In CHANCERY, December 19, 1804.
James Wells,
 vs.
Thomas Rogan, and Grace his wife, William Wells, and Cassander his wife, Robert Bodkin, and Sarah his wife, Samuel M'Kiss, and Esther his wife.

THE object of the bill is to obtain a decree for the recording a deed of mortgage from John and Sarah Cooke, of Harford county, to the complainant, for one hundred acres of land, part of two tracts of land, the one called MAIDEN'S MOUNT, the other PARADISE; the bill states, that John Cooke, one of the bargainners, has departed this life, and the defendants are his heirs at law; It is thereupon, on motion of the complainant, ordered, that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted three weeks successively, before the 12th day of January next, in the Maryland Gazette, to the intent that the defendants, and all persons claiming under the said John Cooke, or conceiving themselves interested, may have notice of the complainant's application to this court, and of the substance and object of his bill, and may be warned to appear here in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the second Tuesday in May next, to shew cause whyfore a decree should not pass as prayed.

FIRE.

On Thursday afternoon last, about two o'clock, the citizens of this place were alarmed with the cry of fire at the Stadt-house.—The assembly were then sitting, the bill for the abolition of the general court being under consideration.—It appeared that a considerable quantity of hot ashes had been deposited in a barrel, which consumed part of the same, and communicated to the chimney moulding and wash-board of one of the jury rooms. Fortunately it was early discovered, and with the assistance of the members of the legislature and citizens, was, after sometime, extinguished.
A British Squadron, consisting of the Tremendous, Commodore Osborne, the Lancaster, and two frigates, arrived off the Isle of France, the latter end of August last.—They were to keep that station for six months.

London dates to the 3d of November have been received by an arrival at New-York—they furnish nothing of a very interesting nature.
The Young Roscius, (BEATTIE, a youth of 14,) brought 900L. sterling, in one week in October last, by his performances, to the Liverpool Theatre.—A third of that sum was his share.

LONDON, October 26.

Last week arrived at Portsmouth, the Spy, capt. Clark, from the South Seas, laden with several tons of gold and silver, belonging to Mr. Hurry, of Gosport, being the produce of a cargo of British manufactures, with which this ship was dispatched about year since, and with which she has been trading very successfully with the inhabitants of South-America. The bullion was landed on Monday afternoon, and deposited in Gosport bank, from whence it was conveyed on Tuesday morning in three waggons, to the bank of England under a strong guard. It was contained in upwards of 100 large and small casks, weighing about ten tons, and its value is estimated at about £.100,000. The accession of so much specie to the country, at a time when it is so much wanted, is very fortunate; and we hope it will assist the circulation of the new dollars, of which part of the £20, to the amount of £.47,000 consists.

BOSTON, December 18.
Captain Tyler, who sailed from Lisbon, Oct. 23, informs, that the expectation of a war between Great-Britain and Spain was still entertained there. No late news had been received from the Mediterranean.

The two Moorish frigates, which had been at Lisbon, sailed from thence October 16, direct for Saltee, as was supposed. A Moorish frigate had captured two Prussian vessels, one bound to Amsterdam, the other to Antwerp, and had carried them into Saltee. The United States frigate Essex sailed from Lisbon immediately after the two first mentioned frigates, in order to watch their motions; but there was no account of any American vessels being molested by cruisers from Morocco. One Moorish frigate still remained at Lisbon. Capt. T. does not furnish any later news respecting the sickness in Spain, than we possessed before.

We have accounts from Rotterdam, by capt. Foster, to the 18th October.—They repeat the probability of an immediate war between Russia and Sweden with France; and between Great-Britain and Spain.—That the appearances of invasion were kept up.—That the Dutch gun boats had been sent to Boulogne, at which place the British had succeeded in destroying a great number.—That the talk in Holland was of an expected change in the government, from republicanism to royalty; and that the chief magistracy was to be invested in Schimmelpenick. Capt. F. says the Channel appeared covered with British cruisers; and that strong squadrons were anchored off Boulogne, Dungenels, &c.

PHILADELPHIA, December 27.

The ship Portland, captain Wills, arrived at Reedy Island from l'Orient. Capt. W. failed from thence the 24th October, and informs, that the ship Thomas, from New-York, with general Armstrong, ambassador from the United States, had arrived at Nantes; that a few days before he left l'Orient, two Spanish ships, loaded with linens, from St. Maloes to Spain, were captured by a British frigate. When capt. W. arrived at l'Orient, upwards of 60 fail of gun brigs, minnaces, &c. lay there, on his departure not more than ten remained, and they dismantled, about 25 had been recently captured and destroyed on their passage thence to Brest, by two British frigates; the crews of the gun boats in general were very sickly, owing to the want of accommodation under deck. A fine ship, to carry 90 guns, was launched there during his stay, and three others in forwardness on the stocks, but no seamen to man them. War with Russia was talked of in those circles where liberty of speech was exercised, and the long contemplated invasion of England generally scouted.—provisions plenty and cheap, but the once flourishing port of l'Orient was totally bereft of its trade, and the merchants extensive store occupied by the government.
Captain Abbott, who arrived at Norfolk, in 15 days from St. Martins, informs that just before he failed news was received there of the arrival of three ships of the line, 6 frigates, and 3000 troops, at the islands of Martinique and Guadalupe, from France.

From a late London paper.

"Mr. Monroe, the American minister, is gone to Madrid, to assist Mr. Pinckney in endeavouring to prevent a rupture between Spain and the United States. It is said that the dispute is likely to be adjusted, and that the Spanish government will not insist upon the three points which we mentioned in our paper of Saturday. Indeed had the Spanish government determined not to abandon them, war would have been inevitable. It is even said that intelligence has been received by his majesty's ministers of the retraction of the three points by the Spanish government, who have expressed their resolution not to interrupt the relations of peace and amity with the United States."

From a Paris paper.

"The American Gazettes often make mention of the WIFE of Jerome Buonaparte.—It is possible that M. Jerome Buonaparte, not yet 20 years old, has a MISTRESS—but it is not probable he has a WIFE, since the laws of France are such, that a minor of 20, or even 25 years, cannot marry without the consent of his parents or guardians, and without having passed in France the formalities prescribed by law. M. Jerome Buonaparte was born in December, 1784, and it is already a year since the American papers announced his MARRIAGE!!!"

Doctor FENDALL, OPERATOR UPON TEETH,

HAS arrived in this city, where he means to practice amongst his former friends and customers, and the inhabitants of the vicinage, and may be seen, and consulted, at Mr. CATON'S, at any time. The sooner applications are made to the doctor the better, as his stay in Annapolis will be only till Wednesday next.
The Doctor still sells his celebrated Columbian Antiscorbutic Dentifrice, for preserving the teeth, gums, sockets, &c. 2 X

SELECTED.

THE WINTER'S NIGHT.
THE thick'ning shades of night appear;
Hoarse breaths the wintry storm afar;
Hark, from the sea-beat shore I hear
The dip of elemental war.
Fierce on my roof the rattling hail
Its glossy flood tremendous pours;
The tempest bellows in the vale;
Aloud the bending forest roars.
Yet, while convulsive Nature's groan
Rocks earth upon her trembling pole,
A smile, dear girl, from thee alone,
Imparts calm sunshine to my soul.
No wealth have I, nor fame, nor pow'r,
(Though rich enough if lov'd by thee)
Yet thousands, in this dreadful hour,
Would give all these to fare like me.
What numbers on the troubled deep,
Remote from friends, from kindred dear,
For wives belov'd, despairing weep,
For children drop the bitter tear!
Safe, shelter'd from the dismal storm,
Love's chafest sweets my breast inspire,
While in my cot, so snug and warm,
We sit around the cheerful fire.
How throbs my heart with purest joy,
While mid these scenes of mutual bliss,
With cherub smiles, our infant boy
Implores the fond maternal kiss.
O! let me clasp thee to my breast,
And meet affection's cheering smile,
In chaste endearments lull to rest
My cares, my sorrows, and my toil.
We'll trim the brisk, enlivening fire,
Nor dread the wind that round us blows,
Till sleep shall bid our thoughts retire
To pleasing dreams or soft repose.

CHARLES COUNTY COURT,
 March Term, 1804.

IN EQUITY.
 Henry Roberts, complainant, against

Lydia Robey, widow, and William Robey, Thomas
 Robey, Prior Robey, John Robey, and Mary
 Robey, heirs of William Robey, defendants.

THE object of the bill filed in this cause is to obtain a deed for a tract of land, called Robey's Purchase, or The Water-Melon Patch, lying and being in Charles county, and containing fifteen acres, which the said Henry Roberts purchased of the said William Robey, in his life-time, and for the due and legal conveyance of which the said William Robey passed his bond to the said Henry Roberts. It appearing to the court, by the return of the sheriff of Charles county, that three of the defendants, to wit:
 William, Thomas and Prior, are not to be found in his bailiwick, and it also appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that the said Thomas and Prior are not inhabitants of the state of Maryland; it is thereupon ordered, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette, and continued therein for six successive weeks before the second Monday in February next, another copy to be left at the usual place or places of abode of the said absent defendants, before leaving this state, and one other copy to be set up at the door of the courthouse of Charles county, give notice of this application, and of the substance and object of the bill, that the absent defendants may be warned to appear in this court in person, or by solicitor, on or before the said second Monday in February next, to shew cause,
 if any they have, wherefore a decree should not be passed as prayed. 2

A true copy, JOHN BARNES, Clk.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Annapolis, Easton, and the neighbouring country, or whom it may concern, that he intends to send for a few patent FORTEPIANOS, with additional keys, made by Astor. As they will be of the very best workmanship, and keep longer in tune than any yet heard of, inasmuch that I have found them sometimes in perfect good tune after coming from London. It is supposed that gentlemen who wish to purchase will reflect upon it. They will be offered for the same price as in Philadelphia, and old instruments taken in exchange. One of them, which I keep at the Ladies Academy, will be sold extremely low; also some good violins, one German flute, and a collection of sonatas and new songs, by FR. AUG. WAGLER, Musician.

P. HAMMOND.

DISCOVERED, a few days since, a challenge in the Telegraph by SAMUEL NORWOOD, Esq,
 Buonaparte against Democrat.

At Annapolis this fall I proposed running Democrat against Buonaparte, carrying from 110 lbs. to 140, at the discretion of Mr. Norwood, which was refused. As Mr. Norwood refused the proposition made by me at that time, I am not bound to run the race proposed by him in the Telegraph.—Democrat will run Buonaparte over Annapolis race course on the third Tuesday in May next, four miles and repeat, for one thousand dollars, play or pay, carrying 126 lbs. each, which is the weight they are to carry by the rules of racing, both being seven years old last spring.

Should Mr. Norwood decline this offer, Democrat will cover mares next spring, at the subscriber's farm, from the first day of March until the first day of August, at 16 dollars each, and 50 cents to the groom.
 Democrat's pedigree is equal to the pedigree of any horse to be produced, having in him the blood of Medley, Eclipse, Figure, Dove, Godolphin Arabian,
 and Mr. Tasker's Selima.

If this proposition is approved of by Mr. Norwood, notice will be given in the Maryland Gazette within forty days from the date hereof.

The Sac and Fox nations of Indians have ceded to the United States a valuable country, with a front of 600 miles on the Mississippi. It contains 80,000 square miles, and is equal to 51,200,000 acres. The treaty ceding this territory was signed at St. Louis, the 3d November.

An arrival at Marblehead from Bilbao, brings intelligence that the uneasiness in Biscay had subsided, the revolters had laid down their arms, and it was expected that Bilbao will be made a king's port.—The news of the capture of the Spanish frigates had reached Bilbao—there was no embargo on English vessels at that place. It was the opinion of the merchants there, that war would not take place, and that Spain would pay any demand the English should think proper to make.

We are happy to learn by the arrival of the ship Dart, capt. Peck, in forty-four days from Cadiz, that the epidemic which has raged with such violence in Malaga, Cadiz, and Gibraltar, has nearly subsided, after sweeping off an immense number of the inhabitants. At Malaga, no less than 27,500 people have been confined to the "narrow house." At one time three hundred persons died daily, at present the number is reduced to ten. At Cadiz 5000 have died, and the number of deaths have decreased from eighty-five to three. At Gibraltar where the fever has entirely ceased 2500 have died.—N. York paper.

We have been favoured with the following extract of a letter from an American gentleman at Port-au-Prince, to his friend in this city, dated Dec. 3, 1804: "The aid-de-camp of the emperor Dessalines called on me this evening. In the course of our conversation, he mentioned, and wished it to be known, that the emperor was entirely ignorant of the hanging of the mate of the Pilgrim: gen. Christophe ordered it without his knowledge, and has since received a severe reprimand for so doing." Phil. Gaz.

MESSAGE.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States.

The enclosed letter, written from Malta, by Richard O'Brien, our late consul at Algiers, giving some details of transactions before Tripoli, is communicated for the information of congress.

TH: JEFFERSON.

December 31st, 1804.

Copy of a letter from Richard O'Brien, late consul of the United States, at Algiers, giving some details of transactions before Tripoli—to John Gavino, consul at Gibraltar.

MALTA, 5th Sept. 1804.

Dear Sir,

1st. The American frigates, corsairs, gun boats, and bombards, attacked Tripoli castle, corsairs and gun boats on the evening of the 5d of August, and after a severe contest captured three Tripolite gun boats, whose crews were ninety-six men; of this number forty-six were killed, and fifty made prisoners. Amongst the latter number, eighteen were severely wounded. We lost lieut. James Decatur, and thirteen men killed and wounded.

2d. On the 7th of August the American force attacked Tripoli to the west part of the city: after a great deal of gun boat firing, and also of the two bombards, they silenced a seven gun battery and threw several shells into the town. In these two attacks Tripoli must certainly have lost five hundred men. We lost a small gun boat and twelve men; amongst this number lieut. Caldwell and Mr. Durley. The boat blew up by the fire of wads of another boat.

3d. On the morning of the 29th of August at half past one A. M. the American gun boats, &c. and two bombards entered the harbour of Tripoli, and within 600 feet of the bashaw's castle commenced their attack. They fired one hundred and twenty rounds each, sunk three of the enemy's gun boats, and a merchant polacre. At day light the Constitution led in within pistol shot of the chief of the batteries, fired nine broadsides, received twelve shot in the hull, lost four men killed, and two wounded in one of her boats by shot. In Tripoli, they have mounted in the city presenting the east, north, and west, 115 guns, had 45,000 Arabs, and the inhabitants to defend the city, had 19 sail of gun boats, two schooners, and two galliots, and a brig. The Americans had the Constitution, Argus, Syren, Vixen, Nautilus, Enterprise, six gun boats, and two bombards.

The whole of the American crews amounted to 890 men, and the Neapolitans 120. The latter behaved well. In the latter action captain Chauncey, officers and crew of the John Adams, volunteered their services to the Constitution and gun boats. We have been expecting to be joined by commodore Barron, and frigates; but he will be too late to end the affairs this year, as the summer season is all but over for gun boats, and Tripoli in winter can only be blockaded by corsairs, at times off and on. This extended will show that our present force is only adequate to irritate Tripoli, but will not be adequate to reduce it to American terms, and obtain our fellow-citizens.

12th September, 1804.

On the evening of the 5th arrived here commodore Barron and capt. Campbell. The former failed on the evening of the 7th, and the latter for Tripoli, on the morning of the 8th. No doubt but they arrived off Tripoli on the 10th, and of course joined, will give Tripoli a general attack.

We have learned since by the return of a vessel here, which carried water to the fleet, that on the night of the first, the Americans sent in a vessel prepared with fifty barrels of powder, and a number of bomb-shells; that the vessel had got close into the harbour of Tripoli amongst the enemy's gun boats, and said vessel was set fire to; by some accident or other the ship blew up, before the officer and crew could get clear, and in consequence, the officer, midshipman, and twelve men were blown to atoms. I believe it is captain Smith, of the Vixen. The Constitution, gun boats, and bombards led in, and had a long and severe action. I have not been able to obtain from the Maltese crew any better account on this subject, as they have not brought any one better. They were conveyed by one of our brigs of war, which did not enter this port, but went for Syracuse, I have not been well. I left the fleet the night of the 22d ult., and when the John Adams returns here and discharges, I shall proceed with my family in said ship for the United States. Will you please forward a copy of this letter to the secretary of state.

I am, &c.

(Signed) RICHARD O'BRIEN.

John Gavino, Esq; &c. &c.

P. S. The expected frigates, joined with the present force, will do it or drive the bashaw and divers out of Tripoli.

14th September, 1804.

SIR,

I have to inform you that it is captain Somers with lieutenant Wadsworth, and Mr. Michael, the shipman, that is blown up by the explosion of the fire-ship, at their entering among the gun boats of Tripoli. Captain Smith, in the Vixen, arrived here this day, he left Tripoli three days past—says that commodore Barron and Campbell arrived there the 9th, that on the 7th the gun-boats, bombards, with the Syren, Enterprise, Scourge (small John Adams, left the coast of Tripoli for Syracuse. The President, Constitution, Constellation and Argus, remain off Tripoli—that it is considered if the weather would be favourable that the three frigates would attack the place without the gun boats and reduce Tripoli to American territory of our fellow-citizens. advanced for the gun boats at with safety on the coast of Tripoli. I am, respectfully,

FROM A LATE LIVERPOOL PAPER.

ADDRESS

SPOKEN BY THE YOUNG ROSCIUS ON HIS FIRST APPEARANCE AT THE LIVERPOOL THEATRE.

ANXIOUS to pay my heartfelt homage here,
Before you thus I venture to appear:
No character assum'd shall veil me now,
Whilst to my partial friends I grateful bow.
Say, am I wrong to aim at your applause?
Yet there are some, unheard, prejudice my cause;
Who in my coat theatric, holes are picking,
And scorn the boyish hero, stage-struck chicken.
"Shall he debate a Shakspeare's glowing scenes?
"A horse! a horse! a rocking-horse he means!
"His acting, trick and start—a mere machine
"Who utters words, not feeling what they mean;
"Drill'd by some fuggleman—right—left—prepare,
"Heads up—attention—dress—now as you were."
Am I a chicken? They shall find me game,
In the bold contest for theatric fame;
As to my height, I trust, on reason's plan,
The mind is held the standard of the man:
And for my youth—why if that be a crime,
Patience, dread Sirs, I shall amend in time.
Such critics, for myself, unmov'd I view,
Is it my acting they condemn, or you?
Could trick or start the nobler passions raise,
Or gain me—what's my proudest boast, your praise!
Cheer'd with protecting smiles the bud may blow,
And this young sapling to a cedar grow.
When at our Shakspeare's shrine my swelling heart
Bursts forth, and claims some kindred tear to start,
Frown not if I avow, that falling tear
Inspires my hopes and bids me persevere;
Here though you weep for sorrows not your own,
Be life's true sorrows to your hearts unknown;
May—I want words—my feelings choke their way,
Think what I ought to feel—that would I say.

ANECDOTE.

ENGLISH ACILITY.

IN the great Dutch war in the reign of Charles II. the English fleet and that of Holland fought in the Channel for three days successively, engaging in the day, and lying to at night. But just as they were preparing to renew the action, advice came off, that an armistice was concluded upon, and the hostile parties began to exercise mutual civilities. On board a Dutch man of war, which lay along side an English first rate, was a sailor so remarkably active, as to run to the mast-head and stand upright upon the truck, (the tip-end of the mast) after which he would cut several capers, and conclude with standing upon his head, to the great astonishment and terror of the spectators. On coming down from his exploit, all his countrymen expressed their joy by huzzaing, and thereby signifying their triumph over the English. One of the bold tars, piqued for the honour of his country, ran up to the top like a cat, and essayed with all his might to throw up his heels like the Dutchman, and not having the skill, he missed his poise, and came down rather faster than he went up. The rigging however broke his fall, and he lighted on his feet unhurt. As soon as he had recovered his speech he ran to the side and exultingly cried out to the Dutchman, "There, d—n your eyes, do that if you can."

CHARLES COUNTY COURT,
 March Term, 1804.
 In Equity.
Henry Roberts, complainant,
 against
Lydia Robey, widow, and William Robey, Thomas
 Robey, Prior Robey, John Robey, and Mary
 Robey, heirs of William Robey, defendants.

THE object of the bill filed in this cause is to obtain a deed for a tract of land, called Robey's Purchase, or The Water-Melon Patch, lying and being in Charles county, and containing fifteen acres,
 which the said Henry Roberts purchased of the said William Robey, in his life-time, and for the due and legal conveyance of which the said William Robey passed his bond to the said Henry Roberts. It appearing to the court, by the return of the sheriff of Charles county, that three of the defendants, to-wit:
 William, Thomas and Prior, are not to be found in his bailiwick, and it also appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that the said Thomas and Prior are not inhabitants of the state of Maryland; it is thereupon ordered, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette, and continued therein for six successive weeks before the second Monday in February next, another copy to be left at the usual place or places of abode of the said absent defendants, before leaving this state, and one other copy to be set up at the door of the courthouse of Charles county, give notice of this application, and of the substance and object of the bill, that the absent defendants may be warned to appear in this court in person, or by solicitor, on or before the said second Monday in February next, to shew cause,
 if any they have, wherefore a decree should not be passed as prayed. A true copy,
JOHN BARNES, Clk.

DISCOVERED, a few days since, a challenge
 in the Telegraph by SAMUEL NORWOOD, Esq.,
 Buonaparte against Democrat.
 At Annapolis this fall I proposed running Democrat
 against Buonaparte, carrying from 110 lbs. to 140,
 at the discretion of Mr. Norwood, which was refused. As Mr. Norwood refused the proposition made by me at that time, I am not bound to run the race proposed by him in the Telegraph.—Democrat will run Buonaparte over Annapolis race course on the third Tuesday in May next, four miles and repeat, for one thousand dollars, play or pay, carrying 126 lbs. each, which is the weight they are to carry by the rules of racing, both being seven years old
 last spring.
 Should Mr. Norwood decline this offer, Democrat
 will cover mares next spring, at the subscriber's farm,
 from the first day of March until the first day of August, at 16 dollars each, and 50 cents to the groom.
 Democrat's pedigree is equal to the pedigree of any horse to be produced, having in him the blood of Medley, Eclipse, Figure, Dove, Godolphin Arabian,
 and Mr. Tasker's Selima.
 If this proposition is approved of by Mr. Norwood,
 notice will be given in the Maryland Gazette within
 forty days from the date hereof.
ISAAC DUCKETT.

 ministration, de bonis non, on the personal estate of June next, or they will be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Those persons indebted are desired to make payment. All persons are warned against holding or harbouring property belonging to the estate,

NEW-YORK, January 9.

At a court of oyer and terminer and general gaol delivery, held yesterday at the city hall of the city of New-York, in and for the said city and county, William P. Van Ness, Esq; was tried and convicted of being the bearer of a challenge from the vice-president of the United States to the late general Hamilton, and for aiding and assisting in the fatal duel which terminated in the death of the latter. The evidence was so clear and positive, that the jury returned a verdict without retiring from their box.

The trial of Nathaniel Pendleton, Esq; implicated in a similar charge as the second of general Hamilton, will, we understand, take place this day; and that of Richard Riker, Esq; (the district attorney) and Mr. Robert Swartwout, in the course of the session; Mr. Woodworth, the attorney-general, having come on for the especial purpose of conducting these prosecutions on the part of the state.

Levi Lincoln, Esq; attorney-general of the United States, resigned his office on the first of January.

PHILADELPHIA, January 5.

At a stated meeting of the American Philosophical Society, held on the 31st of Dec. the magellanic gold medal was awarded to the author of an essay on a number of the pernicious insects of the United States; and the sealed letter accompanying the essay being opened, Dr. Benjamin Smith Barton, of Philadelphia, was announced as the author of the crowned subject.

ADAM SEYBERT, Secretary.

January 11.

By letters from Fayal, we are informed that Mrs. Tarreau and suite have taken passage on board the Spanish ship Santa Maria, captain Silvie, bound to Charleston. Mrs. Tarreau has been induced to quit the Shepherdess on account of the probable detention of that ship, occasioned by the repairs she wanted before she could proceed on her voyage.

On the 19th ult. in the house of representatives of the state of Ohio, leave was given to bring in a bill for changing the names of the counties of Hamilton, Adams and Ross.

BALTIMORE, January 9.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Cadix, to his friends in Philadelphia, dated the 10th of August, 1804.

General Moreau is now in this city, owing to his lady being seven months pregnant, he most probably will defer his voyage to America until spring. He dresses in a plain private gentleman's habit, and looks rather dejected. Notwithstanding he endeavours to assume an agreeable air, I remark a frequent knitting of his brow, and a stern discontented look will often fill his extreme sharp eye. He is thin and pale; much marked with the small-pox; and about six feet 7 or 8 inches in height. There appears nothing remarkable about him unless it be his uncommon keen, penetrating eye. His lady is quite pretty, but in my humble opinion, she will not support the character given her of being very beautiful: she appears about two or three and twenty; with manners perfectly a-la-mode Francaise. They yesterday appeared with the governor at the bull-fights, and were more the objects of admiration than the slaughtered animals.—The present governor, (El Marquis de Salano) pays very singular attention to gen. Moreau, having served as a volunteer in his army at the time of the general's famous retreat. Gen. Moreau requests every one to converse with him, simply, as Monsieur, and not your Excellency."

Extract of a letter from New-Orleans, dated November 26.

The rumour of a Spanish war has subsided.—But an affair, however, happened the other day, which has given great offence to the Spanish marquis.—A man by the name of M—, was arrested by order of the governor of Pensacola, deprived of his property, and detained for a month on board of a Spanish vessel.—He effected his escape with some difficulty, and returned to Orleans.—Some short time after, finding the commander of the vessel here, he commenced an action against him for his goods.—The man was arrested.—The marquis sent a verbal message to the governor, demanding his discharge, and threatened to leave the country immediately if it was refused.

Our Wm. C. C. (as the Frenchmen in derision call him) acted decisively. He replied that he would not answer a verbal demand; but if the marquis was in haste, his passports were ready for him.—an application was made by his counsel to the court for the same purpose, and met with the same success, the man was not discharged, and the marquis has not left the country. They found some difficulty in arresting the fellow; the sheriff at first was prevented by about twenty Spanish officers with drawn swords, they, however, thought proper to return them quietly to their scabbards, on seeing a file of soldiers fix bayonets, prime and load."

January 10.

Extract of a letter to a gentleman in New-York, dated Cadix, November 13.

The news yesterday from the interior of this country is of a very alarming nature. In many places the people are in a state of insurrection. Want of bread has driven the lower classes to great extremity, and in consequence, to some shocking outrages. In one town the poorer inhabitants have risen in a mob and hanged the governor."

Notice is hereby given,

THAT I intend to apply to the court of Kent county, at their next March term, for a commission, under the act of assembly of November session, 1786, ch. 33, to mark and bound the following parcels of land, viz. Mitchell's Risk and Mitchell's Park; and the resurvey thereon, called by the same name, likewise my part of the said lands; also to mark and bound the Remains of his Lordship's Gracious Grant, and the several tracts of which it consists, viz. the Remains of his Lordship's Grant, and Mitchell's Park, including a tract of land originally taken up by a captain Richard Smith, and a tract called the Beaver Dam, originally taken up by a certain John Parsons; and also, to mark and bound my land called the Remains of my Lord's Gracious Grant, and the resurvey made thereon, and part of Mitchell's Park aforesaid, called by the patent of confirmation thereof by the name of the Remains of his Lordship's Gracious Grant—these lands lie in Kent county, Maryland, and in New-Castle and Kent counties, in the state of Delaware.

From the Charleston Courier.

A DREAM ON A PIECE OF BRIDE CAKE.

HARD is the fate of him who lies love-smitten, Who restless days and nights is ever dreaming, Who in romantic strain half mad is fighting

To an obdurate Fair One: Who in bewilder'd thought is fondly raving On all her magic features and perfections, Yet without hope, but sure of frowns and scorning

Most unrelenting. Lost is the world to him, and all its beauties, Its charms, its pastimes, playthings, and diversions, Nor aught can sooth his moody, sullen madness, Nor wild Vagaries. Thus in romantic strain from morn to evening, From evening to the hour of solemn midnight, I sigh and rave, "inditing woeful sonnet

"To her fair Eyebrow." Even to the sovereign charm of Virgin Bride Cake, With awe I flew and plac'd beneath my pillow, Praying the Gods to change me to a Bridegroom; Or Weeping Willow. Soon as my eyes were seal'd with juice of Poppy,

With gay fantastic flights and airy gambols, I rovd thro' Meads, throng'd with Old Maids and Widows,

And Airy Damfels! When all at once the motley group surround me, Confounding Echo with their noise and clamour—

I strove to fly—but a fly rogue had bound me With her Silk Garter! Pure as the snow, the whiteness of her bosom!

And cold as pure—flush'd with ambrosial roses, Her cheeks might vie with all the vermeil'd beauties

The Spring discloses! In vain I fought to win or move her pity To ease my woes, or let me have my freedom

She, unrelenting to her humble captive, In Durance held 'em. No ease, no hope, no hope for love despairing, Mischievous fancy all the night torments me! While the mad girl, incessant tires my patience

'Bout Rings and Bracelets! But Sol in pity fought to chase my slumbers,

And smiling at my window bade good morrow: Starting, I wak'd, but found my heart encumber'd

With Love and Sorrow! Tho' Sleep had fled, and chaf'd the airy vision, I still retain the bonds; nor can I loose them;

Even my heart elop'd, and fought a prison In her Fair Bosom!

ANECDOTE.

A SAILOR who had been a long while in a French prison, was asked on his return, whether he had not got a spattering of their lingo?—No, replied Jack, they call things by wrong names in that country. They call a horse a shovel, (Cheval) and a hat, a chopper, (Chepeau.)

Lydia Robey, widow, and William Robey, Thomas Robey, Prior Robey, John Robey, and Mary Robey, heirs of William Robey, defendants.

THE object of the bill filed in this cause is to obtain a deed for a tract of land, called Robey's Purchase, or The Water-Melon Patch, lying and being in Charles county, and containing fifteen acres, which the said Henry Roberts purchased of the said William Robey, in his life-time, and for the due and legal conveyance of which the said William Robey passed his bond to the said Henry Roberts. It appearing to the court, by the return of the sheriff of Charles county, that three of the defendants, to wit: William, Thomas and Prior, are not to be found in his bailiwick, and it also appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that the said Thomas and Prior are not inhabitants of the state of Maryland; it is thereupon ordered, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette, and continued therein for six successive weeks before the second Monday in February next, another copy to be left at the usual place or places of abode of the said absent defendants, before leaving this state, and one other copy to be set up at the door of the courthouse of Charles county, give notice of this application, and of the substance and object of the bill, that the absent defendants may be warned to appear in this court in person, or by solicitor, on or before the said second Monday in February next, to show cause, if any they have, wherefore a decree should not be passed as prayed.
A true copy,
Test. JOHN BARNES, Clk.

DISCOVERED, a few days since, a challenge in the Telegraph by SAMUEL NORWOOD, Esq. Buonaparte against Democrat.

At Annapolis this fall I proposed running Democrat against Buonaparte, carrying from 110 lbs. to 140, at the discretion of Mr. Norwood, which was refused. As Mr. Norwood refused the proposition made by me at that time, I am not bound to run the race proposed by him in the Telegraph.—Democrat will run Buonaparte over Annapolis race course on the third Tuesday in May next, four miles and repeat, for one thousand dollars, play or pay, carrying 126 lbs. each, which is the weight they are to carry by the rules of racing, both being seven years old last spring.

Should Mr. Norwood decline this offer, Democrat will cover mares next spring, at the subscriber's farm, from the first day of March until the first day of August, at 16 dollars each, and 50 cents to the groom. Democrat's pedigree is equal to the pedigree of any horse to be produced, having in him the blood of Medley, Eclipse, Figure, Dove, Godolphin Arabian, and Mr. Talker's Selima.

If this proposition is approved by Mr. Norwood, notice will be given in the Maryland Gazette within forty days from the date hereof.
ISAAC DUCKETT.

Thursday last arrived off this port, the brig Three Brothers, captain M'Meal, from Bourdeaux. Left that port the 24th November, but brings nothing new.
Same day arrived ship Nancy, captain Williams, from Mocha. Sailed the 10th September. Touched at the Isle of France, and failed the 4th November. The French Squadron, under Linois, had been cruising in the Eastern Ocean, and arrived in the south east port, while the British Squadron were off the north west port. It was reported that they brought in three prizes with them, and had an engagement with a fifty gun ship on the Coromandel coast, protected by a battery. The British Squadron left the island the day after the French arrived.

EMPEROR OF HAYTI.
The imperial crown, intended to be used at the coronation of the emperor JACQUES the FIRST, is, according to accounts from Philadelphia, now on board a vessel belonging to that place, frozen up in the Delaware. It is the production of a French manufacturer, in Philadelphia, and purchased, as is said, at the moderate price of a cargo of coffee. [N. Y. Morning Chronicle.]
A letter from Washington, says the Chronicle, contains the following information:
"Official intelligence is received here, that the fleet fitting out in Spain, and destined for Florida, has been dismantled: and that the convention has been ratified—by which our merchants will receive indemnity in all those cases, which were not excluded by the former administration."
Captain Farrier, who arrived yesterday from the Cape of Good Hope, informs, that it was expected the British would make an attack on that place, on their way to reinforce their troops in India—but the governor of the Cape was determined to oppose them as long as possible, and had for that purpose 7000 troops continually under arms.—N. York Gaz.
The Lombard Poplar is recommended as a timber adapted for flooring granaries, which is said to prevent the destruction of corn by weevils and insects.
A Paris paper says, "Among the sovereigns to whom report gives the grand cross of the legion of honour, upon the emperor's coronation, are the kings of Spain, of Prussia, of Denmark, and Etruria; the electors of Bavaria, of Baden, and of Hesse; the landamman of Helvetia; the directors of Holland; the vice-president of Italy; and PRESIDENT OF AMERICA. It is said the emperor will accept in return all the first orders and decorations of the above-mentioned kings; but has declined the orders of the electors and inferior sovereigns."

FROM THE NEW-YORK MORNING CHRONICLE.
BALLAD
On the Death of Lieutenants SOMERS, WADSWORTH, and the Gallant SEAMEN, off Tripoli.
MOURN, mourn the glorious brave!
Who gave themselves to death!
Their limbs bestrew the wave,
The sky receives their breath.
'Twas Somers and his crew,
By gallant Preble sent;
Resolved to make those rufes,
Whose souls can ne'er relent.
With shells and powder fill'd,
They steer'd their destin'd way;
The foe, in battle skill'd,
Bore down their course to slay.
Two gallant vessels bold,
Our lugger boarded then;
Twice fifty men they told,
Brave Somers told but ten.
"Disdain the captive chain,"
The gallant Somers cries;
"Now fire the sleeping train;
"And blow them to the skies."
Our men expect the blast,
Wave high their hats in air!
The pirates stand aghast,
With horror and despair!
"Huzza," brave Wadsworth cried;
"Our countrymen will know,
"How merrily we died,
"T'avenge them on the foe."
High in the clouds up cast,
The vessels three were blown;
And dreadful was the blast,
That shook the guilty towns:
Twice fifty pirates bold,
Sent shrieking in the air!
This tale whenever told
Shall make our foes despair.
Mourn, mourn the glorious brave!
Who gave themselves to death;
Their limbs bestrew the wave,
The sky receives their breath.
Notice is hereby given,

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, January 31, 1805.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

NEW-BEDFORD, January 18, 1805.

THE editor is indebted to the attention of Capt. Stevens, arrived here from Cowes, for a file of the London Morning Chronicle, from the 15th to the 24th November, inclusive; although twenty-one days later than before received, they contain but few articles of the first importance.

Sir George Rumbold, the British minister to the Circle of Lower Saxony, who was lately seized by an armed French force at his house near Hamburg, in pursuance of an order from the minister of police at Paris, has been liberated through the interference of Prussia, and has arrived in London. It appears that this interference was very promptly executed; and the Editor of the Morning Chronicle places a considerable stress upon this act, as an evidence that Prussia is roused to a sense of the dangerous tendency of the French emperor's encroachments upon the independence and rights of the neighbouring states. The count of Berlin, it is further said, has communicated to the senate of Hamburg, assurances on the part of his Prussian majesty, of effectual support, and his resolution to maintain the neutrality of the Circle. It is understood, that the papers of Sir George Rumbold, which were found at his country house, were of no importance, his principal papers being at Hamburg.

The Porte, it appears, has refused to acknowledge Buonaparte's imperial dignity. In consequence of which, general Brune, the French ambassador at Constantinople, demanded his passports on the 6th, and left that city on the 12th October, on his return to France. The grand seignior, it is said, declared to the French ambassador, that by virtue of a stipulation subsisting between him and the emperor of Russia, he was bound to consult the emperor Alexander on the subject. It is stated, that he has assured the different ministers, however, that should a war take place between Russia and France, he should endeavor to remain neutral. M. Ruffin remains at Constantinople as French commercial agent.

The relations between the cabinet of St. Cloud and that of Vienna, appear to be intimate and friendly. Denmark and Sweden remain inactive.

A reconciliation has been effected between the English king and the prince of Wales. The latter dined with the king on the 16th November, and was to remain some days in the family. We see no calculation on any political consequence as likely to result from this union.

The subject of the invasion is scarcely noticed in our London papers. At the last dates, admiral Cornwallis had refused his situation off Brest.

A French agent in Holland has notified the merchants therein, that all neutral ships arriving in Holland, which have touched at an English port, after 14 days from the 12th November, would, with their cargo, be condemned.

On the 1st November a terrible fire destroyed the whole south-west part of the city of Gottenburg, (Sweden,) containing, besides public edifices, between two and three hundred houses, dislodging more than seven thousand people.

The last London date in the Courier, is the 24th November, above twenty days later than before received from England.

M. Talleyrand, (September 5th,) issued, by order of the emperor, a very angry circular note, directed to all the French agents, denouncing the conduct of the English government touching the laws of nations, and ordering those agents to declare to the governments with which they reside, "that his majesty will not acknowledge the English corps diplomatique in Europe, so long as the British ministry shall not abstain from charging its ministers with any agency in war." In consequence of this arbitrary act of outlawry, it appears that Fouché, the minister of police, had ordered the seizure of Sir George Rumbold, the English minister to the Circle of Lower Saxony, to be arrested and conveyed to Paris, to the astonishment of Europe. However, it appears by the Monitor, November 11th, that Sir George had been liberated, through the intervention of the king of Prussia, and had arrived at London.

The question of peace or war between England and Spain, was not settled. Though the Spanish minister resided in London, and transacted business at the secretary of state's office the 20th November, and though at the last dates no orders had been issued for the detention of Spanish merchant vessels, yet a war was generally considered as unavoidable. The London papers (Nov. 22,) say, that Mr. Frere, the English minister at Madrid, was to leave that city the 10th. This is corroborated by letters received here from Madrid, dated the 8th, and which announce that he had left that city. If it be a fact that he did quit Madrid the 8th, it is a strong indication of an immediate rupture.

England and Spain.

The last accounts from Spain (to November 17, 1804) are of a pacific aspect; and those from England are not hostile. At the last date from Cadix, no preparations for war with Great-Britain were making; nor any talk of expected war; notwithstanding the capture of the treasure frigates had been fully confirmed. On recurring to the information given by lord Harrowby, to the London merchants, in September last, it will be found, that the unneutral armaments making in Spain, had caused the English ministry to demand satisfactory explanations of their destination; which Spain had neglected or refused to make. About the same time, the Spanish ambassador, in London, was informed, that until a satisfactory explanation had taken place, no ships of war, and particularly those supposed to be freighted with treasure, would be permitted to enter the ports of Spain. It has since been asserted in the American papers, that an armament, destined for the Floridas, to support the Spanish authority therein, had been made; but had since been dismantled. If this was the armament complained of; if it be discontinued; and the Spanish government has thus represented it to the court of London, and promised to observe an honest neutrality; in our opinion, the ostensible cause of the dispute has ceased to exist; and unless some latent cause of hostility remains, a war between the two nations will not now take place. Whether the vessels and property captured will be restored, is a question we cannot solve. Our opinion is, that they will not be during the present war. In one of the last English papers, it is mentioned; that the money would be retained in England, pending another negotiation to be opened on the old subject of the "Manilla ransom." It may be recollected, that in 1762, a detachment of troops, from Madras, composed of soldiers, seapoys, cafers, lascars, topazes, and French and German deserters, and commanded by general (Sir William) Draper, in an expedition against the Spanish Philippine Isles, took the town of Manilla by storm; and the officers found it extremely difficult to prevent the motley troops from making the city feel all the rapaciousness to which a city taken by storm is subjected from the common men. Promises of remuneration for their bravery and sufferings were made this collection; and a capitulation was entered into between the British and Spanish officers for such compensation as might satisfy them, and exempt the town from pillage. By one of the articles, four millions of dollars were to be paid by Spain as a ransom for the city of Manilla, and the effects of the inhabitants; who, in consequence, were protected in their religion, liberties and property. Peace succeeding soon after, the Spanish government refused to ratify the capitulation; and the payment of the ransom has been evaded to this day. It would be in the style of Mr. Pitt's "gestion of affairs," were the money to be detained as a guarantee of the fulfilment of the capitulation on the part of Spain. [Boston paper.]

Arrived at Savanna, the brig Rising States, capt. Dickey, in 45 days from Cadiz, who informs, that the crop of grain had entirely failed throughout the kingdom, and that a sufficiency had not been made for the next season; that flour was 20 dollars per barrel, scarce, and rising. Capt. D. also informs, that it is the fixed determination of Spain, not to declare war against England, if she should lose her whole possessions and fleets.

From the Bombay Courier.

A circumstance somewhat singular is exemplified in the vessel which brought the Turkish ambassador to Bombay. From the Muzaffer having been for many years laid up, a number of swallows, encouraged by the undisturbed state of the vessel, have been accustomed to build their nests annually in various parts of the ship; the Muzaffer, sailing from Bushire, at the nesting season, when the birds had commenced, or have completed their annual labour, the swallows have followed her the whole of the way to Bombay, have since continued, and are now to be seen in numbers about the Muzaffer, but not about any other vessel in the harbour.

We learn, by our last accounts from the Cape of Good Hope, that news had been received that Poole Pinang, in the Straits of Malacca, had surrendered to the Dutch forces under admiral Hartink, and that several British East-Indiamen had been taken there. [N. E. Palladium.]

LATEST FROM MALTA.

A letter from an officer in the American Mediterranean Squadron, to his friend in Boston, dated Malta, October 11, 1804, says, "Nothing decisive against Tripoli, I imagine, will be done this fall; as the weather has become too boisterous for the gun-boats to keep the sea, and they have returned to Messina. Lieutenant Tarbel is now first of the President. Lieut. Hull is well. Commodore Preble, and Mr. Harraden will return home in the John Adams, which will sail soon. The Syren sails for Gibraltar to-morrow."

Accounts from Gibraltar state, that about the 15th November an embargo was laid on all vessels not cleared out. A rupture between the United States and the emperor of Morocco was believed to be near at hand.

A letter, received in Boston from Mr. Gavino the American consul, dated at Gibraltar on the 8th Nov last, states, the disease, which had existed in an alarming degree at that place was greatly abated, and the inhabitants who had fled, were about returning; Mr. Gavino further adds, that he had been severely attacked with the fever, together with his whole family; and that he had to lament the loss of a brother and sister who fell early victims to its ravages, though removed to his cottage at Europa; that he had lost a faithful servant and the person intrusted with the care of his business. On the subject of business Mr. Gavino remarks, that it is to be expected trade will shortly revive, when the article of rice would be worth 7 dollars per English cwt. and flour 11 dolls. per bbl.

From the New-York Evening Post.

MR. COLEMAN,
The following are the items of the public bounty, this week, with the preparations for future supplies of fuel:

On Tuesday 7800 rations were issued at the almshouse, for the relief of 413 families, out door pensioners, comprising 1700 souls. The almshouse in door establishment yesterday was 950 souls, augmenting daily.

The corporation granted for the relief of the St. Domingo refugee families, 650 dollars under the control of the mayor; which is very inadequate to the wants of those unfortunate exiles.

Towards the relief of 15 Spanish seamen, from a Spanish vessel lately wrecked near our harbour, have been appropriated 100 dollars. Some of this crew were severely frost bitten, and are sent to the hospital. It is to be noted that the Spanish consul has no funds for the relief of seamen, though American consuls in foreign ports are obliged to support their countrymen in distress.

FUEL.

Sixty loads of wood were purchased yesterday, and 20 chaldrons of coal.

Ninety loads are engaged this day, and vigorous measures are adopted to procure prompt supplies from the country. The supply of wood at the almshouse is adequate till the month of March.

In short, the common council will remit no exertions to afford every possible relief to the distressed and indigent.

Your obedient servant,

J. PINTARD.

Fire wood (hickory) was selling at the wood yards this morning at seven dollars a load, that is about 21 dollars a cord; some good people from the country very humanely exerted themselves to bring wood to market also, and as usual, asked a higher price than any body else, eight dollars a load. The present southerly wind threatens to interfere materially with their speculations.

The following is said to be a fragment of an ancient Egyptian king, found at Thebes; and notwithstanding it sprung from royalty, it is well worthy to be contemplated by republican rulers.

"I never denied justice to the poor, for his poverty; neither pardoned the wealthy for his riches.

"I never gave reward for affection, nor punishment upon passion.

"I never suffered evil to escape unpunished, neither goodness unrewarded.

"I never denied justice to him that asked it, neither mercy to him that deserved it.

"I never opened my gate to the flatterer nor mine ear to the back biter.

"I always sought to be beloved of the good and feared of the wicked.

"I always favoured the poor, that was able to do little, and God who was able to do much, always favoured me."

TRIBUTE.

Mr. Joseph Israel, midshipman, whose name appears in the account of the late heroic and glorious devotion off Tripoli, was from the adjoining county of Washington, an orphan under the kindly care of his uncle Mr. Elic Williams, and a youth whose ingenuous, manly and enterprising spirit afforded a promise of honourable promotion, but for his early and gallant sacrifice!—Frederick-town Herald.

DOMESTIC MANUFACTURES.

Superfine clothes, of an excellent staple and workmanship, are at present selling at Boston, which were manufactured in Connecticut—the wool is procured from the Spanish Marino sheep, imported into this country by Colonel Humphreys, and is furnished to manufacturers of three different qualities, from full blooded, half blooded, and three quarter blooded sheep, all of which thrive well beyond expectation in Connecticut, and will no doubt be introduced into other States. The cloth, which we have mentioned, is superior to any ever manufactured on the continent. We congratulate the country on this new evidence of our progress towards independence of European nations. [AURORA.]

FROM THE NEW-YORK EVENING POST.

The melancholy instances of individual distress now existing in this city, and not at all difficult to be found, are enough, if they were only known, to soften the most obdurate heart, and extort bounty from the most impenetrable. The ladies composing the Widows' Society have particularly distinguished themselves, by going about through this inclement weather, to seek out the wretched, and to dispose in the best manner of their little funds, to save them from perishing. The blessings of many a widow and many an orphan, have already ascended to heaven in their behalf. When they found the children of misery to increase so fast upon their hands, as to be entirely beyond their means of relief, they next applied themselves to his honour, the mayor, and pointed out to his notice several individual cases among the fugitives from the horrid massacres of St. Domingo. The mayor, without loss of time, made a representation to the common council, and had funds at once lodged in his hands for their relief, amounting to 500 dollars, and with a humanity and courtesy that reflects the greatest honour upon him, this gentleman went in person and visited the abodes of those wretched people. That our readers may see I am engaged in depicting no fictitious scenes of distress, I will here give a faithful relation of one or two cases out of many that fell under his own inspection, and were by him communicated to me not an hour ago.

At 68 Catharine-street, he found madame Verneuil, with her three children. They sat hovering over a single brand. The mother had on an old great coat, which, with a single under garment, constituted her whole covering. The eldest daughter, who appeared to be about 19 years of age, had scarcely enough cloathing to permit her to be seen at all; a ragged long gown and a single under garment, without a stocking on her feet, were her all. A beautiful infant, of about 2 or 3 years old, which lay in a cradle, exhibited by the tattered remains of its dress; some faint traces of better days and the affectionate cares of a fond and faithful mother. How much does it heighten this picture of deep distress, to have to add that the father of this wretched little family was a chevalier of St. Louis and an officer under the ancient regime, and is now in France, unconscious of their situation, having left Saint Domingo sometime before his wife fled with her children to this city. Madame Verneuil once owned three sugar plantations in that island, and always till her banishment lived in the enjoyment of all that could render life desirable. To conclude this sad case, I have to mention, and I do it in hope it may meet the eye of some humane physician, madame Verneuil is now labouring under a pulmonary complaint, attended with the most threatening symptoms.

Another case only will be selected out of the list before me.

About a week since the Widows' Society sent the mayor a list of the unfortunate persons from St. Domingo, and among the rest was a madame Thoin, described as being in Second-street in the Bowery. On inquiry by the mayor and Mr. Pintard, who always accompanies him, no such person was at that time to be found. A second search was made yesterday and the residence at length discovered in Bullock-street, on the north side between 2d and 3d streets. On repairing to the place they found the unfortunate man surrounded by seven children; the youngest only a few days old. Alas! the mother who had but lately lain in of twins, was no more! Soon after she was put to bed her husband having by some means got a few shillings went one morning to market to procure some sustenance; on his return he perceived one of the twins dead in the cradle; it had perished in his absence. The mother, without the comforts almost indispensable to her situation, found the accumulated calamities that surrounded her too much for her; nature gave way to the pressure; she died of a broken heart, and was buried the evening before.

Monsieur Thoin was formerly a man of high rank in France and lived in great affluence. A French neighbour little more able than himself yesterday took him and his seven remaining children into his house, where they now sit shivering over a few embers!

A Norfolk paper of the 17th inst. says, "the British frigate Cambrian sailed on a cruise on Tuesday last; and the La Revolutionnaire, having got the cash on board, will sail the first fair wind. The French frigate is safe in the bite of Crany Island."

FROM THE FEDERAL GAZETTE.

Messrs. EDITORS, Dr. James Meafe, editor of the Domestic Encyclopedia, has mentioned Mr. Andrew Billings, of Poughkeepsie, New-York, as the first discoverer of the origin of the Bots in horses. Whether Mr. Billings is the first discoverer, depends on dates.

Mr. John Craggs, of Anne-Arundel county, as early as the year 1780, found by actual experiment, that those worms are produced from the eggs of a fly resembling the honey bee. This fly, in the fall months, is seen buzzing about horses, and attaching its eggs or nits to the hairs of such parts as it is likely the horse may swallow them from biting himself when those parts itch. These eggs have also been known to find their way into the stomach of the horse, by being mixed up with his food in the spring when horses shed their coats. Mr. Craggs has proved the truth of this hypothesis by keeping the bot worm taken from the stomach of a horse, in a warm temperature, till they passed through the several transmutations, to a perfect fly, such as I have described. These bot worms are hatched in the stomach of the horse from the nits of the fly.—They are covered with hair, and have a trunk or proboscis, resembling the point of a gimblet.—Armed with this screw-like proboscis, and with this panoply of hair, they defy the most powerful medicines. Every avenue of communication with the inside of the stomach is closed, from the manner in which this trunk is screwed into the maw.—Therefore, they are secure from any remedy which is to operate on them inwardly; and their thick coat of hair renders every external application abortive, by conveying off the most penetrating and corrosive medicines. Thus it is, that when a horse is attacked, the bots mock all medicinal skill and experience, and the generous and valuable animal dies in convulsions, without a possibility of cure from human aid.

The remedy Mr. Craggs recommends is to scrape the nits off with a common knife. This prevention has not only proved efficacious, but has established incontrovertibly the origin of the bots. For Mr. Craggs, although he has been in the habit of keeping in his stable a great many horses, both of his own and at livery, in Maryland and Virginia, yet he has never known any to die of this disease, when his prevention had been used. This is the reason race-horses, and other horses which are well curried, and kept in stables all the year, seldom or never die with this disorder. The fly can scarce ever have access to them, and the frequent application of the curry comb rubs off the nits, if any should happen to be deposited by this mischievous insect.

Should Mr. Craggs's discovery be prior to Mr. Billings's, doctor Meafe will not, it is hoped, withhold the tribute of merit, and will, no doubt, in due time, confer the palm on Mr. Craggs. If Mr. Craggs's experiment be posterior to Mr. Billings's his desert is no less on that account, as he made the discovery without any hint from the experiments of others.

"Give unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's."

PIRATES.

The whole coast of Italy is infested by pirates from Barbary. They write from Rome, that three of them landed their crews on the 10th instant, near San Lorenzo, and marching up the country four leagues, burned and pillaged all before them, and carried away an immense booty, and 60 prisoners: Among the rest twenty young nuns, of a Carmelite Convent, and ten Capuchin friars. After stripping the old nuns, and treating them in a most barbarous manner, they left them half dead behind them, in their plundered convent. It is said that the Cardinal Secretary of State, has complained to Cardinal Fesch, against the governor of Marseilles, who had permitted these pirates to take in provisions and ammunition in that port. Another pirate landed in the night and carried away 40 young girls, their governesses and servants, from a boarding school in the vicinity.—The children belonged to the first families in the country, were all under eight years of age, and mostly intended for the religious orders. Their parents and relatives are collecting subscriptions to purchase their release. [London pap.]

Extract of a letter from Cadix to a gentleman in Boston, dated Nov. 14.

"The scarcity of grain continues, and it will probably maintain nearly the present prices through the winter. The following statement will convey an idea of the comparative diminution of the crops in this vicinity.

"The bishop of Seville collected his tithes in the year 1802, on 326,000 fanegas of wheat, which was not more than sufficient for consumption.

"1803, on 181,000—great scarcity.

"1804, on 56,700—famine.

"The people in some parts of the interior are in a state of insurrection. At one village they have hanged their corregidor, having been three days without bread.

"The sickness is nearly at an end in Malaga and Gibraltar, and has decreased here, the deaths are now from 16 to 24 daily, of all diseases, including those who die in hospitals."

A curious Egyptian ram, an animal equally remarkable for the beauty of its form and the fineness of its fleece, was yesterday purchased by Mr. Brookes, of the Menagerie, Piccadilly, from Mr. Stocking, of Walham Green, for one hundred guineas. A few hours after, Mr. Brookes was offered fifty guineas for his bargain, which he declined.—Lon. pap.

The ship Eliza, captain Howey, in 80 days from Amsterdam, is aground on the western side of Poplar Island.—This is the vessel supposed in the Baltimore papers to be the Canton, captain Sterret.—The letter bag was landed here yesterday.

Count Sergide Romanzow, of Petersburg, has lately inoculated all his flock for the scab; and out of 2300 sheep which were subjected to the process, not one died of the disease.

Captain Matchett, arrived at Boston from Sumatra, informs, that the British have sent a third expedition against Mucca, and entirely destroyed the settlement, with all the pepper it contained.

Thomas Corcoran, Esq; was elected mayor of Georgetown on the 7th inst. for the ensuing year, in the room of Daniel Reintzel, Esq; who declined standing as a candidate.—Wash. Fed.

On Thursday evening, the 10th inst. the brig Two Brothers, captain Anderson, from Verrol, (Holland,) out 102 days, and bound to Baltimore, anchored in Hampton Roads, being short of provisions.—About seven o'clock the same evening, the captain, Mr. Locker, pilot, (belonging to St. Mary's) and two of the hands, got into the boat to come to town, but were unfortunately drowned. The first tidings of this melancholy catastrophe was on Saturday, when the boat, their hats, and some of the brig's papers were found. Captain Anderson has left an amiable consort, and a number of relatives to bewail his untimely loss. Norfolk Herald.

DISCOVERED, a few days since, a challenge in the Telegraph by SAMUEL NORWOOD, Esq; Buonaparte against Democrat.
At Annapolis this fall I proposed running Democrat against Buonaparte, carrying from 110 lbs. to 140, at the discretion of Mr. Norwood, which was re-fused. As Mr. Norwood refused the proposition made by me at that time, I am not bound to run the race proposed by him in the Telegraph.—Democrat will run Buonaparte over Annapolis race course on the third Tuesday in May next, four miles and re-peat, for one thousand dollars, play or pay, carrying 126 lbs. each, which is the weight they are to carry by the rules of racing, both being seven years old last spring.
Should Mr. Norwood decline this offer, Democrat will cover mares next spring, at the subscriber's farm, from the first day of March until the first day of Au-gust, at 16 dollars each, and 50 cents to the groom. Democrat's pedigree is equal to the pedigree of any horse to be produced, having in him the blood of Medley, Eclipse, Figure, Dove, Godolphin Arabian, and Mr. Tasker's Selima.
If this proposition is approved of by Mr. Norwood, notice will be given in the Maryland Gazette within forty days from the date hereof.

LANDS FOR SALE.

I WILL sell eighteen hundred and fifty acres of LAND, lying on the waters of Bennet's Creek, twelve miles from Frederick-town, twenty-eight from George-town, and thirty-six from Baltimore; there are three tenements on the land, one of which is a good log dwelling-house, with two rooms, with a good brick chimney between them, and convenient out houses; the situation of this place is high and healthy, with an extensive and variegated prospect, a good orchard on it, and the water of a pure and ex-cellent quality; the other two tenements have con-venient houses for tenants, and their situations equal-ly healthy with the former. The whole of the land well adapted to the plaster of Paris. It is unneces-sary to be more particular in a description of this land, as it is presumed no one will purchase without examining it. I will sell the whole together, or have it laid off in lots. The land may be seen, and the terms of sale known, by application to Mr. WILLIAM HORRS, of Samuel, residing near it, Mr. HENRY R. WARFIELD, of Frederick-town, or the subscriber.
CHARLES ALEXANDER WARFIELD.

NOTICE.

I HEREBY forewarn all persons from either pull-ing down my fences, riding through my enclo-sures, or hunting with dog or gun, on my lands called WHITE HALL and LINTHROUM'S WALKS, in Anne-Arundel county, as I am resolved to put the law in force against all such offenders.

SELECTED.
STANZAS,
BY THOMAS MOORE, ESQ.
OH, woman, if by simple wile,
Thy soul has stray'd from honour's track,
'Tis mercy only can beguile
By gentle ways the wand'rer back.
The stain that on thy virtue lies,
Wash'd by thy tears may yet decay,
As clouds that fully morning skies,
May all be swept in showers away.
Go, go—be innocent and live,
The tongues of men may wound thee sore;
But Heaven in pity can forgive,
And bids thee go, and sin no more.

THE COCKNEY.—A TALE.

Maggots indeed may come to Flies,
But never can to Oxen rise.
A COCKNEY once, who wish'd to know,
Ask'd—From what source do oxen grow?
Was told that beef, set in the ground,
Would with young oxen soon abound.
The cit believ'd—took it for granted,
Nor slept until some beef he'd planted;
When this he'd done, with joyful heart
Unto his wife did thus impart:
'My dear—we now need toil no more
For beef, as I shall soon have store;
I've just been planting in the ground,
The finest beef that can be found.
We shall no doubt have great increase,
For I have tramp'd the markets through.
To get a piece I thought would do,
Next week the Cockney went to view,
His fine old beef chang'd into new;
When none appear'd above the ground—
But turning up the mould he found
Hundreds of oxen as he thought,
Planting this beef to life had brought.
Ah! lucky hit for me he cries,
And to his spouse with speed he hies—
My dear! says he, with anxious look—
The wife with joy the news partook,
Expecting something great to hear,
Which he seem'd eager to declare;
But when the story he related
Of rolling oxen quite inflated,
The wife being York, soon under flood
That maggots only form'd the brood.
Then with flat silt came smacking round
She laid her husband on the ground;
Saying—'Of all the fools I ever knew,
Cockneys, I'm sure, the world outdo.'

PARODY

On Romeo's description of an Apothecary.
I do remember an old BACHELOR,
And hereabouts he dwells—whom late I noted
In suit of fables, with a care-worn brow,
Conning his books; and meagre with his looks—
Celebacy had worn him to the bones;
And in his silent parlour hung a coat,
The which the moths had used not less than he—
Four chairs, a table, and an old hair trunk
Made up his furniture—and on his shelves
A greafe-clad candlestick, a broken mug,
Two tumblers, and a box of old segars;
Remnants of volumes, (once in some repute)
Were thinly scattered round, to tell the eye
Of prying stranger—THIS MAN HAD NO WIFE!
His tattered elbows gap'd most piteously;
And ever as he turn'd him round, his skin
Did thro' his stockings peep upon the day—
Nothing his gloom, unto myself I said,
And if a man did covet single life,
Reckless of joys that Matrimony gives,
Here lives a gibomy wretch, would shew it him
In such dismal colours, that the shrew,
Or slut, or ideot, or the gossip spouse,
Were each a heaven, compar'd with such a life—
But this same tho't does not forerun my need,
Nor shall this Bachelor tempt me to wed.—
—As I remember, this should be the house;
Being Sabbath noon, the outer door is shut.

To the VOTERS of Anne-Arundel county and the City of Annapolis.

Gentlemen,
FOR the honour you once conferred on me, in making me your choice as Sheriff of Anne-Arundel county, and particularly for the seal you manifested on that occasion, I offer you my warm and sincere thanks; having reason to hope that my official con-duct, during three years, met your approbation, and that you have had no cause to regret your choice. I flatter myself that your confidence in me has not diminished. Prefuming therefore on your future sup-port, and being solicited by numerous friends, I take the liberty of declaring my intention to offer as a candidate at the next election for Sheriff; should I be so happy as to obtain your suffrages, every effort of mine shall be used to discharge, with prop-riety, the various and important duties of that of-fice. I remain, gentlemen, with every sentiment of respect, your humble servant,
JOHN WELCH.
