.

Whoever will bring the Horse and Hunting-Saddle to Mr. Amos Fogg in Baltimore-Town, or to the Subscriber in Annapolis, shall receive a Pistole; and whoever will bring the last mentioned Saddle and Housing to me in Annapolis, shall receive Ten Shillings.

THOMAS JENINGS.

THERE is at the Plantation of William Hickman, in Calvert County, taken up as Strays, Two small Mares about 3 Years old, one a Black, dock'd, the other an Iron Grey, not dock'd, and neither of them branded.

The Owner or Owners may have them again, on proving Property, and paying Charges.

COMMITTED to Frederick County Goal on the 4th of May, a New Negro Man, who calls himself by the Name of Sam, a thick well-set Fellow, and whose Teeth are out of the fore Part of his Mouth. His Cloathing is such as Negroes usually wear, except a Pair of Breeches made of Match-Coating. His Language is so imperfect, and he has so little Knowledge of the English Tongue, that he cannot discover his Master, or where he came from. SAMUEL BEALL, Sheriff.

RAN away on the 20th of April last, from the Subscriber living in St. Mary's County, near Wicocomico River, a Servant Man named Thomas Macgilly, he is about 22 Years old, his Head and Beard are red; he is much pitted with the Small-Pox, is about 5 Feet 8 Inches high, and is mark'd on one of his Thighs, just above the Knee, with a Beef's Heart. He had on when he went away, an old brown Frize Coat, an Osnabrigs Shirt, Osnabrigs Trowsers, blue Worsted Stockings, a Pair of Shoes, and a new Felt Hat. He can speak Dutch, and is a Country-born Fellow. He took his Wife with him, her Christian Name is Rebecca, a thick squat Woman, brown Complexion, and black Hair. She had a sprigg'd stamp'd Cotton Gown and other Cloaths.

It is supposed he will change his Name and Cloaths.

Whoever takes up the said Servant Man, and secures him, so that his Master may get him again, shall have FOUR PISTOLES Reward, paid by I W. J. DANIEL CLEMENT GARDINER.

JUST arriv'd in Rappahannock River, the Ship Alice, Captain Samuel Murdock, from Angola, with a choice Parcel of healthy SLAVES: The Sale of which will begin at Frederickburg the 1st of June, 1761. CHAMPE and HUNTER.

JUST IMPORTED,

From LONDON and GLASGOW, and to be Sold by the Subscriber, at his Store in PORT-TOBACCO,

A VERY large Assortment of EUROPEAN and EAST-INDIA GOODS, suitable for all Seasons; among which are many well chosen Silks, Chintz, Millenery, Silver and Shagreen Tweezer Cases, Paste and Stone Buckles, Silver Stomachers, Pompoons and Twitchers, with many other pretty Things for the Ladies.

Also, To be Sold, a large Quantity of well cured Pork, Indian Corn, Plank, Molasses, and Brown Sugar. DANIEL JENIFER.

May 21, 1761.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living in Baltimore County, on Tuesday the 11th Instant, a Convict Servant Man named John Shunk, about 23 Years of Age, a thick well-set Fellow, about 5 Feet 8 Inches high, he wears his own Hair about half Way of his Head, which is of a brown Colour. Had on when he went away, a Country Cloth Jacket and Breeches, an Osnabrigs Shirt, an old Hat, old Shoes and Stockings, a Leather Apron, and an Iron Collar.

Whoever takes up and secures said Servant, so that his Master may have him again, shall have Forty Shillings Reward, if taken in the County; and Three Pounds if taken out of the County, paid by JOSHUA COCKEY.

N. B. He may probably have altered his Dress, and got his Collar off.

May 15, 1761.

RAN away from Thomas Miles of Frederick County, about 12 Miles above Bladensburg, last Saturday, an Irish Convict Servant Woman named Mary Barrington, (but she has chang'd it) about 30 Years of Age, a lusty Woman, thick and tall, has red Hair, a little Pockfretten. Had on a black Silk Bonnet, a red Mantle, Callico Gown with blue and red Flowers, a black quilted Shalloon Petticoat, red Stockings, Wooden heel'd Shoes, & other Cloathing. It is supposed she is near Annapolis.

Whoever takes up and secures said Servant, so that her Master may have her again, shall receive Forty Shillings Reward. THOMAS MILES.

THE Subscriber, living in Prince-George's County, has between Five and Six Hundred Bushels of INDIAN CORN to dispose of. Any Person inclinable to purchase the whole, may have it at 2/6 per Bushel Current Money, and delivered at Piscataway Wharf on giving Ten Days Notice. CLEMENT WHEELER.

By the UPPER HOUSE of ASSEMBLY, 6th of May, 1761.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That for the future no Account be allowed by this House upon the Journal of Accounts, unless the same, or a Copy thereof, with a Copy of the Probate thereto (if any) attested to be a true Copy of such Account and Probate (if any) by some Magistrate, or by the Oath of the Party taken before some Magistrate, be laid before this House, at the same Time that such Accounts, or a Copy thereof, be laid before the Committee of Accounts of the Lower House of Assembly: And that all Persons may have due Notice hereof, and conduct themselves accordingly, it is hereby Ordered, That Mr. Jonas Green, Printer, make public the foregoing Resolve, by Printing the same in his Six succeeding Gazettes. Signed per Order, J. ROSS, Cl. Up. Ho.

May 2d, 1761.

RAN away on the 18th of March last, from the Subscriber living near Annapolis, a Negro Fellow named Walley, about 6 Feet high, a lusty, well made, able young Fellow. He had on a blue Fearnothering Jacket and white Cotton Breeches, but is supposed to have other Cloathing.

He is supposed to be in Company with a Negro Fellow named Phill, belonging to Mr. Benjamin Benson, of Cecil County, as they were both taken up in Virginia, and committed to Frederickburg Goal, from which they made their Escape, with several others.

Whoever takes him up, and brings him to his Master, shall have TEN POUNDS Reward, or FIVE POUNDS for securing him in any Goal, so that he may be had again; provided he is apprehended after the Date of this Advertisement. CHARLES GRIFFITH.
