Alpha Psi Omega To Sponsor 12-Hour Marathon Dance

by Mike Minner

Chances are that man may never again relive the glory and excitement of the Roaring 20's or the Flirty 30's, when among other things, kids of all ages danced their hearts out at nifty little affairs called dance marathons.

Well, "Happy Days Are Here Again!" Salisbury State College will undergo the ordeal of experiencing its first dance marathon contest on Saturday, November 7, 1970, from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m. in Holloway Hall Gymnasium. On this date, hopefully, vast numbers of S.S.C. students, faculty, and people from outside of the college community will display their durability and their sense of dance rhythm by mustering every ounce of energy that their little bodies can put forth, and enter the competition and dance to the modern sounds in music, as well as a few original 1930's selections that helped make the dance marathon famous.

Music has been provided by Watson's Smoke House in Salisbury, and a local radio station has tentatively consented to a live broadcast of five hours of the proceedings.

The twelve hour affair will include a total of eleven hours of dancing with four fifteen minute rest periods scheduled evenly throughout the competition, enabling the participants to satisfy their thirsts and appetites.

Entrance donations are $1.00 per couple, with prizes being awarded to the winning dance couple, as well as to the couple who comes dressed in the most original 1930's dance outfit.

Persons just wishing to view the dance marathon will be admitted for the mere contribution of 25¢, and will be permitted to leave and return at any time before the last scheduled rest period ends.

The dance contest is being sponsored by the Salisbury State chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, the National Honorary Dramatics Fraternity, and is designed to raise funds so that a musical stage production may be presented on campus during the second semester of the present school year.

So, pull out the saddle shoes, white bucks, bobby socks, baggy pants and long dresses. Then yell out one humongous "Yousa, Yousa, Yousa", and dance your way over to Holloway Hall on November 7.

Until then, watch later editions of this publication for further details concerning the twelve hour dance marathon.

Lyric Theater Players To Present Osborne Drama

On October 5, 1970, a drama entitled "Look Back In Anger" was presented by the Lyric Theatre Players at Salisbury State College. This play, sponsored by the Cultural Affairs Committee, was written in 1957 by a young British writer, John J. Osborne.

Osborne has been rated one of the best young theatre writers to emerge since Tennessee Williams and Arthur Miller. He centers his drama around a young couple living in the English Midlands. Everyone in the play seems to be suffering the curse of living in welfare-state England. They are stagnating in a world where there are no causes to fight for, no ambitions to be achieved.

Finally, Jimmy Porter, the central figure in "Look Back In Kaleidoscope - Homecoming '70 will be held the weekend of Oct. 31. It will begin on Thurs., Oct. 29 with an open gym. Then comes a buffet dinner on Friday, Oct. 30, which will be followed by a concert at the Civic Center featuring the Constellations, a soul group who not only do concerts on their own but also go on tour with Dionne Warwick as her back-up group. A dance will follow the concert, and at midnight there will be a bonfire.

Saturday morning, the 31st of Oct., starts with a crew meet. Then at noon begins the "Parade of Shapes and Dimensions" featuring several bands and floats sponsored by college organizations and local businesses. The parade will finish by circling the soccer field. A soccer game will follow the parade, and at half-time the winning floats will be announced, and the 1970 Homecoming Queen, Miss Ginny Chaconas, and her court will be presented. Manokin Hall will also be sponsoring a car bash. A campus-wide open

"Let's play a game. Let's pretend we're alive!" He goes on and on, in the same manner, bringing out some scorching and startling bits of truth about life.

This fiery drama promises to provide an enjoyable and worthwhile evening for all who view it. We may even recognize a few of our own hang-ups about life while doing so.

house will be held in the early evening. Saturday night is the time for the Homecoming Ball, featuring a well known D.C. area band, the Happy Feet.

Sunday features a swimming party to be held at the YMCA in Easton, a movie to be shown on the lawn outside the Student Union, and a car rally.

This year's Homecoming will have as special guests members of the 1930, '40, '45, '50, '60 and '69 classes.

An art exhibit will be open that weekend, and the coffeehouse will serve free coffee Wed., Sun. evenings.

Scholarship Testing

The Maryland State Scholarship Board today announced the procedures through which candidates may apply for a General State or a Senatorial scholarship.

A student who wishes to be considered for a General State scholarship must file an application and a Parents' Confidential Statement (PCS) with the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey. Applications must be submitted no later than December 15, 1970. In addition, a student who also wishes to apply for a Senatorial scholarship must file a special application directly with his State (not United States) Senator prior to April 1, 1971.

Awards are based upon the student's scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) and demonstrated financial need. Scores earned on the American College Testing (ACT) examination are acceptable for students who have not taken the SAT and who must take the ACT for college admission. A student already attending college who has completed at least one academic year may apply for a State scholarship without having to take a qualifying examination. Detailed instructions on how to apply are on the applications forms. Forms may be obtained at any public or private high school or college in the State, or from the State Scholarship Board, 2100 Guilford Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland 21218.

Both the General State and the Senatorial scholarships are awarded in units of $100, but no single award may be less than $200 nor more than $1500. These Scholarships may be applied at any public or private degree-granting institution of higher education and junior and community colleges within this State which have been accredited by the Maryland State Department of Education.

A brochure describing in detail all the current State of Maryland scholarship programs may be obtained upon written request to the State Scholarship Board.

Appalachia: A Lesson That Must Be Lived

by Kathy Roy

Today we hear a lot of talk about brotherhood and peace NOW, but these are things that are easy to talk about, yet are very hard to live. This summer I had the privilege of living these two words. I went on a work crew to Appalachia. As you will see it entailed hard work, sacrifice, and a lot of fun.

I went to Appalachia with a group of twenty-five senior high youths. None of us knew each other before the trip, but afterward we were all very close. The drive down from Silver Spring, Md. to Beverly, Kentucky took a day and a half.

What a trip! One of the most amazing things about our trip was the fact that we really didn't know what we'd be doing until we got there. All we knew was that we could all be of help. Once we got there we found out that our major goal was to pipe water to a one-room schoolhouse a half a mile away. By the way, this schoolhouse is used to teach twelve children from grades 1 to 8. Once we saw the schoolhouse we saw there was much more to be done; the inside needed painting, the roof leaked, and wind whipped right through the wooden walls. Thus our work began. We stayed at the Red Bird Mission camp and they too had work for us. They are building a new dorm for high school students who live too far in the mountains to otherwise receive an education. It seemed they needed a hand with some landscaping. That meant we had to move boulders so they could plant grass. Since our truck could only take half of us to the schoolhouse, the other half stayed and worked at the dorm. And as we worked we had a good time. We joked and goofed around. If we had to move a pile of rocks any distance, we'd form a line and pass 'em down. We were all concerned about one another. And we were also concerned about the people. They were poor and in need and yet they taught us more than we taught them. We sang and laughed as we worked sometimes for hours in the hot sun. We knew what brotherhood really meant. And as we look into that little one-room schoolhouse we knew that peace and brotherhood were things you had to work on. I am also proud to say that in three short days (and even shorter nights) we got all the work I mentioned above done!

There will be a meeting of all students interested in forming an ENGLISH CLUB Tuesday, Oct. 6 at 6:30 p.m. in the lounge of Nanticoke Hall. This meeting is planned for the purposes of organizing the Club and setting up main objectives for the Club.

We Think, Therefore We Are A Nation Of Amazons?

Women arise! The time has come for the "e-man-cipation" of womankind. Now women are fighting for equal wages and equal job opportunity. If a woman wants to be a ditch digger no one is going to stop her. She is not going to be man's plaything, born and raised only to attract and please the male sex.

Perhaps it might be best if feminists stop and look in which direction they are running. True, a woman should have the right to apply for and work at any type of job she desires, and she should have wages equal to a man's. In many cases it is the woman who must be the major (if not the only) breadwinner for a family. She should have an equal chance.

But too many women look upon Women's Lib as an outlet, a way to get back at any insults or injuries they have had because of a man. Equality! Let's have 24-hour child care centers and free and legal abortions! Now we can be as carefree about sex as men. No more exploitation! But won't this system only help weaken the already disappearing ties of family life and only serve to encourage a very loose type of morality? Many of the women who avidly support this movement have no objection to being loved. And, if abortions are to be made so easy to obtain, doesn't this make a woman less "special"?

Women's Liberation is a movement with both good and bad aspects. Unfortunately, where the aspects are good, the consequences are very good; but where the aspects are bad, they are horrid.

T.K.

Studecide

It seems that Salisbury State is constantly under the threat of becoming extinct. No sooner does the College escape eradication as a four-year institution of higher learning than the campus social life faces partial, if not total erasure. This threat comes in the form of proposed Bill No. 1085 presently under consideration in the Maryland House of Delegates: that student activities fees be optional; that, in effect, they be abolished.

This Bill stems from certain incidents involving other State Colleges which created friction between the Colleges and the Legislature through activities such as bussing students to protests and the publication of so-called "obscene" literature at the expense of the students. If such a bill were passed and increased taxes were allocated to support student social activities then the State Government should control State College spendings. However, as long as Salisbury State operates a student financed activities program, Government has no say in the matter.

Consider the seriousness of the situation. Imagine S.S.C. without any publications such as the newspaper, the year book, and the literary magazine; reduced in athletic financial support; with the SGA as a mere figurehead. Imagine paying for every dance, movie and cultural event at the door.

Social life is an integral part of the college scene. One cannot safely abort without the threat of infection.

The Will Of The People?

by Greg Coale

The New York Rock and Roll Ensemble is one group who took the campus by storm. They played music ranging from acid rock to classical baroque style music, and played all the styles well. The New York Rock and Roll Ensemble got a standing ovation and then another ovation in the form of dancing. This is background information for those who were not members of the audience. It is for those who could not see or hear or literally feel the concert.

Music in this case did not "soothe the savage beast" but aroused it from its slumber, from its passiveness or noninvolvement, I might say. For once the people on this campus acted as a student body. No rule or law was necessary to get them to do something. No presidential figure was necessary to get the group going and keep them going. It was the will of the people to have fun, that started the students dancing and kept them dancing until the end of the performance. But, what they needed was a catalyst, in this case, well-played music.

What kind of catalyst is needed to cause a student body to react favorably with its student government? We have already ruled out the president or the laws and rules set down by the organization, it seems to be something as intangible as the feeling the music produced. Is it something the students have to really enjoy before they become involved in it?

"And I'll See You When We Finish The Ditches"

A Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

When we desire to thank a great number of individuals for their help, when so many who helped are unknown to us by name, it is only fitting and proper to express our thanks publicly through the media.

We at Salisbury State College are extremely grateful to all of the individuals and groups of the Lower Shore who spoke out and expressed their support in opposition to the recommendation that Salisbury State be phased out as a 4-year institution of higher learning.

As a result of your objections, a special sub-committee was created to examine the validity of the Heller Associates' recommendation. On September 9, this special committee's report recommending that Salisbury State College be continued as a four-year institution and that high priority be given to expanding our dormitory facilities was accepted by the Maryland Council for Higher Education.

On behalf of our students, administration, faculty and alumni, I again thank all who contributed so effectively and constructively to help resolve this recent problem facing higher education of the Eastern Shore.

Yours very truly,
Norman C. Crawford Jr.,
President
Salisbury State College

Cancer

Congressman Rooney has recently introduced a resolution in the House of Representatives calling for an all-out war against cancer. He has asked Congress to vote the money for a national crusade by 1976.

Already college students throughout the country have seen to it that thousands of letters have been mailed to Congressman Rooney supporting his resolution. He is giving copies of these letters to the local congressmen of the senders, to show them that the people back home are really concerned about the fight against cancer.

But more letters will persuade more congressmen to vote for a national commitment -- an all-out war against cancer. We need more help from you.

Write ten letters in support of Representative Rooney's resolution H. CON. RES. 526. Find ten voting citizens to sign them. Address and stamp ten envelopes and send them to:

The Honorable John J. Rooney
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

More than 330,000 Americans will die from cancer this year - nearly 1,000 a day. You can help to stop this. Tell Congressman Rooney you are behind him in the fight to conquer cancer.

GULL SPORTS

Sports Ed.- Gary Martin

Soccer

The sport to see at SSC. The Gulls under Ben Maggs finished last year with their second consecutive D.V.C. Championship. The team finished the season with a 7-2-3 record, and with the schedule these boys face, that ain't bad. The squad lost Danny Long, Andy Hall and Charlie Bosman, a vital part of the team, but with captains Tony Redman and Bud Elzey, Bill Bryan, Dale Pusey, Jim Webster, Rick (Tarzan) Jenkins, Henry Hunt, and Norm Larmore returning this year could be as successful as the last. John Chlada, Troy Doyle, Scott Bailey and Randy Brummitt, all returning, will see plenty of action.

There are many promising freshmen, mostly local talent and transfers who could work their way into the line up.

Basketball

The Gulls, an appropriate name for the SSC basketball team, ended their 8 and 14 season with probably the best game ever played in Tawes Gym. That game ended in a 1 point loss to Lincoln University, a team not beaten in 3 years of league play.

Each year it seems the team gets rolling in the final third of the season, and last year was no exception. Under new coach Ward Lombert, the team will change its style to a full court zone press from the opening top to the final buzzer. This means tough defense, and quick people who love to put forth 100% effort. SSC has the people, it just doesn't have the record.

Guards Tom Torrillo, Jeff Barnes, Quick Rick Brandon, Bob Cameron, Jock (leave me alone and I'll blow your eyes out) Stewart, and myself will return.

Forwards Don (the natural ball player) Clayton, Jim Marshall, Max Cottman, Phil Taylor and Gene Tull, along with Center Ted Duncan will put forth an effort to gain starting spots.

There are also many good transfers and freshmen who could work their way into the line up this year.

Crew

This year's squad will return Mark Nolte, Steve Baker, Armand Hayward, Chris Smith, Marlin Smith, Kim Laronda, Mike Heister, Bill Curtin and Clyde Strange. Crew has been the most rapidly developing sport at SSC and within the next year, it will be one of the most successful. This season, 8 official matches are scheduled along with our crew participating in the D.C. Invitational Regatta and Southern Intercollegiate Rowing Regatta. The first meet will be on Oct. 31 in Salisbury. Bob Jones, former crew member at SSC, will be coaching the varsity 8 boat and freshmen 8 boat.

The club needs men to row. If you would like to row, contact any of the crew members. Practices will be held 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Dean Volenik has arranged for summer employment to be given to crew members so the club can practice together and participate in summer meets.

Golf

Golf, under Dick Yobst last year, will be proposed this year as a varsity intercollegiate sport. SSC did participate in 3 matches last year as a trial run for a hopeful schedule of league play in the future.

Last spring, Rick Hensch, SSC's answer to the best dressed Israeli mercenary, won the title as the best golfer in the Delaware Conference.

This year's squad looks bright with John Byrd, Larry Heitmuller, Bill Carey, Ted Duncan, John Hughes and Bill Bunting returning.

There are 6 duel matches and the Conference scheduled for this year. Like to play? Talk to Dean Yobst in Holloway Hall.

Tennis

Last year's squad did well, though not yet sanctioned by the Delaware Valley Conference. This year's squad is without a sponsor at this time, but looks very promising with Dennis Hopson, Dave Meenan, Bob Hush, and Bill Owens returning, and a group of good freshmen coming up.

If you are interested, talk to Dennis Hopson or Dave Meenan.

Track

The 3 and 5 record of the squad last year tends to be misleading. Thirteen out of fifteen on that team were freshmen, and most of them are returning.

Randy Brummitt and Max Cottman were truly outstanding, compiling 204-1/4 points between them. Max set records in the long and triple jump, ran the 100, 220, high jumped, ran a leg in the 440 relay, and a leg in the mile relay. Can you do that?

Randy set records in the 440, 440 hurdles and the 120 high hurdles. He also ran another leg in the 440 and mile relays.

Returning will be Bill Jones, Norm Lamore, Rod Holloway, Fred Dansberger, Howard Davenport and Mike Hill, all of whom did a fine job last year. Coach

Yobst said there will be need to find some good distance men this year. If you are interested, see Dean Yobst.

Baseball

The Gulls did extremely well last year on the diamond as usual, finishing 17 and 10 on the season and 8 and 2 in league play. The Gulls tied for first place in the Delaware Valley Conference and were selected to participate in the District 19 tournament, where they finished second place in their district.

This year everyone is returning from last year's squad except for Andy Hall, the best athlete in SSC history, Pat Conway, who helped the team to their fourth winning season, Don Hillock, who amazed everyone with his ability to handle the bat, and Neil Webster, who just amazed everyone in general.

No future problems with the bat with Rich Jenkins .400, Bud Elzey .382, Jim Marshall .353, Phil Taylor .302, Jeff Barnes .286, and Tom Torrillo .270, returning.

Returnees Bill Gordon, Litro, Morgan Lusby, and Rick Powell, along with plenty of transfers and freshmen will see a lot of action. The outlook is hopeful for this coming season.
