

The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.]

THURSDAY, May 5, 1763.

[N^o. 939.]

London, February 3.

We hear that it is proposed to keep standing 83 Regiments of Foot, of 500 Men each; of which 13 will be kept in Great-Britain; 38 in Ireland; 6 (on the Irish Establishment) in Minorca; 6 (on the Irish Establishment) at Gibraltar; and 20 in America and the West-Indies.

The Wilton, Lee, from Virginia, is on Shore at Erith; but will be got off after being lightened.

The Division of the Money taken, seems to afford great Discontent; and it is a wide Disparity, if one Commander is to have 70,000 l. to his Share; while a Subaltern has only 100, and a Lieut. 10 s. is all that comes to a private Man. Is not this making one Man as valuable as near 30,000; and making the Lives of so many as equivalent only to one.

Feb. 17. We hear that Sir Edward Hawke, for the eminent and never-to-be-forgotten Services he did his Country, is the Defeat of, and rendering useless, so great a Part of the French Navy in November 1759, and thereby freeing their Kingdoms from the Terror of a powerful Invasion; and Sir George Pococke, for the distinguished Services he did his Country in the East-Indies, and in the Conquest of the Havannah, are both to be made Peers of Great-Britain: An Honour conferred upon Persons of so much Merit, cannot but be highly applauded by a brave and grateful People.

Tuesday Evening Richard Neville Aldisworth, Esq; Secretary to the Embassy to his Most Christian Majesty, arrived in London with the Definitive Treaty, which was signed at Paris on Thursday last, the 10th Instant.

A Letter has been sent to the Lord Mayor from Lord Egremont, Secretary of State, with the News that the Treaty was signed.

The Gentlemen Lieutenants of the Royal Navy have proposed to the Lords of the Admiralty, that to provide for near 30,000 Seamen, who will now be discharged, all the King's Frigates, armed Ships, &c. which can be properly converted to this Service, be employed, to the Number of 250 Sail, making 125,000 Tons of Shipping, manned with 17,500 Seamen, and 2500 Non-commissioned Officers, paid by the Government as at present, and under the same Regulations, and entitled to the same Privileges in the Whale-Fishery at Greenland and Davis's Straits.

From an Estimate of the Galas made by the Dutch in this Fishery, it appears, that after all Charges, including Wear and Tear of the Ships employed, there would be a Profit of 100,000 l. yearly, besides establishing a Nursery for Seamen. Employing Seamen in the Government's Pay in this Branch, would be less injurious to the Merchants than employing them in any other, because Ships in the Greenland Fishery are obliged to carry three Times the Number of Hands required in coasting Vessels of equal Burthen; and never more than 5000 have been employed in it in any one Season.

The Amount of the national Debt on the 5th of January last, was 122,603,336 l. 8 s. 2 d. 1 q. bearing an annual Interest of 3,409,797 l. 13 s. 8 d.

February 19. The French Court, sensible of the Defects of their Colony and Plantation Laws, propose to form a new Code, modelled on the Laws of the British Plantations.

The current Reports are, that the Explanation of some Articles in the Definitive Treaty, which the Duke of Bedford demanded, were judged by the French King's Council injurious both to the Hoopoe and to the Interests of France, that they unanimously declared that they ought not to be granted; but the peremptory Manner in which his Grace insisted on them, determined his Majesty, who was desirous of putting an End to the War, what it would, to command his Ministers to sign the Treaty, with the Explanations required, without Regard to the Remonstrances of his Council.

It is also said that Richard Neville, Esq; who brought over the Definitive Treaty, received from the King a Present of 500 l. and that it was ratified by his Majesty last Wednesday.

It is said, that just before the Definitive Treaty was signed, the Duke of Bedford had actually discharged a Messenger, with an Account of his intending shortly to return Home, because the French Court had refused to comply with the present Terms of the Treaty; but that the Messenger was, at the Request of the French King, sent for back; who had hitherto called a Council, and notwithstanding the Protest of several of his Council, he immediately signed the Definitive Treaty, agreeable to the Terms of our Court.

It is said a Proclamation will be speedily issued out for proclaiming Peace the 10th of next Month.

Whitehall, Feb. 19. On Tuesday Night last, Richard Neville, Esq; Secretary to his Majesty's Embassy at the Court of France, arrived with the Definitive Treaty of Peace, signed at Paris on Thursday the 10th Instant, by his Grace the Duke of Bedford, the Duc de Praslin, and the Marquis de Limaldi; Ambassadors Extraordinary and Plenipotentiaries in the Part of his Majesty, the Most Christian King; and the Catholic King: To whom M^r. de Meill, Ambassador and Plenipotentiary of his Most Faithful Majesty, acceded the same Day.

Yesterday about Noon, three Waggon, containing thirty-four Boxes, and four Castles of Gold and Silver, landed at Duxbury, out of the Gospot Man of War from Virginia, came to the Bank of England, guarded by a large Number of Guards.

They write from the Havannah, that Dr. Winteringham, Physician to his Majesty, and Physician-General to the Army, has ordered all his Share of the Effects taken at the Havannah, to be divided among the poor Soldiers. As they risked their Lives, and fought for the Conquest, he said they ought to reap the Advantages of the Fatigues and Difficulties they had gone through. His Share is equal to that of a Colonel.

They write from the Havannah, that Dr. Winteringham, Physician to his Majesty, and Physician-General to the Army, has ordered all his Share of the Effects taken at the Havannah, to be divided among the poor Soldiers. As they risked their Lives, and fought for the Conquest, he said they ought to reap the Advantages of the Fatigues and Difficulties they had gone through. His Share is equal to that of a Colonel.

The Coventry Frigate, from a Cruize, is arrived at Plymouth, and has brought in the Peggy and Elizabeth, Brigs, from Virginia, which she took from the Spaniards.

The Rt. Hon. Charles Townshend, Esq; is appointed First Lord of Trade.

And we hear that Lord Hardwicke will be made President of the Council.

We hear that 15 Regiments of Foot, less than was at first proposed, will be kept on Foot during a Peace.

The Definitive Treaty between Great-Britain, France, Spain, and Portugal, was signed at Paris by the respective Ministers in the Evening of the 10th Instant, at the Duke of Bedford's Hotel, his Grace being confined by the Gout.

Letters from Hamburg of the 11th Instant, inform us, that it was reported there, that the Prussian Minister had received an Express from Leipzig, with Advice that a Treaty was signed at Leipzig on the 8th; and would be published in Saxony on the 16th: That the Prussians, as well as the Austrians, were to evacuate that Electorate in the Space of six Weeks, or two Months, at the farthest; and that what chiefly accelerated this voluntary Work, was the King of Prussia's consenting to give his Vote for the Archduke Joseph to be King of the Romans; and that the Election of this Prince to that Dignity would be immediately set about.

No authentic Account of Peace being signed between the Houses of Austria and Brandenburg, had been received at the Hague on the 17th.

The Letters from different Parts all spoke of it, however, as certain; but varied as to the Day of its being signed; some mentioning the 18th, others the 15th, and others the 8th. The principal Articles are said to be as follows:

1. The Empress Queen shall cede to the King of Prussia the County of Glatz.

2. The Empress shall also cede to him, for an equivalent in Money, the Upper Quarter of Gueldries.

3. The King of Prussia, as Elector of Brandenburg, shall not oppose the Election of a King of the Romans, and shall give his Vote for the Archduke Joseph.

4. All other Matters shall be put on the same Footing as before the present War.

5. The King of Prussia shall indemnify the King of Poland in Money.

We are informed that every Thing in the East-Indies, was settled to the entire Satisfaction of both Nations.

We hear that we are to remain in Possession of Martinico, and Guadalupe three Months longer, from the 1st of April, and to have some other considerable Advantages for three Months longer after that, till the 1st of October.

They write from Barcelona of the 18th ult. that the Spaniards are to keep Possession of the Places they conquered from Portugal till the English have evacuated the Havannah.

Extract of a Letter from Goree, dated Nov. 1.

"I am sorry to acquaint you of this News, that on the 15th of October, between the Hours of two and Three in the Afternoon, while we were all sitting at Dinner at the Governor's House, about Twelve in Number, unhappily the Magazine in Fort Elisabeth blew up, which had in it above Eight Thousand five Hundred Weight of Gunpowder. The Governor's House, where we dined, was not above Twenty-Yards from it; but, thank God! none of us were hurt, altho' the greatest Part of the House tumbled down about us. The Parson that was sitting in my Room, which was not Five-Yards from it, was killed, and I have lost all my Things except what I had on my Back. Two Centinels standing at the Governor's Door were killed. Never was a narrower Escape known; I believe we had several People killed and wounded. The Negro Town took fire, and was consumed in a Quarter of an Hour."

By private Advices from Paris we are informed, that the famous Monsieur Lally had been tried there, for certain Misdemeanors and Crimes supposed by him to have been committed in the East Indies; but his Enemies not being able to make any Thing capital appear against him, we hear he was honourably acquitted.

The sum to be raised by Subscription till Yest, it is said, will be Three Millions and One Half: Each Subscriber of 1000 l. is to have 20 l. in Annuities, redeemable at Pleasure, at 4 per Cent. and so l. in two Lottery Tickets.

The Caroline, Friend, from Philadelphia for London, was taken the 10th of last Month, being Ten Days after the Cessation of Hostilities, by a Spanish Privateer, and carried into Bilbao. The Spaniard confined Captain Friend a close Prisoner, and would not suffer him to write.

Feb. 26. His Majesty's Ship, Ludlow Castle, is appointed to go to Senegal and Goree, with an Account of the Definitive Treaty being signed; they are also to acquaint the Governor of Goree what Time that Place is to be delivered up to the French.

The Hawke, Capt. Watson, from Virginia, left from Ireland, bound to London, is ashore near Boulogne. The Crew were all saved, and most of the Cargo will be saved; and they have great Hopes of the Ship.

Notwithstanding the Peace is concluded, we shall be satisfied with the Expenses of some Foreign Troops at least another Year, in consequence of Treaties that must be fulfilled whilst they are in Force.

The Fellow-Pupil, Campbell, is arrived at Dingle, from Virginia; the rest of the Crew of the Peggy, Galatea, from Virginia to London, which foundered at Sea.

Letters from Holland by the last Mail advise, that they had an Account from the East India, that a Fleet of English Men of War, with a Body of Land-Forces, under Col. Draper, was gone against the Philippine Islands.

A Dutch and Blandford Mail arrived this Day, by which we have undoubted intelligence, that the Definitive Treaty of Peace between the King of Prussia on the one Part, and the Empress Queen and the King of Poland on the other, was concluded and signed at the Castle of Hubertbourg, on Tuesday the 15th Inst.

But some private Letters advise, that fresh Broils are likely to happen between Denmark and Russia, relative to Holstein.

Mean while they send us Word from Hanover, that the Number of their Forces, which in Time of Peace used to be 24,000, will be reduced to 14,000.

The Prince of Prussia, accompanied by his Brother, made a Visit on the 9th Inst. to the Court of Saxe-Gotha; and a Marriage is talked of between his Royal Highness and a Princess of this House.

It is said that, by the Definitive Treaty, the Privilege claimed by the French of fishing in the Bay of St. Lawrence, is entirely renounced; and that in the East-Indies the French are to have no Restitution of Territory, but only the Liberty of trading in their Comptoirs, under British Protection.

It is said that the Lottery of the present Year will be divided into two Classes; and that the first will be drawn in May, and the second in November.

The Marquis of Granby's Letter of Thanks to the British Forces in Germany.

"Munster, Jan. 1. Lord Granby has hoped to have had it in his Power to have seen and taken his Leave of the Troops, before their Embarkation for England; but a severe Illness having detained him at Warburg, and his present State of Health obliging him to take another Rout, he could not leave this Country without this publick Testimony of his entire Approbation of their Conduct since he has had the Honour of commanding them.

"These Sentiments naturally call for his utmost Acknowledgments; he therefore returns his warmest Thanks to the Generals, Officers, and private Men, composing the whole British Corps for the Bravery, Zeal, Discipline, and good Conduct he has constantly experienced from every Individual; and his most particular and personal Thanks are due to them for their ready Obedience, upon all Occasions, to such Orders as his Station obliged him to give.

"His best Endeavours have always been directed to their Good by every Means in his Power; and he has the Satisfaction to think he has some Reason to flatter himself of their being convinced, if not of the Efficacy, at least of the Sincerity, of his Intentions, if he may judge by the noble return their Behaviour has made him; a Behaviour, that while it fills him with Gratitude, has endeared them to their King and Country, and has covered them with Glory and Honour.

"Highly sensible of their Merit, he shall continue, while he lives, to look upon it as much his Duty, as it will be ever be his Inclinations, to give them every possible Proof of his Affection and Esteem; which he should be happy to make as apparent as their Valour has been, and will be conspicuous and exemplary to their After Ages."

A private Letter from Germany, by the last Post, advises, that a Treaty of Peace was signed the 2d Instant, by which the Dutchy of Cleves, as far as the left side of the Banks of the Rhine, is to be given to the Empress Queen, in the lieu of which Lofstas, and the two Principalities of Upper Silesia, are to be yielded to the King of Prussia.

We have received Advice, that the Empress Queen has ceded the greater Part of her Italian Dominions to Don Lewis of Spain, who is to marry one of the Archduchesses of Austria.

The King of Prussia hath appointed Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, late Commander in Chief of the Allied Army, to be the Governor of Magdeburg.

A Fligate came into the Jamaica Fleet the 13th of January, and acquainted them of a Peace; upon which they all left the Hampshire and Portmashon Men of War, their Convoy; and there is Advice of the safe Arrival of friend of them in England.

The Foot Guards are to be reduced to 60 Men in each Company, and the three Battalions that are now abroad, are to be filled to that Complement with new Recruits.

We hear that several iniquitous Practices have been discovered, relating to some foreign Contractors both for the Army and Navy, and that a strict Inquiry will be made into their Accounts.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, Jan. 27.

"On a Complaint made to the King of England by the Duke de Choiseul, that a Fright in the Service of the East India Company, provided with a Passport from his Britannic Majesty, and bound to the Isles of France with Dispatches, had been stopp'd by an English Vessel, and carried into Plymouth, under Pretext that the King's Licence was not sufficient, and that he ought to have had a Pass from the Admiralty of England; the Court of London ordered the Vessel to be discharged, and left the Punishment of the Captain, who detained her, to the King of France; his Majesty referred it to the Duke de Choiseul, and the Duke has left it to be decided by the East-India Company."

The French King, moved by the Distress of the Family of Saxe, has given Prince Clement the Revenue, upon the Death of the Count de Clermont, of the Abbey of St. Germain l'Auxerrois.

Feb. 28. They write from Bristol, that an Ass. belonging to a Sailor at Totnes in Devonshire, seeing his Wife washing her Child in warm Water, observed her absence, and in the Mocher's Absence took the Child out of the Cradle, and letting Water over the Fire, when it was hot, stripped the Child naked, and washed it therewith till it died.

We hear from Wilts, that on Saturday Morning last the Bank broke between that Town and Petersborough, by which it was computed, 60,000 Pounds would be lost under Water. There is likewise a Bank broken called the Standard Post, going to Lynn. Some far amount of Damage is done by the Loss of Coal-Stock and Oats in Barre, &c. It is supposed the Duke of Bedford's Library will be all Extract of a Letter from Wifbech, Feb. 25.

" Saturday last, between Cowland and Spalding, the River Wefling, in the County of Lincoln, by the Force of the Waters, broke the Bank, and carried away a House, called Brothers House, consisting of Frame-Work, near 60 Yards Distance before the Family discovered it, they being all at Dinner; but on looking out, found themselves surrounded with Water. By the Assistance of a Boat they were all taken out, or else must have perished. And on the same Day four large Breaches in the great Bank between Peterborough and Wifbech, in the Isle of Ely, in the County of Cambridge, broke out of the River Ouse, and the Waters meeting together, have overflowed near four Hundred Thousand Acres of Land, and the Loss is computed at near 100,000l.

On Monday last, the Bakewell Postman was found dead in the Snow, near Chatsworth Park, in Derbyshire. A poor Man, upwards of Eighty, was lost in the Storm.

In the Storm of Saturday, the 12th Inst. Mr. Hodgson, Innkeeper at Addington, in Yorkshire, perished in the Snow on Bumble Moor, on his Return from Skipton-Market, and a Servant belonging to Mr. Roper, of Steeton, was lost near Biddlefield-Hall.

CHARLES-TOWN (in South-Carolina) March 26.
Extract of a Letter, dated Havana, March 18.

" We expect Admiral Keppel here from Jamaica about the Middle of May, and imagine we may all leave this Place in about three Months: Some Transports are arrived here from Jamaica to carry off the Garrison, but their Destination is not known. Six Spanish Prize Ships of War, all of the Line, viz. Tigre, of 70 Guns; Reyna, of 70; Soverano, of 70; Aquilon, of 70, and San Antonio, of 60 Guns, are now almost ready for the Sea, and are to be sent to England; they are to be manned from the Ships here and at Jamaica, with Sailors sufficient to work them, and a Number of Soldiers are to be put on board each Ship. The America, and the two Ships of War that were on the Stocks, are to be burnt.—The Dock-Yards have been destroyed in such a Manner, as will put it out of the Power of the Spaniards to build any Men of War here for 3 Years at least."

BOSTON, April 4.

We hear from New-London, that on Tuesday last Died there, Capt. NATHANIEL GREEN, a Gentleman of an honest and fair Character.

N E W - Y O R K, April 21.

Monday last His Majesty's Packet the Earl of Halifax, Capt. Boulderston, arrived here from Falmouth, which she left on Saturday the third of March, and brought the February Mail. The Duke of Cumberland Packet Boat, Capt. Goodrich, with the Mail from New-York, arrived at Falmouth the 2d of March last. Another Packet is expected here from England in a few Days, which no doubt will bring the Copy of the Definitive Treaty of Peace, none of the Articles of which, that we can find, had been made publick when the last Advices brought by Captain Boulderston, were sent from London. It is almost certain that the Treaty of Peace between the Empress Queen, and the Kings of Prussia and Poland, has been concluded, though we have no particular, nor authoritative Account of it, and we have the greatest Reason to expect a general Peace between all the Powers in Europe.

April 25. On the 21st of February last His Majesty's Sloop Ferret, Capt. Clark, carried into Barbados a large Spanish Ship, mounting 18 Six and Nine-Pounders, taken ten Days before the Ceilation of Arms, as she lay at Anchor under the West End of Porto Rico. She was from the Carreras, and is esteemed a very rich Prize. [This is another of the Carreras Fleets out of which the Temeraire Frigate and Jamaica Privateer took two.]

ANNAPOLIS, May 5.

This Day the Provincial Court broke up, and adjourn'd to the second Tuesday in September next.

Last Friday Night we had a smart Thunder Gulf. A large tall Tree on the Edge of Patowmack River, near Penn-Ave, was split to Flinders by it; whilst a Man in a Boat a few Yards from it, lay asleep and never heard it.

The following is a certain Fact: An Ewe belonging to Mr. John Brooks of Charles County, on the 26th Day of March yeasted a Lamb, on the 6th Day of April she yeasted another, and on the next Day she yeasted a Third, all perfect Lambs and of the common Size.

C A D I Z, January 25.

A DUTCH Man-of-War arrived here the 21st, and it is said she will be followed by several other Vessels, to form a small Squadron against the Algerines, who seem disposed to break with the Dutch. The Motives of this Rupture are said to be a Neglect of the Dutch to fulfil their Treaty with Algiers.

HORN, Feb. 21. By the Peace concluded in Germany, it is said, that all Silesia, and the County of Glatz, are guaranteed to his Prussian Majesty; which is all he ever contended for. He would have made Peace upon the same Terms two Years ago.

The King of Prussia will now be looked upon, by all the World, as the HERO of the Age; and will doubtless be a principal Arbiter of Europe. How will this History affectuate Asia, when they read, that the Emperors of Russia, the Queen of Hungary, the King of France and Sweden, and the Elector of Saxony, had laid a deep and premeditated Scheme to destroy him, and to divide his Country among them; and that notwithstanding their Troops were joined by the whole Army of the Empire, and also by the Troops of Austria and Bohemia; yet his Prussian Majesty, by his Conduct and Intrepidity, baffled all their Efforts, and obliged those Powers to stanch their Swords in the Year 1763, and leave him in actual Possession of that very Country, on the Account of which he was to have been unjustly destroyed.

Paris, Jan. 24. We have received the following Account of the Capture of the Baffin's Bomb, by the Audacious Privateer of Bayonne.

The Audacious, a Frigate of 18 Guns, and 140 Men, commanded by Captain Minbelle, sailed from Bayonne on the 2d of October, and upon the 20th, on the Banks of Newfoundland, fell in with the Baffin's, which carried 28 Guns, and 60 Men. The Engagement began with the greatest Vivacity; the Baffin's Mizzen-Mast was soon carried away; most of her Hands wounded, and the Captain himself received several Wounds; but instead of yielding, he was seen with his drawn Sword, daring the Audacious's Men, and exerting his own People rather to die than to strike. Upon which Captain Minbelle gave Orders for Boarding. The two Vessels soon grappled, and the Engagement became more hot than ever. At last, the English Captain and his First Lieutenant being no longer able to keep the Deck, the French made themselves Masters of the Ship. An Englishman who was on the Point of throwing a Box of Dispatches into the Sea, was prevented by a Blow from a Sabre.

The French Frigate received very little Damage, and had only three Men wounded. Above Half of the Ship's Company of the Baffin's were wounded. The Captain is since dead of his Wounds. He was discharged from the Hospital by Admiral Pococke, on the 12th of October. Capt. Minbelle returned to Port Mahon on the 2d instant. His Prize arrived there a few Days before.

L O N D O N, February 5.

A Gentleman who arrived in Town yesterday from the West of England, says, that there has been no Frost there, but at fine, open, frosty Weather, as ever was known; and the first Appearance he found of the Frost, was not till he got upwards of 20 Miles on this Side of Exeter.

We hear from Salath, in Cornwall, that they never had a more moderate Winter than the present, scarce having either Frost or Snow.

On the 10th ult. died at Paris, aged 73, Mr. John Constant, born at Limoux, in Languedoc, June 4, 1689. He was a Lieutenant in Half-pay of the Regiment of Violier-Musas, and in 5 Years Service received seven Wounds. He quitted the Army in 1653. He used to say, that he was by General St. Hilaire's Side when that Officer had his Arm cut off, in the same Instant that the Great Fortune was killed by a Cannon Ball. The Prince of Conti gave Orders for Constant's Burial, and defrayed the Expence of it.

It is asserted that in the Definitive Treaty there will be a Clause inserted for the mutual Surrender of all Traitors, Murderers, and Felons, between the Courts of Great-Britain, France, Spain, and Portugal.

A few Days since a Vessel arrived at Plymouth from Biscay, with several Officers of the Train of Artillery, Marbles, and some Builders, who had been sent over there by the Office of the Ordnance, to repair the Fortifications on that Island, by whom we are informed, that the Repairs made there amount to upwards of 100,000l.

Feb. 5. Last Tuesday was the highest Tide at Portsmouth that has been known for many Years. The Inhabitants at the Point were obliged to go in Boats from House to House.

Extrait of a Letter from Marquis, Dec. 6.

"The brilliant, bold, very rich, from London to Madrid, founded at sea, about 150 Leagues from Montevideo, by a Plank starting; the Crew fixed themselves in their Boat, but, coming near the Island, were met in a miserable Situation, almost famished, by a French Privateer, who destined to their Sufferings, by stripping them all naked, and exacting about 4000l. in Dollars from them, which they did pay."

Feb. 10. We hear that no Money will be raised this Year for the Government by Subsidies.

Yesterday the Right Hon. the Earl of Sandwich killed his Majesty's Hand at St. James's, on being appointed Ambassador to Spain.

On Monday Sir Charles Saunders was knighted by his Majesty at St. James's, no being about when the Order of the Bath was sent to him. All Knights of the Order are made Knights by his Majesty on their Creation, if at Home, and if not, the next Time they come to St. James's after their Arrival.

Feb. 12. By a Ship arrived from Rochfort, we learn, that the French are very busy in preparing another large Dock in that Place, capable of holding Ships of 90 or 100 Guns, and that several first and second Rates are near Half finished, and four more about to be laid on the Stocks.

At this Conjunction, the Sovereignty of the Portuguese may be so complaisant to the British, the only Friends they have on Earth, who are Residents on their Island of Madeira, as to grant them the Liberty of interring their Dead on Shore, and not destroying that humble Bona, as they have ever done heretofore, to those who are not of their Communion) carry them out in a Boat, guarded by Soldiers, and throw them into the Sea, a League from Shore: It is a pity and a Shame, that this Disgrace has not been removed long ago.

Feb. 14. A Scheme is under Consideration for employing the Soldiers in repairing the public Roads, to insure them to Labour and Industry.

The Thames rose so high Yesterday, that many Houses on the Surrey Shore were two or three Feet deep in Water; and at Lambeth the Long-Walk, by the Bishop's Palace, was overflowed, and Boats were employed in the Town, to carry People from House to House.

Yesterday the Tide was so high, occasioned by a strong Easterly Wind, that the lower Parts of many Houses in Wapping were overflowed, and the Inhabitants were obliged to get into the one Pair of Stairs Rooms to save themselves: The lower Parts of several Houses were also overflowed in Tooley-street.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Huntingdon is appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Last Sunday Afternoon the Water was above 2 Feet deep in Westminster-Hall, occasioned by the extraordinary high Tide.

Feb. 17. Several principal Traders have within these few Weeks paid come over here from different Parts of the Coast of France, in order to purchase English Goods.

We hear that Mr. White, the Chemist, receives from his Majesty, to enable him to prepare the late Mr. Ward's Medicines at so easy a Rate, that they may be purchased by the Poor, a Pintion of you l. a Year; and Mr. D'Offerman receives on the same Account, a Pintion of 200l. a Year.

Letters from Paris advise, that on Thursday last, at Night, among many other elegant Illuminations in that City, on Account of the Definitive Treaty being signed, was one adorned with the British Arms, and under it in Capitals, Long live the Duke of Bedford.

Feb. 19. The heavy Rains that have fallen lately have swelled the Thames, near Windsor, higher than it has been these 30 Years.

Extrait of a Letter from Paris, Feb. 15.

"The Majority of our Council had very nigh overturned all the Articles in the fatal Work of Peace; when the King being informed by his Minister of their Proceedings, and at the same Time, urged to accept of the generous Terms the King of Great Britain offered him, and that if he did not, it would ruin his People, the King ordered the Treaty should be brought to him, when he immediately signed it without any other Ceremony, to the great Joy of the Public in general."

We hear that her Majesty has been most graciously pleased to signify her Intention of taking under her Patronage Fifty Girls, not under Six Years of Age, Daughters of Land Officers, and who have lost their Lives in the Service of the Country, during the late War, and have lost their Families unprovided for. They are to have all gentle Accomplishments, to be uniformly dressed, and kept till they are 12 Years of Age, and then to be placed in the Services of different Ladies amongst the Nobility and Gentry, and to have a certain Sum each, in order to clothe them in a decent Manner; an Act of Generosity worthy the Royal Mind that has formed it, and truly deserving the Instantiation of other crowned Heads.

Feb. 19. The Encamion pulled on the King of Prussia for his Policy in sending Second in Hand with his Army, though undoubtedly an Observation which has its Foundation in Truth, yet is equally due to the Empress Queen, his Rival, as well as to any other Monarch. For to the Honour of Princes be it spoken, they have often taken Advantage of their Subjects, under the most impudent Appearances, and so frequently violated not only Wards, but even the most solemn Oaths, when an Opportunity presented of oppressing one another, that they find themselves, the Faith of a King is as little to be depended on as that of a common Man, and therefore they often now a Days enter into any Negotiations, without being in the Woods of Hesse, in au rampe fortun des empereurs, i.e. ready Allies for Warlike Purposes.

We are informed that some Fellows meeting a Captain of a Man of War lately paid off, in Revenge for ill Usage received from him, actually cut off both his Ears.

It is spakeholded that the Scarcity of Money will be still as great this Year, as any this War. It is true the Subsidy will be only 2,250,000 Millions; but the Navy and Ordnance Debt is at least 2,1 Half Millions, which instead of being paid, is now made into Stock, and must all come to Marquis's hands; the late Rule of Stock has given an Opportunity to the Dutch to withdraw their Money from our Funds, to employ it in their new French Legs, which is at Ten per Cent, and it is thought many of our Countrymen will follow their Example: The Consequences must be very prejudicial to our Trade at this Time.

Feb. 26. By Letters received this Week from Lisbon, the British Troops were still upon the Frontiers of Spain.

Feb. 28. All the Towns on the Lower Rhine and in Gueldres, belonging to the King of Prussia, are in a evacuated by the French on or before the 1st of next Month.

Sunday the Regiment of Blue Guards, which landed on Friday from Germany, marched through St. Helens Park to be quartered at Kensington, Green, &c.

The Scheme for establishing a royal School for educating and maintaining Subaltern Officers female Officers, while Fathers have been slain this War, is carrying into Execution, and the chief Director is already appointed.

March 1. They write from Modena, that the King of Sardinia has obtained from England, by Way of Gift, two Ships of War, to be employed in securing the Italian Seas of Corsairs. The Pope hath given Permission to his Sovraine Majesty to levy a Million of Livres yearly on his Clergy, to defray the Expence of keeping their four Vessels, which the Chevalier Balbius, it is said, is set out from Turin, to receive from his Britannick Majesty.

It is said there are four principal Alterations from the Preliminary Articles in the definitive Treaty, in Favour of the English Merchants, who are to be allowed eighteen Months to settle their Accounts at, and bring away their Property from the Evacuated Islands.

On Saturday Evening last the following shocking Affair was transacted in Duke's-Court, near St. Martin's Church in the Strand: An elderly Man, a German, under Decay, lived at the House of a Silversmith, in the above Court, went to a public House for a full Pot of Beer, which he said he would carry Home himself; but, after being gone out with it for some Time, returned, and sent it by the Boy belonging to the Alehouse. It is supposed, that during that Interval he put some Poisen into the Beer, for the Silversmith and his Wife, in about an Hour after drinking it, were taken to be excessively ill, that had they not had immediate Assistance from an eminent Surgeon in the Neighbourhood, they might have soon expired. All the Symptoms of their having been poisoned appear; and, as a strong corroborating Circumstance, the old Man has absconded. It is likewise observable that he often had been inquiring after the State of his Friend's Affairs, whom he imagined to be rich; and a small remaining Quantity of the Beer, at the Bottom of the Pot, has a very disagreeable Smell.

The Oroonoke, is her Passage home, took a Ship from Virginia bound for London, with 238 Hogsheads of Tobacco.

Letters from Lisbon, of the 11th of January say that the English Fleet of 33 Ships from Portsmouth, and 18 from Newfoundland, were arrived there.

The Cunningham, Montgomery, it arrived at Clyde from Virginia, having lately put into Leithdale; while detained there, a Ship belonging to London from Jamaica, came introduced to the utmost Extremity for Want of Water and Provisions, having for three Weeks before lived entirely upon Rum and Sago. Another Ship, bound to Liverpool from the West Indies, had just got into the Sound of Hoy in still greater Distress, their Provisions and Water being entirely exhausted, so that they were under the Necessity of casting their Dog, Shreds of Leather, &c. In this Situation they beat about for several Days; and at last were reduced to think of sacrificing one of their Number for Subsistence to the Remainder, when providentially they discovered Land, which revived their Spirits, and meeting with a Fishing Boat, they got Assistance and Relief from her till they made the Shore.

Benjamin Green, Esq; is appointed Governor of Nova-Scotia, and will soon set out for that Colony.

Stamford, Jan. 26. The following dreadful Accident happened two or three Days ago at Camby, near Burn, in Lincolnshire, a Man going out very early in the Morning, called up his Son, a Boy about nine or ten Years of Age, to go along with him: The Wife in Bed seemed to take Notice of the Lad, and bid him come to Bed to her, for she should not get up. The poor Boy had no sooner got into Bed, and fallen asleep, than the Woman tied Something about his Neck, drew him up against the Bed-post, and cut his Throat from Ear to Ear. The Jury brought in their Verdict Lunacy.

St. Ives, Feb. 7. A Correspondent at Menheniot, in Cornwall, writes, that the Winter there has been as cold as was ever known, and that he has seen Beasts in Blood in his Garden.

Cork, Jan. 11. The General Amherst, Capt. Melleray, with 2000 Hogsheads of Sugar, besides Coffee and Cacao, from Guadalupe for London, was taken the 20th ult. by a Privateer of 18 Guns, belonging to Haynes, and next Day the sunk. The Privateer had also taken the Ships of Commerce from Lancashire to Virginia; Capt. Price, from Liverpool for Africa; and Capt. Gammie, from Virginia for Liverpool; all which Captains were put on board a Dutch Ship, and landed at Waterford.

Dublin, Feb. 2. Sunday a Number of discharged Servants arrived here from England: one of them had the Humanity on seeing a miserable blind Object, almost naked, on Ossory's Quay, to take off his great Coat and give it him; saying, he was happy in parting with one Coat to cover the Nakedness of his Fellow Creature.

Saturday Mrs. Rice was examined at the Mansion-House, touching her Husband absconding, and defrauding the South-Sea, Bank, and Million Bank, Companies, to the Amount of 50,000l. by forging Letters of Attorney. The Bank Notes, &c. found on her on Friday last, amounted to above 2000l. They were issued by Order of the Directors of the South-Sea Company.

On Friday in the Afternoon several more Forgeries were found in the Bank, amounting to near 30,000l. This is said to be the largest Forgery ever committed in England.

On Saturday Mrs. Rice passed under a long Examination before the Lord Mayor, as did also an Attorney who had been well acquainted with Mr. Rice's Business; but not answering some Questions relating to the Affairs of Mr. Rice, the Attorney was sent to the Podiary Comptre, and Mrs. Rice was left to the Care of a Gentleman until further Examination Yesterday, when she made some valuable Discoveries, and delivered up more Notes and Bonds to a considerable Amount.

It appears that Mr. Rice writes a very bad Hand, and the Penmanship was a remarkable fine one, which gives great Room to suspect there are more concerned.

Orders are sent to his Grace the Duke of Bedford, by the Secretaries of State, to petition his Most Christian Majesty to cause Orders to be issued out for detaining Mr. Rice, if he is found in his Majesty's Dominions.

In Yesterday's French Mail a second Letter was intercepted from Mr. Rice, signed Thomas Howard, and directed to John Rogers, which was dated from Amsterdam; giving an Account that he was gone for Italy.

It is said that Rice, during his being in Custody by Order of the French King, applied by Letter to the Archbishop of Cambrai, signifying his earnest Desire of embracing the Romish Religion, upon which the Archbishop immediately demanded him of the Person in whose Custody he was, who immediately delivered him up (so much superior is the Power of the Church to Regal Authority) since which he is said publicly to have received the Catholick Faith, and some add, he is even commenced Priest.

Edinburgb, Jan. 15. By a Letter from Brechin, we are informed, that some Days ago, the River hard by that Place, commonly called the North-Water, all on a Sudden dried up, and continued so, from Six in the Morning till Twelve Mid-day, when the Water again returned, and began to flow as usual.

PHILADELPHIA, May 5.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated Feb. 18.

"The Definitive Treaty was signed the Tenth Instant, and will be ratified a Month hence; after which three Months will be allowed for the Troops to evacuate, and eighteen Months for English Subjects, in their own Vessels, to transport themselves, and their Effects.—There is to be an entire Demolition of Dunkirk.—The Points respecting the East Indies are given up to us; and all Ambiguities, in the Preliminaries, explained in the most satisfactory Manner for Britain. The Troops, as they evacuate the Havannah, will take Possession of Mobile and St. Augustine."

Extract of another Letter from the same Place, dated February 21, 1763.

"The Definitive Treaty is now signed, and, though it is not yet made public, I can assure you (for I have read it) it is better, in many Particulars, than the Preliminary Articles. The East India Company's Affairs are settled on their own Plan, and Dunkirk is to be demolished, to the Satisfaction of His BRITANNIC MAJESTY. Some say the Duke of Bedford behaved with great Firmness at Paris; others, that the French, with great Facility, yielded to every Thing we insisted on. Be that as it will, we have, beyond all Doubt, obtained a very glorious Peace, which, if we have Sagacity enough to improve, must render us a very flourishing and happy People.—At present all is quiet at home, the Opposition to the Peace, which, in Truth, was only an Opposition to Men, not to MEASURES, being now intirely dropt."

By Captain Butler, from St. Christophers, we have Advice, that four small Vessels have been cruising for some Time, in a pyratical Manner, off of Guadalupe and Martinico, and had taken four Vessels, two of them said to be New-England Men; but that one of the Pyrates was taken, and carried to St. Eustatia; and that the Captain, named Shott, and seven of his Men, had been tried, and received Sentence of Death.

ANNAPOULIS, May 12.

"On Wednesday the 27th of last Month died very suddenly, in Charles County, universally regretted, Mrs. MARY BRADFORD, Consort of Mr. HENRY BRADFORD of that County. She was blest'd with all the Qualifications that make the good Wife, tender Mother, kind Mistress, and affectionate Friend. Her benevolent Disposition, and Affability of Manners, procured her the Friendship and Esteem of all her Acquaintance."

The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.]

THURSDAY, May 19, 1763.

[N^o. 941.]

On the 3d instant, arrived at New-York, the Duke of Cumberland Packet Boat, Capt. Goodridge, who left Falmouth the 23d Day of March, and has brought the London Prints till the 19th, from which we have the following:

THE DEFINITIVE TREATY
Of Friendship and Peace between his Britannick Majesty, the Most Christian King, and the King of Spain. Concluded at Paris, the 10th Day of February 1763. To which, the King of Portugal acceded on the same Day.

IS THE NAME OF THE MOST HOLY AND UNDIVIDED TRINITY, FATHER, SON, AND HOLY GHOST. SO BE IT.

B E it known to all those to whom it shall, or may, in any manner belong. It has pleased the most High to diffuse the spirit of union and concord among the princes, whose divisions had spread woes in the four parts of the world, and to inspire them with the inclination to cause the consorts of peace to succeed to the misfortunes of a long and bloody war, which, having arisen between England and France, during the reign of the most serene and most potent Prince GEORGE the 2d, by the Grace of God, King of Great-Britain, of glorious memory, continued under the reign of the most serene and most potent Prince, GEORGE the Third, his successor, and, in its progress, communicated itself to Spain and Portugal: Consequently, the most serene and most potent Prince GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, King of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland, Duke of Brunswick and Lunenbourg, Arch-Treasurer, and Elector, of the Holy Roman Empire; the most serene and most potent Prince, LEWIS the Fifteenth, by the Grace of God, most Christian King; and the most serene and most potent Prince, CHARLES the Third, by the Grace of God, King of Spain, and of the Indies, after having laid the foundations of peace in the preliminaries, signed at Fontainbleau the 3d of November last; and the most serene and most potent Prince, DON JOSEPH the First, by the Grace of God, King of Portugal and of the Algarves, after having acceded thereto, determined to compleat, without delay, this great and important work. For this purpose, the high contracting parties have named and appointed their respective Ambassadors Extraordinary and Ministers Plenipotentiary, viz. his Sacred Majesty the King of Great-Britain, the most illustrious and most Excellent Lord, JOHN, Duke and Earl of Bedford, Marquis of Tavistock, &c. his Minister of State, Lieutenant-General of his Armies, Keeper of his Privy Seal, Knight of the most Noble Order of the Garter, and his Ambassador Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to his Most Christian Majesty: his Sacred Majesty the Most Christian King, the most Illustrious and most Excellent Lord, CÆSAR GABRIEL DE CROISIUL, Duke of Praillan, Peer of France, Knight of his Orders, Lieutenant-General of his Armies, and of the Province of Brittany, Counsellor in all his Councils, and Minister and Secretary of State; and of his Commands and Finances; his Sacred Majesty the Catholick King, the most Illustrious and most Excellent Lord, DON JEROME GRIMALDI, Marquis de Grimaldi, Knight of the most Christian King's Orders, Gentleman of his Catholick Majesty's Bed-chamber in employment, and his Ambassador Extraordinary to his most Christian Majesty: his Sacred Majesty the most Faithful King, the most Illustrious and most Excellent Lord, MARTIN DE MELLO and CASTRO, Knight Professed of the Order of Christ, of his most Faithful Majesty's Council, and his Ambassador and Minister Plenipotentiary to his most Christian Majesty.

Who, after having duly communicated to each other their full Powers, in good Form, Copies whereof are transcribed at the End of the present Treaty of Peace, have agreed upon the Articles, the tenor of which is as follows.

ART. I. There shall be a christian, universal, and perpetual peace, as well by sea as by land, and a sincere and constant friendship shall be re-established between their Britannick, Most Christian, Catholick, and Most Faithful, Majesties, and between their heirs and successors, kingdoms, dominions, provinces, countries, subjects, and vassals, of what quality or condition soever they be, without exception of places, or of persons: So that the high contracting parties shall give the greatest attention to maintain, between themselves and their said dominions and subjects, this reciprocal friendship and correspondence, without permitting, on either Side, any kind of hostilities, by sea or by land, to be committed, from henceforth, for any cause, or under any pretence whatsoever, and every thing shall be carefully avoided, which might, hereafter, prejudice the union happily re-established, applying themselves, on the contrary, on every occasion, to procure for each other whatever may contribute to their mutual glory, interests, and advantages, without giving any assistance or protection, directly or indirectly, to those who would cause any prejudice to either of the high contracting Parties. There shall be a general oblivion of every thing that may have been done or committed before, or since, the Commencement of the War, which is just ended.

ART. II. The Treaties of Westphalia, of 1648; those of Madrid, between the Crowns of Great-Britain and Spain, of 1667, and 1670; the treaties of peace of Nimeguen, of 1678, and 1679; of Ryswyck, of 1697; those of Peace and Commerce of Utrecht, of 1713; that of Baden, of 1714; the Treaty of the Triple Alliance of the Hague, of 1717; that of the Quadruple Alliance of London, of 1718; the Treaty of Peace of Vienna, of 1738; the Definitive Treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle, of 1748; and that of Madrid, between the Crowns of Great-Britain and Spain, of 1750; as well as the Treaties between the Crowns of Spain and Portugal, of the 13th of February, 1668; and of the 6th of February, 1715; and of the 12th of February, 1761; and that of the 11th of April, 1713, between France and Portugal, with the Guarantees of Great Britain; serve as a basis and foundation to the Peace, and the present Treaty: And for this purpose, they are all renewed and confirmed in the best form, as well as all the Treaties in general, which subsisted between the High Contracting Parties before the war, as if they were inserted here word for word, so that they are to be exactly observed, for the future, in their whole tenor, and religiously executed on all sides, in all their points which shall not be derogated from by the present Treaty, notwithstanding all that may have been stipulated to the contrary by any of the High Contracting Parties. And all the said Parties declare, that they will not suffer any privilege, favour, or indulgence, to subsist, contrary to the Treaties above confirmed, except what shall have been agreed and stipulated by the present Treaty.

ART. III. All the prisoners made, on all sides, as well by land, as by sea, and the hostages carried away, or given during the War, and to this Day, shall be restored, without ransom, six weeks at latest, to be computed from the day of the exchange of the ratification of the present treaty, each crown respectively paying the advances, which shall have been made for the subsistence and maintenance of their prisoners, by the Sovereign of the country where they shall have been detained, according to the attested receipts and estimates, and other authentick vouchers, which shall be furnished on one side and the other: And securities shall be reciprocally given for the payment of the debts which the prisoners shall have contracted in the countries, where they have been detained, until their entire liberty. And all the ships of war and merchant vessels, which shall have been taken, since the expiration of the terms agreed upon for the cessation of hostilities by sea, shall be likewise restored ~~on both~~ sides, with all their crews, and cargoes: And the execution of this article shall be proceeded upon immediately after the exchange of the ratifications of this treaty.

ART. IV. His Most Christian Majesty renounces all pretensions, which he has heretofore formed, or might form, to Nova-Scotia, or Acadia, in all its parts; and guarantees the whole of it, and with all its dependencies, to the King of Great Britain: Moreover, his Most Christian Majesty cedes, and guarantees to his said Britannick Majesty, in full right, Canada, with all its dependencies, as well as the island of Cape Breton, and all the other islands, and coasts, in the gulph and river of St. Laurence; and, in general, every thing that depends on the said countries, lands, Islands, and coasts, with the sovereignty, property, possession, and all rights acquired by treaty or otherwise, which the Most Christian King, and the Crown of France, have had, till now, over the said countries, islands, lands, places, coasts, and their inhabitants, so that the Most Christian King cedes and makes over the whole to the said King, and to the Crown of Great Britain, and that in the most ample manner and form, without restriction, and without any liberty to depart from the said cession and guarantee, under any pretence, or to disturb Great Britain in the possessions above-mentioned. His Britannick Majesty, on his side, agrees to grant the liberty of the Catholick religion to the inhabitants of Canada: He will, consequently, give the most precise and most effectual orders, that his new Roman Catholick subjects may profess the worship of their religion, according to the rites of the Romish church, as far as the laws of Great Britain permit. His Britannick Majesty further agrees, that the French inhabitants, or others, who had been subjects of the Most Christian King in Canada, may retire, with all safety and freedom, wherever they shall think proper, and may sell their estates, provided it be to subjects of his Britannick Majesty, and bring away their effects, as well as their persons, without being restrained in their emigration, under any pretence whatsoever, except that of debts, or of criminal prosecutions: The term, limited for this emigration, shall be fixed to the space of eighteen months, to be computed from the day of the exchange of the ratification of the present treaty.

ART. V. The subjects of France shall have the liberty of fishing and drying on a part of the coasts of the Island of Newfoundland, such as it is specified in the XIIIth Article of the Treaty of Utrecht; which Article is renewed and confirmed by the present Treaty (except what relates to the island of Cape-Breton, as well as to the other Islands and Coasts, in the Mouth, and in the Gulph, of St. Laurence) And his Britannick Majesty consents to leave to the subjects of the Most Christian King the liberty of fishing in the Gulph of St. Laurence, on condition that the subjects of France do not exercise the said fishery, but at the distance of three leagues from all the coasts belonging to Great-Britain, as well those of the Continent, as those of the Islands situated in the said Gulph St. Laurence. And as to what relates to the fishery on the coasts of the Island of Cape-Breton, out of the said Gulph, the subjects of the Most Christian King shall not be permitted to exercise the said fishery, but at the distance of fifteen leagues from the coasts of the Island of Cape-Breton, and the fishery on the coasts of Nova Scotia, or Acadia, and every where else out of the said Gulph, shall remain on the foot of former Treaties.

ART. VI. The King of Great-Britain cedes the Islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon, in full Right, to his Most Christian Majesty, to serve as a shelter to the French fishermen: And his said Most Christian Majesty engages not to fortify the said Islands, to erect no buildings upon them, but merely for the convenience of the fishery, and to keep upon them a guard of fifty men only for the police.

ART. VII. In order to re-establish peace on solid and durable foundations, and to remove for ever all subjects of dispute with regard to the limits of the British and French territories on the Continent of America: It is agreed, that for the future, the Confines between the dominions of his Britannick Majesty, and those of his Most Christian Majesty, in that part of the world, shall be fixed irrevocably by a line drawn along the middle of the river Mississippi, from its source to the river Iberville, and from thence by a line drawn along the middle of this river, and the lakes Maurepas and Pontchartrain, to the sea: and for this purpose, the Most Christian King cedes in full Right, and guarantees to his Britannick Majesty, the river and port of the Mobile, and every thing which he possesses, or ought to possess, on the left side of the river Mississippi, except the town of New Orleans, and the Island in which it is situated, which shall remain to France; provided that the navigation of the river Mississippi shall be equally free, as well to the subjects of Great-Britain, as to those of France, in its whole breadth and length, from its source to the sea, and expressly that part which is between the said Island of New Orleans, and the right bank of that river, as well as the passage both in and out of its mouth: It is further stipulated, that the vessels belonging to the subjects of either nation, shall not be stopped, visited, or subjected to the payment of any duty whatsoever. The stipulations inserted in the IVth article, in favour of the inhabitants of Canada, shall also take place, with regard to the inhabitants of the countries ceded by this article.

ART. VIII. The King of Great-Britain shall restore to France the islands of Guadaloupe, of Marie Galante, of Desirade, of Martinico, and of Belleisle ; and the fortresses of these islands shall be restored in the same condition they were in, when they were conquered by the British arms ; provided that his Britannick Majesty's subjects, who shall have settled in the said islands, or those who shall have any commercial affairs to settle there, or in the other places restored to France by the present treaty, shall have liberty to sell their lands and their estates, to settle their affairs, to recover their debts, and to bring away their effects, as well as their persons, on board vessels which they shall be permitted to send to the said islands, and other places restored as above, and which shall serve for this use only, without being restrained on account of their religion, or under any other pretence whatsoever, except that of debts, or of criminal prosecutions : And for this purpose, the term of eighteen months is allowed to his Britannick Majesty's subjects, to be computed from the day of the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty : But, as the liberty granted to his Britannick Majesty's subjects, to bring away their persons and their effects, in vessels of their nation, may be liable to abuses, if precautions were not taken to prevent them ; It has been expressly agreed between his Britannick Majesty, and his Most Christian Majesty, that the number of English vessels, which shall have leave to go to the said islands and places restored to France, shall be limited, as well as the number of tons of each one ; That they shall go in ballast ; shall set sail at a fixed time ; and shall make one voyage only, all the effects belonging to the English, being to be embarked at the same time. It has been further agreed, That his Most Christian Majesty shall cause the necessary passports to be given to the said vessels ; That, for the greater security, it shall be allowed to place two French Clerks, or Guards, in each of the said vessels, which shall be visited in the landing-places, and ports of the said Islands, and Places, restored to France, and that the merchandize which shall be found therein, shall be confiscated.

ART. IX. The Most Christian King cedes and guarantees to his Britannick Majesty, in full right, the Islands of Grenada, and of the Grenadines, with the same stipulations in favour of the inhabitants of this Colony, inserted in the IVth Article for those of Canada: And the partition of the Islands, called Neutral, is agreed and fixed, so that those of St. Vincent, Dominica, and Tobago, shall remain, in full right, to Great-Britain; and that that of St. Lucia shall be delivered to France, to enjoy the same likewise in full right; and the high contracting parties guaranty the partition so stipulated.

ART. X. His Britannick Majesty shall restore to France the Island of Goree, in the condition it was in when conquered. And his Most Christian Majesty cedes, in full right, and guarantees to the King of Great-Britain, the river Senegal, with the forts and factories of St. Lewis, Podor, and Gambia; and with all the rights and dependencies of the said river Senegal.

ART. XI. In the East-Indies, Great-Britain shall restore to France, in the condition they are now in, the different factories which that Crown possessed, as well on the coast of Coromandel and Orixa, as on that of Malabar, as also in Bengal, at the beginning of the year 1749. And his Most Christian Majesty renounces all pretensions to the acquisition which he had made on the coast of Coromandel and Orixa, since the said beginning of the year 1749. His Most Christian Majesty shall restore, on his side, all that he may have conquered from Great-Britain, in the East-Indies, during the present War; and will expressly cause Natal and Tapmouatty, in the Island of Sumatra, to be restored; he engages further, not to erect fortifications, or to keep troops in any part of the dominions.

nions of the Subah of Bengal. And, in order to preserve future peace on the coast of Coromandel and Orixa, the English and French shall acknowledge Mahomet Ally Khan for lawful Nabob of the Carnatic, and Salabat Jing for lawful Subah of the Decan; and both parties shall renounce all demands and pretensions of satisfaction, with which they might charge each other, or their Indian Allies, for the depredations, or pillage, committed on the one side or on the other, during the war.

ART. XII. The Island of Minorca shall be restored to his Britannick Majesty, as well as Fort St. Philip, in the same condition they were in, when conquered by the arms of the Most Christian King; and with the artillery which was there, when the said Island, and the said Fort, were taken.

ART. XIII. The town and port of Dunkirk shall be put into the state fixed by the last Treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle, and by former Treaties. The Cunette shall be destroyed immediately after the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty, as well as the forts and batteries which defend the entrance on the side of the sea; and provision shall be made, at the same time, for the wholesomeness of the air, and for the health of the inhabitants, by some other means, to the satisfaction of the King of Great-Britain.

ART. XIV. France shall restore all the countries belonging to the Electorate of Hanover, to the Landgrave of Hesse, to the Duke of Brunswick, and to the Count of La Lippe Bückebourg, which are, or shall be occupied by his Most Christian Majesty's arms: The fortresses of these different countries shall be restored in the same condition they were in, when conquered by the French arms; and the pieces of artillery which shall have been carried elsewhere, shall be replaced by the same number, of the same bore, weight, and metal.

ART. XV. In case the stipulations, contained in the XIIIth article of the Preliminaries, should not be compleated at the time of the signature of the present treaty, as well with regard to the evacuations to be made by the armies of France of the fortresses of Cleves, Wesel, Gueldres, and of all the countries belonging to the King of Prussia, as with regard to the evacuations to be made by the British and French armies of the countries which they occupy in Westphalia, Lower Saxony, on the Lower Rhine, the Upper Rhine, and in all the Empire, and to the retreat of the troops into the dominions of their respective Sovereigns; their Britannick and Most Christian Majesties promise to proceed, bonâ fide, with all the dispatch the case will permit of, to the said evacuations, the entire completion whereof they stipulate before the 15th of March next, or sooner, if it can be done; and their Britannick and Most Christian Majesties further engage, and promise to each other, not to furnish any succours, of any kind, to their respective allies, who shall continue engaged in the war in Germany.

ART. XVI. The decision of the prizes made, in time of peace, by the Subjects of Great-Britain, on the Spaniards, shall be referred to the courts of justice of the Admiralty of Great-Britain, conformably to the Rules established among all nations; so that the validity of the said prizes, between the British and Spanish nations, shall be decided and judged according to the law of nations, and according to Treaties in the courts of justice of the nation who shall have made the Capture.

ART. XVII. His Britannick Majesty shall cause to be demolished all the fortifications which his subjects shall have erected in the Bay of Honduras, and other places of the territory of Spain, in that part of the world, four months after the ratification of the present treaty; and his Catholick Majesty shall not permit his Britannick Majesty's subjects, or their workmen, to be disturbed, or molested, under any pretence whatsoever, in the said places, in their occupation of cutting, loading, and carrying away logwood; and for this purpose they may build without hindrance, and occupy without interruption, the houses and magazines which are necessary for them, for their families, and for their effects; and his Catholick Majesty assures to them, by this article, the full enjoyment of those advantages, and powers, on the Spanish coasts and territories, as above stipulated, immediately after the confirmation of the same.

ART. XVIII. His Catholic Majesty desists, as well for himself, as for his successors, from all pretensions, which he may have formed, in favour of the Guipuscoans, and other his subjects, to the right of fishing in the neighbourhood of the Island of Newfoundland.

ART. XIX. The King of Great-Britain shall restore to Spain all the territory which he has conquered in the Island of Cuba, with the fortresses of the Havannah; and this fortress, as well as all the other fortresses of the said island, shall be restored in the same condition they were in when conquered by his Britannick Majesty's arms; provided, that his Britannick Majesty's subjects, who shall have settled in the said island, restored to Spain by the present treaty, or those who shall have any commercial affairs to settle there, shall have liberty to sell their lands, and their estates, to settle their affairs, to recover their Debts, and to bring away their effects, as well as their persons, on board vessels which they shall be permitted to send to the said island, restored as above, and which shall serve for that use only, without being restrained on account of their religion, or under any pretence whatsoever, except that of debts, or of criminal prosecutions; and for this purpose the term of eighteen months is allowed to his Britannick Majesty's subjects, to be computed from the day of the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty: But as the liberty granted to his Britannick Majesty's subjects, to bring away their persons, and their effects, in vessels of their nation, may be liable to abuses, if precautions were not taken to prevent them; it has been expressly agreed between his Britannick Majesty, and his Catholick Majesty, that the number of English vessels which shall have leave to go to the said island, restored to Spain, shall be limited, as well as the number of tons of each one; that they shall go in ballast; shall set sail at a fixed time; and shall make one voyage only; all the effects belonging to the English being to be embarked at the same time: It has been further agreed, that his Catholick Majesty shall cause the necessary passports to be given to the said vessels; that, for the greater security, it shall be allowed to place two Spanish Clerks, or Guards, in each of the said vessels, which shall be visited in the landing-places and ports of the said island, restored to Spain, and that the merchandize which shall be found therein, shall be confiscated.

Art. XX. In consequence of the restitution stipulated in the preceding article, his Catholick Majesty cedes and guarantees, in full right, to his Britannick Majesty, Florida, with Fort St. Augustine, and the Bay of Pensacola, as well as all that Spain possesses on the Continent of North America, to the east, or to the south-east, of the river Mississippi. And, in general, every thing that depends on the said Countries and Lands, with the sovereignty, property, possession, and all rights, acquired by treaties, or otherwise, which the Catholick King, and the Crown of Spain, have had till now, over the said countries, lands, places, and of the inhabitants; so that the Catholick King cedes and makes over the whole to the said King, and to the crown of Great-Britain, and that in the most ample manner and form. His Britannick Majesty agrees, on his side, to grant to the inhabitants of the countries above ceded, the liberty of the Catholick religion: He will consequently give the most express, and the most effectual orders, that his new Roman Catholick subjects may profess the worship of their religion according to the rites of the Romish church, as far as the laws of Great-Britain permit. His Britannick Majesty further agrees, that the Spanish inhabitants, or others, who had been subjects of the Catholick King in the said countries, may retire, with all safety and freedom, wherever they think proper; and may sell their Estates, provided it be to his Britannick Majesty's Subjects, and bring away their Effects, as well as their Persons, without being restrained in their emigration, under any pretence whatsoever, except that of debts, or of criminal prosecution; the term limited for this emigration, being fixed to the space of eighteen months, to be computed from the day of the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty. It is moreover stipulated, that his Catholick Majesty shall have power to cause all the effects, that may belong to him, to be brought & removed, whether it be himself, or other Things, way, whether it be artillery, or other Thangi.

ART. XXI. The French and Spanish troops shall evacuate all the territories, lands, towns, places, and castles, of his most Faithful Majesty, in Europe, without any reserve, which shall have been conquered by the arms of France and Spain, and shall restore them in the same condition they were in when conquered, with the same artillery, and ammunition, which were found there: And with regard to the Portuguese colonies in America, Africa, or in the East-Indies, if any change shall have happened there, all things shall be reduced on the same footing they were in, and conformably to the preceding treaties, which subsisted between the courts of France, Spain, and Portugal, before the present war.

promise to observe the articles contained in this treaty, and they will do so directly or indirectly, and the said parties will reciprocally fulfil their obligations.

ART. XXII. The present treaty shall be exchanged at the high court of Madrid, in the month of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, the day of the twenty-third.

In witness whereof, the Ambassadors,

ART. XXXI. All the papers, letters, documents, and archives, which were found in the countries, territories, towns, and places, that are restored, and those belonging to the countries ceded, shall be respectively, and bona fide, delivered, or furnished at the same time, if possible, that Possession is taken, or, at latest, four months after the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty, in whatever place the said papers or documents may be found.

ART. XXXII. All the countries and territories, which may have been conquered, in whatsoever part of the world, by the arms of their Britannick and most Faithful Majesties, as well as by those of their most Christian and Catholick Majesties, which are not included in the present treaty, either under the title of cessions, or under the title of restitutions, shall be restored without difficulty, and without requiring any compensation.

ART. XXXIII. As it is necessary to assign a fixed epoch for the restitutions, and the evacuations, to be made by each of the high contracting parties; it is agreed, that the British and French troops shall compleat, before the 15th of March next, all that shall remain to be executed of the XIIth and XIIth articles of the preliminaries, signed the 3d day of November last, with regard to the evacuation to be made in the Empire, or elsewhere. The Island of Belleisle shall be evacuated six weeks after the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty, or sooner, if it can be done.

Guadalupe, Desirade, Marie Galante, Martinico, and St. Lucia, three months after the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty, or sooner, if it can be done. Great-Britain shall likewise, at the end of three months after the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty, or sooner, if it can be done, enter into possession of the river and port of the Mobile, and of all that is to form the limits of the territory of Great-Britain, on the side of the river Mississippi, as they are specified in the VIIth article.

The island of Gores shall be evacuated by Great-Britain, three months after the ratifications of the present treaty; and the islands of Minorca by France, at the same epoch, or sooner, if it can be done; and according to the conditions of the VIIth article, France shall likewise enter into possession of the Islands of St. Peter, and of Miquelon, at the end of three Months after the exchange of the ratifications of the present Treaty. The factories in the East-Indies shall be restored six months after the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty, or sooner, if it can be done.

The fortress of the Havannah, with all that has been conquered in the island of Cuba, shall be restored three months after the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty, or sooner, if it can be done; and at the same time, Great-Britain shall enter into possession of the country ceded by Spain, according to the XXth article. All the places and countries of his most Faithful Majesty, in Europe, shall be restored immediately after the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty; and the Portuguese colonies, which may have been conquered, shall be restored in the Space of three months in the West-Indies, and in six months in the East-Indies, after the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty, or sooner, if it can be done.

All the fortresses, the restitution whereof is stipulated above, shall be restored, with the artillery and ammunition, which were found there at the time of the conquest. In consequence whereof, the necessary orders shall be sent by each of the high contracting parties, with reciprocal passports for the ships that shall carry them, immediately after the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty.

ART. XXIV. His Britannick Majesty, as Elector of Brunswick-Lunenbourg, as well for himself, as for his heirs and successors, and all the dominions and possessions of his said Majesty in Germany, are included and guaranteed by the present treaty of peace.

ART. XXV. Their Sacred Britannick, most Christian, Catholick, and most Faithful Majesties, promise to observe, sincerely and bona fide, all the articles contained and settled in the present treaty; and they will not suffer the same to be infringed, directly or indirectly, by their respective subjects; and the said high contracting parties, generally and reciprocally, guaranty to each other all the stipulations of the present treaty.

ART. XXVI. The solemn ratifications of the present treaty, expedited in good and due form, shall be exchanged in this city of Paris, between the high contracting parties, in the space of a month, or sooner, if possible, to be computed from the day of the signature of the present treaty.

In witness whereof, We the under-written, their Ambassadors Extraordinary and Ministers Plenipo-tentiary, have signed with our hand, in their name, and in virtue of our full powers, the present Definitive Treaty, and have caused the seal of our arms to be put thereto.

Done at Paris, the Tenth of February, 1763.

SEPARATE ARTICLES.

I. SOME of the titles made use of by the contracting powers, either in the full powers, and other acts, during the course of the negotiation, or in the preamble of the present treaty, not being generally acknowledged; it has been agreed, that no prejudice shall ever result therefrom to any of the said contracting parties, and that the titles, taken or omitted, on either side, on occasion of the said negotiation, and of the present treaty, shall not be cited, or quoted as a precedent.

II. It has been agreed and determined, that the French language, made use of in all the copies of the present treaty, shall not become an example, which may be alledged, or make a precedent of, or prejudice, in any manner, any of the contracting Powers; and that they shall conform themselves, for the future, to what has been observed, and ought to be observed, with regard to, and on the part of, Powers who are used, and have a right to give and receive copies of like treaties in another language than French; the present treaty having still the same force and effect, as if the aforesaid custom had been therein observed.

III. Though the King of Portugal has not signed the present Definitive Treaty, their Britannick, Most Christian, and Catholick, Majesties, acknowledge, nevertheless, that his Most Faithful Majesty is formally included therein as a contracting party: Consequently, their Britannick, Most Christian, and Catholick, Majesties, respectively and conjointly, promise to his Most Faithful Majesty, in the most express and most binding manner, the execution of all and every the clauses, contained in the said treaty, on his act of accession.

The present separate articles shall have the same force as if they were inserted in the treaty.

Declaration of His Most Christian Majesty's Plenipotentiary, with Regard to the Debts due to the Canadians.

THE King of Great-Britain having desired, that the payment of the letters of exchange and bills, which had been delivered to the Canadians for the necessaries furnished to the French troops, should be secured, His Most Christian Majesty, entirely disposed to render to every one that justice which is legally due to them, has declared, and does declare, That the said bills, and letters of exchange, shall be punctually paid, agreeably to a liquidation made in a convenient time, according to the distance of the places, and to what shall be possible; taking care, however, that the bills, and letters of exchange, which the French subjects may have at the time of this Declaration, be not confounded with the bills and letters of exchange, which are in the possession of the new subjects of the King of Great-Britain.

In witness whereof we the under-written Minister of his Most Christian Majesty, duly authorised for this purpose, have signed the present Declaration, and caused the Seal of our arms to be put thereto.

Done at Paris the 10th of February, 1763.

Declaration of His Britannick Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, with regard to the limits of Bengal, in the East-Indies.

WE the under written Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the King of Great-Britain, in order to prevent all subject of dispute, on account of the limits of the dominions of the Subah of Bengal, as well as of the coast of Coromandel and Orissa, declare, in the name, and by order of his said Britannick Majesty, that the said dominions of the Subah of Bengal shall be reputed not to extend farther than Yanton exclusively, and that Yanton shall be considered as included in the North part of the coast of Coromandel or Orissa.

In witness whereof, &c.

Done at Paris, the Tenth of February, 1763.

BEDFORD, C. P. S.

[His Britannick, Most Christian, and Catholick, Majesty's full powers to their respective Ministers Plenipotentiary, with the accession of his Most Faithful Majesty, his full Powers, and Declaration of his

Minister (importing that no consequence shall be drawn from the alternative observed on the parts of the King of Great-Britain, and the Most Christian King, with the Most Faithful King, in the act of accession of the Court of Portugal) are all the other papers that relate to this important transaction; but are here omitted, as containing only matters of mere form.]

LONDON, February 8.

THURSDAY and Friday last, all the Servants belonging to the Right Honourable Lord Dacre, were examined at his Lordship's House in Burton-Street, by Sir John Fielding, touching the Murder and Robbery of Mr. John Murcott, his Lordship's Butler: In Consequence of which one Daniel Blake, a Footman in the Family was in the Evening of Friday, ordered into Custody, and sent to Sir John Fielding's House, some Suspicion falling on him from his having paid away some trifling Sums of Money the Day after the Murder, and the other Servants proving him in Diff'rels for Want of Lines, &c. since he came into my Lord's Family, where he had only lived two Months; and he also prevaricating in his cross Examination, on particular Enquiries, in a few Hours it appeared, that since Tuesday Morning last, the Time the horrid Crime was done, the said Blake had laid out in Linen Cloth, and other Things, near 20 l. of the Receipt of which he could give no satisfactory Account. From these Circumstances Sir John Fielding immediately committed him to Prison, on Saturday Morning; he confessed the Robbery, but in a hardened Manner, denied the Murder: In the Evening he was again re-examined at Sir John Fielding's House, and at first, continued obstinately to deny the Murder; but after some Time, being confronted in some material Matters by several Witnesses, he declared with a very steady and manly Resolution, that he would cause no farther Enquiry to be made, but, from conscious Guilt, and from a Desire that no innocent Person might suffer for, or be charged with, this cruel Murder, he voluntarily confessed it; and for his Motives for perpetrating so dreadful an Offence, gave the following Reason. "That having Occasion on Monday to look for a Music Book in the Butler's Pantry, he met with 20 Guineas upon his Cupboard wrapped up in a Piece of Paper, which he took away; that the next Morning he got up at Five o'Clock in order to clean his Plate, and without any thought of doing an Injury to any one; but on going about his Plate, he began to reflect that the stealing the 20 Guineas would certainly be discovered, and that he should be hanged for it; therefore to extricate himself out of that Difficulty, the wicked Thought came into his Head, that the murdering the Butler in a Manner that it might be believed it was done by some Person who got into the House, would not only answer this End, but be the Means of his Preferment, for that he should by this Means be made Butler himself; that though two of the Maids were at this Time up, it being their Washing Morning, he went directly to the Laundry, and took from thence a large Poker, and a Cafe Knife out of his Knife Box, then went into the Butler's Room where he found him asleep; that he struck him twice with the Poker on the Head, which prevented his making any Kind of Resistance, or even from stirring, then, with his Knife, cut his Throat, and ran up Stairs again to another Footman, with whom he lay, and whom he both left and found at his return asleep, so that he, Blake, then lay till the usual Hour of rising for all the Servants, and went down Stairs with the other Footman and the Porter, without Suspicion; and, that in the Confusion of the Family, after the Discovery of the Murder, he went into Murcott's Room, and took out of his Breeches Pocket Three Guineas and a Half; and also took a small Trunk belonging to the Lady's Woman, broke it open, and flung it into the Coal-Hole, in order to induce the Servants in general to think that the Murderer was a Thief, who had broke into the House, with Intent to rob." It is observable, that the above Offender is a Butcher, which Trade he followed with his Father in Norfolk, till lately that he came to London, and was recommended into a Gentleman's Service.

March 3. The Balance due to our Government from France, on Account of the Maintenance, Acc. of the French Prisoners, amounts to upwards of 1,200,000 Sterling.

It is agreed that France shall fetch away her Prisoners from Great-Britain, Ireland, &c. at her own Expence.

We hear that there will be no more than 17,000 Men kept on the British Establishment, including Invalids doing Duty; and the same Number as before the War on the Irish Establishment; and 10,000 Men in the British Colonies, which are to be paid the first Year by Great-Britain, but afterwards by the Colonies.

March 8. The Princess Dowager of Wales hath given 100 l. to the Collection carrying on for the Colleges of Philadelphia and New-York.

It is assured that the Amount of Gold, Silver, and Jewels, exclusive of all Merchandise, brought to England from the East-Indies since the Year 1759, is not less than six Millions Sterling.

The Accounts received that France has ceded her Part of Louisiana to the Crown of Spain, gain Credit.

March 10. His Majesty has been pleased to give 1000 l. towards erecting two Colleges; one at New-York, the other at Philadelphia; for carrying on of which 6000 l. has already been expended.

Extract of a Letter from Haverfordwest, March 5.

The latter End of last Week was lost near Pemberry, in Carmarthenshire, a large Ship, about 300 Tons Burthen, from Virginia for London, loaded with Tobacco. She had five Men washed overboard at Sea, and Eight were drowned when the Ship was lost, and only two Men were saved.

March 17. It is said that the Governors of our Colonies abroad, will soon be put under some Regulations, for the Benefit of Commerce, &c.

March 19. We hear that many Officers of all Ranks, now reduced to Half-Pay, have formed a Project for Peopling effectually and immediately the important Island of St. John, in the Neighbourhood of Cape-Bretton, if a Grant of it can be obtained upon the Terms that they propose.

Five Waggon Loads of Money, escorted by a Party of Soldiers, is come to the Bank, from Portsmouth, brought by the Rippon Man of War, from the Havannah.

Yesterday Morning Mr. Rice, the Broker, landed at Dover from France, in Custody of Two of the King's Messengers, &c. who set out with him immediately for London.

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.

In the South-Carolina Gazette, of April 16, it is said, that the Second of that Month was appointed for the Execution of two Spaniards, a Frenchman, and an Englishman, at St. Eustatius, for pyratically landing on Guadaloupe, most barbarously cutting off the Breasts of two Women, and carrying off 14 Negroes.—And it is also said, that four other small Vessels, were cruising about the Grenades and Guadaloupe, in the same Manner, manned by Spaniards and Caribbee Indians, who had taken several Vessels; among them one belonging to the Grenades, whose Crew they obliged to walk into the Sea, on a Plank fixed for that Purpose, but that one of them got ashore by good Swimming.

We hear from Georgia, that the Spaniards at St. Augustine were much dissatisfied with giving up that Place; and that it was thought two Thirds of the Inhabitants would become British Subjects, rather than leave their Properties.

ANNAPOLIS, May 10.

Monday last being the Anniversary of the Birth of her most sacred Majesty Queen CHARLOTTE, when her Majesty entered into her twentieth Year, the same was observed here by the Firing of the Guns at the Battery, &c. and in the Evening there was a splendid BALL.

Thursday Night last a Store on the Dock was Robb'd of a Sum of Money, and some Bottles of Claret. The Rogues got in by shaking the Key out of the Bolt of one of the Windows.

Attempts have lately been made to break open sundry other Stores near the Dock.

A few Nights ago some Villains got into the Reverend Mr. WEST's Apartment, on the North Side of Town, when he was from home, and took out his Chest, carried it to a small Distance, and there broke it open, and took away as many of the Contents as suited them.

POST-OFFICE, NEW-YORK, May 4, 1763.

PHILADELPHIA RACES.

On Monday the 30th of May, will be Run for, over the Center Course of this City, a Purse of

FIFTY POUNDS.

FREE for any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, not full-blooded: Those of 24 Hands high, to carry Nine Stone, Saddle and Bridle included, and 7 Pounds for each Inch above that Size, to Run 3
Heats, Three Times round the Course each Heat.
Not less than Four reputed running Horses,
Mares, or Geldings, to Start in this Race.

The Horse, Mare, or Gelding, that winneth any two Heats, winneth the Purse; but if three several Horses, Mares, or Geldings, win each of them a Heat, then those three, and only they, to run a fourth Heat, and the Horse, Mare, or Gelding, that winneth the fourth Heat, shall have the Purse.

Three Gentlemen will be appointed Judges, who are to fix the Hour of Starting, determine all Disputes, agreeable to, regulate Articles which will be read at the Post, and will dispose of the Entrance Money, as they shall think most likely to entertain the Company the next Day, when a Purse of TWENTY POUNDS, or more, will be Run for, by such Horses as the Judges may then think proper.

All Horses, Mares, or Geldings, that Run for the Fifty-Pound Purse, are to be shewn, entered and measured, by Mr. Peter Robinson in this City, on Friday the 27th of May, paying Two Pintoles Entrance, or Four Pintoles if entered at the Post.

Annapolis, April 6th, 1763.

[XIXth Year.]

THURSDAY, May 26, 1763.

[N^o. 942.]

BERLIN, February 19.

THE Evening of the 15th Instant, a Courier arrived from Leipzick, preceded by a great Number of Proclamations, with Advice of the Peace signed between our Court, and those of Vienna and Dresden. It is not to be expressed how much Satisfaction this Peace gives to all Ranks of People. The Count de Finckenstein, Minister of State, communicated this News to all the Foreign Ministers residing here; and in his Letter upon this Subject to Mr. Verelst, Envoy Extraordinary from the States-General of Holland, he says, that by this Treaty of Peace his Prussian Majesty is restored to the Possession of all the Territories which he was possessed of before the War; particularly to the County of Glatz, and his Provinces in Westphalia, and on the Lower Rhine; that he reffers to his Polish Majesty, all his Dominions in Germany; that the Circles of the Empire are comprehended in this Treaty; and that the Treaties of Breslau and Dresden, in the Years 1742 and 1745, served for the Basis of the present Treaty. Mr. de Finckenstein concludes his Letter with saying, that his Majesty flatters himself that the News of a Peace so glorious to him, and so interesting to Germany, and Mankind in general, will be received by their High Mightinesses with such Sentiments as he has a Right to expect from the happy Union which subsists between him and the Republic of Holland. The Five following Articles contain the principal Points of the Treaty:

I. All Hostilities which have hitherto been committed by either Party, and the Damages which ensued from them, shall be reciprocally forgotten and forgiven. II. All Hostilities shall cease from the Day on which the Treaty is signed; and all Effects which shall be taken after that Time, shall be restored. III. Within three Weeks after the Exchange of the Ratifications, the two high contracting Powers shall withdraw all their Troops from the Countries which do not belong to them. IV. From the Day of signing the Treaty, all Contributions of what Kind soever shall cease, as likewise all Demands of Recruits, Waggoons, Horses, &c. The two contracting Powers also renounce all Arrears of Contributions, and likewise all Bills of Exchange that shall then remain undischarged, and which are to be returned. All Hostages shall be given up on both Sides, without requiring any Ransom. V. All Prisoners of War shall likewise be released, without Regard either to their Rank or Number, but on Condition that they previously discharge what Debts they may have contracted during their Detention. What may have been paid for the Subsistence of the Prisoners, and also for the Cure of the Sick and Wounded, shall be reciprocally renounced. Commissaries shall be appointed immediately for exchanging all the Prisoners of War; which shall be proceeded on within 15 Days after the Signing of the Treaty.

The Empire in general, and all its Princes and States in particular, are comprehended in these five Articles.

Vienna, Feb. 10. Tho' the Return of Peace gives us some Satisfaction, it arises solely from that Humanity which inclines us to wish an End to these Calamities which have lasted too long; for it is well known that the Treaty of Peace doth not add an Inch of Ground to the Dominions of the Empress-Queen, nor make any Reparation to the Princes that have most suffered by the War; so that the Blood that has been spilled these six Years, has been shed in vain.

Hague, March 1. Every Thing is regulating in Saxony, for the returning the Electorate to its Sovereign. Both the Austrian and Prussian Troops are evacuating it, and the Saxons are in March to take Possession of the Country.

They write from Ratibon, that the King of Prussia hath put under Arrest the Jews who hath contracted for coining Money in Saxony, and hath ordered them to pay him in Gold 12 Millions of Pieces of five Crowns each, as a reasonable Deduction from the Profits of their Contract.

The States of the Empire partly through Dilatoriness, and partly from their Attachment to the House of Austria, have been fleeced of above a Million Sterling, since the Battle by which Prince Henry gloriously terminated the last Campaign.

The French returned the Keys of Francfort to the Magistrates on the 24th.

Nuremberg, Feb. 26. Yesterday the Prince of Stolberg, received Orders from his Imperial Majesty to dismiss the Army of the Empire; in Consequence of which, the Bavarian and Wurtemberg Troops will quit the Army the 28th Instant; and the Rest of the Troops of the Circles will be discharged, and march to their respective Homes before the End of the Week.

Ratibon, March 3. The Emperor has been pleased to acquaint the Diet, "That he most heartily wishes that the Peace lately concluded may last to Perpetuity, towards which, he on his Part, shall apply his utmost Endeavours, in Hopes that the several States of the Empire will giveth theirs jointly with him for the same happy Purpose, strictly adhering to the Laws and Constitution of the Empire. At the same Time, commanding the general Officers of the Imperial Army, to return his Imperial Majesty's Thanks for the Services they have done, and to discharge them, that they may return Home."

Hague, March 4. The Evacuations of Saxony go on in Pursuance of the Treaty of Hubertburg; and the King of Prussia has assembled a prodigious Body of Cavalry near Magdebourg, to consume the Remainder of his Magazines. The French are preparing to evacuate that Prince's Dominions upon the Lower Rhine, as soon as possible; and Detachments from the small Prussian Corps in Westphalia are to take Possession of the Fortresses which shall be restored, till such Time as the Troops arrive, which are to form the Garrison.

The Evacuations of the Prussian Dominions go on gradually. Cleves is already evacuated, and every Thing will soon be in these Parts, in the same Condition as before the War.

Berlin, March 5. The Ratification of the Definitive Treaties with the Empress-Queen, and Elector of Saxony, arrived at Hubertburg the first Instant, and were immediately exchanged. This Day the Proclamation of his Prussian Majesty's Peace with the abovementioned Powers, was published with the usual Solemnities, in the different Parts of this City; and To-morrow Te Deum will be sung in the Churches.

March 5. The King of Portugal has made a present to Gen. Townsend of a Diamond Ring, a Pair of Diamond Buckles, and a Gold Snuff-box, the whole worth 3000l.

His most Faithful Majesty has made considerable Presents to all the other Officers of Distinction belonging to the British Troops employed there.

Yesterday in the Forenoon a Company of the Grenadiers belonging to the Guards, and a Company of Huzars arrived in Town. The Men looked very well, and had each of them a green Bough stuck in his Hat or Cap, to represent the Olive Branch of Peace. Some more Companies are landed a little below Yarmouth, which are expected in a Day or two.

The King of Prussia, upon withdrawing his Troops from Saxony, gave Orders that 30 of the best Men of each Regiment should bring Home with them Saxon Wives, in Compliment to the personal Charms of these Women, and as some Reward to the gallant Soldiers.

Yesterday there was the usual House of Commons that has been since the Commencement of the Session. His Royal Highness the Duke of York was present to hear the Debates; the Right Hon. William Pitt, Esq; attended the Service of the House on the Occasion.

March 8. The Subaltern Officers of the French Army, who have been disbanded without any Pay, are ordered to repair to their respective Homes, and wait his Majesty's Pleasure. Were they to continue in Paris, their Number would make the Injustice of the Government towards them too apparent. Even in France the Ministry find it necessary to respect the People.

March 9. In Consequence of the Principles of Economy that now take Place in the Affairs of the Public, the Nation is not to be burthened, we hear, with new Governments in the ceded and conquered Countries; our new Subjects are to be kept in Obedience by Garrisons in the Fortifications already built, and such as may be constructed, governed by Fort Majors, who are to obey the Commander-in-Chief at New-York.

March 10. It is said an additional Duty will be laid on foreign Wines and Cyder, for the Payment of the Interest of the new Loan.

Yesterday a Person, who can neither walk nor stand, was married at St. George's Church, Hanover-Square, to a young Gentlewoman about 20 Years of Age.

By a Person lately come from Scotland, we hear, that in the Parish of Dalkeith, within four Miles of Edinburgh, there lives a Man who is 132 Years of Age, and is so hearty and well as to be able to do the Work that he has followed for upwards of 80 Years, which is, supplying the Inhabitants with Coals from the Pit, by two Jack Asses he keeps for that Purpose. He was always remarkably temperate, and was never ten Miles from the Place where he was born.

On Wednesday last the San Joseiro, a Spanish Ship of War, of 64 Guns, taken at the Havannah, richly laden, was coming into the Downs, having parted from her Anchors in a hard Gale of Wind, and ran ashore near Ramsgate. The Officers and Crew were all saved, except one Man, who was drowned in attempting to swim to the Shore, and a Quarter-Master killed by the Molt when cut away. Great Part of her Cargo is also saved.

The Anna Maria, Goodhand, from Virginia, to London, is lost at Pembridge Lands, near Carmarthen, and all the Crew, except the Mate and one Man, perished.

Extract of a Letter from Dresden, Feb. 22.

"The Time at last is come when this poor unhappy Electorate is to be permitted to return to the Obedience of its lawful Sovereign, and is to be delivered from the Calamities of a War, which, had it continued a little longer, would have ruined the Inhabitants past recovery. Our joy can be more easily conceived than described.

"The Anglo-Prussian Party say, that the Courts of Paris and Vienna have made Peace, as they made War; that England has made an Arrangement, and the King of Prussia a glorious Peace; that this Prince remains Dictator in Germany, and the strongest Power in the Empire both in Men and Money; that his Country, indeed, is calumniated and depopulated, but that he knows how make it flourish at the Expence of his Neighbours. This Monarch is still suspected of meditating great Designs; which Suspicion is founded on the Accounts received, that he keeps on Foot all his present Forces, and disbands not even those which made a part of the Allied Army, and which were lately taken into his Service. It is reported that when Ward was brought to him, that the Terms of Peace which he desired, were complied with, he said, he had listened to an Accommodation, only to give a few Years Rest to his Troops which were worn out with Fatigue, after which he would employ them to better Purpose, and with more Advantage, than he had done in this War. Some People imagine, that whenever he unsheathes the Sword again, it will be against a certain Northern crowned Head: The Death-troument and Death of Peter III. of Russia, he cannot digest."

BRIDGE-TOWN, BARBADOES, March 24.

On Wednesday the 16th Inst. his Majesty's Sloop Ferret, Peter Clarke, Esq; Commander, arrived here with a very large Prize, about 600 Tons Burthen, mounting 24 Guns, 20 of which proved to be Iron ones, of 9 and 6 Pounds, which he took out of a Bay at the West End of Porto-Rico, on the 11th of February. She was bound from the Carracas to Cadiz, but put in there, where she thought she would be secure within a Reef of Rocks and Sands until the Cessation of Arms.—Captain Clarke, however, was not so easily to be baffled by the Difficulty of the Navigation; for after three Days Perseverance, bearing to and fro in Sight of the Enemy, sounding to find out a Channel he at length got within the Reef, anchored along Side, and after an Engagement of above two Hours, the Dons betook themselves to their Boat, and fled to the Shore, leaving some of their killed and wounded on their Deck. She is thought to be the richest Prize taken in these Seas during the War.

March 31. Richard Wilshire, Esq; who arrived here on Monday Evening, from St. Vincent's, brought Advice, That Mr. Neiles Anderson, a Planter on the River Berbice, who made his Escape with 126 Slaves from thence the 17th Inst. arrived in the River Demarara the 20th, and gave the following Account:

That the Creole Negroes, at the Head of others, to the Number of 3000, on the 2d Inst. took and destroyed 10 Plantations at Connoy; that on the 8th the Governor blew up the Fort, destroyed the Ammunition, and retired, with what Whites had escaped the Negroes on board two Dutch Ships which lay at the Mouth of the River. That he knew of between 40 and 50 Whites the Negroes had put to Death; and was told all that fell into their Hands shared the same Fate, even the Indians and Blacks that would not join them. That they declared, as soon as they had done their Business there, they would proceed to Demarara and Essequib; and that they had long enough a white Governor, and would be no longer Slave.

ANNAPOLIS, May 26.

Tuesday last his Excellency, in Council, issued his Proclamation, further Proroguing the General Assembly of this Province to the First of October next, when it will meet for the Dispatch of Public Business.

Last Week the Body of a Man was found on the Shore at Thomas's Point. It is said that a Man of the Name of Lecompte, was knock'd overboard in the Bay by a Boom, the beginning of this Month, and 'tis probable it was his Body, but it was much defaced.

On Tuesday last at a Horse-Race, at Talbot County Court-House, one of the Horses fell, and kill'd his Rider, Francis McKenny, a Lad, who never spoke after the Fall.

We have the following Account from Aquia, in Virginia: On Friday the 13th Instant, about VIII in the Evening, they had there, a very severe Gust with very large Hail: A neighbouring Planter's Dwelling-House-Chimney was struck with the Lightning. In the Chimney stood an Iron Spit, one End resting on the Mantle-Piece, and the other pointing up the Chimney; exactly under it stood the Man's Son, a Boy about 7 or 8 Years of Age, who was struck instantly Dead, and the Mantle-Piece shiver'd to Pieces.

We hear the Constant Betty, Brook, in Ballast, for this Province, is left on Deal Beach.

Bladensburg, 23d May, 1763.

SEVERAL People who once dealt with me, owe small Balances, which are very troublesome to be continued on the Books from Year to Year; I will therefore be obliged to these People if they will pay off, or come and let me know that they want more Time.

Some few owe more considerably, and deal also at other Stores, whereby they have more Accounts to settle before they can know how their Affairs stand, which takes up their Time; and besides it is setting an Example to lazy People, to get in Debt at different Places more than they can pay, which brings a Charge on the Trade for bad Debts, and thereby hinders Trade from affording so good Terms to those who are Industrious, as such People really deserve. I will therefore be obliged to these unfeul'd Folks if they will pay their Debts, by Credit with some Merchant, or otherwise, that I may be enabled to oblige my constant good Customers, as much as I desire to do; for it is very hard that indifferent Customers should keep the Use of Money which is wanted for good Customers.

FIVE PISTOLES REWARD.

AN away from the Subscriber, living on Lady's Manor in Baltimore County, on Thursday Night last, an English Servant Man, named John Collins, (but am informed he once went by the Name of Thomas Leckier), he is a lousy Fellow, about 26 Years of Age, and about 5 Feet 6 Inches high, of a dark Complexion, pretty much pitted with the Small-Pox, and wears his own Hair cut behind. Had on when he went away, a brown Kersey Coat with flat Brass Buttons, a blue Cloth Jacket, with round Brass Buttons, and the Skirt cut off, Check and reddish Silk Handkerchief, old Leather Breeches, Green Stockings, Sheep Buckles, and an old Castor Hat.

Whoever secures the said Fellow, so that he may get him again, shall receive, if taken in the County, Five Pounds, and if out of it, Ten Pounds Reward, of JESSE SLADE. N.B. He is a very fancy Fellow, speaks thick, is acquainted with the Country, and has some Dollars with him. 'Tis supposed a Brindle Dog follows him, and expect he will take a Horse at first Opportunity.

THERE is in the Possession of Peter Davis, at Turkey-Island Plantation, 7 Miles from the Head of Severn, taken up as a Stray, a small black Mare, about 8 or 9 Years old, branded on the near Shoulder with G.C.

The Owner may have her again, on paying his Property, and paying Charges.

HERE is at the Plantation of John Ward, near the Brick Church in Prince-George's County, taken up as a Scray, a Sorrel Horse about 13 Hands, with a Star in his Forehead, and a white Mane and Tail: he inclines to Pace a little.

JAMES CANN, who has been a long Time, almost Seven Years, confin'd in Anne-Arundel County Jail, hereby gives Notice, That he intends to apply to the next General Assembly of this Province, for an Act for his Relief, and Enlarge-ment.

To be Freight'd or Charter'd for the West-Indies,

The Sloop SHARPE,
SAMUEL STILES,
MASTER;

WILL be ready to take in her Load in a few Days. Whoever is inclined to Freight or Charter the said Vessel, may treat with HENRY WARD in ANNAPOLIS.

N. B. The Sloop has extraordinary Accommodations for Passengers.

For BARBADOS directly,
(and will sail with all convenient Speed,) The Sloop Annapolis-Packet,

HAVING great Part of her CARGO engaged.
For Freight or Passage apply and treat with HENRY WARD in ANNAPOLIS.

N. B. The Vessel has fine Accommodations for Passengers.

TO BE SOLD,

A TRACT of LAND, lying in Anne-Arundel County, called the Middle Plantation, containing by Survey 844 Acres. The Soil is good, either for Planting or Farming. It's Level, quite clear of Stone, great Part of it is Cleared, and it abounds in fine Meadow Grounds and Streams of Water; one of the Streams runs through the Land, and is capable of carrying a Mill, where there was one formerly; the Dam still remaining. There are three Tenements, with the several Houses necessary, and Fencings, with Orchards, which contain several Sorts of Fruit. It is pleasantly situated, either for a Gentleman's Seat, a Merchant, Farmer, or Planter. It lies about 12 Miles from Annapolis, 2 Miles from The Land of Ease, (where there is an Inspection House on a Salt Water River, which abounds with Fish and Oysters, and where the Ships Load for London, &c.) about 4 Miles from Queen Anne, where is two Inspection-Houses and several Stores on the River Parrot, which has great plenty of Fish and Fowl; so that the several Markets are very convenient for carrying the Produce to, and being supplied on the best Terms. It will be sold either in Part, or the Whole, as may be most convenient. For Title and Terms apply to the Subscriber, living in Annapolis.

ZACHARIAS HOOD.

George-Town, April 28, 1763.
