Anne-Arundel County Court, September Term, 1810.

ON application to Anne-Arundel county court, by petition in writing, of Charles H. Willigman, of Anne-Arundel county, praying for the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said acts, a schedule of his property, and list of his creditors, on oath, as he can ascertain them being annexed to his petition; and the said Charles H. Willigman having satisfied the said court, by competent testimony, that he has resided in the State of Maryland two years immediately preceding the time of his application, it is therefore ordered and adjudged, that the said Charles H. Willigman, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette for three months successively before the third Monday in April next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the county court on the third Monday in April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for the said Charles H. Willigman, and there taking the oath, by the said act prescribed, for delivering up his property, and to show cause if any they have, why he, the said Charles H. Willigman, should not have the benefit of the several acts of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors.

Private Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the honourable the chancery court of the State of Maryland, the subscriber having been appointed trustee for the sale of part of the real estate of ARCHIBALD GRISHOLM, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, for the purpose of paying the just debts of said deceased, offers at Private Sale the following property, belonging to said estate, viz.

A TRACT of land in Allegany county, called SHAWNEE WAR, containing 24 acres. It lies about 25 miles to the westward of Cumberland, and is of the best quality, having been located at an early period, when persons taking up lands in that neighbourhood had their choice. Also lots No. 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, in the same neighbourhood, of 50 acres each, called Soldiers Lots.

The subscriber is also authorized to sell 2000 acres of good patented land in Green River county, State of Virginia. Persons inclined to purchase any of the above mentioned property, may know the terms, (which will be low and accommodating,) by applying to George MacLubin, Esq. attorney at law, in the city of Annapolis, Mr. A. Coyle, at the general post-office, City of Washington, or the subscriber on Rhode river, about eight miles from Annapolis.

On the confirmation of the sale by the Chancellor, and on the payment of the purchase money, the land will be duly conveyed to the purchaser or purchasers in fee, by WILSON WATERS, Trustee.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber's farm, on Severn river, in Anne-Arundel county, on Saturday, the 29th Sept. EZEKIEL, a stout man, upwards of six feet high, (he is a fair mulatto under his cloaths,) his face somewhat sun burnt and pitted with the small pox, high and large cheek bones, hair curly and black, and I believe tolerably short. This fellow cannot go unobserved as he is a sensible smart fellow, being compliant when sober, he is rather fond of liquor, which was the cause of his absconding from his imprisonment when so. Had on when he went away an osnabrig shirt and trousers, a pair of shoes nearly new & nailed, a coarse straw hat, short drab coat, and probably a short over jacket of the same colour, a large leather apron, tho' it is likely he will change them. Ezekiel is an ingenious fellow, a very good rough carpenter & cooper, & can do a little of Smith's work; he is lively, brisk & active considering his age which is about 50, he is a little ruptured, but cannot be discovered when he has his cloaths on. Fifteen Dollars will be paid for apprehending and securing him, if found within fifteen miles of my house, if thirty miles, thirty dollars, and if out of the State the above reward, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home.

BASIL BROWN,
N. B. Masters of vessels, and others, are hereby forbid from harboring or carrying him away at their peril.

Public Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the high court of chancery of the State of Maryland, the subscriber will Expose to Public Sale, on the premises, on THURSDAY, the 22d day of November next, if fair, if not, on the first fair day thereafter, part of the real estate of James Brice, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased, consisting of the following tracts or parcels of land.

JONES'S RESURVEY, Crouche's Triangle, Crouche's Calf Pasture, Sarehind, Sarehind, and Brice's Addition to North Crouche'sfield, containing about five hundred acres, lying on the North side of Severn River, about six miles from Annapolis. This land is extremely well wooded, and produces good Indian corn, wheat, &c. The subscriber thinks a further description of the above property unnecessary, as those who are disposed to purchase, will, it is presumed, view the premises.

The terms of sale are, the purchaser or purchasers shall give bond, or negotiable notes, with security to be approved by the trustee, for the payment of the purchase money, with interest, within twelve months from the time of sale; and on receipt of the whole of the purchase money, and after ratification of the sale by the Chancellor, the trustee will by a good and sufficient deed or deeds, convey to the purchaser or purchasers, his and their heirs and assigns, in fee-simple, the said lands and premises, discharged of and from all right, title and claim, of the heirs at law of the said James Brice.

JAMES F. BRICE, Trustee.

At the same time and place will be offered at Public Sale, part of the personal property of the said deceased, consisting of stock of various kinds, and some corn and fodder. The terms of sale are, for all sums under 20 dollars the cash to be paid, and for all sums above 20 dollars a credit of six months will be given; the purchaser giving bond with approved security for the payment of the purchase money, with legal interest from the day of sale. FOREIGN.

PHILADELPHIA, OCT. 29. LATE FROM ENGLAND. YESTERDAY arrived a passenger from the ship Caledonia, capt. Taylor, now in our river from London, which she left on the 13th of September.

By this vessel we have received our files of papers to the 11th, but find little of consequence. Nothing is said respecting American affairs or the Orders of Council.

The verbal information is, that Mr. Hare Powell with despatches from Mr. Pinkney for Gen. Armstrong, was fired upon at Calais and ordered round to Boulogne; when he arrived at Boulogne he was again fired upon, and obliged to return to England without having been permitted to land in France.

A communication from Gottenburgh, dated the 27th ult. contains these words: It is generally stated here that an embargo has been imposed on all shipping in the Russian ports.

Letters from Konigsburgh, the new residence of the Prussian Court, state that the inhabitants were in daily expectation of the arrival of a French garrison, to take possession of the shipping there.

Lord Wellington has transmitted to Ministers an intercepted letter from Napoleon to Massena. This letter, of which the original has been sent, is evidently an answer to one from Massena, in which he had been soliciting a reinforcement of at least 40,000 troops.

As to the reinforcement which you demand, it is impossible at the present moment to send you so many troops. As soon as it is practicable, you shall have every possible assistance.

In consequence of this letter, of the genuineness of which Lord Wellington was perfectly convinced, a reinforcement of 4,000 men had been ordered to be detached from Cadix to co-operate with his lordship, and these troops were daily expected at the date of his last despatches.

The following is given as the present state of the Negotiation for Exchange of prisoners; and we believe, that it is correct:— "The Negotiation is not broken off, but there are only slight hopes of its being successfully terminated.

The following is the extract of a letter from Paris, dated 31st August:—"FOUCHE, once the terror of France" is now a close prisoner at Marseilles.

It is said that the Ex-Empress is implicated in Fouche's fall, as that Lady had been on a visit to the disgraced Minister at Aix.

Our Readers will find by the Dover letter, that the American Secretary of Legation, Mr. Powell, is gone suddenly to Calais in a Flag of Truce.

Information has been received, that the Russian Minister, Kampanhausen, has ordered seals to be put on all laden neutral vessels throughout the Russian ports and the Baltic, until the origin and legality of the cargo be satisfactorily ascertained.

It is said that Ministers have determined to establish a qualified blockade of the Baltic, in consequence of the new situation of affairs in that quarter.

Belt—About 600 ships are already there, and the Russians have constructed in their own ports, including those of the North Sea, upwards of 300 ships, so that if the egrets be permitted, there will be sufficient tonnage for the produce of the Baltic this year.

THE FLEET. Every ship of war fit for service, and other armed vessels have been ordered to be got ready to put to sea, as soon as possible.

The Hornet American sloop of War, arrived on Wednesday, from La Hongre, where she landed despatches for Gen. Armstrong the American Minister at Paris.

[By one of the gentlemen (Mr. Pyc) who passed through Baltimore with the despatches by the Caledonia, the Morning Editors received a London paper of Sept. 12—from which the following extracts are given.]

Accounts of the war between the Russians and Turks are somewhat contradictory; but events have been evidently favourable to the former, who had laid siege to Varna, a Turkish town, in Bulgaria, on a river of the same name, which discharges into the gulf of Varna, on the Black Sea—distant only 145 miles from Constantinople.

In these alarming disasters we are told, that "the Grand Signior displays uncommon energy. In a new proclamation he has declared, that every Mussulman capable of bearing arms, who will not range himself under the standard of Mahomet to fight for his country and religion, shall be considered and dealt with as unbelievers."

AMERICAN CONCERNS. We understand that M. Pinkney is about to send despatches to America, which are to be conveyed by lieut. Spence, who brought those relative to the Moselle and Vixen. He is to quit England in the Hornet on the 19th inst. and from hence is to proceed to Paris, to have an interview with gen. Armstrong; but he has peremptory orders not to remain in the French capital on any account more than 3 days.

On Sunday last the deputies from the Caraccas had an interview with the Marquis Wellesley at Apsley house, preparatory to their departure for South America.

Mr. Powell the American secretary of legation, has been obliged to return to Dover. The following is the communication of our correspondent on the subject:—

"Dover Sept. 10. "Mr. Powell the American secretary of legation, whom I stated in my last to have failed in a flag of truce yesterday morning for Calais, returned this afternoon to Dover, the French having refused him permission to land.

When the vessel arrived off Calais, a shot was fired to prevent her entering the harbour; not intimidated by this, she continued loitering in the Roads, and at length Monsieur le Commissaire, accompanied by 2 other persons, came off and informed Mr. Powell the vessel would not be permitted to enter Calais, nor could he suffer any person or despatches to be landed from her, and advised him immediately to depart, or means would be taken to sink the vessel.

RUSSIA. We have heard that the Russian government, since the condemnation of the ships at Riga and St. Peterburg, has listened to the petitions of the merchants, and had actually liberated one of those ships which had taken clearances from Teneriffe.

the Russian finances cannot long maintain a distant and expensive war; and that the election of Bernadotte to the throne of Sweden, with the demonstrations of the French and Saxon troops on the side of Poland, will soon compel Alexander to recall his troops for the defence of his capital.

Yesterday the master and wardens of the Bakers Company waited on the lord mayor at the mansion house, to set the affize of bread, which his lordship, after inspecting the meal weighers returns, ordered the price of the peck loaf to be reduced two whole affizes & a half, or 5d. to take place to-morrow, when the quarter loaf wheat will be sold for 1s 3d 3-4; and house-hold 1s 2d 1-4.

FRANCE. The numerous letters from French merchants, express the opinion we have long ago maintained, that new measures of vigour against the trade of this country were in the contemplation of the French cabinet. They recommend to their correspondents to beware of sending American vessels into French ports, in the present situation of affairs, and until Buonaparte's intentions in framing his new commercial decree should be better understood.

The sheep were confined in a hole dug their way through under the building and killed four Ewes, leaving one Ram and one Ewe. Had the building been closed this calamity would not have occurred.

LATEST FROM EUROPE. BY the arrivals this forenoon from France we have received the following verbal intelligence. Gen. Armstrong arrived at Bordeaux from Paris on the 13th Sept. to embark for America.

Col. Burr was in Paris at the latest date from that place. Extract of a letter from Bordeaux dated the 19th of Sept. "All American vessels will be freely admitted into France, with the produce of U. States, provided such vessel shall not be complied with the British orders.

By the Spencer, from Bayonne.—The contents of this Gazette learn, from Mr. Justice that Gen. Britain and France and their dependencies, and for other purposes," it is provided "that in case either G. Britain or France shall before the 3d of March next, so revoke or modify her edicts as that they shall cease to violate the neutral commerce of the United States, which fact the president of the United States shall declare by proclamation, and if the other nation shall not within three months thereafter so revoke or modify her edicts in like manner then, the 3d, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, & 18th sections of the act entitled, "An act to interdict the commercial intercourse between the U. States and G. Britain and France and their dependencies and for other purposes," shall, from and after the expiration of three months from the date of the proclamation aforesaid, be revived and have full force and effect, so far as relates to the dominions, colonies and dependencies, and to the articles the growth, produce or manufacture of the dominions, colonies and dependencies of the nation thus refusing or neglecting to revoke or modify her edicts in the manner aforesaid. THE inventor of this highly esteemed medicine is a native of America, and the composition is the production of American soil, consequently it is in every sense of the word domestic.

CERTIFICATES OF ITS EFFICACY.

Saratoga Street, Baltimore, Aug 21, 1809.

No. 6. Philad July 8, 1807.

By your request I do certify, that I had been a long time dangerously indisposed, and was reduced to the lowest state of weakness, in so much that my recovery appeared doubtful; my complaints seemed to be afflictions of the breast and lungs—I could procure no relief from incessant coughing, nor breathe without great pain and difficulty—when, by the use of one phial of Paul's Columbian Oil, my distressing cough left me, every other symptom was removed, and I was restored to an excellent state of health, which I now enjoy.

KITTY M'CLAIN. Corner of Spruce and Fifth-streets.

No. 7.

Sir, For the good of the public I recommend your Columbian Oil for the pain in the breast; by taking it four or five times agreeably to your directions, I experienced relief.

WILLIAM PHILLIPS, At the Columbian Inn, Market-Street.

No. 9.

I do hereby certify, that I was violently attacked with the pleurisy on Sunday, the 8th inst. No. 10.

We do certify that on Thursday the 17th inst we were tarring a new seine for Mr. John Clark, and by accident the seine took fire, which, by endeavouring to put out the flames, John Clark and Thomas Adams got severely burnt in the face; we immediately got some Columbian Oil from Mr. Paul, and applied it to the parts burnt, which gave ease in the course of twenty minutes, and has left the parts free from blisters.

No. 11.

For the good of others, I do certify, that I have been afflicted for three weeks, with a severe pain and swelling all through my body and limbs. I procured one phial of Paul's Columbian Oil, and applied it agreeably to the directions, which gave immediate relief.

MARY GOODING. Bond-Street, No. 10, Fell's-Point, Baltimore.

No. 12.

Sir, At your request that I should give my opinion respecting what effect your Columbian Oil had in a certain case wherein I was afflicted, I most cheerfully comply by saying that I verily believe I might have died with one of the severest cramps in the stomach, had it not been for your Columbian Oil; and that I have been a second time relieved of the same complaint by the assistance of that valuable medicine, and as such I recommend it as the best remedy, because there is no manner of doubt of its proving effectual.

E CATHARINE WALKER. Sign of the Buck, Market-Place, Baltimore.

No. 13.

Sir, Having experienced so much benefit from your Columbian Oil, it would be an act of injustice to you, and a want of feeling for those who may suffer under similar complaints, were I not to use my utmost endeavours to give this public testimony of the wonderful virtues it possesses.

Sign of the Buck, Market-Place, Baltimore.

No. 14.

Sir, Conceiving it to be my duty not to conceal from the public the virtues of your most valuable Columbian Oil, from which I received so much benefit, I am therefore induced, from a principle of gratitude for my recovery, to give a short statement of the complaint under which I suffered. I was first seized in the right hip with a most intolerable pain, which seemed exactly in the joint, and on the day following a dreadful pain in my back, which lasted about three weeks; during which time I could not walk upright, but always in a bent posture, and if seated in the a chair, pain would be so excruciating in the act of sitting, that it was impossible for me to restrain from screaming.

My appetite had entirely left me, and a constant headache would sometimes almost deprive me of my senses; in fact I was in a very deplorable condition. A great number of remedies were tried, but to no purpose; I had also the advice of an eminent physician, who prescribed the hot bath, &c. which were regularly attended to, but without the smallest advantage.

I had about nine ounces of blood taken from me, but the complaint did not give way in the least degree. I was then advised to try Paul's Columbian Oil, but with very little hopes of succeeding; when to my great surprise and comfort, I was sensible of some ease in my hip on the first time of anointing; the next day the pain in my back was abated, the headache left me, and in four days I was perfectly covered.

Mr. Croft delivers the following report: The committee to whom was referred the leave to bring in a bill, entitled, An act to provide for the election of the levy court in the several counties of this state by the people, beg leave to report, that they have examined into the same, and are of opinion that a change in the present mode of appointing the levy court, can not be effected without an alteration of the constitution. The committee are decidedly favourable to the principle of placing this election in the hands of the people, but they cannot consent to do it in any other way than by a regular and constitutional procedure.

The 48th act of the constitution, to which the committee beg leave to call the attention of the house, appears to be clear and explicit in regard to this subject. After specifically enumerating certain officers to be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the council (among whom "are all judges, justices, &c.") it emphatically adds, that all other civil officers of government, (assessors, constables and overseers of the roads, only excepted) are to be appointed by the same authority.

In this broad and comprehensive language of the constitution, your committee are of opinion that a full and competent power is invested in the executive department to appoint the judges of the levy court, for supplying for a moment, (what your committee have no idea of conceding,) that the levy court is not a judicial branch of the government, yet, it surely cannot be contended, that the judges of the levy court are not as much civil officers of government as assessors, constables and overseers of the roads, who, as such, are expressly recognized by the constitution. But your committee are clearly of opinion that the levy court possesses peculiarly a judicial character; their province is to judge of the amount necessary to defray the current expenses of the several counties, which amount, when so ascertained, they are enjoined by an act of assembly to levy by taxation, and when collected by the sheriffs or collectors, it is to be disposed of as directed by a legislative act; so that the levy court may be said to possess entirely judicial powers, and of course that they come within the meaning of the words "all judges and justices, &c." contained in the 48th act of the constitution before alluded to. Your committee are therefore constrained to report unfavourably, because they conceive that the powers of a single legislature do not embrace the object contemplated by the leave.

Which was read:

Mr. Streett delivers a petition from Aquila Jones, of Harford county, praying that money paid by him for improvements on land may be refunded; which was read and referred.

On motion of Mr. Herbert, the following order was read:

Ordered, That the honourable executive council be requested to lay before this house a journal of their proceedings for the last year.

Mr. Perry Spencer, a delegate for Talbot county, appeared, qualified, and took his seat.

The speaker laid before the house a letter from the clerk of the court of appeals, relative to the attendance of the judges; which was read and referred.

The further supplement to the act for the speedy recovery of small debts out of court, and to repeal the acts of assembly therein mentioned, was read the second time, and the question put, Shall the said bill pass? Determined in the negative, yeas 3, nays 60.

Mr. T. N. Williams, delivers a bill, entitled, An act for the support of William Clarke and his helpless family, of Worcester county; which was read.

The bill to give validity to a deed from Robert Gills Hampton to William Gilbert, was read the second time and passed.

The report on the petition of William Dawson, was read the second time, and the resolution therein assented to.

Mr. Archer delivers a bill, entitled, An act concerning liens; which was read.

The bill to lay out and make public a road in Anne Arundel county, and the bill authorizing Rezin Gale, of Kent county, late sheriff and collector, to complete his collection, were read the second time and passed.

On motion of Mr. Bland, Ordered, That the bill concerning partitions, joint rights & obligations, have a second reading on the 22d inst. and that the bill to subject lands to the payment of debts, have a second reading on the 23d instant.

The bill authorizing Isaac S. White, late sheriff and collector of Washington county, to complete his collection, was read the second time and passed.

The house adjourns till to-morrow morning.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1810.

THE house met. Present as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

THE house met. Present as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

According to order, the house proceeded to the second reading of the bill respecting the registering of marriages, births & deaths, and after amending, and reading the bill throughout, the question was put, Shall the said bill pass? Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Boyle delivers a petition from Elizabeth Gwinn and Thomas Harris, junior, of the city of Annapolis, praying a law may pass authorizing a sale of the real estate of John Gwinn, deceased; which was read and referred.

Mr. Crofs delivers the following report: The committee to whom was referred the leave to bring in a bill, entitled, An act to provide for the election of the levy court in the several counties of this state by the people, beg leave to report, that they have examined into the same, and are of opinion that a change in the present mode of appointing the levy court, can not be effected without an alteration of the constitution. The committee are decidedly favourable to the principle of placing this election in the hands of the people, but they cannot consent to do it in any other way than by a regular and constitutional procedure.

The 48th act of the constitution, to which the committee beg leave to call the attention of the house, appears to be clear and explicit in regard to this subject. After specifically enumerating certain officers to be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the council, (among whom "are all judges, justices, &c.") it emphatically adds, that all other civil officers of government, (assessors, constables and overseers of the roads, only excepted) are to be appointed by the same authority.

In this broad and expressive language of the constitution, your committee are of opinion that a full and competent power is invested in the executive department to appoint the judges of the levy court, for supplying for a moment, (what your committee have no idea of conceding,) that the levy court is not a judicial branch of the government, yet, it surely cannot be contended, that the judges of the levy court are not as much civil officers of government as assessors, constables and overseers of the roads, who, as such, are expressly recognized by the constitution. But your committee are clearly of opinion that the levy court possesses peculiarly a judicial character; their province is to judge of the amount necessary to defray the current expenses of the several counties, which amounts, when ascertained, they are enjoined by an act of assembly to levy by taxation, and when collected by the sheriffs or collectors, it is to be disposed of as directed by a legislative act; so that the levy court may be said to possess entirely judicial powers, and of course that they come within the meaning of the words "all judges and justices, &c." contained in the 48th act of the constitution before alluded to. Your committee are therefore constrained to report unfavourably, because they conceive that the powers of a single legislature do not embrace the object contemplated by the leave.

Which was read: Mr. Streett delivers a petition from Aquila Jones, of Harford county, praying that money paid by him for improvements on land may be refunded; which was read and referred.

On motion of Mr. Herbert, the following order was read: Ordered, That the honourable executive council be requested to lay before this house a journal of their proceedings for the last year.

Mr. Perry Spencer, a delegate for Talbot county, appeared, qualified, and took his seat. The speaker laid before the court of appeals, relative to the attendance of the judges; which was read and referred.

The further supplement to the act for the speedy recovery of small debts out of court, and to repeal the acts of assembly therein mentioned, was read the second time, and the question put, Shall the said bill pass? Determined in the negative, yeas 3, nays 60.

Mr. T. N. Williams, delivers a bill, entitled, An act for the support of William Clarke and his helpless family, of Worcester county; which was read.

The bill to give validity to a deed from Robert Gilla Hampton to William Gilbert, was read the second time and passed.

The report on the petition of William Dawson, was read the second time, and the resolution therein assented to.

Mr. Archer delivers a bill, entitled, An act concerning liens; which was read.

The bill to lay out and make public a road in Anne Arundel county, and the bill authorizing Rezin Gale, of Kent county, late sheriff and collector, to complete his collection, were read the second time and passed.

On motion of Mr. Bland, Ordered, That the bill concerning partitions, joint rights & obligations, have a second reading on the 22d inst. and that the bill to subject lands to the payment of debts, have a second reading on the 23d instant.

The bill authorizing Isaac S. White, late sheriff and collector of Washington county, to complete his collection, was read the second time and passed.

The house adjourns till to-morrow morning.

Foreign Intelligence

London Gazette Extraordinary, Oct. 14, 1810. Received this day at the office, addressed to his Lordship, General Lord Viscount B. dated Coimbra, Sept. 1. While the enemy was advancing and Franco was upon the divisions of militia and employed upon their flanks. Trant, with his division, escorted the military chest, near Fejal, on the bank two officers and 100 men collected a force from the Douro. I understand communication with Almeida cut off; and he possessed in which his army stands. Of the 20th infantry, will be of the measures I had taken were in progress to cut this neighbourhood, and prevent the enemy from entering this town. On the advanced guard pushed on to the junction of the river and Brigadier General Pack former, and joined Brigadier Ford at Martago, having bridges over the two rivers advanced guard crossed the river the bridge, on the 23d, at the 6th corps was collected of the river; and I there cavalry through Sierra de exception of three squadrons was unfavourable for the army.

and the 45th regiment, under the command of the Hon. Lieut. Colonel Meade, and by the 9th Portuguese regiment, under the command of lieut. Douglas, directed by Major General Picton. These three corps advanced with the bayonet, and drove the enemy's division from the advantageous ground which they had obtained. The other division of the 2d corps attacked further on the right, by the road leading to St. Antonio de Cantaro, in front to Major Picton's division. His division was repulsed before it could reach the top of the ridge, by the 74th regiment under the command of the Hon. Lieut. Colonel French, and the brigade of the Portuguese infantry, under the command of Col. Champelmond, directed by Col. Macdonough, major-general Leith also moved to the support of major-general Picton, and aided in the defeat of the enemy on this point, by the 3d bat. royals, the 1st and 2d bat. 28th regiment.

expected. His advanced guard was at Ave-lons, in the road from Oporto to Coimbra yesterday; and the whole army was seen in march through the mountains; that under my command, however, was already in the low country, between the Sierra de Bufaco & the sea; and the whole of it with the exception of the advanced guard, is this day on the left of the Mondago.

DOMESTIC. NEW-YORK, NOV. 10. CORONER'S REPORTS. Yesterday the coroner held inquests on the following cases: Susan Baldwin, a girl about 18 years old, suicide by laudanum, the evening before in second-street. Eleanor Jackson, killed by a blow with a hammer, above the left ear, by Jacob Badgeley. Jacob Badgeley, suicide, by cutting his throat with a razor. The two last cases were partly and incorrectly reported yesterday. It appears that Badgeley, who was a mafon, was under the influence of intoxication and insanity, and performed the dreadful tragedy in the house of Mrs. Laforge, in Hester-street. He struck Mrs. Jackson the blow with a stone hammer, then made a stroke at Catharine Mitchell, and Mrs. Badgeley falling dead between the witness and Badgeley, he missed his aim and then turned upon Elizabeth Jackson, mother-in-law to Eleanor, & bro't her to the floor with a single blow on the head. It seems that he then took a razor, cut his own throat with it, and laid it on the mantle piece. Physicians were immediately called, and attempted to save the two last, but on examining the cut of Badgeley, the blood flatted afresh and he soon expired. Elizabeth Jackson is still living, several pieces of the skull having been extracted, and scarcely a hope of her recovery remains. The floor of the little room in which this dreadful work was executed ran with blood, and the coroner's inquest could not enter it without drenching their shoes in it. The spectacle was shocking almost beyond description. The death of James Boggs, was on the 10th, and not 18th instant, as misprinted on Thursday. Last evening a man by the name of —, surrendered himself at one of the watch-houses, and insisted upon being committed, for poisoning his own mother and brother, with arsenic, 6 years ago. He confessed and detailed the facts circumstantially, and persisting in his story this morning, was committed to prison by the police justice.

For Sale. By virtue of a decree of the high court of chancery of Maryland, the subscriber will sell at private sale, the following land, viz, PARTS of two tracts of land, the one called Burgess's Right, and the other called Puddington's Harbour, otherwise called Puddington's Gift, lying in Anne-Arundel county, on the south side of South River, and containing 229 1/2 acres, which said parcels of land were purchased by Charles Stewart, deceased, of Charles Wallace, Esq. A description of the land is thought unnecessary, as persons wishing to purchase will no doubt view the premises, which will be shown on application to Mr. Samuel Harrison, living in London-town, on South river, or to the subscriber in Annapolis. The terms of sale will be one half of the purchase money to be paid at the expiration of nine months from the day of sale, and the residue at the expiration of nine months thereafter, the purchaser giving bond, with security to be approved by the trustee, bearing interest from the day of sale; and on the ratification of the sale by the chancellor, and on payment of the whole purchase money, the trustee will, by a good and sufficient deed, convey to the purchaser, and his heirs, all the right, title, interest, claim and demand, of Charles Wallace, and the heirs and representatives of the said Charles Stewart, of, in and to, the said parcels of land and premises. THOMAS HARRISON, Trustee. Nov. 19, 1810. Public Sale. By order of the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, the subscriber will sell, at public sale, to the highest bidder, on Tuesday the 18th day of December next, if fair, if not, the next fair day thereafter, at the late dwelling of Thomas Tillard, deceased, near Herring Creek Church, in Anne Arundel county, ALL the personal estate of the said deceased, consisting of a number of valuable negroes, men and women, household and kitchen furniture, horses, cattle and sheep, plantation utensils, &c. The terms of sale are, six months credit on all sums above twenty dollars; bonds with good & sufficient security, with interest, from the day of sale, will be required; for all sums of twenty dollars and less, the cash will be demanded. No property will be delivered until the terms of sale are complied with. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock. WILLIAM S. TILLARD, Admr. N. B. All persons in any manner indebted to the estate of Thomas Tillard, or the subscriber, are requested to make payment on or before the first day of February next, as at that time, the books and papers will be put into the hands of an attorney to enforce payment on all occasions; as the subscriber intends leaving the neighbourhood early in the spring, he therefore hopes some attention will be paid to this notice. W. S. T. Public Sale. BY virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery, of the state of Maryland, the Subscriber having been appointed trustee for the sale of the real estate of William Clover, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, will offer at Public Sale, on the premises, on Saturday, the 15th day of December next, if fair, if not, the first fair day thereafter, the following tract of land, called SANDGATE, lying about one mile from the city of Annapolis, containing about 300 acres. This land is capable of being divided into two parcels (should purchasers wish to buy it in that way, or it would be sold entire) on both of which there are good dwelling-houses, with other convenient houses. A further description of this property is deemed unnecessary, as it is supposed that any person wishing to purchase will view the premises previous to the day of sale. The terms of sale are, that the purchaser or purchasers shall give bond, with security, to be approved by the trustee, for the payment of the purchase money within twelve months from the day of sale, & upon the ratification of the sale by the Chancellor, & upon the receipt of the whole purchase money, the trustee will duly convey the same to the purchaser or purchasers. JAMES HUNTER, Trustee. November 10. The Subscriber TAKES this method of informing his friends and the public, that he has taken the house formerly occupied by captain James Thomas, and lately by Mr. William Brewer, where he intends keeping a PRIVATE BOARDING HOUSE. All those who may favour him with their company may depend on his best endeavours to give general satisfaction. WILLIAM TUCK. Annapolis, April 10, 1810. AN INFERNAL DEED. Some few months ago a black woman named Clarinda Shaw, belonging to New-London, in Connecticut, but originally from the West-Indies, where she has two children living, both free, and one of them possessed of considerable property, advertised in the Columbian for a passage to Monferat. After awhile she found an English brig bound to Antigua, the captain of which engaged to give her a passage for her services in cooking and waiting upon him and the passengers, and she put her things on board, and embarked accordingly. We are now informed that the capt. on his arrival in the West-Indies sold Clarinda as a slave. YORKE. (PENNS.) NOV. 10. SINGULAR CASE. At the York county poor-house on the 2d inst. died of an excessive and singular enlargement of the chest and abdomen, a boy aged 11 years. The disease commenced in his second year, and gradually increased till a mortification from over distension of the intestines terminated his sufferings. The body was opened in the presence of the directors and several other gentlemen, and a ball, apparently composed of earth, resembling a calcareous marble, taken from the colon, one of the lower intestines, weighing one pound nine ounces, and in circumference measuring sixteen inches. As some children have an irresistible desire to eat dirt and artfully take every opportunity to indulge a vitiated appetite, it is presumable this disease was occasioned from a habit of gratifying such pernicious and inordinate cravings, and that a considerable quantity of earth or such like substances were taken into the stomach. WASHINGTON CITY, NOV. 13. By the great fresh in the Patowmack occasioned by the late rains, the chain bridge over the falls above George-town has been carried away. A vast quantity, some say two thousand cords of drift wood lodged against the great bridge across the Patowmack in the course of Sunday & yesterday, which attracted a number of labouring people & others, who tho't it a good opportunity to lay in their wood free of expense. Much wood was rescued in this way from the stream. In the act of getting out this drift wood, Mr. Wm. H. Sirooud, a silk and cotton dyer, was unfortunately drowned. We understand that two persons were drowned in the same manner at the river side near George-town. DR. COMMUNICATED.

From the threatening aspect which the winter has assumed, it may be reasonably expected that in its progress it will not be less severe than usual. The distress incident to the poor during the winter season, it is well known, are sufficiently great, but no correct idea can be formed of them by those who are unaccustomed to visit the abode of poverty. The number of those in this city who require the helping hand of charity, is, perhaps, much greater than is generally supposed; some there may be who, unaccustomed to beg, know not how; in their more prosperous days, having by their own industry, been enabled to obtain all the conveniences of life, and now, though enfeebled by age, still retain that acute sensibility which prevents their publicly soliciting our aid, though reduced almost to the extreme of misery. Others again from a long acquaintance with misfortune, having become callous to the nicer feelings engendered by prosperity, and impelled by strong necessities, (supreme command) blush not to solicit charity at our door, but are too often spurned from them with harsh reviling and unmerited reproaches. "Go labour for thy support, thou mayst easily obtain a livelihood," is but too frequently the only reply to the "tale of woe." But is this the voice of humanity? Is this the mild language of a christian? All things whatsoever would that men should do unto you, do you even so to them. Ought it not to be known that at this season the hand of industry is paralyzed, the sources of employment diminished, the services of the labourer no longer required, and the prices of fuel and provisions enhanced? The rich and affluent, enjoying all the conveniences and luxuries of life, unaccustomed to visit the abode of the indigent, and unused to hear the tale of the distressed, reflect not on their unhappy situation, and perhaps know not that any are in want. Anxious to contribute as far as is in his power to the amelioration of the lot of the poor, and believing that the most effectual measure that could be adopted for this purpose would be the institution of a "Society of the Humane," to collect the alms of the charitable, & select deserving objects to bestow them upon, the writer would suggest to the benevolent the propriety of taking immediate and effectual measures for the consummation of an object so devoutly to be wished for.

BENEVOLUS.

LONDON, OCT. 12.
DEFEAT OF THE TURKS.

Official account of the Russian Army. The general in chief, Kamenkoff, having left lieutenant general Count Langeron, and the general in chief, Kamenkoff, having left lieutenant general Count Langeron, against the enemy; he arrived on the 6th, in the evening with the army, forming five columns, in the vicinity of the Danube, and ordered a general attack to be made the following day. It began at ten in the morning, and at 7 at night the Turkish army was no more; a position which was impregnable, entrenchments defended with the utmost gallantry, nothing could withstand the gallantry and perseverance of Russian troops; that memorable day yielded them with fresh laurels. As soon as the attack began, major gen. Howards, attacked and carried three redoubts, and ordered himself master of the whole entrenchment, which covered the enemy's camp, his left flank, near the Danube. In the mean time major general Koureff arrived from the other side also on the Danube, engaged another Turkish camp which had been formed there. In this manner the enemy saw his entrenchments surrounded by our troops, but notwithstanding his desperate situation and a very brisk cannonade kept on our part, he continued to defend himself in the most obstinate manner. An attempt made against his left flank having proved unsuccessful, the general in order to bring the matter to a close, adopted the measure of ordering Count Kamenkoff, general of infantry, to open a heavy cannonade, and detach immediately after twelve battalions to carry the entrenchment by assault, while he on his part detached major general Sabanajoff with two battalions to take the enemy's camp in the rear. This general soon after entered the Turkish camp, and this unexpected attack executed with the utmost rapidity, decided the victory. A great part of the enemy's horse took flight, and was pursued by the cavalry, who killed a large number of them. The general in chief with the least delay, ordered major gen. Sabanajoff to lead on part of his troops against the last and strongest Turkish entrenchment, but finding that the darkness of the evening prevented the troops to act he postponed the attack until the next morning, and ordered the troops to retreat. During that time Count Berlier attacked the enemy's flotilla, captured some vessels, sunk a great number, and dispersed the rest.

During the night the Turks finding themselves surrounded, sent an officer to capitulate, and soon after surrendered at discretion. The whole camp, all the arms, baggage and artillery, 173 stand of colours, and upwards of 5000 prisoners, have fallen into our hands. Among the prisoners is Achmet, a Pacha of three tails, the commander of the flotilla, a Pacha of two tails & a great number of officers of distinction. The Seraskier, Count and Hali Pacha, was killed. All the entrenchments and their environs were covered with slain Turks. The enemy's loss in killed exceeds 5000; our loss is trifling. There was an army of 40,000 men dispersed and destroyed in nine hours time.

A Paris paper at the 8th of October, contains an account of Murat's attack upon Sicily—of his landing with some detachments at San-Stephano—of his dislodging the enemy at that place amid the cries of Vive l'Empereur! And after all he thought it prudent, having completely failed, to order the return and disembarkation of his troops!

It appears by a Russian official account of the battle with the Turks, before Rudichuk, on the 6th of Sept. That the latter surrendered by capitulation. The Turks lost 5000 killed, and 5000 prisoners. Among the prisoners is Achmet, a Pacha of three tails. The battle lasted from 10 in the morning till 7 at night.

Mr. M'Kinzie still remained at Malta. It was feared no negotiation for the exchange of prisoners could be effected with the French.

In consequence of the persevering interference of the agents of the French Emperor, the Danes had conceded so far to their importunity, that 500 of their troops were to be admitted into Zealand progressively, until the whole force intended to be conveyed to Sweden, should have passed through the island; and it is added, that as no pretence whatever, more than the 500 specified should at any time remain in the territory.

The late King of Sweden was at Moscow on the 17th ult. it was said, on his way to Finland through Russia, to endeavour to excite a movement in his favour. A letter from Koningburg, of the 28th last, states, that he had hired a boat at Pillau, for the purpose of being conveyed to Sweden, but that his intention was discovered, and he was arrested by the police officers when about to embark. It is added, that he was immediately sent off under a strong guard to Riga.

The princess Amelia was very ill at Windsor on the 12th ult.

Lucien Buonaparte is expected in England, in the brig Pomona frigate from Malta.

LATEST FROM THE ARMY IN PORTUGAL.

LONDON, OCT. 22. We announced on Saturday the arrival of the Apollo, of 36 guns, with despatches from Lord Wellington, containing an account of his retreat to Torres Vedras, followed by Massena, and that the two armies were within three leagues of each other on the 14th; and also stated, on the authority of accounts from Oporto that Colonel Grant had taken possession of Coimbra, and made 2000 prisoners, consisting chiefly of sick and wounded at the battle of Buzaco.

With respect to the despatches received on Saturday, their substance has been circulated through the government offices, in a bulletin, of which the following is a copy.— Despatches have been received from Lord Wellington and Mr. Stuart, of the date of the 14th inst. by which it appears that the British army had retreated within their lines, their right being at Galtanhero, and Villa Franca, and their left at Torres Vedras, on the 7th and 8th inst. They had not been dislodged in their retreat, but some affairs had taken place between the cavalry of the two armies in which the British and Portuguese cavalry had distinguished themselves. The rains had begun on the 8th.—The British army are represented as being protected from them in the villages and under huts; the French army is severely exposed to them. Colonel Wilson had occupied the position of Buzaco, with a Portuguese brigade on the 6th; and it was reported that Colonel Grant had entered Coimbra on the 7th, and had taken a French garrison, with their wounded prisoners.

the borders of the Tagus, which he was crossing to join them. The French infantry, it has lately been discovered, do not exceed 50,000 men, and the cavalry 15,000.

The sick and wounded of the British army amount to 4,800 men. The medical staff is on a large establishment at Lisbon, and held in high estimation by the army. Every proper precaution and preparation are making at Lisbon to embark the troops should it be found necessary. This is far from being apprehended; but if such should be the unfortunate result, we believe the embarkation will take place, not at Lisbon, but at Cascaes, which is ten miles westward of it. There is a tolerable good road from Lisboa to Cintra and from thence direct to Cascaes; & by embarking at this place, all the disadvantages would be avoided; both to the British army and to the natives, which would attend a retreat into the city of Lisbon, and an embarkation directly from that city. At the departure of the Apollo, Lisbon was in a state of inconceivable bustle; every man capable of carrying a musket was sent off to the army. The gun-boats & ships launches, under the honourable lieutenant Berkeley, moved up the Tagus, and were enabled, from their position, both to annoy the enemy at Villy Nuova, and support the right wing of the British army. ON THE APPROACH OF WINTER.

Victorious see him rushing forth
From the cold regions of the north
His magazine of war;
The boisterous winds that rudely play,
Untamed by sol's meridian ray,
Bear on their icy car.
Nought can resist his mighty force,
As o'er the earth he spreads his course,
Swift as the dawning light;
His near approach loud storms preface,
Fy the fierce heralds of his rage,
And put the sun to flight.
Let souls, that live the slaves of fear,
Think every charm has left the year,
And teach themselves to mourn;
But though he bid the affrighted host
Of all his terrors, storm our coast,
I'll welcome his return.
Each stated season, as it flies,
Comes a fresh witness from the skies
Of Heaven's benignant plan;
And winter in his roughest form,
Cloathed with the horrors of the storm,
Is still the friend of man.
What, though gay nature cease to bloom,
And the cold air breathe no perfume,
Beneath a frigid sky!
Health shall be wafted on the gale,
Whose swifter wings bear snow and hail,
And pale disease shall fly.
Let the bright orb of day retire,
We'll gather round the genial fire;
Nor with a kinder sun;
There shall the social virtues smile,
Love shall shake off each modern wile,
And all our hearts be one.

THE GRAVE.

This is the rendezvous for all
The trifling sons of mirth:
Here the frail heirs of Adam fall,
And mingle into earth.
And here must youth and beauty lie;
Here friendship too must dwell;
Here the fond heart forget to sigh,
Or, heave with pity's swell.
For here shall sorrow cease to be,
Afflictions all shall cease;
But not exchange'd for sports or glee—
This, is the—IXM OF PEACE.
Not here shall friendship's holy light
Give brilliance to the eyes;
No, nor shall serpent-flanders bite
Bid indignation rise.
No noisy joys, no rude debate,
No contells, enter here;
No sports of love, no venom hate,
No smile, no sigh, no tear.
These thoughts, a perfect consolation give,
And doubly pain the breast;
It makes us dread to cease to live,
Yet long to be at rest.

It lies about 25 miles to the westward of Cumberland, and is of the best quality, having been located at an early period, when persons taking up lands in that neighbourhood had their choice. Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber's farm, on Severn river, in Anne-Arundel county, on Saturday, the 29th Sept. EZEKIEL, a stout man, upwards of six feet high, (he is a clear mulatto under his cloaths,) his face somewhat sun burnt and pitted with the small pox, high and large cheek bones, his hair curly and black, and I believe tolerably short. This fellow cannot go unnoticed as he is a sensible smart fellow, being complaisant when sober, he is rather fond of liquor, which was the cause of his absconding, from his impertinence when so. Had on when he went away an osabrig shirt and trousers, a pair of shoes nearly new & nailed, a coarse straw hat, short drab coat, and probably a short over jacket of the same colour, a large leather apron, tho' it is likely he will change them. Ezekiel is an ingenious fellow, a very good rough carpenter & cooper, & can do a little of Smith's work; he is lively, brisk & active considering his age which is about 50, he is a little ruptured, but cannot be discovered when he has his cloaths on. Fifteen Dollars will be paid for apprehending and securing him, if found within fifteen miles of my house, if thirty miles, thirty dollars, and if out of the state the above reward, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home.
