LOCAL AND PENINSULA.

THIS WEEK'S CALENDAR OF EVERYTHING TRANSPIRING IN TOWN AND ITS VICINITY.

OUR CORPS OF CORRESPONDENTS.

WHAT THEY HAD TO WRITE ABOUT FROM VARIOUS SECTIONS OF INTEREST TO ALL.

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

ITEMS OF INTERESTING NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE FAIR AND FERTILE PENINSULA.

Mr. Williams, Esq., is repairing and painting his dwelling on Isabelle street.

Protracted meetings were begun in the M. E. Church at Delmar last Monday night.

After several days of cloudy weather, a shower of rain fell last Sunday afternoon and night.

There will be preaching in the Reformed Presbyterian Church to-morrow, Nov. 15th, at 8 o'clock, p. m.

The steamer Columbia will not make her regular trips next Monday and Tuesday as she will be taken off the two days to be put in condition for the winter.

Miss Farlow launched his barge on Monday and named it "Wm. H. Cahill." The boat will carry 300 bushels of oysters, and will be used in that business.

Mr. F. Stanley Todd has moved his law office to the building lately occupied by Judge Holland. Mr. J. Williams moved into the office vacated by Mr. Todd.

Mr. Tracy is enlarging and repairing his stables on High St. They will be occupied next year by Willoughby Bros. This will make a good location for a lively stable.

Mr. Jeremiah Morris and Miss Annie A. Farlow, both of this town, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Wednesday night last, by Rev. W. D. Walton.

The steamer Meteor, from North Carolina, came up to Salisbury Thursday night with shingles for Humphreys & Tighman. There was also aboard cotton and other freight for Baltimore.

We notice from the Baltimore Letter that canned goods are stiffening in price, with an upward tendency. Canned meats are plentiful, as they are quoted at only $1.50 to $1.60 per bushel.

Rev. J. T. Whitely, pastor of the M. E. Church South in this place, and Rev. J. H. Amis, Presiding Elder of this district, are absent in Richmond, Va., attending the Annual Conference of their church.

There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion next Sunday morning in St. Paul's Church, Spring Hill, at 10 o'clock, in St. Philip's Chapel, Quantico on the same day at 8 o'clock. F. B. Adkins, Pastor.

The date for the P. E. Convention at Boston, to elect a successor to the late Bishop Lay, is this Wednesday. It is impossible at this time to forecast the action of the Convention, as there seems to be no settled opinion among the clergy.

We understand that Dr. F. M. Stearns expects to assume the duties of Clerk of the first of December. Mr. E. A. Toddina will probably be retained as deputy. Mr. L. J. Gale will take charge of the Register's office about the same time.

When the county commissioners meet again, it is likely that the new Board will take charge of things. We don't know who are applicants for clerk, but we can say Mr. Holloway has made an excellent officer, and there seems to be no reason why he should not be retained.

In publishing the statement of receipts and disbursements for public school purposes, in our last issue, several errors occurred on account of the treasurer being out of town visiting schools and not leaving a copy of the report in the office from which the proof could be corrected.

It is expected that a large crowd will go to see the race at Pongoloco next Thursday, between Lady Beckett, belonging to Mr. I. H. White of Salisbury, and Beryl, belonging to Capt. S. L. Avery of Somerset county. An excursion train will run to accommodate those who wish to go, and the fare will be $2.00 round trip.

The county commissioners gave permission for the fire alarm bell to be placed in the Court House tower. It was accordingly hung over the clock tower, and the fire alarm bell is now in place.

The Princess Anne Herald has the following two items about persons well known in this county:

"Mr. Joshua Miles, of this town, who has been an invalid for many months, was sufficiently strong to take a ride on Friday last. Her many friends and acquaintances will be delighted to hear that she is convalescing."

Mr. Wm. B. Rank, of Westover, has been confined to his room for some time, and is still unable to attend to business."

"The path of the horse-trader is not always strewn with roses. Mr. Ned Todd and Willoughby Bros. traded horses last Saturday night, and it seems the Willoughbys thought they were getting a different horse than they expected. When they found their mistake, proceedings were instituted to recover the horse they traded to Todd. Justice Warner, after hearing the testimony, decided that the horse was sold to the Willoughbys, and that there had been no fraud in the transaction."

"While getting ready to cross the river at the Upper Ferry last Sunday afternoon, Mr. John Goetz, of Trappe district, lost a horse valued at about $200. He had crossed over to the north side of the river in the morning, and about three o'clock in the afternoon was returning home. In driving down the hill to the ferry-boat, the king bolt of his carriage broke, his horse plunged into the river, and Mr. Goetz was thrown out of the carriage. The horse could not be rescued and was drowned. Mr. Goetz was only slightly hurt."

Last Saturday morning Henry Harris and Albert Wagstaff left White Haven for the oyster rocks at the mouth of the river, to dredge. While at work there, Harris thought the boat was too far on the rocks and was about to back up. In the act of backing up, the boat struck the boom and knocked overboard. Wagstaff was unable to rescue his companion, who was consequently drowned. His body was afterwards recovered, and the remains were interred in Trappe district, this county, last Sunday afternoon. Harris was 19 years old."

—Hon. J. Tenthredin Murphy, of Washington Territory, late Judge of the Supreme and U. S. Courts of Montana, and more recently the attorney and counselor for the city and county of San Francisco, is spending a few days with friends on the Peninsula, and more particularly the guest of Mr. E. Stanley Todd in this town.

Dr. J. T. Hammond of Berlin, Judge Murphy is the president and manager of the Washington Territory Investment Co. at the city of Seattle on the charming shores of Puget Sound. The country is said to possess the most resources and finest climate in the Union.

—As is the case every fall and winter, the trapping dredgers have begun passing through Salisbury on their way south. Last week three arrived here, and applied to J. H. Hearn for a place to sleep during their stay. They told the same old story of ill-treatment on the part of the oyster capitalists and their miscellaneous escapes. Tuesday night last another came from Somerset county, and was allowed to sleep in the jail. He related that he had been cruelly beaten by the captain of the boat on which he was employed, and escaped by swimming about a mile and a half, stealing away from the boat while all hands were asleep.

—Our Pittsville correspondent writes: Mr. W. W. Sheppard has been quite sick at work but is now better. Mr. John Adkins' little boy writes at school the other day, fell and broke his collar bone. Mr. John I. Scott, of Philadelphia, on his way to Berlin stopped off at this place to see his friend W. E. Sheppard.

It is reported that Dr. Littleton is coming back to this county. Mr. J. H. Hearn is having his oyster boats at this place improved with a new coat of paint which will add much to his appearance.

Mr. Benj. Farris is doing the work, assisted by William Parsons.—The M. P. Farmhouse at this place has been improved by a new coat of paint.

Herald Deaths Published.—The trial of Capt. Whitney, who was arrested some time ago by Capt. Wingate for illegal dredging, took place at White Haven, Md., on Friday last. Downing Moore, Esq., of Ridge, State's Attorney, and James E. Rider represented the State, and Messrs. E. Stanley Todd and R. F. Brattan the defense. The testimony for the State showed that the accused, although he had been in the county, took oysters in Wisconsin waters on the 15th of last October, and put them on Captain Fletcher Webster's craft, on receiving the money for them. The defense tried to prove that Capt. Whitney's boat had been sold to parties in Wisconsin, and that he himself was only hired to work on it. A promissory note and receipt were put in evidence to prove this. The testimony on the part of the defense was very conflicting and Justice Downing thought the prosecution of the accused was by no means proven. He thereupon adjourned the case until the 1st of next month, when he will probably be retained as deputy. Mr. L. J. Gale will take charge of the Register's office about the same time.

When the county commissioners meet again, it is likely that the new Board will take charge of things. We don't know who are applicants for clerk, but we can say Mr. Holloway has made an excellent officer, and there seems to be no reason why he should not be retained.

In publishing the statement of receipts and disbursements for public school purposes, in our last issue, several errors occurred on account of the treasurer being out of town visiting schools and not leaving a copy of the report in the office from which the proof could be corrected.

It is expected that a large crowd will go to see the race at Pongoloco next Thursday, between Lady Beckett, belonging to Mr. I. H. White of Salisbury, and Beryl, belonging to Capt. S. L. Avery of Somerset county. An excursion train will run to accommodate those who wish to go, and the fare will be $2.00 round trip.

The county commissioners gave permission for the fire alarm bell to be placed in the Court House tower. It was accordingly hung over the clock tower, and the fire alarm bell is now in place.

The Princess Anne Herald has the following two items about persons well known in this county:

"Mr. Joshua Miles, of this town, who has been an invalid for many months, was sufficiently strong to take a ride on Friday last. Her many friends and acquaintances will be delighted to hear that she is convalescing."

Mr. Wm. B. Rank, of Westover, has been confined to his room for some time, and is still unable to attend to business."

"The path of the horse-trader is not always strewn with roses. Mr. Ned Todd and Willoughby Bros. traded horses last Saturday night, and it seems the Willoughbys thought they were getting a different horse than they expected. When they found their mistake, proceedings were instituted to recover the horse they traded to Todd. Justice Warner, after hearing the testimony, decided that the horse was sold to the Willoughbys, and that there had been no fraud in the transaction."

"While getting ready to cross the river at the Upper Ferry last Sunday afternoon, Mr. John Goetz, of Trappe district, lost a horse valued at about $200. He had crossed over to the north side of the river in the morning, and about three o'clock in the afternoon was returning home. In driving down the hill to the ferry-boat, the king bolt of his carriage broke, his horse plunged into the river, and Mr. Goetz was thrown out of the carriage. The horse could not be rescued and was drowned. Mr. Goetz was only slightly hurt."

Last Saturday morning Henry Harris and Albert Wagstaff left White Haven for the oyster rocks at the mouth of the river, to dredge. While at work there, Harris thought the boat was too far on the rocks and was about to back up. In the act of backing up, the boat struck the boom and knocked overboard. Wagstaff was unable to rescue his companion, who was consequently drowned. His body was afterwards recovered, and the remains were interred in Trappe district, this county, last Sunday afternoon. Harris was 19 years old."

Mrs. Prior was granted a pension of $1.50 a month, order by H. Bonoules, E. J. Elliott was allowed $5 for making cars.—Gave order on B. R. Dahlhoff to pay same. Commissioners Todd reported that he had sold the contract for building new county road from Bridle's Cave to Wm. Adkins to Eliza Holloway, for $114, to be paid out of levy of 1886. The treasurer was authorized to pay Hugh Jackson $15 for lumber used on county road leading past M. Parsons'. Account of Dr. H. L. Todd of $19.00 for medical attendance on prisoners was passed order given on W. B. Goody. Treasurer paid A. F. Owens expense of about house, $35 balance on salary for third quarter. Petition of Edward Bright, Nehemiah Poole, et al., was presented, for a tax ditch in 8th election district, to run from head of Black's mill pond to the head of G. W. Chatham. The following were appointed examiners on same: S. M. Riley, G. W. Messick and John T. Gony. Also petition of Peter R. Parsons, et al., for tax ditch in 4th election district, beginning at Rider Adkins' mill pond and running through lands of Manlius K. and Leonard Morris and others. The following examiners were appointed on same: Daniel R. Holloway, John W. Law and John W. Smith. Also petition of Jno. T. Wimbrow, Wm. P. Ward et al., for tax ditch in 6th election district, beginning at or near the mouth of a branch of Colburn's mill pond and passing through the lands of Wm. Ward, Jno. T. Wimbrow, et al.

John Sharp, who was a merchant in this town for about half a century, died at his home here on Friday night, Oct. 30, aged 80 years. Mr. Sharp was an unostentatious citizen, and led a life without reproach. Two brothers, William W. and Clement L. Sharp, died in this town. Clement L. Sharp was a member of the Church on Sunday morning, and interment made at the Sharp Burying Ground, near Bridgeville.—Georgetown Journal.

At the meeting of the pilot commission held in Wilmington, Pilot Edward J. Spangher was held responsible for violating the Delaware pilot laws by allowing a tug to take a vessel down the river on his receipt for pilot fee, without a pilot being aboard. He was found guilty and suspended for 90 days, although the board dated his suspension from Wednesday, in order that he might be able to return to his home from Philadelphia.—Breakwater Light.

Ex-State Senator Hepburn was seriously killed while gaming for luck at Lynch's Station Monday afternoon. He is yet confined to his home, though he has had a splint and rotes on Tuesday. Dr. Maxwell has rendered medical advice.—Cheltenham Transcript.

In view of the numerous burglaries which have recently been committed in the northern part of this county, the members of the Rising Sun and Belton Association are making an effort to induce every person within a radius of eight miles to join the Association with the view of increasing its efficiency.—Civil Democrat.

Loizley Richards of Baltimore, aged 35 years, was accidentally shot and instantly killed while gaming for luck at Richards point on Elk river, on Tuesday last. Richards and a companion were engaged in extracting a shell from a breach-loading gun, when it was accidentally discharged with the above result.—Civil Democrat.

Samuel C. Rowland, acting for the citizens of Port Deposit, has, through his attorney, George W. Small of Baltimore, entered suit against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, charging that in the building of the bridge across the Susquehanna at Freshtown the company have unlawfully obstructed the navigable waters of the United States, and interfered with the commerce of the State of Maryland. A writ of injunction will be filed and an injunction asked. Del. Air Times.

Horace Turner's stable near Royal Oak, was burned last Saturday night. He had two young horses in the stable, but succeeded in getting them out unharmed after the fire was extinguished. The loss of the stable and the loss of the horses was a severe blow to the farmer. There was a Republican meeting at the Oak that night and Turner offended some of the colored people by hurrahing for Harrington and Hughlett and thinks his stable was set on fire in retaliation.—St. Michael's Record.

Lemuel Pearce is a respectable colored man living in the rural district of this county. He is a native of Maryland, and has been for some time in the charge of the stables at the point. At the election last night he was charged with having a Democratic ticket, and about dusk he returned home from the election and stabled his horse for the night, securing fastening the door. Shortly after six o'clock the stable was on fire. Lem. rushed to the burning building to save his horse, but found the door open and the horse gone. The fire had made too much headway to save anything in the building and it was totally consumed, together with the oats and fodder he had saved off his lot and stabled near the stable.—Kent News.

Mr. Willard H. Neal, a prominent citizen of this county, died at his residence near Salisbury on Friday morning last, of a pulmonary disease, in the 68th year of age. Mr. Neal had been unwell for some time, but nothing serious was apprehended until about two weeks ago. He represented Queen Anne's county in the Legislature at the session of 1870, and was a member of the State Central Convention for many years. At the session of the Legislature, he took a very prominent part in the debates, and was chairman of the committee on contested elections, which had before it the memorable contest of J. Morrison Harris vs. Geo. C. Lee, for the seat in the Legislature for the abolition of the "party plan" of nominating democratic candidates in Queen Anne's county, he took a very active part. Mr. Neal has long been active in the politics of this county, and was one of the recognized leaders of the local democracy. He married an only daughter of Commissioner Jesse K. Hines, who survives him, with one daughter, who is the wife of Rev. J. W. Grubb, of the Baltimore Conference of M. E. Church South.—Centreville Observer.

Charcoal and Lime.

These two articles play a very important part in the management of fowls. The fowls should be liberally fed, for as one thing is more conducive to health than charcoal. It should be broken in small lumps and put where the fowls can have ready access to it, and they will eat it with great relish. We have fed it to pigs also with the very best results, those treated to it never being troubled with disease or sickness of any kind. For fowls kept in confinement a very good plan is to keep a little trough filled with it, and they will soon learn to help themselves. The value of lime also, in the form of white-wash, is well understood, and those who wash their flocks with it, especially if mixed with a little carbolic acid, as nothing is more distasteful to vermin.

The Value of Eggs.

As an article of cheap and nutritious food there is nothing that will compare with eggs. It is astonishing they are not found in greater quantity on farmers' tables. They are so very convenient for sending to market that this, probably, is the disposition made of them by most farmers. They do not seem to fully comprehend the value of eggs as food—that, like milk, an egg is a complete food in itself, containing as it does every element for the development of a perfect animal, as is manifested from the fact that a chick is formed from it.

Satisfaction Everywhere.

J. D. Wert, Druggist, (Belling Springs, Pa.) writes: "Arsenium" is selling well and giving good satisfaction." J. M. Hess, Druggist (Steeleton, Pa.) writes: "Every bottle of Arsenium" gives the best satisfaction." R. E. A. Garlitz, Dealers, (Lancaster, Md.) says: "Arsenium" has been ever been introduced in this locality." Sold by Dr. Collier, and country dealers.

Management on the Farm.

One of the first things to do in managing a farm is to provide the best tools, and all kinds of farm work and sufficient team power to use them. Then employ the best help you can get. Hiring cheap help in order to save a few dollars is the worst kind of economy—loss in damage to tools and teams more than offsetting any saving so made. It takes but very little while an inexperienced or careless hand to do more damage in this respect than would pay a whole year's hire of a better one.

Regarding Stock of Lice.

A correspondent of the Indiana Farmer says that for killing lice on cattle or horses there is nothing better than a decoction made of sassafras roots. Boil them to a strong tea and take an old cloth and wash the animal thoroughly with it from head to tail, and it will destroy the lice effectually applied either warm or cold. He has used it on colts with the best effect, with not the least danger of injury to the animal.

Becker's Avian Salve.

The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. Winter Food for Fowl.

There are often many inconsiderable trifles thrown into the slop tub which, with a very little trouble, might be used to our advantage as food for the fowls. Potato and turnip parings, if boiled, and while yet hot, sprinkled with meal or middlings, and then mashed, will be found not only one of the cheapest but most excellent winter foods to be had.

Draining Land.

One of the greatest advantages of draining land is that it lets in the oxygen of the atmosphere. A plant can no more live without oxygen than can an animal. It is also one of the best of fertilizers in that it converts the minerals contained in the soil into food for plants.

Church St., from Division to the depot, is being improved by the laying of brick pavements and board walks have been already put down and others are in progress. The Town Commissioners intend to have good walks on that street for the convenience of those going to and coming from the depot.

Hog-killing has been the most important business in Salisbury during the past week. A number of hogs weighing over 400 lbs. have been killed here. The best we have heard from is one killed last Monday by Mr. Hiram J. Barbagel, of Powellville, which was about sixteen months old and weighed 543 lbs. We doubt if that will be beaten this year.

There has been some difficulty in getting together to build a stinging around the depot to keep the hogs from coming to the depot, and people generally shrank from the job. Mr. George Dove, however, has undertaken it, and says the painting can be done in a few days.

Every part of the wood and tin work about the depot.

Several services were held in several of the churches, addresses appropriate to the occasion were delivered. In the afternoon, a few colored youths, in grotesque dress and wearing false faces, rode through town, greatly to the amusement of the ubiquitous small boy. The day was cold and cloudy.

Paris St. promises to become one of the most beautiful streets in town. There were several very pretty and desirable dwellings on it, and its beauty will be still further increased by the grading and shelling, which are being done there by Mr. G. H. Todd. When the sidewalks are completed, there will be nothing lacking to make it one of our most desirable thoroughfares, and it is understood that several are in contemplation.

Again Lady Bennett has been victorious. In the trotting race with the Virginia horse, Stonewall, at Snow Hill last Thursday, Lady Bennett, owned by Mr. L. H. White, of this town, won. The first heat was taken by Stonewall, the second by Lady Bennett, the third by Stonewall, and the fourth and fifth by Lady Bennett. Mr. White undoubtedly has a fast horse, and it is not likely that there is anything on the Shore that can beat her.

The store was bought last August from Ananias Jarman by A. W. Baker, and was being run at the time by his son, Shiloh Baker. The flames were awakened about midnight by the loud growling of two dogs, they being in a pen adjoining the store. Other property near by was saved. The loss on store and stock is about $600. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been incendiary.

The Baltimore Sun of last Wednesday says: "The Maryland Steamboat Co. intend to put the steamer Kent on the Nantuxet river route in the spring. The development of this route will in time bring a great deal of trade to Baltimore from Maryland and the Potomac counties in Maryland, and from Southern Virginia and Kentucky at all the wharves of the Nantuxet as far as Stafford. At present the business along the river is light, because of a lack of quick transportation facilities when the people understand that the route will be opened, they will go with a rapid and cheap boat."
