NEWBURYPORT, December 10.

In a letter from the Havana, of November 9, it is said, that the king has refused the admission of lumber from the United States, in American vessels, and to carry away rum and molasses; but granted the privilege to Spanish bottoms; in consequence of this and other unexpected measures of the Spanish government, freights in American vessels are literally worth nothing, and the vessels themselves can be sold for no price, although there are a great many of the finest that ever entered the port.

NEW-YORK, December 18.

Great-Britain is putting on a hostile appearance. In all her sea ports the greatest activity prevails in recruiting for seamen, and victualling and manning her fleets with the greatest expedition. Ships of war and packets victualled for six months, with sealed orders, have sailed from England in every direction. The squadron which recently sailed up the Mediterranean from Gibraltar, is to be reinforced by several additional ships from England; and the command of the force, in that sea, is to be conferred on general Oakes.

The cause of these hostile appearances is imputed to the recent interference of France in the internal affairs of the Swiss cantons—and of a suspicion that she means to renew her designs upon Turkey and Egypt, and to obtain possession of Malta. The British, however, seem determined to resist the designs of this mighty colossus, which aims at universal power; and, if not prevented, would bestride the whole world.

The markets in England, with very little variation, continue much the same as by former advice.

Three per cent. consols were at 67 1/2—Omnium 10 1/4 discount.

December 27.

Captain Steele of the ship South-Carolina, informs us, that a few days before he sailed, a letter from the governor of the Mississippi territory had been received by the government of New-Orleans, requesting an explanation of the infringement of the Spanish and American treaty, by depositing the Americans of a place of deposit on the Mississippi river; and wishing to be informed, whether this measure was to be deemed tantamount to a declaration of war against the United States.

This communication was under deliberation by the governor and council of New-Orleans for four days; the substance of their reply was unknown, until, at the breaking up of the council, it was declared, that American vessels might enter and deposit their cargoes, by giving security for the full value of the cargo, that it should not be removed until the despatch of the Spanish court should be received. Property declared to be Spanish, was permitted an entry.

Great quantities of produce brought down the Mississippi, in light built boats, had arrived at New-Orleans, and a great deal of it lost in the river, in consequence of their having no place to deposit it.

To stave the hostility and hatred of the intendants towards the citizens of the United States, it is sufficient to mention the following fact—A boat loaded with cotton, having come down the Mississippi, by accident sunk in the river; the cotton was taken up and landed on one of the wharfs, till it could be put on board the ship South-Carolina. The intendants on hearing of it, gave orders for its immediate removal, on pain of its being thrown into the dock.

Cotton, at New-Orleans, had fell in price. Dry goods dear and in demand.

Extract of a letter from a respectable commercial house in New-Orleans to another in this city, dated 22d Nov. 1802, received per ship South-Carolina.

This port for some time past has been shut to American vessels, even deposit was forbid, but now they allow it on paying 6 per cent. and vessels are allowed to be entered on giving security for the payment of a duty of 9 1/2 per cent. on amount of their cargoes: know of none that has yet done so; but somehow or other they find ways and means to discharge and get re-loaded. Some they convert into Spanish, others discharge their cargo in the river into boats for Natchez, but they seldom go farther than New-Orleans.

By the ship Proteus, capt. Crowninshield, who left the Cape of Good Hope the 13th October, we are informed that it was still in possession of the English; that the English had not been given up on the 10th August; that the Homericots and Cadizans were continually committing depredations on the inhabitants back of the Cape, and had taken a small town, which they burnt, and put every inhabitant to death. The planters are obliged to be continually under arms, and the English, in order to keep up the appearance of stilling down, have sent a small force, which are billeted on the planters, and commit the most cruel and barbarous actions.

The inhabitants at the Cape are very much dissatisfied with the English, and are anxious that it should be given up.

[N. Y. Morn. Chron.]

December 28.

Captain Ridd, of the ship Richmond, from Havre-de-Grace, informs us, that just before he sailed Bonaparte and his lady visited that place. Their reception was of the most brilliant nature. The first consular was addressed and caressed by all classes. While there he visited the wharfs and docks of Havre, and expressed himself highly gratified with the order in which they were kept.

The pilot that brought up the brig Paisley, in 15 days from Cape Francois, informs, that a large fleet of French men of war and transports, with 10 or 15,000 troops on board, had just arrived at the Cape. The brig being subjected to quarantine, and not visited last evening by the health officer, we were unable to get any further accounts from the Cape; but probably shall in the course of the day.

PHILADELPHIA, December 28.

A letter from Washington states, upon the authority of a high officer of the government, that assurances have been received from the Spanish minister there, that the present arbitrary conduct of the intendants of New-Orleans is unwarrantable, and without the knowledge or sanction of his court.

STATE OF OHIO.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Chillicothe, to a member of our general assembly, dated November 28.

"I am happy in having it in my power to inform you we have shaken off the old shackles of territorial government, to become a state. The convention, last evening finished the constitution, and have now under consideration the propositions of congress. Since your inclination leads you to public life, a part in which I hear you are now acting in the general assembly of Kentucky, I will state some of the outlines of our constitution.

"The general assembly is to consist of a senate and house of representatives, to be chosen by the people, the latter in the ratio of one for every 600; and the former to be in number equal to half the latter: So that our first assembly will consist of 33 representatives and 16 senators. The representatives to be chosen annually; and the senators biennially, in such manner that one half the number shall go out every year. A representative must be 23 years of age; a citizen of the United States, and one year a resident of the county for which he is chosen. A senator must be 30 years of age, and have been a citizen of the United States and of his county two years.

The salaries are as follow: to the governor, not exceeding 1000 dollars; each judge, 1000; secretary, 500; auditor, 450; treasurer, 450; members of the general assembly, two dollars per day.

Our next general assembly will be chosen in January, and meet in March next.

The governor will hold his office two years, and have power to grant reprieves, &c. except in cases of impeachment; is required to see the laws faithfully executed; may convene the general assembly on special occasion; sign all grants; and, contrary to our territorial plan; has nothing to do with legislation.

The judicial power is vested in a supreme court, and court of common pleas for each county; three judges to compose each court. The supreme court with appellate and original jurisdiction in cases at common law and in chancery; the judges of common law pleas form also the orphans court, and have jurisdiction in all probate and testamentary matters. The judges are to be appointed by joint ballot of both houses, and to continue in office seven years. The general court to be held once a year in each county, and the court of common pleas as the law directs.

The auditor, treasurer and secretary, are to be chosen by a joint vote of both houses.

Slavery is not to be admitted; but white people may indent themselves for any term; but black cannot for more than one year, except minors, who may indent themselves until the age of 21.

No person of color, immigrating to this state, can be entitled to suffrage, or to hold any office.

No person is entitled to suffrage who does not pay taxes; and as no poll tax is ever to be laid, persons who have no property will not be entitled to suffrage.

January 1.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in London, to his friend in this city, dated October 24, 1802.

It is now universally believed, and is confirmed by the reports of the friends just returned from France, that she is going to take immediate possession of Louisiana. Mons. Mr. L. Aulnat is appointed colonial prefect; Jean Job Ayme, commissaire de justice, and gen. Victor goes out with 4000 troops.

M. L'Aulnat had taken leave, and had an interview with Mr. Livingston, our minister, on the occasion.

WASHINGTON CITY.

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Wednesday, December 23, 1802.

A message was received from the president of the United States by Mr. Lewis, his secretary, imparting to the house the information requested respecting the violation on the part of Spain of the treaty between the United States and that nation.

The message is as follows:

"Gentlemen of the House of Representatives: I now transmit a report from the secretary of state, with the information requested in your resolution of the 17th inst.

"In making this communication, I deem it proper to observe, that I was led, by the regard due to the rights and interests of the United States, and to the just sensibility of the portion of our fellow-citizens more immediately affected by the irregular proceeding at New-Orleans, to take not a moment in causing every step to be taken which the occasion claimed from me: being equally aware of the obligation to maintain, in all cases, the rights of the nation; and to employ, for that purpose, those just and honourable means which belong to the character of the United States.

"TH. JEFFERSON."

December 24, 1802.

The message is accompanied by letters from our consul at New-Orleans—the proclamation of the intendants—a letter from the governor of the Mississippi Territory to the secretary of state, enclosing a letter written to the governor of Louisiana—and a letter from the governor of Kentucky to the president.

Thursday, December 23, 1802.

The speaker laid before the house the following letter, and accompanying address.

Hon. Sir,

Enclosed you will receive an address from the convention lately convened at this place for the purpose of forming a constitution and state government for the seventeenth state of United America, and which has been made my duty to enclose to you, to be communicated to the honourable body over which you preside.

With every sentiment of respect,
I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
EDWARD TIFFIN.

The Hon. the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States,

To the president and both houses of congress of the United States.

The convention of the state of Ohio, duly appreciating the importance of a free and independent state government, and impressed with sentiments of gratitude to the congress of the United States for the prompt and decisive measures taken at their last session to enable the people of the North Western Territory to emerge from the colonial government, and to assume a rank among the sister states, beg leave to take the earliest opportunity of announcing to you this important event.

On this occasion the convention cannot help expressing their unequivocal approbation of the measures pursued by the present administration of the general government, and both houses of congress, in diminishing the public burthens, cultivating peace with all nations; and promoting the happiness and prosperity of our country.

Resolved, That the president of this convention do enclose to the president of the United States, to the president of the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives of the United States, the foregoing address.

EDWARD TIFFIN, president of the convention.

Done in convention at Chillicothe, the 27th day of Nov. 1802.

THOMAS SCOTT, secretary.

On motion of Mr. Randolph the above communication was referred to a select committee of five.

BALTIMORE, December 28.

The common council of the city of New-York, at a meeting held on the 26th inst. resolved without a dissenting voice, that they approve of the undertaking of the New-York State Society of the Cincinnati for erecting within the city an Equestrian STATUE of the illustrious gen. WASHINGTON; that the board will furnish a suitable place within the park for this purpose; and they recommend in an essential manner to the inhabitants to afford the said society all the suitable aid in their power to carry the said undertaking into effect.

January 1.

Letters from France as late as the 9th of November, concur in stating the intention of the French to colonize Louisiana, and announce active preparations for that purpose. A gentleman in Paris writes, "the settlement of Louisiana by the French is not only interesting to the United States in a political view, but equally so in a commercial point. It is now understood, that the cultivation of tobacco in that colony is to be a primary object with the consular government, to which great encouragement is to be given. Experiments have also been made as to the congeniality of the soil of St. Domingo. Thus it will be seen that France contemplates supplying herself with this plant. In this scheme she has already commenced by the infliction of heavy discriminating duties."

For the MARYLAND GAZETTE.

(No. 1.)

"IN the full tide of successful experiments," when mankind are making rapid strides to perfection, and each particular science is receiving additional improvement from the daily regenerated and enlightened world, I come forward to offer a few additional hints to those you have already been gifted with both by art and nature, on a subject which I have made, (from necessity,) my study, both practically and theoretically. It has been so long a sequestered inmate in particular parts of this city, that I feel assured my worthy fellow Annapolitans will lend an easy ear to its persuasive doctrines.—I need hardly mention, that the "life, opinions and doctrines, of a certain Mr. Scandal," and his various enchanting manners of beguiling the hearts of the fair sex, is the grand theme on which I have wielded my pen to descant.—The times call equally on each individual to protect, nourish and succour, this great man's ideas, and to raise him, not only on a level with your first citizens, but, with a temple dedicated to his memory, exalt him to immortality. All who are conversant with him, know his good qualities, but for the instruction of the ignorant, some of his most prominent good qualities will be disclosed. Mankind are deceived when they consider him as a deep "scholar, engaged with old wives, fables and trifles," and letting the rest of the world pass unnoticed. He is subtle and sagacious in all discoveries that will injure one neighbour in the opinion of the other; his whole soul is made up of ambition and venom, and for the purpose of pleasing his favourites, he frequently exceeds the bounds of reason in "attempting to express language which nature has denied him."—Nothing more common, when the guileless innocence of some deluded female has been sacrificed at the shrine of impiety by deceptious man, than to hear this inimitable and unerring gentleman, from behind the elbow of some fair contritour exclaim, "What! poor Adela—? Ah no, it can't be, she was a very good sort of a girl; but she never would take my advice, and must always be hankering after the men—she deserves it, and it is well for her she fares no worse." This is but a poor and moderate specimen I must confess; and I, as his friend, am commissioned to say, his feats and exploits, too lengthy to be inserted, will not deceive his friends, the public.—We are in such a situation that there should be no openness of conduct; all should be ambiguity and doubt; remember Lucan's awful charge.

Whoever takes up said woman, with or without the child, and secures her so that the owner gets her again, shall be entitled to the above reward, paid by

DR. HAMILTON'S ELIXIR,
A sovereign remedy for colic, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, and approaching consumptions.

To parents who may have children afflicted with the
HOOPING COUGH,
THIS discovery is of the first magnitude, as it is an immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorder to which children are liable, the Elixir is so perfectly agreeable and the dose so small, that no difficulty arises in taking it.

From LUTHER MARTIN, Esq. attorney-general of the State of Maryland.

Gentlemen,
I comply with your request in stating my opinion of Hamilton's elixir—It has been used in my family for two or three years past, with uniform success, whenever colds, coughs, or similar complaints have rendered medicine necessary—I have myself found it an excellent and agreeable remedy for a very painful and troublesome affection of the breast, accompanied with soreness and with obstructed and difficult breathing.

On these accounts I do not hesitate to recommend Hamilton's elixir, as a valuable medicine, and deserving public attention.

LUTHER MARTIN.
Mr. Abijah Henly, Bridge-street, Baltimore, was tired by one bottle of Hamilton's elixir, of a very complicated disorder occasioned by a severe cold caught several months ago—He breathed with the greatest difficulty, and was often thrown into weakening sweats when he attempted to walk any distance, and his voice would frequently fail in such a degree that he could only attempt to whisper; he has been upwards of six weeks without a return of his complaints, and desires to give this public testimony in favour of this invaluable medicine.

DR. HAMILTON'S GRAND RESTORATIVE
IS recommended as an invaluable medicine, for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints which result from dissipated pleasures—juvenile indiscretions—residence in climates unfavourable—the constitution—the immoderate use of tea, frequent intoxication, or any other destructive intemperance to the unskillful or excessive use of mercury—the diseases peculiar to females, at a certain period of life—bad sayings in, &c. &c.

And is proved by long and extensive experience, to be absolutely unparalleled in the cure of Nervous disorders
Consumptions
Lowness of spirits
Loss of appetite
Impurity of blood
Hysterical affections
Inward weaknesses
Semiqual weaknesses
Fluorals (or whites)
Barrenness Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Indigestion
Melancholy
Gout in the stomach
Pains in the limbs
Relaxations
Involuntary emissions
Obstinate gleet
Impotency, &c. &c.
In cases of extremity where the long prevalence and obduracy of disease has brought on a general impoverishment of the system, excessive debility of the whole frame, and a wasting of the flesh which no nourishment or cordial could repair, a perseverance in the use of this medicine has performed the most astonishing cures.

HAMILTON'S
ESSENCE AND EXTRACT OF MUSTARD,
A safe and effectual remedy for gout, rheumatism,
palsy, sprains, bruises, pains in the face and neck, &c.—And has performed more cures in the above complaints, than all the other medicines ever before made public.

From Dr. Weatherburn,
Wythe county, Virginia.

Gentlemen,
I purchased at your shop the preparations you call Hamilton's Essence or Extract of Mustard, which I believe has perfectly removed a chronic rheumatism (of that kind named sciatica, or of the hip joint) under which I had laboured for a long time, and which had baffled every article in the Materia Medica, and every mode of treatment received into practice for the cure of this obstinate disease.—If you think this letter useful you are at liberty to make it public. Yours, &c.

P. WEATHERBURN.
JOHN HOOVER, rope-maker, South Second-street, between Mary and Christian-streets, Philadelphia, voluntarily maketh oath as follows, namely—That his wife Mary Hoover was so severely afflicted with violent rheumatism, very dangerously situated, the consequence of a severe cold after lying in, as to be confined to her bed for several weeks, and was at length reduced to the melancholy apprehension of remaining a cripple for life, notwithstanding the most respectable medical advice was followed, and every probable remedy attempted: when seeing several cases of cures performed by Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard, they were procured from Mr.
Birch, No. 17, South Second-street. The first application enabled her to walk across the room, and the use of one bottle restored her to her usual state of health and strength.

JOHN HOOVER.
Sworn and subscribed before Ebenezer Ferguson,
Esq; one of the justices of the peace for Philadelphia county.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.
Which have within four years past cured upwards of one hundred and twenty thousand persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever of similar title, so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution; contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady, or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. They are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions; feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS,
And the symptoms by which they are known:
WORMS which infect the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz: the Teres or large round worm, the Alcarides or small maw worm, the Cucurbitina or short flat white worm, and lastly, the Taenia or tape worm, so called from its resemblance to tape—this is often many yards long, and is full of joints—it is the most hurtful and most difficult to cure.

Among the symptoms attending worms are, disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums—itching in the nose and about the seat—convulsions and epileptic fits; and sometimes privation of speech—starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep—irregular appetite; sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious—Purgings, with slimy and foetid stools—vomiting—large and hard belly—pains and sickness at the stomach—pains in the head and thighs, with lowness of spirits—slow fever, with small and irregular pulse—a dry cough—excessive thirst—sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance;
and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms;
should have recourse to Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of children, a dreadful disorder which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our cities. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

CASES OF CURVES.
(Selected from thousands) the authenticity of which any person may ascertain, either by letter or personal application.

TAPE WORM.
Mr. SAMUEL FULLER, Inn-keeper, on the Harford Road, ten miles from Baltimore, began about 20 months ago to be grievously afflicted with a tape worm, which increased fast in size and strength, so as to excite the most horrid sensations by its writhing motions and intolerable pains, resembling the gnawing and tearing of his bowels, which deprived him of his necessary sleep, and caused such dreadful apprehensions as cannot be conceived but by one in a similar situation—his appetite wasted rapidly, and with that his strength, so that he was unable to attend to any business—when he heard of some excellent cures performed by Hamilton's worm lozenges, he took a large dose, which brought away about FOUR YARDS of the worm (now in the possession of Lee & Co.)— but a renewal of his pains soon convinced him that this monstrous reptile had recovered its first vigor—Application was made to Lee & Co. for more of their medicine, with their advice—from which resulted the total expulsion of his formidable enemy, in several pieces, which he supposed to be SIX or EIGHT YARDS more. A few months have since elapsed, and Mr. Fuller is now in perfect health.
The above facts are well known to a numerous circle of his neighbours, and himself will gratify any who may wish to make farther inquiries on the subject.
Although Hamilton's worm lozenges produce such powerful effects, when necessary, yet they are perfectly innocent and mild in their operation on the human body, even taken in large doses, as Mr. Fuller will testify—their peculiar mildness is abundantly evident in innumerable cures of infants.

Communicated by Dr. John Spangler, York-town, Pennsylvania.
Letter from the reverend Mr. JOHN MOLTHER, minister of the Moravian church, in York-town, York, January 4th, 1802.

Dear Sir,
Dr. Hamilton's lozenges have been recommended to me as a very adequate means for the cure of children afflicted with worms, I procured a box for the use of my family, to try, whether by means of this medicine, I might be enabled to gain a point, which to accomplish, different other means had proved ineffective. My eldest boy had a very sickly appearance, was very restless at night, grew leaner from time to time; in short, he seemed to be in a precarious state of health, which would yield to none of the medicines administered, until I gave him two doses of lozenges, agreeably to the directions, which carried off a substance to all appearance a mere mucus, but upon close inspection quite replete with very small living animals. Not one of that sort of worms which usually afflict children, came from him. Since that period he grew remarkably better in health, and though lean, has got a fresh and lively complexion. Upon different occasions I have used this medicine as a purgative substitute, and found it to answer exceedingly well, without bringing on belly-ache, or any of those disagreeable sensations, so often occasioned by purging medicines. Upon the whole, I judge this medicine to be, besides its main object, one of the most salutary means for restoring lost appetite, and promoting a proper state of digestion, by carrying off that bilious substance, which engenders so much indisposition both among children and adults.

I am, Sir, your most obedient servant,
JOHN MOLTHER.

DR. HAHN'S TRUE AND GENUINE GERMAN CORN PLASTER.
An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving pain.

THE PERSIAN LOTION,
So celebrated amongst the fashionable throughout Europe.

As an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, (the basis of other lotions) and of unparalleled efficacy in preventing and removing blemishes of the face and skin of every kind, particularly freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scabs, tetter, ring-worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding that natural, insensible perspiration which is essential to health—yet its salutary effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and clear; improving the complexion and restoring the bloom of youth. Never failing to render an ordinary countenance beautiful, and an handsome one more so.

THE RESTORATIVE POWDER FOR THE TEETH AND GUMS.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which succeed to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

DR. HAHN'S GENUINE WATER.
A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eye, whether the effects of natural weakness or of accident, speedily removing inflammations, discharges of rhum, dullness, itching, and films on the eyes, never failing to cure those maladies which frequently succeed the small-pox, measles, and fevers, and wonderfully strengthening a weak sight. Hundreds have experienced its excellent virtues, which nearly all prized of sight.

TOOTHACHE DROPS.
The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

THE SOVEREIGN OINTMENT FOR THE ITCH.

Which is warranted an infallible remedy at one application, and may be used with the most perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury, or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and is not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

THE ANODYNE ELIXIR.
For the cure of every kind of head-ache.

INDIAN VEGETABLE SPECIFIC.
A safe and speedy remedy for a certain disease.
"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

For the prevention and cure of bilious and malignant fevers.

IS RECOMMENDED
DR. HAHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile, and prevent its morbid secretions; to restore and mend the appetite; to procure a free circulation, and thereby prevent colds, which are often of fatal consequences; a dose never fails to remove a cold, if taken on its first appearance. They are also best for removing habitual constipation, sickness of the stomach, and severe head-ache, and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate. 32

LONDON, November 13.

This morning arrived a mail from Lisbon, brought to Falmouth by the Duke of York packet, in eight days.

Letters from Lisbon make mention of the police of that city having instituted a very severe prosecution against the free masons, calling upon them to discover the principles upon which the society act—Many persons have already been imprisoned for professing themselves free masons, and chiefly men of learning and abilities.

A Dutch mail arrived this morning. Our private correspondent informs us, that the Dutch government has consented to furnish all the necessaries for the embarkation of the 15th and 17th brigades, which were in the pay of Holland, for Louisiana.

They are to be embarked at Helvoetsduys. The quantity of ammunition, artillery, &c. which they are to carry with them is immense. From Helvoetsduys the troops are to proceed to Dunlirk, to join the remainder of the troops. Gen. Victor is expected at the Hague to attend the embarkation.

The army.—The following articles are from a morning paper, of rather doubtful authority:—"All the regiments of infantry have orders to complete to their full establishment, and to select such officers to recruit as are most likely to obtain men. The 61st regiment is ordered to Malta, and the 10th to Gibraltar. The 90th, 91st, 92d and 93d, ordered to be disbanded, are ordered to be recruited as fast as possible. Circular letters, under date of Saturday, are issued to the colonels of each regiment of militia, to make immediate application for their full proportion of cloathing, and to apply "forthwith," to the ordinance for any number of arms deficient of the quantity that will be required for the increased number of militia: Why is a commander in chief appointed to the British army in the Mediterranean, in the person of general Oakes, when we cannot have a garrison there excepting Gibraltar, unless Malta is to be held still, and Egypt also? All officers should be ordered to join (even now) without the least delay, their regiments in Egypt and Malta. All these measures were ordered immediately after a cabinet council."

PHILADELPHIA, January 5.

Extract of a letter from N. Orleans, dated December 3, 1802.

"The situation of this place, as to the operation of the intendan's proclamation, continues the same as at my last. There are now eight or ten American vessels lying here, unable to obtain permission to discharge, and having no other way of getting rid of their cargoes, but by sending them to Natchez—a perilous step indeed!

"We are anxious to hear what course your government will adopt on this interesting occasion.

If we are to judge from what our neighbours at the Natchez intimate, it will be productive of a very important change in the relations of the two governments."

"There is no doubt as to the French taking possession of this colony. When it will take place, however, is a matter of uncertainty. It is the policy of the Spanish government to act in darkness. We therefore shall not be officially apprised of this circumstance, until the arrival of the French commissioners."

FREDERICK-TOWN, December 31.

On Monday last arrived in Frederick-town, from Pittsburg, six of the Indian chiefs of a company of twelve, who were deputed by the Miami, Delaware, and other tribes, to lay their grievances before the president of the United States. They were accompanied by a Mr. Connor, as interpreter, and attended by a gentleman of the name of Larivel, who has obligingly come on with them as a protector from Pittsburg, and has in his possession letters, &c. appertaining to the business of their mission. The principal of those who arrived in this town is the Long Bearded Man, a Miami chief of great respectability, and very friendly, we understand, to the U. States. Of this party was LOGAN, the celebrated Mingo chief, mentioned by president Jefferson in his Notes on Virginia. But we are sorry to state, from information obtained from Mr. Larivel, that Logan is extremely ill at Pittsburg, of a pleurisy, brought off no doubt by the fatigue, &c. of travelling. One warrior called the Corn Chief, died at that place.

We were particular in our inquiries concerning Logan, and have been obligingly favoured with the following description of him by Mr. Larivel. He is about 75 years of age, above six feet in height, stout and well made, but not corpulent; strong and impressive features; a nose remarkably large, and he is dignified in delivering himself in speaking.

While at Pittsburg, Mr. Larivel states, that Logan dined with him and some particular friends, and the conversation turning upon the speech said to have been delivered by that much injured chief, some of the company doubted whether this Logan was the man alluded to by Mr. Jefferson—whereupon Logan, standing up, delivered to the company the identical speech, in the language of the Delawares, which, being interpreted by Mr. Connor, was the same, with the exception of a few words (which may be accounted for by the different translations) with that in the Notes.

The truth of the above rests upon the veracity of Mr. Larivel, from whom we obtained it.

The complaints which the Indians have to lay before the executive relate, principally, to the mal-conduct of governor Harrison, of the Indian Territory, towards them. He having threatened, it seems, to compel them to relinquish certain lands which they had appropriated to agricultural pursuits.

(Republican Advocate.)

NORFOLK, December 28.

Yesterday the ship Governor Carleton, captain Odney, arrived here in 35 days from Glasgow—We received no papers by her; but we have seen a private letter from Glasgow, dated the 17th ult. which states—"That there were 16 sail of the line at Toulon ready for sea, having on board upwards of 20,000 troops, (destination unknown) in consequence of which the British government had sent an express to Sir Richard Bickerton, who is with a strong force off Malta, to keep a close watch on their movements."

WASHINGTON, January 6.

We understand that the executive have received authentic information, that the late suspension of the right of deposit at New-Orleans was undertaken without orders from the Spanish government, and that the measure had been immediately communicated to the governor of Cuba, who has a superintending authority over Louisiana, as it doubtless was to the Spanish government. It is certain also that the governor at New-Orleans, who has no authority over the offices from whom the suspension issued, objected to the measure. Under these circumstances and the interpositions of our own government, it may be reasonably hoped, that the matter will be peaceably and early adjusted.

WASHINGTON CITY.

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Friday, December 31, 1802.

A confidential message was received from the president, enclosing a letter from the governor of the Mississippi territory, with an accompanying letter received by him from the governor of Louisiana.

The galleries were cleared, and the doors remained shut until past two o'clock.

Monday, January 3, 1803.

Mr. Leib observed that during the last session, a proposition had been made, and had passed this house, to amend the constitution respecting the election of president and vice-president, but which had been rejected in the senate. Mr. Leib said that the citizens he represented were extremely anxious on this subject. He therefore considered it his duty to submit a similar proposition, in order to determine whether it would not share a better fate. He then proposed an amendment, substantially, that in all future elections of president and vice-president, the persons voted for shall be particularly designated by declaring which are voted for as president, and which as vice-president.

Referred to the committee of the whole on the state of the union.

Tuesday, January 4, 1803.

The house went into a committee of the whole, Mr. Dawson in the chair, on the bill making a partial appropriation for the naval service during the year 1803. The bill appropriates 100,000 dollars.

The committee having gone through the bill, reported it without amendment to the house, who immediately took it up, and ordered it to be engrossed for a third reading to-morrow.

The house resolved itself into a committee of the whole, Mr. Dawson in the chair, on the bill making appropriations for the military establishment of the United States for the year 1803, who filled up the several blanks and reported it with an amendment to the house, who concurred therein, and ordered it to be engrossed for a third reading to-morrow.

Mr. Griswold observed that there was one subject noticed in the president's message, on which the house had taken no order. It was very important that the legislature should possess all the information that it was in the power of the heads of departments to furnish. He then read that part of the message that relates to the cession of Louisiana to France, and said that for the purpose of obtaining all the information proper at that time to be given, he made the following motion:

Resolved, That the president of the United States be requested to direct the proper officer to lay before this house, copies of such official documents as have been received by this government, announcing the cession of Louisiana to France, together with a report explaining the stipulations, circumstances and conditions under which that province is to be delivered up: unless such documents and report will, in the opinion of the president divulge to the house particular transactions not proper at this time to be communicated.

Mr. Griswold considered it respectful to save the president from a request to furnish papers that may be improper at this time. The subject, however, was vastly important; and the cession of the province might require from the legislature some further protection of that frontier.

Mr. Smith hoped the resolution would lie on the table at least till to-morrow.

Mr. S. Smith asked the gentleman from Connecticut to explain the difference between his resolution, and that offered at the beginning of the session by the gentleman from Virginia, (Mr. Randolph.)

Mr. Griswold replied, that if the gentleman from Maryland would give himself the trouble of reading the resolution offered by the gentleman from Virginia, he would perceive the difference. That related to the shutting of the port of New-Orleans by Spain—and the other to the cession of the province to France. If the gentleman thought there were any delicate subjects connected with the resolution, he had no objection to its resting until to-morrow.

BALTIMORE, January 6.

The house of representatives were engaged on Friday with closed doors on the New-Orleans affair. We are informed that this unpleasant business was occasioned by a combination between Don ——— of the Havana, and the intendan at New-Orleans, without the knowledge of the court of Spain. These noble Spaniards expected by this honest manœuvre to have reduced the price of produce brought down the river Mississippi, and to have filled their pockets at the expense of thousands whom they hoped to have defrauded, though thereby they hazarded the peace of the two countries. It may be remembered that the Don at the Havana has a monopoly granted him by the Spanish court for the supply of flour to that place, which by this plan he is thought to have purchased at a much reduced price. If this be a true state of the case, there can be no doubt but the rights of our western citizens will speedily be acknowledged if not we are satisfied they will be very speedily asserted, and resolutely defended. [Alexandria paper.]

The rattle snake is apparently one of the most hateful of all reptiles; but there is some good thing even in this creature. Its skin, tied with a bandage around any part of the human body, affected with the rheumatism, is esteemed to be an efficacious remedy against that painful disorder. The body of the rattle snake is said to be a never failing cure for the rheumatism. The way to use it, is to dry it in a cinder, over the fire—Then pulverise it, and infuse the powder in brandy. A wine glass full of the liquor should be swallowed three times a day. The effects of this medicine, after about two days, are cold sweat, pain in the joints and feebleness of the limbs; but continuing to use the medicine a few days, these symptoms cease and the body becomes easy and strong. Rattle snakes abound in Canada; and the Canadians have learnt (probably from the native Indians) to make a good use of them, in curing the chronic pains. [Baltimore.]

Agreeably to an order of the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county will be SOLD, at the late dwelling of ZACHARIAH JACOBS, deceased, on the third day of February next,

TWO negro men, to satisfy the debts due from the deceased, on a credit of six months. Possessors to give bond, with approved security.

H A G U E, November 7.

THE following is the substance of letters dated the 1st which have just arrived from Berne, Zurich, and Basse: "Two French generals are to direct the operations in the cantons. The general in chief Ney is to confine himself to the western; gen. Serras to the eastern—Gen. Ferras has established his head quarters at Zurich.

"On the 29th ult. a battalion of French infantry arrived unexpectedly at Zurich, and the 13th regiment of horse chassours. On the next day, and on the 31st, several more French battalions of the 37th, 42d and 16th demi-brigades arrived; a part of those troops are destined to form a garrison of Zurich; the remainder have passed through that city on their march to Schwitz, Glarus, St. Gall, Frauenfelds, Zug, and other places.

"On the 31st gen. Ney arrived at Zurich to concert operations with gen. Serras.

"In consequence of an intimation from the French general, the provisional government was obliged to dissolve itself on the 30th, as well as all the administrative and judicial authorities which had been recently established in the canton. The constitutional authorities have resumed their functions. Before the provincial government itself, they addressed a proclamation to the inhabitants of the city and country parts, assuring them, "that they yielded only to force of arms, and that they reserve to themselves, by a solemn protest to Switzerland in general, and to the canton of Zurich in particular, the right of establishing a constitution adapted to their interest; a right which the treaty of Lunneville had formerly insured to them."

"A courier extraordinary which arrived at Basse, Berne, and Munich, on the 1st inst. brings the important news, that the diet of Schwitz at length dissolved itself on the 28th of last month. But they previously published a protest, couched in the same bold and manly terms which have been remarked in all their preceding proclamations.

"Gen. Bachmann, who is also at Schwitz, has, on his side, sent a circular letter to all the chiefs of the confederated troops who are still in the field, enjoining them to disband their troops and return to their homes. As soon as this order was published on the banks of the Rhoss, the army which was posted there separated, and began to march for the different cantons of eastern Switzerland.

"It is asserted, that the cantons of Uri and Underwald have been occupied by the French troops from the Valais who passed the Furka and the Grimfel, and that a corps of French and Italian troops, several thousand strong, have entered Valceline and the Grisons, to re-establish order and tranquillity. The town of Soleure, is occupied by 370 French and Helvetic troops.

Such is the latest intelligence from Switzerland. Brussels, Antwerp and Ghent, expect a consular visit before the end of this month. Fresh orders have been issued, and the prefect of the department of the Scheldt has even taken a tour for the purpose of adopting measures to prevent the introduction of British merchandise from the coast of Dutch Flabders.

L O N D O N, November 13.

Private letters from France contain intelligence of very considerable importance indeed! After the ratification of the treaty of Amiens, British subjects having money in the French funds were of course to be paid, and were paid the arrears upon their stock which had accrued before the war, and during its continuance. The beginning of this week, however, some persons making the customary applications to the French bankers, we know not, with certainty, whether to Perregeaux, Rocamier, Sir Robert Smith, or others, are said to have received for answer—"that they were sorry to inform them, that under the present circumstances and situation of the two countries, and as the British government had not thought proper to execute the whole of the treaty of Amiens on their part, the French government has deemed it necessary to issue a decree, ordering the payment of these arrears to be suspended."—Such is the intelligence which has been received. We give it as we received it.—(Courier.)

B O S T O N, January 4.

We have received from a friend at Paris, the papers of that city to November 13. Switzerland was occupied by French troops; and the form of government was framing which was to be imposed, in the name of liberty, on the wretched inhabitants of that country. The principal difficulty in the adjustment of the "indemnities" had been removed, by propositions which were satisfactory to the clement grand duke of Tuscany, and the emperor of Germany; and has rendered the continuance of peace more probable. The first consul was proceeding to visit the different seaports of his nation; he had been at Rouen and Havre, and was every where received with acclamation, illumination, &c. &c.

Some incendiary attempts have been made at Amsterdam.

Equestrian Statue of Washington. The subscriptions for the equestrian statue of Washington meet, we are informed, with the most flattering encouragement. The books were opened by each subscriber at one hundred dollars, at which rate, it is presumed, that at least one hundred names will be obtained. Voluntary contributions are rarely in proportion to wealth and ability; the generous ardour of unbounded zeal often outstrips prudential calculations, whilst the circumspection of chill parsimony always fall short of its due tribute. On this occasion, however, we are happy to find that those who are blessed with the means are not deficient in the application. This is right, the weight of the present undertaking ought to fall on those who enjoy a redundancy of fortune's favours.

Captain Rogers of the brig Georgia, has obligingly favoured the editor of the Mercantile Advertiser with Savanna papers to the 28th ult. One of that date mentions the arrival there of the barque Nixon, in 56 days from Liverpool, with information that previous to her departure an English fleet had failed for the Mediterranean in three hours warning; that another was ready at Spithead waiting for orders; and that rendezvous houses, were opened for sailors, and large bounties offered to those who would wish to enter voluntarily into the navy.

Extract of a letter from Havre, October 14.

"The new duties that the French government has laid on West-India produce coming in foreign bottoms, will prejudice very much the commerce of the United States with France. American vessels will not be able to import into this country even the natural productions of the United States unless the American government take some effectual measures to secure to us this valuable privilege, by imposing on French vessels and goods a duty equivalent to the one that those of the United States are subjected to, in this country.

The articles which best suit this market, and which can still be brought here in our vessels without paying a high duty, are, oils, indigo, cochineal, pot-ash, dye-woods, cotton, rice, whalebone, deer skins in the hair, hides, tortoiseshell, bees-wax, lignumvite, mahogany. American tar and turpentine will not answer this market, that of the Baltic is always preferred. The same prejudice reigns against the oak timber of the U. States.

"Tobacco will answer well, provided it is shipped in French bottoms.

"Tobacco imported in French bottoms and put into entrepot, may be exported from thence, free of duty, any time within 18 months after it shall be deposited. If taken out of the entrepot for consumption, the importer or consignee liable for the duties—which are one third less in French, than in foreign bottoms. The charges on a hoghead of tobacco are about 5 francs, exclusive of commission and duties."

Extract of a letter from Natchez, dated 25th November.

"We have of late been seriously alarmed at the proceedings of the Spanish resident at New-Orleans; who in direct violation of treaty, has done away the benefit of a deposit there, and thus occasioned a very considerable interruption to our commerce. We are now compelled to pay 6 per cent. on goods sent there, which are immediately considered as Spanish property, and can only be shipped in Spanish bottoms, and cleared out for Spanish ports; how this will be relieved by our executive and legislature, I cannot take upon me to say; but the people of the western country will not long submit to it, but at all hazards take possession of New-Orleans, and all the country east of the Mississippi; and this they can easily accomplish if the French troops do not come to prevent it. I trust, however, firmly in the energies of the general government for redress, though many assert that a difference of interest exist between the eastern and western states, and therefore prophesy that the day is not distant, when the country watered by the Mississippi will separate from the union, and form itself into one great independent empire.

"More than one million of people daily drink of the waters of the Mississippi: they inhabit a country, rich in resources, beyond the ideas of the citizens of the older States, who have a very faint conception of its commerce, or the enterprise of its well informed inhabitants—no where in the world do the people live with less labour than they do here, and the hospitality and liberality of the inhabitants, are very great indeed.

"The inhabitants of Louisiana, are very friendly disposed to the United States, indeed their interests are the same with ours, and having experienced the benefits of having the river free, they are much displeas'd at the existing impediments; they therefore cannot long exist, and even if the French come, surely they will not be so blind to their own interests as to have a rupture with the United States."

To the humane, benevolent citizens of the commercial cities and seaports, and of the interior of the United States.

The respectful address of the committee of the town of Portsmouth, in the state of New-Hampshire, in behalf of the town.

The duty we owe to our constituents, the citizens of this desolated town, impels us to lay before you in general and concise terms, its present suffering state.

The late terrible fire with which Divine Providence has visited us, in a view of all circumstances, is believed to be without a parallel in our common country.—This town, retarded in its early growth by many causes, seemed beginning to overcome those obstacles, when the revolutionary war, by its necessary effects, nearly annihilated its former and principal branches of commerce. It was just emerging from this state, its trade began to revive and increase, and particularly in the central part of the town; where great exertions were made, and much money was laid out to render it commodious for the purpose, and even to embellish it.

This fair and beautiful part of the town has in one short day, become a heap of ashes and rubbish, exhibiting such a scene of devastation and ruin, as gives fresh pain at every new view—the number and value of the streets totally or in a great measure destroyed—the number of the inhabitants now exposed to sufferings and hardships beyond the relief tendered by their sympathising neighbours. The aged, and infirm, widows and orphans unhoused in midwinter—the stagnation of business, excepting the labour patiently submitted to, and going on, of rearing or fitting up shelters for persons and property rescued from the flames. The great destruction of books, accounts, and papers of very great value—the inability of the inhabitants of the town to preserve, without assistance, its trade with the interior, ready to fly off in many directions—and finally the damages consequential to such a state of ruin, which though they may be conceived, baffle all description and calculation—ALL CONCUR to plead powerfully with the opulent and the prosperous; indeed, with all in a comfortable state, who feel themselves exposed to like calamities, and that they may need like assistance from sympathising friends and countrymen.—It is from persons in prosperous or easy circumstances, that relief is peculiarly desired, and solicited.—But injustice would be done to our own feelings to those of our suffering friends and neighbours, and to those of our benevolent fellow-citizens in the union, did we not declare that the smallest donations which may be made by the compassionate of every class, will be gratefully received, and with all others faithfully appropriated. This town has cheerfully had a fellow feeling on like calamities taking place in distant parts of the union, and has no doubts of experiencing the sympathy it feels bound to shew.

IMPORTANT COMMUNICATION.

The law enacted by the legislature of Pennsylvania, on the 12th March, 1800, which allowed further time to all who had title, their heirs or assigns, to any lands, tenements or hereditaments, on the 26th day of March, 1783, to pursue their actions for the same if they were unjustly kept out of possession—will give no time further than the 23th day of March next, to enter their said actions, so that if they will not embrace the opportunity before that day, they will lose such estates for ever, let their title be ever so good. Those who wish further information on this subject, may have it by applying at No. 3, Plumb-street.

As news-papers are the proper channels of information, it is hoped that the several printers thereof, both in this and the United States, and also in Europe, will insert the above piece of intelligence, as people in all those places may be effected thereby.

RESOLUTIONS

Assented to, November session, 1802.

Resolved, That the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the council, be and he is hereby authorized and requested to appoint three commissioners on the part of the state of Maryland, to meet such commissioner or commissioners as may be appointed on the part of the state of Pennsylvania, and also on the part of the Susquehanna canal company, at such time and place as may mutually be agreed upon, to digest and prepare such plan or compact for the further and effectual improvement of the navigation of the river Susquehanna as may appear most conducive to their joint interests, which plan or compact, when reported to, and ratified by, the succeeding legislatures of the two states, shall be mutually binding and obligatory.

Resolved, That the governor be and he is hereby requested to forward the foregoing resolution to the governor of the state of Pennsylvania.

Resolved, That the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the council, be and he is hereby authorized and required to make such compensation to the commissioners to be appointed by the foregoing resolution, when they shall have executed the duties therein prescribed, as he shall deem just and reasonable, by order drawn on the treasurer of the western shore, who is hereby directed to pay the same out of any unappropriated monies in the treasury.

COUNCIL CHAMBER,
January 10th, 1803.

Gentlemen,

It will appear by the papers enclosed, that on Saturday evening the council thought proper to meet, and during my absence to act upon your resolution of the 5th of January, 1803, to appoint three gentlemen as commissioners on the part of this state to meet commissioners on the part of Pennsylvania, and on the part of the Susquehanna canal company, and to notify them their appointments, to which notifications answers have been received. As this is wholly repugnant to what I consider as the letter and spirit of the resolution, I have deemed it my duty to submit this morning a nomination of Alexander C. Hanson, Gabriel Duvall and John T. Mason, Esquires, as commissioners on the part of this state, under your resolution. On this submission the council have refused to act, and as their whole conduct appears to me to be a flagrant violation of your resolution, and so personally disrespectful to myself, I consider it as my duty to submit the whole to the legislature.

With the most entire and perfect esteem,

I have the honour to be,

Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN F. MERCER.

The honourable the president of the Senate, and speaker of the house of Delegates.

COUNCIL CHAMBER,
January 10th, 1803.

Gentlemen,

His excellency the governor having communicated to the council, a letter addressed by him to the general assembly, on the subject of appointments made by the council on Saturday evening, in his absence; the undersigned deem it a duty they owe to themselves to state the circumstances of that transaction.

It was discovered on Saturday morning, in the course of conversation, that a difference of opinion existed between his excellency and the council, with respect to the persons to be appointed on the part of this state to meet commissioners to be appointed on the part of the state of Pennsylvania and the Susquehanna canal company respectively. With a view of obtaining a coincidence of sentiment on this subject, and in order to have a full council (one of the members intending to leave the city the next day) an adjournment till 5 o'clock P. M. of the same day, was in the presence of, and with the approbation of the governor, agreed to. At that hour the council met, and after having waited until all expectation of his excellency's attendance was exhausted, proceeded to make the appointments.

The undersigned solemnly aver, that in this procedure, they neither intended, nor do they feel themselves justly chargeable with, the slightest degree of personal disrespect toward the governor.

The general assembly cannot fail to perceive, that the real difference between the governor and the council, is with regard to the right of nomination.

The undersigned believe, that ever since the adoption of the constitution of this state, this right has been exercised concurrently, by the governor and the council, and the undersigned will be permitted to aid, that in their opinion, the construction of the constitution, thus evidenced by the practice of every former executive, is a correct one. Were the right of nomination exclusively vested in the governor, the undersigned cannot suppose, that the governor, who ever he may be, will nominate any other than such persons as he himself wishes to be appointed. A construction, that "the advice and consent" of the council is thus limited to the governor's nomination, would in effect be conferring upon the governor a negative upon all appointments; and would reduce the constitutional powers of the council to a simple assent to the governor's propositions.

The undersigned submit this diversity of opinion between his excellency and the council, as to their respective powers, to the wisdom of the general assembly, and are with the highest respect,

Your obt. servants,

Francis Digges,
Allen B. Duckett,
Edward Hall,
Roverdy Ghieselin,
D. David.

To the honourable the General Assembly.

The gentlemen nominated by the council, were A. C. Hanson, James Houlston and John Montgomery, Esquires.

On Friday the 21st inst. the following question will be discussed:

FOR SALE.

On Tuesday the 1st day of February next, if fair, if the first fair day, will be offered for SALE, to the highest bidder,

TWO hundred acres of LAND, whereon the subscriber at present lives, situated on the stage road from Annapolis to the city of Washington, 11 miles from the former, and about 25 from the latter; for healthiness of situation, and elegance of prospect, there is not a finer seat in Maryland; there are on the farm two very extensive orchards of apples and peaches, from which may be made 500 gallons of brandy, and there are now at least 3000 young peach trees ready to replant. As it is presumed that those who are inclined to purchase will visit the farm, it is needless to describe it more accurately.

All persons interested will take notice of this information. Given under my hand, this 19th day of January, 1803.

JOSEPH WILKINSON.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, the 10th January, 1803, in Prince-George's county, two miles from the Governor's Bridge, a negro man named SAM, about 50 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, a little bow legged, and stoops as he walks; had on when he went off a country cloth jacket and breeches, kersey wore, the upper part of both sleeves is black under the arms, it is useless for me to attempt to describe any other clothing, as he had a variety, and is a likely artful fellow; I expect he has a pass, and will change his name and cloaths and pass for a free man. I purchased him several years ago at the sale of Mr. Robert Tyler. I am informed he has a brother and son at major Stoddart's quarter, near George-town, where it is likely he may be harboured, he pretends to be religious, but keeps three wives. The said fellow ran away from Mr. Tyler and was taken up near Frederick, with a pass. I will give 10 dollars to any person securing the said fellow in any goal, so that I get him again, if brought home 12 dollars, if taken out of the state and brought home the above reward.

I forward all persons from harbouring, employing, or carrying off the said fellow at their peril.

And be it enacted, That the next election of representatives of this state in the congress of the United States shall be held on the first Monday of October next, and that the next election thereof shall be held on the first Monday of October, eighteen hundred and four, and on the same day biennially for ever thereafter, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it enacted, That the elections for delegates to the general assembly, for electors of the senate, for sheriffs, for representatives of this state in the congress of the United States, and for electors on the part of this state to elect the president and vice-president of the United States, and each and every of them, shall commence at nine o'clock in the morning of the respective days of election, and shall continue without adjournment, and be closed at seven o'clock in the evening of the same day, and no ballot shall be taken at any such election before the said hour of nine o'clock in the morning, nor after the said hour of seven o'clock in the evening; and every voter qualified by law shall deliver to the judge or judges of the election in the district in which he offers to vote, a ballot, on which shall be written or printed the name or names of the person voted for, and the purpose for which the vote is given, and plainly designated, and the ballot so delivered in, and received by the judge or judges of the election, shall be deposited in the ballot box provided as aforesaid for that purpose, till the poll be closed, and if any judge of an election, or other person, after any ballot shall be delivered in as aforesaid, and before the poll is closed, shall unfold or open any such ballot, with design to discover the name or names therein contained, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars; and if any voter shall offer any more than one ballot, with a fraudulent design, every such person shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars for every such offence.

And be it enacted, That the name of each person offering to vote shall be entered upon the books provided as aforesaid for that purpose by the two clerks, separately and plainly.

And be it enacted, That when the poll shall be closed, the box wherein the ballots are deposited shall be immediately thereafter opened by the judge or judges of the election, and the said judge or judges shall publicly, in the presence of such persons as may choose to attend, carefully take out the said ballots, and read distinctly and aloud the name or names written or printed thereon respectively; and the clerks of such election shall carefully enter and keep account of the same on paper prepared for that purpose, so that the number of votes for each candidate tallied thereon may be readily cast up and known; and if, upon opening any of the said ballots, there be found any more names written or printed on any of them than there ought to be, or if any two or more of such ballots or papers be deceitfully folded together, such ballots shall be rejected and not counted.

And be it enacted, That as soon as all the ballots shall be read off and counted, and the number for each candidate reckoned up and ascertained, the judge or judges of the election shall make out, under his or their hands, and attested by the clerks of the election, four plain, fair and distinct statements and certificates of the number of votes which shall have been then and there given for each candidate, distinguishing the station or office he has been voted for, which numbers shall be expressed in words at length, and not in figures only, two of which statements or certificates shall be entered, and subscribed and attested as aforesaid, on the books on which the names of the voters shall have been written, and the two other statements or certificates shall be given to each of the said clerks; and it shall be the duty of the judge who shall preside at the close of the election to make public declaration of such number of votes for each candidate at the place of holding said election, which said books, with the statements or certificates aforesaid therein entered as aforesaid, shall be kept in the charge of the said presiding judge, and on the day and place prescribed by the fifteenth section of the original act for the meeting and attendance of the judges of the election first named in the appointment, or who shall have acted as judge at the close of the election, the said judge having charge of said books, with the certificates therein written, subscribed and attested as aforesaid, shall then and there, under the penalty in the said original act mentioned, attend, and produce the said books and certificates, and in case of accident, so that the books with the certificates aforesaid cannot be produced, then and in such case the certificates lodged with the clerks shall be produced by them, and the said judges of the several districts of the county, so assembled, shall add together the whole number of votes of all the districts of the county which shall appear to be given for each candidate, and determine who has the greatest number of votes, and who thereupon is or are elected delegates, sheriffs, electors of the senate, representative or representatives to congress, or elector or electors of the president and vice-president of the United States, as the case may be, and shall declare accordingly, and make return in the respective cases in the manner and form prescribed and now practised under the said fifteenth and sixteenth sections of the said original act; and the said books on which the names of the voters and certificates aforesaid shall be written, shall be deposited with the clerk of the county for safe keeping; and if, at the time appointed by the said original act for the assembling of the said judges, any of them should be prevented from attending, in every such case the judge or judges who shall assemble, may adjourn from day to day until the judge or judges required to attend shall assemble, and in case of the sickness, death or inability, of any judge of a district required by this act to attend at the time and place aforesaid, any other judge present at the election at the close thereof in said district may and is hereby required to attend, and the said judges, when so assembled, shall immediately thereafter proceed to perform the duties required as aforesaid.

LONDON, November 11.

The Medusa from Gibraltar, fell in with our squadron which sailed hence on the 6th, off Carthage, all well. Sir Richard Bickerton had received orders to remain in the Mediterranean with the whole of his fleet, after Malta was evacuated—a measure highly politic in the present situation of affairs, as without a naval force sufficient to keep the Toulon fleet in check, the French might easily make themselves masters of both Malta and Egypt, the moment we have evacuated them, as we should then have nothing to depend on but the good faith of Buonaparte.

HOUSE OF LORDS, November 23.

This day his majesty came to the house of peers, and being in his royal robes seated on the throne with the usual solemnity, was pleased to make the following most gracious

SPEECH:

"My lords and gentlemen,

"It is highly gratifying to me to resort to your advice and assistance after the opportunity which has been recently afforded of collecting the sense of my people.

"The internal prosperity of the country has realized our most sanguine hopes. We have experienced the bounty of Divine Providence in the produce of an abundant harvest; the state of the manufactures, commerce and revenue of my united kingdom is flourishing without example; and the loyalty and attachment which are manifested to my person and government afford the strongest indications of the just sense that is entertained of numerous blessings entertained under our happy constitution.

"In my intercourse with foreign powers, I have been actuated by a sincere disposition for the maintenance of peace, it is, nevertheless, impossible for me to lose sight of that established and wise system of policy by which the interests of other states are connected with our own; and I cannot, therefore, be indifferent to any material change in their relative condition and strength. My conduct will be invariably regulated by a due consideration of the actual situation of Europe; and by watchful solicitude for the permanent welfare of my people. You will, I am persuaded, agree with me in thinking that it is incumbent upon us to adopt those means of security which are best calculated to afford the prospect of preserving to my subjects the blessings of peace.

"Gentlemen of the house of commons, I have ordered the estimate for the ensuing year to be laid before you; and I rely on your zeal and liberality in providing for the various branches of the public service, which it is a great satisfaction to me to think, may be fully accomplished without any considerable addition to the burthens of my people.

"My lords and gentlemen, I contemplate with the utmost satisfaction, the great and increasing benefits produced by the important measure which has united the interest and consolidated the resources of Great-Britain and Ireland. The improvements and extension of these advantages will be objects of your unremitting care and attention. The trade and commerce of my subjects, so essential to the support of public credit, and of our maritime strength, will, I am persuaded, receive from you every possible encouragement, and you will readily lend your assistance in affording, to mercantile transactions in every part of my united kingdom, all the facility and accommodation that may be consistent with the security of the public revenue.

"To uphold the honour of the country, to encourage its industry, to improve its resources, and to maintain the true principles of the constitution in church and state, are the great and leading duties which you are called upon to discharge. In the performance of them you may be assured of my uniform and cordial support; it being my most earnest wish to cultivate a perfect harmony and confidence between me and my parliament, and to promote to the utmost the welfare of my faithful subjects, whose interests and happiness I shall ever consider as inseparable from my own."

PHILADELPHIA, January 14.

A most violent attack has lately been made, by a number of persons calling themselves the Combined Yankee Company, on one Barlett Hinds, who had been a witness against the Connecticut intruders.

Hinds was taken on the 20th December, at the house of John Robt, in Lawrence county, and was abused and beaten, and forcibly dragged to the house of Isaac Bronson, where his life was threatened, and his effigy, or something called so, burnt. A large log fire was built, and Hinds was called upon to surrender his fees for attending court and to acknowledge that he had done wrong in giving evidence against the intruders, and not give evidence against them in future—if he would not they threatened they would put him into the fire, and burn him as they had done his effigy. They pushed Hinds into the fire, and when sitting pulled the chair from under him, and tore his clothes from off him. After the fire had considerably abated, they still persisted in their threats and intention to burn him, unless he recanted. They formed themselves into a body and chose a chairman, who took the sense of the party by votes by uplifted hands.

They declared themselves to be the Combined Yankee Company, and that they would defend their Connecticut claim against any laws Pennsylvania could make, by their rifles, and at the risk of their lives—that if any of them should be taken they would pay the expence jointly. The chairman then called to Hinds, calling him old traitor, "you have seen what we have done, should you or any man inform against us, you shall suffer the same fate with your effigy, or any authority that shall take notice of us shall suffer in the same way."

After this they endeavoured to get some concession from Hinds, and to persuade him to join them and deliver up his fees for the use of the road.—They demanded of him how long it would require him to settle his business and be ready to leave the country—they proposed three months—and then voted that if he was found in the country after three months he should be sacrificed by them. The party consisted of thirty-eight, most if not all of whom are known.

Extract of a letter from an officer of the army of the United States, dated,

"Fort Wilkinson, Dec. 5, 1803.

"I forward you a copy of a proclamation of the intendant of New-Orleans, &c.

"This step is here considered as likely to produce much embarrassment and loss to many of the citizens of the U. States.—New-Orleans being the only outlet for the produce of almost all the western country.

"An Indian visited this fort sometime since, and gave an account of a talk lately held between the Spaniards and the Indians, wherein the Indians were told that the French were about to land in Louisiana, and would take their red brethren by the hand, and assist them to drive the Americans from the lands of which they have dispossessed them."

WASHINGTON, January 11.

James Munroe, Esq; was this day nominated to the senate of the U. States as ambassador extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the court of Madrid for the purpose of adjusting the differences subsisting in consequence of the recent infraction of the treaty with Spain by an officer of that government on the Mississippi.

It is said, that after Mr. Munroe shall have adjusted the objects intrusted to his discretion at Madrid, that he will have to proceed to Paris upon a further mission of great importance, and with the functions of minister extraordinary.

January 19.

The Charleston City Gazette of the 7th inst. has a short account, taken from a London paper of the 29th Nov. of a conspiracy against the British king and government. It was discovered on the 19th Nov. and completely suppressed by apprehending the principal, col. Despard, and many others. The intention of the conspirators was "to make an attempt on the life of his majesty, on his way to the parliament house on Tuesday. In this horrid undertaking, they were to be joined by 2000 of the poor of Spital-fields, and about the same number from St. George's Fields, &c. amounting in the whole to 10,000 men. The attempt on his majesty was only intended as the first scene in this frightful tragedy; and it is said, that having succeeded in that, it was their farther plan to seize the tower, where having armed themselves, they meant to return and take possession of the bank; from thence they were to proceed to Buckingham house, and seize the rest of the royal family resident there. It is expected that a special commission will be immediately issued for the trial of the offenders. It is almost unnecessary to add, that he is the colonel Despard who was so long confined in Coldbath Fields prison.

JOHN SMITH, Annapolis, January 25, 1803.

FOR SALE.

On Tuesday the 1st day of February next, if fair, if not the first fair day, will be offered for SALE, to the highest bidder, on the premises,

TWO hundred acres of LAND, whereon the subscriber is present lives, situated on the stage road from Annapolis to the city of Washington, 11 miles from the former, and about 25 from the latter; for healthiness of situation, and elegance of prospect, there is not a finer feat in Maryland; there are on the farm two very extensive orchards of apples and peaches, from which may be made 500 gallons of brandy, and there are now at least 3000 young peach trees ready to replant. As it is presumed that those who are inclined to purchase will visit the farm, it is needless to describe it more accurately.

RAN away from the subscriber, the 10th January, 1803, in Prince-George's county, two miles from the Governor's Bridge, a negro man named SAM, about 20 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, a little bow legged, and stoops as he walks; had on when he went off a country cloth jacket and breeches, kersey wove, the upper part of both sleeves is black under the arms, it is useful for me to attempt to describe any other clothing, as he had a variety, and is a likely artful fellow; I expect he has a pass, and will change his name and cloaths and pass for a free man. I purchased him several years ago at the sale of Mr. Robert Tyler. I am informed he has a brother and son at major Stoddart's quarter, near George-town, where it is likely he may be harboured, he pretends to be religious, but keeps three wives. The said fellow ran away from Mr. Tyler and was taken up near Frederick, with a pass. I will give 10 dollars to any person securing the said fellow in any gaol, so that I get him again; if brought home 12 dollars, if taken out of the state and brought home the above reward.

I forward all persons from harbouring, employing, or carrying off the said fellow at their peril.
