

[XIXth Year.]

THURSDAY, March 1, 1764.

[N^o. 982.]

BOSTON, January 16.

LAST Friday, in Consequence of an Invitation from the President and Fellows of Harvard College, his Excellency the Governor, the Honourable his Majesty's Council, and the Honourable House of Representatives, were present at Cambridge, at the Ceremony of Naming the New Hall, lately erected there by Order of the Great and General Court at the Expence of the Province.

Soon after the Company had got together his Excellency and the whole Court, proceeded by the President, Fellows and Tutors, went from the Library to HOLDEN-CHAPEL: (So named from Mrs. HOLDEN of London the generous Donor of it) when the President acquainted the Audience with the occasion of their Assembling, and that his Excellency the Governor, with the Honourable Gentlemen of the General Court, had honoured the Society with their Presence to give the New Hall Name. Upon which his Excellency named it HOLLIS-HALL, in Memory of THOMAS HOLLIS, Esq; late of London, deceased; and in Honour of his surviving Nephew THOMAS HOLLIS, Esq; Fellow of the Royal Society: Both of them generous Benefactors to the College. The President then directed a young Gentleman of the College, Mr. Taylor, an Undergraduate, to ascend the Rostrum: Which he did, and delivered, suitable to the Occasion, an elegant Oration in English, in which he particularly commemorated the Names of HARVARD, STUGHTON, HOLDEN and HOLLIS: Names—as he observed—that "shall be ever had in grateful Remembrance, when the Walls, that are called by them, are mumbled to Dust." But those Walls (continued he) are Memorials only of private Manificence, while MASHACHUSETTS HALL, and your NEW STRUCTURE, erected by the Representatives of the People indicate a Regard to Learning and a Love of the fine Arts diffused through the whole Community.—After the Oration was ended, which greatly pleased the Audience, the President and Corporation waited upon his Excellency and the Court to the dining Hall of the College, where a very handsome Entertainment was provided for them. Then Dinner and the usual Healths after it were over, the Honourable TIMOTHY RUGGLES, Esq; Speaker of the Honourable House of Representatives, addressed his Excellency the Governor and informed him that the Committee, that had been appointed by the General Court to direct and oversee the building of the New Hall, had delivered the Keys of it to him in the House of Representatives: In whose Name he delivered them to his Excellency, to be disposed of according to the Intention of the General Court. Upon which his Excellency, receiving the Keys delivered them in the Name of the whole Court to Mr. President HOLYOKE, and with them the Possession of HOLLIS-HALL, erected by Order of the Court for the Use of the Students of HARVARD COLLEGE: To which his Excellency wished the greatest Prosperity. The President received the Keys with suitable Expressions of the Gratitude of the Society for so noble a Benefaction.

The whole Ceremony and Entertainment were conducted with great Politeness, and very much to the Satisfaction of his Excellency and the whole Court. HOLLIS HALL, built of Brick, is one hundred and five Feet long, forty five Feet wide, and four stories high. It contains thirty two Chambers, designed to accommodate twice that Number of Students; and is a very handsome Structure. It cost three Thousand six Hundred and ten Pounds a Shilling Sterling, which Sum, tho' it considerably exceeded the Estimate that was originally made before the Honourable House of Representatives, and upon which they formed the Vote for building the Hall, was granted with the greatest cheerfulness.

The Buildings now belonging to the College, HARVARD-HALL, STUGHTON-HALL, MASSACHUSETTS-HALL, HOLLIS-HALL, and HOLDEN-CHAPEL: Which are not sufficient for the great Number of Students.

By the Packets, Earl of Halifax, Capt. Jeffries, and The Duke of Cumberland, Capt. Goodridge, arrived at New-York from Falmouth, we have the following ADVICES, viz.

WESTMINSTER, November 15.

THIS Day his Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in his Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Septimus Robinson, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from his Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious SPEECH:

My LORDS and GENTLEMEN,

THE Re-establishment of the Public Tranquility upon Terms of Honour and Advantage to my Kingdoms, was the first great Object of my Reign: That salutary Measure has received the Approbation of my Parliament, and has since been happily completed, and carried into Execution, by the Definitive Treaty. It has been, and shall be my Endeavour, to ensure the Continuance of the Peace, by a faithful and steady Adherence to the Conditions upon which it was concluded: And I have the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that the several Powers of Europe, who were engaged against us in the late War, have given me the strongest Assurances of the same good Disposition. Our principal Care ought now to be employed to improve the valuable Acquisitions which we have made, and to cultivate the Arts of Peace in such a Manner, as may most effectually contribute to extend the Commerce, and to augment the Happiness of my Kingdoms.

For these great Purposes I have called you together. It will ever be my earnest Wish and Endeavour to demonstrate to my People, by my Actions, the Love which I bear them; and I doubt not of receiving from them the grateful and just Returns of Duty and Affection.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I will order the proper Estimates for the Service of the Year to be laid before you. The heavy Debts contracted in the Course of the late War, for many of which no Provision is yet made, call for your utmost Attention, and the strictest Frugality. I must however earnestly recommend to you the Support of my Fleet, to which our past Successes have been so much owing, and upon which the future Welfare and Importance of Great-Britain do most essentially depend. To ease my People of some Part of these Burthens, I have directed, as I promised at the End of the last Session of Parliament, that the Money arising from the Sale of the Prizes vested in the Crown, should be applied to the Public Service. It is my Intention to reserve, for the same Use, whatever Sums shall be produced by the Sale of any of the Lands belonging to me in the Islands of the West-Indies, which were ceded to us by the late Treaty.

The Improvement of the Public Revenue, by such Regulations as shall be judged most expedient for that Purpose, deserves your serious Consideration. This will be the surest Means of reducing the national Debt, and of relieving my Subjects from those Burthens, which the Expences of the late War have brought upon them; and will, at the same Time, establish the Public Credit upon the most solid Foundation.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

As the Interests and Prosperity of my People are the sole Objects of my Care, I have only to desire, that you will pursue such Measures as are conducive to those Ends, with Dispatch and Unanimity. Domestic Union will be essentially necessary to remedy those Evils which are the Consequences of War, to enable us to reap the most permanent Advantages from the Conclusion of the Peace, and to discourage that licentious Spirit, which is repugnant to the true Principles of Liberty, and of this happy Constitution. In this Opinion I trust that my Subjects will be confirmed by your Example; and that they will be taught by your Proceedings, to unite their utmost Endeavours to support such Measures as may equally tend to the Honour and Dignity of my Crown, and their own Security and Happiness.

The humble ADDRESS of the Right Honourable the LORDS SPIRITUAL and TEMPORAL. November 15, 1763.

Most Gracious SOVEREIGN,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for your most gracious Speech from the Throne.

Permit us, Sir, to take the earliest Opportunity of congratulating your Majesty on the happy Addition to your Royal Family, by the auspicious Birth of a Second Prince, and of expressing our most sincere Wishes, that the same divine Blessing may be continued to your Majesty's illustrious House, on which the Preservation of our holy Religion, and our Rights and Liberties, do, under God, so essentially depend.

We beg Leave also to declare our utmost Gratitude to your Majesty, for the Re-establishment of the public Tranquility upon Terms of Honour to your Crown, and Advantage to your People. We have the firmest Reliance on your Majesty's most gracious Assurances of your Endeavours to secure the Continuance of a Peace so necessary to the Relief of your Subjects, who have long laboured under the Burthen of a most expensive, though successful War, in every Part of the Globe; and we receive, with great Satisfaction, the Communication which your Majesty has been pleased to make to us, of the good Disposition of the several Powers engaged in the late War, whose Concurrence in your Majesty's salutary Intentions will, we trust, long ensure the Tranquility of Europe.

We are deeply sensible of your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention for the Improvement of your Conquests, and the Extension of the Commerce of your Subjects, in which the public Welfare is so materially concerned; and we will not fail, on our Part, to exert our warmest Endeavours in forwarding your Majesty's great and gracious Purposes. For we have nothing more sincerely at Heart, than that your Majesty, having by your Conduct impressed on the Minds of your faithful Subjects a full Conviction of your true Affection, may receive from them the most ample Returns of Duty and Attachment which a loyal and grateful People can make.

Convinced, as we are, that domestic Union is essentially necessary for securing the Advantages derived to us from the late happy and honourable Peace, we cannot sufficiently express our Abhorrence of that seditious Spirit which has of late manifested itself in Defiance of the Laws, to the Subversion of good Order, and to the Disgrace of Liberty, whose sacred Name it has so insolently assumed. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that by our Zeal and Application in bringing all Offenders of that Sort to Justice, as well as by our Proceedings in general, we will endeavour to give such an Example as may induce your Majesty's Subjects to unite in discouraging a Licentiousness which is so repugnant to the true Principles of this happy Constitution, and in promoting such Measures as may equally conduce to the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and to their own Happiness and Security.

To which Address his Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer:

My LORDS,

THESE hearty Assurances of your Loyalty and Affection are truly acceptable to me; and I receive, with particular Satisfaction, your Congratulations upon the Birth of my second Son. Your Concurrence with me, in pursuing the essential Objects of my national Attention, under the present happy Pacification, will be of great Importance towards the Success of my Endeavours for securing the Prosperity of my People.

I do both highly approve the Zeal which you possess, and firmly rely upon the Exertion of it against that licentious and factious Spirit, which is the most dangerous Enemy to our excellent invaluable Constitution.

The humble ADDRESS of the House of Commons to the KING.

Most Gracious SOVEREIGN,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great-Britain, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return your Majesty the most humble and hearty Thanks of this House, for your most gracious Speech from the Throne.

Permit us, at the same Time, to offer our warmest Congratulations to your Majesty, on the auspicious Birth of another Prince, and on the happy Recovery of your Royal Cohort, now further endeared to this Country, by the Increase of those Pledges of our Liberty and future Happiness.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Completion of that great and salutary Measure, the Re-establishment of the public Tranquility, upon Terms so honourable to your Crown, and so advantageous to your People.

Allow us, Sir, to assure your Majesty, that we feel the highest Satisfaction in the Declaration, which you are graciously pleased to make of your Resolution faithfully and steadily to adhere to the Conditions of the Peace which your Majesty has concluded: And that we cannot but consider the strong Assurances of the same good Disposition given, by the several Powers of Europe who were lately engaged against us, as the natural Consequence of your Majesty's Wisdom and Firmness; and as a further Prefage, that the Blessings of Peace will be uninterrupted and permanent.

We are truly sensible of that paternal Love to your People, of which your Majesty is pleased to assure us, in so affecting a Manner; and we will assiduously apply ourselves to the Accomplishment of those great Purposes, for which your Majesty has called us together; the Improvement of our valuable Acquisitions, the Extension of our Commerce, and the cultivating of every Art of Peace, which may either tend to alleviate the heavy Burthens occasioned by the War, or may otherwise contribute to the general Welfare of these Kingdoms.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that your faithful Commons will cheerfully grant to your Majesty such Supplies as shall be found necessary for the Service of the Year; that they will be careful to maintain the Navy of Great-Britain upon the most respectable Footing; and that they look upon your Majesty's earnest Recommendation of this Important Object, as a Testimony of your Royal Attention to the true and essential Interests of this Country.

We acknowledge, with the deepest Sense of Gratitude, your Majesty's gracious and tender Concern for the Relief of your People, by directing, that the Money, arising from the Sale of Prizes vested in the Crown, should be applied to the Public Service; and for that additional Mark of your Royal Benevolence, in signifying your Intention to reserve for the same Use, whatever Sums shall be produced by the Sale of any of the Lands belonging to the Crown, in the Islands in the West-Indies ceded by the late Treaty.

Your Majesty may be assured, that we will bestow the strictest Attention upon that interesting Subject, which your Majesty has pointed out to our serious Consideration; and will diligently weigh every Regulation which may be proposed, for the Improvement of the public Revenue, as the most effectual Method to reduce the national Debt, to relieve your Majesty's Subjects from the Burthens of the late War, and to confirm and strengthen the Public Credit.

We are thoroughly convinced, by the whole Tenor of your Majesty's most auspicious Reign, that the common Good, and Prosperity of your People, are the sole Objects of your Care; and that we should therefore be wanting to ourselves, and neglectful of our own Happiness, if we did not pursue, with Unanimity and Dispatch, such Measures as may best contribute to these great Ends, and may most effectually discourage that Spirit of Disorder and Licentiousness, which is no less dangerous to Liberty, than destructive of Government.

Animated with these Sentiments, we will endeavour, by our own Conduct, to set an Example to others of Duty to our Sovereign, and of Love to our Country; being firmly persuaded, that, under a Prince adorned with those Virtues which distinguish your Majesty, your real Interests and those of your People are inseparable.

EXTRACT from the VOTES, &c.

House of Lords, Tuesday, November 13, 1763.

COMPLAINT was made to the House, of a notorious and scandalous Breach of the Privilege of this House, in affixing the Name of the Bishop of Gloucester to Notes upon a most scandalous, obscene, and infamous Libel, entitled, An Essay upon Woman, and a Paraphrase of the Veal Creator; and several Passages having been read out of the said Essay and Paraphrase, it was moved to resolve, that the printed Paper, entitled, An Essay on Woman, with the Notes; and another Paper, entitled, The Veal Creator paraphrased, highly reflecting upon a Member of this House, is a manifest Breach of the Privilege thereof, and is a most scandalous, obscene, and impious Libel, a gross Profanation of many Parts of the holy Scriptures, and a most wicked and blasphemous Attempt to ridicule and vilify the Person of our blessed Saviour: And the same was agreed to, and ordered accordingly.

Then several Witnesses were examined, in order to prove who was the Author of the said Papers complained of.

Which done, The further Consideration of these Papers was put off to Thursday next.

House of Commons, Tuesday, November 13, 1763.

A Question was proposed, that the Bill for preventing clandestine Outlawries be read; and an Amendment being proposed to be made to the Question, by adding (" before the House will receive the Message relating to the Privileges of this House, Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer has signified that he has in Command from his Majesty, to deliver to the House; and before the Complaint of the Privilege of this House, which John Wilkes, Esq; has in his Place offered to make, be heard.")

And the Question being put, that those Words stand Part of the Question, the House divided.

Yeas 111 Noes 300

Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer, by his Majesty's Command, presented the following Message to the House.

I am commanded by his Majesty to acquaint this House, that his Majesty having received Information that John Wilkes, Esq; a Member of this House, was the Author of a most seditious Libel, published since the last Session of Parliament: He had caused the said John Wilkes, Esq; to be apprehended and secured, in order to his being tried for the same by due Course of Law; and Mr. Wilkes having been discharged out of Custody by the Court of Common Pleas, upon Account of his Privilege as a Member of this House, and having been called upon by the legal Process of the Court of King's Bench, stood out and declined to appear and answer to an Information, which has since been exhibited against him, by his Majesty's Attorney General, for the same Offence. In this Situation his Majesty being desirous to shew all possible Attention to the Privileges of the House of Commons, in every Instance wherein they can be supposed to be concerned, and at the same Time thinking it of the utmost Importance not to suffer the public Justice of the Kingdom to be eluded, has chosen to direct the said Libel, and also Copies of the Examinations, upon which Mr. Wilkes was apprehended and secured, to be laid before this House, for their Consideration.

Resolved, That an humble Address be presented to his Majesty, to return his Majesty the Thanks of this House for his most gracious Message, and for the tender Regard therein expressed for the Privileges of this House; and to assure his Majesty that this House will forthwith take into their most serious Consideration, the very important Matter, communicated by his Majesty's Message.

And a Question being proposed, that the Paper, entitled, The North-Briton, No. 45. is a false, scandalous, and seditious Libel, containing Expressions of the most unexampled Insolence and Contumely towards his Majesty; the grossest Aspersions upon both Houses of Parliament, and the most audacious Defiance of the Authority of the whole Legislature, and most manifestly tending to alienate the Affections of the People from his Majesty; to withdraw them from their Obedience to the Laws of the Realm, and to excite them to traitorous Insurrections against his Majesty's Government.

A Motion was made, and the Question put to leave out the Words, " and to excite them to traitorous Insurrections against his Majesty's Government."

The House divided, Yeas 111. Noes 273.

Then the Question, as first proposed, was agreed to; and the said Paper ordered to be burnt by the Hands of the common Hangman.

The further Consideration of the Message adjourned till To-morrow 12 o'Clock.

The Matter of the Complaint made by Mr. Wilkes, of his Imprisonment, is adjourned till Thursday.

London, November 17. The House of Commons, which met on Tuesday, continued sitting till 10 o'Clock on Wednesday Morning.

We hear that it has been resolved in camera in a certain Place, that a Work which was completed, and several Passages of which were read, was a most scandalous, obscene, and impious Libel, a gross Profanation of many Parts of the Holy Scripture, and a most wicked and blasphemous Attempt to ridicule and vilify the Person of our Blessed Saviour. Evidence was offered to prove the Work was written by a Gentleman who has been lately the Subject of much political Dispute, but the further Consideration of it was deferred till this Day.

We hear that the two Volumes of North-Briton are ordered to be burnt by the Hands of the common Hangman, as a false, scandalous and malicious Libel, bidding Defiance to the Legislature, and tending to excite his Majesty's Subjects to traitorous Insurrections against his Majesty's Government.

Yesterday about Twelve o'Clock, a Duel was fought in Hyde Park, between John Wilkes, Esq; Member for Aylesbury, and Samuel Martin, Esq; Member for Camelford, and late Secretary of the Treasury. At first, both their Pistols missed fire at the second Attempt to fire, Mr. Martin discharged his again; upon which Mr. Wilkes determined charging his Pistol, and offered Mr. Martin the Choice of either of his Pistols, which Mr. Martin refused. They then turned Back so Back; and upon turning about again, Mr. Martin discharged his Pistol, and the Ball went into Mr. Wilkes's Belly, about Half an Inch below the Navel, and sunk obliquely on the right Side of the Belly down towards the Groin. Upon which Mr. Wilkes told Mr. Martin, take Care of yourself, for you have done for me. Mr. Martin replied, he would do him what Assistance he could; and perceiving a Chariot at a Distance, ran up to it, and told the Person in it that a Gentleman lay wounded on the Grass, and begged he would drive immediately out of the Park, and get a Chair; which he did, and Mr. Wilkes was brought to his own House. A Surgeon being immediately sent for, the Ball was extracted, and the Surgeon was of Opinion, that as it had not penetrated the Abscess, it would be attended with no bad Consequences. The Occasion of the above Quarrel is said to be Mr. M's declaring in a great Assembly, to be the Author of the North-Briton, was a most famous, cowardly Scoundrel, &c. The Papers in that Paper, which are supposed to have done Mr. M. in particular very just Cause of Offence, the Reader may find in No. 37, and 40.

By the best Accounts, Mr. Wilkes continues in a State of Danger.

Mr. Wilkes continues in a fair Way of Recovery; but was not well enough to attend the House of Peers this Day, to be questioned concerning a most obscene and highly blasphemous Tract, which he is said to have written some Year ago, and of which he is charged with employing the Press he set up last Summer at his House in St. George's Street, to call off ten or twelve hundred Copies. To add, if possible, to the Indignity of this Piece, the Great George Street Edition of it is made to bear, it is said, in the Title Page, the Name of one Prelate, as the Author, and the Name of another as the Annotator: Both of whom are not more distinguished by their great Learning, which is universally acknowledged, than by their unblemished Morals; and their masterly Display of the principal Points of the Christian Religion.

The Right Honourable William Pitt, Esq; attended the Service of the House, though he was so infirm with the Gout, that he was thought to be carried into the House by two of his Secretaries.

Tuesday the House of Lords deferred the further Consideration of Mr. Wilkes's Affairs till the Day Se'night, on Account of his Incapacity to attend that House. We find that there is a Prelate mentioned in the blasphemous Poem, which Mr. Wilkes is charged with being the Author of; the Name upon it being put in his Liberty Name: Which it is imagined he was led to the Use of, from his being so well known in the literary World, and particularly for his Writing a Defence of Christianity.

The House of Commons sat till Two o'Clock Yesterday Morning.

Nov. 29. There having been, for some Time past, a Scarcity of Meal in the Markets of this Borough, a Mob assembled Yesterday Se'night, and broke up the Granaries in the Market Place, and carried off what Meal was there; and destroyed the House of the Tackmen of the Market, and carried off or broke to Pieces all the

And on Tuesday Night at Leith, above 500 Bolls of Meal were carried off, or destroyed, by the Mob.

The more effectually to put a Stop to these Tumults, the whole Regiment of Scotch Gray Dragoons were expected on Wednesday Night, and are to be quartered at Leith, Canongate, and other Places in the Neighbourhood.

When the Post left Edinburgh, the Mob still continued very outrageous, and the Inhabitants there and at Leith were under the greatest Apprehensions of the Consequence, notwithstanding the Magistrates have taken every Precaution to prevent Bloodshed, which is often the Case when Riots happen there.

By some private Letters from Edinburgh we are informed, that the Mob continues very riotous, breaking open all the Warehouses and Cellars where Oatmeal was lodged, sold it cheap to those who could buy, and gave the rest to the Poor, and also insulted the Lord Provost in his Chariot, and wounded him in the Face.

A Letter from Edinburgh, dated November 26, to a Gentleman in Nottingham, says, "From Ten o'Clock on Monday Night, till Wednesday Morning, the Battle was incessant between the Soldiers and the Mob. On Tuesday Evening the Mob went from Edinburgh to Leith, where the Battle was dreadful; the Soldiers were entirely defeated, several of them killed, and many more dangerously wounded; the rest were drove back to Edinburgh. As soon as they had entered the City, all the Gates were shut, and the Mob on the Outside. The whole City was in Confusion, and every Thing bore the Appearance of a State of War. At last the enraged Mob set fire to the City Gates, broke down the Wall and Fortification, and entered the City. Now, for the first Time, the Volleys dispersed the Mob, and a Regiment of Dragoons coming in, has kept them very quiet."

Dec. 8. On Tuesday one of the most interesting Points of Civil Liberty was determined in a Cause in Westminster-Hall, before the truly patriotic and Right Honourable Lord Chief Justice Pratt, and a special Jury of the Gentlemen of the County of Middlesex, wherein John Wilkes, Esq; was Plaintiff, and Robert Wood, Esq; Member for Brackley, and late under Secretary of State, was Defendant (for seizing Mr. Wilkes's Papers, as the supposed Author of the North Briton, No. 45) when, after an Hearing of near fifteen Hours, and many learned Arguments on both Sides, and a most masterly, pathetic and elegant Charge given by his Lordship (the Jury withdrawing for Half an Hour) a Verdict was given for the Plaintiff, with One Thousand Pounds Damages, with full Costs of Suit.

It was thought there was the greatest Concourse of People in Westminster-Hall ever known, who bestowed the profoundest Attention to the Discussion of a Cause, that in the highest Degree affected the most sacred and invaluable Rights and Liberties of Englishmen; and, immediately after the Verdict was pronounced, there were the loudest Acclamations that can possibly be imagined. A large Body of the People went to Mr. Wilkes's House in Great George Street, with French Horns, crying out, "PRATT, WILKES, and LIBERTY FOR EVER." And they afterwards proceeded to Lord Halifax's.

By this important Decision, every Englishman has the Satisfaction of seeing, that his House is his Castle, and is not liable to be searched, nor his Papers be pried into, by the malignant Curiosity of King's Messengers, and an utter End is put to this unconstitutional Practice; and it may be truly said, that no Question was ever agitated in a Court of Judicature of more interesting Consequences to Society.

NEW-YORK, February 6.

We have these farther Intelligences by the Packet just arrived, That when the Parliament met [15th November] in the House of Lords Complaint was made by the Bishop of Gloucester, of a Breach of Privilege by Wilkes, his publishing an infamous obscene Book called, An Essay on the Duty of a Woman, under his Name, as Author, &c. That in the House of Commons Wilkes stood up, and began to lay his Grievance before the House, but was interrupted by Mr. Grenville, who told the speaker he had a Message from the King; and though it is a Rule to break off all Debate, in order to give due Attention and Respect to the King's Messages, yet Wilkes was called upon by some to proceed; and it was moved to suspend the Message till Mr. W. was heard. This occasioned a Debate, and a Division 301 for receiving the Message — 110 for hearing W. That the Message was then read, complaining of the North Briton, &c.

A warm Contest arose. Lord North in the Support of the Message, was answered by Mr. P., who [they say] spoke long in Favour of Mr. W. They sat till Morning, when it was agreed by the Majority, That the 45th No. of the North Briton was a false, seditious, scurrilous Libel; and ordered to be burnt by the common Hangman: And Mr. Wilkes, the supposed Author, ordered to attend at the Bar of the House the next Day. That in the Course of the Debate, Mr. Martin, late Secretary to the Treasury, said that the Author of that Paper was a Scoundrel, a Villain, and a Coward. Mr. Wilkes took an Opportunity to talk to Mr. Martin; — a Challenge soon followed, the Consequence of which was, that Mr. Wilkes could not attend the House, according to Order, on Account of the Wound he received in the Duel. It is thought the Censure of the Commons, — the Displeasure of the Lords, — and the many Processes depending in the Courts of Law, must tame Mr. Wilkes, notwithstanding his high Spirits.

Since the setting of the first Column of this Paper (mentioning the Colleges at Cambridge in New England) the Northern Mail came in, by whom we have the melancholy Account of the Destruction of Harvard-Hall by Fire, on the Night of the 24th of January, a Spacious Building, 97 Feet long, 42 broad, and Four Stories high, Founded in the Year 1672. In this Building were near Five Thousand Volumes, and a curious and valuable Apparatus for Experimental Philosophy in it's several Branches, and a Collection of many Curiosities, &c. &c. &c. all Destroyed. The Fire is supposed to have been occasioned by a Piece of Timber under one of the Hearths, the Assembly of that Province then sitting there, on account of the Small Pox being in Boston. On the 26th the General Assembly unanimously Voted a Provision for Re-building it.

It is reported, that a great Personage's Fortune, at her Marriage, will be Eighty Thousand Pounds in Money.

The Leticia, Hammond, from Virginia to London, is ashore on the Pollard Bank, off Whit-

Great Preparations are making to furnish Somerset-house for the Reception of the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick; and several Loads of rich Crimson Velvet, and other grand Furniture, have been carried there from Kensington-Palace.

His Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick is expected at St. James's on Wednesday the 28th Instant.

The Polly, Coek, from Virginia to London, is ashore in Margate Road, and it is feared will be lost.

The Hereditary Prince of Brunswick, on his Marriage with the Princess Augusta, will have an Annuity of 5000 l. per Ann. on the Irish Establishment, and 3000 l. on the Revenues of Hanover.

In the violent Storm which began Yesterday Morning, W.N.W. Part of the House of Mr. Keen, Woollen-Draper near Aldgate, was blown down;

A Stack of Chimnies were blown down in Vere-street; in the Minorities, which fell upon a Building belonging to a Carman, made use of as a Stable, and the upper part for keeping Pigeons, about Three Dozen of which were killed.

A Stack of Chimnies at No. 7 in Lincoln's Inn New-Square was blown down, which broke through the Roof into the Apartments of Mr. Mitchell, who was much hurt by the Accident, but it is hoped not dangerously.

A Stack of Chimnies in Sankville-street was blown down, which broke through the Roof of the House, and did great Damage. A Stack of Chimnies was blown down at the Fountain Tavern in Bartholomew-lane, behind the Exchange, which broke through a Sky-light into the Kitchen, and did considerable Damage.

A Stack of Chimnies belonging to the House of Goddard Hagra, Esq. in Mark-lane, was blown down, which forced through two Cellars, and in one of the Rooms was one of the Clerks in Bed, who was buried under the Rubbish for a Quarter of an Hour, and had it not been for a Piece of Lead which fell on him first and kept the Rubbish from him, he must have expired.

A Chimney at the back of Mr. Ware's, on Ludgate-hill, fell thro' the Sky-light into the Shop, but did no great Damage. The Roof of the Hoop and Falcon near St. Martin's Le Grand, was blown down.

The upper Part of a House in Long-lane, West-Smith-field, was blown down, which terrified the Family to such a Degree, that Men, Women, and Children ran into the Street without any Cloaths on.

A House was blown down in Nag's-head-alley, Whitecross-street, and several Persons buried to the Ruins. A House in Pipe-maker's-alley, Bedfordbury, was blown down: There was only an old Woman in it, who was dug out of the Ruins, but so much bruised, that her Life is despaired of.

An Arm of a large Elm-tree was broke off in the Mall in St. James's Park. A great Part of the long Wall of Sadlers-wells was blown down. A House in Hoxton was blown down. A House in Edmonton-walk was blown down, and fell into the Road and stopped it up, so that the Stage Coaches, &c. are obliged to go round about a considerable Way.

The Turpin-roads at Chesham in Hertfordshire was blown down, but happily no Lives were lost.

The Wind Yesterday Morning drove the Tide with such Violence, that it run into the Streets at Millbank, Westminster, by which the Cellars were all filled, and the Inhabitants suffered a great deal of Damage; considerable Damage was also done to the Gardens towards Chelsea.

The Mary, Reed, an empty Ship, lying at King-Stairs, was forced from her Mooring, and drove to Priests-Stairs, where her Bow-port entered into the back Part of a Public House, and stuck fast without receiving much Damage; several other Ships were also driven from their Moorings, and received some Damage. Two Boats laden with Oysters, coming from Baiting-hare to Hungerford-market, were over-set, and two Persons were drowned.

Dec. 8. We hear from Margate, that on the 2d Instant they had a very hard Gale of Wind at N. and by W. which made a very high Tide, and the greatest Sea that has been known in the Memory of Man. The Sea had a few Passages over the new Pier Head, made several Breaches quite through the same, and beat down the greatest Part, together with the Light, which served as a Guide for Vessels coming there in the Night. The Gun Battery was thrown down, and the Cannon into the Sea. All the Jetties suffered, several Breaches being made, that there is no Passage for Carriages.

A great many Shops and Warehouses were thrown into the Sea. Several removed their Goods, expecting to be all down the next Tide, which inevitably would have been, if the Wind and Sea had kept up. A great deal of the Craft suffered, being dashed to Pieces.

The Money computed to be on board the Hanover Packet from Lisbon, lost off Padstow in the late Storm, is about 16 or 17,000 l. A Number of Persons are employed to watch the Wreck.

A Letter from Scarborough, of the 2d Instant, says, "We have had such a Hurricane last Night, as the oldest Men in this Town declare they do not remember the like: Many of the Houses are split, Chimnies blown down, and the Ships in the Harbour broke loose: Ten Ships drove on Shore between Bland's Cliff and the White Nab, and several Persons were drowned."

We have Accounts from Lincolnshire, of great Damage being done by the late dreadful Storm; that near Spalding the Banks were broken in several Places, and the Cattle carried away or drowned, so that it is computed upwards of 3000 Sheep were lost, besides Horses, &c. One Person lost above 200 Sheep.

Dec. 9. We hear the late Storm of Wind has done as much Damage in France and Holland, as it has in England.

Dec. 10. On Tuesday Night last, soon after the Verdict was given for Mr. Wilkes, a Man knocked at his Door, desiring to speak with him on particular Business: It appearing, by his Dialect, he was a Scotchman, and being an entire Stranger, he was refused Admittance; on which he went away to a Coffee-house near Parliament-street, where he was overheard by a Person then present, to declare, that himself and ten more Men were determined to cut Mr. Wilkes off, let the Event be what it would; the Gentleman gave an Information of the above Declaration next Morning, by Letter, to Mr. Wilkes, desiring him to be on his Guard; the Affair then rested till Thursday Morning, when the same Person, as is supposed, brought a Letter to Mr. Wilkes's House, signed Alexander Dun, the Purpose of which was to beg an Interview with him on an Affair of the most interesting Nature, when he was desired to call again at one o'Clock, which he did accordingly; and seven o'Clock was then the Hour appointed; in the Interim, Mr. Wilkes had got several of his Friends, Gentlemen of Distinction, about him. At the same Hour the Man came, and was ushered into the Parlour, where he waited a short Time, and was informed that Mr. Wilkes was then alone, and he should be introduced to his Presence; but, on going out at the Parlour Door, two Gentlemen, who had placed themselves behind it, seized him by each Arm, and hung him on his Back; on searching him, a new Penknife was found in his Pocket, which he pretended he had purchased about nine Months ago; On being farther questioned, he said six Months, and at last owned he bought it at Chatham about a fortnight since. Previous to the Time appointed by Mr. Wilkes for his Interview with Mr. Dun, proper Affidavits, containing an accurate detail of the whole Transaction were prepared, and a Warrant procured from the Hon. Mr. Justice Wilmot for apprehending him, which was immediately executed; and we are informed that authenticated Evidence of the whole Proceedings, was Yesterday laid before an august Assembly, who ordered the Tipstaff to bring the said Mr. Dun to be examined before that Hon. House this Day.

Dun, who is in Custody for an intended Assault on Mr. Wilkes, is said to be a Lieutenant of Marines.

THURSDAY, March 15, 1764

[N^o. 984.]

BOSTON, January 19.

Cambridge, Jan. 25, 1764.

LAST Night HARVARD COLLEGE, suffered the most ruinous Fire it ever met with since its Foundation. In the middle of a very tempestuous Night, a severe cold Storm of Snow attended with high Wind, we were awaked by the Alarm of Fire. In Harvard-Hall, the seat of our Buildings, and the repository of our most valuable Treasures, the public LIBRARY and PHILOSOPHICAL APPARATUS, was seen in Flames. As it was a Time of Vacation, in which the Students were all dispersed, not a single Person was left in any of the Colleges, except two or three in that Part of Magdalen-Hall distant from Harvard, where the Fire could not be perceived till the whole surrounding Air began to be illuminated by it. When it was discovered from the Tower, it had risen to a Degree of Violence that defied all Opposition. It is conjectured to have begun in a Beam near the Hearth of the Library, where a Fire had been kept for the use of the General Court, now residing and sitting, by Reason of the Small-Pox at Boston: From thence it burst out into the Library. The Books, being submitted to the Fury of the Flame, which with a rapid and irresistible Progress made its Way to the Apparatus-Chamber, and spreading through the whole Building, in a very short Time left nothing but the bare Walls. The other Colleges, Wheat-Hall and Masachusetts-Hall, were in the most Hazard of being the same Fate. The wind driving the flaming Cinders directly upon the Roof, they blazed out several Times in different Places; nor could they have been saved by the Help the Town could afford, had it not been for the Assistance of the Gentlemen of the Court, among whom his Excellency the Governor was very active; who, notwithstanding extreme Rigor of the Season, exerted themselves in supplying the Town Engine with Water, and they were obliged to fetch from a Distance, College Pumps being then scarce. Even the Wheat-Hall and Masachusetts-Hall, tho' it was on the outward Side, hardly escaped. It stood so near Harvard, that the Flames actually forced it, and our immediate Help must have carried it. But the vigorous Efforts of the Assistants, the Rain confined to Harvard-Hall; and there, besides Destruction of the private Property of those who had Chambers in it, the public Loss is very great, and irreparable. The Library and the Apparatus, which for many Years had been growing, were now judged to be the best furnished in America, and established. But to give the Public a more distinct View of the present Contents of each, as far as we can, on a sudden, recollect them.

OF THE LIBRARY.

It contained—The Holy Scriptures in almost all Languages, with the most valuable Commentaries; Ancient and Modern.—The Library of the late learned Dr. Leland, who at his Death bequeathed to the College, contained the Vergil, Talbot's, Trinity, and other valuable Treatises relative to the same, which is now kept in—All the Fathers, Greek and Latin, in their best Editions; a great Number of Treatises on Deism, and the various Religions, which by the most judicious and learned Divines, both of the established National Church and Dissenting Societies.—The Donation of the venerable Society for propagating the Gospel in Foreign Parts, consisting of a great many Volumes of Tracts, published in the Languages of Chinese, H. and M. the Soriana Lectures, and other the most useful and valuable.—A valuable Collection of select Theological Treatises, presented by the late Dr. Akerly, late Lord Bishop of London.—A great Number of Philosophical Tracts, consisting of Rudiments of almost all Languages Ancient and Modern.—The Hebrew, Greek and Roman Antiquities.—The Greek and Roman Classics, presented by the late excellent and Catholic-spirited Bishop Stillingfleet; most of them the best Editions.—A large Collection of History and Biographical Tracts Ancient and Modern.—Dissertations on various political Subjects.—The Transactions of the Royal Society, Academy of Sciences in France, Acta Eruditorum, Miscellanea Curiosa, the Works of Bosle and Newton, with a great Variety of other Mathematical and Philosophical Treatises.—A Collection of the most approved Medical Authors, chiefly presented by Mr. James of the Island of Jamaica; to which Dr. Mead and other Gentlemen have made very considerable Additions.—Also Anatomical Cases and two complete Skeletons of different Sexes. This Collection would have been very serviceable to a Professor of Physic and Anatomy, when the Revenue of the College should have been sufficient to furnish a Gentleman in this Character.—A few ancient and valuable Manuscripts in different Languages.—A Pair of excellent new Globes of the largest Size, presented by Andrew Oliver, junr. Esq.—A Variety of Curious natural and artificial, both of American and foreign Produce. A Font of Greek Types (which, as we had not yet a Printing-Office, was deposited in the Library) presented by our great Benefactor the late worthy Thomas Hollis, Esq. of London; whose Pledges, as large as the Life, and Institutions for two Professorships and ten Scholarships, perished in the Flames.

The Library contained near Five Thousand Volumes, all which were consumed, except a few Books in the Hands of the Members of the House; and Two Donations, one made by our late honourable Gov. Dummer, to the Value of £50 Sterling; the other, of 56 Volumes, by the present worthy Thomas Hollis, Esq. F. R. S. of London, to whom we have been annually obliged for valuable Additions to our late Library: Which Donations, being not lately received, had not the proper Boxes prepared for them; and so escaped the general Ruin.

As the Library Records are burnt, no doubt some valuable Benefactions have been omitted in this Account, which was drawn up only by Memory.

OF THE APPARATUS.

WHEN the late worthy THOMAS HOLLIS, Esq. of London, founded a Professorship of Mathematics and Philosophy in Harvard College, he sent a fine Apparatus for Experimental Philosophy in its several Branches.

Under the Head of Mechanics, there were Machines for Experiments of Falling Bodies, of the Centre of Gravity, and of centrifugal Forces;—the several Mechanical Powers, Balances of different Sorts, Levers, Pulleys, Wrecks, Compound Engines; with curious Models of each in Brass.

In Hydrostatics, very nice Balances, Jars and Rattles of various Sizes fixed with Brass Caps, Vessels for proving the grand Hydrostatic Paradox, Siphons, Glass Models of Pumps, Hydrostatic Balances, &c.

In Pneumatics, there was a Number of different Tubes for the Torricellian Experiment, a large double barrel'd Air-pump, with a great Variety of Receivers of different Sizes and Shapes; Syringes, exhaling and condensing; Barometer, Thermometer;—and many other Articles.

In Optics, there were several sorts of Mirrors, concave, convex, cylindrical, Lenses of different Foci; Instruments for proving the fundamental Law of Refraction; Prisms, with the whole Apparatus for the Newtonian Theory of Light and Colours; the Camera Obscura, &c.

And a Variety of Instruments for miscellaneous Purposes.

THE following Articles were afterwards sent us by Mr. Thomas Hollis, Nephew to that generous Gentleman, viz. an Orrery, an Armillary Sphere, and a Box of Microscopes; all of exquisite Workmanship.

For Astronomy, we had before been supplied by the Generosity of the late Mr. Thomas Heath, with Telescopes of different Lengths, one of 24 Feet; and a Brass Quadrant of two Feet Radius, carrying a Telescope of a greater Length; which formerly belonged to the celebrated Dr. Malley. We had also the most useful Instruments for Dialling;—and for Surveying, a Brass Semicircle, with plain Sights and magnetic Needle. Also, a curious Telescope, with a complete Apparatus for taking the difference of Level; lately presented by Christopher Kilby, Esq.

Many very valuable Additions have of late Years been made to this Apparatus by several generous Benefactors, whom it would be impossible not to commemorate here, as no Vestiges of their Donations remain. We are under Obligation to mention particularly, the late Sir Peter Warren, Knt. Sir Henry Frankland, Bart. Hon. Jonathan Belcher, Esq. Lt. Governor of Nova-Scotia; Thomas Hancock, Esq. James Bowdoin, Esq. Ezekiel Goldthwait, Esq. John Hancock, A. M. of Boston, and Mr. Gilbert Harrison of London, Merchant. From these Gentlemen we received fine reflecting Telescopes of different magnifying Powers; and adapted to different Observations; Microscopes of the several Sorts now in Use; Hadley's Quadrant fitted in a new Manner; a nice Variation Compass, and Dipping Needle; with Instruments for the several magnetical and electrical Experiments—all new, and of excellent Workmanship.

[Cambridge, Jan. 26, 1764. As the General Assembly have this Day cheerfully and unanimously voted to rebuild Harvard-Hall, it encourages us to hope, that the LIBRARY and APPARATUS will also be repaired by the private Munificence of those who wish well to America, have a regard for New-England, and know the Importance of Literature to the Church and State.]

GENOA, November 5.

THREE Days ago arrived a Dutch Ship of War from Algiers: The Captain says, that the French Consul is confined to his House, and the French Factory was at Liberty; that the Algerines had not formally declared War against the French. He says, that on the 11th past five Algerine Xebecs, and a Polacca, sailed on a Cruise; that on the 16th they fell in with a large Genoese Ship that sailed from this Port a Month ago for Cadix. The Algerines attempted twice to board her, but were beat off by the Genoise: Four of the Xebecs being much shattered, and having lost above 200 Men in the Engagement, they returned to Algiers the 19th, but could give no Tidings what Course the other Xebec and Polacca had taken. The Genoise Ship was built near this City, had 50 Guns mounted, and carried 200 Men. It is loaded with Merchandise, and some Timber for Ships.

Marseille, Nov. 26. The Board of Trade of this Place have received Letters from our Consul at Algiers, advising, that he was still in Iron; in his own House; that, however, the Day had told him, he did not desire War, and, as a Proof thereof, he had cut off the Head of the Mullah who first advised him to put the French in Iron, and had occasioned the popular Infurrection; but that, to appease the People, the French must pay for the Gallot which they had sunk, and for the 40 Turks that were on board, and all Damages, and satisfy some other Claims which his People had on the French.

Tunis, Nov. 19. Some French Merchant Ships are arrived at Marseille, being released from Algiers; by which it is understood that the Differences between the French and the Algerines are accommodated.

Card, Nov. 21. We have many late and authentic Accounts from different Parts of the County of Tippin, of the White Boys Meetings, under Pretence of removing Grievances, &c. but in a much more violent Manner than at first. For some considerable Time past they have met near a Place called the Devil's Bit, almost two Nights in the Week regularly, and as commonly dispersed without committing any Outrage, along a few Hours Consultation together: In other Parts they have frequently held nocturnal Meetings, for which purpose they have not only procured Gentlemen

THURSDAY, March 22, 1764.

[N^o. 985.]

LONDON, December 12.

WHEN the late unfortunate Hanover Packet Boat, Capt. Berberne, was wrecked in the North-Channel, her Complement of Men was 39, and 11 Gentlemen Passengers, out of which only Three of the common Seamen most miraculously were saved. The Tinnors on this Occasion behaved with most extraordinary Humanity, and justly merit a quite different Character from what has been heretofore ascribed to them. The Violence of the Sea was such, that though a new Ship, and partly in the Sand, she was in Ten Thousand Pieces by the next Morning (it being Night when she struck). One Thousand Guineas are now offered to the Tinnors if they can get up the Iron Chest of Money, in which are upwards of 20,000 Moidores; and the private Effects on board this Ship are at the least Computation worth Ten Thousand Moidores more.

On Saturday came on at Guildhall, before Lord Chief Justice Pratt, and a Special Jury of Merchants, the Cause wherein Mr. Dryden Leach, the Master Printer, taken up for Printing the North-Briton N^o. 45, was Plaintiff, and three of the King's Messengers Defendants, when a Verdict was given for the Plaintiff in 400 l. Damages, with all Costs.

Bills of Exceptions are brought in the Twenty Causes which have been determined in Favour of the Printers, as also in Mr. Wilkes's.

Mr. Alderman Blount, one of the Sheriffs of London, has received a Letter from the Speaker of the Hon. House of Commons, containing the unanimous Thanks of that House, for conducting himself jointly with Mr. Alderman Harley, the other Sheriff, with proper Spirit and Vigour on Saturday Se'night, in the Execution of the Order of the Houses of Parliament for burning the North-Briton, N^o. 45. Mr. Harley, the other Sheriff, is a Member of the House of Commons, and in that Case, unless the Gentleman, for whom his Honour is interceded, be at a Distance, it is usual for the Speaker to thank viva voce in the House.

Dec. 13. Arrived at Bristol in 49 Days from the Islands of America, Part of the Ruins of his Majesty's Second Battalion Royal. This Corps had the Post of Honour at the Sieges of Louisburgh and Ticonderoga, led on by their Captains and Altern Officers; they assisted in the Conquest of all Canada; exchanged some Thrusts with the Troops; were at Martinico; and had a Hand in taking the Havannah, as well as in retaking St. John's Newfoundland.

In Consequence of the Bills of Exceptions brought in the several Causes which have been determined in Favour of Mr. Wilkes and the Printers, those Causes will be re-heard in the House of Commons, the Supreme Court of Judicature.

Dec. 15. The following is the Copy of a Letter from J. Duke, Esq; one of the Representatives of Parliament for the Borough of Honiton.

Rev. Sir, London, Nov. 22, 1763.

Not having (as I expected) received any Papers or Instructions, from my Constituents, concerning the Cyder Tax, renders it incumbent on me to acquaint them with what has passed since the opening of this Session relative thereto.—In compliance to Notice given to all the Members of the Cyder Counties, we met Yesterday at the King's Bench, in Palace Yard, Westminster, where we made a Proposition to the following Effect, to wit: reduce the Composition to 2s. 6d. a Head, 3s. a Hoghead Duty; or 2s. a Head, and 3s. a Hoghead. The Mode of collecting to be altered; and instead of Excisemen, to be collected by the Collectors of the Window Tax, and all Duties and Forfeitures to be recovered and levied by the Commissioners of the Land Tax.

These are the Outlines of a Plan for a new Act, and to repeal the present Act. I own, 'tis sincere Wish to have the whole Tax taken off (if possible) and I really think the Burthen will still be too great, if this Compromise should be made: The Price of our ordinary Cyder, at the Writing's Mouth (including the Charges of making, &c.) not being adequate to the Duty at the lowest Rate mentioned of 3s. a Hoghead.

Whatever Opinion my Constituents shall adopt in this interesting and momentous Affair, will be the Rule of my Conduct. And I beg the Favour of you to lay this Letter before them as soon as conveniently you can, and communicate their Sentiments and Commands to,

Reverend Sir,
Your most obedient humble Servant,
J. DUKE.

December 15. Saturday Night another Operation was performed on Mr. Wilkes, by cutting and laying the Wound entirely open, when several more Pieces of the Coat and Waistcoat were extracted: Since which, who every thing in a fair Way of doing well, he has been in great extreme Pain, and rested very little. Monday Night the Wound was dressed again.

Extract of a Letter from Holyhead, Dec. 3.
"Thursday Evening last, between four and five o'Clock, the Hampden Packet-Boat, Capt. Owen Taylor, was warped out with little Wind at East, before he could get far enough into the Bay, a Gust of Wind at N. E. came on so sudden, and with such Violence, that the Vessel drove on the Rocks on the South Side of the Harbour, with two Anchors a-head which came home: The Ship has beat out one Side of her Bottom, and the Keel is quite gone. Three Mails which were on board, and a Messenger with an Express for the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, were safely put on board the Besborough Packet.

"Two Passengers, in attempting to get a-shore in the Boat that brought them on board, were unfortunately drowned; Mr. Kerwin, an Irish Gentleman, died on the Deck; Capt. Taylor could not prevail on him to go into the Cabin; he had been in a declining State of Health some Time before; a Boy belonging to the Ship was drowned, and one of the Boatmen. So terrible a Gale of Wind has not been known here for many Years."

The Essay on Woman, endeavoured to be fathered upon Mr. Wilkes, is an old Thing, wrote originally in France, and translated into English, by the Son of a late Archbishop, and since printed with Notes in the Name of a Right Reverend. It is likewise said that a great Personage, who has lately been remarkably severe upon it, was shewn it 7 Years ago at the Beef-Steak Club, and expressed the greatest Admiration of it.

The Elector of Saxony has sent the following circular Letter to all the Nobles of Poland.

S I R,

"Yesterday, it pleased the Almighty to afflict me with a Blow no less terrible than unexpected. He has taken to himself the King my Father by a Death easy to him, but very cruel for me, who had no Time to prepare myself for it. The Grief with which I am justly oppressed cannot make me forget a Kingdom which was so dear to the King my Father and Grandfather, or those faithful Servants who gave them so many Proofs of a sincere Attachment. I feel the irreparable Loss you have suffered; and it would give me the highest Consolation to be able to mitigate it.

"I propose to make the Republic an Offer of my Services, and of all the Assistance that is in my Power to give her, if, by conferring the Crown on me, she will entrust me with the Reins of Government: And I have all Reason to hope, that if the Polish Nation be disposed to give me this Mark of their Affection and Confidence, all the Neighbouring Powers will cheerfully acquiesce in it. You gave the late King, my Father, so many Proofs of your Attachment, that I flatter myself that you will shew the same Affection to me: And I am very sensible how much it is in your Power to contribute to procure me the Satisfaction I aspire after of governing an illustrious Nation, which will ever be distinguished by its Fidelity and Attachment to their Kings. Be persuaded that my Gratitude shall be in Proportion to the Greatness of the Service done me: Of this you can have no doubt, if you do me the Justice to believe me animated with the same Spirit as my Ancestors. I pray God to direct the Deliberations of the Republic, and to keep you, Sir, in his holy Protection.

I am, your affectionate Friend,
FREDERICK.

KINGSTON (in Jamaica) December 8.

By a Letter from Black River, on the Musquito Shore, dated Nov. 11, 1673, we learn, "That the Spaniards are gathering all the Troops, and others fit to bear Arms, from all the Provinces adjacent, under the Command of Don Lewis Dies Navarre. A Lieutenant Colonel arrived from Guatimala with a Troop of Dragoons, and other Men in Arms, and are rendezvoused at Truxilla. We are just dispatching a Flag of Truce to Truxilla, to enquire into the Truth of this Information, and have ordered all the Musquito Indians down here, and put ourselves in arms to act with them, for the Protection of this Settlement.

CHARLES-TOWN (SOUTH-CAROLINA) Feb. 8.

The last Letters from Mobile and Pensacola inform us, that the Spaniards of Vera Cruz, &c. assert that the French King will very soon cede to his Catholick Majesty the Island and Town of New Orleans, with the Country West of the Mississippi, where, however, they have no Settlement. The military Establishment at New Orleans, which was, during the last Peace, 36 Companies, is now reduced to six Companies.

A Ship from the Havannah, with a considerable Quantity of Money on board, bound for London, is lost on the great Bahama Bank.

Feb. 15. Several Traders arrived at Augusta about the 1st inst. from the Country of the Creeks, who say that those Indians who killed the People at Long-Canes sent one of the Scalps to the Customs, which was not received by the Indians of that Town. They were endeavouring to get as many of their Relations together as possible, in order to proceed to the Settlements, where they may get Plunder when they kill People, for they say the Long-Canes People are not worth killing, for they get nothing when they have killed them. Runners were sent off to call in all the Headmen for Hunting.

Feb. 22. Some of the Catawba Indians, not being satisfied with the Administration of their new King, Col. Ayers, who succeeded old King Heigler, are come here to talk about a new one.

We are told Charles Garth, Esq; Agent for this Province in Great-Britain, is appointed King's Agent for Georgia; and that he has renewed his Application to Parliament for Liberty to export Rice directly to Madeira, the Canaries, &c. also for a Bounty on Hemp, and for Liberty to bring Salt from Lisbon, a Privilege enjoyed by the Northern Colonies.

A Gentleman arrived from Hispaniola informs us, that the French are busy fortifying that Island, and that great Numbers of their Troops are daily carried off by Sickness.

It is confidently said in Letters from London, that the French have ceded to the Spaniards New Orleans, and all their Possessions West of the Mississippi; and are to have in Lieu thereof the Spanish Part of Hispaniola.

BOSTON, February 27.

At a Meeting of the Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Boston, on Friday last, it was voted unanimously, That the Thanks of the Town be given the Rev. Mr. GEORGE WHITEFIELD, for his charitable Care and Pains in collecting a considerable Sum of Money in Great-Britain, for the distressed Sufferers by the great Fire in Boston, 1760; and a respectable Committee was appointed to wait on Mr. Whitefield, to inform him of the Vote, and present him with a Copy thereof, which Committee waited upon him accordingly, and received the following Answer.

Gentlemen,
THIS Vote of Thanks for so small an Instance of my Good Will to Boston, as it was intently intirely unexpected, quite surprizes me.—Often have I been much concerned, that I could do no more upon such a distressing Occasion.—That the Redeemer may ever preserve the Town from such like melancholy Events, and sanctify their present afflictive Circumstances to the Spiritual Welfare of all its Inhabitants, is the hearty Prayer of,

Gentlemen,

Your ready Servant in our common LORD,
GEORGE WHITEFIELD.

NEW-YORK, March 12.

Our Advices from the Frontiers of this Province, received by Way of Express on Thursday last, and by the Albany Post on Saturday, are of as indubitable Authority and Credit, as the Extract we gave in our last relating to the March of 200 Indians, sent out by Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON against the Indian Village of KANESTIO.—These Advices are, That on the 2d Instant, at Night, Sir WILLIAM received an Express by an Indian and a White Man, from the above Party, importing, "That on the Evening of the 26th of February, they had reached the main Branch of the River Susquehanna, on their Way Westward, when they received private Advices, that a large Body of Delawares, our Enemies, were at a small Distance, destined against some of our Settlements; upon which Intelligence our Party immediately made all possible Dispatch to surprize them, which they happily effected, by surrounding them in their Encampment at the Dawn of Day on the 27th. Their Approach was so sudden, that our Enemies could make no Defence, and were made Prisoners to the Number of 41, with their Chief Captain Bull (an Indian) Son of Redyucung, a Person who has been in Arms against the English, during all the late Hostilities, having headed many Parties, and discovered great Inveteracy against us. Our Indians immediately bound the Prisoners, and sent them under a strong Escort to Sir WILLIAM, where they were expected a Day or Two after the 3d Instant." [We trust this good Beginning will be followed by some other Successes, and sufficiently prove the Importance they are of in an Indian War, as well as the Judgment of the present GENERAL, who has made use of their Services.]

We are further informed from Albany, that another Party of Indians (said to be about 400) in our Interest, are preparing to go against our tawney coloured Enemies, as soon as the Weather is somewhat more mild.—The Whole set in Motion by the indefatigable Industry of Sir WILLIAM.

By late Accounts from the Havannah we learn, that there are no less than 6000 Regular Troops at that Place; that they are erecting several new Batteries, repairing the Moro, and all the other Fortifications in and about the City; and that the Inhabitants are, as well as the King's Troops, exercised almost every Day in the Week.

PHILADELPHIA, March 15.

Last Week two Men were taken up, and committed to the Goal of this City, on Suspicion of robbing Mr. Clifford's House of a Quantity of Plate, and other Things; and upon their Examination such Discoveries were made, that about a Third Part of the Plate, chiefly small, was found in one of their Chests. It is thought there are some others concerned with them, though not yet discovered. And it is also supposed that the same Persons lately robbed the House of Mrs. McCall, in Walnut-street, of sundry Pieces of Plate, which have since been recovered. The Persons in Custody are said to be a Doctor and Cabinet Maker; the first, we hear, goes by the Name of William Frederick Oufenreed, alias Hendenreed; the last by that of John Brinklow, alias Benson, both Convicts from England into Virginia.

In a Letter from Bethlehem, in Northampton County, of the 13th of March, it is said, that on the Sunday before as one John Russell was Hunting near Fort Penn, he was fired on by three Indians; upon which he took to a Tree, where he bravely stood three Fires from each of them, returned as many, and obliged the Savages to make the best of their Way off.—One Shot went thro' his Hat; another thro' the Sleeve of his Coat; and a Third wounded him slightly in the Call of his Leg. [Russell is Brother to the two Lads, one of which was lately found roasted in a Barn, the other supposed to be murdered, or carried off by the Enemy.]

WHEREAS the Officers for the Parish of St. Margaret's Westminster, in the County of Anne-Arundel, find it expedient to Erect a Church or Chapel of Ease in the upper Part of the said Parish, where the present old Chapel of Ease is now situate, on the Head of Curtis's Creek, the old One being gone to Decay, and otherwise found much too small for the Congregation, constantly attending there on Divine Worship: Having a Sum of Money in Hand (saved from the Vacancy of a Minister, for some Time after the Death of the late Incumbent, the Rev. Mr. Walter Chalmers) but much too small to answer the Purpose. And regarding tenderly the Interest of the Inhabitants, most of which are in necessitous Circumstances, and further encouraged by the Regard paid to Lotteries in general, less laudable in their Intention than the following: They have thought proper to propose the Method (to avoid if possible an Assessment) by Way of Lottery, for Raising a Sum of Two Hundred and Twenty five Pounds Current Money for the Purpose abovementioned.

LONDON, December 19.

IMMEDIATELY after the Verdict was pronounced, in Favour of Mr. Dryden Leach, (the Master Printer who was arrested as the supposed Printer of the celebrated North-Briton, N^o. 45.) the Gentlemen concerned for the Plaintiffs declared, "That as they had the Happiness of seeing vindicated, asserted, and maintained, all the great and constitutional Points of Liberty, which had been so solemnly debated and determined, they were willing to accept nominal Damages, (which carry Costs of Suit,) in the next Five Causes." A Proposition so generous, and highly meritorious from Conquerors, was readily acquiesced in by the Council for the Crown, commended by the Court, and applauded by the whole Audience.

Part of the Conclusion of the Speech of — "This Warrant is unconstitutional, illegal, and absolutely void: It is a general Warrant, directed to Four Messengers, to take up any Persons, without naming or describing them with any Certainty, and to bring them together with their Papers. If it be good, a Secretary of State can delegate and depute any one of the Messengers, or any even from the lowest of the People, to take Examinations, to commit or release, and in fine to do every Act which the highest judicial Officers the Law knows can do or order. There is no Authority in our Law Books that mention these Kind of Warrants, but in express Terms condemn them. I do venture to pronounce this Warrant illegal. However, I am well pleased that this Matter is finally to be decided upon in the highest Court of Judicature in this Kingdom, where able and most learned Judges will argue and determine the Point: and if I am there found to have given a wrong Opinion, I shall kiss the Rod; but I shall always say, it is a Rod of Iron upon the People of this Kingdom."

Nov. 21. Thursday last Sir James Hodges, Knt. Town-Clerk of this City, waited on the late Lord Mayor, William Beckford, Esq; with the following Thanks, in Pursuance of an Order of Common-Council made the 15th Inst. "It is unanimously Resolved, and Ordered, That the Thanks of this Court be given to the Right Hon. William Beckford, Esq; late Lord Mayor of this City, for his having supported the Dignity of that high and important Office with Splendor, Magnificence, and Hospitality; for his able, speedy, and impartial Administration of Justice; for the easy Access he has given to all our Fellow-Citizens; for his Readiness to call Courts of Common Council, whenever the public Service required, and his punctual Attendance upon them; for his true and disinterested Loyalty to the King; for his vigilant and steady Attachment to the constitutional Rights of his Fellow Subjects, and his Firmness in promoting, on all Occasions, the true Interest of this great Metropolis."

Friday last the Tide in the River Thames, at 10 o'Clock, which was then flowing; suddenly stopped and ebbed, for the Space of an Hour, after which it returned and flowed the usual Time. Letters from Calais by the French Mail advise, that amongst a great Number of Wrecks which opened on Friday last in the violent Storm, was a Fishing Vessel with Fifteen or Sixteen Hands on board, which lay at Anchor within about Forty Yards of the Harbour. The Wind blowing a hard Gale, caused all the Hatches to be fastened down, at which Time Five of the Men were below, when all at once she sunk down to the Bottom, and not one thing appeared till some Time after, when the Body of one of the Men was seen ashore. At low Water several Persons went aboard, and on opening the Hold, found the Men streight upright, drowned. The Occasion of her sinking was owing to her starting a Leak.

Nov. 28. The King of Spain has issued an Ordinance, prohibiting the Use of any foreign Cloths, in the Cloathing of his Troops. It is said that a celebrated poetical Genius will be tried as one of the Publishers of the Essay on Man, complained of by our Superiors.

From the Edinburgh Courant, Nov. 30. By the Right Hon. the Lord Provost and Magistrates, and his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Shire of Edinburgh.

"Whereas, on occasion of the late accidental Scarcity of Lothian Meal, the Magistrates of this City have been at great Pains to get the Market supplied, and their Endeavours have been attended already with considerable Success, and proper Provision is making for the future; notwithstanding whereof, there still appears a Spirit of Sedition and Tumult prevailing among many wicked Persons, and one of the Magistrates did last Night receive an anonymous threatening Letter, in the Words following, viz.

"To the Town-council. Gentlemen, As we swear, so we shall perform, That, if you do not relieve all Prisoners, and put a Stop to the execution of those that were at thy Moab, it is unanimously agreed upon, by upwards of an Hundred Persons, that any Bailie or Bailies, that examines any Person or Persons, they may depend upon it they shall suffer both in Person and Effects by a Company of People, to execute to enumerate. This from one in the Party concerned, and is yours."

On which the above Magistrates have offered a Reward of 40 L. Sterling for discovering the Author.

On a Tomb-Stone in Heyden Church-Yard, near Hull, in Yorkshire, is the following Inscription; Here lies the Body of William Sturt, of Patrington, buried May 18, 1685, aged 97 Years. He had Children by his first Wife 28, by his second 17, own Father to 45, Grandfather to 86, Great Grandfather to 97, Great Great Grandfather to 23, in all 251.

Some Letters from Barbados mention, that the Spanish Governor of Cuba has prohibited the Importation of Negroes from Africa, or the Entrance of any English Guineymen into any of the Ports of that Island.

BARBADOS, December 30. We hear, that the Fishery on the Newfoundland Coast has been very successful this Season: That upwards of 600 Sail of British, and 200 Sail of French Vessels were employed: That some Bickerings happened between the English and French, the latter of which insisted on an exclusive Right of Fishing on that Part of the Coast allotted to them by the Treaty, which was denied by the English; who very justly told them, that though a Right was given them to Fish on that Part of the Coast, yet it did not preclude them from Fishing there likewise. Commodore Greaves who commanded on that Station, sent two Frigates to keep them quiet. When the French sailed for Europe, they left all their fishing Boats, amounting to several Hundred, and a large Quantity of Salt, behind them; which being directly contrary to the Treaty, the Commodore ordered the whole to be destroyed, which was effectually done. They further add, that all the Frigates and Sloops have been fully employed by the Commodore in taking Draughts and Soundings in the Bays, &c. on the Coast of Labrador, where it is thought even a more extensive Fishery than on the Newfoundland Coast may be carried on.

CHARLES-TOWN (SOUTH-CAROLINA) Feb. 4. Extract of a Letter from Mobile, dated Dec. 17.

"My last acquainted you that M. l'Abadie, the Governor of New-Orleans, was here, had delivered a good public Talk, and was giving Presents to the Chactahs and some other Indians, three Years due: I promised to send you a Copy of this Talk, but have been disappointed of it. Among the Chactahs there was not a Man of the English Party, tho' they came from no less than 57 Towns; those all refused to come, tho' the whole Nation was invited. The Presents delivered them were very considerable, amongst them was a great Number of Guns, and near 6000 lb. of Gun-powder and Balls: of every other Article they had in Proportion: Immense Promises were likewise made them; in particular that they should be sent for again in six Months, to New-Orleans, to receive more considerable Presents there, if they behaved well; and they have all returned pretty well satisfied. Whatever may have been said in Public to the Indians, recommending that they should look upon, and behave to the English and French as one People, it is certain that in private no Pains nor Arts have been wanting to withhold them from an Alliance with us, by telling them, "That the English only wanted their Lands, would give them nothing, use their Women ill, and at last make Slaves of the Men;" and by inviting them all to settle on the Western Banks of the Mississippi, where they should have Lands and Hunting-Grounds far superior to what they now possessed, and real Friends about them. In short, it is my Opinion, that the French have some future Prospect in View, that cannot tend to our Good, for they spare no direct or indirect Means to gain and reserve the Friendship of every Indian Tribe or Nation. Some small Tribes that were settled around this Place, and were very useful to the Inhabitants, by killing Deer, catching Fish, &c. have in this Manner been withdrawn to New-Orleans: An Attempt of this Sort was made while Col. Robertson was here, with a Tribe that have a Town of about 50 Men 30 Miles up this River, and were going to be carried off in French Boats; but the Colonel sent for the Headman, and gave him Assurances, "That if they would remain on their Lands, they should have the utmost Protection from the English; be always treated as their own Children, and never be suffered to want any Thing;" which seems to have fixed them.—The Garrison of Fort Thoulouse arrived here the 15th Instant, accompanied by about 300 Indians, called by the French the Alibamous, and by our Traders Stinking-Lingoes, who are also come for Presents from the French, with whom they always lived in Friendship, though they never would fight against us; Before that Garrison quitted the Fort they destroyed all the Cannon, and the Stores they could not bring away; after which, they say, they delivered the Keys to the Wolf King, who immediately took Possession of it, and removed into it with his Family: As there is no Message from him yet to put it into Possession of the English, and his Intentions are not known, Col. Robertson has determined not to send a Garrison thither, 'til the Indians asked for one, which I am persuaded they never will.—The command sent to Tombighe Fort arrived there in 15 Days, without meeting with the least Interruption, and the Chactahs have hitherto behaved in the most friendly Manner. Major Forbes was here a few Days ago, from Pensacola, and is returned. Major Loftus is under Orders to proceed with the 22d Regiment to the Illinois, the 1st of January. The Land on the Alabama (or Alibamous) is in general esteemed as good as that on the Illinois."

Feb. 11. Some Insinuations having been thrown out by the Creeks, that the Young Warrior of Estatowih, was again inclined to go to War against us, and intimated, if their Nation would begin, that he would join them, for, that the approaching Spring the English intended to cut them all off, &c. &c. the Return of an Express from Fort Prince George, Kethowee, brings his positive Denial of those Charges, and as positive Assurances of his Fidelity. In a Talk which he gave the 26th ult. he says, that he and his People were all well pleased with the good Talks delivered at the late Congress at Augusta, and therefore he is the more surprised at what has been laid to his Charge. That the Creeks are Liars, and a most perfidious Nation. That they have killed Cherokees as well as white People. That he burns with Anger, whenever he hears them express their contemptible Opinion of the English, by saying, That they are all Women, and they will treat them as no other whatever they should meet them; by asking, how they came to make War with the Cherokees? and, if there were any Men among them, why did they not resist what they (the Creeks) had done. That he thought, we could not be Strangers to the Designs of the Creeks, by their Behaviour at Augusta, and being all of them armed with long Knives and Pistols, with which he and his People hourly expected they would attempt to massacre both English and Cherokees. That they have sent him a Talk since the Congress, desiring that he will not resent any Injury that may be done to Traders, but that he was, and always should be, deaf to such Talks. That he had repeated Invitations from the Creeks during the late War, to go and settle amongst them, and that they have owed him a Grudge ever since he refused. That he is very ready to assist in putting the seven Murderers to Death mentioned in the Young-Twin's Talk, but they are a very small Part of the Rogues that have Mischief in their Hearts, for he has certain Information, that the whole Nation has resolved on a War with the English; that they design to way-lay all the Rivers, and particularly the Fords, all the way from St. Augustine to the head of Savannah River; and that they are cutting up all the Skins of their Winter's Hunt for Mockskins to proceed upon the Execution of their Designs. He desires, that the Warriors who are to relieve the Garrison of Fort Prince George, may have a strict Caution to be on their Guard, suspecting they may be way-laid by the Creeks; says, he shall soon remove his People from Toogouloo to Est-towih; and concludes with the warmest Professions of Friendship and Fidelity.

Feb. 18. Among other Advices from the Cape, we have the following, viz. That not a Day passes without some English Vessels from the Northern Colonies going in there, for Water, &c. with which they are most kindly and readily supplied, especially for Two-Inch Plank, wanted for the Fortifications. That about five Weeks ago, two large Ships from France arrived there, full of Vagrants or Convicts, who were immediately set to work upon the Fortifications. That in every Ship from France, since the Conclusion of the Peace, 20 or 30 Soldiers arrive, and no less than 7000 are expected in a Body, with a Fleet. That there never was so much Attention paid as at this Time, to repair and strengthen the old, and erect new Works, throughout the French Part of the Island of Hispaniola; that to fortify every Place effectually, no less than seven old experienced Engineers lately arrived there from France, who, about Christmas, accompanied the Governor in a Man of War Snow, to make a new Survey of the whole North Coast, and lay out Works; but that they seemed most particularly attentive to the fortifying of Cape Nicola Mole and Samana, where the Works laid out are very extensive. And, that a Ship called the Jenny, belonging to Maryland, was lately lost going in there.

N E W - Y O R K, March 19.
The following is an Extract of a Letter of undoubted Credit from the D'Etat, dated December 3. 1763.
"We have been lately very busy in procuring Abundance of Wheat, Flour, Indian Corn, and Peas, from the Country, in which we have so far succeeded as not to be in Danger of being starved out. The Approach of Major Wilkins's Party had very good Effect, the Enemy moved further off. It is said Pontiac, and his Tribe, are gone to the Mississippi; but we do not believe it: The French have been wonderfully civil this last Fortnight, being ignorant of the Return of the Troops, in which Major Gladwin does not think proper to deceive them, lest they should bring the Indians upon us, who might harass us in our present Employ, that of bringing in Wood for the Garrison, as we are obliged to fetch it a great Distance.

"The Wicandots of Sandusky are much animated against us: They have been reinforced lately by many Villains from all the Nations concerned in the War; and they are the only Indians this Way that abound in Ammunition, the other Nations being much in Want of that Article. They likewise plant Abundance of Indian Corn, which they often sell to other Nations that stand in Need of it: The Ottawas, it is thought, must depend upon them for that Article next Spring."

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.
Saturday last Captain Craig arrived here from Dominico. In his Passage, on the 12th Instant, in Lat. 36: 20, he fell in with Captain Mackey, in a Ship from Virginia for London, in great Distress; his Vessel had met with a violent Gale of Wind, in which she suffered great Damage, having her Stern beat in, and her Main and Mizzen Masts were obliged to be cut away; and notwithstanding all their Endeavours, she proved so leaky, and was so full of Water, that they every Moment expected her to sink with them.— They had been in this dismal Condition five Days, when Captain Craig met with them, took them all into his Vessel, and brought them up to Town with him.—It is thought the Ship went down about two Hours after the People left her.

ANNAPOLIS, March 29.
Extra of a Letter from N.York, Mar. 20.
"By the Albany Post I received a Copy of the following Paragraph of a Letter from Sir Wm. Johnson, dated the 11th Instant, viz. "This Moment I received an Account by Express from Agbuzaga, of another Party of mine taking Three of the Enemy Prisoners, and one Scalp; one made his Escape; they were going to War."
