The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.]

THURSDAY, November 10, 1763.

[N^o. 966.]

HAMBURGH, August 12.

THOUGH the Credit of the trading Houses of this City begins to revive, Trade is still in a languid State. It is certain that four Merchants have failed; but to prevent more Bankruptcies, several of the principal Merchants have subscribed for a Million and a Half of Bank Marks, and will agree with the Merchants of Berlin for a sum. In the mean Time our Bank advances on Ingots of Gold and Silver, and even upon household Goods.

Amsterdam, Aug. 19. Here is a Scheme handed to support public Credit, as also some capital in this City without Money, and by that to restore a general Confidence upon the Exchange of Amsterdam.

Constantinople, July 4. We hear from Aleppo, the Six Brothers, Sader, Anthony, Diab, Bennette, Dragoman and Barataire, have made a Bankruptcy of above Three Hundred Thousand; the English, some Turkish Traders, and European Merchants, are considerable Losers. The French are but little concerned in the St. Vincent, July 15. The new Eruption of Mount St. Vincent, or Mount Etna, still continues. The Eruption was heard very distinctly twenty Miles. On the 29th past the 1st Instant, the Mountain threw out a prodigious Quantity of very fine Sand, which fell in a Kind of a Fog, to the Distance of 25 Miles round, and darkened the Air such, that in the Town of Catania, People scarce see to walk the Streets.

Algiers, July 21. The Emperor of Morocco is at the Head of his Army, from Mequinez in the mountainous Country, inhabited by the Algerines, in order to oblige them to pay Tribute. His obstinate Engagement, which lasted two Months, cost the Emperor 7000 Men, he gained the greatest Victory. After which he marched to Algiers, to recover a Town that has been long possessed by the Algerines. He is speedily expected there, where there is no Doubt he will levy much Money, as he can.

Corfica, July 25. Our Letters from Corfica bring us, that in the Affair of the 18th, under the Command of Furiani, the Genoese lost upwards of 2000 Men. General Matra's Nephew was mortally wounded in it. However, the Republic appears to be disposed to desist from the Corfican War, and has just sent again a large Convoy of war-ships to Bastia.

LONDON, August 18.

Yesterday there was a great Levee at St. James's, to present his Majesty on the safe Delivery of the Prince, and the Birth of a Prince.

Tuesday an Express was sent to the Lord-Lieutenant at Wiltshire, for his Lordship to come to Town to hold a Court of Common Pleas, which is summoned for To-morrow, in order to pay the City's respectful Congratulations to his Majesty, upon the Birth of another Prince. The Lord-Lieutenant said that the Right Hon. the Lord-Mayor had accompanied with the grandest Manner, accompanied with an additional Band of Music, Kettle-Drums, &c.

The Stationers, Printers, and Bookellers at Amsterdam, kept, on Tuesday, the 2d Instant, their grand Jubilee of One Hundred Years, to commemorate the Invention of Printing; on that occasion there were Illuminations and other Demonstrations of Joy.

Accounts from Dublin say, that great Disturbances are continued among the Weavers in that City; the Master Weavers had ordered a Meeting to consider of legal Means for redressing Grievances, and putting a Stop to the Importation of foreign Goods, either directly from France, or by the way of Chester.

The Prussian Majesty seems determined to keep his Army as it was during the War; because it does not appear durable. It is certain that the Emperor has announced Venues against the Dutch, who have constructed a Dyke, at the Expence of 50,000 l. Sterling, in Part of East Friesland which belongs to his Majesty, whereby they can lay that Country under Water, six Feet deep, in a few Hours.

August 23. On Saturday last an Express arrived from Holland, with an Account of several more Bankruptcies there.

Letters from Cadix, by Yesterday's French Mail, bring an Account of the Arrival of the Flota, with near 6,000,000 Sterling on board in Specie and Merchandize.

By the last Letters from Cadix, Orders had been dispatched to Ferrol and Carthagens, for the Building of a Number of Frigates, from 20 to 30 and 40 Guns, on which a great many extra Hands will be employed.

On the 11th Inst. about Half an Hour after XI at Night, there was such a Storm at Brussels, that the Inhabitants thought the End of the World was come. Amidst the most dreadful Peals of Thunder, the Lightning was such, that the Heavens seemed all on Fire, and the City every Moment in Danger of being involved in the general Conflagration. To this Thunder and Lightning succeeded a Storm of Hail, which lasted eight or ten Minutes. The whole Storm continued two Hours. The Bigness of the Hail-stones was that of a large Nut; some were as big as a Hen's Egg. It may easily be conceived what Havock was made; all the Fruits of the Earth, the Verdure and Herbs, are cut and beat to the Ground; even the Trees are as bare of Leaves and Fruit, as in the Month of January. The Windows of one Half of the Number of the public Edifices, Churches, Palaces, and private Dwelling-houses, at Brussels, are broke, and the Roofs, particularly those of Slate, much damaged. Many of the Inhabitants died, and others are very ill by the Fright. It is remarkable, that the Quarter of the Town called Le Rivage, scarce suffered any thing. The Cloud which sent out this Storm, was rather long than broad; its Direction was from Halle towards Mechlin. The Damage done to the Windows only, is a very considerable Object. The Magistrates have, on this Occasion, given Permission to Glaziers, who are not Freeman, to work in the City for two Months.

August 27. The Elector of Mentz, whose Death is mentioned lately in the London Gazette, was chosen to that Electorate on the 5th of July last, on the Death of Count d'Ostain Engelheim, and died on the 15th of August, so that he has enjoyed his Dignity but about six Weeks. He was Baron Breidback of Burrisheim, Great Dean of that Chapter. The Election is in the Chapter. He is temporal Sovereign of the Country, the Revenues whereof are upwards of 100,000 l. Sterling per Annum.

The following Persons are talked of for Secretary of State, in the Room of the Right Hon. the Earl of Egremont, viz. Mr. Pitt, Charles Townshend, Lord Shelburne, Lord Egmont, Lord Sandwich, Lord Barrington, and Lord Harcourt.

We hear that a Monument is to be erected on the North Side of Westminster-Abbey, to the Memory of the brave Adm. Boscawen.

Wednesday two eminent Houses of this City stopped Payment; but Yesterday one of them opened.

The French, during the late War, built, at an Expence of a Million and a Half Sterling, 300 Flat-Bottomed Boats, capable of carrying 75,000 Troops, with their Arms, &c. including 15,000 Cavalry. These Boats, we hear, they have lately sold by Auction at Duncirk, for old Timber. Some of them sold for about forty Guineas.

August 30. On Saturday the Right Hon. William Pitt had a Conference of near three Hours with his Majesty, at the Queen's Palace; and we hear that Yesterday Mr. Pitt set out for the Duke of Newcastle's Seat, at Clermont.

Yesterday Morning a Messenger was dispatched to the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor, at his Seat at the Grange, in Hampshire.

Yesterday Morning an Express was sent to Chatsworth, in Derbyshire, for the Duke of Devonshire to come to Town immediately; and it is said that several of not most of the Lords in the Opposition, will speedily repair to Town.

His Majesty has appointed Robert Wood, Esq; to have the Management of the Affairs of the southern Department, till another principal Secretary is appointed in the Room of the Earl of Egremont; but the Earl of Halifax signs all the Dispatches that go from the said Office.

By Letters from Hamburg, of the 19th Inst. we are advised, that the Plan which was formed there by the Merchants to support one another had failed, which had occasioned fourteen Merchants Houses to stop Payment on the 17th, and on the next Day they were followed by thirteen more. It is added, that one of the greatest Merchants at Berlin has failed.

Some of our Merchants received, on Saturday last, by the Dutch Mail, a List of 34 Bankrupts at Hamburg, and 4 at Altena. There are no English among them.

Yesterday Mr. Pitt was again in Conference with his Majesty about two Hours, at the Queen's Palace, in the Park.

The greatest Merchant at Berlin having failed, his Prussian Majesty offered to advance him 200,000 Rix-Dollars; which Offer he declined accepting of, not being sufficient; but the King of Prussia has granted him his Protection for ten Years.

They write from Amsterdam, of the 22d Inst. that the German Jews residing there had subscribed 300,000 Florins, and their Synagogue 60,000 Ditto, to support the Merchants there, according to the Association entered into.

It is said, in a Letter received by the last Mail, that the Governor General of the French West-Indies, immediately after taking Possession of the Islands of Martinico and Guadaloupe, levied a Sum upon the Inhabitants of those Islands to the Amount of 500,000 l. Sterling.

The following are the Changes talked of, in Consequence of the Revolution which it is supposed is going to be made in the Ministry, but as yet nothing certain is known relating to them.

The Right Hon. William Pitt, and Charles Townshend, Secretaries of State.

The Right Hon. Earl Temple, First Lord of the Treasury.

The Right Hon. Earl Hardwicke, President of the Council.

The Right Hon. Henry Bilson Legge, Chancellor of the Exchequer.

And his Grace the Duke of Devonshire again Lord Chamberlain.

When this Paper went to Press a Report prevailed, that Mr. Pitt was appointed First Lord of the Treasury; and it is doubtful whether Lord Temple, or the Earl of Egmont, will succeed Lord Egremont; deceased, as one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

September 1. We are informed, that above 3000 Ship-Carpenters, and others, are daily employed at Brest, Rochefort, Toulon, Marseilles, and other Places in France, on the royal Navy; and that they would have, in about two Years Time, a very formidable Fleet.

General Webb's Regiment came home from the Havanna in the Tyger Man of War. The whole Regiment now consists only of 36 Rank and File.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, Aug. 12.

"You would be astonished at the Number of English that are in this City; it is impossible to pass through a single Street without meeting them; they are so profuse in their Expences, that the French cannot be persuaded there is a poor Englishman in the World. Assure yourself the French are meditating a heavy Blow against England, and it will soon take Effect, if the Ministry can compass the Abolishment of the Farmers General, and lay an equal Tax on the People; they will by this Means increase the Revenue 300 Millions of Livres, and get rid of 90,000 Collectors, somewhat like your Excisemen, therefore detestable. The Aim of the French Ministry seems to be to get a strong Body of Men in the West-Indies, before they declare themselves; for this Purpose there is scarcely a single Ship sails for the Islands without Soldiers on board it. The English who are here on the Spot talk very freely among themselves of an approaching Rapture, and indeed every Thing bears the Appearance of it; how this will be justified in England, you best know who are on the Spot."

Extract of a Letter from Dusseldorf, Aug. 20.

is destroyed, and a few of the Outworks, which might be rebuilt in a Month; but the great Canal, which is capable of holding sixty Men of War, is still, together with its Sluices, in excellent Order: They seem to have no Intention of destroying it, neither will any of the Fortifications be demolished which can be of any future Use to them: There are, it is true, some Workmen, who seem to be doing Something, but if they go on at the slow Rate they now do, should it be the Intention of the French to demolish these Fortifications, the Work would be seven Years about. I need only tell you, that they have begun the Work at the Wrong End, to convince you they are not in Earnest."

A few Days ago an extraordinary Match was Run on Newmarket Heath, between Mr. Tuting's Grey Horse Cabbage, and Mr. Johnson's Chestnut Horse, for 85 Guineas, 5 Times over the round Course, which is about 20 Miles, and was Won by Cabbage by only a Length; they performed the Whole in 45 Minutes and 31 Seconds.

Sept. 3. One of the Stipulations lately agitated in the great World at Westminster, is reported to have been the Elevation of a certain Person to the Barldom of Jamaica.

It is said that a noble Personage, who was greatly concerned in negotiating the late Peace, finding himself only made a Fool of, has joined the Minority, and is determined to lay all the Secrets of that Treaty before an August Assembly.

It is said that a great Patriot has declared it his unalterable Resolution, not to have any Share in Administration, unless all who had any Hand in making the Peace are removed.

Thursday Afternoon the Right Hon. Mr. Pitt was two Hours with his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland.

They write from Hamburgh, by Letters dated the 26th, that they have a List of 54 Houses that have failed since the 15th Inst. Baron Stenglin has agreed to pay his Creditors in three Payments; and the Jews, Ephraim and Wulf, have declared, that they will pay all the Bills of Exchange of the insolvent Houses, which they have indorsed; but it is supposed there are none of their Indorsements.

Sept. 6. Private Letters from Hamburgh, of the 19th ult. mention, that there never was known such a Confusion as happened there on the 17th and 18th on their Exchange, by the Failure of so many Merchants Houses; which has affected the principal Dealers of the Cities in Germany, Denmark, and Sweden, and put an entire Stop to the Trade and Commerce of the City of Hamburgh, where they are all mistrustful of one another. They add, that besides the Christians, seven of the most opulent Jews at Altena had likewise failed.

Liverpool, August 5. On Saturday Morning last, about a Quarter past Six o'Clock, this Town and Neighbourhood were alarmed by a dreadful Noise and Confusion of the Air, which shook many Buildings, burst open Doors, and broke several Glass Windows, occasioned by the unfortunate blowing up of the Charlotte, Captain Francis Lowndes, bound for Africa, lying at the Rock Point, three Miles from the Town, who had just taken in her Gunpowder. The Ship and Crew on board were destroyed, except one Man taken up out of the Water. Luckily the Master, second Mate, Boatswain, and a Boat's Crew, were absent. The Accident is supposed to have been owing to a Boy striking a Light with a Flint and Steel, before they had swept away the loose Powder spilt on the Deck. Several Persons travelling on the neighbouring Roads were stunned by the sudden Shock and Noise, and their Horses made a full Stop. The Cloud of Smoke dispersing, discovered the River spread over with Wreck; and Boats were immediately dispatched to save all possible.

London, Aug. 11. By private Letters from Thelwell in Cheshire we learn, that there were no less than forty Barrels of Gunpowder on board the Charlotte Snow at Liverpool at the Time she blew up, which rendered the Explosion so great that the Shock was heard as far as that Place, and was supposed by all to have been occasioned by an Earthquake.

WILLIAMSBURG, October 14.

Extrait of a Letter from Col. Andrew Lewis, to his Honour the President, dated October 3.

"Our Men on Duty have of late been continually harrassed by the Enemy, especially those on Jackson's River. The Lookouts in that Quarter, about the End of August, discovered the Tracks of a Party of Indians on Green-Brier. As soon as they made their Report, I ordered Captains Bowyer and Moffat, with 100 Men, to go in Quest of them; who found the Indians, about 20 in Number, fortified in. As soon as our people fired on them, they took to their Heels, though not without returning the Fire; two of their Men, however, were killed on the Spot, and many of those who made their Escape wounded.

About the 12th of last Month, Capt. Ingles, with 30 of his Men, fell in with a Party of Indians, 20 in Number, on New-River, as they were returning from the Frontiers of Halifax with four Prisoners, 30 Horses, and a considerable Quantity of Baggage; the Indians, being unwilling to part with so valuable a Booty, disputed the Ground for near Half an Hour; when Capt. Ingles remained Master of the Field, scalped two of the Indians, wounded many, released the Prisoners, and brought in the Horses and Baggage.

"On the 26th a more unlucky Affair happened on Jackson's River, between Fort Dinwiddie and Fort Young. As Captains Moffat and Phillips (the latter from Louisa) were on their March, with 60 Men, to join Capt. Cuninghame, they were attacked by a far superior Number of the Enemy: The Engagement lasted a considerable Time; but at last our Men, overpressed with Numbers, were obliged to give Way, leaving 12 of their Number dead on the Spot, one of them Capt. Phillips's Lieutenant. By all Accounts, the Indians must have lost a good many Men."

Extrait of another Letter from Col. Andrew Lewis, to his Honour the President, dated October 10.

"In my Letter to your Honour, dated the 3d of this Month, I mentioned the ordering out a Party of 150 Men in Quest of the Indians that defeated Captains Moffat and Phillips. Our Men followed them to the Head of the South Fork of Patowmack, and, without being discovered, attacked them in their Camp: The Indians made but a slight Resistance, none of them firing above two Rounds, and some of them ran off without taking up their Firelocks. Six of them were scalped in their Camp; and, from the Report of the Officers in the Action, not less than 15 are mortally wounded, as appeared by the Streams of Blood in their Tracks. Their getting instantly into a large Laurel Thicket prevented our People finding them. It is certain many of them must perish, for they left all their Clothes; 100 Blankets, a Number of Shirts, above 100 Pair of Mockasons, and even their Breech Cloths. Our People likewise found in their Camp Plunder of different Kinds, to the Value of 250 l. which was brought off; also 8 Firelocks, and a considerable Quantity of Powder and Lead. The Scalps of the Men killed in the Engagement with Captains Moffat and Phillips were found in their Baggage. Five of our Men were wounded, but not one killed. This Party of Indians, 94 in Number, came from the Northward last Spring, and passed our Frontiers as Friends, under Pretence of going to War against the Cherokees; but it is more likely they went to engage them against Us, for they have neither Scalp nor Prisoner with them, and in their Baggage several Belts of Wampum used on such Occasions have been found. If the Cherokees do intend Mischiefs, it is probable they will defer it until they receive the Presents intended them. I have the Pleasure to inform your Honour, that the Militia behaved with the greatest Spirit, and are ready to go upon any Expedition against the Indians, even into their own Towns. The 150 Men who went upon this last Expedition, I raised in one Night."

Extrait of a Letter from Capt. William Ingles, to his Honour the President, dated Fort Hope, October 10, 1763.

"On the 12th of September, in the Morning, I was informed by two of my Men that they had discovered a Party of Indians, 23 in Number: Upon which I immediately set out with 30 Men, and had the Fortune to fall in with them, notwithstanding they had moved their Camp to some small Distance from the Place where they were first discovered, to a more advantageous Situation; when, we have Reason to believe, they intended to prepare for an Attack on some Place or other, as they were getting ready to Paint, and had several Hoops to stretch Scalps on. We had got within 70 or 80 Yards of their Camp before we discovered them, when 7 or 8 of our Men fired, but could not do any Execution, by reason of the Horses, which the Indians had tied round them for a Defence. They returned the Fire very briskly, upon which a smart Engagement ensued. Our Men, eager for Revenge, ran in upon them; and the Indians, being seized with a Panic, left us Masters of the Field of Battle. We retook 4 Prisoners they had got on Smith's River, being the Wife of George Workman, and 3 of his Children; we also got 30 Horses, 4 Guns, 18 Tomhawks, 2 Spears, 4 War Clubs, 24 Matchcoats, and 32 Pair of Moccasins with all their Paint, Conjuring Utensils, &c. that I imagine several of the Scoundrels were naked home. They had 3 Men killed on the Spot, and we have Reason to believe that several Men badly wounded. I had one killed, and another wounded."

ANNAPOLIS, November 17. Yesterday Afternoon, there was a Conference held, by Conference appointed by Both Houses Assembly, relating to the Infection Law; it is said, all Obstacles against its Passage are settled.

Thursday last Mr. Henry Steel, Merchant of Dorchester, was Elected a Representative for County, in the Room of the Honourable G. Goldborough, Esq; now a Member of the House.

On the 30th of last Month, Died in Calvert County, in the full Bloom of Life, Mrs. Sarah CHEW, the agreeable and virtuous Consort of Mr. Samuel Chew, and second Daughter of James Weems; whose amiable Deportment in Stations of Daughter, Sister, Wife, Mistress, Neighbour (being a very few Hours a Mother) gain'd her the Esteem of all her Acquaintance whom her immature Death is regretted.

A few Days ago near West-River, Benjamin Phipps, a Lad of about Fifteen Years of age, unfortunately lost his Life by a Fall off a Tree. He was out with his Father, to kill Squab who having Shot one which lodged on a Limb, his Son climb'd up to shake it down; and, his Feet slipping from the Limb on which he held, his Weight broke that by which he held, and his falling broke another, and he fell a third, (which it is supposed kill'd him) and to the Ground, in all 46 Feet.

Another unhappy Disaster happen'd very lately in Baltimore County, near Mr. Ouzon's Works: A little Girl about 4 or 5 Years of age, being left alone for a few Minutes in a Room where there was a Fire. It by some Accident catch'd her Callico Frock or Gown, and burnt her so terribly that she Died in a few Hours. [This may Caution Parents against Cloathing their Little Ones with Callico, especially in Cold Weather, as many Accidents of the same Kind, have happen'd.]

WARSAW, August 6.

THE Marshal of the Crown, and the Palatine of Kalasch, are set out for Dresden, to communicate to the King the Result of the Conferences held at Bialistock. In the mean Time, it is said that a large Body of Russian Troops have entered Lithuania, and the General who commands them has given his Reasons for so doing in a Manifesto, to the following Purport: "That it is well known by all the World, that in order to restore the public Tranquility in Poland, the Russian Troops resided there from 1703 till 1716; and that their Assistance was earnestly solicited of the Emperor Peter the First, by the King and the Republic of Poland; that the Convention relative thereto was signed in 1716, and ratified by the Diet in 1717; that from this Time that Convention was constituted a Part of the fundamental Laws of the Republic; and that it is by Virtue of this Convention, that the Russian Troops have now entered Lithuania, in order to quell the Spirit of Discord which has long reigned there."

Paris, August 19. The Affair of Canada is still tried on with great Eagerness. Volumes of Memorials and Cases are drawn up for and against Accused; and in them we already see enough to discover clearly how ill the King has been served, and how much the rage of Money has hurt the general good of the State. It is said that the Parliament insists on taking Cognizance of M. de la Moignon's Affair. The Nation in general are full of indignation, that the Honour of the French Name, and the Interests of the Crown, should have been sacrificed almost every where, to the Avariciousness of a few Individuals.

Amsterdam, August 20. The Deputies of the Dutch East-India Company who were sent to London to mediate the Differences between the two Companies, returned a few Days ago, and will soon make their Report to the States-General. But we are already that their Negotiation has proved fruitless.

Stockholm, August 9. Don Belezar, charged with Affairs of the Court of Spain, has declared to the Senate, by order of the King his Master, that was Reported to him, that, in Consequence of the late Treaty of Peace concluded between the Emperor of Morocco and the King of Sweden, the Crown has, by one of the Articles in the said Treaty, engaged to furnish that Barbary Prince only with a certain Quantity of Ammunition, and also with a Ship well Armed, and provided with Naval Stores; adding, that, if this Information proves true, his Catholic Majesty cannot but resent it, and take such Measures as the like Exencies require. To which the Senate has given an Answer for Answer, that there was no foundation for such a Remonstrance; the Presents intended for the Emperor of Morocco, consisted of Linens, Cloth, &c. This Complaint, however groundless, has notwithstanding engaged the Ministry to order Count Creutz, Envoy Extraordinary from this Court to that of Spain, to hasten his setting out for Madrid.

Hamburg, August 23. Since Yesterday Eleven more Houses in this City have stopped Payment; and it is thought, which here are any more considerable Houses, which, it is thought, will stand on their Feet.

The Jews, who are accounted the Cause of this Misfortune, find themselves exposed more than ever to the Public Odium; and though there are Troops in all the Streets, to protect them against the Mob, yet they are in continual Apprehensions.

Extract of a Letter from Amsterdam, August 23. "We are assured there will soon be a meeting of the principal Members of the State, in order to discuss some ways and means to obviate the consequences of the Bankruptcies already declared, and to relieve, as far as possible those that have failed, and those that are in Danger of Breaking. It is said that the Houses in question are to bring in a Bill of Accounts to the Stadt-Houfe, and that the Government does not intend to Favour any that may have been guilty of fraudulent Practices."

Ratisbon, August 18. Many Reports prevail here, the Truth of which we will not vouch for: These are, that a large Body of Ottoman Troops is advancing towards the Danube; that a Camp is tracing out in the environs of Bielitz in Silesia; and that the Misunderstanding increases between Russia and Poland.

August 22. For this Week past they have been enlisting Troops for the service of the King of Prussia: This levy, however, is made without any Noise, and they take none but select Persons.

Amsterdam, Aug. 25. Thirty-two Failures in this City are supposed to amount to Sixty Millions of Dutch Florins, upwards of Five Millions Sterling.

LONDON, August 24. Great Expectations, with regard to Trade, are formed from the Increase of our Possessions on the Continent of North-America. One House in the City, in particular, is preparing to Ship off, with the first opportunity, for Florida and Augustine, Goods to the amount of 20000 l.

August 25. The Forces which the King of Prussia has assembled in Brandenburg, makes it apprehended, that he may invade Hanover, if the British Council persist in refusing to pay the Remainder of the Subsidy owing to him during the War.

Letters from Hamburg of the 16th Instant advise, there were at Altena several Prussian, Austrian, and Danish recruiting Officers, who enlisted a great Number of Men, and sent them directly away to their respective Countries.

The Letters which arrived Yesterday from Russia, do not mention any thing about a new Revolution in that Empire; by which it is thought that there was no foundation for such a Report.

In a Letter from Plymouth Garrison, to a Gentleman in Town, dated the 10th Inst. is the following Paragraph; "I have just now received orders to March with two Companies into Cornwall, to quell some Riots committed by the Tinners there."

By a Gentleman lately arrived from the East-Indies, we are informed, that some of our Ships, just before they sailed for England, had taken two Snows, the one French, and the other Dutch, each of which had Officers on board of the respective Countries; and Dispatches were found on board for the Troops of each Country to exercise Hostilities against the English Settlements in that Quarter of the World.

It is said a Plan is laid before a certain great Person, for opening the Theatre in the Haymarket for the ensuing Season; the Profits arising therefrom to be appropriated to the relief of the Widows and Orphans of the Officers, Soldiers and Sailors; who lost their Lives in the service of their Country in the late War.

August 27. By the Holland Mail, which arrived this Afternoon, it is said there is advice that 15 Houses have stopped at Hamburg, and four at Berlin; which, if true, must greatly Alarm the Gentlemen concerned in Commerce. The Letters were ordered to be delivered this Afternoon.

We hear that Lieutenant-Colonel Scott is appointed Lieutenant-Governor of the Island of Dominico; Lieutenant-Colonel Gore for the Grenadoes; Lieut. Col. Maddison for St. Vincent's; and Major Brown, late Commandant of the Barbados Volunteers against Martinico, for Tobago.

There are said to be very great Heart-burnings among the People of Distinction in Ireland, on Account of some Removals and Pensions in the Establishment of that Kingdom.

A Letter from Wilna, dated July 22, says, "We have received an Account that the Russian Troops have positive Orders to enter this grand Duchy the 30th Inst. the Conferences to stop them having proved ineffectual. In the mean Time the great Treasurer, Count Fleming, is raising Men with the greatest Expedition and Success, there being a great Number of Men discharged by the late Peace, who very willingly enter."

Sept. 1. The Attention of the Public was never so fixed to any Object as the present unsettled State of the Ministry. Some pretend to say, that the intended Coalition, or rather the Restoration of the Whig Party, will not take place, but that the great Men now at the Helm, are determined to wait the Meeting of Parliament. Others are of Opinion, that Matters are now brought to such a Crisis, that nothing but the Authority and Influence of the great Favourites of the People, will be able to restore them to that Situation which every true Lover of his Country would wish.

Letters from Holland advise, that the Court of Vienna's Apprehensions of a Rupture with the Turks increase more and more.

Private Letters from Petersburg say, that her Czarian Majesty is in a declining State of Health, for which various Causes are assigned.

The 13th Inst. died at Saxe-Gotha, Prince Louis Ernest, third Brother to the reigning Duke of Saxe-Gotha, and to her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, aged 55 Years, 7 Months, and 15 Days. He was Lieutenant-General in the Service of Cologne and Munster, Colonel of a Regiment of Infantry, and Knight of the Black Eagle of Poland.

Extract of a private Letter from Hanover, Aug. 6.

"We do not at all regret Peace being restored to the Empire, though in some respects we found the Sweets of the War, as the Quantity of Coin circulating in this Electorate was amazingly increased; your Guineas are a handsome Coin; almost every Body here has one, or more of them, to keep, by way of Medal, in their Pockets. The Hereditary Prince of Brunswick was here some Weeks ago; the Waterworks in the Gardens of Herenhausen were played for his Amusement; these Gardens, as well as the Palace, are getting into Order, some say, for his Reception, tho' others, with more Probability, assert, that one of his Majesty's Brothers is to take up his Residence here for some Time, that he may be upon the Spot when he is chosen Bishop of Osnaburg, &c. which Election will, it is currently reported, soon take Place. We begin now to despair of seeing our Monarch on this Side the Water; would he permit one of his royal Brothers to keep a Court, and reside in our Capital, it would make his loyal Subjects happy."

It is the general Opinion, that the Dutch have between 20 and 30 Millions in our Funds; but this is a very great Mistake, and a Partial Overrating the Dutch influence among us; for they have no more than 10 or 12 Millions, at most, in all our Funds:—They are said to have one-third of our Bank-Stock, the whole of which is 10,960,000 l. and orders are come from Amsterdam to sell two Millions here, if our Court should be peremptory in some capital Demands, the Terror of which has occasioned the present large Bankruptcies among those perfidious and avaricious Republicans.

Public Credit begins to revive again at Amsterdam, where it is said, that such of the Merchants as can demonstrate that they are at the Bottom in good Circumstances, will be supported. At Hamburg a Subscription has been made of three Millions of Marks, which it is hoped will restore the Circulation there, and put an End to the apprehensions of the other.

The State of the Stocks has put many People into a great Consternation, and many false Reports have been raised to serve particular Ends, and to throw an Odium on some of the late Ministry; but it is said from good Authority, there will nothing more appear than that some Gentlemen have sold out large Sums in order to support the Reputation of some foreign Houses.

The French are so intent upon re-establishing their Marine, that they have now some Hundreds of Fishing Boats at Sea, which have all Three Apprentices on board, instead of One.

They write from France (it is said) that M. Poissonnier, who went to Port l' Orient to Try the Machine he has invented to freshen Sea Water, had the greatest Success in his Experiment. In 24 Hours he freshened 1500 Pints [750 English Wine Gallons.] His Machine is very simple and not expensive. With the help of 20 Tons of River or other fresh Water, he makes 80 Tons of good Water, by which, independent of every other Advantage, the Freight of 60 Tons is saved. The Experiment is to be tried soon at Sea.

The last Letters received at the Hague, from Berlin, import, that the King of Prussia had given Orders for all his Regiments to be Completed as fast as possible: And that, in Consequence thereof,

We are told that a certain great Nobleman has been absolutely forbid to appear any more at Court.

It is said, that a Misapplication of near Three Millions of Money has lately been found out.

PHILADELPHIA, November 3.

With Captain Budden came Passengers the Honourable JOHN and RICHARD PENN, Esquires; the first appointed Governor of this Province. And on Monday last his Commission was read at the Court-House, in the Presence of a great Number of People.

We have Advice from Ligonier, that a Convoy with Provisions was safe arrived there from Bedford, in their Way to Pittsburgh, where, we hear, they were all well, having then met with no Disturbance from the Indians. Near Bedford five Indians have been lately seen, but we do not learn that they had done any Mischief.

ANNAPOLIS, November 17.

On Saturday the 5th Instant, one Charles Randall was found Dead in the Road near Mr. Solomon Wooden's in Baltimore County, who is suppos'd to have been instantly kill'd by a Fall from his Horse the Night before.

One Day last Week, there was Caught at one Haul of a Seine, at the Narrows of Kent, One Hundred and Seventy-three Bushels of Fish, chiefly Perch; which Sold at 2/6 a Bushel.

Thursday last Died in Kent County, after long enduring with the utmost Patience and Resignation, the excruciating Pain of the Stone in the Bladder, the Learned and Reverend Mr. JAMES STERLING, Rector of St. Paul's Parish in that County, whose Death occasion'd the following Letter:

To the Printers of the MARYLAND GAZETTE.

GENTLEMEN,

AFTER mentioning the Death of the Reverend Mr. James Sterling, which I suppose you will in your next Paper, be pleas'd to insert what follows, and oblige, Gentlemen, Your very humble Servant,

Nov. 14, 1763.

EUPHRANOR.

Dignum laude virum Musa vetat mori. HOR. THOUGH it be universally allowed that there never did exist a perfect Character among mere Mortals, yet such are the Prejudices which the Bulk of Mankind entertain in Favour of their Friends, that, in general, the Characters exhibited to the Public of the Dead, come very seldom short of absolute Perfection.—But this never answers any good Purpose; and frequently the very opposite One to what was intended; for the unprejudiced Part of Mankind, never fail to conclude an unnatural Character to be an unjust One; whilst ill-plac'd Panegyric is often turn'd into the severest Sort of Satire. What Mr. Pope says of Writing, may justly enough be applied to Human Nature,

Whoever thinks a faultless Man to see,

Thinks what ne'er was, nor is, nor e'er shall be.

Let it be granted therefore that the best of Men have their Foibles; yet at the same Time it ought to be observ'd, that Imperfections in Men of superior Merit, Parts, and Learning, as they are ever plac'd in a conspicuous Point of Light, are always more taken Notice of, than the same or worse Failings in those of an inferior Class. Nor do the invidious Part of the Species ever spare their Industry, to bring down a brilliant and shining Character, to the Level of their own groveling Meanness, by the most malicious Misrepresentations. On the other Hand, however, it must be confess'd, that all the humane and candid Part of Mankind, view the Imperfections of great Characters, as they do Straws or Dirt in the fine transparent Substance of Amber.

*Pretty! in Amber to observe the Forms
Of hairs, or straws, or dirt, or grubs, or worms!
The Things we know are neither rich nor rare,
But wonder how the Devil they got there.*

POPE.

In like Manner, upon comparing the bright and brilliant, the friendly, the generous and benevolent Parts of a great and good Man's Character, with perhaps some Infirmities of Nature, which, on certain Occasions, give Knaves or Fools an Advantage over him, we wonder and regret, that Perfections which at some Times almost equal him to Angels, shou'd be mixt with Imperfections, which at other Times render him the Sport or Prey of the meanest of Mortals. Yet such, alas! has been the Condition of some of the greatest Geniuses that ever appear'd in the World.

Agreeable to what has been premis'd, I am now to offer somewhat briefly respecting the late Reverend Mr. Sterling. And first, I shall not hesitate one Moment in affirming, that by His Death the Province of Maryland has lost a Great and Good Man, a most valuable Member of Society; and in spite of his Failings (for these no doubt he had) I am not afraid to add, that he was an Honour and Ornament to the sacred Cloth he wore, as well as to the Country he liv'd in; for I will venture to assert, without fear of being contradicted by competent Judges, that his uncommon Abilities and extensive Learning, particularly in all the Branches of polite Literature, stand unrival'd in this Part of the World, and I doubt not but several of the elegant Performances he has favour'd the Public with, will be accounted an incontestable Proof of the Assertion.—Then he was most certainly a Man of a warm, friendly, and feeling Heart, very easily melted down into Tenderness and Compassion for the Sufferings of his Fellow Creatures; and ready on all Occasions to relieve and assist them, as far as ever lay in his Power. It is impossible that a Man of such universal Benevolence shou'd not perform all the domestic Duties of Husband, Parent, and Master, with the utmost Care and Tenderness; and accordingly it is well known he had a most amiable Character, in every one of these Particulars. He was no Bigot in Religion, active and zealous in discharging the Duty of his Function; greatly admir'd as a most elegant and pathetic Preacher, by all who ever hear'd him; and in particular esteem'd by his Parishioners, which alone is no small Test of his Merit. The many joyful Hours spent in his Company (for he was most delightful Companion) together with just Sense of his Worth, have drawn the few hasty Lines from a Pen, not fond of appearing in Public on such Occasions: 'Tis a Pity methinks he shou'd drop into Grave, without some little Notice at least from the Muse.—Such as the short Notice and my small Turn to Poetry, will afford his Friends are welcome to on the Occasion so that if they shou'd meet with nothing better, which, without Affectation I think they very easily may, the following Lines may be inscrib'd upon his Grave-Stone by Way

E P I T A P H,

On the late Rev. Mr. JAMES STERLING.

STRANGER, whoe'er thou art, one Moment And take a useful Lesson in your Way. No Tomb superb, or speaking Marble Bust Here courts your Eye,—this covers nought but Dust. And yet this Dust (now tremble human Pride, And lay your gaudy Trappings all aside) This humble Dust, by Worms possess'd, contains All of Great STERLING that on Earth remains. All that remains of Talents so sublime, As ne'er before adorn'd this Western Clime. Buried in Silence lies that rapt'rous Tongue, On which admiring Crowds have often hung. To hear GOD's comforts to a World distress'd, With all the Charms of Eloquence, display'd. Or when with sweetest Notes he tun'd his Lyre, Enraptur'd Souls with Pleasure dy'd away: But all the mortal Frame is now dissolv'd in Clay. His nobler Part has upwards wing'd its flight, To where congenial Spirits dwell in Light: And thence, with Pity views vain Man, who mope With his whole Race, consume to Worms and Dust.

NE John Ferroll, from Maryland, came to my House, on the Virginia Side, about 2 Miles
Rock-Creek Ferry; about the Middle of June and worked there about 15 Days, and got intoxicated with a Convict Servant Woman of mine, named Hannah Arbur, a fresh-looking English woman, from Dover, about 22 Years of Age, Freckles on her Face, and a brown Mark on right Cheek, that one may cover with their hand; and he carried her away on the 13th of August last, and was seen with her near Broadwater's, on Patuxent, and keeps her about his Father's, Martin Ferroll's, who near John Fowler's, about 2 Miles from Mr.
Fenwick's new Furnace. I have been twice with the first Time his Father abused me very much, but he promised to deliver her on my giving him Five Pounds Virginia Money, and I gave the Money last Time, but he would not release her. As he is afraid of Officers, and I understand broke out of Annapolis Jail, there is no going at him; but as the Convict Woman will be at different Times by People in the Neighbourhood (or perhaps with the Relations of Martine Ferroll's Wife, who I understand live near Annapolis, and she, the Wife, seems by her Colour to be of the Mulatto breed).

Whoever apprehends the Servant Woman, and brings her committed to any Jail, and advertises it in the Maryland Papers, shall have Five Pounds Reward, paid to the Sheriff, before she is taken up, by HENRY CULLOM.

HAMBURG, July 15.

THE French Deferters in this Quarter of Germany are very impatient to learn from the Minister of their Nation in this City, what their Court intends shall be their Fate. This Minister feeds them in the mean while with the Hopes of a general Pardon: If that should be granted, it is computed that France would immediately recover 35,000 Men, which are dispersed in Germany, and who are most desirous to return to their own Country, as most of them, being bred to no Business, are in a starving Condition.

Vienna, July 25. Notwithstanding the renewed Truce with the Turks, and the Assurances of the Grand Signior's Intention to live in Friendship with the Empress Queen, the Preparations of the Ottoman Porte seem to give our Court uneasiness, and probably gave Occasion to the new Levies that are making throughout most of the Dominions of the House of Austria. To the same Cause we ascribe the Resolution that has been taken to send large Quantities of Ammunition and Provisions to Hungary. Mean while some People, who pretend to be well informed, assert, that this Court has no Reason to take any Umbrage at the Turkish Preparations, which are occasioned only by a Coolness between the Porte and the Court of Russia, and the Concern which the Grand Signior takes in the Affairs of Poland.

Altena, July 22. Some Prussian Officers are come to this City, and to Hamburg, to beat up for Volunteers. If the French Deferters, who swarm in this Part of Germany, receive not soon some favourable News from their Minister at Hamburg, it is believed most of them will enlist in the Service of Prussia.

Ratibon August 4. Our Correspondent in Lithuania informs us, that there are now upwards of 16,000 Russian Troops in that Part of the Dominions of Poland, and the Empress has promised to send double that Number there to support the Duke de Biron in Courland, if necessary. On the other Hand, they are collecting all the Troops possible in the Palatinates of Croatia and Volinia; and the Nobles of Poland talk of taking 35 or 40,000 Troops into the Service of the Republick.

L O N D O N.

Extrait of a Letter from Lisbon, dated July 23, 1763. Containing a Description of the Queen of Portugal.

"Her Majesty was this Day dressed in a Man's Scarlet Coat and Waistcoat, laced with a broad Gold Lace, and Diamond Buttons, a Man's Hat on her Head edged with Gold Lace, and having a Diamond Button, and her Hair done up as our Grenadier Guards have theirs. She rode a very fine Horse, fit for any General Officer, with Pistols before her and a Sword by her Side, suspended by a broad laced Belt. She rode astride, was booted and spurred, and in every respect fo-like the King, that a Stranger could not know the Difference, excepting by a Kind of Trowsers, or Breeches, of Scarlet, that came down half-way her Boots. She is an excellent Horfwoman; and, I am told, when hunting, if she has any natural Call, she will dismount and settle it with as little concern, as a Man in Company of his own Sex. No Ladies accompany her at such Times. I had an Opportunity of seeing her in another Light, which was St. John's Day, at one of their Palaces, at a Family Entertainment. It began with a Bull Feast, from which we adjourned to the Palace, the King having given Orders, that all Strangers should be admitted.

"After viewing all the Apartments, which are upwards of a Quarter of a Mile in Length, we were summoned to a very elegant Supper. Neither the King nor Family supped in Public, but Count de la Lippe, the Captain General, with the Secretary of State, and all the Portuguese Nobility that were there, supped at the same Table. From this we went to a very fine Concert-Room, where we had the Pleasure of hearing the Queen and two Princesses sing, which were all the Ladies present. Here the Queen looked like a Woman, with a very noble Presence, and much like Miss Chudleigh, but something juster. After this we were entertained with an Opera, all the Performers at which were Capons, though some of them looked like Hens. The whole concluded with very fine Fire Works, the Gardens being grandly illuminated all Night."

To the PRINTER.

SIR, I Entirely agree that Reflections on the whole Scotch Nation, on Account of the Dislike to a certain Nobleman, are scandalous and illiberal, and can serve no other End than prejudicing the Inhabitants of the northern and southern Parts of our Island against each other; whereas, if thought in Reason and good Policy to be prohibited: And I assure you no Body can more ardently wish perfect Harmony to subsist between them than I do. But yet, give me leave to observe, that our northern Brethren are equally culpable of harbouring the same Kind of Prejudices, are in all Respects full as National, and in point of promoting the Interest of each other, much more so. Now this being the Case, they should also, in their Parts, endeavour to divest themselves of partial Prejudices as well as the English; both of them should banish from their Breasts all narrow Partialities, and consider themselves, as they really are, Fellow-Subjects, who ought to promote each other's Happiness, instead of idly venting their Spleen, ridiculing and provoking each other to Anger. Let the English forbear their low illmaner'd Abuse against Scotland, on Account of its Barrenness, Poverty, &c. and let the Scotch, who are settled in England, and who enjoy Places, or carry on Trade here, fairly deal, in their Turn, with the People to whom they are indebted for Support, and not make it a Rule never to lay out a Farthing with an Englishman, which many of them now strictly, tho' ungratefully adhere to. Thus let each correct their own bad Behaviour towards the other, and then we may hope to see the Inhabitants of the North and South of this happy Island, live together in Harmony.

I am, Sir, Yours, A SOUTH BRITON.

LONDON, July 21.

Thursday last a genteel well dress'd Man, mounted on a bay Gelding, stopped at the George at Acton, had Dinner dress'd for him, Eat heartily, and, with the Assistance of the Landlord, drank two Bottles of Wine; after feeding his Horse, ordered him to be brought to the Door; at this Time a Post-Chaise arriv'd, and the Landlord, out of Complaisance, waited on his new Customers, during which Time the Gentleman thought proper to mount his Horse and ride off, after telling the Hostler he had paid the Landlord; who soon after enquiring and finding what had happened, was determined not to be Bilked, mounted a good Horse, and after riding four Miles, came up with his Customer upon the Uxbridge Road, giving his Horse some Water at a Pond. The Landlord very politely expostulated with him for not paying his Reckoning, and the Gentleman as politely Answer'd, It was a Mistake, which he would immediately rectify; and turning about to him as if he was going to pay him his Money, presented at him a Pistol, desiring his Money and Watch, Swearing, if it was not immediately given, he would blow his Brains out. The Landlord then gave him his Watch, with about six Guineas in Gold and Silver; on receiving of which the Highwayman told him, Now go Home and tell my Landlady Mistakes are rectified; and then rode off.

Gloucester, July 11. Great Numbers of Excisemen took up their Qualifications at our Quarter Sessions this Week. Some of them perhaps may repent of their Employ, as we are told the Subterranean Gentry of the Forest of Dean are determined to take all that come within their reach to the Regions below. One of the Brethren of the Stick was last Week caught by these Sons of Darknes, in going his Rounds to the Cyder Mills, and was instantaneously hurried 2 or 300 Feet under Ground, where he now takes up his Abode. The Colliers, it is said, use him very well, and he lives as they do; but they swear the Day of his Resurrection shall not come to pass 'till the Cyder act is repeal'd, or at least 'till Cyder-making is over.

NEW-YORK, November 10.

On Sunday last, in the Afternoon, a Number, at least 200 of disorderly People, surrounded the Orchard of Mr. Nicholas Bayard, where a large Quantity of Apples lay in Heaps for making Cyder; Mr. Bayard being absent, and only one white Man, an Hireling, with his Overseer to take Care of his Interest at Home, some of them abused the Overseer, threatening to take all the Apples away, in spite of him or his Master. The Overseer, unable, with but one Assistant to keep them off, ordered a Gun to be brought him, which prevented their pilfering till it grew dark, when he was attack'd on several Quarters, as defying him to fire: He found it necessary to show them he was in earnest, and aiming at the Legs of two that were nearest to him in the Orchard, his Piece being charged with Pidgeon Shot, he fired, and supposes he wounded one of them in the Legs, for he fell down soon after he got over the Slab Fence. The Family were alarm'd by the Noise, and immediately sent another loaded Gun, by the other white Man, who was an old Privateer Sailor. Two or three other Ruffians then came over the Fence, not knowing another Gun was provided for them.—The Sailor called out Stand or Die, on which they ran off, and he fired at their Legs, desiring them not to disturb him any more that Night. He supposes he pepper'd one of them pretty smartly in the Breech or Thighs;—and if any of them applies for a Remedy, he hopes the Surgeon will give Information, and let the Patients know he is ready to give them Satisfaction, either to cure or renew the Wound. Mr. Bayard, (we are told) when he came Home, was obliged to send for Assistance, and to keep Watch all Night; and that Hendrick Scralesman, (next Door to Mr. Herring's) on Sunday Afternoon; 14 Days ago, was forced to Watch, to prevent their carrying off his Corn, being the chief Subsistence for his Family, wherein are 7 small Children, was so beat and abused, that he was confined to his Bed for some Time, while his Family suffered. It is said that among these vile People, Sunday seems to be only set apart, for their being more Disorderly and Mischievous, than on any other Day of the Week; and that there is scarce a Farmer, or Gentleman's Seat on this side of New-Foundland, but what suffers the same Injury, in having their Orchards and Corn Fields plunder'd, and their Grains and Grain trampled on and hurt.—These Enormities shew a shameful Corruption of Manners, and require immediate Suppression:—Mean while it is become scandalous even for more orderly People to Walk out on that Day, since it cannot be done without mixing with herds of vile People, and being exposed to be taken for their Companions;—Which, it is hoped, those who have good Characters to preserve, will take proper Notice of.

We hear that on Friday last, a little Girl, Daughter of Mr. Brown, in Pearl Street, in roasting Apples, stood too near the Fire, and her Clothes were catch'd in a Blaze, from which being unable to disengage herself, and no help being near, she ran out into the Street, where a Chimney Sweeper threw his Cloth over her and extinguish'd the Flame; but she was so much burn'd that she expired on Sunday last.

PHILADELPHIA, November 15.

The following Account we have from Reading, in Berks County, viz. That on the Eighth Instant, in the Morning, about Day-light, the House of Frantz Bailly, in Albaby Township, was attacked by a Party of Indians, who fired several times through his Windows; upon which he got up, and fired at the Enemy, when he received a Wound in his Wrist, and one of his Children, a Boy, was killed: That one Hagenbouch, and two of his Sons, hearing the Firing, went to his Assistance, which made the Indians go off without destroying the House or Barn: That they next went to the House of one Stapleton, but one of his Sons seeing them, fired off a Gun, which occasioned their passing by that House; and going to George Schifler's, where they tomahawked and scalped his Wife, mangled her in the most cruel Manner, and left her in a Condition which a Regard to Decency forbids to mention; they likewise killed one of Schifler's Sons, whom they scalped, and half roast'd; and burnt his Dwelling-House, Barn, and all the other Buildings: That from Schifler's they went to Jacob Tree's, killed one Shober, and destroyed the House and Barn: That they then plundered Daniel Smith's House, and burnt it, with all his other Buildings: And that after all this, they proceeded to Philip Enos's about three Miles from Smith's, where they made Prisoner a Lad about 13 Years of Age, who afterwards escaped from them.—The Number of Indians that did this Mischievous, is said not to exceed Nine, who spoke English, and some Dutch.—The Quantity of Grain destroyed, is thought not less than 2000 Bushels; and the Condition of the Inhabitants is most melancholy, there being in several Houses not less than 30 or 40 Children, besides the Men and Women, and all obliged to fly for their Lives, without being able to bring off any thing for their Support.

On Friday Night last a Hatter's Shop in Front-street, near the Draw-bridge, was broke open, and robbed of Hats to a considerable Value.

And on Monday Night a Person was stop'd by a Man on the Highway, betwixt Darby and Chester, who presented a Pistol to his Breast, and robbed him of a small Matter in Money; and the same Person, before he got to Town, was stop'd a second time, and ordered to deliver by another Man; but on his telling him that he had just before been robbed, he let him go.

ANNAPOLIS, November 24.

We are informed, that the Countess of Leicester Packet, Capt. Willison, from Falmouth (which she left the 14th of September) for New-York, was lost at a Place called The Wash, the latter Part of North-Carolina, on the first of November at about Nine in the Evening. This Information we have from Capt. Williams, an Engineer, who came Passenger in her. ONE John Ferroll, from Maryland, came to my House, on the Virginia Side, about 2 Miles from Rock-Creek Ferry, about the Middle of June last, and worked there about 15 Days, and got acquainted with a Convict Servant Woman of mine, named Hannah Arthur, a fresh-looking English Woman, from Dover, about 22 Years of Age, some Freckles on her Face, and a brown Mark on her right Check, that one may cover with their Thumb; and he carried her away on the 13th Day of August last, and was seen with her near Mordecai Broadwater's, on Patuxent, and keeps her secreted about his Father's, Martin Ferroll's, who lives near John Fowler's, about 2 Miles from Mr. Snowden's new Furnace. I have been twice with him, the first Time his Father abused me very much, but he promised to deliver her on my bringing him Five Pounds Virginia Money, and I brought the Money last Time, but he would not deliver her. As he is afraid of Officers, and I understand broke out of Annapolis Jail, there is no coming at him; but as the Convict Woman will be seen at different Times by People in the Neighbourhood (or perhaps with the Relations of Martin Ferroll's Wife, who I understand live near Annapolis, and she, the Wife, seems by her Colour to be of the Mulatto breed).
