RAILROAD PROSPECTS.

The recent railroad survey across the western portion of this county seems to have been made very carefully, but it may prove to be a very important one. A view of the route and the contingencies of a railroad on or near the line of survey, may throw some new light upon the importance of this geographical inspection.

It is important, in the first place, to notice that the survey was made by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., a strong and prosperous company. Their traffic on the peninsula route is now immense, and has necessitated a double track as far down the road as Clayton, and the annual increase of trade indicates the necessity of a double track still further down the peninsula, at least as far as Salisbury. The railroad running as a branch from the main line at Clayton to Oxford and traversing the fertile section west of and adjacent to the Choptank river, has a feeder from Greensboro, and arrangements have been made for its extension by way of Denton, to Federalsburg, a thrifty town on the Cambridge and Seaford branch, on the south boundary of Caroline. This recent survey, as is being made from Greensboro by the way of Denton, Federalsburg, Calvertown, Sharpton, near Riverton, Barren Creek, Quantico, Green Hill, White Haven and on to King's Creek, where it intersects the junction of the Crisfield and Cape Charles railroads. Now the expediency of the line is in the apparent necessity of a double track on the main line. A new road, run the route surveyed, would enable the company to relieve its main line from points above the junction and at the same time to furnish a new route, as it would traverse a very fertile part of the Eastern Shore, touching several progressive towns, thus giving a traffic alone, in the future, far in advance of some of the branches already in operation.

Again, their route penetrates nearly every section of the peninsula, leaving nowhere as much good territory unexplored as the section through which the survey has been made. And if a railroad should be constructed as surveyed it would complete a fine system of railroads on this peninsula, and thereby supply not only the needs at present, but will give ample road facilities in addition to what we now have (the B. & E. S.). For the growing demands for many years to come. Without showing the benefits to be derived by the company in penetrating this section, and without showing the many advantages it would give to farmers, mechanics, laborers and all classes of people along and near the route, there are other reasons for inferring that a railroad may be the outgrowth of the survey.

RAMBLER.

South Salisbury.

"South Salisbury" is the name given to a tract of real estate formerly the property of the late Henry Fooks, but which was recently purchased by Messrs. Jas. E. Elledge and L. Ernest Williams. It lies in that part of Salisbury called Frankford, along the N. Y. & N. R. railroad and near the railroad company has placed a siding and station for the accommodation of truckers and fruit growers.

Messrs. Elledge and Williams have had the property surveyed and laid off in lots of convenient size for small purchases.

The whole plot shows 38 acres. The place has been laid out with streets and avenues, 50 feet wide. The six streets are named for the first six Presidents of the United States. There are 100 building lots fronting on the Sta. 50 ft. and running back 150 ft. to a fifteen foot alley. Every tier of lots has one to those alleys which afford a back entrance to each lot. Besides these building lots there are six trucking lots of one acre each, three of five acres, and one of ten acres.

Trotting for a Lap Rob.

An interesting race was trotted at the Salisbury track last Tuesday afternoon. The contesting horses were Mr. J. R. T. Lave's brown gelding, driven by Mr. Sewell T. Richardson, and Richard Dashiell's bay mare, Lily, piloted by Mr. Ashby Perdue.

A ten dollar lap race was offered to the horse which first broke the track. The weather was bad and the track was very fast. The best time made was in 58, but the contestants were pretty nearly matched. Mr. Lave's horse took the prize, by winning the first, third and fourth heats. The Judges were Messrs. Geo. W. Bell, A. P. Malone and Geo. C. Culler.

Another race is being arranged for Thanksgiving Day, in which the two horses in Tuesday's contest, Mr. Robert P. Graham's, and several others will be entered.

Sharpton News.

Bishop Corrie, of Wilmington, Del., spent a few days this week with Wm. Drennan and family, and preached in St. Cooper's hall on Wednesday evening to a large audience. Father Mickle of Cape Charles accompanied him. Quite a large number of our citizens made a trip to Baltimore this week.

Horace Elzey has purchased Chas. W. Smith's new residence on Main Street. The O. O. F. will dedicate their new hall on December 3rd. An effort is being made by the order to have an occasion of much interest. Several prominent speakers will be present. The order is a growing one and has a large membership.

Thos. J. Trelley and family have moved to Baltimore, where they will reside and where he has a position as a system measurer.

Berens Creek News.

Elder F. A. Chick preached in the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening. Extra meetings are in progress at the M. E. Church. The pastor has been assisted by Rev. A. D. Davis of Delmar and Mr. Richardson. Presiding Elder Corkan preached Wednesday evening. The Baptist church near town will be dedicated Sunday Nov. 22d. Rev. H. M. Wharton of Baltimore will probably preach the sermon.

Miss Annie Battaroff this town is taking a special course at Bryant & Stratton's business college Baltimore.

Miss Adelle Griffin is visiting friends near Delmar.

Miss Minnie Bailey from near Delmar is visiting at Mr. Saml. Windsor's.

The case of Wm. Dykes and Ernest Dykes, who were arrested Wednesday morning last week on a writ against them by Messrs. Fred A. Grier and George Webb, and brought before Justice Taylor for trial, was concluded last Thursday morning, the Justice finding each of the D.'s $25 and costs, amounting in the aggregate to $75. H. E. Stanley Threlvin appeared for the defendant, attorney Grier for State.

As the meeting of the Sons of Temperance have been suspended for nearly two months, a rally of the members is desired on next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Bishop Vincent has been assigned to preside over the next session of the Wilmington Annual Conference.

Watch Our Advertising Columns.

People who have anything to buy or sell or are at all in touch with their surroundings, should watch closely our advertising columns. In them you will always find inducements offered by the merchants of Salisbury and the county; the lawyers frequently have desirable property to sell—Messrs. Jas. E. Elledge and Robt. F. Bratton offer some good real estate in this issue; the millmen often make inquiry about machinery, and men to operate it.

Our patrons are thoroughly reliable and no one need hesitate to deal with them.

"Bully" Adams' Murders.

Thomas Thompson, the colored man whose trial for the murder of "Bully" Adams, colored, son of John Adams of Salisbury, on the night of August 29th, was called on Wednesday last week at Chestertown, was convicted of murder in the first degree. The case was ably argued before the jury by State Attorney Smith for the State and by J. A. Pearce and Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., for the prisoner. The case was given to the jury at six o'clock and after being out fifteen minutes they brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree. Judge Wickes heard the case.

The Virginia Annual Conference opened Wednesday, at Petersburg, by the Senior Bishop, John C. Keener, in the chair. Bishop Keener has been in Virginia in that capacity four times before—in 1873, 1880, 1884, 1885. The last time was in Petersburg. He is about 73 years old, and was elected Bishop in 1870. Rev. J. D. Hank, Presiding Elder of Salisbury district, and Rev. Mr. E. W. Wares, Pastor of Trinity, left this city this week to be present.

—Master Chas. Rider, son of Mr. G. B. Rider, of this city, was married at Trinity M. E. Church, Sunday, Friday morning. He was at school, and shortly after school was called by his father to attend to some business at home. A notice was heard in the hall, and when some of the lady teachers on the first floor saw their room to leave the cause of the disturbance, they found Chas. on the floor in an unconscious condition. He fell from the stair rail. Dr. Fulton was soon summoned and it was found that the patient had received a fracture in the hip. He suffers also from other injuries. He will probably be out again in a few days.

—Mr. McKenny Price and Miss Lizzie Disharoon, both of this city, were married at Trinity M. E. Church, Sunday, Thursday evening in Rev. T. O. Edwards' parsonage. The altar was decorated with wreaths of flowers. Miss Emma Powell played the wedding march. The editor was filled with ladies and gentlemen, who witnessed the ceremony.

Something new in the way of a supper.

Will be had in the Regan building by the ladies of the Miss Society of the M. E. Church on Tuesday evening, Nov. 24th.

The menu will be a puzzle. Instead of the ordinary names by which the viands are usually called, new names will be given them and by their names orders will be given to the bright and pretty young lady waitresses. If you order "the minister's favorite" you may get what you expect, or you may not, but you will in any case get the worth of your money. If you do not like what you get, you can swap it with your neighbor who, like yourself may have misjudged the meaning of the puzzle word. In addition to a good supper, an interesting part of the program will be the amusing surprises of the puzzle menu. The curiosity as well as the appetite will be whetted up.

Supper will be served, beginning at 8:20. Come and take a taste of "cold vowels" and other good things.

"Bill" Rose, a disappointed old colored man of this place, disappeared Thursday last week, and his whereabouts were unknown to his acquaintances. Yesterday morning his body was fished out of the Wisconsin near the Pivot bridge. It is supposed that he walked off the wharf while in a drunken stupor and sunk when no one was present to rescue him. The incident recalls the fate of Ben Trapp, who met death some weeks ago at the same place, and in much the same manner.

—Mr. Wm. C. Mitchell, has resigned the secretaryship of the Wisconsin county Farmers' Alliance.

Another Black Cashmere has been added to the long Lupins bargain line—a 60 cent quality at 50 cents.

There are many other very desirable things among the Black goods. Here are three: 42-inch winter weight Black Crepons at $3.

There is a happy and present decision, made months since, that Homespuns were to rule the Men's clothing business this season.

Here is a big fact. For boys 4 to 15 years of age, we have sixteen full lines of suits at $5.

As in one so in all—the royal stock in an imperial store.

Everybody that knows anything of Hamburgs knows the following:

Hamburg has not anything to do with producing the goods. They are Swiss.

The novel departure is to open new styles now, just about five days in advance.

Many dealers sneer at embroideries, on cloth cut Bias. The contempt arises from inability to get them from the need of buying at second hand.

Do you ask what we will show in the Spring? We'll answer that question then, and to your satisfaction.

Could there be a fitter stuff for Women's Walking Coats than this rich English Melton?

There's a $3 Broadcloth close by that oughtn't to be overlooked—the best in the market.

The store is alive with interest. The Encyclopedia Britannica, Peale's edition, presents a new idea—how to buy it and pay for it with a very slight down on the pocket.

Country Editor: You have done me many favors, Mr. Richmond, and I shall certainly be glad to assist that young man by giving him work on my paper, as you desire.

Country Editor—Of course. Mr. Richmond—Yes. Give every man a chance, I say, Wall, I feel sorry for this young fellow in a natural born thief, an I thought I'd better start him where there wouldn't be anything to steal—New York Weekly.

First Burglar—Bill, wot yer lookin' over that paper for?

Second Burglar—I'm findin' out wot facies has shut up their houses an' gone to winter in the States.

Inquisitive Citizen—What are you talking that man for?

Police-man—For "that third feeling."

When they was a child, he got his Ostrich. When she became a girl, she got the Ostrich. When she had children, she gave them Ostrich.

Some folks will show the same at 12.00 and tell you they are cheap, and that's true. But 10.00 is cheaper.

And the boys' Overcoats! If you fail to be suited here something must be wrong in the service, for the goods are ample and right at all points, and cheap.

The new clothing store is a great success; very great, measured by sales.

This column has not printed much about Men's Hats of late, but nevertheless our hat merchant has had his thinking cap on.

Our hat store is worth knowing. Maybe you know it. Most men and boys do.

THE BEST OF CHILDREN'S MAGAZINES.

The publishers of St. Nicholas, that famous young folks' magazine, are offering to send a sample copy, free of charge, to any father or mother who would like to consider the question of taking a child's magazine during the year.

Here is a list of the most famous illustrators, who have been at its service.

Here is a list of the most famous names which have been up to its list of contributors.

Applied Christianity is what St. Nicholas teaches—unselfishness, faithfulness, courage, truthfulness, honesty, kindness.

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance.

It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness.

Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children.

Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children.

After experience gained we found it the best plan to clear out our houses, rush into the square and build grids of fire around the nest on one's clothes.

They were then the cockroaches, mice and insects that had taken up their abode in the roots. Now and then squawks of young mice told their story.

Usually these raids on us were made after a rainstorm; many of them came late in the evening, and the rats were loaded; these appeared to wander about till the others were ready.

The "Lightning Arresters." To the uninitiated it is a great puzzle how the dangers of lightning are arrested where there are so many conductors of electricity as there are in a building.

The Rev. Vaughn Smith died Saturday afternoon at his residence, No. 1018 West Seventh street, Wilmington, Del. He had been ill for nearly a year and his death was not unexpected.

He was born in Philadelphia in 1818. He was a member of the Philadelphia M. E. Conference in 1839 and continued there until 1866, when he joined the Wilmington Conference, which was organized that year.

During his ministry he filled many of the important parishes in Delaware and on the Peninsula. In his younger days he was regarded as one of the best preachers in this vicinity and about 22 years ago he was preaching elder of what was then Snow Hill district, Crisfield, Md., was his last pastoral appointment.

He retired from the active ministry about 1870, and spent the remainder of his life in Wilmington. He was an ardent Republican and bitterly opposed secession. During the late war he was chaplain of a Maryland regiment and for a while he was stationed at Princess Anne by the government to influence the people to remain loyal.

His parents were Presbyterians. He was a brother of the late P. Frazier Smith, a prominent lawyer of West Chester, Pa. His wife, whose maiden name was Sheppard, was the daughter of a wealthy farmer who resided near Gomboro. Besides his wife six children survive him.

The latter are Mrs. William R. Tall of Indianapolis, Mrs. Otho D. Bryan of Gettysburg, Md., and Mrs. Benjamin F. Harrington and Beaton, Benjamin S. and Joseph Smith. Mrs. Elijah Gordy and Mrs. Pusey, the widow of the late Elihu Pusey, both of this county, are sisters of the deceased man's wife.

Sir Edwin Arnold on Newspaper Work. During his reception by the New York Press Club on Thursday, Sir Edwin Arnold, the English author, paid a high tribute to the newspaper men of the day and said that they had lifted their profession from obscurity to such a standard that he had come to look upon the press as the tenth muse, entitled to her place on Olympus, and very likely to take it of her own accord if it was not granted to her.

He reviewed briefly his own journalistic career on the London Telegraph and said that he, like all newspaper men, had had to learn to write for the public as a newspaper man to the fact that he had grown fond of the work.

Speaking of the qualities that a successful newspaper man must possess, Sir Edwin said that he must have the confidence and the hide of a rhinoceros and a hair-trigger intellect. He must either know everything or where to find out those things which he does not know.

He was wiser of the fact that he is a journalist than he is of being an archbishop or a lord chancellor. Sir Edwin said that he was particularly impressed with the good temper of the American press. As an instance of it he cited the case of a Connecticut orator who stated in an open meeting that he would not give a word for the leading opposition paper, but that he would give it the same as he would give to the paper in question.

All of the latest and humor, all of the delicate and dainty love-making in Goldsmith's delightful comedy, "She Stoops to Conquer," was brought out in an artistic and pleasing manner.

There was about the performance all of the finish and earnestness that so delights us in the Jefferson-Florence company. After a satiation of horse play and vaudeville, it was refreshing, indeed, to the floor and more delicate sensibilities to be moved by such an awakening of the truly appreciative senses as the smiling sally as to the oppressed brain.

The company is made up of young, good-looking, intelligent actors—a combination of rare occurrence. They enter into their work with an earnestness that awakens a chord of sympathetic admiration, which soon finds itself thoroughly deservd.

Mr. Clarke determines himself by his work one of the few first-class legitimate comedians now before the American public. He is a model Tony Lumpkin, Eggs.

For one of his years, Mr. Clarke's work is truly excellent. He is a son of John S. Clark and a grandson of the elder Booth. John S. Clark married the beautiful and gifted Anna Booth, and from them will descend the Clark family.

Mr. Clarke is a pretty and graceful Clara Harlowe, with an attractive stage presence, a clear and audible voice, and a sweet enunciation that plainly evidences intelligence and education.

Mr. Hight does some good work as Mr. Harlowe, and proves himself a careful and painstaking actor.

Young Marlowe found a handsome and able proxy in Mr. Walter Hale, whose acting was truly good.

Miss Sawyer was a pretty and winsome Constance, with all the suggestions of the young sweetheart—a pleasing, coquettish figure.

The company is good throughout. None of the situations are overdrawn, none of the climaxes made silly by their exaggeration.

The afterpiece—"Poor Pillioddy"—a roaring one-act farce, sent the audience away in a perfectly contented humor, charmed with the entire performance.

The Journal, Atlanta, Oct. 9th, '91. This popular comedy will be at the Uman Opera House, Salisbury, next Monday evening, November 30th.

ADVERTISER

RECOMMENDS IT TO EVERYONE... Think that a word from me might be the cause of others receiving benefit from your S. S. S. I write to say that I have been cured from Eczema, which my doctor called pink heads. Small blisters would form on my limbs, would break and ooze, and cause large sores to form. The odor arising would be very disagreeable, and it would often be laid upon one to two weeks at a time. The disease would break out about every two months. I tried various physicians and treatments, but received no permanent relief until I was induced to try S. S. S. I continued the use of it until I had taken three bottles, which was over a year ago, and I have not had the Eczema since. I believe it is thoroughly eradicated from my system. I will state that S. S. S. is the greatest blood remedy, and I would recommend it to everyone afflicted with any form of blood poison, for I believe they will receive like benefits that I have.

JOHN A. BEARD, Louisville, Ky. We will mail free to any address a most valuable treatise on the blood and skin. SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga. The Proprietor's Order. Managing Editor (mopping his forehead): Whew! It's hot, gentlemen, you have been called together to hear a new order just telegraphed from Barbary by the proprietor of this great journal. He says that during this hot weather nine-tenths of the people in cities do little but sit around and read newspapers.

Worth Looking At. "Turn to the press—their teeming sheets surge, big with the wonders of each passing day." Among these the eye will pause to look at an old familiar family name from new dresses. It will surely delight to confront the weary and bring cheer and hope to the pain-stricken. The columns of this paper are graced by its re-appearance. It is welcome for what it promises to do with alacrity, and proves its promise by an ample show of performance. The right thing, in the right place, at the right time, experience has proved it to be. Upon this it has won public confidence and esteem, for while St. Jacob's Oil, the great remedy for pain, thus makes its annual round, and renews its pledges of prompt and permanent cure, its continual success is the guaranty that what it says is true and what it does is sure. Its best recommendation is its reputation, upon which all may depend for cure and comfort.

Beginning a Career. Aspirant Youth: I understand there is a vacancy on your local staff? City Editor—Yes, there is; in fact, we are very short-handed. I can give you a job at once. I want some one to go around and interview Sing Bullcreeper, the eminent politician. This paper charges that he beats his wife and starves his children, and we want to know what he thinks about it. "Um—er—haven't you a regular interviewer for that kind of thing?" "Oh, yes, several of them, but they are all in the hospital."

Let us Talk it Over. You know as well as I do that there are hundreds of thousands of widows and orphans living to-day who bleed the memory of a faithful, loving husband or father, who not only cared for them when he was alive, but had the foresight to care for them after his death by leaving them a five, ten or twenty thousand dollar life insurance policy. How will it be with you, good friend? Have you your life insured? If not, come in and let us talk it over. They own their own time dependent upon you. The Washington Life issues various classes of insurance—all good, but some fit certain cases better than others. The Washington stands at the head of its class, and offers better and more liberal policies than any company in the world. L. H. NICK, Genl. Agt., P. O. Box 183, Salisbury, Md.

Dr. Ross Knows. A Chicago reporter, who had been sent out to interview a number of people on the death of James R. Lowell, called by mistake at the office of a real estate man whose name corresponded with the one on his list. "Is this Mr. Dobbs?" "Yes." "I have come to get your opinion of James Russell Lowell—to ask your views as to how he stands in life." "I don't know how he stands. Go to Dun's Agency."

For Over Fifty Years Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens for gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world.

Stranger—Hem! Boy do you know any? Hotel Boy—Not a word. Stranger—Well, what? I am the Honorable Mr. Greatman, but I registered as J. Smith in order to avoid interviews. Here's quarter. Boy—All right. I'll tell 'em you're here. A Boston man lost twenty-five thousand dollars by slipping pennies at a thousand dollars a time. One member of a magazine publisher who hired a new editor and taught him to "flip," and at the first sitting, the same being a ratification of the bargain, succeeded in paying him his salary six months in advance.

Wanamaker's. PHILADELPHIA, NOV. 23, 1891. Lansdowne, dainty, delicately-dyed Lansdowne, one of the fairest and finest of all the silk-and-wool stuffs. Not a word of it in the papers for months, but the pieces are steadily melting away just the same and women all around are adding exquisite evening dresses and house gowns to their wardrobes because of it. The handsome goods of the kind that were ever put on the market 40 inch, $1.25 the yard.

Wanamaker's. A GREAT MAGAZINE. The Century's Progress in 1891—A New "Life of Columbus" for Farmers, etc. That great American periodical, The Century, is going to outdo its own irrisual record in its programme for 1892, and many of its new features begin with the November issue. The Century should begin with that issue.

Wanamaker's. The well-known humorist, Edgar W. Nye ("Bill Nye") is writing a series of humorous sketches which will be published in the November issue. The "Autobiography of a Justice of the Peace" is a new series of new readers to be followed by a number of others of great practical value to farmers, treating of the relations of the farmer to the soil, the farmer, what it is doing and what it should do. This series will include contributions from officers of the Department of Agriculture, and other well-known men will discuss "The Farmer's Disposition," "Cooperation," etc.

Wanamaker's. BILL NYE AS A JUSTICE. How He Beat the Barber. A spruce looking young man, entering a down town barber shop, sat down and looked at the barber of a hair cut and shave. After his mistake had been corrected the young man's satisfaction, he got out of the chair, put on his hat and walked out. The barber, who was a twenty-five cent piece, turned around to the young man and said that he should go and have a drink with him, as he wished in that way to show his appreciation of the artistic manner in which the young man had been shaved. The barber firmly but courteously declined the invitation, saying he never drank during business hours. But the young man, "You have given me the best hair cut I have ever enjoyed in a good while, and I have enjoyed it very much, and I have drunk with me for friendship's sake, and I cannot think of leaving without expressing in this manner my esteem for your excellent workmanship."

Trains Ahead of Time. A gentleman from the vicinity of the Blarney stone tramped into the depot for the seventh time a day or two ago. He was in a hurry, and he called to the seat, waited up to the ticket office and the seat, and he was in a hurry. He was in a hurry, and he called to the seat, waited up to the ticket office and the seat, and he was in a hurry.

Killed by Kindness. A lady was walking along the crowded streets of a city when she saw a small dog, which she thought was a stray, and she was in a hurry. She was in a hurry, and she called to the dog, and she was in a hurry.

Love of Old England. When Mr. Christie Murray started for America, he was a young man of twenty years, and he was in a hurry. He was in a hurry, and he called to the dog, and he was in a hurry.

Work Thinking Over. Young Mr. Garter—Is your sister in a hurry? Little Harry Clap—Yes. But she is longly thinking over you gentlemen, and she is in a hurry. She is in a hurry, and she called to the dog, and she was in a hurry.

Business Regarding that Hat. Says a society paper: "Let a gentleman making a call take care of his hat with-out your assistance. He can either leave it to the porter, or he can take it with him. The writer has omitted one thing here. Besides being allowed to take care of his hat the gentleman should not be asked where he is going to—Lenterville Courier-Journal."

I Dreamed I Was Dead. And was much surprised to notice the result of the settlement of my estate. My family had always been contented to live generally, and I had in a general way considered that my estate would clear up enough to enable me to graduate my children and make comfortable provision for my wife. After I was buried the truth was, the estate was my administrative began. My partner, who had always been absolutely reliable, had been the beneficiary of the business we had been years in the making. He had been the beneficiary of the business we had been years in the making.

Constitution. If not remedied in season, is liable to become habitual and chronic. Drastic purgatives, by weakening the bowels, and the use of cathartics, will only aggravate the condition. Ayer's Pills, being mild, effective, and strengthening in their action, are generally recommended by the best of the best of the best.
