BIOGRAPHIES

Conductor Lee Knier directs the Salisbury "Pops" Concert Band at Salisbury University where he also teaches courses in music and applied brass lessons. A graduate of both Temple and Arcadia universities, he earned degrees in music education and performance with concentrations in trombone and conducting. He has served as interim conductor of the Salisbury Symphony Orchestra, assistant conductor of the New Jersey Youth Orchestra and assistant director of bands at Temple University. Formerly a trombonist with the St. Peter-by-the-Sea Orchestra, he is currently principal trombone with the Mid-Atlantic Symphony Orchestra. He also has performed regularly with the Metro Lyric Opera Orchestra, Garden State Philharmonic, Brookdale Big Band, and Tex Benecke and the Modernaires. He has toured with the Nelson Riddle Orchestra and the Glenn Miller Orchestra directed by Buddy DeFranco. Knier lives in Salisbury with his wife Veronica, a pianist, and their son.

Timea Bodi is a native of Lugoj, Romania. She graduated from "Ion Vidu" Music College where she won prestigious piano competitions. Bodi was hired in the Philharmonic Choir for three years while attending Music University of Timisoara, and then she decided to journey to another continent. After a transition break, she was admitted to Salisbury University with a major in piano performance under the guidance of Dr. Linda Cockey. Bodi's dream is to attend graduate school.

Dr. John R. Lamkin II is the director of bands and coordinator of music education in the Department of Fine Arts at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore. Lamkin is primarily responsible for the instrumental music program at UMES, where he also teaches applied brass lessons and courses in music education, and supervises student teachers. Lamkin received his undergraduate degree in music education from South Carolina State College, his Master of Music Education from Morgan State University and his Ph.D. in curriculum and instruction with a concentration in music education from University of Maryland College Park. Prior to joining the faculty at UMES in 1984, he taught in public school systems in South Carolina and Baltimore. As a professional trumpet player, Lamkin has performed with Eubie Blake, the Manhattans, the Dells, Stephanie Mills, Maurice Hines, Bob Hope, Stanley Turrentine, Sonny Stitt, Charlie Earland, Vaughn Freeman, Frank Foster, the Washington Jazz Battalion, Peabody Jazz Ensemble, Baltimore City Jazz Band, Len Gray Orchestra, Baltimore Cultural Arts Big Band, Hank Levy Alumni Band and the Blue Moon Big Band. In 1984, Lamkin recorded his only album titled Hot.
