Fehle Senior Recital

Soprano Laura Fehle will present her senior recital Sunday, Nov. 13, at 3 p.m. in PAC Pealer Recital Hall. The performance is free and open to the public.

Fehle will present Antonio Vivaldi's "Si, si, luci adorate" featuring Dr. Ellen Grolman on violincello. Accompanied by pianist Judith Brown,

Fehle will perform works by Edvard Grieg, Reynaldo Hahn, Friederich Flotow, Samuel Barber and W.A. Mozart, as well as Aaron Copland's "Laurie's Song" (from "The Tender Land") and Ricky Ian Gordon's "Once I Was."

For info, contact the Department of Music at x4109.

WFWM Benefit Concert

Bear Hill Bluegrass

A benefit concert for WFWM Public Radio will be held Saturday, Nov. 19, at the Bottling Works on Main Street in Romney, W.Va. Doors will open at 7 p.m. and the concert will start at 7:30 p.m.

The concert will feature old-time mountain bluegrass. Performers include the Hampshire County Old-Time Musicians from the Romney area;

Bear Hill Bluegrass from Moorefield, W.Va.; and Black Diamond, a Cumberland-based bluegrass band.

Tickets are $10 and will be available at the door on the night of the concert.

For info, call x4143.

Workshops

Music and Writing Workshop

The Frostburg Center for Creative Writing will hold its fifth annual Music and Writing Workshop on Saturday, Nov. 5, from noon to 4:30 p.m. on the FSU campus. The program features three seminars designed to focus on the interaction between music and writing.

- "Muse as Muse" with Gerry LaFemina: This workshop asks participants to tune their ears to the possibilities of musicality. It also asks writers to consider the music they love as inspiration – whether it be lyrics, rhythm or melody.
- "Lyric Writing" with Gina Powell: Participants will listen to various successful songs to get a sense of how songs work. The group will also discuss process and come up with some prompts to write new lyrics for existing or new music.

- “Scene and ‘Zine – Writing About Music” with Jeff Henry: This workshop will create a Western Maryland music ‘zine and focus on reviewing writing, interviewing bands and other aspects of ‘zine creation.

The program is free and open to the public, with priority registration going to FSU and local students. Sign-up is on a first-come, first-served basis, and space is limited in each workshop.

For info, contact the Frostburg Center for Creative Writing at x4340 or cwcenter@frostburg.edu.

Presentations

Veterans Day Reading

FSU’s Sigma Tau Delta (the English Honors Society) will sponsor a Veterans Day Reading on Tuesday, Nov. 8, at 7 p.m. at Main Street Books, 2 E. Main St., in Frostburg. The reading is free and open to the public.

Students, faculty and members of the community will read selections from works of fiction, poetry, journals, letters and oral histories by and about veterans. These events are held to recognize and thank servicemen and women at FSU, in the community and nationwide.

For info, contact Dr. Mary Anne Lutz at mlutz@frostburg.edu.

Join Rockin’ Robins on Twitter!

Join FSU’s Becca Ramspott, public information specialist in Technology and New Media, for an HR workshop on Friday, Nov. 11, at 3 p.m. in Compton 101. Learn more about Twitter and how to use it effectively in this class for beginners.

For info, visit the Employee Training website at www.frostburg.edu/hr/trainingapp/public.

Visual Arts

‘Hateful Things’

A traveling exhibition of Ferris State University’s Jim Crow Museum of Racist Memorabilia will be at FSU’s Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery through Nov. 9.

“Hateful Things,” a sampling from the Museum’s 4,000 pieces, represents nearly 150 years of anti-black, racist objects and images. It addresses the relationship between Jim Crow segregation and everyday objects that belittle African-Americans.

Admission is free. The gallery is open Sunday through Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m.

For info, contact Dr. Amy C. Branam at x4293.

“Jim Crow and the Making of Pop Culture”

On Tuesday, Nov. 1, Dr. Greg Wood from the Department of History will present “Jim Crow and the Making of Pop Culture” at 6:30 p.m. in Fine Arts 132. The talk will focus on the history behind some of the objects in “Hateful Things.” The Roper Gallery will be open from 6 to 6:30 p.m. and again after the talk. This event is co-sponsored by the African-American Studies Society.

Points of Pride

FSU Homecoming Court Raises Nearly $5,000 for Charities

Homecoming Queen Sarah Thomas, Homecoming King Eric Stinchcomb and President Jonathan Gibraltar

Six FSU Homecoming Court candidates representing five organizations raised a total of $4,775.46 for charities as part of FSU’s Leadership and Homecoming festivities this year.

For the seventh year in a row, candidates for FSU’s Homecoming King and Queen and the organizations they represent raised money for charities as a way to support local and national organizations in need of financial support.

Students raised the money within a three-week time frame, and the candidates were interviewed. Then the student body was given a chance to vote for the King and Queen during the days leading up to Leadership and Homecoming Weekend. The winners were selected based on the student popular vote and were crowned at the Bobcat Growl Pep Rally on Oct. 20, which kicked off the Homecoming festivities.

Sarah Thomas, representing Delta Zeta, was crowned 2011 Homecoming Queen. Her organization raised $1,696.96 for the American Cancer Society. Eric Stinchcomb of Phi Mu Delta was crowned 2011 Homecoming King. His group raised $1,101.50 for SAFE (Saving Animals From Euthanasia).

In addition to reigning over the Leadership and Homecoming Weekend, the King and Queen received the Foundation Royalty Award, $250 each given to them by the FSU Foundation, Inc.

- Other participants for the 2011 Homecoming Court were:
- Jonathan Williams, representing the Student Government Association, who raised $47 for the FSU Foundation
 - Mary Biscoe, also representing SGA, who also raised $47 for the FSU Foundation
 - Kandice Lenhart of Alpha Sigma Alpha, who raised $1,415 for the Karsin Raine Valentine Memorial Fund
 - Valerie Rivera of Alpha Sigma Tau, who raised $515 for Habitat for Humanity
- For info, contact the SGA office at x4304.

MCA Conference Draws Crowd

FSU’s Department of Communication Studies hosted the 27th annual Maryland Communication Association conference, “Communicating Politically, Engaging Civilly,” at FSU in mid-October.

At the conference reception, former Gov. Robert Ehrlich was the featured political communication practitioner. The reception highlighted cross-disciplinary collaboration with the Departments of Communication Studies (CMST), Mass Communication (MCOM), Music and Political Communication as well as the J. Glenn Beall, Jr., Institute for Public Affairs. With piano performance by music professor Dr. Joan DeVee Dixon, a singing performance by communication studies professor Sheri Whalen with music major Erin Wheeler on piano, and a fiddle performance by Walker Magrath, the event showcased the outcomes of experiential learning projects and honored local Appalachian culture.

The conference also brought together more than 80 MCA members from 24 colleges and universities from within and outside Maryland for academic panel, roundtable and debate sessions. The keynote address was by Dr. Ted Sheckels, a political communication scholar.

CMST alumna Shavonne Shorter ‘08 received MCA’s first graduate student Founders’ Scholarship. Shorter is working on a doctorate in communication studies with an emphasis on organizational communication at Purdue University.

Company sponsors were McGraw Hill, Pearson, Bedford/St. Martins, Cengage Learning and RC Theaters.

For info on the conference or MCA, go to www.marylandcomm.org, or the CMST major/minor, www.frostburg.edu/dept/cmst.

FSU Students to Work on Museum Mural

Garry Ritchie, curator of the Frostburg Museum, discusses the desired finished result for a “trompe l’oeil” (“deceive the eye”) mural being painted at the Frostburg Museum. Some students from Kappa Pi, the art fraternity at FSU, Vanessa Gerstenberger, Alexander Brawn, Hannah Ehlman and Amber Hanigan, will work on the painting under the direction of Dennis Sherald, an art faculty member, local artist and muralist.

Social Marketing Team Visits College Park

In mid-October, FSU’s Social Marketing Team visited their peers at the University of Maryland at College Park. SMT explored marketing with the Adele H. Stamp Student Union Marketing Team and its assistant director of marketing, Andy Mrusko. The team also benchmarked its program with the University of Maryland’s. The FSU students returned with fresh ideas for promoting student and community involvement. Jonathan Franklin, Matt Gerwin, Stephanie Giles, Carolyn Maxim, Michael McNair, Brandie Shackelford, Rose Trimper, Bobbie Watson and SMT advisor Missy Martz attended the event.

‘SpotlightOnline’

The Social Marketing Team’s “SpotlightOnline” is a weekly preview of events and opportunities around campus. It is distributed via email every Monday to let everyone know what Student & Community Involvement has planned. Look for “SpotlightOnline” in the subject line and open for health tips, top-10 songs, quote of the week, videos, pictures and more.

Registration Reminder

Registration begins Monday, Oct. 31! Check your account to make sure everything is complete so you can register on time. Direct deposit is now available for all student refunds. Sign up through your PAWS account and avoid the lines in the Billing Office.

Wellness Clinic

The Department of Budget and Management is sponsoring a Wellness

Fair at FSU for state employees on Tuesday, Nov. 1, from 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). Representatives from Aetna, CareFirst, United Healthcare, United Concordia, CatalystRx and APS will be available to provide information about various wellness topics. A representative from the Allegany County Health Department will also be available to provide information about smoking cessation. For info, contact Lee Ann Nightingale at x4398.

Geography Dept. Welcoming Event

The FSU Department of Geography will hold a welcoming event for new and current students Wednesday, Nov. 2, at 7 p.m. in Gunter 208. Interested students can get info about the department’s major programs: geography, earth science, environmental analysis and planning, and urban and regional planning. Info about student organizations and internship opportunities will also be available.

B.Y.O.G.

Bring Your Own Game day is back in the Lane Center Game Room on Wednesday from noon to 11 p.m.! The center will lock up the University’s games and open the Xbox, Playstation and Wii gaming consoles for play and for students to share their own games. Admission is free. There is no charge to use the consoles. Next B.Y.O.G. days fall on Nov. 2, 16 and 30.

Want to Earn a Ph.D.?

Students who aspire to receive a Ph.D. and faculty and staff who can recommend students with Ph.D. potential are invited to attend an information session on the 2012 McNair Scholars Program on Tuesday, Nov. 8, in the President’s Board Room, Hitchins 218. Dr. Terri Wright, the director of the University of Maryland, College Park McNair Program, will speak at 11 a.m. and repeat her presentation at noon. The Ronald E. McNair Program serves students from groups under-represented in Ph.D. programs and is designed to prepare future college teachers and researchers. To be eligible, students must be low-income, first-generation college students, or members of a group under-represented in Ph.D. programs. Under-represented groups include African-Americans, Latinos and Native Americans in all fields, and women in science and technology fields. Students should be sophomores or juniors by May 2012 with a cumulative GPA of 2.8 or above. FSU partners with UMCP to offer the program, which provides a paid summer research experience and workshops on graduate school preparation. Interested students should contact Harriet Douglas at hdouglas@frostburg.edu or x4598, Mary Gartner at mgartner@frostburg.edu or x4212 or Tam Lowry at tlowry@frostburg.edu or x4481. For info and an online application, go to the UMCP McNair website at www.aap.umd.edu/mcnairprogram.html#. Applications are due soon after the first of the year.

Social Media in the Classroom?

The Social Media Group invites FSU faculty to complete a short survey about social media in the classroom. The group is interested in hearing about the pros and cons of using social media as a teaching tool, and whether more info and resources are needed. The long-term goal is to host a panel this spring featuring FSU educators who can share their knowledge on the topic. Access the survey at www.surveymonkey.com/s/ZND6G9K. The deadline for completing the survey is Nov. 11. Five participants who complete this survey will be awarded a free gift certificate for a medium coffee or smoothie from Java City in the Lane Center. A Frostburg2Go T-shirt will also be given away. P.S. Interested in how higher education is using social media? Be sure to check out the eFrostburg Community Facebook page at www.facebook.com/efrostburgcomm for a daily digest of social media news and updates.

Intercultural Conversations Mixer

The Student Communications Studies Association will hold an Intercultural Conversations Mixer on Monday, Nov. 14, at 6 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). The event will focus on learning the ways various cultures communicate. There will be an interactive ice-breaker that will lead into the main event, during which students will be divided into six tables to mix “speed dating style” but with the purpose of building cross-cultural awareness and friendships. Each table will have one or two “cultural” representatives who will talk about a communication topic placed on the table. Information relevant to intercultural and international education will be provided. For info, contact Jennifer Cruz at jscruz0@frostburg.edu or Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski at elruminski@frostburg.edu. Burg Peer Education Network Activities Great American Smokeout, Nov. 16 and 17, all day. This information/awareness booth will allow you to enter the world of a non-smoker! There will be all kinds of treats and gizmos to help and support you to be smoke-free. The non-smokers will also be recognized and encouraged to continue to make healthy choices. You can toss those packs in the Lane Center lobby box!

Maryland Charity Campaign

The 2011 Maryland Charity Campaign pledge drive is under way. This year's theme, "We Are All Connected," is a reminder that each one of us can make a difference in the lives of people in our communities, ensuring that help will be available for those who ask for it.

The MCC effort at FSU is "going green" and reducing the amount of paper used. Each department is receiving President Jonathan Gibralter's campaign kick-off memo with one copy of the charity directory via campus mail. Although employees will not get paper pledge sheets or their own copies of the charity directory as in past years, donating is more convenient than ever.

Online pledging by payroll deduction or credit card makes it easy to contribute to a charity of one's choice. Just $1 per pay period ($26 annually) helps someone in need. Go to www.mdcharity.org to find a charity and make a pledge.

To make a one-time donation by check or cash, or if you prefer not to pledge online, contact Kelly Durst at x7487 or kdurst@frostburg.edu for a printed pledge sheet and a charity directory.

New this year, Evergreen Pledging gives one the option to continue the MCC payroll deduction amount and charity designations for the 2012 and 2013 calendar years. Be sure to indicate a preference when pledging online or completing a pledge sheet.

For info, contact Durst or any of the site coordinators:

- Annapolis Hall – Bonnie Jackson
- Compton Science Center – Linda Steele
- Framptom Hall – Linda Brumage and Tammy Shockey
- Guild Center – Stacy Wassell
- Lowndes Hall – Carla Boone
- Performing Arts Center – Beth Andrews
- Pullen Hall – Anita McGregor
- Stangle Building – Kathy Leck

Make a pledge online or return your completed pledge sheet no later than Monday, Nov. 28.

Psychology Club at USMH

The next Psychology Club meeting at USM at Hagerstown will be on Monday, Nov. 28, from 6:15 to 8:30 p.m. The group will watch the film "Thank You for Smoking" and focus on the role of critical thinking in the film and the depiction of nicotine.

For info, contact Dr. Christopher Masciocchi at commasciocchio@frostburg.edu. The club is open to FSU psychology majors, as well as anyone else with an interest in psychology.

Plan to Graduate in December?

The 139th commencement ceremony is scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 20, in the Cordts PE Center. This is a change from previous years when it was usually held on a Saturday. The Colleges of Business, Education and Liberal Arts and Sciences will all present their graduates at 11 a.m.

Tickets will be required for admission. The number of tickets allotted to each graduate will be determined at a later date.

Complete your graduation application in PAWS now to receive information about the upcoming commencement.

Caps and gowns are provided at no cost. They may also be ordered at the University Store, but orders must be placed by Dec. 2.

Full details can be found on the commencement website at www.frostburg.edu/events/commencement. For info, contact Brittnei Teter at x4423 or bkteter@frostburg.edu.

Get Involved

Become a Member of the Tech Crew

Join the Lane Center Tech Crew today for an opportunity to obtain a behind-the-scenes experience associated with supporting conferences and events and how to set up and operate professional sound and lighting systems.

Experience is strongly preferred but all applications are encouraged. Apply online at <http://involvement.frostburg.edu/>. Submit applications by Nov. 2.

The Arboretum Needs You!

Special Arboretum Committee Meeting
Members of the FSU Arboretum Committee invite any faculty, staff or students interested in helping to attend a special meeting on Thursday, Nov. 3, from 3 to 4 p.m. in Compton 237. Come to learn about current plans for the Arboretum, find out how you can join the Arboretum Committee and help coordinate its efforts, and provide ideas and suggestions.

Arboretum Work Day
A work day is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 5. The group will meet at the gazebo near the stadium parking lot at 2 p.m. and work until 5 p.m.

For info, contact Dan Fiscus at x4170 or dafiscus@frostburg.edu, or go to the Arboretum website at www.frostburg.edu/dept/biol/arboretum.

Social Work Alliance

Social Work Alliance meetings are held every other Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. in the Guild Center conference room basement.

Oxfam Hunger Banquet

The Oxfam Hunger Banquet will be held Monday, Nov. 14, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall. The banquet is an amazing way for students, faculty and staff to learn about world hunger and ways they can help.

The event is sponsored by the Office of Volunteerism and National Service and AmeriCorps.

Attendees are asked to bring cans of food or a cash donation for the Frostburg Food Pantry.

For info, contact Ashley Daniels at amdaniels@frostburg.edu.

Thanksgiving Sponsor-a-Family

Through the 12th Annual Sponsor-a-Family Program, departments and organizations on campus can help make a difference by providing a food basket to a needy family in Western Maryland. Over the past 11 years, the Sponsor-a-Family Program has provided Thanksgiving baskets for more than 400 families! Last year FSU helped more than 70 families have a wonderful meal.

All baskets will be delivered on the Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving.

For info on the program or to sign up your office or organization to sponsor a family, contact Clarissa Lang at x4210 or calang@frostburg.edu.

Upcoming UCM Events

Group meetings are in Tawes 161. For info, contact the Rev. Dr. Cindy Zirlott at x7490 or c.zirlott@frostburg.edu.

The Frostburg Chili Cook-off will be held Friday, Nov. 4, from 5 to 8 p.m. at Frostburg United Methodist Fellowship Hall, 48 W. Main St. (dine in or take-out available). Get your tickets and sign up to enter your chili in the contest! Cook-off competition can be a team/group/department or individual for the People's Choice Award for Best Chili in Frostburg title. Tickets are $10 for an adult, $12 for a family ticket (which includes an adult and all children under 12) and $6 for students. Entertainment is included.

Spiritual Study Break
Contemporary Vespers Service is on Wednesdays from 9 to 9:45 p.m. The group will continue the series, “Building a Life That Counts – Why Am I Here?”

True North is a Sunday evening gathering of FSU students and other young adults in the Frostburg area who come together for conversational encounters with scripture. The group gathers at 6:45 p.m.; the new study series, “God + the Arts,” starts at 7 p.m.

Political Science/ Law & Society Majors

Tim Magrath will continue to conduct meetings for Political Science and Law and Society majors who plan to intern in spring or summer 2012 on the following Wednesdays at noon in Old Main 104: Nov. 16 and Dec. 7.

Students must attend at least one meeting if they want to participate. If unable to attend, contact Magrath in Guild 141, or at x4080 or tmagrath@frostburg.edu.
Of special interest for spring is the Maryland General Assembly Intern Program. Applicants must be juniors or seniors and have a GPA of 3.0 or higher. A stipend is awarded for participation.

Study Abroad

The Center for International Education offers various ways for FSU students to see the world. Students can pay FSU tuition, room and board and study for a semester or a year in Ireland, England, Spain, France, China, Italy, Australia, Peru, Botswana or in many other countries. FSU also offers summer study abroad programs. Financial aid, student loans and scholarships are available.

For info, visit the Fuller House (across the street from Braddock House), call x4714 or email Victoria Gearhart at vmgearhart@frostburg.edu. Also, check out the CIE website at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/stdyabrd.htm.

Changsha, China – Spring 2012

Through the China Exchange Program, FSU students can spend a semester at Hunan Normal University (www.hunnu.edu.cn/english/) in Changsha, Hunan Province, P.R. China. Students pay FSU tuition and fees (based on residency status) through their student e-bill account and pay room and board costs to Hunan Normal University. The cost of living is low and courses are taught in English.

Limerick, Ireland – Spring 2011

Students can study abroad for a semester in Ireland at Mary Immaculate College and pay FSU tuition. Financial aid can be used to help cover the costs of room and board. Credits will transfer back to FSU. Check out the website for Mary Immaculate College at www.mic.ul.ie/.

Student Life

Resident Assistants

The Residence Life Office and Edgewood Commons seek resident assistants for the spring semester. Applications can be picked up at the Residence Life Office or Edgewood Commons; completed applications are due Nov. 9.

Volunteers

Read to Succeed

Volunteers are needed on Thursdays at the South Cumberland Library to help mentor students in kindergarten to eighth grade. Transportation will be provided and volunteers will be able to earn money for federal work-study and volunteer and service learning hours for course requirements. They will also receive free training in mentoring/academic enrichment techniques. For info, contact Jamie Irvine at jirvine@frostburg.edu or x4191.
