POST OFFICE AT SALISBURY, MD., November 21st, 1897.

I hereby certify that the Salisbury Advertiser, a newspaper published at this place, has been determined by the Third Assistant Postmaster-General to be a publication entitled to admission in the mails at the postpaid rate of postage, and entry of it as such is accordingly made upon the books of this office.

Valid under the character of the publication remains unchanged. MARY T. WILSON, Postmistress.

SATURDAY, APRIL 4, 1898.

The following are among the local bills passed by this county by the legislature of 1898:

The liquor law, a synopsis of which was published in last week's Advertiser and the accompanying bill known as the local veto. This latter bill, which has been reported, provides for having the question of local option voted upon at any congressional election upon petition of a majority of the registered voters of the county or of any election district.

A bill authorizing the city of Salisbury to issue bonds to the extent of $4,000 to build a city hall, plans for which have already been adopted by the city.

The law creating a board of supervisors consisting of the State's Attorney, president of the Board of County Commissioners and the County Treasurer was repealed and with it were advised the provision authorizing the city authorities to work "jail birds" on the streets.

To amend the charter of Delmar. A bill to amend the charter and enlarge the powers of the Wicomico Building and Loan Association.

The object of this last act was to empower the association, to issue preferred obligations in the form of bonds such as the Salisbury Association has been issuing for several years past, or preferred stock. The association will begin after May first to issue these preferred obligations, upon which a specific rate of interest will be guaranteed.

THE WORK OF THE LEGISLATURE. The Maryland Legislature expired by limitation last Monday night. The session has been eventful. The all absorbing question, Reassessment, has been settled and it is to have a new assessment. The bill passed was radical, but was afterwards much modified by supplemental laws. It provides for the taxation of all visible property except church property, and cemeteries not kept up for profit. It also provides for the taxation of stocks, bonds and all such evidences of property and for the taxation of mortgages.

Four supplemental bills were introduced by recommendation of Governor Lowndes and passed both branches on Monday. The bills materially modify the original bill. One to exempt the stock of building and loan associations; one to have the rolling stock of railroad companies assessed to the counties through which they run in proportion to the mileage in each county. The third to compel the officers to keep secret the list of property made out by owners under oath. This is to prevent exposing a man's private business; and lastly the adoption of that is known as the "New-comer" plan of assessing stocks and bonds. That is, to assess them at their full value for purposes of state taxes, and three cents on the hundred dollars for county and municipal purposes. This last provision is looked upon as a happy solution of this vexed question of taxing "invisible" property. The basis for state tax will probably be increased fully fifty per cent, which will reduce the state tax into years to 12c instead of 17c. The law provides for two general assessors in this county, one democrat and one republican, and a local assessor for each election district, appointed by the county commissioners. Work is to begin by the first Tuesday in June and to be completed by the first Tuesday in September. The pay of assessors is fixed at $4.00 per day. The county commissioners are made a board of control and review.

Another important measure is the election bill. It provides for a general registration in 1899, and registration every eight years thereafter in the counties, and an annual registration for Baltimore City. Each precinct or district has two registration officers, one democrat and one republican, who also act as judges of election with two others to be appointed. Ballot clerks are abolished. The applicant for registration makes oath that he can read or write, if he can write he must sign his name, which may be used to identify him when he presents himself to vote. If he cannot write the fact is noted on the registration books and he may have assistance. The assistance in voting is given by two judges, of opposite party. The law was prepared by the Reform League and is considered a safeguard against bribery and fraud.

Another important measure is John Walter Smith's free school book bill, for which one hundred and fifty thousand dollars was appropriated. Of this sum, Wicomico will receive between $3,000 and $5,000 to purchase books for the children in the public schools.

Senator Bruce's civil service bill was defeated by the republicans, but at the last moment a bill was passed which provides for submitting to the people of the state a constitutional amendment to compel the state to adopt civil service.

There is much in the work of the session to be commended. The democratic senate and the republican house prevailed. Spoilsmen in the house were at hand, but were in a minor suppressed.

The course of Governor Lowndes on the assessment question is to be commended. When the legislature passed a questionable bill the Governor did not as did his predecessor, Governor Brown, kill it with a pocket veto, but suggested remedial legislation in the form of supplemental bills and when these were passed he signed both the original and the supplemental bills.

The most serious mistake in the bill, in our judgment, is the provision to tax mortgages, which we fear will oppress many by foreclosures. The intention was good but the result we fear will be disastrous.

Hearty as a Beauty Does. "You think the Ugly Duckling never becomes a swan?" writes Ruth Ashmore in April Ladies' Home Journal. "Rachel, who was said to have had the most expressive face of any woman in the century, and to have been the most graceful, was contented by her family as a plain, ugly child. She showed beauty, and she tells in one of her letters that suddenly one day, after looking at herself, she made up her mind that she would be charming. And she said, 'I studied every hour of my life to be only no longer.'"

"History tells how the excellent, Selina Patti was the Ugly Duckling, it being thought by her parents that her sister, Charlotta, was the beauty. Mary Anderson, the ideal, classical beauty of the last two decades, was considered in her own home an awkward, ordinary-looking girl, rather quiet, for she spent most of her time reading Shakespeare. George Elliott never became a beauty, but she forced those people who despised her lack of attraction as a child to recognize the great genius of the woman. The old mummies down South always scorned a bright baby, and, oddly enough, there is wisdom in this."

Dear Park, on the Crest of the Alleghenies. To those contemplating a trip to the mountains in search of health or pleasure, Dear Park, on the crest of the Allegheny Mountains, 3,000 feet above the sea level, offers such varied attractions as a delightful atmosphere during both day and night, pure water, smooth, rolling hills through the mountains and valleys, and the most picturesque scenery in the Allegheny range. The hotel is equipped with all adjuncts conducive to the entertainment, pleasure and comfort of its guests.

There are also a number of furnished cottages with facilities for housekeeping. The houses and grounds are supplied with absolutely pure water, piped from the celebrated "Boiling Spring," and are lighted with electricity. Dear Park is on the main line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and has the advantages of its splendid Vestibled Limited Express trains between the East and West. Season excursion tickets, good for return passage until October 31st, will be placed on sale at greatly reduced rates at all special ticket offices throughout the country.

The season at Dear Park commences June 23d, 1898. For full information as to rates, rooms, etc., address George D. DeHills, Manager, Dear Park, Garrett County, Maryland.

The March of the Bicycle. The bicycle has come, and, although the predominance of the horse in sport is not destroyed, it is no longer undisturbed. Not like that other, that with such unobtrusive manifestations tumbled down the knight from his steed, this modern machine, in quiet and orderly manner, as becomes the present, is tumbuling his modern counterpart from hunter and from pack. Gradually it has been growing in favor, and now it is beating all before it. There is no dignity too great to be borne by the nimble wheel, and coquetry has been sacrificed to its advantage. Every one rides, and it is singular that the most bigoted horseman often falls the most ardent victim and is found practicing upon the smoothly running "innovations"—sometimes, it is true, on the sly. A writer says in speaking of the "retreat" of the power holding "The effect produced on certain individuals is such that, instead of siding with the class to which by tradition and individual interest they undoubtedly belong, they take their place in the ranks of the opponents."—Scribner's.

Superstitions About the Weather. Popular superstitions about the weather linger long, and in spite of the teachings of science people persist in believing that forecasted long up in a backyard will become damp at the approach of rain, or that a similar indication is to be found in the fact that a pig is seen chewing straw. Mr. Richard Inwards, the president of the Meteorological Society, it is needless to say, has no belief whatever in such methods of prophesying the weather. What belief could be more firmly rooted in many people than the belief that if it rains on St. Swithin's day it will rain for 40 days? "An unexplained fallacy," such is what the president of the Meteorological Society, it is said that a full moon will clear away clouds, and that a change of moon on a Saturday or a Sunday is an indication of floods, although not a little evidence in favor of either belief has ever been adduced.—London News.

Purple Ink. The Roman emperors always signed their names in purple ink. No subject of the empire was permitted to use or have this ink, and, on at least two occasions, the possession of a small quantity of it was considered treason and the person owning this emblem of royalty was put to death.

Rapid Deaths. Two of the most interesting automata in the United States are those used by the government for counting and trying postal cards to null packing. These machines will correctly count 500,000 cards in ten hours and wrap and tie the same in ten packs of 25 each.

Don't think because you are sick and nothing seems to give you relief that you can't be cured. There must be a cure for you somewhere.

If your doctor can't cure you, perhaps he has mistaken the name. Anybody is liable to make a mistake sometimes.

One in three of us suffer from indigestion, and one out of three diespectics doesn't know it. That is, he may know he is sick, but he blames it to something else.

Indigestion is the cause of half of our dangerous diseases. Shaker Digestive Cordial, made from tonic medicinal roots and herbs, is the most natural cure for indigestion. It relieves the symptoms and cures the disease gently, naturally, efficiently, giving fresh life, strength and health to sick dyspeptics. At druggists. A trial bottle for 10 cents.

THE BREAD OF THE WORLD.

What This Important Food is Made of in Different Countries. In England and America wheat bread is within the reach of all, and scarcely is a thought given to the fact that only a small portion of the earth's inhabitable surface enjoy it. It is only during the last century that wheat bread has come into common use. A hundred years ago wealthy families in England used only a loaf of wheat a year and that as Christmas, eating out cakes during the remainder of the time.

The German "Brotmehl" is a rye bread with a curious, sour taste, but after eating it awhile one acquires quite a taste for it. It is less nutritious than that of wheat, and in the poorer parts of Sweden the people bake their rye bread only twice a year and so it avails, so that eventually it is as hard as bricks.

Further north still barley and oats become the chief bread crop. But in the district north is where man is put to thought to provide himself with bread. In Lapland if a man treated his dog as a dog, he would starve, so the people eat out their scanty store of oats with the inner bark of the pine, and after grinding this mixture it is made into large flat cakes, which, after all, are not half bad.

In dreary Kamchatka the pine or birch bark itself, well ground, pounded and baked, constitutes the whole of the native bread food. Bread and butter is represented by a dough of pine bark spread with seal fat. In certain parts of Siberia the people not only grind the pine bark, but cut off the tender shoots, which procedure must give the bread an unpleasantly resinous flavor.

Consider that a very large number of Saturday riders sleep out and make good meals during their journey; that they are constantly spending something over and above their actual traveling expenses; that the wonderful extensiveness of our acquaintance with our own country resulting from these peaceful invasions of the inhabitants, not merely of the metropolis, but of every city and considerable town in the land, has led to the refurbishing up of such local lions as the castle, the abbey, or the great Somebody's birthplace, on the waterfalls, or the view (the inspection of all of which means the expenditure of money), and an approximate idea may be gained of the influence upon national character which this pastime alone exercises.

THE WHEAT AND ENGLAND.

Take the Great North road. Except upon market days, one might have traveled 50 miles along it between Highgate and York without meeting 50 people. Towns which literally lived by the road had drifted into a helplessly permanent condition, from which no apparent human agency could awaken them, and the stranger there was struck as much as if he had been a Highlander or an Ingot in full warpaint. The highway itself, being of no particular value to anybody save the Great Northern railway began to whirl the old pilgrims of the road along at 45 miles an hour, was allowed to decay, and in wet seasons or snowy weather was well nigh impassable.

The rage for wheeling has produced a rapid transformation. Station yourself at any point you like, and try to count the machines which pass on a fine Saturday afternoon during the course of an hour, and you will soon abandon the task as hopeless. Then, consider that every rider of every machine spends something during his trip, even if it be but the cost of a temperance drink. Consider that a very large number of Saturday riders sleep out and make good meals during their journey; that they are constantly spending something over and above their actual traveling expenses; that the wonderful extensiveness of our acquaintance with our own country resulting from these peaceful invasions of the inhabitants, not merely of the metropolis, but of every city and considerable town in the land, has led to the refurbishing up of such local lions as the castle, the abbey, or the great Somebody's birthplace, on the waterfalls, or the view (the inspection of all of which means the expenditure of money), and an approximate idea may be gained of the influence upon national character which this pastime alone exercises.

Spring Time

Is when nearly everyone feels the need of some blood purifying strength giving and health producing medicine. The real merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is the reason of its widespread popularity. Its unequalled success is its best recommendation. The whole system is susceptible to the most noxious and insidious poisons, and a medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla taken at this time, and we would lay special stress upon the time and delay, for history has it recorded that remedies are dangerous. The remarkable success achieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla and the many words of praise it has received, make it worthy of your confidence. We ask you to give this medicine a fair trial.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, I, Frank J. Cheney make oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. ORDER OF RED MEN.

Modoc Tribe 141 O. R. M. meet every second Sunday of every seven weeks at the evening session of the hall in their new building, 225 N. Main street, on S. D. 61.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Miller spent this week in Baltimore.

Mr. O. R. Tappin is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tappin of Baltimore, Md.

D. B. Cannon is having his home on Walnut street refurnished.

Mr. Jas. A. Gurdy of Tappin, N. Y., is the guest of Mrs. Irving Powell.

George McBrierty is home again, Gov. Lowndes having pardoned him.

Mr. N. H. Rider of Washington spent Wednesday in Salisbury looking after some business matters.

Mrs. Samuel Vaughn of Rocky Mount, N. C., is a guest of her sister, Mrs. R. Humphreys.

Capt. Jas. A. Turner is expected to arrive in the city late last week.

Miss Nettie Phillips, who has spent several weeks with friends in Baltimore and Annapolis, returned last Sunday.

Governor Lowndes has signed the bill abolishing days of grace on notes in this State.

Mr. James Cannon is confined to his home on Division street with an attack of grip. His condition is now somewhat improved.

Mrs. O. S. Schneek in quite ill. She was attacked last Wednesday while superintending her household duties. Dr. Robert Taylor, Jr., is attending her.

Eld. S. H. Durand is expected to preach in the O. S. Baptist meeting house Saturday, April 4th, at 3 o'clock p. m., also Sunday morning and evening at the usual hours.

Messrs. J. Morris Siemons and L. D. Collier, Jr., are home from college for the Easter holidays. Mr. Billings of New York, is spending the Easter holidays with the family of Dr. F. M. Siemons.

Mr. James Lord of Maryland Springs has a flock of about forty ducks which have laid 800 eggs this season, and they are still laying. He ships them to Baltimore where he realizes about double the price that hen eggs bring.

Mr. W. B. Miller has had about six hundred cords of pine wood cut this winter near Allen. This gave employment to quite a number of persons during the dreary days of winter.

Rev. Mr. Redfield and Mr. George Sellman Williams are attending the annual conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, which has been in session at Annet Memorial Church, Baltimore since last Tuesday. Mr. Williams is lay delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Williams left Salisbury last Tuesday for Annapolis where Mr. Williams has gone to take up his active work of chief clerk in the Comptroller's office. They have rooms at the Maryland Hotel where they will board.

Rev. C. W. Prettymann and his family have just returned from a business trip to Baltimore. They will hold their regular monthly meeting, Tuesday, April 7th, at 3 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. B. T. Woolley, on Walnut street. All ladies interested in the advancement of temperance sentiment, are most cordially invited to be present. Secretary.

Herbert Schneek, the enterprising proprietor of the Peninsula Hotel, has, with the consent of the owners, fenced the vacant lot between the bank and Mr. V. Brewington's residence, ploughed and graded it and is now ready to plant them in vegetables and flowers. The supposed that the street is much improved. This would be a good one to make of all the vacant lots in town.

A trial lecture will be delivered at Ullman's Opera House Tuesday evening, April 4th, under the auspices of the M. I. S. S. The lecturer will come from Philadelphia by direction of the University Extension Course. His subject will be "Hamlet." Tickets will shortly be on sale at 25 cents each. The University Extension Society is spreading over the country. A few weeks ago the Advertiser contained an extensive article setting forth the plans and purposes of the M. I. S. S. which is a club system.

The M. I. S. S. which is a club system, which the club members will be given next autumn.

Dr. Kinzer Re-elected

As president of the Maryland Methodist Protestant Conference.

The sixty-eighth session of the Maryland Annual Conference, Methodist Protestant Church, began Wednesday at Annet Memorial Church, corner of Chester and Lombard streets, Baltimore. The conference comprises 125 churches in Maryland, the District of Columbia, Delaware, Virginia, Southern Pennsylvania and a few in New Jersey. Last year its church members numbered 21,333; Sunday School, 257; officers and teachers, 2,673; pupils, 22,913; churches, 229; parsonage, $5, and value of church property, $1,181,175, on which there was a debt of $99,111.

A YEAR'S PROGRESS.

President J. D. Kinzer read the report of the year's work. New churches were built and paid for at Clayton, Harrington, Sussex, Bedford, Bethel, Fox Hill and Edifair churches in Maryland, the District of Columbia, Delaware, Virginia, Southern Pennsylvania, and a few in New Jersey. Last year its church members numbered 21,333; Sunday School, 257; officers and teachers, 2,673; pupils, 22,913; churches, 229; parsonage, $5, and value of church property, $1,181,175, on which there was a debt of $99,111.

Improvements costing nearly as much as new buildings were made at Clayton, Pittsville and Kent Island. Evergreen Church, in the northern suburbs of Baltimore, was built, and North Baltimore, Christ and Brooklyn Churches were completed and opened.

Reveries have added hundreds to church membership, Sunday Schools have been improved and four churches school conventions have been held. Christian endeavor societies have been active.

As the result of the year the president reported as follows, according to the figures furnished by the pastors: Conversions, 3,229; accessions, 3,135; Christian Endeavor societies, 190; members of these societies, 7,014; raised for church and parsonage buildings and improvements, $40,297.

He mentioned the death of four conference members, including Rev. James K. Nicolls, of Johnsville, Md.; Daniel W. Bates, of Evesville, Md.; John W. Charlton, of L. e. Mont, Va. and Thomas E. Coulbourn, secretary of the foreign mission board, who died at Pittsburg, Pa. Mention was also made in the report of the deaths of Mrs. J. T. Murray and Mrs. J. E. Maloy, wives of preachers.

PRESIDENT KINZER RE-ELECTED.

Dr. Kinzer was given the unusual honor of being elected for the fifth successive term as president of the conference, receiving 124 of the 171 votes cast. Previously the term of office was three years, by custom, but the present practice is to elect annually.

During the year he visits all the churches within the bounds of the conference. He makes the appointments of preachers to charge for each year, of the bishops and presiding elders in the Methodist Episcopal Church. This privilege is seldom exercised.

Rev. Louis Randall was re-elected a conference steward. Rev. J. L. Straughn was elected a member of the temperance committee.

Mr. George Sellman Williams of this city was elected a member of the committee on benevolent agencies.

Mr. M. A. Davis, of Pittsville, is a committeeman on statistics.

More Real Estate Changes.

Activity in Salisbury real estate for the last three months amounts almost to nothing. There has never before in the history of the town been so much seeking for homes as in the case now.

The truth is Salisbury is a desirable little city in which to live and people are rapidly discovering it. As a consequence desirable homes and places are being bought and sold without hesitation and with a steady increase in price all the time.

The Messrs. Fish have exchanged their vacant lot on Main St. for the dwelling on Isabella street owned and formerly occupied by Mrs. M. A. Rider. The Messrs. Fish will very soon occupy their new home. Mr. R. B. Graham has recently purchased it, will next month be going to the city to take up his new homekeeping where the Messrs. Fish now reside.

Mr. A. W. Lankford has purchased of Mr. L. P. Humphreys the lot on Park street adjoining the property of Mr. W. J. Downing and will erect thereon a modern residence for the occupancy of Mr. W. E. Sheppard.

The J. H. H. Boys.

There was quite a rush at Mr. Harper's jewelry store last Wednesday morning, when the sale of tickets for the J. H. H. U. Mandolin and Banjo Club's concert at Ullman's opera house next Tuesday night, began.

The sale of tickets has already exceeded the expectations of the friends of the club. Every indication points to a crowded house on that occasion. The performance is every here commended by those who have seen it.

The ladies of Salisbury have arranged to give the club a reception Tuesday night after the entertainment from 10 to 12 o'clock at the Peninsula Hotel.

District S. Conventions.

Active preparations are being made for a live, enthusiastic Sunday School Convention for the 1st Sunday School district of Wicomico county, at Friendship M. E. Church, near Pittsville, Saturday and Sunday, April 11th, and 12th, embracing Pittsburg and Dennis Elections Districts. All Sunday schools of every denomination, within the territory mentioned, are invited to send two delegates each. Similar conventions will be held throughout the county, previous to the holding of the county convention. Everybody invited.

A course of Hood's Sarsaparilla this spring may be the means of keeping you well and hearty all summer.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered (D. V.) in the Wicomico Presbyterian Church, on Sabbath morning, April 5th, 7 to 9 a. m. Millboro, Del.; 10th, 10:30 a. m., Indian town, 12th, (2d Sunday) Snow Hill, 10:30 a. m., and Pitts Creek, 3:30 p. m.; 14th, Broad Creek, 2 p. m., 15th, Salisbury, 2:30 p. m., 16th, and 19th, (3rd Saturday and Sunday) yearly meeting at Little Creek; 19th, 7 p. m., Delmar, Elder Peniston will give appointments at Forest Grove, 2d. Saturday and Sunday, 10:30 a. m., each day.

REPORT OF GRAND JURY.

A Searching Investigation Made By That Body.

The committee appointed to visit the Alms House, consisting of Messrs. R. B. Talbot, Joseph S. Hearn and Thaddeus Langdale, found the house in good condition. The inmates, their clothing, rooms and beds were neat and clean, and much improvement has been made in the out buildings. The stock, poultry and all surroundings presented the appearance of being kept by a good farmer. The report is probably made so flattering by the substantial dinner provided for the committee by Mr. T. P. Fletcher.

The jury in a body examined the jail and in a body they said that the accommodations at that retreat are not so inviting as they might be, and no visitor would wish to stay there willingly. The bedding in the three cells examined is absolutely worthless—a straw mattress on the bare floor, with a dirty, dark colored blanket being the only furniture. As parties confined in these cells and awaiting trial are not convicted, it seems only humanly to accord them better treatment. There would be but little trouble in providing at least a small bedstead and a chair or two, with proper and covering for each room; and some provision should also be made by which prisoners might wash themselves and keep clean. We found four men each in two cells, and only one mattress, about four feet wide, for these men to sleep on, and but a single piece of covering. The walls of the cells were apparently recently whitewashed. We would suggest that these examinations be made without notice to the jailer, by some committee to be appointed by the court or by the county commissioners. Walls of the cells should be repainted, and same should be made as early as possible.

The court house is in good condition throughout, and the new matting is put on the halls—provided for by the savings at this term of court—it will indeed be a thing of beauty if not a joy forever.

We would also suggest that some means be provided by which the law enforcing persons to jail for six months at hard labor could be properly executed or those having the matter under their charge punished. There is but little probability in sending a worthless negro to jail to be fed and housed by the county during the cold months of winter, and there is no disgrace in it for him.

We would also suggest that in future the calling of constables to testify before grand juries be omitted. The constables are apparently blind men, as not a single one of them had noticed any violation of law; and it really only adds to said violations to have them come before us. Their witness fee seems to be the leading inducement to be present.

The roads, in general, are fairly attended to the greater portion of the county, but in Tyaskin district they are said to need attention.

"We expected to have an exceedingly short session, but the many violations of the liquor law in and around Salisbury have demanded most of our attention; the result of our labors will show for themselves in the near future, and we hope to merit and receive the thanks of the intelligent and law-abiding people of this entire community. We have found only thirty-seven indictments, which shows conscientiously to the other counties what a law-abiding community we are."

Colonel Hughtell Dead.

Easton, Md., March 30—Colonel Thomas Hughtell, clerk of the Circuit Court for Talbot County, died at his residence in Easton this evening, after an illness of several weeks. He suffered from stomach troubles. Colonel Hughtell was born May 5, 1829, in Dorchester county. He was the youngest son of Colonel William Hughtell, who had large business affairs in this and adjoining counties. He was a graduate of Princeton, and for years has occupied a high position in business, social, political and church affairs. He was a member of the Board of County Commissioners before the war, and was a member of the School Board twenty years ago. He was appointed clerk of the Circuit Court in 1884, and was re-elected in 1887. He was elected over Leonard Dodson, his republican opponent, and re-elected in 1891 over Martin M. Higgins.

Capt. Turner's Police Work.

Last Wednesday Capt. James A. Turner, of the State steamer Governor McLane, who was sent by Commander Howard, of the State fishery force, to look after reported violations of the cull law, returned to Annapolis and reported six arrests. During the season the captain of the McLane has made forty-three captures for violations of the oyster law. Those arrested Wednesday were: Capt. Severn A. Evans, of the schooner Lady Shannon; A. H. Harlow, of the schooner Benjamin Oliver; Frank Greenwell, of the schooner F. V. Coleman; John H. McDorman, of the schooner Quick Lime, and Arthur P. Wroten, of the schooner Frank Hutchins. Captains Greaves and Harden said the fine of $25 and costs imposed by Justice Marshall, of Dorchester county. The other captains waived an examination and entered appeal. All the vessels were loading for Baltimore markets except the Benjamin Oliver, which is a New York vessel.

Notice.

The Holy Eucharist will be offered (D. V.) in Saint Philip's Chapel, at Quantico, at sunrise, on Easter-Day-Sunday, April 21st, next.

There will be a second Celebration of the Holy Eucharist, with a sermon, on the memorable—Easter-Day—in Saint Paul's Church, Spring Hill, at 10:30 o'clock.

On the evening of that day, at 7:30 o'clock, there will be Evening Prayer, and a sermon, in Saint Philip's Chapel, Quantico.

On Easter-Monday, April 6th, after Morning Prayer—at 10 o'clock—the annual parish meeting will be held, for the purpose of electing four vestrymen for the ensuing year. Franklin B. Adkins, Rector of Spring Hill Parish.

A Family Rele.

A very interesting old birth book was shown to us last Saturday by Mr. Charles E. Williams. It was a record of the births of the Messrs. Williams' ancestors.

The Late Charles Dashiell, father of Mr. L. M. Dashiell, deputy register, died the work with a goose-quill pen on paper which was meant to imitate parchment, and although it was executed many years ago, the ink is as brilliantly black as if it had been done yesterday.

The penmanship is almost a marvel, so skillfully is it done. With a goose-quill pen the recorder made the most even and exact letters.

Intensive Farming Pays.

Whether it is best to try to grow a larger quantity of any given crop than was produced last year may be an open question, but as relates to many, perhaps to most, farmers there can be no doubt that it will pay well to grow larger crops per acre, says the Practical Farmer. For the average American farmer there seems to be a strong fascination in the large business. He delights in "broad acres" and many of them. The larger his fields of grass or grain the better he is pleased. He forgets the injunction "Despite not the day of small things," and he reaches out after something more elaborate than he has yet attained. This course has been followed for a long time. The farmers marked it out, and the children have not only followed it, but have given it a still greater degree of expansion. The results have not been wholly satisfactory. Many, in all, have been taking another course, and there is a growing tendency toward intensive farming. This tendency should be encouraged. Young farmers, especially, should consider very carefully whether their present course of success would be greater if the work on the same culture were made more intensive. Many a man has been lamed for life by buying too large a farm at the start, and a still greater number have condemned themselves to bondage for the remainder of their natural lives by buying more land than they can properly manage, which they started nearly or quite paid for. Probably the majority of the farms in this country are much too large, and their owners would not only take more money, but would also make more money, if they would sell, rent or convert into pasture or woodland some of the acres that have long been kept under the plow. As a rule, large crops on small areas pay better than small, or even moderate yields per acre, in large fields. This subject is always worthy of careful thought, but it seems especially timely now, as the season for planting and sowing is about to open.

Stockholders Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of Somerset and Worcester counties was held at the office of the company, in Princess Anne, on Wednesday last, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. The following named persons were re-elected as directors, namely: Wm. H. Gale, Albert Sandler, Wm. S. McMaster, W. Wash, Waller, Eph. G. Poik, John Sterling, of E. Thomas B. Taylor, Alfred Turpin, Joseph S. Webster and Roger Woolford. One new director was elected, namely, Frank M. Wilson, of Pocomoke, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of James F. Brittingham.

At the conclusion of the election of directors, that body proceeded to choose a president, secretary and treasurer for the company for the ensuing term, resulting in the re-election of Thomas H. Beck as president, and Levin L. Waters as secretary and treasurer.

Sharpshoot.

The remains of Hartley, the sixteen-months-old child of Wm. J. Phillips and wife, of Camden, N. J., were brought here last week, and interred in the Taylor cemetery.

Maggie Covington, wife of Thomas Covington, of Camden, N. J., died on Wednesday of this week after a brief illness. She leaves a husband and two small children, a father, James Selby, formerly of this town, and several brothers and sisters. She was about thirty years old.

T. W. Hensinger & Son have opened a drug store in this town, in the John H. Smith building on Main street. There have been several other drug stores in this town, but this drug store has a superior outfit, and has a good price of merchandise.

Wildy D. Gravenor is attending the Methodist Conference at Salisbury this week. The return of Rev. J. M. Yingling is almost unanimously desired by his members and friends.

An athletic association has been organized here, the chief amusement of which will be lawn tennis, and baseball. A court has been laid out in the western part of Jas. W. Bradley's farm, on the suburbs. It will soon be ready for regular and professional practice. An effort will be made to have a meeting of representatives from similar similar organizations in the near future to consider the advisability of forming an association and holding league tournaments during the coming season.

SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1896.

There is now every indication of a large peach crop this season. The cold dry weather of the past two months has kept back the buds till this time, and it is not at all likely that we will have frost now to kill the crop, although there may be local frosts to destroy in some sections. We will most likely have a peach crop. The peninsula will be in much better condition to handle the crop than it was in 1894. The canners can use a much larger quantity than they could then, for the reason principally that the tomato pack will be much lighter, then it will in all probability be so difficult to secure discounts at the banks. There is an abundance of money, a little scared it is true but not sufficiently shy however to be locked up.

In the general canning business there has been a great change in the method of conducting it. There is no disposition to deal in futures any more. Credit will not be so cheap, and as a result it will take more capital to do the business. These and other changes will make the tomato pack much lighter this season and give room for a pack of peaches in case there is a crop.

Mr. W. F. Allen, Jr. is now very busily engaged at the Peninsula Plant Farms getting off his orders for spring plants. He has in his employ thirty to forty men engaged in taking up and bundling plants. The plants are coming to the post office and express office by the wagon load—several such loads a day. Mr. Allen gives every detail of the business his personal attention, and as a result has built up a reputation for handling excellent stock. He transacts his business with painstaking and exactness and as a result has very few complaints from his customers. During the busy season most of the correspondence is carried on by Mrs. Allen, who has a thorough knowledge of the business department.

The business, which has become a valuable franchise, is the growth of years of patient toil, industry, integrity and sound business sense. It began with Mr. Allen's teens and grew through the teens to the twenties, increasing in arithmetical progression. We congratulate Mr. Allen upon his success.

We publish on our first page this week the new Liquor License law, now in effect and under which licenses in the future will have to be issued. If we can succeed in living up to the law we will have accomplished a great reform. It is the duty of every citizen in the community to give the law his hearty support and with the assistance of the law that has been given do all in his power to suppress the whiskey traffic as an evil. Let us take the law that has been given us and live up to it literally and in spirit. If we did not get all we asked for at the hands of the legislature let us not attempt it indirectly, and our advice to the liquor dealers is to use every effort to obey the law and live up to its provisions. That the traffic has been conducted, to all appearances, regardless of the law for the last few years, cannot be gainsaid. The large number of indictments found by the last grand jury attests to this fact.

That the officers of the law have not been as diligent in their effort to enforce the law as they should have been is the general belief. This has no doubt made some who are engaged in the traffic bolder law breakers, corrupters of the youth, desecrators of the Sabbath. Hence the general uprising of the community against the traffic, and a determination on the part of a large number of the best citizens of the community to see that the law is enforced.

Our advice to the liquor seller is to comply with the provisions of this, otherwise there is trouble for him in store. The same Legislature that gave us the Liquor License law gave us also an opportunity to vote upon the question of absolute prohibition. The county can avail itself of this privilege at the general election in 1897. We do not however advise this course for the present. Give the license law a fair test. As the community is saddled with the moral responsibility of issuing these licenses, let us see how the problem will work itself out. If those in the community who want saloons do not select such persons as the law requires, then the community can protest against the issuing of licenses to them, and the timid may rest assured that those who have taken the matter in hand will certainly exercise the rights under the law.

The law requires the seller to be a man of sobriety and good moral character.

Opening of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's New Delaware River Bridge

The new Delaware River Bridge of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will be opened to travel by the inauguration of through passenger train service from Broad Street Station to Atlantic City, commencing Sunday, April 19, 1896.

A morning express train will leave Broad Street Station daily at 9:05 a. m., and arrive at Atlantic City at 11:05 a. m. This train will connect with the Day Express and Main Line Express from all points in Pennsylvania and the West and North, and the train leaving Washington at 3:15 p. m. and Baltimore at 4:30 p. m.

An afternoon express train will leave Broad Street Station daily at 7:00 p. m., and arrive at Atlantic City at 8:50 p. m. This train will connect with the Day Express and Main Line Express from all points in Pennsylvania and the West and North, and the train leaving Washington at 3:15 p. m. and Baltimore at 4:30 p. m.

Returning, a morning train will leave Atlantic City at 10:10 a. m., arriving at Broad Street Station at 11:17 a. m., and connecting with the Pennsylvania Limited and the Fast Line to the West and North, and the 12:00 noon train for Baltimore and Washington. Another train will leave Atlantic City daily at 4:45 p. m., and connecting with the 6:55 p. m. train for Baltimore and Washington and the evening trains for all points on the Pennsylvania System.

All of these trains will carry parlor cars. An extra fare of twenty-five cents will be charged on all of these trains for the Delaware River Bridge, in connection with tickets good via Market Street Ferry, Philadelphia.

By the opening of this new all rail route to the seaboard the transfer of passengers and baggage through Philadelphia will be avoided, and will be seen by the connections given above, the territory from which passengers can reach Atlantic City in a daylight journey has been extended in every direction—to Pittsburg, Buffalo, Danville and Norfolk, Va.

A man's health is the rope by which he climbs to success. If he can keep his health, he will go on to success. Yet his health is the very thing he neglects more than anything else. It is easier to keep health than it is to regain it. When a man feels himself running down, when he realizes a loss of vitality and energy, he must call a halt. The strands of his rope are parting rapidly. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has helped thousands of men in just this condition. It makes health, it makes pure rich blood, it forces out impurities and kills germs. It doesn't make any difference what name you call your trouble by—dyspepsia—kidney disease—rheumatism—consumption—skin disease, the "Golden Medical Discovery" will cure it absolutely. None of these diseases can be retained on the body when it is full of rich, pure blood.

Send 21 one cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, and receive free a copy of Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser. Address World's Dispensary Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

New Rates for the Oyster Navy.
An order issued by Commander Howard of the oyster navy, which went into effect last Tuesday, reduces the crews of the sailing vessels to three—captain, mate and one seaman—except on the schooners Nellie Jackson, Polly and Helen Baughman, which are located in crabbing districts and which have additional duties to perform. On these three vessels the crew will consist of four.

For the balance of the season the state inspectors Thomas will be put into commission. This is done for the purpose of looking after the tax imposed by the last legislature on pound net fishing in the Chesapeake bay and its tributaries.

De Tabby and His Book.

The side on which I was most capable of appreciating Lord de Tabby's gifts as a collector was the bibliographical. If I am anything of a connoisseur in this direction, I owe it to his training. His zeal in the amassing of early editions of the English poets was extreme; he was one of those who think nothing of hanging about a bookshop at 6 o'clock in the morning waiting for the shutters to be taken down. But his zeal was eminently according to knowledge. He valued his first edition for the text's sake, too eager to wait for the post, he sent a messenger round to my house with a note to announce not merely the joyful fact, but this is the interesting point—a discovery he had made in the volume, namely, that the line in the "Nativity Ode," which in all later editions has run—

"O'er'd in a rainbow, and like glories wearing," which," as he said, "is a grand metaphor of sound and ever so much better than the weak 'like glories wearing,' originally stood—

The enamel'd arras of the rainbow wearing, "which," as he said, "is a grand metaphor of sound and ever so much better than the weak 'like glories wearing,' originally stood—

Cholly nodded his head affirmatively to Major Pool's assertion and continued his story: "This happened four years ago. No one heard anything during that time of pretty Kate Donovan, for, you see, she wasn't Mrs. Gordon, after all. An aunt of hers had the grace to write to me, making inquiries. She had heard that Kate was in the United States, in a place called Pennsylvania, and would I make inquiries, as I lived, no doubt near there? The Eastern Shore Law Repealed.

The impression which has prevailed since Governor Lowndes signed the new election law that the so-called Eastern Shore law has thereby been repealed of the statute books has been confirmed by John C. Rose, the counsel to the Baltimore city election supervisors.

Rose has made a careful examination of the copy of the new election law sent to him from the executive department at Annapolis. It contains nothing which in it requires that one of the Federal Senators shall be a resident of the Eastern Shore, and the contention is that inasmuch as the new law repeals and re-enacts Article 23 of the Code of public general laws, Section 115 and 116 of which related to the election of United States senators, the provisions contained in those sections have been abolished together with every other feature of the old law not re-enacted.

Attorney General Clegg, Senator elect Wellington and other take Mr. Rose's view of the matter.

The Tireless Story Teller.

During a recent trip across the Atlantic the passenger on one steamer had a vivid illustration of the endurance of the Stormy Petrel. Shortly after the ship left the Irish coast, two or three of these birds were sighted at the stern of the ship. One had been caught at some previous time and he captured a bit of red flannel or other bright article and let it go. The bird of red made the bird very conspicuous, and it could be easily identified. That bird, with others that could not be so easily distinguished, followed the ship clear across the ocean. Rarely during the daytime at least, was it out of sight, and if for an hour or two it was lost to view while feeding on the refuse cast overboard, it soon reappeared, and the last seen of it was within a few miles of Sandy Hook, when it disappeared, perhaps to follow some outboard-bound steamer back to Ireland—Yarmouth Light, March 2.

Wood Asks.

All our cultivated plants take kindly to a dressing of ashes. In fact, they can be applied at any time and anywhere with benefit, but the best way to use them is to benefit the permanent pasture if applied early in the spring, says a writer in the Country Gentleman. They would also be likely to benefit the corn more than the oats. If the supply after the pasture has been treated is limited, then apply them in small quantities with the drill or by hand in juxtaposition to the corn either before or after it is planted. They not only supply directly needed food, potash, with some phosphoric acid, but they also enable the plant to convert the starch into sugar and meat it along into circulation. So it may be said that ashes have a three-fold use—first as a plant food; second, as an improver of the physical condition of the soil, and third as a chemical action upon the starch.

The Charm of a Sonny Nature.

There are two things in a woman that the man of refinement admires equally as much as, if not more than, beauty, and those are a pleasant voice and a cheerful disposition. There is not a man in the world brave enough to cope with a woman who whines. He will put himself to an amount of trouble to avoid her. Fortunately, though, which is going out of fashion. It is now considered, and rightly, more womanly to meet trials and troubles, both small and great, cheerfully. If your trouble is a great one, however, you may risk telling it to your best man friend, be he lover or brother, feeling sure that he will do his best to aid you, but never venture meeting him with a bundle of imaginary woes. With such, you may be sure, he will never trouble you, and why should a woman feel it her privilege to ask more than she can return simply because she is a woman?

"I have never had a day's sickness in my life" said a middle aged man the other day.

"What a comfort it would be" sighs some poor invalid, "to be in his place for a year or two." Yet half of the invalids we see might be just as healthy as he, if they would only take proper care of themselves, eat proper food—and digest it.

It's no strange that such simple things are overlooked by those who want health. Food makes health. It makes strength—and strength wards off sickness. The man who had never been sick was strong because he always digested his food, and you could become the same by helping your stomach to work as well as his.

It will make you strong and healthy by making the food you eat make you fat. Druggists sell it. Trial bottle 10 cents.

Spring Time.

Is when nearly everyone feels the need of some blood purifying, strength increasing and health producing medicine. The real merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is the reason of its widespread popularity. Its unequalled success achieved by the whole system is susceptible to the most taken from a medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla taken at this time, and we would lay special stress upon the time and remedy, for history has recorded that delirium are dangerous. The remarkable success achieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla and the many words of praise it has received, make it worthy of your confidence. We ask you to give this medicine a fair trial.

NEW CASTLE PARISHMENT.

Opening of the Spring Session at Lower Brandywine Church.

At the meeting of the New Castle Presbytery, which convened Tuesday afternoon in Lower Brandywine Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Luther A. Oster, of Delaware City, was elected moderator and the Rev. W. J. Fitz-Simon and W. F. Lewis were elected temporary clerks. The greater part of the afternoon session was consumed in examining George Wallis, Edwin Keigwin and William Charles Hogg for licensure.

Just before the recess for supper was taken Mr. Oster announced that he had appointed the following special committee: Bills and overtures—The Revs. H. L. Bonstiller, Edward W. Long and Elder Dr. H. Bishop.

Finance—Elder D. W. Corbit and J. W. C. Carhart. Minutes of Synod—The Rev. J. B. Turner, Elder F. W. Fenn.

Leave of absence—The Rev. Samuel Wylie, Elder Joseph P. Wright. The Ladies of the church served supper to the delegates in the Sunday-school room.

Those who answered to their names when the roll was called were: The Rev. John Baker, H. L. Bonstiller, Bobbly, Arthur Bonstiller, J. L. Labland, William Fitz-Simon, Dr. S. A. Gayley, Oscar Gillingham, S. L. Irvine, W. F. Lewis, A. N. Long, H. F. Mason, John McAlmoy, J. R. Milligan, Dr. Miller T. Morgan, F. H. Moore, Luther Oster S. Shanks, N. S. Rash, N. H. P. Sean, Joseph B. Turner, Dr. Vallandigham, Samuel Wylie. The following elders were present: W. H. Brady, Chesapeake; D. W. Corbit, Oxford; Claxton Carbit, Zion, Md.; J. B. Moore, Green Hill; George N. Steele, Christians; Prof. Buchanan, Newark; Dr. Stewart, New Castle; James Wright, Perryville; Robert Duhamel, Westminster; J. H. Price, First Church, Wilmington; F. W. Fenn, Central; N. McCullay, Rodney Street; J. P. Bellville, West George Rowell, Oliver Dr. Robert, Pastor of Wilcoxon Presbyterian Church of this city, was unable to be present. Mr. George H. Wallis, son of the late E. L. Wallis, was licensed to preach.

There Are Plenty of Good Books Available.

Every generous, high-spirited boy who has made the habit of reading is going to find out for himself stories where men do mighty things in the primitive, man-like way, and blessed by his lot if it is Jim Hawkins' brig or the ship, or Alan's round-house he fights in, no matter how many gory murders and consummate rascals come into the voyage. Even in such a complex character as Attwater, in "The Ebb-tide," the artist leaves his reader, be he boy or man, with the most delightful feeling of the morning, and you close his excellent rifle-shot. No boy could close his eyes on "The Wrecker," with its chamber of horrors, without a strengthened hatred of dishonor and villainy. It would be, of course, an impertinence to defend Cooper and Sir Walter, though they are not, in their residual effect, a whit more antipodal to contaminating influence than is the Tuxiala. And the great point is, that if the chance is lost to hear these noble story-tellers and men in their celebrations of the deeds that he loves, the ingenious boys who are in a fair way to provide him secretly with the chronicles of the Jesse James gang, idly told from a brutally unreal point of view—From "About the World," in the May Scribner's.

Call the attention of our readers to the card of M. Zimman & Bro., opticians, 130 South Ninth street, Philadelphia. They talk very interestingly about optical goods and give you a straight forward chat about prices that would induce everybody needing glasses to give them a trial. They are very frank in making statements and they clinch their arguments by giving reasons why they can sell cheaper than most opticians. They are the only jobbers in optical goods in Philadelphia. Their factory and retail department are in the same building. The retail is simply an inexpensive addition of the wholesale department, consequently their stock of eyeglasses is always complete. They do not advertise cheap goods as a bait, but they do advertise standard goods at lower prices than most opticians can afford to sell them at.

The man who stands stily by and sees the life falling out of his wife's face, sees her health going, sees her becoming opified and wrinkled when she should still be in the perfect enjoyment of vigor, useful health, is either less than a man or else does not know of the one remedy which will bring her back to health and strength. Perhaps her husband cannot persuade her to go to her doctor, because she naturally dreads the inevitable "examinations" and "local treatments." He can persuade her, if he needs a remedy, to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is the most powerful medicine has cured hundreds of women after the best physicians have failed. It has been in constant use and tested every day for thirty years. It isn't an experiment, there are no chances about it. It is a certain cure for all derangements, weakens, irregularities and displacements of internal organs peculiar to women.

Kennerly, Mitchell & Co. have got shirts of all kinds and enough for everybody. Don't fail to see that shirt that they are selling for 75c, they are going like hot cakes.

ARE YOU ON THE FENCE—Don't know where to get your new spring hat? You might hunt all over creation without finding a better place than Lacy Thoroughgood's. His new spring hats have arrived. Come see them.

comes to stay

There is more than one food which will cause the body to increase in weight. A free supply of sugar will do this; so will the starchy foods; cream, and some other fats. But to become fleshy, and yet remain in poor health, is not what you want. Cod-liver oil increases the weight because it is a fat-producing food. But it does far more than this. It alters, or changes, the processes of nutrition, restoring the normal functions of the various organs and tissues.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver Oil with hypophosphites, is pure cod liver in a digested condition. So that when a person gains in weight from taking Scott's Emulsion, it is because of two things: First, the oil has acted as a fat-producing food; and, second, it has restored to the body a healthy condition. Such an improvement is permanent; it comes to stay.
