ACADEMIC REGALIA

The traditional caps and gowns worn by students and faculty in the academic procession have been the historic costume of scholars since medieval times. Because many scholars of that period were members of monastic orders, the academic costume resembles ecclesiastical dress.

A uniform code for academic costumes was drafted by an intercollegiate commission in 1893 and has since been adopted by the majority of colleges and universities in the United States. Each of the three academic degrees—bachelor's, master's and doctor's—has its own distinctive gown and hood. The gown representing the bachelor's degree is distinguished by its long, pointed sleeve. The master's gown has a longer, narrow closed sleeve, extending below the knee; the arm is passed through a slit at the elbow. In contrast, the doctor's gown has a full, bell-shaped sleeve with three bars of velvet. The opening of this gown (and the backs of the head) is faced with wide velvet bands, which may be black or of a color indicating the general field of learning of the wearer—for example, dark blue for philosophy, green for medicine, purple for law, and light blue for education.

The most colorful and distinctive item of the academic costume is the hood, which passes around the neck and extends down the back. The colors of the silk lining exposed in the center of the hood are those of the college or university which conferred the degree.

Listed below are examples of institutional colors worn by Salisbury State College faculty:

Salisbury State College	Maroon and Gold
University of Maryland	Black and Old Gold Chevron
University of Iowa	Old Gold
University of Texas	Orange and White Chevron
University of Alabama	Crimson and White Chevron
Rutgers University	Scarlet
University of Oregon	Lemon Yellow and Emerald Green Chevron

Ohio University	White and Olive Green Chevron
University of Illinois	Navy Blue and Orange Chevron
New York University	Violet
University of Kansas	Harvard Crimson and Yale Blue Chevron
University of Pittsburgh	Navy Blue and Gold Chevron
University of Pennsylvania	Cardinal and Navy Blue Chevron
University of Indiana	Crimson and Cream Chevron
