

Spc
LB 1885
.F7
N4
1945

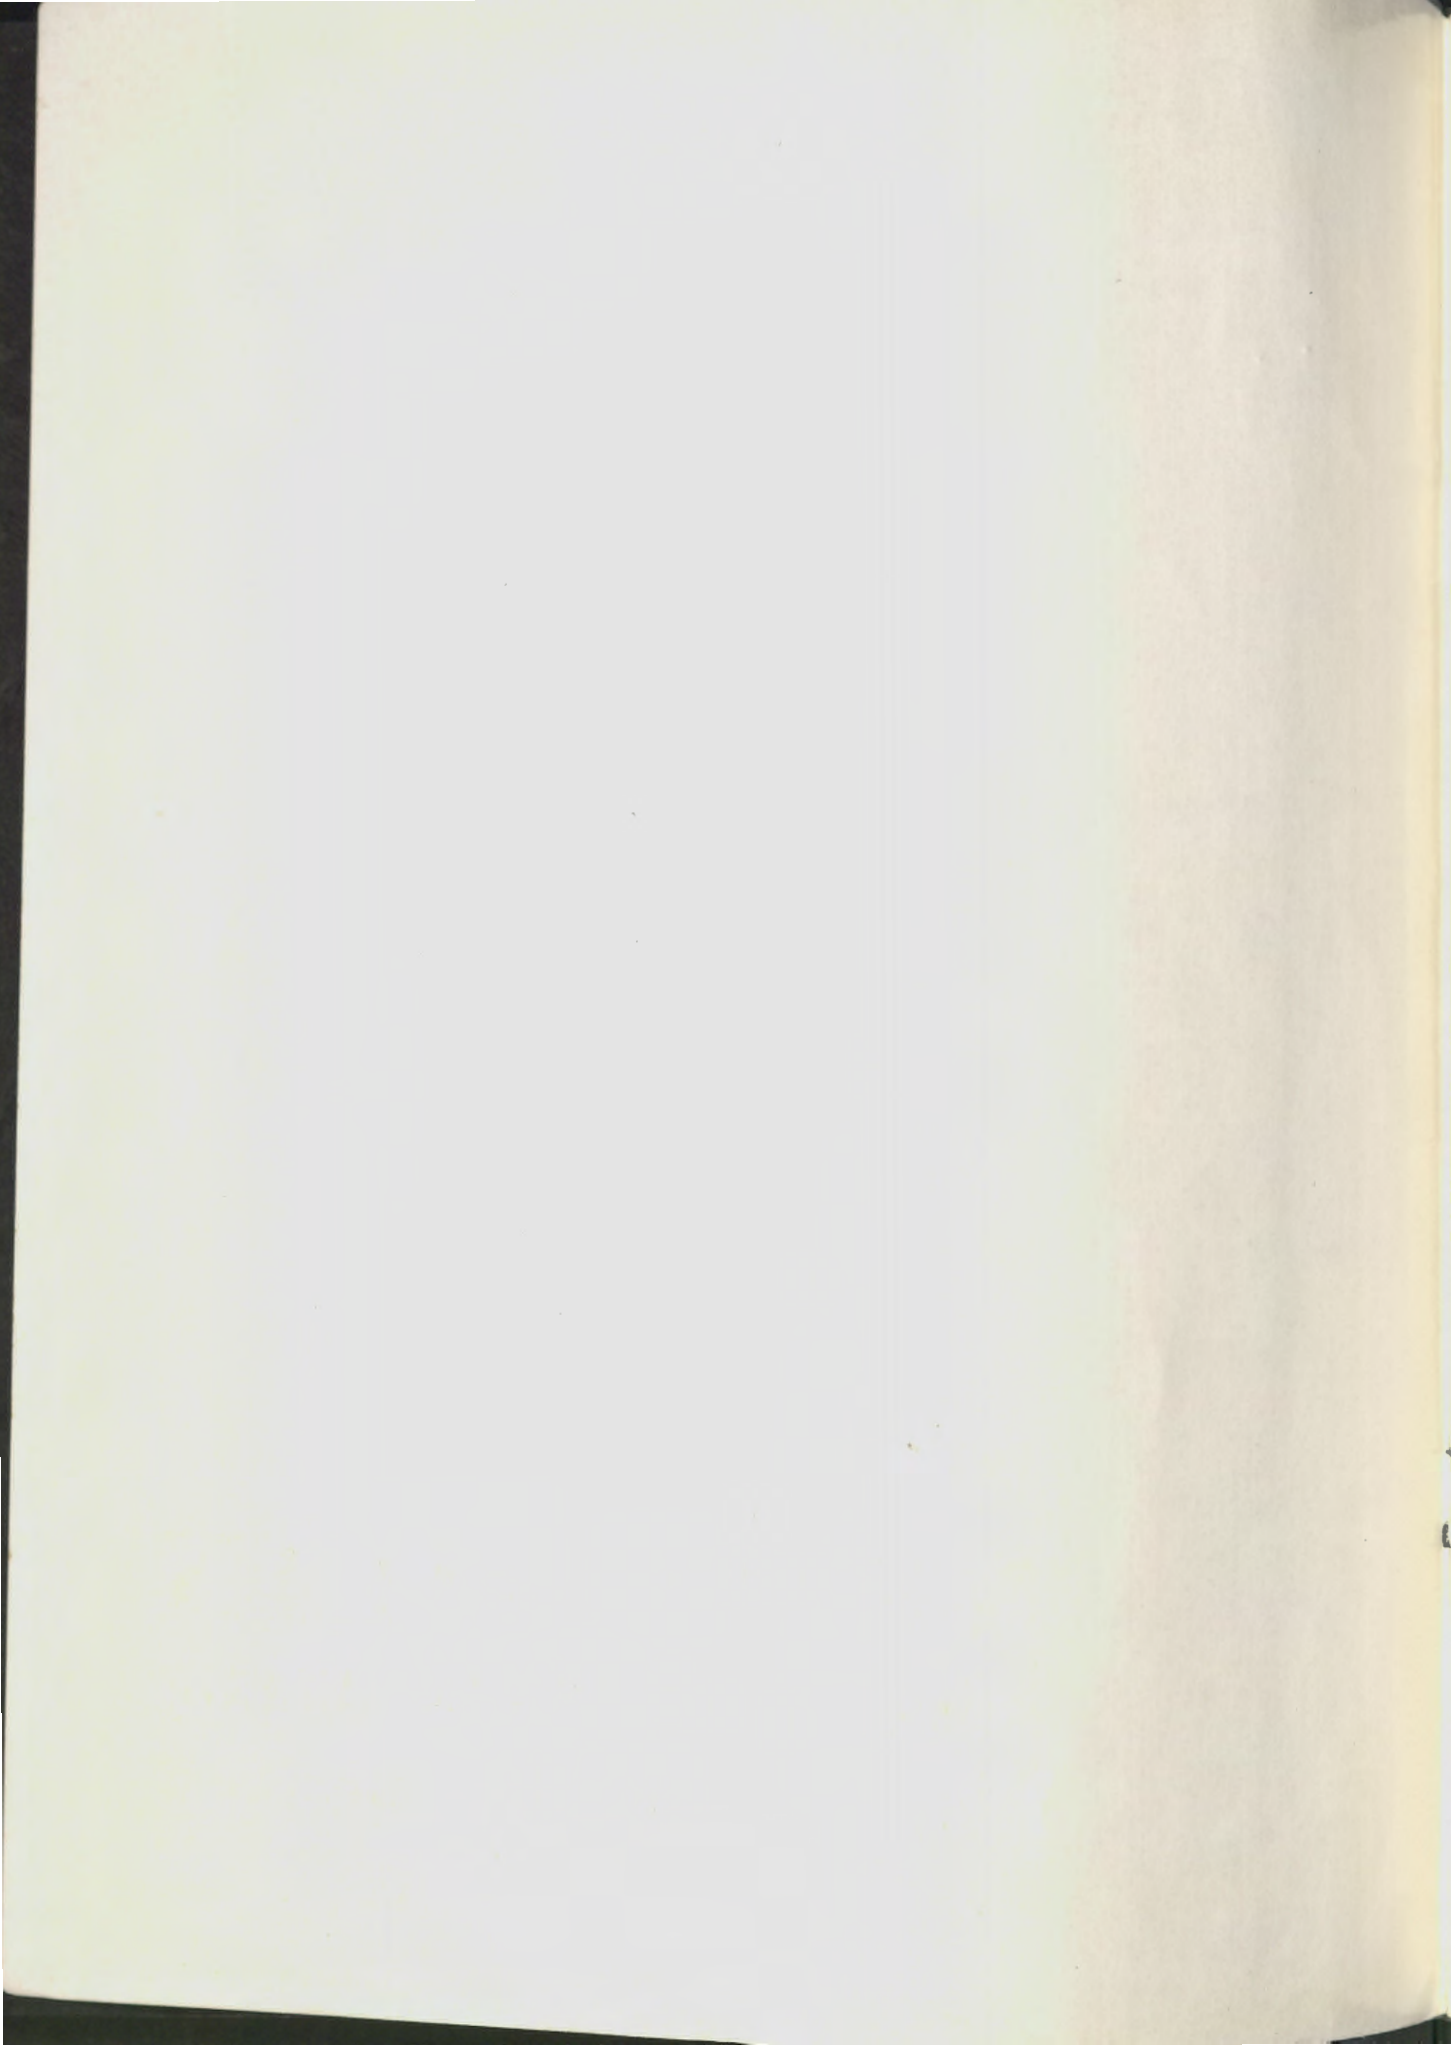

NEMACOLIN
1945

1945

N E M A C O L I N

STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

Frostburg, Maryland

TEACHERS COLLEGE LIBRARY
FROSTBURG, MARYLAND

SOC
LB 1885
F 7 N 4
1945

Seniors

Geraldine Glenn "Jerry" . . .
 Friendsville . . . genial . . . obliging . . . confident . . . Who's Who . . .
 Student Congress . . . class president
 . . . Sorority . . . Student Leader
 Award . . . president F. T. A. . . .
 State on the March . . . New York delegate . . . cadet-taught at New Market, Frederick County . . . will teach in Frederick County.

Bernadine Boyle, "Bee" . . .
 Mount Savage . . . flirtatious . . .
 W. R. A. . . . Maryland Singers
 . . . shines on a dance floor . . .
 has not accepted a position as yet.

Maxine Agnew, "Max" . . . Frostburg . . . knows her mind and speaks it . . . F. T. A. . . . Sorority
 Delta . . . W. R. A. . . . Student Leader award . . . Who's Who . . .
 President of Little Theater . . . elo-cutionist . . . New York delegate . . .
 prowess on basketball floor . . . admires two military branches . . .
 will teach in Cumberland, Allegany County.

Peggy Couchman, "Peg" . . .
 Hagerstown . . . loves a tan . . .
 Sorority . . . F. T. A. . . . tennis . . . class president . . . engaged to Jim . . . will teach at Winter Street, Hagerstown.

Eva Cook, Kempton, W. Va. . . . president of Little Theater . . . Student Congress . . . F. T. A. Sorority . . . Who's Who . . . stunning wardrobe . . . will teach at Westbrook, Montgomery County.

Virginia Boyer, "Ginny" . . .
 Frostburg . . . dependable . . .
 jolly . . . F. T. A. president . . .
 publications . . . Sorority . . . Day Council . . . senior artist . . . State on the March . . . Student Congress . . . cadet-teaches in Ellerslie, Allegany County.

Phyllis Holmes, "Slink" . . .
Cumberland . . . ready, willing, and able . . . candid . . . F. T. A. . . .
President of S. C. A. and I. R. C.
. . . Student Leader Award . . .
Maryland Singers . . . delegate to Jacksons Mills . . . U. S. Army fan
. . . will teach at Centre Street, Cumberland.

Nancy Kalbaugh, "Nance" . . .
Frostburg . . . clever, carefree, and conversational . . . hostess at Gus's
. . . has her head "in the clouds"
. . . Celanese.

Betty Matese, Frostburg . . . very quiet . . . unassuming in conversation and in classroom . . . noted for wardrobe . . . black hair . . . sailor dances . . . will teach in Four Corners, Montgomery County.

Helen Glotfelty, hails from Garrett County . . . good-natured . . .
sociable . . . Sorority . . . president
F. T. A. . . . State on the March . . .
New York delegate . . . Little Theatre . . . Student Congress . . . interested in China . . . noted for picture collection . . . will teach in Carroll County.

Isabel Devine, "Izzie" . . . West-ernport . . . conscientiousness personified . . . deceptively studious looking . . . Sorority . . . F. T. A.
. . . publications editor . . . Who's Who . . . Student Leader Award
. . . class president . . . cadet-taught at Mount Airy, Carroll County . . . will teach in Montgomery County.

Aden Lewis, Frostburg . . . "Genius" . . . happy-go-lucky . . . uncertain and as unpredictable as the weather . . . prodigy . . . noted for "boogie-woogie" and Chopin . . .
will continue music studies in Chicago.

Doris Marshall Middleton,
"Mash" . . . Hagerstown . . . diminutive . . . infectious giggle . . . Sorority . . . F. T. A. . . . S. C. A. . . . delegate to Jacksons Mill . . . House president . . . Student Congress . . .
Arch's wife . . . July bride . . . will teach in Cresaptown, Allegany County.

Betty Gowland Workman,
Cumberland . . . individualist . . .
F. T. A. . . . I. R. C. . . . W. R. A.
. . . petitions . . . Don's wife . . .
will teach in Pennsylvania where Don's going to school.

Phyllis Mathews, "Phyl" . . .
Cumberland . . . fair skin . . . willing and gracious helper . . . House Council president . . . Sorority Delta
. . . F. T. A. . . . Little Theater . . .
Student Congress . . . publications
. . . W. R. A. . . . representative to New York . . . Student Leader Award
. . . sailor . . . will teach in Carroll County.

Mary Meek, Frostburg . . . friendly and loyal . . . always a big smile . . . traveling salesman . . .
hasn't accepted a position as yet.

Corlista Murphy, "Pat" . . .
Grantsville . . . good sport . . .
W. R. A. president . . . Student Day Council . . . Student Congress . . .
F. T. A. . . . star athlete . . . Meek's star boarder . . . engaged to Wilfred . . . will teach in Sandy Springs, Montgomery County.

Hilleary Rockwell, "Rocky" . . .
Brunswick . . . regular fellow and a one-girl man . . . Who's Who . . .
Student Leader '44 . . . cadet-taught at Fort Hill . . . Columbia summer school . . . nuts about "cookies."

Frances Goodwin, "Very" . . .
revolutionary . . . graduated in February . . . teaching in Prince George's County . . . I. R. C. . . . W. R. A.
. . . Student Leader '44 . . . Little Theater . . . likes a good time . . .
knack for sewing.

Class '45

To think that it has been three years since we started on the rocky road to education. Air-raid! Pig-tails! Shoe shined! Yes, we were initiated and suffered for one long week. It has been so long since we went through this inferno, we now feel quite old, and wise, and experienced.

Only now can we look back and remember the many events of our life at State. Our original class of 31 has become a graduating class of 18. Many of the changes have been the inevitable outcome of war. What began as a poorly balanced ratio of men and women has resulted in no balance at all. However, we can still point to Aden Lewis and Rocky as vestiges of what might have been.

From purely informational instruction we have since gone on to the theoretical and practical education. But will we ever forget those revealing discussions in Dr. McClellan's English classes, or the horrible odors of Chemistry—not to mention the problems! And Dr. Jump's Biology—page upon page of perfect notes, organized in his inimitable way. Not to be outdone by the past however, we now have Dr. Howard's social issues and Miss Harvey's five systems lectures. Then, too, we can't omit those grueling hours of cramming Geography, or memorizing syllables for Junior Music only to find that we can't sing anyway. Our last memories of Art could be described as a whirl of friezes, picture studies, finger painting and modeling. The climax was reached in the memorable Education classes—two long hours of heated discussions, mountains of books, longer mimeographed reference sheets, and notes, notes, notes. As a bird's-eye view of our future life we recall practice teaching, critical but helpful critics, energetic children, and often times lesson plans and units to be written.

Now we can say that it is all safely past—anyway it is over! It wasn't too bad really—we wouldn't have missed those gab-fests in the dayroom, the sailor dances, the nightly gripe sessions in the dorm, freezing in the library, tennis, sun bathing, and oh, countless pleasures that make college life real to us all.

So, as 18 weary, yet happy seniors prepare to graduate, we stop a minute to remember three of the most active and important years of our lives.

In-Service Graduates

Helen Sallors Buchanan,
Teacher of second grade at Oakland Elementary School in Garrett County . . . Hobbies are walking, photography and learning poetry.

Nellie Deneen, Teacher of first and second grades at Oldtown School in Allegany County . . . Hobbies are those of writing and collecting poems.

Elizabeth Kalbaugh Rank, teaches fifth grade at Grantsville
. . . Mother of two Training School pupils.

Alice Wilkes Wills, teacher in Barton Elementary School in Alle-gany County.

Undergraduates

The undergraduates are camera shy, we are told, so we have just a few represented here. Actually there are seventeen juniors, nineteen sophomores and nine summer freshmen. We look to these energetic students to keep State humming next year. The juniors boast that theirs is the laziest class on campus; the others deny this strenuously. The sophomores insist that theirs is the unique class, originality and good sportsmanship characterize their activities. For proof of this look to our new freshies, recently initiated into college life by these fun-lovers. For one long week they suffered cheerfully and we can all say of them—they are truly worthy members of State.

Incidentally, the attractive mural found on the Day Room wall is a result of the Junior Class. Hikes, hay rides, "Patience," "Athapastusical," weather reports, theater and bowling parties, assembly programs, initiations, machine tests, and club meetings help to make life interesting for these students.

Left to right, first row: Ruth Fazenbaker, Helen Cooke, Emmamae Morgan, Nancy Gibney.

Second row: Gloria Nesbitt, Betty Welsh, Barbara Martin, Darleen Warnick, Irene Middleton.

Third row: Marion Shaw, Vadna Miller, Dorothy Snyder.

In-Service Teachers

The summer of 1945 found a large number of in-service teachers from many parts of Maryland on the State Teachers College Campus. The majority remained for two weeks attending the Workshop in which they concentrated on the needs of their professional work and left better prepared to effectively discharge their duties. A smaller group remained to carry academic subjects, to extend their certificates or acquire credits toward a degree.

The group represented the thousands of teachers in our state and nation who—in war or peace—are performing a great civic job.

As teachers they represent a group of workers who have seen firsthand the effects of war upon American children—not the effects of horror or deprivation—but the effects of relaxing parental guidance, of broken homes, of puzzling situations. It is they who have dealt with these problems of the children in their care with great resourcefulness, understanding and faith.

It is easily understood why so many in-service teachers should feel the need for more guidance and avail themselves of the opportunity afforded them at the State Teachers College.

Many of these same teachers will return to the Campus next year—others will come with them—for, who is better able to realize the need for well-trained school personnel than those teachers who are now in the service?

Campus Life

Chorus Girls of the 20's

Don't worry—nobody else knew what it meant either

Part of Athapastusical cast

Left to right, first row—Phyllis Mathews, Dottie Snyder, Very Goodwin. Second row—Barbara Martin, Betty Schlunt, Nancy Gibney, Jerry Glenn.

More of Athapastusical cast

Left to right—Doris Middleton, Rosemary Buckalew, Helen Glatfelty.

Spanish-America Goes To Allegany and Garrett Counties

Sitting—Tillie Over, Bernadine Boyle, Becky Wilson, Pat Murphy, Jerry Glenn. Standing—William Mooky, Neva Webb, Ruby Byers, Aden Lewis, Beulah Eby, Very Goodwin, Donald Workman, Mr. Matteson.

Group of Dragoon Guards from Patience

First row—Miriam Orndorff, Eva Cook, Connie Philips, Betty Welsh, Darleen Warnick. Last row—Gloria Nesbitt, Phyllis Mathews, Peggy Couchman, Jean Weller, Christine Riggelman, Irene Middleton.

Senior Students Learning Bookmaking in Children's Literature

Left to right—Phyllis Mathews, Tillie Over, Eva Cook

Left to right—Dottie Snyder, Idabelle Ewing, Helen Kreiling, Mary Grace Rolins, Helen Cooke.

Sorority Initiation, Feb. 1944

Purple bows and everything

Good neighbor policy was helped, we hope, by letters written to Brazilian air cadets by these students.

Autographs

Photos by HOWARD WARD
Frostburg, Md.

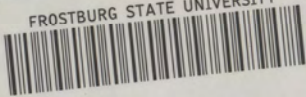

Printing by
HERALD PRINTING HOUSE
Piedmont, W. Va.

FROSTBURG STATE UNIVERSITY

3 2060 00195217 1

