BIOGRAPHY

Robert A. Baker is a composer, pianist, researcher, conductor and teacher, whose music has been performed by orchestras, ensembles and soloists in North America and Europe including the Azimuth Quartet, NODUS ensemble (USA), Esprit Orchestra, toneART ensemble (Canada) and Psappha Ensemble (U.K.). Several commercial CDs are available featuring Baker's music, most recently on England's Chiasmus Ensemble debut 2010 live recording, and his music has received recognition in competitions in England, Czech Republic, Italy and the United States. Baker's research on spatiotemporality in opera has led to a published article and several paper presentations at College Music Society conferences and organization, for which he currently serves as composition area chair for the Mid-Atlantic Region. Baker holds a Ph.D. in composition (McGill, 2009) and is currently an adjunct lecturer and accompanist at SU.
