Bobcats Stomp U.D.C. 24-6

Frostburg State's football Bobcat's registered their first victory of the 1979 season on Saturday, October 6, when they smothered the University of D.C. by a score of 24-6.

The Bobcats gave the large parent's weekend crowd a real thriller on the very first play of the game. F.S.C.'s 'all-around' back, Wayne Cottman, took the opening kickoff and raced 90 yards upfield for a touchdown. The stadium erupted, and the Bobcats had a 7-0 lead.

U.D.C. proceeded to lose their first of four fumbles on their third play from scrimmage, and the Bobcats gladly recovered. Twelve plays later, tailback Mark Allen took the ball in from 1 yard out and F.S.C. had a commanding 14-0 lead.

In the second period, F.S.C.'s leading scorer, field goal kicker Mitch Broccoli, was called on to attempt a 49 yard field goal. When the kick sailed successfully through the uprights, it became the longest field goal in Bobcat history. It also increased the lead to 17-0.

While the Frostburg State marching band did a great job of entertaining the spectators during halftime, the skies turned from blue to gray, and wind picked up. After 5 minutes had elapsed in the third period, the skies broke, and rain fell heavily through most of the rest of the game. The rain thinned the crowd out to the final die-hard few.

After a scoreless third period, the F.S.C. defense forced a U.D.C. fumble, and Toby Berezny recovered the ball for the 'Cats in the end zone. This put the game out of reach for good, and the Bobcats hoped to hold onto their shutout. But with just under 2 minutes to go in the game, U.D.C. got on the scoreboard on an 8-yard touchdown pass. With no time remaining on the clock, the scoreboard read: F.S.C. - 24, U.D.C. - 6.

Wayne Cottman once again led the Bobcat rushing attack. The junior from Baltimore is far and away the leading ground gainer for the 'Cats, having gained 251 yards on 61 carries for a 4.2 average. Terry Beamer continued to lead the defense, and for the year, Beamer leads the defensive unit with 39 tackles.

The Bobcats travel to Laretto, Pa. to face the St. Francis Red Flash on Saturday, October 13. The Flash is also 1-3, and the Bobcats are looking forward to improving their record to 2-3.

The team returns home on October 20th at 1:30 p.m. to meet Randolph-Macon College.

Graffiti Mars Lane Center Wall

During the late evening hours of October 1, several unknown individuals spray painted the outside wall of the Lane Center. On Tuesday October 2, Campus police began an investigation of the incident and as a result two students have been referred to the Judicial Board for destruction of property.

At midweek, the police reported that they had several leads that they were checking out. Then two male students came forward and admitted their involvement. According to Chief Robert Merrican, Campus Police then referred them to the College's Judicial System for disciplinary action.

In the meantime, the maintenance staff have made numerous attempts to clean the wall. According to Bill McKenzie, director of the Physical Plant, almost every solvent that they can think of has been used. Some of them include alcohol, high oxygen detergents, water base paint remover and epoxy solvents. The efforts have been futile however, as the paint has already been absorbed by the porous bricks.

Sand blasting, a suggested alternative, is not feasible due to the finish on the bricks. The soft white sand finish was kiln fired onto the red bricks and thus, sand blasting would return the bricks to their original red color. Thus, the only viable alternative appears to be replacing the 8 foot by 24 foot section of the wall with new bricks.

McKenzie estimates the replacement of the 2000 bricks in the affected area to be roughly between three and five thousand dollars. The white bricks and the mortar will have to be specially made, yet, due to variations in kiln temperatures, the new bricks will never completely match the rest of the building. The College is presently seeking bids from several contractors and is hoping to receive emergency considerations from the state authority in order to speed up the otherwise time-consuming contractual process.

National and World News

Pope John Paul II departed from Andrews Air Force Base Sunday night on his flight back to Rome, bringing to an end the first papal visit since 1965.

John Paul II's six day tour of the United States found him visiting a number of major cities, including New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, and Washington D.C. During his stay, the Pope spoke to the United Nations, the organization of American States, as well as to President Carter.

On Sunday a somewhat disappointing crowd of 175,000 gathered at the mall, despite the cold weather and threatening skies, to join the Pope in the celebration of mass. This was the Pontiff's final scheduled event in this country.

Sunday saw the Baltimore Colts chalk up their first win of the season with a 10-8 bombasting of the New York Jets.

Jack Pardee's Redskins lost their second game of the season to the Philadelphia Eagles 28-17.

Senator Edward M. Kennedy received the endorsements of two union presidents, should he decide to seek the democratic presidential nomination. Frank Martino, president of the Chemical Workers Union and Peter Bommarito, president of the United Rubber Workers Union both pledged the support of their unions to the Kennedy campaign.

Senator Kennedy declined to comment on the recent endorsements, saying only that he would make no decision on whether to seek the nomination or not until the middle of November.

However, in a recent turn of events, the Senator's family said they would not oppose Mr. Kennedy should he decide to seek out his party's nomination.

In the world of baseball, the Baltimore Orioles and the Pittsburgh Pirates are scheduled to begin the World Series October 9 at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore.

For committing "crimes" against the people of China, the notorious "Gang of Four," led by the widow of Mao Tse-Tung, will soon be put on trial.

Chinese premier, Hua Guo-Feng said "The Four" will be treated better than they treated many of their own countrymen during their brief reign. The premier also said that the deposed radical group have no cause to fear their lives and that their cases would be settled by due process.

In an effort to ease the already strained relations between the U.S., Cuba, and the Soviet Union, Fidel Castro has made arrangements to address the U.N. General Assembly in New York sometime next week.

In his speech, the Cuban premier is expected to defend his position on the recent military build-up of Soviet troops and weaponry on Cuba, which lies 90 miles of the Florida coast.

This will be Fidel Castro's first visit to the United States in over 19 years.

Editorial

Last week we were given an example of how serious a thoughtless College prank can be. The time and money wasted on replacement of the wall of the Lane College Center is a lesson in itself that will become evident as the weeks pass.

We know how intense the disapproval of the student body has been over this particular incident. It is apparent that the majority of the students on this campus do not condone this type of Junior high school behavior. Yet, every day we put up with similar displays of destruction. We are collectively allowing a minority of individuals to mutilate, destroy and deface this campus, simply by our refusal to act on a seemingly endless problem.

This campus belongs to those of us who respect the rights and properties of others. It is time that we make the disrespectful minority realize that the only ones they are impressing with their actions are themselves.

This is a battle to be settled amongst ourselves. Peer pressure is by far much more effective than any punishment that can be imposed by the college administration.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

We regret not writing this letter sooner; perhaps if we had, the conditions here at FSC might have improved a little bit. We are referring to the students' attitudes toward their school, specifically their apathy.

Was it really necessary to paint "Happy B.D. Cathy..." on the side of the Lane Center? We're sure that Cathy is very impressed with her friends' ability to clutter our campus with unnecessary graffiti (we feel the birthday chorus we heard would have been sufficient). Because of Cathy's "friends'" desire to ruin school property, the rest of the student body must take on the responsibility of paying for their immaturity—not only in money costs, but also in the negative reputation of being an FSC student that will come from this. The LC incident is just one example of the widespread vandalism which takes place on our campus. It is possible to have fun without being destructive. It is a shame these people aren't caught and forced to pay for damages or make the repairs themselves. Was it worth it?

Illustrations of student apathy also include incidents which take place in the library and cafeteria. People should go to the library to study, not to socialize. Many go to the library to escape the noise of the dorms, but instead find the problem just as bad there. Couldn't those people who find it necessary to be rude by talking, laughing, etc., go somewhere else to make their noise? How about the Lane Center? Why not back at the dorm?

How about the Reef? Be considerate of those who go there to study.

Consideration can also be shown in the cafeteria. Are people so lazy they can't take back their own trays? It would help the student workers if they did. Is this too much to ask? Can you imagine what the place would look like if the student workers refused to clean up after us?

These are just a few samples of the student apathy on our campus. Everyone is affected by this, not just a select few. By the time we reach college, we should have learned to act as responsible adults instead of children. You may not agree with what we have stated, but we encourage you to think about it. PLEASE.

Signed,
A Few Voices of Many
Dear Editor:

The purpose of this article is to inform everyone about the eleven young ladies, completely dressed alike, walking in a line, that you may have seen around campus lately. We are eleven ladies seeking the beautiful sisterhood of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc., a community and national service organization that stresses academics and the betterment and eternal sisterhood of women. 'Pledging' Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority with its high standards and set goals is hard enough without having to deal with the harassment we have been receiving from students here at Frostburg. If you are unknowledgable or unaware about sororities, en-

If,

by the unknown offer

... it gets much noisier in the library, the quiet sign is going to rattle off the wall.

... you've noticed, since the Orioles have decided to win the World Series, Baseball has really gone to the birds.

... we're still talking about first graders, how do you like what those people did to the Lane Center? Oh, the things children will do to get mommy's and daddy's attention.

hance your knowledge by simply asking one of our Big Sisters or asking any other Greek. We are striving hard and not intentionally bothering anyone, so please help us, not hinder us while we carry out our pledging activities.

Sincerely,
Pledge Class of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. (Lambda Epsilon Chapter)

To the college Administration:

We are a part of the majority of students who feel that the graffiti written on the outside wall of Lane Center sometime Monday night was a pointless, malicious, and childish act. While we enjoy practical jokes and campus pranks ourselves, we do not condone an act which creates permanent destruction to the campus, and we were ashamed to be a part of a student body who would perform such a thoughtless act. As a part of the student body we would like to apologize for the incident and express a hope that it will not happen again.

Sincerely,

Residents of Cambridge Hall

Should there be regular protestant worship on campus?

Good question. Several students wonder why there isn't a service.

Are you interested in the possibility of Protestant Worship? If you are, contact Larry Neumark, the Protestant chaplain, at 689-5041. He'd like to hear your thoughts and feel your support.

... we must have ROTC on campus, perhaps their course of study can be fighting litter and killing time.

... Madeline Murray O'Hair, (the famous atheist) can damn something to somewhere, Carter can tell me his re-election chances against anyone are good. I'll believe both of them.

... the condition of the field can keep the marching band from marching, I guess the condition of the bleachers is going to keep the spectators from sitting soon.

New Admissions Board Policies

by Tracey Skinner

September, 1980 is the designated date for the new segmental policies concerning admissions requirements and academic standards to go into effect. This decision was enacted after a year of intensive planning and passed at the May meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The new admissions standards require a high school grade point average of a "C" as the minimum entrance requirement for all freshmen ... 15% of each entering freshmen class may have a highschool average of less than "C" if they show potential for success. All entering freshmen will be given diagnostic / placement tests, and those who fall below a predetermined standard will be required to take remedial programs ... and standards must be met within 2 semesters and a summer session, or the student will not be retained at the institution.

What effects will the new segmental policy have on F.S.C.? Very few. Presently, and in the past, F.S.C. has had no standard cut-off for the high school grade-point average. The admissions staff prefers grade point averages above the "C" level, and past enrollment shows that F.S.C.'s admissions are above the minimal requirements.

Yet, the admissions staff strives to fair in their selection. They realize that students come from a range of high schools varying in educational quality.

... the football team wanted to have a little fun with U.D.C., they could have let the cheerleaders play football for a while, and the team cheer for U.D.C.

... we must use plastic forks and knives in the cafeteria, can't we at least have plasticware for fifth graders instead of for first graders?

The Iffers Ah-The-Memories Award goes to all the parents who didn't walk around campus telling their kids all about their own college days.

Therefore, S.A.T. scores are considered, so as to make an overall comparison of students from different high schools. However, the admissions staff considers many other items. The staff feels that board scores tell very little about the student.

The second area of concern in the new segmental policies is the diagnostic/placement test. F.S.C. requires an English test to be taken by all entering freshmen. In 1980, F.S.C. will also require a test to be taken in math, since math will then be incorporated into the General Studies Program. Currently, F.S.C. has a remedial program in reading, and Special Instructional Programs (SIP) offers instructional services for many courses. Once again, F.S.C. is a step ahead of the new policy standards.

Also, in the proposed admissions requirements and academic standards, it is mentioned that for "one to attain Jr. status, (56 credit hours), a student must have earned a grade-point average of "C" or better." F.S.C. has practiced the reviewing and evaluation of grade point averages for some time. Each semester a student's G.P.A. is evaluated, and if the G.P.A. is below 2.0 the student is contacted and warned of future complications.

Admissions requirements and academic standards are just as important to an upper classman as they are to the entering Freshman. These two items reflect the school's educational quality. Because of its admissions requirements and its academic standards, F.S.C. has become known as one of the better institutions of higher learning in Maryland.

10 Day Hold Policy

by Ralph Murphy

Students represent a considerable percentage of the patrons at both Frostburg National and Fidelity Bank. However, the student - bank relationship has often run into conflict.

Two years ago a branch of the Frostburg National, which had been opened here on campus, was closed because of bouncing checks. This year, students who expected to open accounts with personal checks at Frostburg National had a 10 working day hold until the check cleared.

Assistant Cashier David Linn said the reason for the hold can be traced back to a 13 hundred dollar loss in 90 days, "We had to do something." And so the new policy went into effect on Aug. 27, 1979 just in time for school.

There had been no written forewarning of the hold, and many students returned to Frostburg with little cash and a 10 day wait until their personal check cleared.

"I had an account with F.N.B. last year, and I kept ten dollars in it through the summer to keep the account open," said sophomore Robert Lippman, "They didn't tell me a thing about this 10 day hold."

Lippman wound up selling two books back to the school store so he'd have enough money to wait out the check.

Junior Susie Keller stated that she felt, "It's the Bank's responsibility to trace down people writing bad checks." Mr. Linn disagreed, however, emphasizing that they weren't a collection agency and that they didn't have the time or personnel to pursue the offenders.

Another complaint among students was that th

Another complaint among students was that they were being discriminated against by the local banks. Their feelings were particularly felt by those encountering the 10 working day hold. "That policy holds true for anyone, including the townspeople," stated Mr. Linn, in reference to the personal check hold.

Mr. Linn wanted it understood that, "We don't want to give students a bad view of the banking business, but they have to see our problem."

At The Fidelity Bank the 10 day hold has always been in existence, and Clara Mae Vogtam, receptionist and secretary to the president, stated that they have no outstanding checks. This is a sharp contrast to the 13 hundred dollar loss of the Frostburg National Bank before it adopted the 10 day hold system.

The Fidelity Bank is located on Main St. a short walk from Frostburg National. They don't offer free checking, but there are special considerations for students.

Mrs. Vogtam said that Fidelity recommends students, "bring travelers checks, cashier checks, or money orders - anything but personal checks to open an account." This sentiment is echoed by Frostburg National. (You can bring personal checks, of course, but that brings you back to the 10 day wait.) If you pay by one of these bank approved methods, both Frostburg and Fidelity will open your checking account with no wait at all.

Criminal Record

Recently Judge Bowen and I were discussing the opening of Frostburg State College and the fact that some of the offenses that college students become involved with, are now more serious. Due to changes enacted by the past legislative session, we both agreed that it would be much better for all if we could spend some time in trying to educate the students and maybe keep them from a Criminal record.

It is very hard today to find employment when one graduates from College but it's impossible to get a job if you have a Criminal record. Many of the so-called pranks from College have later come back to haunt the man or woman when they are considered for a new position.

I hope in the weeks ahead that we can cover many of the offenses that have come through the Court in the past years. Remember, too, that we want to be helpful to the students in those cases where you might feel that some one did you wrong; my door is always open to help you get the right person or answer to your problem. Quite often it's a landlord problem, an auto wreck or someone owes you money: all these problems come all these problems come under the Civil law and are handled by the District Court. Our office is open in Cumberland daily from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and the phone number is 777-2105. We have hearings once a month at the Frostburg City Hall on traffic and Criminal cases.

State-To-Date: Mr. Flanigan, what do you consider the biggest criminal offense that College students get involved with?

Commissioner Flanigan: "In terms of number of cases, I would have to say, Bad Checks. Each year the number seems to be growing and yet more businessmen tell me that they are cutting down on the number of checks they accept."

S-T-D: Does the student receive any notice from the store if their check is returned by the bank for insufficient funds?

Commissioner: "The store sends a letter to the student at the address printed or marked on the check and gives ten days for them to come in and make the check good OR they will take the check to the Court Commissioner for action. I would hope that the student upon receiving the notice would go to the merchant and either pay the check or if they don't have the money, make arrangements to pay it. Do not ignore it!"

S-T-D: If a merchant files charges on a Bad Check case, can the person who gave the check, make it good and have the charges dropped?

Commissioner: "Only the State's Attorney prior to service can drop a charge. After the papers have been served, the case must go before the Court."

S-T-D: What is the fine for giving a check when you don't have the funds in the bank to cover it?

Commissioner: "A person convicted of obtaining property or services by a bad check when the property or services has a value of $300 or greater is guilty of a Felony and shall be fine not more than $1,000, or be imprisoned for not more than 15 years, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court."

A person convicted of obtaining property or services by bad check when the property or services has a value of less than $300 is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $100, or be imprisoned for not more than 18 months, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court."

NEXT WEEK - SHOPLIFTING

Pippin

The first production of the October 11 may be purchased from the Director of Lane Center, 689-4151.

Pippin, a modern morality, is loosely based on the story of the son of Charlemagne. As summarized by a critic for Newsweek: "Pippin doesn't want to follow in his father's imperial footsteps; he feels there must be something beyond all that war-making and tax-collecting and cheesy panoply of glory. So he sets out to look for it." The plot of Pippin reveals his search for "freedom" and "destiny," with music and lyrics supplied by the composer of Godspell.

Four performances of Pippin are scheduled for Compton Auditorium. On Thursday, October 11; Friday, October 12; Saturday, October 13; and Sunday, October 14. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m.

The show is directed by Dr. Jack W. Vrieze. The designer and technical director is Mr. Edward J. Thompson.

Reservations can be made by telephoning 689-4145 between the hours of 1:00 and 4:30 p.m.

As a special attraction on opening night, the Lane College Center is offering a European dinner at 6:30 p.m. Tickets for the dinner and show on Monte Henry, and Ed Cheatham.

Room Fee Increased

Room fees at Frostburg State College will be increased by $25 per semester, effective at the beginning of the second semester of the current academic year, was announced today by Dr. Nelson P. Guild, president.

"The College has successfully avoided any increases in room fees for the last six years. However, the cumulative effects of inflation and price increases, especially in fuel and utilities, leave us no choice but to impose this increase in order to continue operating our auxiliary enterprises program, as we must by State Law, on a self-sustaining basis," President Guild said.

The new charges will range from $345 to $400 per semester, depending on which residence hall is selected.

COLLEGE CENTER BOARD PRESENTS AUTUMN WEEK

The C.C.B., after long months of hard planning, is proud to announce the coming of the 1979 edition of Autumn Week (formerly Autumn Weekend).

But just what is this big event? Autumn Week is 7 days' worth of entertainment, fun, and excitement, all at little or no cost for the students of F.S.C. and their guests. It is more than a series of events, it is a happening! It is a party, a prom, a circus, a carnival, and a celebration of good times at Frostburg all thrown into one. And it is about to happen!

Autumn Week will take place during the week of October 15th to 21st. The highlight of the week is, of course, the semi-formal dance on Saturday, October 20th. See the full page ad in this week's issue of the paper for information on the rest of the events. Get psyched Frostburg, because Autumn Week is coming!

Soccer

by Bill Meyers

The Frostburg Soccer team won both games on home turf last week. Tuesday the bobcats defeated Slippery Rock 5-2. Bill Meyers started off the scoring attack with a goal from a Brett Stevens throw in. Next, Noel Cyrus booted one in off a Bill Meyers assist to give the Bobcats a 2-0 edge. The rest of the game was Francisco Castro's. Castro closed out the 1st half with a goal from a Brett Stevens pass. Castro started off the second half with another goal from a Jerome Cordtz assist. Castro's 3rd goal was unassisted. This game gave coach Ken Kutler a school record or 77 wins as soccer coach.

Saturday, the Bobcats defeated Geneva College 2-1. Russell Macura scored both goals with assists from Francisco Castro. This boosted the Bobcat's Record to 4-3-0. Their next home game is on Saturday against Shippensburg State at 1:00 p.m. Come and Support Bobcat Soccer.

Cross Country

by Bob Rascovar

This past Saturday, the F.S.C. Cross Country team beat six other teams at an invitational meet held at West Va. Wesleyan. Tim Gavin came in first with a time of 23 minutes 5 seconds. Frostburg won the meet with a score of 23. The next closest team had a score of 81.

Ruggers Beat U.M. And Rock City

by Kevin Brooks

The 'A' team extended its winning streak to 4 games by trouncing University of Maryland. Altogether the "Golden Shower" accumulated 5 tries and a penalty kick making the score 27-0. This is the third straight victory in as many games for the Frostburg Rugby Club. Pete. . . , Rich Stang, Jay "C", Craig "Whiskey" Nesbitt, and P.D. all scored tries for the "Golden Shower" It looked as if Frostburg was the most powerful rugby team in the East.

All Frostburg needed was Rich Stang's try in the middle of the first half to stop Hagerstown "Rock City." But, that was not all Frostburg mustered up all day. In fact, Frostburg tallied up 28 more points to crush Hagerstown 32-0. In the first half, Les Barker ran for 10 yards for the try bringing the score to 10-0. Shortly after, Jay Chiseldin rolled up a 20 yard blast to increase the "Golden Showers" lead to 16-0. The final score of the half came when Mark "Animal" Miller trudged 35 yards to give the "Golden Shower" a 20-0 half time lead.

In the second half, Jay Chiseldin threw a picture perfect pass to Les Barker giving the "Golden Shower" a 26-0 lead. It seemed that Rich Stang wanted to end the game the way it started so he bulldozed his way over the goal-line making the final 32-0.

Frostburg Rugby is 5-0 this season making it one of the only undefeated teams on campus this year. This weekend the team participates in the A.R.U. tournament in Johnstown PA. GO GET'EM RUGGERS!!

F.S.C. To Host Conference On The Liberal Arts

At 10:00 on Saturday morning, October 13th, Dr. Nelson Guild, President of Frostburg State College, will formally welcome to the campus Dr. Joseph Cox, the Vice President of Academic Affairs and Dean of Towson University as well as distinguished guests, tutors, and senior students from St. John's College Annapolis. The occasion, at which Dr. Cox will be the Keynote Speaker, is an Open-House Conference on "The Harmony of the Liberal/Practical Arts in Higher Education." Also welcome at the conference will be faculty, students, staff, and alumni of Frostburg, as well as the general public. Many types of activities -- see conference schedule below -- are planned to highlight the meaning, value, and validity of the liberal arts in higher education.

The Committee for the Future of the Liberal Arts, chaired by Dr. Paul R. LaChance of the English Department, is making this conference the debut of a year-long effort to elevate (throughout the campus and surrounding areas) awareness of and appreciation for the liberal arts. Like Deep Creek Lake, Frostburg's rich Liberal Arts Program has (until now) been one of Western Maryland's best kept secrets; however, Frostburg will take this occasion to draw attention to the arts for their own sake and to celebrate the commencement of its new Interdisciplinary M.A. Program, "Modern Studies in the Humanities."

Currently the entire nation is engaged in this great discussion of the liberal arts and the direction and priorities of higher education; there are, for example, several programs scheduled throughout Maryland and Pennsylvania in the coming months: to mention just one here, The University of Maryland at College Park will sponsor a conference on "The Humanities in Business and Public Life" just ten days after our similar conference. Our conference, unlike the College Park one, will be free (except for the optional $3.00 luncheon), but those planning to attend should fill out the response form which follows the Conference Schedule of Events below (so that we can better plan the seating and food arrangements).

Because every corner of the college campus -- the entire grouting area and beyond -- and many people in the community have contributed something for this day in celebration of the liberal arts, it is not practical to thank individually all the people involved. But Mr. Robert Riggs, Dr. Paul Lyons, Dr. Marc Baer, Dr. Robert Doyle, Dr. Roger Dow, Mr. William Grabb, Mr. James Hadra, Ms. Rosalie Spaniel, Ms. Lee Ann Feltwell, Mr. Michael Grady, Dr. Robert Burton from the college, as well as Mrs. Anthony Bollino, Ms. Janet Wunderlick, and Mrs. Bernice Friedland from the Frostburg-Cumberland community have spearheaded the committee's planning.

Announcing 1980 Editing Internship

The need for newspaper copy editors is greater than ever. Because of this, the Newspaper Fund will again offer college juniors pre-arranged paid internships, $700 scholarships, and a pre-internship training program.

The Editing Internship Program primarily involves newspaper copy editing. Any student who has an interest in some day becoming a newspaper editor is encouraged to apply. The pre-internship training program is able to prepare students, with or without previous editing course work, to perform the basic job of the newspaper editor.

This program is for college JUNIORS only. Deadline for completed applications is November 22-Thanksgiving Day. For more information, visit the Placement Office in 106 Gunter Hall.

Navy Recruiters

Navy recruiters will be on campus October 1, 2, and 3. If you would like to interview with them, you must sign up in advance in the Placement Office in 106 Gunter Hall.

Dear P.G.

Since I happen to be one of the few living veterans of San Juan Hill, I checked with my Pentagon contacts on this one. A college graduate following basic training, advances immediately to a Spec. 4 (corporal) rank. Career soldiers with a college degree usually receive promotions quickly. Also, a college graduate has the option of applying to Officer Candidate School.

As you can guess, specific job selection varies with your background and degree. The different Services have slightly different regulations. You might also want to consider the campus ROTC program or check directly with a recruiter. Finally, veterans receive advantages on Federal and State Civil Service exams.

Did I tell you about the time that Old Teddy and I went into a Havana brothel and...
