

MARYLANDER AND HERALD.

ADVERTISING IS THE BUSINESS MAN'S MAINSTAY

PRINCESS ANNE, MD., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1913.

Vol. XVI—No. 13

THE MARYLANDER, Established 1862
SOMERSET HERALD 1868.

CHANGES OF PROPERTY

Number of Deeds Recorded at the Office of Clerk of Court

Edgar N. Miles from Joshua W. Miles, trustee, 17 acres of land near Dougherty's Creek; consideration $420.
Wm. J. A. Conner from Mollie E. Parsons and husband, land in Brinkley's district; consideration $1.00.
Fred J. Reese from Helen C. Beauchamp, house and lot of land in Westover district; consideration $1,000.
Fletcher A. McGrath from C. Hubbard Dougherty and wife, lot of land on Columbia Avenue in the town of Crisfield; consideration $265.
William T. Adams from Washington B. Dennis and wife, 1 1/2 acres of land in Brinkley's district; consideration $75.
Wm. B. Whittington from Sarah Whittington Outen and husband, 1 1/2 acres of land in Brinkley's district; consideration $100.
Wm. J. Phillips from James E. Dashiell, collector, 2 1/2 acres of land in St. Peter's district; consideration $28.00.
Oscar M. Jones from Edward W. Jones, 2 1/2 acres of land in Princess Anne district; consideration $600.

Mrs. Arnold E. Waters Dead

Suffering from adhesions following an attack and operation for appendicitis, Mrs. Arnold Elzey Waters, wife of Vice-President Waters, of the Park Bank and of Townsend Scott & Son, bankers, Baltimore, was taken to the Union Protestant Infirmary last Tuesday from her home, 511 Cathedral street, Baltimore.

Her condition was pronounced serious by the attending physician and she died on Thursday night. It is said it was found necessary to perform a second operation and that she had not the strength to rally from this.

Mrs. Waters was, before her marriage, Miss Helen Knight. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Knight, of Dummerston, Vt. She and Mr. Waters were married about 10 years ago in New York. They have three sons—Arnold Elzey Waters, Jr., John Knight Waters and Levin L. Waters, 3d. Their ages are 5, 7 and 5 years, respectively.

The funeral took place on Sunday. Services were held at Immanuel Protestant Episcopal Church at Glencoe, Baltimore county. The pastor, the Rev. Duncan McCulloch, conducted the service.

Mrs. Waters was well known in Princess Anne, where she and her husband frequently visited at the latter's old home, "Beechwood." Her death was a great shock to her many friends in this community. As soon as the sad news reached here, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Waters at once left for Baltimore, where they remained for the funeral.

Working on New Bridge

Work was started, Monday, October 20, for the erection of the new concrete bridge over the Manokin river, in place of the old Red Bridge.

The latter bridge has been removed, and only a memory of its past usefulness remains. A foot path has been erected across the river for the accommodation of school children, and others, who otherwise would be greatly inconvenienced, as they would be obliged to go over a mile to reach their destination. Because of the removal of the bridge it will take teams, passing on the Deal's Island road, from twenty to thirty minutes longer, by taking another road, to finish their journey.

The concrete bridge will have a span of 32 feet and will be wider than the old Red Bridge, and will meet the wants of the traveling public for a number of years to come.

Mr. Charles Vandling, who arrived in Princess Anne, last Tuesday, to assist his father, Mr. L. S. Vandling, in the construction of the new bridge, celebrated the event by falling into the water. "Why!" exclaimed Charlie, "I slipped into that confounded creek before I knew it." Little he realized he was barely missing the noble Manokin river by calling it a "creek."

Exciting Runaway

A rather exciting runaway happened in Princess Anne, Wednesday morning, when a horse, attached to a loaded wagon of hay, became frightened and ran throwing the colored driver off, injuring one of his feet. The horse was finally caught, after he had run down to where the new concrete bridge is being built, probably to inspect the work. The team belonged to Mr. Cassius M. Dashiell. The colored man's injuries were attended to by Dr. T. J. Smith.

—A woman can't run up a hill without getting tired, but running up a hill is different.

MAIL CARRIER USES AUTO

Mr. Edward Teas Finds It Useful on Deal's Island Route

Mr. Edward Teas, who is the rural delivery carrier for the U. S. mail on the Deal's Island route, uses his automobile very frequently in his delivery of the mail.

Mr. Teas says after the winter sets in he will not be able to use his machine much because of the bad condition the road generally gets in, and will have to fall back upon his team.

On being asked if he was carrying any heavier loads since Postmaster General Burleson had issued the order permitting the sending, by parcels post, of packages weighing up to and including twenty pounds, Mr. Teas said:

"I have noticed only a little increase. This is probably due to the fact that but very few of the people know that they can send or receive packages, by parcels post, weighing up to and including twenty pounds. As soon as this is generally known, undoubtedly the business of the parcels post will be greatly increased. And if the suggestion of Postmaster Burleson, to permit the carrying of packages weighing up to a hundred pounds becomes a real fact, the rural carriers may have to use drays, or some kind of a big wagon, on their routes."

Mr. Teas said he liked using his automobile over his route very much.

The automobile, eventually, will become the most satisfactory mode of a carrier, not only for the rural delivery man, but for the farmer as well.

In some sections of Virginia farmers own their automobile with which they convey their farm products to market. A woman, living on a farm near Fredericksburg, motors into that city every morning with a load of milk and country produce. Times are changing, and the antipathy, with which the majority of farmers have looked upon the automobile, is rapidly passing away, and it will not be surprising if not before long several of the enterprising tillers of the soil, in the vicinity of Princess Anne, may be utilizing the automobile, or autotruck, to carry their farm products or heavy loads.

And They Were Happily Married

A young gentleman and a young lady from Cheriton, Va., decided to get married, and wanting to give their friends the slip who may have known of the coming event, they jumped on the train, last Tuesday, and came to Princess Anne where they were united in matrimony by the Rev. C. H. Weaver, rector of St. Andrew's P. E. Church. The groom was Mr. Arthur Bryant; the bride, Miss Lulu Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant spent the night at Mrs. Ashton P. Mills' boarding house and left on Wednesday afternoon's train, bearing with them the good wishes of the members of the Oak Hill Farm Theatre Company—who had arrived at Mrs. Mills' house Wednesday forenoon—and the regular boarders, as soon as they heard of the romance attending the marriage of the young Virginia couple.

McLane—Brown Wedding

Miss Mary Sena Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brown, of Manokin, was married last Wednesday to Mr. William Levin McLane. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home by the Rev. James L. Elderdice, pastor of Salem Methodist Protestant Church. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Iris Brown, of Fruitland, a cousin of the bride.

The bride was attired in white satin trimmed with duchess lace and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. George Beauchamp, of Philadelphia, who carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The best man was Mr. Frank Brown, brother of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. McLane left for an extended trip north.

Kills Girl and Ends His Life

Because she would not marry him, Dorsey Kelly, a farm laborer, at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning shot and killed Mary Fleming, aged 17, the daughter of Samuel T. Fleming, the employer of Kelly. Kelly had been employed at the Fleming farm, near Frederick, Md., for about three years and fell in love with the daughter of his employer, but the girl did not reciprocate his attentions.

Wednesday morning the young woman went to the barn and was followed by Kelly. What transpired will never be known, but following two revolver shots both were found dead. The affair happened along the Baltimore pike and has aroused much excitement in the neighborhood.

SECRETARY W. J. BRYAN WARNS DEMOCRATS

Against Being Miled and Urges the Election of Senator Blair Lee in the following Statement

BLAIR LEE IS IN SYMPATHY WITH THE PRESIDENT ON NATIONAL ISSUES AND EVERY DEMOCRAT OUGHT TO VOTE FOR HIM.

No Democrat ought to allow himself to be deceived into giving paramount importance to a local issue.

It is a scheme on the part of the Republicans to mislead the Democrats in the hope of electing a Republican Senator who will try to tie the hands of the President and obstruct his policies. There are great issues at stake just now in national politics and Democrats cannot afford to allow their attention to be diverted from them.

Blair Lee ought to have the earnest and enthusiastic support of all who approve of the President's administration and desire to uphold his hands.

State Funds To Public Schools

The forthcoming report of the Board of State Aid and Charities will contain among other recommendations, a suggestion that the State Board of Education supervise all appropriations for educational purposes.

If this recommendation is incorporated into a law the educational board will pass upon the applications for appropriations for colleges, academies and other educational institutions supported wholly or in part by the state, a duty now performed by the Board of State Aid and Charities. This board has adopted the recommendations of its committee on education, which declared that while the theory on which Maryland elementary schools are founded was highly regarded by most educational authorities, yet many faults in the system have been found, due to both the lack of funds and centralized authority.

The lack of the latter, the report says, is demonstrated by the fact that the standard of teachers differs in each county, and at times differs in the same county, and further, that the text books are not uniform in the several counties. To better conditions the following recommendations are made:

That the several funds now given by the state for educational purposes be abolished, and in lieu thereof that the state shall pay each county a fixed sum for each teacher and distribute the remainder of the funds pro rata among the county schools, on the basis of aggregate attendance.

That the present state levy for schools shall be increased from 16 1/2 cents per $100 to not less than 20 cents, and to a figure sufficient to furnish funds to carry out the foregoing recommendation.

Provision in the tax levy for aid for approved high schools on the basis of the present law.

Granting of additional authority to the State Board of Education to permit that body to grant certificates to teachers on uniform examinations.

Permitting the State Board of Education to prescribe to the minutest detail the courses of studies and the text-books for elementary schools.

Active carrying out of the compulsory state-wide school attendance law.

Extension of the present high school system and the establishment of free bus service to carry pupils from one small town to another where a high school is located.

Introduction of agricultural courses in rural high schools.

Abolishment of all appropriations to private secondary schools and the placing of the latter on the high school basis wherever such schools are needed.

Abolishment of all appropriations to various colleges throughout the State and the entering into by the state of contractual relations with such institutions of high learning as are approved by the State Board of Education and the making of such institutions part of the public school system of the state.

The Board of State Aid and Charities will not draft any of the recommendations into laws, but will place them before the General Assembly as changes which are badly needed.

Maryland Week Nov. 18th to 22d

Maryland Week will be observed at the Fifth Regiment Armory in Baltimore November 18th to 22nd when the State Horticultural Society and its affiliated bodies will hold their annual meetings and exhibit the products of the farm. There will be many features of the exhibition that will make it worth while for the farmer to see. There will also be a social side for the visiting farmers will be guests of the Baltimore Board of Trade at a luncheon, an automobile tour of the city and a boat ride around the harbor. Maryland Week is largely educational, with exhibits from the experimental station of the Maryland Agricultural College and with speakers of national importance. Every man who can possibly spare the time should go. Scientific farming means larger and better crops and the results of scientific farming is shown during Maryland Week.

G.-B.-S. Brewing Company Fined

The Gottlieb-Bauernschmidt-Straus Brewing Company, of Baltimore, last Tuesday, in the United States District Court entered a plea of guilty to a charge brought by District Attorney John Phillips Hill, to the effect that the brewery had shipped certain fermented liquor under other than its proper name. Judge Rose imposed a fine of $500.

The information to which the brewery pleaded guilty, gave the court to understand that the brewery on April 30, caused to be shipped from Baltimore to Ocean City, Md., five barrels of beer in brand of "Rikk." The second count charged the shipment on June 3, from Baltimore to Ocean City, of five barrels of bottled beer under the name of "Rikk." The third count charged the shipment on June 6 to the same city, another five barrels of bottled beer under the name of "Rikk." The fourth count charges that on June 13, another shipment was made of five barrels of bottled, under the same name, to Ocean City. On the same, it was also charged, two barrels of bottled beer were sent to Ocean City, under the name of "Rikk." The sixth count charged the shipment on May 7, to Ocean City, of 72 dozen bottles of beer under the name of "Rikk."

To Meet at Easton

The apple and vegetable exhibit at the meeting of the Peninsula Horticultural Society in Easton, next January, promises to be large and of excellent quality, more than $1200 in cash prizes being offered for exhibits. The highest prizes will be for the best general display of fruit, three prizes amounting to $300, namely, $150, $100 and $50. There are also large prizes for single boxes; three box exhibits, also $5 for the first prize on each and every one of the leading and commercial varieties grown on the Peninsula. There are also prizes for barrels and plates.

The highest prize for vegetables is for the best collection, $25. There are also liberal prizes for all the leading varieties of vegetables.

The special prizes include $20 worth of nursery stock, given by the Delaware Nurseries, and it will be divided into small prizes for exhibits that are not included in the printed premium list. Four tons of Limoid, given by the Charles Warner Company, of Wilmington, Del., will be awarded for the best exhibit of all box apples. $10 given by Gen. Joseph B. Seth, of Easton, for the best martin house made by a boy, the house to have not less than fourteen compartments, nor more than twenty, judged by its beauty and workmanship.

J. Thomas Gibbons Dead

J. Thomas Gibbons, for many years Baltimore's only sailmaker, died of the infirmities of age at his home, 1811 North Calvert street, at midnight Tuesday. He was 82 years old and had been critically ill about a week.

Mr. Gibbons was born in Princess Anne and went to Baltimore when he was 18 years old. He established his sailmaking business when he was 21 and remained in it until five years ago, when his property near the water front was purchased by the city. He was a director in the National Bank of Baltimore and in the Catonsville National Bank.

Mr. Gibbons married Miss Susan Elder Kanny, of Baltimore, who died four years ago. He is survived by two children, Misses Adeline K. and Sarah Elder Gibbons, and three grandchildren, Charles G. J. Alan and Adeline K. Dunn, children of the late Joseph and Susan T. Dunn.

The funeral was held at 9:30 o'clock Friday morning from St. Ignatius Catholic Church. Burial was in Lorraine Cemetery.

—A new postal convenience has been planned by the postoffice department, and was announced last Wednesday. It is a stampbook containing 24 one-cent and 24 two-cent stamps to sell for 73 cents.

INSANITY ON INCREASE

One Hundred Additional Patients Each Year In Hospital

The increase in insanity in Maryland is becoming alarming. The increase in the cost of living for the unfortunates is rapidly approaching $1,000,000 annually. Twenty years ago the Springfield Asylum at Sykesville was built and equipped. New buildings are erected each year to accommodate patients.

A hospital for the care of the colored insane has been erected and equipped during the past two years at Crownsville, Anne Arundel county.

A hospital for the care of insane of the Eastern Shore will be built within the next few months near Cambridge, on the Eastern Shore.

The increase in the accommodations of the old hospitals and the erection of new ones have been due largely to the taking care of dependent insane of the several counties of the state. These patients were formerly the wards of the several counties.

With these unfortunates housed there is still pressing need of more room for the weak-minded.

"We shall be compelled," said Dr. Percy Wade, superintendent of the Spring Grove Hospital, "to apply to the next legislature for an appropriation of at least $125,000, with which to provide accommodations for additional patients. In Maryland there is one insane person to each 450 population. There are over 3,000 insane persons in this state under treatment, all of whom, of course, are not cared for by the state. There are added to the number cared for by the state about 100 patients each year.

"It costs at least $200 annually for maintenance of each patient. This sum does not include cost of equipment of hospitals, attendance, medical and other services, etc. The additional maintenance cost is, therefore, $20,000 annually. Each patient additional to those now in our state hospitals means a first outlay of $500 for bed, equipment, which means buildings and ground and other essentials. We are now spending over $600,000 annually for maintenance of our dependent insane. This sum does not include cost of additional beds, equipment, service, etc. The maintenance cost alone is increasing at the rate of $20,000 annually. The equipment cost will carry the additional annual cost to about $70,000. It is, therefore, apparent that we are rapidly approaching the time when the annual cost of the dependent insane of Maryland will be $1,000,000.

"There is no prospect that Maryland will show a decrease in insanity. In fact, statistics show an alarming increase all over the country.

"The preliminary report on the insane just issued by Director Durand, of the United States Census, contains the startling information that 60,000 Americans were admitted to the insane asylums of the country in one year."

John H. White Dead

Mr. John H. White, 75 years old, died at his residence in Salisbury last Friday. Mr. White was one of the pioneer bankers of this peninsula, organizing the Salisbury National Bank in 1884, and of which he was appointed cashier, a position which he filled until one year ago, when he was retired as cashier emeritus by the directors. Mr. White was connected with a number of other banks on the Eastern Shore as director and was president of the Savings Bank of Nanticoke. He married a daughter of United States Senator Vickers. He was prominent in church and charity work and was a member of the vestry of St. Peter's P. E. Church, Salisbury. Besides a widow Mr. White leaves the following children, all of whom reside in Salisbury: J. Cleveland White, G. Vickers White, Mrs. W. S. Gordy, Jr., who is the wife of the cashier of the Salisbury National Bank, and Mrs. Samuel R. Douglass.

Clark Speaks In Baltimore

Speaker Clark, of the National House of Representatives, joined in the Maryland political campaign in a speech delivered at a Democratic mass-meeting in Baltimore last Friday night. He discussed party achievements, devoting his speech to the tariff, income tax and currency legislation. He said that Maryland has come to be regarded as a political barometer.

"It is to be hoped that the Senate will agree to the House bill without radical amendment," said Mr. Clark in reference to the Currency bill, "but nobody ever claimed that the House bill is perfect. What we do claim is that it is a vast improvement on the present patchwork system which the country has completely outgrown."

CONVENTION THIS WEEK

Somerset County Sunday Schools To Meet at Antioch Church

A two days' session of the Somerset County Sunday School Convention will be held in Antioch Methodist Episcopal Church, Princess Anne, on Thursday and Friday of this week. The first session will commence on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The program follows:

Devotional Exercises, Rev. Daniel Wilson; Greeting, Rev. J. Howard Gray; Response, Rev. Tighman Smith; An Analysis of the Work, Rev. B. W. Kindley; The Preparation of the Teacher, Rev. J. L. Elderdice; The Teachers' Work in Evangelism, Rev. George F. Newton; discussion, Problems of the Teacher.

SECOND SESSION THURSDAY AT 7 P. M. Song Service, Antioch Choir; Devotional Exercises, Rev. J. R. Cannon; Mutual Responsibility of the Parent to the Sunday School and the Sunday School to the Parent, Rev. W. T. M. Beale; address, Relation of Pastor to the School, Rev. George P. Jones.

THIRD SESSION FRIDAY AT 9:30 A. M. Devotional Exercises, Rev. M. E. Humphreys; The Graded System, Rev. B. W. Kindley; The Psychology of the Child, Rev. F. T. Benson; The Organized Bible Class, Mr. L. Atwood Bennett; Teaching Temperance in the Sunday School, Rev. C. P. Keene.

FOURTH SESSION FRIDAY AT 2 P. M. Devotional Exercises, Report of Committees and Election of Officers, The Ideal Superintendent, Mr. W. H. Dashiell; The Great Text Book, Its Place in the Bible School, Rev. George Morris; Round Table, conducted by Rev. B. W. Kindley; The Ultimate Purpose of the Sunday School, Rev. J. J. Bunting; Closing Thoughts, Rev. E. H. Dashiell.

There will be thirty-four Sunday Schools represented at the convention and sixteen ministers are expected to be in attendance. At the Thursday afternoon session the visitors will be assigned to their homes during their stay in Princess Anne.

Educational Fads Scored

Two years of useful life are lost to every American under existing educational conditions because of the increasing fads and furbelows adopted by the latter day schools and made part of their compulsory curriculum.

This is the finding of a body of eminent educators, headed by President James H. Baker, of the University of Colorado, whose report was issued last week by the United States Bureau of Education.

The educators, who, say the Bureau of officials, spent 10 years investigating cond. ns, would have the elementary education of the young occupy only six years instead of eight. They would have the student pass through high school and college so as to be prepared either to enter the world at the age of 20 or, if desirous of taking up a profession, enable him to be equipped within two or four years later.

Home From Mexico

Dr. R. G. Norfleet, accompanied by his wife and three children, of Colima, Mexico, arrived in Princess Anne last Wednesday, where they are visiting Mrs. Norfleet's mother, Mrs. Roger Woolford, and her aunts, Mrs. Wm. T. G. Polk and Miss Lena B. Woolford.

Dr. Norfleet with his family left Mexico on the 16th of September, political conditions necessitating Americans to remove from that country. Their trip was by sea to San Francisco, thence overland to Maryland. Dr. Norfleet is a dentist and has a fine practice in Colima. He expects to return there as soon as it appears to be practicable. Prior to his settling in Mexico he practiced his profession successfully in Princess Anne.

Snow Covered Three States

October temperature records of 25 years were broken in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma and equaled in Texas, when the thermometer last Wednesday showed readings ranging from 17 degrees above zero at Concordia and Dodge City, Kan., and to 30 degrees at Dallas and Abilene, Texas.

Coming on the heels of snow and sleet storms, driven by a biting wind, the drop in temperature caused great suffering to live stock.

Snow covered all of Kansas and parts of Oklahoma and Missouri. The heaviest fall recorded was 2 1/2 inches at Kansas City.

—No man is so quickly worn out as he who is tired doing nothing.

—The crazy quilt is almost as easily patched up as the lovers' quarrel.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

ARE THE FAVORITE WITH YOUNG MEN OF STYLISH TASTES

COLLEGE MEN LIKE THESE CLOTHES; HIGH SCHOOL MEN PREFER THEM; YOUNG MEN IN BUSINESS APPRECIATE THE FACT THAT SUCH QUALITY AND STYLE ARE TRUE ECONOMY. WHEREVER THE YOUNG SPIRIT IN CLOTHES IS STRONG THERE'S WHERE

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX CLOTHES ARE IN THE LEAD

THERE'S A LOT OF INDIVIDUALITY IN THE WAY THE SHOULDERS ARE SHAPED; THE TROUSERS HAVE NEW DISTINCTIVE LINES; THE WAISTCOATS ARE DIFFERENT. WE WANT YOU TO SEE THE NEW ENGLISH MODELS, THE THREE-BUTTON SOFT FRONT SACK, THEY ARE YOUNG MEN'S CLOTHES; ALSO THE VERY LATEST FASHION IN OVERCOATS. THESE CLOTHES ARE DIFFERENT FROM OTHER CLOTHES AND YET COST NO MORE MONEY

We especially invite the good dressers of your town and community to visit our Big Double Store in Salisbury this Fall. You will be agreeably surprised at our great showing of Fine Clothes. No city store can serve you better

KENNERLY & MITCHELL,

Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx

233-237 Main Street

SALISBURY, MARYLAND

CURIOUS DUELS.

Combats in Which the Weapons Selected Were Avalanches.

An extraordinary duel was fought near Mont Blanc in France. Two young men who had fallen in love with the same girl arranged to fight a duel, with nature as decider of the result. Selecting a part of that mountainous district, many thousand feet up, where avalanches are known to fall at frequent intervals, the lovers agreed to take it in turns to stand for a given time in the most dangerous spot that could be found. The idea was that when one was killed by an avalanche the other should be free to propose to the girl whom they both loved. In this case the idea became a fact.

This is not the only instance on record of a duel by avalanche. A few years ago two Italians, named Guetta and Sorato, decided to test fate in this manner, and also for the love of a woman.

For three mornings they tempted nature, but nothing serious happened. On the fourth day Guetta was knocked down by a falling avalanche, but not much hurt. Then it was that their food supply gave out, and they returned home to get some more. By this time the police had come to hear of their strange duel, and threatened them both with imprisonment. So the undaunted rivals settled their differences in another and less adventurous way. They drew lots for their lady love. Sorato won, and after Guetta had left the village he was married to the girl of his choice.—London Answers.

What puzzled Her.

"I understood the text all right," exclaimed Aunt Ann Peabody after the sermon was over, "but the preacher's explanation of it puzzled me a good deal."—Chicago Tribune.

Young America Getting Wise.

"Procrastination is the thief of time." "Is he the fellow, pa, who takes away the years from a woman's age?"—Boston Herald.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

The Palmetto State.

The origin of the state arms of South Carolina is thus given in the histories: "On June 28, 1776, a force of less than 100 Carolinians, under command of Moultrie, protected by the rude fortification of Sullivan's Island, in Charleston harbor, made of the trunks of the palmetto, repulsed the attack of a British fleet under command of Sir Peter Parker, and when the state of South Carolina was organized the state seal, which was first used in May, 1777, was made to commemorate this victory. A palm tree growing erect on the sea shore represents the strength of the fort, while at its base an oak tree, torn from the ground and deprived of its branches, recalls the British fleet built of oak timber, overcome by the palmetto."

Measuring Him.

Wife—James, do you know that you are a very small man? Husband—How ridiculous! I am nearly six feet in height. Wife—That makes no difference. Whenever I ask you for money to go shopping you are always short.—London Tit-Bits.

Going Too Far.

Reader—He tore his hair and rent the air. Hearer—There you are! We even have to rent the air now. It's time we had a change of government.

Nearly Every Child Has Worms

Paleness, at times a flushed face, unnatural hunger, picking the nose, great thirst, etc., are indications of worms. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a reliable, thorough medicine for the removal of all kinds of worms from children and adults. Kickapoo Worm Killer is in pleasant candy form, and aids digestion, tones the system, overcomes constipation and increasing the action of the liver. Is perfectly safe for even the most delicate children. Kickapoo Worm Killer makes children happy and healthy. 25c. Guaranteed. Try it. Drug stores or by mail. Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

(Advertisement)
PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Natural Color. Prevents hair falling. 50c. and $1.00 at drug stores.

We Have the Largest Stock of MONUMENTS of any concern on the Peninsula.

Head Stones

and all other cemetery memorials, COPING AND FENCES

We can furnish any class of material in Quincy Granite, Barre Granite and Westerly Granite; or any material you desire; also Building Stone. We would be glad to furnish estimates on anything in our class of work. We use Vermont and Italian Marble.

We have the most up-to-date plant on the Shore and the best location—this all helps to give you a reasonable price.

RICHARDSON & LECATES,
Opposite N. Y., P. & N. Depot,
SALISBURY, MARYLAND

The Man With the Brush Knows

it pays to buy the best paint.

B. P. S. PAINT

is made from pure materials, so finely ground it covers from 350 to 400 sq. feet on the average surface—two coats.

25 Per Cent. More than lead and oil or cheap paints.

T. J. Smith & Co.,
PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

AGRICULTURAL

LIME

For Immediate Delivery

MOORE & PENDLETON

FACTORY P. O. Address
Clifton Point Westover, Md.

The Wonderful ALADDIN Lamp

Wonderful because it produces a luxurious, soft, white light, excelled only by sunlight. Burns ordinary kerosene or coal oil, the cheapest of all illuminating fuels.

Burns Less Oil than Any Other Lamp of Equal Candle Power

Aladdin Lamps are most durable in construction—easiest to take care of—simplest in operation. The light is brighter and easier on the eyes than gas or electricity.

Occultists declare the Aladdin Gives The Best Artificial Light Known. Users declare it is not only the best light, but the best Lamp known.

The Aladdin is superior by test and best. There is No Equal. by comparison. It appeals to those who want superlative excellence for its own sake—appeals to those who consider economy a first essential. Clean, simple, safe and clean—The Ideal Lamp for the multitude.

Don't be bamboozled by an imitation. There is only one Aladdin. Insist on having it. The name is on every burner.

Investigation is the keynote of progression. Let us show you Aladdin

THE MANTLE LAMP COMPANY OF AMERICA
CHICAGO PORTLAND, ORE. WATERBURY, CONN. WINNEPEG, CAN. MONTREAL, CAN.
FOR SALE BY
C. W. MARSH, Agent, Champ, Maryland

NOW IS THE TIME To Plant Fall Bulbs

Plant Now

YOU CAN HAVE BEAUTIFUL FLOWERS
TO BRIGHTEN YOUR HOME

At winter, at Christmas time, at Easter time, also on your lawns and in your flower beds at the first opening of Springtime—if you plant now.

Bolgin's Fall Bulbs

are large and true to name. Our 95 years experience in Bulb Selection has placed us in a position of knowing the most reliable source of securing the choicest French and Holland grown Bulbs.

Beautifully Illustrated 30 Page Bulb and Poultry Book Free.

It tells you exactly how to arrange and care for your Fall Bulbs to have the best success, also gives a full line of Poultry Supplies and requisites. If you have not already received a copy send us a postal to-day.

Each	Doz.
Baby Hyacinths.....4c	40c
Bedding Hyacinths.....5c	50c
2nd. Size Hyacinths.....7c	75c
1st. Size Hyacinths.....12c	1.25
Freesia Bulbs.....25c	2.50
Early Tulips Mixed.....3c	30c
May or Cottage Tulips.....4c	40c
Parrot Tulips.....5c	50c
Double Tulips.....6c	60c
Narcissus Single.....7c	70c
Jonquils.....8c	80c
Double Narcissus.....9c	90c
Crocus Mixed.....10c	1.00
Orchids.....15c	1.50
Easter Lilies.....15c	1.50
Chinese Sacred Lilies.....12c	1.20

Our Plant Season
Now In Full Progress

Beautiful Plants, Ferns, Palms and Hardy Evergreens, selling at a price within the reach of all. Watch the Baltimore American and Sun for special sales. If you cannot get Bolgin's Bulbs and Plants through your local dealer, send us a postal and we will tell you where you can get them.

Bolgin's Seed Store
95 Years Established Trade.
BALTIMORE, MD.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset County letters of administration on the personal estate of

WILLIAM H. BOSS,
late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscriber on or before the Third Day of December, 1913, or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 27th day of May, 1913.
Administratrix of William H. Boss, dec'd.
True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER,
6-3 Register of Wills.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset County letters of administration on the estate of

NELSON COLLINS,
late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscribers on or before the

First Day of January, 1914, or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hands this 24th day of June, 1913.
L. WESLEY BEAUCHAMPT and ZELPHY COLLINS,
Admin's of Nelson Collins, deceased.
True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER,
7-1 Register of Wills.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset County letters of administration on the estate of

BENJAMIN RAYMOND WARREN,
late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscriber on or before the Twenty-ninth Day of January, 1914, or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 22d day of July, 1913.
MARY B. WARREN,
Administratrix of Benjamin Raymond Warren, deceased.
True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER,
7-29 Register of Wills.

McCall's Magazine and McCall Patterns For Women

Have More Friends than any other magazine or patterns. McCall's is the reliable Fashion Guide monthly in one million one hundred thousand homes. Besides showing all the latest designs of McCall Patterns, each issue is brimful of sparkling short stories and helpful information for women.

Save Money and Keep in Style by subscribing for McCall's Magazine. Costs only 50 cents a year, including any one of the celebrated McCall Patterns free.

McCall Patterns Lead all others in style, simplicity, economy and number sold. More dealers sell McCall Patterns than any other two makes combined. None higher than 15 cents. Buy from your dealer, or by mail from

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
236-246 W. 37th St., New York City

The Little Four FOR TWO PERSONS

The Car You Want at a Price You
Can Afford to Pay

"The Product of Experience"

Absolutely Well-Built—Easy Riding—So Stylish and Well-Finished that Owners of High-Priced Large Cars are Proud to Use THE "LITTLE FOUR" for their $690.00 Runabout Work

Peninsula Motor Company,
East Church Street Salisbury, Md.
Near N. Y., P. & N. Depot

Will Save You Money on Your Fall Office
and School Supplies

MEYER & THALHEIMER,
The Big Stationery Store,

Baltimore and Howard Streets BALTIMORE, MD.

Blank Books for Every Purpose

Loose Leaf Ledger-Outfits and Devices
Wood and All-Steel Sectional Filing Cabinets
Commercial Stationery, School Supplies

Our Immense Variety and Reasonable Prices
Assure Absolute Satisfaction

Wilmington Conference ACADEMY

A CHRISTIAN SCHOOL FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

COMMERCIAL COURSE

EQUAL WITH THE BEST!
CHEAPER THAN THE CHEAPEST!

Always open for inspection. Comparison with the best schools not feared. Students entered any time

NEW ROOMS NEW FURNITURE
NEW TYPEWRITERS

NEW GYMNASIUM NEW SWIMMING POOL.

ATHLETIC FIELD

Send for Catalogue to
Rev. H. NRY G. BUDD, Principal
DOVER, DELAWARE

The Farm Telephone

Farm life before the days of the telephone was rather a lonely proposition. The Bell telephone has changed things—has made farm life more pleasant, more profitable.

It brings the farmer news of the town and market; it brings the farmer's wife messages of cheer and neighborly good-will; it brings to the young folks social messages from their friends.

Have you a Bell telephone on your farm?

THE CHESAPEAKE AND POTOMAC TELEPHONE COMPANY

H. W. CARTY, Local Manager

Tel. 9000

Salisbury, Md.

HATTLED THE BANDIT.

Curious Experience With a Band of Mexican Cutthroats.

Everybody in Mexico goes about armed. Even the passenger trains on most of the railroads are guarded by detachments of soldiers who ride in special cars, while on every station platform are seen ruffians armed with carbines ready for an emergency. Foreigners have to adapt themselves to the custom of going about armed or else make themselves unfavorably conspicuous in the eyes of the natives. It was a novel experience, however, to see railroad surveyors, when occupied with their peaceful work, armed to the teeth with knives and revolvers. As a matter of fact, arms were rarely required in Mexico as a means of defense. As everywhere else, it is well to remember, however, to keep cool and forget that you are armed in case of a quarrel.

In this connection the principal locating engineer of the road had an experience at which he displayed some nerve. He had to make a reconnaissance of a mountain range called the Sierra Gorda, said to be infested with cutthroats. He was warned to let the district alone, but duty prevailed, and he went. When reaching a rancho near the summit at dawn he and his attendant were met by four men whose law breaking propensities required no further introduction than their faces. They took hold of the party's horses, told the engineer and his attendant to dismount and made no effort to conceal the fact that they were there for business.

The engineer complied smilingly, and, going up to the leader, mystified that individual by asking him to step aside. "I am told that it is unsafe to travel in these mountains," he whispered, "will you not therefore oblige me by taking care of my property and allow us to remain under your roof until morning." With that he handed over his watch, money and other things, and the astonished thief, who was probably for the first time in his life treated to the novelty of being trusted, not only let the engineer have the best in his house, but handed him back his property in the morning and furnished him with two cutthroats to serve as an escort during the rest of his journey.—Max T. Schmidt in Engineering Magazine.

Prematurely Aged.
Conductor—Madam that child looks older than three years. Mother—Yes, indeed he does, conductor. That child has had a lot of trouble.—Everybody's.

Sincerity—a deep, genuine sincerity—is the first characteristic of all men in any way heroic.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Wadsworth

Sore Throat Wisdom.

To relieve Sore Throat you must get at the seat of the disease, removing the cause. Nothing else does that so quickly, safely and surely as TONSILINE. A dose of TONSILINE taken upon the first appearance of Sore Throat may save long days of sickness. Use a little Sore Throat wisdom and buy a bottle of TONSILINE today. You may need it tomorrow. TONSILINE is the standard Sore Throat remedy—best known and most effective and most used. Look for the long necked fellow on the bottle when you go to the drug store to get it. 25c. and 50c. Hospital Size $1.00. All Druggists.

Neuralgia

sufferers find instant relief in Sloan's Liniment. It penetrates to the painful part—soothes and quiets the nerves. No rubbing—merely lay it on.

SLOAN'S LINIMENT Kills Pain

For Neuralgia

"I would not be without your Liniment and praise it to all who suffer with neuralgia or rheumatism or pain of any kind."—Mrs. Henry Bishop, Helena, Missouri.

Pain All Gone

"I suffered with quite a severe neuralgic headache for 4 months without any relief. I used your Liniment for two or three nights and I haven't suffered with my head since."—Mr. J. H. Swinger, Louisville, Ky.

Treatments for Cold and Croup
My little girl, twelve years old, caught a severe cold, and I gave her three drops of Sloan's Liniment on sugar going to bed, and she got up in the morning with no signs of a cold. A little boy next door had croup and I gave the mother the Liniment. She gave him three drops on going to bed, and he got up without the croup in the morning."—Mr. W. H. Strange, Chicago, Ill.

At all Dealers. Price 25c., 50c. and $1.00

Sloan's Book on Horses sent free.

Address

DR. EARL S. SLOAN, Inc., Boston, Mass.

His Start

He Got It by Luck and Assurance

By F. A. MITCHEL

At a meeting of the Booneton Medical society, there not being a quorum, half a dozen doctors sat around chatting. The conversation fell upon the new science of medicine, which practically had its beginning in the investigations of M. Pasteur, and is making great headway in those experiments carried on by scientists who devote themselves to original research. Commenting on the great change scientific research has wrought in the medical profession, Dr. Elderkin, a retired physician, told the following story:

When I started to practice, though it was in the latter half of the nineteenth century, our profession had lagged far behind the progressive spirit of the times. Though we are still woefully ignorant, we know far more than we did then, and when we remember that we had at that time but recently advanced beyond the universal remedy of bloodletting, originally practiced by the barber who shaved our ancestors, we get some idea of the low condition of the science of medicine half a century ago.

Being naturally of a scientific mind, I realized this. Upon finishing my course at the medical college I was surprised that there was so little really known. Indeed, beyond the fact that vaccination will prevent smallpox, I don't remember a single certainty in medicine that I had learned in my college course. What a difference from the present, when we have antitoxins that work with absolute certainty; the X ray, by which to look into the human body, and have proved that diseases are transmitted by the fly and the mosquito!

I settled in this very town and hung out my shingle. Experience was then the doctor's best card. A bald head, a pair of mutton chop gray whiskers, a presence that bespoke wisdom—these were sure to bring success to any practitioner. This impressive person of half a century ago did not know one-tenth as much as the poorest student in a class graduating in a medical school today. But since there was nothing but experience on which to base confidence, the old practitioner had it all his own way, and the young man had no show at all.

I looked like a boy and was treated as a boy, for never did a patient darken my doors. I was socially well received by the young people of town and formed the acquaintance of a number of young girls, who thought me "a nice little fellow" and snickered when they called me doctor, their idea of a physician being the elderly party I have mentioned. One of these young ladies I admired very much and thought that if I could marry her possibly I might inspire some confidence and make a beginning. But she was the daughter of the principal man in the place, John Parkinson, and there was an awful gap between her and a towheaded, blue eyed doctor who didn't look old enough to treat a cat. As to being called in to treat Mr. Parkinson or any member of her family, there was no more chance of that than being struck by lightning.

His family physician, Dr. Swinbourne, in his younger days had bled his patients for every disease, and so wedded was he to the treatment that he still carried a lancet in his medical case. The Parkinsons revered him as a man of great experience and he was supposed to have a wonderful advantage in knowing the constitution of every member of the family, including the last child born, who was but eight months old and sound as a nut. The chance of my supplanting this august person as physician in the household was as remote as being called upon to treat the president of the United States.

But no matter how firm one is settled on any soft spot let him beware of being undermined. His very greatness is liable to give his competitor a chance. Mr. Parkinson was fond of horses and owned some valuable stock. One of his animals was sired by a racer and had cost $3,000. One day this horse was taken sick. Would his owner insult the great Swinbourne by asking him to treat a horse? Never! A veterinary surgeon was called in. It is quite likely that he knew as much about what ailed the horse and how to cure him as the M. D.—he certainly knew as much as I did—but, despite his valuable efforts, the animal grew worse and the veterinary finally gave him up as a candidate for button and glue material.

Mr. Parkinson was one of those persistent men who never say die, and it occurred to him that I might not feel very much insulted at being called in to treat a horse. But he could afford to insult me, though he could not afford to insult his physician. For if any of the family were taken ill and the doctor refused to treat the patient there was likely to be a scene on the door. At any rate, I was called in to have a look at the horse.

Mr. Parkinson had sent the veterinary away and there was no one present at my visit to the patient but myself and his owner. The horse was lying on the stable floor to all appearances dead. My first impulse was—from force of habit—to feel his pulse, but I remembered that I might get nearer his heart than his fetlock, so I put my hand behind his fore leg. There was still a faint beat and I knew he was not yet quite dead.

My ignorance of what was the matter with him and what to do for him was such that I stood doubtless looking as ignorant as I felt. Mr. Parkinson had his eyes on me and turned away with a look of disgust. It was this that nerved me at the turning point of my life.

"Mr. Parkinson," I said, "your horse is dying of digitalis."

I was obliged to choose a word so suddenly that I hit upon the name of a drug and feared my man would know that it was a drug and not a disease.

"Well?" he said somewhat more confidently.

I was tempted to make an excuse to go to the druggist, to get a dose for the brute, but seeing the effect of my first bluff I resolved on another.

"I don't like to leave him," I said.

"Would you mind getting me a messenger? I wish to send for a remedy."

"Not a bit. I'll call Tom. I don't know why he is not here. This is his place, especially at such a time."

He went to the house, a few hundred yards distant. He was absent some time. Not being able to find his man and while he was gone I upset a peck measure used for carrying oats, but now filled with salt. Some of the contents fell on the horse's tongue, which was protruding from his mouth. I noticed that the member quivered. I picked up a little more salt from the floor and dropped it on the tongue. Slowly it was withdrawn into the horse's mouth. Taking up a handful I opened the jaws and thrust it in.

I stood there, or rather knelt, feeding the horse salt till Mr. Parkinson returned. The other had disappeared, doubtless thinking he would be blamed in the matter of the loss of the horse and the master was abusing him to me when he caught sight of the patient licking his chops with his eyes open.

"Certainly,"

"Do you think you can pull him through?"

"I think I can."

"What's that you're giving him?"

"A saline remedy I've found beneficial in such cases."

He didn't ask where I got it, or I would have told him I had it in my medicine case.

Well, it happened that my knocking over the salt had given my patient just what he needed. I don't know even now what his trouble was, but I do know that animals must have salt. At any rate a few handfuls of it effected a change in his condition, and he improved rapidly. I followed up the treatment by giving him water to drink, and it was not long before he stood up on his feet.

"By Jove!" exclaimed Mr. Parkinson. "That was the most marvelous cure I ever met with. I must tell Swinbourne about that. What did you call the disease?"

"Mr. Parkinson," I said, assuming an injured tone, "I have cured your horse, but I object to furnishing medical information to one of these old school doctors. I beg you not to mention the matter to Dr. Swinbourne."

"Why, it might lead him to take an interest in you."

"Not at all. You, as a layman, are not aware of the jealousies existing in our profession. Should you tell Dr. Swinbourne of this cure he would doubtless assert that your horse would have recovered just as well without my treatment as with it."

I shot a glance at him to see how the thrust struck him, expecting that he would deny that Swinbourne was any such man. I was agreeably disappointed.

"You're right, my boy," he said. "Never give away anything you've got unless you've something to gain by it."

Gentlemen, if you ask me what gave me a start in a practice which became for half a century all I could have desired I reply blind luck, followed up with a dose of concentrated gall. Besides, the lesson I learned was of great benefit. I made it a rule the less I knew about a case the more to pretend. And why not? Does a doctor gain anything by losing the confidence of a patient? By no means. On the contrary, the patient loses heart, and that is the worst thing that can happen.

But to finish my story. Mr. Parkinson let it be known that he would have lost his valuable horse had it not been for my skill, and I was installed as physician to the family, to be called upon for slight indispositions, Dr. Swinbourne being summoned to treat troubles of importance. This led to some outside practice, and in time I assumed sufficient boldness to pay attention to Miss Parkinson. By this time I had become known not as the man who had cured a horse, but one who had cured human beings. I finally married Miss Parkinson, but this was not till Swinbourne had retired and I was installed not only in his place, but succeeded to the bulk of his practice. In fact he retired because he found that I was forging ahead of him.

In claiming precedence in what we know now to what we knew then I am sorry to say that in the majority of cases it is still guesswork with us. We try a remedy and if the patient does not respond we try another and another, till either we have tried them all or the patient succumbs or recovers. But we have the satisfaction of knowing that both in America and Europe men are engaged in devoting their entire time to investigation, and every year we know more than we knew the year before.

My wife never knew how accidental was the success that gave me my start till we had been married many years.

MARYLANDER AND HERALD
PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY MORNING AT
PRINCESS ANNE, MD.
Office of Publication—Herald Building
Main Street. PHONE NO. 61.

Subscription Price, $1.00 Per Annum

WILLIAM H. DASHIELL,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

All communications should be addressed to
the MARYLANDER AND HERALD.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 4, 1913.

Democratic Ticket

STATE

For United States Senator:
BLAIR LEE,
of Montgomery County.

For Comptroller:
EMERSON C. HARRINGTON,
of Dorchester County.

For Clerk of the Court of Appeals:
CALEB C. MAGRUDER,
of Prince George's County.

For Clerk of the Circuit Court:
STEPHEN FRANK DASHIELL,
of Princess Anne.

For Sheriff:
ELWOOD STERLING,
of Crisfield.

For County Treasurer:
EDWARD B. LANKFORD,
of Dublin District.

For County Commissioner:
THOMAS J. WEBB,
of Crisfield.

For House of Delegates:
CHARLES A. LOCKERMAN,
of Crisfield;
LYBRAND THOMAS,
of Deal's Island;
JOHN W. WEST,
of Dublin District.

For County Surveyor:
GORDON T. WHELTON,
of Crisfield.

Election Tuesday, November 4th, 1913.

A Final Appeal

Through the campaign just closed we have endeavored to state the issues that divide the two great parties and to warn Democratic voters against improper overtures or misrepresentations. The culmination of the campaign is today's election and that its result may affirm Democratic teaching and approve Democratic control in the State of Maryland and in this county, is our hearty wish.

The appeal now is to every Democrat to go to the polls and vote. A further appeal is that, to avoid the possibility of a lost vote, every Democrat shall fully inform himself before attempting to vote. Many a vote has been lost by too much self-confidence and a failure to appreciate the necessity of getting information. If in doubt, don't hesitate to ask questions and get informed. There have been instances of prominent men in this county who have lost their votes through carelessness or false pride.

A final appeal, omit allusions to the primary election. The candidates have been named. You perhaps helped to name them. As loyal Democrats, vote for every candidate of your party. Let us elect our ticket and be proud, when it is done, of the fact that ours is the party of the people and for the people.

Thanksgiving Day

November again and Thanksgiving Day, that old-time home day of family reunions; and many of our youth and beauty members are rejoicing to have this day at home; this joyful feast day, when the mother takes special pains to prepare the favorite dishes of each member of the family.

We know you are not all satisfied with your work and life, but we are all working to make better and brighter our conditions, and we must learn to say in the philosophy of cheerful Mrs. Wiggle, "Looks like everything in the works comes right, if we just wait long enough."

Now, we know how some of you will turn your eyes away and say, "I would be thankful if I had some of the blessings that have been bestowed upon some one else," but each one of you has something to be thankful for; if not for what you have, then be thankful for something you have missed, and plan to have a real Thanksgiving in your homes; do not draw comparisons with those more fortunately situated than yourself; you do not know the heartaches of these people, but count up your own ripened sheaves and, in the true spirit of Thanksgiving make the day a joyful home day.

A Night of Terror

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by all Dealers.

A Notable Appeal

A tone of real Thanksgiving rings out from the brief and admirable proclamation of President Woodrow Wilson, calling upon the American people to attend at their places of worship and give thanks to the Almighty for the bounties, peace, comforts, tranquility and happy homes and lives we enjoy in this day and generation.

President Wilson says: "We have not only had peace throughout our own borders, and with the nations of the world, but peace has been brightened by constantly multiplying evidences of genuine friendship, of mutual sympathy and understanding, and of the happy operation of many elevating influences both of ideal and of practice."

Then as though the President had before him the nights of gloom over Mexico, the uncertainty over Japan and California, and the consummate financial and commercial ambition of Great Britain; and as though he bore in mind the threats of soup-houses everywhere to feed starving Americans, the President peacefully proclaims: "The nation has been prosperous not only, but has proved its capacity to take calm council amidst the rapid movements of affairs and deal with its own life in a spirit of candor, righteousness and comity. We have seen the practical completion of a great work at the isthmus of Panama, which not only exemplifies the nation's abundant resources to accomplish what it will, and the distinguished skill and capacity of its public servants, but also promises the beginning of a new age, of new contracts, new neighborhoods, new sympathies, new bonds, and new achievements of co-operation and peace."

"Righteousness exalted a nation and 'peace on earth, good will toward men' furnish the only foundations upon which can be built the lasting achievements of the human spirit."

Even if men are so dull as to pay no attention to the appeal to go to church the proclamation itself will do men good, for it reads like scripture.—Delaware State News.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, ss.
Lucas County,

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure. FRANK J. CHENEY.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D., 1886. A. W. GLEASON, (Seal) Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by all druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

(Advertisement)

STATEMENT

Receipts and Disbursements

Board of School Commissioners

for Somerset County

Public School Purposes

For the Year Ending July 31st, 1913.

RECEIPTS
State School Tax	$29,780.78
State Free School Fund	1,419.01
State Donations and Academic Fund	1,000.00
County School Tax 84% cents on the $100	25,500.00
Amount of levy	$27,000.00
Fines and laboratory fixtures	1.04
Licenses (white)	2,791.85
Licenses (colored)	349.40
Sale of old buildings	616.00
Cash, returned by Crisfield Hardware Company	2.51
Sale of Manual Training Supplies	24.25
High School appropriation	2,800.00
Cash paid for commercial tuition	50.00
Sale of blackboard	1.10
Diplomas	25.00
Proceeds of note in bank	6,444.94
	2,493.21
	$73,274.69

DISBURSEMENTS

Amount refunded Free School Book Fund	$ 111.29
Amount of donations for Marion High School refunded	250.00
Refrigerator	185.58
Fuel	3,329.40
Repairs	602.65
Apparatus and Furniture	1,001.97
Teachers' Salaries	45,099.02
New Buildings	2,190.55
Sanitary Costs	473.34
Kindergarten and Manual Training	78.16
Office expenses	206.09
Salary of Secretary, Treasurer and County Superintendent	1,200.00
Salary of School Commissioners	300.00
Salary of Clerk	325.00
Tuition fees paid to adjoining counties	12.00
Commeimement Exercises	35.50
Discount and Interest	355.58
Loans	15,000.00
Printing	67.60
Advertising	84.25
Insurance	76.92
Expenses of Institute	217.30
Expense of State and County Assoc.	45.67
School Libraries	39.00
Attorneys and Clerk's Fees	65.85
School Supplies	125.84
Balance cash hand July 31, 1913	1,901.88
	$78,274.69

Free School Book Fund Statement

RECEIPTS
Balance on hand July 31, 1912	$ 163.46
Amount of appropriation for the year 1912-1913	8,401.46
Amount of Sales	175.18
Amount of fines for loss or destruction of books	4.75
Amount from Williams Wilkins Co.	4.00
	$9,748.85

DISBURSEMENTS

Amount expended for books	$ 8,126.13
Cost of distribution	249.19
Typos, labels, etc.	19.50
Balance July 31, 1913	154.03
	$9,748.85

W. H. DASHIELL, Treasurer.

The New Land

The discovery of new land, even in the uninhabitable Arctic, is always an event of stirring human interest. The announcement from St. Michael's, Alaska, to the effect that an exploration expedition sent out by the Russian government has located a great land area to the northward of Siberia, puts world curiosity at high tension for fuller details. The Stefansson expedition, outfitted by the Canadian government, started last July upon this same quest. Many geographers have for long held to the theory that there is a land area about equivalent to Greenland and on the opposite side of the pole from Greenland.

Greenland is of almost continental proportions, having an area of 827,300 square miles. If another such great island exists in the Arctic Ocean it will be revealed that great land areas crop above the waters at each of the earth's axial ends. Until further disclosures are made concerning the newest land discovery, it is all a matter of guessing concerning the topography and as to whether there may be any remnants of life, animal or vegetable.

If Greenland furnishes a clue for making a guess concerning conditions in the newly discovered Arctic island we have this to go upon—Greenland in 1911 had a population of 12,968, of which 300 were Europeans and the other Eskimos. There are about sixty settlements scattered along the west and southeast coasts which live by trading seal skins, furs and fishery products for breadstuffs, fuel and clothing. The newly discovered land may have some surprises in ethnology, zoology and mineralogy.—Baltimore American.

Saved His Foot

H. D. Ely, of Bantam, O., suffered from a horrible ulcer on his foot for four years. A doctor advised amputation, but he refused and reluctantly tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve as a last resort. He then wrote: "I used your salve and my foot was soon completely cured." Best remedy for burns, cuts, bruises and eczema. Get a box today. Only 25c. All druggists, or by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

(Advertisement)

FIRE INSURANCE LOSS PAID

The Home Insurance Company,

New York,

Has with its usual promptness adjusted and paid loss to Evergreen Ingersoll, on Revelle Hayman's farm, Somerset county, Md. Loss occurred October 1st, and Mr. Ingersoll has received draft in settlement without discount.

When you get "HOME" policies you get prompt service.

NO ASSIGNMENT to be paid when you insure in this company.

FIRE AND WINDSTORM

INSURANCE

ASK for "HOME" Policies

ROBERT F. DUER, Agent,

10-29 PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION

PEOPLES BANK OF SOMERSET COUNTY,

AT PRINCESS ANNE,

In the State of Maryland, at the close of business, October 21st, 1913.

RESOURCES
Loans and discounts	$191,608.91
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured	656.04
Stocks, bonds, securities, etc.	9,518.75
Banking-house, furniture, and fixtures	12,000.00
Mortgages and judgments of record	25,288.00
Due from National, State and Private Banks and Bankers and Trust Companies other than reserve	361.49
Checks and other cash items	263.80
Due from approved Reserve Agents	11,558.82
Lawful Money Reserve in Bank, viz:
U. S. Currency and National Bank Notes	$ 5,983.50
Gold Coins	1,432.50
Silver Coins	1,677.50
Nickels and Cents	235.75
	9,375.75
Total	$269,805.96

LIABILITIES

Capital stock paid in	$ 25,000.00
Surplus fund	20,000.00
Undivided profits, less expenses, interest and taxes paid	3,392.79
Due to National, State and Private Banks and Bankers and Trust Companies other than reserve	12,536.84
Interest Reserved	5,000.00
Deposits (demand) subject to check	$189,947.01
Cashier's Checks outstanding	1,000.00
Deposits (time) Savings and Special	270.50
Bills payable including certified checks of deposit for money borrowed	10,000.00
Total	$269,805.96

State of Maryland, County of Somerset, ss: I, John E. Holland, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

JOHN E. HOLLAND, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 30th day of October, 1913.

MARK L. OOSTEN, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest: JOHN B. FLEMING, HAMPTON P. DASHIELL, ROBT. F. DUER, Directors.

Notice To Creditors

Perry X. Heatwole et al. vs. Chas. F. Filer. In the Circuit Court for Somerset County, No 2770, Chancery.

The undersigned, receiver in the above cause named, pursuant to an order of the Circuit Court for Somerset County, passed on the 30th day of October, 1913, hereby gives notice to all persons having claims against the late partnership firm of Perry X. Heatwole and others, engaged in business under the name of Vessey Rental Company, to file their claims, properly authenticated, with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset County, Maryland, on or before the 10th day of March, 1914.

GEORGE M. UPSHUR, Receiver.

Patent Medicine "Jags"

Recently Dr. Carl Alsberg, chief of the Bureau of Chemistry of the Agricultural Department, selected at random 150 samples of patent medicines for tests to discover the proportions of alcohol contained in them. Of these selections, 43 showed no alcohol; 37 contained less than 10 per cent. of alcohol; 29 from 10 to 20 per cent.; eight from 40 to 50 per cent. and 11 more than 50 per cent.

Some of these patent medicines, having a greater proportion of alcohol than whiskey generally contains, are more effective "jag producers" than whiskey.

These results show how easy it is for those who profess to be opposed to all indulgence in alcoholic liquors to gratify themselves secretly under the guise of taking medicine.—Wilmington Evening.

Cause of Insomnia

The most common cause of insomnia is disorders of the stomach and constipation. Chamberlain's Tablets correct these disorders and enable you to sleep. For sale by all Dealers.

(Advertisement)

REPORT OF THE CONDITION

THE DEAL'S ISLAND BANK,

AT DEAL'S ISLAND,

In the State of Maryland, at the close of business on October 21st, 1913.

RESOURCES
Loans and Discounts	$ 27,450.35
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured	40.79
Banking House Furniture and fixtures	3,530.00
Mortgages and Judgments of record	2,455.00
Checks and other cash items	111.93
Due from approved Reserve Agents	1,407.61
Lawful Money Reserve in Bank, viz:
U. S. Currency and National Bank Notes	$8,234.00
Gold Coins	500.00
Silver Coins	847.15
Nickels and Cents	347.53
	4,928.68
Total	$39,974.36

LIABILITIES

Capital stock paid in	$ 5,000.00
Surplus Fund	1,500.00
Undivided profits, less expenses, interest and taxes paid	280.19
Due to National, State and Private Banks and Bankers and Trust Companies other than reserve	1,359.38
Deposits (demand)	4,498.89
Subject to check	$27,325.63
Cashier's checks outstanding	140.29
Total	$39,974.36

State of Maryland, County of Somerset, ss: I, Arthur Andrews, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

ARTHUR ANDREWS, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 27th day of October, 1913.

SAMUEL H. SUDLER, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest: WM. B. SPIVA, H. FILLMORE LANKFORD, JOSHUA W. MILES, Directors.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION

BANK OF SOMERSET,

AT PRINCESS ANNE,

In the State of Maryland, at the close of business, October 21st, 1913.

RESOURCES
Loans and discounts	$543,394.17
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured	26.04
Stocks, bonds, securities, etc.	86,765.00
Banking-house, furniture, and fixtures	12,500.00
Mortgages and judgments of record	135,342.17
Due from National, State and Private Banks and Bankers and Trust Companies other than reserve	9,113.94
Checks and other cash items	52.63
Due from approved Reserve Agents	39,728.86
Lawful Money Reserve in Bank, viz:
U. S. Currency and National Bank Notes	$10,412.00
Gold Coins	522.50
Silver Coins	2,345.00
Nickels and Cents	235.32
	13,405.82
Total	$840,880.83

LIABILITIES

Capital stock paid in	$ 50,000.00
Surplus fund	75,000.00
Undivided profits, less expenses, interest and taxes paid	30,987.38
Due to National, State and Private Banks and Bankers and Trust Companies other than reserve	12,536.84
Interest Reserved	5,000.00
Deposits (demand) subject to check	$189,947.01
Cashier's Checks outstanding	1,000.00
Deposits (time) Savings and Special	270.50
Bills payable including certified checks of deposit for money borrowed	10,000.00
Total	$840,880.83

State of Maryland, County of Somerset, ss: I, William B. Spiva, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

WILLIAM B. SPIVA, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 28th day of October, 1913.

SAMUEL H. SUDLER, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest: H. FILLMORE LANKFORD, JOSHUA W. MILES, S. FRANK DASHIELL, Directors.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

It is hereby given that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset county letters of administration on the estate of SARAH F. BELL, (otherwise known as Sarah J. Bell) late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers thereof, to the subscriber on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of April, 1914, or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 22nd day of October, 1913.

JOSEPH W. MAINSTER, Adm'r of Sarah F. Bell (otherwise known as Sarah J. Bell), deceased.

True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER, Register of Wills.

THE HOUSE OF FASHION

Always to Please YOU

That's our constant aim and ambition
—Goods that please—Prices that please —Service that please and Adjustment of all complaints in a way to please.

Tailored Suits and Coats

While there are any number of styles in suits now being shown for winter, main interest centers in the "La Vogue" Suits.

Beautifully tailored from the most favored of the new season's fabrics—each one appeals to you in a different way. GET YOUR NEW COAT NOW. The assortment is large—the styles elegant—the prices low.

...We Guarantee Satisfaction...

MATERIALS FOR EVENING DRESSES

Dainty, filmy chiffons, crepes, crepe meteors, charmeuse in all the delicate shades.

NEW PLAIDS FOR TAILORED WAISTS

Furs

If you know Furs, a glance will suffice to tell you of the remarkable values offered.

If you don't—our name and reputation guarantees you beyond question.

IN JUSTICE TO YOUR OWN INTEREST YOU SHOULD COME AND SEE THE REALLY REMARKABLE VALUES WE ARE OFFERING IN APPAREL YOU'LL NEED FOR WINTER WEAR

T. F. HARGIS

DEPARTMENT STORE,

Pocomoke City, Maryland

*****

DIAMONDS ON THE ONLY TERMS WORTH WHILE

Buy a Diamond here at a low cash price—wear it—make comparisons. Then your money back if you want it. That protects you whether you pay $10, $25, $100, $250, $500.

Come to Baltimore and see our wonderful display of Diamonds. Or, write Mr. Crooks, and he will send you an assortment to select from.

C. C. CROOKS CO.

114 W. BALTIMORE ST., BALTIMORE.

Assignee's Sale

OF VALUABLE

Mortgaged Real Estate

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a mortgage from James S. MacKay and Amanda E. MacKay, his wife, to George H. Landon, dated 2nd of August, 1910, and recorded among the Land Records of said Somerset County, Maryland, in Liber S. F. D. No. 56, folios 96 et seq., the said mortgage having been duly assigned to the undersigned, and default having been made by the mortgagors in the payment and covenants of said mortgage, the undersigned assignee will sell at public auction, in front of the Court House door, in Princess Anne, Maryland, on

Tuesday, Nov. 18th, 1913,

at about the hour of

Notices of Marriages and Deaths will be published free—but Obituaries must be paid for at the rate of five cents per line.

Business Pointers

For (10) cents a line for the first insertion and five (5) thereafter.

100 HOGS WANTED—Apply to WEBB & CO., Crisfield, Md.

E. S. PUSEY, Blacksmithing and full line of Machinery, Princess Anne.

WANTED—A four or five room house for one year. H. D. YATES.

FOR SALE—Odd Mule and Two Fresh Cows. Wm. T. LAYFIELD, Princess Anne, Route 1.

Comfort and economy make happy homes. You get both by using Cole's Hot Blast Heaters.

FOR SALE—A well-built buggy, in excellent condition. Price reasonable. L. CATLIN, Beverly Farm, King's Creek.

HAY FOR SALE—Baled Timothy and Timothy and Clover mixed. Farm wharf on the Manokin River, 2 1/2 miles below Princess Anne. CHARLES C. GELDER.

Persons desiring to buy farm land in Somerset county will find it to their interest to consult the undersigned who has for sale some good farms that can be bought cheap. LEWIS H. HALL, Surveyor of Somerset County.

AUTOMOBILE ANNOUNCEMENT.—The new 1914 Overland is a powerful, handsome, luxurious riding car, 35 h. p., 114 inch wheel base, 4 inch tires, electric lights, completely equipped for $950.00; with Gray & Davis' electric starter, $1075. Mr. Business Man, use good judgment in buying a car the same as you do anything else. Buy the Overland and save several hundred dollars. Write or phone L. S. Nock, Salisbury and Crisfield.

The date on the label of your paper shows the time to which your subscription is paid. Please look at it.

Local and Miscellaneous

—It's an ill wind that blows nobody good, not even the doctor.

—Mr. W. O. Lankford spent several days last week in New York City.

—The Civic Club will meet at the Washington Hotel Thursday afternoon, November 6th, at 4 o'clock.

—A sunflower in the garden of Mrs. Joseph Conner, near Marion, attained the unusual height of 13 feet.

—Miss Doris Maslin, of Winston-Salem, N. C., is visiting Mrs. Frank T. Smith, on Main street.

—Mrs. J. Wesley Butler, of Westover, left Friday to visit relatives at Princess Anne, Newark and Berlin.

—Mrs. Charles Smith, of Franktown, Va., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. P. Dashiell, on Prince William street.

—The Shoreland Club was entertained last Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Charles W. Fitzgerald, at "Linden Hill."

—The Fall Term of the white schools of this county will close next Tuesday, November 11th. That of the colored schools will close on Friday, December 13th.

—Miss Sallie Ross returned home from Annapolis and Baltimore last Saturday, after a visit of several weeks, accompanied by her nephew, Master Norman Ross.

—Mr. James Sterling, of Princess Anne, who is a student at Washington College, Chestertown, Md., writes to friends here that he is enjoying his college term very much.

—The friends of Mrs. Addie E. Bond, clerk of the School Board, will be glad to know that she is now convalescing from her long illness of typhoid fever at her home at Monie. Mrs. Bond has been ill for seven weeks.

—Last Friday night being Halloween the streets of Princess Anne were thronged with the young folks in grotesque costumes. They all had a night of enjoyment with the usual pranks of removing signs and gates.

—Mrs. Robert F. Brattan, of this town, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Cecelia Hoie Brattan, to Mr. Charles C. Gelder, also of Princess Anne. The wedding will take place late in November.

—During the early hours of Saturday morning the store of Mr. B. H. Dougherty, on Main street, was broken into and the cash register robbed of over ten dollars. The thieves also took a number of cigars and cigarettes and a lot of tobacco. The parties made their entrance into the building through a side window.

—Mr. Thomas B. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. B. Taylor, of Salisbury, and Miss Minnie E. Heath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Heath, of Princess Anne, were married last Wednesday night at the Methodist Parsonage, Salisbury, by Rev. J. Franklin Carey. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will reside in Salisbury.

—Mr. Thomas S. Forsyth, who has been employed on the MARYLANDER AND HERALD for several weeks, left yesterday afternoon for Rock Hill, S. C., where he will be the city editor of the Evening Herald of that city. Before coming to Princess Anne he had been editor of the Evening Journal, Fredericksburg, Va. Previous to this he had been editorial writer and court reporter of the Evening Herald, North Adams, Mass., and had also been desk man on the Boston (Mass.) Morning Journal.

—Strange that it seems so much easier to find fault than to find praise.

—Miss Etta Heath is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas B. Taylor, at Salisbury.

—Some people fall in love at first sight and others are gifted with second sight.

—Second thoughts are best, but that is seldom what influences a woman to change her mind.

—There are 144 cases marked for trial at the November term of the Circuit Court for Talbot county.

—Miss Marion Stanford left on Thursday last for a visit to Miss Shirley Dashiell, at Cambridge, Md.

—Mr. Leroy C. Butler, of Princess Anne, spent the last part of last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Butler, at Westover.

—Mr. Charles Vandling, of West Virginia, arrived in Princess Anne, last Tuesday, to help his father, Mr. L. S. Vandling, in the construction of the new concrete bridge across the Manokin river.

—Rehearsals for the minstrel show, that is to be given at the Auditorium this month, by some of the best talent among our local young gentlemen, are being held. And the performance is sure to merit the approval of the audience. It will sure be a "Circus Day."

—The students of the Princess Anne High School are contemplating the publication of a school paper twice a month. If the idea comes to fruition it will be a good movement and keep the local High School in line with other schools that are successfully carrying out the same project.

—The Oak Hill Farm Theatre Company gave a very creditable performance at the Auditorium on Wednesday night. Each member of the company well-acted his or her part. As the regular musical director has left the company for New York, Mr. Thomas S. Forsyth filled the position without a rehearsal with the company.

—The weather conditions during October, according to the report of Mr. James R. Stewart, Co-operative Observer, were as follows: Maximum temperature 79 degrees, on the 7th; minimum temperature 28 degrees, on the 22d; number of clear days 9, cloudy days 13, partly cloudy 9. Light frosts on the 14th and 15th, killing frosts on the 22d and 23d. Thunder storms on the 1st and 2d. High tide on the 20th. Prevailing wind northwest.

—The semi-annual meeting of the Associated Banks of Somerset, Worcester and Wicomico Counties was held at Snow Hill, Wednesday, and was largely attended. A banquet was served at the Purnell Hotel after the business meeting. The election of officers resulted in the choice of Samuel Graham, Salisbury, president; George M. Upshur, vice-president, Snow Hill; E. C. Fulton, Salisbury, secretary; Edward H. Taylor, Stockton, treasurer, and an executive committee consisting of William L. Holloway, Berlin; Robert F. Duer, Princess Anne; W. S. Gordy, Salisbury.

St. Peter's

Nov. 1.—Mrs. Addie E. Bond, who has been ill with typhoid fever the past seven weeks, is now convalescing.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hall and children, of Seaford, Del., are visiting relatives in this district.

Mr. Jacob Wootten, who attended the funeral of his cousin, Mrs. George Noble, returned to Laurel, Del., Monday.

Miss Thelma Smith, a student of St. Mary's Seminary, owing to ill health, has returned home for a few weeks' stay.

Miss Mattie Lawson, who spent the summer months with her father, Mr. John Lawson, returned to Baltimore a few days ago.

Messrs. James and Denwood Noble, of New York, attended the funeral of their sister-in-law, Mrs. George Noble, Saturday last.

Master Delmas Shores, the little six-year-old son of Mr. W. T. Shores, who has been very ill with typhoid fever is slowly improving.

Mrs. T. L. Barnette and daughter, Mildred, of Princess Anne, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Cannon.

I took it Good Naturedly. Four-year-old Tom was expressing his sorrow and anger at the act of a neighbor who had drowned four "beautiful little kittens." "He might have given them to me," said the boy. "Never mind, Tom," said grandfather; "we have lovely kittens of our own. We have a nice little boy kitten."

"That's me," said Tom proudly. "And a lovely little girl kitten."

"That's sister Ella," said Tom, pointing his spoon at his sister.

"And the dearest old cat in California."

"That's grandma," said the youth exultantly.

Grandma glowered for a second or two, and then she burst out laughing. —Los Angeles Times.

Sad Awakening

"I shall never marry," said the young man with a pointed beard.

"Because you are an artist?"

"Yes, I painted a picture of the girl to whom I was engaged. She said that if that was the way I thought she looked it was better for us to part." —Washington Star.

Intervention May Be Near

That the President will demand the elimination of Huerta and his followers, under penalty of intervention by the United States in Mexico, is the rumor in Washington, writes the correspondent of the New York World. Activities in army and navy circles are said to indicate this.

"Despite efforts to secrecy, it has become known," he says, "that both the army and navy stand ready to proceed against Mexico, should there be any occasion for it. Transportation for troops has been arranged with railroad and steamship companies, if needed, and in the last three days orders have gone forth from the office of the chief of the Quartermaster's Corps to have trains and vessels ready."

"The officers in command of the army transports at Galveston have been ordered to stock up with provisions and coal. Rear-Admiral Fletcher, commanding the American warships at Vera Cruz, has reported to the General Board of the Navy that he could take Vera Cruz in six hours, land marines and control the railroads between Vera Cruz and Mexico City."

"Communication is maintained with the main portion of the Atlantic fleet, which is en route to the Mediterranean. The operator of the navy's big wireless station at Radio, Va., has received instructions not to let the fleet get out of reach of wireless. The fleet is steaming slowly, according to reports received at the Navy Department."

Nearly Every Child Has Worms

Paleness, at times a flushed face, unnatural hunger, picking the nose, great thirst, etc., are indications of worms. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a reliable, thorough medicine for the removal of all kinds of worms from children and adults. Kickapoo Worm Killer is in pleasant candy form, and aids digestion, tones the system, overcomes constipation and increasing the action of the liver. Is perfectly safe for even the most delicate children. Kickapoo Worm Killer makes children happy and healthy. 25c. Guaranteed. Try it. Drug stores or by mail. Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

(Advertisement)

ELTON H. ROSS, THE BARBER,

Sanitary Shop—Three Chairs—Clean Towels—Hot and Cold Water.

PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

Slab Wood For Sale

Pine, Gum and Oak Slab Wood, stove lengths, delivered in Princess Anne, $3.50 per measured cord. Address BENJAMIN & GRAHAM CO.

10-28 Salisbury, Md.

Bridge Closed

During the construction of the concrete bridge over the Manokin river, the old Red Bridge will be closed to traffic. All persons are hereby warned not to trespass thereon.

By order of the BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Dr. C. W. PURNELL, OPTOMETRIST.

of Cambridge, will be at O. A. Jones' Drug Store on Monday afternoon Dec. 1st, 1913.

Glasses prescribed and furnished when necessary.

GORDON T. WHELTON County Surveyor

Crisfield, Maryland

At Princess Anne Every Tuesday OFFICE IN COURT HOUSE (Formerly used by Tax-Collectors)

KUKLUX

KUKLUX, the 3-year-old JACK, will stand at my farm—"Brownstone"—during the ensuing year. Terms, $12.00.

6-10 E. FRANK JONES.

European Restaurant

Meals at all Hours

When you want a lunch don't fail to stop in. Oysters in every style—raw, steamed or fried. Families supplied by the quart or gallon.

RAYMOND MARRINER, Prop.

Public Sale

OF A CARLOAD OF

Horses and Mules

At Pocomoke City

The undersigned will sell at the Fair Grounds in Pocomoke City, Maryland, on Saturday, November 8, 1913, beginning at the hour of 1.30 o'clock, p. m., a carload of choice Horses and Mules. We have 20 Mules, ranging from 6 to 6 years old and weighing from 800 to 1100 pounds. All of them well mated. The 5 and 6 year-olds are broken and ready for immediate use. Also 6 nice blocky mares, weighing from 1000 to 1100 pounds. Three nice Driving Horses, 1000 pounds each. One 5-year-old Pony, 900 pounds, broke for children to ride and drive. They will go to the highest and best bidder and will be sold rain or shine.

TERMS OF SALE:—Four months bankable note with approved security, or cash at option of the purchaser.

SPARKS BROS. MULE CO.,

S. J. TWILLEY, Manager.

STRENGTH OF A LIMPET.

Its Sticking Power Largely Due to Atmospheric Pressure.

Every one is familiar with the saying "to stick like a limpet," but there are not so many who know how it is that a limpet is able to stick as it does to the rocks upon which it passes its existence. The creature is able by means of the central portion of its body, which can be raised independently of the edge or fringe which surrounds it, to create a vacuum much in the same way that a piece of soft wet leather can be made to adhere to a smooth surface by pressing out all the air. Thus the so called "strength" of the limpet is largely due to atmospheric pressure.

It is not entirely so, however, for if they are closely examined it will be seen that the shells accommodate themselves around the edges to the surface of the rock upon which the limpet is located, and if removed to another spot the edge of the shell will probably be found to be a very bad fit and the creature's power of adhesion somewhat lessened. If taken by surprise with a smart sidelong blow even a large limpet is easily enough dislodged, but if it is given the slightest warning its power of suction is instantly brought into play and very often considerable force is then necessary before it can be detached.—London Standard.

Tonight

Tonight, if you feel dull and stupid, or bilious and constipated, take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you will feel all right tomorrow. For sale by all Dealers.

(Advertisement)

Public Sale

Having decided to discontinue farming I will sell at public sale, on the premises where I now reside, on the State road between Kingston and Westover, on

Tuesday, November 18, 1913,

beginning at 10 o'clock a. m., the following personality, viz: Black horse, 7 years old; bay mare, 12 years old; good milch cow, 100 bushels of corn, 10 stacks of fodder, 1 stack of hay, 2 tons of clover hay, 50 bushels of turnips, buggy, spring wagon, horse cart, roller, drag and other farming implements; also cook stove, butter churn and other household articles.

Terms of Sale.—On all sums of $10 and under the cash will be required, over that amount a credit of 4 months will be given on bankable note with approved security.

W. COULBOURNE WILSON.

FOR YOUR TEETH

"BESCO"

(ALKALINE)

TOOTH POWDER

The most elegant preparation ever introduced for cleansing, beautifying and preserving the teeth. Prevents the deposit of tartar—the teeth's worst enemy.

The daily use of "BESCO" makes the teeth pearly and white. * * * Guaranteed to contain nothing injurious to the teeth or gums.

A liberal bottle for 25 cents.

If not satisfied after a trial of "BESCO" your money back if you want it.

OMAR A. JONES, DRUGGIST.

Princess Anne, Maryland

ELECTION NOTICE

To the Judges of Election and Voters of Somerset County

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO the Judges of Election and Voters of Somerset county, Maryland, in accordance with the requirements of law and the writ of Special Election, issued by His Excellency, Phillips Lee Goldsborough, Governor of Maryland, that an election will be held in Somerset county on the same being the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November next, for the purpose of electing an United States Senator from Maryland, Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Maryland and Comptroller of the Treasury of Maryland, and Clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset County, County Treasurer, Sheriff, County Commissioner, County Surveyor and Members of the House of Delegates.

Tuesday, November 4th, 1913,

The polls of said election will be opened in each and every Election District and Precinct of said county at 8 o'clock a. m., and will be closed at 6 o'clock p. m., when the ballots will be publicly counted at the usual places for holding elections, except that on Smith's Island the place of voting and counting shall be in the vacant storehouse owned by Caleb W. Evans.

The Judges of the several Election Districts and Precincts are required to make their returns on Thursday, November 6th, next, before 12 o'clock noon.

By order of

WILLIAM E. WARD, STRAUGHEN WILLIAMS, GEORGE H. MYERS, Board of Election Supervisors of Somerset County, and HARDING P. TULL, Sheriff of Somerset County.

R. MARK WHITE. 10-21

Clerk of Board of Supervisors.

Lankford's Department Store

New Fall and Winter Suits and Coats

For Ladies and Children
LANKFORD

THE HOME FURNISHER
Princess Anne, --- Maryland

Call and See My Full Line of
Ranges, Cook Stoves, Heaters

"Tip-Top" Hot Blast Stoves
Also "WILSON" HEATERS
PRICES TO SUIT THE PURCHASER
QUALITY OF STOVES THE BEST

E. S. PUSEY
Main Street—North of Washington Hotel
PRINCESS ANNE, MARYLAND

If You are Going to BUILD or REPAIR
IT WILL PAY YOU TO SEE US BEFORE BUYING

Our stock of Lumber is complete. Now is the time to repair that roof—we have the following shingles to offer you:

4x24 Cedar Shingles $ 5.75 per M

6x18 " " 8.00 per M

6x20 " " 8.50 per M

6x20 No. 1 Florida Hearts 12.50 per M

6x20 No. 2 " 10.00 per M

6x20 No. 1 " Saps 10.00 per M

6x18 No. 1 " Hearts 10.50 per M

6x18 " " Primes 9.00 per M

Princess Anne Milling Co., PRINCESS ANNE, MARYLAND

The Big Store

SUITS WE HAVE THEM

COATS

Yes: In all prices. You will be delighted with the showing.

DRESS GOODS

Well: You will not have to look anywhere else, it is here. A showing we feel proud of.

FURS

Now, this is our hobby. Just come and look them over.

INFANT WEAR

Beautiful Cashmere Coats, all ages. Caps and Leggings.

GLOVES

Sure: From the 16 Button to the short $1.00, and every pair guaranteed.

NOTIONS

Everything for everybody.

FURNITURE

It is here from the cheapest to the best. A new arrival this week

RUGS

My! Beautiful designs, from $7.50 to $50.00

BLANKETS

You should see our line.

LACE CURTAINS

A strong collection. When you call be sure and see this department.

WALL PAPER

Do not buy the cheap shoddy kind, let us show you the new things—you will be delighted.

TOILET SETS AND LAMPS

In all prices.

MILLINERY

Have you seen our showing? If not you will be sorry. It is beautiful. Do not fail to visit this department.

W. S. DICKINSON & SON

POCOMOKE CITY, MARYLAND

A STATEMENT OF FACTS

A Record of Honesty and Efficiency of Democratic Rule

Remember, voter, the splendid record your Democratic officials have made in Somerset county in the last eleven years, when you go to the polls on Tuesday, Nov. 4. Recall the facts and have your neighbors bear them in mind.

Here are some of the things accomplished within your own knowledge:

First—Appropriations for public schools have been increased from an annual levy of $6,000.00 in 1901, to a levy of $22,000.00 in 1913.

Second—A new public highway has been constructed leading from Princess Anne to Fairmount, through Stewart's and Revell's Neck, extending through a large part of the richest section of the county at a cost of only $2,000.

Third—A new jail, the best equipped of any jail in this Judicial Circuit, has been erected at a cost of $8,200.00.

Fourth—A new Court House has been erected and furnished with improved equipment and furniture at a cost of $35,000.00. Experts say that this property could not be rebuilt now for less than $40,000.00. Bonds are outstanding for only $30,000.00 of the indebtedness created by the erection of this handsome building.

Fifth—A new brick High School building has been erected at Crisfield at a cost of over $25,000.00. Bonds to the amount of $25,000.00 are outstanding for this improvement.

Sixth—A new High School has been erected at Marlton at a cost of $6,000.00. There is no indebtedness outstanding for this improvement.

Seventh—A levy of $2,800.00 has been made, collected, and paid over as required by the Shoemaker Road Law to assist land owners to construct one mile of new stone road near Pocomoke City.

Eighth—Fifty miles of new shell road has been built in the county in the last six years at an average cost per mile of about $1,200.00.

Nine—Between five and six hundred terracotta pipe culverts have been laid throughout the county to replace old wooden bridges at a total cost of about $5,000.00.

Ten—$2,300.00 has been spent for a concrete bridge at Jenkins Creek, and large corrugated iron culverts.

Eleventh—The real and personal property of Somerset County was reassessed by the Board of County Commissioners of Somerset County in 1908 and 1909 at a total cost to the people of Somerset County of less than $4,000.00. The area of Wicomico County is smaller than that of Somerset County, but the total cost of reassessing property in Wicomico County in 1910 was over $8,000.00.

Twelfth—The old tax collectors' system has been abolished and the up-to-date Treasurer's system established in its place, for the collection of taxes at a saving of $400.00 annually to the county, and the public revenues are more promptly collected than ever before in the history of the county.

Thirteenth—During a period covering the last six years, out of a total levy of $120,000.00 for road purposes, $77,300.00 has been expended for permanent work and material to wit: For iron and concrete bridges, shell roads, terracotta pipes and lumber.

Fourteenth—A substantial and long-needed improvement in the highway leading across the headwaters of East Creek, near St. Paul Church, and the highway leading from Rehobeth to Shelltown was made in 1912. Tax payers in these communities approve these excellent improvements.

Fifteenth—During the last ten years three new iron bridges have been erected in Somerset County at a cost of $2,000.00.

Sixteenth—Of Somerset County bonded indebtedness of $91,000.00, only $55,000.00 is fairly chargeable to Democratic management, and for this bonded indebtedness we exhibit the handsome new Court House at Princess Anne, and the new improved High School at Crisfield, the total cost of these two buildings being much in excess of the present bonded indebtedness issued to pay for same. The balance of the bonded indebtedness of the county is for deficiencies contracted in the main under Republican rule, and chiefly for school purposes, as Republican Commissioners did not levy sufficient appropriations to meet the annual needs of the public schools.

Seventeenth—During the last ten years the assessment of the property of the New York, Philadelphia & Norfolk Railroad Company located in Somerset County has been increased by Boards of Democratic County Commissioners from a total of $227,000.00 in round numbers in 1901, to a total of $543,313.00 in 1913. In other words the assessment against the aforesaid Railroad Company's property in this county during the period of Democratic control from 1901 to the present time has been increased $316,313.00, more than double the assessment of 1901, notwithstanding the fact that the law of the state, over which the County Commissioners have no control and cannot defy, exempts the most expensive part of the railroad property, to wit: Its bridges.

Some criticism has been heard that by the legislation that was enacted to float the necessary bonds to build the new Court House, the payment of the bonded indebtedness was postponed for so long a time, but it is respectfully submitted that in view of the county's meagre resources and general financial condition, it was not only wise public policy but good financial prudence to so legislate as to enable the

Tutt's Pills

FOR TORPID LIVER.

A torpid liver deranges the whole system, and produces

SICK HEADACHE,

Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Rheumatism, Sallow Skin and Piles.

There is no better remedy for these common diseases than Dr. TUTT'S LIVER PILLS, as a trial will prove.

Take No Substitute.

county first, gradually to liquidate outstanding bonded indebtedness known as the "Deficiency Bond Indebtedness of 1898," created by previous administrations, which now aggregate $18,000, and are being paid for at the rate of $1,500 per annum by the present generation; and also to postpone the payment of any of the principal of these Court House Bonds to such a period as will enable the people of Somerset County to pay the school bonds of 1902, amounting to $18,000, in full, before paying any of the principal of the bonded indebtedness for the erection of the Court House, which will serve the people of Somerset County as well as a hundred years hence, as it serves them now.

A significant fact that should always be borne in mind in connection with the taxation problem in Somerset County is that the total valuation of property for taxation purposes is lower in Somerset County than any county on the Eastern Shore.

A BIT OF ADVICE

First—Don't Delay. Second—Don't Experiment

If you suffer from backache, headaches or dizzy spells; if you rest poorly and are languid in the morning; if the kidney secretions are irregular and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. In such cases the kidneys often need help.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney trouble. They are recommended by thousands. Can Princess Anne residents desire more convincing proof of their effectiveness than the statement of a Princess Anne citizen who has used them and willingly testifies to their worth?

Mrs. Oscar Long, Princess Anne, Md., says: "It is true that Doan's Kidney Pills have been used very successfully in my home and I hold them in high esteem. I seldom let a day go by without telling someone of the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills and I do not know of another remedy so certain to do good as Doan's Kidney Pills. It gives me pleasure to publicly endorse them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

(Advertisement)

A Comparison of Taxation

The taxable basis of Wicomico County is now about $4,500,000 greater than the taxable basis of Somerset County, although the county tax rate for 1913 is only 4 cents per $100 less than the rate for this county. The county tax rate for Somerset County of 98 cents is now 9 cents per $100 less than in 1912, while the rate for Wicomico County is 2 1/2 cents per $100 more than in 1912.

The taxable basis of Worcester County is about $1,500,000 greater than the taxable basis of Somerset County. Notwithstanding this fact, the tax rate of Worcester County for 1913 is $1.00 per $100, or 2 cents more than the tax rate of Somerset County for 1912.

The taxable basis of Dorchester County in 1912 was $5,774,011 greater than the taxable basis of Somerset County, in other words, almost double, yet the tax rate of Dorchester County for 1912 was only 5 1/2 cents less than the tax rate of Somerset County, and the tax rate of Dorchester County for 1912 was 3 1/2 cents per $100 greater than the tax rate of Somerset County for the year 1913.

According to the amount of taxes levied and to be collected from taxpayers in the four counties of the First Judicial Circuit it requires $144,500 in Dorchester County, $128,708.02 in Wicomico County, $98,526.20 in Worcester County and only $83,167.36 in Somerset County to meet fixed charges and expenses. In other words, under an efficient, honest and economical administration the taxpayers are required to pay in Somerset County $67,332.64 less than is paid in Dorchester County, $43,535.66 less than is paid in Wicomico County and $15,358.84 less than is paid in Worcester County.

The property in all of these counties has been reassessed as recently as has the property in Somerset County, and in fact the reassessment in Wicomico and Dorchester was made two years later than the reassessment in Somerset County.

Mr. Taxpayer, ponder these facts in your mind and determine whether or not you are overburdened with exorbitant tax bills in comparison with the tax bills of your neighboring counties of Worcester, Wicomico and Dorchester. Each of them has a much higher taxable basis and it is only fair to presume that property is assessed as high in these counties as it is in Somerset County, yet the tax rates as shown above, are practically the same. The above facts support the assertion that the tax bills of Somerset County are equally as reasonable, if not more so, than the tax bills of Wicomico, Worcester and Dorchester Counties.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

WORTH READING TWICE.

Not all blowhards are to be despised. There is the silage blower, for instance.

Make your farm look like yours. 'Twill be worth money to you to have a farm that's unlike every one else's—in the right way.

The best thing to bring home from the country fair besides a blue ribbon is the determination to win one.

There's quite some variety of poor judgments. Some farmers always take care to keep their horses fresh and never knock off themselves for a good time, and some are always knocking off themselves, but never rest up their horses.—Robert W. Neal in Farm and Fireside.

GROWING OF SEASONINGS.

Green Herbs Should Be Gathered Before Day Becomes Very Warm.

Green herbs if freshly and properly gathered are richest in flavoring substances and when added to sauces, fricassees, stews, etc., reveal their freshness by their particles as well as by their decidedly finer flavor. In salads they almost entirely supplant both the dried and the decocted herbs since their fresh colors are pleasing to the eye and their crispness to the palate, whereas the specks of the dried herbs would be objectionable, and both these and the decoctions impart a somewhat inferior flavor to such dishes.

No matter in what condition or for what purpose they are to be used the favors of foliage herbs are invariably best in well developed leaves and shoots still in full vigor of growth. With respect to the plant as a whole these favors are most abundant and pleasant just before the flowers appear. Since they are generally due to essential oils which are quickly dissipated by heat they are more abundant in the morning than after the sun has reached the zenith.

As a general rule, therefore, best results with foliage herbs, especially those to be used for drying and infusing, may be secured when the plants seem ready to flower, the harvest being made as soon as the dew has dried and before the day has become very warm. The leaves of parsley, however, may be gathered as soon as they attain that deep green characteristic of the mature leaf. Since the leaves are produced continuously for many weeks the mature ones may be removed every week or so, a process which encourages the further production of foliage and postpones the appearance of the flowering stem.—American Agriculturist.

TO MAKE A FARM GATE.

Simple Directions For Putting Together Cheap Yet Substantial Affair. A cheap and substantial gate can be recommended for almost any situation where a swing gate is needed. Use the usual round sapling for the back end of the gate, fasten it to a ring above and hinge it. Then use five small saplings the proper length and three other small ones the proper width for the front end, and center. The whole affair is securely put together with three-eighth inch bolts. The crosspieces and long saplings are flattened where they are bolted together. The large upright at the back end of the gate should be flattened on one side and also sawed in a little for each side, then a crosspiece put over and bolted like the rest of the frame.

SIMPLE FARM GATE.

[From American Agriculturist.]

The whole thing should be peeled and then painted, unless one desires to use cedar, which would be rustic and perhaps more enduring. Brace with good strong wires to keep in shape, and give further strength by going from the top of the long upright to the top of front crosspiece and then from that point to the bottom of rear of the gate.—American Agriculturist.

Patching For Tar Roofs.

Occasionally there is a place on the farm where it is necessary to use a tar or tarred paper roof. These roofs are likely to develop holes in weak places or where the laps come. For patching these holes and cracks nothing is better than a piece of fairly heavy cloth from an overall or jacket cut a little bigger than the hole. Cover entire patch and the roof around the hole with tar. It will make a serviceable patch and is easily put on.—Farm and Fireside.

Kills the Chewing Insects.

Hellebore is used in place of paris green and other preparations where there is danger of the poison remaining on the plants that are to be eaten. It should be dusted on the leaves, care being used that the under side of the leaves are thoroughly reached. Do this when the dew is on, or first sprinkle the plants to the preparation will stick. If you use as a solution mix one ounce in one to three gallons of water and spray the plants.—Rural Farmer.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy.

Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

N. Y., Phila. & Norfolk R. R.—"Cape Charles Route"

Train Schedule in Effect May 25th, 1913

SOUTH-BOUND TRAINS
Leave	49-1049	81	45	41
	P.M.	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.
New York (Penn. Station)	9:00			8:00	12:08	3:34
Philadelphia	11:15	7:25		10:00	3:00	5:55
Wilmington	11:58	8:19		10:44	3:44	6:53
Baltimore	9:00	1:35	4:52
Delmar	3:00	6:50	11:50	1:35	7:08	10:20
Salisbury	3:10	7:03	12:07 p.m.	1:49	7:22	10:32
Princess Anne	3:28	7:30	12:42	2:11	7:49	10:57
Cape Charles	3:55	8:00	1:10	2:40	8:16	11:25
Old Point	4:10	8:20	1:25	3:00	8:30	11:40
Norfolk	9:05	7:25	7:25
	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.	P.M.	P.M.	P.M.

NORTH-BOUND TRAINS
Leave	44	82	48	46	80	50-1050
	A.M.	A.M.	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.	P.M.
Norfolk	8:00			8:00		6:15
Old Point	8:15			8:15		6:30
Cape Charles	8:30			8:30		6:45
Princess Anne	8:45			8:45		7:00
Salisbury	9:00			9:00		7:15
Delmar	9:15			9:15		7:30
Wilmington	11:24	3:49	4:55	7:35		4:05
Philadelphia	12:10 p.m.	5:08	5:22	8:20		5:00
Baltimore	12:43	5:36	5:52	8:50		5:31
New York	2:45	6:00	6:00	11:18	6:00	7:23
	P.M.	P.M.	P.M.	P.M.	P.M.	A.M.

Orisfield Branch—Southward.
Leave a.m. p.m. p.m. p.m. p.m. p.m.
King's Creek 7:40 4:25 7:54 Orisfield 6:00 12:01 6:40
Arrive Orisfield 8:20 3:05 8:40 12:50 7:30

Orisfield Branch—Northward.
Leave a.m. p.m. p.m. p.m. p.m. p.m.
King's Creek 7:40 4:25 7:54 Orisfield 6:00 12:01 6:40
Arrive Orisfield 8:20 3:05 8:40 12:50 7:30

Trains Nos. 41, 45, 46, 47, 48, 50, 51, 52 daily except Sunday, 49-1049 and 50-1050 daily, 49-1049 on Sundays leaves Salisbury 3:11 a. m., Princess Anne 3:37; Cape Charles 6:50. Arrive at Old Point 8:40 a. m., Norfolk 9:45 a. m. 50-1050 on Sundays will leave Cape Charles at 9:15 a. m.; Princess Anne, 11:54 p. m.

R. B. COOKE, Traffic Manager. R. V. MASSEY, Superintendent.

What is Ahead of You?

It depends upon your education—its extent and kind.

A Commercial or Stenographic course at

Golden College

will take you out of the ranks of unskilled workers, fit you for well-paid, pleasant employment and start you on the straight road to promotion. Graduates assisted to positions.

Our catalog gives full information. Write, 'phone or call for YOUR copy to-day.

Golden College - Wilmington, Del.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset county letters of administration on the estate of

MARGARET POLLITT.

late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscriber on or before the

Third Day of December, 1913.

or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 27th day of May, 1913.

CLARENCE P. LANKFORD,

Adm'r of Margaret Pollitt, deceased.

True Copy Test.

SIDNEY WALLER,

Register of Wills.

RHEUMATISM

This nerve-racking disease is caused from impure blood and uric acid poison. External applications sometimes give temporary relief but won't cure; the sure way to secure permanent results is to thoroughly eradicate from the blood all the impurities. Nothing on earth will drive out the poisons from your system, keep the bowels, kidneys and liver in good condition as SEVEN BARKS, the wonderful remedy that has proved its great merits the past 42 years.

SEVEN BARKS can be had of all druggists, at 50 cents per bottle. Give it a good trial and watch your rheumatism disappear.

LYMAN BROWN, 68 Murray St., New York, N.Y.

Subscribe for the MARYLAND AND HERALD.

Baltimore, Chesapeake & Atlantic

Railway Company.

RAILWAY DIVISION.

Schedule effective Sept. 22d, 1913.

EAST BOUND.

6 9 8

4 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

6 10 14

FIGHTING THE CHINCH BUG.

File the Best Agent in Destroying This Expensive Pest.

The chinch bug cost the state of Missouri approximately $5,000,000 last year, and in many other states the cost was nearly as great. Unless immediate steps are taken to destroy the swarms which are living over during the winter this loss will be greatly increased next year.

Between now and Dec. 1 all meadow, pasture, roads, waste lands and other fields, which are heavily overgrown, should be carefully examined for the hibernating chinch bugs. Those fields near wheat and corn fields which were infested during the summer should be examined with special care. The insects hide deep down in clumps of grass, under leaves and rubbish, and in many cases their presence can be detected from the disagreeable odor of the crushed bugs even before one finds them in their hiding places.

Wherever they are found the fields should be burned over immediately and carefully so that every possible shelter will be destroyed. The wind should not be too strong, so that the heat will penetrate down into the clumps of grass and make a clean job. Farmers should co-operate in burning over all public highways and railroad right of ways in the infested regions. With careful systematic burning of all harboring places in the fall a large per cent of the millions of hibernating bugs will be killed by the heat directly and many more left exposed to the winter. After each and every farmer has done all he can to destroy the pest during the winter the fight will be well enough started so that, if taken up in time next summer, the injury from the pests may be greatly reduced.—Board's Dairyman.

BRACELESS GATEPOSTS.

Original and Satisfactory Method of Holding Stakes in Place.

When putting up fencing, especially around gardens and lawns, it sometimes is desirable to omit wood or other above ground braces for the sake of doing a neat job, yet the fencing must be tight and kept so.

The sketch illustrates a method highly satisfactory even when used on large gates. If gateposts are set in deep and a few stones pounded in firmly around the bottoms. Dig a shallow trench between the posts and connect them with two or more strands of galvanized wire and splice the ends. Slip the strands into the trench, twist a with a short stick till you draw posts together firmly against the soil, then cover up the wire.

BRACELESS GATEPOST

The "pull" of the fence cannot top them over, because they are pulling against each other. In setting any kind of posts always tump the soil very firm the first few inches in bottom of hole. That is the secret of firm posts.—Farm and Poultry.

Declare War On Colds

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:

"Don't sit in a draughty car."
"Don't sleep in hot rooms."
"Don't avoid the fresh air."
"Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Overeating reduces your resistance."
To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by all Dealers. (Advertisement)

Order Nisi.

In the matter of the tax sale of real estate in Deal's Island Election District of Somerset county, assessed to Mary H. Windsor or Eldridge Windsor's heirs, made and reported by Robert F. Maddox, County Treasurer for Somerset county for the year 1910. William J. Tankersley, purchaser, ex parte.

No. 2676, Chancery. In the Circuit Court for Somerset County, in Equity.

Whereas a certain Robert F. Maddox, County Treasurer for Somerset county, in the State of Maryland, for the year 1910, has reported to the Circuit Court for Somerset County a sale made by him to William J. Tankersley, of all that lot or parcel of land in Deal's Island Election District, of said county, in the State of Maryland, containing 3 acres, more or less, with the improvements thereon, situated near the county road, leading through said district, adjoining the land of Thomas B. and R. V. Webster, near the lower school-house and assessed to Mary H. Windsor or Eldridge Windsor's heirs on the assessment books of said Election district for said year 1910, and sold for the payment of taxes due and in arrears, together with all the proceedings had in relation thereto; and whereas upon examination it appears to the said Court that the said proceedings are regular and that the provisions of the law in relation thereto have been complied with. Now it is therefore ordered, by the Circuit Court for Somerset county, in Equity, this 11th day of October, 1913, that notice be given by the publication of this order once a week for three successive weeks in the MARYLANDER AND HERALD, a weekly newspaper published in Somerset county, before the 10th day of November, 1913, warning all persons interested in the said real estate to be and appear in this Court on or before the 16th day of November, 1913, to show cause, if any they have, why said sale should not be ratified and confirmed.

The report states the amount of sales to be $5.25.

HENRY L. D. STANFORD, Judge.

True Copy. Test: S. FRANK DASHIELL, Clerk.

Cement Floors Pay.

Investigation in connection with feeding steers, carried on by the Ohio experiment station has demonstrated that the value of the manure for each animal was more than $4 greater when the feeding was done on cement floors than when earth floors were employed. The result would be practically the same were the floor plank if the seepage of the liquid manure were eventually lost through chemical changes and other avenues of escape. The loss would, of course, be much less where the animals are kept under cover and bedding is freely used, thus allowing the mass to be packed into a thick stratum during the winter season.

Suggestive.

Percy—I wish to buy some paper. I am bashful and am going to propose to a young lady by letter. Clerk—This is a stationery store. I guess you're looking for a hardware store. Percy—A hardware store? Clerk—Yes; you need sandpaper.—Judge.

Cause and Effect.

"Waiter, this coffee is nothing but thick, liquid mud."
"Yes, sir; certainly, sir! It was ground this morning!"—London Advertiser.

A Consumptive Cough

A cough that bothers you continually is one of the danger signals which warns of consumption. Dr. King's New Discovery stops the cough, loosens the chest, banishes fever and lets you sleep peacefully. The first dose checks the symptoms and gives prompt relief. Mrs. A. F. Mertz, of Glen Ellyn, Iowa, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery cured a stubborn cough after six weeks doctoring failed to help." Try it, as it will do the same for you. Best medicine for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. Money back if it fails. Price 50 cents and $1.00. All druggists. By mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis. (Advertisement)

T. J. Smith & Co. DRUGGISTS

Princess Anne, Maryland

Full Supply of Drugs, Toilet Articles, Stationery, Etc., Etc.

Agent for All The Rexall Remedies

Rexall Tooth Powder, 20 cts. (this week only)

Prescriptions Carefully Compounded

Five Farms

Have changed hands through the E. A. Strout Farm Agency during the last week in July

I am receiving a great many inquiries as to this section and it looks as though business would be good during the fall. Those that have farms to sell will do well to see me, and I can be found at home any evening after 6 o'clock and will be glad to talk business with you.

H. D. YATES,

Manager,

The E. A. Strout Farm Agency PRINCESS ANNE, MD. First Farm South End Main Street.

A SAFE BANKING PROPOSITION

is what we offer you. The substantial reputation of our Bank can be relied upon. You take no chances when you deposit your savings with us.

WHY TAKE CHANCES

of having the money you've carefully saved, destroyed by fire or thieves when you can open an account here and pay all bills by check. Consult us.

Interest Paid on Savings and Time Accounts . . .

PEOPLES BANK OF SOMERSET COUNTY, PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

Grave Petrifies Dead Man

After having been in a grave for nearly nine years, the body of Patrick Dugan was last Thursday found to have become completely petrified. Its weight was estimated at more than 600 pounds. The face and hands were a light gray, while the clothes were several shades darker. The body was reinterred in another cemetery in Baltimore. Dugan was 64 years old when he died.

Nervous and Sick Headaches

Torpid liver, constipated bowels and disordered stomach are the cause of these headaches. Take Dr. King's New Life Pills and you will be surprised how quickly you will get relief. They stimulate the different organs to do their work properly. No better regulator for liver and bowels. Take one and invest in a box today. At all druggists or by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis. (Advertisement)

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE

High grade Piano for sale on easy terms, or will exchange for a building lot, small farm or small house and lot.

FARMS WANTED

We have several buyers for cheap farms, town properties, building lot propositions and timber lands. If you want to sell list with us; write or call for terms and description blanks. If you want to buy anywhere in the United States we can find you what you want, our list will be sent upon request.

TRUITT REALTY CO., Salisbury, Md.; Maryland

SHIP TO

STEVENS BROTHERS

Commission Merchants

226 South Charles Street (Corner of Camden St.) Baltimore, Maryland

Best possible facilities for selling and handling GRAIN

Salesmen—R. NELSON STEVENS and J. K. B. EMERY. Reference—Merchants-Mechanics Bank

Burning Property

Could Be Saved

from Destruction In many cases if a little care was exercised in building

Poor flues, defective heating apparatus, bad electric wiring, are responsible for seventy-five per cent of all fires

The Home Insurance Company, of New York,

maintains a special department at Baltimore for giving information and advice free on proper construction and safe building to prevent fires and REDUCE INSURANCE RATES.

It costs you nothing—may save you much money. Write for information. Address:

The Home Insurance Co., A. G. HANCOCK, General Agent, Home Insurance Building, BALTIMORE, MARYLAND

H. FILLMORE LANKFORD, Solicitor

Mortgagee's Sale

OF VALUABLE

Real Estate

By virtue of the power contained in a mortgage from Margaret C. Bruce to the undersigned, dated the 13th day of September, 1909, recorded among the land records of Somerset county, in the State of Maryland, in Liber S. F. D., No. 52, folio 382, etc., I will sell at public auction at the Court House door, in Princess Anne, Maryland, on Saturday, Nov. 8th, 1913, at or about the hour of 3.30 o'clock p. m., the following described real estate in Dublin district, Somerset county, Maryland, being all the real estate described and conveyed in said mortgage, namely:

First—All that part of the land conveyed in said mortgage which lies on the west side of the county road leading from George Dryden's to Costen Station, known as the Folly Ditch Road, situate near said Station, being the same land which was conveyed by the said Margaret L. Bruce to George F. Patterson, by deed dated the 14th day of September, 1910, recorded among said records in Liber S. F. D., No. 55, folio 268, etc., containing more or less, whereon the said Patterson now resides, and improved by a dwelling house, barn, and other out-buildings

234 Acres,

Second—All that part of the land conveyed in said mortgage which lies on the east side of said county road, near said Station, being the same land which was conveyed by the said Margaret L. Bruce to John Hostetter by deed dated the 18th day of September, 1910, recorded among said records in Liber S. F. D., No. 55, folio 108, etc., containing

64 3/4 Acres,

more or less, lying opposite the first parcel hereinbefore described, whereon the said Hostetter formerly resided, and improved by a dwelling house and out-buildings

The above described parcels of real estate will first be offered separately and then as a whole, and if the highest bid for the whole exceeds the aggregate of the highest bids for the two parcels, the highest bid for the whole will be accepted, otherwise the highest bid for the several parcels will be accepted.

TERMS OF SALE—Cash. Title papers at expense of purchaser or purchasers. WILLIAM L. NOCK, Mortgagee in said Mortgage.

J. T. Taylor, Jr.

Largest Carriage, Wagon and Harness Dealers in the State of Maryland

5A Horse Blankets

5A Horse Blankets are the strongest and longest-wearing. They are made from strong, tightly-twisted yarns, are closely woven, strong, warm and durable. Ask for a 5A Horse Blanket when you buy.

BUY A

5A SQUARE BLANKET FOR STREET USE

5A STABLE BLANKET FOR THE STABLE

5A PLUSH ROBE FOR YOUR OWN COMFORT

Sold by

J. T. TAYLOR, Jr.

I have all kinds of stable blankets

5A Horse Blankets

The long-wearing 5A Horse Blankets are the cheapest to purchase by all odds. Their strength gives durability. Their warmth gives horse-protection. Their size gives comfort. Ask for a 5A.

BUY A

5A SQUARE BLANKET FOR STREET USE

5A STABLE BLANKET FOR THE STABLE

5A PLUSH ROBE FOR YOUR OWN COMFORT

Sold by

J. T. TAYLOR, Jr.

Several hundred Square Blankets from $1.00

up to $7.00

5A Carriage Robes

5A Plush Robes are generous size, warm, long of wear, made in beautiful patterns and rich colors. Buy one for your own comfort, and ask for 5A when you buy.

BUY A

5A SQUARE BLANKET FOR STREET USE

5A STABLE BLANKET FOR THE STABLE

5A PLUSH ROBE FOR YOUR OWN COMFORT

Sold by

J. T. TAYLOR, Jr.

Our Robes are unequalled for the money; all kinds and prices to suit all kinds

J. T. Taylor, Jr.

PRINCESS ANNE, MARYLAND

"GRIFFON BRAND"

Suits and Overcoats $15.00

For the man who likes something in clothes that is just up to the minute we would suggest a Griffon Suit or overcoat.

All wool garments, hand tailored inside as well as outside. Nifty patterns, correct to fashion, and ready for you to try on.

If you have never seen these "Griffon" Suits or Overcoats at $15, just take a look at them before making your Fall purchase. We think you will like them.

NEW HATS.

NEW SHIRTS.

NEW NECKWEAR

Boys' Clothing-Knickerbocker Suits from $3 to $7.50

"KING QUALITY" "RALSTON"

"FLORSHEIM" SHOES FOR MEN

Shoes for the Whole Family

JOHN W. MORRIS & SON

Clothing for Men and Boys

Send Us Your Next Order For JOB PRINTING

What We All Want

The aim of every energetic and ambitious worker in this community is—

THE KEEPING OF WHAT ONE HAS AND THE MAKING OF MORE.

A Savings Account with the Bank of Somerset will assist you in doing both.

Money saved from your earnings is safe here; there is not the temptation to spend it.

The 3 per cent. interest your money will earn will help increase your savings. One dollar will start your account.

BANK OF SOMERSET

Capital and Surplus $125,000.00

PRINCESS ANNE, MARYLAND

INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSIT

PRINTING That's what We Do Do You Need Any? If so, let us get your next order

MARYLANDER AND HERALD

PRINCESS ANNE

MARYLANDER AND HERALD.

ADVERTISING IS THE BUSINESS MAN'S MAINSTAY

PRINCESS ANNE, MD., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1913.

Vol. XVI—No. 14

THE MARYLANDER, Established 1849
SOMERSET HERALD, 1855.

A DEMOCRATIC VICTORY

Next Legislature Overwhelmingly Democratic in Both The Senate and House

Returns from the election in Maryland show the election of Blair Lee, Democrat, to United States Senate to succeed Senator William P. Jackson, appointed by Governor Goldsborough to succeed the late Isidor Raynor.

Emerson C. Harrington, Democrat, is re-elected State Comptroller.

C. C. Magruder, Democrat, is re-elected clerk of the Court of Appeals. All of the six amendments to the State Constitution are adopted.

The Democratic landslide of Tuesday gave Lee a plurality over Parran of 42,670 in the State and a majority over both Parran and Wellington of about 5,000 votes less.

In Baltimore City Lee received 48,993 votes out of 75,878 cast for the three Senatorial candidates, or about 65 per cent.

Last year Wilson received in Baltimore City 43,030 votes out of 97,806 cast for the three Presidential candidates, or 50 per cent.

Lee's plurality in the State is the greatest received in years except that given Wilson. Then the Republican vote was cut in half by Roosevelt, while this year Wellington received only approximately 5,000.

Lee carried every county in Maryland except Garrett, Charles, Calvert and Somerset and he carried every ward in Baltimore city except the Seventeenth ward, in which the colored voters predominated.

Harrington and Magruder ran somewhat behind Lee, but both polled tremendous pluralities.

The next Legislature will be overwhelmingly Democratic in both the Senate and the House.

The Democrats will have a three-fifths majority in each branch and will be able to pass measures over the Governor's veto.

The Republicans will have nine votes in the Senate.

In the House the vote will be Democrats, 82, and Republicans, 20.

In the Senate the Democrats will have 18 votes.

The Democrats elected to the State Senate Jones, of Montgomery; Holmead, of Prince George's; Watkins, of Anne Arundel; Archer, of Harford; Curran and Ogden, of Baltimore City; Cooper, of Caroline; Collier, of Talbot, and Shepherd, of Dorchester.

The Republicans elected to the State Senate Zihlman, in Allegany; Spelcher, Garrett, Williams, in Cecil; Mudd, in Charles, and Chesley in St. Mary's.

In Baltimore city the Democrats made a clean sweep, electing their full city and legislative ticket.

The returns show that the progressive vote is insignificant as compared with that of last year, when Colonel Roosevelt was a candidate for President. The estimate of the total Progressive vote polled in the State is not much in excess of 5,000.

Gale Arrested for Robbery

It is believed that the series of robberies which have terrorized Crisfield for three months was solved last Thursday by the arrest of Allen Gale on the charge of having burglarized the clothing store of Cook & Taylor Tuesday night. Gale is alleged to have admitted his guilt and was placed in jail in Princess Anne to await the action of the next term of court.

The store was entered through the rear door and goods valued at more than $200 stolen. Among the lot was several suits of clothes, shoes, gum boots, blankets and bed clothing. Several clues were traced to Gale. Mayor L. C. Quinn and the city authorities engaged the steamer Helen Avetta to make a cruise of Chesapeake bay in search of the oyster sloop Clara T. Baker, which left Crisfield Wednesday morning and on which Gale was dredging. Policeman Charles Byrd, accompanied by United States Marshal Noah C. Sterling and Mr. Cook, located the vessel off Point Lookout. They boarded the boat and found part of the plunder in the forecastle.

Pope-Jackson Wedding

Mr. Grover C. Pope and Miss Myrtle M. Jackson, of Laurel, Del., were married last Wednesday evening at the Methodist Protestant Parsonage, Salisbury, by the Rev. Mr. Warner.

They came to Princess Anne on the 10.30 train the same evening and are now domiciled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Phillips, on Beckford avenue, until they go to housekeeping about Christmas.

Mr. Pope is engaged in the confectionery restaurant business on Main street. Mrs. Pope is a cousin of Mrs. G. Samuel Richardson, of this town.

OYSTERMEN ATTACK BEDS

Anti-Planters Burn House And Destroy Buoys

Trouble in the oyster districts of Somerset county started on Saturday, October 11th, when oystermen went upon the planting ground at Porpoise Point and overturned the watch-house and destroyed the stakes and buoys. This trouble has grown out of the leasing of barren bottoms by the State under the Haman act to planters who took up the depleted bottoms and planted seed oysters there. The oystermen contend that some of the leased land is natural rock, which should not have been leased as barren.

On Saturday, November 1st, the oystermen from Smith's Island and other nearby sections swooped down on Gibson planting grounds on what is known as Great Island in the western part of Tangier Sound. The buoys on the ground were torn up and carried down to the sound channel, where they were anchored in more than ten fathoms of water. After removing every mark of private property and disposed of it in the deepest water, the oystermen returned to Great Island and worked with their dredges all day on the oysters which the Gibson firm had planted. On Monday the oystermen transferred their activities to the planting grounds of George A. Cox, of Fairmount, this being known as Harris Rock. They destroyed the buoys and worked on the planted oysters all that day.

Late Monday night of last week they started at Cranes Point, where the most serious of all the oyster trouble has occurred. Cranes Point is under lease by the A. E. Tull Oyster Company. The oystermen of that section made a wholesale raid on the Tull planting ground and exerted every effort to put this planting firm out of business. After destroying the buoys and stakes they swooped down on the oyster watch-house and attempted to kill the watchman, Charles Flood. The watchman employed by the Tull firm has been a terror to the oyster pirates along this section of Somerset's planting grounds, and it was with the determination to kill him that the oystermen made their raid that night. With bullets flying near him, Flood jumped through the back window and made his escape. When it was found that the watchman had escaped and that the oyster grounds were left unprotected, the oystermen set fire to the watchhouse and stood guard until the property had been burned to the water's edge.

As soon as the burning of the watch-house occurred, residents of the water front near Cranes Point telephoned to A. E. Tull, who lives a few miles away, and told him of the happenings of the night. Mr. Tull immediately communicated with State's Attorney Gordon Tull, at Princess Anne, and laid before him the state of affairs. The State's Attorney telegraphed to Governor Goldsborough on Tuesday asking for aid and protection from the outlaws who made the Tull property their prey.

Mr. Tull, of the A. E. Tull Oyster Company, in speaking of the incident said: "The trouble has reached the point where the authorities or the outlaws had to reign. Things have reached the pitch where the authorities of Maryland must either control the lawless, or quit their jobs. The gangs that burned my watch-house and attempted to kill my watchman are men of the worst type, and it is high time that our State authorities step in and either give the planter some protection or turn the State over to those outlaws. Words are not strong enough to express the real condition that exists around my planting grounds at this time. I have called upon the State for protection, and it is up to the State to protect me or declare the oystermen supreme. I have every confidence in the ability of the State to cope with the situation, and I am satisfied that they will give the oyster planters every protection necessary, but we have reached the point where it is in their chance to demonstrate whether law and order or lawlessness shall prevail."

Nationwide Tuberculosis Day

The nationwide movement for Tuberculosis Day—December 15—is being given impetus through requests for indorsements that have been sent to President Wilson, every state governor and to the mayors of the principal cities. The details of the movement, together with the program for a tuberculosis week, beginning December 7, are being worked out by Dr. George J. Fisher, of the international committee of the Tuberculosis Association.

Tentative plans contemplate lectures and discussions on tuberculosis on the afternoon of December 7th, and during the week by many organizations connected with the Y. M. C. A.

It is planned to have leading speakers in various cities of the country address these meetings.

OFFICIAL VOTE OF SOMERSET COUNTY—ELECTION NOVEMBER 4th, 1913

CANDIDATES	DISTRICTS														TOTALS
	West Princess Anne	St. Peter's	Brinkley's No. 1	Brinkley's No. 2	Dublin	Mount Vernon	Fairmount	Crisfield No. 1	Crisfield No. 2	Lawson's	Tangier	Smith's Island	Dames Quarter	Asbury
For United States Senator
ROBERT J. FIELDS	2	1	4	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	21
FINDLEY C. HENDRICKSON	3	9	2	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	72
BLAIR LEE	171	45	135	89	141	90	70	175	99	112	30	51	25	85	1707
THOMAS PARRAN	102	88	31	61	110	188	167	156	141	166	30	85	67	141	1750
GEORGE L. WELLINGTON	2	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	40
For Comptroller of the Treasury
CHARLES B. BACKMAN	1	1	2	3	2	2	3	6	3	3	2	1	2	3	34
JOSEPH R. BALDWIN	6	1	1	3	3	3	3	9	3	2	1	1	1	1	44
EMERSON C. HARRINGTON	161	52	121	85	120	79	71	160	94	99	25	49	15	80	1557
R. HENRY HOLME	4	4	1	1	14	2	10	3	4	5	1	1	1	1	56
OLIVER METZEROTT	72	58	64	47	92	128	147	118	99	118	22	80	58	79	1362
For Clerk of the Court of Appeals
AUGUSTUS M. DENHARD	60	40	50	46	81	115	130	90	73	103	20	70	51	55	1132
CHARLES M. ELDERDICE	7	4	5	1	20	8	16	7	2	5	4	2	7	8	109
CALEB C. MAGRUDER	148	49	110	30	109	65	66	136	78	92	19	49	14	71	1397
CHARLES F. SAUNDERS	2	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	24
WILLIAM C. SMITH	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	35
For Clerk of the Circuit Court
DANIEL W. MILES	147	6	8	1	19	4	12	2	1	1	1	1	1	1	81
STEPHEN FRANK DASHIELL	118	53	116	82	128	101	79	119	78	95	36	59	46	80	1575
W. JEROME STERLING	11	8	30	61	97	147	143	219	152	181	24	88	162	100	1892
For County Treasurer
JOHN E. HOLLAND	211	120	84	76	154	202	167	127	101	158	34	78	84	79	2064
EDWARD B. LANKFORD	126	43	121	85	146	82	69	146	92	113	21	49	20	90	1522
NOAH J. GIBBONS	6	8	4	1	16	6	17	3	1	7	1	1	3	3	88
For Sheriff
GEORGE H. FORD	116	77	66	53	124	156	187	102	88	123	33	50	55	50	1555
ELWOOD STERLING	137	51	118	87	119	68	76	223	148	146	26	74	15	188	1789
WILLIAM W. PORTER	11	13	8	2	28	10	11	6	3	4	1	1	3	4	120
For County Commissioner
RANK M. JEFFERSON	5	6	1	1	18	3	13	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	75
THOMAS WIDFOWSON	125	37	104	77	108	62	60	181	105	76	17	46	19	132	1409
CHRISTOPHER C. WARD	105	56	67	61	107	120	133	124	106	157	24	60	55	87	1486
For Members of House of Delegates
JOHN BRANFORD	11	9	2	2	16	9	17	2	13	5	3	6	3	10	120
SAMUEL C. HOPE	9	7	9	2	22	8	16	2	6	16	1	1	3	4	136
JAMES B. TAWES	8	9	4	1	20	3	10	29	22	13	2	2	20	10	172
JOHN W. WEST	129	55	102	80	120	78	71	124	81	84	27	50	23	82	1425
AUGUSTUS WARD	111	66	68	57	108	154	146	179	127	162	31	78	53	191	1758
LYBRAND THOMAS	127	44	100	78	98	69	80	124	82	96	31	89	24	77	1420
CHARLES A. LOCKERMAN	130	50	102	85	108	69	72	171	123	88	28	45	22	88	1492
PAGE JACKSON	138	88	89	61	101	227	146	108	79	141	30	39	66	99	1658
ISAAC T. FORD	136	91	75	60	107	174	178	151	120	146	30	85	63	118	1802
For County Surveyor
GORDON T. WHELTON	93	18	69	63	63	36	42	120	63	47	18	33	18	66	932

OYSTER RAIDER ARRESTED

Fire Marshal Myers Investigates Burning of Watchhouses

State Fire Marshal G. Edward Myers arrived in Princess Anne last Thursday morning, accompanied by Detective John Kratz, of Baltimore, to investigate the recent burning of the watch-houses located on the shore adjacent to the oyster beds of the A. E. Tull Oyster Company, in Coulbourn's Creek, Somerset county.

Marshal Myers conferred with State's Attorney Gordon Tull, a brother of A. E. Tull, and Thursday afternoon went by automobile with Mr. Tull and Mr. Kratz to Coulbourn's Creek to investigate the fire and interview Mr. Flood, who was watchman for the A. E. Tull Company at the time the buildings were alleged to have been raided and burned.

Thursday evening Fire Marshal Myers obtained a statement from Watchman Flood in reference to the burning of the buildings and he went to Fairmount and arrested Captain Samuel French, of near that place, who was brought to Princess Anne by Sheriff Tull and lodged in jail for a hearing.

State's Attorney Tull said that Governor Goldsborough had advised him that he would place all the State constabulary at his disposal and had directed Commander Howard, of the State fishing force, to communicate with him. Commander Howard called Mr. Tull by phone, advising him of the Governor's instructions.

Boom For Harrington

A gubernatorial boom for Comptroller Harrington was launched Friday by the Democrat and News, a paper published in Mr. Harrington's home town, Cambridge. It was declared that his two successful fights for Comptroller, and his re-election this year by an enormous majority, make him the logical candidate.

Many of Mr. Harrington's friends have been talking of him quietly in this connection for some time. Mr. Harrington himself has never discussed the matter, but it is understood that he may give it serious consideration before the next primary for the Democratic nomination is held.

Claims Record for Ear of Corn

What is considered a record ear of corn was exhibited at Newark, Del., last week. It was 14 inches long, weighed two pounds and eight ounces and contained 1100 grains of corn; that measured one quart and a half pint. The ear came from the Drennan farm at Greenleaf, Pa., and was brought to Newark by John Poole, an engineer on the New York and Pomeroy Railroad.

ORLANDO HARRISON WINS

Eighth District Vote Thrown Out By The Supervisors

The Board of Election Supervisors of Worcester county, sitting as the Board of Canvassers, last Friday morning refused to canvass the returns from the Eighth, or Stockton district, and threw out the vote from that district.

This insures the election of Orlando Harrison, Democrat, to the State Senate over Quince Ashburn, the Fusion candidate by a majority of 37 votes on the face of the returns. With the Eighth district included Ashburn had a majority of 4 in the county.

The returns from the Eighth district were thrown out because the Republican judges and clerks of election there refused to sign the return and tally sheets Tuesday night. They charged fraud in the use of a marking device by which illiterate Democrats were enabled to mark their ballots. Thursday they came before the board and demanded permission to sign the returns. This was refused. Mr. Ashburn and his attorneys, C. O. Melvin and J. H. Handy, will take the matter into court at once.

Papers for a mandamus to compel the board to allow the election officials to sign the returns and then to canvass the vote of the Eighth district were prepared and will be presented to Judge Jones. Should this move prove unavailing, Mr. Ashburn says he will take the contest for the seat before the next Senate.

Stockton district gave Ashburn a majority of 41 over Harrison. It is asserted by Democrats that the refusal of the Republican officials there to sign the returns was the result of a put-up job that the Fusionists, expecting to lose but thinking that the vote would be close, arranged an opportunity to raise the issue of fraud. The result, Democrats say rather gleefully, proved a disastrous boomerang.

Will Denounce Fake Cures

As a special feature of the Tuberculosis day campaign, December 7th, The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis will urge clergymen in all parts of the United to denounce fake consumption cures from their pulpits.

Millions of dollars are spent by church members and others on valueless remedies of this character, according to the association's records. Literature showing in detail the methods of fake cure vendors will be sent on request to any clergyman by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, 105 East 22nd Street, New York City.

Superstitious people consider it a bad break to crack a mirror.

WILL CONTEST LEE'S SEAT

Republicans in Senate Say His Election Was Not Valid

Preparations to contest the seating of Senator-elect Blair Lee, of Maryland, on the ground that his election was not valid, were being made by Republican members of the Senate in Washington last Friday. They claimed that his name was appended to a regular ballot without special provisions being made by the legislature as required under the Maryland law.

At the same time Democrats were preparing to fight to seat Lee immediately and the disbursing clerk of the Senate notified Senator Jackson, whom Lee was elected to succeed, that until the contest was decided neither Leenor Jackson would receive salary.

Besides the issue of its validity Lee's election has other complications. He is the first senator to be elected by direct vote where there was a contest, and owing to the vague wording of the direct election amendment to the Federal Constitution there is a question as to whether he is entitled to a seat or must wait until January, when his predecessor's term would have ended under the old method of legislative appointment. Lee is needed by the Democrats at this particular time because of the currency crisis and the insurgency of Senators Reed, Hitchcock and O'Gorman against the administration currency bill. Jackson refuses to recognize any question except the validity of the election.

Price Collier Dead

Residents of Maryland feel special interest in the death of Price Collier, the author, who died suddenly Monday of last week while visiting Count Weddel at his estate on the Island of Funen, in the Baltic sea.

Price Collier was a native of the Eastern Shore, having been born near Salisbury 53 years ago. He was the son of Robert Collier, an Unitarian minister of Salisbury, and his mother was a member of the Dillon family of Iowa.

Secretary of State Robert F. Graham is a first cousin, and Joseph Y. Brattan, a newspaper man of Baltimore, is a more distant relative of the author. Louise Collier Wilcox, of Norfolk, who is also a writer of repute, is a sister of Price Collier. Another sister is Mrs. Edward Parkinson, of Philadelphia.

Though Mr. Collier was virtually reared on the Continent and in England, having left Salisbury when quite young, his body will most likely be brought to Maryland or taken to Iowa for burial. He married an American woman and has two daughters, Katharine and Sallie.

Price Collier was the author of many well-known works, including "England and the English," and a recent work on Germany.

CHANGES OF PROPERTY

Number of Deeds Recorded at the Office of Clerk of Court

Lizzie Horsey, Della May Cane, William T. Cane and Henrietta E. Cane from Eddie T. Whittington and others, 2 and nine-tenths acres of land in Lawson's district; consideration $5 and other good and valuable considerations.

George W. Cane from Eddie T. Whittington and others, 2 and nine-tenths acres of land in Brinkley's district; consideration $5 and other good and valuable considerations.

Board of County School Commissioners of Somerset county from Lodge No. 8 of the Order of Happy Choice and Children of the Tabernacle and Charles O. Melvin, 1/2 acre of land in Dublin district; consideration $5 and other good and valuable considerations.

Frank Gale from Minnie Tull and husband, 25 acres of land in Brinkley's district; consideration $250.

Lucy V. Parks from Jesse W. Simpkins, 12 acres of land in Mt. Vernon district; consideration $5 and love and affection.

Jesse W. Fisher from Jesse W. Simpkins, 18 acres of land in Mt. Vernon district; consideration $5 and other valuable considerations.

Jesse W. Simpkins from Jessie W. Fisher and wife, 13 1/2 acres of land in Mt. Vernon district; consideration $5 and other valuable considerations.

Harry T. Phoebeus from George H. Croswell and wife, lot of land in St. Peter's district; consideration $5 and other valuable considerations.

Enoch Barnes from Gordon H. Barnes and wife, a one-half interest in 9 1/2 acres of land in Westover district; consideration $200.

Robert W. Adams from Princess Anne Milling Company, 218 acres of land in East Princess Anne district; consideration $1000 and other valuable considerations.

Lewis A. Gentry and Nellie E. Gentry, his wife, from Robert W. Adams, 218 acres of land in East Princess Anne district; consideration $5500.

Isaac Thomas Tyler from Mark Vernon

Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

ARE THE FAVORITE WITH YOUNG MEN OF STYLISH TASTES

COLLEGE MEN LIKE THESE CLOTHES; HIGH SCHOOL MEN PREFER THEM; YOUNG MEN IN BUSINESS APPRECIATE THE FACT THAT SUCH QUALITY AND STYLE ARE TRUE ECONOMY. WHEREVER THE YOUNG SPIRIT IN CLOTHES IS STRONG THERE'S WHERE

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX CLOTHES ARE IN THE LEAD

THERE'S A LOT OF INDIVIDUALITY IN THE WAY THE SHOULDERS ARE SHAPED; THE TROUSERS HAVE NEW DISTINCTIVE LINES; THE WAISTCOATS ARE DIFFERENT. WE WANT YOU TO SEE THE NEW ENGLISH MODELS, THE THREE-BUTTON SOFT FRONT SACK, THEY ARE YOUNG MEN'S CLOTHES; ALSO THE VERY LATEST FASHION IN OVERCOATS. THESE CLOTHES ARE DIFFERENT FROM OTHER CLOTHES AND YET COST NO MORE MONEY

We especially invite the good dressers of your town and community to visit our Big Double Store in Salisbury this Fall. You will be agreeable surprised at our great showing of Fine Clothes. No city store can serve you better

KENNERLY & MITCHELL,

Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx

233-237 Main Street

SALISBURY, MARYLAND

THE HARVEST.

[As the harvest hand sees it.]
It's all right for poets to talk about
The "beautiful harvest of grain."
But when you get out and you shock about Ten million square miles it's a strain!
Perhaps there's romance to be met in it—
That's something I wouldn't deny—But I've found only backache and sweat in it.
And, gee, but a fellow gets dry!
The binder goes clacking in front of you.
The sun's beating down on your neck.
And the boss is demanding this stunt of you:
"Keep up with the binder, by heck!"
You shock through the ages of history.
For thousands of years do you shock,
Yet you find by some magic or mystery
You've worked just two hours by the clock!
You eat, but the food isn't filling
you.
You drink, but the water ain't wet.
Your back and your shoulders are killing you.
You swim in an ocean of sweat.
The glamour the poets may give to it
Ain't seen by this mortal for one
I harvest because I am driv' to it.
And you bet I am glad when it's done!
—Berton Brainer.

Greatness.

The truly strong and sound mind is the mind that can embrace equally great things and small. I would have a man great in great things and elegant in little things.—Johnson.

Our Coal Deposits.

The known coal areas of the United States cover 310,000 square miles, and there are 100,000 square miles believed to be underlain with marketable coal.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

Worth Looking At.

A man who was something of a gowmet ordered a dinner for himself and his party which, from the menu, should have been very palatable, but apparently it was not so. Course succeeded course, and toward the end of the meal the host could restrain himself no longer. He called up the waiter and expostulated. "I ordered a good dinner, and we have waited patiently for some satisfactory dish. The soup was a failure, the fish was a disappointment, the entree uneatable, and I am sorry to tell you that during the whole dinner there has been nothing worth looking at." The waiter looked troubled for an instant, and then, brightening up, said, "If you wait a moment, sir, I will bring you the bill."
—Chicago News.

His Selection.

"She told me to kiss her on either cheek."
"And you?"
"I hesitated a long time between them."—Lehigh Burr.

Ignorance.

"Pa, what's a contretemps?"
"I don't know. I've never learned the names of all these automobile parts."—Judge.

Nearly Every Child Has Worms

Paleness, at times a flushed face, unnatural hunger, picking the nose, great thirst, etc., are indications of worms. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a reliable, thorough medicine for the removal of all kinds of worms from children and adults. Kickapoo Worm Killer is in pleasant candy form, and aids digestion, tones the system, overcoming constipation and increasing the action of the liver. Is perfectly safe for even the most delicate children. Kick-apoo Worm Killer makes children happy and healthy. 25c. Guaranteed.
Try it. Drug stores or by mail. Kick-apoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

(Advertisement)

We Have the Largest Stock of MONUMENTS

of any concern on the Peninsula.

Head Stones
and all other cemetery
memorials,
COPING AND FENCES

We can furnish any class of material in Quincy Granite, Barre Granite and Westerly Granite; or any material you desire; also Building Stone. We would be glad to furnish estimates on anything in our class of work. We use Vermont and Italian Marble.

We have the most up-to-date plant on the Shore and the best location—this all helps to give you a reasonable price.

RICHARDSON & LECATES,
Opposite N. Y., P. & N. Depot,
SALISBURY, MARYLAND

If You are Going to BUILD or REPAIR IT WILL PAY YOU TO SEE US BEFORE BUYING

Our stock of Lumber is complete. Now is the time to repair that roof—we have the following shingles to offer you:

4x24 Cedar Shingles	$ 5.75 per M
6x18 "	8.00 per M
6x20 "	8.50 per M
6x20 No. 1 Florida Hearts	12.50 per M
6x20 No. 2 "	10.00 per M
6x20 No. 1 " Saps	10.00 per M
6x18 No. 1 " Hearts	10.50 per M
6x18 " Primes	9.00 per M

Princess Anne Milling Co.,
PRINCESS ANNE, MARYLAND

Job Printing executed with neatness and dispatch. Give us trial order

AGRICULTURAL LIME

For Immediate Delivery

MOORE & PENDLETON

FACTORY P. O. Address
Clifton Point Westover, Md.

The Wonderful ALADDIN Lamp

Wonderful because it produces a luxurious, soft, white light, excelled only by sunlight. Burns ordinary kerosene or coal oil, the cheapest of all illuminating fuels.
Burns Less Oil than Any Other Lamp of Equal Candle Power
Aladdin Lamps are most durable in construction—easy-est to take care of—simplest in operation. The light is brighter and easier on the eyes than gas or electricity.
Oculists declare the Aladdin Gives The Best Artificial Light Known.
Users declare it is not only the best light, but the best Lamp known.
There is No Equal. The Aladdin is superior by test and best by comparison. It appeals to those who want superlative excellence for its own sake—appeals to those who consider economy a first essential. Orderless, delicate, simple, safe and clean—The Ideal Lamp for the multitude.
Don't be bamboozled by an imitation. There is only one Aladdin.
Insist on having it. The name is on every burner.
Investigation is the keynote of progression. Let us show you Aladdin

THE MANTLE LAMP COMPANY OF AMERICA
CHICAGO PORTLAND, ORE. WATERBURY, CONN. WINNEPEG, CAN. MONTREAL, CAN.
FOR SALE BY
C. W. MARSH, Agent, Champ, Maryland.

Now Is the Time To Plant Fall Bulbs

Plant Now

YOU CAN HAVE BEAUTIFUL FLOWERS
TO BRIGHTEN YOUR HOME

All winter, at Christmas time, at Easter time, also on your lawn and in your flower beds at the first opening of Springtime—if you plant now.

Boligiano's Fall Bulbs

are full sized and true to name. Our 36 years experience in Bulb Selection has placed us in a position of knowing the most reliable source of securing the choicest French and Holland Grown Bulbs.

Beautifully Illustrated 30 Page
Bulb and Poultry Book Free.

It tells you exactly how to arrange and care for your Fall Bulbs to have the best success, also give a full line of Poultry Supplies and requires. If you have not already received a copy send us a postal today.

	Each	Dos.
Baby Hyacinths.....	40c	40c
Bedding Hyacinths.....	5c	5c
1st Size Hyacinths.....	15c	15c
2nd Size Hyacinths.....	12c	12c
Early Tulips.....	3c	3c
May or Cottage Tulips.....	2c	2c
Parrot Tulips.....	4c	4c
Double Tulips.....	3c	3c
Narcissus Single.....	2c	2c
Double Narcissus.....	3c	3c
Crocus Mixed.....	2c	2c
Oxalis.....	1c	1c
East of Lilies.....	1c	1c
Chinese Sacred Lilies.....	12c	12c

Our Plant Season
Now In Full Progress

Beautiful Plants, Ferns, Palms and Hardy Evergreens selling at a price within the reach of all. Watch the Baltimore American and Sun for special sales. If you cannot get Boligiano's bulbs and plants through your local dealer, send us a postal and we will tell you where you can get them.

Boligiano's Seed Store
95 Years Established Trade.
BALTIMORE, MD.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset County letters of administration on the personal estate of

WILLIAM H. ROSS,
late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscriber on or before the

Third Day of December, 1918,
or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 27th day of May, 1918.
MARY A. ROSS,
Administratrix of William H. Ross, dec'd.
True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER,
Register of Wills.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset County letters of administration on the estate of

NELSON COLLINS,
late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscriber on or before the

First Day of January, 1919,
or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 24th day of June, 1918.
L. WESLEY BEAUCHAMP and ZELLEY COLLINS,
Admin'rs of Nelson Collins, deceased.
True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER,
Register of Wills.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset County letters of administration on the estate of

BENJAMIN RAYMOND WARREN,
late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscriber on or before the

Twenty-ninth Day of January, 1919,
or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 22d day of July, 1918.
MARY B. WARREN,
Administratrix of Benjamin Raymond Warren, deceased.
True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER,
Register of Wills.

7-29

McCall's Magazine and McCall Patterns

For Women

Have More Friends than any other magazine or patterns. McCall's is the reliable Fashion Guide monthly in one million one hundred thousand homes. Besides showing all the latest designs of McCall Patterns, each issue is brimful of sparkling short stories and helpful information for women.

Save Money and Keep in Style by subscribing for McCall's Magazine at once. Costs only 10 cents a year, including any one of the celebrated McCall Patterns free.

McCall Patterns Lead all others in style, fit, simplicity, economy and number sold. More dealers sell McCall Patterns than any other two makes combined. None higher than 15 cents. Buy from your dealer, or by mail from

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
236-246 W. 37th St., New York City

The Little Four FOR TWO PERSONS

The Car You Want at a Price You
Can Afford to Pay
"The Product of Experience"

Absolutely Well-Built—Easy Riding—So Stylish and Well-Finished that Owners of High-Priced Large Cars are Proud to Use THE "LITTLE FOUR" for their $690.00 Runabout Work

Peninsula Motor Company,
East Church Street
Near N. Y., P. & N. Depot
Salisbury, Md.

Will Save You Money on Your Fall Office
and School Supplies

MEYER & THALHEIMER,
The Big Stationery Store.
Baltimore and Howard Streets BALTIMORE, MD.

Blank Books for Every Purpose
Loose Leaf Ledger Outfits and Devices
Wood and All-Steel Sectional Filing Cabinets
Commercial Stationery, School Supplies

Our Immense Variety and Reasonable Prices
Assure Absolute Satisfaction

Wilmington Conference ACADEMY

A CHRISTIAN SCHOOL FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

COMMERCIAL COURSE
EQUAL WITH THE BEST!
CHEAPER THAN THE CHEAPEST!

Always open for inspection. Comparison with the best schools not feared. Students entered any time

NEW ROOMS NEW FURNITURE
NEW TYPEWRITERS

NEW GYMNASIUM NEW SWIMMING POOL.

ATHLETIC FIELD

Send for Catalogue to
Rev. HENRY G. BUDD, Principal
DOVER, DELAWARE

When a Doctor is Needed

In your home the quickest way is the best way. The telephone has proven its worth in saving lives so many times that no progressive doctor is without it.

You may not need a doctor now—hope you do not—but it is well to be prepared for emergencies by having Bell telephone service installed.

Have you a Bell telephone?

THE CHESAPEAKE AND POTOMAC
TELEPHONE COMPANY
H. W. CARTY, Local Manager
Salisbury, Md.
Tel. 9000

Pen Picture of Lord Lister.

In Dr. Wrench's biography of Lord Lister, the discoverer of antiseptic treatment of wounds, the author says of the great surgeon:

"He was ever gentle, courteous and firm. Trying as are the exertions and responsibilities of an important surgical post, Lister was never known to speak a sharp word to house surgeon, dresser or any one in his service. His scientific spirit and discovery attracted the curiosity of the students and young graduates of Edinburgh; his personal nobility won their hearts; his art of winning their loyalty was by inspiring enthusiasm and giving encouragement. Often in the middle of a trying operation, wrote one of his pupils, 'a gentle smile bestowed on us young students when we were honestly trying to do our best as assistants was most encouraging.' Many of the students afterward confessed that their contact with Lister was the best and purest influence of their lives."

Woodpeckers.
Each woodpecker in the United States is worth $20 in cash when the value is estimated on the value of the good that this bird does to trees.

Mental Training.
An educated man is a man who can do what he ought to do when he ought to do it whether he wants to do it or not.—Nicholas Murray Butler.

It is not by attending to our friends in our way, but in theirs that we can really avail them.—Margaret Fuller.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Fitch

Sprains, Bruises Stiff Muscles

are quickly relieved by Sloan's Liniment. Lay it on—no rubbing. Try it.

Ankle Sprain and Dislocated Hip.
"I sprained my ankle and dislocated my hip by falling out of a third story window. Went on crutches for four months. Then I started to use your Liniment, according to directions. I must say it is helping me wonderfully. We will never be without Sloan's Liniment anymore."—Chas. Johnson, London, Ontario, N. Y.

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

Kills Pain

Splendid for Sprains.
"I fell and sprained my arm a week ago and was in terrible pain. I could not use my hand or arm until I applied your Liniment. I shall never be without a bottle of Sloan's Liniment."—Wm. E. Springer, Elizabeth, N. J.

Fine for Stiffness.
"Sloan's Liniment has done more good than anything I have ever tried for stiff joints. I got my hand hurt so badly that I had to stop work right in the busiest time of the year. I thought at first that I would have to have my hand taken off, but I got a bottle of Sloan's Liniment and cured my hand."—J. H. Fisher, Morris, Ill.

At all Dealers. 25c, 50c and $1.00.
Send for Sloan's free, instructive book on horses, cattle, dogs and poultry. Address

Dr. EARL S. SLOAN, Inc.
DORCHESTER, MASS.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset County letters of administration on the estate of

MARIA F. HANDY,
late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscriber on or before the

Twenty-sixth Day of February, 1919,
or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 19th day of August, 1918.
MORTIMER A. WARD,
Executor of Maria F. Handy, deceased.
True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER,
Register of Wills.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset County letters of administration on the estate of

GEORGE T. MCCLIMMY,
late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscriber on or before the

Thirtieth Day of March, 1919,
or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 28th day of September, 1918.
MYRA Z. MCCLIMMY,
Executrix of George T. McClimmy, dec'd.
True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER,
Register of Wills.

9-30

RHEUMATISM

Promptly Relieved By
THE ENGLISH REMEDY
BLAIR'S PILLS
SAFE & EFFECTIVE. DRUGGISTS.

Agencies of Gout.

An English nobleman in a London club one evening gave some of his fellow members a picturesque description of the gout.

"You lie in bed," he said, "with the gouty food stretched out, and you feel as though the sole of it was pressed against the bars of a red-hot fire. In the middle of the furnace is a fellow with a gun loaded to the muzzle with red-hot needles. Presently he fires the gun at your foot, and you feel the red-hot needles travel up your leg and come out at the knee, not all at once, but like the animals that went into the ark, two by two. When the last couple of needles have finished the course you find yourself sweating with fear and wondering how long it will be before the fellow fires the gun again. Presently you find he is under contract to fire it every five minutes, and you get ready for the discharge, but you can never be said to get accustomed to it, because the blackguard loads it with a new kind of red-hot needle every time and sometimes adds half a dozen red-hot corkscrews. That's the gout."

Who would patronize gout after that?

The Spider and the Bee.

A correspondent of Countryside was sitting one day upon an English moor, watching a large heather spider as it crawled expectant in its web. Suddenly he saw the spider firmly grip the web with its feet and shake it with all its might. After awhile it repeated the operation, and soon the reason became apparent. Whenever a bee flew near the web the spider gave this warning signal. It did not want any such visitor. If a bee happened to get entangled in the web the spider at once cut out that part and so rid itself of its unwelcome guest. That any creature can weave a web more intricate than a fisherman's net and, moreover, that it should possess the instinct or reasoning power to put the web in the best place and there patiently await its prey suggests that the border line between instinct and reason is far from distinct.

Rise of Joseph Pulitzer.

Joseph Pulitzer was born in the village of Makó, near Budapest, in Hungary, on April 10, 1847. His father was a Jew, his mother a Christian. At the age of sixteen he emigrated to the United States. He landed without friends, without money, unable to speak a word of English. He enlisted immediately in the First New York (Lincoln) cavalry regiment, a regiment chiefly composed of Germans and in which German was the prevailing tongue.

Within a year the war ended, and Pulitzer found himself, in common with hundreds of thousands of others, out of employment at a time when employment was most difficult to secure. At this time he was so poor that he was turned away from French's hotel, in New York, for the lack of 50 cents with which to pay for his bed. Twenty years later he bought French's hotel, pulled it down and erected in its place the Pulitzer building, at that time one of the largest business buildings in New York, where he housed the World.

A Night of Terror

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by all Dealers. (Advertisement)

EVERN IF YOU HAD A NECK
AS LONG AS THIS FELLOW AND HAD SORE THROAT
ALL THE WAY DOWN TONSILINE WOULD QUICKLY RELIEVE IT.

A quick, safe, soothing, healing, antiseptic remedy for sore throat, briefly described: Tonsiline. Small bottle of Tonsiline lasts longer than most any case of sore throat. Tonsiline relieves Sore Throat and Hoarseness and prevents Quinsy. 25c and 50c. Hospital Size $1.00. All Druggists. THE TONSILINE COMPANY, Canton, Ohio.

This Will Interest Mothers

Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for children relieve Feverishness, Headache, Bad Stomach, Teething Disorders, move and regulate the Bowels and destroy worms. They break up Colic in 24 hours. Used by mothers for 34 years. All Druggists, 25c. Sample free. Address A. S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

Stomach Pains

Indigestion caused by a great distress for two years. I tried many things for relief, but got little help, till I found it in the best pills or medicine I ever tried.

DR. KING'S
New Life Pills
C. E. Hatfield, Guyan, W. Va.
25 CENTS PER BOTTLE AT ALL DRUGGISTS.

Making the Little Farm Pay

By C. C. BOWSFIELD

A BRANCH of farming that affords more than ordinary pleasure and profit is that of studying out schemes for succession crops. It is quite feasible to raise two or more crops in one season on ordinary soil.

It will be found that this kind of intensive farming is good for the soil. There has to be free use of barnyard fertilizer, and the plowing, disking, harrowing, rolling and perhaps hoeing must be in proportion to the amount of production required of the land. Such treatment will build up instead of wear out a plot of ground. These examples may be varied as circumstances suggest.

Lettuce, radishes, onions, peas, carrots and string beans may be grown and supplied to customers between the 1st of May and the middle of June. The ground can then be prepared in a few days for the succeeding crops, and it will be found that between the 1st of July and the 1st of October a full crop of these products can be grown: Celery, sweet corn, late potatoes, beets, cucumbers, cabbage, lettuce, spinach, onions and turnips.

At first glance it would seem that there are not many vegetables on the list that could be sown successfully as late as midsummer, but those tested form quite an array. Bush beans, carrots, lettuce, beets, corn, parsley, peas, radishes, spinach and turnips all give satisfactory results when sown as late as August. They should be put in as near the 1st of July as possible to make all growth possible before frost. The hardy ones cause no anxiety, as they endure light frosts. The tender sort, such as beans, cucumbers and spinach, may be saved from the cold by a covering of old rugs and similar material.

As the gardener cannot duplicate the cool, moist conditions of spring for the germination of August seeds, he must do the next best thing and firm the soil well after sowing. This helps to draw the moisture in the soil where the seedlings can use it. When they have made a start the surface is to be stirred to form a mulch.

Bush beans sown as late as Aug. 10 have been successfully harvested by Oct. 15. In another case an Aug. 1 sowing of peas yielded full sized pods in less than seven weeks. These were an extra early sort. The crop, however, was not so heavy as from spring sown seed.

Lettuce planted in early August bore leaves large enough to use before the middle of September and well formed heads from the first week in October until the ground was cleared. This is only a suggestive outline of the scheme of growing succession crops. There are wide possibilities along that line, and it is feasible to go still further and sow rape as soon as the vegetables are off in September and October. By Nov. 1 this will be in condition for forage. Hogs and sheep can feed from this field of rape for several weeks before winter sets in, and it is again ready for them in the spring.

So far as the effect on the soil is concerned, it is possible to continue the double cropping of vegetables indefinitely. The land will most likely show improvement under such methods of cultivation, but a rotative scheme is advisable on small tracts as well as large ones.

The quicker an acre is capable of paying for itself in what it produces the more that acre is worth.

LEGAL TIPS FOR TILLERS.

In all the states a man becomes of age at twenty-one, but in some states a woman becomes of age at eighteen.

A landlord is not liable for a nuisance created on the premises by the tenant during the tenancy and without the consent of the landlord.—Schultz Brewery Company versus Stiel (Ind.), 88 N. E. 957.

By a statute commonly known as the statute of frauds a promise by one person to pay the debt of another is not enforceable unless the promise is evidenced by some memorandum in writing signed by the person making it.

Do not sign any instrument in writing unless you understand it thoroughly. If you are of sound mind and can read no court will permit you to avoid a written instrument you have signed upon the ground that you did not fully understand it.

Under the United States bankruptcy law those creditors who have acquired liens on the debtor's property by judgment or otherwise are entitled to preference over the general creditors, subject, however, to have the liens set aside in certain cases where acquired within four months of the institution of the proceeding in bankruptcy.

MARYLANDER AND HERALD

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY MORNING AT
PRINCESS ANNE, MD.
Office of Publication—Herald Building
Main Street, Phone No. 81.

Subscription Price, $1.00 Per Annum

WILLIAM H. DASHIELL,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

All communications should be addressed to
the MARYLANDER AND HERALD.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 11, 1913.

Despite his defeat, Stephen Frank Dashiell is one of the most popular men in the county. He still has hosts of friends and it is their hope that his future may be bright and successful wherever his lot may be cast.

The Maryland Legislature will be hugely Democratic, Somerset to the contrary notwithstanding. Fortunately we still have our good friend, Lewis M. Milbourne in the Senate, and his good judgment and experience may be relied on, whatever the emergency.

Blair Lee ought to be a happy man. His election to the United States Senate by the vast majority of over 40,000 is a matter of congratulation to him and his friends. We extend to him and his companion candidates upon the State ticket our hearty compliments and best wishes.

It is with just pride that we receive the news of the great Democratic landslide in Maryland. Maryland is a grand Democratic State and deserves the attention it is receiving from all parts of the country. What a shame Somerset county did not make a better showing towards this great glorification!

The Crisfield Times intimates that one of the reasons for the Republican victory in the county was the lack of confidence in Democratic leadership. True Democrats have just as much confidence as ever; the faithless can not be expected to have confidence in anybody but themselves. This confidence in themselves they should be permitted to enjoy to the limit since nobody else has or can have confidence in them.

The Democratic ticket presented to the voters of Somerset county was one of the best and strongest before the public for many years. It is a matter of congratulation that at least one of the array was elected. It is a matter of great regret that the others had to bow to defeat. This defeat could have been borne with great fortitude had it come in a legitimate way and by a true Republican majority; but it comes with bitter effect when a man's foes prove to be "they of his own household."

The conduct of Edward B. Lankford, Democratic candidate for County Treasurer, throughout the recent campaign was such as to increase, if possible, the affection of all real Democrats for this stalwart and popular party man, while the vote he received in such Republican strongholds as Crisfield and Ashbury districts, shows the esteem and confidence in which he is held by all classes of citizens, without regard to party affiliation. After all, Mr. Lankford may well feel proud of the showing he made at the polls. The more than fifteen hundred white men who gave him their endorsement last Tuesday, constitutes an overwhelming majority of the best citizenship, voting at the recent election and the disloyal and recalcitrant Democrats, who joined the 1200 negroes who voted against Mr. Lankford, will live to regret their political conduct.

The Election in Somerset

Those who call themselves Democrats, and who do so because they are conscious of right doing, have good reason to resent the action of members of a faction who have been displaying Democratic colors but who have proved themselves faithless to the party and their obligations to it. It is perfectly plain from the official vote of the county that the Republican victory is the result of such faithlessness.

There is no special reason why the Republicans should have won under ordinary circumstances. It has failed to do so heretofore and it would have failed again but for the unprecedented conduct of men who used their votes to give their enemies office. Had these men refrained from taking part in the primaries they could have reserved the privilege of refusing their votes to Democratic candidates if they so chose; but when they went into those primaries and did so under the affiliation of Democrats, their failure to abide by the result brands them as totally unreliable so far as future primaries are concerned and brings the direct system into disrepute.

Now that the work has been done, however, and the county put upon a step by Republican control, we fail to see what pleasure or comfort the defecting Democrats(?) expect to get from it unless it be the grim one of gratifying vindictiveness and that at the expense of their party principles and their own consciences.

So far as the Republicans are concerned, they have for the most part won and we do not blame them for having utilized every advantage possible. Any other party would have done the same thing. We respect an out-and-out Republican and can take our medicine at his hands like we have done before and in a many way. The dose would have been bitter enough, to be sure, but when a decoction of "Jim Crow Democracy" is thrown in, it can not fail to nauseate a little.

To the true Democrats of the county, including those who opposed us in the primaries but who stood like men by the nominations, we extend our hands in appreciation of their faithful work. The Democratic party is not dead yet by a good deal. The chaff will be sifted from the wheat in due time and the sifting process will prove an advantage to all concerned.

The Elections

The substantial political results of Tuesday's elections go to President Wilson, as Democratic defeats in New Jersey and Maryland would have gone to the discredit of his administration, the handsome victory won by the Democratic party in each of these two States must go to its credit. The President, therefore, must congratulate himself that at the first verdicts rendered by the people since his inauguration, on March 4 of this year, he received gratifying endorsement.

Notwithstanding the plurality for Governor Fielder in New Jersey is much smaller than that given to the President last year, it was not only sufficient, but substantial. The conditions were such as to make the State doubtful, and when the greatly diminished size of the Progressive vote is taken into consideration, together with the factional hostility to President Wilson, the Democratic victory becomes creditable. Governor Fielder's plurality of 15,000 was more than expected, as the defections from the Progressive ranks were formidable, and ex-Governor Stokes, the Republican nominee for governor, was making an aggressive campaign that at one time promised to be successful.

Maryland also stood by President Wilson by electing Blair Lee, Democrat, to the United States Senate in spite of an opposition that threatened to be serious among Democratic voters—that of the Anti-Saloon League. But the people, fortunately, refused to permit this side issue to direct their votes, and a handsome Democratic victory was the result.

Thus, President Wilson triumphed in the two States where the credit of his administration was at stake, and whose favorable verdicts he had asked of the people, through direct appeals from the rostrum by a member of his cabinet and national leaders of the party. He can afford to smile serenely and await with confidence the verdict of the Congress elections next year, which will be the real test of the public of his administration.

In other respects the elections possessed more than ordinary interest. The defeat of Tammany in New York was overwhelming, but it was expected. Tammany deserved a licking and got it with a vengeance. The irrepressible Sulzer was elected to the Legislature from the Sixth Assembly district of New York City, but as the next Legislature probably will be Republican, he will amount to little or nothing there. The Republicans are not likely to take any part in the attempt to make a hero of him. He triumphed by reason of the hatred of Tammany, and that feeling having been fully expressed, Sulzer may be expected to soon drop to the bottom in New York politics.

The surprising feature of the Massachusetts election was the vigor of the Progressive campaign. Bird, Progressive candidate for governor, seems to have taken second place, which will be a great comfort to the Progressives, in view of their heavy losses in New Jersey and Maryland. The election of Walsh, Democrat, to the governorship, was expected, while Governor Foss' personal campaign for re-election carried very few votes.

So much for the partisan expressions of the 1913 elections. Interest in this direction will now subside until the more important political campaign of next year, in which the entire country will take part.—Wilmington Every Evening.

Bring your job printing to this office. Fair prices, good work, done promptly.

It Pays To Be True

In 1892 the Democratic party swept this country like a whirlwind. In the summer of 1894 the Wilson-Gorman Tariff bill was passed. In November, 1894, the Democratic ticket met with disastrous defeat throughout the country generally. The Republicans gained three Congressmen in Maryland, twelve in New York, full delegations in Massachusetts and West Virginia, and so on. The country had clearly turned against the Democratic administration.

There were two explanations given of this. One was that the people disapproved of the low tariff. The other was that they resented its not being made lower. The first was that the people had become dissatisfied with the Democratic policy, the second that the people were resentful because the Democratic policy had not been carried out in good faith.

The result of Tuesday's election pretty well settles this question. The present Democratic administration has also passed a tariff bill, a more drastic one than the Wilson-Gorman bill. It has just gone into operation. At the very time of election the annoyances of the income tax feature, annoyances impossible to avoid in the inauguration of a big scheme of taxation like that, were sharp in the public mind. Yet, in spite of that, the people the country over showed that they have no idea of receding from the position they have taken in regard to the tariff and other progressive legislation. The present administration has kept the faith and the people intend to keep faith with the Administration.

That is the message that sounded as loud in Massachusetts as in Maryland. It pays to be true.—Baltimore Sun.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County,

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every copy of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D., 1896. A. W. GLEASON, (Seal) Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by all druggists, 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

White House Bridal Party

Announcement was made at the White House, Tuesday night that Miss Margaret Wilson, eldest daughter of the President, would be maid of honor at the wedding of her sister, Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson to Francis B. Sayre, November 25th, at the White House. The bridesmaids will be Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, youngest daughter of the President; Miss Mary G. White, of Baltimore, a college friend of Miss Jessie Wilson; Miss Adeline Mitchell Scott, daughter of Professor William B. Scott, of Princeton, and Miss Marjorie Brown, a daughter of Mrs. Wilson's cousin, Colonel E. J. Brown, of Atlanta.

Dr. Wilfred T. Grengfell, with whom Mr. Sayre was associated as a mission worker in Labrador, is to be the best man. The ushers will be Benjamin B. Burton, of New York, who graduated in 1912 from Williams College; Dr. Scovill Clark, of Salem, Mass., with whom Mr. Sayre did mission work in Northern Newfoundland; Dr. Gilbert Horax, of Montclair, N. J., a classmate of Mr. Sayre at Williams College in 1909; and now at the Johns Hopkins Medical School, and Charles Evans Hughes, Jr., a son of Justice Hughes, of the Supreme Court, and a classmate of Mr. Sayre at Harvard Law School.

Rev. Sylvester W. Beach, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church at Princeton, which the Wilson family has attended for years, will perform the ceremony.

Cause of Insomnia

The most common cause of insomnia is disorders of the stomach and constipation. Chamberlain's Tablets correct these disorders and enable you to sleep. For sale by all Dealers.

Public Sale

Having decided to discontinue farming, I will sell at public sale on the farm whereon I now reside, situate about four miles from Princess Anne, Maryland, on

Thursday, Nov. 20th, 1913,

beginning at 10 o'clock a. m., the following personal property, viz: One pair of mules, four horses, three fresh cows, brood sow, five shoats, 1,000 bushels of corn, 26 stacks of fodder, twelve stacks of wheat straw, buggy carriage, speed cart, deerskin wagon, farm wagon, horse cart, corn planter, mowing machine, good sod cutter, farming mill, and bagger combined, cider mill, three double plows, three single plows, three cultivators, two harrows, one-horse hoe, four sets of work harness, two sets of driving harness, set of double work harness and other farm implements. Also two cook stoves and a lot of Household and Kitchen Furniture.

TERMS OF SALE—On all sums of $10 and under cash; over that amount a credit of six months will be given on bankable note with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale. No property to be delivered until terms of sale are complied with.

EUGENE E. DOODY.

Bad Generalship

None of the candidates in Baltimore supported actively by Mr. William H. Anderson was elected. Those whom he opposed most actively seem to have run ahead of their ticket, where they did not lead it. In the counties the Anti-Saloon League's support seems to have helped a few men, but, on the other hand, several whom it opposed strongly were victorious, and some whom it supported with great zeal were defeated.

Does this mean that temperance sentiment in Maryland is waning? We have no idea that that is the case. The whole trouble seems to have been the bad strategy of Leader Anderson, who, for some reason inexplicable to those who have always believed in his astuteness, chose to put himself in a position where the election of Blair Lee would seem a defeat of the anti-saloon forces.

Blair Lee stands for most, if not all, that is best in government. He is high-minded, honorable and an active opponent of the political machines which must ever be the support of the corrupt and lawless classes. If Mr. Anderson considers all or some liquor dealers in that category, he must have known that in fighting Blair Lee he was fighting the type of man whose aid is absolutely necessary to the success of local option or any reform movement in politics.

The average voter saw this, if Mr. Anderson did not—and it is evident that a good many local option voters did. The only thing with regard to the anti-saloon movement that the election proves is that Mr. Anderson's generalship was bad in this campaign.—Baltimore Sun.

Tonight

Tonight, if you feel dull and stupid, or bilious and constipated, take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you will feel all right tomorrow. For sale by all Dealers.

(Advertisement)

FIRE INSURANCE LOSS PAID

The Home Insurance Company, New York,

Has with its usual promptness adjusted and paid loss to Evergreen Ingersoll, on Revelle Hayman's farm, Somerset county, Md. Loss occurred October 1st, and Mr. Ingersoll has received draft in settlement without delay.

When you get "HOME" policies you get good insurance. NO ASSESSMENT to be paid when you insure in this company.

FIRE and WINDSTORM INSURANCE

ASK FOR "HOME" Policies

ROBERT F. DUER, Agent, PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

STATEMENT OF THE

Receipts and Disbursements

OF THE

Board of School Commissioners

for Somerset County

FOR

Public School Purposes

For the Year Ending July 31st, 1913.

RECEIPTS

State School Tax $22,760.78

State Free School Fund 1,419.01

State Donations and Academic Fund 1,000.00

County School Tax 34% cents on the $100 25,500.00

Amount of levy $27,000

Fines and laboratory fixtures 1.04

Licenses (white) 2,791.95

Licenses (colored) 349.41

State old building 616.00

Cash refunded by Crisfield Hardware Company 2.51

Sale of Manual Training Supplies 34.25

High School appropriation 2,802.00

Cash paid for commercial tuition 50.00

Sale of blackboard 1.10

Diplomas 25.60

Proceeds of note in bank 644.34

2,489.31

$73,274.69

DISBURSEMENTS

Amt refunded Free School Book Fund 111.39

Amt of donations for Marion High School refunded 250.00

Books 338.68

Fuel 3,399.40

Repairs 602.85

Apparatus and Furniture 1,001.97

Schoolers' Salaries 42,999.02

New Buildings 2,150.55

Sanitary Costs 473.24

Kindergarten and Manual Training 78.16

Office expenses 306.09

Salary of Secretary, Treasurer and County Superintendent 1,300.00

Salary of School Commissioners 300.00

Salary of Clerk 325.00

Tuition fees paid to adjoining counties 12.00

Commencement Exercises 36.50

Discount and interest 356.68

Loans 15,000.00

Printing 67.00

Advertising 84.25

Insurance 76.92

Expenses of Institute 247.80

Expenses of State and County Assn 45.67

School Libraries 80.00

Attorney's and Clerk's Fees 65.85

School Supplies 125.94

Balance cash on hand July 31, 1913 1,501.58

$73,274.69

Free School Book Fund Statement

RECEIPTS

Balance on hand July 31, 1912 168.46

Amount of appropriation for the year 1912-1913 8,401.46

Amount of Sales 175.18

Amount of fines for loss or destruction of books 4.76

Amount from Williams Wilkins 4.00

$9,749.86

DISBURSEMENTS

Amount expended for books $ 3,126.12

Cost of distribution 449.15

Twine, labels, etc. 19.50

Balance July 31, 1913 154.08

$9,749.86

W. H. DASHIELL, Treasurer.

11-4

THE HOUSE OF FASHION

Thanksgiving Offerings

Hargis Department Store

WE CAN SUPPLY ALL YOUR NEEDS—LARGE OR SMALL—AND SAVE YOU MONEY ON YOUR PRE-THANKSGIVING PURCHASES. WHETHER IT IS A NEW DRESS YOU NEED, SOMETHING IN TABLE LINEN, FURNITURE FOR THE DINING ROOM OR A NEW RUG TO ADD CHARM AND ATTRACTIVENESS TO THE HOME WE ARE

READY TO SERVE YOU

COATS AND SUITS—If you haven't seen our stock of suits and coats you have no idea what beautiful styles have been produced this season. BEAUTIFUL SILKS AND DRESS GOODS in all the new shades for evening and street wear. TABLE LINEN—Attractive linens add much to the charm and beauty of a Thanksgiving dinner. Linen Luncheon Sets, Dainty Hemstitched Tea Napkins, Table Damask in new designs, etc. FURNITURE—Make your home attractive as possible. We can furnish it complete from top to bottom at less cost than you can procure goods of similar quality elsewhere.

We have planned largely for the demand that will be made on us for dining-room FURNITURE, and also the needs of the Kitchen, and we invite our customers to see the display we are now making in these lines. NEW WINTER DESIGNS IN RUGS ALL SIZES

T. F. HARGIS DEPARTMENT STORE, Pocomoke City, Maryland

Gold Bracelets

Were among the earliest personal adornments. They were popular in Egypt and Assyria 2000 years B. C.

More popular in America today. We have many designs—plain gold bands—others richly carved—still others modestly or elaborately Diamond set.

Our 1913 Christmas catalog has just been issued. Write for it today—it's free.

C. C. CROOKS CO. 114 W. BALTIMORE ST., BALTIMORE.

Assignee's Sale OF VALUABLE

Mortgaged Real Estate

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a mortgage from James S. Mackay and Amanda E. Mackay, his wife, to George H. Landon, dated 2nd of August, 1910, and recorded among the Land Records of said Somerset County, Maryland, in Liber S. F. D., No. 56, folios 96 et seq., the said mortgage having been duly assigned to the undersigned, and default having been made by the mortgagors in the payment and covenants of said mortgage, the undersigned assigns by deed dated August 24, 1913, and duly of record among the land records of said Somerset county, The said farm is improved by a DWELLING HOUSE, Small Barn and other Outbuildings and contains some valuable marketable timber.

TERMS OF SALE:—Cash—as prescribed by mortgage. Title papers at purchaser's expense.

GEORGE H. MYERS, Assignee.

When Rubbers Become Necessary and your shoes pinch, Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes, is just the thing to use. Always use it for breaking in new shoes. Sold everywhere. 35c. Sample Free. Address A. S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y. Don't accept any substitute.

11-4

NOTICE To Tax-Payers

Notice is hereby given that the levy of the year 1913 for State and County taxes has been made for Somerset county. Pursuant to said levy the taxes are now in my hands for collection. A discount of three per cent. will be allowed on all county taxes paid on or before October 31st, 1913, and a discount of two per cent. if paid during November 1913. A discount of five per cent. will be allowed on all State taxes paid on or before August 31st, 1913.

The law provides that both County and State taxes must be paid in order to obtain the discount.

ROBERT F. MADDOX, Treasurer and Collector of State and County Taxes.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans Court for Somerset county letters of administration on the estate of

SARAH F. BELL, (otherwise known as Sarah J. Bell) late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscriber on or before the

Twenty-eighth Day of April, 1914, or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 22nd day of October, 1913.

JOSEPH W. MAINSTER, Adm'r of Sarah F. Bell (otherwise known as Sarah J. Bell), deceased.

True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER, Register of Wills.

10-28

Notice To Creditors

Perry X. Heatwole et al. vs. Chas. F. Flier. In the Circuit Court for Somerset County. No. 2770. Chancery.

The undersigned, receiver in the above cause named, pursuant to an order of the Circuit Court for Somerset County, passed on the 30th day of October, 1913, hereby gives notice to all persons having claims against the late partnership firm of Perry X. Heatwole and others, engaged in business under the name of Yonsey Rental Company, to file their claims, properly authenticated, with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset County, Maryland, on or before the 10th day of March, 1914.

GEORGE M. UPSHUR, Receiver.

11-4

Notices of Marriages and Deaths will be published free—but Obituaries must be paid for at the rate of five cents per line.

Business Pointers

Ten (10) cents a line for the first insertion and five (5) thereafter.

100 HOGS WANTED—Apply to WEBB & Co., Crisfield, Md.

WANTED—A four or five room house for one year. H. D. YATES.

E. S. PUSEY, Blacksmithing and full line of Machinery, Princess Anne.

FOR SALE—500 bushels of white and yellow corn. L. N. WHITCRAFT.

Poor luck in baking will ruin the best disposition. With Cole's Hot Blast Range your luck is always splendid.

FOR SALE—A well-built buggy, in excellent condition. Price reasonable. L. CATLIN, Beverly Farm, King's Creek.

HAY FOR SALE—Baled Timothy and Timothy and Clover mixed. Farm where the Manokin River, 23 miles below Princess Anne. CHARLES C. GELDER.

Persons desiring to buy farm land in Somerset county will find it to their interest to consult the undersigned who has for sale some good farms that can be bought cheap. LEVIN H. HALL, Surveyor of Somerset County.

AUTOMOBILE ANNOUNCEMENT.—The new 1914 Overland is a powerful, handsome, luxurious riding car, 35 h. p., 114 inch wheel base, 4 inch tires, electric lights, completely equipped for $850.00, with Gray & Davis' electric starter, $1075. Mr. Business Man, use good judgment in buying a car the same as you do anything else. Buy the Overland and save several hundred dollars. Write or phone L. S. NOCK, Salisbury and Crisfield.

The date on the label of your paper shows the time to which your subscription is paid. Please look at it.

Local and Miscellaneous

Some people never foot the bill without putting up an awful kick.

A man may keep his thoughts to himself without being stingy with his wisdom.

The fellow who is always boasting about his conscience should make it perfectly clear.

Some women frankly marry for money, and others will take a man for just what he is worth.

Wild geese are now heading southward and this is a good sign that wintery weather is at hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard P. Waller and two children, Frances and Howard, Jr., are visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. G. Elmer Brown, who is employed as book-keeper in the Home Savings Bank, Washington, D. C., spent from Monday till Wednesday with his father, Mr. G. W. Brown.

The New Orleans Picayune asks why some women begin a letter on the first page, then skip to the third, then return to the second; then on to the fourth. Perhaps because it takes longer to read it that way.

Mr. Edward Teas, who has been carrying the mail from Princess Anne to Deal's Island and intervening points, has discontinued the service until April 1, 1914. Until that time Mr. Wesley Austin, of Deal's Island, will transport the mails.

The graduating exercises of the twenty-seventh class of Golden Wilmington Commercial and Shortland College will be held Monday evening, November 17th, at 7.30 o'clock, in the du Pont Playhouse, Wilmington, Del.

L. Irving Handy, Esq., will deliver the address to the graduates.

Mr. Samuel Lloyd, aged about 30 years, died at his home in Mt. Vernon last Thursday night, after an illness of two weeks, of typhoid fever. His funeral took place from his late home last Saturday morning, the services being conducted by the Rev. C. H. Weaver, of Princess Anne, and the interment was in the cemetery of Grace Church.

Mr. C. C. Waller, Special Agent of the N. Y. P. & N. R. Co., has placed in the hands of the school superintendent of Somerset county sufficient copies of an illustrated pamphlet entitled "Stop, Look, Listen," issued by the Chamber of Commerce, of Norfolk, Va., to be distributed among the school teachers of the county and thus brought to the attention of pupils under their care. The pamphlet is intended to serve as a warning to those who have to cross railroads and to emphasize the importance of greater watchfulness in so doing, so that accidents may be avoided.

The Evening Herald, published at Rock Hill, South Carolina, last Tuesday contained the following editorial announcement: "C. E. House, who was city editor of The Herald for the past several months, has accepted a position with the Rock Hill Gas Company, and his successor in the Herald office is Thomas S. Forsyth, who comes to Rock Hill from Maryland. Of Mr. Forsyth, the successor of Mr. House, The Herald can say that he is an experienced newspaper man and comes here with first-class recommendations. He was, until recently, editor of the Journal, Fredericksburg, Va., and in addition to editorial experience has been employed in other departments of the business, being thoroughly familiar with the work of making a newspaper."

—Mr. Marion Mills, of West, spent a few days in Baltimore last week.

—Miss Amanda Mills visited the home of her brother, Mr. Marion L. Mills, last week.

—The windows of several stores in town present an attractive appearance, and much favorable comment is made.

—More sweet potatoes are stored in the potato houses on the Eastern Shore this year than ever before, owing to low prices.

—The hen is now one of the most important members of the community. Her product may come high, but we must have it.

—Mrs. Hampden P. Dashiell entertained the Ladies' Card Club last Thursday evening at her home on Prince William street.

—Mrs. T. J. Smith entertained at cards on Wednesday evening in honor of her friend, Mrs. Richard P. Ross, of Frederick, Md. The guests were, Mrs. Cassius M. Dashiell, Mrs. H. L. Brittingham, Mrs. W. B. Spivey, Mrs. Hampden P. Dashiell, Mrs. John B. Roberts, Mrs. Robert F. Duer, Mrs. W. H. Dashiell.

—Richard G. Badger, of Boston, has just brought out a new book by our former townsman, Mr. James Teackle Dennis, entitled "From Cataract to Equator." It is an account of a trip through Central Africa recently made by Mr. Dennis. The illustrations were taken by him. The volume covers the region lying between Egypt and Uganda, and mentions of another prominent citizen, Col. Charles Chaille-Long makes the book of special interest to Princess Anne people.

—Sixty members of the Tri-State Packers Association, which includes those of New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland, gathered for a meeting in Wilmington last Thursday at Eden Hall. The feature of the meeting was an interesting address by Dr. William R. Messick, state canning inspector, appointed under an act of the last legislature. Addresses were also made by Dr. Bigelow, of Washington, of the research laboratory of the National Canners Association; Professor White, of the Maryland Agricultural College, and others. Mr. C. M. Dashiell, of Princess Anne, is secretary of the Association.

—An exchange says that the cost of living at present, high as it is, can be reduced by those who know how. In other words, one cause of the high cost of living is extravagance, as Congressman Lever claims. That is not all, however. Another cause of the high cost of living is ignorance—ignorance of home economics, of how to save, of what to buy (especially for food) and how to handle it after buying. Between the extravagance of the extravagant and the ignorance of the ignorant, those who are neither extravagant nor ignorant are being squeezed by the high cost of living. Here is the opportunity to reform. Let the extravagant forsake their ways and the ignorant inform themselves.

St. Peter's

Nov. 8.—Mrs. and Mr. C. Croswell, of Baltimore, made a visit to Oriole this week.

Mrs. James Hall was the guest of Mrs. Charlton Taylor in Dames Quarter this week.

Mr. Charles Laird, of Wilmington, Del., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Laird.

Mrs. John Heath and Mrs. Lucas, of Salisbury, are spending a week as the guests of Mrs. Omar Muir, on Crab Island.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hall and children, of Seaford, Del., after spending the past two weeks with relatives in this district, returned home yesterday, Friday.

A Play of Real Merit

The dramatic treat of this season, "Paid in Full," will be presented at the Auditorium, Princess Anne, for one night only, Wednesday, Nov. 12th.

"Paid in Full" is the best play ever written by an American dramatist. The story is a profoundly moving one, yet not without its lighter touches, and it is portrayed with an unerring realism that shows the author's thorough comprehension and understanding of the conditions he has thus ably depicted. The acting company is headed by Elsie O'Connor, a Miss not yet out of her teens, but who has won her spurs on Broadway, and she has the support of one of the best acting companies ever in the South, each member being entirely adequate to the requirements of the various roles. The play is too well known to intelligent people to need comment, and the management guarantees a high-class, clean, clever production of this great play. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents. Seats on sale at B. H. Dougherty's store.

A Giant Lobster

"Grandfather of all living lobsters," was the title accorded a giant crustacean brought to port in Boston, Mass., last week. The lobster was the largest landed there in 50 years, old time lobster men said. When they had finished their observations the following figures were given out: Weight, 27 pounds; age, about 50 years; spread from claw to claw, 37 inches; length of claw, 24 inches; feelers, 20 inches; width of back, 10 inches; would make salad for 25 persons.

Sunday School Convention

The Somerset County Sunday School Convention convened in Princess Anne last Thursday afternoon and ended its sessions on Friday afternoon. The committee—John J. Bunting, M. E. Hungerford and S. F. Whittington—on behalf of the convention, requests the publication of the following resolutions:

Whereas, We have been most cordially welcomed and delightfully entertained by Antioch Methodist Episcopal and the Manokin Presbyterian Churches; and

Whereas, We have most profitably spent two days in edifying discourse and mutual exchange of ideas; therefore, be it

Resolved, 1st.—That the thanks of this Convention be extended to the pastor, Rev. J. Howard Gray, whose watchful care and wholesome manners have made us feel doubly welcomed, and make us loath to say "goodby;" and to the choir, particularly its leader and organist, for services so gladly rendered in giving us appropriate music for all our meetings.

2nd.—That we express our hearty and sincere gratitude to members of this church, Manokin Presbyterian Church, who have thrown open their commodious and beautiful homes to take us in. We have made effort to show our appreciation by the taking in of their bounty. We pray God's blessing on all the homes of this fair and historic town.

3rd.—That we remember in honor the efficiency of our considerate and able president, and we shall not forget his indefatigable labors to make this Convention a fountain-head of information and enthusiasm in and for aggressive Sunday School work, and we will treasure the messages delivered by the many speakers.

4th.—That we show our appreciation and approval of the presence and words of Rev. B. W. Kindley by accepting his plans for more progressive and fruitful Sabbath School activities, that wherever it is feasible we will follow his instruction in organization and execution; that we endorse the plan of forward work in the Maryland Sunday School Association, and will aid it with our prayers and contributions; that we urge upon all schools of Somerset county the necessity of electing and sending delegates to our Convention, and we exhort the pastors, by all means, to be present, deeming it their reasonable service.

5th.—That we thank our Heavenly Father for preserved health, for these two perfect autumnal days and we implore His Divine favor on all we have done and on all we hope to do.

Good Paint

is cheap; and Devco is not the only good paint; it is one of a dozen; and, very likely, the only one in your town—there are hundreds of middling and bad. You can see what chance there is of another good one there; perhaps one in ten at the most.

Bad paint is dearest; middling is dear; costs 2 or 3 times as much as the best. No matter about the cost a gallon; that isn't it; the cost a square foot; the cost a job; better yet, the cost a year. There's a whole education in paint in this advertisement.

DEVCO.

C. H. Hayman sells it.

ELTON H. ROSS, THE BARBER,

Sanitary Shop—Three Chairs—Clean Towels—Hot and Cold Water.

PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

Slab Wood For Sale

Pine, Gum and Oak Slab Wood, stove lengths, delivered in Princess Anne, $3.50 per measured cord. Address BENJAMIN & GRAHAM CO., Salisbury, Md.

10-28

Bridge Closed

During the construction of the concrete bridge over the Manokin river, the old Red Bridge will be closed to traffic. All persons are hereby warned not to trespass thereon.

By order of the BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Dr. C. W. PURNELL, OPTOMETRIST.

of Cambridge, will be at O. A. Jones' Drug Store on Monday afternoon Dec. 1st, 1913.

Glasses prescribed and furnished when necessary.

GORDON T. WHELTON County Surveyor Crisfield, Maryland

At Princess Anne Every Tuesday OFFICE IN COURT HOUSE (Formerly used by Tax-Collectors)

Order Nisi

William L. Nock, ex parte, trust created by mortgage on Margaret L. Bruce to William L. Nock.

No. 2881, Chancery. In the Circuit Court for Somerset County.

Ordered by the subscriber, clerk of the Circuit Court, in Equity, this 8th day of November, A. D. 1913; that the report of William L. Nock, mortgagee, mentioned in the above cause, and the sale of real estate by him reported, be and the same are hereby ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary appear by exceptions filed before the 4th day of December, 1913; provided, a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper printed in Somerset county once in each of three successive weeks before 4th day of December, 1913.

The report states the amount of sales to be $6,715.00.

True Copy. S. FRANK DASHIELL, Clerk.

11-11

Perryhawkin

Nov. 8.—Mr. W. A. Riffin has much improved his property by erecting a new barn.

Mr. Byrd Butler, who has been confined to the house since July suffering from typhoid fever, is out again.

Mr. Omar Dryden, of Cape Charles, Va., after visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dryden, has returned home.

Mr. Ernest Howard and sister, Miss Carrie Howard, of Pitts Creek, Worcester county, visited relatives in this community Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Durant Denston, of Philadelphia, who arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Denston, some time ago, suffering from an attack of rheumatism, is much improved.

The Ladies Aid of Perryhawkin Christian Church met at the home of Mrs. P. D. West Tuesday evening. Much important business was considered and a delightful evening was spent.

Mrs. F. W. Marriner and two children, Mary and Vivian, and Mrs. B. T. Dykes returned home Saturday of last week after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Clarence Dykes, at Sykesville, and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Marriner, in Baltimore.

Saved His Foot

H. D. Ely, of Bantam, O., suffered from a horrible ulcer on his foot for four years. A doctor advised amputation, but he refused and reluctantly tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve as a last resort. He then wrote: "I used your salve and my foot was soon completely cured." Best remedy for burns, cuts, bruises and eczema. Get a box today. Only 25c. All druggists, or by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

(Advertisement)

—A man can't hope to keep his friends unless he also keeps his promises.

European Restaurant

Meals at all hours

When you want a lunch don't fail to stop in. Oysters in every style—raw, steamed or fried. Families supplied by the quart or gallon.

RAYMOND MARRINER, Proprietor

Horse for Sale

AT—

PUBLIC AUCTION

Saturday, Nov. 15th, 1913,

at 8 o'clock p. m., in front of the store house of Wilson & Bowland, Princess Anne. One BAY MARE, well-bred and a good driver. Also one BUGGY in good condition. Persons interested may examine this property at the stable on L. J. Wilson's residence lot.

Terms CASH or bankable note.

GEO. H. MYERS, Trustee.

Public Sale

—OF A—

Black Percheron Stallion

AT POCOMOKE CITY

Saturday, Nov. 29th, 1913,

We, the undersigned, offer for sale the handsome Black Percheron Stallion named "Brewster," with pedigree and papers; 5 years old and will weigh 1640 pounds. Anyone wishing to purchase a stallion will miss a great chance by not purchasing this one. He is one of the finest the Eastern Shore—a sure foaler.

W. P. EVANS, Pocomoke City, Md.

E. C. HOLLOWAY, Snow Hill, Md.

N. J. MILLER, Rehoboth, Md.

Public Sale

Having decided to discontinue farming I will sell at public sale, on the premises where I now reside, on the State road between Kingston and Westover, on

Tuesday, November 18, 1913,

beginning at 10 o'clock a. m., the following personalty, viz: Black horse, 7 years old; bay mare, 12 years old; good milch cow, 100 bushels of corn, 10 stacks of fodder, 1 stack of hay, 2 tons of clover hay, 50 bushels of turnips, buggy, spring wagon, horse cart, roller, drag and other farming implements; also cook stove, butter churn and other household articles.

Terms of Sale—On all sums of $10 and under the cash will be required over that amount a credit of 4 months will be given on bankable note with approved security.

W. COULBOURNE WILSON.

FOR YOUR TEETH

"BESCO"

(ALKALINE)

TOOTH POWDER

The most elegant preparation ever introduced for Cleansing, Beautifying and Preserving the Teeth. Prevents the deposit of tartar—the teeth's worst enemy.

The daily use of "BESCO" makes the teeth pearly and white. * * * Guaranteed to contain nothing injurious to the teeth or gums.

A liberal bottle for 25 cents.

If not satisfied after a trial of "BESCO" your money back if you want it.

OMAR A. JONES, DRUGGIST, Princess Anne, Maryland

Lankford's Department Store

FASHIONABLE Fall and Winter Ware

This Store

Is Prepared to Serve You

LADIES', MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S

SUITS and COATS

"BUSTER BROWN" SHOES

FOR CHILDREN AND MISSES

"Goodman's" Shoes

For Ladies', Misses' and Children

"Dolly Madison" Shoes

FOR LADIES—Strong Shoe Proposition This

Sweaters, Gloves, Corsets, Underwear, Etc., Etc.

WE DO NOT CLAIM to have the Largest and Best Store South of New York or West of Paris, but there are some things we claim: Your attention, consideration and your patronage if we can serve you just as well as anyone else. To this end we have labored for 25 years and come near knowing the demands of the community.

Our stock will bear this out if given a fair show . . .

LANKFORD

THE HOME FURNISHER

Princess Anne, -:- Maryland

Call and See My Full Line of

Ranges, Cook Stoves, Heaters

"Tip-Top" Hot Blast Stoves

Also "WILSON" HEATERS

PRICES TO SUIT THE PURCHASER

QUALITY OF STOVES THE BEST

E. S. PUSEY

Main Street—North of Washington Hotel

PRINCESS ANNE, MARYLAND

The Big Store

WE HAVE THEM

COATS

Yes! In all prices. You will be delighted with the showing.

DRESS GOODS

Well! You will not have to look anywhere else, it is here. A showing we feel proud of.

FURS

Now, this is our hobby. Just come and look them over.

INFANT WEAR

Beautiful Cashmere Coats, all ages. Caps and Leggings.

GLOVES

Sure! From the 16 Button to the short $1.00, and every pair guaranteed.

NOTIONS

Everything for everybody.

DICKINSON'S PLACE

FURNITURE

It is here from the cheapest to the best. A new arrival this week.

RUGS

My! Beautiful designs, from $7.50 to $50.00

BLANKETS

You should see our line.

LACE CURTAINS

A strong collection. When you call be sure and see this department.

WALL PAPER

Do not buy the cheap shoddy kind, let us show you the new things—you will be delighted.

TOILET SETS AND LAMPS

In all prices.

MILLINERY

Have you seen our showing? If not you will be sorry. It is beautiful. Do not fail to visit this department.

W. S. DICKINSON & SON

POCOMOKE CITY, - MARYLAND

NIGH UNTO DEATH

By ALVA R. HUNTINGTON

It was at a time when the trans-mississippi country was developing, and instead of the iron horse, with its trail flashing along at the rate of fifty miles an hour, the stagecoach lumbered at the rate of five or six. One of these coaches left Denver one morning, struck the mountains at Golden City, mounted to the highest point and moved on downward and upward alternately toward Georgetown.

On the top of the coach a gentleman and his family were enjoying the scenery. The driver sat on his box trying to keep awake, for he had been drinking, while beside him sat a young man whose costume denoted that he was a resident of the region. The coach reached the top of an ascent, and the road in front wound downward in one of those frequent dips in the mountains. It had begun the descent, and the young man sitting beside the driver, noticing that he had failed to put on the brake, looked aside at him to see what it meant. The fellow was asleep and had not only failed to "brake," but had let his hold on the reins, which were now down on the pole.

A punch in the ribs awoke the driver, who, seeing the reins dangling from the pole and the coach rolling rapidly down the crooked road, jumped from his seat, preferring rather to be injured by a fall on the stony road than to be hurled over a precipice he knew to be at a turn farther down.

There were shrieks from the women passengers, while the men were paralyzed. But among the latter there was one exception. The young man left alone on the box let himself down on the pole, gathered up the reins, climbed back on to the box and put on the brake. The horses were by this time so wild and the speed so great that it was very difficult to control the one and lessen the other. Not an eighth of a mile distant was the turn in the road, with a gulf a thousand feet deep on one side. The cries and shrieks had ceased with the effort thus far made to regain control, and every eye was fixed on the danger ahead, every breath held in terror.

The man on the box kept a firm hand on the reins and pushed with all his strength with his right foot on the brake. There was a lessening of the speed, but would it be reduced sufficiently to go safely round the curve? The hearts of those whose lives were at stake were throbbing in time with the jumping of the horses. When the turn was reached the velocity was still so great that there was little hope. The women recommenced to shriek.

"Stop that!" said the driver. "You'll excite the horses." The cries ceased. There was no sound except what came from the horses' hoofs and the creaking of the coach, while every one held with a tight grip to his seat and looked with straining eyes at the gulf before him. The driver guided the horses as near the rock on the inner side as he dared, for should he let it the coach would be knocked over the precipice. Notwithstanding his effort so great was its swing when it made the turn that a hind wheel slid over a slope a few feet from the edge. The driver gave a yell to the horses and threw the long lash of his whip among them with a crack. Every animal gave a jump, the wheel came back on level ground, and the rest of the turn was made in safety.

The final effort caused the horses to break forth again, and again they must be brought under control. But now the road was comparatively straight and soon the inclination began to lessen. In a few minutes the bottom of the dip was reached, and the coach was brought to a standstill. Then the driver was informed in the arms of those on the outside of the coach, both men and women.

An hour later the coach drove up a hill to a hotel at Idaho Springs and all alighted. The gentleman who was traveling with his wife and family took the driver aside for a private interview.

"You have saved the lives of a coach load of persons," he said, "including myself, my wife and family. Had it not been for your coolness and courage we would all have met with a frightful death. What can I do for you? I'm rich and my fortune is at your disposal."

"You owe me nothing, sir," said the young man, with a British accent. "My own life was in jeopardy. In saving myself I saved the others."

"You could have left the coach as the cowardly driver did."

"Come," resumed the gentleman, "anything you ask that is in my power to grant shall be granted."

The young man hesitated, then said: "I don't belong here; I came from England. You know the younger sons in England must shift for themselves. I came to this country, where I am not known, and can turn my hand to anything. Being fond of horses, I drove a stage. I have left that and am going up to Georgetown to start on a prospecting tour."

But the young man's plans were changed. He went to the east, entered the banking house of the man whose life he saved and is now wealthy. He says that he went just near enough to the edge of a precipice to grasp a fortune without going over.

JUST ONE WORD that word is Tuttur's MEANS HEALTH.

Are you constipated? Troubled with indigestion? Sick headache? Vertigo? Biliousness? Insomnia?

ANY of these symptoms and many others indicate weakness of the LIVER.

You Need Tuttur's Pills Take No Substitute.

Why Their Clothes Didn't Fit.
The late Admiral Robley D. Evans during his visit to Japan was received by Mutsuhito and his empress at a court ceremony. In speaking of the Japanese court he said:

"Hand kissing was not the thing. Instead, I received a handshake from a very shapely and beautiful hand. I found the empress a woman of great refinement and perfect ease of manner, so delicate in appearance and so small in stature as to remind you of some fine piece of Dresden china. She was attired in a Paris gown of heliotrope brocade, the bad fit of which I accounted for just as I accounted for the baggy trousers of the emperor. After I had been a year in Japan I was satisfied it was owing to the fact that a tailor would not permit himself to touch the persons of their majesties, but just looked at them and guessed what the measurements should be."

Long Lived Spaniards.
Though the average age of Spaniards is among the lowest in Europe—thirty-two years and four months, against fifty years in Sweden and Norway—yet Spain remains the land of hundred-year-old people.

South of the Sierra Morena there are fifty to sixty a hundred years old in every million inhabitants. In Malaga and other parts of Andalusia 100 hundred-year-olds are reckoned in every million inhabitants. And when a Spaniard once attains that age he usually hangs on to life for ten to fifteen years longer.

One of the famous long lived men of Spain was Dr. Manuel Barco, who lies buried in the Church of San Sebastian at Seville, having 121 years to his credit, according to the church record. He left 300 descendants.—Boston Post.

A BIT OF ADVICE

First—Don't Delay. Second—Don't Experiment.

If you suffer from backache, headaches or dizzy spells; if you rest poorly and are languid in the morning; if the kidney secretions are irregular and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. In such cases the kidneys often need help.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney trouble. They are recommended by thousands. Can Princess Anne residents desire more convincing proof of their effectiveness than the statement of a Princess Anne citizen who has used them and willingly testifies to their worth?

Mrs. Oscar Long, Princess Anne, Md., says: "It is true that Doan's Kidney Pills have been used very successfully in my home and I hold them in high esteem. I seldom let a day go by without telling someone of the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. It gives me pleasure to publicly endorse them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Servants in Bogota.
The domestic problem is reduced to a minimum in Bogota. Good domestics are plentiful and cheap. Five to ten dollars a month is high pay. In the houses of the well to do the servants are well treated and lead happy lives. They have ample quarters of their own, centering round their own patio and enough of the old patriarchal regime survives to make them really a part of the family.—"Columbia."

Method in Her Singing.
The Hostess—Who is that singing? The Hostess—That's our new maid. She always sings at her work. The Caller—What a happy disposition! Mercy, how loud she sings! The Hostess—Yes. When she sings loud she's breaking something.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Lucky.
An editor who started about twenty years ago with only 55 cents is now worth $100,000. His accumulation of wealth is due to his frugality, good habits, strict attention to business and the fact that an uncle died and left him $99,999.—Editor and Publisher.

Advance Information.
"Was it a case of love at first sight?" "They call it that, although before they met she had heard that he was wealthy, and he had been told she was an heiress."—Detroit Free Press.

Enough Said.
She—Do you know Mr. Boreleigh, the author? He—No. But I have a nodding acquaintance with his works.—Boston Transcript.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

AN ARTFUL ELEPHANT.

He Deserved the Dinner He Got With So Much Cunning.

Here is an amusing tale of an elephant's artfulness told by Mrs. A. M. Handley in "Roughing It in Southern India."

"One very bright moonlight evening while camping on the Brahmagiri we were sitting out in the cool air after dinner when one of the elephants somehow contrived to unhook himself and walked away from his own quarters into ours. We saw him go up to a sleeping native, snuff at his pillow and then ever so gently draw it away with his trunk. At the same time he edged his own foot under the man's head and shoulders that no jerk might be felt.

"The pillow was a bag of rice, put there for safety against thieves. Although tied up in a knot the bag was deftly opened and its contents devoured to the very last grain, the thief looking watchfully round him the while.

"We were not likely to disappoint him of his cleverly won feast, as he seemed to know. For, just leaving his tiny eyes rest on us unconcernedly for a second or two, he fell to considering his next move.

"He drew a stone toward him with the ever handy trunk and got it under the empty sack. Then he worked both together under the man's head. Finally he stealthily withdrew his own foot, and, having waited no longer than was necessary to make sure he had left all safe, he moved off."

ON THE BRINK OF NIAGARA.

Three Hours of Peril, but He Still Clutched His Knife.

On the afternoon of June 1, 1872, an old painter named William McCullough while painting the bridge above Niagara falls between the first and second Sister islands fell into the rapids. Instantly he was swept furiously toward the cataract, but whirled into lesser waves, so that he struck against and seized a rock not far above the brink.

Hundreds quickly gathered on the shore and watched, all eager to help, but ignorant what to do. Among them was Thomas Conroy, who secured a coil of rope, fastened one end to a tree on shore and with the other end in his hand waded out as far as he could and occasionally swam, the water being from eighteen inches to six feet deep.

He aimed far up stream to allow for the power of the current and at last with great difficulty reached the unfortunate painter and bound him to himself with the rope. They were swept off their feet several times on the way back to shore, but the rope had been firmly fastened, and they finally landed safely.

When they reached shore it was found that McCullough still clutched his putty knife firmly in his hand, having held it during the three hours he had been on the brink of the falls.

Down in the Depths.

The mermaid was ill. She sat leaning against a rock, unmindful of the sand that was settling on her beautiful tail. In fact, she was too far gone to care about anything.

Later, when Father Neptune came along to inquire how she felt, she cheered up a little.

"Oh, Father Neptune," she cried, "could you not slip up and ask the people on the beach if there is a doctor amongst them?"

Neptune, only too glad to be of use, departed and was seen returning with a young man of professional appearance.

The young man presented his card; the mermaid smiled, read it and fainted.

He was a chiroprapist—London Answers.

Serious Harm From Noise.
Investigations made by physicians prove that there is appreciable harm from noise, and serious harm too. It is no doubt true that a normal nervous system can apparently adjust itself to all sorts of adverse circumstances. We couldn't exist otherwise. Nevertheless the physical agents make an impression and, like water dripping on a stone, can overcome resistance in time. These investigators have found many abnormal nervous conditions in those who have long been immersed in loud noise utterly unaware that any harm was being done.—London Tit-Bits.

Easily Recognized.
"That man sitting in the back seat is the one who owns the automobile." "Why, he is the only person in the party who doesn't seem to be having a good time."

"That's how I know. He's thinking about tires, gasoline and speed limit fines."—Washington Star.

The New and the Old.
"I congratulate you on having been knighted, Mr. von Meyerstein. Mighty pleasant experience, isn't it?" "Don't talk harem. To you it is much pleasanter that it wasn't you, but one of your ancestors who had that experience some 500 years ago."—Meggendorfer Blätter.

The Other Way.
She (to husband who feels seasick—see coming on)—Can I get you anything, dear? He—No. Just tell me how to keep what I've got.—Boston Transcript.

Herein.
Gladys—Oh, Bert, I wonder if there are any stalactites in this cave? Bert—Well, if there are, haven't I got this stick to defend you with?—London Punch.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

of

In Use For Over

Thirty Years

CASTORIA

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

THE CERTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

N. Y., Phila. & Norfolk R. R.—"Cape Charles Route"

Train Schedule in Effect May 25th, 1913

SOUTH-BOUND TRAINS
Leave	49-1049	81	43	47	45
	A.M.	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.	P.M.
New York (Penn. Station)	9:00			8:00	12:08
Philadelphia	11:15	7:25		10:00	3:00
Wilmington	11:58	8:19		10:44	3:44
Baltimore			9:00	1:35	4:52
NORTH-BOUND TRAINS
Leave	44	82	48	46	80
	A.M.	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.	P.M.
Norfolk	12:41			8:00	5:10
Old Point			8:45	9:45	6:15
Cape Charles	7:02	8:00	11:05	12:20	6:30
Princess Anne	7:10	10:56	1:10p.m.	2:36p.m.	9:35
Salisbury	7:38	11:28	1:35	3:19	10:05
Delmar	7:56	12:15p.m.	2:00	3:55	10:30
NORTH-BOUND TRAINS
Leave	44	82	48	46	80
	A.M.	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.	P.M.
Norfolk	12:41			8:00	5:10
Old Point			8:45	9:45	6:15
Cape Charles	7:02	8:00	11:05	12:20	6:30
Princess Anne	7:10	10:56	1:10p.m.	2:36p.m.	9:35
Salisbury	7:38	11:28	1:35	3:19	10:05
Delmar	7:56	12:15p.m.	2:00	3:55	10:30

Grainfield Branch—Southward. Leave a.m. p.m. 7:40 8:25 8:40 Ar. King's Creek. 6:40 12:01 6:40 Arrive Grinstead. 8:30 3:05 8:40 Ar. King's Creek. 6:45 12:50 7:50 No Sunday trains on this branch road.

Trains Nos. 41, 43, 45, 47, 49, 51, 53, 55, 57, 59, 61, 63, 65, 67, 69, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, 83, 85, 87, 89, 91, 93, 95, 97, 99, 101, 103, 105, 107, 109, 111, 113, 115, 117, 119, 121, 123, 125, 127, 129, 131, 133, 135, 137, 139, 141, 143, 145, 147, 149, 151, 153, 155, 157, 159, 161, 163, 165, 167, 169, 171, 173, 175, 177, 179, 181, 183, 185, 187, 189, 191, 193, 195, 197, 199, 201, 203, 205, 207, 209, 211, 213, 215, 217, 219, 221, 223, 225, 227, 229, 231, 233, 235, 237, 239, 241, 243, 245, 247, 249, 251, 253, 255, 257, 259, 261, 263, 265, 267, 269, 271, 273, 275, 277, 279, 281, 283, 285, 287, 289, 291, 293, 295, 297, 299, 301, 303, 305, 307, 309, 311, 313, 315, 317, 319, 321, 323, 325, 327, 329, 331, 333, 335, 337, 339, 341, 343, 345, 347, 349, 351, 353, 355, 357, 359, 361, 363, 365, 367, 369, 371, 373, 375, 377, 379, 381, 383, 385, 387, 389, 391, 393, 395, 397, 399, 401, 403, 405, 407, 409, 411, 413, 415, 417, 419, 421, 423, 425, 427, 429, 431, 433, 435, 437, 439, 441, 443, 445, 447, 449, 451, 453, 455, 457, 459, 461, 463, 465, 467, 469, 471, 473, 475, 477, 479, 481, 483, 485, 487, 489, 491, 493, 495, 497, 499, 501, 503, 505, 507, 509, 511, 513, 515, 517, 519, 521, 523, 525, 527, 529, 531, 533, 535, 537, 539, 541, 543, 545, 547, 549, 551, 553, 555, 557, 559, 561, 563, 565, 567, 569, 571, 573, 575, 577, 579, 581, 583, 585, 587, 589, 591, 593, 595, 597, 599, 601, 603, 605, 607, 609, 611, 613, 615, 617, 619, 621, 623, 625, 627, 629, 631, 633, 635, 637, 639, 641, 643, 645, 647, 649, 651, 653, 655, 657, 659, 661, 663, 665, 667, 669, 671, 673, 675, 677, 679, 681, 683, 685, 687, 689, 691, 693, 695, 697, 699, 701, 703, 705, 707, 709, 711, 713, 715, 717, 719, 721, 723, 725, 727, 729, 731, 733, 735, 737, 739, 741, 743, 745, 747, 749, 751, 753, 755, 757, 759, 761, 763, 765, 767, 769, 771, 773, 775, 777, 779, 781, 783, 785, 787, 789, 791, 793, 795, 797, 799, 801, 803, 805, 807, 809, 811, 813, 815, 817, 819, 821, 823, 825, 827, 829, 831, 833, 835, 837, 839, 841, 843, 845, 847, 849, 851, 853, 855, 857, 859, 861, 863, 865, 867, 869, 871, 873, 875, 877, 879, 881, 883, 885, 887, 889, 891, 893, 895, 897, 899, 901, 903, 905, 907, 909, 911, 913, 915, 917, 919, 921, 923, 925, 927, 929, 931, 933, 935, 937, 939, 941, 943, 945, 947, 949, 951, 953, 955, 957, 959, 961, 963, 965, 967, 969, 971, 973, 975, 977, 979, 981, 983, 985, 987, 989, 991, 993, 995, 997, 999, 1001, 1003, 1005, 1007, 1009, 1011, 1013, 1015, 1017, 1019, 1021, 1023, 1025, 1027, 1029, 1031, 1033, 1035, 1037, 1039, 1041, 1043, 1045, 1047, 1049, 1051, 1053, 1055, 1057, 1059, 1061, 1063, 1065, 1067, 1069, 1071, 1073, 1075, 1077, 1079, 1081, 1083, 1085, 1087, 1089, 1091, 1093, 1095, 1097, 1099, 1101, 1103, 1105, 1107, 1109, 1111, 1113, 1115, 1117, 1119, 1121, 1123, 1125, 1127, 1129, 1131, 1133, 1135, 1137, 1139, 1141, 1143, 1145, 1147, 1149, 1151, 1153, 1155, 1157, 1159, 1161, 1163, 1165, 1167, 1169, 1171, 1173, 1175, 1177, 1179, 1181, 1183, 1185, 1187, 1189, 1191, 1193, 1195, 1197, 1199, 1201, 1203, 1205, 1207, 1209, 1211, 1213, 1215, 1217, 1219, 1221, 1223, 1225, 1227, 1229, 1231, 1233, 1235, 1237, 1239, 1241, 1243, 1245, 1247, 1249, 1251, 1253, 1255, 1257, 1259, 1261, 1263, 1265, 1267, 1269, 1271, 1273, 1275, 1277, 1279, 1281, 1283, 1285, 1287, 1289, 1291, 1293, 1295, 1297, 1299, 1301, 1303, 1305, 1307, 1309, 1311, 1313, 1315, 1317, 1319, 1321, 1323, 1325, 1327, 1329, 1331, 1333, 1335, 1337, 1339, 1341, 1343, 1345, 1347, 1349, 1351, 1353, 1355, 1357, 1359, 1361, 1363, 1365, 1367, 1369, 1371, 1373, 1375, 1377, 1379, 1381, 1383, 1385, 1387, 1389, 1391, 1393, 1395, 1397, 1399, 1401, 1403, 1405, 1407, 1409, 1411, 1413, 1415, 1417, 1419, 1421, 1423, 1425, 1427, 1429, 1431, 1433, 1435, 1437, 1439, 1441, 1443, 1445, 1447, 1449, 1451, 1453, 1455, 1457, 1459, 1461, 1463, 1465, 1467, 1469, 1471, 1473, 1475, 1477, 1479, 1481, 1483, 1485, 1487, 1489, 1491, 1493, 1495, 1497, 1499, 1501, 1503, 1505, 1507, 1509, 1511, 1513, 1515, 1517, 1519, 1521, 1523, 1525, 1527, 1529, 1531, 1533, 1535, 1537, 1539, 1541, 1543, 1545, 1547, 1549, 1551, 1553, 1555, 1557, 1559, 1561, 1563, 1565, 1567, 1569, 1571, 1573, 1575, 1577, 1579, 1581, 1583, 1585, 1587, 1589, 1591, 1593, 1595, 1597, 1599, 1601, 1603, 1605, 1607, 1609, 1611, 1613, 1615, 1617, 1619, 1621, 1623, 1625, 1627, 1629, 1631, 1633, 1635, 1637, 1639, 1641, 1643, 1645, 1647, 1649, 1651, 1653, 1655, 1657, 1659, 1661, 1663, 1665, 1667, 1669, 1671, 1673, 1675, 1677, 1679, 1681, 1683, 1685, 1687, 1689, 1691, 1693, 1695, 1697, 1699, 1701, 1703, 1705, 1707, 1709, 1711, 1713, 1715, 1717, 1719, 1721, 1723, 1725, 1727, 1729, 1731, 1733, 1735, 1737, 1739, 1741, 1743, 1745, 1747, 1749, 1751, 1753, 1755, 1757, 1759, 1761, 1763, 1765, 1767, 1769,

J. T. Taylor, Jr. THE HUMAN BRAIN

Largest
Carriage, Wagon and Harness Dealers in the State of Maryland

Its Crumpled Up Shape Is One of Nature's Clever Devices.

CELLS OF THE GRAY MATTER.

Their Mass and Not the Size Nor Weight of the Brain Marks the Mentality of the Individual—Development of the Brain of an Infant.

The apparent crumpling up of the brain is one of the most remarkable of nature's devices for securing the greatest possible amount of surface in the given space. If you take a page of a newspaper and hold it by the edges, blowing it up to form a balloon, you have the surface of the paper occupying the largest possible amount of space. If you crumple up the paper you can get the same amount of surface by following all the creases in one-fourth to one-tenth of the space.
This is precisely what nature has done.
In the rabbit, for instance, the cerebrum, or great brain, with which most of the thinking is done, is without a crease, perfectly round and smooth, and the rabbit is about the stupidest of animals.

If you study the brains of animals a little higher in intelligence than the rabbit you will find that creases come into the brain until in man the entire brain is a series of creases and convolutions that puzzle you by their intri-cacy. It is plain that the actual surface of this creased brain of man is many times greater than if it were all smooth, like the rabbit's, and this is the way in which evolution has provided for giving the brain of man a surface from four to ten times what it would have been if smooth, so as to give space for as much gray matter as possible.

No scientist has yet explained the reason, but the fact is admitted that thought and gray matter are in proportion. The cells of the gray matter seem to store up thought and give it out when called upon to do so. This has been proved by electrically stimulating the gray matter when exposed by an accident or operation and noting the result in the thoughts expressed by the patient. This gray matter is spread in a coat of varying thickness all over the surface of the brain, while the white matter and nerves lie under it and ramify into it.

A man may be said to be intellectual in proportion to the amount of gray matter which he has in his brain. This varies in individuals, one having more gray matter at one spot, another a thicker layer at another, much of this being, doubtless, due to cultivation, though the laws of the multiplication of gray matter are still secrets which science has not pierced.

Nor can intellectuality be measured by the weight of the brain. The average male brain weighs forty-eight ounces, and the average female brain forty-three and a half, but this does not mean that woman is necessarily man's inferior intellectually. Her brain may have more gray matter in proportion or thicker layers at the parts most in demand by her life. Brains weighing more than sixty ounces have been found in idiots, and some of the most brilliant men and women have had very small brains when put upon the scale. But in all cases of great intellectuality the depth of the convolutions at certain places in the brain is enormous, and the five lobes into which each hemisphere of the brain is divided are very distinctly marked, affording space for much of the gray matter.

The infant has gray matter all over the surface of its brain, and thanks to the generations of development that have preceded it the divisions into lobes and the deep creases are already there. But they are still in a very soft form and development follows in accordance with the intellectual development of the child. Its natural endowment at birth is only an endowment of possibility, and the question of whether that infant will be an intellectual giant or a pigmy in brain power is dependent almost altogether upon the training which it receives and the development of the gray matter in its brain.

The genius cannot be explained and possibly never will be, but a partial explanation of his tremendous power in some one direction is offered by the examination of his brain after death.
Only lately a very eminent surgeon of Philadelphia died and when his brain was examined it was found that for a large part it was like a child's, but in those parts especially required by his profession it was developed far more than is usual, and the layers of gray matter at these spots were inordinately thick. It is never right to draw any broad conclusion from a single instance, but science has generalized from many instances of this kind until it is ready now to say that thought power is proportionate to the gray matter in the centers most used or needed.—New York World.

John Bull the Musician.
Few but those who have studied musical history know that the name John Bull was borne by one of the most famous musicians of the sixteenth century. He was as famous a harpsichord player in his day as Liszt was a pianist, but as a composer he lacked the creative power of Liszt, the result being that Bull is practically unknown to the general public today, even in England.

He doubles his troubles who borrows tomorrow's.—Spanish Proverb.

NERVOUS PEOPLE

are usually thin and nervously worried, sleep does not refresh and the system gradually weakens from insufficient nourishment.

Scott's Emulsion corrects nervousness by its force of concentrated medical nourishment—it restores the healthy action of body cells, enriches the blood, sharpens the appetite, and feeds the nerve centres by distributing energy and power all over the body.

Don't resort to alcoholic mixtures or drug concoctions that stimulate and stupefy.

Get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion for your nerves—nothing equals or compares with it, but insist on Scott's.

EVERY DRUGGIST HAS IT

SCOTT'S EMULSION, MANUFACTURED IN Medical Specialists in England.

What makes a doctor a specialist?
Can any physician or surgeon with money behind him take a house in Harley street or neighborhood and practice as a specialist? He can do so, but it is by no means follows that he will be recognized as a specialist by the profession.

To win the professional status of specialist a man must hold or have held a professorship at a medical school or an appointment at a hospital in connection with the disease or group of diseases in which he professes to specialize.

Further, he must conform to certain rules of professional conduct. He must not take a less fee than 1 guinea—2 guineas is the rule in London, and some charge 3 or even more for a consultation, save in extraordinary circumstances. He must not see a new patient except on the introduction of the patient's own medical man. If called to a case the patient's medical man must be present or the specialist will decline to see the sufferer.—London Tatler.

The Word Lady.
Connected, no doubt, with the cheapening of the word "lady" has been the practical disappearance of the "gentlewoman." The distinction between the two was brought out in the seventeenth century rules of civility, which declared that "in visiting a lady it is not enough to salute her, but her gen-tlewoman also, if she be then present."
At the beginning of the nineteenth century "one who has marked with attentive observation the late vicissitudes in Kingdoms and governments and with a precision almost prophetic, foretold what would happen" advertised in the Times his readiness to "give such advice to persons of fortune as may prove of the very utmost importance to them." "When a lady requires an interview," said the advertisement, "a gentleman will give her the meeting."—London Mail.

Joseph Didn't Get It.
It is related that Napoleon ordered from Breguet, the famous Paris watchmaker, a watch for his brother, Joseph, who was at the time King of Spain. The back was of blue enamel, decorated with the letter "J" in diamonds.

In 1818 Napoleon was present at a military parade when a messenger arrived bearing a brief dispatch, in which it was stated that the French army had been completely defeated at Vitoria. It was manifest that Spain was lost. Always severely practical, all that Napoleon did, after glancing at the dispatch, was to turn to his secretary and say, "Write to Breguet and tell him that I shall not want that watch."

It is believed that the watch was eventually bought by the Duke of Wellington.

Aliterative Tongue Twisters.
A novel competition was held at a very Bohemian West End club recently for the best aliterative gem that would tie knots in the tongue of the most careful speaker. The following are some of the best of the "tongue twisters" sent in:

A growing gleam growing green.
The bleak breeze blighted the bright blossoms.
Flash of freshly fried flying fish.
Strict strong Stephen Stringer snared sleazily six sickly silly snakes.

The prize was won by the sender in
of the following:
Give Grimes Jim's great gilt gig whip.
—London Sketch.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

HORRIBLE Burned to a Crisp.

How mother cried! It was a shame. Four beautiful loaves burned black. Why do you put up with a range that burns on the top and won't bake on the bottom? Where you can't regulate the heat.
No wonder you have poor luck. And it is expensive too. Think of the good materials spoiled.
You can end all these troubles by getting a

Cole's Hot Blast Range

The only range made,
in which the oven temperature is even—top,
sides and bottom.

The range in which the fire burns steadily until the baking is finished.

The range with a boiler-plate oven that will not warp or buckle.

The range fitted with the Automatic Oven
Ventilator that distributes the heat properly and makes those beautiful evenly browned loaves.

The range fitted with Cole's world-famous Hot Blast Combustion that saves fuel by burning the gases wasted in other ranges. A Hot Blast Combustion that carries the gas flame across the entire top, heating it front and back. Burns soft coal, hard coal or wood.

Come in and see this modern, up-to-date range—absolutely without a fault—perfected by 20 years' experience.

See the name "Cole's" on each Range. None genuine without it

HAYMAN'S
HARDWARE DEPT.
PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

Send Us Your Next Order For

JOB PRINTING

Adelia York's Pride

One Good Deed Deserves Another

By CLARISSA MACKIE

Adelia York looked very despairingly around her immaculately clean and quite bare pantry. Cooking utensils were arranged in orderly neatness, and the everyday china was shining on its particular shelf, but of provisions there were none to mention.

The bread box was empty as well as the cake box and the cookie can. The tea canister held only a dust of tea on the bottom, and the coffee jar had been empty for two weeks.

This was the day that Adelia had held out against for weeks. Little by little her store of ready money had dwindled until at last there remained only 15 cents in her little beaded purse.

Adelia was proud, and she was now poor, since she had received a letter from New York saying that the railroad stock whose dividends provided her modest income was quite worthless now. Without the semiannual dividend, which was due now, Adelia was penniless. She owned the little house where she lived, for she had inherited it from Aunt Rebecca York, whom she had nursed through an irritable and eccentric old age and whose death did not bring to light half of the securities which her will had named as Adelia's portion.

"I must go to Mr. Brown and see if I cannot get a loan on the house," sighed Adelia as she closed the pantry door and sank weakly into a rocking chair.

To her dismay, the office door was locked and a card on the door said that Mr. Brown had gone to Albany on business and would return two days later.

Adelia smiled bitterly as she turned away. Mr. Brown had been her last hope. He was the principal business man of the little village, and to none other would she have confided the deperate condition of her affairs. Foolish, she might have been, absurdly proud she undoubtedly was, but the Yorks were all that way, and Adelia was a York to the very marrow of her dainty bones.

She stepped slowly up the brick paved street toward her little home, now and then pausing to give greeting to some friend or neighbor.

Miss Cherry Downs popped her head out of the door and urged her to come in and stay for supper.

"I'm all alone, Adelia," she insisted.
"I'm going to have some warmed over succotash and a peach shortcake. I feel too mean for anything eating it alone."

Adelia flushed warmly, but she shook her head. "I'm sorry, Cherry, but I put some biscuits to raise, and I must get home at once. Thank you just the same," she ended, hurrying away.

Adelia hastened home, conscience stricken at the untruth she had spoken about the biscuit. Her pride was at the bottom of it all, she told herself remorsefully as she entered the house.
Her month had watered at Cherry's invitation to supper, but pride had risen like a wall before her.

"I wasn't too proud to tell a lie," she lashed her conscience with this thought.
She felt faint and cold and almost ill from lack of food. The hens had suddenly ceased to lay, and she was glad of it. She had revolted against eggs, but they had kept up her strength.

Adelia went out to the back porch to bring in her bread and tea which the groceryman must have delivered by this time. There were some cans of fruit in the cellar left over from last winter. She decided that she would have a cup of tea and some bread and beach plum jam for her supper.

On the wooden bench on the back porch was a big basket, and it was generously heaped with packages and parcels of groceries.

Adelia gasped. The new man had made a mistake. He had left somebody else's order, and her miserable pittance of bread and tea had gone elsewhere.

She fugged the basket into the kitchen and locked the door. Then Adelia York did a strange thing. She put all the packages away in her pantry and hid the basket in the cellar. When she panted up the stairs once more she looked into the pantry and made inventory of the provisions. There were flour and sugar and butter and baking powder, tea and coffee and crackers and rice and cereal, jars and cans of dried beef and codfish, and wrapped in a separate paper was a fine porter-house steak.

Adelia stood with locked fingers and compressed lips. These things belonged to her neighbor, Mrs. Mason. The Masons were generous livers. What would Mrs. Mason think of her? What would any one think of her?

Adelia's pride forbade her giving in to her pleading conscience. She stepped briskly around, her red lips closed in a tight line of resistance, preparing the evening meal. When she sat down to it she ate heartily, eating the juicy meat and drinking the fragrant coffee until her hunger was appeased.

It was not until she had washed the dishes and put them away and sat down with folded hands that Adelia actually realized the enormity of her offense.

The next morning she arose very early, and without eating a morsel she went to the china cupboard in the dining room and took down Aunt Rebec-ca's britania teapot. This teapot was Adelia's most cherished heirloom and had belonged to her grandmother before Aunt Rebecca possessed it.

Mrs. Mason had admired the teapot more than once and had hinted that if Adelia ever desired to sell it she would like to have an opportunity to become its owner.

"It will hurt me more than anything else to give this up," said Adelia to herself as she wiped off the shining treasure, "but I guess that pride of mine will have to pay for it. I shall give it to Annie Mason right now in exchange for those things, and I shan't accept anything more than the value of that food. I've often seen grandmother pour tea from it, but Aunt Rebecca never used it that I remember.
It's odd how she asked for it the day before she died and went to sleep with it in her hands. Poor Aunt Rebecca!
She was so eccentric. But she meant well, I'm sure."

Wrapping the britania teapot in her little red shawl, Adelia went through the orchard to the little gate in the fence that opened into Mrs. Mason's vegetable garden.

Annie Mason was on her knees pulling beets. Her rosy face grew rosier when she saw Adelia standing there, pale and ill looking.

"What is it, Adelia?" she asked quickly. "Is anything the matter?"
She sat back on her heels and shook the earth from a monster beetroot.

Adelia's voice trembled with emotion.

"I've got to see you alone, Annie," she said hurriedly. "It's very important."

Mrs. Mason arose with difficulty, for she was very stout, and with a troubled expression on her comely face she led the way to the house and into the sitting room.

"There ain't a soul to home this morning. They're all gone off, Adelia.
What on earth's the matter?" She dropped into a chair and waved Adelia into another.

Adelia unwrapped the shawl and set the britania teapot on the table before she spoke.

"Annie Mason, I've got a confession to make," she said in a low, shamed tone. "I've been short of money ever since the railroad went to smash and they stopped dividends. I was too proud to borrow money on the house or to get in debt, and I've been hungry—just plain hungry. So yesterday when I got home I found a big basket of groceries on the back porch and—and I was so hungry I kept them!"

She paused tragically.

"Well?" gasped Mrs. Mason.

"Well, they're yours, Annie Mason.
I'm sure they are. All I had ordered was a loaf of bread and 10 cents' worth of tea, and I've kept your provisions, and to pay you back for them and to punish myself for being so wickedly proud I've brought over the britania teapot. It's for you!" Adelia sank back in her chair, and her lips were very white.

Mrs. Mason said not a word then, but she frown and brought a pillow for Adelia's head and a little glass of blackberry wine. "When the color came into Adelia's cheeks Annie Mason leaned over her frail neighbor and spoke impressively.

"Now, don't you dare say a word, Adelia, till I'm through. I want you to know that I haven't forgotten how you helped me when the children had the measles last winter and all the kind and neighborly things you've done since we've been here. And somehow I knew that you was having some temporary trouble, and yesterday morning when I was giving my grocery order I said to the new man, 'My neighbor, Miss York, forgot to tell you all she wanted this morning, and you can just add these things to her order.'
And then I made up a list, and those you found on the porch were your own, Adelia York. I won't hear a word against it! What's the use of having neighbors if they can't help each other out? 'Neighbor' means to be 'near to,' and the time to be near to is when we're in trouble. Don't you dare cry, Adelia York!"

Mrs. Mason was crying herself as she spoke, and after she and Adelia had mingled their tears and had grown a little calmer the older woman suggested that they drink a cup of tea made in the britania teapot.

Adelia dried her eyes and smiled, and Annie Mason went to the kitchen sink to wash out the teapot.

"The spout's all stopped up, Adelia," she called. "Just bring me that knitting needle off the table, will you?"
"I declare, it's stuffed with paper!"
she exclaimed as she pried with the needle. "What the land!" She drew forth the needle and with it a wet and crumpled roll of paper.

Adelia opened it carefully. "Aunt Rebecca must have put something in it," she said in a dazed tone as she dattened out the engraved certificates of stock.

"I'll bet it's those missing securities!" cried Annie Mason excitedly.
"Well, your Aunt Rebecca would be likely to do that. Didn't you tell me she had the teapot in her room the day before she died?"

Adelia nodded. Her eyes were heavy with tears. "It's all so wonderful, Annie. I mean my awful pride and then my yielding to temptation to take your provisions, not knowing you had given them to me, and then my punishing myself by giving you the teapot and finding the securities. But there's one thing I value more than all the money, Annie Mason," she ended wistfully.

"What's that?" asked Mrs. Mason
cheerily.

"The understanding what 'neighbor' means—being 'near to' each other," replied Adelia.

5A Carriage Robes

5A Plush Robes are generous size, warm, long
of wear, made in beautiful patterns and rich colors.
Buy one for your own comfort, and ask for 5A
when you buy.

BUY A
5A SQUARE BLANKET FOR STREET USE
5A STABLE BLANKET FOR THE STABLE
5A PLUSH ROBE FOR YOUR OWN COMFORT

Sold by
J. T. TAYLOR, Jr.

Our Robes are unequalled
for the money: all kinds and prices to suit
all kinds

J. T. Taylor, Jr.

PRINCESS ANNE,
MARYLAND

The Uses for Birch are Many

From furnishing material for a canoe in which to hunt whales some hundred odd years ago to supplying New England factories with 11,000 cords of wood annually for shoe pegs is, according to the department of agriculture, only part of the services the birch tree has rendered and is rendering the people of America.

Sir Alexander Mackenzie, the department tells us in a bulletin just issued on the uses of birch, hunted whales in a birch bark canoe. The animals were found at the mouth of the Mackenzie River. He failed to strike the game, and concluded it was probably for the best. While the canoe was frail, it is pointed out that the bark of which they are made resists decay longer than any other part of the tree.

It would be difficult, the department goes on to say, to estimate the value of the service of the birch bark canoe in the discovery, exploration, development and settlement of the northern part of this continent. From the Arctic Circle to the Great Lakes and southward, for a century and a half, that light but exceedingly strong and serviceable vessel threaded the lakes and rivers, bearing trade and carrying civilization where no other boat could go. The French explorers and missionaries made journeys of hundreds of miles in these canoes, often carrying cargoes which would seem beyond the capacity of such frail vessels.

The range of uses to which birch wood is put is surprisingly large. According to the department, the articles into which it goes range from church pews to kitchen tables, and from organ pipes to newel posts. We may have our first sleep in a birch crib and our last in a birch coffin. The spoons on which we get our cotton and silk thread are birch spoons and the lasts on which our shoes are made are likely to be birch lasts. The largest of the spoons hold 12,000 yards, the smallest 20 yards. The wood's beauty, strength and rigidity make it prominent as a material for musical instruments, and the same qualities bring it into extensive use for flooring.

Many people have an idea that shoe pegs have nearly passed out of use, but the amount of birch previously mentioned as made into pegs and shanks yearly in New England seems to disprove this notion. Birch, the department says, is often put on the market in imitation of other woods, and may open many a door, sit on many a chair, and write on many a desk which we imagine to be mahogany, but which is really birch stained to resemble the genuine article.

Nine species of birch grow in the United States, but sweet, yellow, paper, and river birch are those most used. About 46,000,000 board feet of the wood finds its way to the market yearly. Paper birch is one of the few American species with a hold on the forest stronger than it had when America was discovered. Large tracts are now covered with this birch where there was little of it a century ago. It comes in after fire, and some tracts it has taken possession of cover hundreds of square miles.

A Fairly Good Reason.

Sir William Meredith, chief justice of Ontario, and Mr. Hellmuth are mutual fathers-in-law, the lawyer's daughter having wedded the son of the knight. During a rather tedious argument on a case which Sir William was hearing Mr. Hellmuth was proceeding to elaborate on a certain point of law which he thought had an important bearing on the case. But the chief justice thought otherwise. He was impatient. For a while he listened to the lawyer's argument; then he leaned back with an air of boredom and interrupted with: "Mr. Hellmuth, it seems to me that this is not relevant. What reason is there why I should be compelled to listen to all this?" Mr. Hellmuth's mouth had just a suspicion of a smile around its corners as he answered: "Reason, my lord? Why, $8,000 a year."

Canals of Venice as Sewers.

One of the illusions of life are shattered. Who has not heard of the gondoliers of Venice, the sweet singers whose voices are wafted across the waters as they guide their graceful craft through the canals of the streetless city? "I used to think how poetical it was," said a returned traveler, "but I found the real reason for their singing was a very practical one. Venice has absolutely no sanitary regulations, and the little canals are just so many sewers into which is dumped all the garbage from the houses. There is no system of plumbing, and the refuse is simply thrown from the windows, so unless you let the householder know you are passing by you are apt to get a douche of dirty water or garbage."—New York Tribune.

A Philosopher's Purpose.

"I am looking for an honest man," said Diogenes. "What do you want with one?" "Oh, nothing in particular! My real philanthropic purpose is to show the world how to conduct a long and useless investigation with as little expense as possible."—Washington Star.

A Consumptive Cough

A cough that bothers you continually is one of the danger signals which warns of consumption. Dr. King's New Discovery stops the cough, loosens the chest, banishes fever, and lets you sleep peacefully. The first dose checks the symptoms and gives prompt relief. Mrs. A. F. Mertz, of Glen Ellyn, Iowa, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery cured a stubborn cough after six weeks doctoring failed to help." Try it, as it will do the same for you. Best medicine for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. Money back if it fails. Price 50 cents and $1.00. All druggists. By mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis. (Advertisement)

BURNING IRON CHIPS.

Combustion Proceeded Exactly as in a Pile of Coal.

To the average man it is inconceivable for iron or steel chips to actually burn as so much inflammable material, but nevertheless such is possible, and such incidents are the part of positive record. This phenomenon is explained by the fact that finely divided iron or steel may sometimes oxidize faster than it can get rid of its heat and consequently gives signs of complete combustion.

A large pile of chips took fire in the yard of a machine shop not long ago, and the fire was described by a witness as follows: The chips were put through a centrifugal separator, and the small amount of oil remaining had nothing to do with the fire. It was a plain case of burning iron. The metal was so finely divided and presented so much surface to the oxygen in proportion to the radiating surface of the pile that once started by the heat from a nearby rubbish pile, the combustion proceeded exactly as in a pile of coal, only apparently at a more rapid rate.

The metal had not melted. Where the fire had been hottest the chips were a dark blue. The pile sank about a third in height, and a lot of metal must have been oxidized to create so much heat.—American Machinist.

PASTEUR'S PLAYTHINGS.

The Great Scientist a Man of Many Medals and Decorations.

The great Pasteur gracefully accepted all decorations. While he had a passion for discipline, he never had any ironical criticism of the distinctions established by society. He attached a value to the glory that came to himself and discerned that men in the world of politics were his inferiors.

In Rue Dutot, in the salon of the apartment that the great Pasteur occupied, one saw in the place of honor a glass case in which brilliantly scintillating were hundreds of decorations. They came from all the countries of the world. There were lions, leopards, elephants, eagles with one and with two heads, roses, saints, angels, all the fauna, all the flora of the world and of paradise. There were diamonds, rubies, emeralds and gold—enough to furnish a jeweler's shop.

Pasteur often gazed upon this case. His little granddaughter remarked the joy that brightened the countenance of the demigod when he contemplated this prodigious display. And one day, pointing to the case, she said lispingly: "These are grandpa's playthings."—Cri de Paris.

He Fooled Them.

"A half dozen of us sat gossiping in the club one afternoon when Smith entered," said a New York clubman. "Oh, dear me! I groaned. 'Here's Smith. Here's Smith, just back from a three months' European tour. He's going to bore us to death with travel talk. I see it in his eye.'"

"Smith, sure enough, came straight toward us. He sat down, lighted a cigar, beamed on us and said: 'Well, boys, how goes it? I've just returned from a three months' European tour.'"

"We groaned."

"—and I'm going to sit here with you two or three hours—"

"We groaned again."

"—and I want you to tell me every blessed thing that's happened since I've been away!'"—Buffalo Express.

Women of Influence.

We are, all of us, whether young or old, famous or obscure, women of influence. We cannot live a day without affecting the world somewhat for good or ill, whether we will or no. We are all a part of life's forces, whether we know it or not. Be as humble as you like, you are still a person of influence. If not by your own choosing, then often by God's decree. It may be only a smile or a simple kindness that you have given to a little child, but it starts agencies you little dream of; or it may be some selfishness and lack of honor, some weakness in you that sets in motion a long train of hurtful and sad influences or circumstances. For all life is connected, and whether you wish it or not your life affects other lives.—Woman's Home Companion.

Testing His Love.

"Pshaw," said the pretty brunette. "It's the easiest thing in the world to find out whether a man loves you!" "What is your method?" asked the stately blond. "Make him spend his last dollar on you, and if he seems to enjoy it you may be sure that he really cares for you."—Chicago Record-Herald.

When Reynolds Signed.

Reynolds hardly ever signed his work. But upon the completion of the portrait of Mrs. Siddons as "The Tragic Muse" he wrote his name large on the gold embroidery of her dress. He was unable, he said, "to resist the temptation of sending my name to posterity on the hem of your garment."

At Home.

"He was perfectly at home at the banquet." "Why, he didn't have a word to say." "Well, that's being perfectly at home for him."—Houston Post.

Two of a Trade.

Knicker—Why didn't the cook stay? Bocker—She was a sociologist investigating mistresses and the mistress was a sociologist investigating cooks.—New York Sun.

If there is good in us it will bring out good in others.

Christian Endeavor Convention

The program for the big State Christian Endeavor Convention which will be held in Baltimore November 17, 18 and 19, at Associate Congregational Church has been announced and it covers in a very full way every phase of religious activity. Social Service, the great burning question in church life to-day, will be given a prominent place and general conferences, embracing every possible phase of young people's work, will be led by the greatest team of experts that could possibly be got together.

These leaders are William Shaw, general secretary of the World Christian Endeavor Union, Karl Lehman, International Field Secretary, William Ralph Hall, young people's secretary of the Presbyterian Church, Elliott Field, Germantown, Pa. They will hold conferences both morning and afternoon each day.

The Bible Study periods will be conducted each day by Rev. Dr. Harris E. Kirk, pastor of Franklin Street Presbyterian Church, Baltimore, the acknowledged leader in Bible study in this country. A devotional period will be conducted at the close of each afternoon session by Rev. Dr. J. Ross Stevenson, pastor of the Brown Memorial Church, Baltimore. Morning Quiet Hour services will be led by Rev. Dr. Thomas O. Crouse and Rev. Don S. Colt. Dr. Wilbur Crafts, secretary of the National Reform Bureau, Washington, will make an address on "The Progress of Reform in America." Mr. William F. Cochran will talk on Social Service. This is just a glimpse of the day sessions. The big Junior Rally will be held on the afternoon of the first day. Several hundred children will take part in this and the address will be made by Mr. William Shaw, of Boston.

The night sessions will be occasions of tremendous enthusiasm. The opening evening will be addressed by Governor Goldsborough and Mr. William Shaw. The second evening the address will be by Bishop Rudolph Dubs and will be a masterpiece. The closing evening there will be two addresses, one by Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, president of Western Maryland College, and the closing address of the convention by Rev. Dr. Lloyd Tompkins, rector of Holy Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Philadelphia.

A choir of one hundred voices is in training and the greatest sacred anthems will be sung.

Nervous and Sick Headaches

Torpid liver, constipated bowels and disordered stomach are the cause of these headaches. Take Dr. King's New Life Pills and you will be surprised how quickly you will get relief. They stimulate the different organs to do their work properly. No better regulator for liver and bowels. Take 2 or 3 and invest in a box today. At all druggists or by mail. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis. (Advertisement)

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE

High grade Piano for sale on easy terms, or will exchange for a building lot, small farm or small house and lot.

FARMS WANTED

We have several buyers for cheap farms, town properties, building lot propositions and timber lands. If you want to sell list with us; write or call for terms and description blanks. If you want to buy anywhere in the United States we can find you what you want, our list will be sent upon request.

TRUITT REALTY CO.

Salisbury, : : : Maryland

SHIP TO

STEVENS BROTHERS

Commission Merchants

226 South Charles Street

(Corner of Camden St.)

Baltimore, Maryland

Best possible facilities for selling and handling GRAIN

Salesmen—R. NELSON STEVENS

and J. K. E. EMERY.

Reference—Merchants-Mechanics Bank

Novel Hunting Laws

New laws directly affecting the hunter on the conditions under which game may be hunted contain some novel features, says the New York Times.

New York and Pennsylvania now require a license to wear a badge conspicuously exposed, bearing the number of his hunting license. In order to minimize shooting accidents Manitoba requires hunters to wear a white coat or sweater and cap, and Saskatchewan insists that those who hunt for game must wear a complete outer suit and cap of white. The latter province has recently made the penalty for accidentally shooting a person a fine ranging from $50 to $1,000, or imprisonment for six months, and suspension of further license privilege for 10 years.

To the list of six States prohibiting the use of silencers—namely: Maine, New Jersey, North Dakota, Washington, Mississippi and Louisiana—are now added Minnesota and Wyoming. Connecticut has provided that any hunter who shall injure a fence or let down a bar without replacing it shall forfeit his hunting license and the privilege for two years. Connecticut, Pennsylvania and British Columbia require license applicants under 16 years of age to bring the written consent of parent or guardian. Vermont has a similar restriction for those under 15, and Oregon does not permit children under 14 to hunt except on the premises of their parents, relatives and guardians.

Declare War On Colds

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:

"Don't sit in a draughty car."
"Don't sleep in hot rooms."
"Don't avoid the fresh air."
"Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Overeating reduces your resistance." To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by all Dealers. (Advertisement)

KUKLUX

KUKLUX, the 8-year-old JACK, will stand at my farm—"Brownstone"—during the ensuing year. Terms, $12.00. 6-10 E. FRANK JONES.

T.J. Smith & Co.

DRUGGISTS

Princess Anne, Maryland

Full Supply of Drugs,

Toilet Articles,

Stationery, Etc., Etc.

Agent for All The

Rexall Remedies

Rexall Tooth Powder, 20 cts.

(this week only)

Prescriptions

Carefully Compounded

Five Farms

Have changed hands through the E. A. Strout Farm

Agency during the last week in July

I am receiving a great many inquiries as to this section and it looks as though business would be good during the fall.

Those that have farms to sell will do well to see me, and I can be found at home any evening after 6 o'clock and will be glad to talk business with you.

H. D. YATES,

Manager,

The E. A. Strout Farm Agency

PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

First Farm South End Main Street.

Burning Property

Could Be Saved

from Destruction

In many cases if a little care was exercised in building

Poor fires, defective heating apparatus, bad electric wiring, are responsible for seventy-five per cent. of all fires

The Home Insurance Company, of New York,

maintains a special department at Baltimore for giving information and advice

free on proper construction and safe building to prevent fires and REDUCE

INSURANCE RATES.

It costs you nothing—may save you much money. Write for information.

Address,

The Home Insurance Co.,

A. G. HANCOCK, General Agent,

Home Insurance Building,

BALTIMORE, MARYLAND

"GRIFFON BRAND"

Suits and Overcoats $15.00

For the man who likes something in clothes that is just up to the minute we would suggest a Griffon Suit or overcoat.

All wool garments, hand tailored inside as well as outside. Nifty patterns, correct to fashion, and ready for you to try on.

If you have never seen these "Griffon" Suits or Overcoats at $15, just take a look at them before making your Fall purchase. We think you will like them.

NEW HATS.

NEW SHIRTS.

NEW NECKWEAR

Boys' Clothing-Knickerbocker

Suits from $3 to $7.50

"KING QUALITY" "RALSTON"

"FLORSHEIM" SHOES FOR MEN

Job Printing executed with neatness and prompt dispatch. Give us trial order

In sickness, in accident, in business reverses, on pleasure—no matter where or when—a Savings Account is a desirable possession.

MONEY IN THE BANK is always ready when needed. The dollars you lay by now and bank here at 3 per cent. interest will serve your wish in days to come. When money is needed it is badly needed. Protect yourself from this need by starting you account with this bank NOW.

BANK OF SOMERSET

Capital and Surplus $125,000.00

PRINCESS ANNE, MARYLAND

INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSITS

PRINTING

That's what We Do

Do You Need Any?

If so, let us get yur next order

MARYLANDER AND HERALD

PRINCESS ANNE.

MARYLANDER AND HERALD.

ADVERTISING IS THE BUSINESS MAN'S MAINSTAY

PRINCESS ANNE, MD., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1913.

Vol. XVI—No. 15

OYSTERMEN ARRESTED

Under Bond For Appearance at April Term of Court

A large number of oystermen were in Princess Anne last Thursday afternoon to attend the hearing of Harry Ford, Thomas Parks, George E. Hall, Elmer Catlin, Wilber E. Cox, William E. Ford, Roderick Holland, Oliver Ford, Archie Ford, Luther Walston and Otto Ford, charged with unlawfully taking oysters from the planting grounds of Mr. George A. Cox, of Fairmount, and a syndicate of Baltimore city capitalists represented by Mr. Cox. The Cox grounds consist of 1,700 acres in Tangier Sound. These grounds began with the opening of the dredging season on November 1, and since that time the Cox beds have been worked daily, it is charged, by Somerset county oystermen.

Mr. Cox came to Princess Anne Tuesday and had warrants issued for the men. He then got in communication with the State authorities and requested that one of the State police steamers be sent to Somerset waters to arrest the violators. The steamer Governor Thomas, Capt. Thomas B. C. Howard, went to Crisfield early Wednesday morning, took on Sheriff Harding P. Tull and Deputy Elmer O. Townsend and William R. Howard, and then went to the oyster rocks in search of the oystermen against whom action had been taken.

The men were located in different parts of Tangier Sound, dredging oysters on public rocks, and were arrested. They were taken to Crisfield Wednesday afternoon and from there to Fairmount, where they appeared before Justice Landon and gave bond for their appearance before Justice Porter, and that night they were brought to Princess Anne in automobiles by the Sheriff and his deputies. Upon the party arriving in town the oystermen spent the night at the Washington Hotel and the Sheriff and his deputies repaired to the jail and took lodging with Jailer Pusey.

At the hearing, before Justice G. R. Porter, the oystermen were represented by James E. Elledge, of Salisbury; Henry J. Waters and Robert F. Duer, of Princess Anne, and, after examination of witnesses, the oystermen were held under $100 bond each for the action of the grand jury at the coming April term of the Circuit Court of Somerset county.

This was the first move of any consequence that the State has taken thus far to protect the oyster planters of Somerset county from the unlawful dredging on private planting grounds. None of the men, according to the statement of Sheriff Tull, resisted arrest, but said they were expecting it and went with him peacefully.

Minstrel Show Nov. 28th

The entertainment for the benefit of the Wa Wa Tribe, No. 121, will be held in the Auditorium on Friday night, November 28th.

The young men of this town have been practicing for five weeks and are prepared to give one of the best and most complete and up-to-date minstrel shows by home talent that has ever been presented in this town.

The olio of the first part will consist of songs, choruses, jokes, etc. The intelligator is Oley Filchard with Raymond M. Carey and Paul A. Walker, endmen, who have made good as black face comedians heretofore, and will try their best to entertain you with quaint sayings and local hits.

The second part of the program will consist of a comedy introducing a number of new features. There are 22 young men who take part in the performance, supported by a good orchestra.

At noon a street parade will be given by 35 persons, headed by a brass band of 15 pieces. The price of admission will be 25, 35 and 50 cents, and the management request that you procure your tickets early to avoid the rush. A complete program will be furnished later.

Wild Man Brings Terror

An unknown man, from all appearances an escaped lunatic, wild man or a hermit, has made his appearance on several farms, and in the woods near Federalsburg, Md., creating alarm lest he may do damage or bodily harm. On several occasions he has been seen walking along the roadside, eating corn off the cobs, and at other times farmers have discovered him in their fields eating clover and green citrons. The man's hair looks as if it had not been cut for years, and his face presents a horrible appearance.

Tuesday night a big camp fire was seen in a woods on the Houston's Branch road, and it is supposed the man camped there for the night. Tuesday Elijah Swias and Howard Williams passed the man on the road and found him eating horse corn with the hunger of a wild beast.

BOAT OWNERS ARE FINED

Many Suffer as Result of Inspection Trip Down the Bay

Owners of small boats suffered as a result of a trip of inspection made in the lower bay by government officials aboard the United States motor boat Tarragan. For violations of the law the following fines were imposed by Collector William F. Stone last week.

Charles Wharton, Crisfield, underway after sunset showing no lights, $100; schooner Clara J. Howeth, Crisfield, at anchor after sunset without anchor light, $200; M. T. Tyler, Hoopersville, sloop Melia and Bee, at anchor after sunset without anchor light, $200; Daniel Tall, Fishing Creek, underway with two persons on board and no life-preservers, $100; Lloyd and Rome Sterling, Crisfield, underway after sunset without white light aft, $100; Walter Cannon, Fishing Creek, underway after sunset showing no lights, $100; J. P. Tawes, Crisfield, sloop Louis S., underway after sunset showing no side lights, $200; Caleb Evans, Ewell postoffice, schooner G. W. Glenn, underway after sunset showing no side lights, $200; Walter Catlin, Crisfield, sloop Maggie Lee, underway after sunset showing no lights, $200; Clark Simms, Mt. Vernon, not provided with a bell, $100; George W. Willing, Bivalve, no means of extinguishing burning gasoline, referred to United States District Attorney; Augustus Langrall, Bivalve, no bell, whistle and horn, $100; Meadie Drummond, Sanford postoffice, Va., underway after sunset showing only a green light, $100; Victor Hopkins, Mt. Vernon, insufficient life-saving devices, $100; no means of extinguishing burning gasoline, referred to the United States District Attorney; Vaughn Marshall, Mt. Vernon, insufficient life-saving devices, $100; J. S. Mason, Mt. Vernon, no whistle, $100; insufficient life-saving devices, $100; no pilot rules, $250; S. M. Simmons, Crisfield, schooner Bertha E. Dean, failure to renew license, saw Joseph Thomas, Mt. Vernon, motor boat Grace, insufficient life-saving devices, $100, and M. T. Tyler, Hoopersville, schooner Harry W. Ruark, failing to exhibit license, $100.

Supervisor for Colored Schools

At the meeting of the School Board last Tuesday, the matter of a supervisor for the colored schools of the county, in connection with the industrial department recently opened at the "Greenwood" school at Princess Anne, was taken up and Herbert S. Wilson, of Upper Fairmount, was appointed to the position.

Under the law the sum of $1500 is appropriated annually for industrial work in each county that shall equip a school of manual training and domestic science, including a supervisor who is required to oversee the colored schools and to introduce as far as possible, industrial work in each. In October the first annual appropriation was made and in the meantime the school at "Greenwood" had been suitably equipped and put in running order. John L. Richardson has charge of the manual training work and Blanche H. Furniss, that of domestic science.

The supervisor is a teacher of experience and his work is expected to stimulate the teachers of the various colored schools of the county to more effective work. His duties began from the date of his appointment.

The supervisor is supposed to be a "live wire" between the County School Board, the County Superintendent and the colored school system and to make the work of the schools more effective. His work is under the immediate direction of the County Superintendent, the latter, however, continuing his oversight of the colored schools as heretofore.

John W. Barnette Dead

Mr. John William Barnette died suddenly at his home, about four miles from Princess Anne, at 4:30 o'clock last Thursday morning, aged 73 years. Mr. Barnette was in Princess Anne last Wednesday and started for his home about five o'clock and had a stroke of paralysis on the way. He was conveyed home and never regained consciousness.

Mr. Barnette was twice married, his first wife being Miss Sarah Martin, and his second was Mrs. Sarah Penrock, who with five children by his first marriage survive him—Mrs. L. K. Renshaw, of Princess Anne district; Mrs. D. H. Williams, of Salisbury; Messrs. Thomas L. Barnette, of Princess Anne district; John S. Barnette, of Dover, Del., and Paul Barnette, of Laurel, Del.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning from his late home conducted by the Rev. C. H. Weaver, rector of Somerset Parish, and interment was in the cemetery of Grace Protestant Episcopal Church.

1,217 NEGROES VOTED IN SOMERSET COUNTY

A Humiliating Comparison and a Political Object Lesson

Below we print a table showing the number of votes cast in each Election district in Somerset county for the Republican candidate for County Treasurer, and showing at the same time the number of negro votes cast in said districts. An actual count of the poll books used in the various districts of Somerset county at the recent election, discloses the fact that 1217 negroes voted in that election. Verily the negro vote was an important factor—more important than at any election held in this county since 1903—in choosing our recently elected county officers. The negro furnished an overwhelming majority of the votes cast for every candidate elected on the Republican ticket, and yet it is humiliating to reflect that the Republican candidates would not have been elected but for the aid of white men, most of them calling themselves Democrats, who joined with the negroes on November 4th to select our county officers. Here are some of the comparisons which are interesting, although not comforting to thoughtful people and good citizens.

DISTRICTS	No. Votes Cast for Republican Candidate for Treasurer	Total No. of Negroes Voting
West Princess Anne	211	181
St. Peters	120	67
Brinkleys, Precinct 1	94	62
" 2	76	58
Dublin	154	98
Mt. Vernon	202	118
Fairmount	167	82
Crisfield, Precinct 1	127	72
" 2	101	50
Lawsons	158	67
Tangier	34	34
Smith's Island	78	38
Dames Quarter	84	76
Asbury	79	38
Westover	125	98
Deals Island	68	50
West Princess Anne	188	128
	2064	1217

The total vote received by the Republican candidate for County Treasurer, and the leading candidate on the Republican ticket in the whole county, the record discloses to be 2064 votes. Subtracting the 1217 negro votes cast for him, and the white vote cast for him is shown to have been only 847. In other words, 847 white men joined with 1217 negroes to select our County Treasurer. How many of these white men have been calling themselves Progressive (?) Democrats cannot be accurately stated. It is safe to say, however, that at least one half of them were men of this class. A gentleman,

SHOOTS BROTHER-IN-LAW

William C. Holland Sends Two Bullets Into Harry Polleyette In a Fracas at Crisfield

In protecting his home and his own life, William C. Holland, a young man of Crisfield, shot and probably fatally wounded his brother-in-law, Harry Polleyette, in the parlor of his home last Friday afternoon.

Polleyette was immediately conveyed to the General and Marine Hospital, where Dr. E. R. Norris probed for the bullets. It was found that the ball which entered the right breast had gone completely through the lung and doubt is expressed as to his recovery.

After the shooting Holland went to the office of Justice William A. Britton and gave himself up. A hearing was held, at which many witnesses testified, all evidence pointing to self-defense, which was Holland's plea. Justice Britton placed him under $1,000 bail for his appearance at the next term of the Somerset County Court. Both young men have hosts of friends in Crisfield.

Polleyette, who is a brother of Mr. Holland's wife, conducts a cleaning and pressing establishment adjoining the home of his mother, Mrs. Clara Polleyette, where Holland and his wife reside. Polleyette, in a rage over some financial trouble, went into the home of his mother and began abusing her and when his sister, Mrs. Holland, remonstrated with him he beat her unmercifully. As soon as Mrs. Holland could get to the door she called for help and an officer and her husband were sent for.

Mr. Holland was the first to receive the summons and went immediately to his home, where he found his wife in a state of nervous hysteria and his mother-in-law weeping. On inquiring what the trouble was Polleyette informed him that he had just thrashed his wife and was waiting to give him the same dose, and made for him. Holland, who is much smaller in stature, rushed upstairs, soon returning to the room with a pistol. Polleyette, who, in the meantime had secured a 20-pound pressing iron, on seeing Holland, rushed at him with the iron. Holland, after warning him to stand back, shot him twice. The first shot did not halt Polleyette, so he shot the second time, the ball piercing his right breast and passing through the lung.

who was a defeated candidate in the recent Democratic Primaries, is responsible for the statement that at least 500 Democrats, who voted in the Primaries on September 8th and were defeated, cast their votes with the Republicans on Election day. Anyhow the record is a distressing one.

In East Princess Anne District Mr. Holland received a total of 186 votes. Of this total 126 were negroes and 60 were white men.

In West Princess Anne District 80 white men joined with 181 negroes in making a grand total of 211 votes.

In the two precincts of Brinkleys District, Mr. Holland received 230 votes and 115 or just one-half of them, as the table shows, were negroes.

Even in Crisfield District, a white Republican stronghold, more than a majority of the votes cast for Mr. Holland were negroes. In other words out of a total of 228 votes cast for him in that District 122 of them were negroes.

Of the 120 votes cast for him in St. Peters, more than half or 67 of them, were negroes.

In Mt. Vernon District, where Mr. Holland's record is supposed to have been so fine on Election day, we find that out of 284 votes cast for him, 118 of them were negroes.

In Lawsons District, Mr. Holland's home District, 67 negroes voted for Mr. Holland and 91 white men.

In Dames Quarter District the official count shows that Mr. Holland's total vote was 84, and a counting of the polls shows that 8 of them were white men and 76 were negroes. Will somebody tell us how many of the white men were Progressive Democrats? Will they consent to stand up and be counted in this company?

In Westover Mr. Holland received 125 votes, and 98 negroes voted. It is said that a majority of the 27 white men who cast their lot with the 98 negroes in this District call themselves Democrats.

We grow tired of the sickening comparison, and we feel certain that our readers do not care for us to make any further analysis of this disheartening political figures. Let us leave the sake of the county that is responsible for this. Political History will show the error of their ways. Democrats will find the give and forget to the destinies of the County given over permanently into the hands of a party the majority of whose members are negroes.

LEE TO FACE CONTEST

Republican Senators Decide To Attack The Legality Of Election Writ

At a conference of Republican Senators held last week the decision was reached to contest in the Senate the writ of election issued by Governor Goldsborough under which Blair Lee was named for the United States Senate.

The conference was held late Monday afternoon and, it is learned, was participated in by half a dozen leading members of the minority. They concluded that sufficient ground was given for objecting to the seating of Mr. Lee and agreed to make a fight against his being seated when his credentials are presented.

The fact that the Maryland Legislature failed to authorize the Governor to call the election will be urged as the ground for withholding admission of Lee. They will not undertake to impeach the manner in which the election was held or safeguards which were thrown about it.

When the rumors of such action were first circulated in Washington they were not taken seriously, but it is not now believed by Democratic leaders that the effort of the Republicans to declare the Lee election invalid will be successful.

But that the fight will be made seems certain. The Senators at the conference were with one exception lawyers, and they maintained, after considering all the circumstances under which the writ was issued and the various phases of the Seventeenth Amendment, that the Maryland Governor had no right to call an election until the Legislature of the State had first authorized it.

It is admitted by Republicans that they have only the merest technicality upon which to fight the seating of Lee. No suggestion has been made that Lee is not the choice of the people of the State and none has come that the election was not fairly held and the vote honestly counted.

—Even in the gunning season many a fellow leads an aimless existence.

SNOW, SLEET AND WIND

Severe Storm on Great Lakes, Virginia and Pennsylvania

A snow, sleet and wind storm swept West Virginia, a large portion of Ohio and Western and Northern Pennsylvania Monday of last week, crippling all the means of transportation and seriously retarding wire communication. The storm, which continued Tuesday morning, is said to have been a contrary one, as it failed to follow the coast, but jumped over mountain ranges and engulfed a disturbance that had started over the Lake Superior region.

The shores of Lakes Superior, Huron and Erie were strewn with the wreckage of a three days gale and snowstorm, which cost the lives of probably three score persons, turned bottom up in mid-lake a 300-foot vessel with its crew, wrecked or grounded numerous craft and caused a property loss which will run into the millions.

On land the storm hit hardest at Cleveland, where 21 inches of snow fell, five persons were killed and 10 others lost, and where $2,000,000 damage was caused to property, chiefly telephone systems, thus keeping that city out of direct communication for two days.

An extraordinary snowfall was recorded from all points in Ohio, West Virginia and Western Pennsylvania. The fall was 10 to 16 inches. Thousands of miles of wires were prostrated, broken by falling poles and trees, scores of towns were in darkness Tuesday night, train service was seriously handicapped, and trolley lines over a wide area were practically out of commission.

On Tuesday trains from the West were from one hour to seven hours late in reaching New York. The blizzard that had gripped the Middle West for 24 hours arrived at Buffalo, N. Y., early Tuesday. The city awoke to face a 70-mile-an-hour gale, that drove before it clouds of snow and sleet. Trains from the storm centre, west of Buffalo, came in covered with ice and three to seven hours late.

Four Postmasters Confirmed

Senate, at the instance of Senator Walter Smith, Monday afternoon of last week confirmed the appointment of four Maryland postmasters, all of them on the Eastern Shore, who were endorsed by the local party committees and recommended by Representative J. Harry Covington. Three Democrats and the fourth is a woman, reappointed for efficiency.

Messrs. H. L. Brittingham was confirmed as postmaster at Princess Anne; A. B. Cochran, Crisfield; W. Jasper Harper, Hurlock, and Mary W. Stewart, Oxford. Miss Stewart was reappointed on account of long and faithful service. She served under President Taft, when the Oxford office was in the third class. It has now been raised to the Presidential class.

There are three other Eastern Shore appointments yet on the calendar of the Senate. They are W. M. Brown, to be postmaster at Chesapeake City; Washington F. Collins, Millington, and Cecil E. Ewing, at Rising Sun. They were all recommended by Hope H. Barroll and have never been favorably reported upon by the Senate Postoffice Committee.

Twelve Killed In Wreck

Twelve persons were killed and more than 100 injured, some of them fatally, last Thursday, when three coaches of a Central of Georgia passenger train left the rails at a point 17 miles south of Eufaula, Ala., and plunged down a steep embankment. The train, which consisted of five cars crowded with excursionists, was enroute from Ozark, Ala., to Eufaula, where a fair was being held.

A broken rail is said to have caused the accident. As the crowded excursion train rounded a curve the three cars at the rear, literally packed with passengers, suddenly left the track and, breaking away from the others, rolled down the steep embankment. The coaches practically were demolished. Shrieks and groans of the injured rose above the rending crash of splintered timbers.

Occupants of the two coaches which remained on the rails immediately bent their efforts to rescuing the hundreds who were caught in the tangled mass of wreckage. Word of the disaster quickly reached Clayton, Ala., three miles away, and relief trains, bearing surgeons and nurses, were dispatched from Ozark and Eufaula, where most of the dead and injured later were taken.

—It is not often that three comets can be seen at one time, but that is the case this month. They are called Metcalf's, Neujmin's and Westphal's. All are small. None of them can be seen without a telescope.

CHANGES OF PROPERTY

Number of Deeds Recorded at the Office of Clerk of Court

The Trustees of John Wesley Metho, dist Episcopal Church from Frances J. Stevens, 86-100 of an acre of land and right of way to county road, in Lawson's district; consideration $1.00.

Edward G. Newton and Hattie E. Newton from Ira C. Wharton and wife, house and lot on Prince William street in the town of Princess Anne; consideration $1300.

Lewis N. Whitcraft from Robert F. Maddox, treasurer and others, 1 acre of land in Mt. Vernon district; consideration $6.50.

Adell Louisa Martin from Samuel Q. Parker, 1 acre of land in East Princess Anne district; consideration $10 and other considerations.

George A. Cox from H. Fillmore Lankford, assignee, 13½ acres of land in Fairmount district; consideration $1600.

George A. Cox from H. Fillmore Lankford, attorney, 10½ acres of land in Fairmount district; consideration $1400.

Alan F. Benjamin and Samuel A. Graham from Elijah Keiser, 165 acres of land in East Princess Anne district; consideration $5 and other considerations.

Jeppha J. Whittington from William J. Phillips, 1 one and eight-tenths acres of land in Brinkley's district; consideration $60.

Frank Gale from James C. Carver and wife and others, 4 acres of land in Brinkley's district; consideration $200.

Robert Boyd and Eunice E. Boyd from Edward L. Seltzer and wife, 65 acres of farm land and 14 acres of oyster land in Brinkley's district; consideration $100 and other considerations.

Judge Harlan Resigns

Judge Henry D. Harlan last Tuesday sent to Governor Goldsborough a letter resigning his position as Chief Justice of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore city. He also at 2 o'clock the same afternoon, notified his colleagues of his resignation, at a meeting called for that purpose in the Courthouse.

He will become general counsel of the Fidelity Trust Company.

Governor Goldsborough will have to appoint a successor to Judge Harlan, who will serve until the next general election for members of the General Assembly, which will take place in November, 1915.

Less than a month ago Judge Harlan celebrated his twenty-fifth anniversary as a member of the bench in Baltimore. His colleagues then gave him a silver pitcher, which was presented at a dinner at the University Club, and the court clerks, bailiffs and stenographers made separate gifts.

He was appointed Chief Judge in 1888, on the very day that he became eligible to the office by attaining 30 years of age. He is president of the board of trustees of John Hopkins Hospital and professor of constitutional law in Maryland University Law School.

Signs Of Cold Winter

If the winter is not a hard one then all the old time signs fail. They say when the crop of nuts is large and the persimmons hang heavy upon the trees, that is an unfailing sign that the winter will be long and severe. Added to this, several flocks of wild geese have gone south in "V" shape. This is said to be a token of an early winter and a hard one, so, if all of these signs do not fail there will be a winter this year that will be worthy of record.

The argument of the persimmon and out crop being large is that nature takes care of its children in the woods, such as squirrels, opossums, raccoons and ground hoppers. That these animals have an excellent chance to stock their commissaries with nuts and persimmons is much in evidence. Then the mushroom crop has been greater this year than it has been for many years. Bushels of them have been gathered and are still being gathered.

Law Of The Road

Now that automobiles are so numerous, it is getting to be very important that all users of the road should know and observe the rules in order to prevent accidents.

There are very few cases in which there is room for complaint when vehicles meet as every one turns to the right, but when an auto overtakes a horse-drawn vehicle there is no way to tell which way the latter will turn out for about as many turn to the right as to the left.

All vehicles should turn to the right hand side except those that overtake and pass another, in which case the one which is passing the other should pass around to the left.

Observance of these rules costs nothing and decreases your chance of accident, and in case of accident it throws the blame on the other man and prevents his suing you for damage.

The Colonel's Pride

How the Army Regulations Were Adhered to and a Genius Secured For the Band

By ARTHUR TOWNSEND

"Do you play on any musical instrument?"

"No."

"Have no musical taste?"

"I don't know. I was born and have lived all my life in the heart of a forest, where no musical sound except the singing of the birds has ever reached my ears. But that I have always dearly loved. Why do you ask these questions?"

"Because if you could play upon the cornet or the flageolet or the troubadour you might be permitted to live. As it is, your sentence will be carried out. What a pity that you have not some foundation for a musical training! I could in a few days coach you so that you might save yourself from being shot."

When the Spanish war broke out the news of it reached the wilderness in which I lived. Here was a chance to get out of the woods and into the world. I would enlist for a soldier. I would need no money. The government would clothe, feed and transport me, and all that would be required of me would be to be shot. And if those who shot at me missed me and continued to miss me till the war was over I would be taken care of till the next war, and if I lived through all the wars till I became an old man I would be laid on the shelf, but would be still taken care of.

This was the explanation given me by the recruiting officer, whom I found after a walk of sixty miles. Not caring to walk back again and remain out of the world I accepted the conditions to remain in the world till some enemy fired a shot that would give the government the best of the bargain. I was put into an infantry regiment and an effort was made to knock some of the "green" out of me and turn me into a soldier. But the effort failed. I could not be disciplined and within a week after having been landed in Cuba I struck my captain, was tried for mutiny and sentenced to be shot.

There are two extremes in war. When an army is not in action there is enough red tape used to strangle the world, but when the real work begins there isn't any red tape at all. In the attack that occurred after our landing, while many a good soldier lay dying on the battlefield, I, a mutineer, flung with malarial fever, was turned into the house of a Cuban farmer and was attended by his daughter, one of those dark haired, olive complexioned, long eyelashed daughters of equatorial regions who can't look at a man without falling in love with him.

It has required three times the talk to tell all these commonplace facts as the beginning of my story. It was Inez Gonzalez, the farmer's daughter and my nurse, who regretted my want of musical training with which I might have saved my life by blowing a horn. "A regiment encamped yesterday," she went on, "in a field across the road, and two of the men slipped here this evening. One of them said that his cornet and his flageolet had been killed and his trombone was groaning under a bad wound. The colonel was very proud of the regimental band, and just as soon as the routine of army life recommenced he would notice that the music was not up to the mark and there would be the mischief to pay. The other suggested that musicians be obtained from the prisoners who had been captured from the enemy. The first man answered that he hadn't thought of it; he would try. If you were a musician he might put you into the band."

Here was a chance for life—a ghost of a chance, but still a chance. The only indication that I had enough music in me to avail myself of the opportunity was that I had loved the songs of birds. I asked Inez to go to the camp, find the bandmaster and tell him there was a man in her home who could play on any instrument; that he was ill, but convalescent, and with a couple of weeks' practice would be able to take his place in a band.

Inez told the story, and the bandmaster came over to see me. When I told him I was under sentence to be shot he was a bit discouraged, but said that if I was a first-class cornet player he thought the colonel would have enough influence to get a commutation, or something that would save my breath for the band. He went away and came back to say that he had seen the colonel and secured an order delaying my execution till it could be discovered whether I was a valuable musician. It so some way of defeating justice would be found by which I could be utilized. The colonel's pride in the band was such that he would shoot a dummy in my stead if necessary, only the army regulations must be faithfully adhered to. But my abilities must be tested before any change in the army situation should take place.

So there I was, not knowing a note of music, sick in bed and required to make a musician of myself immediately, for army situations are not lasting, and the present one was liable to be changed at any moment. I got busy at once, with my life the spur to drive me on. Inez, having taken a few lessons on the piano, had the wherewithal for a beginning. But there was no time to put on an instrument to make the one I was required to play, and Inez borrowed a flute. On this I made a beginning. It was better for the purpose than a cornet since it made less noise, and the bandmaster across the road couldn't hear me practicing.

Written music bothered me, but I made wonderful progress, playing whatever came into my head. I could not read music at least could not learn to do so quickly enough for the purpose, but I could improvise, and what astonished Inez was that I could not only "make up" airs, but could play them with remarkable fervor.

All this developed within a few days, at the end of which time the bandmaster sent to learn if I was well enough to play for him. I replied that I would be very soon, but since I had not touched a musical instrument since the war began I would like to have him send me one on which I might get a little practice before submitting to a test. He sent me a cornet.

Fearing that he would hear my first efforts and learn of my ignorance of the art to which I pretended, I asked Inez to stuff the cracks in the windows of the room in which I lay, and I began my efforts under the bed. I made what headway I could in this disadvantageous way and in two days began to play on the bed instead of under it. Whether I was heard by the bandmaster or not I don't know, but if I was no word about it came to me. But so fearful was I of betraying my want of knowledge of the cornet that I dare not blow a full blast.

Every day I feared some change that would cut short my preparation, and it was carried on under the fear that at any moment the army law might be permitted to take its course. I was haunted by the expectation of being marched out at any moment, stood up before a file of soldiers and shot. So lugubrious were my feelings that my playing would have been much better fitted for a funeral march than the popular airs of the day.

One morning the bandmaster came to see me and told me that a candidate for cornet player in the band had appeared in the personage of a soldier in the ranks and, since he must have a man to fill the post as soon as possible, unless I was ready to stand a test he would have the other man transferred to the band. I begged him to wait a few days that I might get more strength, but he said the colonel was liable at any time to notice the deteriorated condition of the band and if he did it would be impossible to tell what he would do. This frightened me, and I consented to stand trial.

The next afternoon he brought a man to the house where I was lying. Inez saw them coming with a cornet and, pale as death, ran in to tell me. I was desperate. If I submitted to a trial of skill between myself and one who was familiar with the instrument I would doubtless show my inability as a cornet player; if I refused to submit man would be reported in my name and I would be shot.

"Let them come," I exclaimed. "I will blow a blast that will awaken the dead."

I knew that my room was no place for a test on a cornet and asked Inez to hand me my clothes. When the bandmaster arrived I was dressing and sent word to him that I would be out in a few minutes. Having finished my toilet, I muttered a prayer and staggered out on to a porch, where I dropped into a chair. The bandmaster told me and my rival that he would take into the band the better player of the two, and since I was weak and the other fellow was strong he would give me the advantage of playing after him. My rival took the cornet carelessly. It did not appear that he was anxious to get into the band, and he did not make a special effort. He did not need to do so to beat me, though he did not know it. He played a selection from the overture to "Zampa," a favorite piece for cornet players to show their skill. He rendered it very well, and I could not have played it at all.

One of the few simple airs I had learned was "Home, Sweet Home." Taking the cornet from the bandmaster, I told him that I was not strong enough to give him anything displaying technique; I could only produce melody. I fixed my mind on the cabin where I knew my dear mother was daily thinking of me and on the scene of my expected execution. There were but few notes, but each note was expressive of my depth of feeling. Persons who were passing stopped to listen. I played the air through once, and all were absorbed. I played it a second time, and their eyes were wet. The third time every one within hearing was weeping.

"That's enough," said the bandmaster. "You're my man."

"Hold," I said. "The secret must come out in time. I can't play a note. I have simply learned this in the vain hope of saving my life."

"I don't care if you can't play the scale; there's more music in you than in my whole band. I'll make a musician of you, and when I do you'll be a wonder."

Inez's tears gushed afresh, and she clasped me in her arms.

My execution was got round in this way. A requisition was made on the quartermaster for a coffin. It was in the hands of the colonel. He issued a special order that I was to be released from arrest till a coffin could be procured in which to bury me. The coffin was never procured, and I have never been buried. The army regulations were adhered to and I have become a great musician. Inez is my wife.

AN OPTICAL ILLUSION.

Apparent Size of the Moon at the Horizon and at the Zenith.

The moon's larger appearance when near the horizon as compared with its size at the zenith is really an optical illusion, and accurate angular measurements have shown that it is actually a trifle smaller when low down, as it should be on account of being a little more distant.

Adding a new attempt at explanation, Dr. M. Ponzio, an Italian physiologist, compares this with an illusion already represented by E. T. Sanford, another physiologist. Two straight lines are brought together at an acute angle at one end, two exactly equal circles being then drawn between the lines, when the circle nearer the apex appears decidedly the larger, but the illusion lessens as the angle is made less acute.

As the celestial bodies near the horizon, they appear in the angle formed by the earth and the declining arc of the sky. The conditions are just those of the artificial lines and circles, and its enlargement in the narrowing angle is a contrast the moon conspicuously brings out as compared with the spectacle it presents in the free sky.

The fact that the apparent enlargement is not always the same may be due to changes in the angle by clouds or vapors. —Denver Republican.

HE WAS AN OUTLAW.

And Presumed to Violate the Rules of the Canal Zone.

Almost as important in the work of building the Panama canal as the blue eyed czar at Culebra (by which title Mr. Harry A. Franck, in "Zone Police" man 88," distinguishes Colonel Gorgas), was Colonel Gorgas, who made and kept the zone a healthy place.

Among the colonel's big tasks was the extermination of the mosquito. How thoroughly he did his work is humorously indicated by a letter that Mr. Franck quotes:

Dear Colonel—I am writing to call your attention to a gross violation of sanitary ordinance No. 321 and an apparent loophole in your otherwise excellent department. The circumstances are as follows: On the evening of —, as I was sitting at the roadside between Gatun and New Gatun (some sixty-three miles beyond house No. 23), there appeared a mosquito which buzzed openly for some time about my ears. It was probably merely a male of the species, as it showed no tendency to bite, but a mosquito nevertheless. I trust you will take fitting measures to punish so bold and insolent a violation of the rules of your department. I am, sir, very truly yours, MRS. HENRY PECK.

P. S.—The mosquito can be easily recognized by a peculiarly triumphant, defiant note in its song.

Swordsmen of the Sea.

The swordsmen of the sea are the swiftest, spearlike, sailfishes, swordfishes and the narwhal, with its spirally twisted straight tusk. Swordfishes habit the warmer seas, while the narwhal is a creature of the Arctic.

Of the point and is spirally used its tusk as a weapon and to plunge through the ice, the narwhal being a Sometimes when a boat has been caught in the ice great damage has been inflicted by the iniquitousness or blundering of this great creature, that sometimes reaches a length of fifteen feet, with a tusk of from six to ten feet in length. As a rule, however, the narwhal uses its tusk for the purpose of killing fish for food. In the castle of Rosenburg the kings of Denmark have long possessed a magnificent throne made of tusks of this creature. These tusks are harder and whiter than ivory.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

IF YOU HAD A NECK AS LONG AS THIS FELLOW, SORE THROAT

ALL THE WAY DOWN TONSILINE WOULD QUICKLY RELIEVE IT. 25c. and 50c. Hospital Size. 61. ALL DRUGGISTS.

We Have the Largest Stock of MONUMENTS of any concern on the Peninsula.

Head Stones and all other cemetery memorials, COPING AND FENCES

We can furnish any class of material in Quincy Granite, Barre Granite and Westerly Granite; or any material you desire; also Building Stone. We would be glad to furnish estimates on anything in our class of work. We use Vermont and Italian Marble.

We have the most up-to-date plant on the Shore and the best location—this all helps to give you a reasonable price.

RICHARDSON & LECATES, Opposite N. Y. P. & N. Depot, SALISBURY, MARYLAND

PLANTS IN SLEEP.

Some Take Their Naps at Night, Others During the Day.

Clover shuts its leaves before rain and at night, bringing two of its three leaves face to face and folding the third over the top. The young blossoms are also carefully sheltered by enclosing leaves which move forward in the evening and wrap their arms about the buds.

There are two plants in the garden whose flowers sleep by day—the night blooming stock and Lychnis viscaria. The former is withered and shriveled in daylight, but expands and unfolds a candle-like, odor at night. The Lychnis is white, and in bright sunshine every flower closes and hangs limply down.

As the sun sets this Endymion plant awakes, expectant of the moon. The drooping calyxes raise themselves and slowly expand their flowers. It visibly ceases to droop and fade, and the plant, which almost died by day, is adorned anew. Its sister, the red Lychnis, shines by day and is called diurna, but this white one has long left the beaten ancestral path and has become vespertina.

As it opens small flies appear and visit it. The calyx is of that reddish hue which they approve. The sun dew which attracts flies shows the same dull red in its leaves. It is not a rarity, but few have seen its blossoms opened. —Scotsman.

TEST YOUR BAROMETER.

Air or Moisture in the Tube Will Render It Unreliable.

Don't expect a barometer to tell you the truth about the weather until you have tested it thoroughly. Two common causes for unreliability are air and water mixed with the mercury in the tube. These can be expelled by boiling the mercury.

In order to test a barometer let it hang for a time in the proper position; then gently and with care incline it so that the mercury may strike against the glass tube. If there is no air within you will hear a sharp metallic click, but if the sound is dull and muffled it indicates the presence of both air and moisture. The presence of air alone is shown by minute bubbles. If at any time the mercury seems to adhere to the tube, even in the slightest degree, and the convex surface assumes a more flattened form it is safe to conclude that either air or moisture is present. In any of these cases the instrument should be put into expert hands for rectification.

There are several kinds of barometers. The ordinary "weather glass" in common use is more or less unreliable and is easily made more so by careless handling. In fact, any barometer must be treated with great respect in order to retain its usefulness. —Harper's Weekly.

Not What He Felt.

Julius, twelve years old and from "Seacoast, nookful Normandy," came on a visit to friends in this country. He struggled manfully with the difficulties of a language which did not always mean what it said. One day he sat looking very sad. He missed his boat and the fishermen and his adored sea. "Are you homesick, Julius?" he was asked.

"No. It is not that I am homesick," he replied. "I am—what you call—sick." —New York Post.

Women in Congress.

The late James Freeman Clarke, answering a man who feared that if women had the ballot they would go to congress, said: "Perhaps so, but not until we want them. And when we want them we shall no longer be shocked at their taking such positions."

Nearly Every Child Has Worms

Paleness, at times a flushed face, unnatural hunger, picking the nose, great thirst, etc., are indications of worms. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a reliable, thorough medicine for the removal of all kinds of worms from children and adults. Kickapoo Worm Killer is in pleasant candy form, and aids digestion, tones the system, overcomes constipation and increasing the action of the liver. It is perfectly safe for even the most delicate children. Kickapoo Worm Killer makes children happy and healthy. 25c. Guaranteed. Try it. Drug stores or by mail. Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

[Advertisement]

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

relieves rheumatism quickly. It stimulates the circulation—Instantly relieves stiffness and soreness of muscles and joints. Don't rub—it penetrates.

Rheumatism Neuralgia

"I am a traveling man and about one year ago I was laid up with rheumatism and could not walk. A friend recommended Sloan's Liniment and the morning after I used it my knee was all O.K. and it has never bothered me since. I always keep your liniment in the house and carry it with me on the road." —Mr. Thomas S. Harris, 2nd Philadelphia, Pa.

Stiffness Vanished

"I suffered with an awful stiffness in my legs. That night I gave my legs a good rubbing with Sloan's Liniment and believe me, next morning I could jump out of bed. I have been supplied with a bottle ever since." —Mr. A. Moore of Manchester, N. H.

Sprained Ankle Relieved

"I was ill for a long time with a severely sprained ankle. I got a bottle of Sloan's Liniment and now I am able to be about and can walk a great deal. I write this because I think you deserve a lot of credit for putting such a fine Liniment on the market and I shall always take time to recommend Dr. Sloan's Liniment." —Mrs. Charles House of Baltimore, Md.

Sloan's Liniment gives a grateful sensation of comfort. Good for sprains, neuralgia, sore throat and toothache. Use it now.

At all Dealers, 25c., 50c. and $1.00. Send for Sloan's free book on horses.

Address: Dr. EARL S. SLOAN, Inc. BOSTON, MASS.

If You are Going to BUILD or REPAIR IT WILL PAY YOU TO SEE US BEFORE BUYING

Our stock of Lumber is complete. Now is the time to repair that roof—we have the following shingles to offer you:

4x24 Cedar Shingles	$ 5.75 per M
6x18 "	8.00 per M
6x20 "	8.50 per M
6x20 No. 1 Florida Hearts	12.50 per M
6x20 No. 2 "	10.00 per M
6x20 No. 1 " Saps	10.00 per M
6x18 No. 1 " Hearts	10.50 per M
6x18 " Primes	9.00 per M

Princess Anne Milling Co., PRINCESS ANNE, MARYLAND

Don't Shiver at Breakfast!

Why let chilled fingers and a blue nose spoil the buckwheats and a cup of good coffee?

You can have a warm dining room—certainly you can.

Your fire never goes out in

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

Even the cheapest grade of coal put in the night before will be a mass of glowing coke in the morning, and will heat your rooms perfectly for two or three hours without a fresh supply.

Burns anything—soft coal—hard coal—lignite or wood.

It is guaranteed.

COME IN AND SEE IT.

HAYMAN'S HARDWARE DEPT. PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

See the name "Cole's" on the feed door of each stove. None genuine without it.

114

The Wonderful ALADDIN Lamp

Wonderful because it produces a luxurious, soft, white light, excelled only by sunlight. Burns ordinary kerosene or coal oil, the cheapest of all illuminating fuels. Burns Less Oil than Any Other Lamp of Equal Candle Power. Aladdin Lamps are most durable in construction—easiest to take care of—simplest in operation. The light is brighter and easier on the eyes than gas or electricity. Occultists declare the Aladdin Gives The Best Artificial Light Known. Users declare it is not only the best light, but the best lamp known. There is No Equal. The Aladdin is superior by test and best by comparison. It appeals to those who want superlative excellence for its own sake—appeals to those who consider economy a first essential. Overlamps, so-called, simple, safe and clean—The Ideal Lamp for the multitude. Don't be bamboozled by an imitation. There is only one Aladdin. Insist on having it. The name is on every burner.

Investigation is the keynote of progression. Let us show you Aladdin

THE MANTLE LAMP COMPANY OF AMERICA

CHICAGO, PORTLAND, ORE., WATERBURY, CONN., WINNEPEG, CAN., MONTREAL, CAN.

FOR SALE BY C. W. MARSH, Agent, Champ, Maryland.

Send Us Your Next Order For JOB PRINTING

Notices of Marriages and Deaths will be published free—but Obituaries must be paid for at the rate of five cents per line.

Business Pointers

Ten (10) cents a line for the first insertion and five (5) thereafter.

100 HOGS WANTED—Apply to WEBB & CO., Crisfield, Md.

WANTED—A four or five room house for one year. H. D. YATES.

E. S. PUSEY, Blacksmithing and full line of Machinery, Princess Anne.

FOR SALE—500 bushels of white and yellow corn. L. N. WHITCRAFT.

Avoid chilly rooms in the morning by using Cole's Hot Blast Heaters. They prevent colds and sickness.

FOR SALE—A well-built buggy in excellent condition. Price reasonable. L. CATLIN, Beverly Farm, King's Creek.

FOR SALE OR RENT—10 acres trucking land with good house and barn, adjoining our property. THE COHN & BOCK CO.

If you wish to see a new and up-to-date line of neckwear, underwear, hose and gloves call on W. A. Brown, at Rose Barber shop until further notice.

HAY FOR SALE—Baled Timothy and Clover mixed. Farm wheat on the Manokin River, 2 1/2 miles below Princess Anne. CHARLES C. GELDER.

Persons desiring to buy farm land in Somerset county will find it to their interest to consult the undersigned who has for sale some good farms that can be bought cheap. LEVIN H. HALL, Surveyor of Somerset County.

AUTOMOBILE ANNOUNCEMENT.—The new 1914 Overland is a powerful, handsome, luxurious riding car, 35 h. p., 114 inch wheel base, 4 inch tires, electric lights, completely equipped for $950.00; with Gray & Davis' electric starter, $1075. Mr. Business Man, use good judgment in buying a car the same as you do anything else. Buy the Overland and save several hundred dollars. Write or phone L. S. NOCK, Salisbury and Crisfield.

The date on the label of your paper shows the time to which your subscription is paid. Please look at it.

Local and Miscellaneous

Many a man who isn't a high flier has his castles in the air.

Competition is the life of trade, when it isn't the death of it.

An idle rumor always gains currency, which is more than can be said of an idle man.

Mr. C. Wesley Fontaine spent last week visiting relatives and friends in Trenton, N. J., and Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua W. Miles spent the greater part of last week in Baltimore and Washington, D. C.

Miss Virginia Palmatory has returned home, after a visit to relatives in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Miss Marian Stafford, who has been the guest of Miss Shirley Dashiell, at Cambridge, returned to her home in Princess Anne last week.

Mr. Elmer Adkins and Miss Edna Morris, both of Salisbury, were married last Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock at Antioch Methodist Episcopal parsonage by the Rev. J. Howard Gray.

Bishop W. F. Adams, of the Diocese of Eastern, will visit Coventry Episcopal Parish, Wednesday, November 13th. He will confirm at St. Mark's Church, Kingston, 10:30 a. m., and St. Stephen's Church, Upper Fairmount, 7:30 p. m.

Rev. J. Howard Gray preached in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Laurel, Del., last Sunday. The Rev. G. W. Stallings, of Oriole charge, filled the pulpit of Antioch Church in the morning and Rev. G. P. Jones, District Superintendent, at the evening service.

Capt. Samuel French, of Fairmount, charged with participating in the burning of buildings on the property of the A. E. Tull Oyster Packing Company, was given a hearing before Justice Charles R. Porter on Monday afternoon of last week and dismissed. Captain French established an alibi, proving by a number of witnesses that he was not near the Tull property on the night of the fire. State's Attorney Tull, Fire Marshal Myers and Detective Kratz, of Baltimore, attended the hearing.

Mr. H. Lawrence Brittingham, who for several years past has been a teacher in the High School Department of Washington Academy, Princess Anne, last week tendered to the School Board his resignation to take effect 30 days after Nov. 10th. Mr. Brittingham has been appointed and confirmed as Postmaster of Princess Anne. As a teacher he has made a great success and the severance of his connection with the High School is generally regretted. His successor has not yet been appointed.

Mr. Charles L. Peterson and wife, of Cos Cob, Conn., visited at the home of Mr. H. D. Yates the greater part of last week. Mr. Peterson is a jolly big fellow, and we understand, will make his home in Princess Anne. Mr. Peterson holds the responsible position of chief engineer of one of the largest power houses of the East, and while this position is remunerative, he expresses the desire to retire among "the finest people he ever met" as he expresses it. He recently purchased the Henry Tilghman property and prior to coming here will make extensive changes and repairs.

Mrs. George H. Meyers spent several days in Philadelphia last week.

The average woman either dresses to please her husband, or to worry him.

It is not only a woman's privilege to change her mind, but her name as well.

A girl often feels that she "doesn't know how to take a fellow, even before he proposes."

The only time a girl can hit anything she aims at is when she throws a bouquet at herself.

Some women are no more genuine than their blushes, while others are as true as their freckles.

The law being out last Saturday for rabbits and partridges, the sportsmen were in the fields early with dog and gun.

Rev. George Hudson, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Phoebus, of Oriole, has returned to his home in Massachusetts.

Mrs. George W. Brown and daughter, Lenora, left yesterday (Monday) morning for Baltimore to spend a week with Mrs. Brown's sister, Mrs. A. D. Mansfield.

Because the attendance at the Havre de Grace High School dropped below the required number last year it will lose its $300 state appropriation, and the county school board has asked council to make up the deficiency.

Mrs. Twilley C. Porter, of Loretto, and her sister, Mrs. S. I. Malone, of Allen, have returned to their homes after spending some days with Mrs. Porter's daughter, Mrs. George L. Bounds, at Pocomoke City.

Mr. Henry J. Nelson was operated on last Thursday at the Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore, for hernia. Dr. Ridgely Warfield and Dr. Robert Wilson were the attending surgeons. We understand the operation was successful.

On November 5th the post office department issued an order that no rural carriers were allowed to take pennies or coins of any kind from the mail boxes. All patrons living on routes must stamp mail before putting it in the boxes to insure delivery.

The Salisbury District Epworth League Convention will be held Wednesday and Thursday at Ashbury M. E. Church, Salisbury. Among the speakers who have been secured are the Rev. W. L. McDowell, of Baltimore, and Rev. William H. Morgan, of Calvary Church, New York City. Rev. T. R. VanDyke, of Berlin, is president.

Mrs. J. T. Taylor left on Wednesday last for Chestertown, Md., to attend the annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Eastern, as a delegate from St. Andrew's branch, of Princess Anne. The meeting lasted through Wednesday and Thursday. After the meeting Mrs. Taylor left for a visit to Baltimore.

Franklin E. Cox, former State Game Warden of Maryland, probably will face within the next few days criminal charges involving his conduct of the office, to which Governor Goldsborough appointed him and from which he was later removed by the Governor. The Anne Arundel County Grand Jury filed with the Court at Annapolis last Wednesday a presentment charging the former State official with false pretenses. A $20 item in his expense account and the return made thereon in the shape of a voucher about February 1st, 1913, is made the basis of the presentment.

Friday, November 21, will be celebrated from Maine to Texas as a national shellfish day. While this proclamation comes from the National Association of Shellfish Commissioners, the association does not mean to be exclusive in limiting the celebration to the shellfish States. The people of the interior are asked to join the movement by partaking of the favorite shellfish on this day. The public schools throughout the shellfish States have been asked to co-operate by having the children write compositions or receive some special instructions on this great industry.

No one has yet produced a national song that stirs the emotions and arouses patriotic fervor as does the "The Star Spangled Banner." It is eminently fitting therefore that the hundredth anniversary of the grand old song's writing should be observed, as Baltimore is preparing to celebrate it, next September. The bombardment of Fort Mchenry by the British fleet, on one of the vessels of which the author, Francis Scott Key, was detained, was the inspiration of the anthem. "Since its birth a century will have elapsed next September, during which no foreign foe has attempted to set foot on American soil, and the anniversary will thus mark a century of international peace."

A Night of Terror

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by all Dealers.

(Advertisement)

Egyptian Wheat

Mr. William E. Timmons, of near Snow Hill, has grown this year a new variety of grain, known as Egyptian wheat, for which great claims are made, not only by Mr. Timmons, but also by many who have watched its growth from its first early sowing to its harvesting. While in Baltimore last spring Mr. Timmons learned of the new wheat.

On returning home, Mr. Timmons procured some of the seed from Texas, and sowed them about the first of May. The seed were sowed six or eight inches apart, in rows three feet apart. The crop was cultivated only twice. The grain was cut about the first of October and threshed on the last day of the month. From five quarts of seed, on one and one-fourth acres of ground, sixty-two bushels were threshed.

The grain is about the size of sugar cane seed, and the stalk grows from ten to twelve feet high. From one seed there would be from six to eight sheaves, and each branch would be full headed, the largest branch usually springing from the main stock. Some of the heads of grain would shell out a full half pint. It is claimed that the grain will make excellent flour, but this hasn't been tested yet by Mr. Timmons.

Jim's Advantage

A prominent state official in a mountain region retires in his horse one hot afternoon and inquired of a barefooted woman working in the field, "Madam, can you tell me how much farther it is to Johnson's Corners?"

The woman leaned on her hoe and pondered gravely. "No," she said finally. "I can't. My son, Jim, could tell you, though. Jim's been around. He's got shoes."—Everybody's.

A Deduction

Personally we do not pretend to be much of a hand at reading character, but when we see a young man carrying a pair of kid gloves in one hand and a cane in the other we know he isn't looking for a plowing job.—Galveston News.

Only a Bluffer

"He says he's boss—likes to show his wife that he's clothed in authority."

"All I can say is that he's a pretty poor dresser."—Town Topics.

Around the Circle

"In my time," declared grandma, "girls were more modest."

"I know," said the flippant girl. "It was a bad once. We may get back to it."—Kansas City Journal.

Paint Now

If your property needs it, don't wait. There are two parts of a job: the paint and the work; the work is more than the paint; and it never comes down.

The cost of paint is about two-fifths; the work three-fifths.

Paint won't come down in a hurry; too many jobs put-off.

Men are waiting for $2 or $3; they don't know it, they think they are waiting for $20 or $25.

Why don't men use their heads? DEVOE

C. H. Hayman sells it.

ELTON H. ROSS, THE BARBER,

Sanitary Shop—Three Chairs—Clean Towels—Hot and Cold Water.

PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

Slab Wood For Sale

Pine, Gum and Oak Slab Wood, stove lengths, delivered in Princess Anne, $3.50 per measured cord. Address

BENJAMIN & GRAHAM CO., Salisbury, Md.

Dr. C. W. PURNELL, OPTOMETRIST,

of Cambridge, will be at O. A. Jones' Drug Store on Monday afternoon Dec. 1st, 1913.

Glasses prescribed and furnished when necessary.

GORDON T. WHELTON County Surveyor

Crisfield, Maryland

At Princess Anne Every Tuesday OFFICE IN COURT HOUSE (Formerly used by Tax-Collectors)

Bridge Closed

During the construction of the concrete bridge over the Manokin river, the old Red Bridge will be closed to traffic. All persons are hereby warned not to trespass thereon.

By order of the BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Public Sale

The undersigned will sell at public sale where he now resides, at the Monie drawbridge, about 7 miles west of Princess Anne, on Wednesday, Dec. 3rd, 1913, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m., the following personalty, viz: Two horses, 2 mules, black colt, 3 years old; milch cow, will be fresh in February; fat hog, lot of chickens, 300 bushels of corn, 10 stacks of fodder, some long fodder, 40 bushels of white potatoes, some sweet potatoes, 3 baskets of onions, two-horse wagon, carriage, road wagon, dearborn wagon, harness, plows and other farming implements and a lot of household and kitchen furniture.

Terms of Sale:—On all sums of $10.00 and under cash; over that amount a credit of four months will be given on bankable note with approved security, bearing interest from day of sale.

VICTOR J. WILSON.

Gettysburg Stabber Set Free

After hearing the petitions of Governor William Hodges Mann, of Virginia; Governor H. D. Hatfield, of West Virginia; Governor John K. Tener, of Pennsylvania; three former Governors of Virginia, and a score of others, all asking for clemency, Presiding Judge S. McC. Swopes, of the Adams County (Pennsylvania) Courts, Monday afternoon of last week suspended sentence in the case of William Byrd Henry, now of Philadelphia, formerly of Tazewell, Va., who stabbed nine persons in a Gettysburg hotel at the battle anniversary celebration there in July.

Henry is a son of Major R. B. Henry, of Tazewell, Va.

Governor Tener sent as his special representative and as the representative of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg Commission, William M. Hargest, Assistant Attorney General of the State, who said that both the Governor and the Commission desired a suspension of sentence, feeling that the occurrence was a misfortune rather than a crime, and that they would not wish any punishment imposed upon the young lawyer to mar the perfect record of the harmonious reunion. Every one of the persons stabbed by Henry when he literally cut his way out of a brawl asked for suspension of sentence, all declaring that they believed he was laboring under a temporary mental aberration.

Immediately after the suspension of sentence the young lawyer and his friends were surrounded by friends, who congratulated them heartily over the happy issue to the case. All Henry's victims, who brought civil suits for damages, have been paid, and have given releases. None of the injuries had any serious issue.

Tight-wads

"I understand Anybody's is paying Scribbler a dollar a word for his stories." "They were, but he broke the contract because they refused to count the punctuation marks as words."

Saved His Foot

H. D. Ely, of Bantam, O., suffered from a horrible ulcer on his foot for four years. A doctor advised amputation, but he refused and reluctantly tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve as a last resort. He then wrote: "I used your salve and my foot was soon completely cured." Best remedy for burns, cuts, bruises and eczema. Get a box today. Only 25c. All druggists, or by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

(Advertisement)

European Restaurant

Meals at all hours

When you want a lunch don't fail to stop in. Oysters in every style—raw, steamed or fried. Families supplied by the quart or gallon.

RAYMOND MARRINER, Prop.

Be a Trained Nurse

Earn $15 to $35 Weekly

THE DEMAND FOR TRAINED NURSES is ever increasing and doctors will not assume responsibility without a Trained Nurse. The HOME STUDY COURSE in Nursing which the Rochester Nurses Institute gives students appeals to thousands. Their graduates command from $15.00 to $35.00 weekly. The Rochester Nurses Institute will thoroughly train any one from 18 years to sixty, and give Diploma when Course is completed. Write today for Free Booklet.

ROCHESTER NURSES INSTITUTE

498 INSTITUTE BLDG., ROCHESTER, N. Y.

11-13eow

Public Sale

—OF A—

Black Percheron Stallion

AT POCOMOKE CITY

Saturday, Nov. 29th, 1913.

We, the undersigned, offer for sale the handsome Black Percheron Stallion named "Brewster" with pedigree and papers; 5 years old and will weigh 1640 pounds. Anyone wishing to purchase a stallion will miss a great chance by not purchasing this one. He is one of the finest on the Eastern Shore—a sure foaler.

W. P. EVANS, Pocomoke City, Md.

E. C. HOLLOWAY, Snow Hill, Md.

N. J. MILLER, Rehoboth, Md.

FOR YOUR TEETH

"BESCO"

(ALKALINE)

TOOTH POWDER

The most elegant preparation ever introduced for Cleansing, Beautifying and Preserving the Teeth. Prevents the deposit of tartar—the teeth's worst enemy.

The daily use of "BESCO" makes the teeth pearly and white. * * * Guaranteed to contain nothing injurious to the teeth or gums.

A liberal bottle for 25 cents.

If not satisfied after a trial of "BESCO" your money back if you want it.

OMAR A. JONES, DRUGGIST,

Princess Anne, Maryland

Lankford's Department Store

FASHIONABLE Fall and Winter Ware

This Store

Is Prepared to Serve You

LADIES', MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S

SUITS and COATS

"BUSTER BROWN" SHOES

FOR CHILDREN AND MISSES

"Goodman's" Shoes

For Ladies', Misses' and Children

"Dolly Madison" Shoes

FOR LADIES—Strong Shoe Proposition This

Sweaters, Gloves, Corsets, Underwear, Etc., Etc.

WE DO NOT CLAIM to have the Largest and Best Store South of New York or West of Paris, but there are some things we claim: Your attention, consideration and your patronage if we can serve you just as well as anyone else. To this end we have labored for 25 years and come near knowing the demands of the community.

Our stock will bear this out if given a fair show . . .

LANKFORD

THE HOME FURNISHER

Princess Anne, -:- Maryland

Call and See My Full Line of Ranges, Cook Stoves, Heaters

"Tip-Top" Hot Blast Stoves Also "WILSON" HEATERS

PRICES TO SUIT THE PURCHASER QUALITY OF STOVES THE BEST

E. S. PUSEY

Main Street—North of Washington Hotel

PRINCESS ANNE, MARYLAND

The Best Store

SUITS COATS

Dress Goods SILKS

DICK

FURNITURE

PARLOR, LIBRARY

LIVING ROOM

DINING-ROOM

HALL

BEDROOM

and

RUGS & DRAPERIES

at all prices

NOTIONS

CORSETS

KID GLOVES

SWEATERS

UNDERWEAR

UMBRELLAS

FURS

All kinds, in all colors, all prices

WILSON'S

WALL PAPER

In Stripes, Plaids

and Figures,

in all the new shades

MILLINERY

In this line we can suit

the most fastidious

LET US SHOW YOU

W. S. DICKINSON & SON POCOMOKE CITY, MARYLAND

NOW IS THE TIME To Plant Fall Bulbs

Plant Now

YOU CAN HAVE BEAUTIFUL FLOWERS
TO BRIGHTEN YOUR HOME
All winter, at Christmas time, at Easter time, also on your lawn and in your flower beds at the first opening of Springtime—if you plant now.

Boligno's Fall Bulbs
are full sized and true to name.
Our 95 years' experience in Bulb Selection has placed us in a position of knowing the most reliable source of securing the choicest French and Holland Grown Bulbs.

Beautifully Illustrated 30 Page
Bulb and Poultry Book Free.

It tells you exactly how to arrange and care for your Fall Bulbs to have the best success, also give a full line of Poultry Supplies and requisites. If you have not already received a copy send us a postal to-day.

Each	Doz.
Baby Hyacinths.....	40c
Bedding Hyacinths.....	60c
2nd. Size Hyacinths.....	75c
1st. Size Hyacinths.....	1.25
Freebie Bulbs.....	25c
Early Tulips Mixed.....	25c
May or Cottage Tulips.....	35c
Parrot Tulips.....	35c
Double Tulips.....	25c
Narcissus Single.....	25c
Longueville.....	25c
Double Narcissus.....	30c
Crocus Mixed.....	20c
Oxalis.....	25c
Easter Lilies.....	1.50
Church Sacred Lilies.....	1.50

Our Plant Season Now In Full Progress

Beautiful Plants, Ferns, Palms and Hardy Evergreens, selling at a price within the reach of all. Watch the Baltimore American and Sun for special sales. If you cannot get Boligno's Bulbs and Plants through your local dealer, send us a postal and we will tell you where you can get them.

Boligno's Seed Store
33 Years Established Trade.
BALTIMORE, MD.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset County letters of administration on the personal estate of

WILLIAM H. BOSS,
late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased,
are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscriber on or before the

Third Day of December, 1913,
or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 27th day of May, 1913.
MARY A. BOSS,
Administratrix of William H. Boss, dec'd.
True Copy. Test:
SIDNEY WALLER,
Register of Wills.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset County letters of administration on the estate of

NELSON COLLINS,
late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased,
are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscriber on or before the

First Day of January, 1914,
or they may otherwise by law be excluded
from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 24th day of June, 1913.
L. WESLEY BEAUCHAMP and ZELPHY COLLINS,
Administrators of Nelson Collins, deceased.
True Copy. Test:
SIDNEY WALLER,
Register of Wills.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset County letters of administration on the estate of

BENJAMIN RAYMOND WARREN,
late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased,
are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscriber on or before the

Twenty-ninth Day of January, 1914,
or they may otherwise by law be excluded
from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 22d day of July, 1913.
MARY B. WARREN,
Administratrix of Benjamin Raymond
Warren, deceased.
True Copy. Test:
SIDNEY WALLER,
Register of Wills.

McCall's Magazine and McCall Patterns

For Women

Have more friends than any other magazine or patterns. McCall's is the reliable Fashion Guide monthly in one million one hundred thousand homes. Besides showing all the latest designs of McCall Patterns, each issue is brimful of sparkling short stories and helpful information for women.

Save Money and Keep in Style by subscribing for McCall's Magazine at once. Costs only 50 cents a year, including any one of the celebrated McCall Patterns free.

McCall Patterns Lead all others in style, simplicity, economy and number sold.
More dealers sell McCall Patterns than any other make combined. None higher than 35 cents. Buy from your dealer, or by mail from

McCall's Magazine
235-246 W. 37th St., New York City
When People Order, Please Give Name and Pattern Catalogue
May, or August.

The Little Four FOR TWO PERSONS

The Car You Want at a Price You
Can Afford to Pay
"The Product of Experience"

Absolutely Well-Built—Easy Riding—So Stylish and Well-Finished that Owners of High-Priced Large Cars are Proud to Use THE "LITTLE FOUR" for their $690.00
Runabout Work

Peninsula Motor Company,
Salisbury, Md.
East Church Street
Near N. Y., P. & N. Depot

Will Save You Money on Your Fall Office
and School Supplies

MEYER & THALHEIMER,
The Big Stationery Store.

Baltimore and Howard Streets BALTIMORE, MD.

Blank Books for Every Purpose
Loose Leaf Ledger Outfits and Devices
Wood and All-Steel Sectional Filing Cabinets
Commercial Stationery, School Supplies

Our Immense Variety and Reasonable Prices
Assure Absolute Satisfaction

Wilmington Conference ACADEMY

A CHRISTIAN SCHOOL FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

COMMERCIAL COURSE

EQUAL WITH THE BEST!
CHEAPER THAN THE CHEAPEST!

Always open for inspection. Comparison with the best schools not feared. Students entered any time

NEW ROOMS NEW FURNITURE
NEW TYPEWRITERS

NEW GYMNASIUM NEW SWIMMING POOL.

ATHLETIC FIELD

Send for Catalogue to
Rev. HENRY G. BUDD, Principal
DOVER, DELAWARE

When a Doctor is Needed

in your home the quickest way is the best way.

The telephone has proven its worth in saving lives so many times that no progressive doctor is without it.

You may not need a doctor now—hope you do not —but it is well to be prepared for emergencies by having Bell telephone service installed.

Have you a Bell telephone?

THE CHESAPEAKE AND POTOMAC
TELEPHONE COMPANY

H. W. CARTY, Local Manager

Tel. 9000 Salisbury, Md.

WORK OF THE OCEANS.

They Do More Than Merely Separate Acre of Dry Land.

Oceans are found in various parts of the world, where they spend their time in lapping shores, intruding upon the rights of continents and swallowing up islands, ships and people.

Oceans are salty to the taste, and are used by yachtsmen to get away from their wives, also to cover up cabled newspaper stories about kings and queens and to float navies and other debts.

An ocean spends its time in having storms and making surf. It delights in making innocent people sick and in playing with children's legs. Without oceans there would be no steamships and gambling would decline.

Every ocean has a set of fish which do not even pay ground rent, but spend their time like people who live on land—namely, in devouring each other.
Besides ordinary fish, oceans have whales, lobsters and mermaids. The mermaids live on rocks just as girls on dry land do. The lobsters also live shellfish lives in lobster palaces. The whales lie around and wait for the happy time when they can perform useful work supplying bones for corsets.

Some oceans employ professional sea serpents, which they use during the summer for advertising purposes.
Oceans also have zones, seaweed and sponges. When an ocean has been out all night it likes to take a sponge bath;
hence it always keeps on hand a constant supply of these useful toilet articles.—Life.

FARMS THAT FAIL.

The Way Food Making Crops Rob the Soil of Its Fertility.

An acre of wheat deprives the soil of forty-five pounds of nitrogen, twenty-three pounds of phosphoric acid and thirty pounds of potash. On the market nitrogen is worth 17 cents a pound, phosphoric acid 7 cents and potash 4 cents. Therefore the actual money value of the nitrogen removed from the soil by an acre of wheat is $7.65; of phosphoric acid, $1.61, and of potash $1.20, making a total loss of $10.46 an acre a year. If the farmer raises twenty acres of wheat a year for twenty-five years the loss will be $5,230.

Each acre of oats consumes fifty pounds of nitrogen, twenty pounds of phosphoric acid and forty pounds of potash. In the same way an acre of corn will take from the soil $18.50 worth of fertility, provided both the grain and fodder are removed. If you have fifty acres in corn $925 worth of fertility is removed each year. In twenty years you will have taken out $18,500 worth of the elements necessary to produce a good crop.

Should you raise fifty acres of wheat, fifty acres of oats and fifty acres of corn for twenty years on your farm the money value of the elements removed from the soil would be more than $40,000.
Is it any wonder, then, that the farms begin to wear out when you fail to return those elements to the soil which are necessary to produce a crop?
—Farm and Fireside.

Lincoln's History of Himself.

When Abraham Lincoln was elected to congress Charles Lamm, then editor of the Congressional Record, according to the regular custom, forwarded to Mr. Lincoln as well as to all other members elect a blank to be filled out with facts and dates which might be made the basis for a biographical sketch in the directory. Mr.
Lincoln's blank was returned promptly, filled up in his own handwriting with the following information:

"Born Feb. 12, 1809, in Hardin county, Ky.
"Education, defective.
"Profession, lawyer.
"Military service, captain of volunteers in the Black Hawk war.
"Offices held: Postmaster at a very small office, four times a member of the Illinois legislature and elected to the lower house of the next congress."

London's Dullest Job.

The dullest job in London may be come an absorbing occupation in time.
There is a clerk at the law courts whose sole duty is to take papers, one by one, from a pile on the left side of his table, bang a stamp down on them and place them in the same order on his right. He has been doing this job for about thirty-five years and recently confessed that it has become such a part of his nature that if the supply of documents dried up he would have a nervous breakdown. Fortunately, the block of litigation at the courts will prevent such a catastrophe for some time.—London Standard.

Ear For Music.

"What is that tune your daughter is playing?"
"Which daughter?" asked Mrs. Cumrox. "If it is the older girl it's Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsody, and if it's the younger one it's Exercise 27."—Washington Star.

In a Dilemma.

"What's the trouble, old man?"
"I'm up against it for fair."
"As to how?"
"My liver doctor expressly orders me to eat sugar, and my stomach specialist positively forbids it."—Kansas City Journal.

Hopeless.

"So you think that Mrs. Jinks is a failure as a hostess?"
"Yes, she couldn't even entertain a hope properly."—Buffalo Express.

If you will not hear reason she will surely rap your knuckles.—Benjamin Franklin.

J. T. Taylor, Jr.

Largest
Carriage, Wagon and Harness Dealers in the State of Maryland

5A Horse Blankets

5A Horse Blankets are the strongest and longest-wearing. They are made from strong, tightly-twisted yarns, are closely woven, strong, warm and durable.
Ask for a 5A Horse Blanket
when you buy.

BUY A

5A SQUARE BLANKET FOR STREET USE
5A STABLE BLANKET FOR THE STABLE
5A PLUSH ROBE FOR YOUR OWN COMFORT

Sold by

J. T. TAYLOR, Jr.

I have all kinds of stable
blankets

5A Horse Blankets

The long-wearing 5A Horse Blankets are the cheapest to purchase by all odds. Their strength gives durability. Their warmth gives horse-protection. Their size gives comfort. Ask for a 5A.

BUY A

5A SQUARE BLANKET FOR STREET USE
5A STABLE BLANKET FOR THE STABLE
5A PLUSH ROBE FOR YOUR OWN COMFORT

Sold by

J. T. TAYLOR, Jr.

Several hundred Square
Blankets from $1.00
up to $7.00

5A Carriage Robes

5A Plush Robes are generous size, warm, long
of wear, made in beautiful
patterns and rich colors.
Buy one for your own
comfort, and ask for 5A
when you buy.

BUY A

5A SQUARE BLANKET FOR STREET USE
5A STABLE BLANKET FOR THE STABLE
5A PLUSH ROBE FOR YOUR OWN COMFORT

Sold by

J. T. TAYLOR, Jr.

Our Robes are unequalled
for the money; all kinds
and prices to suit
all kinds

J. T. Taylor, Jr.

PRINCESS ANNE,
MARYLAND

SOLVING A MYSTERY

By M. QUAD
Copyright, 1913, by Associated Literary Press.

When a village of 1,400 inhabitants can boast of six widows, five old bachelors, six widowers and five old maids you may take it that that community is "going some."

Such was the case with the village of Grand View, and when a stranger would refer to the rival village of Spring Valley as having two butcher shops he was met with the reply:

"Yes, sir, I admit that she has, but where are her widows and widowers and old maids and old bachelors? She hasn't enough to count on two fingers.
If you are looking for a home, sir, go no further than this, where business is always steady and real estate on the boom."

There was a flaw in the armor, though strangers did not get on to the fact. While these four classes of people were residents, there were no marriages between them.

The catch among the combined widowers and bachelors was Abraham Gunner. He was a bachelor. He was the wealthiest. He was popular.

All of a sudden Abraham received a drop letter at the postoffice. It was written by a woman who said she admired and loved him and hoped he would not judge her too harshly for her plain statement of fact. He might never come to know the writer, but he could treasure it in his heart that one woman at least held him above all other men in the world.

Abraham scratched his ear and grinned.

"Who the devil can it be?" Abraham kept repeating to himself as he worked about the mill, but wondering and guessing didn't bring the solution.

That evening he didn't appear at the drug store to play checkers. He remained at home to read that letter over and over and try for a clew. Of course no married woman had written him thus, and as he was forty years old and made no secret of it the marriageable girls in town would pass him by.

"It's some one giving me a josh," was Abraham's conclusion as he quit speculating and went off to bed and to sleep.

On the third day thereafter he received another letter from the same person. It was also full of admiring terms. It was not likely they would ever meet, the unknown wrote, but she was strangely and strongly interested in his welfare.

As a bachelor, he must live a more or less lonely life.

As a husband, he would have a comrade and companionship.

As a boarder, as he had been for years and was yet, he knew nothing whatever of the comforts of a home.

It was hoped he would give the subject all due consideration and, in case he decided to enter the bonds of mari-mony, might he take to the altar such a bride as a good man deserved.

"By thunder, but that's a darn good woman, whoever she is!" exclaimed
Abraham as he read the letter.

After ten minutes he read it again and mused:

"Who can it be? Who can it be?"

"Say, old man, you must have heard some bad news," was the greeting he got from a dozen friends in the next three days.

"What makes you think so?"

"Why, your face is as long as a camel's, and you were going right past without speaking."

It was almost a week before another letter came. Same handwriting—same womanly interest in his welfare.

"And has it ever occurred to you,"
was one of the paragraphs in the letter, "that a man situated as you are is selfish not to marry? It would relieve at least one woman from her cares and struggles. It would add one more household to the many."

"By John, but I'd propose to that woman in a holy minute if I knew who she was!" exclaimed Abraham, and when he reflected that he didn't know and had no way of finding out he wanted to kick over chairs and call his dog names.

Five hundred people a day called at the postoffice. How could they all be watched?

Abraham had no intimate man friend to go to with the letters.

He had a strong admiration and liking for the woman, no matter whether she was an old maid or a widow, but how was she to know it? How was he to find her and tell her so?

The old bach received a fourth letter and then a plan popped into his head. The postmistress had held her position for five years. She must know the handwriting of scores and scores of women. Why hadn't he thought of it before?

At midforenoon Abraham left his mill and walked to the postoffice and entered with firm step and handed one of the envelopes to the postmistress at the general delivery window and asked:

"Can you tell me, please, if you recognize that hand?"

"Um, um, ah-um," she stammered as a blush came to her cheek.

"Say, by cracky, Mrs. Dayton, you are a widder!" almost shouted the man.

"Y-yes."

"Drat me, but it never occurred to me!"

"N-no."

"I'll come in this evening and we'll set a date for the marriage!"

"But, Mr. Gunner—"

But he called and the date was set,
and there was no postponement on account of the weather or anything else.

MARYLANDER AND HERALD
PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY MORNING AT
PRINCESS ANNE, MD.
Office of Publication—Herald Building
Main Street, Phone No. 61.

Subscription Price, $1.00 Per Annum

WILLIAM H. DASHIELL,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

All communications should be addressed to the MARYLANDER AND HERALD.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 18, 1913.

New Tariff Wins Favor

For the benefit of those deluded Republicans who profess to believe that the new Democratic tariff is having an important influence in arraying voters against the Wilson administration and in bringing Progressives back to the G. O. P. fold we desire to call attention to the result of the recent election in the Third Massachusetts Congressional district, which has been overshadowed by the struggles of wider interest. This district, which lies in the middle of the State, is described as containing "many manufacturing towns—precisely the kind of district, one would suppose, to be affected by the new tariff law." When the late Congressman W. H. Wilder, a Republican, was elected a year ago he received a plurality of 3203, his vote being 12,945 to 5,742 for the Democratic candidate and 5,287 for the Progressive.

At Tuesday's election this handsome plurality was almost wiped out, the Republican vote falling to 11,170 and the Democratic rising to 10,824, showing a plurality of only 346 for the successful candidate. The Progressive vote stood like a rock, being 5,273, a loss of only 11. Thus it will be seen that the Democrats gained over 1000 votes, while the Republicans lost nearly 1900. Very clearly the voters of Massachusetts, which has been regarded as a strong protective tariff State, do not look with apprehension upon the Democratic efforts to reduce the burdens of the people. Indeed, they seem to prefer these to Republican stand-patism. The Democratic tide is evidently still rising, and, unless something very unexpected happens, its flood is likely to last well beyond the Congressional elections of 1914. If Massachusetts sentiment can be taken as an index of that of New England and the Northern States generally the Republican restoration is likely to be postponed indefinitely. Philadelphia Record.

Tests The Fifteenth Amendment

The refusal of the registration officers of Annapolis, based upon an act of the Maryland legislature passed at the 1908 session, to register certain citizens of African race who applied for registration, has, upon complaint of the rejected applicants for registration been carried to the Supreme Court of the United States. This case, involving as it does a question of the latitude or supremacy of the Constitution of the United States, is of nationwide interest and the decision which will later be handed down by the court of final appeal will be awaited, not in Maryland alone, but in every state of the Union, with a high degree of interest.

Arguments have been made before the court by William L. Marbury, representing the Annapolis registrars, and by Edgar H. Gans, representing the protesting colored men who were refused registration. Mr. Marbury's argument questioned the significance and scope of the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, his main contention being apparently that the city of Annapolis as a municipal corporation was created by an act of a state legislature and that the Fifteenth Amendment, in prohibiting the states from denying or abridging the voting rights of citizens of the United States on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude, does not refer to the right to vote in a corporate body formed under a state law. Mr. Gans opened his argument by quoting the provision of the special legislative act under which the registrars refused to enroll the complainants and remarked that the plain purpose of the act was to deprive colored men of the right to vote and nullify the intent of the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution. Much of his address was devoted to exposing the subtleties under which the defendants, as he contended, are seeking to shield themselves from the potential consequences involved in ignoring the plain purpose and intent of the Fifteenth Amendment of the Constitution. Baltimore Star.

Wilson To Read Message

President Wilson announced last Thursday that he would read in person his first annual message to Congress. The President thus far has read three brief addresses, on tariff, currency and the Mexican affairs, but it was not definitely known whether his first communication to the regular session of Congress would be in accordance with the century-old precedent which he received last March.

The President told inquirers that he had just begun work on the address and had not decided just how many of the topics dealt with in the annual reports of Cabinet members he would weave into the document.

Crop Conditions

We have now had the next to the last crop report for this season. The Department of Agriculture is accustomed to issue in December a report of the actual harvest, but, as the wheat was harvested weeks ago, and all the corn is cut and much of it husked, we shall not get much more information than we now possess. But as the thrashing of grain proceeds and as more corn is husked and shelled we increase the amount of fact and reduce the amount of guessing in the crop figures.

The notable change from previous reports is the one which has just been given out, the increase in the corn figures. The probable corn yield is now put 112,000,000 bushels higher than two months ago. Late as the rains were, they did an appreciable amount of good, and, as the estimates of October allowed for only an improvement of 22,000,000 bushels, while those for November add another 90,000,000, and the farmers rather grudgingly admit favorable conditions and are quick to make the most of bad conditions in their estimates, it would not be at all surprising if further shelling of corn should result in increasing the average yield per acre, and raising the total for the corn of the year.

Yet if the present figures should be final, and correct, there would be nothing in them to justify worry over the supply, or explain particularly high prices. It is true that the latest estimate of the corn crop is almost exactly the same as the harvest of 1904, and it is smaller than any previous crop since 1903. But it isn't much smaller, and the crop of last year was by a very wide margin the greatest ever gathered. There is no reason to suppose the consumption was notably great, and the surplus brought over to this year was heavy. The average for last year and this is 2,793,881,500, which figures are larger than seven of the last ten crops and compare with only 2,703,874,000, the average of the crops of 1910 and 1911. These facts fail to show any good reason for shortage prices for corn.

The farm reserves of corn are about 138,000,000 bushels, while a year ago they were under 65,000,000 bushels. Yet corn is 20 cents a bushel higher than it was a year ago, and Argentine corn is beginning to compete on the seaboard. Even without any foreign supplies a reduction of price is due.

There has been no material change in the wheat estimates for two months. The promise is for 753,233,000 bushels. The largest crop ever produced was 743,000,000, in 1901. Not since 1906 had the crop reached 700,000,000 bushels until last year it got up to 730,267,900 bushels.

Talk about a shortage of potatoes has even less basis than that about corn. The crop is estimated at 323,000,000 bushels. This is 92,000,000 bushels less than last year, but that crop was phenomenal. Two years ago the crop was 36,000,000 bushels under the present crop. Three and four years ago the crop was larger than the present one. But the four crops previous were very much under the present crop. We have 68,000,000 bushels more than we had eight years ago. Philadelphia Record.

Cause of Insomnia

The most common cause of insomnia is disorders of the stomach and constipation. Chamberlain's Tablets correct these disorders and enable you to sleep. For sale by all Dealers. (Advertisement)

Public Sale

The undersigned, having no further use for the below mentioned machinery, stock and implements, will sell without reserve on the farm where Frank Fogwell resides, in Kent county, about two miles from Hanesville and near the Churn Creek farm 8 miles from Chestertown, on

Wednesday, Dec. 3rd, 1913,

beginning at 12.30 o'clock p. m., sharp, a comparatively new HORIZONTAL ECLIPSE PORTABLE ENGINE (on wheels) 25 H. P. Boiler and 15 H. P. Engine, smoke stack, tools, etc. Also a first class Saw Mill with 56 inch saw, belts, extra grates, chains, hooks, oil, axes, files, wrenches, etc. ALSO PAIR HEAVY ARCH AXLE TIMBER WHEELS, none better, practically new. CROSS-CUT SAW FOR SAWING STOVE WOOD. The portable engine by itself and the saw mill, belts, etc., and saw mill fixtures by themselves will be offered separately; then the two together and sold in the manner bringing the higher figure. The cross-cut saw will be sold separately, about 20 YOUNG NATIVE SHEEP with buck, 7 HEAD MILCH COWS, some with calf, FOUR HELPERS, SIX GOOD MULES, one pair Black Mare Mules, broken, 3 years old; one pair of Mules 7 and 8 years old, without a fault; one pair 5 and 6 year old Mules, weigh about 800 pounds each, well broken; also 20 HORSES, one 11 and the other 7 years old, good workers and drivers. Farm implements as follows: Two farm wagons in first-class condition, one Schaubert corn cutter, corn planter, binder, plows, 2 sets wagon harness, light dearborn wagon, shovels, ladders, etc. The horses and mules will be offered at 12.30 o'clock. The cows and sheep at 1.30 and then the implements and last the engine and saw mill.

TERMS OF SALE:—Cash on all sums over $20. On all sums over $20 a credit of 9 months will be given with approved security. No property to be removed until terms are complied with. J. WATERS RUSSELL, Owner. J. T. Jester, Auctioneer.

Attacks Whipping Post

Baraback whipping of six Delaware convicts of New Castle on November 8, brought a resolution from Congressman Evans, Montana, last Tuesday, proposing that Attorney-General McReynolds bring injunction proceedings against the State of Delaware to enforce the constitutional prohibition against "cruel and inhuman punishments."

Congressman Evans expected his resolution to save the same convicts from being whipped again and to prevent such punishments elsewhere. The Republican leader, Mr. Mann, expressed the opinion that the question was too important to be decided by a quorumless House and blocked the resolution by an adjournment.

The two convicts who received 30 lashes at the workhouse whipping-post in Delaware and who, last Saturday, received 20 more, are negroes. They were convicted of entering the house of a farmer and upon being observed by a boy, savagely assaulted the lad with a brick, injuring him seriously.

The division of sentence of 40 lashes into two instalments is of recent practice in Delaware. Formerly sentences of 40 and even of 60 lashes, the limit of the law in respect to whipping were given at one inflicting.

The whipping post has been an institution of punishment in Delaware throughout both its Colonial and state existence. Various crusades for its abolition have been made, but without avail. Formerly the pillory also was provided, but it was abandoned about 10 years ago.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County.

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure. FRANK J. CHENEY.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1886. A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by all druggists, 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation. (Advertisement)

Rev. Irl R. Hicks 1914 Almanac

The Rev. Irl R. Hicks 1914 Almanac is now ready and will be mailed, prepaid for only 35c. Professor Hicks' fine Magazine, Word and Works, for one year, and a copy of this Almanac for only one dollar. The plain lessons on astronomy, and the correct forecasts of storms, droughts, blizzards and tornadoes, makes these publications a necessity in every home in America. Send to Word and Works Publishing Company, 2401 Franklin Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri.

Assignee's Sale OF VALUABLE Mortgaged Real Estate

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a mortgage from James S. MacKay and Amanda E. MacKay, his wife, to George H. Landon, dated 2nd of August, 1910, and recorded among the Land Records of said Somerset County, Maryland, in Liber S. F. D. No. 58, folios 96 et seq., the said mortgage having been duly assigned to the undersigned, and default having been made by the mortgagors in the payment and covenants of said mortgage, the undersigned assignee will sell at public auction, in front of the Court House door, in Princess Anne, Maryland, on

Tuesday, Nov. 18th, 1913,

at about the hour of 12 P. M. all that farm, tract or tracts of land whereon the said Amanda E. MacKay now resides, situate in Westover Election District, in Somerset County, Maryland, and lying and binding on "Back Creek," and adjoining the John Wesley Keyville farm, and the land of William P. Todd, and others, and containing more or less, and being all of those several lots or parcels of land which were conveyed by the said George H. Landon to the said James S. MacKay by deed dated August 2d, 1910, and duly of record among the land records of said Somerset County. The said farm is improved by a DWELLING HOUSE, Small Barn and other Outbuildings and contains some valuable marketable timber.

134 1/8 Acres,

TERMS OF SALE:—Cash—as prescribed by mortgage. Title papers at purchaser's expense.

GEORGE H. MYERS, Assignee.

10-28

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset County letters of administration on the estate of

THOMAS COLLINS, deceased.

late of Somerset County, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscriber on or before the

Eighteenth Day of May, 1914,

or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 11th day of November, 1913

GORDON TULL, Adm'r of Thomas Collins, deceased.

True Copy Test: SIDNEY WALLER, Register of Wills

11-18

WE WANT YOU

Earn $50-$75 weekly selling guaranteed Underwear, Hosiery and Socks for 100% profit. Write: MADISON MILLS, Dept. W, 485 Broadway, New York City.

Weds His Velled Bride

Declaring that he had not seen the face of his bride until after the ceremony had been performed, Dr. Francis W. Hartley, 1204 West Fayette street, Baltimore, admitted Wednesday afternoon that he was married Tuesday evening at Franklin Square Baptist Church to Mrs. Marian A. Arnett, of Philadelphia.

"When Mrs. Arnett arrived in Baltimore, she immediately went to the church," said Dr. Hartley. "She was wearing a thin black veil and to prevent me from seeing her face she held it sideways away from me until the pastor of the church had performed the ceremony and pronounced us man and wife."

Mrs. Hartley admitted that such was the case and says that she is now happy and hopes that newspaper reporters will let her alone. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few friends, with Allen Hartley, son of the Doctor, acting as best man. Immediately after the wedding the couple and their friends went to Dr. Hartley's home on West Fayette street, where an informal reception was tendered them.

Tonight

Tonight, if you feel dull and stupid, or bilious and constipated, take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you will feel all right tomorrow. For sale by all Dealers. (Advertisement)

FIRE INSURANCE LOSS PAID

The Home Insurance Company, New York,

Has with its usual promptness adjusted and paid loss to Evergreen Insurgell, on Revelle Hayman's farm, Somerset county, Md. Loss occurred October 1st, and Mr. Insurgell has received draft in settlement without discount.

When you get "HOME" policies you get good insurance. NO ASSIGNMENT to be paid when you insure in this company.

FIRE AND WINDSTORM INSURANCE

ASK for "HOME" Policies

ROBERT F. DUER, Agent.

10-29 PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

H. FILLMORE LANKFORD, Solicitor.

Order of Publication

Lettie Josephine Hall vs. Edward Nathaniel Hall

No. 2833, Chancery. In the Circuit Court for Somerset County.

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce a vinculo matrimonii by the plaintiff from the defendant, and for the custody of the minor child mentioned in the proceedings in said cause.

The bill alleges that the plaintiff and defendant were married on or about the 27th day of December, 1897, and that after said marriage they lived together as man and wife in Dorchester county, Maryland, until the year 1908, when the conduct of the defendant towards the plaintiff became so unkind, rough and cruel that it became necessary for the plaintiff to leave the defendant and go to the home of a relative in said county, that the defendant then went to the plaintiff and requested her to return to him, promising to treat her with affection and kindness; that trusting in his promises, the plaintiff returned to the defendant and lived with him a short time, when his conduct again became not only unkind, rough and cruel, but so harsh as to be intolerable and beyond endurance, so that the plaintiff was afraid to live with him and went to the home of her relative in said county; that the defendant followed her and demanded if she expected to return to him, and upon being informed that she was afraid to do so, and that she was afraid that he would kill her, he stated that he would kill her and pursued her with a gun and shot her; that he was arrested and convicted in the Circuit Court of Dorchester county for the assault upon her, and was sentenced to a term in the Maryland House of Corrections; that since the conviction of the defendant, the plaintiff has never seen him, and has never received any communication from him; that she is informed that he has no home; that from the time he shot her he has not contributed one dollar to her support or that of her infant child, except one suit of clothes and one pair of shoes which he sent to the child; that he has never made any effort to become reconciled with the plaintiff, and in fact has never communicated with her in any way since he shot her; that the conduct of the defendant has amounted to abandonment and desertion of the plaintiff, and has continued uninterruptedly for more than three years, and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties is beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation; that the conduct of the plaintiff towards the defendant has always been kind and above reproach; that the plaintiff is now and has been for more than three years a resident of Somerset county, Maryland, and that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and does not reside therein; that one child has been born to the parties of this suit from said marriage a son, Cassius Edward Hall, now about five years of age.

It is thereupon, ordered by the subscriber, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset County, in Equity, this 13th day of November, 1913, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Somerset county, once a week for four successive weeks before the 16th day of December, 1913, give notice to the defendant, Edward Nathaniel Hall, of the object and substance of the bill of complaint in this cause, and warn him to be and appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 1st day of January, 1914, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

S. FRANK DASHIELL, Clerk.

True Copy. Test: S. FRANK DASHIELL, Clerk.

11-18

Order Nisi

William L. Nook, ex parte, trust created by mortgage from Margaret L. Bruce to William L. Nook.

No. 2831, Chancery. In the Circuit Court for Somerset County.

Ordered by the subscriber, clerk of the Circuit Court, in Equity, this 8th day of November, A. D. 1913, that the report of William L. Nook, mortgagee, mentioned in the above case, and the sale of real estate by him reported, be and the same are hereby ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary appear by exceptions filed before the 4th day of December, 1913, provided a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper printed in Somerset county once in each of three successive weeks before 4th day of December, 1913.

The report states the amount of sales to be $6,715.00.

S. FRANK DASHIELL, Clerk.

True Copy. Test: S. FRANK DASHIELL, Clerk.

11-11

THE HOUSE OF FASHION

Thanksgiving Offerings

Hargis Department Store

WE CAN SUPPLY ALL YOUR NEEDS—LARGE OR SMALL—AND SAVE YOU MONEY ON YOUR PRE-THANKSGIVING PURCHASES. WHETHER IT IS A NEW DRESS YOU NEED, SOMETHING IN TABLE LINEN, FURNITURE FOR THE DINING ROOM OR A NEW RUG TO ADD CHARM AND ATTRACTIVENESS TO THE HOME WE ARE READY TO SERVE YOU

COATS AND SUITS—If you haven't seen our stock of suits and coats you have no idea what beautiful styles have been produced this season.

BEAUTIFUL SILKS AND DRESS GOODS in all the new shades for evening and street wear.

TABLE LINEN—Attractive linens add much to the charm and beauty of a Thanksgiving dinner. Linen Luncheon Sets, Dainty Hemstitched Tea Napkins, Table Damask in new designs, etc.

FURNITURE—Make your home attractive as possible. We can furnish it complete from top to bottom at less cost than you can procure goods of similar quality elsewhere.

We have planned largely for the demand that will be made on us for dining-room FURNITURE, and also the needs of the Kitchen, and we invite our customers to see the display we are now making in these lines.

NEW WINTER DESIGNS IN RUGS
ALL SIZES

T. F. HARGIS

DEPARTMENT STORE,
Pocomoke City, Maryland

FREE CHRISTMAS CATALOGUE

From One of the World's Best and Largest Stores—Write for a Copy To-day

A book that will help to solve your gift problems. Sixty-four pages of Toys, Jewelry, Books, Toilet Goods, Art Needlework, Handkerchiefs and other merchandise most in demand for Christmas presents.

STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER

PHILADELPHIA

Our Selling Plan Protects You

DIAMOND
1% Carat $175

This Diamond can be returned within Ten Days, and your money will be Refunded.

If returned within a year, we will give you

$157.50

Buy a Diamond here—make comparisons—your money back within 10 days, if you want it—or less 10% within a year, whether you pay ten dollars—or a thousand.

Send for our new Christmas catalogue. It is free.

C. C. CROOKS CO.

114 W. BALTIMORE ST., BALTIMORE.

Public Sale NOTICE To Tax-Payers

Having decided to discontinue farming, I will sell at public sale on the farm whereon I now reside, situate about four miles from Princess Anne, Maryland, on

Thursday, Nov. 20th, 1913,

beginning at 10 o'clock a. m., the following personal property, viz: One pair of mules, four horses, three fresh cows, brood sow, five shoats, 1,000 bushels of corn, 26 stacks of fodder, twelve stacks of wheat straw, buggy carriage, speed cart, dearborn wagon, farm wagon, horse cart, corn planter, mowing machine, good sod cutter, farming mill and bagger combined, cider mill, three double plows, three single plows, three cultivators, two harrows, one-horse hoe, four sets of work harness, two sets of driving harness, set of double work harness and other farm implements. Also two cook stoves and a lot of Household and Kitchen Furniture.

TERMS OF SALE—On all sums of $10 and under cash; over that amount a credit of six months will be given on bankable note with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale. No property to be delivered until terms of sale are complied with.

EUGENE E. DOODY.

When Rubbers Become Necessary and your shoes pinch, Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes, is just the thing to use. Always use it for breaking in new shoes. Sold everywhere. 25c. Sample Free. Address A. S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y. Don't accept any substitute.

Bring your job printing to this office—fair prices, good work, done promptly.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

Young Man, Wear a HART SCHAFFNER & MARX Overcoat this Fall and You Will Be Down to Date

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX OVERCOATS have the style, the swagger, artistic air of distinction that every man is glad to present. Young man, you ought not to miss seeing these overcoats. Many smart new ideas in belt back, shawl collars, patch pockets and many points of style that you will not see in other clothes. We offer you this fall the greatest selection of good clothes ever offered by any store on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. No city store can serve you better. We invite you if you like nice clothes.

Kennerly & Mitchell

Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

SLAISBURY, (Main Street) MARYLAND

All Growing Children
are dependent on nourishment for growth. Their health as men and women is largely established in childhood.

If your child is languid, bloodless, tired when rising, without ambition or rosy cheeks, Scott's Emulsion is a wonderful help. It possesses nature's grandest body-building fats so delicately predigested that the blood absorbs its strength and carries it to every organ and tissue and fibre.

First it increases their appetite, then it adds flesh—strengthens the bones—makes them sturdy, active and healthy.

No alcohol or narcotic in Scott's Emulsion, just purity and strength.

SCOTT & BOWNE, BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

LEARNING A LANGUAGE.

It is an Easier Task the Younger It is Taken in Hand.

The time to learn a language is when you are young, the younger the better. We learn our own language as children. The older we grow the harder it is, because it means not merely learning by heart a great many words, but merely training the palate and tongue to produce different sounds, but adopting a new attitude of mind.

Nothing definite has been discovered as to the localization of faculties in the brain, therefore nothing certain is known, but it has always seemed to me and to others whom I have consulted that when you learn a new language you are exercising and developing a new piece of brain.

When you know several languages and change from one to another you seem definitely to change the piece of brain which actuates your tongue. You switch off one center and switch on to another.

You will always notice in yourself and others that there is a definite pause when the change of language is made. Now it becomes every year more difficult to awaken an unused part of the brain and bring it into active use, and to begin at twenty-three is late.—Atlantic.

FIRST POSTAL TRAIN.

It Was Tried in 1864 and Proved a Thorough Success.

The first trial of a postal car service, in which mail matter is assorted while in transit, was made in 1864 on the Chicago and Northwestern railway. The scheme was a thorough success, and railway mail service was inaugurated that year on several of the important railway lines and was gradually extended all over the United States, and adopted by other countries.

In 1874 the American railway mail system was thoroughly organized on a permanent basis, with eight territorial divisions, each in charge of a superintendent subordinate to a general chief at Washington.

This service was among the first to adopt a modern classified civil service, appointment of railway mail clerks having always been made for a probationary period, permanent employment being conditioned on satisfactory service and conduct and removal based on good cause only. The service has been gradually increased and new divisions organized and is now operated on practically every railway.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Dr. H. H. H.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset county letters testamentary on the estate of

MARIA F. HANDY, late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers thereof, to the subscriber on or before the Twenty-sixth Day of February, 1914, or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 19th day of August, 1913.

MORTIMER A. WARD, Executor of Maria F. Handy, deceased.
True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER, Register of Wills.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset county letters of administration on the estate of

GEORGE T. McCLEMMY, late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers thereof, to the subscriber on or before the Thirtieth Day of March, 1914, or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 23rd day of September, 1913.

MYRA Z. McCLEMMY, Executrix of George T. McCleddy, dec'd.
True copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER, Register of Wills.

9-30

Stomach Pains

and Indigestion caused me great distress for two years. I tried many things for relief, but got little help, till at last I found it in the best pills or medicine I ever tried.

DR. KING'S New Life Pills

C. E. Hatfield, Guyan, W. Va.
25 CENTS PER BOTTLE AT ALL DRUGGISTS.

FAMOUS FLOWER GARDENS.

Why Roses of the Rhone Valley Are Known All Over the World.

The famous rose gardens of Lyons, France, owe their excellence largely to a light soil, an abundance of sunshine and the proper amount of moisture. From time immemorial local rosarians have taken advantage of the favoring conditions until skill and interest in the industry have made the roses of the Rhone valley known throughout the parks and gardens of the world.

The ground where the roses are chiefly cultivated is on the outskirts of the city. It is flat, devoid of shade trees and protected only by high walls at the confines of the property. The rose plants are set out for commercial purposes in straight rows, sometimes a hundred feet long, the smaller plants six inches apart, with about ten inches between rows, while the larger grafted or budded varieties are inserted ten to twelve inches apart, with eighteen inches between rows.

Nearly all of the plants are out of doors. The greenhouses for a rose garden of fifteen acres do not number more than two, averaging thirty feet in length. It is only in exceptional winters that the plants have to be covered. Sometimes the tops of the older plants are rather loosely bound in straw. In every large commercial rose garden of Lyons hundreds of eglantine rose plants are kept to a single stalk for grafting. These are usually gathered by peasants in the woods or on uncultivated land and sold to the rose growers.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

VALUE OF VISIONS.

Dreams of the Thinkers Are What Lead the Way to Progress.

There is a certain little Scripture that is not noticed much. It is this: "Where there is no vision the people perish." That would be true even if it were not in the Bible. It is true of an individual as well as a people. There must be a hope, an aim, an upward look, a realization of better things ahead to awaken aspiration and quicken endeavor. So many people don't have this. They live from hand to mouth and never look out from where they are standing. That's the animals' way. They don't dream. They have no visions.

There are communities sometimes that have no inspiring outlook. They settle down to amusements, prisons, politics, sports and the passing show, but never unfold the future and see in it the nobler life. They have nothing to live for but today. There is no inspiration in tomorrow. They buy and sell and talk and laugh and eat and drink and go to bed, and tomorrow is the same. There is no vision, no high mark to press forward to, no heavenly vision, as St. Paul expresses it.

Now, there is something in a vision, for the Bible would not say the lack of it would destroy a people. This lack constitutes the dry rot we hear of—no incentive, no life, no hope. And when an individual gets that way and sees no visions he is a dead duck.—Ohio State Journal.

A Night of Terror

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by all Dealers.

[Advertisement]

For Cane Seats.

When cane bottomed seats sag, sponge both sides of the cane with hot soapuds in which a handful of salt has been dissolved, then stand the chair in the open air. Treated like this, the seats will become as firm as when new, shrinking into place.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

This Will Interest Mothers

Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for children relieve Feverishness, Headache, Bad Stomach, Teething Disorders, move and regulate the bowels and destroy worms. They break up Colic in 24 hours. Used by mothers for 24 years. All Druggists, 25c. Sample free. Address A. S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

BEAR'S PILLS

THE ENGLISH REMEDY

FOR RHEUMATISM

SAFE & EFFECTIVE

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Keeps the hair from falling out. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never fails to restore gray hair to its youthful color. Prevents hair falling. 25c. and 50c. at Druggists.

DIES AND PLATES

Fate of Those Used in Printing Our Money and Stamps.

ALL ARE JEALOUSLY GUARDED

But, While the Dies Are Invariably Saved, the Steel Plates Are Melted Down and Become Some Part of the Armament of Uncle Sam's Warships.

All of the notes, bonds, checks and miscellaneous issues of the government, including postage stamps, internal revenue stamps and the different denominations of currency issued to national banks, are printed from engraved plates in the bureau of engraving and printing at Washington.

The original dies are never destroyed. By a system of transferring the impression or design is passed from the die to a soft steel roll, which is later hardened. A hundred plates can be produced from one hard steel roll.

All of this engraved work receives the same supervision and is accounted for just as accurately as the securities that are printed therefrom. Every morning the plates are issued to the various printing divisions of the bureau, and in the evening, when the day's work is over, they are returned to the vaults of the custodian of dies, rolls and plates, where they are counted, checked and locked up with time locks.

After approximately 50,000 impressions are printed from a steel plate it becomes useless as far as its original purpose is concerned. The delicately engraved lines and geometric lathe work become worn, and the portrait loses its detail. When the plate becomes so affected as to render it unfit for further satisfactory printing a duplicate is ordered to be made for printing future orders from the treasury department. The old plate is then canceled and laid aside, subsequently to be destroyed.

This destruction, or, rather, transformation, takes place just after the 1st of January each year under the direction of a committee appointed by the secretary of the treasury composed of three persons, one of whom represents the secretary and acts as chairman, another the commissioner of internal revenue and the third looking after the interests of the comptroller of the currency.

Under instructions from the department the committee makes a schedule in duplicate of all the canceled material, the original list being retained by the committee to form a part of its report to the secretary and the duplicate placed inside the box in which the plates are to be packed. The boxes are made to hold an average of 150 pounds each. As each box is filled the cover is nailed on and the box numbered and sealed with the treasury seal. The sealed boxes are then stored in the vaults of the bureau until such time as is convenient for their conveyance to the place of destruction.

The committee recently reported to the secretary of the treasury the destruction of 4,328 pieces, weighing 41,510 pounds—over twenty tons—withdrawn from the vaults. To convey this vast amount of metal required the services of eight laborers and a team of draft horses attached to one of the huge money wagons of the bureau, making eight trips to the United States pay yard, where the cremation takes place in the foundry.

On arriving at its destination the committee directs the unloading. The boxes are removed from the wagon on to hand trucks and taken by elevator up to the floor level of the cupola door. The boxes are here opened, the carbon duplicate schedule removed and the plates again counted and checked as they are cast into the furnace.

From the time the plates are taken from the vaults of the custodian until the last one is thrown into the fire they are under the watchful eyes of the members of the committee, who see that none goes astray. For if one or two of these plates should fall into illegitimate hands and later be put to improper use it would probably cause considerable embarrassment to the government.

In order to ascertain whether the destruction has been complete, the committee must wait until all the melted steel is drawn from the furnace and the cupola opened and cooled. The melted steel is poured into molds covering a great variety of castings that eventually find their way to the armament of our modern battleships.

It may be a yoke for an eight inch gun weighing three or four tons, or it may be some minor casting for a torpedo tube. It is not beyond the range of possibility that the officer who sights one of the immense fourteen inch rifles may have in his pocket at the time a note of some denomination printed from a steel money plate that has developed by a series of evolutions into a part of the very gun he is adjusting to wreak destruction upon any object in the path of its flying projectile.

What appears to be a waste in one department of the government thus becomes a valuable asset in another.—New York Times.

The Modern Polonius.
"My son, be polite until you have accumulated your first hundred thousand."

"Yes, dad."

"After that the regulation thing is to be crisp and terse."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Anger begins in folly and ends in repentance.—Pythagoras.

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

Deal's Island

Nov. 14—Mrs. T. P. Bradshaw visited Baltimore this week.

Mr. H. C. Webster is giving his home a new coat of paint.

Mr. Hicks Bosman made a business trip to Salisbury this week.

Mr. Clifford Kirwan made a business trip to Baltimore this week.

Miss Esther Webster is visiting relatives and friends in Baltimore.

Superintendent W. H. Dashiell was a welcome visitor to our schools last Friday.

Mr. James G. Webster left this week, via Baltimore, to visit his son in Chicago.

Mrs. W. Trickett Giles, of Baltimore, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thomas.

Mrs. Della Myster, who has been visiting relatives in Baltimore for the past two weeks, has returned home.

Mrs. Lybrand Thomas and daughter, Myra, are spending the winter with Mrs. William Handy, at Westover.

Miss Bessie Pasquith, of Princess Anne, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Edward Teas, has returned home.

Dr. Alexander and son, John, and Mr. Wm. Brown, and Mr. Edward Teas made a business trip to Princess Anne, in an automobile last Thursday evening.

Miss Marie Bradshaw and Prof. R. L. Corkran, delegates from St. John's Sunday School, this place, attended the county Sunday School Convention held at Princess Anne on November 6th and 7th.

A Halloween play was rendered in the K. of P. Hall on Halloween evening by students of the High School, entitled the "Haunted Gate." Songs and tableaux were also given suitable to the occasion.

On Thursday evening Misses Reta and Elizabeth Anderson and Fannie Porter, accompanied by Messrs. Harold Bradshaw and Warren Bosman attended a card party given at the home of Mr. John Todd at Dames Quarter.

Kingston

Nov. 25th—Mr. W. F. Johnson, who has been ill with measles, is improving.

Miss May Barnes, who has been quite ill with diphtheria, is improving rapidly.

Senator L. M. Milbourne and Mr. Lewis A. Chamberlain spent Tuesday in Princess Anne.

Miss Vivian Brittingham is visiting her brother, Mr. W. E. Brittingham, Jr., at Marion.

Mrs. J. E. Gorsuch and son, Talbot, have returned from a visit to Mr. Milbourne Gorsuch, in Crisfield.

Miss Grace Schofield Tull, a trained nurse of Baltimore, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Tull.

All of our farmers are most through digging potatoes. Some of them boast of raising 200 bushels to the acre.

Mrs. J. A. Turpin and children have returned from a visit to Mrs. Turpin's mother, Mrs. Marian Nelson, in Crisfield.

Mrs. R. K. Lewis and Miss Anna Martin Bryan, of Belair, are the guests of Mrs. Lewis' sister, Mrs. L. M. Milbourne.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Marks Protestant Episcopal Church, met at the home of Mrs. Edgar Brittingham on Thursday.

Our school, which was closed seven days on account of diphtheria being in the family of Mr. C. P. Barnes, was opened Monday the 10th.

Bishop Adams, of the Diocese of Eastern, will visit Coventry Parish, Wednesday, Nov. 19th. He will confirm a class at St. Mark's Church at 10.30 a. m.

Perryhawkin

Nov. 15—Mr. Clayton Marriner left Monday to spend some time in Baltimore.

Mr. James Bailey, of Mt. Vernon, visited friends in this community this week.

Miss Emma Gibbons returned home this week after spending five weeks with relatives at Fruitland and Salisbury.

Mr. Albert Reynolds, after spending about ten days at the home of his parents at Wellington, returned to Baltimore Monday.

Mrs. Woodland Culver and children, and Miss Mary Evans, visited relatives at Pitts Creek, Worcester county, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. E. L. Dryden, who was operated on at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, several months ago, was taken to that institution for a second operation this week. Mr. Dryden was accompanied by his son, Mr. B. C. Dryden.

A Consumptive Cough

A cough that bothers you continuously is one of the danger signals which warns of consumption. Dr. King's New Discovery stops the cough, loosens the chest, banishes fever, and lets you sleep peacefully. The first dose checks the symptoms and gives prompt relief. Mrs. A. F. Mertz, of Glen Ellyn, Iowa, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery cured a stubborn cough after six weeks doctoring failed to help." Try it, as it will do the same for you. Best medicine for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. Money back if it fails. Price 50 cents and $1.00. All druggists. By mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

(Advertisement)

NOTICE TO CREDITORS—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset county letters of administration on the estate of

GEORGE T. MCLEMMY, late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers thereof, to the subscriber on or before the Thirtieth Day of March, 1914, or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 23rd day of September, 1913.

MARY A. MCLEMMY, Executrix of George T. McClemmy, dec'd.

True copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER, Register of Wills.

Firemen Win Wage Increase

The long-lived controversy between railroads of the East and their conductors and trainmen over the latter's demands for more pay ended last week. The employees are granted an increase in wages averaging 7 per cent, and totaling $6,000,000 annually—about half of what they wanted—from October 1 last, effective for one year. One hundred thousand men will share in the increase.

Thus ends, by arbitration under the Newlands amendment to the Erdman act, a controversy that threatened at one time to tie up by strike the transportation facilities of all States east of the Mississippi River and north of the Ohio. The award of the arbitration commission, filed late Monday afternoon of last week in the Federal District Court in New York, is binding and final. The two board representatives of the employees filed a minority report in addition, and the two representatives of the railroads a dissenting opinion.

In reaching its award the board ruled mainly against the employees on four out of five points submitted as reasons why the increase should be granted and found for them on the fifth—the increased cost of living. Since 1900, when last an increase was granted, the arbitrators found the cost of living has increased 7 per cent. Certain minor contentions embraced also were conceded to the employees. It was, therefore, more than a coincidence that the increase granted in wages is exactly the increase in the cost of living, as outlined by documents introduced to the employees.

Castoria Won Out

Judge Jeremiah Neterer, in the United States District Court, has granted a permanent injunction in behalf of the Centaur Company, of New York, the manufacturers of Fletcher's Castoria, against the Stewart & Holmes Drug Company, of Seattle, Wash. The defendant company is one of the ablest and largest concerns of its kind in the Northwest.

The controversy arose from the simulating of the labels of this well-known preparation, and from the evidence filed in the case it was shown that the infringing label was first discovered on sale in Honolulu and was traced in its origin in Seattle.

The decree carries with it an order that the Stewart & Holmes Company recall the goods which are on the market under the infringing label and to pay all costs in the suit and damages assessed at $400.

Declare War On Colds

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:

- "Don't sit in a draughty car."
- "Don't sleep in hot rooms."
- "Don't avoid the fresh air."
- "Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Overeating reduces your resistance."
- To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by all Dealers.

(Advertisement)

SHIP TO STEVENS BROTHERS

Commission Merchants

226 South Charles Street
(Corner of Camden St.)
Baltimore, Maryland

Best possible facilities for selling and handling GRAIN

Salesmen—R. NELSON STEVENS and J. K. B. EMERY.

Reference—Merchants-Mechanics Bank

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE

High grade Piano for sale on easy terms, or will exchange for a building lot, small farm or small house and lot.

FARMS WANTED

We Can Sell Your Farm

We have several buyers for cheap farms, town properties, building lot propositions and timber lands. If you want to sell list with us; write or call for terms and description blanks. If you want to buy anywhere in the United States we can find you what you want, our list will be sent upon request.

TRUITT REALTY CO.,

Salisbury, : : : Maryland

Men Wanted

To Learn the Auto Business and Take an Agency

You can make from $18 to $50 a week driving, Selling or Repairing Cars. We will teach you in a few weeks in your own home to be an expert automobile man, and get you an agency for a high grade car. We have been established five years, and have over 8000 successful graduates. Write at once for free booklet which gives full information.

ROCHESTER AUTO SCHOOL,

438 CHURCH STREET,

11-18eow ROCHESTER, N. Y.

Notice To Creditors

Perry R. Heatwole et al. vs. Chas. F. Rifer.

In the Circuit Court for Somerset County, No. 2770, Chancery.

The undersigned, receiver in the above cause named, pursuant to an order of the Circuit Court for Somerset County, passed on the 30th day of October, 1913, hereby gives notice to all persons having claims against the late partnership firm of Perry R. Heatwole and others, engaged in business under the name of Vasey Rental Company, to file their claims, properly authenticated, with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset County, Maryland, on or before the 10th day of March, 1914.

GEORGE M. UPSHUR, Receiver.

Centennial State Sends Memorial To Washington

Masons have just finished setting in the Washington monument Colorado's contribution to the shaft in memory of the first president. It is a beautiful specimen of the Colorado Yule marble, the same material which has been selected for the two million dollar Lincoln memorial to be placed on the bank of the Potomac just west of the monument.

This marble comes from within the Sopris national forest, which furnishes a large part of the timber used in the quarrying operations. The maintenance of timber supplies for this and for other quarries and mines is, according to forestry officials, an important part of their work. It will always be their aim, they say, to maintain a supply of timber for this local demand as an aid in the development of one of Colorado's great resources, of which Governor Ammons, who came to Washington to arrange for the placing of the stone, is very proud.

The stone itself will present a rectangular face 2 by 4 feet, upon which the name and seal of the state are inscribed together with the year in which the state was admitted. It is on the 290-foot landing inside the monument in the middle of the east wall and is thus one of the highest of the many tributes which line the lower part of the historical obelisk. It is now draped from the gaze of the public awaiting a date to be set by Senator Shafroth for simple unveiling ceremonies.

Nervous and Sick Headaches

Torpid liver, constipated bowels and disordered stomach are the cause of these headaches. Take Dr. King's New Life Pills and you will be surprised how quickly you will get relief. They stimulate the different organs to do their work properly. No better regulator for liver and bowels. Take 25c and invest in a box today. At all druggists or by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

(Advertisement)

Railway Mail Clerks Wanted

The Government Pays Railway Mail Clerks $900 to $1800 and other employees up to $2,500 annually.

Under the Sam will soon hold examinations throughout the country for Postal Employees, Custom House Clerks, Stenographers, Bookkeepers, Department Clerks and other government positions. The Postmaster General estimates that there will be seven hundred and fifty million parcel post packages carried next year which means thousands of appointments will be made. Any man or woman over 18, in city and country can have an equal chance for a job. For information will be furnished by the BUREAU OF INSTRUCTION, 498 WISNER BLDG., ROCHESTER, N. Y.

11-18eow

STATEMENT

OF THE

Receipts and Disbursements

OF THE

Board of School Commissioners

for Somerset County

FOR

Public School Purposes

For the Year Ending July 31st, 1913.

RECEIPTS

State School Tax	$22,760.78
State Free School Fund	1,419.01
State Donations and Assessments	1,000.00
Fund	1,000.00
County School Tax 34 1/2 cents on the $100	25,500.00
Amount of levy	2,000.00
Fines and laboratory fixtures	1.04
Licenses (white)	2,791.85
Licenses (colored)	348.40
Sale of buildings	616.00
Cash returned by Crisfield Ware Company	2.51
Sale of Manual Training Supplies	24.25
High School appropriation	2,900.00
Cash paid for commercial tuition	50.00
Sale of blackboard	1.10
Diplomas	25.60
Proceeds of note in bank	6,444.94
	2,459.21
	$75,274.69

DISBURSEMENTS

Am't refunded Free School Book	111.89
Am't of donations for Marion High School refunded	250.00
Bent	38.88
Fuel	3,329.40
Repairs	602.65
Apparatus and Furniture	1,001.97
Teachers' Salaries	45,096.02
New Buildings	2,150.55
Sanitary Costs	473.84
Kindergarten and Manual Training	78.16
Office expenses	206.09
Salary of Secretary, Treasurer and County Superintendent	1,200.00
Salary of School Commissioners	300.00
Salary of Clerk	325.00
Tuition fees paid to adjoining counties	12.00
Commemorative Exercises	36.50
Discount and Interest	355.58
Loans	15,000.00
Printing	67.60
Advertising	84.25
Insurance	76.92
Expenses of Institute	217.30
Expense of State and County Assoc.	43.67
School Libraries	30.00
Attorney's and Clerk's Fees	65.85
School Supplies	125.84
Balance cash on hand July 31, 1913	1,901.88
	$75,274.69

Free School Book Fund Statement

RECEIPTS

Balance on hand July 31, 1912	168.48
Amount of appropriation for the year 1912-1913	3,401.46
Amount of Sales	175.18
Amount of fines for loss or destruction of books	4.75
Amount from Williams Wilkins Co.	4.00
	$3,753.87

DISBURSEMENTS

Amount expended for books	$ 5,126.18
Cost of distribution	449.19
Twine, labels, etc.	19.50
Balance July 31, 1913	154.00
	$5,748.96

W. H. DASHIELL, Treasurer.

T. J. Smith & Co.

DRUGGISTS

Princess Anne, Maryland

Full Supply of Drugs, Toilet Articles, Stationery, Etc., Etc.

Agent for All The

Rexall Remedies

Rexall Tooth Powder, 20 cts. (this week only)

Prescriptions

Carefully Compounded

Five Farms

Have changed hands through the E. A. Strout Farm Agency during the last week in July

I am receiving a great many inquiries as to this section and it looks as though business would be good during the fall. Those that have farms to sell will do well to see me, and I can be found at home any evening after 6 o'clock and will be glad to talk business with you.

H. D. YATES,

Manager,

The E. A. Strout Farm Agency

PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

First Farm South End Main Street.

A SAFE BANKING PROPOSITION

is what we offer you. The substantial reputation of our Bank can be relied upon. You take no chances when you deposit your savings with us.

WHY TAKE CHANCES

of having the money you've carefully saved, destroyed by fire or thieves when you can open an account here and pay all bills by check. Consult us.

Interest Paid on Savings and Time Accounts . . .

PEOPLES BANK

OF SOMERSET COUNTY,

PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

Burning Property

Could Be Saved from Destruction

In many cases if a little care was exercised in building

Poor flues, defective heating apparatus, bad electric wiring, are responsible for seventy-five per cent. of all fires

The Home Insurance Company, of New York,

maintains a special department at Baltimore for giving information and advice free on proper construction and safe building to prevent fires and REDUCE INSURANCE RATES.

It costs you nothing—may save you much money. Write for information. Address:

The Home Insurance Co.,

A. G. HANCOCK, General Agent,

Home Insurance Building,

BALTIMORE, MARYLAND

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset county letters of administration on the estate of

SARAH F. BELL, (otherwise known as Sarah J. Bell) late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers thereof, to the subscriber on or before the

Twenty-eighth Day of April, 1914, or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 22nd day of October, 1913.

JOSEPH W. MAINSTER, Adm'r of Sarah F. Bell (otherwise known as Sarah J. Bell), deceased.

True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER, Register of Wills.

KUKLUX

KUKLUX, the 3-year-old JACK, will stand at my farm—"Brownstone"—during the ensuing year. Terms, $12.00.

E. FRANK JONES.

Bring your Job printing to this office—fair prices, good work, done promptly.

"GRIFFON BRAND"

Suits and

Overcoats, $15.00

For the man who likes something in clothes that is just up to the minute we would suggest a Griffon Suit or overcoat.

All wool garments, hand tailored inside as well as outside. Nifty patterns, correct to fashion, and ready for you to try on.

If you have never seen these "Griffon" Suits or Overcoats at $15, just take a look at them before making your Fall purchase. We think you will like them.

NEW HATS.

NEW SHIRTS.

NEW NECKWEAR

Boys' Clothing-Knickerbocker

Suits from $3 to $7.50

"KING QUALITY" "RALSTON"

"FLORSHEIM" SHOES FOR MEN

Shoes for the Whole Family

JOHN W. MORRIS & SON

Clothing for Men and Boys

Job Printing executed with neatness and dispatch. Give us trial order

The Safe Deposit Boxes of this bank offer security against damage by fire. They are built to withstand every destructive element.

To take your documents out of the danger zone, to give other precious possessions the protection they require, to make provision against every possible emergency—rent one of our Safe Deposit Boxes today.

BANK OF SOMERSET

Capital and Surplus $125,000.00

PRINCESS ANNE, MARYLAND

INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSITS

PRINTING

That's what We Do

Do You Need Any?

If so, let us get your next order

MARYLANDER AND HERALD

PRINCESS ANNE.

MARYLANDER AND HERALD.

ADVERTISING IS THE BUSINESS MAN'S MAINSTAY

PRINCESS ANNE, MD., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1913.

Vol. XVI—No. 16

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE

Twenty-Fourth Annual Convention Held at Salisbury

The Twenty-fourth Annual Convention of the Epworth League was held in Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church, Salisbury, Md., last Wednesday and Thursday.

This was one of the most inspiring and instructive Epworth League Conventions held in recent years. The delegates from Antioch League were Miss Elsie Carrow and Mr. Walter White, while the alternate delegates were Mr. Oley Pichard and Mr. Charles Young. Mr. R. W. Gibbons, President of the local chapter and others were present from Princess Anne.

The first session began on Wednesday morning at nine o'clock with a devotional service in charge of the District President, Rev. T. R. Vandyke. The address of welcome was made by Mr. A. Galt Starr, a very enthusiastic Epworthian of Asbury Church. The response was made by the Rev. H. S. Dulany, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Salisbury. After a short business session and greetings from the Conference President, Rev. Milton McCann, the delegates from the different churches gave their reports which revealed the fact that the Antioch Chapter was as wide awake and active as any in the district.

The afternoon session began at 1:30 o'clock with a regular Epworth League service in charge of L. Atwood Bennett, Esq., of Salisbury. Much valuable information was brought forth in the Departmental Conferences which followed at two o'clock. At 3:45 a very delightful missionary paper was given by the Rev. V. E. Hills, of Selbyville, Del. The afternoon session was brought to a close in a very impressive way by the Rev. A. L. Gray, a missionary from India, who told of his nine years' work in that country. In the evening after a song service by the Asbury choir, the Rev. W. L. McDowell, of the Baltimore Conference, gave an able address from the subject: "Trained for Service."

The second day's session began at 10 o'clock with the sacrament of the Lord's Supper and a large number of those present took an active part in this service. The Rev. T. E. Martin, of Salisbury, gave a beautiful description of "The Call of Christ to Youth," and the Rev. J. W. Easley spoke of the immigration tide as a field of evangelism. In the afternoon, the Rev. G. C. Williams spoke of the "Christian and His Responsibility." The District Superintendent, G. P. Jones, discussed the "Devotional Meeting and Its Leader." The Rev. G. W. Koons, "The Religious Development of The Juniors," and some hints on "Junior Methods" were given by Miss Carrie Dempsey of Galena, Md. Miss Dempsey is an expert in Junior League work. The Salisbury Junior League gave a vivid illustration of what a well organized Junior League can do.

At 8 o'clock p. m. the Rev. William H. Morgan, D. D., pastor of Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church, of New York City, one of the largest churches in Protestantism, gave a masterful lecture on "Consecrated Personality in The World's Work." Some one in the Convention requested Dr. Morgan to tell of his conversion which was marvelous indeed. At the age of ten he was put to work in the steel mills of Pittsburgh. He was converted at the age of twenty-one. At that time he had five hundred men under him but knew nothing of books. Twenty years ago he was graduated from Drew Seminary having previous to that time graduated from college. He is serving his third appointment having served four years in his first and sixteen years in the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, Newark, N. J., and is now serving one of the best in the world.

Superintendents To Meet
The annual meeting of the County School Superintendents of Maryland will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 31, at the Hotel Bannock, Baltimore. The following topics will be discussed: "Should High School Principals and Assistant Teachers Have Right of Appeal When Dismissed?" William H. Dashiell; "The Need of a State Supervisor of Rural Schools," John T. Herschner; "The Educational Rally Campaign," F. M. Noble; "A Rational Basis for Promoting Pupils," F. E. Rathbun; "The Niche in Our System of Instruction Which the Reading Circle Fills," John E. Edwards; "The Mosaic of Text-Books," Jos. M. McVey; "A Typical Agricultural High School," A. S. Cook.

—All frogs and some people are both kickers.

FARMERS' TRAIN COMING

To Leave Wilmington Dec. 8th For a Tour of the Peninsula

Following is the itinerary of the farmers' train which is to tour the Peninsula this year: Monday, December 8, leave Wilmington at 7 a. m., arriving at Massy, Md., 8:15, thence to Clayton, Del., arriving at 10:45; thence to Maryland, Md., at 12:30; thence to Ridgely, Md., at 2:25 p. m.; thence to Easton, Md., at 5, where a night session will be held at 8 o'clock.

Tuesday, December 9—Preston, Md., 8:35; Rhodesdale, Md., 10:20; Hebron, Md., 12:15; Westover, Md., 3 p. m.; Delmar, Del., 5:35, where a night session will be held.

Wednesday, December 10—Arrive at Eden, Md., 8:25 a. m.; Pittsville, Md., 10:30; Whaleyville, Md., 12:15; Franklin City, Va., 3; Berlin, Md., 5:40, at which place a night session will be held.

Thursday, December 11—Arrive at Frankford, Del., 8:30 a. m.; Millsboro, Del., 10:22; Nassau, Del., 12:35; Milton, Del., 2:45, and at Georgetown, at 5:25, where a night session will be given.

Friday, December 12—Arrive at Edendale, Del., 8:27 a. m.; Greenwood, Del., 10:15; Hickman, Md., 11:57; Hobbs, Md., 1:35; Denton, Md., 3:05; Seaford, 5:25, at which place a night session will be conducted.

Saturday, December 13—Arrive at Federalsburg, Md., 8:30 a. m.; Harrington, 10:58; Wyoming, 12:45; Mt. Pleasant, 2:40; Wilmington, 4:40, where the tour terminates.

Hicks' Forecasts for December

Reactionary storms will be central on the 23, 3d and 4th, with the disturbances probably extending over the 6th, the date on which the Moon passes over the celestial equator at its apogee. Squalls of winter rain will be natural on and near the 6th, followed by rising barometer, westerly gales and cold, clearing weather.

A regular storm period extends from the 7th to the 13th, being at its center on the 9th. Let it be remembered that this period is at the annual time of magnetic and electric storms, growing out of the inclination of the Earth's magnetic pole to the Sun's electrical equator. Auroral perturbations, earth currents of natural electricity, through the Earth and along all conducting substances, often interfering with telegraphic operations, reach a maximum activity from about the 5th to the 15th of December. Such disturbances will pass a crisis this month from the 10th to the 15th, notably on the 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th. A marked earthquake period is also central on the 13th, involving the 10th to the 16th. About the 9th, the barometer will show approaching storm conditions in the west, and these conditions will increase as they move eastward, breaking into active storms of wind, rain and snow on the 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th. Prolonged boreal storms, with high and perilous gales will be encountered on the Atlantic ocean and coasts, throughout this part of the month.

A reactionary storm period falls centrally on the 15th and 16th, and the general disturbances of the preceding period will, in all probability, continue over into this period.

A regular storm period covers the 18th to the 24th, being central on the 20th. This period is at the central crisis of the winter solstice period. It is also at the center of the Mercury equinoctial period. On and next to the 20th, 21st and 22nd, a very low barometric area will develop, storms of possibly rain and thunder will pass eastwardly over the country.

A reactionary storm period will bring renewed storm conditions on the 26th, 27th and 28th. The new Moon on the 27th will excite higher temperature and tendency to low barometer, especially in the southern sections. Storms of rain, snow and boreal winds will pass in regular order over the country, all followed by change to much colder from the northwest.

New Jail For Salisbury

The County Commissioners of Wicomico county, at a recent meeting, received from Commissioner Ward and White, and County Treasurer Daniel B. Cannon, a report and specifications for the new jail and residence for the sheriff, which has been under consideration for sometime. The committee was ordered to advertise for bids for the new buildings.

It is proposed to erect a new brick building of eight rooms, two stories, for the sheriff's house, between the present jail and the proposed Main street, extended. The proposed jail will be constructed on sanitary lines, and both first and second floors will be used for caged cells of steel. The estimated cost of improvements will be in the neighborhood of $15,000.

A COUNTER STATEMENT

County Treasurer-Elect John E. Holland Gives His Figures

In the last issue of your paper, under date of November 18th, 1913, you published an article under the heading "1217 Negroes Voted" in which you alleged that I, as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, did not receive but 847 votes from the white voters of Somerset county. When I first read your statement I was somewhat amused to think that you should publish such a ridiculous statement and I at once decided to make some little investigation. I have had the clerk to the Board of Election Supervisors of Somerset county to carefully look over the poll-books used in the various districts of Somerset county and to count the number of white voters who voted at the recent election. The clerk has informed me that the books show that 3541 white voters voted; or attempted to vote, at the last election. I have carefully examined the official vote of Somerset county, for the election held November 4th, 1913, as published in your paper under date of November 11th, 1913. I find that my opponent, Mr. Edward B. Lankford, received at that election 1622 votes. Now, for the sake of argument only, we will assume that every vote cast for Mr. E. B. Lankford was cast by a white voter. I will thank you to explain to the readers of your paper what became of the balance of the 2019 votes that were cast by the white voters of Somerset county.

You were kind enough to publish in your paper, in the article above referred to, a table showing the number of votes cast in each Election district in Somerset county for the Democratic candidate for County Treasurer, and at the same time showing the number of negro votes cast in said districts. Now, if you will be equally as kind again and publish in your paper a table showing the number of votes cast in each Election district in Somerset county for the Democratic candidate for County Treasurer, and at the same time showing the number of white votes cast in said districts, I think you will publish something that will be equally as interesting to your readers, your readers can then compare the two papers. For your convenience I enclose you herewith the table which has been prepared for me by the clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Election. The table follows:

DISTRICTS	No. Votes Cast for Democratic Candidate for Co. Treasurer	Total White Votes
West Princess Anne.....	126	241
St. Peter's.....	43	141
Brinkley's Precinct 1.....	121	185
2.....	35	135
Dublin.....	145	245
Mt. Vernon.....	145	222
Fairmount.....	69	235
Crisfield, Precinct 1.....	146	332
2.....	92	276
Lawson's.....	113	291
Tangier.....	21	54
Smith's Island.....	49	172
Dames Quarter.....	30	79
Abnover.....	92	319
Westover.....	108	163
Deal's Island.....	93	203
East Princess Anne.....	119	248
Total.....	1522	3541

I do not feel that I am the one to pass on the veracity of your statement but I do feel that the people are entitled to know both sides of the case and they can then form their own conclusions which I think they will. It is not my desire to get into any newspaper controversy and all I ask is that you give the facts in the case and nothing more. I thank you very kindly for allowing me the space in your paper and I shall await with much interest your valued explanation.

JOHN E. HOLLAND.

Sunday Trains On Nov. 30th

The Traffic Department of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad has notified us that on November 30th a new schedule will go into effect which will improve the passenger service of the road.

On that date trains 47 and 48, which now operate only on week-days, will be operated on Sundays also, providing additional adequate accommodations on Sundays between New York, Philadelphia, Wilmington, Old Point, Norfolk, and the principal stations on the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad, enabling the traveling public to reach these as well as other points—north, east and south—on Sundays; and also give them an opportunity to exchange visits between local points on the New York, Philadelphia & Norfolk Railroad on Sundays.

This increased service, we understand, will be permanent and these trains will no doubt be liberally patronized by the traveling public.

ADVANCED COST OF LIVING

Retail Prices of Food Now at the Highest Point in 23 Years

The retail prices of food were higher on August 15, 1913, than at any other time during the last 23 years, according to figures of the Bureau of Labor statistics issued last Thursday. The retail prices of the principal articles of food in 40 important industrial cities gathered and compiled by experts show that during the present year 12 of the 15 articles advanced in price, while only three declined.

Comparison of retail prices on August 15, 1913, with prices on the same date in 1912 shows potatoes advanced 20.0 per cent, bacon 18.8 per cent, smoked ham 17.6 per cent, eggs 12.6 per cent, round steak 11.5 per cent, sirloin steak 10.2 per cent, pork chops 9.3 per cent, hens 7.9 per cent, lamb 8.1 per cent, rib roast 7.9 per cent, butter 5.7 per cent and milk 2.7 per cent. Sugar declined 7.9 per cent, wheat flour 5.5 per cent and cornmeal 2.7 per cent.

Compared with average prices for the 10-year period 1890 to 1900, every article noted with the exception of sugar advanced. Bacon advanced 139.0 per cent, pork chops 124.5 per cent, round steak 108.4 per cent, smoked ham 92.2 per cent, sirloin steak 79.3 per cent, rib roast 75.5 per cent, potatoes 75.2 per cent, hens 73.2 per cent, lamb 69.8 per cent, eggs 66.4 per cent, cornmeal 60.0 per cent, butter 41.9 per cent and milk 38.8 per cent. Sugar declined 2.3 per cent.

When the price of each of the 15 articles of food is weighed according to the average consumption in workingmen's families the retail prices on August 15, 1913, were 66.1 per cent above the average price for the 10-year period 1890 to 1900, 8.0 per cent above the price on August 15, 1912, and 14.9 per cent above the price on August 15, 1911.

For a Resurvey of Oyster Beds

According to statements by leaders of both political parties, the next legislature will pass a law providing for a resurvey of oyster beds already leased and open to lease. This legislation will be based upon the claims by oystermen in all the Tidewater counties that natural bars have been included in the bottom subject to lease. This inclusion was the basis of activities of oystermen in the recent campaign and of resort to violence in Somerset county. It induced the Republicans to insert in their platform a plank promising relief by appealing to the Circuit Courts. The Democratic plank promised a resurvey of the beds in cases where there was reasonable belief that natural bars had been included.

Additional legislation will provide for greater publicity than has heretofore been given in survey and leases of oyster lands. The claim is made that men unacquainted with location of natural or barren rocks were detailed by the commission of the several counties in siding in the survey. It is further claimed that the Shellfish Commission did not follow the information given them by local oystermen, but included the natural bars in their surveys. It is further claimed that surveys were made without the complete knowledge of local oystermen.

The new legislature, as now proposed, will require that hand bills be printed and prominently displayed in the localities nearest to the lands to be surveyed advising oystermen of the time of the new survey in order that they may guard against the inclusion of the natural rocks. It is also proposed that plants containing the leased beds shall not be hidden away in offices of clerks of county courts, and shall be conspicuously displayed and shall at all times be accessible to those desiring to inspect them.

Oystermen claim that because of the throwing open of natural rocks to leasing there has been such a phenomenal boom in renting bottoms during the past year. The number of leases executed or pending exceeds 30,000.

Chicken House Burned

Mr. E. W. McDorman, of Revell's Neck, had the misfortune of having his cornhouse and chicken house burned last Friday morning. The fire started in the latter, which was being cleaned and before it was extinguished the barn also came near being destroyed. Mr. McDorman was away from home at the time but neighbors responded to the alarm and helped to subdue the fire. The loss is estimated at about a hundred dollars. About 100 bushels of corn were consumed besides other valuables.

Lost His Hand

Mr. John Burns, of Westover, had the misfortune to have his left hand crushed in a fodder shedding machine last Saturday morning. He was brought to Princess Anne and Dr. H. M. Lankford dressed the injured member and he was taken to the Peninsula General Hospital, Salisbury, in an automobile, where his hand was amputated by the attending physician, Dr. J. M. Dick, assisted by Dr. Lankford.

CHANGES OF PROPERTY

Number of Deeds Recorded at the Office of Clerk of Court

M. Henry Douglas and George R. Nelson from Elisha T. Riggan and wife, lot of land in the town of Crisfield; consideration $225.

George W. Jones, Elizabeth Patton, Susie M. Jones, Mattie E. Jones and Edgar A. Jones from Daniel W. Jones and wife, 125 acres of land in Mt. Vernon district; consideration $1000.

Augustus Laney and Frances Laney, his wife, from John C. Shearman and wife, 31½ acres of land in West Prince Anne district; consideration $3950.

W. E. Ward & Company from Samuel H. Horsey and wife, lot of land in Asbury district; consideration $5 and other considerations.

The Dennis Brothers Lumber Company (a body corporate) from Alfred P. Dennis and Phillip C. Dennis, nine parcels of land in Somerset county; consideration $100 and other considerations.

Charles W. Bloodworth from Arthur L. Bloodworth and wife, lot of land in Mt. Vernon district; consideration $50.

Samuel James Larmore from Mamie Turner, all her right in 1½ acres of land in Mt. Vernon district; consideration $27.50.

Samuel J. Larmore from H. Fillmore Lankford, trustee, and others, 1½ acres of land in Mt. Vernon district; consideration $125.

Charles A. Miller from H. Fillmore Lankford, trustee, 7½ acres of land in Westover district; consideration $180.

Lillian S. Campeau from Charles A. Miller, 67½ acres of land in Westover district; consideration $1500.

George W. Lawson from the Salisbury Building, Loan & Banking Association of Wicomico county, Md., 1-18 of an acre of land in Asbury district; consideration $300.

George W. Lawson from George Mason and wife, lot of land in Asbury district; consideration $5.00 and other considerations.

Edward L. Seltzer and Anna Seltzer from George P. Parsons and others, lot of land in Lawson's district; consideration $300.

Adrian Davis, Jr., from John W. Hall, 4½ acres of land in Brinkley's district; consideration $100.

George S. White and Laura J. White, his wife, from Charles S. Moffett and wife, 5 acres of land in St. Peter's district; consideration $150.

Farmers Get Low Price for Eggs

In view of the announcement that eggs have dropped in price from 65 cents a dozen to 50 cents a dozen, Maryland farmers will be interested in a bulletin issued by the Department of Agriculture pointing out that the average price received by farmers in Maryland for eggs in 1912 was 25 cents a dozen during October; 28 cents in November, and 14 cents in December. The exorbitant price for eggs is difficult to understand in view of the statement that the production of eggs in the United States is increasing steadily per annum, according to a statement issued by Director W. J. Harris, of the Bureau of the Census.

Official census figures show that in 1899 the total production of eggs amounted to 6,293,662,000 dozen, or an average of 17.0 dozen per capita; 1909, the production was 1,591,311,000 dozen, or an average of 17.3 dozen per capita, and for 1913 the production (estimated) will be 1,754,529,000 dozen, or 17.7 dozen per capita.

The increase in the annual production of eggs in the United States from 1899 to 1909 was 23 per cent., while the increase in the population of this country for the same decade was 21 per cent.; in other words, the increase in the production of eggs for 10 years was greater than the increase in population.

Eastern Shore Men Meet

The Society of the Eastern Shore in Baltimore was organized Thursday night at an informal meeting held at the Baltimore Club. Dr. J. C. Clark called the meeting. Those present were Senator C. W. Perkins, Capt. C. W. Wright, J. H. K. Shannahan, Lynn R. Meekins, Dr. James Bordley, Joseph Y. Brattan and J. Dukes Downes.

These were constituted a committee on permanent organization and there will be another meeting at Mr. Downes' office in the Garrett Building this (Tuesday) afternoon to organize permanently. The new society is the outgrowth of the Caroline County Society, which was formed three years ago, and which now has a membership of 30 in Baltimore. All of the nine Eastern Shore counties are to be embraced in the organization. A member from each of the counties is to be obtained next Tuesday for the purpose of permanent organization.

SHOT AT OYSTER LESSEE

Crisfield Captain and Three Men Taken by Federal Officer

A climax in the oyster war was reached last Thursday morning when the boat of William T. Emory, of Bay Shore, about eight miles below Annapolis, on White Hall Creek, was attacked by an unknown puny containing three men.

Seven shots in all were fired by men in the puny, and Mr. Emory is confident that they tried to kill him. Emory had his little daughter aboard, and "compelled her to lie in the bottom of the boat to avoid the bullets. She became hysterical, and it was all Mr. Emory could do to pacify her and at the same time row toward the shore.

Mr. Emory at the time he was attacked was tending on his private oyster bed in front of his property. When within hailing distance the puny people ordered him to desist. He replied he was on his own property, and again started to take oysters. His tongue were barely in the water when a bullet whizzed by him. Without further parley the men in the puny kept on firing, and at least seven bullets hit dangerously near the small boat of Mr. Emory.

On gaining the shore Mr. Emory notified United States Commissioner Brewer of what had transpired and Deputy Marshal Le Pourman left immediately in search of the puny. On Thursday afternoon Deputy United States Marshal Letourain arrested Robert Hurley, captain of the skipjack Ruth C. of Crisfield, and George Blake, Ira Taylor and Lee Johnson (colored), members of his crew. The Ruth C. was searched and no firearms found aboard. Hurley and his men denied knowledge of the shooting.

At the hearing before United States Commissioner Julian Brewer at Annapolis Thursday night Mr. Emory could not identify Captain Hurley or any of his crew as the men who fired the shots, and as there was no firearms found aboard the vessel the captain and his crew were discharged. It is probable that the shooting was done by those in the other district who were opposed to several witnesses, and that they were persons who knew that Mr. Emory had taken up some bottom. Local oystermen, however, repudiate the idea that they would resort to such means.

Commander Howard of the State Oyster Navy was instructed by the Board of Public Works Thursday afternoon to pay strict attention to all laws for the protection of the oyster planting industry. He was ordered to inform his subordinate officers, in command of vessels of the oyster navy, that the laws must be enforced to the letter and lessees of oyster beds fully protected in the right guaranteed them by the State. The action of the Board of Public Works followed complaints made to it Thursday by John T. Harwood and John E. Semmes, his counsel, of depredations committed by oystermen on leased beds in Tangier Sound.

The Vote In Maryland

The State Board of Canvassers last Thursday officially approved the following figures of the vote cast at the recent election:

United States Senator—Lee, Democrat, 112,455; Parran, Republican, 73,300; Wellington, Progressive, 7,033; Hendrickson, Prohibitionist, 2,405; Field, Socialist, 2,982.

Comptroller—Harrington, Democrat, 105,976; Metzger, Republican, 68,524; Baldwin, Progressive, 7,495; Holmes, Prohibitionist, 3,022; Backman, Socialist, 3,529.

Clerk of the Court of Appeals—Marzuder, Democrat, 103,221; Denhard, Republican, 67,778; Smith, Progressive, 7,104; Eldridge, Prohibitionist, 3,307; Saunders, Socialist, 2,937.

For Congress—Coady, Democrat, 15,131; Woelper, Republican, 9,622.

Death of Mrs R. K. W. Dashiell

Mrs. Sallie E. M. Dashiell, widow of Robert K. W. Dashiell, of Monie, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Winters, in Baltimore, on Saturday morning last, aged 75 years. Mrs. Dashiell was a daughter of the late George B. Waller, of this county. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Archie M. Waller and Mrs. Nettie Winters, of Baltimore; Miss Minnie Dashiell and Mr. George W. Dashiell, of Monie, this county.

The remains were brought to Princess Anne by the Sunday night boat to Crisfield and thence conveyed to All Saints P. E. Church at Monie, Monday morning where the funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. H. Weaver and interment was made in the cemetery adjoining.

—All is fair in love. But lots of homely girls get that way, too.

W. O. LANKFORD'S DEPARTMENT STORE

WE CARRY A SPECIAL STOCK OF CHRISTMAS GOODS THIS YEAR THAT WILL meet the requirements of everybody. New novelties are everywhere—both useful and ornamental. You will find this a real Christmas store, our merchandise displaye and accompanied by cheerful, courteous service that will make your Christmas shopping a real pleasure. We invite you to come in and let us help you with your gift buying—it will be to your advantage.

Cut Glass

Rich and Exquisite patterns in Cut Glass makes a good purchase for the Holidays as well as wedding presents. Lots of new cuttings and Designs.

Handkerchiefs

Handkerchiefs for all—who will not appreciate a nice box of Handkerch's? When all your ideas have taken wings you can always fall back on this line and our stock will please you.

Toilet Sets

Toilet Sets, Manicure Sets, Comb and Brush Sets. Odd pieces. Toilet Water, Soap, Perfume. This is the line to please your lady friend. Favorable impressions count.

You can find here everything needed for Christmas Presents

Toys for the Children

Santa will miss it if he is not induced to Doll-up and Toy-up here. He can fill his pack with the "little ones' delight"—Dolls, Tops, Wagons, Balls, Sleds, Tree Trimmings, Chairs, Desks, Games, etc., for baby, brother, sister and the neighbors.

Trunks and Bags

The useful is always desirable. We have Trunks and Bags galore. Mother will be delighted if you give father a nice Traveling Bag, while sister can use the Suit Case given to brother. $2.00 value will surprise you—ranging up to $20.

Chinaware

Fancy China. Our old stand by. One of the best features of Holiday buying. Something that pleases. Odd pieces of hand painted and gold decorated. Large and small Vases, Bowls, Dishes, Cup and Saucers, etc. When all else fail here is a department to fall back on.

Desk Sets

Desk Sets, Box Paper, Correspondence Cards, Pens. Items special for men. This line is a winner. Don't pass. Low in price and attractive.

Sweaters and Gloves

Sweaters, Gloves, Hosiery, Caps and Skates are all attractive and make nice presents. The young folk will like them. Our Suit Department will be kept up and stocked with Suits and Coats and Furs during the Holiday buying.

Neckwear, Furs

Shoes and Slippers

Neckwear, Gloves, Silk Hosiery, Furs, Shoes, Slippers, etc. Linen Table articles, Center Pieces, Embroidered and Plain Towels. Or about anything else you can think of.

We have what you want if you do not see it in this advertisement

For Young Ladies

Real Leather Hand Bags from 50c up. Silver Mesh Bags and Purses, Vanity Bags, Coin Holders, etc. Just the thing for young ladies and misses.

Books For a Gift

Hundreds of Books bought for this Holiday season. Prices will surprise you. No matter what else you buy, books are appreciated by any one from the baby to grandfather. Get after the Books early. Best go first. Linen Books for baby. Boys Books, Girls Books. Books and more Books.

Furniture

The home can use a nice chair. Rocker, Library Table, Rug, Stand, Pedestal, Book Case, Magazine Rack, Desk, Costumer. Or decorate with some of our handsome Pictures. A present of this kind makes the whole family feel good.

We have the right article for the one you wish to remember which will be sold at the right price

FULL LINE of GROCERIES, CONFECTIONERY, Etc., for the HOLIDAYS

TRY CHASE & SANBORN'S TEAS AND COFFEES—There's NONE BETTER

CALL AND COMPARE OUR PRICES WITH OTHER STORES AND WE GUARANTEE YOU WILL FIND OUR PRICES AS LOW—PERHAPS LOWER—THAN ELSEWHERE

Main Street

W. O. LANKFORD, The Home Furnisher

Main Street

NOW IS THE TIME To Plant Fall Bulbs

Plant Now

YOU CAN HAVE BEAUTIFUL FLOWERS
TO BRIGHTEN YOUR HOME

All winter, at Christmas time, at Easter time, also on your lawns and in your flower beds at the first opening of Springtime—if you plant now.

Boligiano's Fall Bulbs
are full sized and true to name. Our 95 years experience in Bulb Selection has placed us in a position of knowing the most reliable source of securing the choicest French and Holland Grown Bulbs.

Beautifully Illustrated 30 Page
Bulb and Poultry Book Free.

It tells you exactly how to arrange and care for your Fall Bulbs to have the best success, also give a full line of Poultry Supplies and requisites. If you have not already received a copy, send us a postal today.

Each	Doz.
Baby Hyacinths.....	50c
Bedding Hyacinths.....	50c
2nd. Size Hyacinths.....	40c
1st. Size Hyacinths.....	1.25
Freesia Bulbs.....	30c
Early Tulips Mixed.....	30c
May or Cottage Tulips.....	30c
Parrot Tulips.....	30c
Double Tulips.....	30c
Narcissus Single.....	30c
Jonquils.....	25c
Double Narcissus.....	30c
Crocus Mixed.....	25c
Oxalis.....	25c
Easter Lillies.....	1.50
Chinese Sacred Lillies.....	1.50

Our Plant Season
Now In Full Progress

Beautiful Plants, Ferns, Palms and Hardy Evergreens selling at a price within the reach of all. Watch the Baltimore American and Sun for special sales. If you cannot get Boligiano's Bulbs and Plants through your local dealer, send us a postal and we will tell you where you can get them.

Boligiano's Seed Store
95 Years Established Trade
BALTIMORE, MD.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset County letters of administration on the personal estate of

WILLIAM H. BOSS,
late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers thereof, to the subscriber on or before the

Third Day of December, 1918,
or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 27th day of May, 1918.
MARY A. BOSS,
Administratrix of William H. Boss, dec'd.
True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER,
6-8 Register of Wills.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset County letters of administration on the estate of

NELSON COLLINS,
late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers thereof, to the subscriber on or before the

First Day of January, 1919,
or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 24th day of June, 1918.
L. WESLEY BEAUCHAMP and ZELPHY COLLINS,
Admin'rs of Nelson Collins, deceased
True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER,
7-1 Register of Wills.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset county letters of administration on the estate of

BENJAMIN RAYMOND WARREN,
late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers thereof, to the subscriber on or before the

Twenty-ninth Day of January, 1919,
or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 22d day of July, 1918.
MARY E. WARREN,
Administratrix of Benjamin Raymond Warren, deceased.
True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER,
7-23 Register of Wills.

McCall's Magazine and McCall Patterns

Have More Friends than any other magazine or patterns. McCall's is the reliable Fashion Guide monthly in one million one hundred thousand homes. Besides showing all the latest designs of McCall Patterns, each issue is brimful of sparkling short stories and helpful information for women.

Save Money and Live in Style by subscribing for McCall's Magazine at once. Costs only 25 cents a year, including any one of the celebrated McCall Patterns free. McCall Patterns Lead all others in style, fit, simplicity, economy and number sold. More dealers sell McCall Patterns than any other magazine combined. 25c a copy, or 25 cents. Buy from your dealer, or by mail from McCALL'S MAGAZINE
238-248 W. 37th St., New York City
N. Y. People's Copy, People's Copy and People's Copy

The Little Four FOR TWO PERSONS

The Car You Want at a Price You
Can Afford to Pay
"The Product of Experience"

Absolutely Well-Built—Easy Riding—So Stylish and Well-Finished that Owners of High-Priced Large Cars are Proud to Use THE "LITTLE FOUR" for their $690.00 Runabout Work

Peninsula Motor Company,
East Church Street Salisbury, Md.
Near N. Y., P. & N. Depot

Will Save You Money on Your Fall Office
and School Supplies

MEYER & THALHEIMER,
The Big Stationery Store,
Baltimore and Howard Streets BALTIMORE, MD.

Blank Books for Every Purpose
Loose Leaf Ledger Outfits and Devices
Wood and All-Steel Sectional Filing Cabinets
Commercial Stationery, School Supplies

Our Immense Variety and Reasonable Prices
Assure Absolute Satisfaction

Wilmington Conference ACADEMY

A CHRISTIAN SCHOOL FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

COMMERCIAL COURSE
EQUAL WITH THE BEST!
CHEAPER THAN THE CHEAPEST!

Always open for inspection. Comparison with the best schools not feared. Students entered any time

NEW ROOMS NEW FURNITURE
NEW TYPEWRITERS

NEW GYMNASIUM NEW SWIMMING POOL.

ATHLETIC FIELD

Send for Catalogue to
Rev. HENRY G. BUDD, Principal
DOVER, DELAWARE

When a Doctor is Needed

in your home the quickest way is the best way. The telephone has proven its worth in saving lives so many times that no progressive doctor is without it.

You may not need a doctor now—hope you do not—but it is well to be prepared for emergencies by having Bell telephone service installed.

Have you a Bell telephone?
THE CHESAPEAKE AND POTOMAC
TELEPHONE COMPANY
H. W. CARTY, Local Manager
Salisbury, Md.
Tel. 9000

THE MAN WITH THE SUIT CASE

A Story For Thanksgiving
By MARTHA V. MONROE

"Jim, I heard you are going to be married."

"Where did you hear that?"

"Oh, I heard it a month ago! I think it was on Thanksgiving day. I dined with the Atwaters. They said Clara Webster was just the girl for you, you being impulsive, she steady and cautious."

"Did they say that?"

"Yes."

"Listen. I have a little story to tell you. On the very day, Thanksgiving, that these persons were attributing these traits to us a little drama was being enacted."

"My friend Billy Smithson invited Clara and me to spend the Thanksgiving week end at his house in the country, which he opened for the occasion. The affair was got up to celebrate our engagement, for Billy is an old chum of mine, and his wife is an intimate friend of Clara's."

"Clara and I were to go up on the train together, but just as I was about to leave the office to call for her a job came into the office, which nobody but I could do, and I was obliged to remain over till the next day. I telephoned her to go on and I would arrive the next day. I reached the house the next afternoon to find the guests gone out on an automobile ride. Billy had got up for them. There were three carriages, and they were not to return till 7 o'clock. About 6.1 I dressed for dinner and was going downstairs when I met a man coming up with a suitcase in his hand. Presuming he was one of the guests who had just arrived, I went on down into the library, thinking no more about him and amusing myself till the auto party returned."

"This was the evening before Thanksgiving. The next day we were getting ready for the feast when Clara took me off into a quiet corner and said to me:

"Will I have a very unpleasant communication to make. On returning from the auto ride yesterday several of the girl guests missed articles of jewelry. Several boxes in which the jewels were kept were found in the closet in your room."

"Naturally I was a bit upset by this information, but the principal cause was that Clara didn't say this with my hand in hers or her arms around me, but sitting apart, and instead of adding that she felt just absolutely confident that I was not a thief she looked very gloomy and waited for me to say something."

"Clara! I said astounded, 'do you mean to say that you have the slightest suspicion that I stole these jewels?'"

"It is the bounden duty of every one, she replied, to consider an accused person innocent until proved guilty. And as your fiancée I feel obliged to do what I can to influence the others to give you every opportunity to clear yourself."

"It was not so much the position in which I was placed that troubled me as the snapping of the cord that bound me to Clara. In a twinkling my feelings toward her were changed from attraction to repulsion. And yet what fault could I find with her? What right had I to expect her to believe me innocent in face of such proof against me and before I had brought forward any proof in my favor? She was simply acting on that trait in her character for which those persons you have mentioned on that very day were giving her credit."

"This change in my feelings toward her for awhile overrode every other. Then the gravity of my position rushed upon me with full force. But what could I do? Ignorant as I was of how the jewelry boxes got into my closet, I didn't see that I could do anything but leave the house."

"I went to Billy, who begged me to stay, saying that there was some mystery about the matter which he hoped would be cleared up, but I judged that he didn't know what to make of the matter, and at last he agreed with me that I might as well go. On passing out, Sue Wentworth, who, since her father's failure, has been making her own living by teaching school, came out of the drawing room into the hall and said:

"Mr. Thurston, this idea of your having stolen jewels is absurd. There are a hundred suppositions that can be made, each more likely than what appears on the surface. Some one stole the jewels, took them into your room temporarily and threw the boxes down there. That's one."

"There was something in her hypothesis that brought back the man I had seen going upstairs with the suitcase, and it solved the problem for me, for it occurred to me that I had not seen him since. But this was nothing to me compared with the comfort I derived from Miss Wentworth's faith in me. I just put my arms about her and hugged her."

"She, backed by my statement as to the man with the suitcase, changed everything. All came to me and begged me to remain. I did so and was treated cordially by every one. Since then some of the jewels have been recovered in possession of a thief, who confirmed my theory of their loss."

"Oh, how about your engagement?"

"Oh, I'm engaged, but not to Clara. She has too much caution for me. I don't think I need it, notwithstanding the opinion of your friends."

"To whom are you engaged?"

"To Sue Wentworth."

J. T. Taylor, Jr. FAKED PAINTINGS.

Imitations and Forgeries of the Works of Old Masters.
SHARP TRICKS OF THE TRADE.

Specialists Who Are Real Artists in Showing Antique Effects—The Split Panel Deception and an Ingenious Swindling Scheme That Failed.

In addition to a considerable mass of historical information concerning methods employed in producing pictorial works of art, M. Moreau-Vauthier's "Technique of Painting" presents much new and interesting matter concerning devices of imitation picture taking—"trouage," as the French art world calls it—and systematic, deliberate, skillful forgery that have in recent years rendered extra hazardous the purchase of any picture by a recognized master who has joined the great majority.

Many of these tricks require great skill and knowledge—enough, in all seeming, to enable the forgers to become recognized artists of the first class.

If an old canvas can be found—and there are many thousands in Europe—the production of a Titian or Correggio or Veronese is easy. The worthless picture is painted over or cleared off or the latest fashion—provided with a new canvas face on which a fine forgery has been painted.

Varnish tinted with bitumen gives appearance of age; licorice juice, ashes steeped in water and lampblack are used to imitate the dirt of time. There are specialists in fly stains, clumsy retouching designed to emphasize age by contrast, and in signatures—a select class, these latter, who call themselves monogramists.

They know the manner of each great painter, the way he signed his pictures and the place and color used. Sometimes the name is cunningly concealed under a layer of dirt or paint, so that the buyer of this particular "old master" may have the pleasure of discovering it for himself.

The author gives the names of several painters who find a ready road to wealth in multiplying for foreign markets the Rousseaus, Dintz, Corots, Daubignys and Courbets and the like, without which no home of luxury is deemed complete.

Unfinished studies by famous artists sold after death at some official vendue bear the regular sale stamp, a priceless token of authenticity, wherefore the clever forger makes the dimly suggested picture a finished composition, which carries on its back an indisputable certificate of genuineness.

Still more adroit is the trick played after the Fromentin sale, where one of these art harpies bought the painter's "Arab Falconer," painted on a wooden panel. The panel was sawed through edge-ways, giving the forger a genuine Fromentin without the sale stamp, and a black panel bearing the sale stamp. Result, two "genuine" Arab Falconers, sold far apart, with no way at hand to disprove the imitation.

Sometimes, it is pointed out, the novelty of the trick employed works its own defeat, as in the case of a Florentine dealer who sold a rare old painting to a French collector. He offered to send it to the buyer's hotel and asked him to write his name and address on the back of the panel in order to remove all doubt. This was done, but then the collector changed his mind and carried the picture off despite the dealer's protestations.

When the traveler got home he took the picture out of its frame to clean it. He found that he had brought away two pictures. The first, which he had bought, concealed a copy, on the back of which he had signed his name.

This was almost perfect falsification. If the collector had had the picture sent to his hotel he would have received the copy. If he had protested that it was not the picture he bought he would have been shown his own signature on the back of the panel.

The Italian government prohibits the exportation of native art works except by permission that is very hard to get. But the collectors and the owners of old family pictures find no difficulty in evading this. They order copies, put them in place of the originals and secretly send the latter out of the country. Thus a genuine old Italian master is one of the easiest things to acquire in the realm of high priced art.

Advertising Pays 100 Per Cent.
A Kansas man lost a five dollar bill and advertised for it. In a day or two a man appeared in his office, saying that he had seen the advertisement, and handed him the bill. In a few days the Kansas man was going through his "other" clothes and found the original bill which he thought he had lost. Notwithstanding the fact that the events in this story may sound suspicious, the lesson is obvious.—Kansas City Star.

Calm Occulation.
"I hear they are passionately in love with each other."
"It might pass for passion in Boston. They kiss each other with their eyeglasses on."—Washington Herald.

It Must Be So.
Mrs. Knottall—What do those sailors mean when they speak of the dog watch? Mr. Knottall—That's part of the crew of an ocean greyhound.—Kansas City Star.

Love, hope, fear, faith—these make humanity; these are its signs and note and character.—Robert Browning.

5A Horse Blankets
are the strongest and longest-wearing. They are made from strong, tightly-twisted yarns, are closely woven, strong, warm and durable. Ask for a 5A Horse Blanket when you buy.

BUY A
5A SQUARE BLANKET FOR STREET USE
5A STABLE BLANKET FOR THE STABLE
5A PLUSH ROBE FOR YOUR OWN COMFORT

Sold by
J. T. TAYLOR, Jr.

I have all kinds of stable blankets

5A Horse Blankets
The long-wearing 5A Horse Blankets are the cheapest to purchase by all odds. Their strength gives durability. Their warmth gives horse-protection. Their size gives comfort. Ask for a 5A.

BUY A
5A SQUARE BLANKET FOR STREET USE
5A STABLE BLANKET FOR THE STABLE
5A PLUSH ROBE FOR YOUR OWN COMFORT

Sold by
J. T. TAYLOR, Jr.

Several hundred Square Blankets from $1.00 up to $7.00

5A Carriage Robes
5A Plush Robes are generous size, warm, long of wear, made in beautiful patterns and rich colors. Buy one for your own comfort, and ask for 5A when you buy.

BUY A
5A SQUARE BLANKET FOR STREET USE
5A STABLE BLANKET FOR THE STABLE
5A PLUSH ROBE FOR YOUR OWN COMFORT

Sold by
J. T. TAYLOR, Jr.

Our Robes are unequalled for the money; all kinds and prices to suit all kinds

J. T. Taylor, Jr.
PRINCESS ANNE, MARYLAND

MARYLANDER AND HERALD
PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY MORNING AT
PRINCESS ANNE, MD.
Office of Publication—Herald Building
Main Street, PHONE NO. 61.
Subscription Price, $1.00 Per Annum
WILLIAM H. DASHIELL,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR
All communications should be addressed to
the MARYLANDER AND HERALD.
TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 25, 1913.

Mr. Holland's Statement

In another column will be found a statement by Mr. John E. Holland, Treasurer-elect of Somerset county, in which he endeavors to parry the assertion that his election was due in a large measure to the negro vote. To make his statement plausible he sets forth the vote given to his opponent, Mr. E. B. Lankford, and inquires if the latter received 1522 out of the 3541 white votes cast, what became of the other 2019.

To get at the situation intelligently, it must be shown that the entire vote cast in the county was as follows:

White votes	3541
Colored votes	1217
Total	4758

Mr. Holland's vote was 2064
Mr. Lankford's " 1522 3588

Leaving..... 1172
As Mr. Holland is a Republican it is only fair to ascribe the negro vote to him, or 1217; Mr. Lankford being a Democrat it is not unfair to mark his 1522 votes as white. This would make 2739. The total Democratic and Republican vote for treasurer was 3588. Deducting 2739 leaves Mr. Holland 847 white votes as stated in our last issue. Add this to 1172 and we get the 2019 votes about which Mr. Holland inquired. Even after deducting from 1172 the 83 votes given to Mr. Noah J. Gibbons for treasurer, there still remain 1084 men who did not vote for treasurer or whose votes were thrown out.

But in order to be absolutely fair, we will for the sake of argument allow for illiteracy on both sides and in the same proportion. The negro vote is about one-third of the white. From the total white vote, therefore, deduct 879 of the 1172 as illiterates who lost their votes and from the negro vote 238, and we will have the following hypothetical situation:

White votes for Treasurer	2662
Colored " "	924

Total vote for Treasurer... 3586
Assuming that Mr. Holland would thus get 924 negro votes and 1140 white ones, we should also assume that Mr. Lankford got 1522 white votes, or a majority of 232 white votes over the former, showing conclusively that Mr. Holland's election was in the main due to the negro vote.

This, however, is hardly a fair solution of the problem and illiteracy was scarcely the matter that figured. It is more than likely that the defection of votes on the treasurer's side was due to the fact that many voters did not vote for treasurer at all, and it is totally out of the question to believe that, 1084 votes, after deducting Mr. Gibbons' vote of 83, were thrown out in the county.

Mr. Holland has presented his case with considerable sophistry but the fact still remains that as a Republican he was doubtless the recipient of the 1217 negro votes and that 847 was his white supplement. There seems to be no escape from this conclusion and the treasurer-elect ought rather to bow his thanks to his negro constituents than to attempt to vindicate himself because of their allegiance.

A Deliberative Congress

Certainly no one can accuse the Democratic Congress of being headlong in legislation. The Underwood-Simmons tariff bill had been under consideration in committee for months before it was submitted to the House, and after its passage there the leisurely Senate debated it for just four months before taking favorable action. Several weeks in conference followed before it reached the President.

The Currency bill seems to be following much the same procedure. Though President Wilson had hoped to have it disposed of in the special session, it is now predicted that serious debate upon it can hardly begin before December 8 and that probably two months more will be required for discussion. It seems not unlikely that spring will roll around before final action is taken. In all probability the anti-trust legislation which it is proposed to enact will follow the same program.

It all seems provokingly slow, but it may well be believed that the cautious methods followed by Senators and Representatives are the best for both the country and the dominant party. It was always brought up against Speaker Thomas B. Reed, who introduced the autocratic rules that led to the revolt against Cannon, that he boasted that under his regime the House had ceased to be a deliberative body. That cannot be said of the present Congress. The Republicans have been treated with consideration, and there has been no disposition to rush important legislation through recklessly. Thanks to this policy, a fair and equitable tariff bill was secured. Doubtless when the Currency bill is finally licked into shape it will be equally satisfactory. Its present progress seems exasperating in its slowness, but it must be remembered that the tortoise beat the hare in the race. —Philadelphia Record.

Barbara Frietchie Rediviva

Recently there has been a revival of discussion over the sentimental incident of Barbara Frietchie and the Union flag which she is said to have waved in the faces of the invading Rebel hosts which passed through Frederick to meet defeat at Gettysburg, and which was immortalized in beautiful verse by the poet Whittier. Barbara Frietchie was a real personage and Union flags were in evidence in Frederick upon that occasion. The flag that Barbara was said to have waved is still preserved. But that she waved the flag, or that any Confederate soldier threatened to shoot her for her effrontery, or that "Stonewall" Jackson sternly decreed that whoever touched "a hair of yon gray head" should "die like a dog" is set down as a figment of the imagination by stern and practical testimony that cannot be controverted.

The one conclusive bit of evidence in dissipation of this fine romance of the Civil War is that at the time of the Confederate march through Frederick Barbara Frietchie was 93 years old and helplessly bedridden. This testimony comes from members of her family. Also, there is authentic history showing that the waving of Union flags by patriotic women in the faces of invading Confederate troops was an ordinary occurrence, and never met with any more hostile reprisals than satirical remarks and laughter.

It is a pity to spoil a story of such fine sentiment, so filled with the spirit of patriotism, but "facts are facts." —Wilmington Evening.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County,

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every false statement made by him or by any person in his name, or by any person acting under his authority, in connection with the sale of Hall's Catarrh Cure.

FRANK J. CHENEY, Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Sold by F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

(Advertisement)

Talks Across Atlantic

William Marconi has taken up the task of solving the task of solving the problem of wireless telephony. Last week at the Glace Bay and Clifton stations the business of sending wireless messages was suspended 30 minutes, while Mr. Marconi, who was at the Clifton station, made an experiment of talking from Ireland to Cape Breton, approximately 1,800 miles.

Some wonderful innovations have been made recently in wireless telegraphy. At Louisville, Kentucky, a wireless receiving apparatus, copy a message, ticked off in the Irish station with an exactness that could not be excelled if the dots and dashes were ticked off at the home station in the immediate vicinity of the dictograph.

Nearly Every Child Has Worms

Paleness, at times a flushed face, unnatural hunger, picking the nose, great thirst, etc., are indications of worms. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a reliable, thorough medicine for the removal of all kinds of worms from children and adults. Kickapoo Worm Killer is in pleasant candy form, and aids digestion, tones the system, overcoming constipation and increasing the action of the liver. Is perfectly safe for even the most delicate children. Kickapoo Worm Killer makes children happy and healthy. 25c. Guaranteed. Try it. Drug stores or by mail. Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

(Advertisement)

Order Nisi.

Edward B. Lankford and William G. Lankford, ex parte, under power in mortgage from Benjamin Raymond Warren and wife.

In the Circuit Court for Somerset County, No. 2863, Chancery.

Ordered that the sale of the property mentioned in these proceedings, made and reported by Edward B. Lankford and William G. Lankford, mortgagees, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown on or before the 18th day of December, 1913; provided a copy of this order be inserted in some weekly newspaper printed in said Somerset county once in each of three successive weeks before 18th day of December next.

The report states the amount of sales to be $2175.00.

S. FRANK DASHIELL, Clerk.

True Copy. S. FRANK DASHIELL, Clerk.

Public Sale

The undersigned, having no further use for the below mentioned machinery, stock and implements, will sell without reserve on the farm where Frank Fogwell resides, in Kent county, about two miles from Hanesville and near the Churn Creek farm 8 miles from Chestertown, on Wednesday, Dec. 3rd, 1913, beginning at 12:30 o'clock p. m., sharp, a comparatively new HORIZONTAL ECLIPSE PORTABLE ENGINE (on wheels) 25 H. P. Boiler and 15 H. P. Engine, smoke stack, tools, etc. Also a first class Saw Mill with 56 inch saw, belts, extra grates, chains, hooks, oil, axes, files, wrenches, etc. ALSO PAIR HEAVY ARCH AXLE TIMBER WHEELS, none better, practically new. CROSS-CUT SAW FOR SAWING STOVE WOOD. The portable engine by itself and the saw mill, belts, etc., and saw mill fixtures by themselves will be offered separately; then the two together and sold in the manner bringing the higher figure. The cross-cut saw will be sold separately also the timber wheels. One bunch of about 20 YOUNG NATIVE SHEEP, with buck, 7 HEAD MILCH COWS, some with calf; FOUR HEIFERS, SIX GOOD MULES, one pair Black Mare Mules, broken, 3 years old; one pair of Mules 7 and 8 years old, without a fault; one pair 5 and 6 year old Mules, weigh about 800 pounds each, well broken; also TWO HORSES, one 11 and the other 7 years old, good workers; and drivers. Farm implements as follows: Two farm wagons in first-class condition, one Schaefer corn cutter, corn planter, binder, plows, 2 sets wagon harness, light deerborn wagon, shovels, ladders, etc. The horses and mules will be offered at 12:30 o'clock. The sheep and sheep at 1:30, and then the implements and last the engine and sawmill. TERMS OF SALE:—Cash on all sums under $20. On all sums over $20 a credit of 9 months will be given with approved security. No property to be removed until terms are complied with. J. T. Jester, Auct.

European Restaurant

Meals at all hours
When you want a lunch don't fail to call in. Oysters in every style—raw, steamed or fried. Families supplied by the quart or gallon.

RAYMOND MARRINER, Prop.

H. FILLMORE LANKFORD, Solicitor.

Order of Publication

Lettie Josephine Hall, Edward Nathaniel Hall.

No. 2863, Chancery. In the Circuit Court for Somerset County.

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce a vinculo matrimonii by the plaintiff from the defendant, and for the custody of the minor child named in the complaint.

The bill alleges that the plaintiff and defendant were married on or about the 27th day of December, 1907, and that after marriage the lived together in Dorchester county, Maryland, until the year 1908, when the conduct of the defendant towards the plaintiff became so unkind, rough and cruel that it became necessary for the plaintiff to leave the defendant and go to the home of a relative, said county, that the defendant then wrote to the plaintiff and requested her to return, promising to treat her with affection and kindness; that trusting in his promises, the plaintiff returned to the defendant and lived with him a short time, but he was again cruel and unkind, and she was forced to leave him and go to the home of a relative, said county, that the defendant followed her and demanded if she expected to return to him, and upon being informed that she was afraid to do so, and that she was afraid to be with him, he stated that he would kill her and pursued her with a gun and shot her; that he was arrested and convicted in the Circuit Court of Dorchester county for the assault upon her, and was sentenced to a term in the Maryland House of Correction; that since the conviction of the defendant, the plaintiff has never seen him, and has never received any communication from him; that she is informed that he has no home; that from the time he shot her he has not contributed one dollar to her support or that of her infant child, except one of clothes and one pair of shoes which he sent to the child; that he has never made any effort to become reconciled with the plaintiff, and in fact has never communicated with her in any way since he shot her; that the conduct of the defendant has amounted to abandonment and desertion of the plaintiff, and has continued uninterruptedly for more than three years, and is deliberate and malicious; that the parties are beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation; that the conduct of the plaintiff towards the defendant has always been that of a loving and affectionate wife; that she has been married to the defendant for more than three years; that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and does not reside therein; that one child has been born to the parties of this suit from said marriage a son, Cassius Edward Hall, now about five years of age.

It is thereupon, ordered by the subscriber, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset County, in Equity, this 15th day of November, 1913, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Somerset county, once a week for four successive weeks before the 18th day of December, 1913, give notice to the defendant, Edward Nathaniel Hall, of the object and substance of the bill of complaint in this case, and warn him to be and appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 1st day of January, 1914, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to be passed in accordance with the prayer of the bill.

True Copy. S. FRANK DASHIELL, Clerk.

11-18

Order Nisi

William B. Noel, ex parte, trust created by mortgage from Margaret L. Bruce to William L. Noel.

No. 2881, Chancery. In the Circuit Court for Somerset County.

Ordered by the subscriber, clerk of the Circuit Court, in Equity, this 8th day of November, A. D., 1913, that the report of William L. Noel, mortgagee, mentioned in the above case, be and the same are hereby ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary appear by exception filed before the 4th day of December, 1913; provided a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper printed in Somerset county once in each of three successive weeks before 4th day of December, 1913.

The report states the amount of sales to be $6,715.00.

S. FRANK DASHIELL, Clerk.

True Copy. S. FRANK DASHIELL, Clerk.

11-11

AT HARGIS

Do Your Christmas Shopping Early
WE ARE READY
Xmas Novelties Suitable For Gifts

MANICURE SETS IN IVORY 50 cents to $5	CHINA CLOSETS $10 to $40
LADIES HAND BAGS 38 cents to $5	QUARTERED OAK DINING TABLES $10 to $35
SILVER MESH BAGS $2 to $5	DINING CHAIRS Leather Seat Per set $15 to $37.50
COMB AND BRUSH SETS In Ivory and Silver $2 to $10	DRESSING TABLES In Oak, Mahogany and Birdseye $10 to $22.50
SWEET GRASS BASKETS 50 cents to $1.50	PRINCESS DRESSERS In Oak, Birdseye Maple, Mahogany and Curly Birch $13.50 to $40
UMBRELLAS Sterling Silver Handles. $2 to $5	COMBINATION BOOK CASES $15 to $35
HUDNUT'S AND COLGATES PERFUMES All the new odors. 25 cents to $3	OAK BEDROOM SUITS $20 to $50
JAPANESE FRUIT BASKETS 75 cents to $2	PARLOR SUITS $20 to $42.50
MAHOGANY SERVING TRAYS $1 to $7.50	COUCHES In Velour and Leather $7.50 to $35
EMBROIDERY SETS 30 cents to $1	OF SPECIAL IMPORTANCE
LUNCHEON CLOTHS 75 cents to $5	We are showing the largest and most attractive line of Library Tables, Rockers, Brass Beds and 9x12 Rugs ever shown outside the large cities.
SILK HOSE 50 cents to $2	OAK AND MAHOGANY LIBRARY TABLES $10 to $20
KID GLOVES Long and Short $1 to $3.50	OAK AND MAHOGANY ROCKERS $5 to $15
RAIN COATS $2.50 to $12.50	SOLID MAHOGANY ROCKERS $15
SILK PETTICOATS $1.50 to $6	BRASS BEDS Guaranteed $10 to $30
SWEATERS All Shades 50 cents to $6	9 x 12 RUGS $8 to $37.50
FURNITURE Dining Room Buffets $13.50 to $45

Our stock was never so large. Send us your mail orders
We deliver FREE to your railroad station

T. F. HARGIS
DEPARTMENT STORE,
Pocomoke City, Maryland

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset county letters of administration on the estate of

THOMAS COLLINS.

late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers thereof, to the subscriber on or before the

Eighteenth Day of May, 1914.

or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 11th day of November, 1913

GORDON TULL,

Adm'r of Thomas Collins, deceased.

True Copy Test: SIDNEY WALLER,

Register of Wills.

11-18

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset county letters of administration on the estate of

GEORGE T. MCCLIMMY,

late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers thereof, to the subscriber on or before the

Thirtieth Day of March, 1914.

or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 23rd day of September, 1913.

MYRA Z. MCCLIMMY,

Executrix of George T. McClimmy, dec'd

True Copy Test: SIDNEY WALLER,

Register of Wills.

9-30

Notice To Creditors

Perry X. Heatwole et al. vs. Chas. F. Fifer.

In the Circuit Court for Somerset County, No. 2770, Chancery.

The undersigned, receiver in the above cause named, pursuant to an order of the Circuit Court for Somerset County, passed on the 28th day of October, 1913, hereby gives notice to all persons having claims against the late partnership firm of Perry X. Heatwole and others, engaged in business under the name of Yeasay Rental Company, to file their claims, properly authenticated, with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset County, Maryland, on or before the 10th day of March, 1914.

GEORGE M. UPSHUR, Receiver.

FREE CHRISTMASCATALOGUE

From One of the World's Best and Largest Stores—Write for a Copy To-day

A book that will help to solve your gift problems. Sixty-four pages of Toys, Jewelry, Books, Toilet Goods, Art Needlework, Handkerchiefs and other merchandise most in demand for Christmas presents.

STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER
PHILADELPHIA

The Wonderful ALADDIN Lamp

Wonderful because it produces a luxurious, soft, white light, excelled only by sunlight. Burns ordinary kerosene or coal oil, the cheapest of all illuminating fuels. Burns Less Oil than Any Other Lamp of Equal Candle Power. Aladdin Lamps are most durable in construction—easy to take care of—simplest in operation. The light is brighter and easier on the eyes than gas or electricity. Occultists declare the Aladdin Gives The Best Artificial Light Known. Users declare it is not only the best light, but the best Lamp known. There is No Equal. The Aladdin is superior by test and best by comparison. It appeals to those who want superior excellence for its own sake—appeals to those who consider economy a first essential. Order, please, simple, safe and clean—The Ideal Lamp for the multitude. Don't be bamboozled by an imitation. There is only one Aladdin. Insist on having it. The name is on every burner.

Investigation is the keynote of progression. Let us show you Aladdin

THE MANTLE LAMP COMPANY OF AMERICA

CHICAGO, ILL. PORTLAND, ORE. WATERBURY, CONN. WINNEPEG, CAN. MONTREAL, CAN.

FOR SALE BY

C. W. MARSH, Agent, Champ, Maryland

Job Printing executed with neatness and dispatch. Give us trial order

MARYLANDER AND HERALD

TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 25, 1913.

Notices of Marriages and Deaths will be published free—but Obituaries must be paid for at the rate of five cents per line.

Business Pointers

Ten (10) cents a line for the first insertion and five (5) thereafter.

100 HOGS WANTED—Apply to WEBB & Co., Crisfield, Md.

WANTED—A four or five room house for one year. H. D. YATES.

E. S. PUSEY, Blacksmithing and full line of Machinery, Princess Anne.

FOR SALE—500 bushels of white and yellow corn. L. N. WHITCRAFT.

Delayed meals get on the cook's nerves. With Cole's Hot Blast Range your meals are always on time.

FOR SALE—A well-built buggy, in excellent condition. Price reasonable. L. CATLIN, Beverly Farm, King's Creek.

FOR SALE OR RENT—10 acres trucking land with good house and barn, adjoining our property. THE COHN & Beck Co.

If you wish to see a new and up-to-date line of neckwear, underwear, hose and gloves call on W. A. Brown, at Ross Barber shop until further notice.

FOR SALE—Several good Rams, $5 to $7 each. Also thrashed Cowpens Hay at $10 ton, and about 5 tons Timothy Hay. A. WOLFE, Westover, Md.

HAY FOR SALE—Baled Timothy and Timothy and Clover mixed. Farm wharf on the Manokin River, 2 1/2 miles below Princess Anne. CHARLES C. GELDER.

Lost—An open face gold watch, perfectly plain, medium size, on the road from Princess Anne to Westover, near the Ches. H. Layfield corner. Finder will be liberally rewarded. G. A. COX, Upper Fairmount, Md.

Persons desiring to buy farm land in Somerset county will find it to their interest to consult the undersigned who has for sale some good farms that can be bought cheap. LEVIN H. HALL, Surveyor of Somerset County.

AUTOMOBILE ANNOUNCEMENT—The new 1914 Overland is a powerful, handsome, luxurious riding car, 35 h. p., 114 inch wheel base, 4 inch tires, electric lights, completely equipped for $950.00; with Gray & Davis' electric starter, $1075. Mr. Business Man, use good judgment in buying a car the same as you do anything else. Buy the Overland and save several hundred dollars. Write or phone L. S. NOCK, Salisbury and Crisfield.

The date on the label of your paper shows the time to which your subscription is paid. Please look at it.

Local and Miscellaneous

The autumn foliage is gone. In fact autumn leaves when winter comes.

Some things are too good to last, but shoemakers are not numbered among them.

Dr. C. W. Purnell, optometrist, will be at Omar A. Jones' drug store Monday afternoon, December 1st.

This may be the land of the free, but don't jump to the conclusion that every wife is a goddess of liberty.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dennis are spending the winter at their new home "Traynall," near Woodbrook, Baltimore county, Md.

Mrs. Z. P. Henry, of Berlin, Md., spent last week in Princess Anne at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dougherty, on Prince William street.

The minstrel show at the Auditorium on Friday night promises to be the hit of the season. A high-class entertainment for the low price of 25 and 35 cents.

The marriage of Miss Cecelia Hoot Bratton to Mr. Charles C. Gelder will take place to-day, (Nov. 25th), at 12 o'clock, at the residence of her aunt, Miss Maria Dennis and Mrs. R. W. Dashiell, on Main street. No cards have been sent out in the county.

Mr. Curtis O. Farrow, who early in the month accompanied his brother, Mr. Charles C. Farrow, to Florida on account of the latter's health, has returned to his home in Revell's Neck. The former will probably remain in the South all winter and his health is improving.

The annual meeting of the School Commissioners' and County Superintendents' Association of Maryland will be held in the State Normal School, Baltimore, Thursday and Friday, Dec. 4th and 5th. Many important topics affecting our public schools will come up for discussion.

Mr. Edward A. Morris, of Utica, Montana, spent last week with his brothers, Mr. James L. Morris, of near Westover, and Mr. John W. Morris, of Princess Anne. It has been fourteen years since Mr. Morris visited Somerset county and he was much surprised at the many changes that have taken place in Princess Anne since his last visit, and highly gratified at the improvements, progress and growth of our beautiful town.

State Auditor J. Enos Ray and his assistant, William A. Gillespie, made an official visit to Somerset county on Wednesday and Thursday last. It is the duty of these officials to inspect the fee offices of the county, namely the Clerk's Office and that of the Register of Wills. The visit of inspection showed the accounts in both offices to be in excellent order. The auditor has introduced into both these offices a new system of cash accounting which is uniform over the State. The cash book is of the columnar form and is arranged so as to show at a glance every money transaction of the office.

Miss Ethel Powell is visiting her aunt, Mrs. S. F. Long, at Salisbury.

Lots of people indulge in family jars who have no taste in bric-a-brac.

Any woman would rather have the lines in her palm read than the wrinkles in her face.

Even the people who stand up for their own rights might prefer to sit in the lap of luxury.

It's a toss-up between the man who believes everything he hears and the man who believes nothing.

Miss Lolah E. Barkley left last Friday for Baltimore where she will spend several weeks with relatives and friends.

Miss Doris Speights left Monday for New York City to accept a position as Club Director in Grace Church, that city.

County Commissioner F. E. Matthews, of Dublin district, was in Baltimore last week attending the Maryland Week celebration.

Miss Estelle Battelle and her sister, Mrs. Margaret Southall, of Accomac county, Va., are guests of Mrs. T. J. Smith, on Main street.

The Board of Directors of the Peninsula Produce Exchange of Maryland, at their meeting some days ago, declared a dividend of 10 per cent.

S. P. Woodcock & Co. have on exhibition at their Delmar office samples of cotton grown on one of the Woodcock farms in Wicomico county.

Mr. James A. McAllen, of Princess Anne, is doing the brick work on the annex to the Peninsula Produce Exchange building in Pocomoke City.

Messrs. M. Guy Walker and Harry W. Flurer left last Saturday morning for Elizabeth City, N. C. They expect to be employed in that city for four months or more.

Mr. W. O. Lankford, one of our leading merchants, is using the whole of our second page advertising his "Holiday Specials"—he has what you want for Christmas presents even if you do not see it in the advertisement.

A subscription card party, for the benefit of the Princess Anne Public Library, was held at the Washington Hotel last Wednesday evening. Between forty and fifty persons were present and about $32 was realized from the entertainment.

Mr. George B. Sterling died at his home in Crisfield last Wednesday morning of heart trouble, aged 63 years. Mr. Sterling was assistant postmaster of Crisfield for eight years, but had been connected with the postal railway service for several years past, running from Crisfield to Philadelphia. He was twice married and leaves a widow and six children.

With a crowded house to greet them and encouragement spoken by gifted orators, 129 young men and women of the 27th Golden College graduating class reached the parting of the ways in The Playhouse at Wilmington, Del., Monday night of last week. Among the graduates were Messrs. James Leonard Hall, of Dames' Quarter, and William Horner, of Monie.

Former State Game Warden Franklin E. Cox, of this county, who was indicted by the grand jury at Annapolis on five separate charges of false pretenses in obtaining funds from the State Comptroller by means of false vouchers, is held for trial under bail of $1,500, $300 being the amount fixed for each offense. The five indictments charge as many offenses committed at different times.

A change of schedule of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad will take effect on November 30th. According to the new schedule the southbound train will arrive at Princess Anne as follows: 3:38 a. m., 7:30 a. m., 12:38 p. m., 2:11 p. m., 7:53 p. m., 10:52 p. m. North bound—7:02 a. m., 10:47 a. m., 2:09 p. m., 3:19 p. m., 9:35 p. m. and 11:56 p. m. The Company's schedule will be corrected next week.

Four or five students of the Wicomico High School submitted essays at the contest of Maryland Week on the subject, "The Relation of Agriculture to the material Development of Maryland," and one of them, Clarence W. Miles, was awarded the medal for the best essay submitted from Wicomico county. The winner went to Baltimore last Friday, accompanied by Superintendent Holloway, to receive the medal. Mr. Miles is a son of Mr. Alonzo L. Miles, a prominent attorney of Salisbury, and a nephew of Hon. Joshua W. Miles, of Princess Anne.

Paint or Not

Is a horse worth more or less after feed?

Hay and oats are high today; shall I wait today and feed him tomorrow?

That's how men do about painting their houses and barns and fences. Paint has been high for several years; and so they have waited. Paint is high yet; they are still waiting; thousands of 'em are waiting for paint to fall.

Their property drops a trifle a year and the next job of paint creeps up creeps up creeps up; it'll take more paint by a gallon a year; they don't save a cent, and the property goes on suffering.

DEVOTE

C. H. Hayman sells it.

The one man in the world who thoroughly believes in hero worship is the hero.

The Fall Term of the public schools closed on November 11th. Last week the teachers received checks for their salaries and other school accounts for the term.

Mrs. George E. Fleetwood and son, of Fairmount, and Mrs. Wm. T. Miller, of Pocomoke City, spent a few days last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. John W. Fleetwood.

Do not fail to attend the Minstrel Show at the Auditorium next Friday night. The admission price will only be 25 and 35 cents. Reserved seats now on sale at B. H. Dougherty's store.

An editor who started about 20 years ago with only 55 cents is now worth $100,000. His accumulations of wealth are owing to his frugality, good habits, strict attention to business and the fact that an uncle died and left him $99,999.

"Maryland Week" which opened in Baltimore last Tuesday and continued until Saturday, was largely attended by country farmers. Maryland Week was largely educational, with exhibits from the experimental station of the Maryland Agricultural College and with speakers of national importance. Scientific farming means larger and better crops and the results of scientific farming were shown during Maryland Week.

Last Thursday President Wilson sent to the Senate the nomination of the following postmasters for Maryland: C. W. Jefferson, at Federalburg; J. F. Pesch, at North East; Mary Tise, at Hyattsville. Messrs. Jefferson and Pesch have the endorsement of Representative Covington and Miss Tise was recommended for reappointment by Representative Smith. There will be, accordingly, no delay in their confirmation by the Senate.

Christmas gift givers this year will not be forced to lick their own stamps when they wish to, for the Postoffice Department announced last week that postmasters and their assistants would attend to that duty if requested. The innovation is put in force in the interests of better mail service during the holiday rush and is expected to facilitate the movement of the vast crush of matter that will tax the resources of the department's army of employees.

Tonight

Tonight, if you feel dull and stupid, or bilious and constipated, take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you will feel all right tomorrow. For sale by all Dealers.

(Advertisement)

Public Sale

—OF A—

Black Percheron Stallion

AT POCOMOKE CITY

Saturday, Nov. 29th, 1913.

We, the undersigned, offer for sale the handsome Black Percheron Stallion named "Brewster" with pedigree and papers; 5 years old and will weigh 1640 pounds. Anyone wishing to purchase a stallion will miss a great chance by not purchasing this one. He is one of the finest on the Eastern Shore—a sure foaler.

W. P. EVANS, Pocomoke City, Md.
E. C. HOLLOWAY, Snow Hill, Md.
N. J. MILLER, Rehoboth, Md.

Public Sale

—OF—

Horses and Mules

I will sell at public sale at my stable in Oriole, Maryland, on Wednesday, Dec. 10th, 1913, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m., the following personalty, viz: Twenty High Class Horses and Mules, Good Milch Cows, Yoke of Oxen, Wren Buggy, good as new; Wagon and Three Sets of Harness.

TERMS OF SALE:—On sums of $10 and under cash; over that amount a credit of four months will be given on payable note with approved security, bearing interest from day of sale.

HARRY T. PHOEBUS.

LOCAL TALENT

MINSTREL SHOW

Auditorium, Princess Anne

FRIDAY,

NOVEMBER 28th

First Part

Musical Comedy

Second Part

6 Vaudeville Acts 6

Third Part

Comedy Farce—1 Act

"CARELESS CUPID"

Admission, 25 and 35 Cts.

Tickets on sale at

B. H. Dougherty's Store

Many Places To Fill

Much quiet interest is being taken in political circles in the appointments which will be made to the major Federal offices in this State, notwithstanding the terms of most of the incumbents do not expire for several months. And a good deal of equally quiet work is being done by the various elements interested.

The offices to be filled, the present incumbents, the salaries and the expirations of the present terms are as follows:

Collector of Customs, William F. Stone, $7,000; June, 1914.

Surveyor of Port, Robert A. Ravenscroft, $4,500; June, 1914.

Naval Officer, vacant, $5,000. Term of Albert G. Towers, resigned, would have expired June, 1914.

Appraiser, J. Carlisle Wilmer, $3,000; June, 1914.

Collector of Internal Revenue, John B. Hanna, $4,500; serves at pleasure of Treasury Department.

District Attorney, John Philip Hill, $4,000; April, 1914.

Assistant District Attorney, J. Craig McLanahan, $2,000; April, 1914.

United States Marshal, George W. Padgett, $3,500; July, 1914.

Sub-Treasurer, C. C. Pusey, $4,500; July, 1915.

Cause of Insomnia

The most common cause of insomnia is disorders of the stomach and constipation. Chamberlain's Tablets correct these disorders and enable you to sleep.

For sale by all Dealers.

(Advertisement)

Master Harold Hendrie as interactor and Messrs. R. M. Cares and P. A. Walker joke smiths at the Minstrel Show next Friday night.

A Night of Terror

Few nights are more terrible than these of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by all Dealers.

(Advertisement)

Public Sale

The undersigned will sell at public sale where he now resides, at the Monie drawbridge, about 7 miles west of Princess Anne, on

Wednesday, Dec. 3rd, 1913,

beginning at 10 o'clock a. m., the following personalty, viz: Two horses, 2 mares, black colts, 3 years old, milch cow, will be fresh in February; fat hog, 10 chickens, 300 bushels of corn, 10 stacks of fodder, some long fodder, 40 bushels of white potatoes, some sweet potatoes, 3 baskets of onions, two-horse wagon, carriage, road wagon, dearborn wagon, harness, plows and other farming implements and a lot of household and kitchen furniture.

Terms of Sale:—On all sums of $10.00 and under cash; over that amount a credit of four months will be given on payable note with approved security, bearing interest from day of sale.

VICTOR J. WILSON.

Town Ordinance

BE IT ORDAINED AND ENACTED, By the President and Commissioners of Princess Anne—

(1) That no person shall open, within the limits of said town of Princess Anne, any street or public way for the purpose of making connection with any of the sewers or water mains belonging to said town, without first obtaining from the said President and Commissioners, a written permit in the name of the owner of the property for which such connection is to be made. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be subject to a fine of $5.00 for each and every offense.

(2) That every person who shall tap or enter, under a permit herebefore provided, or otherwise, any of the water mains belonging to said town, shall be required to pay a fee of $5.00 for each and every dwelling house, office, store or other building to be served with water from the said water main by reason of such connection, and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the said President and Commissioners of Princess Anne, to collect such fees from the owners of all property so served.

(3) Any person who shall tap or enter any of the sewer pipes belonging to the said town of Princess Anne, or who shall tap or enter any private sewer, which empties into the sewer pipes belonging to said town, shall be required to pay to the President and Commissioners of Princess Anne, the sum of $50.00 for every residence, store, office or other building that may be equipped with bath room, and the sum of $25.00 for every residence, store, office or other building not equipped with bath room, which may be served by such entering or tapping, provided that should any such residence, store, office or other building, which has been permitted to connect with said sewer upon the payment of the said fee of $25.00, at any time thereafter, be equipped with bath room, thereby becoming an additional burden upon the sewers of the said town, in such event the owner of said residence, store, office or other building shall be required to pay to the said President and Commissioners of Princess Anne the additional sum of $25.00, and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the said President and Commissioners of Princess Anne, to collect such fees from the parties chargeable therewith, immediately upon the tapping or entering of said sewers or the installation of bath room equipments as hereinbefore provided.

By order of

J. DOUGLASS WALLOP, Pres.

COLUMBUS LANKFORD,

A. E. KRAUSE, Secretary.

Passed Nov. 21st, 1913

ELTON H. ROSS,

THE BARBER,

Sanitary Shop—Three Chairs—Clean Towels—Hot and Cold Water.

PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

Slab Wood For Sale

Pine, Gum and Oak Slab Wood, stove lengths, delivered in Princess Anne, $3.50 per measured cord. Address

BENJAMIN & GRAHAM CO., Salisbury, Md.

Dr. C. W. PURNELL, OPTOMETRIST.

of Cambridge, will be at O. A. Jones' Drug Store on Monday afternoon Dec. 1st, 1913.

Glasses prescribed and furnished when necessary.

GORDON T. WHELTON

County Surveyor

Crisfield, Maryland

At Princess Anne Every Tuesday OFFICE IN COURT HOUSE (Formerly used by Tax-Collectors)

Bridge Closed

During the construction of the concrete bridge over the Manokin river, the old Red Bridge will be closed to traffic. All persons are hereby warned not to trespass thereon.

By order of the BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Children Cry

FOR FLETCHER'S

CASTORIA

If You are Going to BUILD or REPAIR

IT WILL PAY YOU TO SEE US BEFORE BUYING

Our stock of Lumber is complete. Now is the time to repair that roof—we have the following shingles to offer you:

4x24 Cedar Shingles $ 5.75 per M

6x18 " " 8.00 per M

6x20 " " 8.50 per M

6x20 No. 1 Florida Hearts 12.50 per M

6x20 No. 2 " 10.00 per M

6x20 No. 1 " Saps 10.00 per M

6x18 No. 1 " Hearts 10.50 per M

6x18 " " Primes 9.00 per M

Princess Anne Milling Co., PRINCESS ANNE, MARYLAND

Call and See My Full Line of

Ranges, Cook Stoves, Heaters

"Tip-Top" Hot Blast Stoves

Also "WILSON" HEATERS

PRICES TO SUIT THE PURCHASER

QUALITY OF STOVES THE BEST

E. S. PUSEY

Main Street—North of Washington Hotel PRINCESS ANNE, MARYLAND

RINGS RINGS RINGS

Wedding Rings, Birthday Rings, Signet Rings—Rings of every description. Doing business on a big scale enables us to give you the best values.

Buy a Ring here—for him, for her, or for yourself

$1 to $100 or $1000

Are you coming to Baltimore soon? If not, write Mr. Crooks to send the articles you wish. Make your choice in your own home.

C. C. CROOKS CO.

114 W. BALTIMORE ST., BALTIMORE.

The Best Store

114 W. BALTIMORE ST., BALTIMORE.

SUITS

COATS

Dress

Goods

SILKS

DICK

FURNITURE

PARLOR, LIBRARY

THANKSGIVING PRAYER

By CORA M. W. GREENLEAF

Fill thou my heart with gratitude today
For every friendly word and kindly smile
And on the smallest blessing long the way
That cheers my saddened heart a little while
I thank thee for the sunshine and the rain;
I thank thee for my laughter and my pain;
I thank thee for the common things of life
When want and need and poverty are rife.
I thank thee, Lord, that grief can't always last;
That there's an end to sorrow's darkest day
Then give me gratitude for pleasures past,
My joys that thou hast sent fit to take away.
The treasures that were lent me for awhile
And then recalled, O help me, Lord, to smile
And say, "Thy will be done," sincere and true.
And give me work these empty hands can do.
For all my cruel sorrow and mistakes
I humbly offer thanks to thee today.
If thou hast learned to soothe a heart that aches
Or turn some wanderer's feet back to the way
That leads to home and heaven and peace and God,
Thus only can I thank thee for the red,
Go help another mourner to bear his loss,
Thus only can I learn to hush thy cross.

A Real Cause for Thankfulness.
A happy maid hugged herself wildly in
The shades of the Thanksgiving night
She laughed and skittered with joy in her Till her face was a beautiful sight.
The great name was over. The deed she Had done.
Was dispersed now by victory's sun.
The football eleven her lover belonged to Had finished the season—and won!
—New York Times.

Thanksgiving Contrasts.
The burglar's thankful that He's out.
The politician that he's in.
The new reporter for a week.
The seasoned gambler for a win.
The tourist that at last he's Off.
The erstwhile victim that He's on.
The slither when he has Arrived.
The auctioneer when all is Done.
Some "toll" when with time
The turkey is he isn't dressed.
—Bunice Ward in Fock.

A Mouse and a Candle.
At the end of the bathing season a few years ago a candle was left on the mantelpiece of a family in Poughkeepsie, France. When they returned the next spring they found, according to La Nature, that a mouse had done these things:
Climbed somehow a marble chimney place, there being no piece of furniture near enough to leap from and no way of descending from above.
Climbed the candlestick itself, which was of highly polished silver, over ten inches high, with a broad flare at the top.
Climbed the candle, began eating at the top, eating evenly all round down to the base, leaving the bare wick standing perfectly straight.
If the mouse had begun at the base of the candle its weight would have caused it to topple over. It must have taken the mouse a good many days to eat the candle down to the bottom.

The English Channel.
One of the most famous bits of water in the world is the English channel, which separates and yet unites the island countries of England and France and has been the scene of so much of their history. It extends on the English side from Land's End to Dover and on the French side from the island of Ushant to Calais. Its entrance from the German ocean is the strait of Dover, twenty-one miles wide, while at the other extremity, where it joins the Atlantic, it is 100 miles from shore to shore. The greatest width midway is 150 miles. Owing to the strong current setting in from the westward, the high winds which frequently prevail and the configuration of the shores it has a roughness which has become proverbial and few cross it without sickness.

Utilizing Smelter Slag.
Smelter slag is utilized for brick-making purposes in Germany. At the government iron smelter near Amberg the slag is crushed to a sand, mixed with water and pressed into dark gray bricks, which are allowed to dry in the open air. They are sold at the factory for $4.70 per thousand, but their quantity is limited and their use largely local. It is noteworthy, however, that only since the discovery of this process have these government smelters earned any profits for the state.

A Forgetmenot.
Citizen—You ought to know something about flora and that sort of thing.
Tell me, what is a "forgetmenot"?
Suburban—Why, it's a piece of string that your wife ties around your finger when you go in town on an errand.
—Philadelphia Press.

A HAPPY HOME

Is one where health abounds.
With impure blood there cannot be good health.
With a disordered LIVER there cannot be good blood.

Tutt's Pills

revivify the torpid LIVER and restore its natural action.

A healthy LIVER means pure blood.
Pure blood means health.
Health means happiness.
Take no Substitute. All Druggists.

AN APOSTROPHE TO THE TURKEY.

Yet the Noble Bird is Not Essential to Thanksgiving.

TURKEY roasted good and brown, stuffed with chestnuts and oysters, served with luscious cranberry sauce; turkey that really is turkey and needs neither a sign nor a telescope to proclaim its identity;
real Thanksgiving turkey, that when properly masticated and swallowed reduces the eater to a condition of absolute contentment that enables him to greet the man with the gas bill with a pleasant smile without straining his conscience!

That is the sort of bird that should grace every table in the land this Thanksgiving day. Of course it will not be found in every family, for turkeys are expensive and times are hard, but in these holiday times of good cheer it is a poor sort of person who cannot stretch his imagination far enough to put a pair of wings on a juicy beefsteak. If turkeys are beyond the limits of the purse try something else, be it a two ribbed roast or a more modest lot of chops. Just because a fellow can't have a turkey is no reason why he should be cross and ugly, for if he just brings himself to believe it a roast or a couple of chops are just as good as a turkey any day.
Try to be happy on Thanksgiving day, even if the absence of turkey brings on incipient spasms.

Why and how the turkey first became linked with the religious holiday do not appear unless the good folks of old thought it but right and proper to feed the stomach and the mind together and selected the turkey because of its many epicurean virtues as the stomach's best friend. It is enough to know that the festival day and the proud bird are associated for all time to come.

CONFIRMED TESTIMONY

The kind Princess Anne Readers Cannot Doubt

Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test.
The test of time—the hardest test of all.
Thousands gratefully testify.
To quick results—to lasting results.
Princess Anne readers can no longer doubt the evidence.
It's convincing testimony—twice-told and well confirmed.
Princess Anne readers should profit
by these experiences.
O. F. Parks, Landownville, Md., says:
"I suffered for several months from irregularity of the kidneys and at night my rest was broken. There was sore-ness in my kidneys and if I attempted to stoop or lift, I had sharp twinges. I heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I decided to give them a trial.
I could not have had better results for I was entirely relieved. I willingly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills at all times.
What I said about them in my former statement, given some time ago, still holds good. The cure they made has been permanent."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Tennyson and a Telescope.
Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree in "Thoughts and Afterthoughts" tells this tale of Lord Tennyson: The poet was invited to a certain country house, and all the neighboring luminaries of the county had been invited to meet him. After dinner his host asked whether he would like to look at the stars. Tennyson took up the telescope and, forgetting all else, gazed for twenty minutes at the wonders of the heavens. "Well, what do you think, Mr. Tennyson?" inquired his host. "I don't think much of our country families," Tennyson replied.

Farmers.

Drinking glasses called tumbler owe their name to the fact that they are the successors of the little round silver bowls, so perfectly balanced that, which ever way they were tipped about on the table they tumbled into position again and there remained with the rim upward.

Fairly Lazy.
"Is Jones lazy?"
"Lazy's no name for it. Why, he'll go into a revolving door and then wait for somebody to come in and turn it around."—Judge.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Farm and Garden

MONEY FROM TURKEYS.

One Woman's Great Success With Flock of Bourbon Reds.

"For a number of years I have been interested in raising turkeys," says a woman writer in Farm and Fireside.
"I began operations on a small scale.
Finding it a very profitable experiment and a pleasant pastime, I have enlarged the number of my breeding stock each year. Now I get orders from almost every state in the Union."

"I keep only the Bourbon Reds, and I consider them far ahead of any other kind. As to size, they run well up to the Bronze. They are hardy and healthy and are very gentle and easy to manage."

"Until the turkeys are about a month or two old I yard the busy mother with her poult. After that I let them have the run of the pasture through the daytime, bringing them home each evening to roost. They soon become accustomed to coming home at evening, at which time we give them a good feed of small grain, such as wheat, Kaffir corn or millet, with all the clabber cheese that I have to spare."

"My roosting house opens to the south, with a wire front. I roost them

THE DEAN OF THE FLOCK.

there until they are large enough to fly upon a large outdoors frame. I like to get them to roosting outdoors as early as possible, for the outdoor life is the natural life of the turkey.
Plenty of clear fresh water is necessary to the turkey at all times. After the poult have had their fill the surplus water is emptied and the pans cleaned for the next watering time.

"Since beginning to keep Bourbon Reds I have had no serious trouble with disease. I know nothing of trouble-head from experience. The warding off of disease is easier than the curing of it. I do this by putting a little crude carbolic acid in the drinking water once a week. A large percentage of turkeys that die are from two to three weeks old. They need at that age careful handling, good nourishing food and exercise. As soon as they seem strong enough I turn them out to rustle for themselves, when they can get bugs and worms to eat."

"My nesting house is a long shed with a wire front. My turkeys lay in there, so I have no trouble in gathering the eggs."

"I try to have early hatching, so that by the 1st of November I begin shipping them and continue so long as my supply lasts. Each year the number of orders have exceeded the supply."

HOW TO MAKE THE FARM PAY.

Doan's things the modern way
—that's what makes farm business pay. Paint the barn and mend the fence, use common plain horse sense; change crops, conserve soil, gettin' sure reward for toll, help'n' nature make her yields from the fresh and rested fields.

Mulch the Strawberry Bed.

A strawberry shortcake, evenly ripened, is a splendid stock food for family use and most people prefer it to the ordinary doctor stuff as a matter of taste. This is mentioned now so you will remember to mulch the strawberry bed this fall.

GENERAL FARM NOTES.

Winter plowing seems to be gaining in favor.
Now that the general field work is over keep the manure spreader in daily use.

Barnyard manure, cottonseed meal and acid phosphates are excellent fertilizers for Irish potatoes.

This is a good time to cover the bare spots in the pastures with manure, to be seeded early next spring.

Since alfalfa is a permanent crop, the ground should be prepared with more care than ordinarily, making it level, free from stones or other encum-brances.

Clover is rich in nitrogen, and in homogeneous soils it develops tubercles, which attract nitrogen from the air,
where it is stored in inexhaustible quantities.

In large pastures the animals roam from one especially attractive patch of grass to another, traveling all over the field, and trampling down more than they can eat.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of

Wm. A. Fletcher

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

N. Y., Phila. & Norfolk R. R.—"Cape Charles Route"

Train Schedule in Effect May 25th, 1913

SOUTH-BOUND TRAINS
Leave	49-1049	81	47	45	41
	P.M.	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.	P.M.
New York (Penn. Station)	9 00		8 00	12 03	3 34
Philadelphia	11 15	7 25	10 00	3 00	5 55
Wilmington	11 34	8 19	10 14	3 14	6 33
Baltimore	10 00		9 00	1 35	4 52
NORTH-BOUND TRAINS
Leave	44	82	48	46	80
	A.M.	A.M.	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.
Norfolk	8 00		8 00		6 15
Old Point	8 00		8 45		7 15
Cape Charles	8 00		11 05		9 30
Princess Anne	7 02	10 56	1 10 p.m.	2 38 p.m.	9 35
Salisbury	7 58	11 28	1 35	3 15	10 05
Delmar	7 58	12 15 p.m.	2 00	3 39	10 30
Gravel Branch—Southward
Leave	A.M.	P.M.	P.M.	A.M.	P.M.
Gravel Branch	11 24	3 49	4 35	7 35	4 05
Philadelphia	12 10 p.m.	5 03	5 22	8 20	5 00
Baltimore	12 43	5 36	5 53	9 50	5 01
New York	2 48	8 00	8 00	11 18	7 32
Gravel Branch—Northward
Leave	A.M.	P.M.	P.M.	A.M.	P.M.
King's Creek	7 40	2 25	7 54	Oriskany	6 00
Arrive Oriskany	8 20	3 05	8 40	Ar King's Creek	6 45
No Sunday trains on this branch road.
Trains Nos. 41, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 80, 81, 82 daily except Sunday. 49-1049 and 80-1050 daily. 44-7049 on Sundays leaves Salisbury 8:11 a. m. Princess Anne 9:27; Cape Charles 6:30. Ar- rive at Old Point 8:40 a. m.; Norfolk 9:45 a. m. 80-1050 on Sundays will leave Cape Charles at 9:15 a. m.; Princess Anne, 11:54 p. m.
R. B. COOKE, Traffic Manager.			R. V. MASSEY, Superintendent.

The Baltimore News

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

Published Every Afternoon, Including Sunday

A Newspaper for the Home, for the Family Circle

Covers thoroughly the news of the city, State and country.

Complete market reports.

Buy it from your local newsdealer or order it by mail.

One month.....$3.00 | Six months.....$17.50
Three months.....$9.00 | One year.....$35.00

The Baltimore News, Baltimore, Md.

When Rubbers Become Necessary and your shoes pinch, Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes, is just the thing to use. Always use it for breaking in new shoes. Sold every where, 25c. Sample Free. Address A. A. Olmsted, Le
Boys, N. Y. Don't accept any substitute.

Subscribe for the MARYLANDER AND HERALD

Are You Happy?

If you are it is safe to say that you enjoy good health, as it is impossible to be happy unless you are well. Noted physicians will tell you that bad stomachs and torpid livers are the cause of 95 per cent of all diseases.
For the past 42 years SEVEN BARKS has proved to be the unequalled remedy for all DYSPEPSIA, LIVER and KIDNEY troubles, and the greatest tonic and blood purifier known.
It makes your digestion what it should be and keeps your entire system in good condition. Price of SEVEN BARKS is but 50 cents a bottle at all druggists. Money refunded if not satisfied. Address
LYMAN BROWN, 62 Murray St., New York, N. Y.

Bring your job printing to this office fair prices, good work, done promptly.

PARKE'S HAIR BALM
Cures itching humors, itchy scalp, and restores hair to normal condition. It is the only hair restorer that does not contain mercury or other poisonous ingredients.

To Sell Your Farm You Need the Service of a Specialist.

Every month several owners of farms find purchasers through me.
Finding prospective buyers is my business. Perhaps the farm you have for sale would be just what one of these prospective purchasers wants.
Hav'n't you better see?

FRANK LANO,
REAL ESTATE BROKER,
Princess Anne, Md.

Baltimore, Chesapeake & Atlantic

Railway Company.

RAILWAY DIVISION.

Schedule effective Sept. 22d, 1913.

EAST BOUND.

5 11 9 8

Lv. Baltimore.....7:30 8:00 4:10 6:15

Salisbury.....1:44 8:45 9:55 11:55

Ar. Ocean City.....9:45 11:00 12:55

WEST BOUND.

6 10 14

Lv. Ocean City.....6:30 8:15 2:45

Salisbury.....1:44 8:45 9:55 11:55

Ar. Baltimore.....1:30 9:30 9:30

Daily except Sunday. (Saturday only, Daily except Saturday and Sunday.)

T. MURDOCH, Gen. Pass. Agt. I. E. JONES, Div. Pass. Agt.

WILLARD THOMSON, General Manager.

E. O. WATSON, UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.

PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

First-class work at reasonable prices. I am prepared to answer calls day or night.
My wife and myself will prepare the body for burial. Funerals promptly attended to.

CASKETS, COFFINS, ROBES

AND SHROUDS

always on hand. I was raised in the business. You can notify me or my wife at my residence, opposite Postoffice, when I am not at home.

MAIN STREET, PRINCESS ANNE

PICTURES FRAMED TO ORDER.

The Baltimore American

ESTABLISHED 1778.

THE DAILY AMERICAN.

Terms By Mail, Postage Prepaid:

Daily, one month.....$3.25
Daily and Sunday, one month.....$4.50
Daily, three months.....$10.00
Daily and Sunday, three months.....$12.50
Daily, six months.....$18.00
Daily and Sunday, six months.....$22.50
Daily, one year.....$35.00
Daily with Sunday edition, one year.....$40.00
Sunday edition, one year.....$15.00

THE TWICE-A-WEEK AMERICAN

The Cheapest and Best Family Newspaper

Published.

ONLY ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

Six Months, 50 Cents.

THE TWICE-A-WEEK AMERICAN is published in two issues, Tuesday and Friday mornings, with the news of the week in compact shape. It also contains special correspondence, entertaining romances, good poetry, local matter of general interest and fresh miscellany suitable for the home circle.
A carefully-edited Agricultural Department and full and reliable Financial and Market Reports, are special features.
Entered at the Postoffice at Baltimore, Md., as second-class matter, April 12, 1904.

CHAS. C. FULTON & CO.,

FELIX AGNUS, Manager and Publisher

AMERICAN BUILDING, BALTIMORE, MD.

LUNG DISEASE

"After four in our family had died of consumption I was taken with a frightful cough and lung trouble, but my life was saved and I gained 87 pounds through using

DR. KING'S

NEW

DISCOVERY

W. R. Patterson, Wellington, Tex.

PRICE 50c and $1.00 AT ALL DRUGGISTS.

The Baltimore Star

The Leading Evening Paper

of the South.

The Baltimore Star, established August 17
1892, by the publisher of The Baltimore American, has won its place as the representative evening paper of the South. It gives more news and more reading matter than any other afternoon paper in Maryland. It is especially rich in departments—financial, sporting, society, children, women, and to these departments the best writers of America are regular contributors. The Star is the great home paper, with something for every member of the family. It is a cheerful newspaper, with plenty of entertainment, those who try it keep on taking it.
The Star is elaborately illustrated. It has the first photographs of important events.
Its portraits of leading men and women are unequaled.

The Star has two great news services, with wires direct to its offices from all parts of the world. It uses every modern invention and the best enterprise to get all the news.
The Star is different from other Southern papers. It has a quality of its own.

ONE CENT A COPY. One month, 25 cents three months, 75 cents, one year, $3.

Address

Felix Agnus, Manager and Publisher

C. C. FULTON & CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

American Building

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS

DESIGNS

COPYRIGHTS &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether advantage is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.
Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all news-dealers.

MUNN & CO., 361 Broadway, New York

Branch Office, 655 P St., Washington, D. C.

Established 1814.

MONEY in small inventions as well as in large. Send for free booklet. Munn & Co., 361 Broadway, New York,
Branches, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit,
Established 1814.

Burning Property Could Be Saved from Destruction

In many cases if a little care was exercised in building floor bases, defective heating apparatus, bad electric wiring, are responsible for seventy-five per cent. of all fires.

The Home Insurance Company, of New York

maintains a special department at Baltimore for giving information and advice free on proper construction and safe building to prevent fires and reduce insurance rates.

It costs you nothing—may save you much money. Write for information. Address:

The Home Insurance Co.,
A. G. HANCOCK, General Agent,
Home Insurance Building,
BALTIMORE, MARYLAND

Stomach Pains

and indigestion caused a great distress for two years. I tried many things for relief, but nothing helped. Finally I found this in a book and followed the directions.

DR. KING'S New Life Pills

C. E. HANFIELD, Guyan, W. Va.
25 CENT BOTTLE AT ALL DRUGGISTS.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court for Somerset county letters testamentary on the estate of

MARIA F. HANDY, late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscriber on or before the Twenty-sixth Day of February, 1914, or they may otherwise be lawfully excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

Given under my hand this 19th day of August, 1913.

MORTIMER A. WARD,

Executor of Maria F. Handy, deceased.

True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER,

Register of Wills.

Rheumatism Neuralgia Sprains

Mrs. C. M. M. of 2708 K. St., W. Washington, D. C., writes: "I suffered with Rheumatism for five years and I have just got relief from Sloan's Liniment, and it has done me so much good. My knees do not pain and the swelling has gone."

...Quies the Nerves
Mrs. A. W. of 408 Thompson St., Maryland, writes: "The nerve in my wrist was destroyed five years ago and left me with a terrible pain at night that I could not sleep. Sloan's Liniment has done me so much good. My wrist is now as good as new and I can sleep at night."

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

"It's a good Liniment. I keep it on hand all the time. My daughter sprained her wrist and used your Liniment, and it has not hurt her since."

JOSEPH HATCHER, of Selma, N. C., R. F. D. No. 4.

At All Dealers

Price

Bottle, 50c; 3, $1.00

Sloan's Liniment is sold in bottles of 50c and $1.00.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

JOB TANNER'S THANKSGIVING DINNER

By HOPE DARING.

"YOU can't give a Thanksgiving dinner this year. Brother Job. That's sure."

"Can't, hey? I'd like to know what's to hinder."

Mrs. Abigail Skinner raised her hands in horror. "Now, Job, you know the Tanner Thanksgiving dinners are not among our relatives. You don't mean to tell me that you'd dare to give a dinner to our family—the Tanners—while Sally Long does your housework. The idea is outrageous."

Mr. Tanner made no reply. For the space of two minutes silence reigned in the sitting room of the Tanner farmhouse—a silence broken only by the ticking of the clock and the drowsy purring of the big Maltese cat as she arched her back for the slow stroking of her master's hand.

At last Mrs. Skinner spoke with a degree less than her usual assurance. "Of course I'd do anything for you. My years of service to you have proved that. Under the circumstances I am sure Mr. Skinner will consent to overseeing the preparations. I will come Monday and."

"Oh, I wouldn't think of putting you to the trouble," her brother interrupted her to say. "You talk about years of service. That's enough."

Mrs. Skinner's thin, dark face flushed, and she moved uneasily in the cushioned rocker. "You'll have to have my help, Job. Sally can't cook a dinner fit to set before our family."

"See here, Abigail," and into the abrupt but kindly blue eyes of Job Tanner came a look his sister understood. "There's no use talking about this matter. I shall give my usual Thanksgiving dinner, and I shall not need your services."

Job Tanner had never married. In his early manhood his only sister had been left a widow with four small children. Her share of their father's property was gone, so Job unhesitatingly offered himself and family a home. For twenty years he had cared for them, educating the children and submitting to Abigail's exactions.

At last the boys and girls were all settled in life. Then their mother married Mr. Skinner. She was a grasping, covetous woman and upon learning that her new husband was a far less wealthy man than she had supposed tried to retain her olden sway over her brother's domestic affairs.

"I don't see my way out of it," Job admitted to himself. "Thanksgiving is only ten days off. Sally's good enough in her way, but she is a poor cook and no kind of a housekeeper. That was Abigail's strong point—she kept my house well. I'd as soon have Sally's work, though, as to have Abigail's scolding and whining. But it will never do to set company down to a Thanksgiving dinner cooked by Sally. Let me see."

The November sunshine lay warm and mellow over the brown fields, heaps of russet leaves bordered the roadside, and the voices of the men at work in a field near by came to him on the clear air. His eyes swept the familiar landscape. Suddenly he started.

"If she only would! Mary's a prime cook, and they say she is glad of a chance to earn a little money. Poor Mary! It's a shame Clemens didn't leave her enough to take care of herself. Well, I'll go over and see her this evening."

The Widow Clemens and Job had been schoolmates. There had been a time when he had hoped that they might be still more to each other, but a misunderstanding had arisen between them, and before it was explained she was the wife of Will Clemens.

The door was opened by Mrs. Clemens herself. She was a plump little woman with soft black eyes and a sweet voice.

"Why, Job, I am glad to see you. Walk in, I'll have to give you a seat in the kitchen, as there is no fire in the other room."

"How cozy you are here, Mary!" Then he plunged at once into his trouble. He told of his firm determination to give his usual Thanksgiving dinner and his still firmer resolve not to accept Abigail's proffered help.

"I want you to come and plan it all," he said in conclusion. "You can have all the money to spend and all the help you want. I don't mean that you shall work hard. Will you help me, Mary?"

A delicate pink colored her cheek. "Mrs. Skinner—what will she say?"

"It's none of her business. Say yes, Mary. I'll pay you anything you like."

She raised her head a little proudly. "Of course I will ask you no more than any one else," she began, but he broke in gladly:

"Which means that you will come. Thank you, Mary."

All the way home Job Tanner was contrasting the cozy little house he had just left with his own spacious but lonely abode. Meanwhile Mrs. Clemens was assuring herself that she was regarded by her late caller only in the light of a capable servant.

She went to her field of labor early on the Monday morning before Thanksgiving. Sally was a warm admirer of Mrs. Clemens and helped in her usual careless fashion. All things for which Mary asked were provided, even to a box of cut flowers from a neighboring city.

Thanksgiving morning dawned, gray and overcast. About 8 o'clock Job entered the house from the barn.

"Miss Clemens, she said for you to come in the dinin' room and see how things looked," was Sally's greeting.

When he opened the door he stood speechless. The old room was transformed into a bower of beauty. The bay window was filled with evergreens and adorned with yellow chrysanthemums and silver leaved hollyhocks from Mary's home. The quaint old mahogany sideboard was filled with choice bits of china and silver, quivering molds of amber jelly, a massive silver cake basket filled with slices of rich, dark fruit cake and a bowl of scarlet carnations. The long table was spread with fine linen and ornamented with smilax and roses. On a low vine draped stand between the side windows was a pyramid of apples, oranges and bananas.

"It all looks good enough to eat. And so do you," he went on, noting her well fitting brown gingham dress, white apron and pink ribbon at her throat. "Mary, you make my home a paradise. Stay here as my wife."

She grew very pale. Twice she essayed to speak, but the words died on her lips. It was not until he came nearer that she found her voice.

"No, no. You ask me because you

AFTER SICKNESS OR OPERATION

It is a pathetic mistake to accept drugs or alcoholic mixtures when nature craves nourishment to restore the wasted body and restore the vigor of health.

For forty years the best physicians have relied on the wholesome predigestion of nourishment in Scott's Emulsion which is totally free from alcohol or opiates.

Scott's Emulsion sharpens the appetite—renews blood—nourishes nerves—strengthens bones and restores the courage of health to make life bright.

Scott's Emulsion sets in action the very forces that promote health; it is pure, rich strength.

you want. I don't mean that you shall work hard. Will you help me, Mary?"

"Mrs. Skinner—what will she say?"

"It's none of her business. Say yes, Mary. I'll pay you anything you like."

She raised her head a little proudly. "Of course I will ask you no more than any one else," she began, but he broke in gladly:

"Which means that you will come. Thank you, Mary."

All the way home Job Tanner was contrasting the cozy little house he had just left with his own spacious but lonely abode. Meanwhile Mrs. Clemens was assuring herself that she was regarded by her late caller only in the light of a capable servant.

She went to her field of labor early on the Monday morning before Thanksgiving. Sally was a warm admirer of Mrs. Clemens and helped in her usual careless fashion. All things for which Mary asked were provided, even to a box of cut flowers from a neighboring city.

Thanksgiving morning dawned, gray and overcast. About 8 o'clock Job entered the house from the barn.

"Miss Clemens, she said for you to come in the dinin' room and see how things looked," was Sally's greeting.

When he opened the door he stood speechless. The old room was transformed into a bower of beauty. The bay window was filled with evergreens and adorned with yellow chrysanthemums and silver leaved hollyhocks from Mary's home. The quaint old mahogany sideboard was filled with choice bits of china and silver, quivering molds of amber jelly, a massive silver cake basket filled with slices of rich, dark fruit cake and a bowl of scarlet carnations. The long table was spread with fine linen and ornamented with smilax and roses. On a low vine draped stand between the side windows was a pyramid of apples, oranges and bananas.

"It all looks good enough to eat. And so do you," he went on, noting her well fitting brown gingham dress, white apron and pink ribbon at her throat. "Mary, you make my home a paradise. Stay here as my wife."

She grew very pale. Twice she essayed to speak, but the words died on her lips. It was not until he came nearer that she found her voice.

"No, no. You ask me because you

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Fitch

Sore Throat Prudence.

No family medicine chest is well stocked without a bottle of TONSILINE, for you don't know what moment it may be needed to relieve a sudden case of Sore Throat.

Relieving Sore Throat is TONSILINE's special mission. It is made for that—advised for that—sold for that one purpose. TONSILINE is the one and only Sore Throat Remedy which is sold over a large part of the United States. You'll need TONSILINE one of these days, or some night when the drug store is closed—better have a bottle ready at home when you need it most. 25c and 50c. Hospital Size $1.00. All Druggists.

Rev. Irl R. Hicks 1914 Almanac

The Rev. Irl R. Hicks 1914 Almanac is now ready and will be mailed prepaid for only 35c. Professor Hicks' Fine Magazine, Word and Works, for one year, and a copy of this Almanac for only one dollar. The plain lessons on astronomy, and the correct forecasts of storms, droughts, blizzards and tornadoes, makes these publications a necessity in every home in America. Send to Word and Works Publishing Company, 3401 Franklin Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri.

This Will Interest Mothers

Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for children relieve Feverishness, Headache, Bad Stomach, Teething Disorders, move and regulate the bowels and destroy worms. They break up Colds in 24 hours. Used by mothers for 24 years. All Druggists 25c. Sample free. Address A. S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

WE WANT YOU

Things don't turn up in this world until somebody turns them up.—James A. Garfield.

THE THANKSGIVING GIRL

By EDGAR A. GUEST

YOU may boast of the maiden of summer. And brag of the maiden of June; Your winter girl may be a hummer.

To skate with and lovingly spoon; You may boast of the lassie bewitching In hobbie skirt, store puff and curl; But give me the maid of the kitchen— The reliable Thanksgiving girl.

For you be the maiden entrancing With eyes that are soulfully brown. I'm married and done with romancing, Past forty and now settled down. No foot for the dance or the mazy, Delightfully soul stirring whirl, But I tell you, my lads, she's a daisy— The gay, buxom Thanksgiving girl.

I'm forty; there's no use denying. The lassies no longer attract Or set me to woefully sighing. I'm sordidly matter of fact. I've long ceased to notice their dresses. I'm crabbed, perhaps, and a churl, But at forty a fellow God blesses— The gay, buxom Thanksgiving girl.

The girl who can get up a dinner Of turkey and stuffing and pie And set it before an old sinner— Well, just such a sinner as I— And smile at the kids while I'm carving Is a lulu, a peach and a pearl. Here, Nellie, although I am starving, God bless you, my Thanksgiving girl —Detroit Free Press.

are sorry for me and your home is lonely. I cannot be your wife on these terms."

"I do not see why you cannot. I will be good to you, Mary."

She smiled, although her lips quivered pitifully. "I know you would, Job. There is something else."

"Not another man?"

"Oh, no. Please don't ask any more."

"I have a right to know. You must tell me why you cannot be my wife."

There was a grave dignity in his voice that she could not gainsay. She must tell him the truth.

"Because I love you, Job Tanner. Nay, do not interrupt me. You would indeed be good to me, but I know too well the result of a union where the love is all on one side, and so I will not be your wife. Now, not a word more on the subject. I have outraged my sense of womanly pride, but you made me speak." And before he could recover from his astonishment she had taken refuge in the kitchen.

The guests began to arrive in a short time. Job had no opportunity for another word with Mrs. Clemens. One fact was plain to him—Mary had refused him.

Dinner over, there was an hour of social intercourse. Then the guests departed. When Job re-entered the house, after seeing the last load drive off, he found Sally washing the dishes.

"Where is Mrs. Clemens, Sally?" he asked.

Sally paused, discloth in one hand and a half washed plate in the other. "Where, indeed?" He recognized the tone as one that

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

St. Peter's
Nov. 22—Mr. Mitchell Laird, of Virginia, is visiting at Monie.
Miss Eva Bozman, who has been very ill with bronchitis, is now convalescing.
Mr. Harvey Bozman, who has been on the sick list during the past week, is improving.
Miss Olive Short, after spending a few days at the home of Mr. B. F. Laird, returned to Laurel, Del., Thursday.
Miss Wilgus and Mr. Derickson, of Roxanna, Del., visited Miss Bessie Stallings at the Methodist Episcopal Parsonage last week.
Mr. William Horner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Horner, a student of Goldsboro College, Wilmington, Del., attended the graduating exercises of the class of 1913, last Monday evening, of which he was a member.

Landover
Nov. 21—Mrs. E. J. Parks is visiting relatives in Baltimore.
Miss Juanita E. Ford spent Friday last in Salisbury.
Mrs. Martha Tyler is visiting relatives in Baltimore.
Mr. Charles F. Parks returned from Baltimore Friday last.
Mr. William M. Ford was a visitor to Crisfield Wednesday.
Mrs. Melissa Meredith, of Rumbley, was a visitor to this place this week.
Mrs. Rose Holland and little children, are spending the month in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Martin Landon is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Landon.
Mr. Everett Meredith, of Washington, D. C., is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Landon.

West
Nov. 22—Rev. W. Leadford is visiting friends in Virginia.
Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dennis moved to Salisbury this week.
Miss Eva E. Ball, who has been on the sick list, is improving.
Miss Edith F. Ball is spending some time with her cousin, Mrs. G. W. Farlow, at Salisbury.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Collins and son, of Girdlestone, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ruark.
Mrs. Cleveland Taylor, of Cape Charles, Va., who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Allison S. Dennis, has returned home.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Richards, of Pocomoke City; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dryden, of Snow Hill; Mr. and Mrs. George Bounds, of Snow Hill; Miss Annie Pusey and Miss Mary Lankford, of Princess Anne, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pusey, Sunday.

Deal's Island
Nov. 21—Mrs. Mollie Walter is visiting friends in Baltimore.
Mr. Clifford Kirwan visited Baltimore this week.
Mrs. Lillie Webster, of Salisbury, was a welcome guest on the island this week.
Owing to her health, Mrs. Arthur Anderson, left Monday evening for Alabama, where she will spend the winter.
A card party and social was given at the home of Miss Saydie Webster on Thursday evening of this week. The evening was delightfully spent, part enjoying a game of cards, while the rest indulged in various amusements. After these refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Dula Benton, Elizabeth Anderson, Fannie Porter, Lydia Horner, Reta Anderson, Marie Bradshaw, Addie Bradshaw, Messrs. Harold Bradshaw, Warren Bozman, Frank Anderson, Clifford Kirwan, John Horner, Brown Webster and R. L. Corkran.
On Wednesday evening, the young people of the island gave a surprise party at the parsonage. The evening was delightfully spent in various amusements after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Reta Anderson, Elizabeth Anderson, Norma Bradshaw, Reba Crosswell, Dula Benton, Saydie Webster, Marie Bradshaw, Marguerite White, Olive Dashiell, Martha Webster, Agnes Webster, Louise Thomas, Orpah Tankersley, Anita Webster, Lydia Horner, and Mesdames Maggie Teas, Gertie Collier, Lottie Ringgold, Messrs. Harold Bradshaw, Warren Bozman, Elwood Tankersley, Paul Tankersley, Frank Anderson, Elmer Simpson, Clifford Kirwan, John Horner, John Webster, Lorin Benton, Noah Webster, Dewey Walter, Edward Teas and Willie Thomas.

Pythian Hall Dedicated
Tuesday afternoon Mountain City Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of Frederick, Md., dedicated its handsome new $50,000 castle hall with appropriate ceremonies. Thomas J. Carling, of Macon, Ga., the supreme chancellor of the order, presided. Judge Glenn H. Worthington, of Frederick, welcomed the visitors. Following Judge Worthington's address, Grand Chancellor B. Frank Shaffer welcomed the visitors on behalf of the Grand Lodge of Maryland. The dedicatory address was by Fred E. Wheaton, of Minneapolis, Minn., supreme keeper of records and seals.
Tuesday night 146 members were received into the order, swelling the membership of Mountain City Lodge to 703. The lodge is the largest of the order in Maryland. Following the initiation there was a banquet. Reno S. Harp was toastmaster.

Nervous and Sick Headaches
Torpid liver, constipated bowels and disordered stomach are the cause of these headaches. Take Dr. King's New Life Pills and you will be surprised how quickly you will get relief. They stimulate the different organs to do their work properly. No better regulator for liver and bowels. Take 25c and invest in a box today. At all druggists or by mail. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis. (Advertisement)

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure
ROYAL—the most celebrated of all the baking powders in the world—celebrated for its great leavening strength and purity. It makes your cakes, biscuit, bread, etc., healthful, it insures you against alum and all forms of adulteration that go with the low priced brands.

Perryhawkin

Nov. 22—Miss Vera Dennis, left this week to spend some time in Cape Charles, Va.
Drs. P. D. West and Mrs. Durant West left Thursday to visit relatives in Baltimore.
Mr. George A. Culver left this week to spend some time at the home of his son, Mr. William Culver, and his daughter, Mrs. Samuel I. Dryden, in Baltimore.
The Miller and Causey family reunion will be held in Perryhawkin Christian Church, Dec. 11th. All members of the two families are invited to be present and bring a well-filled lunch basket. The reunion is expected to open at 10 a. m. and close about 5 p. m. Any one not connected in the two families, who wish to attend, will be welcomed. Rev. L. P. Causey, of Ludlow, Mass., will be present and deliver an address.
The Literary Society met in the school house at Perryhawkin Wednesday evening. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. H. W. Marriner, and the exercises were as follows: Song by the society; recitation, Miss Mary Evans; reading, Miss Emma Todd. After which the question, "Resolved That With the Average Farm Finances a Modern Barn Should Come Before a Modern House," was debated by Messrs. T. W. Marriner and Noah Gibbons for the affirmative and S. A. Evans and Fred Gordy for the negative. The judges decided two for the affirmative and one for the negative.

Declare War On Colds

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:
"Don't sit in a draughty car."
"Don't sleep in hot rooms."
"Don't avoid the fresh air."
"Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Overeating reduces your resistance."
To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by all Dealers. (Advertisement)

—Rough on the Maid.
It is embarrassing when a young lady is in to one young gentleman and out to another, and they happen to call together.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE
High grade Piano for sale on easy terms, or will exchange for a building lot, small farm or small house and lot.
FARMS WANTED
We Can Sell Your Farm
We have several buyers for cheap farms, town properties, building lot propositions and timber lands. If you want to sell with us, write or call for terms and description blanks. If you want to buy anywhere in the United States we can find you what you want, our list will be sent upon request.

TRUITT REALTY CO.,
Salisbury, : : : Maryland

FOR YOUR TEETH "BESCO" (ALKALINE) TOOTH POWDER

The most elegant preparation ever introduced for cleansing, beautifying and preserving the teeth. Prevents the deposit of tartar—the teeth's worst enemy.
The daily use of "BESCO" makes the teeth pearly and white. Guaranteed to contain nothing injurious to the teeth or gums.
A liberal bottle for 25 cents.
If not satisfied after a trial of "BESCO" your money back if you want it.

OMAR A. JONES,
DRUGGIST,
Princess Anne, Maryland

Must File Campaign Expenses

All successful candidates in Baltimore city as well as in every county of the State at the recent elections will be obliged, under the corrupt practices act, to file with Governor Goldsborough a statement of their campaign expenditures before receiving their commissions of office from him. This does not include, however, members of the House of Delegates or state senators, as they do not receive commissions from the chief executive.
This fact was made public Tuesday afternoon after the Governor received an opinion on the question from Attorney General Edgar Allan Poe. "I construed the law to mean that such statements must be filed with me," said the Governor, "and for this reason I asked for an opinion from the Attorney General. I know that it is generally believed that it is only required by the law to file such statements with the clerks of the Circuit Courts."
Copies of the opinion, with a letter asking that the required statements be immediately forwarded so as to avoid delay in the issuance of the necessary commissions, were sent out by the Governor. There were several hundred candidates at the recent elections. Commissions for all have been prepared and are ready to be forwarded.

Saved His Foot

H. D. Ely, of Bantam, O., suffered from a horrible ulcer on his foot for four years. A doctor advised amputation, but he refused and reluctantly tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve as a last resort. He then wrote: "I used your salve and my foot was soon completely cured." Best remedy for burns, cuts, bruises and eczema. Get a box today. Only 25c. All druggists, or by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis. (Advertisement)

A SAFE BANKING PROPOSITION

is what we offer you. The substantial reputation of our Bank can be relied upon. You take no chances when you deposit your savings with us.

WHY TAKE CHANCES
of having the money you've carefully saved, destroyed by fire or thieves when you can open an account here and pay all bills by check. Consult us.

Interest Paid on Savings and Time Accounts...
PEOPLES BANK OF SOMERSET COUNTY, PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

SHIP TO STEVENS BROTHERS

Commission Merchants
226 South Charles Street (Corner of Camden St.)
Baltimore, Maryland
Best possible facilities for selling and handling GRAIN
Salesmen—R. NELSON STEVENS and J. K. B. EMERY.
Reference—Merchants-Mechanics Bank

KUKLUX
KUKLUX, the 3-year-old JACK, will stand at my farm—"Brownstone"—during the ensuing year. Terms, $12.00.
6-10 E. FRANK JONES.

Progress In Forestry Depends On The Public

"Progress in forestry depends more upon what the public permits than upon what foresters and lumbermen perform." This is a conclusion of the forestry committee, as expressed at the conservation congress, in Washington.
"As a consequence," the committee goes on to say, "public education is of prime importance, and the best methods of educating the public demand special study. Since no one else has the interest or the requisite forestry knowledge, foresters and lumbermen must learn this trade or profession in addition to their own."
"It is not forests, but the use of forests, which we seek to perpetuate and therefore to be sound and convincing education must include a knowledge of the lumber business."
In presenting some of the educational devices the committee commended particularly the booklets gotten out by various forest fire protective associations. Another device is a paper drinking cup to be folded by children, each fold telling a pictured story of the growth of a forest fire, and of the evils of its effects. Still another is a match box legend which points out that while a match has a head it cannot think for itself, but is dependent on the thought of the user to keep it from doing harm in the woods.

Stars In Old Glory

A new arrangement of stars in the American flag has been accepted by the War Department. The design is something on the order of the Union Jack, and is so placed as to give more room on the blue field for the additional states which come into the Union. In the center is a huge five-pointed star, composed of 13 stars, representing the 13 original states. About this design is a circle of stars, representing the remaining 25 states.

A miniature flag with the new star arrangement has been presented to President Wilson by Wayne Whipple, of Washington, for his approval.

A Consumptive Cough

A cough that bothers you continually is one of the danger signals which warns of consumption. Dr. King's New Discovery stops the cough, loosens the chest, banishes fever and lets you sleep peacefully. The first dose checks the symptoms and gives prompt relief. Mrs. A. F. Mertz, of Glen Ellyn, Iowa, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery cured a stubborn cough after six weeks doctoring failed to help." Try it, as it will do the same for you. Best remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. Money back if it fails. Price 50 cents and $1.00. All druggists. By mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis. (Advertisement)

T. J. Smith & Co. DRUGGISTS
Princess Anne, Maryland

Full Supply of Drugs, Toilet Articles, Stationery, Etc., Etc.

Agent for All The Rexall Remedies

Rexall Tooth Powder, 20 cts. (this week only)

Prescriptions Carefully Compounded

Five Farms

Have changed hands through the E. A. Strout Farm Agency during the last week in July

I am receiving a great many inquiries as to this section and it looks as though business would be good during the fall. Those that have farms to sell will do well to see me, and I can be found at home any evening after 6 o'clock and will be glad to talk business with you.

H. D. YATES,
Manager,
The E. A. Strout Farm Agency
PRINCESS ANNE, MD.
First Farm South End Main Street.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS—This is to give notice that the subscribers have obtained from the Orphans Court for Somerset county letters of administration on the estate of SARAH F. BELL, (otherwise known as Sarah J. Bell) late of Somerset county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the subscriber on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of April, 1914, or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.
Given under my hand this 22nd day of October, 1913.
JOSEPH W. MAINSTER,
Adm'r of Sarah F. Bell, (otherwise known as Sarah J. Bell), deceased.
True Copy. Test: SIDNEY WALLER,
10-28 Register of Wills.

Bring your Job printing to this office—fair prices, good work, done promptly.

"GRIFFON BRAND" Suits and Overcoats $15.00

For the man who likes something in clothes that is just up to the minute we would suggest a Griffon Suit or overcoat.

All wool garments, hand tailored inside as well as outside. Nifty patterns, correct to fashion, and ready for you to try on.

If you have never seen these "Griffon" Suits or Overcoats at $15, just take a look at them before making your Fall purchase. We think you will like them.

NEW HATS. NEW SHIRTS. NEW NECKWEAR

Boys' Clothing-Knickerbocker Suits from $3 to $7.50

"KING QUALITY" "RALSTON" "FLORSHEIM" SHOES FOR MEN

Shoes for the Whole Family
JOHN W. MORRIS & SON
Clothing for Men and Boys

The BANK of PERSONAL SERVICE

Three Reasons For "Getting Together"

As a business man, you are interested in banking facilities, banking service, bank security.

As bankers, we are interested in giving you the best of these three features, and making them individually attractive.

We therefore have a natural interest that can best be furthered through a banking connection here.

BANK OF SOMERSET
Capital and Surplus $125,000.00
PRINCESS ANNE, MARYLAND

INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSITS

PRINTING That's what We Do Do You Need Any? If so, let us get yur next order MARYLANDER AND HERALD PRINCESSANNE.