DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS FROM THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

COL. HENRY PAGE,

OF SOMERSET COUNTY.

FEDERAL SUPERVISORS.

It is hard to believe that the republicans of this county felt that there was any need of Federal Supervisors at the polls, and yet we learn that a sufficient number has been found to petition for the appointment of these supervisors, and that every district of the county is to be supplied with these official gentry. It seems the republican judges of election and ballot clerks can't be trusted by their republican friends to see that the election is conducted fairly. Evidently there must be some distrust of the officers, or why do we have these supervisors here?

It will not do to say that they can't trust the democratic election officers, for there are two republican election officers in the same room, whose eyes and discernment will be quite as good as the one republican supervisor.

The fact is that the petition and appointment of these supervisors is a reflection on and insult to every republican ballot clerk and judge of election in the county, to say nothing of the democratic officers.

The county election supervisors are composed of two democrats and one republican and were selected for their probity and intelligence. They have made exhaustive efforts to select the very best men from both parties election officers. If they had selected corrupt republican henchmen to play second fiddle to corrupt democrats there might have been some excuse for Federal Supervisors. But the republicans dare not openly make such selections.

Institute comparison between the republican judges of election and ballot clerks on the one side and the Federal Supervisors on the other.

Take for instance the two Salisbury districts. Capt. L. A. Parsons, republican judge, and Samuel H. Evans, republican ballot clerk in Parsons' district, and Dr. W. G. Smith, republican judge, and Wm. J. Morris republican ballot clerk, in Salisbury and then inquire for the Federal Supervisors and draw your own conclusions as to whether these judges and ballot clerks could not have been trusted without the spy set on them by these Federal officers.

Again it is a notorious fact that the elections in Wicomico county have always been fair and peaceful. The only charge that could ever have been made was the money influence over the doubtful vote, of which all parties have been guilty and which is beyond the control of the supervisors.

If there is no need of these Federal Supervisors to secure a fair election, why were they appointed? We are forced to the conclusion that there is a sinister purpose in it.

These officers have a right to canvass the vote and certify the result to congress. Wicomico is an overwhelming democratic county and her vote is necessary to the election of our congressman. A Reed congress guided by a purblind partisanship, had but little respect for a democratic majority, and on the slightest pretext will unseat a democrat and place a republican in his place. The last session gave many painful examples of this.

This appointment of Federal supervisors is another step toward Federal control of elections. Democrats of Wicomico we make this last appeal to you to be at the polls and see that your friends and neighbors are there. Patriotic, non-partisan republicans, we appeal to you, to stamp your disapprobation on the appointment of these Federal officers by casting your vote for Col. Page.

You know him well and know you would make no mistake, though there may be some difference between you in minor elements of your political views.

The democrats of Wicomico will meet their brothers of Sussex, Del., at Delmar to-night in joint session. Perched on Dixie's boundary on the eve of the election, the Blue Hen's Chickens and the Gamecocks of Maryland will herald with a din the reform to follow the election of next Tuesday.

The New York Herald says: The price of window glass is going up. It is pretty tough to tax the light and sunshine in the poor man's cottage.

But McKinley has put a scorpion on the flea-lit. The hogs seem to have a better chance than the wage earner.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla acts directly and promptly, purifying and enriching the blood, improving the appetite, strengthening the nerves, and invigorating the system. It is, therefore, in the trust of every physician, a valuable medicine. Every invalid should give it a trial.

HOW TO VOTE.

WOMAN'S INSTITUTION.

Nearly Always Right in her Judgment in Regard to Common Things.

An old gentleman over seventy, came into the city from his farm, without his overcoat. The day turned chilly and he was obliged to forego his visit to the fair. A friend who remonstrated with him said: "I thought it was going to be warm; my wife told me to take my overcoat, but I wouldn't. Women have more sense than men usually."

A frank admission.

Women's good sense is said to come from intuition; but it may not be that they are more close observers of little things. One thing, certain, they are apt to be more exacting in their judgment than the lords of creation.

"According to Dr. Alice Bennett, who recently read a paper on Bright's disease before the Pennsylvania State Medical Society, persons subject to bilious attacks and sick headaches, who have crawling sensations like the flowing of water in the head, are tried all the time and have unexplained attacks of sudden weakness, may well be suspected of dangerous tendencies in the direction of Bright's Disease."

The veteran newspaper correspondent John Howard, of the New York "Press," in neither column, suggests: "Possibly Alice is correct in her diagnosis, but why doesn't she give some idea of treatment?" I know a man who has been tired all the time for ten years. Night before last he took two doses of calomel and yesterday he wished he hadn't."

A proper answer is found in the following letter of Mrs. Davis, wife of Rev. Wm. J. Davis, of Basil, O., June 21st, 1890.

"I do not hesitate to say that I owe my life to Warner's Safe Cure. I had a constant hemorrhage from my kidneys for more than five months. The physicians could do nothing for me. My husband spent hundreds of dollars and I was not relieved. I was under the care of the most eminent medical men in the City. Then I heard of Warner's Safe Cure. I had a small dose of it every day and within a week I was well again."

"When vice prevails and impure men sway us." When cuts, sprains, bruises torment all the day; Then ease from pain—from care and hurt are sent.

By great Salvation Oil, the standard liniment.

Everyone who has once used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup invariably resorts to it again for colds, etc.

Some Results of the Tariff.

When a dealer recently raised the price of an article on which the tariff had lowered the duty he was assailed for wanton extortion. But his reply was conclusive: "It is true that the duty is not raised upon the wares that I sell, but it is raised upon those that I buy for my family, and I can afford to pay higher prices only by asking higher prices." It is from the fact that the higher price of necessities carries up the general cost of living that Mr. Carlisle draws the conclusion that all prices, except those that we raise in excess of the domestic demand, like agricultural products, will rise in price, and consequently the burden of the tariff will fall on farmers, wage-earners, and salaried men and women.

No protected interest doubts that it will profit by the raised rates of the tariff. It is equally undeniable, as already appears, that prices will be generally increased. But how is the tariff to raise the wages of those who must pay the increased prices? Will the interests which are to profit largely raise the wages of their workers? Are their workers to profit by their share of profit by reflecting the increased cost of living? Will the receiver of the pauper wages of Europe? If that be a sound argument, it was sound last month before the tariff became protection against low wages, how is that this month the higher tariff lowers wages by heightening the price of necessities? Unless wages are raised, where is the advantage of wage-earners in the higher tariff, and how can it truly be said to be passed in their interest?

It may be answered that the price of labor is not determined by the profits of employers, but by supply and demand, and that the tariff by fostering new industries creates a demand for labor.

It is a fact that the tariff is regarded as the protector of the American laborer. But how does it protect him if the pauper laborer, whose products the tariff excludes, is admitted free to compete with the American laborer in supplying the increased demand occasioned by the tariff? Who have imported pauper foreign laborers except those who have insisted that the products of pauper foreign labor shall be excluded? The great body of such laborers are ignorant, demoralizing and dangerous persons, wholly foreign races. They are brought here because they will work more cheaply, and they are brought by those who demand low wages. For the pauper laborer, I am sure, is more interested in high wages than in low wages. Are the employers who fill their works with such imported laborers more deeply interested than other Americans in the welfare of American laborers? This degradation of American citizenship is a direct result of the high tariff—Harpers' Weekly.

In William Penn's State,

The Philadelphia Inquirer would certainly have softening of the brain if it were possible, but for obvious reasons it is not possible.

That lurid organ remains in a casual sort of way that if Pattison, the democrat, is elected Governor of Pennsylvania "the fires in the furnaces may be well drawn and the great manufacturing interests"—of that State—"may as well close their doors."

So seems the Quay people are alarmed, are they? Can't they run their ticket on merit, so they ran it on merit. It is an old dodge, this cry of "Wolf!"

When Mr. Cleveland was nominated these same tricksters tried to influence the Southern negroes by a picture of an ailing black with a group of colored folk on sale. Under the picture was a legend informing the blacks that if Cleveland was elected they would all be driven back to slavery.

That sort of thing has a cheetah flavor. It didn't work in those days and it won't work in these.

But how awfully frightened Quay must be to resort to such a device!—N. Y. Herald.

Deafness Can't be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies.

Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or impediment in the ear. This is called Deafness. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Hall's Catarrh.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

That Little Tickling

In your throat, which makes you cough once in a while and keeps you constantly clearing your throat, arises from catarrh, a constitutional disorder. The only remedy for it is to take a strong cathartic.

What you need is a constitutional medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Many people who have taken this medicine for catarrh, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and other troubles, have been surprised that it should cure this troublesome cough.

But to know the actual cause of the cough is to solve the mystery. Many cases of consumption can be traced back to the neglect of some such slight affection as this. Consumption can be controlled by early diagnosis and treatment.

Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Hall's Catarrh.

RECKLESS SPENDING OF CHARITY FUNDS.

Some $3,307,800 was contributed for the relief of the sufferers from the Johnstown flood in May, 1889, of which $2,912,446 was entrusted to the commission appointed by Governor Beaver. According to the analysis published in the New York Herald, Monday, the amount contributed to the various charitable organizations was about $1,000,000.

An old gentleman over seventy, came into the city from his farm, without his overcoat. The day turned chilly and he was obliged to forego his visit to the fair.

Mr. Dean Perdue, our popular dealer in rolling stock received this week the largest consignment of road cars from the city ever delivered to a dealer in this place.

Mr. Woodland L. Todd of Selma, Ala., is visiting his father in Salisbury. Since his arrival here he has entered into the spirit of Eastern Politics, having taken the stamp for Page.

Miss May McMaster of Pocomoke City, well-known in Salisbury, was married last Tuesday evening to Dr. Henry N. Willis of that city. Mr. George S. Williams of our town was one of the ushers.

Those who vote for the republican ticket this fall are endorsing a measure to increase their living twenty-five per cent, or rather to lessen their comfort one-fourth, because it will not increase their income.

Quail and rabbits are plentiful in the county this year, and the sportsmen are anticipating lots of good sport. The law is to day and there will, no doubt, be a great slaughter of the innocents before the setting of the autumnal beam.

Mr. J. J. Morris and Mrs. Wm. Munford have been having an oyster and scallop supper at the rectory next Wednesday evening for the benefit of St. Peter's church. They will welcome all who come. Supper from 6 to 11 o'clock.

A sale of four Jersey cows took place at the farm of Mr. R. S. Cohn, near this town, on Wednesday last. Three of them sold for $75 each and one sold for $67. Several calves, six to eight weeks old, were also sold. Some of them brought $20 per head.—Salisbury Herald.

Mr. George Wallace was seriously injured in the hand Thursday afternoon. While crushing corn by horse power his wrist was caught into the cogs of the machine and the small bones were severed and laid bare. His physicians, Drs. Dennis & Fulton, think that the hand can be saved.

The small court of Somerset county, which adjourned Saturday, sent six warrants to the Maryland Penitentiary, and one criminal was returned to the county jail. The offences were principally larceny, and the terms of sentence range from two to five years. Wm. Allen, colored, convicted of Manslaughter, was sentenced to five years.

Ex-Commissioner Geo. W. Merick grew from a little more than two-fifths of an acre of ground 206 bushels of sweet potatoes of the red rose variety. This is about 515 bushels to the acre. The crop at 50 cents per bushel would yield a revenue of $257,500 per acre. Figures for farmers to consider. How many acres would it take to grow $257,500 worth of corn?

As noted in our last issue the tide of Friday of the past week was one of the largest since the Centennial overflow. In many tide-water districts the land was submerged Friday and Saturday. Crisfield was in a foot deep on Saturday. The greatest damage done is to this farming lands which will not produce well for several years after having been covered by salt water.

Parsons' district will vote her friends at the Court House as well as in Salisbury district the right of the building of S. Ulman & Bro. & Co. will be exercised at the Dock Street building.

Even democrat who is worthy the name will make it the paramount duty of the day to go to the polls and cast a vote for Page and Principle and against Quay and Corruption.

In our advertising columns will be found the platform of the Prohibition party, which will be observed is rather lenient and although it condemns all the democratic and republican parties for their insincerity in civil-service reform etc., it will be seen by the careful reader that our Prohibition brethren have some things in common with the cardinal principles of Democracy. Suppose the party votes the democratic ticket this fall.

Demar Items.

Harry A. Richardson republican candidate for Governor of Delaware was in town on Friday.

A political meeting in the interest of Major Hancock of Harford county, Md. Candidate for congress Harry Cannon, was present and made a few remarks. The band attended.

The annual meeting is announced for Saturday evening.

A special train was run from here to Cape Charles Sunday last to accommodate those desiring to attend the meeting in progress then at the M. E. church. About sixty persons went.

Milton Nelson, one of the oldest engineers in the N. Y. P. & N. railroad, based upon his arrival at the station and after alighting to it as the hardest work he ever did, expired immediately. He joined the M. E. church at Cape Charles Sunday and was a member of the A. O. U. W. A. wife and several children survive him.

THE U. S. EXPRESS CO.

Mr. C. E. Topping, Gen. Superintendent of the Atlantic division of the United States Express Co., was in Salisbury Wednesday arranging to put his company on the B. & S. railroad. Satisfactory arrangements have been made and the company will begin business to day. Mr. Robt. D. Ellegood has resigned his position as agent for the M. & S. Steamboat Co. he having been placed in charge of the express Co. The company furnishes him with horse and wagon, which arrived from the city yesterday. The office occupied by Col. Malone on Division street is to be used by Mr. Ellegood as express office.

Mr. W. Sidney Gordy has been appointed by the steamboat company to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Ellegood.

Mr. Ellegood has made a most popular and active useful officer for the steamboat company and in his resignation it losses a good man. Its loss, however, will be the express company's gain.

The following are the names of the officers of the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Wicomico, and the term of their service.

General Manager Benjamin informs us that on and after today, November 1st, all passenger and freight traffic for the Baltimore & Eastern Shore railroad, will be received and delivered at the new station on Division street. Neither passenger nor freight will be received elsewhere in Salisbury. This includes the Wicomico & Pocomoke division.

The new passenger station here is a handsome structure, perhaps the finest on the line. The waiting rooms are on the first floor. On the second floor are the offices of the company. One is occupied by Manager B. & E. S. The office was fitted with the Western Union wires this week. The top town telegraph office will be managed in the future by Mr. Wm. J. Holloway. Mr. Barney J. Hayman of Somerset county has been appointed agent at Salisbury for the new road.

Tetter and Blot.

For years I was afflicted with an aggraving disease called "Tetter." I tried lotions, salves, soaps, and other remedies, with no benefit or results. In addition to the Tetter, boils commenced breaking out all over my body, causing me so much pain that I had to quit work and go to bed. I then decided that I had started wrong, and instead of using external treatment I ought to go to the seat of the disease and purify my blood, as it was obviously bad blood that caused both the Tetter and the Boils. I took several blood purifiers without any good effects. About the time my case was rendered incurable I began taking S. S. in one dose by the tablet. The tablets are small. I was竈pted and permanently cured. This was three years ago, and since then I have been free from any skin eruptions. My skin is now, and has been for three years, as smooth as any one's. S. S. not only cured me of the Tetter and Boils, but also restored my appetite and general health, causing me to increase in weight and improve in every way.

The Secret of Success.

To young men who would "get on" in this world, and reach the age of four score years, with happiness and prosperity, there is little to be said. But I will refer them to a study of my own rules of action:

Briefly I would say—be honest; do not spend as much as you make; don't smoke or drink; depend upon your own personal exertions, and do not leave important affairs to a third person; don't have too many irons in the fire; do not give up above your means, and above all be systematic in advertising your business, or all possible conditions, so that the public made to the public are fulfilled. It does not pay to have a single customer go away dissatisfied. Nor does it pay to take money for services for which you do not render an equivalent.

The best working years of a man's life are usually between 26 and 60; but much good work is possible long after the three score year mark has been passed. I can say for myself that every moment of my time is put to some definite purpose, and that I am continually learning and improving. I enjoy a reasonable recreation each day. Both work and rest, and joy also, should make up the sum of a busy life.—T. Burton in Ladies' Home Journal.

The Longest Word in the Dictionary is incompetent to communicate the inexpressible satisfaction and incomprehensible consequences resulting from a judicious administration of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a preparation designed especially for the speedy relief and permanent cure of all Female Weaknesses, Nervousness, and disease peculiar to the female sex. The only remedy for woman's peculiar ills, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, to give satisfaction. See guarantee or wrapper of bottle. This guarantee has been faithfully carried out for many years by the proprietors.

Another American Retress to be Captured.

Private information received from abroad announces the engagement of Miss Helen Beckwith, daughter of the late Nelson M. Beckwith, of this city, to Francis Dudley Leigh, eldest son of Lord Leigh of Leightonstone, Abber, who was born in July, 1855, and whose brother met a cruel death by falling into a deep canon in Colorado several years ago. His mother is a sister of the Duke of Westminster. Miss Beckwith is at present living with Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Martin at their place in the Scotch Highlands. She is an heiress, having been left $750,000 by her father, who died in 1878, and will be worth $1,000,000 at 75 Fifth Avenue. Miss Beckwith has for years been known in the New York society as "Baby Beckwith." She is about forty-three years old. The marriage will be celebrated in London on November 3d.—N. Y. Sun.

Life Insurance

Is a social duty, because no person has a right to expect society to support or provide for those for whom he himself could by a little self-denial, have made a certain provision. Society is justified in casting a reprobation upon the majority of those whose selfishness leaves their widows or children destitute, and who, in their support, Reader, if you have insured, I'll not get a policy of ours in the "Washington Life" Insurance Company of New York.

Alphonse Daudet's Latest Work.
Alphonse Daudet's latest work, Port Tarcan; the Last Adventures of the Illustrious Tartarin, translated by Henry James, is announced by Harper & Brothers as ready for publication. The volume will contain nearly two hundred and fifty illustrations from drawings by the famous French artist, Rossi, Myrbach, Montaub, and Montenard—the inventors, it may be said, of an original style of illustration. "The only defect in the story," says Henry James, "is that it leaves no more to come; it exhausts the possibilities."

For Over Fifty Years.

"Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children's teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world."

A Remarkable Case.

A backwoods preacher disconcerted on the part of the prodigal son, and in alluding to his fatted calf, which was killed, when the prodigal returned, he said: "Brother and sisters, you must remember that this was no ordinary calf, but on the contrary it was a very extraordinary calf, selected because it had not the spot of the household for many years."

Clergymen.

It is a fact that while aged lawyers and doctors are receiving the largest fees of their lifetimes, aged clergymen are often neglected.

Possibly in the advance of human education the time may come when aged clergymen will receive from all Christian churches the kind support, consideration, and care which they are entitled to.

Wanamaker's.

PHILADELPHIA, Monday, Oct. 27, 1890.

Hardly a day but there's something new and taking to tell of Women's Muslim Underwear. Mostly they're not told. Half dozen hints:

Gowns.
Muslim, Mother Hubbard, Vests of 24 fine plaid, trimmed with Cumbie full, $5.00.

Muslim, same style, neck, yoke and sleeves finished with neat Hanbury lace. A lot of heavy Muslim Gowns, double-trimmed yokes, were $15.25, $15.35.

Heavy and fine Mu-lin with blind Hamburg ruffles, $5.00. Of own make.

Women's woven Underpants, all wool, $5.00 and $1.

Ornaments.
Felt black Satin at 45¢. The cheapest low-priced Corsets we know of.

Come with any seasonable Dress Goods notion; the stuff is here. And always as little to pay for it as anywhere, very likely you'll save money.

Who wants a Shoulder Cape that doesn't fit? Bad enough to have a dicky garment of any kind. But think of a lop-sided sloppy, sloshy Shoulder Cape! Why the charm of one is its neatness and trimness, its snug fit and jaunty set.

Plenty of Fur-butchers who try to make Shoulder Capes. We've neither them nor their work. The exactest patterns, the highest grade of silk and taste doing together turn out the exquisite things we show.

Seal goods from early bought Alaska skins. You'd guess it by the prices—Ulsters, Coats, JACKETS, CAPES, MUFFS.

Fur Trimmings of every choice cut.

Boston Felt. That's the softest, roughish, plain-color paper so many are putting in halls and dining-rooms and the like. Perhaps the most lasting of all the Wall Papers. And makes a room look bigger, any plain paper does.

60 cents a piece is the regular price for Boston Felt.

Here are 3948 pieces, best quality, at 30 cents. Newest tints.

Handsome Friezes to match each shade.

The toughest Jersey Suit we ever had for Boys of 4 to 8 years. Pure worsted, elastic either way, and if a thread breaks it won't ravel. Think you can tear a piece with your fingers? Try. Hundreds have and failed. $5 is a bagnette for such a suit.

Think of a neat, sturdy Ulster for Boys of 5 to 14 years at $3.50! Not a scrap of Cotton in it.

A fit companion for the remarkable $15 and $16 Kersey Overcoats for Men.

Can't You Crow Old Cock?

The people of this country have risen in their might and asserted their rights. They have shown that they could not be bought off by such dubious schemes as the McKinley Tariff bill. The very people that scheme was intended to net saw the decision and acted accordingly, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Western Maryland—all democratic; and that little reciprocity hox of Blaine's that we were to trade grain and flour to our South American neighbors, was equally uninviting to the sensible. The country might possibly have put up with all that, but when the republicans returned to the bill, that was to keep them in.

—Mrs. Louis Ritter for ever and make the government for paternoster the party arose in its sweet potato. One and called halt. The serious farm weighs 9 pds. if the situation was not open till Bahama variety. Added to all this was the system shockingly unsatisfactory of democratic members and placing in their seats republicans who had not a shadow of right to be there. This, too, brought home to every one the seriousness of the situation. The fact is any other result would have shaken our confidence in popular government, but the people, as usual, saw the situation—the direction of the current, boulders looming up—and decided to change the crew of the ship. In their appointed time they may give the old crew the unlimited control of the ship again but not until they are satisfied that she will be safely manned. This is no one man country, a fact which Reed and Quay sadly realize.

There is not an intelligent man in this country who will not read with profound interest the interviews of prominent citizens of this country, published in this issue of the ADVERTISER, on the new election law, commonly known as the Australian Ballot Law. These interviews and the results of the election settle one point beyond a peradventure—that we will forever hereafter vote under the law, so we may all well make up our minds to that effect. People generally were surprised at its simplicity.

Never since the county has been formed has there been a quiet or more orderly election, less friction or fewer ballots incorrectly cast. It is safe to say that it's supposed intricacies and red-tape paraphernalia did not prevent one dozen persons in the county from voting. It is a matter of special gratification to the publisher of the ADVERTISER that the law proved such an eminent success. We fought for it in reason and out of it, were possible to fight for such a thing out of reason at any time. We believed then, as we now know, that the principle is right, secret voting and an official ballot. There may be in the future some difference of opinion as to details, but the cardinal principles are firmly planted and will never be uprooted.

The Australian Ballot System is with us to stay. It will be, and is now, as much a part of our elective system as is our registration laws and will be as firmly held.

—With the repeal of the fence law in Sharptown district by a decided vote last Tuesday, Wicomico has virtually declared that every man shall take care of his own stock. There is in reality now no such thing as a "Common." Every district in the county except Barren Creek has repealed the fence law, either by popular vote, or by act of the legislature and that district is so hemmed in by stock law territories that the fence law can benefit no one; all of which should have been done many years ago. It's a well-settled principle that we can only have good stock by taking care of it; it is equally well-settled that grazing on salt marshes and browsing on dry brush, liberty bushes is not the proper way to care of stock.

The Baltimore American was evidently taken by surprise at the results of the election in Maryland. In its issue of Wednesday, it published cuts of five Congressmen elect, omitting that of McCalley. It is very evident that its publishers were not expecting McComas' defeat. Worse if they have in their office a likeness of Mr. McComas? From a party of knowing they were not very certain of Compton's election, as they used a likeness which had probably been in existence twenty years. Well, such is life, doomed to disappointment.

—The Thurman Club has our thanks for your invitation to a banquet to be given to the "Old Roman" on his 77th birthday anniversary at Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 18th. The capacity of the banquet hall is 1000, and covers will be laid for that number. The plan and rule of the affair will make the cost of the banquet $10,000. In its invitation the club says:

We desire to extend to all admirers and friends of the Statesman and Jurist, whose honored name we bear, a cordial invitation to join with us on this jubilee occasion in paying our respects to "The Noblest Roman of all," and we invite your co-operation to make it a memorable event in the history of the party.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Bits of News About Town, Gathered by the "Advertiser's" Reporters.

—Messrs. Godefroy & How will sit at auction today, at the Court house a number of horses and mules.

—Mr. S. S. Smyth of the firm of Durman & Smyth, cut his foot quite seriously last Wednesday while chopping with a hatchet.

—Mr. George T. Robertson secretary of the Board of Directors of the Maryland House of Correction, was in this county during this week.

—Rev. C. S. Arnett is conducting a very prosperous revival meeting at Mt. Hermon church. About 20 converts have been numbered.

—Among those who came home to vote were Mr. Wm. S. Moore, Dr. George W. Troutt and W. H. Warren of Baltimore. They returned to the city on Wednesday.

—Mrs. Louisa Riall of Tyaskin takes second honors for producing the largest sweet potato. One sent in from her farm weighs 9 pounds. It is of the Bahama variety.

—Chief Shockley of our Police Force donned a handsome suit of brass and blue this week in which he looks like a Broadway importation from Inspector Byrne's force.

—An entertainment will be given this (Friday) evening at the residence of Mrs. R. D. Grier on Main street by the Young People's Association of the Presbyterian church. Price of admission 10 cents.

—Mrs. Munford and Mrs. J. J. Morris gave a supper at the rectory last Wednesday evening, the proceeds of which will be applied St. Peter's church debt. The supper was elegantly served, consisting of oysters, game, salads, etc.

—The Australian Ballot law, it seems, worked admirably in this county last Tuesday. Everything was as quiet about the polling places as it was possible for it to be. No confusion was caused by the new order of things, everybody voted as chose.

—Hoar frost has been nature's pall several mornings recently. The leaves which have clung to the trees later than usual, are now rapidly dropping to the earth. The melancholy of this season of the year is greatly mitigated by the advent of homely and savage.

—Miss James Cannon was the purchaser of the John W. Anderson farm, sold at trustee's sale last Saturday afternoon at the Court House. The tract contains 250 acres of good farming land, and lies in Quantico district on the Wicomico river. The price paid was $2,985.

—The people of Spring Hill will seek for a post office at Nelson's switch on the line of Baltimore & Eastern Shore railroad. An office there would be of much convenience to the farmers of the community who are located about mid-way between Salisbury and B. C. Springs.

—Mr. W. F. Allen, Jr., left some fine strawberries at our office this week. They were the second growth of the Crawford. Mr. Clarence M. Brewington gathered from his raspberry canes a few days ago, a lot of the fruit which have ripened under the seductive influence of the autumn suns.

—All liquor dealers of the county are requested to meet in the Union Opera House Wednesday afternoon of next week for the purpose of organizing a protective league. Such a meeting was held last Tuesday but because of the absorbing interest in the election but few dealers were in attendance.

—Despite the decline of racing in this country, many of our more ardent horsemen occasionally meet at the Fair grounds. Several town gentlemen have swift steeds which they sometimes give a turn on the track. We wonder why these gentlemen are not interesting themselves in keeping our track in better order.

—The first man killed on the new Baltimore & Eastern Shore railroad met his fate Saturday evening of last week. His name was George Jackson, son of Capt. Lambert Jackson, formerly of this county. The accident occurred near Rhodessdale, Dorchester county. Jackson was run over by the construction train and at once killed. He had been married since childhood.

—Frank Bell, a colored boy twelve years old, was shot and killed near Princess Anne last Tuesday by Samuel Smith, also colored, aged 18 years. The trouble started from the boy threatening another. Smith said that he could not hit the other boy, it is said, and ran into his father's houses and seizing a shotgun, fired at the victim. The shotgun too effect in the lung and heart. Smith ran to the swamp where he hid, and has not yet been captured.

—The management of the B. & E. S. R. will meet next Wednesday, 12th and Thursday, 13th, at a joint trip ticket office at all points along the line from Salisbury to "Albion" for the one fare price for the round trip. The ticket will be good for return all money. The managers offered the Bennett compulsory State school law, and the publicans took the position that the law is good and must remain on the statute books.

Tennessee elected the full democratic State ticket by 29,000 to 30,000 majority. H. C. Sodgrain, democrat, defeated H. Clay Evans, republican, for Congress in the third district, making a democratic gain of one Congressman.

Colorado is still in doubt. Complete returns have not been received from a single county. The vote is close.

Florida went democratic by increased majorities. Both Congressmen are dead.

In Michigan the democrats gain five Congressmen, according to the estimate of ex-Postmaster-General, Don M. Dickinson. The democratic candidate for Governor is ahead and the Legislature is in doubt.

Massachusetts returns seven democrats in Congressmen, a gain of five for the democrat. Wm. E. Russell, democrat, is elected Governor by over ten thousand majority.

In Kansas the usual republican majority of eight thousand melted away, and the Farmers' Alliance candidates have been elected. The democrats have elected one and the Farmers' Alliance five of the seven members of the congressional delegation, which has heretofore been solid republican. The re-election of Senator Ingalls is a matter of grave doubt.

California is the only state where the republicans made a gain of a Congressman.

The election day of 1890 will in the future be known as Black Friday to the republican party in this country. They reaped the fruits of their high handedness in the Census. For the first time in history a majority of the members of Congress will be solid democratic delegations.

The signal defeat of Quay's candidate, Delaney, in Pennsylvania is a democratic congratulation to the democrats.

The next House of Representatives will be democratic by a majority, estimated at this writing of 12, which returns Speak at the floor.

THE ELECTION IN THE COUNTY.

The election in this county passed off quietly. Not a single disturbance being reported. The total vote cast was 70 per cent of the registered voters. The colored vote was full, as usual. The working of our fellow townsmen, Mr. I. Todd, who has been a life-long resident of this county. For the past five years Mr. Todd has been practicing law in Alabama with a considerable measure of success but has finally decided to again cast his fortunes with the friends of his early manhood.

Mr. Todd is a nephew of Dr. H. Laird Todd and read law in Judge Holland's office in this city. While in Alabama, Mr. Todd was a candidate for city collector of Selma, and out of a field of four, was defeated by only one vote.

He was prominently mentioned this past spring in the legislatures of Alabama. Those who have been honest in their condemnation of it are now ready to acknowledge that it is simple, effective, and tends to devolve the imaginary terror that it was supposed by some to be clothed with. It has proved to be a great improvement on the old system, voting at our present registry system is upon Delawau's poll-tax methods.

—Rev. C. S. Arnett is conducting a very prosperous revival meeting at Mt. Hermon church. About 20 converts have been numbered.

—Among those who came home to vote were Mr. Wm. S. Moore, Dr. George W. Troutt and W. H. Warren of Baltimore. They returned to the city on Wednesday.

—Mrs. Louisa Riall of Tyaskin takes second honor for producing the largest sweet potato. One sent in from her farm weighs 9 pounds. It is of the Bahama variety.

—Chief Shockley of our Police Force donned a handsome suit of brass and blue this week in which he looks like a Broadway importation from Inspector Byrne's force.

—An entertainment will be given this (Friday) evening at the residence of Mrs. R. D. Grier on Main street by the Young People's Association of the Presbyterian church. Price of admission 10 cents.

—Mrs. Munford and Mrs. J. J. Morris gave a supper at the rectory last Wednesday evening, the proceeds of which will be applied St. Peter's church debt. The supper was elegantly served, consisting of oysters, game, salads, etc.

—The Australian Ballot law, it seems, worked admirably in this county last Tuesday. Everything was as quiet about the polling places as it was possible for it to be. No confusion was caused by the new order of things, everybody voted as chose.

—Hoar frost has been nature's pall several mornings recently. The leaves which have clung to the trees later than usual, are now rapidly dropping to the earth. The melancholy of this season of the year is greatly mitigated by the advent of homely and savage.

—Miss James Cannon was the purchaser of the John W. Anderson farm, sold at trustee's sale last Saturday afternoon at the Court House. The tract contains 250 acres of good farming land, and lies in Quantico district on the Wicomico river. The price paid was $2,985.

—The people of Spring Hill will seek for a post office at Nelson's switch on the line of Baltimore & Eastern Shore railroad. An office there would be of much convenience to the farmers of the community who are located about mid-way between Salisbury and B. C. Springs.

—Mr. W. F. Allen, Jr., left some fine strawberries at our office this week. They were the second growth of the Crawford. Mr. Clarence M. Brewington gathered from his raspberry canes a few days ago, a lot of the fruit which have ripened under the seductive influence of the autumn suns.

—All liquor dealers of the county are requested to meet in the Union Opera House Wednesday afternoon of next week for the purpose of organizing a protective league. Such a meeting was held last Tuesday but because of the absorbing interest in the election but few dealers were in attendance.

—Despite the decline of racing in this country, many of our more ardent horsemen occasionally meet at the Fair grounds. Several town gentlemen have swift steeds which they sometimes give a turn on the track. We wonder why these gentlemen are not interesting themselves in keeping our track in better order.

—The first man killed on the new Baltimore & Eastern Shore railroad met his fate Saturday evening of last week. His name was George Jackson, son of Capt. Lambert Jackson, formerly of this county. The accident occurred near Rhodessdale, Dorchester county. Jackson was run over by the construction train and at once killed. He had been married since childhood.

—Frank Bell, a colored boy twelve years old, was shot and killed near Princess Anne last Tuesday by Samuel Smith, also colored, aged 18 years. The trouble started from the boy threatening another. Smith said that he could not hit the other boy, it is said, and ran into his father's houses and seizing a shotgun, fired at the victim. The shotgun too effect in the lung and heart. Smith ran to the swamp where he hid, and has not yet been captured.

—The management of the B. & E. S. R. will meet next Wednesday, 12th and Thursday, 13th, at a joint trip ticket office at all points along the line from Salisbury to "Albion" for the one fare price for the round trip. The ticket will be good for return all money. The managers offered the Bennett compulsory State school law, and the publicans took the position that the law

Opinions of the Australian System.

Following is an expression of opinion of some of our leading public men on the Australian Ballot system, as operated in this country for the first time last Tuesday. Gov. Jackson was out of town and we were unable to interview him on the question. Senator E. Stanley Treadwell says of the new law: Although there was no necessity for a change in the law in this country, it is an improvement on the old. Contrary to all expectation there was a large vote out, and not the slightest confusion or trouble was caused by it. It worked very well, indeed. I have seen no place more favorable to the law, even when the weather was bad in the legislature. If it could do so good, I was certain that no harm would result from it.

Major Humphreys said: It is a perfect success. A thing the people will not be willing to give up. The ticket was small this year but there is no reason why it will not work as satisfactorily in the future.

Dr. F. M. Simons: I was greatly pleased with the operation of the law. By its method the usual crowding and jostling about the polls was averted, and the election officers were left untrammelled by the crowds, who, on similar occasions in the past, greatly hindered the work of the judges and other officers of the election.

BOLLA MOORE, Postmaster.

SATURDAY, NOV. 15, 1890.

The Rev. F. M. Gibson, we understand is a candidate for the Clerkship of the next house of Representatives and with much promise of success. We feel safe in saying that he will have the support of the democracy, not only of the first congressional district, but of the whole State.

No man will give him a harder support than will his successor, Col. Page. You may rely upon that now, Mr. Gibson, we feel sure.

No man, as we had occasion to say at the time, could have acted manlier than Mr. Gibson, after his defeat. He did not fail in his tent or remain inactive, because he was not on the ticket, but was the first to take the stump. Mr. Gibson is our man for Clerk of the next house.

Some of the life insurance companies that are trying to do business in this county have discovered a new relation between parent and child, judging from their policy in business, as set forth in flaming advertisements. They advertise to insure children between the ages of 3 and 7. Now what we want to know is, who is dependent upon the labor of these three year old children for their subsistence? whom do they protect?

The object of life insurance is to furnish protection to those dependent upon the assured. There are, however, two other objects, one; a safe investment of one's surplus earnings; the other, the exact crossing place of the stream. The exact crossing place of the stream is still cheap articles were sold, but that is, insure your wife bid in by the company. Is offering you no protection but on the other hand add to your cost of living, that in case of their death you may make gains, speculating on the life of your children—if they die you win, if they live you lose. This is the situation in a nutshell. This is what such business means, nothing more nor less. The three year old child under ordinary circumstances can certainly furnish no protection. As an investment the parent had as well take the policy on himself, the investment is supposed to be the same, at all events, but the speculative value of the policy is different and this is where the whole matter lies. We would suggest that the company, instead of offering to insure the man's children, offer to insure his horses, or cows, or dogs, or sheep, or guarantee him that next winter will be extremely mild, or that it will rain on the 4th of July, 1891. The propositions are of the same nature, so far as the underwriters are concerned. It is this kind of gambling that frequently makes people averse to legitimate life insurance.

Mr. Carrick on the Result.

A Covington (Ky.) dispatch says: Senator Carrick says he had anticipated popular disapprobation of the course of the party in Congress, but that the sweeping and emphatic condemnation of the indignant uprising of the people against the domineering methods of the republicans in Congress, against the continuance of war taxes in time of peace, against extravagant pension legislation and against the insolent trampling upon the rights of suffrage by ousting Congressmen from seats to which the people had elected them and putting in their places men whom the people had rejected, and the threat to still further subject the popular suffrage to partisan manipulation by the enactment of the "tariff bill." Of course, according to the Senator, "the tariff was a prominent and in many places the principal issue, but the result of the election is a condemnation of Reaction and Lodges as well as McKinleyism, and it seems to me so accepted by the republican party managers, for it has caused them to change their programme. They had arranged to call an extra session of Congress and pass the Lodge election bill, but that I believe, has been abandoned. The verdict of the people has probably doomed that bill to defeat."

Reported Fighting in Honduras.

On the evening of the 9th inst., a part of the division at Tegucigalpa, Honduras, led by Gen. Longino Sanchez, revolted and took the city. The president, President Bogran, at once took the field against the insurgents, rallying the Pueblos to his support. Already there has been severe fighting. San Salvador has up to the present time remained neutral.

Assistant Secretary Wharton, of the State Department at Washington, said Tuesday morning that the department had received absolutely no news with regard to the revolution reported in Honduras. One of the first things done in South America in view of trouble is to interest telegraphic communication and to this the department attributes its lack of information on the subject.

Australian Ballet in Credit.

The Australian Ballet Law was an unqualified success. It won golden opinions even from those who it is to. In some minor details the law needs amendment but here, as elsewhere it has come to stay. The general opinion is that it ought now to be designed a law to send the Democratic party to the front. That is what in our judgment a fair and a free ballot means in Maryland and in the whole country. There was no cause on either side in this country to be any preliminary instruction, but the ultimate voter sang on very quickly.—Cecil Denslow.

Patty Cannon's Home.
The following was written by the St. Martin's Correspondent of the Snow Hill Record & Gazette. As many of our readers are interested in that notorious reader, we present it in "The Entailed Hat," we give it space in our columns. The old reader was personally acquainted with her.

Near where the counties of Dorchester and Caroline, in Maryland, form a junction with Sussex county in Delaware, stands an antiquated and gloomy looking building which seems to breathe the very atmosphere of dark and bloody deeds. The eye is struck at once by the roof specks of age and decay, and as the winds sigh and moan around its aged gables, seem to whisper of robbery and murder and every deed of darkness. This house, now more than a century old, is pointed out as having been the dwelling place of a cruel and bloodthirsty woman, known as Patty Cannon, who emigrated from Canada, and made her home there together with her mother and sisters, but with these we have no concern. Possessed of a coarse style of beauty, with brilliant black eyes, hair black as a raven's wing, and cheeks flushed with rosy June, but with such masculine voice and manner she played the role of a princess, thinking no doubt that by this means she might bring to her feet one whose great wealth would minister to her consuming desire to lead a life of ease and luxury. Her crudity in this respect was not gratified, however, for failing to realize the dream of her imagination she finally married a very common place admirer, and thus became the notorious "Patty Cannon" of this story. This marriage, having failed to give her the wealth she coveted, she fell upon another plan—a cruel and remorseless one, to achieve the object of her desire, that is, to get rich in the manner of her masses and magnificence, and to entrust to her power the ignorant blacks from far and near that she might make merchandise of them and live in luxury upon the price of their liberty. Those of her captives that could not be profitably disposed of, were roasted alive, and all those who stood in the way of their plan were ruthlessly murdered, the writer having seen the blood stains which still remain in an upper room of the dwelling where her victims were chained to staples in the walls. Many peddlers, who in those days went to travel through that section and sell their wares, were captured and sold to the slaves asking whether for the night, not a bloody death at her hands, when she would possess herself of their money and other valuables and bury their bodies in the vaults of the cellar underlying her dwelling. The house still stands as it was built, partly in Maryland and partly in Delaware, and there are about the various apartments to this day many traces of its former occupant, though recently it has undergone alterations and passed into other hands. The exact crossing place of the stream is still buried in gobs of earth, and the water is still running through the pipes.

"A few years ago I suffered more than probably ever will be known outside of myself, with kidney and liver complaint. It is the old story—I visited doctor after doctor, but to no avail. I was at Newport, and Dr. Blackman recommended Warner's Safe Cure. I commenced the use of it, and found relief immediately. Altogether I took three bottles, and truly said I was cured."

Danes Want American Pork.

The Secretary of Agriculture is in re-quest, through the Department of State, a copy of a communication from Clark E. Carr, United States minister resident at Copenhagen, to Secretary of State, in which Mr. Carr states that a question was recently presented to him by the government by leading importers in Copenhagen asking for the removal of the restrictions now existing in that country against American pork products. This petition he says was taken up by the Chamber of Commerce at Copenhagen, which adopted a resolution asking that American pork be admitted as soon as Germany should make the same concession. Mr. Carr adds that the opinion is generally entertained in Denmark that in the near future American pork will be admitted to all the countries of Europe, but that the Danes hesitate about removing their restrictions until Germany does so, for fear that Denmark will then exceed the limit fixed by the Danes.

He states that in spite of all that has been said and written, by which an unreasonable prejudice has been created against American pork, the Danes do not seem to be influenced by it, and he believes they would be glad to admit American pork for their own home consumption, and thus be enabled to sell all of their own product to Germany and other countries.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Bits of News About Town, Gathered by the "Advertiser's" Reporters.

—Jay Williams, Esq., was in Wilmington this week on professional business.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Baltimore have been visiting friends here this week.

—Several Salisburians took advantage of the one fare rate to Baltimore and back, offered by the B. & E. S. railroad Wednesday and Thursday, to see Booth and Barrett.

—Mr. E. L. Wailes has a very fine lot of celery grown in his lot adjoining Lab. Humphreys'. Mr. Wailes has our thanks for a sample bunch as a sample of the quality seen. Mr. Wailes has proven very conclusively, that first class celery can be grown in this country.

—Messrs. Godfrey & Howard offered quite a lot of horses, mules, wagons, scows, etc., for sale Saturday in front of the Court House in Salisburys. The cheap articles were sold, but the teams were bid in by this company. Mr. R. D. Ellwood was auctioneer.

—One of the large show windows in W. H. Jackson's, on the corner of Rock street, was broken last Friday night with a brick thrown by some one from the outside. A lamp was shattered, and some of the display articles in the window were considerably damaged.

—The iron transferred "Thames River" to the B. & E. S. Railroad company made her first trip from the bay shore terminus to Bay Ridge Tuesday morning, and conveyed the freight cars across the bay. This arrangement relieves the delay caused by transferring freight from the cars to the boat at both terminals.

—The Talbot County Fair Association now has a funded and floating debt of $13,000. The directors say that inclement weather during exhibition week this year and in previous years, is largely responsible for the deficit. Another matter which had its depleting effect on the Association's treasury was the improvement of the grounds, buildings, etc.

—Robert E. Patterson, who was elected last week Governor of Pennsylvania, was born near Quantico in this county. He is the son of a Methodist minister who was well known to the older people of this and Somerset counties. Reynolds, Delaware's new executive, is also a son of the Eastern Shore. By the way, it seems that we have a fashion of "gittin' thar."

—John Dorman, a colored man of this country, was adjudged insane by a Jury which sat in his case last Saturday. Dorman was arrested about two weeks ago and placed in the county jail for killing a hog on the highway. The jury examined the witnesses and then waited upon Dorman, who was found to be badly demented. He will be taken to an asylum.

—Miss George Hillman of Salisbury was married last Wednesday morning to Mr. H. Louis Morris of Chester Pa. Mr. Morris is a son of Mrs. C. Morris, Esq., of this country. Miss Hillman is a sister of Mrs. C. E. Morris, who is the wife of the attorney for the defense. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. W. Beighton of Wisconsin Presbyterian church. The bridal couple left on the 8:45 train for the north.

—Mr. William A. Holloway, ex-convict, has removed from his home near Pawleysville to Salisbury where he will open a cabinet maker and undertaker's shop. His place of business will be at the corner of Division and Church streets in the W. W. Gordy building. Mr. Holloway is a thoroughly responsible gentleman, and asks through the columns of the Advertiser, a share of the public's patronage.

—The 108th Annual Session of the Virginia Conference of the M. E. Church, South, convened at Lynchburg, Va., Wednesday, and will be in session one week. Rev. J. T. Bosman, of Trinity Church, Salisbury, and Presiding Elder Hank were in attendance. Mr. Wm. B. Tilghman, also, was present as a representative of Trinity. It is not probable that Rev. Mr. Bosman will return to Salisbury.

—Mr. William A. Allen, Jr., was married last Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock to Miss Martha Taylor. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wm. G. Holmes. The young lady in the company of Capt. Gillis T. Taylor, a well-to-do farmer of Sharptown district, this county. Mr. Allen is an active young farmer and berry grower, and is the proprietor and manager of the Salisbury Plant and Truck Farm. The couple made a honeymoon trip to the north.

—Round trip tickets at greatly reduced rates have been placed on sale by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, at all its principal stations, to the Hot Springs, Arkansas. The going limit on these tickets is thirty days and the returning limit three months, thus affording an opportunity to spend the winter in the general climate of the Southland. The route is via Cincinnati and St. Louis, and that is made in Union Depot at St. Louis. Pullman Sleepers all the way.

PUBLIC BUSINESS.

County Commissioners, Judges of Orphans Court, and School Board Officials in Session Tuesday.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

All the members were present at the regular meeting Tuesday.

Mr. Freeny reported that he could not get the shells for new road near corporate limits of Salisbury at 2 cents per bushel, the price which he was authorized to purchase at 2 cents per bushel.

Wm. D. Heath, supervisor of roads in 3d district, was allowed $10,00 additional on his bill, amount having been deducted at 2 cents per bushel.

Mr. Freeny was authorized to contract for making bridge and dam across branch at Rockawalkin M. E. Church.

Louis C. Bounds was appointed constable in 7th district.

Resignation of George W. Taylor, supervisor of roads in 3d district, to take effect Nov. 25th of Nov. was accepted, and Covington Wilson was appointed in his stead.

John Fleming was granted pension of $125 per month from Nov. 1st, ordered to be paid to him at Rockawalkin M. E. Church.

Report of examiners on straightening country road in 8th district, near J. J. Parsons, finally ratified and confirmed.

Mr. Johnson was authorized to sell contract for building dam and straightening road on Monday, 24th of Nov. at 1 o'clock p.m.

Adjourned till Tuesday Nov. 25, 1890.

SCHOOL BOARD PROCEEDINGS.

The regular monthly meeting of the School Board was held Tuesday, the first Tuesday in the month being election day.

The members were all present: Mr. Cannon reported that he had received the new school house at Siloam in Trappe district, built by Messrs. Adkins & Ennis, and ordered settlement for same, which the treasurer reported had been done.

Contract was made through the colored trustees, Quantico for the rent of the old school house at $1.50 per month during actual occupancy, the owners of the church agreeing to put the house in a tenable condition for asst school.

Henry Parker was before the Board to lodge complaint against trustees of colored school and teacher for not paying him his salary.

A resolution was passed changing the hours for schools to be kept open as follows: 9 a.m. to 12 and from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. to go to recess Monday 17th and remaining to begin at 7:30 a.m. on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Strangers always welcome to all of these services.

—St. Peter's Church, Rev. Wm. Monford, rector, 25th Sunday Trinity Tide, Ho. Community 7:30 a.m. Sunday School 9:30 a.m.; Services 11 o'clock a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Children's Musical Service at 4:30 p.m. This Friday night 7:30 o'clock, services with a lecture, on the subject of the Deluge, viewed in the light of recent scientific discoveries that testify to the truth of the scriptural account. New Regulations for Parsons' Cemetery.

At a meeting of the Vestry of Salisbury parish held at the rectory last Thursday evening a new set of By-Laws and Regulations, governing Parsons' cemetery, were adopted.

In the future lots will be sold at $40, exempted from the annual tax of $1.00 or $30.00, subject to the annual tax. Half lots at $25, free from the annual tax.

Persons buying lots and paying an annual tax of $1.00 thereon, are given the privilege of paying the sum of $10.00 in consideration that they be relieved from the annual tax.

The rules further provide that the sum of $15.00 on every lot sold for $40.00 and $10.00 on every half lot sold and the $10 received from persons now owning lots and paying an annual tax of $1.00 shall be deposited in the Salisbury National Bank to the credit of the Cemetery Committee and invested by the vestry from time to time as it shall accumulate the income from which is to be used in the maintenance of the cemetery.

It was further decided to enlarge the cemetery by taking in the sections at the west end, one of which shall be divided among the Horsemens.

Mr. Dean W. Perdue, our popular carriage dealer, has gratified his weakness for fine horses and bought the interest of Mr. Edward Sirman in the Parke-Brown carriage business.

Mr. Sirman's old partner retains his interest in the stable, and the new firm will be known as Perdue & Lowe. The retiring horseman will probably start a stable on his lot on Division street in the near future.

Patrons of the Palace Stable may rest assured that its high standard will be maintained by the new management.

We are informed that another change has taken place in the livery circles.

Emmanuel Johnson, who has been in the Salisburys stables long enough to earn the reputation of being one of the best hostlers in the city, has purchased the interest of Mr. W. D. Smith in the Delver livery.

Johnson is one of the few descendants of Senegambia who votes the rooster at election times. This is another recommendation.

Somewhere Better for Salisburys.

The B. & E. S. railroad company have just gotten out a new time table which will go into effect Monday 17th, and after that date, express trains will leave Salisbury at 7:30 a.m. and 4:10 p.m., arriving in Baltimore at 12:00 noon and 9 p.m. Leaving Baltimore at 7:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. and arriving at 8:30 a.m. and 5:35 p.m. The round trip will leave Salisbury at 8:35 a.m. and arrive on return trip at 5:30 p.m. Beginning with same date the company will put on their freight between Baltimore and all points on the line including the W. & P. division. Freight will be received to and from all points on the line. No change on the W. & P. division.

Now isn't that just the thing for Salisbury? The railroad having done this, we will look to our business men to attract the people. Our time table is the best for an extensive holiday excursion over the line to Salisbury.

November and December are the months to attract the people, when they are purchasing their Christmas goods.

As delegate to the M. E. General Conference, Mr. Allen was here Saturday morning and was received by Rev. Wm. G. Holmes.

SATURDAY, NOV. 22, 1867.

PROSPECTS.

The political revolution has naturally produced a great deal of speculation as to the effect upon the Presidential nominations of 1862, and the course of Congress at the approaching session. In New York the result of the election has been to strengthen the hold of Governor Hill upon the Democratic machine, and to give him in the eye of the country more importance as a political figure than he has ever before enjoyed. The election, in fact, leaves the Governor the chief active Democratic manager in the State, and Tammany Hall the chief Democratic organization. Unless the Governor loses his hold he will control largely the delegation to the National Convention, and it may be assumed safely that he and his friends will not be zealous for Mr. Cleveland. This probability should be borne in mind. The logic of the situation unquestionably demands the nomination of Mr. Cleveland by the Democratic party. But practical politics are very illogical, and in nothing more so than in the action of a nominating convention.

At this time it is pretty plain that Mr. Cleveland will not have a united delegation from his State. In the situation of the party in New York, this division, under ordinary circumstances, would defeat his nomination. But it now seems probable that the voice of the party in the whole country will be so imperative for him that Hill and Tammany will be obliged to submit. Yet it must not be forgotten that the vote of New York is really held to be so essential of any success that the party may seem to candidates from very hazardous. They will, however, reflect not only would Mr. Cleveland probably carry Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Rhode Island but that the nomination of any other Democratic candidate would not carry those States, but would chill and discourage the party throughout the Union. The logic of the situation, however, will no more nominate Mr. Cleveland than the logic of the Republican situation in 1856 nominated Mr. Seward, or Mr. Chase, or Mr. Sumner. His nomination will be due to the fact that the national Democratic party demands his leadership with such unanimity that the loss of New York may be risked. Governor Hill also is undoubtedly shrewd enough to see that if Mr. Cleveland should be the evident choice of his party in '62, a New York opposition to him which should result in his defeat in the Convention would be fatal to the political hopes of its instigator. Meanwhile, however, the snare of the Senatorship is vainly spread in Governor Hill's sight.

Republican counsels as to the course of Congress are divided. At the West there is a strong expression of opinion favorable to a modification of the McKinley bill. But at the East the more general expression is that the McKinley bill was condemned because it was not understood. On the contrary, it was because it was too well understood. The revolution was nowhere more pronounced than in Massachusetts, and nowhere was the tariff more thorough and persistently discussed. The Republicans had their strongest debaters upon the stump, and Senator Aldrich came from Rhode Island to help; while the Democrats urged tariff reform every night in every town, and with great ability. There was never less buncion in a campaign, never less resort to the usual party rhetoric. The verdict of Massachusetts upon the McKinley bill was as intelligent a verdict as could be given at the polls, and the loss to the Republican party is irreparable. Those who are most familiar with Republican politics in the State thought that the disaster might be averted possibly this year, but that it was inevitable two years hence. It was no ignorance, but knowledge, that defeated McKinley Republicans in Massachusetts. Yet nothing will be harder than for the turbulent House of three months ago, even under the blow of so overpowering a national rebuke, to modify the tariff in the way demanded by the minority, which the same House contemptuously suppressed. Pride of opinion and bitter mortification, blended with honest conviction, will urge the Republicans to stand fast, perhaps even to try to force the passage of the election bill. Yet their own reasoning should lead them to forbear. They passed the bill, they said, under a mandate of the country. Very well; the mandate has now been withdrawn a hundredfold more emphatically than it was given.—Harper's Weekly.

WHY HE ADMIRERS CLEVELAND.

Ex-Gov. McElroy's Estimate of the Ex-President and His Prospects.

Ex-Governor John McElroy, of Louisville, who is an out-and-out democrat was until last week very much prejudiced against Grover Cleveland. He had never heard Mr. Cleveland talk, and had gained the impression that he was far from being the statesman that other good democrats declared him to be. Mr. McElroy went to Columbus last week to pay his respects to Allen G. Thurman and heard Mr. Cleveland speak. After going away from home thus unprepared he said: "I thought it was going to be warm; my wife told me to take my overcoat, and I did." Women have more than men say why.

A frank admission.

Women's good sense is said to come from intuition; may it not be that there are more close observers of little things. One thing is certain, they are apt to strike the nail on the head, in all the ordinary problems of life, more frequently than the lords of creation.

"According to Dr. Alice Bennett, who recently read a paper on Bright's disease before the Pennsylvania State Medical Society, persons subject to bilious attacks and such headaches, who have crawling sensations like the flowing of water in the head, who are tired and the quiet prejudiced against Mr. Cleveland would be well advised to tell him this while in Columbus, but I propose to call upon him while in New York and inform him of my change of heart."

"I left the West thoroughly impressed with the fact that Cleveland is the favorite of the Western people for President in 1862. The West displays as much enthusiasm for him as does the South. I just wrote a letter to my wife, and I told her that unless something wonderful should happen Grover Cleveland would be nominated by acclamation by the next national democratic convention. I know a man who has been 'tired all the time' for ten nights. Yesterday before he took two doses of camomile and yesterday he wished he had not done it."

A proper answer is found in the following letter of Mrs. Davis, wife of Wm. J. Davis, of Basil, O., June 21st:

"Do not hesitate to say that I owe my life to Warner's Safe Cure. I had a constant hemorrhage from my kidneys for more than five months. The physicians could do nothing for me. My husband spent hundreds of dollars and I was not relieved. I was under the care of the best medical men in the State. I know a man who has been 'tired all the time' for ten nights. Yesterday before he took two doses of camomile and yesterday he wished he had not done it."

"According to Dr. Alice Bennett, who recently read a paper on Bright's disease before the Pennsylvania State Medical Society, persons subject to bilious attacks and such headaches, who have crawling sensations like the flowing of water in the head, who are tired and the quiet prejudiced against Mr. Cleveland would be well advised to tell him this while in Columbus, but I propose to call upon him while in New York and inform him of my change of heart."

"I left the West thoroughly impressed with the fact that Cleveland is the favorite of the Western people for President in 1862. The West displays as much enthusiasm for him as does the South. I just wrote a letter to my wife, and I told her that unless something wonderful should happen Grover Cleveland would be nominated by acclamation by the next national democratic convention. I know a man who has been 'tired all the time' for ten nights. Yesterday before he took two doses of camomile and yesterday he wished he had not done it."

et county, who has been in the life-saving service for several years, has been given charge of the Great Seal Lighthouse.

Married at the home of the bride, Parsonage, Md., Nov. 19, 1890, by the Rev. J. F. Anderson, Mr. Elwin T. Jackson, and Miss John M. Trout, both of Wicomico county.

The congregation of the Methodist Protestant Church met at the Parsonage last Monday evening and passed their minister. He says that he doesn't feel bad, though, because he got hit.

Contemplating a business trip to Europe at an early date, I hereby tender my services to any person who may have business interests there, to be attended to.
Lemuel Malong, Salisbury Md.

Prof. Ettinger of Baltimore arrived in Salisbury several days ago and assumed the management of the male department of the Salisbury Grammar school. He is accompanied by his daughter.

Dr. S. A. Graham and J. Cleveland
White, constituting the Assurance company of Graham & White, have opened rooms in the Graham building. Mr. W.
I. Todd, has his law office in the same building.

Prof. Henry E. Alvord of the Maryland Agricultural College will address the farmers of Wicomico county at the Court House next Saturday, 29th. The farmers of our county will hardly care to miss anything so important.

Dr. Dennis & Fulton, were summoned to dress the wounds of Mr. Elliot, tenant of "Maple Grove" farm, whose hand was severely cut a few mornings ago while he was preparing food with a cutter for the live stock.

Rev. John S. Bowers, now stationed there he took on a cargo of fertilizers for Humphreys & Tilghman and returned to Salisbury down the Atlantic coast and up the bay to the head of the Wicomico on Sunday, which he had completed the circuit of the peninsula.

MARRIAGE AT ST. PETERS.

Miss Louisa Parsons married last Wednesday to a Carroll County Gentleman.

Miss Louisa Parsons, daughter of M. A.
Parsons, Esq., was married last Wednesday afternoon at half past one o'clock at St. Peter's church, to Mr. J. E. Strem of Carroll county, Md., Rev. William Manford performed the ceremony. After a wedding breakfast at "Handy Hall," the fine country residence of the bride's father, at one quarter to two o'clock, the prospectus, was assisted by Mr. George E.
Mathews, his best man; the bride-elect, accompanied by her sister, Miss Nellis Parsons, came up the central aisle to the altar where she was joined by her future life partner who emerged from the sacristy. At the altar, clad in his white robes, stood Rev. Wm. Manford at whose feet the pair knelt, and the ceremony was impressively performed.

The bride wore a garnet traveling gown with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of Bridal roses. The groom was dressed in a black suit. Miss Nellie Parsons, the maid of honor, attire in a dark green costume and held in her hand a bouquet of La France roses.

The usher, consisting of Messrs. W.
Byrd Parsons, a cousin of the bride, Mr.
Lee Toadwin, George H. Toadwin, and Copeland Morton of Baltimore, wore dark cutaway suits and boutonniere of white roses.

The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Fulton. After the marriage the couple took the afternoon north bound express and amid showers of rice they departed on an extended wedding tour of the north. Their future home will be at Sam's Creek, Carroll county, where the bride's father is engaged in carpentry and building, the junior member of the prosperous firm of David E. Stem & Son. The bride takes with her the best wishes of all Salis-buryans who have seen her from her radical hood been held in the highest esteem.

Among those at the breakfast at "Handy Hall" were: Mr. and Mrs.
Stem, parents of the groom, the Misses Stem, Miss Miriam Somers,
Mrs. Lew Sillman of Carroll county, Mrs. Maggie Jones, Hon. E. Stanley
Tordwin and wife, J. J. Morris and wife, W. S. Parsons, M. A. Parsons' father, of the bride, Mrs. J. H. Willis and McKenzie Willis of Oxford, J. T. Parsons, of Pemberton, Md., Dr. W. H. Christian York, C. K. Taylor, New Port News man, Jas. Cannon, Jr., Williamson, J.
H. Moss.

Rev. J. H. Ambler is returned Presiding
Elder to Danville district.

Rev. J. T. Bosman of Trinity church, this city, goes to Culpepper Station, in Charlotteville district. Mr. and Mrs.
Bosman have been very popular here,
not only with the members of the church but with the people of Salisbury generally.

We regret that they are to leave us.

Two Boys and a Pistol.

A pistol in the hands of a small boy did serious work in Salisbury last Friday afternoon. Byrd Disharson, a twelve-year-old son of Mrs. Ellis Doward, son of Jos.
Edward Fag, went to the wool's near Salisbury together to have some shooting.
The Disharson boy had a pistol which was loaded this paper reported.
The pistol exploded, the ball pierced through young Disharson's hand, and became fixed in the skull.

The lad, frightened and bleeding fled in the direction of home, he became exhausted from loss of blood, he fainted and fell near Mr. Wallace's stable in California. He was placed in a buggy and driven to the offices of Dr. Stevens & Morris, and both of those physicians had cut the bullet which was hardly driven into the brain. Dr. Stevens & Morris are now in fair condition and have been able to live comfortably without his aid. Imagination will suggest what might have been her fate if she had not received the assistance secured to her by her son's thoughtful act.

The Growth of the M. P. Church.

President Steiner makes his reference to the growth of his denomination in the lower counties on the Peninsula in a recent issue of the Methodist Protestant:

"My visit to Laurel and Sussex provided the following reflections on the growth of the Methodist Protestant Church. Twenty-three years ago I was pastor of Union Circuit. At that time we had five churches in that territory, not only with the members of the church
but with the people of Salisbury generally.
We regret that they are to leave us.

The Whineness of the Why.

Advertiser and fellow-citizens:—With a deepening and widening and never-absent impression that a few vigorous and well disciplined lines occasionally from Allen, compressed and expressed in a few well-chosen, abbreviated and invisible words would gladden the hearts of your numerous and appreciative patrons, old and young, lettered and unlettered, married and unmarried, would-be-married, and wouldn't-be-married, and render the task of breathing less laborious, and more a labor of love, and prohibit the dear people from resorting to, and indulging in the exciting and dangerous pastime of suicide, when the nearness of any one was too remote to supervise the preliminaries, we beg leave to indulge, hoping that all parties interested and concerned in the enterprise will be tremendously benefited, and realize ten per cent. on their venture for it is not a stenophonic and indisputable fact, a fact that one need not engage the services of a microscope to discover, that the more exhortant the interest one excites from the embarrassed and impetuous and realizes on one's investments in alarums the more prosperous and happy become the masses. Let us continue in this philanthropic, well trodden, and time-honored path, until surely as the daring old patriarch Jacob, "wrestled with the angel," will the never-failing hand of father time relieve us of our oppressive material burdens, and usher us into that realm whence no traveler returns, and where we will not have to rise early in order to look after the bread we cast upon the water? But why dwell upon the manifold permanent benefits, comforts and blessings which are secured to the struggling masses by usury, and a high tariff?

But before tearing ourselves away from this delightful and inspiring theme, a theme with which, perhaps, enraptured angels wake their tenuer lives—we would write in burning and imperishable characters, that usury and high tariff are the antithesis of altruism, and sadly out of tune with the spirit of the following significant words: "Common good is the only good." That usury and a high tariff are corromptors from one and the same nest; there can be no doubt. Their plump and omnivorous appetite indigestes a common parentage and their consanguinity and when I hear a man abuse the operation of a high tariff one moment and see him the next, extort exorbitant interest from the needy, I want to exclaim, Oh! consistency thou art a jewel! But enough of this and turn we now to other and happier scenes.

We commenced this article with the simple and unsophisticated purpose of your ample and cordial pardon.

WHAT CURES? Editorial Difference of Opinion on an Important Subject.

What is the force that ousts disease, and which is the most convenient apparatus for applying it? How far is the regular physician useful to us because we believe in him, and how far are his pills and powders and tonics only the material representations of his personal influence on our health?

The regular doctors cure; the homeopathic doctors cure; the Hahnemannites cure; and so do the faith cures and the mind cures, and the so-called Christian scientists and the four-dollar-and-a-half advertising itinerants, and the patent medicine men. They all hit, and they all miss, and the great difference—is that when the regular doctors lose a patient one grumbles, and when the irregular doctors lose one the community stands in end and bows.—Rochester Union and Advertiser.

Nature cures, but nature can be aided, hindered or defeated in the curative process. And the Commercial's contention is that it is the part of rational beings to seek and trust the advice of men of good character who have studied the human system and learned, as far as modern science lights the way, how far they can aid nature and how they can best avoid obstructing her.—Buffalo Commercial.

It is not our purpose to consider the evils that result from employing the unscrupulous, ignorant, charlatans and quacks to prescribe for the maladies that afflict the human family. We simply declare that the physician who knows something is better than the physician who knows nothing, or very little indeed about the structure and the conditions of the human system. Of course "he does not know it all!"—Rochester Morning Herald.

I have used Warner's Safe Cure and but for its timely use would have been, I verily believe, in my grave from what the doctors termed Bright's Disease.—D. F. Shiner, senior Editor Scioto Gazette, Chillicothe, Ohio, in letter dated June 30, 1860.

—Swarms of Doctors in Berlin.

BERLIN, Nov. 23.—One of the hospitals in this city has already refused the applications of 400 physicians who have come here to study the Koch method of treatment on the ground that it is impracticable to instruct successfully the large number of those who desire to study the method. Already 2,000 foreign doctors have arrived here for the purpose of informing themselves regarding the treatment. Prof. Koch has been elected an honorary member of the society for the preservation of the public health.

Dr. Koehler, chief of the Charity Hospital here, while admitting that marvelous effects have been produced by the injection of Prof. Koch's curative lymph, declares that as yet there has been no certain experience of the lasting nature of a cure. Dr. Koehler says, however, that the lymph has proved indispensable in diagnosing cases in which there was doubt of existence of tuberculars.

Deafness Can't be Cured.

By virtue of a writ of fieri facias issued out of the Circuit Court for Wicomico county, in State of Maryland, at the instance and for the use of Alpheus Remond, Esq., of New Haven, Conn., and his lands and tenements, in the said county, and to me directed, I have levied upon, seized, and taken into execution, all the right, title, interest, claim, and demand, at law and in equity, to the following property, to wit: One tract land situated in Tylerton district, Wicomico County, Maryland, known as "Texas" containing (1) one acre, more or less, bounded on the north and west by land of George D. Scott, on the south by land of Wm. H. Scott, on the east by land of Alexandra Hosmer.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Origin of Thanksgiving Day.

Editorial Difference of Opinion on an Important Subject.

There has been some controversy over the real origin of a Thanksgiving Day in America. It seems, however, that the first one was in New England; established not by Puritans, but by men of the Church of England, says a writer in the New York Times. In 1607 at Monhegan, near the Kennebec, a Thanksgiving was celebrated, and Chaplain Seymour preached a sermon, "giving God thanks for our happy meeting and safe arrival into the country."

The regular doctors cure; the homeopathic doctors cure; and so do the faith cures and the mind cures, and the so-called Christian scientists and the four-dollar-and-a-half advertising itinerants, and the patent medicine men. They all hit, and they all miss, and the great difference—is that when the regular doctors lose a patient one grumbles, and when the irregular doctors lose one the community stands in end and bows.—Rochester Union and Advertiser.

The colonial Thanksgiving days were either ordered by the British Government for British events, or else were purely local in the observance. The national Thanksgiving late in the fall probably had its origin in New York, as immediately after the revolution it became there a more regular celebration than it had ever been before, and it took place in the autumn. Governor John Jay in 1794 appointed November 11 for the purpose, but his recommendation was received with much criticism by his opponents, who regarded it as favoring of an interference of the state with the church. Afterward the Mayors of New York were accustomed to issue proclamations setting apart a certain day each year, the first one being December 16, 1799.

Not until after the beginning of this century and during Governor Clinton's time was there more regularity in the observance, and he, like Jay, got into trouble because of it. It appears that the day which he selected clashed with the local custom on Long Island, where for some time back there has been a Thanksgiving each year on the Thursday following the day when the cattle had been driven to the several houses of their owners from the common pasture at Montauk Point. There was a contest between the adherents of the local custom and the adherents of the governor, and this struggle may have been the original cause of Presidential proclamations, although they were special, and only followed one another at irregular intervals, with years between.—Boston Herald.

Eva Hamilton, the woman who duped the late Robert Ray Hamilton into a marriage with her by palming a purchased baby off on him as theirs, was paroled Tuesday by the State Court of Parsons and within an hour had left State prison walls. She was serving a sentence for assaulting and cutting her nurse at Atlantic City in August, 1888. Eva was ignored in Mr. Hamilton's will. The baby was given $1,200 a year during its life.

A man in Chicago the other day took out a lease for 9,992 years.

Mrs. Shaw, the whistler, is understood to be making a fortune in Europe.

Uncertainty may attend business ventures and enterprises; but it never attends the prompt administration of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Price 25 cents.

"My sore ran in the night, and my soul refused to be comforted." "Poor fellow! of course did it. Dity, he couldn't get Salvation Oil. Only 25 cents."

CATARRH

Is a constitutional and not a local disease, and therefore it cannot be cured by local applications. It is the best remedy. It cured me of continual drooping in my eyes, and stupefied up feeling. It has also helped my mother, who has taken it for run down state of health and kidney trouble." Mrs. S. D. Heath, Putnam, O.

From St. Joseph Hospital.

A young girl here had been suffering for 12 years with Blood Diseases until she had lost the use of her limbs, and was subject to many troubles incident to the disease. The physicians declared her case incurable, and predicted that her life would come to a speedy end. After taking S.S.S. she recuperated so fast that it was plain that she had obtained a new lease of life, and she has continued to live, better still, ever since. Permanent cure is assured. Many other patients in our hospital have obtained signal benefit from S.S.S., and it has become quite a favorite in our house.

CURED HERSELF AND HER CHILD.

S. S. S. has relieved me of a terrible Scrofula, from which I had suffered for years. It affected my nose first as varicose, then carried off the bone, and continued to eat until it destroyed the soft bone in the right side of the nose, then went to my throat, and later on to my lungs, and it looked as if I was doomed. S. S. S. has cured me, and has also cured my little daughter of the same disease.

The Land of the Pine and the Palm. — The tree is the land of the Pine and the Palm. — The tree of the Sierras, native, vigorous, gigantic, and the tree of the Desert, exotic, supple, poetic, both flourish within the nine degrees of latitude. These two, the widely separated loves of Heine's song, symbolize the capacities of the State, and although the sugar pine is indigenous, and the date palm, which will never be more than an ornament in this hospitable soil, was planted by the Franciscan fathers, who established a chain of missions from San Diego to Monterey over a century ago, they should both be the distinction of one commonwealth, which, in its seven hundred miles of indented sea-coast, can boast the climate of all countries and the products of all zones.

"Just Hear That Child Scream!" said Mrs. Smith to her sister, Mrs. Davis, as the sound of a child's shriek resounds across the garden of a neighbor's house. "What kind of a woman has a voice like that? I wonder what children?" "No, indeed," replied existence. But you see, she believes in the old fashioned styles of doctoring. When a child needs physic, she fills a spoon with some nameless dose, lays the little victim flat on her lap, holds his nose till he is forced to open his mouth for breath, when down goes the dreadful mess. Then come the yell." "No wonder," said Mrs. Smith. "Why doesn't she use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets? They are effective without being harsh, and are as easy to take as sugar plums. I always give them to my children." "And so do I," said Mrs. Davis.

Whistle Again. — George, George, mind—your hat will be blown off by the wind so far out of the window! — Pacifico quickly snatches the hat from the head of the refractory youngster, and hiding it behind his back: "There, now, the hat has gone!" George set up a howl. After a while his father remarked: "Come be quiet; if I whilst your hat will come back again." Whistles and replaces hat on boy's head. "There, it's back again, you see!" While the parents are engaged in conversation George throws his hat out of the window, and cries: "Pa, whist again!"

Life Insurance. — Is a social duty, because no person has a right to expect society to support or provide for those for whom he himself could not care for. Pacifico has made a certain provision. Society is justified in exacting a recompence upon the memory of him whose selfishness leaves their widows or children a tax upon charity or legal support. Reader! Are you insured? If not get a policy at once in the "Washington" Life Insurance Company of New York.

Wouldn't be Missed.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat insists $100,000 people have been missed in this country. There are at least 3,000,000 people in this country who would never be missed under any circumstances, because they are not known.

For sick headache, caused by a disordered stomach, Anti-Catarrhal Pillars are the most reliable remedy. "My mother first recommended these Pills to me, thirty years ago. They are the mildest and best purgative in use." S. C. Bradburn, Worthington, Mass.

Fond mamma: "Why, what have you in your apron?" Little daughter (breathlessly). "Oh momma! Such good luck! Dotty Dimple's cat had six kittens and her mamma would not let her keep but one, so she gave me the other five."

There is one word in Chicago, the Thirtieth, that is ten miles long and three miles wide. It embraces 12,000 acres and contains sixty railroad stations, post-offices and 100,000 people.

Two years ago there were only 2,000 Jewish families in Palestine, and there are now about 40,000 of the 50,000,000 Jews.

CONSUMPTION,

It is the first stages, can be successfully checked by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Even in the later periods of the disease, when the body is weak and the patient coughs, night sweats, was greatly reduced in strength, and given up the power of speech. "A. J. Kilson, M. LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Bits of News About Town, Gathered by the "Advertiser's" Reporters.

—Miss Carrie Smith, of Columbus, Ohio, is the guest of Miss George Todd at Rose Lawn.

—Mr. and Mrs. Muhlenberg, of Wilmington, Del., are guests of Drs. Smith on Main street.

—Mr. Lee Powell of Elizabeth City, N.C., spent several days this week with his family here.

—Married at Green Hill M. P. church, Nov. 25, 1890, by Rev. W. J. D. Lucas, Mr. David H. Adkins and Miss Maggie Taylor.

—Gov. Jackson has been requested to appoint delegates from Maryland to the Southern Interstate Immigration convention.

—Granville R. Rider, Fish Commissioner, deposited $600 German Carp in the Pocomoke river at Snow Hill Thursday of last week.

—Crisfield is considering electric lighting for its streets and buildings. Capital stock to the amount of $10,000 has been subscribed by the business men.

—A canasta will be given in Ulman's Opera House during Christmas by the young people of the Presbyterian church for the benefit of the Sunday School.

—Mrs. Thos. Smith and Mrs. Cooper will entertain a number of their young Sabisbury friends in their home in Camden (last Friday) evening in honor of their sister, Miss Ruth of Westover.

—The Mite Society of the Presbyterian church will meet at the First Baptist meeting, Dec. 2d, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Walker. A programme has been prepared, and all are cordially invited to attend.

—Governor and Mrs. Jackson quietly celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage at "The Oaks" last Tuesday. Mrs. Dr. I. H. Houston of Vienna, and Gen. Seth were among the guests.

—Mr. W. A. Ennis, at the Pivot bridge, slaughtered this week, a very fine steer which he purchased from Mr. A. B. Howell of Barren Creek district. In size it stands third in the list of big cattle killed here this autumn.

—The Salisbury Cooking Club will give a reception at the Hotel Belmont Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. About two hundred invitations have been sent out. In the evening, from 7 to 10 the club will give a select tea to a dozen gentlemen friends.

—Mrs. Spicer, wife of Edward W. Spicer, and daughter of William D. Records of Salisbury, died at her home near the depot Sunday, aged 43 years. Her remains were interred by Undertaker Wm. A. Holloway Tuesday morning near Laurel, Del., where she formerly lived.

—Mr. Hiram D. Parker, a tenant of J. Morris, Esq., killed this week four porkeys whose weight aggregated 1796 pounds, an average of 449; the heaviest weighing 525. Our old friend Parker is evidently well fixed for "porkand hominy" this season.

—I will pay any man $500 to prove I sold any goods whatever of any kind either out of my front or back door on Thanksgiving day until after my competitor let in his stores or seven customers to whom I refused to sell.

Lacy Thoroughgood.

—The moon was the only source of light for our streets last Tuesday night, and old oil lamps which have been in the closets of our residence for a couple of years caused away the darkness in the dwellings. This change of illumination was due to an accident to the boiler of the Electric Light power.

—An excursion of teachers and pupils from Easton and Talbot county came to Salisbury today, via the B. & E. S. railroad. There were about 150 of all. The Court House was热闹 for the reception of the visitors who enjoyed themselves by looking over our town. They brought their lunch with them.

—Postmaster Mr. W. C. Washington a couple of letters, one of which he will place near the Pivot bridge for the use of the business men, and the other will be stationed near the depot for the convenience of the citizens in that quarter of our city. These, in addition to the ones already in town will make posting a convenience to our people.

—While in New York recently Mr. Lacy Thoroughgood purchased a window display which represents a minstrel show. Mr. Thoroughgood intends placing it in his show window before Christmas. In the meantime he is going to buy a customer under the age of 18 who will be dressed for each suit, which suits will be made, the teacher. The board will hold its monthly meeting the second Tuesday in the month (8th) when accounts for the fall term will be audited and ordered paid.

BEC BUSINESS.

County Commissioners and Orphans Court in session Tuesday.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

At the session Tuesday Mr. Johnson of the Board reported that he had contracted with George Jones to straighten road in 9th district and bridge dam, lay pipe, etc., for $1,150. The Commissioners to Daniel R. Holloway was before the Board and said that he had straightened the road and said Holloway's residence in 8th district, as directed by the Board.

Mr. British also reported that he had examined said road and found it in good condition. The Board accepted the work, and ordered the old road to be closed, at the point where the new road intersects.

The road case of Lynch and others, petitioners in 4th district, L. H. Hearne and Wm. T. Ting, objectors, taken up, and after hearing the testimony the Board directed the matter to be laid over till next meeting.

Adjourned till Dec. 9, '90.

OPRIN COURT.

Judges of the Orphan Court were in session Tuesday. Inventory of Jno. R. Ingoldsby, examined and approved.

Accounts of estate of Ware Wainwright and Geo. W. Williams, examined and allowed.

Receipts and releases of Julia A. Dennis, Jas. F. Purcell, and Jno. H. Dennis, given.

Administration accounts of Jos. S. Davis, examined and allowed.

Sperate debts of Sabra Benson, allowed.

A-journed till Dec. 9th, 1890.

Chapter of Misfortunes.

Quite a number of misfortunes have befallen our citizens since the Advertiser last paid its respects to its readers. One of the most serious individual accidents was that to James Simons, Jr., the Baby Mohr of the Merchant Hotel. This little old old tot, who was in pinfiores, was playing with some older children, when he became entangled in a jumping rope and was thrown violently to the ground. One hip was dislocated. Surgical aid was rendered by Dr. Simons & Morris.

Tuesday morning, two young men, Bill Twilley and Wm. McAllister, were driving rapidly on our streets when they were upset at the corner of Main and Division. Twilley was thrown against the pavement and knocked senseless. His temple was badly bruised, and for a time lay unconscious. Dr. George W. Todd was called at home to his assistance. After regaining consciousness Twilley rose to his feet and walked away, apparently not much worse for wear.

A tribe of Gypsies are tented near town. These picturequie and nomadic people have a well established reputation for finding odds and ends wherever they may wander, and their coming into our midst may be regarded with a bit of suspicion as to the genuineness of the fortunes told by the females to gypsies and beggars is always expressed in appraisable emblem of it. Men give substance to earthly benefactors. So the key-note of lessons to-day is, "Honour the Lord with thy substance." What have you brought with you to show your thanks?" Gladly, he said, was the last emotion that met the nation of the fallen man. "Even though we had ordered the greatest gratuity in the world, the drunken miser on the scaffold would not give up his last cent to the poor."

The offertory at the Holy Communion was for the homeless children of the asylum in Easton and amounted to $10.

The pastors of the three Methodist churches of town and Rev. Mr. Reigart of Wicomico Presbyterian Church, held union services in the Methodist Protestant edifice. Rev. Mr. Arnett of that church said, "It is a Good thing to Give thanks unto the Lord." In the course of his address he said, one of the greatest blessings for which Americans should be thankful, is our women.

In enumerating the blessings for which we should give thanks, the speaker referred to the country itself, in which we live, instancing the grandeur of natural scenes and unlimited resources. He then alluded to the blessings of peace, contrasting the quietude of the home with things with the time when three millions of our countrymen were arrayed against each other in civil war. He spoke of the plentiful harvests which have been gathered in, showing from statistics the wonderful productiveness of the soil and its capacity for sustaining a great population. He referred to the good order which prevails and the readiness with which our people after a political pursuit of life, down to the ordinary pursuits of business, are making rapid progress.

The last incident in which we have to record is the return of George McBride to Salisbury. George has just returned from a four month's sojourn in the Maryland Home for the aged, and he certainly is much improved in physical appearance. The American's devoted orisons are and have been that George's spiritual health has suffered a proportionate improvement. This is not, at first, so evident, but then will reveal.

He has returned to leave and go to the south to recuperate and go home again, to come and Salisbury to turn to the old bird's nest. He has been invited to the city to do this, and the pastor of the First Baptist church has offered him a room at his expense.

—Governor and Mrs. Jackson quietly celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage at "The Oaks" last Tuesday. Mrs. Dr. I. H. Houston of Vienna, and Gen. Seth were among the guests.

Now the point is to add any six of the figures given above by hand to get a total of 100. The winner of the puzzle will be published in this paper in my regular advertisement.

LIVE STORY OF A ONCE WEALTHY NEW YORKER.

Human experience has long ago taught us that "truth is stranger than fiction." The benefit of life insurance has been most strikingly shown by well-authenticated examples in every-day life.

"Story with a moral" which the imaginations of life insurance agents or insurance writers have ever known.

During the year 1884 a man came to the city of New York from Pennsylvania, and succeeded in finding employment as bookkeeper in a wholesale hardware establishment.

From St. Joseph Hospital.

A young girl here had been suffering for 12 months with Blood Diseases until she had lost the use of her limbs, and was subject to many troubles incident to the disease. The physicians declared her case incurable, and predicted that her life would come to a speedy end. After taking S. S. S. she recuperated so fast that it was plain that she had obtained a new lease on life, and she has continued to grow better until her permanent cure assured. Many other patients in our hospital have obtained similar benefits from S. S. S., and it may become quite a fixture.

CURED HIMSELF AND HIS CHILD.

S. S. S. has relieved a terrible Sciatica which I had suffered for years.

It affected my nose first as catarrh, then carried off the bone, and continued to eat until it destroyed the soft bone in the right side of the nose, then went to my throat, and later on to my lungs, and it looked as if I was doomed.

S. S. S. has cured me, and has also cured my little daughter of the same disease.

The Land of the Pine and the Palm.

California is the land of the Pine and the Palm. The trees of the Sierras, massive, stately, graceful, stand on the slopes of the Desert, the hills, the mountains, both south and north within the nine degrees of latitude. These two, the widely separated loves of Heine's song symbolize the capacities of the State, and although the sugar pine is indigenous, and the date palm, which will never be more than an ornament in this hospitable soil, was planted by the Franciscan fathers, who established a chain of missions from San Diego to Monterey over a century ago, they should both be the distinction of one commonwealth, which, in its seven hundred miles of indented sea-coast, has the climate of all countries and the products of all zones.

"Just Hear That Child Scream!" said Mrs. Davis, to her sister, Mrs. Davis, as the sound of a child's shrieks came across the garden from a neighbor's house. "What kind of a woman have we got here? To let a child scream like that?" "No, indeed," replied Mrs. Davis.

But you see, she believes in the old fashioned style of doctoring. When a child needs physic, she fills a spoon with some nameless dose, lays the little victim flat on her lap, holds his nose till he is forced to open his mouth for breath, when down goes the dreadful mess. Then come the yells! "No wonder," said Mrs. Smith, "why doesn't she use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets? They are effective without being harsh, and are as easy to take as sugar plums. I always give them to my children." "And so do I!" said Mrs. Davis.

Whistle Again.

"George, my mind-your hat will be blown off if you go far out of that carriage!" Peter Panter quickly snatched the hat from the head of the refractory youngster, and hiding it behind his back: "There, now, the hat has gone!" George set up a howl. After a while his father remarked: "Come, be quiet; if I whilst your hat will come back again." Whistles and replaces hat on boy's head. "There, it's back again, you see!" While the parents are engaged in conversation George throws his hat out of the window and cries: "Pa, whistle again!"

Life Insurance.

Is a social duty, because no person has a right to life, society has a right to provide for those for whom he himself could be a little self-denial, have made a certain provision. Society is justified in casting a reproach upon the memory of those whose selfishness leaves their widows or children a tax upon charity or legal support. Reader! are you insured? If not get a policy at once in the "Washington" Life Insurance Company of New York.

Abrams' Night Shirts.

Two little girls were playing together. One pretended that she was Mrs. Lincoln and the other that she was Mrs. Garfield. Mrs. Garfield was calling on Mrs. Lincoln, and when she was about to leave, Mrs. Lincoln said: "I should be pleased to have you remain all night, Mrs. Garfield," to which the latter replied politely she would be pleased to do so, but had no night dress. "Oh, well," exclaimed Mrs. Lincoln, cordially, "I can lend you one of Abraham's night shirts!"

Bride of the Autumn Sun.

Our golden rods and green rods; He has them by his blossoms this mellow morn, And singed them over by east.

He has the crimson wine of thy blushes, Wine of the rose, Wine of the rose.

He gave these love from his frost above, And beauty and cheer and grace!

He brightens the aster, makes them fade; He gives the lark to the tree, And the crimson wine of sunbury bloom.

But he's true as truth to them.

Scattered on mountain tops or plain, He burns thy fringe to burnished gold.

By torn's sweet alchemy.

And then when the still November comes, And the snows cover their heads, The body of the Autumn Sun.

—A. J. ELLISON, M. D., Middlesex, Tennessee.

An Executive Physician's Flight.

A new jail has just been completed for Edgar County, Illinois. It cost $10,000 to build, and all of the improvements, such as heat, air, beverage and heating apparatus, the improved system of prison doors by which every cell door can be locked simultaneously, and the entrance door to the cell room is made to open and close by a key. It is located on the side of the jail proper to the present day." —James Birchard, Marion, Conn.
