Pro Bono Publico.

The following are some of the decisions of the Post Office Department relating to newspapers.

Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

If subscribers order the discontinuance of their papers, the publishers may continue to send them until all arrears are paid.

If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills, and ordered them discontinued.

If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

The courts have decided that "refusing to take newspapers from the office, or returning and leaving them uncollected, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud."

Any person who receives a newspaper, and makes use of it, whether he has ordered it or not, is held in law to be a subscriber.

AN IMPORTANT CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

One of the most important bills of the session passed the General Assembly yesterday. It is a bill to amend that article of the State Constitution which relates to the removal of causes. At the present time, any person having a case in court, may remove it, on affidavit, to some other court, and of a different circuit it may be removed. The Court before which application is made has no alternative. On the mere plea that the party "cannot have a fair or impartial trial"—often the shallowest of subterfuges—the Court is obliged to order the transfer of the record of proceedings, in accordance with the application, no matter what interests may suffer by the change, or what inconvenience it may impose on the prosecution and the witnesses. Who does not know how frequently parties who are indicted for various offenses take advantage of this provision of the Constitution to remove their cases from the city of Baltimore to one of the adjoining counties, thus putting the city to increased charges, delaying the time of trial, obstructing the attendance of important witnesses, and ultimately escaping punishment? It is the rogue's loophole, and many have profited by it. It is the outlet sought by the violators of the Sunday laws; by the gamblers who prey upon the community; by the keepers of houses of ill-fame who seek an acquittal or a light penalty, and who desire at the same time to avoid the recognition of their witnesses. The amendment to which we refer makes it no longer obligatory upon the Court to transfer such cases to a Court on another circuit. It declares that in all cases of presentments and indictments, the parties to such proceedings "must make it satisfactorily appear" that they can not have a fair and impartial trial in the court in which the same is pending. Failing to do this the trial is to proceed as if no application for removal had been made. If this amendment be ratified by the people it will get rid of what is now a serious and crying evil. It will promote the end of justice, and will force those who have so often heretofore baffled all attempts to punish them for their offenses, to go to trial before the only Court in which they ought to be tried and before the only jury which can act upon their case with a perfect understanding of its bearings and its consequences.—Balto. Gazette.

THE ORTHODOXY OF THE BEECHERS.

It was quaint old Rev. Dr. Todd, formerly of Pittsfield, who said about thirty years ago that the world was divided into three classes—saints, sinners, and the Beechers. We doubt whether there was ever a family in this country that made so conspicuous a figure in ecclesiastical affairs as that of Lyman Beecher. Perhaps the Edwards family were as famous in their time. There was the elder Jonathan Edwards, and his son the younger Jonathan, and Dr. Dwight, the celebrated President of Yale College, and Soren Edwards Dwight, who, near our own day, was distinguished as the preacher at the Park Street Church in Boston, not to speak of Judges of the higher courts and Senators in Congress springing from the loins of the author of that treatise on the Will which Dr. Chalmers said had never been confuted.

If in the departments of metaphysics, logic and theology we should feel constrained to admit the superiority of the Edwardses over the Beechers, we should strenuously dispute it in the domain of varied learning, oratorical gifts, and capacity to sway the masses of men; while in their ability to cause a disturbance in the churches, the older family is not for one moment to be compared with the younger.

The Beechers have always displayed a propensity toward what the more rigid orthodox have pronounced heresy. Dr. Lyman Beecher, the father of the more celebrated Henry Ward Beecher, laid the foundation of his reputation at 11 Child St. Conn., where for many years he preached to a highly cultivated congregation composed in part of the students of the Law School since incorporated into Yale—of which Gould and Reeves, so well known as text writers, were professors, and where John C. Calhoun and other eminent men were educated for the bar. Under the ministrations of Dr. Channing Unitarianism had made a strong lodgement in Boston and its vicinity; and half a century ago, Dr. Beecher, then in the fullness of his funs, was called thither to combat that heresy.

In this more conspicuous field Lyman Beecher soon enhanced the reputation he had brought with him from a rather secluded corner of Connecticut. In dealing with Unitarianism, he aimed to conciliate rather than repel the disciples of the new doctrine. He leaned toward liberalism, and somewhat narrowed the grounds of dispute between the two sects, arguing that after all there was not such a very wide margin between new-school Calvinism as he expounded it and the doctrines proclaimed by the semi-orthodox Unitarians; and therefore that those who had gone out from the Church of the Pilgrims had better come back and worship at the old altar.

About the year 1833 Dr. Beecher was called to the Presidency of Lane Seminary, a collegiate and theological institution recently established in the suburbs of Cincinnati, and also to the pastorate of one of the leading Presbyterian churches of that city. His great fame had preceded him, as had large editions of his printed discourses and controversial writings. Crowds flocked to hear his lectures at the Seminary on secular days, while on Sunday his church was filled with the elite of the town.

Among the Presbyterian pastors in Cincinnati at that time was the Rev. Dr. Wilson, an energetic, logical Calvinist of the ultra type. The younger members of his congregation first began to stray now and then over to hear the famous preacher from Boston, and by and by they were so captivated with his fresh utterances that they commenced to ask for letters of dismission so that they might swell the throngs which followed the new comer. Dr. Wilson probably believed that Dr. Beecher was a heretic. At all events he knew that he was drawing away his congregation, and he asserted that he had pretty much absorbed those of the Unitarians and Universalists in the city.

At length Dr. Wilson arraigned Dr. Beecher before the Presbytery for heresy. The case went thence up to the Synod, and there the great struggle took place. The trial lasted many days, Wilson the prosecutor, Beecher the defendant. A number of Beecher's clerical friends came over from New England to give him countenance and council, among whom was the Rev. Dr. Edwards, President of Andover Theological Seminary, the beacon light of Plymouth Rock Calvinism.

Dr. Beecher's summing up in his own defense was splendid. He commenced at the morning session, speaking three hours, when the synod adjourned for dinner, the Doctor to finish in the afternoon. A large company was to dine with him, including Dr. Edwards and three or four of the members of the Synod of the Wilson party who were supposed to regard Beecher as being upon the whole a sound, orthodox Calvinist, though occasionally indulging in eccentric expressions. Dr. Beecher was so full of his speech that he kept on talking in his lively style during the dinner. By and by, amid a pause, there came a voice from the lower end of the table, which spoke in this wise: "Father, I listened carefully to your speech before the Synod this morning, and I know that you are playguy good at twisting; but if you can twist your creed on the Westminster confession of faith, you can twist better than I think you can." For an instant the Doctor's countenance fell. Rallying he responded: "All of my boys are smart, and some of them rather impudent." The voice was the voice of Henry Ward Beecher, then a student at the seminary.

Ward Beecher would be able to twist his system of church government on to the old Congregational policy of the New England fathers remains to be seen.

THE PEACHES AND THE STORM.

The peach buds have weathered the present storm, thus far, without injury. It is thought, but the growers manifest great anxiety for their future safety. In their present condition of bloom, or readiness to do so, the buds are exceedingly tender, and unable to stand any very great amount of exposure. The opening petals form a sort of cup-like receptacle of sufficient size to hold a tiny drop of water, the crystallization of which would prove disastrous to the bud. Their present condition is, in fact, the most delicate of all the season, and it is thought if they pass through this storm in safety, future preservation is assured—from the cold at least.

The storm has been very general, and extends so far as we can learn, over the whole peach-growing country. As in this end of the State there has been a mingled fall of snow and rain, and the cold, and the mercury registered one degree below freezing point this morning. Still the snow upon the trees was not formed into ice, and unless there should be a still further fall in temperature it is not thought that any injury will be done, even if the present weather continues for a day or two. A few degrees more of cold would, however, have a very fatal effect.

In the lower part of the Peninsula the peach trees are in full bloom—an indication that they have escaped all blows so far. The blossoms hang very thick, and should they all mature the cry of the peach-growers will soon be converted into exclamations of a too bountiful crop. As far north as Dover some varieties are also in bloom, but none above that point, although the trees are growing very red in their upper boughs. In the vicinity also the buds, as far as advanced, show no signs of blight. Along some of the water courses, however, some injury has been done, although its extent cannot now be told.—*W. H. THE AGASSIZ MEMORIAL.

TEACHERS' AND PUPILS' FUND.

BOSTON, March 10, 1874.

LOUIS AGASSIZ, Teacher. This was the heading of his simple will; this was his chosen title; and it is well known throughout this country, and in other lands, how much he has done to raise the dignity of the profession, and to improve its methods. His friends, the friends of education, propose to raise a memorial to him, by placing upon a strong and enduring basis the work to which he devoted his life, the Museum of Comparative Zoology, which is at once a collection of natural objects, rivaling the most celebrated collections of the Old World, and a school open to all the teachers of the land.

It is proposed that the teachers and pupils of the whole country take part in this memorial, and that on the birth day of Agassiz, the 28th day of May, 1874, they shall each contribute something, however small, to the Teachers' and Pupils' Memorial Fund, in honor of Louis Agassiz; the fund to be kept separate, and the income to be applied to the expenses of the Museum.

A. T. STEWART'S BOX AT NIBLO'S.

The New York correspondent of the Boston Transcript furnishes the paper the following description of the summer in which A. T. Stewart, the merchant millionaire, enjoys theatrical entertainments: Let me describe the interior of A. T. Stewart's private box at Niblo's Garden which he has recently refitted, and which the critic would not say is a show box. No royal box in Europe equals it for size, magnificence or convenience. It is the lower left hand box as one faces the stage, and consists of a suite of four rooms—a large parlor (which is the first room entered from the lobby), a dressing room, a cloak room and the box. The parlor is richly frescoed, as are all the rooms; is carpeted with a delicate moquette carpet and hung with the richest crimson satin, heavily fringed. Two immense mirrors have been placed opposite each other, extending from the floor to the ceiling. The sofas, chairs, etc., are all upholstered in crimson satin. From the centre of the ceiling hangs a large and beautiful cut-glass chandelier, the largest of the kind in New York. The dressing room contains hot and cold water, mirrors, toilet, and a clock room, and the box opens from the box. Large crimson satin chairs of a Turkish pattern fill the box. It is very delightful to attend a theatre under such comfortable circumstances. Between the acts impromptu music can be indulged in, especially if the orchestra is playing a waltz or polka, or a supper can be served from the Metropolitan Hotel, just across the street. After all, if some people in New York are very poor, others are very rich.

THE Somerset and Worcester Fire Insurance Co.—The annual report of the Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of Somerset and Worcester counties has just been published. The company was organized in 1867. The value of policies in force is $75,972, and the premium notes filed thereon $56,941.30. The losses paid last year were $3,067.65, and since the organization of the company, $6,980.62. The assets liable for losses amount to $657,314.

COMMANDER OF THE FISHERY SERVICE.

The time for electing a Commander of the State fishery force in the place of Captain Wm. E. Timmons is rapidly approaching. The election usually occurs in the latter part of April, and the commander holds his office for two years. The board is composed of ex-officio members entirely, the Governor, the treasurer, the comptroller, the clerk of the Court of Appeals, and the commissioner of the land office. The candidates so far named for commander of the Maryland navy are Captain Wm. E. Timmons, at present the commander, Hon. Jesse K. Hines, Speaker of the House, and Capt. Lemuel Mitchell, of the "Nannie Merryman."

OYSTER WAR NEAR NORFOLK.—For a few days past a party of York River, Va., oystermen attempted to dredge for oysters in the Elizabeth river near Craney Island. Some of the depredators were from Ware River. A telegram to the Richmond Dispatch says: "They had commenced depredating on the oyster beds, which led our people to attack them with an organized party of thirty or forty men armed with shot guns and pistols. The charge was pell-mell and the roar of small arms is described as terrific for a time; but the attack was repulsed and a number of the assailants were captured and taken before Justice M. P. Rue, who released them on their own recognizance to keep the peace."

THE PUBLIC DEBT.—The public debt statement shows a reduction during the month of March of $2,180,338. The increase of the debt since June 30, 1873, is $4,872,034. The total debt, principal and interest, amounts to $2,295,058,559. Cash in treasury, $142,367, 80, including a coin balance of $86,121,379, of which $37,042,000 is in coin certificates. Outstanding legal-tenders, $382,000,000.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

The Government of Newfoundland has offered a bounty of $2 per ton to encourage ship building.

The miners of Pennsylvania ask for a lien law to protect their rights to the wages of their labor.

In the Confederate cemetery at New Orleans are statues of Lee, Bishop Polk, and Stonewall Jackson.

George W. Austin, Treasurer of the Mankato (Minnesota) Normal School, has run away with $2,000.

A bill has been introduced in the California Legislature, declaring that no citizen shall be refused admission to the bar on account of race or color.

The Arkansas bar is evidently improving. It has solemnly passed a resolution censuring the assassination of Judge Fox by Lawyer Aldridge as unprofessional.

Some people in Illinois, who have evidently known what it is to pay ten dollars for five cent pen wipers, have petitioned the Legislature to abolish church fairs.

Illinois has extended to married women every right but that of suffrage. They can keep their own earnings, and transact business with their husband as with strangers.

The actual expense of cremation is about $2. This would be a great saving on the present cost of funerals. Besides, what economy there would be in carriage hire.

John W. Webster, of Deal's Island, Somerset county, was arrested on Thursday of last week for violating a provision of the liquor law for Tangier's district. He was fined twenty dollars and costs and imprisoned for five days in the county jail, where he was placed on Thursday and died on Saturday last. The use of intoxicating drinks is said to have been the cause of his death.

A Vicksburg (Miss.) paper relates the following incident: Yesterday, while there was considerable excitement going on about Washington street, a young man with a slightly Teutonic accent inquired, "What's de matter?" The individual addressed answered, "Oh, nothing, only a man killed." "Oh!" exclaimed the Teuton, "is that all. I thought maybe a child was run over."

A convention of old line democrats was held at Sacramento, California, Tuesday, at which resolutions were passed denouncing the administration, declaring that independent democrats who joined the liberals should return to their allegiance and adhere to the party in future as the only hope of saving the country.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF MARYLAND, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, ANNAPOLIS, March 10th, 1874.

Whereas, Information has been received from His Excellency, the Governor of Virginia, that certain citizens of the State of Maryland have recently been again with their vessels and dredges encroaching and trespassing on the oyster beds on the Virginia side of the provisional line, known as the "Davidson-Lovett Line," which it was agreed, in the fall of 1870, by and between their Excellencies, Oden Bowie and Gilbert C. Walker, then Governors of Maryland and Virginia, acting for their respective States, should be observed and respected by the oyster-men of each State, until the permanent boundary should be fixed and established between the two States.

And Whereas, In pursuance of the said agreement, citizens of Maryland, who had been arrested by the authorities of the State of Virginia for trespassing and encroaching upon oysterbeds on the Virginia side of the said provisional line, were released from arrest, and their vessels, which had been seized by the said authorities, were restored to them.

And Whereas The Commissioners, heretofore respectively appointed by the State of Maryland and Virginia, having failed to agree upon a permanent boundary line on the eastern side of the Chesapeake Bay, between the said States, the Legislatures of the two States are now endeavoring to arrange some basis upon which a permanent boundary line can be finally agreed upon and established between Maryland and Virginia.

Now, therefore, I, James Black Groome, Governor of the State of Maryland, do by this my Proclamation, officially make known to the citizens of Maryland these facts, and do command and earnestly exhort them, as good citizens, faithfully to respect and conform to the agreement made on their behalf by the then Governor of Maryland, that the Davidson-Lovett line shall be observed by them as the boundary line between Maryland and Virginia, until the permanent boundary line shall be established. And I hereby admonish and warn them, that any violation of that agreement will subject the parties so violating the same in either State, to severe penalties, against which they can neither hope for, nor expect the intervention of the Executive prerogative.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the State of Maryland, at the City of Annapolis, this tenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

JAMES BLACK GROOME, (Seal's Place.) Governor.

By the Governor: R. C. HOLLYDAY, Sec'y of State.

The Maryland Farmer for April now lies on our table, and is crammed with good things for the tillers of the soil. We are continually indebted to it for extracts. All farmers should take it.

Tony Friends.

Owing to the requirements of my business demanding my entire attention, I am compelled to withdraw my name from nomination as Town Commissioner. Thanking my friends for the honor conferred I remain
Very truly Yours,
F. C. TODD.
Salisbury, April 4th, 1874.

THE AMERICAN FARMER for April is received with its usual freight of seasonable matter for the husbandman. All branches of rural life are duly treated, and by experienced hands, the number and ability of the correspondents of this standard old journal contributing in a great measure to its usefulness.

All the staple crops live stock, fruits, flowers, &c, receive full attention. None of our country readers but ought to subscribe for the Farmer.
Published by Sam'l Sands & Son, No. 9 North St., Baltimore, Md., at $1.50 a year, 5 copies $5.00. Specimen numbers sent free.

ORPHANS' COURT DOINGS.—The following business was transacted in the Orphans' Court last Tuesday.
Letters Testamentary were granted to Leah J. Graham on the estate of John T. Graham, and the Bond of said Executors approved.

Letters of Administration were granted to Leah J. Maddux on the estate of James Maddux, and Bond of said Administrator approved.

Will of John W. Banks admitted to probate, and Letters Testamentary granted to Margaret E. Banks, Executrix.
Will of Esther Parsons, admitted to probate and Letters Testamentary granted to Wm. S. Parsons, and said Executors Bond approved.

Nomination of Town Commissioners.
The meeting called by the present board of Town Commissioners to nominate five persons to serve as Commissioners for the ensuing year, was held in the Court house last Monday night. There was very little enthusiasm. The following ticket was nominated.

W. S. JORDY,
SAML. A. GRAHAM,
E. L. WAILES,
F. C. TODD,
JOHN BROHAWN.

As there is no emolument attached to the office, aspirants were not so plentiful as formerly, still there are a few left who do not think it too much to give some little of their time and attention to the improvement of the town.

In the Lock Up.
Saturday was a busy day at this institution. Balliff Taylor had his hands full, in endeavoring to keep the peace. Under the influence of the ardent, the following parties were so disorderly, that to save trouble they were locked up for a few hours. Noble McCauslin, for striking a negro, was made to feel the rigors of Justice to the extent of $2.50.

Frank Gray was next on the list. When Frank is drunk, he is very boisterous, and imagines himself to be a second Heenan. One dollar and fifty cents secured his freedom. Kendall Parsons, also took board at the same place, and for the same cause. As Kendall had met with trouble before, the Justice was lenient, and one dollar and a half paid his bill. William Mitchell being a regular customer, the same amount of greenbacks made him all right again.

Pro Bono Publico.

The following are some of the decisions of the Post office Department relating to newspapers.

Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered wishing to continue their subscription.

If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publishers may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.

If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills, and ordered them discontinued.

If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

The Courts have decided that "refusing to take periodicals from the office, or removing and leaving them uncollected, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud."

Any person who receives a newspaper and makes use of it, whether he has ordered it or not, is held in law to be a subscriber.

THE FINANCIAL OUTLOOK.

Since the passage of the Senate Bill, which increases the volume of National Bank currency and greenbacks to $400,000,000 each, the country seems awakened to the real consequences. Immediately after its passage the Boards of Trade of the different cities have been constant in their efforts to influence the President to interpose his veto, and save the country the disgrace of violating its solemn pledges. Their arguments are cogent. They maintain, with force, that the volume of currency is sufficiently abundant to meet the demands of commerce and to run on full time the different industries of the country. There is now more currency than before the late financial panic, since the Secretary of the Treasury drew without authority on the reserve in the Treasury and lightened up the load which was pressing on the large commercial centers.

By the inevitable law of distribution if the volume of currency is increased, it will certainly not reach those sections which have nothing to invite its presence. It is a sophism to think that currency thrown upon a country by reckless legislation, will answer the demands of commerce. The balance of Trade is in the favor of the East, whether the increase must eventually go. The poorer sections of the South and West clamor like Oliver Twist for more—while, if it reaches them, only afford a spasmodic energy, and like the alcoholic stimulant, it only exhilarates to depress the more. If the delicate paper, interwoven with its gossamer threads of silk are thrown as plentifully as the manna was to Israel in the desert, it will be in the same ratio of less value. The endless law of distribution, must prevail and the increase must be measured by the exchange.

Besides this, the thinking people are assured that this issue should be made in a time of profound peace, when the gates of the Temple are closed, and are forcibly impelled to think in this case that it is but a "step to Coberness," the Stock Exchange. We indulged in the expectation that after the war we should return to specie payments, and discard the legacy that our civil war left, the Paper Money. But here the Supreme Court, doctored for the occasion, steps in and says that the U. S. Currency is a legitimate child of the Republic, though the Chief Justice, its father, repudiated it, and that its physical deformity shall not now be a blot since there is now no distinction on account of color or color, applying as well to our money currency as to our newly acquired "ballot stuffs."

The faith of the country is pledged to the redemption of this mass of paper, and the longer we hesitate, the further we are off from the resumption of specie payments. Even the proposition of allowing U. S. Currency to be used by any means of customs has been voted down, and the Government assumes the attitude of an anomalous creditor, who pays in paper but demands its creditors to discharge their dues in coin for foreign importation. We in Maryland cannot hope for better times until we have free banking which will enable us to invite the presence of capital.

The remedy is with the President, who declared at his first inauguration that he would have no policy in conflict with the will of the people. We are disgraced to think he will veto this bill. If this bill does become a law, confidence in the pledges of the Government for the redemption of its promises will be lost, and this act of Congress, and the Executive will be esteemed a piece of knavery, equalled only in its turpitude by the treachery of the Modoc.

THE RAILROAD WAR TERMINATED.

We are glad to learn that the railroad war which has been going on between the Pennsylvania R. R. and the B. & O. R. R. Co. has at last been brought to a close, and we are further gratified to know that Scott, Cameron & Co. have failed to obtain that advantage over the B. & O. which they seemed at first to anticipate. We predicted at the time the Baltimore & Potomac R. R. received its charter from the State. Knowing it was to be managed by the Pennsylvania Co.—that it was an entering wedge for a great controversy between two great corporations, and while we were disposed not to cover up the sins of the B. & O., yet all our sympathies were with them in an outside fight, for it is a well-known fact that notwithstanding the support and encouragement the B. & O. have received from the State, that it has ever been and is now the great lever of the State's prosperity. While the success of its rival militates to the State's disadvantage and to a division of the trade and travel which would otherwise come to our chief city and thence diffuse itself through the State. While the B. & O. R. R. owes much of its success and prosperity to the fostering care of the State. So also does the State owe a greater debt to that great artery of trade, and feeder of its commerce and people. Every Marylander ought to feel proud of the success of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and we rejoice to know that its superior management has challenged the admiration of the world.

THE "CAPITAL" EDITOR PRO TEM.—Mr John J. Piatt, cousin of Colonel Donn Piatt, editor of the Capital newspaper at Washington, published a card yesterday, in which he denies the main points of the circumstantial account published in a Washington paper, of an alleged assault made upon him by Congressman McKee, of Mississippi, in relation to an article published in the Capital. Mr. Piatt says the card was no blow struck. There was a flourish of a club and the exhibition of the handle of a pistol, followed by the vanishing form of his reported assailant. Moreover, Mr. Piatt says he is not pro tem or otherwise editor of the Capital; is not and never has been connected with the paper, nor does he approve of its course, but that he had simply been requested by his cousin, Don Piatt, to read certain proofs during his absence, which he did. It is said that Don Piatt has returned, and is looking for the beligerent Congressman.

THE DELAWARE PEACH CROP.

A letter dated Dover, Del., April 21st, referring to a meeting of peach growers at Dover, says: This town was made quite lively to-day by the presence of a large number of peach growers of Delaware and Maryland, who had been called together for the purpose of considering the question of opening up new markets for the growing crop. Last year, it will be recalled, the peach crop above this point was almost a total failure, the bulk of peaches having been gathered in Delaware below Dover, and at points in Maryland. This year the reverse promises to be the case, the trees from Dover up being very full with blossoms, and with every indication of an enormous crop, while below the failure was almost total. The peach trees in Sussex county, and around that locality, were in bloom over three weeks ago, and about that time the weather became cold with frost, thus killing the fruit germ. This is said to be the reason of the failure in the lower part of the State as well as in the adjacent portions in Maryland. The peach growers in Dover today seem to think, however, that the crop of this year will be equal, if not greater, than last year, when it reached about 2,000,000 bushels. If the weather continues favorable, though it is almost too early to give a positive estimate as to what the crop will be, the following made by one of the most intelligent growers is thought, will prove to be correct: All south of Dover, 1,000,000 bushels; Dover station, 100,000; Middle town, 75,000; Clayton, including peaches from Maryland, 250,000; Green ring, 75,000; Blackbird, 75,000; Townsend, 200,000; Greens, 100,000; Middle town, 100,000; Armstrong, 100,000; Pleasant, 300,000; Kirkwood, 150,000; total, 2,125,000. According to this estimate there will be no scarcity of the delicious fruit, though the business will be a losing one to the growers south of Dover, who last year had almost a monopoly of the trade. Still the growers have great faith in the coming profit of the trade, judging from the large number of new trees set out last fall and this spring. The trees of the State's early variety have lost their popularity with many of the growers in Somerset county and in many of them have been cut down to make room for other favorites. At the meeting of the growers today the question of opening new outlets and getting reduced rates on old ones, was thoroughly discussed. A series of resolutions were adopted, protesting against the Delaware peach growers, and discriminating in favor of those in Maryland, and also that $75 is as much as should be charged per car load of peaches from Dover to Jersey City.

Fellows Falls seems a good place to start cremation. It has no graveyard. A bill has been introduced in the Canadian House of Commons to abolish capital punishment.

NEWS GLEANINGS.

The dead Elmer Knapp believed firmly in a personal devil, who walked the earth in the form of a Universalist minister, or an editor.

A little boy in Concord got a bottle in play and poured the contents over his legs. The fluid was vitriol, and he was so burned as to be crippled for life.

Unruly Harvard students blow up the reservoir in the college yard with gunpowder on the night that the faculty meet, and "watch 'em jump" at the noise.

Gov. Wm. B. Washburne, the new Senator for Massachusetts, is not related to the celebrated Washburne family of which Gov. Israel Washburne, Gov. C. C. Washburne, and E. B. Washburne are members.

The bar at the Southwest Pass of the Mississippi river is a source of constant annoyance to seamen. The channel is so narrow that the grounding of a single vessel blockades the port of New Orleans.

Over forty vessels were thus detained four last week. It is a singular fact that when the river is highest the bar is shallowest.

Just us' chignons are going out of fashion a material has been discovered which might be used profitably in their manufacture. A dwarf palm which grows in Algiers, Africa and on the isthmus of Panama has leaves, the fibre of which, when dyed, black, twisted and curled, resemble horse hair. There is no reason why they should not be used for wigs.

THE PHOTOGRAPH FAMILY RECORD.

The experiment of lighting street lamps with electricity, which New York has just money enough to try, is to be carried out in Providence, R. I.

North Carolinians are trying to tempt profitable immigration by the statement that a home in the pine woods is a sure cure for consumption.

THE PHOTOGRAPH FAMILY RECORD.

The Photograph Family Record is a work that should find a place in every home in the land. It is an Elegant Oil Chromo, Photograph Album and Family Record combined, of the highest finish and of most tasteful design. The subject is allegorical in its nature; there are scenes representing the four principal periods of life, namely, childhood, youth, manhood and old age; these scenes are ingeniously and prettily grouped together and are surrounded by a handsome frame work of blue, gold and flowers, in which there are eight oval openings or spaces of the present size for the insertion of ordinary photographs. Under these openings are blank spaces for the autographs, dates of birth, etc., of those whose pictures are intended to be placed above. It is a lovely home adornment and a pleasant reminder of the loved ones living and dead. All who have seen it will press their pleas and satisfaction as to the beauty and originality of design. The grouping of its figures and the scenery surrounding them are realistic and natural. It must be seen to be fully appreciated and understood. Its low price, $1.50, places it within the reach of all. It is mailed, post-paid, to any address on receipt of price, by The Beverly Co., 978 Wabash Ave., Chicago. See their advertisement in another column.

THE GEN MICROSCOPE.

The Gen Microscope is truly an optical wonder. It reveals thousands of unseen wonders of the microscopic world, minute creations; the small world teeming with animal life, the little things of nature with which we are surrounded, but which are invisible to the naked eye, the thousand and one curiosities and minute objects with many of which we are familiar, but which have never been revealed to them, but which to the unaided vision have remained a sealed book, are brought within the reaching reach of our sight and understanding by the use of the Gen, and many wonders entire new to us are also brought to sight by its use. No article for the same price has ever been offered to the public which combines the essential points of valuable instruction and entertainment, refined amusement to so great an extent as this instrument; every family has only to appreciate its merits to be ready to purchase it. It is a low priced that everybody can have one, and so simple a child can use it. Parents should provide their children with this valuable instructor. This Microscope possesses the great advantage of being used by lamp light as well as by daylight and thus affords entertainment and instruction during the day and at night. It is sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of price ($1.50), to any address by The Beverly Co., 978 Wabash Ave., Chicago. See their advertisement elsewhere.

Agricultural Farm, Garden, and Household.

FARM NOTES.

The distance for planting grape vines varies according to the variety. For slow-growing sorts, like the Delaware, six feet is the proper spacing; for rampant growers, like the Concord, ten feet is close enough, and if there is sufficient room, fifteen feet will, after a few years, prove no waste of ground.

It is a new wrinkle in horse science that when a horse is nine years old, a wrinkle comes on the upper corner of the lower eyelid, and thereafter every year comes another wrinkle.

The Virginia Delta reports that about 1,000 head of cattle were killed during the past season by the settlers around the lakes of Kern county, California, in defense of their crops, and there is a strong feeling in that part of the country in favor of the anti-fence law.

A Jersey farmer has discovered a new fertilizer which is cheaper than guano and more effective and this is corn meal. It is a applied in the hill, and it causes, as he declares, a wonderful growth.

A practical man says: "Cattle do not chafe grain as they do hay, therefore it is better to have it ground. I have seen this matter carefully tried, and particles of the barley and oats would pass through whole thus showing that they were not chewed after having once passed through the mouth. I do not believe in cooking food for cattle, and I know it is best to have it ground fine."

CORN AND HOGS.

Below are statistics which possess the merit of being at least a guide for making calculations. Every producer and intelligent farmer understands perfectly and acts continually upon the fact that one bushel of corn properly fed, and with good care for the hogs, will make ten pounds of gross pork. From this admitted fact we deduce the following:

Corn fed out at 12 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 14 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 20 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 2 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 25 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 3 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 30 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 4 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 35 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 5 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 40 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 6 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 45 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 7 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 50 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 8 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 55 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 9 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 60 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 10 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 65 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 11 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 70 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 12 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 75 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 13 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 80 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 14 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 85 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 15 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 90 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 16 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 95 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 17 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 100 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 18 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 105 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 19 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 110 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 20 cents per pound gross.

Corn fed out at 115 cents per bushel will fatten hogs at 21 cents per pound gross.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the low ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bowels are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially in the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative exerting a powerful influence upon these vital organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the black, colored, or bilious matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive system.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fortified.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Gout, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the Region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Gout, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Ulcers, Mercurial Affections, Skin Diseases, Eruptions of the Skin, and all other eruptions of the skin, are the result of Impure Blood. Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Painters, Type-setters, Gold-beaters and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Sulfur, Itch, Bores, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurs, Discolorations of the Skin, Hives and all diseases of the skin, whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pain, Tape, and other Worms. In the system of so many thousands, are affectionally destroyed and removed. No system of medicine so remedial, so unobtrusive, will free the system from these parasites.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Bitters display so decided an influence that no important case can escape their influence when it is used.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
