SLUGGISH LIVER PROMPTLY BENEFITED

R. F. SASS, JR.

RICHARD F. SASS, JR., room 415, Burlington Bldg., 816 Olive street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I do not believe there is a person who takes Peruna but must admit that he has been benefited. 'I have met a large number of men and women who have used it, but I have yet to find the first one who has not been helped by it. 'It is of special benefit to poor working men and women who often suffer for the necessities of life, contract disease and have no money to seek medical advice. 'To such Peruna comes as a godsend, as it brings health. 'I have used it myself for a sluggish liver and for catarrhal troubles, with the best results."

CITIZEN'S GATHERING

At The Court House Monday A Strong And Enthusiastic One. Repudiates Saloon Statements.

The citizens of Salisbury gathered at the County Court House Monday evening in response to the call issued a few days previous, and in emphatic terms voiced their disapproval of the publications by nearly all the State papers recently made in an article prepared by a representative of the Delaware State License Committee, as reflecting upon the morality and business standing of this town. It was a representative meeting, and probably one of the most remarkable in many respects that has ever gathered in the business interests of the town, irrespective of politics, were welded together to enter protest against the publication.

The advertisement in question was headed "A Maryland County in Leading Strings, Hedged in as to Trade, Wide Open as to Drunkenness, &c., and was first published in Every Evening, and afterwards appeared in several other Delaware papers, and it was to take such action in respect to publication as might seem proper that the meeting was called. At 8 o'clock the available seating room had been filled and many people were standing in the rear of the hall. L. W. Gundy, a wholesale hardware merchant, was made chairman and John D. Williams, secretary. A committee to draft resolutions was appointed and after retiring reported the following:

"Whereas, The town of Salisbury, Md., has been advertised throughout the state of Delaware as a town in leading strings, hedged in as to trade, wide open as to drunkenness, with its business going to Baltimore and wet towns in Delaware, Sunday drink common; therefore be it

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting

"First, That said representations are false and scurrilous.

"Second, That whatever maybe the cause the business of this town has increased at rapid strides in the last three years; more residences have been built within this time than have been built within a like period prior to the departure of the saloon from our midst.

"Third, That the statement that there is as much liquor sold here at this time as was sold under the license system is so manifestly untrue as to need no denial, but on the contrary the sobriety of our citizens and general moral conditions of our town have vastly improved because of the absence of the saloon from our town, notwithstanding the fact that Delmar seven miles to the north of us, Berlin, 30 miles to the east of us, and Pocomoke City, 35 miles to the south are all license towns.

"Fourth, That we are so well content with present conditions for sobriety and business that we challenge the advocates of the saloon system to get a majority of the voters to petition the court to order an election, as they have a right to do under the statute.

"Fifth, That it is the sense of this meeting that the gentlemen who were quoted in the Every Evening and other Delaware papers as stating that the moral and business interest of this city had suffered as a consequence of doing away with the saloon be asked to explain their statements as we have been assured by several of these gentlemen that they have been grossly misquoted.

"Sixth, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Every Evening and other Delaware papers and a copy be sent to the executive committee of the Anti License Committee."

James E. Ellegood, S. King White, I. S. Powell, E. S. Adkins, W. J. Dowling, W. B. Miller, B. Frank Kennerly.

While the committee was out Judge Holland, who had been quoted in the article to which such serious objection had been taken, in a five minute talk denied making the assertions which the published interview attributed to him. He stated that the writer of the article had called upon him and talked upon various matters for some time, the conversation gradually drifting to the license question. He stated that he had said some of the things attributed to him, but that an entirely wrong construction had been placed upon them. He added that while he had formerly been against the local option movement and in favor of license, he was now convinced, after four years of enforcement that it was a good thing for the town of Salisbury and the business interests depending upon it, and furthermore that he would not only vote for prohibition in the future, but do all he could to influence his friends to vote for it.

This statement by Judge Holland was received with hearty applause. W. B. Miller, who followed, also declared that he had voted for license, but that he had changed his mind as to the workings of local option and would do all he could to advance its interests in the future.

Upon the suggestion of F. Leonard Wallis, William F. Metten, a representative of Every Evening, who was present was given an opportunity to explain the position of that paper, regarding the publication of the advertisement. Mr. Metten stated that the article had come to Every Evening from a representative of the State License Committee, and had been accepted and published, as numerous articles from both the License and Anti License Committees, before and since, as a paid advertisement. It carried the mark of the star which Every Evening invariably uses on all paid advertising appearing in the reading columns of the paper. He stated that the paper had nothing to do with the inception of the article, that it was written by a representative of the State License Committee, and that Every Evening disclaimed absolutely any responsibility for its production. He further stated that in view of the fact that the article appeared to have misquoted and misrepresented certain citizens of Salisbury, the paper stood ready and willing to publish retractions from these people, at any time when properly presented over their own names.

Some one suggested that the paper be asked to take up the matter editorially, and Mr. Metten stated that Every Evening was entirely willing in view of the circumstances surrounding the offending publication, to publish the retractions from those who had claimed to be misquoted, and to refer to the matter in the editorial columns of the paper.

There was some further discussion as to the publication of the article, and it was later decided to appoint a committee to wait upon those mentioned in the interview who claimed to have been misrepresented and to secure their retractions and forward them to Every Evening for publication as soon as convenient to do it. The committee appointed included Messrs L. W. Gundy, Henry E. Freeny, Mayor Charles E. Harper and Congressman William E. Jackson.

It was also decided that Every Evening be extended a vote of thanks for its position and Mr. Metten was given a rising vote of thanks for his appearance at the meeting and the position which his paper had assumed in the matter.

There was some further discussion upon the merits and demerits of the license system by James E. Ellegood, W. B. Miller, George B. Hyson and State Treasurer Rawlins. The meeting adjourned about 10 o'clock.—Every Evening, Wilmington.

A SENATORIAL AGREEMENT
Signed By Whyte, Poe, Talbott and Miles. Warfield Opposes and Smith Listens.

An agreement was presented at the second conference of Democratic candidates for the United States Senatorship Thursday providing that if any candidate shall succeed in having elected to the General Assembly a majority of Democratic members in his favor the others shall withdraw in his favor; that if no one shall have a majority, but if one shall receive 40 per cent. of the vote cast in the primary, the others shall withdraw in his favor; that no candidate shall expend more than $1,000; and that the chairman of the State Central Committee shall be requested to instruct the county and city committees not to use in the Senatorial primary the party machinery or money given for the general election.

Governor Warfield offered a substitute providing that the candidate receiving a plurality of the votes cast in the primary shall be recognized as the people's choice. This was voted down. Those who signed the agreement were Messrs. Whyte, Talbott, Miles and Poe.

Others attending the conference were ex-Governor Brown, ex-Governor Smith and State Senator Blair Lee.

Houston—Toole Marriage.
The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Houston, of Salisbury and Mr. Wm. Porter Toole, of Wilmington, was quietly solemnized Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the Misses Houston on Camden Avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Beale. Owing to recent deaths in the family of the bride, only immediate relatives and few friends were present.

The bride was attended by Miss Mammie Gillis as maid of honor. The best man was Mr. Foster Wheeler of Boston.

A wedding supper followed the ceremony which was served by Caterer Phillips. The happy couple left immediately after the supper.

The bride is the daughter of the late John M. Houston, of Millboro, Del., and is a cousin of the Misses Houston, of Salisbury. The groom is a son of Mr. A. S. Toole, of the Martin-Toole Co., of Wilmington.

MILLINERY OPENINGS

For The Fall Attract The Fair Folk Far And Near.

Lowenthal's.
The interior of Lowenthal's was very fine. The color scheme was the new leather shade and olive greens with touches of violet. The window display was also this leather shade and browns of every hue with autumn leaves strewn on the background which was very effective.

One of the most effective hats was a large leather shade of Pan velvet with four large willow plumes drooping gracefully on the side and fastened with two antique pins.

Another attractive hat was one of three shades of violets, the centre being covered with morning glories of the different shades of brown.

Children's Fokes, Caps and Mexican Hats were shown in profusion. All the new Plaids in silk and checked goods were shown, with trimmings to match.

Mrs. G. W. Taylor.
Mrs. G. W. Taylor's store was beautifully decorated with the autumn colors, pattern hats and draperies of silk and velvet. There were about one hundred and twenty five trimmed hats, all much admired and many sold. The predominating colors this season are plum, green and brown, hats have wide front effects, long back and trimmed very full, ostrich plumes, velvet roses, natural wings and mambout feathers, showing a handsome effect.

A large white hat made of baby Irish lace, trimmed in silk bands, ribbon velvet and two long amazon plumes with white uncut velvet edge.

A large black velvet hat with four large ostrich plumes and a sweeping uncut Ostrich "fancy", jet pins, high crown, trimmed in front.

Two very handsome children's hats in pink and blue, felt trimmed with Irish lace and ribbon velvet and buckles, caused much admiration.

R. E. Powell & Co.
All roads led to the large Department Store of R. E. Powell & Co., where their regular Fall Opening was taking place.

Their mammoth store was crowded from early in the morning until late in the afternoon with the fair sex not only from this town, but from several of the surrounding towns.

The entire store was very elaborately trimmed for the occasion, making a very pretty effect. The color scheme was brown and many colored electric lights added made a very pretty scene.

The coat department came in for a great share of the patronage where all the new styles in ladies and children's coats were on display. Furs were also shown in great varieties.

In the dress goods department browns were shown besides all the new shades in plain goods. Invaluable plaids in all shades are very good also this season.

A few of the hats on display were: A medium sized hat, straight in front and down close to the hair in back, made of garnet velvet, high crown trimmed on the right side with three large handsome garnet plumes and a flat bow of Persian ribbon directly in front of crown, plumes finished with two large silk and velvet roses and foliage.

A small black hat with large high crown, brim made of black velvet and top of crown made of black velvet, silk ribbon plaited, trimmed on left side with three white plumes.

A large purple hat turned off the face, in felt with purple velvet binding trimmed with two large fancy plumes on both sides of the hat, in front of the hat a large rosette of purple velvet with a steel pin in center of rosette.

PRICE AND PERRY

Named For State Senate And County Treasurership, Respectively, At Democratic Convention Wednesday.

The Democratic convention which reconvened here on Wednesday, nominated Jesse D. Price for State Senator to fill the vacancy on the ticket caused by the resignation of Ex-Gov. E. E. Jackson. As Mr. Price had been nominated by the convention in July for County Treasurer, this made a vacancy in that office which was filled by the nomination of Mr. Thomas Perry of Parsons District.

While no other names went before the convention it was very evident that others had many friends and good wishes among the delegates. Messrs. C. R. Disharoon, A. W. Robinson and M. V. Brewington, who were candidates for State Senator at the previous convention which nominated Ex-Gov. E. E. Jackson for that position all decided in the interest of harmony and party welfare not to be candidates or to allow their names to go before the convention. In spite of this however, there was a very decided sentiment for these gentlemen to allow the use of their names. It was a great compliment to these gentlemen that in spite of their own wishes such a large sentiment in their favor was noticeable, nor was this at all derogatory to Mr. Price, the nominee, as it was well known that his accepting the nomination for Senate meant a large personal sacrifice both as to time and pecuniary standpoint. Also there was a strong sentiment among the delegates for him to continue in the office of County Treasurer which he had filled so satisfactorily to the people and so creditably to himself. That he will fill the office to which he is now nominated as acceptably is believed by all who know him, and that he will find a worthy successor to the County Treasurership in Mr. Thomas Perry is equally as certain.

Mr. Jerome T. Hayman of Salisbury placed Mr. Price's name before the convention in his usual eloquent manner, and Sheriff Bradley, of Parsons district performed the same service for Mr. Perry. Mr. Price is a good fighter and a hustler. He will undoubtedly make a hard fight and will arouse the voters throughout the county. Mr. Price has long been acknowledged as one of the best business men in Salisbury and coupled with his knowledge of affairs and his ready grasp of whatever subject comes up, his ability as a debater and talker will make him a very strong and creditable representative at Annapolis.

Mr. Perry the nominee for County Treasurer is well fitted to fill this office or almost any other in the gift of the people. His experience in financial matters make him an excellent man to take the important place of County Treasurer. Mr. Perry has extensive connection here in the business world being also a director and president of the Wicomico Building & Loan Association. The only office he ever held before was as Examiner and Treasurer to the School Board, and his experience in handling the finances of this Board will be of great help to him in his new position.

He is the father of the good roads movement in Maryland, as for years he agitated this subject when he was almost alone in the movement. As County Treasurer, Mr. Perry will be in close touch with the County Commissioners, and especially with President, Wm. M. Cooper, in helping to shape the policy of the Board along the financial and permanent improvement lines. He is one of the best fitted men in the County today for this position, and his nomination ought to give the most complete satisfaction. He is a resident of Parsons District, one of the Democratic strongholds of the County which had no place on the ticket until he was nominated.

Will of Wm Wallace Lowe.
The will of the late Wallace Lowe was filed for probate in the Orphans' Court last week. The estate, which is valued at about $4,500.00, is distributed as follows:

To Roy C. Walter and wife, a nephew, farm in Quantico District.
To his niece Annie D. Bounds Heslie Holloway, Maggie Brady, May Venables, Rosa Dickerson, and Ella Humphreys, each $800.00 in cash.

To his colored servant, Maria Lowe, $50.00 and a home for the rest of her life with Roy C. Walter.

All the rest of his estate, real and personal goes to his brothers, George R. Lowe Levin W. Lowe and his sister, Margaret E. Waller.

The will is dated the 16th day of April 1907, and is witnessed by O. E. Holloway, J. B. Whayland and S. B. Langrall. Samuel B. Langrall is made executor.

—Mr. Wilmer Barbage, who is in the government employ at Panama, has returned here after spending his vacation with friends and relatives in this county.

COURT CONTINUED.

Cases Disposed Of Since Saturday.

The suit of Biddle Bros., plumbers, vs. Minnie Mills Dick and Frank M. Dick, was taken up and was completed Saturday afternoon, when the jury brought in a verdict for plaintiff, assessing damages $100. This was a suit brought by Biddle Bros. to secure the payment of a plumbing bill. Payment was refused by the Dicks on the ground that the work was not done in accordance with specifications, and the material and workmanship were faulty. When the case was called first, at the September term, 1906, the plaintiffs were in Europe and could not get here for trial. Judgment in default was entered in favor of Biddle Bros. for the full amount of their bill, $336.56. An appeal was taken by the defendants, and the Court of Appeals on the 17th of March last reversed the judgment, with costs, and granted a new trial, with the result as stated above. Elmer H. Walton and John H. Handy for plaintiffs; Ellegood, Freeny & Wallis for defendants.

The grand jury adjourned Saturday afternoon, after having examined 72 witnesses and found 19 true bills.

The jury made the following reports: "A committee of three visited the Alms House and report that they found it in good condition, with six inmates, two white and four colored inmates, all of whom are well cared for. The farm is in very good condition and the crops are excellent."

"The grand jury visited the jail in a body and found it in good condition. We recommend that good, suitable iron beds be put in the jail for use of the prisoners."

Court was not in session on Monday, there being no cases ready for trial. On Tuesday the following case was taken up: No. 49, Trials. Joseph C. Holloway, trustee, vs. Charles Bishop. Suit for payment of purchase price of land. Submitted to Court without intervention of jury. Held sub curia. J. H. Handy for plaintiff; Furnell & Johnson and Toadvin & Bell for defendant.

No. 46, Trials. Robert W. Powell vs. Wimbrow & Parsons. Dispute as to cutting of timber.

No. 48, Robt J. Powell vs Wimbrow & Parsons. Verdict of $1 in favor of plaintiff and against Robley Parsons. Miles & Standford, Ellegood, Freeny & Wallis for plaintiff. Melvin & Handy for defendant.

No. 53, Albert F. Jones, Caveator, vs James T. Robinson, Executor for Mary A. Jones, Daisy Jones, Riddle Jones, Mowbray Jones, Caveatee. This case was on trial when we went to press. It is a removed case from Dorchester County.

Wm. Holland was arraigned before the court for larceny. He is charged with stealing a coat from A. L. Hardester.

Barney Dashiell was arraigned for larceny. He is charged with stealing $30 and pocket book from O. E. Hearns.

John West Long was arraigned for larceny. He is charged with stealing a watch chain and $5 from U. O. Phillips.

Ernest Robbins and Edward Dashiell were arraigned for murder. They are charged with the murder of Bruce Farnell.

NOT A CANDIDATE
Ex-Gov. Jackson Announces His Decision to Regard To U. S. Senate. Promises Democratic Majority in Wicomico

Ex-Gov. E. E. Jackson in a statement to a staff correspondent of The Sun at Salisbury Thursday announced that he had decided not to enter the contest for the United States Senatorship.

"In taking this step I want it distinctly understood that I still, and always will retain the interest and the welfare of Democratic principles above all else. I say this because I believe the welfare of the citizens of this State can be best served by Democratic hands. I shall always want a place reserved in the Democratic phalanx for myself as a private soldier. The interest of the party which has honored me I hold most dear, and I intend as long as I live to bend every energy and to lend every assistance in my power to the furtherance of these principles."

"An evidence of this determination on my part to work for the success of the party, I promise that Wicomico county in November next, will be found safely anchored in the Democratic column with a handsome majority."

—The Prohibition County Convention for Wicomico county met Tuesday and nominated the following ticket: Senate, E. N. Brittingham, of Pittsburg district; House of Delegates—Covington Campbell, of Pittsburg district; E. W. Windsor, of Salisbury district; I. J. Nichols, of Delaware district; County Treasurer, U. C. Phillips, of Parsons district; Sheriff, James W. Williams, of Camden district; Surrogate, G. W. Parsons, of Pittsburg district; County Commissioner—S. P. Quisenberry, of Parsons district; L. M. Mason, of Salisbury district; A. P. Toadvine, of Newton district; Orphans' Court—A. S. Manning, of Tysanin district; O. T. Tinsley, of Tysanin district; Gurney Mowick, of Tysanin district.

Trimmed Hats At $5 and $10

Charming: Distinctive: Exclusive:

One feature, above all others, forever distinguishes our Five and Ten Dollar Trimmed Hats from those you see in other stores—every hat is of our own design. Every hat has character, individuality—and there are no duplicates, nor will we make any. Exclusiveness, in a five or ten dollar hat, is something out of the ordinary, but these hats are exclusive. Every hat is intrinsically worth more than we ask for the finished product.

Letter to H. B. Freemy.

Dear Sirs—We should like to print your opinion of this guarantee in this paper where all your neighbors will see it:

We'll furnish the paint to paint half the house of any fair man on these terms: He shall paint the other half with whatever other paint he likes; same painter, any fair man, same way, the way of all fair painters, to make a good job. If our half doesn't take less gallons of paint by one tenth to seven tenths, we'll give him the paint. If our half doesn't take less labor by one tenth to seven tenths, we'll give him the paint. If our half isn't sounder 3 years hence, we'll give him the paint. If our half isn't sounder 6 years hence, we'll give him the paint. Any color.

We say one tenth, because there are two or three paints with about that difference; we say seven—there are dozens of paint with about that difference, we say one seventh, because there's a hundred that waste one third of the money paid for both paint and labor.

Is there a paint we haven't covered. Yours truly F. W. Devoe and Co. L. W. Gunby Co. sells our paint.

By means of a steel lined irrigation canal engineers are preparing to give water to a district in Egypt near Assuan which has been dry and parched for 3 000 or 4 000 years. The soil is saline and for this reason it is necessary to wash the ground for from three to four weeks before any crops can be grown upon it. When first wet, the ground swells and rises about six inches, afterwards subsiding from one foot to two feet.

—For the sixty four years that he has been vicar of Singleton the Rev. L. C. Wood has never had medical assistance. Asked for the secret of his healthy life, he said: "Be moderate in eating and drinking. Take care of yourself when young. You cannot burn the candle at both ends and live to a great age."

If The Baby Is Cutting Teeth.

"Typhoid," a word derived from Greek term meaning whirlwind, has been applied to a new type of boat invented by a French engineer, who seeks to do away with the present day screw propeller. The new screw is placed at the bow of the boat instead of at the stern, and it is believed that by its centrifugal displacement and the central void of the present type are converted into benefits and the limit to the advantageous increase is removed. The apparatus is designed to work by suction in the manner of a waterpump. The inventor figures that his boat, with a 32 1/2 inch screw, will go through the water at a rate of more than sixty two miles an hour.

SCALY ERUPTIONS COVERED HIS BODY

Itched Constantly—Scratched Until Blood Flowed—Suffered 10 Years—Doctors and Medicines Were Fruitless—Tries Cuticura and is Completely Cured

BY THREE BOXES OF CUTICURA OINTMENT

"When I was about nine years old small sores appeared on each of my lower limbs. I scratched them with a brass pin and a heavy nail, and both of those limbs became so sore that I could scarcely walk. When I had been suffering for about a month the sores began to heal, but small scaly eruptions appeared where the sores had been. From that time onward I was troubled by such severe itching that, until I became accustomed to it, I would scratch the sores until the blood began to flow. This would stop the itching for a few days; but scaly places would appear again and the itching would accompany them. After I suffered about ten years I made a renewed effort to effect a cure. The eruptions by this time had appeared on every part of my body except my face and hands. The best doctor in my native county advised me to use arsenic in small doses and a salve. I then used to bathe the sores in a mixture which gave almost intolerable pain. In addition I used other remedies, such as iodine, sulphur, zinc salve, etc."

Ointment, and in fact I was continually giving some remedy a fair trial, never using less than one or two boxes of bottles. All this was fruitless. Finally my hair began to fall out and I was rapidly becoming bald. I used Cuticura Ointment, but it did no good. A few months after, having used almost everything else, I thought I would try Cuticura Ointment, having previously used Cuticura Soap and being pleased with it. After using three boxes I was completely cured, and my hair was restored. After fourteen years of suffering and an expenditure of at least $50 to $60 in vainly endeavoring to find a cure, I shall be glad to write to any one who may be interested in my cure. B. A NON-POSSIBILITY.

He Explained the Term to the Satisfaction of the Court.

He was a large, raw-boned, red-faced lawyer from Maine, lately settled in a Southern State, and, of course, ambitious of making a reputation in his profession. His mouth was so large that it was unnecessary for him in uttering a word to more than half open his mouth, the corners thereof being the parts called into regulation.

He had on the inquisitorial block a backwoodsman as a witness. The witness had replied to a question from the interrogating lawyer that "it was a non-possibility."

"Quoth the lawyer, 'A non-possibility? Now, will you tell this court and this jury here what you mean by a non-possibility? Give us an example.'"

"Witness—Well, I think it 'ud be a non-possibility to make your mouf enny bigger widout setting your ears further back."

Of course the dignity of the court was suspended.—The Green Bag.

The Attic Philosopher.

When people notice the coming of crow's feet they begin to wonder where all the good things are they let slip through their hand.

There is no return ticket for yesterday. You've got to keep on going. When a girl puts off marriage hoping to find an ideal she is getting just that much nearer a has-been.

It's hard to understand why people who have aisle seats in a theater persist in coming in as soon as the doors are open.

It shatters one's belief in human nature when you find a grouchy looking man who is always good natured.

Crooks are often in straightened circumstances. Modesty may be good policy, but you can't make it sell goods.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Insuring a Pit.

"Hello!" said Ascum, meeting Galley in a hat store, "blowing yourself for a silk tie, eh?" "Yes, but it's on Dumley," replied Galley. "I won it from him on a bet. He's to buy me a wine supper to-night, too."

"Hi! Don't you think you might better have waited then until tomorrow to get the hat?"—Philadelphia Press.

The Other Way.

Maud—Is anything more provoking than a man who will kiss you in spite of all you do? Grace—Yes, one who will not.

Standard Oil Trick. Bacon—I see that Standard Oil man Rogers left the chair in a hurry, the other day, when a newspaper man tried to take his picture.

Corrected in Time. "Miss Strongmind," he began, "will you be my wife?" "What's that?" she asked with a frown.

"Er—that is, may I be your husband?" "Yes," she said, with an indulgent smile.—Philadelphia Press.

He Certainly Did.

"Adam was a patient man," said the parson. "He never said a word when he was turned out of Eden." "Mebby he did," rejoined Deacon Cobb, "but accordin' to th' records he raised Cain afterward."

A Weird Bell.

Tradition has a weird tale to tell about the casting of the bell which stands in the center of Seoul, the capital of Korea. The mystery of its sonorous clang still inspires the inhabitants with awe and pity.

The man who takes an hour to do ten minutes' work always thinks the other fellow isn't earning his salary.

The man who has a bed of roses usually sits up nights picking out the thorns.

Higher Priced Calicoes.

Calicoes, the most widely used of dress materials and the cheapest, have gone up to Civil War prices, the manufacturers having advanced the retail quotation for "prints" as they are called in the trade, practically to ten cents. It is the highest figure since 1865. Not much more than a year ago these same calicoes cost as low as four and five cents a yard.

Owing to the high cost of all cotton and other dress fabrics there is an enormous demand for the relatively cheap calicoes. The manufacturers have been quick to take advantage of this phenomenal demand and have made these goods practically a luxury to the poorer classes in this country.

This has come about, too, in the face of a declining market on raw material.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness, caused by Catarrh, that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. Cheeney & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggist 75 cents. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

—Among the throngs in cities, low though the common standards of taste may be, there is less swearing than among the farmers and mill hands of the country. The idle and empty person, whose self-importance is in inverse ratio to the occasion for it, impresses himself on his associates by reprehensible phrases, but it is to be owned that he is of too limited intelligence to appreciate the fact that he is making himself disgusting or offensive. He damns everything of which he speaks as a habit, his state, his town, his goods, even his relatives. And he does it because his parents and friends are constantly swearing in his hearing, and he has adopted the practice unconsciously.

Most people believe that enough is always taught in the public schools of this country, but the fact that a boy may be a bright scholar yet be unpleasent in his conversation, rowdyish in his actions, and unclean in his dress and person, makes it appear as if some of the commoner deconces of life might be inculcated, if not by the lessons, at least by suggestion in our class rooms.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Why Colds Are Dangerous.

Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind, do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Everyone knows that pneumonia and chronic catarrh have their origin in a common cold. Consumption is not caused by a cold but the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with all infectious diseases Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and whooping cough are much more likely to be contracted when the child has cold. You will see from this that more real danger lurks in a cold than in any other of the common ailments. The easiest and quickest way to cure a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The many remarkable cures effected by this preparation have made it a staple article of trade over a large part of the world. For sale at Tonison's Drug Store, Salisbury, Md.

MEN ADMIRE

MISS EMMA RUNTZLER

A pretty face, a good figure, but sooner or later learn that the healthy, happy, contented woman is most of all to be admired.

Women troubled with fainting spells, irregularities, nervous irritability, headache, the "blues," and those dreadful dragging sensations, cannot hope to be happy or popular, and advancement in either home, business or social life is impossible.

The cause of these troubles, however, yields quickly to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs. It acts at once upon the organ afflicted and the nerve centers, dispelling effectually all those distressing symptoms. No other medicine in the country has received such unqualified endorsement or has such a record of cures of female ills as has

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Miss Emma Runtzler, of 631 State St., Schenectady, N. Y., writes: "For a long time I was troubled with a weakness which seemed to drain all my strength away. I had dull headaches, was nervous, irritable, and all worn out. Changing to read one of your advertisements of a case similar to mine cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I decided to try it and I cannot express my gratitude for the benefit received. I am entirely well and feel like a new person."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most successful remedy for all forms of Female Complaints, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and is invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

BALTIMORE OLD HOME WEEK.

Maryland is sending invitations to her sons and daughters scattered everywhere to come to a grand reunion, and is making extensive preparations to give them when they come, a week of right royal entertainment.

New Baltimore, sprung Phoenix-like from the ashes of the fire of 1904, will make of Old Home Week, October 13 to 19, one continual round of patriotic and civic display.

There will be an electrical pageant, a magnificent military and naval display, a gathering of patriotic societies, a parade and ball by the fraternal orders, a big concert, and a night carnival.

There will be also a special pilgrimage to Annapolis on "Peggy Stewart Day," Saturday, Oct. 19, when visitors will have an opportunity to inspect the magnificent new buildings of the United States Naval Academy and the remodeled State House, so full of historic associations.

The Homecomers will have the advantage of specially low railroad rates. The Pennsylvania Railroad will sell excursion tickets to Baltimore, October 12 to 14, good for return passage until October 21, inclusive, from all stations on its lines north and east of Shrewsbury, Principio and Port Deposit, at a considerable reduction from the regular fare.

Every former Marylander whose address is known will receive a special invitation, issued by Governor Warfield, and the whole week will thrill with the hospitality for which the Old Line State is so famous.

For exact rates, conditions of tickets, and train service consult nearest Ticket Agents.

SALISBURY'S REPLY TO MISREPRESENTATIONS.

The meeting called by the business men of the town through the columns of the Advertiser last week to protest against the misleading account of the town that has been circulated throughout the State of Delaware by the whiskey interests of that state was one of the most representative and largely attended meetings that has been held here in many a day. The aim of the meeting and the temper of all present was a sufficient answer to those who have sought for selfish interests of their own to injure its fair name. That the representative sent down to find out the conditions in this town since the saloons have been done away should have the presumption to write and cause to be published such an article of misrepresentation and to use stronger words—lies, almost passes beyond belief, and leads one to the conclusion that he came here only to see if it was not possible to find something if but little in his favor and then to make that little seem all, or he was mentally unable to see facts and conditions when pointed out to him, or that he was drunk and not responsible for what he did. One effect, however, of his article and interview is to bring more forcible before the minds of this community the fact that the cause of temperance in this city was never as strong as it is today. It is also gratifying to find out that many of those who were quoted in the interview, were for the most part misquoted and not only was wrong impression given as to what they said; words seem to have been put in their mouth they claim were never said. We believe also that the interview will act as a boom—er-rang on those who got it up, and instead of helping the cause of whiskey in Delaware, will strongly aid that of temperance, by casting suspicion on the character of like character that are being circulated throughout the state. The State of Delaware had a few saloons within its boundaries, which had experienced the benefits, generally and in a business way, resulting from the doing away of the saloons as we have, then there would be the slightest doubts as to the health of the united whiskey industry of the United States at their are entitled to the hearty support of the party, will not be questioned by anyone. Both are good Democrats, and both are well qualified to fill the positions for which they are asking the support of the voters. It is of no use to attempt to delude ourselves with the fact that the Democrats will have a walk-over, and thus fall into a lethargy until election day, for this is not the fact; and unless the Democrats wake up to the true situation and boldly face it, this sleep of calmness and security will be rudely broken in on when the votes are counted election night. The nominees of the Republican party are for the most part good and capable men, and, moreover, they come from fighting stock, as the saying is. In other words, the Democrats may expect that, no matter what their course may be, the Republicans are not going to sleep, nor are they going to lose any votes that any effort on their part can possibly bring about. While this is the true situation today, there is no occasion to feel any undue alarm, for all the Democrats have got to do to win out is to get into harness and pull together and then work hard.

 The platform adopted by the Democratic party is one of the best it has ever had, and if it had no other planks in it excepting those which pledge the party to a corrupt practices act and the Crawford County System of Primaries, it would well be worth the support of the voters of this State. Both have for their object the bettering of our political conditions—one the lessening or stopping the debauching of our electorate with money; the other, the improving of our present system of nominations by putting the power of nominating directly in the hands of the people, making our office-holders directly responsible to them, and not, as has often been the case in both parties, compel them to subservient the interest of the people to that of those who under our present system made them. The purer our nominations are, and the purer and cleaner our elections are, the better will the interests of the public be served.

The Watchword of Women.

Modesty is woman's watchword. Whatever threatens her delicate sense of modesty, frightens her. For this reason many a woman permits diseases of the delicate womanly organ to become aggravated because she cannot bring herself to submit to the ordeal of unpleasant questionings, offensive examinations, and obnoxious local treatments, which some physicians find necessary. Doubtless thousands of the women who have taken advantage of Dr. Pierce's offer of free consultation by letter, have been led to do so by the escape thus offered from a treatment repugnant to modesty. Any sick woman may write to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., in perfect confidence; all letters being treated as strictly private and sacredly confidential, and all answers being sent in plain envelopes with no advertising or other printing upon them. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been long hailed as a "God send to women." It makes weak women strong and sick women well. "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol. All its ingredients printed on every bottle wrapper.

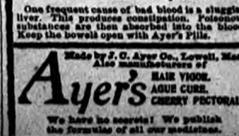

A tepid bath which has lasted over twelve years has just come to an end in the State Hospital at Brunswick, England, owing to the death of a bricklayer, who injured his spine through a fall in November 1894.

The lower portion of his body was completely paralyzed through the accident, while his stomach and other organs were badly injured. Several operations proved unsuccessful. The patient showed remarkable tenacity of life, but suffered excruciating pain, which rendered his stay in bed unendurable.

The surgeons therefore decided to render existence more comfortable by immersing him up to the breast in a tank, through which water ran continuously. There he has lain ever since, with a supporting band around his breast, and his head on air cushions. He soon became accustomed to the position, and as his hands were free he learned to knit and to carve wooden toys, becoming so expert eventually that he earned a good subsistence and was able to support his aged mother. This lengthened stay in the water, however, induced tuberculosis, from which he died.

Does Your Heart Beat

Yes, 100,000 times each day. Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

SOLDIERS AS PACK MULES.

When the American army was concentrating at Tampa in 1898, a regiment of volunteers made formal protest to General Shafter that it had been encamped alongside the Government mule corral, and that it did not like the proximity. Whereupon the girthy commander sent back this message by an orderly: "Tell those volunteers that they had better stay where they are, for they're here to learn that there is mighty little difference between a soldier and a government mule."

The same lesson is in process of teaching to the United States regular army at present. Easy and West, regiments of soldiers go on the practice march over the road, bearing on their backs and around their belts the heaviest loads that American soldiers were ever required to carry.

It is claimed that the men of the American army, though they are the tallest and strongest fighting men in the world, object to carrying the packs that European soldiers now have to carry. Nor are they asked to shoulder a forty-pound pack, in addition to rifle, cartridge belt and canteen.

But probably they will have to come to it. The Japanese war established the desirability of eliminating the baggage wagon as far as possible. Slowly and surely the dividing line between the heroic defender of his native land and the government mule is fading away.

IS THE HOME PASSING?
 Writers on domestic economy have of late been inquiring into the problem as to whether the American home is passing away. According to one critic houses are now too often simply shelters where families sleep, have a scanty breakfast, a more or less comfortable late dinner, and where letters and laundry are delivered. Beyond these conveniences, it is alleged, is the idea of everybody, including the servants, to get out of them, to flee from the household center. Perhaps this picture may be overdrawn, but there is enough of truth in it to make us ponder over the drift of families to consider the old-fashioned home very lightly.

Judging by former standards, there is no place like home. It is the sanctuary to which all the weary and heavy-laden may turn to find rest. It will be disastrous to the young man and young woman if this home feeling is demolished. Home influence has done more to keep the feet of youth from straying into strange and dangerous paths than any other restraint. The advanced woman, who is advocating the extension of the sphere and usefulness of the sex, would better consider seriously whether or not she is to blame for the present tendency.

DO YOUR OWN CANNING.
 British jam goes the way of American potted chicken. Tinned meat and packers' sausage. It has been under suspicion for years, and a Camberwell inspector has just discovered in a jam factory "a collection of dried raisins filled with ants and other insects, rotten apple pulp, orange peel, some filthy macaroni, a lot of blown tins of apricots." What we have been eating for "prepared food" the arguments for the pure food bill have told only too plainly.

There is too much of the ready-made and hand-me-down about the culinary side of our civilization. The proper place for a man to dine is in his own home. That is where London dines. If a young man is too selfish to found one, it will serve him right to languish on Chicago sausage and London jam in a restaurant. The woman he marries should be able to pick out whole some vegetables and fruit in the markets, prepare them for the table, and at the height of the season can them for winter consumption.

Like a low voice, the ability to preserve and "jam" and "jelly" viands in an excellent thing in woman.

AMERICANIZED ENGLAND.
 Twenty years ago the English hated everything that was American. We now think altogether differently. The American woman is the pattern upon which our women are being remodeled; the American man has wholly altered our character and that of our business. British institutions are being reconstructed in accordance with those of the United States.—London Truth.

TRY IT.
 The cars in London's new underground railway are craped with linoleum, and it is said that even Americans do not spit on the floor while travelling in them. This might beat an anti-spitting ordinance on our own street car lines.—Atlanta Constitution.

THE PROOF.
 Mr. Armour explains at length that there was no need of reform in the Chicago packing houses, and proved it by showing that the places have been supplied with new plumbing and have been thoroughly cleansed.—Washington Post.

The President of France says of the President of the United States: "His great figure looms constantly greater; as does his renown." His foes as well as his friends realize this fact, so well put by the polite Frenchman.

That seeing telephone will not be popular with the men who call up home from the club to say they're detained down town on important business.

DELAWARE COMMITTEE

Opposed To Liquor License, Sends Resolution Of Thanks To Salisbury.

Mr. L. W. Gundy has received a letter from Thos. N. Rawlins, Secretary of the Anti License Campaign Committee, expressing the appreciation of that committee for the action taken by the citizens of Salisbury. He also enclosed some clippings, showing the attitude of the License people toward the Maryland people, who are protesting against the misrepresentations made. One of the most interesting of these clippings follows: "We shall prove our case in Maryland. The Hysteria of Clerical and political populism, with the moral cowardice of men, men who shrink from their own statements when they see them in cold type, shall not defeat this prosecution one iota."

All right gentlemen, if you can, but stay away from Salisbury or your case will be irretrievably lost. The resolution passed by the Delaware State Anti License committee is as follows:

Resolved, That the sincere appreciation of this committee be extended to the several gentlemen who united in a call for a citizens meeting in Salisbury, resulting in the splendid resolutions adopted thereby and that the Secretary of this committee be authorized to send a copy of this action to each of the gentlemen named."

Fine Showing Of Delaware Banks.

Delaware occupies a unique place among all the States so far as the ability of its national banks is concerned, according to the report of Comptroller of the Treasury Ridgely, issued September 17th. Delaware is the only State in the Union, according to the Comptroller's statistics that has not had an insolvent bank during the past year, and also is the only State in the Union that does not have a national bank in liquidation.

Some Men Can Do Things Better Than Others Can Do Them

This is just as true of making clothes as it is of playing base ball or foot ball or billiards, or making watches or battieships, or needles, or anything else. When Lacy Thoroughgood went into the market this Fall to buy clothes, he went in determined to get garments that were made by the most skilled cutters and tailors in the country. Lacy Thoroughgood did it; there isn't any doubt about it; there are no "IFS" and "BUTS." I examined all the notable lines of clothing that were offered for sale. I looked at the clothes inside and out. I cut them to pieces and studied the construction of shoulders and collar and lapels; studied the making of the fronts of coats and all the different parts of vests and trousers. I'll give you my word for it, and I'll bank my reputation on the assertion that the clothes I bought will fit better, that they will keep their shape longer, that their wear will be more durable and more satisfactory than any line of Men's and Youths' Suits and Overcoats that were turned out by any manufacturer in the country this season. I have hundreds and hundreds of suits and just as many overcoats, and I do not charge a cent more for them than my competitors do for the kind they sell.

Lacy Thoroughgood SALISBURY, MD. James Thoroughgood.

The Workingman Is The Man Who Needs Must Have, And Shall Have, Good Shoes.

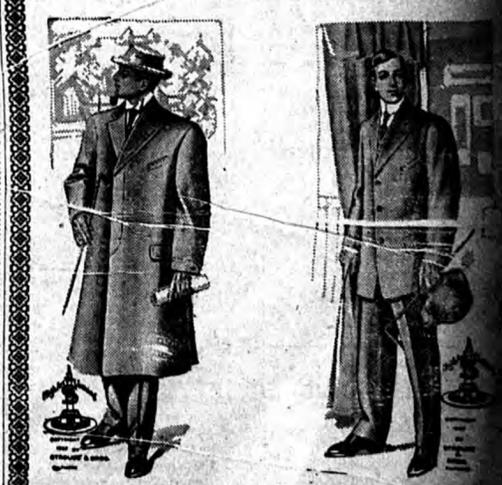

His work requires him to cover his feet with well-made, comfortable shoes. He shall have them, because we have got them here for him. We cater to the wants of the workingman, and have taken great care in the selecting and building of his shoes. We have made his shoes a study and have lines of shoes made of good leathers, built upon honor. Mr. Workingman, we want your shoe trade, and if good wearing shoes will get it, we shall expect to see you, for we have the shoe that wears. Yours truly,

Women Who Wear Well. It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the beauty which is rarely handled. The complexion is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its firmness. As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate woman's organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form will witness the beauty which is rarely handled. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments. For nursing mothers or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine, nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments. Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter of charge. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, "Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y."

Saturday Night Talks

By F. E. DAVISON — RYLAND, VY. THE MAN FOR THE HOUR. Oct. 6, '07.—(Josh. 1:1-11.)

When Moses died it was like the going down of the sun. Nay, it was like the blotting out of the sun, for the Israelites felt that they had sustained an irremediable loss. The whole nation was stunned and overwhelmed and for thirty days the people sat in sorrow not knowing which way to turn. They were certain that he had left no successor. But though it seems at times that the providence of God has slipped a cog, it never has done so. Over the grave of John Wesley these words are inscribed: "God buried his work, but carries on his work." And though the Israelites did not realize it, there was a man in the camp who had been secretly prepared for just that emergency. The banner had not reached the ground from the hand of Moses before Joshua had it unfurled and prepared to plant it on the enemies' outworks.

Great occasions bring new duties. The next step in the development of this great nation was a step of military conquest, and a born soldier was needed more than a sagacious statesman. The times demanded a warrior, a man who could take the field in person, one who could plan a campaign or lead a charge or set an ambush, and when the hour arrived the man was ready. Moses was great in his day, no one could fill his place. He finished his work. The particular style of leadership that he represented was not, what was needed under the new regime, and when another man was wanted for that emergency another man was ready.

So it has always been. So it always will be. History does not stand still because a great man dies. Men talk sometimes as if certain men were indispensable, as if the world would rush into chaos if they should drop out. But they drop out and history rolls right on like a wave over a forgotten tomb. We get pessimistic at times, and we conclude that the great men are all gone, the age of miracles is passed, signs and wonders have vanished from the church and the world. And there are never going to be any more great men. Moses is dead, and Shakespeare is dead, and Dante is dead, and Lincoln is dead, and one would almost think that God was dead to hear some people talk.

How do we know that Joshua was a great man? Because of his promotion to succeed Moses. No insignificant man could have held that position. He who puts the stars in the places known to call to high successions. Men may make mistakes, but when the Almighty raises up a man to succeed a hero all the world will recognize him. The man Moses had his day, measured up to it, and fulfilled it, and when the new day came there was a man qualified by divine credentials and personal experience to carry on the work. God could bury any one of us, and continue the history as though we had never lived. There are no gaps in providence.

There are, however, differences in men. Joshua was not Moses by any means. It was not necessary that he should be. He had altogether different work to do. This would be a mighty monotonous world to live in if the mountains were like Mount Washington, and all the rivers Amazons. We need lesser mountains and smaller rivers, just as we need all varieties of men. Only one Moses, one Shakespeare, one Lincoln, but they are all that is needed.

Neither is it often true that the man about to be promoted is conscious that he is in training for his new position. Joshua had had at least 40 years of discipline for his new position, yet it is doubtful if he realized all it meant when he received his appointment. Happy for some men that they do not know that the hand of destiny has been laid upon them and that they are the next in the world's great statements, politicians, poets, preachers are conscious at first what leadership and primacy involved. Sometimes the world does not know it until after they are dead, then it wakes up to realize its loss.

But whether realized or not, when the clock of destiny strikes the man of destiny is ready. Never yet was there an emergency that found the Almighty unprepared. There have been some startling crises in the history of mankind, but never has the ship foundered in the sea because there was no hand on the helm. From some unexpected quarter, in some unexpected moment the man for the hour has arisen up and proved himself the master of the situation. Moses, the lawgiver, departed, and Joshua, the military leader, steps right into his place, and with different talents and changed conditions fills the bill through all the coming years as the man of all men suited to the place. Under his leadership the nation went on over the Jordan and took possession of the country to which Moses had brought them.

Ministers And Their Usefulness

By Dr. Charles W. Elliot.

Does the ministry nowadays afford a reasonable expectation of service-ability, freedom and growth? First, let us look at the serviceableness of the ministry.

I dare say most young men who are going into the ministry think of city churches with cultivated audiences. A life there is a serviceable life. It is difficult to exaggerate the influence of a competent preacher. It is an enormous opportunity the preacher has in addressing large congregations of intelligent persons each week.

Then there is another kind of ministry which I sometimes think is more attractive than that of the ministry in the city, and that is the ministry in the country, where the opportunities for intellectual betterment are immense. Country ministers are frequently the intellectual leaders of their flocks. This is the function which awaits our young men, particularly where the towns are deserted by the young people for the cities.

There is another service of the ministry which is frequently noted in American communities. The ethical improvements are the real elements of all civic and social improvement. The ethical benefit is the real fundamental benefit and improvement. It is the minister who deals with all these ethical improvement and teaches the community that faith love and hope are the essentials. The promotion of peace and the promotion of good will are the great things, and these are the services of the ministry.

The ministry ripens a man: it softens him. It makes him more sympathetic and more loving. Is not that a worthy ambition for any one looking forward to a long intellectual life? Is it not strenuous, but it is faith and love and helpfulness and these are the great ethical foundations of life in the community.

Dr. Elliot has the right ideal of the Christian Ministry. They are called to useful service like the Son of Man.—Editor.

SOOTHING.

Its Influence Has Been Felt by So Many Salisbury Readers.

The soothing influence of relief After suffering from itching Piles, From Eczema or any itchininess of the skin, Makes one feel grateful to the remedy.

Doan's Ointment has soothed hundreds.

Here's what one of Salisbury's citizens says:

Henry C. Anderson, living at Jersey, two miles South of Salisbury, Md., says: "You can keep on saying that you think well of Doan's Ointment. It is without any question the best preparation I ever used, and other members of my family who have used it say the same as it has never failed to bring relief. We have used Doan's Ointment for itching piles, eczema, tetter and old sores, cracked chilblains, cuts, bruises and always with good results. I made a statement for publication in 1903 recommending this remarkable preparation, and today, May 11, 1907, I take pleasure in saying that the intervening four years ago have only strengthened the good opinion I had when I made that statement. I procured Doan's Ointment at White and Leonard's drug store."

—In analyzing the secret of King Edward's popularity among his subjects a French writer recalls a story which is worth retelling. He relates how, when his Majesty was driving along a country road in Scotland one day he came upon an old market woman struggling under a load which was more than she could manage.

"You might take part of this in your carriage," cried the old woman to the King, whom she didn't recognize.

"Alas, my good woman," replied his Majesty, "I'm very sorry, but I'm not getting the same way. However let me give you the portrait of my mother." "A lot of good that'll do me," was the reply "Take it all the same," said the King, smiling, and he put a sovereign, bearing Queen Victoria's effigy, in the palm of the astonished old peasant.

"Parson," asked a flippant youth "did they have base ball in ancient times?"

"To be sure, Jericho had a strong team and so did Beerahebs, but there was one tribe that nobody could beat."

"Who were they?"

"The Hitites. You ought to know that much, young man."

ACHIEVEMENT.

Trust in thine own untried capacity As thou wouldst trust in God Himself. Thy soul

Is but an emanation from the whole. Thou dost not dream what forces lie in thee

Vast and untried as the deepest sea, Thy silent mind, 'er diamond cave may roll, Go seek them; and let Pilot Will control Those passions which thy favoring winds may be.

No man shall place a limit on thy strength: Such triumphs as no mortal ever gained

May yet be thine if thou wilt but believe

In thy Creator and thyself. At length Some feet will tread all heights now unattained.

Why not thine own? Press on! Achieve! Achieve

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

EASY TO MIX THIS.

Prepare it At Home By Shaking Ingredients Well In A Bottle.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, as formulated by a note authority, who claims that he has found a positive remedy to cure almost any case of backache or kidney or bladder derangement, in the following simple prescription, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well known druggist here at home, when asked regarding his prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so.

He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic affections with splendid results he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing the most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

Cement telegraph poles to take the place of the ordinary poles of cedar are receiving a good deal of attention.

It is believed that the extreme climatic conditions of summer and winter will have no effect upon them. A pole of reinforced concrete is wonderfully elastic, a thirty foot pole being able to bend thirty one inches at the top without cracking the concrete.

This pole, it is computed, has three times the strength of the ordinary pole, and while the average cedar pole lasts about twelve years, the life of the concrete pole is believed to be practically unlimited.

SULPHUR BATHS AT HOME.

They Heal The Skin And Take Away Its Impurities.

Sulphur baths heal Skin Diseases, and give the body a wholesome glow. Now you don't have to go off to a high priced resort to get them. Put a few spoonfuls of Hancock's Liquid Sulphur in the hot water, and you get a perfect Sulphur bath right in your own home. Apply Hancock's Liquid Sulphur to the affected parts, and Eczema and other stubborn skin troubles are quickly cured. Dr. R. H. Thomas, of Valdosta, Ga., was cured of a painful skin trouble, and he praises it in the highest terms. Your druggist sells it.

Hancock's Liquid Sulphur Ointment is the best cure for Sores, Pimples, Blackheads and all inflammation. Gives a soft, velvety skin.

Make a note now to get Elys Cream Balm if you are troubled with nasal catarrh, hay fever or cold in the head. It is purifying and soothing to the sensitive membrane that lines the air-passages. It is made to overcome the disease not to fool the patient by a short deceptive relief. There is no cocaine nor mercury in it. Do not be talked into taking a substitute for Ely's Cream Balm. All druggists sell it Price 50c. Mailed by Ely Bros., 55 Warren Street, New York.

"Why are so many marriages unhappy?"

"Because we use no judgment," answered the sour citizen. "For instance, a young man marries a girl because she swims beautifully, and then houses her in a flat instead of a glass tank."

COVERS POCKET BOOK

Miss All The Contents, Through All Officers.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Waller and Chief Disharoon did a very clever piece of detective work last week. On the 16th of the month, Mr. Charley Hearn was working at Perdue's brick yard, and laid his coat on a fence. In the coat was his pocket-book with a check drawn to his order on the Trunkers & Savings Bank of Pittsville, for $1,500.00, signed by Nellie M. Brittingham; a check on the People's National Bank of this city, signed by L. Atwood Bennett, for $500.00 and cash to the amount of $300.00. When Mr. Hearn went for his coat a few hours later he discovered that his pocketbook was missing. He reported to the Sheriff and Mr. Waller was put on the case. He found a few days later that Barney Dashiell had been changing some ten dollar bills, and he was at once put under watch. Saturday morning the Deputy Sheriff and Chief Disharoon arrested Dashiell, and he at once confessed the crime. He said he would return the money and the checks if given a chance. He was taken out to the brick yard where in the woods near by he recovered the pocket book, with the checks and a part of the money. He had spent the rest and could not return same. Dashiell was locked up and his case handed over to the Grand Jury which was about to adjourn, and it is said a true bill was found against him.

W. S. Pusey and G. W. Smith, of near Popper Box, made a business trip to Philadelphia a few days ago.

Mr. Cyrus Figgis spent Saturday and Sunday with his brother near Seaford.

Prohibition is causing the people of lower Sussex to wake up. What the end will be is unknown. Peace and comfort I trust.

Mrs. G. R. Figgis of near Figgis village says: "In all my poultry raising I never saw or heard of anything so near a miracle as that which occurred in my family of chickens last week. The mystery is this, I had an old hen to hatch off nine chickens. The third day following, the mother was accidentally run over by a wagon the hen being injured so bad that I was obliged to kill her. The next day being rainy I had to keep the little ones up so the following day I turned them out. During the day I had a pullet about half grown would weigh about two and one half pounds. She took the little ones in her care. She clucks, scratches, hovers and takes them to their roosting place at night. Just as their own mother had done. Why she did this is unknown to me."

Deaths.

Miss Amanda O. Leaces died at her home near Callaway's School last Friday of peritonitis. She was 36 years of age. The funeral services were held Sunday. Interment was made at Smith's Mills.

Mrs. Roll Campbell, who had been ill for some time, died at her home here early Thursday morning of typhoid. At the time of going to press arrangements for the funeral had not been completed. The bereaved husband has the sympathy of the entire community.—Delmar News.

PIPES MADE OF PAPER.

New Method of Manufacturing Gas Mains.

In the process of making gas pipes out of paper, Manila paper cut in strips, as wide as the length of the pipe to be made, is put into a receiver filled with fused asphalt and rolled solidly and uniformly around a rod or core of iron until the desired thickness is obtained. After the pipe, thus produced, has been submitted to a heavy pressure the exterior is covered with sand and the whole cooled in water. The pipe is then removed and the outer surface covered with a waterproof product.

Can't Change Boat's Name.

After 20 years the name of a vessel registered in this country cannot be changed unless it be rebuilt at a cost of at least one-half the original cost.

A navigation company on the Great Lakes is in an unusual predicament, says Popular Mechanics. It recently put on a new steamer named City of Cleveland. The company has an old steamer of the same name, which they changed to City of St. Ignace, only to find to their surprise that they had collided with a Government regulation which forbids the name of a vessel to be changed after being carried longer than 20 years, and the older boat was named in 1886.

Character and Stammering.

Stammering arises from a weak nerve in the brain. Strengthen that nerve and the stammerer is cured. But it so happens that this particular nerve is never weak in the case of people who are mean, or hard, or utterly selfish. "I do not pretend to say that only stammerers have gentle, sensitive, sympathetic natures, but I do claim that a person who stammers slightly will generally be found to be trustworthy, diffident, kind hearted, and, nine times out of ten, possessed of considerable mental ability.—The Sketch.

Canadian's in Rifle Practice.

In rifle practice among civilians Canada is far ahead of the United States. It has 123 military rifle associations and 450 civilian rifle associations. The military associations have a membership of 18,028 and the civilian 34,370. In Canada each member of a civilian club draws 100 rounds of ammunition yearly and the Government allows a rifle to every four men. If no rifle range is available a small cash allowance is made toward the expenses of the club.

Antarctic Flora.

A comprehensive report on the field geology of the Discovery Antarctic Expedition shows that, although generally barren of organic remains, the sand formation which is 2000 feet thick, yielded at the top, 7000 feet above sea level, fossil plant remains. Of these, however, the characters could not be determined owing to decay of the plants and to changes produced by an adjacent layer of dolomite.

Were Fashionable Once.

An Irishman was displaying a full line of samples of dress materials and the prospective buyer had handled and re-handled them, discussing their merits and demerits at nauseam, asking finally, "Are they fashionable?" "They were when I began to show them to you," replied the traveler, "but I'll be hanged if I can tell you now."—Strand Magazine.

Resembles Radium Bromide.

According to the Petit Parisien, a student at Rochester has discovered a substance called "molybdott," which is said to possess the same properties as bromide of radium, and costs only 20 francs per gramme instead of 3000 francs. It is reported that the discovery was made while the student was working for a competition in scientific photography.

Depopulation in England.

Among the causes of rural depopulation in England are the attractions of cities, the conversion of arable land into pasture, the consolidation of farms, the use of labor-saving machinery, the low average wage of $3.50 a week, the craze to get rich quick, the spirit of the age and its restless desire for amusement.

THE PENINSULA BOTTLING WORKS.

In the year 1903, W. T. Banks Company, decided they would place on the market, a cooling beverage in the way of temperance drinks. Commencing in a small way with a single eye to quality, only, it did not take this well known firm long for the people to decide that they were not only putting up a palatable beverage, but a pure and healthful stimulant that exhilarates, but never intoxicates. There are many reasons for the success that this firm has obtained; the first is experience with an honest purpose back of it; the second is a plant where such drinks can be bottled properly.

In order to make Beverages that are wholesome, you must have these facts back of you to lean upon. This down to date bottling factory may not be as large as some in Philadelphia, or large cities, but it has equal for quality and purity.

There are over one dozen different kinds bottled daily. The public pronounce their Ginger Ale and sparkling soda, equal to the old cherished Belfast Gager Ale. This Company's system is on the same basis as the ones in Belfast, Ireland.

As to flavor it exceeds the imported. Last year they added another new Beverage to their list, that is "Beerine." This is something that should be in every home, not only as a cooling drink, but a medicine for many diseases, such as indigestion and other ailments of the stomach, it has proven invaluable.

Mr. Banks fully adheres to the Pure Food Laws, he invites inspection of his business place by those that are users of his soda waters.

The out put of these bottling works are shipped to many States, Virginia, Delaware, Maryland and others.

One thing most essential of Banks high grade Beverage, is pure, clean sparkling spring water, drawn from the earth out of a living spring, where no stagnant water can make its appearance. This alone speaks for the purity of the fine soda water bottled. Stop and think for yourself, that the Peninsula Soda Water Factory goods, far excel others. The demand in one day alone, was five hundred dozen bottles, that were put up and sent to their customers. This means twelve thousand bottles sold in one month.

The real reason for the great demand is because it is pure, wholesome and good, without an equal on this side of the ocean.—Advertisement.

—People who study nature say there are plenty of signs of a coming hard winter. The pear trees have blossomed the second time and there has probably not been such a large crop of grapes. The woods are full of fox grapes and wild grapes of all kinds. The perimmon trees are extra heavy laden, and nuts of all kinds will be more plentiful than for many years past. All these signs, the naturalists say point to a cold, bleak winter, with plenty of snow and ice.

DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN.

Speakers, Senators Whyte and Raynor Among The Orators. Warfield Comes To Salisbury.

Announcement was made Thursday at Democratic State headquarters that immediately following the close of Old Home Week Senators Whyte and Raynor will take the stump for the ticket and bear a leading part in the campaign until the day of election.

It is felt by the managers that the illness of Judge Crothers, making it impossible for him to speak for himself, calls for the prosecution of the fight with redoubled vigor.

Senator Whyte will speak at the following places:

October 22—Rockville, Montgomery county.

October 30—Havre de Grace, Harford county.

October 31—Westminster, Carroll county.

The meetings arranged for Senator Raynor are:

October 19—Centreville, Queen Anne county.

October 22—Snow Hill, Worcester county.

October 23—Belair, Harford county.

October 24—Annapolis, Anne Arundel county.

November 1—Ellicott City, Howard county.

Gov. Warfield will speak at Salisbury October 26, afternoon and evening.

November 1, Afternoon, —Highland, Howard county. Evening—Ellicott City.

Democrats Encouraged.

Chairman Vandiver is greatly encouraged at the reports he has received concerning the registration in all of the counties. Democratic gains are said to have been made everywhere, and in the city, too, satisfaction is expressed by the members of the local registration committee that they have gotten the better of the Republicans in the work. The big registration in the city is taken as a good sign for the Democrats.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School will hold the "Rally Day" services at its regular session tomorrow morning. The Rev. Mr. Phillips will speak. It is desired that all the children who can, will attend the morning service in the church as Mr. Beale will preach a sermon suited to their using as his text, II Timothy 3: 14.

WOULD BE SENATORS.

Seven Qualify To Enter The Democratic Primaries For United States Senate.

For the Short Term—William Pinkney White.

For the Long Term—Edwin Warfield, John Walter Smith, J. F. C. Talbot, Joshua W. Miles, John P. Poe, Joseph B. Seth.

The time limit for entering the Senatorial primaries closed Wednesday night with the above named candidates, all of whom qualified by sending their names to Chairman Vandiver, of the Democratic State Central Committee.

As yet the candidates have failed to agree on a definite plan of determining the result of the primaries and it appears certain that the resolution passed by the State convention providing for the primaries will be carried out in strict adherence to its language. The members of the Legislature will only be bound to vote for the candidates who carry the respective counties and legislative districts. Since the convention efforts have been made to get the candidates to agree to a plan of popularizing the primaries, but all have been futile.

The announcement of ex-Governor Smith was the last to arrive.

The arrangements for the management of the primaries will be completed as soon as possible, and the judges and clerks of elections will be selected. Each candidate will receive a list of the judges and clerks in every precinct. The expenses of the primary will be tabulated and each candidate will be asked to pay his share.

The services at the Division Street Baptist Church during the past two weeks have been productive of much good and the interest has been marked. Many were unable to get into the building last Sunday evening, when the ordinance of Bible baptism was administered. God's love and justice have been presented in a forceful manner and the messages have been received with a marked degree of sympathy and interest. The regular services will be conducted tomorrow by the pastor. Further announcement for the meetings will be made then.

MR. J. D. PRICE
Candidate For State Senate From Wicomico County.

HOME-COMING WEEK.

October 13 to 19 in Baltimore Promises To Be A Gala Event.

Governor Warfield says the indications are that Baltimore's Old Home Week will eclipse anything of the kind ever held.

The City Council has appropriated $25,000 to decorate and illuminate the public buildings and for the municipal parade.

Business houses and individuals are spending thousands of dollars in decorating their establishments and homes. Uncle Sam has ordered two big monitors here, and the pick of his horse, foot and marines are to march in the big military parades. The railroads have granted special rates.

Scores of hustling men—the kind that have made Baltimore the Queen City of the South—have been devoting their time and energies to preparations for the celebration.

THE YEARLY MEETING

Of Two Days Held By The Baptists At Powellville. Good Fellowship and Good Cheer.

The Old Side Baptists for many a mile around gathered at Indian Town Wednesday and Thursday of this week to attend the Yearly Meeting. As is usually the case the Meeting House and grounds were crowded with the members and their many friends, for their well established reputation for hospitality and friendliness which the Old Side Baptists have earned by the kind welcome which they give to all who attend their meetings, always bring many of their friends and well wishers to these yearly reunions. The Old Side Baptists are among the oldest of our religious sects, and has always in the past, and is now composed of some of our best and most respectable citizens.

The good old customs and the good old ways are more firmly adhered to and more conscientiously carried out perhaps than in any similar body in the world, and hospitality and good fellowship seem to be instinctive to them, and not cultivated, as is too often the case. This spirit has so permeated these yearly meetings that they have come to be looked upon by many as one of the important occurrences of the year, and are largely attended not only for the religious ceremonies but for the social side as well. Here old friends and acquaintances who perhaps have not seen each other since the last meeting come together and renew their friendship or improve their acquaintance.

After the preaching is over in the morning it is a sight to gladden the heart of any man—especially that of a hungry one—to see them all gathered around the tables on the grounds under the shade of the green trees, tables literally loaded down with all the good things that a good healthy taste can crave, and bid their friends and guests welcome to the good cheer, seeing that none go away hungry or miss any of the many delicacies that they have prepared for the occasion.

Taking advantage of the pretty weather many drove over from Salisbury this week, and judging from their reports seldom have they spent a day more pleasantly.

Home Coming Week in Baltimore.

Extensive preparations are being made in Baltimore for the celebration of Home Coming Week, which lasts from October 13 to 19. There will be parades, decorations and illuminations galore, and the whole city will be in true holiday attire during the week.

It will be well worth the while of anyone who has fall shopping to do to make the trip during Home Coming Week, and to make their purchases at the store of Messrs. Hochschild, Kohn & Co. Here they will find uniform stocks at their lowest and prices that are exceedingly low.

Messrs. Hochschild, Kohn & Co. propose freight charges on all purchases of $5.00 or more to points within a radius of 300 miles from Baltimore, so that out of town customers can buy on the same footing as if they were "just around the corner" from the store.

Anthony Gale, the 12 year old son of W. L. Gale, colored, who lives on the farm of L. W. Pusey in Mt. Vernon District, was run over by a heavily loaded wagon while returning from Dames Quarter Friday afternoon and his left leg was badly fractured above the knee. He was taken to Princess Anne and Dr. H. M. Lankford after placing a temporary splint on the leg brought him to the Salisbury hospital on the midnight train.

ANTI-BRIBERY CONTRACT

By Republicans And Democrats—Strong Public Sentiment Demands The Stoppage of Vote Buying.

The fight against bribery in this County is of several years standing and has been gradually growing in strength year by year. Perhaps the first organized attempt to destroy this evil was in 1895 when an attempt was made by the Democrats to stop the use of money on election day. It was charged by the Republicans that the attempt was made by the Democrats because they had no money to use, and being in that position thought there ought to be none used. Undoubtedly part of this was correct, for while there were some who were conscientious in the attempt to break it up, the idea was too new for there to be much public sentiment behind the movement. Every since this time there has been more or less effort to have a clean election, and as is the case of most reforms they have been attended with more or less success.

The attempt to bring about a better condition in our political affairs led to two agreements on the part of the two leading parties in this County which can not be said to be a success from the standpoint of breaking up bribery. The situation seems to have been in the past that neither party was very anxious to break up this practice if they had the money, but were always in favor of it when without the "sinews of war." While however the politicians were in this mood the sentiment against vote buying was growing stronger and stronger among the thinking citizens of the County all the time. As it was and is impossible to justify the use of money on moral grounds the advocates of its use dared not do so openly, and those who attempted to justify it all did so on the grounds of political expediency each party saying that they did not wish to continue it but were compelled to do so in self defense as the opposing party would otherwise buy up the election if they should sit still and let them.

The recent exposures however and the condemnation that has been heaped upon the system and the men who are responsible for the practice by the united press of the state, together with the large and ever increasing sentiment among the people at large, has caused both parties to be extremely careful how they handled the question. Besides this there is undoubtedly a strong sentiment among the party managers themselves to do away with money, and there is hardly a man in either party who is not opposed to it and would do away with it forever, but they want to be sure the other side will not trick them.

An exception is made of those men who want to handle the money for what will stick to their hands in the deal. This class of men is the most dangerous to the cause of clean elections for some of them by false tales, cunningly told, try to make men of their own party believe when an agreement is made that the other side is not living up to it, and when one considers the past and the naturally suspicious nature of those who have an enemy fighting in front of them especially political enemies who are known not to be over scrupulous as to the methods used to win, the power of evil these parties possess can be readily understood. The best way to fight and counteract this influence perhaps would be to make their charges public by giving the names of the man making them and the parties against whom the accusations are made. If they are made to stand in the lime light of publicity, they will be very careful that their accusations are well grounded, and the party against whom the charges of wrong doing are made will not want to be caught in places and acts that are suspicious and not feasible of a reasonable explanation.

This year an agreement has been made by the Republican and Democratic parties not to use any money for the purpose of influencing voters to vote or not to vote. This agreement reached as a result of the proposition made by the Republican State Central Committee to the Democratic committee, which proposition was based on the ground of high citizenship, and deploring the use of money and the corrupting influence on our community of its use, proposed that the Democratic party should meet them half way, and by an agreement on the part of the Official bodies of both parties together with an agreement on the part of all candidates for office, do away with this demoralizing and degrading practice.

The following agreement was reached:

The Contract.

We hereby agree to limit the campaign fund of each party at the approaching election to a sum not to exceed $1,200, which said amount is to include contribution from the candidates of said parties and all other sources of income, and it is agreed that all moneys that are to be used in the campaign are to be paid into the treasury of the respective campaign

CROTHERS ELECTION

As Governor, Practically Assured, Strong Fight Will Be Made For Legislature.

Baltimore, October 10, 1907.

The Republicans in Baltimore do not seem capable of learning anything new. Year after year, prior to every election, they start up with the same old charges of fraud in the registration, and prospective fraud on the franchise by repeating on election day. When they controlled the election machinery in the years of the Lowndes' administration, and had everything absolutely their own way so far as registration was concerned, they reiterated the same old charges, namely, that the Democrats were trying to pad the list of voters, when such a thing was only possible by the connivance of their own Republican officials. The accusation was false then, as it is false and absurd, because it is impossible, now. It can only be done by the consent of the Republican registration officials, and in making these charges, they virtually accuse their own people of treason. The truth is, the possibility of fraud in elections has been reduced to a minimum and fraud itself is rare in any part of the State. The cases which have been investigated have proved to be utterly without foundation in fact, and it is almost impossible for anyone to register or vote, particularly in Baltimore, who is not legally entitled to do so. It is doubtful if a dozen fraudulent votes have been cast in this city at any election for a long period of years. When the Republicans begin to cry fraud, it is usually a confession of expected defeat, on the part of the leaders, who see disaster ahead.

Evidence is not lacking and might be cited to sustain the contention that many of the Republican leaders are not interested in the campaign as far as it will aid Mr. Gaither, except in a perfunctory way. Their real interest is in the General Assembly, control of which would mean a very great deal. With the General Assembly, on joint ballot they could elect a State Treasurer, and dictate terms to the Executive on nearly all matters, especially if the Executive should be a Democrat. They could elect a United States Senator for both the long and short terms, and do any number of other things which would prove useful and profitable in their business as practical politicians. The "statesmen" who are running the Republican party in Maryland at the present time, and especially those who are in control in Baltimore, are very practical. To them politics is business, and the control of the machine is a choice and valuable asset, worth more than any other asset in sight. It can be made to yield large dividends in the way of lucrative offices and other things, which in the hands of practical "statesmen" are very profitable and valuable in more ways than one. The outlook for Democratic success continues to grow brighter, and no one but the most confined pessimist doubts the election of Judge Crothers by a large majority. In the assurance that they will elect the State ticket Democrats must not lose sight of the Legislature, to capture which the Republicans will leave nothing undone.

Paul Winchester.

committees of said parties and all payments and disbursements of money shall be upon the order of such campaign committees.

It is further agreed and understood that within six days subsequent to the election to be held November 5, 1907, each of said campaign committees shall publish a sworn statement of the amount of money received, the sources from which it was derived, the persons to whom it was paid and the uses to which it was employed.

It is further agreed and understood that no voter shall be influenced or persuaded to cast his ballot by reason of any promise made or complied with before said election, upon the day of election or subsequent to the election, nor shall any voter receive any reward of any character whatsoever to vote, or not to vote or stay at home on election day.

It is further agreed and understood that a committee of six shall be appointed by the respective State Central Committees at once, consisting of three Republicans and three Democrats, the purpose and function of said committees being to pass upon and decide all questions that may arise from this date until some time subsequent to the election that may be considered by either party as a violation of this agreement. The State Central Committee of the Republican party and the State Central Committee of the Democratic party hereby pledge their respective parties to the faithful performance of the terms and conditions of this agreement, and the candidates of the said Republican party and the candidates of the said Democratic party hereby pledge themselves to the faithful performance of said agreement.

The agreement was signed by both the Republican and Democratic State Central Committees and the candidates for county offices on both tickets.

WE CANNOT SAY TOO MUCH FOR PE-RU-NA

These Women Say, in Substance, That Before They Took Pe-ru-na They Were Miserable.

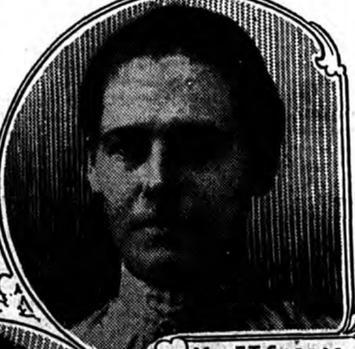

They Were Weak and Wretched.

After Taking Pe-ru-na They Were Restored to Health and Usefulness.

This Is the Whole Story In a Nutshell.

If Pe-ru-na Can Do Such Wonders For These Women It Can Do the Same For You.

The housewife is the one who is best able to judge of the relative merits of family medicines. It is she that knows the many uses of Pe-ru-na in the family. It is upon her testimonial that chiefly depends the popularity which Pe-ru-na enjoys.

MRS. E. T. GADDIS

Mrs. E. T. Gaddis, Marlon, N. C., writes:

"Before I commenced to take Pe-ru-na I could not do any hard work without suffering great pain. I took Pe-ru-na and Manalin, and can say with pleasure they have done more for me than any other medicine I have ever taken. Now I am as well as ever, I do all my own work and it never hurts me at all. I think Pe-ru-na is a great medicine for woman-kind."

From Grateful Women.

"I was troubled with suppressed and painful menstruation. I took Pe-ru-na according to your directions, and now I am well."—Mrs. James Eighmey, Grape, Mich.

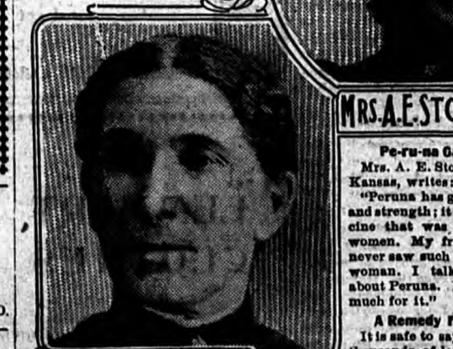

"We have been using Pe-ru-na for some time. To speak from a standpoint of experience I can candidly say that Pe-ru-na is the remedy for female weakness."

"From a personal test and from the testimony of many others I shall not hesitate to recommend it, especially to all suffering women."—Mrs. M. F. Jones, Burning Springs, Ky.

"I suffered from catarrh for many years, but since taking Pe-ru-na I feel strong and well. As I used Pe-ru-na and Manalin while I was passing through the change of life, I am positively convinced your beneficial remedies have relieved me of all my ills."—Mrs. Mathilde Richter, Doniphan, Neb.

"I suffered with pelvic catarrh until I wrote to Dr. Hartman, and after taking treatment as he advised, I can say I am cured of this most trying affliction, for which I am truly thankful. I never felt better in my life than I do at present."—Mrs. Etta Booker, Dundurn, Sask., N. W. T., Can.

PE-RU-NA FOR PELVIC DISEASES.

MRS. A. E. STOFFER

Pe-ru-na Gave Health.

Mrs. A. E. Stouffer, Capoma, Kansas, writes:

"Pe-ru-na has given me health and strength; it is the best medicine that was ever made for women. My friends say they never saw such a change in a woman. I talk to every one about Pe-ru-na. I cannot say too much for it."

A Remedy For Women.

It is safe to say that we have thousands of letters written to Dr. Hartman from women who repeat the same sentiment to be found in Mrs. Stouffer's testimonial: "My friends say they never saw such a change in a woman." Over and over again this sentence is penned by grateful women who are more than willing that we should use their words to assist other suffering women in finding a cure. Pe-ru-na is a great medicine for women. It cleanses the inside of the body in much the same way that water cleanses the outside of the body.

MRS. CAROLINE SUNDHEIMER

Stronger Than For Years.

Mrs. Caroline Sundheimer, Clarke, La., writes:

"I am feeling quite well now. I can work again and am stronger than I have been for years, and I do believe that Pe-ru-na saved my life."

"I am very thankful to you for your advice. I will advise all I can to take your medicine."

How To Approach Work.

Put the right spirit into your work. Treat your calling as a divine—call on principle. If the thing itself is not important, the spirit in which you take hold of it makes all the difference in the world to you. It can make or mar the man. You cannot afford grumbling service or botched work in your life's record. You cannot afford to form a habit of half doing things, or of doing them in the spirit of a drudge, for this will drag its slimy trail through all your subsequent career, always humiliating you at the most unexpected times. Let other people do the poor jobs, the botched work if they will. Keep your standards up, your ideals high.

The attitude with which a man approached his task has everything to do with the quality and efficiency of his work, and with its influence upon his character. What a man does is a part of himself. It is the self-expression of what he stands for. Our life-work is an outpouring of our ambition, our ideals, our real selves. If you see a man's work you see the man.

No one can respect himself or have that sublime faith in himself which is essential to all high achievements when he puts mean, half-hearted, stop-and-serve into what he does. He cannot get his highest self approval until he does his level best.—Success Magazine.

If The Baby Is Cutting Teeth.

Be sure and use that old and well tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Why do you think he is such a remarkable man?

"He's the only one I ever knew who had nerve enough to make the responses in the marriage service loud enough so that any one could hear him."—Chicago Post.

GIRL BABY'S AWFUL ECZEMA

Sight of Eye Destroyed by Disease—Tried Five Doctors but Grew Worse—In Agony Eight Months—Parents Discouraged, Until They Tried Cuticura Remedies

IN ONE WEEK ALL SORES DISAPPEARED

"Our little girl, one year and a half old, was taken with eczema or that was what the doctor said it was. We called in the family doctor and he gave some tablets and said she would be all right in a few days. The eczema grew worse and we called in doctor No. 2. He said she was teething, as soon as the teeth were through she would be all right. But she still grew worse. Doctor No. 3 said it was eczema. By this time she was nothing but a yellow greenish sore. Well, he said he could help her, so we let him try it about a week. One morning we discovered a little yellow pimple on one of her eyes. Of course she phoned for doctor No. 4. He came over and looked her over and said that he could not do anything more for her, that we had better take her to some eye specialist, since it was an ulcer. So we went to Oswego to doctor No. 4, and he said the eye-sight was gone, but that he could help it. We thought we would try doctor No. 5. Well, that proved the same, only he charged $10 more than doctor No. 4. We were nearly discouraged. I saw one of the Cuticura advertisements in the paper and thought we would try the Cuticura Treatment, so I went and purchased a set of Cuticura Remedies, which cost me $1, and in three days our daughter, who had been sick about eight months, showed great improvement, and in one week all sores had disappeared. Of course it could not restore the eye-sight, but if we had used Cuticura in time I am confident that it would have saved the eye. We think there is no remedy so good for any skin trouble or impurity of the blood as Cuticura. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Abbott, R. F. D. No. 9, Fulton, Oswego Co., N. Y., August 17, 1906.

Head Water Was Classic.

Bob Hunter, accompanied by Wally Hawks, carrying upon their shoulders theatrical and literary fame wandered into a huge incandescent decked restaurant, three nights since, and through the rage engendered on that occasion because of rare and wonderful insouciance has now passed away, the beauty of the insult which was passed to Mr. Hunter excited such admiration that the story floats nightly up and down Broadway.

"Call that lobster Newburg" queried the silver haired manager wrathfully as he gazed at the thin, pale sauce in which sections of lobster floated. "Ought to be ashamed to serve such a mess. There was no cream nor egg put in that sauce."

"It's de vey ve always make it," said the abashed servitor. "And it's fery goot, too."

"Send the head waiter," was the order. "I'll see about this."

That head waiter was ponderous and pompous, and in his own little restricted mind was occupying a position of rank and command equal to that of a Prussian Field Marshal. "This is no kind of sauce to serve on lobster Newburg," said Hunter jolly, as he called the attention of the dining room major dome to the pale and sickly condiment. "Ought to be rich and yellow. Ought to have an egg in it and be made of cream, too."

You a cook, eh, queried the narrator, as he gazed loftily at the two guests.

"Yes, snapped Hunter, hotly. "A mighty good one, too. Too good to let you hand out that sort of stuff."

"It ought so. Not you doing here mid de guests vy sint you down in the kitchen wid the rest of the cooks?" was the startling query the waiter asked as he started post haste from the wrathful pair.

There would have been slaughter, but the head waiter dashed through a folding door and disappeared and the proprietor came in haste to soothe the rude feelings of the pair.—New York Daily.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness, caused by Catarrh, that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. Cheeney & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggist 75 cents. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

—They were on the way to the church when the prospective husband observed:

"Molly the last time I was married I lost the ring before I got to the parson's. But I'm sure of it this time."

"Where is it, John?" she asked.

"I've got it in my mouth," he said.

"I'm sure of it now."

But when they stood before the preacher the latter asked:

"Where is the ring?"

The groom gulped, choked stammered and finally exclaimed in despair:

"Heavens, if I ain't swallowed it!"—Ex.

For Chronic Diarrhoea.

"While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief until Mr. A. W. Miles of this place persuaded me to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale at Toulson's Drug Store, Salisbury, Md.

Some Causes for High Prices.

The recent general advance in the prices of almost all foodstuffs gives the student of such matters food for thought as to the causes. According to the dealers and jobbers, the end is not yet, and the prices of everything, including those of proprietary cereals and other packaged goods, will in the not distant future take another leap, whose bounds no even the most sanguine has dared to measure.

Many and various are the reasons advanced for the high prices. Prominent among them is the fact that the price of labor has advanced greatly in the last year or so. Indeed, a recent report of the Department of Commerce and Labor declared that the rise in wages more than corresponds with the advance in prices.

Then, too, it is said that the late spring and consequent short crops have had a tendency to increase the price of meat grains and that the price rises in sympathy. In two States in the West it is expected that the wheat crop will amount to very much less than last year. In contradiction to this report, however, it is argued that last year's crop was the largest in the history of the West, and that, in spite of that fact, corn products, including meal, starch, syrup and so on, were higher and are higher at the present time than they ever were before.

Economists say that at least some of them do, that the buying power of money is steadily decreasing, and point to that as the reason all are seeking. Others of the same profession say that the great increase through immigration and other causes of the population of the country has not been kept pace with by the farmer, and that not enough foods are raised to fulfill the demand. Still every day brings reports of the enormous quantity of grain that is being shipped abroad.

The recently passed Pure Food Law has undoubtedly done its part in the general rise. The rigid inspection and the prohibition of adulterants and filler must undoubtedly have made price advance. It is almost certain that the recent exposure of "Packington's" methods in Chicago had a great deal to do with the unprecedented jump in the price of pork. Meanwhile in the face of so many powerful forces, all acting toward the same end, what can the man who foots the bills do but stand calmly by and wait for something to happen just what nobody seems to know.

The Meaning Of The Cross.

What a queer action that was taken by the representatives of the Red Cross Society assembled at The Hague, says the Detroit Free Press.

The Chinese objected to the cross as the Red Cross emblem because it stands for a religion with which the prevailing beliefs of the Celestial Empire are totally out of sympathy. The Western apostles of mercy thereupon assured their Mongolian counterparts that the device has nothing whatever to do with the Christian religion that it is, in fact, merely the coat of arms of the Swiss Republic.

Such a reply is distinguished, not to use a harsher term, for the cross has, since the days of Constantine been accepted by the Helvetians as an emblem on their coat of arms peculiarly sacred to their religion. The evasion for the sake of harmony may be in keeping with the spirit of European diplomacy, but it is not in accordance with the ideals which at present obtain in America.

The question at issue is not primarily one of religious or sectarian belief. It is a matter of simple honesty. Jews, Mohammedans, Buddhists and Confucianists alike are, not ignorant of the fact that the cross is emphatically the trademark of Christianity.

The wily heathen for reasons of his own may urbanely accept the explanation, remembering the early days when Dutch merchants trod on the cross for the sake of gain. Slyly biting the end of his pig tail in order to keep from discourteously grinning, he may declare himself satisfied. But his respect for Europe and America, which rightly or wrongly represents to his mind the religion of Christ, will not be increased. Whatever may be his fallings, the Chinaman is true to the gods of his fathers.

It is worthy of note that the Turks, more familiar with Caucasian diplomacy than are their fellow "unbelievers," did not take the trouble to pretend blindness. They long ago announced that, as for them, the hold to the prophet and that the red crescent, not the red cross, will float over their tents of mercy. Mohammedanism is still a vital religion.

Why Colds Are Dangerous.

Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind, do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Everyone knows that pneumonia and chronic catarrh have their origin in a common cold. Consumption is not caused by a cold but the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with all infectious diseases. Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and whooping cough are much more likely to be contracted when the child has a cold. You will see from this that more real danger lurks in a cold than in any other of the common ailments. The easiest and quickest way to cure a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The many remarkable cures effected by this preparation have made it a staple article of trade over a large part of the world. For sale at Toulson's Drug Store, Salisbury, Md.

TUMORS CONQUERED

Overwhelming Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy Tumor.

The growth of a tumor is so insidious that frequently its presence is wholly unsuspected until it is well advanced.

So-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages or the presence of danger may be made manifest by unusual pain, from the abdomen through the groin and thigh.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacements, secure a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, right away and begin its use.

The following letters should convince every suffering woman of its virtue, and that it actually does conquer tumors.

Mrs. May Fry, of 836 W. Colfax Ave., South Bend, Ind., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I take great pleasure in writing to thank you for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I also took the Blood Purifier in alternate doses with the Compound. Your medicine removed a cyst tumor of four years' growth, which three of the best physicians declared I had. They had said that only an operation could help me. I am very thankful that I followed a friend's advice and took your medicine. It has made me a strong and well woman and I shall recommend it as long as I live."

Mrs. E. F. Hayes, of 26 Ruggles St., Boston, Mass., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I have been under different doctors' treatment for a long time without relief. They told me I had a fibroid tumor, my abdomen was swollen and I suffered with great pain. I wrote to you for advice, you replied and I followed your directions carefully and today I am a well woman. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system."

Mrs. Perry Byers, of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, writes:

"I had a tumor and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound removed it for me after two doctors had given me up. I was sick four years before I began to take the Compound. I now recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound far and near."

Such testimony as above is convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for Tumor Growth as well as other distressing ills of women, and such symptoms as Bearing-down Sensations, Displacements, Irregularities and Backache, etc. Women should remember that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing so many women. Don't forget to insist upon it when some druggist asks you to accept something else which he calls "just as good."

Mrs. M. M. Funk, Vandergrift, Pa., writes:

"I had a tumor and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound removed it for me after two doctors had given me up. I was sick four years before I began to take the Compound. I now recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound far and near."

Mrs. S. J. Barber, of Scott, N. Y., writes:

"Sometime ago I wrote you for advice about a tumor which the doctors thought would have to be removed. Instead I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to-day am a well woman."

Mrs. M. M. Funk, Vandergrift, Pa., writes:

"I had a tumor and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound removed it for me after two doctors had given me up. I was sick four years before I began to take the Compound. I now recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound far and near."

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

Bulletin.
BALTIMORE OLD HOME WEEK.

Maryland is sending invitations to her sons and daughters scattered everywhere to come to a grand reunion, and is making extensive preparations to give them when they come, a week of right royal entertainment.

New Baltimore, sprung Phoenix-like from the ashes of the fire of 1904, will make of Old Home Week, October 13 to 19, one continual round of patriotic and civic display.

There will be an electrical pageant, a magnificent military and naval display, a gathering of patriotic societies, a parade and ball by the fraternal orders, a big concert, and a night carnival.

There will be also a special pilgrimage to Annapolis on "Peggy Stewart Day," Saturday, Oct. 19, when visitors will have an opportunity to inspect the magnificent new building of the United States Naval Academy and the remodeled State House, so full of historic associations.

The Homecomers will have the advantage of specially low railroad rates. The Pennsylvania Railroad will sell excursion tickets to Baltimore, October 13 to 14, good for return passage until October 21, inclusive, from all stations on its lines north and east of Shrewsbury, Principio and Port Deposit, at a considerable reduction from the regular fare.

Every former Marylander whose address is known will receive a special invitation, issued by Governor Warfield, and the whole week will thrill with the hospitality for which the Old Line State is so famous.

For exact rates, conditions of tickets, and train service, consult nearest Ticket Agents.

Wounds as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Book of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS

A Coward and a Girl

A new entertainment had come. The street was filled with cedar blocks which were to be used in paving. They were the finest playthings—so smooth and interesting and sweet smelling!

In front of Nellie's house was a particularly large pile, and promptly in the afternoon of the day they were dumped there she and Laura and Emilie set to work to build a fine house.

Up and down the street different groups of children were building residences until it seemed a whole village was springing up like mushrooms.

The girls resolved to have their house high and snug, and better than "any one else's." It was to have two rooms and a grand doorway, with sort of wings opening out toward Nellie's own front door.

At first they got along swimmingly. The foundations were laid, including the inside partition and the wings to the door and the girls worked like beavers. Row after row went on and then Emilie's mother came and said Emilie would have to go home and do some errands.

No sooner had Emilie disappeared with many backward glances than Mrs. Martin called Laura. That nearly broke both of their hearts, but Laura soon found that she could return in half an hour or so after the dressmaker had fitted her new clothes.

However, Nellie worked on and got up as high as her own neck all the way around.

Then she sat down outside the door to read for a few minutes and saw John Moore coming up the street, knocking at all the houses and talking to the children as he came along.

Nellie didn't like him and she was sorry somehow to see him come toward her. He was an overgrown, rude and rather stupid boy who lived around the corner.

"Hello, Nellie," he said, looking over the walls into her house. "Did you do this all yourself?"

"No," Nellie replied shortly. "Laura and Emilie belong with me."

"Where are they?" asked John. "Inside?" Then he laughed and leaned against the wall pretending to be hunting for them within the little house.

"Oh, quit!" said Nellie. "You'll knock my wall over."

"Oh, how!" exclaimed John, "any house ought to be strong enough to hold me. If it was built decent."

With that remark he pressed right up against it and knocked the whole side in.

For a minute Nellie was speechless with rage, then she cried: "You nasty horrid mean thing, I'll tell Jim and my father on you and you'll get it!"

John stood and giggled and jeered when he saw the tears standing in Nellie's eyes.

"Cry baby, cry baby," he yelled. "Crying about a silly old house that was built rill-ral, just like a girl."

Nellie made a dash for him, but John dodged. Just then Edgar Sheppard came up suddenly and grabbed him by the collar.

"What shall I do to the mean sneak?" he said to Nellie. Edgar Sheppard was Walter's older brother. He was in his freshman year at college and considered a very grand person by the children.

"I don't know," said Nellie vaguely. "He's an awful coward to take a girl when she's all alone and littler 'n an he is."

"He certainly is," said Edgar, giving John a vigorous shake to emphasize each word. "He ought to be thrashed."

John was trembling all over and looked about as brave as a drowned kitten.

"He's so scared now," said Nellie growing brave and drying her eyes. "I guess we might as well let him go."

With a final shake, Edgar sent John flying off down the street, and it was a very long time before he came around her again.

Edgar took off his beautiful light overcoat and set to work helping Nellie repair the damage. And I tell you his big strong hands and arms made things fly. By the time Laura got back, the house was 'way over their heads and the strongest and best anywhere around, so that all the children came to Edgar and said it was "a perfect dandy."

What Does It Mean

to let Dividends "accumulate" on a Life Insurance Policy? In many companies it means nothing more than an agreement on the part of the policy-holder, to do without dividends for fifteen or twenty years, and then take whatever dividend the company will be willing to give. Dividends are declared every year in the Mutual Benefit, and the policy-holders use them either to help pay premiums or to buy increased insurance. The policies of the contain special and peculiar advantages which are not combined in the policies of any other company. Examine these advantages before placing your insurance. You owe it to your family to have the best.

THE AGREEMENT OF ANTI-BRIBERY.

It is a matter of congratulation to the citizens of the county that both of the leading political parties have been able to reach an agreement to do away with money for corrupt purposes at the coming election.

There has, unquestionably, in the past been an improper use of whiskey both on election day and during the campaign, and it would perhaps have been better if the use of it had been prohibited in so many words, but if the spirit of the agreement is lived up to this will be omitted from the campaign this year.

The public will bear in mind that if money is used either directly or indirectly to influence voters this fall, that some one who is a party to the agreement has been false to his pledged word and honor.

The greatest menace to the faithful performance of this agreement is the natural suspicious one party has of the other, and the fear one or the other will trick them.

"Our hours," said a nature student, "are nothing to the birds. Why, some birds work in the summer 19 hours a day. Indefatigably they clear the crops of insects."

"The thrush gets up at 2.30 every summer morning. He folds up his wings and falls to work at once, and he never stops till 9.30 at night. A clean 19 hours. During that time he feeds his voracious young 20 times."

"The blackbird starts at the same time as the thrush, but he lays off earlier. His whistle blows at 7.30 and during his 17 hour day he sets about 100 meals before his kiddie."

"The titmouse is up and about by 3 in the morning, and his snipping time is nine at night. A fast worker, the titmouse is said to feed his young 47 meals—meals of caterpillar mainly—in the long, hard, hot day."

Both sides should so conduct themselves as far as possible so that no suspicious action could be pointed too, and any action should be thoroughly looked into and a chance given for explanation before judged. It would perhaps be a good step to report any suspicious act or circumstance to the general committee appointed for investigation and exposure.

HINTS ON VOTING.

It is the imperative duty of every citizen of our country, irrespective of party, to investigate as thoroughly as possible the men who ask for his support at the polls. An old saying or maxim, accredited by some to Thomas Jefferson but older than his time in principle at least, is to ask first, "Is he Honest and is he Capable?"

Next to the question of honesty should come that of capability. For no one wants to employ a man who cannot do the work required of him for lack of ability. It would be time and money thrown away, and so it is in public life, not only time and money might be thrown away but more serious blunders committed—as they have repeatedly been done—which are hard to correct, and work almost irreparable wrong, great damage and hardship on those whose duty it was for him to serve.

These two questions satisfactorily solved, next comes one of political principles which you believe should be voted for. Principles of government give rise to parties, and it is folly to put them before the other two qualifications—for the dishonest man will betray you and your principles alike—and the fool or incapable man will be useless in aiding them, and is as likely to hinder, with the best of intentions, as he is to help.

An election is now on hand here in Wicomico County. Weigh the men carefully, the different parties have nominated and for whom you are asked to vote. Learn what you can of their character and their abilities, and if you find that they fulfill the conditions as to honesty and capability, then it is your duty to support the man who stands for the party in whose principles you believe.

The Democratic ticket is before you and challenges investigation. Investigate it and see if it is not composed of honest men, who have the ability to fill the various positions to which they aspire, and of men who one and all stand firmly and squarely for democratic principles, and if you so find and are a democrat then it is your duty to go to the polls yourself and vote for them, and not only that but it is your further duty to work for their election, and see that your neighbors and friends do likewise.

"Our food was good—Bread, steak, flapjacks, fresh bread, etc., but nothing seemed to warm and strengthen us as much as a cup of ARIOSA Coffee, which we kept in the original package and ground as needed."

"The thrush gets up at 2.30 every summer morning. He folds up his wings and falls to work at once, and he never stops till 9.30 at night. A clean 19 hours. During that time he feeds his voracious young 20 times."

"The blackbird starts at the same time as the thrush, but he lays off earlier. His whistle blows at 7.30 and during his 17 hour day he sets about 100 meals before his kiddie."

"The titmouse is up and about by 3 in the morning, and his snipping time is nine at night. A fast worker, the titmouse is said to feed his young 47 meals—meals of caterpillar mainly—in the long, hard, hot day."

MODES OF THE MOMENT

In New York. Absence Of Monotony in The New Styles. Braid Trimmed Suits. Buttons. Long Or Short Sleeves. Black Gimpes Instead Of White.

One great advantage of the new styles is the absence of monotony. During the last busy months of preparation for the Fall fashion openings the watchword of the designer and dressmakers has been "variety."

Tailor Suits Trimmed in Military Fashion. For fall wear tailor made suits undoubtedly take the lead, and in this the rather long fitted jacket is decidedly the most favored. Some very attractive military effects are also being shown. Fitted coats, twenty six to thirty inches long, braided in the dress garbure of the season.

Cheviot And Serge. Cheviot is used for simpler suits and also English serge. Very few of these suits are plain, they are mostly trimmed with folds or bands of the material and braid and buttons.

Short Sleeves Still Worn. There is no doubt that short sleeves will appear on most of the waists intended for dressy occasions this fall and winter. These sleeves are longer than in the case in the summer, being in three quarter style.

Black Gimpes. White gimpes have become an almost indispensable part of most toilettes owing to the great popularity of the jumper styles. And now as the very latest novelty the black gimpes have been brought out. This originated in Paris and as it is most attractive and best of all, serviceable, will probably have a great vogue.

Nature has just one pigment on her palette with which she produces all the marvelous tints of beauty, and that one pigment is the blood. The shell-like pink beneath the finger nails, the delicate rose of the cheek, the cherry ripeness of the lips, the iridescent brilliance of the eyes are all produced by the blood.

This is not a "patent medicine" because every bottle bears upon its wrapper a full list of the ingredients. Send for free booklet to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Complies with all requirements of the National Pure Food Law, Guarantee No. 2041, filed at Washington.

ARBUCKLE'S ARIOSA COFFEE. THEY DRINK ARBUCKLE'S DEEP AND OFTEN, AND IT MADE THEM GREAT. Talk about "roasted fresh daily," the way to get a cup of coffee that tastes like coffee, with all the delicious flavor and aroma intact, is to buy Arbuckle's ARIOSA and grind it as you want to use it.

Turn the Wick. PERFECTION Oil Heater. You can carry it about and care for it just as easily as a lamp. The Rayo Lamp adds cheeriness to the long winter evenings. Steady, brilliant light to read, sew or knit by. Made of brass, nickel plated, latest improved central draft burner.

For Sale. An old-fashioned SQUARE PIANO; terms liberal. Apply to JAS. E. HEARNE, Whitesville, Delaware.

Valuable Property FOR SALE. In consequence of my intended removal from this city, I offer for sale my property here, including residence on Middle Boulevard, and over seventy building lots in the Camden Boulevard Subdivision; also 263 shares of the capital stock of the Camden Realty Company; also a tract of 240 acres of unimproved land in Worcester county. Will give easy terms, etc.

COURT CONTINUED.

Cases Disposed Of Since Saturday.

The Jones will case, removed from Dorchester county, which had been on trial in this court since Wednesday of last week, was concluded Tuesday evening, the jury rendering a verdict for the defendant on all the issues, which means sustaining the will. This case had been previously tried in the Dorchester Circuit Court, where the plaintiff won; but on an appeal to the Court of Appeals a new trial was granted, and the case was removed to Wicomico for the second trial. The amount of money involved is about $3,500. Goldsborough and Fletcher of Cambridge, and Ellegood, Freeny & Wallis of Salisbury, were attorneys for the defendant; John R. Patton and E. C. Hartington, of Cambridge and Treadwell & Bell of Salisbury, represented the plaintiff.

The Court, Tuesday afternoon, rendered its decision in the L. P. Condon case, which was that he had a right of appeal from the decision of Justice Trader. The Court, it is understood, construed the Act of 1906 as covering this case and giving an appeal. It is stated that the State's Attorney will likely take an appeal to the higher court.

Court adjourned Tuesday afternoon until October 24, when Edward Dashiell and Ernest Robbins, the two negroes who have been locked up in the county jail on account of their alleged connection with the killing of Bruce Purnell on August 24th, will be put on trial. The grand jury, which was in session last week, found a true bill on the charge of murder against the defendants and it is thought that State's Attorney Joseph L. Bailey has succeeded in welding together every link in the chain of evidence that will, unless proven to the contrary, place the hangman's noose about the necks of the negroes.

—Mrs. Katherine McMackin and Isabella Carey are spending this week at the Exposition.

—Miss Katie Bounds, who has been spending the past month with relatives at Wilmington and Moores, Pa., has returned home.

LANKFORD SPORTING OUTFITTER.

T. Byrd Lanford, of Salisbury, is a natural born mechanic. Nine years ago he started in a small shanty on Main Street, to repair broken down wheels, bicycles, guns and any kind of articles brought to him to put in working order.

Will say he has proved more than successful in his art as a mechanic, for good work, he has few equals. His repair shop is the only one within a range of twenty five miles of Salisbury that can repair all kinds of automobiles, bicycles, guns and everything that comes along. To describe fully his business place would take up too much space, will say it is the Sporting Man's Hospital, where all caught their guns properly adjusted.

His judgment is accepted as to the quality of fowl piece. He ranges the gun to suit the sight of the hunter. The sporting season is now on. Those that want to buy or have their guns repaired, should call and see T. Byrd Lanford, Salisbury's Expert Mechanic, who will save you money and do your work right.—Advertisement.

THE BANK OF DELMAR.

Over ten years ago, this bank opened up its doors for business, as a commercial and savings bank, for the benefit of the people. From the first day until the present, it has kept steadily growing, with an increase of business every year, until today it is the proud owner of capital and surplus of over $50,000.00; this goes to show what good and careful management of the people's money by efficient officers can do.

How many people could both save and make money by their own money, if they would stop and think that a bank account, owned by themselves, gives them credit and goes to show they are commercial and saving.

How often have you read of people losing money, by keeping it stowed away in some old wooden box for years, not doing them or any one else any good, besides there has been both murder and robbery committed because the thief knew there was money in the box. Would it not be better for you to take your money, put it in the Delmar Savings Bank, where it will pay you interest, and be safe, where no one can steal it from you, besides think $1,000 put away for one year brings $1,050, you add compound interest on this, and in 10 years the interest alone will buy you a comfortable home.

The managers of this bank are tried business men, with financial ability, that know how to handle your money, where you can get good returns.

Think this over today, and open up an account with the Delmar Bank, it will pay you.—Advertisement.

A Laxy Liver
May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to load it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with over work. Starts with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the bile-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the deflection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipation or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, dependent, frequent headaches, pain or distress, "small of back," gnawing or distressing "heart" risings, or perhaps nausea, "heart" risings in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or safely than the famous Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. A cold all over, indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle, and is attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the disease for which it is tried.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret medicine of known composition.

Saturday Night Talks
By F. E. DAVIDSON — RUTLAND Vt.
VANISHING DIFFICULTIES.
Oct. 13, '07.—(Joshua 3:17.)

The crossing of the Jordan by the Israelites is a magnificent example of triumphant faith. The people who had once hesitated and trembled and drew back into the wilderness through fear of their enemies, when the geographical boundary was an inviolable line, now marched with steady step to the brink of a bridgeless river, without a cowardly tremor. It was a time of freshness when the river overflowed all its banks when the hour for crossing came. No provision had been made for boats, tunnels or bridges. Yet at the word of command the people went straight at that wall of water as if it did not exist, and it was not until the feet of the priests were dipped in the brimming flood that a way was opened for that great host of believers to pass through dry shod. They found a way of deliverance when they went ahead. Their difficulties touched, vanished.

Whatever may be your interpretation of this Old Testament incident the lesson it teaches is of universal application. Those who are afraid to risk anything, never get anything. Plenty of people will go with you through the meadows, and under the shadowing trees, and among the flowers of the garden, but when you speak about going across the Jordan of difficulty they shrink back. They agree that the advantages over there surpass any that they possess here, but they see the river that rolls between and their cheeks blanch at the peril.

But the people who win in this world—win fame, win honor, win money, win position, win anything worth having march right down to the brink of Jordan as if it had no existence. They do not admit that the day of miracles is past. They do not know the meaning of faint heart. They heard the lion in his den. They say, what man has done, man can do. They declare that if there is not a way they will make a way. They do not invest in return tickets, they burn their bridges behind them, they never look back.

There are multitudes of people in the world who are exactly where they were 40 years ago—encamped by the side of their difficulty. They are waiting for the river to run dry. They call it prudence; on the contrary it is shiftlessness. There was never a mountain that faith could not cut into the sea. Men are accomplishing impossibilities every day. Impossible, Napoleon said, is the adjective of fools. To sit down and whine on the threshold because a door is closed does not signify any great amount of intelligence. Even a dog will rattle the door knob and bark. There was never a door constructed that could stand against the perseverance of man when he is up to it by divine intention. There is always a way provided, or discovered, or compelled for those who will go over Jordan anyhow.

But hear in mind, the difficulties do not vanish till you get to them. When the Israelites started ahead that day nothing happened until the spray of the river was in their faces, and the feet of the priests began to splash in the tide. Oh, certainly! If we could see that the river was falling every minute and was fast drying up, we would go ahead, but we cannot be expected to go while its banks are full and the turbid tide rolls sullenly on. And so it will continue to roll on until you march right up to it. As a matter of fact, there was no river Jordan when the Israelites went into Canaan.

So far as they were concerned it was blotted out of the geography of the country. And just like that, many of the difficulties of life before the advancing feet of the determined. Many of them are purely imaginary, and some of the most important do not exist. Men mistake fog banks for Himalayas, and mirages for Amazons. If I only knew how it would come out, we say, I would go forward, and just because we cannot lift the veil of futurity and see the end from the beginning, we sit back and do nothing. That is the reason others get the prizes, and secure the positions, and gain the victories, and win the applause. And then we sulk and talk about our hard luck.

Difficulty! It is only a development of the muscles, a sharpening of the wits, a strengthening of the purpose, a cultivation of principle. Genuses are not born, they are made by hard work. No man ever stumbled into greatness. Some men are born princes, but they are not on that account great. They may wear the purple, and yet be plebeian in character. Real greatness is a characteristic of the soul, and that is neither inherited nor thrust upon its possessor. It is the result of facing and overcoming the obstacles. Hard work is the mark of a genius. He toils while others sleep, he strikes while others wait for the iron to get hot. He has caught the secret of life that difficulties can be looked out of countenance, and that they vanish at the touch.

ROADS AND ROAD MAKING
QUALITY OF A GOOD ROAD.
Does Not Mean It Must Be Macadam Or Other Costly Materials.
Many people seem to think that the term "good roads" means telford, macadam, burnt clay or other costly wagon roads; that advocates of road improvement are striving to hurry the people into the spending of money recklessly in construction of such roads, with little regard to the question of their fitness to the natural or to the industrial conditions of the districts in which they would build such roads. Says Good Roads Magazine:
"This notion is far enough from the truth that advocates of good roads are themselves first to urge that, before agreeing to put time or money into any road improvement, careful study should be given to all conditions bearing on the practical question: Will it pay? Often the roads will be made as good as the traffic on it can afford, if the people most interested will merely drag them with split log or other drag. As frequently, perhaps, a little care given to regrading and clearing out of ditches and culverts will do much for a little outlay to make the highway far better than it is. At times relocating a road may cost little, and result in great improvement."
It is becoming widely recognized that the cheapest and best way to improve most country roads is to first get the services of a competent civil engineer. He may save needless expense, if he does not point out ways to make great gains by laying out new roads, surfacing old, or ditching, grading and bridging them anew. Such engineer may make himself thoroughly competent to advise as to the amount to be spent on any road work, by taking into consideration the present volume of traffic on the proposed route; the problem of the extent to which better roads would increase that traffic, and with it the value of adjacent real property, and other questions of practical importance. It is easy to see how an engineer may save the tax-payers thousands of dollars, by services for which he would charge a few hundred.

THE PENINSULA BOTTLING WORKS.
In the year 1903, W. T. Banks Company, decided they would place on the market, a cooling beverage in the way of temperance drinks. Commencing in a small way with a single eye to quality, only, it did not take this well known firm long for the people to decide that they were not only putting up a palatable beverage, but a pure and healthful stimulant that exhilarates, but never intoxicates. There are many reasons for the success that this firm has obtained; the first is experience with an honest purpose back of it; the second is a plant where smother drinks can be bottled properly. In order to make Beverages that are wholesome, you must have these facts back of you to lean upon.
This down to date bottling factory may not be as large as some in Philadelphia, or large cities, but it has no equal for quality and purity.
There are over one dozen different kinds bottled daily.
The public pronounce their Ginger Ale and sparkling soda, equal to the old cherished Belfast Ginger Ale. This Company's system is on the same basis as the ones in Belfast, Ireland.
As to flavor it exceeds the imported. Last year they added another new Beverage to their list, that is "Beerine." This is something that should be in every home, not only as a cooling drink, but a medicine for many diseases, such as indigestion and other ailments of the stomach, it has proven invaluable.
Mr. Banks fully adheres to the Pure Food Laws, he invites inspection of his business place by those that are users of his soda waters.
The out put of these bottling works are shipped to many States, Virginia, Delaware, Maryland and others.
One thing most essential of Banks high grade Beverage, is pure, clean sparkling spring water, drawn from the earth out of a living spring, where no stagnant water can make its appearance. This alone speaks for the purity of the fine soda water bottled.
Stop and think for yourself, that the Peninsula Soda Water Factory goods, far excel others. The demand in one day alone, was five hundred dozen bottles, that were put up and sent to their customers. This means twelve thousand bottles sold in one month.
The real reason for the great demand is because it is pure, wholesome and good, without an equal on this side of the ocean.—Advertisement.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY
A few doses of this remedy will invariably cure an ordinary attack of diarrhoea.
It can always be depended upon in the more severe attacks of cramp colic and cholera morbus.
It is equally successful for summer diarrhoea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.
When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take.
Every man of a family should keep this remedy in his home. Buy it now. PRICE, 25c. LARGES SIZE, 50c.

MAKING A DIKE.
In placing a dike or dam on the side of a hill or on a level surface it is well to prepare the surface before building by ploughing furrows on the surface to receive the bank and throwing the dirt to it will not fill the adjacent furrow but lie on top as indicated by the black portions in the accompanying sketch.

Wanted A Sound Foundation.
Some have long thought that much of the work of road improvement was undertaken without even an inquiry into conditions affecting the question: Will it pay? They assert that in some cases the road improvement from inception to finish, has been carried on in haphazard, rule-of-thumb way.
On the other hand it is certain that many a community has refused to improve its roads, or even to look into conditions with a view to learning whether it could afford to do such work. It seemed to fear that if it should learn the truth it might go at the work of making its highways better than they are.
It seems manifest that every community would find it profitable to learn, as early as may be: What would be the cost of improving its roads? What area would be served by such roads? What is the present yield of that area, in tons? What is the present cost of moving those products to the nearest market? What would probably be saved by improving the roads over which those products must be hauled? How many people would be served by the roads? What amount of tax do they pay? How much would road improvement increase the selling and the taxation value of property?
When these data shall have been studied thoroughly, the community will be ready to decide whether it will pay to continue to drag their products through dust or sand or mud. Before these data are understood no community can be prepared properly to decide as to what kind of road it should make, or whether it can afford any improvement.

New Mail Device.

That they have hit upon a device that the government is anxious to get and one for which it offered several thousand dollars last year to anyone who could supply the want, is the belief of F. M. Burns and Jacob Faber, who have patented during the last two weeks a mail catching and delivery device for service on railroad trains and stations that will, in their opinion, meet every requirement of the postal department.

About four months work has been put upon this device which is so simple and practical that when seen, one wonders why he did not think of it. From a mail car it will take a pouch awaiting at the station, and at the same time will deliver another. There are several features about the new invention that are not contained in any of the other devices patented, and in the opinion of those who have seen the model at Washington, it is certain to meet with all the requirements of the government.

The device is not a cumbersome one, but is simple and takes up but little room. Made of either one or two-inch steel, the device is constructed in two parts, one the counterpart of the other. A steel finger extends forward, and hanging upon this is a ring with a swivel. This is attached to a mail pouch with a clasp, the same on the train as at the station, and when the train comes past, the pouch that was hanging upon the train is left at the station, and the one that was at the station is upon the hook of the car, the fingers of both the flying car and the stationary one running through the rings attached to the top of the pouches.

SOOTHING. Its influence has been felt by so many Salisbury Readers. The soothing influence of relief After suffering from itching Piles, From Eosema or any itchiness of the skin, Makes one feel grateful to the remedy. Doan's Ointment has soothed hundreds.

Here's what one of Salisbury's citizens says: Henry C. Anderson, living at Jersey, two miles South of Salisbury, Md., says: "You can keep on saying that you think well of Doan's Ointment. It is without any question the best preparation I ever used, and other members of my family who have used it say the same as it has never failed to bring relief. We have used Doan's Ointment for itching piles, eosema, tetter and old sores, cracked chilblains, cuts, bruises and always with good results. I made a statement for publication in 1903 recommending this remarkable preparation, and today, May 11, 1907, I take pleasure in saying that the intervening four years have only strengthened the good opinion I had when I made that statement. I procured Doan's Ointment at White and Leonard's drug store."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

WHO IS MY BROTHER?

Who is my brother? Only he who dwells beneath the same roof-tree, whose blood does only bear the trace of the same mother, the same race.

Who is my brother? Only he who is in the same sanctuary. Doth say his prayers that I may miss, Thanks only one creed is divine.

Or is my brother every man Arched over by the sky's wide span, Whose brow by bays or jewels pressed, Or who in humblest garb is dressed? There is but One whom God we call, Who is the Father of us all; And so all men brothers claim, In our one loving Father's name. —Annette Kohn, in New York Times.

SIMPLE HOME RECIPE. Mix This Simple, Helpful Recipe At Home And Try It, Anyway. Get from any prescription pharmacist the following: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Sarsaparilla, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sassafras, three ounces.

Shake well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful dose after each meal and at bedtime. The above is considered by an eminent authority, who writes in a New York daily paper, as the finest prescription ever written to relieve Backache, Kidney Trouble, Weak Bladder and all forms of Urinary Difficulties. This mixture acts promptly on the eliminative tissues of the Kidneys, enabling them to filter and strain the uric acid and other waste matter from the blood which causes Rheumatism.

Some persons who suffer with the afflictions may not feel inclined to place much confidence in this simple mixture, yet those who have tried it say the results are simply surprising, the relief being effected without the slightest injury to the stomach or other organs.

Mix some and give it a trial. It certainly comes highly recommended. It is the prescription of an eminent authority, whose entire reputation, it is said was established by it. A druggist here at home when asked stated that he could either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription for our readers, also recommends it as harmless.

—A young teacher whose efforts to inculcate elementary anatomy had been unusually discouraging at last asked in despair:—"Well I wonder if any boy here can tell me what the spinal cord really is?" She was met by a row of blank and irresponsive faces, till finally one small voice piped up in great excitement:—"The spinal cord is what runs through you. Your head sits on one end and you sit on the other!"

SULPHUR BATHS AT HOME. They Heal The Skin And Take Away Its Impurities. Sulphur baths heal Skin Diseases, and give the body a wholesome glow. THE GOLDEN EAGLE GROCERY.

Mr. Lee L. Fields, Salisbury Grocer, who runs the Golden Eagle Tea and Coffee store, is doing a bustling trade this Fall.

The Golden Eagle Brands of Tea and Coffee, have few equals for flavor, strength and quality. Lee Fields deserves great credit for his staying qualities as a hustler.

MT. PLEASANT.

Providence permitting we will hold a festival Saturday October the 12th, for the benefit of our Sunday School.

Miss Sallie Smith and Miss Margie Dennis, of Faith Chapel visited Miss Addie Patey of this place Saturday and Sunday last.

Mrs. Ranzie Dennis and son Wallace visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warner Baker Sunday.

Mr. Noah Clark visited Mr. Arthur Rayne part of last week, also Mr. Charlie Rayne of Powellville.

Quite a large number of our friends went to the horse races at Berlin, they report a good time.

The farmers are done saving fodder, and will get to saving corn, potatoes, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay P. Fell, of Liberty Town, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Jones of this place Sunday last.

Miss Anna Baker visited her uncle Mr. E. G. Davis of Willards, part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brittingham and son Ira, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rayne and son Elton, also Amos, Louis, and Olen Jones visited at the home of Mrs. Eliza Rayne Sunday last. All reported a pleasant visit.

Mr. John P. Patey of this place has been on the jury for two weeks.

SALISBURY OYSTER AND FISH MARKET.

O. L. Dickerson, Salisbury Oyster and Fish Merchant, 501 Main Street, is kept busy this fall supplying his hungry patrons with nice fresh fish and oysters, that are brought to him every day.

Nine years ago, he commenced the oyster business in a small way, in the same stand he is now in, his trade kept gradually but surely growing until today he is the prominent Oyster and Fish Merchant of Salisbury.

It takes a boat load of oysters every week to fill his orders; the quality he sells is the best that can be found in the market.

Those that have not bought their oysters and fresh fish from this reliable merchant, should give them a trial and be convinced that Dickerson's Oyster and Fish House, is the place to deal.

A short time ago, he decided to go into wood business, his yard is filled with fine oak and pine wood, cut to fit any stove. One thing sure, when you leave orders with Mr. Dickerson for wood, you get it promptly delivered and full measure.

Now is the time to lay in your winter supply, by so doing you will save money, as the prospect of the price of wood is going to be much higher.

Those that left their orders early last season, saved big money.

You can find his office at the West end of the bridge, in "California." Advertisement

A picnic will be held at Smiths School near Parsonsburg on Saturday October the 12th. Proceeds to be used for the benefit of school. All are cordially invited to attend.

SHARPTOWN

Rev. Eugene A. Robinson, of Allentown, N. J., visited relatives and friends here last week.

O. J. Robinson, wife and three children, of Philadelphia, are visiting relatives and friends here.

Al Rayno played at Atlanta, Ga., last week and Bridgeport, Conn., this week.

Mrs. Grace Brodey, who has been visiting Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York for several weeks, arrived home on Thursday with a new stock of millinery.

Rev. H. S. Johnson and wife, of Carroll County, and Rev. E. P. Ferry, of Delmar, are the guests of Rev. W. L. D. Johnson.

Mr. Wm. R. Higgins and Miss Hattie E. Bennett, of this town, were quietly married in Salisbury on Wednesday by the Rev. L. Q. McDougal.

The Church Rally and roll call held at the Asbury M. E. Church on Sunday last was a grand success, 172 answered to their names either verbal or by letter.

MILLS'S MEAT MARKET.

J. D. Mills, Delmar's enterprising merchant, is doing more for Delmar citizens and farmers in the surrounding country, than but few know. Two years ago, he anchored his business ship in that bustling town to stay.

From the day he opened up business, until the present, his trade has kept steadily growing, until now he is the proud possessor of the best trade in the town.

Mr. Mills realized when he opened up his market and grocery store, a solid business could only be built up on good goods and reasonable prices, so as to hold trade.

The quality of meats and groceries he handles, is the best that money can buy. This gives the customer the best quality at no higher price than the inferior article would cost them.

Farmers and his customers fully appreciate this, and give him their patronage. Mr. Mills is well posted on market prices. Only last year his advice was taken by many farmers, how to dispose of part of their crops.

By so doing they made big money. When they have anything to sell they know just where to take it and get its full value.

Money saved, is money made. You can save money at this store. You can get your orders properly delivered; you can get sixteen ounces to the pound; you will be used courteously and promptly waited on at J. D. Mills' Grocery and Meat Market, Delmar, Delaware.—Advertisement

THE DAVIS HOUSE.

The Davis House, formerly known as the Winomico, of Salisbury, is an old Hotel made new. The alterations already made and what is going to be made when completed, will make it the best Home Hotel on the Eastern Shore. The new name taken, Davis House, is well named, as no better experienced Host and Hostess could be found to cater to the public's wants, better than Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

This house has been improved from cellar to garret, everything new, there is installed the latest sanitary improvements, hot and cold bath. New furniture and new beds, the rooms are neatly furnished. Everything is as clean and neat as a new pin.

On the first floor you have the pleasure of a large Reading and Writing room, where you can have a full view of what is going on in the Street, as well as a gentleman's smoking Buffet, also a neat Barber Shop, where the guests can have their work done without going out of doors; adjoining this you see a large commodious commercial sample room, for the traveler's use, where samples can be displayed to the customers, to advantage.

The Dining room is neatly fitted up with accommodations to seat a banquet of over fifty people. This room is pleasant and cheerful, the tables are supplied with the best of the market affords, the menu is of the best.

To speak of Mr. Davis as an expert Chef, he has few equals. The Davis House will be, when finished, so homelike that it will be a pleasure to stop at. The old rates will prevail, so all can come and board at the New Davis House.

The proprietor is so well known in Salisbury and surrounding country to speak of him as a courteous upright business man, only tells those that know him, what he is. The farmers and their families can have the use of a large commodious ladies parlor free for them to use, fronting on the Main Street on the second floor.

This House was much needed in Salisbury for the accommodation of the public. We trust it will receive the public patronage it deserves, as it has filled a long felt want.—Advertisement

FULL OF POLITICS.

The Chief Subject Of Discourse Until Election. Situation Warming Up.

The quietness that usually marks a political campaign in its earlier stages has been in evidence in this county, but is now showing signs of giving away.

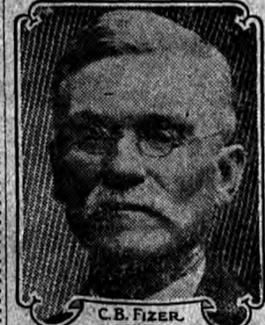

In other words the political pot is beginning to boil—in a public sense—as far as the candidates, it has been boiling for some time, and now the voters are "sitting up" and taking notice and if all signs are to be trusted this campaign will turn out to be one of the warmest we have had in several years before it closes. The enthusiasm of the rank and file is being and has been quietly worked upon by those whose usual duty it is to get an interest taken, and the work, although quietly, is being well done and the effect of the work along this line is showing—party feeling and party spirit is being kindled and all personal ties are being tested with the result that the strong ties of affection and esteem, mingled with those of admiration and respect, are being pitted against those of party duty and party principles—and the result is that to neither is given the entire victory—the outcome depending upon the man and the strength of the contending forces within.

Again the principles of the party have another fight, when it comes in contact with dislike and personal antagonism to some nominee on the ticket, and strange to say this is a harder battle with most than the throwing aside of what should be the stronger ties of affection and respect, and many who will in the face of the strongest of these claims of our better nature stand steadfast for what they conceive to be right and just—even though the opposite principles are represented by the nearer and dearer ties of blood—will hesitate and falter in the face of a personal dislike or private grudge, and will out a man who is nominated by the party whose principles they believe in—even though down in their hearts they know the only objection is of personal antipathy or petty prejudice which they cannot explain and don't care to reason with themselves about. This dislike or prejudice is seldom found to be grounded on strong principles—that a man should allow to influence him in casting his vote against one who stands on the platform of his party—the principles of character and ability to fill the office, but upon some petty action most probably misunderstood and misinterpreted by the one offended.

On these various strings the workers of both parties are bending every effort to work upon the voters. Attempting to strengthen or weaken as suits their purposes, emphasize the ties of love and affection when found in the hearts of the enemy, and strengthening the love of party when found in the hearts of their own ranks and applies to a nominee on the other

KIDNEY TROUBLE

Suffered Two Years—Relieved in Three Months.

C. B. FIZER.

M. R. C. B. FIZER, M. D., Sterling, Ky., writes:
"I have suffered with kidney and bladder trouble for ten years past."
"Last March I commenced using Feruna and continued for three months. I have not used it since, nor have I felt a pain."
"I believe that I am well and I therefore give my highest commendation to the curative qualities of Feruna."
Feruna for Kidney Trouble.

Mrs. Geo. H. Simer, Grant, Ontario, Can., writes:
"I had not been well for about four years. I had kidney trouble, and, in fact, felt badly nearly all the time."
"This summer I got so very bad I thought I would try Feruna, so I wrote to you and began at once to take Feruna and Manalin."
"I took only two bottles of Feruna and one of Manalin, and now I feel better than I have for some time."
"I feel that Feruna and Manalin cured me and made a different woman of me altogether. I bless the day I picked up the little book and read of your Feruna."
"It is the business of the kidneys to remove from the blood all poisonous materials. They must be active all the time, else the system suffers. There are times when they need a little assistance. Feruna is exactly this sort of a remedy. It has saved many people from disease by rendering the kidneys service at a time when they were not able to bear their own burdens."

Death of William Harvey.
William Harvey died at his home, on Delaware Street, October 11th, of general debility, aged 86 years. He was a veteran of the Civil War. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for a number of years.

A widow, who was Miss Katherine Dayton, of Dorchester County, survives him with the following children: Miss Laura Harvey, Mrs. Jas. Walston, Mr. Jas. Harvey and Mrs. Ellaha Twilley. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Dr. May at the late home.

Big Mass Meeting In Salisbury

Prominent Speakers Will Talk To The People. The Voters In Wicomico Should Turn Out. Special Arrangements For Them.

The Democratic Campaign Committee at a meeting held Wednesday night, made the final arrangements for the big Democratic Mass-meeting to be held in Salisbury, October 26th. George Bell, Esq., will preside at the afternoon meeting and Hon. C. R. Disharoon will preside at the night meeting. The State candidate, Dr. Hering, Mr. Straus and Mr. Magruder will be present and speak at both meetings. Besides these, Governor Warfield, ex-Governor John Walter Smith, President of the Senate Joseph B. Seth, and probably the Hon. Joshua W. Miles will also be in Salisbury on that day and each gentleman will address the crowd of Democrats who are expected to be present.

The Committee of arrangements have also contracted with the Baltimore, Chesapeake & Atlantic Railway Company to run two special trains to take the people home after the night meeting. The first train will leave Salisbury at 9.45 at night for Mardela Springs, Rockwalking and Hebron. The second train will leave Salisbury at 10.30 night, for Parsonsburg, Pittsville and Willards, so that persons coming to Salisbury from either way during the day can stay for both meetings and return after the night speaking. This will give all the Democrats on both sides of the County ample opportunity to come to this big Democratic jubilee.

Every Democrat in the County should arrange to come to Salisbury on Saturday, October 26th, as it is the intention of the Committee to make this a red letter day in the Democratic party. There will not be a meeting in the State at which more prominent speakers will be present and let us join heartily in the work of making this a great day for the Democracy of Wicomico County.

side, but—emphasizing the feeling of hatred and dislike, when to their purpose, and attempting to smooth it over and explain when it works to their detriment. Alongside of this, both parties are trying by arguments and given facts to convert those of opposite views to their way of thinking, and to hold the faithful steadfast. Where other arguments fail, the appeal to selfishness and greed is tried—offices or favors held out and in former elections direct remuneration for the vote itself in the shape of greenbacks—fortunately however, this year both parties are bound together in a compact to stop this abominable practice, and have promised us in this respect a clean election.

Such is the way the political war is waged, and thrust is given and parried, schemes and plots are made and met, mines and countermines are laid, both parties are on the offensive and defensive in every district of the county, quarters are not asked or given, and the fight is on to the finish without a lay down except some traitors here and there. With such activity and so many strings to pull, touching almost all parts of this intricate and un-understandable nature of ours, it is no wonder that the Americans are raised to such heights of enthusiasm, and such fever of expectations in a not political campaign.

Politics set on the veins of the average American citizen as tho it were champagne, and like champagne soon mounts to the head, when reason is for the time dethroned, and admiration, enthusiasm, partisanism, principles and men, men and principles, hold full sway.

Let the voters of this county before the fever heat of enthusiasm reaches the reason, for then they will find themselves not in a mental condition to reason, and decide to support the man their best judgement, uninfluenced by personal spite or prejudice, decides upon—Men who represent the principles they stand for, whose characters are good, and whose ability is unquestionable—keep at arms length, those whose work and purpose it is to influence you in their favor, until you have carefully weighed the men and principles and then lend your enthusiasm and help in carrying them through.

SALISBURY ICE CREAM COMPANY.

Years ago this firm decided to put on the market, ice cream that would please the people. To say they have made more than a success is only putting it mildly. The quality of their ice cream was left for the people to decide who used it, and the decision was that it had no equal so far known for purity and flavor. Hence the cause for the great demand for the Salisbury Ice Cream, that is shipped all over the different states.

The Company has been obliged to enlarge their plant from time to time, until today they have a capacity of making over eight hundred gallons per day if necessary, and often this amount is made in one day to fill the orders sent in.

Ice cream was once looked upon as a luxury, now it is looked to as a food, nutritious and healthful.

Those that buy and sell ice cream would do well to stop and consider their own interest, by handling the Salisbury Ice Cream Company's product, it suits the people, it is pure and wholesome. It can be shipped to you anywhere you may want. It is made in such large quantities that you can buy it for much less than you can afford to make the same quality of cream for at your home. This Company is prompt in delivery, both in city and outside points.

Any one who has so far not used this cream, will do well to write or call at the factory, get their prices and be convinced it will pay you to buy your Ice Cream from the makers, who know how to make right.

Tells How To Mix It.

A well known authority on Rheumatism gives the readers of a large New York daily paper the following valuable, yet simple and harmless prescription, which any one can easily prepare at home:
Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.
Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

He states that the ingredients can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at small cost, and being of vegetable extraction, are harmless to take.

This pleasant mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to overcome almost any case of Rheumatism. The pain and swelling, if any, diminishes with each dose, until permanent results are obtained, and without injuring the stomach. While there are many so called Rheumatism remedies, patent medicines, etc., of which do give relief, few really give permanent results, and the above will, no doubt, be greatly appreciated by many sufferers here at this time.

Inquiry at the drug store of this neighborhood elicits the information that these drugs are harmless and can be bought separately, or the druggists here will mix the prescription for our readers if asked to.

—Mr. L. P. Oulbourne has purchased of Mr. Benjamin H. Parker the house and lot on South Division Street, opposite the Hospital, the consideration being $5,500. This lot fronts on Division Street 140 feet and has a depth of 308 feet on Locust Street. Mr. Oulbourne will add a front porch to the building and make other improvements.

FOR U. S. SENATE.

In The Absence Of A County Candidate The Citizens Of Wicomico Should Take A Prospectus.

Since Ex-Gov. E. E. Jackson has declined to allow his name to be used in the Primaries to be held on Nov. 5 to decide on whom the Democratic party of Maryland wants to represent in the United States Senate, Wicomico County Democrats will have to decide for some other County's favorite son. This is the first time that primaries have ever been tried in this state for this purpose, and the result is being closely watched in order to see whether or not this plan of selecting men for office will meet the approval of the voters.

The old way of selecting United States Senators has been filled with scandals and stories of political corruption, and has in many cases in some of the states been so notorious as to lead to official investigation by the United States Senate itself, resulting in the expulsion or resignation of the men who bought their way to their seat. Even in cases of men being elected without buying the members of the legislatures, charges of manipulation and machine politics have been common—the general result being that the man who had the favor of the state machine—or organization as some prefer to call such bodies—got the office regardless of character or ability to fill it.

Now the matter is put up fair and square to the voters of the democratic party in Maryland to say who they prefer for their Senators. Despite the fact that the candidates for this high office have not come to an agreement among themselves as to how the results of the Primaries are to be judged—rendered in a certain extent necessary by the unfortunate wording of the resolution passed by the democratic convention in Baltimore, the Democrats need not feel the slightest fear that their wishes will be disregarded, and can rest assured that whichever of the aspirants for this office demonstrates clearly that he is the choice of the democracy of Maryland, will receive the votes of the members of the legislature.

The adoption of this principle of the people ruling and selecting their own candidates for office, is one of the strongest reasons why the citizens of this state should decide to support this party this year. This step towards good government and the bettering of our political condition is an evidence of the progress of the Democratic party and points it out as the one to trust in the government of state and local affairs. The party is especially fortunate this year in having among the aspirants for the senatorship so many men who are well qualified to fill the place—almost all of whom would not only be honored in being the choice of the party, but would honor the party and state in filling the same. There are three Eastern Shoremen in the list. Ex-Gov. John Walter Smith, of Worcester County; Ex-Congressman Joshua W. Miles, of Somerset; and the Hon. Joseph B. Seth of Talbot County who is the present President of the State Senate. All of these men are well known in this County as well as the other candidates among whom are Gov. Warfield, Hon. John P. Poe, of Baltimore and Congressman Talbot of Baltimore County. Almost, if not, all these gentlemen have friends and admirers here, and it is the duty of the Democrats of this County to investigate the merits of each and see which one comes the nearest to their ideal of United States Senator. The people will be given a chance to see and hear most, if not all of them before the campaign is over, as all have been invited to come and make the acquaintance of the people, as well as to help their party to win at the polls on election day. It is understood that the following have accepted: John Walter Smith, Joshua W. Miles, Joseph B. Seth and Gov. Warfield, and will be present at the big Democratic Rally that is to be held at the Opera House on Oct. 26. Let all the democrats throughout the County make a special effort to be present at this time, and meet the men who are seeking their endorsement in the Primaries, as well as the candidates who are asking the support of the people for the state offices and the local County offices. All the candidates on the democratic state ticket are expected to be present, and an equal chance will be given to all to hear the issues of the campaign discussed, and to judge of the personality of the men who are asking to be trusted to carry them out.

IN MEMORIAM.

"Lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death, they were not divided."
These beautiful words of Holy Writ that come to us echoing through the corridors of Time, were not more true of those royal princes whose obituary they form than they are today of those dear sisters, these friends of ours whose loss we deplore.

They have spent a long lifetime in the most intimate companionship, sharing each other's joys and sorrows, until one scarcely spoke of them separately. Their names were almost always linked together. Their unvarying devotion to each other, their mutual dependence were beautiful and unusual.

While for ourselves as a Society and as individuals, we are grieved, heavy hearted over this loss to us, of their beautiful example, their benign influence; we rejoice to know that they were parted but a few days. Heaven's gate was scarcely closed between them and now they are safe.

"Where all parting, pain and care And Death and Time shall disappear."
Our Society will sadly miss them in our work, their influence, their encouragement were greatly helpful; our beloved President has been unable to attend our meetings for many months, but we know that her heartfelt wishes for our prosperity must win for us Divine help and guidance.

These ladies have been members of the Missionary Society since its organization. Miss Leonora has been its only Secretary. Miss Frances its dearly beloved and revered President for many years.

In less than a year, we have sustained a loss of four of our oldest, most devoted members.—Let us hope that losing these links, the shortened chain may draw us more closely together, and may those who succeed to these responsible offices feel that they must give their best effort, their untiring devotion to the work. May God give His needed help!

W. E. SHEPPARD & CO.

W. E. Sheppard & Company, Wholesale Grocers of Salisbury, are the most progressive people on the peninsula. This house has been established since 1873, by the well known firm of Todd and Company. One year ago last August this business changed hands and is now known as W. E. Sheppard and Company, composed of W. E. Sheppard, W. S. Parker, Jay Williams and W. S. Sheppard, making it one of the strongest and most reliable firms in the State of Maryland. To speak of these men as true, honorable business people, we say they have few equals for thorough business principles and integrity.

For the benefit of our readers, we will try and give to the trade, a little idea of this Mammoth Wholesale Jobbing House. It takes over forty nine thousand square yards of floor space to hold the goods contained in their building.

The office and sample rooms are fronting on Main Street, with two large ware rooms attached in the rear. Their ware rooms are close to the water edge, with two railroad tracks surrounding the building, where carload after carload can be stowed away without any handling. As for shipping facilities no house in the State has any better. Neither is there any other jobbing house that carries such a varied line of the groceries and provisions, than the W. E. Sheppard Company.

The merchants throughout this section and in Virginia fully appreciate this wholesale business place, by giving them their undivided orders, fully believing they cannot do any better in much larger cities. In fact, when one stops and considers the question of quality, the promptness of shipping and the low rates given by this company, they feel they cannot do as well away from home. This firm carries a line of teas and coffees imported direct. They are sole agents for Lipton celebrated Teas and Coffees put up especially for their trade.

To enumerate all the lines carried would fill a page of any paper. One thing certain this firm has built up a great trade on flour. They handle many different brands made by the best millers in the United States that give universal satisfaction. There is scarcely anything in the grocery and provision line that this firm has not got.

Money saved is money made. The Sheppard Co., gives to the retail trade the benefit of a lifelong experience. That is of great value to the merchant in business, as well as to the merchant who anticipates opening up a business. Everyone commencing business should consult an old experienced wholesale grocer like W. E. Sheppard Company for true advice and get a full idea of what line to buy for their line. It will pay the party to do so and then in after years they will look back and thank the donor for his wise counsel. This firm is always ready for horticultural information it can to their example of true advice and get a full idea of what line to buy for their line. It will pay the party to do so and then in after years they will look back and thank the donor for his wise counsel. This firm is always ready for horticultural information it can to their example of true advice and get a full idea of what line to buy for their line.

It is wise to deal with an average your own section, as they are Easterners ready to help those that need it of the finance in the time of need. If so many This firm keeps the waiting customers in front of them and a want to see to it that they can help them along. —A. N. B.

THIS TRIBUTE FROM AN OLD FRIEND.

Miss Mary Frances Humphreys was one of the most beautiful ladies who was ever raised in Salisbury; that personal beauty as all other material things gradually faded; not so the lovely noble character which adorned her whole life and which was never tarnished by one unkind word or undeserved imputation.

Her character shone on and on, brighter and brighter, through her long life, until it has bloomed out into perfection in her Heavenly Father's Kingdom, where she is enjoying a reunion with other blessed ones who have passed on before, and reaping the reward promised to all who like her have kept the faith, and led such a consistent Christian life.

She is wearing a crown, sparkling with many stars and is enjoying that well deserved praise of "Well done, good and faithful servant."

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father, "Who doeth all things well" to remove from our midst our esteemed friends and sisters, Miss Mary Frances Humphreys and Miss Leonora Humphreys, faithful officers of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Wicomico Presbyterian Church, its President and Secretary, and as we, the members of this society, realize that we have lost two honored and beloved co-workers and that their presence and faithful counsels will be sadly missed, be it

Resolved, That we express our deep sorrow for the loss we have sustained personally, and as members of the Missionary Society. We also record our high appreciation of their worth, and consistent Christian characters; of their faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices during the many years of love and service, they gave to the society and to the church so dear to their hearts.

Resolved, That as they lived lives of usefulness in the church, and in the community; were ever ready to aid in the works of charity and reform; did all in their power to extend the Missionary cause at home and abroad, they have left us a legacy in remembrance of their service, and an example of fidelity to Christian principles.

Resolved, That our most sincere sympathy be extended to the bereaved members of their family and.

Resolved, That we send a copy of these resolutions to the Humphreys family and have them published in our town papers.

DELMAR MEAT MARKET.

Mills Meat Market, Delmar, is the busy place this fall. To see the quantity of meat that he handles you would wonder where it goes to. He is getting in nice porkers and spring lard in quantities but they don't last long. The new Backwash flour has arrived and it is going out quick for hot pancakes. Ask him about it. —Advertisement.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas it has pleased the Great Spirit to remove from the happy hunting grounds below to the happy hunting grounds above, Brother Stephen Adams

Be it hereby Resolved, That Merton Tribe No. 104 I. O. O. F., extend to the family of the deceased brother our sincere and heartfelt sympathies in their bereavement and hereby commend them to the Great One who doeth all things well.

Be it further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the town papers for publication and also to the Pathfinder and one to the family of the deceased.

Farmers Should Organize.

Farmers are being forced to organize in self defense. In these days, when the workers in every industry have unions, when employers also have associations and with the consolidation of business into large enterprises with extensive capital, it becomes a matter of necessity that farmers also should unite to protect their interests.

If all farmers could agree to stand together as one man, there is nothing they could not accomplish both in politics and business. The trouble is, however, to secure united action. When the teams are pulling in opposite directions nothing can be accomplished. The idea of brotherhood must prevail, all farmers understanding that their interests are mutual and injury to one is injury to all. What can be done by aggressive organization was shown by the dark tobacco growers of Kentucky and Tennessee, combined to fight a trust that had assumed dictatorial power over the prices received for their product. The contest was long and bitter, but the farmers prevailed and forced the trust to come to terms.

Letter To W. G. Gullett.

Dear Sir: The easiest way we know of to make a little money is—if you are going to paint—to paint with the paint that takes least gallons. Take a small job; say it takes 10 gallons Devco, two coats; that's an average house. When the job is done and the bill comes in, it is $60; the paint etc. $17.50; the rest is for labor and cartage; the labor is fixing the surface, shifting ladders, scaffolds, pulleys and ropes, and brushing on paint.

Take another job exactly like that; try another paint; it takes 12 gallons. The bill is $10 more. Take another exactly the same; another paint; it takes 20 gallons. The bill is $100.

There is only one Devco; there's a dozen 12-gallon paints, and 100 that take 20 gallons to cover a 10 gallon job.

The only difficulty is in finding out Devco. After that you save work; there's less work in 10 than in 12 or 20 gallons; less paint to buy and less to brush on and less wages to pay. If Devco were only a little better than others, there'd be some difficulty in finding out the difference. It goes twice as far as half the paints; that ought to be easy. It wears longer too. You'll wait a good while, if you wait to find out how long it wears; there are thousands of people who know that the least gallon's paint wears longest.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & CO.

"What is my government fine this morning?" asked the trust magnate, as he toyed with the breakfast bill of fare.

"Twenty millions," replied his secretary. "Send them word at once that I can't see my way to meet it. My eyesight is failing. Only this morning, while taking a spin in my automobile, I ran over a cow and two ordinary human beings, and had to stop to apologize!"

PHILIPPINE ARMY "DOZIEITCH"

Disease Contracted in the Philippine Service—Itching Pimples Covered Body—Army Surgeons Failed to Cure—Discharged for Disability—Cured by Cuticura, Now

A FIRM BELIEVER IN CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I enlisted in the Corps of Engineers as a telegraph operator, and, while stationed in the Philippines, I became subject to the 'Dobie Itch,' as the natives call it. In this disease small, white, itching pimples form under the skin, generally between the toes, on the limbs, between the fingers, and under the arms. I never knew of a case originating outside the Philippine Islands, but have known of many cases where it has returned in this country and invariably at the same time of the year as the original attack. The cause, so far as I could learn, was some tropical parasite or germ peculiar to that region. I got so bad that I was confined to my quarters a week at a time. The Army Surgeons applied some carbolic solution, and it would disappear for a time when it would break out again. I was discharged from the Engineers by reason of disability contracted in line of duty, and when I had the trouble again, my druggist, Mr. Z., of Brooklyn, recommended Cuticura Remedies. The immediate relief was manifest with my first purchase, and the remedy quickly yielded to the Remedies. It has never recurred or bothered me since I began to use and continued to use the Cuticura Remedies. You may quote me as a believer in Cuticura Remedies from personal experience. John S. Woods, 221 Sands St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 21 and 26, 1906."

Merchant Marine.

Washington, D. C.—The merchant marine of the United States was increased during the quarter ended September 30 by the addition of 330 sail and steam vessels of 133,092 gross tonnage. As compared with the same period of last year this is an increase of thirty-four in the number of vessels registered with the Commissioner of Navigation, and an increase of 30,344 in gross tonnage. Of the figures for the three months ended September 30 last the largest number of vessels registered was located on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts, which had 147 vessels 49,491 gross tonnage. On the Pacific Coast seventy-two vessels were constructed, of 12,657 gross tons.

In the month of September 102 vessels were registered, reaching a total gross tonnage of 45,489. Of this number of fifty-four vessels of 12,880 gross tonnage were located on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts. Among the large vessels constructed on the Atlantic coast during the month were the Old Colony, of 4,029 tons, built at Philadelphia for New England Steamship Company, and the Nassau, of 1,350 tons, built at Wilmington, Del., for the Harlan-Hollingsworth Company.

On the Great Lakes there were constructed during September the Salt Lake City, of 6,530 tons, built at Chicago for the Holmes Steamship Company; the Cypress, of 4,900 tons, built at Lorain, Ohio, for the Lackawanna Steamship Company; the Crete, of 6,180 tons, also built at the shipyards at Lorain, Ohio, for the Lackawanna Steamship, and the John J. Boland, of 6,035 tons, built at Ecorse, Mich., for the Great Lakes Engineering Works.

Nature's Way Is Best.

The function-strengthening and tissue-building plan of treating chronic, lingering and obstinate cases of disease as pursued by Dr. Pierce is following after Nature's plan of restoring health.

He uses natural remedies, that is extracts from native medicinal roots, prepared by processes wrought out by the expenditure of much time and money, without the use of alcohol, and by skillful combination in just the right proportions.

Used as ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot and Stone root, specially exert their influence in cases of lung, bronchial and throat troubles, and this "Discovery" is, therefore, a sovereign remedy for bronchitis, laryngitis, chronic coughs, catarrh and kindred ailments.

The above native roots also have the strongest possible endorsement from the leading medical writers, of all the several schools of practice, for the cure not only of the disease named above but also for indigestion, torpor of liver, or biliousness, obstinate constipation, kidney and bladder troubles and catarrh, no matter where located.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

-If a message just received in Berlin may be credited, Russia has just launched a battleship which, in point of cost, at least, is a record in the annals of naval construction. The ship is the Emperor Paul I., of 17,000 tons. When her armament is complete she will have cost, as alleged, seventeen million roubles, or $8,500,000.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness, caused by Catarrh, that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggist 75 cents. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

For Chronic Diarrhoea.

"While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief until Mr. A. W. Miles of this place persuaded me to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale at Toulson's Drug Store, Salisbury, Md.

Ely's Ointment

Ely's Ointment has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine chest among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or sniffing. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.

SUFFRAGE IN NEW ZEALAND.

Women's Influence Felt in Legislation With Good Results.

Women's influence works well in New Zealand, according to a letter received from Sir Joseph Ward, premier of the country, which was read at the meeting of the Massachusetts Woman Suffrage association in Boston. Sir Joseph wrote: "The women care for the vote and use it. In 1893, when women were enfranchised, 83 per cent. of them went to the polls, while less than 70 per cent of the men voted. It appears, however, that this awake the men to a sense of their duty and the percentage of male voters has constantly risen, until at the last election approximately the same percentage of men and women went to the polls. The statement that the right to vote renders a woman less attractive and companionable is nonsense. It is useful to provide intelligent topics for men and women to talk about apart from their own private affairs. It enlarges their mental horizon. A point that has especially struck me in the behavior of women in relation to politics is the absence of wrangling and bitterness. Altogether, we take our politics more good-naturedly in New Zealand. The woman's influence is felt in all legislation and it is a sane, healthy influence, which makes for purity in politics. Woman suffrage was granted by a majority of only two votes. Now it is doubtful if in the whole house there would be two to oppose it."

Improved Musical Instrument.

Musical instruments have, as a rule, been entirely ignored by inventors. There seems to be no desire to design anything new in the musical line, probably because the popular piano, violin and other common HORN MAGNIFIES THE SOUND.

Musical instruments are perfectly satisfactory. Nevertheless, anything new in this line should prove interesting, as, for instance, the one shown in the illustration, the invention of an Idaho man. This instrument is a combination of a mandolin and a horn, the latter serving as a sort of megaphone, increasing the volume of sound. In the majority of stringed instruments of this class the sound emitted is so fine and delicate that it can be heard but a short distance from the performer. Not so with this instrument. The sound is magnified by the horn and transmitted with increased power.

The Olive Oil Cure.

Many women exhaust their system by not taking daily care of their health. Those who are troubled to know how to proceed should take a tablespoonful of olive oil daily. It is good for the skin, the digestion and the liver, making them do their work well. Fill a wineglass partly with water, then put in the oil and more water, gulp it down, and you will not taste it. Get the best olive oil that is to be got.

This is a treatment that may not suit everybody—it does not suit most people; but ask your doctor, because he may know of some bodily peculiarity that might make it disagree. There is no treatment that will suit everybody, but in nine cases out of ten those who follow this advice will testify to its wisdom, and will be quite astonished at the result. It makes you vigorous, brisk and not overburdened.

Paid Her Fee.

An old Scotch lady used to be attended by a doctor to whom she invariably gave a guinea when he went to see her. He had told the friends with whom she lived that her death would probably be sudden, and one day he was hurriedly sent for as she appeared to have become unconscious. On his arrival he saw at once that the old lady was dead, and taking hold of her right hand which was closed, but not rigid, he calmly extracted from it the fee which she provided for him, and as he did so he murmured, "Sensible to the last!"

Petticoat Yokes.

Since many of the dresses are shirred, gathered and plaited around the waist, the petticoats must be shaped over the hips. A good arrangement is to make a rounded yoke with darts to fit in place, making the front deeper than the back. The skirt can be sewed to this. Arrange it in such a manner that it can be buttoned and there will be no need of pins or drawstrings to arrange any unnecessary fullness at the back.

New Hampshire's Roads.

New Hampshire's system of good roads includes "three magnificent gateways to the highlands of the north." One follows the sea coast and the eastern side of the State, while the others follow the valleys of the Merrimack and Connecticut rivers. The sea coast section of the road, extending from Seabrook, on the Massachusetts line, to Odorone's Point, a distance of sixteen miles, was begun six years ago and has progressed until it is now almost completely completed.

Women Avoid Operations

When a woman suffering from female trouble is told that an operation is necessary, it, of course, frightens her. The very thought of the hospital, the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart. It is quite true that these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but a great many women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after an operation has been decided upon as the only cure. The strongest and most grateful statements possible to make come from women who by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs, have escaped serious operations, as evidenced by Miss Rose Moore's case, of 307 W. 26th St., N. Y. She writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured me of the very worst form of female trouble and I wish to express to you my deepest gratitude. I suffered intensely for two years so that I was unable to attend to my duties and was a burden to my family. I doctored and doctored with only temporary relief and constantly objecting to an operation which I was advised to undergo. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it cured me of the terrible trouble and I am now in better health than I have been for many years."

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised.

BALTIMORE OLD HOME WEEK.

Maryland is sending invitations to her sons and daughters scattered everywhere to come to a grand reunion, and is making extensive preparations to give them when they come, a week of right royal entertainment.

New Baltimore, sprung Phoenix-like from the ashes of the fire of 1904, will make of Old Home Week, October 13 to 19, one continual round of patriotic and civic display.

There will be an electrical pageant, a magnificent military and naval display, a gathering of patriotic societies, a parade and ball by the fraternal orders, a big concert, and a night carnival.

There will be also a special pilgrimage to Annapolis on "Peggy Stewart Day," Saturday, Oct. 19, when visitors will have an opportunity to inspect the magnificent new buildings of the United States Naval Academy and the remodeled State House, so full of historic associations.

The Homecomers will have the advantage of specially low railroad rates. The Pennsylvania Railroad will sell excursion tickets to Baltimore, October 13 to 14, good for return passage until October 21, inclusive, from all stations on its lines north and east of Shrewsbury, Principio and Port Deposit, at a considerable reduction from the regular fare.

Every former Marylander whose address is known will receive a special invitation, issued by Governor Warfield, and the whole week will thrill with the hospitality for which the Old Line State is so famous.

For exact rates, conditions of tickets, and train service, consult nearest Ticket Agents.

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS

Sarah, The First Lassie

"You see," said Billy earnestly, "I am half past six now, and that's most grown up; anyway it's enough to take care of Katherine."

"I'm half past four," said Katherine from the doll corner, "and, besides, I'll be good."

"I'll take her outdoors, and we'll play with the Flying Dutchman. It's easier not to have things happen outdoors," continued Billy.

"I don't know," said mother. "They are likely to happen anywhere; but I must go to the dentist. It is very inconvenient to have the toothache while Bridget is away on her vacation. I wish some one would move into the little house across the alley. I used to be able to get some one there once in a while to look after your children."

"We'll be good, mother," said Billy, and mother hurried away, with a prayer in her heart that nothing would happen, and Katherine and Billy went outdoors.

Nothing at all happened at first, except that Billy and Katherine were a little better than usual. And while they were getting the Flying Dutchman ready, they saw that some one had moved in the house across the alley, for a tall, thin girl stood in the doorway, holding a long thin baby.

The girl gasped with delight

"There!" said Billy. "There's some one to look after us. Mother needn't have worried; we'll ask her over."

The girl watched the Flying Dutchman with wistful interest. It was a clothes basket car, that slid delightfully over a slack cable wire, and Billy and his father had made it.

The girl gasped with delight when it came gliding smoothly toward her, and she turned her baby brother around, so he could see it too.

"How d'ye do?" said Billy. "Would you like to come over and ride?"

The tall thin girl gasped again, this time with joy.

"Mother's downtown," Billy went on, "and she'd feel better if she knew you were there. I'll telephone her pretty soon."

Wonderful was her joy in flying through space. Bill, who was short and fat, sat on the ground trying to hold Sarah's flight from behind the long baby, who was no doubt quite uncomfortable, but only grunted a little and stared at Katherine, who was adoringly trying to amuse him.

Sarah's heart gave a great thump

But on her return trip Sarah's heart gave a great thump of fear, for, as she shot past a rear window of the house, she saw smoke coming out, and a tiny tongue of fire dancing inside. It was lucky that Sarah had been used to doing hard things all her life. She climbed out of the car quickly, very pale, but perfectly aware of what she must do, and took Sammy away from Billy.

"You sit right down on the grass, and hold him," she told the delighted Katherine. "Come on," she said to Billy, "your house is afire. Is there a garden hose?"

Billy nodded. His heart had suddenly come up in his mouth, so he couldn't speak; but he obeyed orders like a soldier.

They got out the hose, and dragged it to the hydrant and screwed it on. Then Billy turned on the water, while Sarah carried the nozzle end through the porch; and opened the door of the store closet, where Bridget had left her oiled rags that had started the fire.

In a few minutes it was all over, and Billy went to the telephone. "Five-three-naught-seven!" he called. Then: "Is mother there, doctor?" he asked. "Tell her the house was afire in the storeroom, but me and another awful nice girl, with a baby who's moved in across the alley, put it out, and nothing else at all has happened. Good-by."

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Washington College

Chestertown, Maryland

What Does It Mean

to let Dividends "accumulate" on a Life Insurance Policy? In many companies it means nothing more than an agreement on the part of the policy-holder, to do without dividends for fifteen or twenty years, and then take whatever dividend the company will be willing to give. Dividends are declared every year in the Mutual Benefit, and the policyholders use them either to help pay premiums or to buy increased insurance. The policies of the contain special and peculiar advantages which are not combined in the policies of any other company. Examine these advantages before placing your insurance. You owe it to your family to have the best.

Mutual Benefit Life Ins. Co.

Her Wish

Forgo—This evening I shall ask your father for your hand. Don't you wish me luck?

Miss Cutting—Sure; I hope he'll have on his slippers!

His Occupation.

She—What are you doing these days?

He—I'm unmaking history.

She—How's that?

He—I'm writing historical novels.

What He Wanted.

Constable—Now, then, don't you think it is time you were home? I expect your wife is waiting for you.

Brown—All right, policeman, dear. Do you really think my wife is waitin' for me?

Constable—Yes, I do.

Brown—Then run me in.—Ally Sloper's Half-Holiday.

Her Thoughtfulness.

Maid—Please, mum, the baby has gone and turned the jug of cream all over my best dress.

Mistress—Never mind, Bridget; we can use the condensed milk.—Illustrated Bits.

Believed in Working.

Victim—"Say, where did you learn to draw teeth, anyhow? In an art school?"

Dentist—"No! It came natural. I've always had more or less of a pull in this precinct ever since I was a kid."

Not a Bit Nice.

"The man I marry," declared Miss Elder, "must be capable of great self-sacrifice."

"Yes," murmured Miss Younger, "he'll have to be."—Cleveland Leader.

LIVE STOCK

GUARDING AGAINST GLANDERS.

How It is Spread, Dangers From It, and Rules of Prevention.

The manner in which glanders spreads from one animal to another, is an important subject. Since the bacillus of glanders is the sole cause of the disease, it follows that the spread of the maldy is dependent upon the dissemination of this germ. Every portion of the body, every organ, in which the glanders has obtained a foothold, contains the disease-producing bacillus. Consequently, portions of the affected organs, as well as secretions of these organs, which also contain the glanders bacilli, must be regarded as the conveyors of the infection. The most dangerous of these are the nasal secretions and the discharges from the so-called farcy buds, when the disease has its seat in the skin.

For the protection of horses from glanders, as well as for the safety of their own persons, every owner of horses, and prospective buyers of horses, should observe the following:

Suspect every horse that is suffering with a chronic discharge from the nostrils, no matter what the character of the discharge, either as to quantity of quality, or whether only one of both nostrils are affected.

Certain forms of heaves may be due to pulmonary glanders, and therefore, if the history of an animal thus affected is not absolutely clear, such animals should be regarded with suspicion.

Suspect any and every horse that is in the hands of a strange or unscrupulous horse trader.

Remember that glanders is a very prevalent disease among the range horses of the West, and that, therefore, branded horses must always be regarded with suspicion, until they are proven to be otherwise.

Never permit any of the above classes of horse to put up in your private stable, but if you are compelled to feed or care for them have a special stable for the purpose that must be disinfected before other animals are allowed to go in.

Keep your horses away from blacksmith shops and livery stables, especially in large cities, except when you are compelled to use them.

Make as little use as possible of public watering places.

Keep your own stables in a sanitary condition.

Made Hogs Pay.

A hog grower says he had twenty-five pigs, and kept careful account of what they cost him at the time he sold them. He says he began to fit them for market June 1st, and from that date to July 1st, a half bushel of ground oats were consumed daily; from July 1st to September 10, one and one-half bushels, and from the latter date to November 20, when sold, four one-half bushels of ear corn were fed daily. This made 120 bushels of oats and 215 bushels of corn, the entire amount of grain fed. Oats were selling for 50c. and corn for 35c. per bushel, the cost of grain consumed was approximately $115. Adding to this $6 for pasture and $25 as cost of the lot up to the time feeding was begun, we should have approximately $140 as the entire cost of production.

The average weight when sold was 240 pounds, selling price $4.10 per cwt.—making about $9.85, apiece, or $240 for the entire lot. This leaves a net profit of about $100, or the income on the investment was over 60 per cent.

Hogs and Pasture.

Applicable recommendations of Prof. Soule, of the Virginia Experiment Station farm, are the following:

"Prepare the land with the greatest possible care, and seed alfalfa. Alfalfa will be the most desirable of all the grazing crops, as it can be grazed over two or three times during a single season, and will remain in the land several years, if well established.

He also recommends artichokes to feed through fall and winter.

"Some grain should be fed to the hogs in grazing crops—one to three pounds per day, depending on the age and size of the animals. An ear or two of corn will often be all that is necessary. By using grazing crops the corn can be made to go much farther, and a better quality of pork obtained at a lower cost per pound. Hogs kept in grazing crops are under the very best sanitary conditions. The plan suggested will provide grazing for 25 to 50 hogs, depending on the character of the land and the crop season.

Tendency to Degenerate.

In all pure breeds the original "scrub" blood at the foundation is ever seeking to restate itself. In short, there is a tendency in all purebred animals to degenerate or retrogress toward original and less perfect types, and nothing will more surely and speedily stimulate this tendency than lack of nutritious food. In the absence of sufficient nutrition, the possibilities of perfection inherited from the sire or dam, or both, but partially materialized or wholly lost to assert themselves.—Wisconsin Experiment Station.

Foot Caught in Frog, Breakman Faced Death.

His foot clamped between the rails of a frog, and with a freight train bearing down on him, was the horrible position in which William E. Page, a brakeman, found himself yesterday afternoon.

Just as the train was about to run over his foot he wrenched himself free, although the foot was badly torn by his superhuman act.

Page lives at No. 2707 Monroe Street and he was walking along the track behind his train on the siding at the steel works in New Castle, when his foot caught in the frog. Struggle as he would, he was unable to get his foot free.

A freight car was bowling along toward him and death stared Page in the face. As the car reached him he grabbed the hand rail on the side and held on with the strength of a giant.

As the car kept moving Page held on to the rail with the grip of death and he felt his leg nearly tugged from its socket, but his foot was finally torn loose from the frog. His foot was seriously out and mangled by the way it was released, but it is believed the member will be saved.

Page formerly lived in Delmar where he was employed as a brakeman by the N. Y. P. and N.

Why Colds Are Dangerous.

Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind, do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Everyone knows that pneumonia and chronic catarrh have their origin in a common cold.

Consumption is not caused by a cold but the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with all infectious diseases. Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and whooping cough are much more likely to be contracted when the child has cold.

You will see from this that more real danger lurks in a cold than in any other of the common ailments. The easiest and quickest way to cure a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The many remarkable cures effected by this preparation have made it a staple article of trade over a large part of the world. For sale at Toulson's Drug Store, Salisbury, Md.

—There was a little joke between them, Disraeli and his wife, which I heard from the late doan of Salisbury.

"You know I married you for your money," Disraeli would say to her. "Oh, yes, but if you were to marry me again you would marry me for love!" was the regular reply. "Oh, yes!" her husband would exclaim, and the little nuptial comedy ended.

But what Disraeli said to Bernal Osborn once about his marriage is much better worth the telling. It was at a dinner party after dinner when the men were alone. "What did you marry her for?" Osborn asked in his characteristic way. Disraeli twiddled his finger in the pause that followed this point blank inquiry. Then he lifted his head slowly and looked the other very expressively in the face. "For a reason," he said, "which you could never understand—gratitude."—From "Lord Beaconsfield and Other Tory Memories," by T. E. Kebbel.

SULPHUR BATHS AT HOME.

They Heal The Skin And Take Away Its Impurities.

Sulphur baths heal skin diseases, and give the body a wholesome glow. Now you don't have to go off to a high priced resort to get them. Put a few spoonfuls of Hancock's Liquid Sulphur in the hot water, and you get a perfect Sulphur bath right in your own home. Apply Hancock's Liquid Sulphur to the affected parts, and Eczema and other stubborn skin troubles are quickly cured. Dr. H. H. Thomas, of Valdosta, Ga., was cured of a painful skin trouble, and he praises it in the highest terms. Your druggist sells it.

Hancock's Liquid Sulphur Ointment is the best cure for Sores, Pimples, Blackheads and all inflammation. Gives a soft, velvety skin.

A FACT ABOUT THE "BLUES"

What is known as the "Blues" is seldom occasioned by actual existing external conditions, but in the great majority of cases by a disordered LIVER.

THIS IS A FACT which may be demonstrated by trying a course of

Tutt's Pills

They Control and regulate the LIVER. They bring hope and buoyancy to the mind. They bring health and elasticity to the body.

HELP.

Help! Help! All the world is a-crying! Help for the hearts that are sobbing and sighing! Help! Help! for the king at the door. The little wau lad in the lanes of the poor.

Help! Help! There is need every moment of struggle and strife and the militant foment.

For hand help and heart help and thought, help and cheer, And the help of sweet laughter on lips ringing clear.

Help! Help! Every life has its need. Every heart its deep wound where the centuries bleed.

Help! Help! for the jester who blunders, The scrip whose roar shakes the world with its thunder!

Help for the weary who pinner along, The young with a ring of red morning their song.

Help is the secret, the beauty, the might, The lane of the illies to God and the light! —Baltimore Sun.

SOOTHING.

Its Influence Has Been Felt by So Many Salisbury Readers.

The soothing influence of relief After suffering from itching Piles, From Eczema or any itchininess of the skin, Makes one feel grateful to the remedy. Doan's Ointment has soothed hundreds.

Here's what one of Salisbury's citizens says: Henry C. Anderson, living at Jersey, two miles South of Salisbury, Md., says: "You can keep on saying that you think well of Doan's Ointment. It is without any question the best preparation I ever used, and other members of my family who have used it say the same as it has never failed to bring relief. We have used Doan's Ointment for itching piles, eczema, tetter and all sores, cracked chilblains, cuts, bruises and always with good results. I made a statement for publication in 1908 recommending this remarkable preparation, and today, May 11, 1907, I take pleasure in saying that the intervening four years ago have only strengthened the good opinion I had when I made that statement. I procured Doan's Ointment at White and Leonard's drug store."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Posters Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

—New York.—Gladys Vanderbilt must change her religion when she becomes the bride of Count Laszlo Szechenyi, or the Austrian aristocracy will not recognize the marriage. The so-called "black aristocracy" of Vienna has become scandalized as a result of the announcement of the engagement, and unless the young woman becomes a Catholic the marriage will not be legally recognized in Austria, the Count being a Catholic. Issue of the marriage of the Szechenyi would be looked upon as illegitimate, hence Miss Vanderbilt, in order to gain a standing in Austria, as well as in Hungary, must embrace the Catholic faith, as Anna Gould did when she married Castellane.

READS HUMAN THOUGHT.

Does Such Singular Things That Callers Look Upon Him As A Visitor From An Uncovered World—Great Human Puzzle.

Prices Reduced For Seven Days In Order To Accommodate The Salisbury People.

This only Exponent of Thibitian Lama Knowledge in America. His readings occupy one hour each, and owing to the great strain they are upon the brain and nervous system he can give but seven sittings a day. Do not miss this. All obstacles and worries of Love, Life, Business or Finances swept away by the mighty power of silent forces. His astonishing experiments and tests have been closely studied and highly commented upon by the greater scientists of both continents, including members of the Society of Physical Research, London, England and the Smithsonian Institute, Washington, D. C. If you come to him, honest and fair minded he will, before you speak a single word, tell you your name, where you were born, what you called for, who is true or false, when and whom you will marry, how to gain your heart's desire, overcome your rival or enemies, how to influence and control others either in their presence or at a distance, or in a similar manner give other evidences of his wonderful power, taking no fee in advance, and accepting none unless satisfaction is given. Is this not honesty? Could anything be fairer?

Your future to him is as a mirror, and when he looks into this mirror, he sees reflected the array of deeds which go to make up your life. Will you avoid the rocks and shoals upon which you may be shipwrecked?

Are you unhappy? Are you discontented with your lot? Do you wish to make a change? If so, learn how to turn back, overcome circumstances, and gain your heart's desire.

Advice and instruction given on all matters of importance, such as business investments, wills, property, estates in foreign countries, law suits, marriages, domestic troubles, divorce, promotion or advancement in occupation or business, etc. Absent friends, lost or stolen articles located and returned. Buried treasures, valuable minerals located by maps and charts received in Psycho trance state. Marriage with the one of your choice brought about speedily by strong silent forces. Drunkenness, morphine and other bad habits cured without medicine or the person's knowledge of the same.

THE SALISBURY HARDWARE COMPANY.

The Salisbury Hardware Company, of Salisbury, opened up two years ago one of the finest Wholesale and Retail Hardware Stores on the Peninsula, it is located on Railroad Ave., William and Church Streets, near the depot. This store has filled a long felt want. There you can get everything in light and heavy hardware, mill supplies, saw mills and engines, as well as all kinds of tools, contractors and carpenters find at this Mammoth store, everything they need, at the right prices. They are sole agents for the Aultman Taylor Machine Company's out put, as well as agents for the McCormick Machines. They sell the South Bend plows that turn over the soil better than any other plow made. This firm has the best assortment of stoves on the market. The Gem Range, that burns both coal and wood, and the well known Golden Rod stove, that is made to wear and give satisfaction to the buyer. They carry over twenty different kinds.

The Salisbury Wholesale and Retail Hardware Company buys in large quantities, sell close, and save their customers' big money. Now is the time to buy your stoves, before the cold weather sets in. They offer you a fine assortment for you to select from. Give them a trial and you will be convinced this is the store that will save you money in many ways. Their buildings are piled full of goods. Farmers who need wire fencing this fall can be supplied with the best grade at right prices. They have a full line of agate ware and enamel ware, as well as all kinds of wooden ware. This firm believes in the motto, "Live and let Live."

MARVIL—DELMAR'S UNDERTAKER.

W. S. Marvel, Delmar's Undertaker, Wood-worker and Blacksmith, has lived for the past forty years in that bustling town. He was the first undertaker in that section; commencing in a small way, he forged his way ahead, allowing no obstacle to hold him back. Twice he was burned out, losing heavily but undaunted he stuck by his business and very soon came out again, ahead.

Mr. Marvel is a self made man. He has cared for the remains of many people, driving long distances to take care of the dead. As an embalmer, he fully understands his business. In order to keep bodies properly, one must have all the necessary facilities to do it with. This undertaking establishment has all the necessary arrangements at his command to do with; in his war rooms you see two hearses, one of the latest design, and another known as a funeral car, besides ice chest, and everything necessary to complete a funeral with. Mr. Marvel has kept mangled bodies one hundred and twenty hours, in perfect condition, considering the circumstances. He don't draw a class line, like some, as he believes all bodies should be given the attention, due the deceased.

He cheerfully responds to all calls. The Railroad Companies can depend on him for prompt attention to accidents or death. This is a pleasure to know and a greater pleasure to have amongst the people, a reliable undertaker.

Mr. W. S. Marvel is a first class mechanic. He builds all kinds of wagons, carts and dearborns; repairs all kinds of vehicles and gives prompt attention to horse shoeing also. His place you will find always busy, but still room for one more. Anyone that wants work done should call on him, and they will be well cared for and their wants promptly attended. His prices are very reasonable, considering the prompt attention he gives to his customers.—Advertisement.

PITTSVILLE.

Mr. S. H. Farlow and Master Lester Timmons made a business trip to the Monumental city this week.

Mr. John Melson, who was stung by lightning about three weeks ago, is slightly improved.

Mr. Wm S. Davis is building a handsome and commodious dwelling near the depot, which is quite an ornament to the town. Mr H. F. Farlow and Mr. Noble Baker are also building nice homes here.

This has been a profitable season for the tomato growers here. Quite a lot of tomatoes have been canned. Mr. Ernest B. Timmons, our popular candidate, has been manager.

Mr. John Henry Dennis has been in the Strawberry business for the past month. He has realized from 15 to 25 cents per quart for them at Salisbury.

Mr. E. Wilmer Parsons has been making great changes in the appearance of Mr. R. S. Wimbrow's dwelling. Quite an improvement on E. B. Avenue.

BEN HUR.

Gen. Low Wallace's Mighty Biblical Romance Again To Be Staged in Baltimore.

Baltimore is to have another "Ben Hur" season. General Wallace's inspiring tale of the Christ so stupendously staged by the Klaw and Erlanger company is to fill the week of Nov. 4th at the Academy of Music. In addition to the six evening performances a matinee will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

"Ben Hur" with its lustrous Star of Bethlehem, its camels, Arabian lead, Oriental trappings, and mimic splendor of the "sorghums East" is beyond dispute the most elaborate spectacle ever staged in the history of the world. Its series of 17 scenes present to the eye a feast of multifarious beauty and variety, all set to a symphonic accompaniment of graceful music.

The seat sale for "Ben Hur" will open Thursday, Oct. 31 Mail orders with remittance will be promptly attended to when accompanied by remittance. The scale of prices range from fifty cents to two dollars. All communication should be addressed to Manager Academy of Music, Baltimore Md.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—Washington's magnificent new railroad passenger station is to be opened in a few weeks for business, and just about the same time Congress will be getting ready to investigate it. There is trouble of the most uncomfortable sort over this station, which cost about $25,000,000, and will be used by all the roads entering the city.

It is estimated that the extra charge of 25 cents which the railroads have decided to levy upon all tickets to or from Washington will produce yearly from $1,000,000 downward for the roads. If the amount should be $1,000,000, it would be just 4 per cent. on the $25,000,000 investment, which would give the railroads the terminal without a cent of real expenditure.

It is pointed out, however, that Congress gave something like $10,000,000 in land direct appropriations, etc., to help build the terminal, and it is now asked in high official circles why the railroads should want to earn interest on the millions that the nation invested in the station.

The making of sawcrank in the new factory in Canandaigua is now in full blast. Already 180 tons of cabbage have been cut up and placed in the vats for curing.

PE-RU-NA RECEIVES PRAISE

For Relieving Such Symptoms as Debility, Backache and Headache.

THERE are a great many phases of woman's ailments that require the assistance of the surgeon. But by far the greater number of such cases are amenable to correct medicinal treatment.

No surgeon in the world has relieved so many women from the different phases of ailments peculiar to woman-kind as Dr. Hartman through the use of Peruna.

He receives many letters from all parts of the country relating to subjects of vital interest to woman-kind.

Of the vast multitude of women Dr. Hartman cures annually, only a small percent of them consider it necessary to write to the Doctor at all.

Not one in a thousand of these fortunate women report their success. Of those who do write testimonials, only a very small per cent. are ever used in public print.

While it is not affirmed that Peruna will cure every case of this kind, it is certainly the part of wisdom for every woman so afflicted to give Peruna a fair trial. Her chances of relief are so many that any woman would be doing herself an injustice to neglect such an opportunity of relief.

Mrs. Emma E. Gildner, 739 Santa Fe Ave., Denver, Col., Financial Secretary Germania Order der Hagarar, writes:
"Peruna has been a great blessing to me. I suffered agonies with severe headaches and a weak back and could hardly drag myself around."
"A friend who was visiting me was taking Peruna for the same trouble and induced me to try it. I soon found that I was being helped and in less than three weeks I felt like a different woman and in four months I was well. Peruna certainly gave me strength."
"I consider it an ideal woman's remedy."
"I am pleased to endorse Peruna."

CALL FOR A PUBLIC MEETING

Of All Voters Of Wicomico County, Maryland.

WHEREAS, The corrupt use of money has prevailed in political contests for several years past to such an extent as to bring a reproach to the fair name of Wicomico county and to the Eastern Shore of Maryland; and

WHEREAS, Agreements have been entered into by the State Central Committees of the Democratic and Republican parties in many of the counties of the Eastern Shore, pledging their respective parties to refrain from the corrupt use of money at the coming election; and

WHEREAS, The nominees of the Democratic and Republican parties in Wicomico county, together with the members of the State Central Committees of the said parties, have entered into an agreement pledging themselves personally, and all responsible persons of their respective parties, to refrain from the corrupt use of money, or from giving anything of value, and from making any promise of anything of value, before, at or after the election, or from making any inducement to refrain from voting at the coming election; and

WHEREAS, We, the undersigned voters of Wicomico county, irrespective of party affiliations, heartily endorse the movement to put a stop to corruption in elections as has heretofore existed:

NOW, THEREFORE, We, the undersigned voters of Wicomico county, Maryland, irrespective of party affiliations, do hereby call upon all good citizens of the whole county to assemble AT THE COURT HOUSE IN SALISBURY, ON TUESDAY, OCTOBER 29th, at the hour of TWO O'CLOCK P. M., for the purpose of endorsing the agreement entered into between the representatives of the said political parties, and of forming such organization as may seem most advantageous for the enforcement of the law against bribery, and promoting good citizenship.

AN OPEN ADDRESS

TO THE
Democrats of Wicomico
FROM THE
STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

To the Democrats of Wicomico County:

We are now on the home-stretch of the present campaign in Wicomico County, and we take this opportunity to call upon all Democrats to line up for the triumphant election of our State and Local tickets. The present fight in this county means much to every citizen, no matter what his political affiliation might be; but we especially urge the Democratic voters and those of Independent thought to vote the Democratic ticket.

The Democratic party has successfully managed our financial affairs for the past forty years; organized and formed the county; built up all her internal improvements; and has so successfully, honestly and faithfully performed its duties that today we have one of the most prosperous and growing counties in the State. It is distinctively a county without graft. Our moneys are honestly spent and our affairs honestly managed. We stand today on the eve of an era of greater improvements in all departments of our local government. Our County Commissioners have done some splendid work in the way of building roads, and are now in the midst of carrying this work to far greater lengths. We therefore call upon all our Democrats, as well as those of other political faith, who are interested in seeing this work carried on to completion, to stand out boldly for the Democratic ticket. The conditions in Wicomico County, under Democratic control, have improved year by year, and at the same time our tax rate has been kept down to a minimum and our assessments at a low basis.

Taking all these things into consideration, we believe that we can appeal to the sounder judgment of our voters, without regard to politics, to "LET WELL ENOUGH ALONE." There certainly can be nothing gained by a change in our local government, and the class of men nominated this year on the Democratic ticket is a guarantee of faithful performance of public duty, along conservative but progressive lines, adopted by the Democratic party in Wicomico County—the bed-rock upon which we have built one of the most prosperous, peaceful and happy communities in the State of Maryland.

We therefore ask you to stand true to the Democratic party in this contest, and to get out and do what you can to help along Democratic success.

With best wishes for Democratic success, we are,
Yours very truly,
ELIHU E. JACKSON,
JAMES T. FRUITT,
LEVIN J. GALE,
Democratic State Central Committee.

—John Quincy Adams of Massachusetts, third of that name, was very fond of fishing and not especially fond of his legal profession. One day, the story runs, a case in which he was counsel was down for trial in a Massachusetts court. Mr. Adams did not make his appearance, but sent a letter to the judge. That worthy gentleman read it and then postponed the case with the announcement:
"Mr. Adams is detained on important business."
It was afterward learned by a colleague of Adams that the letter read as follows:
"Dear Judge—For the sake of old Isaac Walton, please continue my case till Friday. The smelts are biting, and I can't leave."

VOTING HONEST

And Without Purchase Better Than Owning Millions Or Living In A Palace. A Case At Home.

One would not expect to find any pathos in practical politics, but an incident came to our notice lately that must appeal to the sentiment of any one who has ever experienced one of those soul struggles, between the conflicting forces of good and evil, one of those internal combats, that try men's souls. Here is the incident as related to us. A prominent business man on the Eastern side of the county, said he had a man in his employ a few years ago, who came to him on the evening of an election at which he had cast his vote and said "Mr. W.———this is one of the happiest days of my life, for today I have voted my sentiments, and voted honestly." Mr. W.———gave him his commendation and told him to stick to it. The party went off feeling a pride in himself and an interest in his country which gives to every man a right to have a voice in its government.

Another election came around, and the world had not gone well with this voter, work was hard to get and an increasing family made the daily strife for bread harder and harder. Clothes as well were needed. The election was hotly contested and both parties were well supplied with money for corrupting the honest voter. And hands were not lacking in this case to approach him on the subject, and by artful arguments and appeals to his needs, and the needs of his family to tempt him to sell his sentiments, in order to make life easier for the loved ones at home. Hard pressed by conflicting emotions—wanting to do his duty as a man, honestly and conscientiously, but tempted by the offer of money, re-inforced by the distress and wants of those he loved at home, he came again to Mr. W.———and said "I want to ask you a question: these politicians are after me and have offered me a good deal of money if I will vote their way." You know I have a big family and that I am a real poor man, what do you think about it?"

Mr. W.———said: "John you answered your own question last year when you told me how happy it had made you to vote honestly." "You had better vote honestly even if you vote wrong, than to vote right and sell yourself." "None of us can know to a certainty that we are voting for the best man or just what is best for the country and people, but we can vote honestly and according to our opinions of what is right."
John replied to Mr. W.———, "but they have been after my wife about voting, and she said 'we need the money and are too poor to do without it,' and to think of my family and children before I acted." I know she told the truth about that, but I kind of felt as if I wanted to talk to you about it."

Mr. W.———told John that he didn't have as many temptations as some people, and not as many chances to go astray. Now, he said, "this may be the turning point in your life." "Can you serve God and Mammon?" "Can you sell yourself and be an honest upright Christian." John had joined the church only a few years before, and had been trying to live an honest Christian life. Here Mr. W.———paused in his story as the he had brought it to a conclusion, and we asked him what the result had been. "The temptations of the politicians combined with the love of his home were too much for him; he sold himself, and quit the church and has never been the same man since" was his reply.

This poor fellow was unable to stand the stress of the trial put upon him, possibly by fellow church-members and professing Christians, he listened to their platitudes—fell, and from that time became a changed man. His own self respect lost, he was not long in losing that of his fellowman.

This is only one of many like instances that could be picked up in Wicomico County, resulting from the use of money in our elections, and many a straightforward, honest man, has been corrupted at the polls. It is easy to imagine the difference in feeling and bearing of the man whose story is told above the day he voted honestly according to his convictions, leaving the polls proud and happy because he had done his duty, able to look his maker and his fellow man in the face, afraid of no one, rejoicing in the right, and then to see him steal away after he had sold himself on the following year, slinking up to some man to claim the reward for his preddy, afraid to meet the eye of friend or foe, crawling away to his home—with the money, yes, but unhappy and miserable, self respect, self confidence lost.

"First vote the Democratic Ticket; then, leaving the 'booth' go to the polls where Senatorial primaries are being held and vote for Senatorial candidate. The interests of the party demand that no mistakes shall be made."

INVESTIGATE THE CHARGE

Democrats Claim That Republicans Are Making Free Use Of Whiskey In Campaigning.

The Democrats are charging the Republicans with making a free use of whiskey in their campaigning. According to these reports a club exists in South Salisbury where drinks are freely distributed. One of the men is quoted as saying that "as much as twelve quarts was distributed at three little meetings."

Whatever of truth there may be in these reports the Republican party owes it to itself to investigate—if investigation is necessary to get the knowledge—and to stop it, if it exists, and to emphatically contradict it if a misrepresentation, thus putting themselves right before the public.

Whatever of truth there may be in these individual cases and accusations it is evident to anyone on the streets that someone is distributing liquor—or at least all the evidence is in favor of its being used to a far greater extent than is customary. Our streets last Saturday night portrayed a picture that we had almost forgotten about, since our saloons were closed, and more than one drunk made our pavements a disgrace to the city.

It is hard to see how any party can be so bereft of their political sense as to fly the flag of intemperance in the face of a community that prides itself on getting rid of the saloon, and where a speakeasy can not exist—in a community that is generally acknowledged to be so overwhelmingly in favor of temperance that its return is treating with ridicule and with the statement that at least 90 per cent of the voters are against the saloon. Such a policy would be too suicidal for belief and the party that makes itself responsible for drunkenness by the use of whiskey for election purposes, would by such an act, antagonize the strong temperance element in its own ranks.

We have been creditably informed that such use of whiskey is against our liquor laws and that the party or parties handling it, come under the same class as those running speakeasies, and it is the duty of our State Attorney to investigate these rumors, and see that any offenders be handled and handled quickly.

It might be well also for the Anti-Saloon League to take up these complaints and give the matter a thorough investigation, and report any violations to the proper officers. Although not specifically mentioned in the agreement made by the two parties as to the use of money in the election, it is certainly against the spirit of the agreement, and as such comes in the jurisdiction of the committee appointed by both parties to investigate an infraction of the spirit or terms of the agreement—it certainly can not be called a legitimate means "persuader," and as such should be investigated.

Miss Susie Francis, daughter of Elder and Mrs. A. B. Francis, of Salisbury, was married last Monday night to Mr. Philip Elliott, of Sycamore, Del. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride, and was performed by the bride's father. After the ceremony the newly married couple returned to Sycamore, where they will reside.

The Back Bone Of An Oyster.

"The oyster has a back bone like a rabbit," said Euan L. Johnson of Hotel Johnson, Washington, D. C. Mr. Johnson has been in the oyster business all his life, and so was his father before him. He can tell, by looking at an oyster, what part of the Chesapeake Bay it grew in or if it is foreign to the Chesapeake bays. He knows the habits of the animal, and is familiar with oyster culture in all its phases.

"Did you ever see the backbone of an oyster?" asked Mr. Johnson. "No? Then I'll show it to you." And he took his penknife and dissected one.

"You will see," said he, "it begins at the neck, or gills, and stops at the stomach, just like the backbone of other animals."

And, sure enough, the backbone was there. "The oyster feeds five hours at flood tide, and sleeps seven hours at ebb tide," he said. "Often when feeding they catch little sea-birds by the feet as the birds commence to feed, a great many rocks being dry at low tide. As the flood starts you could put a pencil in the mouth of any of the oysters, and the little birds pitching on them, they close on the birds."

"An oyster for the market must be kept very cold, but not frozen. If the oyster's heart is frozen, the heart will burst, and the oyster die; but if not too cold, the oyster will live."

"Soft shell crabs commence to shed when they are about the size of a nickel," said Mr. Johnson, "and that is the way they grow—by shedding four or five times a summer, mostly on the full moon, coming out of the hard shell much larger each time than the time before. The light of the moon shining fall on the water is supposed to cause them to shed their shells."—Hotel Monthly

Dear Sir: Such experiences as this are occurring all over the country. Judge I. D. Fairchild owns two houses, exactly alike, in Lunken, Texas. J. M. Torrence painted both houses, one Devos, fifteen and one half gallons; the other with another paint sold at the same price; twenty five gallons. That twenty five gallon paint is weak and fifteen per cent whitening; that's why it took nine and one half gallons more.

FEARFUL ITCHING BURNING SORES

Boy in Misery 12 Years—Eczema Spread Over Body in Rough Scales, Cracked, Inflamed, and Swollen—Case Pronounced Incurable, but Completely Cured by Two Sets of Cuticura Remedies.

HIS SKIN NOW FINE AND SMOOTH AS SILK

"I wish to inform you that your wonderful Cuticura has put a stop to twelve years of misery I passed with my son. As you noticed on his body a red spot and treated same with different remedies for about five years, when the spot began to get larger I put him under the care of doctors. Under their treatment the disease spread to four different parts of his body. The longer the doctors treated him the worse it grew. During the day it would get rough and form like scales. At night it would be cracked, inflamed, and badly swollen, with terrible burning and itching. When I think of his suffering, it nearly breaks my heart. His screams could be heard down-stairs. The suffering of my son made me full of misery. I had no ambition to weep, to weep, nor could I sleep. One doctor told me that my son's eczema was incurable, and gave it up for a bad job. One evening I saw an article in the paper about the wonderful Cuticura and decided to give it a trial. I tell you that Cuticura Ointment is worth its weight in gold, and when I had used the first box of Ointment there was a great improvement, and by the time I had used the second set of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent my child was cured. He is now twelve years old, and his skin is as fine and smooth as silk. Michael Steinbock, 7 Summer Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., April 16, 1905."

FOR WOMAN'S EYE

Too much stress cannot be placed on the great value of Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills in antiseptic cleansing, thus affording pure, sweet, and economical local and constitutional treatment for inflammations, itching, irritations, relaxations, displacements, and pains, as well as such sympathetic conditions as anemia, chlorosis, hysteria, nervousness, and debility.

BLINDERS OF AUTHORS.

Some of Their Readers Are Better Posted Than Themselves. That writers of books are painstaking and careful in most of the more important details of their stories may be taken for granted, for one reason, because it is only natural that they should, and for another because their shrewd publishers are ever taking advantage of opportunities to enlighten the public at the time—often years, quite commonly months—which some author has taken to certify certain facts upon which the story may be based. This, after all, is only a natural condition, for such care and research is but a part of the framework about which form and substance is to grow. But if they are careful in what they consider the essentials of their story, they are all too often careless of details about which even some of their most unworried readers are better posted than themselves.

Take Kipling for instance. There are many grievous sins of this nature for which he has to answer. There is that exquisite story, "The Drums of the Fore and Aft." He has hardly got his story well started before the sentence occurs: "And gave orders that the bandmaster should keep the drums in better discipline." What has the bandmaster got to do with the drums? Of course he meant to say the drum-major, or to be still more correct, the sergeant-drummer, since drum-majors—officially—have been abolished these many years. A little further on he makes the Gurkhas come pouring over the heights at the double to the regimental quick step! A text which no soldier could do as any son of Mars will promptly tell you. In "The Courting of Dinah Shad," there occurs the passage, "Your—your blooming cheek, sez she, duck'd! her little head down on my sash—I was on duty for the day—an' whimper'd like a sorrowful angel."

Now what is a lance-corporal doing with a sash on duty or no duty? Another time he uses the terms "lay low" and "lay high" in relation to rifle practice—though they are, of course, only applied to gunnery. And yet with these and many another fault, who is there who would not forgive him.

The sun and the moon are two great stumbling blocks to many a noted writer. Mrs. Humphrey Ward openly acknowledges her ignorance of the moon's phases, and that she consults Miss Ward on all astronomical reference. Kingsley made one of his heroes row out into the Eastern Ocean after a setting sun. In another of this writer's errors occurs in "Alton Locke," where he says, "They rowed her in across the rowing foam—the cruel, crawling foam." The foam is not cruel, neither does it crawl, as Ruskin severely commented in one of his lectures.

Zola was one of the most painstaking of writers, and his two secretaries found it the greater part of their duty to constantly check and verify his statements, and yet in "Lourdes" he makes "the deaf and dumb" recover "their hearing and sight." The famous Wilkie Collins once performed the marvelous feat of making the moon rise in the West. And Rider Haggard, in "King Solomon's Mines" relies for the great effect in one of his most thrilling scenes, upon an eclipse of the new moon. Coleridge, too, placed a star between the horns of the moon forgetting that to be visible in such a position it would have to be between the earth and the moon, in which case it would be very probably bigger than the moon itself.

Discovery of Wine.

The grape, whose purple flood man for century after century has converted into wine, is a Persian by birth. Its cradle was on the sunny hills to the south of the Caspian Sea, and there the ancients ate it and enjoyed its acid taste. The men of Caubul ground it to a dry powder and ate it with relish, half as a medicine, half because they liked it. And then those days went by, and we hear of the renowned grapes of Palestine, which grew in immense clusters and weighed fifteen pounds to the bunch. Noah planted the vine immediately after the Deluge; the poet of Genesis mentions bread and wine; and the Israelites complained that Moses and Aaron had brought them out of Egypt into a dry and barren land where there were neither figs nor vines.

From the earliest times the evil effects of wine have been reported. The sin of Lot is supposed to have been committed under the influence of wine, and the evil power of the vine is well illustrated by the story of the monk to whom Satan offered a choice of three sins, one of which was drunkenness. The poor monk chose this, and when he was drunk committed the other two.

Hobson's Choice.

The phrase of "Hobson's Choice" originated in an English livery stable. Tobias Hobson was the first man in England to rent out hackney horses. It may have been through an unshakable sense of justice, it may have been through laziness, but at all events this eccentric stable keeper obliged all who applied to him to rent a horse to take the one which happened to be standing nearest the stable door. And so the phrase Hobson's choice came to mean no choice at all.

Impertinence is most amusing when you are in no wise concerned.

New Hampshire's Roads. New Hampshire's system of good roads includes "three magnificent gateways to the highlands of the north." One follows the sea coast and the eastern side of the State, while the others follow the valleys of the Merrimack and Connecticut rivers. The sea coast section of the first, extending from Seabrook, on the Massachusetts line, to Odiorne's Point, a distance of sixteen miles, was begun six years ago and has improved until it is now almost practically completed.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness, caused by Catarrh, that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O.

—Thieves of Chicago and vicinity, notorious for many remarkable deeds, culled all previous efforts some time yesterday when they stole bodily the Presbyterian Church, seating 200 people, from River Grove, on the Des-plaines River. The church had no regular pastor, but itinerant ministers would address the farmers in the edifice occasionally.

This morning Z. A. Bost, a farmer living across the river, missed the church. He rubbed his eyes and called his family. Then they crossed the river to make certain the church was gone. It had been stolen, down to the last splinter, and there is no trace of it, although active search has been kept up all day.

Birth-marks which mark and mar the outside of the body are a grief to every mother whose child may bear them. But for every child who bears a birth-mark on the skin there are many who bear an indelible birth-mark on the mind. Nervous mothers have nervous children and many a man and woman owes an irritable and despondent temperament to those days of dread when the mother waited the hour of her maternity. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription strengthens the mother for her trial. With strength comes a buoyancy of spirits and quietness of mind, which is one of the happiest gifts a mother can bestow on her offspring. By giving vigor and elasticity to the delicate womanly organs "Favorite Prescription" practically does away with the pain of maternity and makes the baby's advent as natural and as simple as the blossoming of a flower. No opium or alcohol in "Favorite Prescription." All ingredients printed on bottle wrapper. Is not a secret or patent medicine, but is the open prescription of an educated and experienced physician.

The pugilist should keep a scrap book. The burglar—an entry book. The acrobat—a balance book. The cook—a reference book. The yachtsman—a sales book. The wife—an order book. The husband—a blank book.—Harper's Weekly

For Chronic Diarrhoea. "While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief until Mr. A. W. Miles of this place persuaded me to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale at Toulson's Drug Store, Salisbury, Md.

"Waiter, I find I have just enough money to pay for the dinner, but I have nothing in the way of a tip for yourself."
"Let me add up the bill again, sir."—From Moonshine.

A Happy Home

To have a happy home you should have children. They are great happy-home makers. If a weak woman, you can be made strong enough to bear healthy children, with little pain or discomfort to yourself, by taking

WINE OF CARDUI

A Tonic for Women

It will ease all your pain, reduce inflammation, cure leucorrhoea, (whites), falling womb, ovarian trouble, disordered menses, headache, dizziness, etc., and make childbirth natural and easy. Try it. At all dealers in medicines, in $1.00 bottles.

"DUE TO CARDUI"

is my baby girl, now two weeks old," writes Mrs. J. Priest, of Webster City, Iowa. "She is a fine healthy babe and we are both doing nicely. I am still taking Cardui, and would not be without it in the house."

Perfect Womanhood

The greatest menace to woman's permanent happiness in life is the suffering that comes from some derangement of the feminine organs. Many thousands of women have realized this too late to save their health, barely in time to save their lives.

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headache, bearing-down sensations, nervousness, irregularities or the "blues," she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as the great woman's remedy for woman's ills, made only of roots and herbs. It cures Female Complaints, such as Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and all Organic Diseases, and is invaluable in the Change of Life. It dissolves and Expels Tumors at an early stage. Subdues Faintness, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, and invigorates the whole female system. It is an excellent remedy for derangements of the Kidneys in either sex.

EIGHTY FIVE YEARS YOUNG.

Oct. 27, '07. (Joshua 14:6-15.)

There are two men in Old Testament history whose life story the world never tires of hearing. They are Caleb and Joshua. They come into notice when they stand up in a committee of elders who counsel retreat, and in ringing accents offer a minority report, urging an immediate advance.

How does it come about that some never grow old? What is the secret of youth? Caleb seems to have found it. Evidently we cannot estimate age by the figures on the dial. Some men are old at 40, at 50 they are patriarchal. But when Moses died at 120 the fire in his eyes was unquenched and his natural strength was not abated.

Why Marriages Fail.

Right Rev. John Sheephants, the aged Bishop of Norwich, drew enthusiastic applause today at the annual Church Congress, now in session at Yarmouth, by his idea on the marriage question.

He said that when marriages were regretted it was largely because they had been hasty and ill-considered. The great causes of domestic unhappiness were selfishness, temper. Men were more selfish than women. Men put his great sturdy arms akimbo and declared that he was one person to be considered in the home.

The Bishop denounced nagging, but said that when there was a tiff the man ought to initiate a reconciliation. Men ought to regard as important and remember the anniversaries of their wedding days and their wives' birthdays and give them presents, not forgetting a good loving kiss.

Middle-aged women often complained that their husbands kissed the children, but would not kiss them. Women long for a demonstration of affection. Much trouble would be avoided if men would remember this.

The Bishop in warmly urging marriage, declared that it was intended, among other things, for peopling heaven.

Put it in Some Safe Place, For It May Come in Handy Some Day.

Here is a simple home-made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement in a New York daily newspaper, that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the recipe; try it:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here in town is authority that these ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to remove all blood disorders and cure the Rheumatism by forcing the Kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid and foul, decomposed waste matter, which cause these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription.

A lecturer, who has covered the greater part of the country in delivering his instructive and entertaining discourses on travel, tells his story to prove that illusions are essential to human happiness. He remained overnight with the chairman of the entertainment committee after delivering a lecture in a seashore town on Long Island. In the early morning he was awakened by the sound of a siren and in violent action; but he dozed off again after noting that there was a high wind and a storm threatening from off the neighboring sea. At the breakfast table he asked: "Didn't I hear a pump working this morning, or was I dreaming?" "Why, yes," answered his host. "My father-in-law is an old sailor-man, and when we get a little water in the cellar, he delights in pumping it out. This house had been idle three

Why Colds Are Dangerous.

Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind, do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Everyone knows that pneumonia and chronic catarrh have their origin in a common cold. Consumption is not caused by a cold but the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with all infectious diseases. Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and whooping cough are much more likely to be contracted when the child has cold. You will see from this that more real danger lurks in a cold than in any other of the common ailments. The easiest and quickest way to cure a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The many remarkable cures effected by this preparation have made it a staple article of trade over a large part of the world. For sale at Toulson's Drug Store, Salisbury, Md.

Fifty Years a Blacksmith.

Samuel R. Worley of Hixburg, Va., has been shoeing horses for more than fifty years. He says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm has given me great relief from lame back and rheumatism. It is the best liniment I ever used." For sale by Toulson's Drug Store, Salisbury, Md.

Do the right thing if you have Nasal Catarrh.

Get Ely's Cream Balm at once. Don't touch the catarrh powders and snuffs, for they contain cocaine. Ely's Cream Balm releases the secretions that inflame the nasal passages and the throat, whereas medicines made with mercury merely dry up the secretions and leave you no better than you were. In a word, Ely's Cream Balm is a real remedy, not a delusion. All druggists, 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 55 Warren Street, New York.

Afflicted With Sore Eyes For 33 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back to me. P. C. Earle, Cynthia, Ky. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by Toulson's Drug Store Salisbury, Md.
