

SALISBURY ADVERTISER.
SATURDAY, JAN. 12, 1889.

MUNICIPAL OFFICERS.
MAYOR: A. G. Treadwell, Esq.
CITY COUNCIL: T. H. Williams, R. D. Ellegood, S. S. Smith, J. E. Ellegood, A. G. Treadwell, Esq.

BOARD OF TRADE.
R. Humphreys, Pres.; J. E. Ellegood, Sec'y; A. G. Treadwell, Treas.

SALISBURY NATIONAL BANK.
J. E. Ellegood, Pres.; A. G. Treadwell, Treas.

DIRECTORS.
T. H. Williams, R. D. Ellegood, S. S. Smith, J. E. Ellegood, A. G. Treadwell, Esq.

THE SALISBURY PERMANENT BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.
W. R. Tilghman, Pres.; J. E. Ellegood, Sec'y; A. G. Treadwell, Treas.

WATER COMPANY.
S. P. Dennis, Pres.; L. S. Bell, Sec'y and Treas.

DIRECTORS.
W. H. Jackson, W. R. Tilghman, Simon Ullman.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.
Notes of News About Town, Gathered by the "Advertiser's" Reporters.

—Hon. John W. Crisfield was in town last Wednesday.

—Circuit Court for Somerset county convenes next Monday.

—Mr. C. E. Wootton of Laurel, Del., spent last Thursday with friends in Salisbury.

—The Castaways are playing to packed houses everywhere, and will be here Thursday, Jan. 17th.

—Messrs Harrison Collins and Charles Hopper of Centerville, Md., have purchased the Chestertown Township.

—Gov. Jackson and his staff were present at the New Year's hop given by the Jackson Guards at Bel Air last week.

—Look out for the small ponies in parade Thursday, Jan. 17th and find out what they represent.

—The Sons of Temperance will meet on Tuesday evening, Jan. 15th at half-past seven o'clock. Full attendance urged.

—Walton's postoffice located at Walton's switch, is the latest pouch to Uncle Sam's crib in this county. Mr. John W. Vincent is postmaster.

—Miss Julia Dashiell entertained a party of her young friends last Tuesday evening. Music, dancing, and cards were the features of the occasion.

—We have just received a copy of Hon. E. K. Wilson's tariff speech in the Senate of the United States, on the senate substitute for the Mill's Bill.

—Rev. Mr. Sweet returned Friday morning from Pennsylvania where he was called recently by the death of a near relative. Services as usual to-morrow, Sunday.

—Mr. S. Q. Johnson purchased last week from a gentleman in Baltimore the well-known Eastern Shore horse, "Brown Stout," which he will keep in Salisbury for driving.

—The Nanticoke Steamboat Co.'s steamer, Nanticoke, discontinued her trips between Baltimore and Seaford last Thursday till the spring, when she will again ply the route.

—Reverend meetings are in progress at the M. E. and M. P. churches of this town. Rev. Mr. Dick of Quantico has been assisting Rev. Mr. Lewis of the Methodist Protestant church.

—Rev. W. L. Alexander of Ohio has recently been the guest of Rev. Mr. Eckels. These gentlemen gathered together at Lafayette College in '77, and this was their first meeting since then.

—A colored boy, living at Williams' branch near Salisbury, shot the fingers off his left hand about three weeks ago. Under the skillful treatment of Dr. L. W. Morris the wounds are healing.

—Grayson Parsons, a colored boy of Salisbury, was arrested and brought before Justice Trainer last Sunday for firing a pistol in the streets on Sunday morning. He paid the fine without standing trial and was dismissed.

—A rumor was spread to the wind last Sunday that Silas Leonard, colored, had shot a colored man named Walter, also colored, near Salisbury, and that —The Castaways and Lime-Kin Club will be presented at Ullman's Opera House, Jan. 17th and 18th.

—Married at Quantico on Wednesday, Jan. 2nd by Rev. Mr. Martindale of Salisbury, Mr. Thaddeus Langdale and Miss Ida Phillips. The groom is an active young merchant and farmer of Quantico and the bride is a daughter of Mr. Urias Phillips of this county.

—Mr. T. J. Rounds and Miss Kate E. Collins, both of this city, were married last Wednesday evening at the Methodist Protestant Church of Salisbury. Rev. Mr. Lewis officiated. The happy couple will please accept our thanks for a big hunk of the bridal cake.

—Mr. George Townsend, an elderly gentleman of Snow Hill, Md., was severely injured by a horse Thursday morning. Mr. Townsend was into the stable to get the animal to drive to Salisbury and the accident happened while he was endeavoring to bridle it.

—Humphreys & Tilghman's steam saw mill located in Worcester county was destroyed by fire last week. The engine and boiler remain unharmed, the other machinery was ruined or consumed. There was no insurance on the property and the loss reaches about $500. No lumber was lost by the fire.

—Mr. Randolph Humphreys, who is very fond of flowers, has recently given considerable care to the cultivation of the Chinese Narcissus. A few bulbs of this plant placed in his office a short time ago have since put up stems and flowered beautifully. The aroma given off by them is exquisitely pleasing to the olfactory.

—Mr. L. H. Nock, general agent of the Washington Life Insurance Company of this town is distributing pamphlets of the various church denominations. These publications containing as they do complete information of the church organizations which they represent, are of much interest to those who are seeking church information.

—Mr. Jonathan Waller near Delmar celebrated his Golden Wedding last Thursday, Jan. 3rd. All his descendants—children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren—were present numbering 45. It was proposed during the day to weigh them, which resulted in an aggregate of 7000 pounds, but that is no wonder the way they made him duck, chicken, goose and turkey disappear at dinner. Mr. Waller's six daughters weighed twelve hundred.

—The beautiful fruit farm of 300 acres situated in Somerset county, on the Wicomico river, and still recently the property of Mrs. Redding of New Jersey, was last week sold by the Peninsula Land and Improvement Co. of Salisbury, into whose hands it has been placed for disposal, to a Jersey orchardist, who will engage extensively in the producing of choice fruits.

—The firm of E. E. Jackson & Co. has dissolved partnership. The various branches of their large lumber manufacturing business are now owned and conducted by different members of the once consolidated firm. By the present adjustment of their affairs, the business, including lumber, mills and other property at Salisbury and Suffolk, Va., is owned and managed by W. H. Jackson & Son, Mr. W. P. Jackson, who has returned from Washington to reside here, where, assisted by his father, he can give his personal attention to the business. W. E. Jackson & Co. will be the firm style of the Baltimore division and the Washington house will trade under the name of The E. E. Jackson Co.

—Unclaimed Letters.
The following is a list of letters remaining in the Salisbury (Md.) Post-Office, Wednesday, Jan. 9, 1889.
Ladies' Letters—Miss Annie Moore, Miss Emma Davis, Miss Belle McBride, Mrs. Mary Glisco, Mrs. Cassie Brady, Mrs. Polly Brexington, Miss Martha Brexington, Miss Emma Messie, Miss Annie Parsons, Mrs. Lusia Smith, care of John Smith, Mrs. Rebecca Smullen, Mrs. Julia A. Phillips, Mrs. Emma V. Cansey, Miss Gertrude E. Hastings, Miss Emma Leonard, Miss Mary Anderson.
Gents' Letters—Rev. W. Sherman Phillips, Mr. Jas. Webster, Jas. Mitchell, Jr., H. B. Robertson, Hugh Jackson and Sarah M. B. Jackson, examined and passed.
Persons calling for these letters will, please say they are advertised.
G. R. RIDER, Postmaster.

—Orphan's Court.
Orphan's Court was in regular session last Tuesday and disposed of business as follows:
Guardian accounts of John, Elmer, and Lulu Bacon, examined and allowed.
Bond of Mitchell H. German, administrator of Geo. W. German, examined and approved.
Inventories of Mary M. Mills, George W. German and Levin Houston, examined, allowed and ordered recorded.
Administration accounts of J. H. Bacon, Saml. Robertson, Hugh Jackson and Sarah M. B. Jackson, examined and passed.
Separate debts of Jno. H. Bacon, Sarah M. B. Jackson, Hugh Jackson and Saml. Robertson, allowed.
Guardian account of Eugene W. Humphreys examined and allowed.
Geo. D. Insley, guardian of Geo. D. Insley, accepted.
Jan. 22nd, 1889.

—In Memoriam.
Levin Wright died near Sharptown, on the 3d inst. after a brief illness of pneumonia, at the age of seventy-nine. In the death of the deceased the community in which he lived loses a genial, Christian gentleman, of solid piety and conscientious deportment. He was converted in early life and united himself with the M. E. Church. He was a Methodist of the type and believed in the time-honored class-meetings and revivals, in which he was an active worker, and wherever his voice was heard it seemed to inspire spiritual strength. To live right and aid others in living honest and religious lives appeared to be his chief object, and his fidelity to that object was seen in every walk and transaction of life. He was uneducated, yet on the theme of religion his thoughts were active and his tongue inspired. His plain, simple words and earnest utterances gave him a personality that was a power on emotional natures. He had little opportunity for physical ease or self-indulgence, but when death came he was not affected by having been denied the pampered ease and comfort that others enjoyed. The funeral services were held in the Sharptown M. E. Church on Saturday 5th. Revs. E. H. Derickson and G. W. McCready conducted the services. The high esteem in which the deceased was held was shown by the large crowd that attended the burial, notwithstanding the heavy rain-fall. It was an affecting scene to see his gray-haired associates, his bereaved wife and his daughters gathered around the bier paying the last respects to one with whom they had shared many happy experiences and to whom they had been so long and so true friends. His Christian life was a pattern to all.

At the regular meeting last Monday night, held at the residence of Mr. A. J. Benjamin on Poplar Hill avenue, the fourth and fifth acts of the "Merchant of Venice" were read by the club. Miss May Martindale and Miss Kate Tilghman played a duet, "Tans Skitten" by C. Bohm, Miss Maggie Fulton sang "Gibbel's Lullaby," and Miss May Martindale and G. S. Gellman Williams gave a piano and violin duet entitled, "Heavy Hearted." At the next meeting, which will be held at the residence of the president, Mr. John H. White, a paper on Shylock will be read. The Club will also be entertained with other interesting features.

County Commissioners.
At their meeting Tuesday a full board was present. Official business as follows was transacted:
Sallie Twig was granted a pension of $1.50 per month, order to L. M. Dashiell.
Mr. Dashiell of the Board was authorized to have care made for Upper Ferry boat.
Joseph C. Holloway was appointed supervisor of public roads in 9th district, vice Louis B. Lowe resigned.
Jas. A. Venables was given, order on collector for value of 75 peach trees furnished for setting on Alms House farm, amount $3.38.
Bond of Levin S. Gordy supervisor of public roads in 2nd district, examined and approved.
Account of Jos. A. Phillips for cutting and hauling lumber on Alms House farm was accepted. Amount, $13.12 order on B. R. Dashiell.
Elton Malone was granted a pension of $1.50 per month, order to A. M. Taylors.
Messrs Humphreys and Menzies of the Board were appointed a committee to confer with a committee of two of City Council with regard to extension of Williams street.
Remainder of the day was occupied in examining accounts of out pensioners. Adjourned to meet Jan. 22nd.

Pittsville Items.
The spring like weather of the past few days has kept our people busy, some are plowing, many are hauling out and composting manure, and pushing the annual spring work generally.
Carpenters are at work steadily on the M. P. church though it is not quite shut in.
Wm. G. Gordy and Thos. S. Rounds returned yesterday from a trip to Philadelphia and New York.
The Table of Mr. J. O. R. M. at their semi-annual election held the following officers: Prophet, Dr. J. C. Littleton; Sachem, E. Wilmer Parsons, S. S. Bergen, N. Brittingham; J. S. James W. Parker; C. O. R. John W. H. Davis; K. O. W. John W. Rounds, representative to the Great Council of the State which meets at Frederick-city on the 10th inst, Dr. James C. Littleton.
Rev. Mr. Stone is holding a protracted meeting in his church here, with but only moderate success thus far, his congregation is small and the attendance on the evening of Dec. 31st, and pined him right freely, after which they all repaired to the church and held a watch meeting service as the beginning of the year and the beginning of the protracted meeting.
We have five stores here, and the merchants say times never were so hard, and their grumbling seems to be not without cause, for the circulating medium never was scarcer than at present, and what little our people do get, nearly all goes to Salisbury or to some other city.
Pittsville, Jan. 10, 1889.

Mean and Cowardly.
Last Friday night while the Salisbury Corn band was out serenading a number of newly married people, a brick hurled from the hand of some cowardly carter at a member of the band while marching through Georgetown, struck the B flat cornet of Dr. E. W. Smith, which he was blowing at the time. The instrument was considerably bent and had to be sent away for repairs. If the missile had struck Dr. Smith or Mr. J. D. King, who was walking beside him and whose head was in a line with the motion of the brick, it would, in all probability, have been a death blow.
James Layfield of Salisbury, a colored youth was apprehended as the guilty one and a writ for his arrest was issued by Police Justice Trainer. A preliminary trial was given the accused Saturday morning, and he was released on $200.00 bail to make his appearance before the Justice at nine o'clock Monday morning. His mother and grandmother gave the required bail.
Promptly at the designated hour Monday morning Layfield appeared, with a regular hearing was given him. Layfield disavowed the accusation and was silent and morose. He was convicted, however, on the evidence of Jos. Cottman, another colored boy, who testified that he saw Layfield throw the brick.
Justice Trainer held the prisoner in the sum of $300.00 bail for his appearance before the grand jury at the spring term of court, in default of which Layfield was consigned to the occupancy of a cell in the "Red Bird".
As soon as the brick throwing was made known the colored band offered a reward of $25 for the discovery of the perpetrator. Great credit is due them for their prompt action in discontinuing the act.

General News.
Annetion, Ala., continues to grow rapidly. Within the past year buildings costing $1,485,000 were erected, including handsome residence and business houses and a number of factories. The population doubled during the year, and the outlook for the present year is quite as encouraging. All the manufacturing enterprises are in flourishing condition.
Do you want to go in and shake hands with Mrs. Harrison? Inquired Mr. McKee, Gen. Harrison's son-in-law, of a countryman, who, value in hand, entered the house of the President elect, and was making straight for the library. "No-op," answered the venerable Hoosier, "I'm looking for the old man." He was an office-seeker.
The storm of Sunday and Monday ruined thousands of valuable fruit, shade and forest trees in Jefferson and St. Lawrence counties, New York. Many telegraph and telephone poles were prostrated by the weight of ice and snow. In Massachusetts huge trees and poles were broken down by the ice, which accumulated on some poles to the weight of four tons.
John Hancock, of Worth county, Ga., says that he can remember when every member of the Georgia Legislature was dressed in homespun. It was in 1889, when the tariff had caused woolen goods to reach such an exorbitant price that the Legislature resolved as a man to buy no more manufactured cloth until the tariff was reduced; and they kept the resolution.
John L. Sullivan has been engaged to play the part of "Gusky Bob" in the Reg. Baby Company next season with Frank Daniels. Sullivan is to receive $500 per week. Samuel P. Cox, the manager of the Baby company, says he believes Sullivan will prove as successful as Gusky Bob as he will in whipping up offers to see officers to wage $5,000 to $30,000 on Sullivan in his fight with Kilrain.

—Black, White, and Gray Wolf Robes from $3.50 to $10.00.
—Perfectly wonderful!—the great assortment of fine Pocket Knives that L. W. Gunby is selling at 25 cents choice. Corn Poppers, 10 cents; Acme Patent Lever Knives, 75 cents. It is wonderful, I say, the great bargain he is now offering in everything in his line.
—Why is THE WASHINGTON LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY EXTRA to PARMESANS?—1st, because THE WASHINGTON is an old company, and its reliability unquestioned. 2nd, because its assets are mostly invested in bonds and mortgages (first liens on real estate), and not one dollar in speculative securities. 3rd, because THE WASHINGTON is the only company that makes annually a non-forfeitable dividend, and will pay it out at the end of the first and every succeeding policy year. 4th, because the holder of a policy in THE WASHINGTON is entitled to paid up insurance any time after 3 annual payments have been made for an equitable amount, on which the company will pay 3 per cent interest per annum. 5th, because every policy in THE WASHINGTON has a cash surrender value. See advertisement.

—The storm of Sunday and Monday ruined thousands of valuable fruit, shade and forest trees in Jefferson and St. Lawrence counties, New York. Many telegraph and telephone poles were prostrated by the weight of ice and snow. In Massachusetts huge trees and poles were broken down by the ice, which accumulated on some poles to the weight of four tons.

—John Hancock, of Worth county, Ga., says that he can remember when every member of the Georgia Legislature was dressed in homespun. It was in 1889, when the tariff had caused woolen goods to reach such an exorbitant price that the Legislature resolved as a man to buy no more manufactured cloth until the tariff was reduced; and they kept the resolution.

—John L. Sullivan has been engaged to play the part of "Gusky Bob" in the Reg. Baby Company next season with Frank Daniels. Sullivan is to receive $500 per week. Samuel P. Cox, the manager of the Baby company, says he believes Sullivan will prove as successful as Gusky Bob as he will in whipping up offers to see officers to wage $5,000 to $30,000 on Sullivan in his fight with Kilrain.

—A new and popular learned divine's word for it, "the kicker" is 3,000 years old and not a modern invention at all. More than this, he claims there is a biblical warrant not only for the use of the word but for the practice of the thing which it so graphically describes. He quotes, indeed, from the pages of Holy Writ how "Jeshurun waxed fat and kicked." It is a little curious that some progressive and popular preachers have not pointed out that affairs happening daily upon the discords of the world, repetition of events in the days of the patriarchs—Ballo, Herold.

In a recent sermon in Philadelphia Rev. M. C. Peters took occasion to announce in the most emphatic terms that the world is growing continually better, morally as well as intellectually and commercially. He found the proof of this in the increase of churches, the gift of funds to advance all branches of charitable and church work and the gradual but certain domination of the principles of morality over those of vice and immorality. This divine has the courage, also, to say that "the secular printing press has become the front wheel in the chair of progress," and he confesses that the daily newspaper is equally with the pulpit, the hope of the world. This has the ring of truth, and we are pleased to see prominent preachers here and there recognizing the press as one of the great forces of evil now at work in the world.

The store of Mr. James Howeth, located at the steamboat wharf on the Annapolis river was entirely destroyed by fire on Sunday night the 20th inst. Besides the goods, $75 in cash were also burned. No insurance.—Maryland.

By innumerable cases of Cough Syrup has won for itself an enviable reputation.
The endorsement of Cough Syrup is unparallelled. We will pay high testimonials received during the last six months. Read them. May save your life.
Our merchant here procured it first at my solicitation, and I have since a great many bottles. It is a very popular remedy in this section. Every person who has used it speaks in the highest terms of its merits. I do not know of a single case it has not cured. I first used it in Vermont, where I lived some coming here. I advise everyone to use it, as it is certainly the best cough medicine I have ever known. I have tried nearly all of them at different times.
Yours respectfully,
JOS. GRAY,
Proprietor Grist Mill.

LOCAL POINT.
—Boots! Boots! at Price & Perry's.
—For boots and shoes at reduced prices, go to Cannon's.
—Come to us the grandest line in winter boots. Price & Perry's.
—Choice cigars and tobacco always in stock.
—Cold weather is upon us. Buy your Overcoats and Suits from Birchhead & Carey.
—Try A. F. Parsons & Co.'s choice country apple brandy, the best in Salisbury.
—Wanted—A Man to Catch Mole. Liberal price paid. Apply to Paul J. Holway, Clerk to County Commissioners.
—When you visit Baltimore stop at the Maltby House where will be found first class accommodations and exceedingly low rates.
—Don't forget to look at our new style text puffers, the finest line of neck wear ever shown. J. Manko, Reliable Clothier and Hatter.
—Hyacinths, Tulips and many other bulbs for autumn planting; also Roses, Hardy Shrubs and Pot Plants, at Hiller's, the Florist.
—Use MAVOR'S COUGH SYRUP—A sure cure for Coughs, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis or Throat Affections of any kind.
—Remember for the next three weeks only will Layfield through offer such bargains as he advertises in his paper. Look for yourself at his advertisement.
—Prompt settlements made long friends. All who are indebted to me will please settle in full on Jan. 1st, 1889. L. W. GUNBY, Salisbury, Md.

NOTICE.
To Whom It May Concern:
Bonds Nos. 14 and 15 issued by Wicomico County Commissioners, July 1st, 1888. Will be redeemed on Feb. 1st, 1889. Interest will stop on same date if not presented for redemption.
By order of the Commissioners,
J. E. ELLEGOOD, Clerk.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.
This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court of Wicomico County letters of administration on the personal estate of the late J. E. Ellegood, deceased, and he hereby gives notice to all persons having claims against said estate, to present them to him on or before the 1st day of Feb. next, at his residence in Salisbury, Md., for settlement.
J. E. ELLEGOOD, Adm.

Marriage and Ball Invitations, Bill, Letter Heads, Envelopes, Business Cards, of Fancy Job Printing, etc., at ADVERTISER'S Office, at Corner of Salisbury, Md.

—Black, White, and Gray Wolf Robes from $3.50 to $10.00.
—Perfectly wonderful!—the great assortment of fine Pocket Knives that L. W. Gunby is selling at 25 cents choice. Corn Poppers, 10 cents; Acme Patent Lever Knives, 75 cents. It is wonderful, I say, the great bargain he is now offering in everything in his line.
—Why is THE WASHINGTON LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY EXTRA to PARMESANS?—1st, because THE WASHINGTON is an old company, and its reliability unquestioned. 2nd, because its assets are mostly invested in bonds and mortgages (first liens on real estate), and not one dollar in speculative securities. 3rd, because THE WASHINGTON is the only company that makes annually a non-forfeitable dividend, and will pay it out at the end of the first and every succeeding policy year. 4th, because the holder of a policy in THE WASHINGTON is entitled to paid up insurance any time after 3 annual payments have been made for an equitable amount, on which the company will pay 3 per cent interest per annum. 5th, because every policy in THE WASHINGTON has a cash surrender value. See advertisement.

—The storm of Sunday and Monday ruined thousands of valuable fruit, shade and forest trees in Jefferson and St. Lawrence counties, New York. Many telegraph and telephone poles were prostrated by the weight of ice and snow. In Massachusetts huge trees and poles were broken down by the ice, which accumulated on some poles to the weight of four tons.

—John Hancock, of Worth county, Ga., says that he can remember when every member of the Georgia Legislature was dressed in homespun. It was in 1889, when the tariff had caused woolen goods to reach such an exorbitant price that the Legislature resolved as a man to buy no more manufactured cloth until the tariff was reduced; and they kept the resolution.

—John L. Sullivan has been engaged to play the part of "Gusky Bob" in the Reg. Baby Company next season with Frank Daniels. Sullivan is to receive $500 per week. Samuel P. Cox, the manager of the Baby company, says he believes Sullivan will prove as successful as Gusky Bob as he will in whipping up offers to see officers to wage $5,000 to $30,000 on Sullivan in his fight with Kilrain.

—A new and popular learned divine's word for it, "the kicker" is 3,000 years old and not a modern invention at all. More than this, he claims there is a biblical warrant not only for the use of the word but for the practice of the thing which it so graphically describes. He quotes, indeed, from the pages of Holy Writ how "Jeshurun waxed fat and kicked." It is a little curious that some progressive and popular preachers have not pointed out that affairs happening daily upon the discords of the world, repetition of events in the days of the patriarchs—Ballo, Herold.

In a recent sermon in Philadelphia Rev. M. C. Peters took occasion to announce in the most emphatic terms that the world is growing continually better, morally as well as intellectually and commercially. He found the proof of this in the increase of churches, the gift of funds to advance all branches of charitable and church work and the gradual but certain domination of the principles of morality over those of vice and immorality. This divine has the courage, also, to say that "the secular printing press has become the front wheel in the chair of progress," and he confesses that the daily newspaper is equally with the pulpit, the hope of the world. This has the ring of truth, and we are pleased to see prominent preachers here and there recognizing the press as one of the great forces of evil now at work in the world.

The store of Mr. James Howeth, located at the steamboat wharf on the Annapolis river was entirely destroyed by fire on Sunday night the 20th inst. Besides the goods, $75 in cash were also burned. No insurance.—Maryland.

By innumerable cases of Cough Syrup has won for itself an enviable reputation.
The endorsement of Cough Syrup is unparallelled. We will pay high testimonials received during the last six months. Read them. May save your life.
Our merchant here procured it first at my solicitation, and I have since a great many bottles. It is a very popular remedy in this section. Every person who has used it speaks in the highest terms of its merits. I do not know of a single case it has not cured. I first used it in Vermont, where I lived some coming here. I advise everyone to use it, as it is certainly the best cough medicine I have ever known. I have tried nearly all of them at different times.
Yours respectfully,
JOS. GRAY,
Proprietor Grist Mill.

LOCAL POINT.
—Boots! Boots! at Price & Perry's.
—For boots and shoes at reduced prices, go to Cannon's.
—Come to us the grandest line in winter boots. Price & Perry's.
—Choice cigars and tobacco always in stock.
—Cold weather is upon us. Buy your Overcoats and Suits from Birchhead & Carey.
—Try A. F. Parsons & Co.'s choice country apple brandy, the best in Salisbury.
—Wanted—A Man to Catch Mole. Liberal price paid. Apply to Paul J. Holway, Clerk to County Commissioners.
—When you visit Baltimore stop at the Maltby House where will be found first class accommodations and exceedingly low rates.
—Don't forget to look at our new style text puffers, the finest line of neck wear ever shown. J. Manko, Reliable Clothier and Hatter.
—Hyacinths, Tulips and many other bulbs for autumn planting; also Roses, Hardy Shrubs and Pot Plants, at Hiller's, the Florist.
—Use MAVOR'S COUGH SYRUP—A sure cure for Coughs, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis or Throat Affections of any kind.
—Remember for the next three weeks only will Layfield through offer such bargains as he advertises in his paper. Look for yourself at his advertisement.
—Prompt settlements made long friends. All who are indebted to me will please settle in full on Jan. 1st, 1889. L. W. GUNBY, Salisbury, Md.

NOTICE.
To Whom It May Concern:
Bonds Nos. 14 and 15 issued by Wicomico County Commissioners, July 1st, 1888. Will be redeemed on Feb. 1st, 1889. Interest will stop on same date if not presented for redemption.
By order of the Commissioners,
J. E. ELLEGOOD, Clerk.

Marriage and Ball Invitations, Bill, Letter Heads, Envelopes, Business Cards, of Fancy Job Printing, etc., at ADVERTISER'S Office, at Corner of Salisbury, Md.

—Black, White, and Gray Wolf Robes from $3.50 to $10.00.
—Perfectly wonderful!—the great assortment of fine Pocket Knives that L. W. Gunby is selling at 25 cents choice. Corn Poppers, 10 cents; Acme Patent Lever Knives, 75 cents. It is wonderful, I say, the great bargain he is now offering in everything in his line.
—Why is THE WASHINGTON LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY EXTRA to PARMESANS?—1st, because THE WASHINGTON is an old company, and its reliability unquestioned. 2nd, because its assets are mostly invested in bonds and mortgages (first liens on real estate), and not one dollar in speculative securities. 3rd, because THE WASHINGTON is the only company that makes annually a non-forfeitable dividend, and will pay it out at the end of the first and every succeeding policy year. 4th, because the holder of a policy in THE WASHINGTON is entitled to paid up insurance any time after 3 annual payments have been made for an equitable amount, on which the company will pay 3 per cent interest per annum. 5th, because every policy in THE WASHINGTON has a cash surrender value. See advertisement.

—The storm of Sunday and Monday ruined thousands of valuable fruit, shade and forest trees in Jefferson and St. Lawrence counties, New York. Many telegraph and telephone poles were prostrated by the weight of ice and snow. In Massachusetts huge trees and poles were broken down by the ice, which accumulated on some poles to the weight of four tons.

—John Hancock, of Worth county, Ga., says that he can remember when every member of the Georgia Legislature was dressed in homespun. It was in 1889, when the tariff had caused woolen goods to reach such an exorbitant price that the Legislature resolved as a man to buy no more manufactured cloth until the tariff was reduced; and they kept the resolution.

—John L. Sullivan has been engaged to play the part of "Gusky Bob" in the Reg. Baby Company next season with Frank Daniels. Sullivan is to receive $500 per week. Samuel P. Cox, the manager of the Baby company, says he believes Sullivan will prove as successful as Gusky Bob as he will in whipping up offers to see officers to wage $5,000 to $30,000 on Sullivan in his fight with Kilrain.

—A new and popular learned divine's word for it, "the kicker" is 3,000 years old and not a modern invention at all. More than this, he claims there is a biblical warrant not only for the use of the word but for the practice of the thing which it so graphically describes. He quotes, indeed, from the pages of Holy Writ how "Jeshurun waxed fat and kicked." It is a little curious that some progressive and popular preachers have not pointed out that affairs happening daily upon the discords of the world, repetition of events in the days of the patriarchs—Ballo, Herold.

In a recent sermon in Philadelphia Rev. M. C. Peters took occasion to announce in the most emphatic terms that the world is growing continually better, morally as well as intellectually and commercially. He found the proof of this in the increase of churches, the gift of funds to advance all branches of charitable and church work and the gradual but certain domination of the principles of morality over those of vice and immorality. This divine has the courage, also, to say that "the secular printing press has become the front wheel in the chair of progress," and he confesses that the daily newspaper is equally with the pulpit, the hope of the world. This has the ring of truth, and we are pleased to see prominent preachers here and there recognizing the press as one of the great forces of evil now at work in the world.

The store of Mr. James Howeth, located at the steamboat wharf on the Annapolis river was entirely destroyed by fire on Sunday night the 20th inst. Besides the goods, $75 in cash were also burned. No insurance.—Maryland.

By innumerable cases of Cough Syrup has won for itself an enviable reputation.
The endorsement of Cough Syrup is unparallelled. We will pay high testimonials received during the last six months. Read them. May save your life.
Our merchant here procured it first at my solicitation, and I have since a great many bottles. It is a very popular remedy in this section. Every person who has used it speaks in the highest terms of its merits. I do not know of a single case it has not cured. I first used it in Vermont, where I lived some coming here. I advise everyone to use it, as it is certainly the best cough medicine I have ever known. I have tried nearly all of them at different times.
Yours respectfully,
JOS. GRAY,
Proprietor Grist Mill.

LOCAL POINT.
—Boots! Boots! at Price & Perry's.
—For boots and shoes at reduced prices, go to Cannon's.
—Come to us the grandest line in winter boots. Price & Perry's.
—Choice cigars and tobacco always in stock.
—Cold weather is upon us. Buy your Overcoats and Suits from Birchhead & Carey.
—Try A. F. Parsons & Co.'s choice country apple brandy, the best in Salisbury.
—Wanted—A Man to Catch Mole. Liberal price paid. Apply to Paul J. Holway, Clerk to County Commissioners.
—When you visit Baltimore stop at the Maltby House where will be found first class accommodations and exceedingly low rates.
—Don't forget to look at our new style text puffers, the finest line of neck wear ever shown. J. Manko, Reliable Clothier and Hatter.
—Hyacinths, Tulips and many other bulbs for autumn planting; also Roses, Hardy Shrubs and Pot Plants, at Hiller's, the Florist.
—Use MAVOR'S COUGH SYRUP—A sure cure for Coughs, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis or Throat Affections of any kind.
—Remember for the next three weeks only will Layfield through offer such bargains as he advertises in his paper. Look for yourself at his advertisement.
—Prompt settlements made long friends. All who are indebted to me will please settle in full on Jan. 1st, 1889. L. W. GUNBY, Salisbury, Md.

NOTICE.
To Whom It May Concern:
Bonds Nos. 14 and 15 issued by Wicomico County Commissioners, July 1st, 1888. Will be redeemed on Feb. 1st, 1889. Interest will stop on same date if not presented for redemption.
By order of the Commissioners,
J. E. ELLEGOOD, Clerk.

Marriage and Ball Invitations, Bill, Letter Heads, Envelopes, Business Cards, of Fancy Job Printing, etc., at ADVERTISER'S Office, at Corner of Salisbury, Md.

—Black, White, and Gray Wolf Robes from $3.50 to $10.00.
—Perfectly wonderful!—the great assortment of fine Pocket Knives that L. W. Gunby is selling at 25 cents choice. Corn Poppers, 10 cents; Acme Patent Lever Knives, 75 cents. It is wonderful, I say, the great bargain he is now offering in everything in his line.
—Why is THE WASHINGTON LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY EXTRA to PARMESANS?—1st, because THE WASHINGTON is an old company, and its reliability unquestioned. 2nd, because its assets are mostly invested in bonds and mortgages (first liens on real estate), and not one dollar in speculative securities. 3rd, because THE WASHINGTON is the only company that makes annually a non-forfeitable dividend, and will pay it out at the end of the first and every succeeding policy year. 4th, because the holder of a policy in THE WASHINGTON is entitled to paid up insurance any time after 3 annual payments have been made for an equitable amount, on which the company will pay 3 per cent interest per annum. 5th, because every policy in THE WASHINGTON has a cash surrender value. See advertisement.

—The storm of Sunday and Monday ruined thousands of valuable fruit, shade and forest trees in Jefferson and St. Lawrence counties, New York. Many telegraph and telephone poles were prostrated by the weight of ice and snow. In Massachusetts huge trees and poles were broken down by the ice, which accumulated on some poles to the weight of four tons.

—John Hancock, of Worth county, Ga., says that he can remember when every member of the Georgia Legislature was dressed in homespun. It was in 1889, when the tariff had caused woolen goods to reach such an exorbitant price that the Legislature resolved as a man to buy no more manufactured cloth until the tariff was reduced; and they kept the resolution.

—John L. Sullivan has been engaged to play the part of "Gusky Bob" in the Reg. Baby Company next season with Frank Daniels. Sullivan is to receive $500 per week. Samuel P. Cox, the manager of the Baby company, says he believes Sullivan will prove as successful as Gusky Bob as he will in whipping up offers to see officers to wage $5,000 to $30,000 on Sullivan in his fight with Kilrain.

—A new and popular learned divine's word for it, "the kicker" is 3,000 years old and not a modern invention at all. More than this, he claims there is a biblical warrant not only for the use of the word but for the practice of the thing which it so graphically describes. He quotes, indeed, from the pages of Holy Writ how "Jeshurun waxed fat and kicked." It is a little curious that some progressive and popular preachers have not pointed out that affairs happening daily upon the discords of the world, repetition of events in the days of the patriarchs—Ballo, Herold.

In a recent sermon in Philadelphia Rev. M. C. Peters took occasion to announce in the most emphatic terms that the world is growing continually better, morally as well as intellectually and commercially. He found the proof of this in the increase of churches, the gift of funds to advance all branches of charitable and church work and the gradual but certain domination of the principles of morality over those of vice and immorality. This divine has the courage, also, to say that "the secular printing press has become the front wheel in the chair of good for kidney disease than any other medicine." Geo. Amcott,

Sioux City, Iowa.

ELISHA T. JONES.

INFORMATION ON
Address, JAMES CO

Best Authors.

ALL SUBJECTS

JOHN BENNET

NEW YORK

e.
its
ta
s-
to m-
ng
nd
's, n's
at ow
ow
so gol
ge
of il-
ill gh ad
er.

SALISBURY ADVERTISER.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT
Salisbury, Wicomico County, Maryland.
OFFICE ON MAIN STREET.

Thos. Perry, Editor and Proprietor.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Advertisements will be inserted at the rate of one dollar an inch for the first insertion, and fifty cents an inch for each subsequent insertion. A liberal discount to yearly advertisers.

Local Notices Ten Cents a line for the first insertion, and Five Cents for each additional insertion. Death and Marriage Notices inserted free when not exceeding six lines. Ordinary Notices Five Cents a line.

Subscription Price, One Dollar per annum in advance. Single Copy, Three Cents.

POST OFFICE AT SALISBURY, MD.
November 21st, 1889.

I hereby certify that the SALISBURY ADVERTISER is a newspaper published at this place, and is entitled to the benefit of the Postmaster General to be a publication entitled to admission in the mails at the special rate of postage, and entry of such is accordingly made upon the books of this office.

G. R. RIVER, Postmaster.

SATURDAY JAN. 19, 1890.

For the first time in her history the diamond State last Tuesday elected a republican to the United States Senate. Ever since the "stars and stripes" were first hoisted over the American sisterhood of States the "Blue Hen's Chickens" have been decidedly wiser in their political proclivities. It seems, however, by the introduction of corrupt blood, that the biddies are changing their color and that the state is in danger of passing into the hands of the republicans. After a considerable wrangle of several days' duration, Anthony Higgins, of New Castle county, was last Tuesday elected to the United States Senate to succeed Hon. Eli Salisbury.

The popular impression is that Benjamin Harrison was chosen President and Levi P. Morton Vice President of the United States on the 6th of last November.

Not so. They were elected Monday under this act of Congress.

The electors of each State shall meet and give their votes on the second Monday in January next following their appointment, at such place in each State as the Legislature of such State shall direct.

The election votes cast yesterday are to be counted at a joint session of the Senate and House of Representatives on the second Wednesday in February—the 13th—when it will appear that a republican for Harrison and Morton, who will then be declared elected.

Not a vote was cast at the November election for Harrison and Morton or Cleveland and Thurman. The people elected the electors. There was no need of requiring these electors to cast their ballots for any particular candidate. Legally they were free to vote for whom they pleased. It was only a political or moral obligation upon the republican electors to vote for Harrison and Morton and the democratic electors for Cleveland and Thurman—N. Y. Herald.

The contest between the dredgers of the Chesapeake and the Oyster Police Force seems to continue, notwithstanding the vigorous measures adopted by Gov. Jackson to keep the dredgers within the bounds of the law. The dredgers, packers and commission merchants of Baltimore met last Wednesday night in Baltimore to form a permanent organization to be known as The Oystermen's Association of Maryland, and, judging from an address delivered before them by Gen. Bradley T. Johnson, the object of the association is to make a general onslaught upon everything like law and order. Gen. Johnson has discovered that all laws for the protection of oysters are unconstitutional, that all oyster beds are common property. Whether that be true or false, is a question for the Court of Appeals, not Gov. Jackson, to decide. The law for the protection of oysters are upon the statute books, and Gov. Jackson is doing just what he should do, using every effort to see that they are obeyed. The people are with you, Governor, in this matter; see that the dignity of the State is maintained at all hazards; and don't stop with suppressing these open violators of the law either, but inquire into these reports of cruelty to men on the dredge boats. If a captain will openly violate the law at the mouth of the cannon he will brutally treat his crew.

Literary Note.

Not a dull page marks the editorial department in Harper's Magazine for February. George William Curtis tells of capital reminiscences of a dinner given by Thackeray at old Delmonico's. William Dean Howells reviews the life-work of Walt Whitman operator of the poet's latest volume, "November Drifts," and then makes what he calls "a zigzag approach to a great Norwegian poet," and speaks of the variety of Bjornstjerne Bjornson's greatness. Serious thought along with characteristic grace and lightness is woven into the texture of Charles Dudley Warner's essay in the Editor's Drawer. In the same department appears a poem and a portrait of James Whitcomb Riley. H. W. McVicker, who draws exclusively for Harper's publications, makes the illustration for "A little Valentine," a charming bit of fiction.

As the essay by Clinton Scollard. Newest wit and direction found in the collection of "Facts and Fancies."

Joe G. Malone, Jr., an Apprentice.

A dispatch from Waterville, Me., says: "James G. Blaine, Jr. began his career Monday as an apprentice in the repair shops of the Maine Central Railroad, clad in the regulation overalls, which contrasted strangely with the dainty cigarette which he industriously pulled throughout the day. Otherwise his conduct was in keeping with his chosen work. He goes bright and early and trudged to the shops at 7:30 o'clock like any other apprentice. He was first placed under John Ellis, master workman of the locomotive department, where he was instructed in the various technicalities of the department."

Executions aggregating over $5,000 were placed in the hands of the sheriff Monday against H. C. McKnight & Bro., well-known Pittsburg booksellers.

Yellow Pine Timber.

The North Carolina yellow pine lumber trade, for which Norfolk is on principal port and Baltimore one of the leading distributing centers, has grown to large proportions in the past few years. In 1888 there were at least 500,000,000 feet cut, against 100,000,000 feet five years since. Lumber may say this trade has been largely developed in five years because of the adoption of a successful method of drying the lumber in kilns heated by steam. The old process of seasoning was not reliable for yellow pine, and it had a bad practice of developing greenness after it had been cut a long time. The result of the discovery of the reliable kiln drying, and the fact that this lumber is 50 per cent. cheaper than white pine and hemlock, has given the North Carolina yellow pine market in the centers of the white pine and hemlock regions. One day last week the Tunis Lumber Company of Baltimore received six large loads of board lumber from Norfolk, weighing over one million feet. This was distributed in car lots to places North and West. This is only one example of what is constantly going on among the Baltimore lumber trade. The timber belt which is laid out in the State of North Carolina, and in Alabama and Pamlico sounds and the rivers in that territory. Lumber railroads, operated with steam, are built into the interior to get the timber to navigable water. Then it is rafted in rafts through the Albemarle and Chesapeake canal, and at Norfolk most of it is handled by the big mills. Marylanders have taken a prominent lead in these yellow pine lumbering enterprises, and the names of well-known Baltimore and Eastern Shore business men figure in the control of a number of the lumber companies.

The E. E. Jackson & Bros. Company were the pioneers in this region, and ten years ago they pushed their railroad into the pine forest. It runs from Suffolk, Va., to Tunis, N. C., 44 miles. That these pioneers have had large pecuniary results is without question. The Tunis & Seppell Lumber Company owned a narrow-gauge railroad which, under the charter name of the Choptank Southern, is being made a standard gauge line by the Richmond and Danville System. The Atlantic Coast Line System is also building a feeder from Norfolk Neck to Greenville, N. C., 40 miles, reaching the yellow pine belt of the Tunis Company timber, which they will transport by rail under traffic agreement. The sale of the Choptank and Southern realized a large profit for its lumbermen projects. The Tunis Lumber Company is mainly in the hands of Eastern Shore and Maryland lumber operators. Mr. R. T. Waters, of R. T. Waters & Co., is the president, and Mr. John Walter Smith, of Worcester county, Md., is the general manager. This company is putting a railroad gauge road from James river to Jerusalem Church, 31 miles, of which 22 miles are completed. It is west of Suffolk and all in Virginia, but in the yellow pine belt. The Suffolk and Carolina is a new lumber mill, the merchandise road from Suffolk to Choptank river, 38 miles. The steamer Nansmond runs to Baltimore in connection with this road, and the company also has two steamers on Choptank river. This is a lumbering corporation made of Baltimoreans.

Mr. Wm. H. Brooks is the president. Mr. John S. Gittings secretary, and Mr. Harry L. Bosley treasurer. They have large holdings of standing timber, with mills at Suffolk and at Bosley. The Boonville Railroad and Lumber Company is another enterprise, of which Mr. Cohn, of Somerset county, Md., is the president. These yellow pine lumber companies have numerous mills and manufacturing, and it is estimated that $100,000,000 of capital are invested by them in the several branches of this business. The Tunis Company have factories at Baltimore, Port Deposit, Norfolk and Tunis. The Jacksons have their establishments at Baltimore, Washington, Boston and Norfolk. All of the companies are engaged in extensive enterprises, and it is said that they now own and control practically all of the timber in that yellow pine belt, and covering many hundred square miles—Baltimore Sun.

Her Life Hangs on Her Word.

At Pratt Mines, near Birmingham, Ala., Saturday, an unknown negro outraged Mrs. Kellum in a lonely spot near the mines, and killed her little boy, who was with her. Since then the white population of the region has been in a state of great excitement, and parties have been searching for the criminal. Many negroes arrested on suspicion have been taken before Mrs. Kellum, but until Monday she answered in every case "not the man," Monday when one was brought in, she cried out in horror, "Take him away, he is the man." On partially recovering her calmness, however, she expressed some uncertainty and, at her request the lynching was postponed.

It was proved at the coroner's inquest Monday that Meadows had previously assaulted a colored girl, and the crowd Tuesday morning concluded that this solved the whole thing. There was no doubt that the assassin in this case, and so young him and killed his body with bullets. The body of Meadows was brought to Birmingham Tuesday and taken to the undertaker's, where it was viewed by an idle throng. Subsequent to the lynching Mrs. Kellum said she was the man, but had not said so because she did not wish to be responsible for his death at the hands of a mob. Monday night Mrs. Kellum, the husband of the outraged woman, wrote an open letter to his fellow-citizens of Pratt Mines in which he asked them to respect his wishes and those of his wife and let the law take its course. He pleaded his innocence to the last.

An Intelligent Monkey.

An instance of the instinct and fidelity of a young monkey from Batavia, Java, a suburb of Paris: A little boy, the son of an inhabitant of that part of the city, was playing in one of the rooms of his father's flat with the monkey, which is a most intelligent species. The boy, in a fit of juvenile caprice, tied the cord of a window-blind around his neck and pretended to hang himself, to the immense amusement of the chimpanzee playmate, which grinned and chuckled on a chair. Suddenly the boy became livid and began to cry, for the cord had got into a real noose around his neck. In a very short space of time the monkey took in the situation and tried to undo the noose with its paws, but had to give up the attempt. It then hopped to another room, where the boy's grand mother was sitting, and began to pull the rope, to chatter, grin, and look wistfully toward the child. At first, thinking the animal wanted to bite her, the old lady was frightened, but seeing that it was endeavoring, with might and main, to drag her toward the door she arose from her seat and went, piloted by the monkey, to the room where the grandson was moaning. The boy was instantly extricated from his perilous position, though it was some time before he recovered from his pain and fright—London Telegraph.

GENERAL NEWS.

Items Clipped from our Exchanges from all Quarters of the Globe.

A prize-fight has been arranged between Gaudin, of Montreal, and Enoch, of New York State, for a purse of $500.

Girls never object to a lover who chews Silk Net Tobacco. For sale by F. C. & H. S. Todd, Agents, Salisbury, Md.

Excitement has been caused by the reported discovery of natural gas near Oak Creek, Wisconsin, about ten miles south of Milwaukee.

City Collector Wadson, of Richmond, died last April. His accounts are being investigated and show a shortage which may reach $5,000.

Rev. George C. Noyes, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of Evanston, Ill., for nearly twenty years, died Tuesday of pneumonia.

Fire last night destroyed the elegant residence of Captain J. D. Risler, a prominent Pittsburg coal dealer, at Six Mile Ferry. Loss $18,000.

J. R. McBride, of Salt Lake City, addressed the House Committee on Territories Monday in opposition to the admission of Utah as a State.

Hon. Joseph W. Eifer was inaugurated Governor of Illinois at Springfield Monday afternoon in the presence of the House and Senate in joint session.

The proposal made in the United States Senate to impose a duty of half a cent per pound on Canada fish exported to the United States does not cause any apprehension there.

The action of Carter's Little Liver Pills is pleasant, mild and natural. They gently stimulate the liver, and regulate the bowels, but do not purge. They are sure to please. Try them.

Westley Barnett, a half-breed Cree Indian, the most fearless desperado in Indian Territory, was killed last Saturday by Wallace McKee, a Creek Indian, who lay in ambush for him.

A serious state of affairs is reported in Gay county, Kansas, caused by the violent demonstrations of citizens over the location of the country seat. The militia has been ordered to Cimarron.

The democratic members of the Massachusetts Legislature Monday nominated Hon. P. A. Collins as candidate for U. S. Senator. The republican members renominated Hon. G. F. Hoar.

Joseph J. Candler, a porter of the Canadian Pacific Railroad, shot C. A. Sheffield, manager of the Pullman dining and sleeping car service, at Montreal, last Tuesday evening. Sheffield will not live.

The Uses of Southern Colorado agree to make their land for a new resolution in Utah and the per capita payment of $10,000 in ten annual installments $20,000 of land and $2,000 each to the five chiefs.

Ex-Representative Alvin P. Hovey, Republican, was Monday inaugurated Governor of Indiana to succeed Gov. Isaac P. Gray, deceased. President-elect Benjamin Harrison was present at the ceremony.

Three men, one colored, entered the house of Wm. Ronghgrast, at Patern, N. J., Tuesday and thrust a revolver in the mouth of his wife, and, after ransacking the house, taking $100 and other articles. The robbers escaped.

Defeat is a school in which truth always grows stronger. Though your disease be your physician, if you put your blood in good order with Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla, you can rely on finally growing well and strong. Pure blood means good health.

An editor on West put a love letter he had written into the copy box, and his editor upon the proper observance of marital duties he sent to his love. The letter appeared in his paper, and he is chasing the compositors all over the country, with a tomahawk in each hand.

The small-box is still spreading in Nanticoke, Pa., and is the view of the fact that the disease has been imported from place to place by the movement of the epidemic rage so fatally, Mayor Stott, of Wilkesbarre, Tuesday issued a proclamation guarding against the infection.

Gen. Simon Cameron, according to a Harrisburg dispatch, in conversation with two of his political and personal friends, who called upon him Monday, expressed the hope that Gen. Harrison would not make James G. Blaine his premier. This expression was made with emphasis.

It is related that recently some person condescended with Gen. Harrison upon the manner in which he was overrunning persons anxious to give him advice. "Yes," he said, "before the election I did not have to talk so much, but now I am inclined to wish that other folks would stop talking and give me a chance."

A colored minister down in Georgia, who preaches for a living, recently preached this text: "Beware therefore as serpents and harmless doves," and then began: "Well brethren in order that we may all know what we are talking about, I will give you a drop of serpent and snake. You have all seen a snake and he didn't drop to be heard nothing. He just puts one ear right down on the ground and sticks its tail in decoder."

"That Miss Jones is a nice-looking girl, isn't she?" "Yes, and she'd be the belle of the town if it wasn't for one thing."

"She has catarrh so bad it is unpleasant to be near her. She has tried a dozen things and nothing helps her. I am sorry, for I like her, but that doesn't make many less disagreeable for one to be around her."

Now if she had used Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, there would have been nothing of the kind said, for it will cure catarrh every time.

Visitors to Baltimore.

Must not miss the Great "Clean Sweep Sale" of Men's and Boys' Clothing now being held at the Bell Clothing Company Store Front St., adjoining Hanover. You can purchase men's overalls silk lined; velvet coats, blue materials for $10 worth $20, blue Chinella Overcoats worth $5.00 for $4.00. We shall sell $10 suits for $4.50. Ask to see Lot 5122, Brown Corduroy suits $20.00 for $10, Lot 6180, Boys' suits $4.50 selling rapidly for $2.00, Overcoats worth $6.00 selling at $3.00, Grand $3.00 overcoats, going for $1.50, while here see our $6.00 pants now at $3.50, and those of $3.00 for $1.50. These are only a few out of thousands of bargains. It will be worth the cost of a visit to the city, to satisfy the winter needs of yourselves and your boys at the Bell Clothing Company's Store Front adjoining Hanover.

Silk Net Pig.

good for stomach, brain and lung. Never known to bite the tongue. P. C. & H. S. Todd, Agents, Salisbury, Md.

Anthony Higgins Elected U. S. Senator.

"This is my first political campaign in Delaware," said Charles H. Treat to Evening's correspondent this morning as he appeared almost as radiant as the sun, and with scarcely a trace of disappointment at the result of the caucus on his countenance, "but it will hardly be my last." And there was a significant lowering of his eyebrows that might have been intended to indicate almost anything and certainly meant that he considered he had friends to reward and enemies to punish in the future.

Now that the great contest is over, it is admitted on all hands that Treat, all things considered, made a magnificent fight. When he could not name himself, he named the nominee, and for what he considered the best interests of the party he named Higgins, a man whom Treat's friends assert even went so far during the campaign as to have his hired agents on the road to defeat Treat's name and character.

But Treat's friends are not dismayed, and they still count him a big factor in Delaware politics. While he had few astute politicians to back him, he had hosts of sincere and enthusiastic followers. And despite his defeat they look upon him as the man in the State who has done the most for his party in the past year.

How was the result brought about? It is still the absorbing question, and the reader about as fast as a could count. But you couldn't see anything of them after they got into the room, not even any axes or bones. Looking along a little further, I noticed a small-sized room, with a lot of parties sitting on benches. Here the room for "I asked, 'What's the drying room?' was the reply. 'And who are those people?' I asked. 'Them? Why, they are Eastern Shoremen. We have to put them in there to dry; they're so green they won't burn.'

The infant reason grows apace and calls for one more look at the scene. The good friend, Salvation Oil, which never disappoints but always kills pain.

Wanamaker's.

PHILADELPHIA, Monday, Jan. 14, 1890.

You're likely to see redder lettered Linens days here this month than ever before.

Our way of passing Linens straight from the looms to you, and so saving all the usual between costs, makes the littlest of the little prices possible. You get such prices here all the year round. No matter. We'll better cloth.

Sixty to 62 inch Bleached Hand-loom Table Linen. Hold it out between you and the sun. That will prove how good the flax is, 56c a yard! You can't get better goods for 75. Figures woven in the style without the Jacquard loom. 8 patterns.

Sixty-seven inches Jacquard designs at 60. Six good patterns—one bad one. But the price more than covers that. Table Linen 2 yards wide at 70c.

Sixty-seven inch Double Damask at $1. But a few prices of it. You can't do better. At $1.35—maybe not at $1.50.

Three patterns left of the $1.35 Damask; worthy $1.75 to $2.25. Napkins to match. Napkins.

Here's a 6-8 Napkin that drops to the $1.75 a dozen. We've sold more than 50,000 dozen of this precise sort—at $2.25, at $2 at $1.85, at $1.65, at $1.50—and now $1.25! We mean the new price for a few days only. Worth hurrying for.

A 20 inch square Napkin, perfect salvage, $1 a dozen. Compare it with other folks' at $1.50.

A 3-4 Napkin at $2.25. Almost bleached; a few washings and they're white. We've sold them at $3.50. Another 3-4 Napkin at $4.50. Two patterns left. You'd expect to pay $6.

Dress Goods.

Combination Dress Patterns. The many sorts for 4 to 10—half prices you know—are being brought to the counters rapidly. A force of men is kept busy in their preparation. They come and go out by the wagon-load.

Striped Cheviot. All-wool, except the hair-line, strong—almost solid enough for boys' wear—52 inches wide—almost a yard and a half in style—with a rich solid color and plain stripe, variety enough in colors and stripes to suit many tastes. 50c a yard.

Worsted Dress Goods, at 75c, 85c, and 1.25, that are down 40 per cent and more. One week ago 300 prices. Quantity declining rapidly, assortment unbroken. Seek them out if you haven't seen them.

BEATS ALL.

THE ELECTION VERDICT

IS IN FAVOR OF CANNON FOR FAIR, SQUARE, DEALING.

We promise the best in quality, the most in quantity, and the lowest prices to all; and behind our promise stands our large and splendid stock of

BOOTS AND SHOES

THE FINEST GOODS, THE FAIREST DEALINGS, THE FULLEST SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.

SPECIAL ATTENTION—500 pairs Men's and Boys' long Boots, that must be sold. Don't forget the place. Look for the big shoe in the window, that is the place to get the worth of your money.

JAMES CANNON

Delear in Boots and Shoes, Main Street, Salisbury, Md.

Fire-Proof Eastern Shoremen.

We take the following good story from the Cambridge Chronicle:

The Eastern Shore has always been accounted the garden spot of the world, where the luxuries of life were enjoyed by all. He is to be considered fortunate who lives here, and, if there is anything prophetic in a dream, it may be even more fortunate for some to die there. Of course it is hard to presume that an Eastern Shoreman could go elsewhere than to the place of the pious, but if any one should be so unfortunate it is a consolation to know that his earthly place will at least delay his punishment. If the following story, which is good naturedly told by the Baltimore American, should amount to more than "the baseless fabric of a vision."

A man unacquainted with the birthplace of the man to whom he was talking walked into the clerk's office of the United States Court yesterday, saying, "Henry, I've got a good story. I dreamed the other night that I died and went to that place where the dead are punished in Delaware politics. While he had few astute politicians to back him, he had hosts of sincere and enthusiastic followers. And despite his defeat they look upon him as the man in the State who has done the most for his party in the past year."

How was the result brought about? It is still the absorbing question, and the reader about as fast as a could count. But you couldn't see anything of them after they got into the room, not even any axes or bones. Looking along a little further, I noticed a small-sized room, with a lot of parties sitting on benches. Here the room for "I asked, 'What's the drying room?' was the reply. 'And who are those people?' I asked. 'Them? Why, they are Eastern Shoremen. We have to put them in there to dry; they're so green they won't burn.'

The infant reason grows apace and calls for one more look at the scene. The good friend, Salvation Oil, which never disappoints but always kills pain.

Wanamaker's.

PHILADELPHIA, Monday, Jan. 14, 1890.

You're likely to see redder lettered Linens days here this month than ever before.

Our way of passing Linens straight from the looms to you, and so saving all the usual between costs, makes the littlest of the little prices possible. You get such prices here all the year round. No matter. We'll better cloth.

Sixty to 62 inch Bleached Hand-loom Table Linen. Hold it out between you and the sun. That will prove how good the flax is, 56c a yard! You can't get better goods for 75. Figures woven in the style without the Jacquard loom. 8 patterns.

Sixty-seven inches Jacquard designs at 60. Six good patterns—one bad one. But the price more than covers that. Table Linen 2 yards wide at 70c.

Sixty-seven inch Double Damask at $1. But a few prices of it. You can't do better. At $1.35—maybe not at $1.50.

Three patterns left of the $1.35 Damask; worthy $1.75 to $2.25. Napkins to match. Napkins.

Here's a 6-8 Napkin that drops to the $1.75 a dozen. We've sold more than 50,000 dozen of this precise sort—at $2.25, at $2 at $1.85, at $1.65, at $1.50—and now $1.25! We mean the new price for a few days only. Worth hurrying for.

A 20 inch square Napkin, perfect salvage, $1 a dozen. Compare it with other folks' at $1.50.

A 3-4 Napkin at $2.25. Almost bleached; a few washings and they're white. We've sold them at $3.50. Another 3-4 Napkin at $4.50. Two patterns left. You'd expect to pay $6.

Dress Goods.

Combination Dress Patterns. The many sorts for 4 to 10—half prices you know—are being brought to the counters rapidly. A force of men is kept busy in their preparation. They come and go out by the wagon-load.

Striped Cheviot. All-wool, except the hair-line, strong—almost solid enough for boys' wear—52 inches wide—almost a yard and a half in style—with a rich solid color and plain stripe, variety enough in colors and stripes to suit many tastes. 50c a yard.

Worsted Dress Goods, at 75c, 85c, and 1.25, that are down 40 per cent and more. One week ago 300 prices. Quantity declining rapidly, assortment unbroken. Seek them out if you haven't seen them.

They are gems of color and weaving.

Last year we said "Ginghams" on the 4th of January. This year we might have printed a good story of them on December 28th, but we didn't. Only a mention before to-day.

As the young aesthete sought for grace to live to the level of his blue china (he lived in Boston), so we wish graceful words for Ginghams. Words equal to this season's Ginghams. If they exist, we don't know where.

The lively chase of the last two or three years continues. Yankee after Scotchman, and Hennessey distance between. Here the goods are side by side. On the staple styles you cannot tell which is Rhode Island, which is Scotland. Colors equally rich and reliable, spinning almost the same. The coronation of cotton.

We don't say what's coming in Ginghams. We do say that 551 styles are on the counters to-day. The range of prices is from 20 to 60 cents.

The brightest imagination could not picture the successes in patterns and colors shown by this year's Ginghams. Colors heretofore thought sacred to silk and to wool are now a great success in cotton. Difference and novelty in style are expected, but it remained for this season to bring colors to perfection. As we look at the goods to-day it seems that the limits of cotton beautiful are reached, the ne-plus-ultra of spinning, weaving, coloring.

But who knows? The Yankee Gingham maker may yet be to the Scotchman as Cutty Sark to Tam-o-Shanter: cannot capture him body and soul, but may whisk off his horse's tail in a twinkling. Ride fast, Anderson, there's a fiend of a Yankee behind ye!

What woman is not interested in these Ginghams? The shelves and counters are full, and they are long counters. Come, feast your eyes on them. Maybe you'll want to select something new, for the Whirls are confined to us for this market, and some styles are vanishing.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Trustee's Sale.

By virtue of a decree passed in the Circuit Court of Wicomico county, in the case of Lillian Parsons et al. vs. Thomas W. Bailey et al. I as Trustee will offer to public auction, on the Court House door, in Salisbury, Wicomico county, Md., on Saturday, February 9th, 1889,

At 2 o'clock p.m., all the real estate of which William Bailey died, seized and sold by the County Court of Wicomico county, Md., on road leading from Salisbury to Pittsville, adjoining land of A. H. Perdue, said land will be sold in two tracts, as laid off by Samuel M. Riley, surveyor.

Lot No. 1—Or the Home Place containing one and one-half acres of land, more or less.

Lot No. 2—Or the Farm on which Saml. Bailey, living, containing forty and three-quarters acres of land, more or less. Both tracts are improved by a dwelling and outbuildings. Persons desiring to do so can see plate of said land at the office of the Trustee.

TERMS OF SALE.

Ten per cent of purchase money, cash, the balance on a credit of one, two and three years, the purchaser to give bonds giving bond or bonds bearing interest from the day of sale, with surety or sureties to be approved by the Trustee.

E. STANLEY TOADVIN, Trustee.

NOTICE.

All creditors of Emilina Bailey are notified to file their claims properly proven in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Wicomico county on or before the 10th day of June 1890.

E. STANLEY TOADVIN, Trustee.

SALISBURY ADVERTISER.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT
Salisbury, Wicomico County, Maryland
OFFICE ON MAIN STREET.

Thos. Perry, Editor and Proprietor.

ADVERTISING RATES.
Advertisements will be inserted at the rate of One Dollar an inch for the first insertion, and fifty cents an inch for each subsequent insertion. A liberal discount to yearly advertisers.

Local Notices Ten Cents a line for the first insertion, and five cents for each subsequent insertion. A liberal discount to yearly advertisers. Subscriptions: Five Cents a week, One Dollar per annum in advance. Single Copy, Three Cents.

POST OFFICE AT SALISBURY, MD.
November 21st, 1887.

I hereby certify that the SALISBURY ADVERTISER is a newspaper published at this place, has been determined by the Third Assistant Postmaster General to be a publication entitled to admission in the mails at the pound rate of postage, and entry of its contents as second-class matter made upon the books of this office. Valid while the character of the publication remains unchanged.
G. R. RIBBEL, Postmaster.

SATURDAY JAN. 26, 1889.

PUSHING INTO THE CABINET.

A remark in a late letter from Indianapolis discussing the probable Harrison cabinet shows how much political customs have changed. The writer says that Mr. Sherman has been his own worst enemy if he really wishes to go into the cabinet, because he has neither made any effort for the place himself nor permitted his friends to make any effort to induce the new president to appoint him. This, of course, adds the writer, puts General Harrison in the awkward position, should he ask Mr. Sherman, of apparently threatening the office upon an unwilling man rather than to give it to Mr. Blaine, who is announced by his friends to be perfectly willing. There is a defect in the reasoning of this statement, however, for it by no means follows that a statesman who is averse to pushing himself for the chief place in the gift of the president is therefore unwilling to accept it. But the charge is that because Mr. Sherman prefers to stand upon his public character, public services, and public ability, is demonstrating his fitness for a great public office, rather than to intrude and to induce his friends to intrude for him, he thereby loses his chance of appointment. This may be true, but it shows a great decline in the tone and methods of public life, and it furnishes another reason for the indisposition of able and qualified men to offer upon a public career.

It may be a natural development of popular political institutions, but it is, we believe, a very bad one. One of the most disagreeable facts in our chapters of English history is the intriguing and sordid scheming and fawning of ecclesiastics aspiring to bishoprics. Goldwin Smith, in his paper upon William Pitt, tells a story of this kind which is repulsive. But scheming and fawning of the same kind for dignified political trusts are not less humiliating. If Alexander Hamilton had engaged in a cabal with his political friends to secure for himself the Secretaryship of the Treasury in Washington's administration, or if John Quincy Adams had "pulled the wires" for the State Department under Monroe, they would be very different figures and short of half their lustre in our political history. Hamilton would be a teacher and the strongest of partisans. For party objects he recommended to John Jay as Governor of course which Jay declined to follow. But what might be willing to do for the benefit of his party, a kind of personal honor forbade him to attempt for his own advantage, just as his regard for official honor persuaded him to a public statement of personal conduct which seems to us in this day astounding. The conduct of this day is very different. The performance of Mr. Platt's friends at the Fort Orange Club in Albany is an illustration of a different practice. The commendation of the writer of the Murchison letter to General Harrison is a trait worthy of great reward in another illustration of a different practice from that of honorable men, and a practice beneath contempt. The effort of Republican factions to carry the cabinet by assault is unprecedented. But no man enters a President's cabinet after a desperate struggle to force himself into it without leaving a large part of public respect behind him.

It is an established custom for candidates for a Senatorship of the United States to "open head-quarters" at the capital of the State, and to command themselves personally to members of the Legislature by obsequious actions, with plenty of money, conduct the subterranean part of the game. This is unquestionably a common practice, but no body pretends that it is a creditable one, and it is equally unquestionable that it is one which excludes most admirably equipped men from such contentions. When a gentleman once refused to open head-quarters, or to solicit votes for himself for a high office, or to authorize the most wretched intrigues to secure the place, his friends said that if he did not show that he cared for it he could not expect anybody to work for him or to vote for him. But should we like to discover that Washington resorted to such methods, and if not, why are they more tolerable to a self-respecting judgment than in this day? The writer of the letter from Indianapolis is undoubtedly unjust to General Harrison. If he seriously meditates asking Mr. Sherman into his cabinet, the fact mentioned by the writer that he has neither pushed himself nor suffered his friends to push him upon the General's attention will doubtless commend him all the more to the General's favor.—Harper's Weekly.

A Baboon Assailed at the Synagogue.

M. Horvick, K. Horvick and four Russian Jews were arrested Monday evening for an assault on Rabbi Goldstein in his synagogue, on Twelfth and Howard streets, Omaha, Neb. The rabbi, Alex. Goldstein, recently arrived from the theory at a meeting of his people that it was Simon Peter and not Jesus that was crucified on Calvary. A number of the congregation rushed toward the pulpit, and the rabbi, who was in the pulpit, was obliged to run through the back door to save himself. Sunday Goldstein preached the theory again at a regular meeting in the synagogue, when he was overwhelmed with such a volley of abuse and church furniture was thrown at him that he was still in the minority. He escaped from his assailants, however, and now six of the leaders are behind the bars.

Mrs. A. C. Buchanan, widow of the late Admiral Franklin Buchanan, and the only surviving sister of the late Col. Edward Lloyd, of "Wythe House," celebrated her sixtieth birthday on Monday last. Mrs. Buchanan is in perfect health of mind and body and is very active and vigorous, attending closely to all the household duties of a large family.—Boston Democrat.

GENERAL NEWS.

Special dispatch to The Sun from Thomaston, Ga., last night, says: A peculiar marriage is all the talk here. The following notice was issued this morning:

Many initiators, but no equal, has Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Fresno (California) tailors have struck for $5 per day of eight hours.

A colony of eighty families from the North has settled in Northern Louisiana.

One small particle in the eye pains the whole body. Use Warner's Log Cabin Extract. It will cure many a pain.

Girls never object to a lover who can afford to buy them a pair of shoes.

For sale by C. H. S. Todd, Agents, Salisbury, Md., C. H. S. Todd, Agents, Salisbury, Md., 22-year-old daughter of Col. John S. Mosby, is now desiring her literary work.

The question of prison labor, which was brought before the New York Legislature last week, will be fully debated on this session.

The Boston Transcript tells of a Massachusetts legislator who said that one of his colleagues had "hit the nail on the head in a nutshell."

Boston's labor unions want the fine system in textile mills abolished by the Legislature; also, the adoption of an eight-hour day for city and State employees.

Ex-Gov. Gray, of Indiana, was recently the spokesman of a committee that asked the railroad superintendents to lift their black list against men who had struck while in their employ.

More cases of sick headache, biliousness, constipation, can be cured in less time, with less medicine, and for less money, by using Carter's Little Liver Pills, than by any other means.

A Maine paper says the Governor of that State "has chosen a staff that is better bearing, telegraphic ability, and anxiety for the field of battle will compare favorably with any military staff selected in the past by a Maine Governor."

While in the act of making a trial of a new locomotive turned out of the Blairsville (Pa.) shops of the Pennsylvania Railroad, Tuesday, the boiler exploded, killing Hugh Connell, one of the company's machinists, and injuring Wm. Scott and T. A. Penny, two employees.

To this the Messrs. Grier have rejoined completely covering the charges, in a letter which will appear in the next issue of the Gazette. We give below the reply:

Mr. Editor.—In your issue of Jan. 22, we noticed and article written by you, or by some one, in which you charged me with a personal attack, and with a misrepresentation of the facts.

In the beginning he speaks of misrepresentation. Now, after some explanation, we propose to leave the matter with the public to decide with whom was the misrepresentation.

He states that in August last Robert D. and Frederick A. Grier came to him and asked for a loan of $3,000. On the contrary, we can prove that we did not solicit a loan from J. H. Marvill until after he had voluntarily offered to advance the money to build shops, proposing to build on his own land, and asked us how much capital would be required. He did not say anything about security until after we had gotten into the money, and we suggested for his purposes. Then he said in consideration of his only charging us 6 per cent. he thought we ought to secure him pretty well. We asked him what he wanted, and he answered by asking us what we would do. We suggested a mortgage on our machinery, the new building and all we would purchase with the expected loan. We also named a friend, and a few days later he advised us to see if this friend would lend us his name. We did so, and the party willing consented and expected to do so until Mr. Biggs, one of Marvill's friends, visited the party and demanded deeds for all his property that he might take as security. Then we had no action to expect, and it was not so understood; and our proposed surety being an older head than we, declined, thinking it unwise for us to place ourselves so completely under control and at the mercy of one who was so eager to own us, body and soul.

He next states that he advanced us between seven and eight hundred dollars in lot and bricks. This is hardly necessary to say. For instance, we did not expect, and he was not so understood; and our proposed surety being an older head than we, declined, thinking it unwise for us to place ourselves so completely under control and at the mercy of one who was so eager to own us, body and soul.

Now, since we have presented the facts in their true colors, we stand ready to prove every word we have uttered, and leave it with your readers to place their own construction upon it.

R. D. & F. A. GRIER.
Salisbury, Jan. 21, 1889.

Drop a Nickel in the Slot.

Superintendent Drake, of the Trenton (N. J.) fire alarm and police patrol telegraph, has invented an electrical motor, which will automatically pass through an electric light. The motor is a suitable clock train electrically connected with the incandescent lamp circuit, and so arranged that by dropping the coin into a slot, the light will automatically connect and light the lamp.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

An Express Company Receives Notice.

The Treasury Department has given thirty days' notice to Adams Express Company of the termination of the contract with the company for the transportation of public moneys and securities.

This contract bears date February 1, 1879, but Adams Express Company really began the transportation of government funds about ten years before that date.

Secretary Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

GENERAL NEWS.

Special dispatch to The Sun from Thomaston, Ga., last night, says: A peculiar marriage is all the talk here. The following notice was issued this morning:

Many initiators, but no equal, has Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Fresno (California) tailors have struck for $5 per day of eight hours.

A colony of eighty families from the North has settled in Northern Louisiana.

One small particle in the eye pains the whole body. Use Warner's Log Cabin Extract. It will cure many a pain.

Girls never object to a lover who can afford to buy them a pair of shoes.

For sale by C. H. S. Todd, Agents, Salisbury, Md., C. H. S. Todd, Agents, Salisbury, Md., 22-year-old daughter of Col. John S. Mosby, is now desiring her literary work.

The question of prison labor, which was brought before the New York Legislature last week, will be fully debated on this session.

The Boston Transcript tells of a Massachusetts legislator who said that one of his colleagues had "hit the nail on the head in a nutshell."

Boston's labor unions want the fine system in textile mills abolished by the Legislature; also, the adoption of an eight-hour day for city and State employees.

Ex-Gov. Gray, of Indiana, was recently the spokesman of a committee that asked the railroad superintendents to lift their black list against men who had struck while in their employ.

More cases of sick headache, biliousness, constipation, can be cured in less time, with less medicine, and for less money, by using Carter's Little Liver Pills, than by any other means.

A Maine paper says the Governor of that State "has chosen a staff that is better bearing, telegraphic ability, and anxiety for the field of battle will compare favorably with any military staff selected in the past by a Maine Governor."

While in the act of making a trial of a new locomotive turned out of the Blairsville (Pa.) shops of the Pennsylvania Railroad, Tuesday, the boiler exploded, killing Hugh Connell, one of the company's machinists, and injuring Wm. Scott and T. A. Penny, two employees.

To this the Messrs. Grier have rejoined completely covering the charges, in a letter which will appear in the next issue of the Gazette. We give below the reply:

Mr. Editor.—In your issue of Jan. 22, we noticed and article written by you, or by some one, in which you charged me with a personal attack, and with a misrepresentation of the facts.

In the beginning he speaks of misrepresentation. Now, after some explanation, we propose to leave the matter with the public to decide with whom was the misrepresentation.

He states that in August last Robert D. and Frederick A. Grier came to him and asked for a loan of $3,000. On the contrary, we can prove that we did not solicit a loan from J. H. Marvill until after he had voluntarily offered to advance the money to build shops, proposing to build on his own land, and asked us how much capital would be required. He did not say anything about security until after we had gotten into the money, and we suggested for his purposes. Then he said in consideration of his only charging us 6 per cent. he thought we ought to secure him pretty well. We asked him what he wanted, and he answered by asking us what we would do. We suggested a mortgage on our machinery, the new building and all we would purchase with the expected loan. We also named a friend, and a few days later he advised us to see if this friend would lend us his name. We did so, and the party willing consented and expected to do so until Mr. Biggs, one of Marvill's friends, visited the party and demanded deeds for all his property that he might take as security. Then we had no action to expect, and it was not so understood; and our proposed surety being an older head than we, declined, thinking it unwise for us to place ourselves so completely under control and at the mercy of one who was so eager to own us, body and soul.

He next states that he advanced us between seven and eight hundred dollars in lot and bricks. This is hardly necessary to say. For instance, we did not expect, and he was not so understood; and our proposed surety being an older head than we, declined, thinking it unwise for us to place ourselves so completely under control and at the mercy of one who was so eager to own us, body and soul.

Now, since we have presented the facts in their true colors, we stand ready to prove every word we have uttered, and leave it with your readers to place their own construction upon it.

R. D. & F. A. GRIER.
Salisbury, Jan. 21, 1889.

Drop a Nickel in the Slot.

Superintendent Drake, of the Trenton (N. J.) fire alarm and police patrol telegraph, has invented an electrical motor, which will automatically pass through an electric light. The motor is a suitable clock train electrically connected with the incandescent lamp circuit, and so arranged that by dropping the coin into a slot, the light will automatically connect and light the lamp.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

An Express Company Receives Notice.

The Treasury Department has given thirty days' notice to Adams Express Company of the termination of the contract with the company for the transportation of public moneys and securities.

This contract bears date February 1, 1879, but Adams Express Company really began the transportation of government funds about ten years before that date.

Secretary Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their triumph."

Sunday Fairchild has an idea that the service can be performed at a rate lower than is now paid, and to that end has invited proposals for such transportation. The United States Express Company is said to be the only other company possessing facilities for the service, and it is expected that a bid will be received from that company.

Gladiators' Friends Made Happy.

The election of Mr. Wilson the Gladstonian candidate, in the Gorman division of Lanarkshire, England, Friday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce, Bart., has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party. The Freeman's Journal, of Dublin, says: "The victory is complete, crushing and conclusive. It is a veritable electoral Sedan. The Gladstonians now want only a general election to complete their

