COLUMBIA, GEM OF THE OCEAN.

She Wins Two Exciting Races and Will Keep the Cup on this Side of the Water—Shamrock a Great Racer.

America seems likely to again win the international yacht race. Unless the Shamrock can now win three races in succession, the much coveted cup will remain with us. Four contests have taken place, two being declared off as the boats were unable to finish the thirty mile course in the prescribed time. The other two were won by the Columbia but not without a great struggle and two of the most exciting yacht races in the history of the sport.

In the first race won by the American boat on last Saturday, she was led by the challenger for a good part of the race but finally passed her and crossed the line 25 seconds ahead. This with her time allowance made her the winner by one minute and eighteen seconds. No closer race was ever sailed.

The race on Thursday was over a triangular course of 80 miles and was covered in a little over three hours. The yachts made the first twenty miles in less than two hours and the last leg was covered in about an hour and a half. Few races have ever been sailed in such a short time. The Shamrock, whose skipper had out maneuvered the Columbia on the start, crossed the line ahead and led the way clear to the first mark, rounded the stake boat and continued to lead until the second mark was reached. This she rounded ahead but the Columbia had slightly decreased the lead and on the last leg began to steadily gain on her British rival.

Shortly after the second mark was passed the Columbia forged ahead and kept well to the front to the finish, crossing the line over a minute ahead and with the time allowance winning the race by two minutes and one second. This was a heart-rending race and it looked for most of the time as if the gallant Sir Thomas Lipton would have the pleasure of seeing his boat carry off the honors of the day, but the superiority of the American yacht finally prevailed and victory once more rested with the Columbia, "the gem of the ocean."

The next race will be sailed today, (Friday).

A Challenge for Lady Cleveland.

Mess. Editors:—I understand that Arthur Parsons says he will match any horse in Worcester County with "Lady Cleveland." I will match Raymond Belle for $50.00 to $100.00 against her, put up $25.00 forfeit and put the other up on the day of race, trot Snow Hill Oct. 8th during the races; or if that does not suit him I will trot at Salisbury on Tuesday Oct. 15th, or I will trot him Mr. George Collier's Sorrel horse "George R" at Salisbury or Berlin in two weeks time for $50.00 to $100.00 a side. Will put up $25.00 forfeit and the other on the day of race, or I will trot both horses against "Lady Cleveland."

And now I want him to put up or else hereafter shut up.

A. H. PERDUE, Snow Hill, Md.

Perdue's Challenge Accepted.

There never was such a report uttered from me that "Lady C." could beat any horse in Worcester or any other Co. It is possible Mr. Perdue was told so yet it is just as possible for him to form understandings. Last season Mr. Perdue challenged anything in Worcester and Wicomico with Lady Cleveland yet he never heard me say she could beat any horse. I will trot my mare Lady Cleveland against Raymond Belle on Berlin track October 10th for a purse of $100 of which I have $25 as forfeit in Editor of the Courier's hand, on day of race will put up balance $25; also will accept his challenge to trot Lady Cleveland against George R, a sorrel horse I understand better known as Tom Tit, on Berlin track a time named by Perdue to weeks from his challenge October 15 and am ready to cover him forfeit for the race.

What more does he want? Yes we all join you in the choruses, put up or shut up.

A. K. PARSONS, Parsonsburg Md.

—Mrs. E. Stanley Toadvin entertained a few of her friends at tea on Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Neily of Hazelton, Penn. Those present were Mrs. Neily, Miss Mary Reigart, Misses Jenkins, Mrs. Robt. F. Graham, Mrs. Saml. A. Graham, Miss Maria Edlewood, Mrs. W. B. Miller and Miss Irma Graham.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING.

Miss Carolyn L. Bell Of Salisbury Becomes The Bride Of Mr. Charles A. Morse, Of New York City.

One of the prettiest wedding ceremonies that has been solemnized in Wicomico Presbyterian Church for a long time took place last Wednesday at high noon, when Miss Carolyn Louise Bell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. Sydney Bell, of this city, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Adolphus Morse, Jr., of New York City. Rev. S. W. Reigart, D.D., pastor of the church, read the nuptial service.

The wedding marches were played by Mrs. J. Douglas Wallop, and previous to the ceremony she rendered an elaborate musical program, which included the following:

Melodie in F.....Rutenstein
Aria.....Mozart
March from Tannhauser.....Wagner
Gayette.....Wolf
Evening Star Song.....Wagner
Selections from Faust.....Gounod

The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played as the wedding party entered the church, and the Mendelssohn Wedding March pealed out the recessional. During the ceremony the intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana was rendered.

A large and fashionable assemblage of invited guests was present which included a number of out of town people, the near friends and relatives of the bride and groom. Besides these the church could not contain the crowds that were present to witness the ceremony. The church was profusely decorated; the center aisle being made to have the appearance of a pathway lined on either side with golden rod, while banks of this beautiful wild flower were heaped about the altar and the pulpit.

The ushers were, Mr. Frederick G. Bell of Philadelphia, the bride's brother, Mr. John Schimmel, of East Orange, N. J., Mr. Alan F. Benjamin, of Salisbury, and Messrs. Grafton Duvall Dorsey, J. Harvey Connell, and Frank Jenks, of New York.

Promptly at the appointed hour the bridal party entered the church and proceeded up the aisle to the beautiful strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. Mr. Bell and Mr. Schimmel, ushers, led the procession, followed by two bridesmaids, Miss Margaret E. Bell and Miss Margaret S. Morse, sisters of the bride and groom; these were followed by two other ushers and Miss May Burnett of Baltimore and Miss Julia McFarland of Washington, bridesmaids; then the two remaining ushers. Next came the maid of honor, Miss M. Edith Bell, the bride's sister, attired in a gown of yellow embroidered silk mulle, with yellow silk trimmings, and carrying a huge bouquet of white roses. The bride followed and was met at the altar by the groom, who had entered the church by the side door accompanied with his best man, Mr. Samuel Owen Edmonds of New York. The bride was closely followed by two bridesmaids, Miss Daisy M. Bell and Miss Virginia Gordy, both of Salisbury.

The bride's costume was exquisite; the gown being of white panne crepe de chine, made with full train, and trimmings of beautiful lace. She wore a long bridal veil of tulle caught at the crown with orange blossoms, and carried in her hand a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bride wore a pearl and diamond pendant, the gift of the groom, and a pearl brooch, an heirloom, a gift from the groom's mother.

The bridesmaids wore gowns of white dotted silk mulle, with yellow silk girdles, and carried large bunches of golden rod. The groom, best man and ushers were attired in frock coats, white vests, gray striped trousers and lavender kid gloves. They wore white Ascot ties and a white rose bud in the lapel of the coat.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was given at the home of the bride's parents on Main Street. The bridal party and the following guests were present:

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Morse, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Adolphus Morse, of Rochester, N. Y.; Miss Mary E. Sabies, of Gardner, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Bell, of Philadelphia; Mr. William Grange and the Misses Grange, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Coulbourn, and Dr. and Mrs. Gordon T. Atkinson, of Crisfield; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Gunby, of Hopewell; Miss Lillian Horsey, of Crisfield; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Gunby and Miss Gunby, of Virginia; Mrs. M. B. W. Gibbons, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. Ellen McFarland, of Charles-town, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Gunby, Mr. Graham Gunby, Mr. and Mrs. Somers Gunby, Mr. Edward Gunby, Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Slemmons, Miss Julia Dashiell, George W. Bell, Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Reigart, Col. Lemuel Malone, Miss Charlotte Huffington, Dr. and Mrs.

Louis Morris, Mrs. Balle H. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. D. Grier, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wallop, Dr. and Mrs. T. E. Martindale, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Williams, of Salisbury.

On Saturday evening, September 28th, Mr. Morse gave his bachelor dinner at the Calumet Club, Fifth Avenue, New York. On the same evening the bride entertained her bridesmaids at dinner at her home on Main Street.

The bride presented her maids with pins, wishbones and four leaf clover, set with pearls, and Mr. Morse presented his attendants with tiny golf bag scarf pins made of brilliants and emeralds.

The bridal presents are numerous and very handsome. Included among them is much very valuable cut glass and silver, beautiful specimens of hand work, books, pictures, and bric-a-brac. It is reported the groom made his bride a gift of a large block of valuable stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Morse left Salisbury in a private car on the three o'clock train Wednesday afternoon. After the wedding trip they will reside at the San Rafael, No. 65 West Forty Fifth Street, New York City. They will be at home after November first.

BROWN NAMED FOR JUDGE.

Well Known In The State—A Sketch Of The Nominee.

Denton, Oct. 3.—The Democratic Judicial Convention of the Second circuit met at 12 o'clock today and nominated the Hon. Edwin H. Brown for Judge of the Second Judicial Circuit to succeed the late Judge Stump.

Hon. Marlin DeK. Smith of Kent presided and J. Dukes Downes of Caroline and George O. Carey of Cecil were the secretaries. The only names before the body were those of Mr. Brown and Philemon B. Hopper, both of Queen Anne's county.

Mr. Brown was nominated by Thomas J. Keating of Queen Anne's and Mr. Hopper by Harvey L. Cooper of Caroline. The vote stood:—Hopper—Caroline, 3; Cecil, 4; Kent, 14. Brown—Queen Anne's, 4; Talbot, 4; Kent, 21.

Col Edwin H. Brown, the nominee for Judge, is the youngest son of the late Madison Brown. He was born in Queen Anne's county, where he has since resided, with the exception of a few years which he spent in Baltimore. In his early boyhood he attended the Centerville Academy and afterward a school near Churchville, Harford county; St. Timothy's Hall, Baltimore county, and a private school in Baltimore city. He read law with his father and brother. In 1873 he was admitted to the bar, and associated himself with his brother, who had been his father's partner. In 1875 he was elected State's Attorney for Queen Anne's county, succeeding the Hon. Thomas J. Keating, and served two terms. He filled the unexpired term of Stevenson Archer as Treasurer of the State of Maryland, being appointed by Gov. E. E. Jackson.

A Big Convention.

Final arrangements have been made that will put the State C. E. Convention in Baltimore this year far ahead of its predecessors. The immense Music Hall has been engaged for the night sessions, and an excellent chorus of 600 voices is in training now to furnish the music. Chorus of this kind are prominent features at the great International Conventions, but Maryland never before has tried one. Director Harris, known to all Endeavorers in Maryland, will have full charge of this feature and it is expected that much extra enthusiasm will be created by the old favorites and newer hymns and Anthems by such a large organization.

Although the Convention is to be held November 12, 13 and 14, this chorus is to give a public concert on the evening of November 7, at Music Hall, in order to defray the extra Convention expenses. Baltimore is preparing for a great time, and is expecting many delegates from this County. It is pleasant to note that these County delegates will be provided board free of cost. During the day lunch will be served at the Convention Church so that all the delegates have to do is to attend the convention, all things else are provided.

Unclaimed Letters.

List of unclaimed letters remaining in Salisbury, Md., Post Office, September 27th, 1901. Persons calling for these letters will please say they are advertised. E. S. ADKINS, P. M.
Mrs. Albertine Wise, Mrs. Julia Laws, Miss Anna Quinn, Miss Nettie Gordy (2), Mr. John Owens, W. S. Perdue, Esq., Milton R. Claffin.

A BIG BLAZE.

Salisbury Visited by Fires Early Wednesday Morning and Again on Wednesday Evening—A Frame Row Destroyed.

A very serious fire broke out in the dwelling of Mr. Sewell H. Richardson, South Division Street, at one o'clock Wednesday morning. The family had retired at the usual hour and had noticed no smell of smoke or any suspicious of fire. The flames were discovered by a passer by who soon aroused the family, but not before the fire had gained such headway that Mr. Richardson and his son, William, had to jump from the front windows of the burning building, their passage to the stairway being blocked by the now rapidly spreading flames. In jumping from the window Mr. William Richardson severely sprained one of his ankles and has since been unable to walk without the aid of a cane.

The fire department after it arrived upon the scene did heroic work in confining the flames to the Richardson dwelling and the large three story frame building adjoining it, owned by the Humphreys heirs. The burning buildings, all being frame, made a very hot fire and at one time it looked as if the flames would cross Division Street and lick up the frame row on the east side. This however was averted by the good work of the fire department.

The loss and insurance is about as follows: Richardson dwelling, insurance $1500, furniture in dwelling, insurance $500; Elijah J. Parsons, stock goods in Richardson building, damage about $100, covered by insurance, Humphreys building, $600 insurance; E. J. C. Parsons, stock goods in Humphreys building, damage about $100 covered by insurance; J. T. Wilson a portion of furniture and household goods in Humphreys building, no insurance; ware house and stock owned by L. W. Gunby, north of Richardson dwelling, loss unknown, fully covered by insurance.

During the fire Dr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Todd very kindly served hot coffee to the firemen which was most welcome and greatly appreciated.

It is believed that the square laid waste by the flames will be entirely rebuilt of brick. This will be a great improvement to that section of the town and will greatly diminish the chances of a conflagration in the future.

It is the common belief and seems to be the call that the fires in Salisbury come in bunches of three. About ten days ago a small fire occurred in California, on Wednesday morning the blaze just described and on Wednesday evening an alarm was given which carried the information that "Miller's Mill" was again on fire. The fire department responded and extinguished the flames before much damage was done. We should now have a rest for a while.

Resolutions of Respect.

At the regular meeting of the local Pythian Lodge last Thursday evening, the following resolutions in relation to the death of President McKinley were unanimously adopted:

Whereas in the order of an all-wise, yet mysterious and unsearchable providence, the Supreme Ruler has permitted the death of the beloved President of the United States, William McKinley, at the hands of an assassin;

And whereas the public and private life of the late Chief Magistrate was such as to command the warmest admiration of his friends and the utmost respect of his foes;

And whereas his sudden death in such a tragic manner is a national calamity, and has plunged the entire country into profound and sincere mourning;

And whereas the late President was our brother in Pythian Knighthood, and a true admirer of its lofty principles and noble ideals;

Now therefore, be it resolved by Salisbury Lodge, No. 56, Knights of Pythias, that we deeply deplore the untimely death of our beloved Ruler, and while bowing in lowly submission to the will of the great Eternal Ruler, say, with the dying President, "Thy Will be Done."

Resolved, That we extend to his grief stricken and heart broken companion our deepest sympathy, and commend her, in this dark hour of suffering and sorrow, to the God of all consolation, who afflicts but to bless, and who upholds His people sustained by His great Omnipotent hand.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Lodge and be given to the local papers for publication.

Our nation's head is now deceased, And many tears are shed, From eases and duties he's released By the assassin's lead.

He was our country's loved one, By friend and foe the same, Not merely by our nation For all tongues spoke his fame.

And now that he's departed By the will of Him above, May his name go down in history While we speak of him in love.

WE HAVE Fall Shoes By the Wagon Load.

$1.00 Shoes.

No, these Shoes are not worth $5.00, nor sold in other stores for $4.50 as some dealers advertise their low priced Shoes, but they certainly are the best $1.00 Shoes we have ever owned or sold.

Dollar Shoes for Men, Women & Children

These Shoes are not trash but are made of good leather—on good lasts—made to look like higher grade Shoes—made to give every customer who buys them ONE DOLLAR'S WORTH OF HONEST SERVICE.

Some of our patrons say they do even more—Well, so much the better, but come here for $1.00 Shoes.

Our $1.50 Shoes.

We make a specialty of medium priced Shoes and we aim to sell the best Shoes at each price that the money will buy anywhere. Every member of the family can be fitted here in our $1.50 SHOES and get full satisfaction. We are careful not to over-rate our medium priced shoes, but will state plainly there are no better $1.50 Shoes sold than ours. All sizes, good Leathers, Fall and Winter Styles are ready.

$2 Shoes.

Of course we are aware that you can buy $2.00 Shoes anywhere, but we are not aware that you can buy Shoes like ours anywhere for $2.00. Our Shoes at $2.00 are the best Shoes for the money to be had. We say this to the best of our knowledge and belief. We have $2.00 Shoes to fit all feet. Every Woman and every Man in town can be fitted here at $2.00. Good Calf-skin stock goes into our Winter $2.00 Shoes and the styles are exact duplicates of the higher grades. If you wear $2.00 Shoes, try ours, perhaps you will find them the best $2.00 Shoes you ever had on your feet. We believe you will.

$2.50 Shoes.

Here's a Two Fifty Shoe shot from our store that will certainly bring relief to many overtaxed purses. It is possible to sell a good Shoe at $2.50—It's possible to sell a splendid Shoe at $2.50, and that's what we are doing. For Men and for Women we have the best $2.50 Shoe in Shoe-dom—made in the best styles that Fall has brought. Style, comfort and durability are not neglected.

Most dealers would ask more money for our $2.50 Shoe, but we are determined to sell the best for the money. The Ladies' shoes are made of Kid and Calf, some in mannish shape with extension sole—right up to the hour in style. The Men's Shoes are made of Box Calf, Calfskin, Kid, etc. All new Winter styles, all sizes. Give our $2.50 Shoes a trial, that's the best test.

YOU AND YOUR WIFE

ARE BOTH INVITED TO SEE OUR

$3 Shoes.

Perhaps you'll be surprised to see the Shoes we are selling at $3.00. We believe you will. Our great $3.00 Shoe is our "Bilt Well" Shoe—its our leader. Its made in a Ladies Shoe, and Gentlemen's Shoe, and if there is a better Shoe on earth sold for $3.00, tell us about it and we will throw away this Shoe and sell the better one, but until we do find it we'll stick to the "Bilt Well" shoe. The Winter Styles are here, made from the best stocks and on new lasts, all sizes and widths, and on the foot you can't tell our $3.00 Shoes from a $5.00 pair.

Shoe Wearers, Here Are the Facts.

Our $3.50 Shoes

Are the best Shoe values you can get for your money. This one statement is worth more to you than a column of flowery-colored talk. In speaking of our $3.50 Shoes we avoid the high-sounding phraseology used by newspaper men, who know nothing about shoemaking, but who have been hired to write about Shoes. Such advertisements have become a subject of ridicule to everyone who knows anything about "practical" Shoemaking. We say to you with all confidence and in simple, plain English that our $3.50 Shoes for both Ladies and Gentlemen have no equal in the $3.50 class. Undoubtedly great efforts have been made by all manufacturers to produce good values in a popular priced Shoe, but we have been in the business too long to allow any point of merit to escape us. We show in our $3.50 Shoes, Shoes that are superior in every respect to any other $3.50 Shoes on the market. All Leathers, correct Shapes, original Styles—for street, society, skating and storm wear. For both Ladies and Gentlemen. Why not step in and see them?

Ask to see the "Walk Over" and "High Life" Shoes. A real treat to all lovers of high grade Shoes.

A STUDY IN FARMING.

Maryland and Pennsylvania Methods Contrasted.

SOILS ARE OF EQUAL VALUE.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The Department of Agriculture has just issued a bulletin treating of the exhaustion and abandonment of soils. The report is compiled from the testimony of Prof. Milton Whitney, Chief of the Division of Soils, before the Industrial Commission.

The abandonment of soils is attributed to exhaustion, development of new areas, attempts to grow crops unsuited to particular soils, scarcity of water, unfavorable climatic conditions, flooding and inundation by storms and tides, labor and expense of maintaining proper physical conditions, social conditions and transportation conditions.

MARYLAND AND VIRGINIA.

In speaking of the cause of the deterioration and abandonment of lands in Maryland and Virginia Prof. Whitney says:

"The exhaustion of the soils, of which we have heard so much in Maryland, Virginia and the Southern States, is due unquestionably to improper and injudicious methods of cultivation and cropping. It is also due to the decrease in value of farm crops, due in turn to the cheaper production in the West and to the reduced cost of transportation, and to the increase and development of special industries in other localities—for example, in the production of the white burley tobacco in Ohio, which yields more per acre, is grown at a less cost per pound, and can be sold at a cheaper price than the Maryland leaf, and has largely taken the place of the Maryland leaf in the foreign markets, particularly in the French and Belgian markets.

OLD MORTGAGES A BURDEN.

"Furthermore, the changes in the social conditions due to the Civil War and the mortgages which are still outstanding against the lands have been a contributing cause to the abandonment or to the deterioration of many of these areas. It has been found possible in many portions of Maryland, with the prevailing crops and methods of cultivation, to obtain a fair interest on the labor and expense of cultivation, but it has been impossible to obtain a living from the land if at the same time the interest on mortgages, which have been running since the war, has had to be met. And I know of once prosperous communities in Southern Maryland where they could still be successful, where they could produce sufficient to maintain families without stint and with a fair degree of comfort, but where nearly all the farms are mortgaged as an inheritance of 30 years ago, and it is impossible to support the families and to pay off the mortgages at the same time. Areas now are being abandoned from that cause throughout Maryland and the South.

SOILS NOT EXHAUSTED.

"One of the most important causes of deterioration, however, and I think I should put this first of all, is the method and system of agriculture that prevails throughout these States. The division of soils made a careful survey with soil maps of two of the counties of Southern Maryland this year—St. Mary's county and Calvert county—and of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, and the study of the conditions which have prevailed and the methods particularly which have been used in these two areas has been a matter of considerable interest to me.

"In the first place, I would state that the soils of Southern Maryland are in no way exhausted in the sense that that term is generally used—that is, a chemical analysis shows that they have sufficient plant food for innumerable crops and that there is apparently no lack of plant food in the soil.

WHERE ST. MARY'S EQUALS LANCASTER.

"Unquestionably the soil has been abused, the methods of cultivation and of cropping have been injudiciously selected, and the soils are not now as productive as they should be. There is one area in particular of a certain soil with a heavy subsoil in St. Mary's county—probably about 40 per cent. of the area of the county—that is in my opinion as valuable in its way, and in much the same way as the limestone soil of Pennsylvania. This soil in St. Mary's county sells for from $1 to $3 per acre in forest, as it usually is, or for about $10 per acre where it is under cultivation, while the soils in Lancaster county sell now at from $125 to $150 an acre.

"But on the soil in St. Mary's county there have been several good farms that have been kept up. The Maryland farmer grows on soils in good condition from fifteen to twenty bushels of wheat; he grows clover; he grows tobacco, and he gets from 6 to 10 cents a pound for the tobacco. The Pennsylvania farmer grows from twenty-five to thirty-five bushels of wheat; he grows clover and grass, as in Maryland, under good treatment, and he grows tobacco from which he gets from 6 to 10 cents a pound also. He gets the same price, but a larger yield. It is heavier tobacco.

SOCIAL CONDITIONS CONTRASTED.

"Now, from a consideration of the crops that are obtained from this Southern Maryland area and of the staple crops and of the yields and values obtained from the soils of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, it seems to me evident that the soils of Southern Maryland ought to have a relatively higher value; and the reason why they have not is largely, in my opinion, because of the social conditions and the methods of farming. If you go into the home of a Lancaster county farmer and sit down to dinner with him he has an abundance of food in great variety. Everything, the chances are, has been grown upon his own farm. The meat has been raised by himself, the vegetables have been grown in his garden or in his fields, the preserves or whatever they may have for their dessert have been made by their families from the products of their garden. Even the sugar, the chances are, has been produced on the place, and actually nothing but the tea, coffee, salt and pepper has been purchased that goes to make up the family meal.

METHODS OF FARMING.

"The families as a rule are large. They have a good many children. The boys and girls are all brought up to work on the farm.

"It is the rarest thing that any of them leave the community or leave the farm. They stay there and they marry. It is a common thing for them to settle on a portion of the farm or on some neighboring farm. The farms are small, and labor is all done by the owner and his family. The girls are all brought up to look after the house. There is no expense for servants. They have their garden and their fruit. They put up their preserves and their apple butter and such things for their winter use.

"We find that very few products are sold from Lancaster county; very few things are sent out of the county except tobacco and stock. And they not only feed up all their corn and hay that they grow to their stock, but they import it often from other States and from other counties, so that they can raise more stock and make more beef and mutton. Most of the products of the farm, including the wheat, which is ground up for flour in adjoining mills, are used on the farm or manufactured there into some sort of product that is sold or is used up in the district.

"There are manufactures and industries which require to be kept up in the large city of Lancaster and many smaller towns, in which there is a ready market for everything that is produced in the county, and the interesting thing is that the supply and demand are nearly equal, so that very little is sent out of the county and very little is brought in. The result is that it is a happy and contented and prosperous community. The lands have been handed down from generation to generation for ages, and people seldom think of leaving the place. They are a contented and happy and prosperous people.

WHY MARYLANDERS LOSE.

"In Maryland the methods are altogether different. In the first place, the Maryland farmer is seldom worked by the man who owns it. There is for some reason an unfortunate prejudice which prevails in many localities, at any rate in Maryland, against a man who actually goes into the field and works his land. He usually has an overseer, a man who is paid to look after and direct his interests instead of doing this himself. Frequently he has not even so much control over his interests and lets his land out to a tenant farmer, who farms it in his own way, by his own methods and for a portion of the crop, and occasionally for a money consideration.

"The crops grown are the ordinary staple crops of general agriculture. They have corn, wheat and tobacco. The competition from the West and the low prices of wheat and corn make them scarcely profitable. The competition with the Ohio tobacco and the general specialization which has taken place in the tobacco industry and the necessity of producing something that is peculiarly adapted to a certain market or to a certain demand have lowered the price of Maryland tobacco.

"Now, after the Maryland farmer has raised these three things he has done, as he thinks, the best he can find he has nothing further to consider for his development. The corn is fed mainly to his work stock, and it all goes to that and his own labor. The wheat is sold and sent off the farm in exchange for flour, which he buys at a considerable increase in cost over what it would have cost him if he could have had it ground in his own neighborhood. The tobacco, of course, is sold and goes out in exchange for productions of all kinds for himself and family. He buys his meat, he buys his groceries and he frequently buys the vegetables that he should have raised in his garden.

IMPROVIDENCE AND THIEF.

"There is no comparison between the conditions in a prosperous community like Lancaster county and the improvident methods that prevail in some of our Maryland counties and Virginia communities. There is no comparison whatever between the economical methods that are employed, and it seems to me that one of the most important contributing causes to the abandonment and impoverishment of the lands in Maryland and Virginia and of many of the Southern States is due to this one fact—that the farmers do not use the same thrifty methods that have marked the success of farmers in Lancaster county and in many other counties of the Northern States."

REVIEW OF THE SEASON.

The Weather Conditions During the Year and Their Effect on Crops.

The hot and dry weather of the autumn of last year delayed plowing and seeding, and very little wheat was in the ground at the close of September. Rains early in October permitted progress in the work, while heavy showers towards the middle of the month and later, softened the top soil and hastened the germination of the seed. November temperatures were mild, and while the month was dry, the conditions as a whole were favorable to growth. At the close of the month wheat, rye, and barley were generally in good condition. Some injury was felt by winter grain during December from the sharp cold wave that prevailed from the 14th to 17th, but no permanent damage resulted. January gave seasonable moisture, with much snow in the latter part of the month. The snow afforded protection to wheat in the upper counties, but farther south the crop was exposed to cold winds most of the time. February was a hard month on wheat, although snow protection continued in the northern districts until about the 15th. Early March was also unfavorable, but increased warmth and copious rainfall later gave marked impetus to growth, and greatly improved all winter crops, while the spring crops were put in over most of the southern counties. Stormy conditions were of frequent occurrence in April, and the rainfall was largely in excess. Wheat, rye, and barley grew well, but clover made a poor showing. Fruit blooms started early in the month, and gradually extended northward and westward. Tobacco plants were small but healthy. Most of the oats crop was sown. May was a favorable month, although continued wet weather delayed farm work; all crops did well, except that apples were light in blossom; early strawberries and June peas were being marketed at the close of the month. June was generally favorable, but tobacco was hurt by heat towards the close, and tomatoes, melons and cantaloupes, continued unpromising and backward. The wheat, rye and barley harvest began about the 10th and made rapid progress afterward; the straw was heavy, but the grain was generally light and of inferior quality. Oats grew fairly well. Corn was well cultivated. Light hay yields were the rule. Cherries produced abundantly, but other fruits were short. Peas and strawberries were shipped in large quantities until their season began to wane about the 20th. July gave a severe hot wave, causing loss of human and animal life during the first week. The weather conditions were generally favorable to growth, but rains were hurtful during the harvesting period; wheat, rye, barley, hay, and oats continued to give light yields; corn grew well. Of the fruit crops, peaches alone were promising, and light shipments were begun. Potatoes, melons and tomatoes gave short yields generally. August was especially favorable to corn, buckwheat, and the late hay crop, but other products did not fare so well. Threshing was frequently stopped by rains, and much wheat was saved in a damp and unsatisfactory state; oats continued poor to the close, while hay yields improved during the month; fall plowing began under excellent auspices; corn advanced steadily in condition, and some fodder was being saved; tobacco harvest began and did well until the latter part of the month when damage to curing resulted from damp and foggy weather; peaches gave poor to fair returns, while other fruits were light; potatoes, tomatoes and melons continued short. September weather conditions have been for the most part suitable for all kinds of farm work. There has been an improvement noted in tomatoes, but potatoes failed to realize any of the expectations of the early part of the season. Corn, tobacco, fruit, buckwheat, hay, and grasses have passed with gradual change from the conditions that existed in August to those given at the beginning of this bulletin.

Summing up the results for the year: Wheat, rye, barley, oats and potatoes have not yielded well; hay was poor early in the season, but improved towards the end of the harvest period; tomatoes also improved at the close of the season, but were short; peaches were poor to fair, cherries yielded well, other fruits were short, apples particularly so; pastures were good at all times, barring brief periods of sparse growth; buckwheat will give good yields; tobacco was hurt some during the curing period, but the yield and quality is fair; corn promises to be a splendid crop.

Tot Causes Night Alarm.

"One night my brother's baby was taken with Croup," writes Mrs. J. C. Snider, of Crittenden, Ky., "it seemed it would strangle before we could get a doctor, so we gave it Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave quick relief and permanently cured it. We always keep it in the house to protect our children from Croup and Whooping Cough. It cured me of a chronic bronchial trouble that no other remedy would relieve." ## SMALL POX ON THE PENINSULA.

Finds that Most of the Smallpox Cases on the Peninsula are in Maryland.

The Wilmington Evening News says: Dr. Alexander Lowber, secretary of the (Delaware) State Board of Health, returned on Saturday evening from a trip down the Peninsula, which he took in order to continue his investigation of the reports of smallpox. He found a number of cases, chiefly among negroes, but the majority are on the Maryland side of the State line. There are none within a radius of eight miles of Seaford, and it is believed if the proper precautions are taken a further spread of the disease into Delaware can be prevented. The greatest number of cases were found in the vicinity of the Oak Grove and the Bethel camp-meeting grounds, and are chiefly in Dorchester and Caroline counties, Maryland. Secretary Lowber and Secretary Fulton of the Maryland Board of Health are working together in regard to the matter. The Maryland cases will, of course, be left in the hands of the authorities of that State, but Delaware must take care of the cases on this side of the State line.

The new building of the Sykesville Bank has been completed and is occupied. It is a two story brick structure, with terra cotta in front, tiled floors, frescoed ceilings and fitted up with all modern appointments of banking houses.

On the night of September 27 the residence of the late Captain Hugg at Sykesville was robbed of a number of personal effects. The house has been closed for two years, the personal effects and furniture remaining after the death of the owner.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suppose a large number of people who read of my remarkable cure will hardly believe it; had I not experienced it myself, I know that I should not.

MRS. SADIE E. KOCH.

"I suffered for months with troubles peculiar to women which gradually broke down my health and my very life. I was nearly insane with pain at times, and no human skill I consulted in Milwaukee could bring me relief.

"My attention was called to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; the first bottle brought relief, and the second bottle an absolute cure. I could not believe it myself, and felt sure it was only temporary. But, blessed fact, I have now been well for a year, enjoy the best of health, and cannot in words express my gratitude. Frances A. German vs. Mitchell H. German.

In the Circuit Court for Wicomico county, No. 1870 Chancery.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for a divorce, a mensa et thoro of the complainant, Frances A. German, from the defendant, Mitchell H. German.

The bill states that on or about the day of 18 , she was married to Mitchell H. German with whom she resided in the town of Delmar, Wicomico county Md., until about the 24 day of September, 1901, and that her behavior toward the said defendant has ever since said marriage, been that of a kind, affectionate and chaste wife, and that the said Mitchell H. German, has without just cause and reason abandoned and deserted her on about the 24 day of September, 1901, and gone to parts unknown; that she has not heard anything from him since although she has made diligent efforts to learn of his whereabouts.

That they have had born to them the following children: Rose B. Hickman, Matilda E. Robins, Sadie E. Cannon, Harry L. German, Loren H. German, Roberta H. German and Marion H. German, all of whom are living except Marion H. German, who has died leaving one son, Leroy E. German.

That the said Mitchell H. German is seized and possessed with real and personal property, in and near the town of Delmar, and that the complainant is without means of support.

It is thereupon this 27th day of September, 1901, ordered by the Circuit Court for Wicomico County, in Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Wicomico County, once in each of four successive weeks before the first day of November, 1901, give notice to the said absent defendant of this Bill, the object and substance of this Bill, warning him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 15th day of November next, to show cause if any he has why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

THE NEGRO AS A VOTER.

The ADVERTISER in its issue of September 28th., discussed the question, "Who is Responsible" for the Special Session of the legislature held last Spring. It was shown that one of the primary objects was to correct a fraudulent census for which Congressman Mudd and his followers were responsible. These frauds brought about a condition which the state officials were as much compelled to take cognizance of as a grand jury is of a murder in its bailiwick. Why should the governor of the state permit these negro ruled counties to send more representatives to the legislature than their population entitled them to?

Another, and very potent reason, a reason not denied by Democrats of the state, for calling a Special Session of the legislature was to limit the voting strength of the venal and ignorant colored population. Experience has shown that where there are colored people in any numbers the republican party is compelled to yield to their demands for recognition by putting them in positions of trust,—road supervisors, constables etc. Human nature is the same in Wicomico that it is in Somerset and Charles; given the same conditions, and we might expect the same results.

The ADVERTISER has no fight to make against the colored population—no strife to engender. On the other hand every privilege should be accorded them consistent with good government, but we believe in a white man's government, certainly till things are radically different from what they are today. We would not for a moment desire to see the colored man deprived of any civil rights. Nobody wants to see them deprived of any of their school privileges, for instance. They should not only have schools but should have the privilege of managing them, that is they should have colored teachers and colored trustees. There is no disposition to interfere with any of these matters. We simply do not want colored office holders, or office holders whom the colored voter elected and to whom they are indebted. The Tariff, Expansion, Reciprocity, Ship subsidy and other national questions are not issues in the local elections of Wicomico this fall. The Republican party has made the Special Session of the Maryland Legislature an issue in this campaign and we are ready to accept it as such. The Democrats are willing to go before the county and give their reasons for supporting the measures. At the same time we don't see how the republicans can make it an issue, when they are responsible for the conditions that required it, conditions that are familiar to the Democratic voters of the county. This Special Session seems to be the issue now in the county, and the argumentum ad pocketum, the principal one used—the cost that the session saddled upon the tax payers.

It would be well for our Republican friends to make some calculations about the costs of prosecution, in all those criminal cases now before the United States court for census frauds, before closing their accounts.

That portion of the census law which required the enumerators to give the names of those on the poll books, not found in the voting precinct and those found in precinct not registered, had for its purpose the purging of the voting lists. It was believed and the belief was well founded, that in view of the fact that large numbers of negroes had migrated from Virginia and North Carolina to the state and succeeded in getting their names on the poll books in the border counties, where they were not entitled to registry. It is believed that the census will purge the lists materially.

It is difficult to see how the Republicans are going to make much capital out of the special session "Racket."

—The Dorchester Era, one of the Republican organs of Dorchester county, has placed the Independent Republican ticket at the head of its editorial column and is heartily supporting it. In Talbot the Republicans are in open revolt against bossism and have such men as M. M. Higgins, Clayland Mullikin and others leading their ranks.

Senator Bailey for Gorman.

Springfield, O., Oct. 1.—United States Senator Joseph W. Bailey, of Texas, who is in Ohio today, said:

"It is too early yet to discuss democratic Presidential candidates, but unless some great change occurs between this and the time our convention meets Senator Gorman of Maryland ought to be unanimously nominated. He supported Bryan loyally in 1896, and again in 1900, and must, therefore, be acceptable to the masses of the democratic party. His conservatism is well known and approved by the men who refused to vote our ticket in 1896 and 1900, and his nomination would command a stronger support among them than almost any other man who was loyal to the ticket in 1896."

Besides these considerations as to his availability, he is a man of splendid ability and absolute integrity. His nomination would do more to reconcile and harmonize democratic differences than that of any other man who is apt to be considered for that honor. Those who have criticised him for his position in reference to the Wilson tariff bill have grossly misrepresented his views. He is not in any sense a protectionist, and his resistance against the Wilson bill was directed against its undemocratic and indefensible free raw material features. Gorman believes, as all democrats ought, that the manufacturers ought to pay their share of taxes as well as the consumers of the country."

"The Marriage Game."

The latest play from the pen of Clyde Fitch, which will be presented by Sadie Martinot, as the star, at the Academy of Music, Baltimore, on next Monday night, is said to be the "strongest and most daring piece that has yet been contributed by this successful author. Since its first production, a fortnight ago, it has created more discussion than any play produced in this country for years. It is founded upon the French of Emile Augier. Augier like Balzac, paints vice in its true colors and he paints it only to punish it. He is considered the healthiest and hardest and most honest of the French dramatists of today. "The Marriage Game" is said to be bright in its lines, presents the chief characters with skill and is so bold and novel in its treatment of a subject absolutely necessary to handle delicately, that is sure to create a sensation. Plays of this kind either create a furor or fall flat. Judging by the flattering reception given to "The Marriage Game" and Miss Martinot, who has made a great personal triumph in it, it will prove to be one of the great sensations of the season, every indication points that way. The cast is an admirable one, the principal characters being in the hands of Miss Martinot, Edwin Arden, Mrs. McKee Rankin, Charles B. Welles, Jeffries Lewis, Grace Fischer, Julius B. Booth, Winchell Smith, Guy Bates Post and others of like calibre. The production is said to be one of the most elaborate on the present day stage.

Making His Chestnut Farm Pay.

Mr. Thos. W. Eliason, of near Chestertown, a former resident of Smyrna, is making interesting experiments in chestnut growing as a commercial crop. About six years ago he set out a grove of Japanese chestnuts. The trees have grown rapidly and produce nuts even larger than the Spanish chestnut, are more beautiful in color and richer in flavor. They ripen earlier than either the common chestnut or the Spanish, and Mr. Eliason has sold them at $6 per bushel. He is delighted with results so far.—Ex.

Askes For Trees.

Nothing is better to promote health and thriftiness in trees of all kinds than ashes. To fruit trees ashes impart a beautiful color to the foliage and fruit that no other manure does.

Messrs. Robert N. Wilson and Joseph McDaniel of Kent county, Delaware, are two of the most successful peach growers in the State of Delaware. They credit their success to the choice of right varieties, thorough cultivation and woodashes.

Askes are the only orchard food they use, but they believe it is the best of all, and highly recommend its use to peach growers. They prefer light soil for peach orchards believing that it produces a highly colored peach, and one that is more salable than any that can be grown on stiff, heavy land. The Belle of Georgia and Elberta are superior to any other varieties of peaches they believe.

A Shocking Calamity

"Lately befell a railroad laborer," writes Dr. A. Kellett, of Willford, Ark. "His foot was badly crushed, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly cured him. It's simply wonderful for Burns, Boils, Piles and all skin eruptions. It's the world's champion healer. Cure guaranteed. 25c. Sold by R. K. Truitt & Son.

Would Live There Always.

"I am too lazy to work, your Honor, and if I am sent to the House of Correction I will have to work, so I have come to ask that you give me a term to make me work." This was what William T. Mote, who hails from Delaware, stated to Justice Philip M. Groves in his office in Elkton the other day. The Justice imposed a sentence of two years in the House of Correction and Mote was happy. This is not the first time he has been sent to the House of Correction. As soon as he serves out a term, he returns and asks to be recommitted. Mote's people are well-to-do, but he would never make an effort to earn a livelihood. Ex.

County Fairs Disappearing.

With the exception of the Kent & Queen Anne's Fair at Tolchester there are no county fairs on the Peninsula for 1901. Several years back Talbot county, Cecil county and Dover held large agricultural fairs and exciting races. The Talbot management advertised a fair to take place at Easton this year but decided to abandon it at the last moment on account of the lack of interest and the few entries in both the general exhibit department and in the races. Why have all the county fairs failed?

Neilton's Remedy for Rheumatism Is Curing Thousands

Within the past half year, when Neilton's Remedy for Rheumatism was brought to public attention in this section, the sales have doubled almost every month. The fact that it is not one case in a thousand that it is necessary to refund the money, which is always done wherever Neilton's Remedy fails to cure, gives people who suffer with rheumatism and kindred ills a confidence in this great medicine which has induced thousands to try it, and find the relief it will surely give.

Special Excursions During October to Pan-American Exposition.

to water but you can't make him drink.

You can't make him eat either. You can stuff food into a thin man's stomach but that doesn't make him use it.

Scott's Emulsion can make him use it. How? By making him hungry, of course. Scott's Emulsion makes a thin body hungry all over. Thought a thin body was naturally hungry didn't you? Well it isn't. A thin body is asleep—not working—gone on a strike. It doesn't try to use its food.

Scott's Emulsion wakes it up—puts it to work again making new flesh. That's the way to get fat.

CRESCUS AT PIMLICO.

Trots a Great Mile But Falls to Lower Record.

Cresceus, the world's champion trotter, record 2.02½, driven by his owner, George H. Ketcham, tried to beat his record at Pimlico Thursday and failed. His time was 2.05½.

A great crowd was present to witness this noble animal try and clip a second or a fraction of a second from his wonderful record. He trotted a superb race against time but with the wind and condition of the track against him, was unable to reach his previous performance. The time made was considered by experts to be equally as fast as his 2.02½ record when the strong wind that was blowing and the soft condition of the track are taken into reckoning.

His owner and driver, George H. Ketcham, when asked for a statement of Cresceus' work said:

"The track was just a bit cuppy after the rains. I did not think it would be. I drove at least a sulky's length wide from the pole on this account.

"The strong wind which sprung up just as I started whistled about my ears, and I knew my horse had to plow through it. At the quarter and three-quarter poles the track was not good, and I had to pick good footing, going to the outside. This was caused by the rain.

"The track is a good one and could not have been made faster if a regiment had worked on it, as the rain did the business. I consider Cresceus' mile a great one under the circumstances."

—Among those who attended the races in Baltimore this week at which the great trotter Cresceus attempted to lower his record were, Judge C. F. Holland, Messrs. Isaac Ulman, John C. Lowe, Wm. J. Phipps, and Charles E. Bennett.

—Friends here of Mr. James Cannon have learned from the family that Mr. Cannon is suffering from Bright's disease and expects soon to go to Johns Hopkins hospital for treatment. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon now reside at Blickstone, Va.

—Mr. Thaddeus Durand Phillips, familiarly known to his friends as "Colonel," has leased the livery stable attached to the hotel of Mardela Springs and purchased a complete new outfit. Colonel is a good fellow and deserves the public's patronage. He succeeds Mr. W. H. Beach.

—Mr. L. Irving Pollitt, of Pine Bluff, Arkansas, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Ernest A. Hearn of this city, and his brothers, Messrs. Henry and Lee Pollitt, of Rockawalking. Mr. Pollitt is general manager of the Pine Bluff Electric Light, Water and Gas Company.

—Rev. W. F. Venables, who is at present rector of an Episcopal church in Chesapeake City, Md., has received and accepted a call to a church in the state of California. Mr. Venables is the youngest son of the late Richard Venables, of Baron Creek district, and a brother of Mrs. S. C. Dougherty, of this city.

—Mr. L. Reese Lowe has purchased of Mr. B. S. Pusey the Levin M. Wilson homestead in Baron Creek district, about two miles east of Mardela Springs. Mr. Lowe is one of the most thrifty young farmers of the district, and will very likely soon have the farm back to the high state of cultivation which it reached under the management of the late Mr. Wilson.

—In view of the fact that many of our pavements are in a very dilapidated condition, it is earnestly requested that property owners repave and repair their sidewalks, and put them in good condition, and save the mayor and Council the unpleasantness, extra expense and trouble of having the same done by process of law.

W. B. TILGHMAN,
Pres. of the City Council.

—Mr. Harry Phillips' hotel on Chincoteague Island caught fire one night last week and considerable damage was done before it was under control. The fire broke out in the kitchen, above which the servants had quarters. They saved scarcely anything of their effects. Mr. Phillips and Mr. Matthews, the owner of the building were indemnified by insurance on their respective properties.

—James Lee, a farmer on one of the DuPont farms at Greenhill, lost a cow several days ago. A search for the animal was made in Wilmington and county. Nothing could be learned relative to its disappearance and the search was abandoned. The moving of the westerly end of the straw stack looked suspicious to one of the farm hands and on digging into the cow was found in fairly good condition. That portion of the stack was removed and the cow liberated. The animal had been confined four days. While threshing the wheat which was under sheaf of the barn the cow wandered into the falling straw and was buried beneath it.—Smyrna Call.

NEW SILKS AND DRESS GOODS.

THE NEW FIRM'S FIRST FALL DISPLAY.

We open the season with the largest and most complete line of NEW DRESS GOODS AND SILKS.

NOTE.—We say the largest line of NEW SILKS AND DRESS GOODS. A few hints which might help you decide the color and weave you would like.

NOVELTIES IN DRESS GOODS

This is to be a plain season. The novelties are novel because of some clever weave or rich sheen finish rather than being given to striking figures and like features. Pretty shades of castor, tan, steel, brown, and new navy blue, are the reigning favorites. In colored goods there are some strong effects in a deep oxblood red, and very fetching shades of green for the few who can wear that color.

Among the novelties are London crash, a clever thing quite like crash only that it is in silky wool. Prunella cloth, Soleil, Melrose, Oscawona, Kersey Cloth, Venetian, Beaver and Broad Cloth, Satin Cloth. Reversible Rainy Day Skirtings, all wool home spun with neat stripes, special price 40 cents the yard. We are sole agents for a few of the above novelties for this city.

On the 10th, 11th and 12th we will have our special opening of ladies' Coats, Capes and Furs, Dress Goods and Silks.

You are invited to inspect our lines.

SALISBURY, MD.

Boston Pills Post No Bills

"Yes, Jerry was pretty smooth, I don't know as I ever saw a smoother one in his line. He'd go to a farmer and by the time he got done with him the farmer would consider that he had been complimented by allowing Jerry to paint a sign on his barn or fence. He got left one time though. He was advertising a new pill, called BOSTON-PILLS. He got permission to paint it on a new board fence that had just been put up and he also got an invitation from the farmer's daughter to take dinner. He painted BOSTON-PILLS a letter on each board. He came by there a week later and it read POST-NO-BILLS. The old farmer had simply changed the boards with the O and N on, and the boards with the letters B and P on, and he had a dandy big sign. Jerry was mad but he left it up. There are some signs of advertising that can be changed to something else. There are many ads that don't mean what they say. Lacy Thoroughgood's ads are like porous plasters, they draw. If an advertisement hasn't the right kind of ingredients in it, it won't draw, they won't do a bit of good. Thoroughgood intends his (porous plaster) ads to be made up of confidence and truth, covered with an outside of fun, put them in the right place or spot and they will draw. Lacy Thoroughgood claims to be the Spot Dealing Clothier. Thoroughgood claimed it the first day he commenced business, Nov. 17th, 1886, fifteen years ago and has claimed it every day since. When Lacy Thoroughgood says his $5.00, $8.00 and $10.00 suits or overcoats are made better than any $5.00, $8.00 and $10.00 suits or overcoats you ever saw his customers take it for granted that they are. Some folks say that all clothing is alike, that Thoroughgood's kind is no different than any other, that it don't fit any better, isn't made any better, doesn't have better style, nor isn't made of any better cloth. I am glad to say there are only a few such folks who have lost, if they ever had it, the power of discrimination—Thoroughgood's suit trade is great—Thoroughgood has one thousand suits for Men, Boys and Children and eight hundred overcoats to be sold in 90 days. Come and take a look just for fun. If this porous plaster don't draw I'll make it stronger next time.

NEWS FROM ALL SECTIONS OF WICOMICO SENT IN BY THE ADVERTISER'S REPRESENTATIVES.

DELMAR

Yes a good part of our population went to Salisbury last Friday, the day of the show. Strange isn't it? how so many people can all manage to have business in town the same day. Of course not one of them would think of going just for the express purpose of attending a circus.

Mrs. Louisa A. Ker and Mrs. L. B. Ker went to Quantico last Monday.

Mr. Rosier Francis, formerly drug clerk of Ellegood's pharmacy, but at present a student at Medico Chirurgical College, Philadelphia, spent Sunday in town with friends. His position has been filled by a very pleasant and competent young man from St. Michaels, Md., but we fear it may be vacant again as he might attempt wheelwrighting or blacksmith business.

Mr. Walter Ellis left town Monday for Philadelphia as a student of Jefferson Medical College.

Miss Daisy Culver has gone to Chestertown, Md., as a pupil of Washington College.

Mr. L. Hearne, Pullman Car Conductor, who has been at home sick for several weeks, we are glad to learn is convalescent.

During the first part of the year, along with other improvements a new lock up or jail was built, which until last Saturday we felt proud to say had never been occupied. One of our citizens came up on the express from Salisbury carrying a little too much of its ardent spirits. Being deprived of this at home he became hilarious, so much so that we were compelled to lodge him in the lock up until a late hour Saturday night. We now suppose it will take a christened name from its first occupant.

Monday evening the citizens of Delaware and Maryland met in Sirman's Hall to again consider the electric light question. After hearing arguments of cost of present system of lighting and proposals from the electric light company, it was fully decided to accept the electric company's proposal and allow them to come in the town. They will commence work at once but do not expect to be in a position to light the town before the first or middle of next month, when all our streets and business houses and possibly quite a number of private residences will be nicely lighted.

Bissell, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Palmer of Philadelphia died suddenly Monday. The body was brought to Delmar Wednesday for interment in M. E. Cemetery. Funeral services were held in M. P. Church, Rev. L. A. Bennett officiating.

Oyster supper and bazaar will be held at the new Masonic Temple in Delmar Oct. 10, 11 and 12 under auspices of Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Protestant Church. Supper will be served from 5 to 10 p. m. each evening. Everybody is cordially invited to come and help a good cause.

Rev. L. A. Bennett of Delmar, is conducting a successful revival at Charity M. P. Church. There has been a large number of conversions and the church has been greatly revived. The congregations have been very large. The meeting will continue next week if the interest continues good.

Mrs. Mary Satterfield of Philadelphia, is visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. L. A. Bennett.

SHARPTOWN

The Methodist Protestant church is being painted on the interior and otherwise improved. During the period of repairs it will be closed and no service will be held. The M. E. Pastor has invited the congregation to worship at his church and the M. P. pastor will do much of the preaching.

Miss Lizzie E. Owens, is in Baltimore this week purchasing new stock of ladies dress goods. She will engage in business in the store formerly occupied by Mrs. Lizzie E. Elzy.

Twenty-five names were added to the registration books on Tuesday and three stricken off.

M. W. Adams and family of Baltimore visited relatives and friends in town this week.

Miss Almada Bailey who has been spending the summer with her parents returned to Baltimore on Tuesday.

This has been a busy week in the court of Justice here.

Prof. J. M. Geoghegan of Cambridge, has been appointed principal of the school here. He came highly recommended.

J. P. Cooper made a short trip to Baltimore this week.

Two beer shambles and two oyster saloons here afford ample substantials for the inner man.

The new vessel, the Sallie C. Marvill, sailed from Baltimore this week on her first trip. She had twelve hundred and fifty tons of coal on board, but was not loaded to her full capacity. She sailed for a southern port.

The Knights of Pythias will attend service in the M. E. Church Sunday morning next in a body. The service will be in memory of President McKinley as per order from Grand Officers. Revs. E. H. Miller and A. W. Mather, and perhaps others will deliver addresses.

M. H. Bennett of Camden, N. J., is at home for a few days.

The merchants have filled up their stores with fine fall and winter selections.

PITTSVILLE

Protracted services are in progress at the M. E. Church here but at this writing there have been no conversions.

Mrs. G. A. Morris, who has been spending some weeks with relatives at Wilmington returned home last Monday.

Miss Josephine German of Baltimore is the guest of Mrs. Dr. Collins.

Mr. Thomas Farlow has had some repairs made on his dwelling house.

Mr. George Parker of Clayborne was in town the first of the week.

We are glad to report that all the sick folks are convalescing.

Mr. James Truitt has been making some repairs on his dwelling this week.

Mrs. Rebecca Everetts of Felton, Del., is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Martha Timmons is visiting her sister, Mrs. George German near Berlin.

Mrs. Stanton Parsons who has been visiting relatives here returned home this week accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Truitt.

Mr. Edward Hudson will in a short while occupy the store house formerly occupied by Mr. Noble Foskey.

School has been closed part of the week on account of the new school room being built, but it will soon be completed and ready for use.

"Don't touch my arm" is a general saying among the school children at present.

Mr. E. H. Hamblin and family have returned from Ocean City where they spent the summer.

WHITE HAVEN.

Miss Ellen Windsor of Deals Island who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. N. H. Dolby of this place, was entertained by several of her friends last Wednesday evening. Miss Wilson will return to her home this week.

Mr. S. H. Carey of Salisbury was the guest of Mr. J. J. Morris this week.

Tomato season is nearly over, but they are still selling at our wharf at 30 cents per basket.

Mess. J. Denon & Sons of this place received from Baltimore this week a large load of second hand furniture which they will have for sale.

There will be preaching in the M. E. Church tomorrow at 8 o'clock. Class meeting at 7 o'clock p. m., Rev. C. T. Smoot Pastor.

The first frost and ice of the season made its appearance yesterday morning.

JESTERVILLE

"A great day in the morning" is October 1, with the oystermen. He is behind indeed who does not get to work by sunrise, for on that date the upper rocks are open according to law. It is a race, as it were, as who should catch most of the skim of new oysters. For a few days all will go well, for the number of tongs after them will soon catch the new stock. From present indications there will be little difficulty to market all oysters caught. Some enthusiastic oyster planters predict that oysters will bring a dollar per bushel not many years hence.

Would suggest that a needed improvement be made on the new road from Bivalve to Nanticoke by constructing board walks over the low places across the marsh. This would greatly facilitate the passage of school children and others when the tides make very full.

Mr. Lawrence Robertson who had the misfortune to break the large bone of his right arm three inches above the elbow while playing ball last Saturday a week at Dido, Va., is improving. He was throwing what was termed a drop ball.

Miss Anderson of Baltimore, who came to teach, has returned. She found the religious belief of the people at variance with her creed (Catholic), and so she arrived at a conclusion with in three days.

ATHEL

Miss Nannie McAllister of Vienna visited her friend, Miss Lillie Goates last week.

Miss Lula Hatton and Mr. Howard Hutton are visiting an uncle in Virginia.

Mrs. J. H. Calloway and little niece spent last week with relatives in Dorchester county.

Mr. T. J. Truitt of this place is about to leave to reside elsewhere permanently. He is a marble cutter and expects to engage in that business.

A Cough

"I have made a most thorough trial of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and am prepared to say that for all diseases of the lungs it never disappoints."

J. Early Finley, Ironton, O.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral won't cure rheumatism; we never said it would. It won't cure dyspepsia; we never claimed it. But it will cure coughs and colds of all kinds. We first said this sixty years ago; we've been saying it ever since.

Three sizes: No. 1, enough for an ordinary cold; No. 2, just right for bronchitis, hoarseness, hard cough, etc.; No. 3, most economical for chronic cases and to keep on hand.

J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

Esau Buck and the Bucksaw.

An old farmer of Arkansas, whose sons had all grown up and left him hired a young man by the name of Esau Buck to help him on his farm. On the evening of the first day they hauled up a small load of poles for wood and unloaded them between the garden and the barnyard.

The next morning the old man said to the hired man: "Esau, I am going to town today and while I am gone you may saw up that wood and keep the old ram out of the garden."

When the old man had gone Esau went out to saw the wood, but when he saw the saw he wouldn't saw it. When Esau saw the saw he saw that he couldn't saw it with that saw. Esau looked around for another saw, but that was the only saw he saw so he didn't saw it. When the old man came home he says to Esau: "Esau, did you saw the wood?" Esau said: "I saw the wood, but I wouldn't saw it; for when I saw the saw I saw that I couldn't saw with that saw, so I didn't saw it." The old man went out to see the saw, and when he saw the saw he saw that Esau couldn't saw with that saw. When Esau saw that the old man saw that he couldn't saw with the saw, Esau picked up the ax and chopped up the wood and made a seesaw. The next day the old man went to town and bought a new bucksaw for Esau Buck, and when he came home he hung the bucksaw for Esau Buck on the sawbuck by the seesaw.

Just at this time Esau Buck saw the old buck in the garden, eating cabbage, and when driving him from the garden to the barnyard Esau Buck saw the bucksaw on the sawbuck by the seesaw, and Esau stopped to examine the new bucksaw. Now when the old buck saw Esau Buck looking at the new bucksaw on the sawbuck by the seesaw he made a dive for Esau, missed Esau, hit the seesaw, knocked the seesaw against Esau Buck, fell on the sawbuck by the seesaw. Now, when the old man saw the old buck dive at Esau Buck and miss Esau and hit the seesaw and knocked the seesaw against Esau and Esau Buck fall on the bucksaw on the sawbuck by the seesaw, he picked up the ax to kill the old buck, but the buck saw him coming and dodged the blow and countered on the old man's stomach, knocked the old man over the seesaw onto Esau Buck, who was getting up with the bucksaw off the sawbuck by the seesaw, crippled Esau Buck, broke the bucksaw and the sawbuck and the seesaw.

Now, when the old buck saw the completeness of his victory over the old man and Esau Buck and the bucksaw and the sawbuck and the seesaw, he quietly turned around, went back and jumped into the garden again and ate up what was left of the old man's cabbages.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

THOMAS B. TAYLOR.

Died at the Peninsula General Hospital at Three O'clock Wednesday Afternoon.

Thomas Bayard Taylor died at the Peninsula General Hospital at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon, of disease of the heart, and general debility.

By direction of Mr. Jay Williams, whom Mr. Taylor constituted his sole executor as one of the last acts of his life, Undertaker Hill of Salisbury took the remains in hand and prepared them for burial. After embalming the body the undertaker placed it in a splendid casket and removed it to his establishment on Division street. Thursday morning Undertaker Hill removed it to Mardela Springs where the body reposed in the parlor of the village hotel until Friday morning. At 9.30 o'clock the casket containing the body was taken to the Methodist Protestant Church, in Mardela, and a funeral sermon preached by Rev. Elmer Simpson, pastor. The remains were interred in the Mardela cemetery.

Dr. Siemons was summoned to Mardela Springs, Thursday, September 26th, by telephone to treat Mr. Taylor, who was apparently suffering from bladder trouble. Recognizing at once the gravity of the case and the extreme difficulty of successfully treating it with the patient twelve miles away, he prevailed upon Mr. Taylor to come back with him and enter the Peninsula General Hospital where he could have the best attention possible. He was a very sick man from the beginning and each day his general condition proved less satisfactory than it had been the previous day.

Mr. Taylor rounded out his 78th year the 5th of last month. He was born in a little house which stood in a field now owned by Mr. Levi L. Taylor, in Baron Creek district. His father, Thomas Taylor, who was a seaman and served in the war of 1812, died of Yellow fever in Key West, Florida in 1881. His mother Eliza (Smith) Taylor, having died at his birth in 1823, he and an older sister were reared by their grandmother, Sallie Taylor, who, by the way, lived to be 92 years old. His grandfather William Taylor and several uncles fought in the Revolution for the independence of America.

The subject of this article inherited the sturdy character and patriotism of his ancestors. He was studious from early childhood.

By close application and many a personal sacrifice he acquired sufficient education to open a public school near Snethen Chapel and, later, at Mackmer's Lane. Many of the older men and women now living and some who are dead—of Baron Creek and Sharptown districts, were his pupils. After teaching several years he went to the village of Mardela Springs and got employment, in 1850, as clerk in the general store of Dr. Rush Brattan, whom he afterward bought out, Dr. Brattan removing to Texas. Mr. Taylor remained in the mercantile business at the Springs continuously until 1890, meanwhile acquiring a great deal of real estate. While in partnership with Dr. Brattan they built a vessel for the Bay trade which they called the "Chesapeake Trader." Later on Mr. Taylor built the schooners Thomas B. Taylor and L. E. Williams. From his earliest recollection Mr. Taylor was familiar with the grim old man, "Poverty" and the lessons of thrift and economy taught him in childhood stood by him through all his life and it was this principle upon which he built what would now be a very comfortable fortune if a generous nature had not led him to freely endorse for those who needed help, many of whom failed to perform their part, consequently leaving him to bear the burden of others. In this way his large estate consisting of land and houses in Baron Creek and Sharptown districts will greatly suffer.

Mr. Taylor was never married. His nearest relatives now living are several nieces and a nephew—Mrs. Wm. T. Darby of Riverton, this county is a niece. The other nieces and the nephew are living in Baltimore. They are Mrs. Martha Dohme, Mrs. Mary Bennett, wife of David Bennett; Mrs. Eleanor Copes, wife of George Copes, and Mr. James E. Vickers. Mr. Taylor left no will, consequently his nephew and nieces are his heirs at law. Those who were nearest him in his last days have reason to believe that he wished his sister's children to have what remained of his worldly possessions after all just claims should be satisfied.

Mr. Taylor's most striking characteristic was his kindly and amiable nature. It has often been said by those who knew him longest and best that he never uttered a harsh or unkind word to or of a living creature. For those even who had wronged him most deeply and needlessly he had only gentle words and courteous usage. He never brought suit in court in all his life. With Mr. Taylor goes almost the last of a score of sturdy men of that community who were his contemporaries. Indeed Messrs. Clement M. Wright and Roger Phillips appear to the writer to be the only remaining survivors. Among those who have gone before may be mentioned Robert Robertson, John B. Taylor, Richard P. Darby, Wm. H. Bradley, Ebenezer Turpin Bennett, Levin Cooper, Joseph Brattan, George Bounds, Train A. Bounds, Levin M. Wilson, Wm. Franklin Wilson, Wm. Howard, John H. Bacon, Gillis T. Taylor and others.

At Mardela Springs, where Mr. Taylor has resided a half century, or more, he will be greatly missed. For the people of that community he was guide and counselor.

Mr. Taylor was from early manhood a leading member of the Methodist Church and at the time of his death was one of the trustees of the M. P. Church at Mardela Springs and its Sunday School Superintendent over twenty years. He was an unwavering democrat in politics and had served the county in the Board of County Commissioners in 1869, shortly after the formation of the county. In 1884 Mr. Taylor represented Wicomico in the Maryland House of Delegates and warmly supported Judge Wilson for U. S. Senator, to which office he was elected.

Mr. Taylor was one of the oldest Masons in the county, also one of the oldest Odd Fellows.

At the time of his death he belonged to Temple Lodge, No. 170, A. F. & A. M., the members of which turned out at his burial.

The high regard which the people entertained for him was attested at his funeral Friday morning, when several hundred of his neighbors and old friends in this and adjoining counties were present and followed his remains to their final place of repose in the Mardela cemetery. The pall-bearers, selected by the Masonic order, were C. J. Gravenor, W. H. Knowles and Dr. Townsend of Sharptown, and W. H. Beach, A. S. Venables and Josiah S. Taylor of Mardela Springs. Representatives from the Salisbury lodge, headed by Wm. M. Day, master, were present as follows: B. F. Kennerly, E. E. Twilley, A. R. Leonard, W. I. Todd, H. C. Bounds. Other Masons who took part were Jas. T. Hopkins, Jas. A. Waller, Mark R. Cooper, Jas. Bennett and James O. Adams. Judge Holland, Messrs. James E. Ellegood, Jay Williams, Thos. Perry, E. A. Toadvine, Mrs. B. F. Kennerly, Mrs. Frank M. Mitchell and Wm. M. Cooper were among the Salisburyans who attended the funeral.

Wellsager—Smith.

The marriage of Miss Katherine M. Smith to Mr. Walter H. Wellsager took place Wednesday evening at St. Mark's German Lutheran Church, Broadway and Fairmount avenue, Baltimore. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jacob F. Mueller, pastor of St. Mark's, assisted by the Rev. W. F. Freas, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ottilia Smith, and Miss Beatrice Fitz Gerald as maids of honor, and by Miss Ellen Brunt and Miss Anna Brunt as bridesmaids.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle trimmed with lace and net, a bridal veil of tulle, and carried Bride roses. The maids of honor were gowned, one in white lace and the other in yellow organdy, and the bridesmaids wore white point d'esprit. All carried clusters of white cosmos.

The church was lavishly decorated. Palms were massed everywhere with artistic effect. In the aisles, near the altar, tall palms had been placed so as to form an overhanging arch, under which the bridal party passed.

The marriage of Miss Beatrice Fitz Gerald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Fitz Gerald, 1529 Mount Royal avenue, to Mr. H. A. B. Dunning, of Baltimore, is announced to take place October 24. The ceremony will be performed at the residence of the bride's parents.

Both Miss Smith and Miss Fitz Gerald are well known in Salisbury, being frequent visitors of both Miss Edna Gillis and Miss Edna Owens.

THE AUTUMN STYLES.

The Millinery Openings And A General Display Of Fall And Winter Goods Is The Event Of The Week Among The Salisbury Merchants

The business section of Salisbury was visited by a large crowd of people Thursday and Friday of this week, the occasion being that of the Fall Millinery Openings. There was also a general display of fall and winter goods among all the merchants of Salisbury. All along Main street the windows show what our merchants can produce. Never before was there a better showing and a busy season is sure to be the outcome. Every one who is accustomed to visiting Salisbury on these occasions knows what is meant when we say that the millinery establishments are as attractive and well supplied with the latest creations in this art as they have been in seasons past. The Autumn hats are picturesque in the extreme.

Among the collections are to be seen many large black hats in the popular Gainsborough shape, bedecked with large and handsome plumes. Plumes were never more popular than this season, but there are creations of other pretty trimmings as well.

Messrs. R. E. Powell & Co., made large preparations for Opening Days, and their labors were well repaid. The large show windows were the first attraction, one being used entirely for the display of coats and furs, while the other is a picture of millinery art. Handsomely trimmed hats are arranged about the windows with trimmings of various shades and designs with several plants and palms to make the effect complete.

The millinery parlor on the second floor is made attractive with numbers of palm and plants, cut flowers, and dainty arrangements of trimmings and trimmed hats.

A pretty collection of pattern hats of course received the largest share of attention from the visitors, who were lavish in their exclamations of admiration. We give below a brief description of some of the models shown.

A beautiful turban hat of purple velvet, trimmed with three shades of purple silk gracefully draped around the brim and secured at the side with a buckle. The crown is almost covered with foliage. A large black hat of chenille plaque crown, the only trimming of which is a long handsome black plume falling over the brim which flares from the face, and several loops of black satin ribbon fastened with jet buckle at the back. A very pretty little fur hat was also seen draped about with yellow silk covered with lace. A bunch of the silk and lace hangs at the back.

Mrs. George W. Taylor's Millinery store, formerly occupied by Mrs. Ella J. Cannon was also a center of attraction. Mrs. Taylor has made some changes in the interior arrangement of the store, having put in an additional show case and counter. Her hats were beautiful as everybody admitted, and the decorations were arranged with much taste. The windows were trimmed one in purple and the other in green and white. For the interior decoration red crepe paper was much used, and growing plants and palms enhanced the beauty of the place. Among the prettiest hats might be mentioned:

A sherry black panne velvet with feather crown and fancy brim and two large wings at side and jet buckle. An all red hat was very much admired. This was made of red corded velvet with sherry silk pompons at front, and shaded double breasted wings encircling the brim on either side. A handsome large hat displayed in one of the windows Thursday was of black velvet, Tam O'Shanter crown of chenille and passementerie, applique in a very rich pattern is gracefully arranged around the rather full brim, close up to the crown. Under the brim is a bunch of black ribbon velvet secured by a buckle.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowenthal announced their opening for three days, Thursday Friday and Saturday. The display of hats is unusually handsome and the decorations are very pretty. The color scheme in the large millinery window is green, draperies, foliage and birds being the chief ornaments. On the large wax figure in the centre is a bodice of rich green velvet, trimmed with light blue ribbon with large bow at side. The head is adorned with a large black velvet hat trimmed with plumes.

The millinery parlor is beautifully draped with white, entwined with autumn leaves. In the rear is "Fall 1901" in large letters of white and green. A large table stands in the middle of the floor and on this is a very large and pretty plant surrounded with dozens of pattern hats in all the latest shapes and shades.

Among these is a wide brim hat of black panne velvet, round crown laid in folds, with the entire under brim faced with soft folds of pink chiffon. A large black bird nestles in the chiffon under side of flaring brim.

Perhaps one of the prettiest hats displayed was a stylish shape, made of two shades of castor velvet with loops of same at back. The underbrim is in tiny folds, alternating the two shades with a large bunch of yellow silk at side, under brim. A large castor plume encircles the brim at side, fastened in front with buckle.

There were some handsome hats of all black, trimmed with plumes and otherwise, also several beavers in different shades.

Messrs. Birchhead and Shockley announced a special display of ladies' coats and furs, also dress goods, for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, of which they have a large and handsome line.

The windows are attractive with artistic arrangements of fall and winter wearing apparel, with several plants added to give a pretty finishing touch. Their store was also visited by a large crowd of people.

ASKING FOR A FRANCHISE.

The County Commissioners Hear the Pros and Cons of a Telephone Proposition.

Messrs. Bennett & Douglass and E. H. Walton, attorneys of Salisbury and Mr. Owens, of Dewees & Owens, attorneys of Denton, were before the County Commissioners last Tuesday asking for a franchise for the Eastern Shore Telephone company, whose home office is at Denton, Caroline county, and whose President is Mr. Harry Richardson, of Dover, Delaware. Mr. Robert P. Graham, representing the Salisbury telephone company and citizens of Salisbury, was also present and opposed the granting of the franchise.

The Eastern Shore company is seeking the right to establish a line through Wicomico county from Delmar to the Somerset line, thus connecting its line north and south. The Salisbury Telephone company objects to the Eastern Shore company invading its territory on the ground that two systems could not be successfully operated in so limited a field. Mr. Graham said that the Salisbury Telephone company would sell its plant and privileges to the Eastern Shore company on condition that the present rates be maintained, at a price which should be agreed upon by arbitration; or that this company would supply the connecting link for the other company on a fair tariff basis. He pointed out that the Eastern Shore company is bound up with the Bell Telephone company and the absorption of the Salisbury company by the Eastern Shore company was only another way of transferring the local company into the hands of the Bell, with an inevitable increase in rates.

The attorneys for the Eastern Shore Company sought to discredit this view, and argued that "competition is the life of trade."

The Commissioners held the matter for further consideration.

Sale of Town Property.

Mr. Jay Williams, Attorney for John B. Records and Geo. W. Records, executors, sold last Wednesday the real estate of the late William D. Records. It consisted chiefly of houses and lots and unimproved lots in the Eastern section of Salisbury. There were altogether fourteen parcels. The purchasers were John W. Evans, house and lot on Tilghman street for $641.00; John T. Jones, vacant lot on Tilghman street, for $65.00; John E. Bethards, vacant lot on Records street, $76; also lot on Records street, $51.00; J. Waller, vacant lot on Records street, $46.00; J. E. Davis, vacant lot on Records street $55.00; E. M. Elliott, two vacant lots on Records street, $55.00 and $62.00 respectively; J. L. Baker, two vacant lots on Isabella street, $74 and $70 respectively; Joseph E. Davis, two houses and lots on Records Alley for $166 and $160 respectively; Wilmer Cantwell, lot on Ann street, $312.00.

The sales of the real estate aggregated $1832.00. Some of the personal property was also sold Wednesday.

WE HAVE Fall Shoes By the Wagon Load.

$1.00 Shoes.

No, these Shoes are not worth $5.00, nor sold in other stores for $4.50 as some dealers advertise their low priced Shoes, but they certainly are the best $1.00 Shoes we have ever owned or sold.

Dollar Shoes for Men, Women & Children

These Shoes are not trash but are made of good leather—on good lasts—made to look like higher grade Shoes—made to give every customer who buys them ONE DOLLAR'S WORTH OF HONEST SERVICE.

Some of our patrons say they do even more—Well, so much the better, but come here for $1.00 Shoes.

Our $1.50 Shoes.

We make a specialty of medium priced Shoes and we aim to sell the best Shoes at each price that the money will buy anywhere. Every member of the family can be fitted here in our $1.50 SHOES and get full satisfaction. We are careful not to over-rate our medium priced shoes, but will state plainly there are no better $1.50 Shoes sold than ours. All sizes, good Leathers, Fall and Winter Styles are ready.

$2 Shoes.

Of course we are aware that you can buy $2.00 Shoes anywhere, but we are not aware that you can buy Shoes like ours anywhere for $2.00. Our Shoes at $2.00 are the best Shoes for the money to be had. We say this to the best of our knowledge and belief. We have $2.00 Shoes to fit all feet. Every Woman and every Man in town can be fitted here at $2.00. Good Calfskin stock goes into our Winter $2.00 Shoes and the styles are exact duplicates of the higher grades. If you wear $2.00 Shoes, try ours, perhaps you will find them the best $2.00 Shoes you ever had on your feet. We believe you will.

$2.50 Shoes.

Here's a Two Fifty Shoe shot from our store that will certainly bring relief to many overtaxed purses. It is possible to sell a good Shoe at $2.50—it's possible to sell a splendid Shoe at $2.50, and that's what we are doing. For Men and for Women we have the best $2.50 Shoe in Shoe-dom—made in the best styles that Fall has brought. Style, comfort and durability are not neglected.

Most dealers would ask more money for our $2.50 Shoe, but we are determined to sell the best for the money. The Ladies' shoes are made of Kid and Calf, some in mannish shape with extension sole—right up to the hour in style. The Men's Shoes are made of Boar, Calf, coltskin, Kid, etc. All new Winter styles, all sizes. Give our $2.50 Shoes a trial, that's the best test.

YOU AND YOUR WIFE ARE BOTH INVITED TO SEE OUR $3 Shoes.

Perhaps you'll be surprised to see the Shoes we are selling at $3.00. We believe you will. Our great $3.00 Shoe is our "Bilt Well" Shoe—its our leader. Its made in a Ladies Shoe, and Gentlemen's Shoe, and if there is a better Shoe on earth sold for $3.00, tell us about it and we will throw away this Shoe and sell the better one, but until we do find it we'll stick to the "Bilt Well" shoe. The Winter Styles are here, made from the best stocks and on new lasts, all sizes and widths, and on the foot you can't tell our $3.00 Shoes from a $5.00 pair.

Shoe Wearers, Here Are the Facts. Our $3.50 Shoes

Are the best Shoe values you can get for your money. This one statement is worth more to you than a column of flowery-colored talk. In speaking of our $3.50 Shoes we avoid the high-sown phraseology used by newspaper men, who know nothing about shoemaking, but who have been hired to write about Shoes. Such advertisements have become a subject of ridicule to everyone who knows anything about "practical" Shoemaking. We say to you with all confidence and in simple, plain English that our $3.50 Shoes for both Ladies and Gentlemen have no equal in the $3.50 class. Undoubtedly great effort has been made by all manufacturers to produce good values in a popular priced Shoe, but we have been in the business too long to allow any point of merit to escape us. We show in our $3.50 Shoes, Shoes that are superior in every respect to any other $3.50 Shoes on the market. All Leathers, correct Shapes, original Styles—for street, society, skating and storm wear. For both Ladies and Gentlemen. Why not step in and see them?

Ask to see the "Walk Over" and "High Life" Shoes. A real treat to all lovers of high grade Shoes.

THE BALTIMORE GRAIN MARKET.

Furnished by Stevens Brothers, 226 South Charles Street.

WEDNESDAY'S REPORT.

The World's movement of wheat and wheat flour continues largely in excess of requirements, and although the amount from the United States has declined to moderate figures, being slightly in excess of 50 per cent., still the quantity put upon the water weekly keeps at a large total. A glance at the figures for the several countries will show that Russia, Roumania, Australia, and India are putting large consignments afloat, and the favorable crop prospects several of these countries will tend to keep their output from any material decrease.

WHEAT.—Receipts for today, 68,788 bus., viz., 5,818 bus. southern, and 63,470 bus. western. Shipments from elevators, 80,694 bus. Stock in elevators, 877,627 bus. Southern wheat today opened 1 cent firmer as compared with yesterday's transactions on grade. Arrivals light and promptly disposed of. Sales on grade at 72½ cents for No. 2 red, 68½ for steamer 2 red, and 64½ cts. for rejected. Demand good for prime wheats. Small bag lots by sample brought 63, 64, 68, and 70 cents, as to quality and condition. Market somewhat easier at the close.

CORN.—Receipts for today, 7,522 bus., viz., 550 bus. southern and 6,972 bus. western. Shipments from elevators, 3,477 bus. Stock in elevators, 118,076 bus. The receipts of southern corn today were confined to a small cargo of fly-cut white, which sold at 60 cents. Market quiet and about steady, with prime lots of white and yellow afloat quotable at 61½ to 63 cents. Demand fair. COB CORN is quiet and easy on a basis of $3.25 to $3.30 per bbl. for carloads prime old yellow on spot, with the demand for old crop tame now—the trade holding off, awaiting a more settled market for new. Some 25 bags of new white cob corn brought $2.50 per bbl.

OATS.—Receipts for today, 2,453 bus., including, 2,453 bus. for shipment; withdrawals from elevators, 10,726 bushels. Stock in elevators, 360,374 bus. The position of oats remains very firm, and the few cars of white and mixed offered from day to day meet with a prompt sale. Track lots are given marked preference and bringing a premium. Feeling firm. Sales 2 cars No. 2 white, in Camden elevator, 39½; car No. 2 white, B. & O., 40.

RYE.—Receipts for today, 7,795 bus.; withdrawals, 854 bus. Stock in elevators, 144,523 bus. The market for rye is quiet under a slack demand from every source. Prices in buyer's favor. Quote: No. 2 rye, in carlots, 55 cents; No. 3 rye, 54 cents; No. 4 rye, 51½ to 52 cents; No. 2 WESTERN, 56 cents, export elevator, and shade more for choice on track uptown. Bag lots of nearby, 48 to 58 cents per bus. as to quality and condition.

The President's Dog.

A little incident which somebody about the White House witnessed the other day is significant both as an illustration of certain traits in the character of President Roosevelt and as an example for his admirers. There has been an impression among certain of his critics that he believed "the strenuous life" to consist chiefly in hunting and killing animals; but though a mighty hunter, he is not merely a Nimrod, as the following occurrence shows.

It was a rainy, dreary day, soon after Mr. Roosevelt's return to Washington, and after a busy morning the President and his secretary started out for a walk. Just outside the door lay a homeless, friendly dog, as close to the wall as he could get, his body curled up into the smallest possible bunch to avoid the rain and possible observation. As the two men emerged from the door he looked up apprehensively to see if a kick or a stern "Be off with you, now!" would compel him to beat a rapid retreat. But nothing of the sort occurred. Mr. Roosevelt's expressive face took on a pitying and kindly look, and bending down, he stroked the animal's head and pulled him gently by the ears.

"Poor doggie, haven't you any master?" he inquired. Then he went back into the house, and the dog, with instinctive understanding of the situation, trotted close at his heels. The President ordered that the wait should be taken to the kitchen and given a good meal; and it is said that that dog will be the dog of the White House during this administration.

Mr. Roosevelt is not one of those sportsmen who are satisfied with popping away at tame pigeons. When he goes hunting he wants the excitement of killing a dangerous wild beast. It will be a good thing for his boy admirers to remember that the man who led the charge at San Juan Hill was quite as ready to befriend a homeless cur as to hunt cougars or grizzlies.

MISS VIRGINIA GRANES

Graduate Nurse, and President of Nurses' Association of Watertown, N.Y.,

Tells How Much Doctors Use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Has Yet To Hear of Its Failure To Cure.

It is not infrequent that information comes to our attention proving that the medical profession in general prescribe large quantities of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in their private practice.

It is a fact beyond dispute that nowhere is to be found a remedy so universally successful in curing female ills, and the broad-minded physician of to-day is quick to recognize his duty to his patient, and does not hesitate to prescribe the best medicine he can find,—the medicine that is surest and quickest to bring relief to his patient; for this very reason thousands of the very best physicians are prescribing in their treatment of female ills Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, while not in the original bottles perhaps, but in plain prescription bottles with their own or druggists' name.

It is our pleasure and our privilege to publish a letter from a graduate nurse whose reputation and prominence in her profession lends much weight to her opinions, and whose testimony goes to prove our statements in regard to the high esteem in which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is held by our leading physicians and trained nurses.

MISS VIRGINIA GRANES.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Twelve years continuous service at the sick beds in some of our prominent hospitals, as well as at private homes, has given me varied experiences with the diseases of women. I have nursed some most distressing cases of inflammation and ulceration of the ovaries and womb. I have known that doctors used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when everything else failed with their patients. I have advised my patients and friends to use it, and have yet to hear of its first failure to cure.

"Four years ago I had falling of the womb from straining in lifting a heavy patient, and knowing of the value of your Compound I began to use it at once, and in six weeks I was well once more, and have had no trouble since. I am most pleased to have had an opportunity to say a few words in praise of your Vegetable Compound, and shall take every occasion to recommend it."—MISS VIRGINIA GRANES, 444 So. Spring St., Los Angeles, Cal. [Present address.]

Be it, therefore, believed by all women who are ill that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine they should take. It has stood the test of time, and it has hundreds of thousands of cures to its credit. It should, therefore, be considered unwise to experiment further.

Mrs. Pinkham, whose address is Lynn, Mass., will answer cheerfully and without cost all letters addressed to her by sick women.

$5000 REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000, which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letter is not genuine, or was published without the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

CALIFORNIA'S BIG TREES.

The Greatest Living Things On The Earth In Danger of Destruction.

CONGRESS SHOULD PROTECT THEM.

There is in California, the most marvelous of all growths: the oldest living things. The magnificent Big Trees of the Sierra Nevada (with the sequoia sempervirens, or redwood of the Coast range), are the last of a great family that once dominated vegetation in Europe and America from the Arctic zone to the Equator.

The species is now extinct, with the exception of the dozen groves and forests that are found between Placer County on the north and Tulare County on the south, on the western slopes of the Sierra Nevada mountains in California. These mighty trees, attaining a height of 400 feet, a base circumference of over 100 feet, and an age that is yet more amazing, eight thousand years, according to Prof. David Starr Jordan, thus being six thousand years old at the beginning of the Christian era, have stood unmoved amid all the changes that have beset the Earth's surface.

Now, these Big Trees, that should be more to our nation than the pyramids have been to Egypt, for they are both older and more impressive, are in danger of destruction: are in danger of being turned into shakes and shingles and matches. Fully 65% of their lumber value even being lost in that industrial process. If some one were to propose to use the pyramids to furnish pavements for the streets of Cairo the world would stand aghast, but every day sees the number of these great trees reduced. Only one grove is fully protected, and that one, the Mariposa grove, contains but 700 trees. While some of the others are included within the national parks, the reservations at present are so poorly defined as not to admit of adequate protection.

The sequoia grows on mountain slopes, where the slow wash of water, through ages, brings down minute particles of fertilizing rocks, and the decayed vegetation of countless centuries, with the moisture of eternal springs water and feed its roots. It enjoys a sun of the tropics without a cloud for six months, and has the balmy air of the Pacific, with incessant and gentle moisture, and a warm covering of snow for its winter. As has been well said, "It has nothing to do but grow;" and so with all the favorable conditions that nature can afford—air and sun and moisture—it pumps up its food from the everlasting hills, and builds up its slow vegetable-like substance during century after century into a gigantic, symmetrical and venerable pile, while nations begin and pass away beneath its shadow.

Think of lying under a tree, beneath which the cotemporary of Attila or Constantine might have rested, and which shall defy the storm, perhaps, when the present political divisions of the world are utterly passed away, and the names of Washington and Lincoln are among the heroes of a vague past.

And everywhere and all about you are the finest forests on earth—on any earth—of California, and to destroy which would be agricultural suicide. Enormous pines—sugar pine, yellow pine and high mountain pine—cover the flanks of the Sierras; giant firs, spruces and cedars rival the largest trees on earth, while above all, supremely prominent over all vegetation, towers the giant sequoia, mightiest of trees. Some of these are 8,000 years old, and on one of the least of these murdered at Sequoia Mills I counted 1902 rings of annual growth. This tree was a sapling four feet through at the time of the fall of Rome, but the great ones were twenty and thirty feet through in that far-off time.

There will never be such forests on earth again. Neither the State nor the government should ever let another acre of land on the Sierras be denuded of its timber, for on the preservation of our forests depends the fertility of our plains. To destroy the noblest groves and the grandest for the lumber that is in them is simply brutal.

It suggests barbarian demolition of the Coliseum in the middle ages for the old iron which held its stones together. But it is easier to build a hundred coliseums than to restore one sugar pine forest.

But, unfortunately, fire and the axe are already busy on many of the more accessible portions of the belt, spreading sure destruction, and unless protective measures be speedily adopted and applied in a few decades all that may be left of this noblest of trees will be a few hacked and scarred monuments.

The California Indians have a saying that other trees grow, but the Great Spirit created the sequoias out of hand. It is the savage way of calling them miracles. And they are, for how a tree from twenty-five to thirty stories high, and with room, if hollowed, to shelter three hundred guests, and leave standing quarters on the ground floor for a dozen horses, could have pumped from the earth and inspired from the air material enough to build itself along without waiting is incomprehensible. It gives you a queer feeling to look at a tree in full plumage that might have been flaunting its green needles when there was not as much as a neck of land in the known world between Liverpool and Honolulu.

Congress should immediately enact laws which will thoroughly protect and preserve these priceless treasures.

NEW YORK FASHIONS.

Millinery; Out Door Garments; Corsets; Skirts; Answers.

A marked feature in millinery, is the use of material, to the disadvantage of ribbon and here the preponderance of diaphanous fabrics is a surprise. Heavy trimmings, such as velvet, panne satin, etc., of course are employed very freely, but entire hats made in tulle or chiffon are certainly novel for winter. Generally in such cases, there is something heavy in at least a touch, but this is not essential. Fur is a very favorite completion and extreme style attaches to fur hats finished by tulle or chiffon and flowers. Fur is in very great favor. Shapes are low and broad, at times in really huge dimensions; some few rise over the forehead, but bonnets proper are well relegated to a past age and the place of strings is taken by ruffs, boas or very high collars. In

OUT DOOR GARMENTS, three quarter coats or long shapes reaching to the bottom of the dress, are stylish and adapted to carriage wear, but most unsuitable to the streets so often muddy in winter, since the holding up is almost impossible. Nevertheless they will be worn by untidy persons. Far better suited to out door wear in general, are medium jackets or Louis XV coats and these when chosen by tall and slender women, especially when worn with skirts that cleverly escape the pavement, yet escape also the epithet of "short," will be eminently tasteful. They come in all kinds of cloth and for dress occasions, are in rich varieties of standard velvet, panne velvet, panne satin, brocade or combinations of the same. Etons are seen on some new suits and as a new feature are sometimes made with postillion backs. In CORSETS, the immense popularity of independent styles, becomes noticeable on every hand and whether as parts of dresses or otherwise, are preferably finished by black velvet belts. The straight front corset is fashionable as ever and the lead is now taken by the C. B. a la Spirite corset, because in addition to excellent make, it comes in a variety of shape so great as to suit every woman, whether stout, thin, medium, very stout, very thin, long or short waisted or with high or low bust. Advice from the other side, especially Paris, are constantly received and changes made to suit the latest ideas, so that nothing stereotyped is ever put on the market. Prices run from $1 to $5 and upwards, the last figure securing a beautiful article in brocade or silk batiste, but for general purposes, the $2.50 styles are perhaps most to be recommended.

SKIRTS.

are still very close on the hips, very long and with flaring effects towards the bottom and these while eminently graceful for indoor wear, have caused a steady increase in favor, towards shapes better suited for an out door contention with dusty or muddy streets. The new idea in abbreviated examples, is a flaring flounce attached to the lower edge and all styles in skirts are preferably bound with S. H. & M. bias velvet and corduroy binding, which continues to lead, because while the most elegant in appearance, it affords the best protection not only to the skirt, but the shoes as well.

"Miss Button." You are right as to the revival of buttons on gowns. They are every week more freely used and come in many fancy styles, especially the iridescent pearl.

"Mrs. O. R." Light wool or silk dresses are stylishly trimmed with very narrow ruchings of silk.

"Out Door." The Louis XV coat is apparently destined to lead in out door garments.

LUCY CARTER.

A Fiendish Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kid neeps. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c at R. K. Truitt & Sons' Drug Store.

During the brief period from March 14th to September 30th there were organized in Maryland 12 new national banks. Of these, seven had a capital of less than $50,000, the total amount of their capital reaching $167,000. The total capital of the remaining 12 new banks amounting to $677,000. Comparatively little currency was issued by the banks, however, the amount of bonds deposited by them to secure their notes being only $176,450.

Tot Causes Night Alarm.

"One night my brother's baby was taken with Croup," writes Mrs. J. C. Snider, of Crittenden, Ky., "it seemed it would strangle before we could get a doctor, so we gave it Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave quick relief and permanently cured it. We always keep it in the house to protect our children from Croup and Whooping Cough. It is from Croup and Whooping Cough, that no other remedy would relieve." Infants for Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at R. K. Truitt & Sons.

Consumption

Is a disease of civilization. When the Indian was a stranger to the white man he had no name in his vocabulary for this dreaded malady.

Without arguing as to the curability of consumption, it may be stated positively that Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures weak lungs, hemorrhages, bronchitis, deep-seated and stubborn cough, and other diseases which if neglected or unskillfully treated find a fatal termination in consumption. There is no alcohol in the "Discovery," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics.

Persons suffering from chronic disease are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is conducted under the seal of sacred secrecy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

In a little over thirty years, Dr. Pierce, assisted by his medical staff of nearly a score of physicians, has treated and cured thousands of men and women who had been given up as incurable by local physicians.

"Your medicine is the best I have ever taken," writes Mrs. Jennie Dingman, of Rapid City, Dakota Co., Mich. "Last spring I had a bad cough; got so bad I had to be in bed all the time. My husband thought I had consumption. He wanted me to get a doctor, but I thought we would try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and before I had taken one bottle the cough stopped and I have since had no sign of its returning."

OUR COUNTY CAMPAIGN.

The County Mass Meeting will be held this year, October 26th, in Salisbury. All the arrangements have not been made yet, but it has been decided to make it a monster meeting. The campaign in the outlying districts will commence next week in earnest. Meetings will be held in all the districts. Now the advice of the ADVERTISER is that very little time be spent at these meetings discussing national issues, and for that matter in long dry speeches on any subjects. If there is to be any speech making let it be done to the point. Talk to friends about the issues that we expect to settle by this election. Don't talk about what our forefathers did, we can read about that next winter some snowy day. Talk about what was done at that special session of the legislature that our republican friends were so anxious to talk about before the census frauds were discovered; talk about the effort of the Republican party to get enough negroes in the State from North Carolina, Virginia and elsewhere to control the State; talk about the management of county affairs here at home; tell them who has had charge of the public affairs of the county since its formation and ask them to point to a county in the State so well managed under republican rule; then ask our republican friends to give the people some good reason for swapping a certainty for an uncertainty.

The Republican organs have been telling you that Gorman is to go back to the United States Senate if the Democrats win; tell them too that, that does not scare any Democrats in Wicomico County. Point out to the people what Mr. Gorman's record has been and compare it with Geo. L. Wellington's whom they say he is to succeed if the Democrats win. We are all willing for the comparison to be made. We are not afraid of any Democrat being scared at this. And then too compare Mr. Gorman's record with Mr. McComas' if you please. If there is a ranker partisan in the State of Maryland than Louis E. McComas, he is a deaf mute unable to make it unknown.

The party candidates should attend these meetings and meet the people. The people want to see the men they are going to vote for. The great body of voters of course know the candidates personally but some do not. It is these that the candidates should see and in seeing them ask them for their votes. A thing not worth asking for is not worth having. As was suggested by a correspondent in the ADVERTISER just after the nomination. It would be best to provide some method of entertainment for the people, bands of music and etc. No necessity for a dry campaign. We have plenty of good material in the way of both issues, and candidates. It only needs to be used. The party is amply able to pay for legitimate entertainment. Why should not our friends have it?

JOHN BROWN'S SOUL IN CANADA.

The negro as he takes his flight from the Sunny South to the Frozen North seems to carry with him his gay and frolicsome disposition. In point of fact he seems to be the same kind of citizen as his brother who lives in Georgia and Arkansas. It is also a noteworthy fact that as the negro spreads over the land the disposition of the white people to lynch him seems to follow. We are led to these reflections by the following extract from the Quebec Chronicle of October 2. Of course, these remarks are not intended to apply to the whole colored race. That race contains a great number of most estimable citizens who are deeply grieved at the discredit which is brought upon their color by the unworthy and lawless element. This lawless and criminal element is out of all proportion to the aggregate number of negroes. So large it is that their control and suppression in communities where there is a considerable colored population becomes one of the most difficult problems of local government.

The Quebec Chronicle says:

"The young factory girl named Mathieu, who was menaced last week by a negro, who presented a pistol at her head while walking along St. Valier street, St. Sauveur, is now at her home on Bayard street, suffering from nervous prostration. The police are still after the offender and have a strict surveillance over a number of young colored men residing at the east end of the city, who are accused of other offenses. It appears that a farmer named de Mally, from Lorette, was assaulted near St. Peter's Market a few nights ago, with the evident intention of robbery, by two negroes. Two young men, residents of St. Sauveur, were also attacked the same night by two negroes, who forced them to seek refuge in Mr. Poulin's fruit store, on Parent street. The people of St. Sauveur threaten to take the law in their own hands if the culprits are not arrested by the police."

The colored population of the far northern city Quebec is doubtless inconsiderable. There is an ample police force for the protection of the people, and yet the public exasperation is so great against the young negroes that there is talk of lynch law. In the Southern States, where, unhappily, there are so many lynchings, the white people are sparsely scattered through places where they are often outnumbered by the blacks. From the nature of the situation police protection is impossible. Women and children, when their husbands and fathers are absent at their vocations, or when they go upon the public highways, are defenseless and fall easily a prey to the lust or the murderous instinct of a negro brute. There is the provocation for the lynching, and when the same provocation takes place in New York, in Colorado, Ohio, Kansas, Illinois and Indiana we have the same result. Manifestly, therefore, the Southern people are not different in their feelings toward the negro criminal from their white brethren in the North or even in Canada.—Baltimore Sun.

TO THE WHITE VOTERS OF MARYLAND:

It has been charged that the Democratic Party has raised the race issue in the present campaign. We ask you to read the appeal printed below, sent to the negro voter throughout Baltimore city by a Republican committee.

Baltimore, Sept. 30, 1901.
Dear Sir:—We notice that your name is not yet upon the registration books of your precinct.

This is an entirely new registration, and unless you register you CANNOT vote on November 5.

It is most important for your race that you register and vote this year, as the Democratic Party has already put in the entering wedge for your disfranchisement, and it is a well-known fact that if the Gorman Rasin Democratic Party control the next Legislature they will enact a law for your total disfranchisement.

We ask you in the interest of the Republican party and in the interest of your race that you register at once, and that you see that your neighbor and your friends register with you, and if you do your full duty this enemy of your race will be swept away and put down forever in this great Commonwealth of Maryland.

THE DOCTRINE OF WHITE SUPREMACY.

The time has arrived when Republicans will have to say what they propose to do with the negro. If they repudiate him, their party power is no more; if they claim him, they must clothe him with office. The doctrine of white supremacy has obtained too deep a rooting to be flippantly waved aside. If the Republicans intend to place the negro in office, now is the time to say so and the people have a right to know it; if they do not, then the negro has a right to know that his political position is one of inferiority and involved slavery to his white Republican leaders.

But whether the negro is clothed with office or not, the elevation of a small coterie of white Republicans to power through the large negro vote, is a challenge to the self-respecting citizens of this county who believe in the supremacy of a white majority, and who see no injustice in the claim of the larger body of taxpayers to enjoy the right to manage the public business. The issue of this campaign is the outgrowth of unjust conditions which are to be remedied, and no Republican argument can side-track it.—Marylander and Herald.

—With last Sunday, October 6th, the Baltimore Sun began the publication of a Sunday edition.

The Sunday edition has much the same neat and clean mechanical appearance as the daily Sun, and its matter is of the same high moral tone. In announcing its motive for publishing a Sunday paper the Sun says:

"That THE SUN has been long wanted on Sunday as on other days of the week we are well assured, and it is in response to this demand that the step has been taken. It is a step in keeping with the progress of the age. There should be no day of the week in this era of quick communication upon which the quiet and orderly dissemination of intelligence should be barred. We have stated that the paper 'will be THE SUN on Sundays as well as on every other day.' This means that everything will be done to serve the public, in the full consciousness of all the responsibilities resting upon a journal which enjoys to such a gratifying extent, as THE SUN does, the confidence and respect of the community in which it is published."

IMPORTANT TO VOTERS.

Every Democratic voter who casts a ballot at the November election and wishes the same counted as his sentiments should see to it that he makes his X mark IN CENTRE of the space opposite the candidate's name, AND BE PARTICULAR THAT NO POINTS OF THE X MARK EXTEND BEYOND THE LINES FORMING THE BOX OR SPACE IN WHICH HE MARKS HIS BALLOT, otherwise the ballot will be thrown out.

Vote Buying.

COMMUNICATED.

Mr. Ellsgood's articles on the vote buying business in the county are strokes at a great evil. New laws do not mitigate the practice. It goes on and has become a part of the politics of the county and in the selection of candidates and in planning a campaign money is given much consideration. The difference between what it cost to procure a small elective office and the compensation of the office is but a small consideration for the duties often performed after the office is gained. The evil seems to be growing rather than diminishing, not that more money is being spent now than a few years ago, but that the publicity is greater and the compensation more general. A few years ago the purchasable vote was confined to a few and done in a very secret manner, but now it is more open and more voters expect compensation. So general has it become that men are open in their demands and out spoken in their "rights," being all they "get out of politics."

This feeling of pretended rights to compensation for voting has been brought about by the high standing of men, who in politics, have used the funds among the floating voters. Men to whom the community looks for guides in morals as well as business. The political funds are held usually and distributed by the political managers in the several districts and used to the best advantage. The use of the money is not always to influence men to vote contrary to their usual way of voting, but it is used to keep men in their old party line and to vote with the party of their affiliation.

The use of this money, by men high in church and state spreads an influence among the men who accept it and leaves the impression that it must be right to use it or the men who are so prominent would not offer it and that it must be right to accept it coming as it does from leading citizens. It is the high standing before the community of the men who use it that has given it its apparent impunity.

To convince the purchasable voters that it is wrong to accept the money and to stop their accepting it can never be accomplished while the money is proffered by those to whom we look for correct morals. The business must be stopped if done at all, by those who handle it—receive and disburse it and this is confined to very few men in the county. It would take this few but a short time to stop the business of vote buying in this county. Each party has a few men who manage the finances of a campaign. It is gathered in and sent out by few, the local use of money in the districts is in the hands of very few on either side. When the evil is traced to its source it emanates from the men that could be counted on the finger tips. The money is not the voluntary contributions from local sources but it is the accumulations of their contributions as demanded by the authorities and managers. Stop this and vote buying stops and we doubt if the relative results would be materially changed.

Blood.

We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor.

There is nothing else to live on or by.

When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain, in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood.

This is health.

When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

Back of the blood, is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It sets the whole body going again—man, woman and child.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

—The Annual Epworth League Convention of Salisbury District, Wilmington Conference, will be held at Laurel, Del., October 16th, 17th and 18th. Delegates to this convention from Jackson Chapter of Asbury M. E. Church, Salisbury, will be elected at a business and social meeting of the League to be held this Friday evening at the church.

—Mr. Chas. E. Harper left Thursday for a week's trip to New York and points in the north for the purpose of buying a large stock of Christmas goods. His line of silverware will be especially well selected. Mrs. Harper accompanied him.

—Advertising will pay if judiciously done. Some two weeks ago we had a lot of Cull Florida Shingles, very low price, that we could not move. We put a 25 cent local in the papers, they are nearly all gone, and we have another lot, so says Wm. B. Tilghman & Co.

—Mr. Chas. N. Coulbourn, who has been the agent of the Adams Express Company in Salisbury for twelve years, this week severed his connection with that company. We understand Mr. Coulbourn will soon leave Salisbury and enter into the employ of a large transportation company in Baltimore.

—K. B. Armour, who died recently in Kansas City, left a widow who was a native of the Eastern Shore. She was a Miss Hearne and a cousin of Mrs. Mary E. Houston, of this city. Mr. Armour was at the head of the Armour cattle interests in Kansas City and left a large fortune.

—Messrs. C. G. Messick and Harry I. Larmore, trading in the firm name of Messick & Larmore have executed a deed of trust to Mr. Jay Williams, attorney, for the benefit of their creditors. Messick & Larmore were running a general store at Bivalve, this county. Their assets, exclusive of property mortgaged, amounts to about $1500.00, liabilities, exclusive of debts secured by mortgages, about $3500.00.

—The County Commissioners and Judges of the Orphans Court were in session last Tuesday. The Commissioners passed sundry bills, and granted a pension of $1.50 to Jane Goalee; order to Gillis & Dashiell. The Board will meet again next Tuesday, 10th. Captain Jackson, of the Orphans Court, was absent from the session last Tuesday, being very sick at his home near Riverton. The Court will be in session again October 23d.

—Take off your hat to a lady and she will know in a minute if you are bowing to her with a last season's hat. You don't see your own hat getting rusty, but you always notice it on the other fellow. Kennerly & Mitchell are showing some extremely beautiful styles in fall hats. The new Panama shape in the soft hat is becoming quite popular.

—Messrs. Jas. E. Ellegood and E. Stanley Toadvin each appeared before the Court of Appeals this week in the interest of their respective clients. Before returning to Salisbury Mr. Ellegood visited Washington, and spent two hours in the Schley Court of Inquiry. He had the pleasure of speaking with the Admiral, and wished him the same victory in this fight that he won at Santiago.

—Mr. W. C. Gullett and family formerly of Pocomoke City, have moved to Salisbury and are occupying their new home on East Church street, which Mr. Gullett recently purchased of Mr. Alfred C. Dykes. Mr. Dykes and family have moved into the house recently vacated by Mr. Robert N. Todd until their new house now being erected on Newton street shall be completed.

—Mr. Jay Williams, Attorney, sold at the Court House door last Saturday the house and lot of Jas. A. Phillips, in Delmar, at $820.00. Saml. Bacon & Sons of Laurel, Del., were the purchasers. Mr. Williams also sold the house and lot and steam mill of Alfred Waller. The house and lot in Delmar was bought by Samuel Bacon & Sons at $960.00. Grier Brothers purchased the mill at $580. Mr. Ellegood, Attorney, sold the house and lot of Jas. Crichton in California to The Salisbury Building & Loan Association for $995.

—The Advertisement of Hochschild, Kohn & Co., one of the largest Department Stores in Baltimore, whose advertisement on last page of this issue represents an opportunity to every woman to secure the best that Baltimore affords in the way of feminine attire. Their offer to prepay freight on purchases amounting to $5.00 or more is an unusual one, as is also their policy to gladly exchange goods or refund the price paid. These features should be taken advantage of by all our friends who do their shopping in Baltimore. Watch their advertisements in this paper every week.

Lady Cleveland Wins.

The B. C. & A. railroad runs a special to Berlin last Thursday, and a number of people in this county attended the races at the Berlin track.

There were several races, but the one that most interested the local horse fanciers was the challenge race of Arthur Parsons' "Lady Cleveland" and Wimbrow's "Raymond Bell".

Lady Cleveland was driven by Charley Parsons and the horse by Mr. A. H. Perdue. The mare won in three straight heats, time 2.31, 2.32½ and 2.30. She was formerly the property of Mr. W. B. Miller, of this city.

The fastest time made on the track Thursday was paced by "Judge Case" and "Martha Ford," Hall's Stallion and Savage's filly. By agreement the race was given to the horse, best time 2.24½.

For Over Fifty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures all wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty cents a bottle. 1

Aching Joints

In the fingers, toes, arms, and other parts of the body, are joints that are inflamed and swollen by rheumatism—that acid condition of the blood which affects the muscles also.

Sufferers dread to move, especially after sitting or lying long, and their condition is commonly worse in wet weather.

"It has been a long time since we have been without Hood's Sarsaparilla. My father thinks he could not do without it. He has been troubled with rheumatism since he was a boy, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine he can take that will enable him to take his place in the field." Miss Ada Dorr, Sidney, Iowa.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove the cause of rheumatism—no outward application can. Take them.

That Persistent Tickling Cough

That sticky secretion in the throat and air passages, that sense of tightness, across (or needle-like pains through) the chest—danger signals! For these conditions take

Spruce Pine
Cough Cure

And be on the safe side. It's a remarkable cure for all throat and lung affections. Pleasant to take, being composed of wild cherry, white pine, balm of Gilead buds, blood root, &c. Customers say it acts like magic. If it don't your money back. 25 cents a bottle at

R. K. Truitt & Sons, SALISBURY, MD.NEW SILKS AND DRESS GOODS.

THE NEW FIRM'S FIRST FALL DISPLAY.

We open the season with the largest and most complete line of NEW DRESS GOODS AND SILKS.

NOTE.—We say the largest line of NEW SILKS AND DRESS GOODS. A few hints which might help you decide the color and weave you would like.

NOVELTIES IN DRESS GOODS

This is to be a plain season. The novelties are novel because of some clever weave or rich sheen finish rather than being given to striking figures and like features. Pretty shades of castor, tan, steel, brown, and new navy blue, are the reigning favorites. In colored goods there are some strong effects in a deep oxblood red, and very fetching shades of green for the few who can wear that color.

Among the novelties are London crash, a clever thing quite like crash only that it is in silky wool. Prunella cloth, Soleil, Melrose, Oscawona, Kersey Cloth, Venetian, Beaver and Broad Cloth, Satin Cloth. Reversible Rainy Day Skirtings, all wool home spun with neat stripes, special price 40 cents the yard. We are sole agents for a few of the above novelties for this city.

On the 10th, 11th and 12th we will have our special opening of ladies' Coats, Capes and Furs, Dress Goods and Silks.

You are invited to inspect our lines.

Birckhead & Shockley, SALISBURY, MD.Clothing is as Much a Conundrum as Sausage Unless you Know Your Butcher.

Two butchers bought the same sort of sausage from the same packing house and paid the same for it. One sold sausage for 12½ cts. per pound, while the other got 20 cents for the same thing. One hung out a sign "Sausage 12½ cents; to pay more is to get robbed." The other hung out a sign "Sausage 20 cents; to pay less is to get poisoned." The 12½ cent fellow sold lots of sausage and made a little on every pound. The 20 cent fellow sold less sausage and made more on a pound, and didn't have to wait on so many people or work so hard. Lacy Thoroughgood is the 12½ cent butcher of the Clothing trade, and he's not afraid of work.

Thoroughgood has Eight Hundred Overcoats
And is Going to Butcher the Price on 'em.

Overcoat Bargains, the biggest of the big—bought at a snap price—selling for less than Overcoats ever sold before. Long coats, short coats, ulsters, heavy coats, light coats, medium coats, all sorts of overcoats. It makes easy work for Thoroughgood and his salesmen when such brilliant bargains prevail. The Overcoats sell themselves, and the more you know about overcoats the quicker you buy. See the list of prices and decide whether it is possible for Coats to be sold for less and whether there is any need for the poorest to go without. Boys' Overcoats $4.00, $4.50, $6.00, each coat worth double—guaranteed by any test you choose to apply. Two hundred Boys' Overcoats, come and buy one. Men's Overcoats, hundreds of them at prices half the actual worth. Men's Overcoats $3.00, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00, $8.00, $10.00, $12.50, $15.00, $18.00. Come and buy one, take it out if you wish and compare it with whatever you desire and if you can find anything that will at all approach it for anything like the price, bring it back and get your money.

Bits Of Maryland News.

Ice formed in Washington county Saturday night.

The Cumberland Tinplate Mill has been permanently closed up.

Naval Cadet Mayer L. Goldman, of Louisiana, has resigned from the Naval Academy.

Mr. Emil Sprague, of Baltimore, has accepted a place in Senator Charles T. Westcott's bank at Chestertown.

A carload of postal cards was shipped October 4th from the factory at Luke Allegany county, to Shanghai, China.

The Hagerstown Evaporating Company is evaporating 300 bushels of apples daily.

It is said that orders to make 85,000 bicycles have been given the Hagers town Bicycle Works.

Three new cases of diphtheria have developed in the negro quarter of Greensboro, Caroline county.

Henry Holzapfel, Jr., has 400,000 celery plants in Washington this year, and has 16 men to work the crop.

The monitor Puritan and the Standish have returned to the Naval Academy from Norfolk.

A $100 bay horse was stolen Sunday night from the stable of Charles C. Coffey, west of Hagerstown.

Mr. Alexander Armstrong, Jr., of Hagerstown, left yesterday for a foreign tour of a couple of years in the Eastern Hemisphere.

Lewis Ockerman, Goshen, Ind.: "DeWitt's Little Early Risers never bend me double like other pills, but do their work thoroughly and make me feel like a boy." Certain thorough, gentle. Dr. L. D. Collier.

Miss Hortense Wahl, daughter of Frank J. Wahl, of Cumberland, died Sunday, aged 35 years. This is the fourth death in the family in the past four years.

Miss Rachel Smith, of Boonsboro, who fell from a tree and broke her leg above the ankle, had the leg amputated below the knee, the bones refusing to knit.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers never disappoint. They are safe, prompt, gentle, effective in removing all impurities from the liver and bowels. Small and easy to take. Never gripe or distress. Dr. L. D. Collier.

A cable message to Snow Hill from Senator John P. Moore, in Paris, October 5, announces the more favorable condition of his son, John P. Moore, Jr., who is ill of typhoid fever.

Sunday morning Wash Brooks, an aged colored man in the employ of Dr. John Cornmiller, was found drowned in Avondale race, at Laurel, having fallen into the water Saturday night.

Do you suffer from piles? If so do not turn to surgery for relief. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will act more quickly, surely and safely, saving you the expense and danger of an operation. Dr. L. D. Collier.

The freight traffic over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad is assuming immense proportions, as about 2,750 east and west-bound freight cars were handled in Cumberland Saturday.

Dr. Peter Fahrney, the Chicago millionaire, will convert his summer place, San-Mar, in Washington county, into a sanitarium. The institution will be on the new Boonsboro trolley road.

C. M. Phelps, Forestdale, Vt. says his child was completely cured of a bad case of eczema by the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of all counterfeits. It instantly relieves piles. Dr. L. D. Collier.

The Sherwood Distillery, at Cockeysville, and the Dairy Food Company connected with it that have been idle for several months during improvements, resumed operations last week.

The old saddle horse of the late David Blackston, of Chestertown, died last week. Since the death of her master, in 1888, the mare was never allowed to do a minute's work. She was 40 years old.

W. T. Wesson, Gholsonville, Va., druggist, writes: "Your One Minute Cough Cure gives perfect satisfaction. My customers say it is the best remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles." Dr. L. D. Collier.

The rural free delivery from Chestertown to Annapolis was inaugurated on October 1. The rural delivery route, which will take in Pomona and Qualer Neck, will commence on the first day of November.

A partial labor famine in Kent county is greatly interfering with the harvesting of the greatest crop the county has known for many years. The price for cutting corn has been raised to $1.25 per day.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of the little ones it has saved. Strikes at the root of the trouble, and draws out the inflammation. The children's favorite Cough Cure. Dr. L. D. Collier.

Upon the recommendation of Governor Smith Governor White, of West Virginia, has appointed Urner G. Carl commissioner for Virginia for Maryland, with residence at Cumberland. The commission expires October 8, 1902.

William E. Bond, charged with embezzling $440 from the Clinton Reeds Company, had a hearing at Annapolis yesterday before Justice Eidsmyer and in default of $500 bail was committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

The Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company is building a new iron bridge over Christians Creek, just north of Newark. The old iron bridge was washed away several weeks ago during a heavy rainstorm.

"I had long suffered from indigestion," writes G. A. LeDele, Cedar City, Mo. "Like others I tried many preparations but never found anything that did me good until I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. One bottle cured me. A friend who had suffered similarly I put on the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. He is gaining fast and will soon be able to work. Before he used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure indigestion had made him a total wreck. Dr. L. D. Collier."

Elmer Eisentrout, aged 15 years, while hunting Saturday at Kinson, near Frostburg, was badly wounded by the accidental discharge of a gun, the shot furling his flesh and tearing the smaller bones from the hand to the shoulder.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is not a mere stimulant to tired nature. It affords the stomach complete and absolute rest by digesting the food you eat. You don't have to diet, but can enjoy all the good food you want. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure instantly relieves that distressed feeling after eating, giving you new life and vigor. Dr. L. D. Collier.

A Typical South African Store.

O. R. Larson, of Bay Villa, Sundays River, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at which can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these, within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a record." For sale by R. K. Truitt & Sons.

Mr. John Martin, of Highlandtown, has a curiosity in the shape of a kitten with six well developed paws or feet. The front legs are the same as other kittens, except that where the feet join are two paws instead of one. The extra paws extend inward like the spur of a rooster, except that the members rest on the floor when in use.

The Royal Month and The Royal Disease. Sudden changes of weather are especially trying, and probably to none more so than to the scrofulous and consumptive. The progress of scrofula during a normal October is commonly great. We never think of scrofula—its buncches, cutaneous eruptions, and wasting the bodily substance—without thinking of the great good many sufferers from it have derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla, whose radical and permanent cures of this one disease are enough to make it the most famous medicine in the world. There is probably not a city or town where Hood's Sarsaparilla has not proven its merit in more homes than one, in arresting and completely eradicating scrofula, which is almost as serious and as much to be feared, as its near relative, consumption.

The prize bass of the season was caught at Duck Island, a half mile from Williamsport, in the Potomac River, by John Stradoff. The fish weighed seven and a half pounds. Stradoff will claim a prize of $500, offered by the Woodmont Rod and Gun Club, for capturing a bass over seven pounds.

Stricken With Paralysis. Henderson Grimett, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and side after being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured.—Geo. R. McDONALD, Man, Logan county, W. Va. Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known, however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. For sale by R. K. Truitt & Sons.

An engine hauling a Baltimore and Ohio freight train was derailed at the Cumberland viaduct. The tool and rigger train was taken to the scene to replace the engine upon the rails. While this was in operation a gasoline tank exploded and set fire to a tool car, practically destroying it.

"My Family Doctor." Blue Island, Ill., Jan. 14, 1901. Messrs. ELY BROS:—I have used your Cream Balm in my family for nine years and it has become my family doctor for colds in the head. I use it freely on my children. It is a Godsend to children as they are troubled more or less. Yours respectfully, J. KIMBALL.

Judge for yourself. A trial size can be had for the small sum of 10 cts. Supplied by druggists or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York. Full size 50 cts.

The bones of Joseph Homer, of Sharon, Pa., are becoming soft and flexible, and in a few years he will be totally helpless. Homer's legs are now affected, and can be bent and twisted in all possible shapes without causing him any pain.

Free medical advice. Men and women suffering from chronic diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., by letter, absolutely without fee or charge. For more than thirty years as chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y., Doctor Pierce has devoted himself to the treatment and cure of chronic forms of disease. Assisted by his staff of nearly a score of physicians, each man a specialist, his success has been phenomenal, ninety-eight persons in every hundred treated being absolutely and altogether cured. Women have especially availed themselves of Dr. Pierce's offer of free consultation by letter, thereby avoiding the unpleasant questioning, the obnoxious examinations, and odious local treatments considered necessary by some practitioners. Over half a million women have been treated by Dr. Pierce and his staff for diseases peculiar to women, with unvarying success. Write without fear as without fee. Every letter is treated as strictly private and sacredly confidential, and all answers are sent in plain envelopes, bearing no printing upon them. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

W. D. Gravenor and wife and Mrs. Lizzie Bounds spent last Sunday and Monday at Quantico.

The Knights of Pythias attended the M. E. Church in a body on Sunday last. Rev. E. H. Miller and A. W. Matthew delivered memorial addresses in memory of the late President.

M. H. Bennett & Son have a contract to caulk a large boat at Petersburg, Va., and left on Sunday with a force of men from here to do the work.

J. M. Gearyhagan took charge of school here on Monday as principal.

J. H. Caulk, Secretary of the Railway Co., is in Baltimore this week in the interest of the company.

Capt. J. W. Robinson left on Tuesday for Baltimore to become master of the schooner, J. Dallas Marvill. Capt. E. G. Bennett, the former master will take charge of the schooner, J. H. Hargrave.

At Tuesday's sitting the officers of registration added nine names to the list and gave one transfer certificate.

A large number of the town's citizens met in J. E. Nelson's wood's on the edge of the town, on Thursday and surveyed and laid off a large grove as a camp-meeting site. It will be leased for a number of years, and annual camps held beginning in 1902. This is the same grove in which a few very successful camps were held several years ago. The site is a fine one, easy of access from every direction, a beautiful grove and it borders on the town limits, making it as convenient as anyone could desire. When other camps have been held here large crowds have come on boats and landed at wharf and passed out and back at their convenience. The move has been the theme of conversation for ten days and all preliminary work will be done at once. The object seems to be for religious worship as the move is headed by the people who usually figure largely in revival work.

Our farmers or all done saving fodder and peas hay and several are seeding scarlet clover and rye for early feeding.

Captains James. John and Ernest Elliott have all left here for Cambridge Dorchester Co., where they will engage in the oyster business.

Mr. Charles L. Elliott one of the employees of the B. C. & A. Co. is spending a few days with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Allison Elliott of this place.

Mr. Wm. J. Phillips left Monday for Cambridge where he expects to stay until Christmas.

Mrs. Lafayette Lowe and Miss Fannie Phillips of Royal Oak Talbot county, are visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Phillips of this place.

Our school is getting along finely under the care and instruction of our teacher, Miss R. Etta Venables. She has over fifty on register and more yet to come. She appears to be very anxious for them to come in as she meets them with smiles and pleasant words is an evidence that she is interested in the welfare of her scholars and the school work. We feel confident of success in our school under her teaching for she has won the love and respect of the children and the parents as well by her pleasant and agreeable ways.

EVILS OF SPECULATION.

Ruin to Young Men by the Periodical Craze.

There is no substitute for hard work in winning success. There is always an element of chance, but it is never the predominating element. Chance simply presents the opportunity, and opportunity is merely a vehicle for human endeavor.

The man, young or old, who thinks otherwise, who believes that it is luck alone that makes riches, and ill luck that keeps men poor, starts out with a false notion. It is inevitable that he should come to grief in the scheme of life.

The craze for speculation that sweeps over the community now and then grows largely out of the conviction that success is luck. Such a craze is more injurious to the prospects of the young men who are carried away by it than war or pestilence. It means not alone the loss of money, but the ruination of character. It leaves the victims standing on a false platform, where they are consumed with a desire to get something for nothing, and lose an appetite for hard work. It unites them for sincere effort, and almost without exception produces a demoralization that blights their entire existence.

Whether the young man who makes his first speculative venture wins or loses, the result is equally bad. If there is any difference at all, it is in favor of the man who comes out a loser in the first venture. With him at least there is a chance that he will wake up to the hopelessness of speculation as a means of acquiring wealth, and that the lesson taught will result in leaving him a useful working member of society instead of a drone who thinks that he may get along by dipping into the honey pots of others.

Now and then men arise who happen to make a success of speculation, who make something out of nothing. These men are so rare that the entire list may be checked off on the fingers of two hands. Unfortunately they are taken as fair examples instead of extraordinary exceptions. Their names and fame are paraded in the public prints and the public mind is inflamed by chronicles of their successful ventures. That they stand as survivors of a system that has wrecked thousands and hundreds of thousands is not taken into account. The unfortunate who have gone down to ruin and beggary are never heard of. They are not interesting and their history never finds the light of day except where, here and there, one more desperate than the rest puts an end to his existence under sensational circumstances.—Balto. ## WHAT FARMERS WANT

More Money To Develop Agricultural Interests of The State.

College Park, Md., Sept. 29.—The Vanville Farmers' Club, of Prince George's county, which met Saturday night at the residence of Mr. John D. Cassard, adopted the following:

Resolved, That the Vanville Farmers' Club indorses the efforts of the committee of nine, representing the combined farmers' organizations of the State of Maryland, to secure from the next Legislature of Maryland additional support for the Maryland Agricultural College, the Experiment Station and the Department of Farmers' Institutes, so as to enable these institutions to extend their work in developing the agricultural interests of the State.

Resolved, That this club, both collectively and individually, use every effort possible to procure the amounts asked for by this committee, which amounts are as follows: For providing additional accommodations so as to quarter and care for at least double the number of students at present enrolled, $25,000; for enlarging the mechanical building, $10,000; for renovating the old college building, $8,000; for providing 78 free scholarships in agriculture, $5,000 annually; for extending the work of the Department of Farmers' Institutes, $1,000 annually for providing for the maintenance of an insurance on the Experiment Station Building and for special investigations in tobacco culture and beef production, $5,000 annually; for enlarging the greenhouses and for experiments in horticultural investigations, $5,000; in all $64,000.

The idea is to provide 78 free scholarships, 26 to be four year course and 52 to be for students taking a short course in agriculture. The State now provides no free scholarships.

Baltimore's Best Store

Hochschild, Kohn &amp; Co.

Howard and Lexington Streets

We have arranged to regularly print a part of the store news in this paper. Week by week we will tell you of best sorts of merchandise to be had at less prices than are asked by any other store.

In four years we have built up an enormous business, and have a great many customers in the counties, who either come to the store or order by mail. This has come to be known as Baltimore's Best Store, and right well does it live up to its appellation.

Important Sale of Dress Goods &amp; Silks

Most are a Fourth to a Half Under Price

All are the Kinds that Tasteful Women Want Now

Think it over. Almost every woman will have one or more new dresses this fall. Here's an opportunity to save to a degree altogether unprecedented, on newest and best Dress Goods, Silks and Linings.

The scope of the sale is remarkably comprehensive, including as it does almost every fabric in popular use. We are frank to say that few stores in the whole country are showing stocks so large—no store anywhere is making, or likely to be able to make, such decisively underpriced offerings.

We suggest, in your interest, that quickest possible advantage be taken of this occasion. Many of the sorts and qualities are just such as it would have been necessary to buy and sell at full regular prices, if the series of trade incidents that led to this sale had not so favored us and you, and we do not expect to get further lots at equally low prices when these are gone.

The Glaser Opera Co.

The Lulu Glaser Opera Company, fifty strong, will begin a week's engagement in Baltimore on Monday evening of next week, in a new opera by Messrs. Stanislaus Stange and Julian Edwards, entitled "Dolly Varden." The organization was formed and is under the management of Mr. F. C. Whitney, who is well known to Baltimore theatre-goers from having brought here such operas as "Rob Roy," "Brian Boru" and "The Fencing Master." Mr. Whitney assures the patrons of the Academy that "Dolly Varden" will surpass any of the above operas, both in regard to the book, the score and the production. The cast that Mr. Whitney has surrounded Miss Glaser with is as follows: Van Rensselaer Wheeler, Richie Ling, Mark Smith, Tom Daniel, Percy Stephens, Harry Walker and Miss Amelia Fields, nearly all of whom are known to Baltimore opera-goers. The production is as elaborate and artistic as money and good taste could devise. There are some musical numbers in "Dolly Varden" that will set people whistling and humming, and the fun is fresh and crisp. The time in which Mr. Stange, the author, has laid "Dolly Varden" is 1780. George I. was on the English throne, and the gay Louis XV. was making himself famous for his brilliancy and splendor of his Court. The English were copying the gaudy fashions of the French. Many of the important points in ladies dress in the incoming fashions were taken from this period, and the ladies of Salisbury can learn what the newest things in fashionable dress are by going to see "Dolly Varden." Mme. Seidel, of the Metropolitan Opera House, designed the costumes, and Mme. Friesinger, the famous New York modiste, made them. Miss Glaser will wear two gowns, a court dress and a wedding dress that will be especially attractive to the ladies.

—Revival services will begin at Zion church, Parsonburg circuit, to-morrow night.

DEATH OF COLONEL LEONARD.

An Honored Citizen of the County and One of its Oldest.

JAMES A. VENABLES AND WM. J. HUMPHREYS ALSO DEAD.

Col. Wm. J. Leonard died at 10 o'clock Monday evening at his residence, on Division street, this city after a brief illness. His remains were interred Thursday afternoon, in Parsons cemetery, following funeral services at the house at 8 o'clock, by Rev. F. B. Adkins, of Easton. Rev. A. J. Vanderbogar of St. Peter's church, this city, being a delegate to the Episcopal Convention, in San Francisco, Cal., was necessarily unable to be present at the funeral. A very large gathering of the friends and neighbors of the deceased attended the services at the home and followed the remains to the grave.

The active pallbearers were six of Col. Leonard's oldest tenants, viz. Messrs. Samuel A. Gordy, W. H. Brittingham, J. H. Shookley, Wm. Smith, W. H. Parker and W. H. Taylor. These gentlemen served by Col. Leonard's expressed wish.

The honorary pallbearers were: Messrs. Thomas W. Seabrook, John D. Williams, A. J. Benjamin, Granville B. Rider, L. P. Humphreys, Irving S. Powell, A. A. Gillis, E. Stanley Toadvin, Hon. W. H. Jackson, Dr. S. A. Graham, Dr. L. D. Collier, Dr. F. M. Simons and Dr. W. G. Smith.

Though Colonel Leonard had been failing perceptibly several months, his last illness was of brief duration. One day only a little while ago he felt brighter and stronger than usual. This induced him to walk down town to attend to several business matters. Unconsciously he overtaxed his strength and reached home quite exhausted. Then followed in rapid succession a deep cold, a severe ague and dissolution.

Colonel Leonard leaves a large estate, consisting mostly of several hundred acres of the best farming land in the county and the pleasant town residence where the family now reside, which his widow and children inherit.

SKETCH OF COLONEL LEONARD'S LIFE.

The subject of this sketch was born in Worcester (now Wicomico) county in the year 1816, having reached the advanced age of eighty-five years at the time of his death. His early education was obtained at the Salisbury Academy and Wesleyan University at Middletown, Connecticut, after the completion of which he read law in the office of Hon. Brice Goldsborough, in Cambridge. His public life began in 1849 as a member of the Legislature on the Whig ticket, to which position he was twice elected.

Colonel Leonard's removal from his farm to Salisbury took place in 1855. He formed a partnership soon afterwards with Captain John T. Hooper under the firm name of Hooper & Leonard and they conducted a large and successful business in grain, lumber and general merchandise in the store house on Main Street, once occupied by the late William Freedy. A dissolution of partnership took place at the beginning of the Civil War.

Colonel Leonard was a large slave holder, yet he was an ardent Union man and freed his slaves before the emancipation. The Union men of the Eastern Shore of Maryland called a meeting at Snow Hill, February 1, 1861, over which Col. Leonard presided, to protest against the proposed secession of the Southern States, and thereafter he was heart and soul with the North in the struggle. In 1862 he assumed command of the Farnell Legion, succeeding Col. W. H. Farnell, its organizer, which was in service on the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Eastville, Va., and which was later removed to Baltimore and then to the valley of Virginia. He participated in several important engagements, and was captured at Catlett's Station, Va., August 22, 1862, by Stewart's Cavalry, while confined to his bed by illness, and sent to Libby Prison, Richmond. He was exchanged the following October, and in December of that year he resigned the command of the legion and returned to his home. He was succeeded in the command of the regiment by the late Col. S. A. Graham.

He was a member of the National Convention which renominated Mr. Lincoln to the Presidency and was one of his most earnest supporters; he also advocated the nomination of Mr. Johnson for the Vice-Presidency, believing that this would still the clamor of sectionalism then made against the Republican party. At the death of Mr. Lincoln he was still an ardent supporter of the Johnson policy which caused his affiliation with that wing of the Republican party. In January, 1864, he was appointed provost marshal of the First District of Maryland, comprising the eight Eastern Shore counties of the State. He was elected State Comptroller in 1866 as a Union Republican, having no opposition from the Democrats, and was re-elected to the same office serving until 1870. He continued to be active in politics, and in 1873 ran as an independent candidate for the Legislature, defeating Huston Humphreys, the Democratic nominee. In 1882 he was elected County Commissioner, serving in 1882 and 1883 as president of the Board. This was the last political office he ever held, although in 1891 he was a candidate for the State Senate on the Fusion ticket, being defeated by R. Stanley Toadvin.

After the failure of the project in 1864 to create a new county from Somerset and Worcester counties he with others after a renewal of their efforts secured the formation of the county of Wicomico. During this exciting campaign his arm and voice were raised in the mighty battle which was waged with the forces so strongly opposed to its formation.

Colonel Leonard was married in 1831 to Elizabeth S. daughter of Ebenezer Leonard who died in 1872. He was married again in 1874 to Miss Isabella Staples White, daughter of James White. By his last marriage there are six children living, two sons and four daughters.

Being extremely modest and retiring in his manner he spent the last remaining years of his life in the quiet of his pleasant family circle, occasionally riding over his large land estate and taking a deep interest in the agricultural pursuits of his tenants. His private office situated on the grounds of his beautiful residence was one of his favorite haunts where he would sit for hours enjoying the companionship of his old friends but when left alone he invariably gratified his intellectual tastes.

Colonel Leonard though not identified with any church was governed as nearly as possible by the Golden Rule and his more than ordinary culture and ability has had a strong influence with the community in which he has lived so long and where he has manifested his character and talents.

Death Of James A. Venable.

With the death of Mr. James Venable, who passed from the living at his home on East Church Street, about 5 o'clock last Wednesday afternoon, one of the oldest citizens of the county pays the last debt of Nature. Mr. Venable was born on the old Venable homestead in Baron Creek district, now owned by Mr. John S. Rammel, in 1814, thus making him over 87 years old at the time of his death. His father was, in his day, a slave owner and holder of much real estate. The late Ballard Venable of Quantico and Seth Venable of Crisfield were brothers of James who was the last of ten children.

When a very young man Mr. Venable came to Salisbury, then a small village, and engaged in shoe-making and the sale of groceries to the retail trade. At this dual occupation he prospered and later formed a partnership with Wm. W. Parsons, late husband of Mrs. Mary Heister Parsons of Broad Street for the more extensive sale of groceries. He was from that time to 1886 continuously in the grocery business. When the great fire of that autumn swept away most of our little city Mr. Venable was one of the sufferers, his building, which stood where Mr. T. E. Adkins is now selling groceries, and much of his stock were consumed. He opened, after the fire, a small grocery store in his dwelling on East Church Street, but with the fire of 1896 his business career practically ended.

In middle life Mr. Venable married Miss Mary Leonard, a sister of Mr. George W. Leonard of L., who died in 1894. They had no children, and his nearest relatives are the children of his brothers and sisters. Mr. George B. Venable of this city and Mr. A. S. Venable of Mardela Springs are nephews. The late Mrs. Thoroughgood, deceased wife of Mr. Wm. M. Thoroughgood, was a half sister of the deceased's wife. Mr. Venable was long a devoted member of the Methodist Church.

His funeral was preached at Asbury Church by the pastor, Rev. Chas. A. Hill Friday afternoon. The remains were interred in Parsons Cemetery. He leaves a small estate unincumbered.

Death of Mr. Wm. J. Humphreys.

Mr. Wm. J. Humphreys died about 9 o'clock last Sunday morning at his home on the Spring Hill road, near town, after a very long illness. Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday morning. Rev. Mr. Hamilton of the Episcopal Church of Princess Anne, official. The remains were interred in the family burial grounds on the farm.

Mr. Humphreys would have been 70 years old January 1st, 1902, had he lived to that time. He was a well-known man to the people of this county, having been since the formation of the county an attache of the Court House, where men from all sections of the county gather each Spring and Autumn term of Court.

Mr. Humphreys was twice married. The wife of his youth was a sister of the late George Bradley. She and their only child, a daughter, have long since died. His second wife, who is now his widow, was a Miss Goolee of Baron Creek district. Several grown sons and daughters survive with her. The sons are W. Richard Humphreys, of Marion, Somerset county, and Fountain Humphreys of Salisbury. The daughters are Mrs. Daniel Tilghman of Parsons district; Mrs. Emory Phillips of Sussex county, Delaware, and Miss Louisa Humphreys who has always resided with her parents.

Robert Lee Waller.

Robert Waller died near Sharptown on Saturday, Oct. 12th., of complication of diseases, at the age of nineteen years. His remains were interred on Sunday afternoon in the Taylor Cemetery at Sharptown, after funeral services by Rev. E. H. Miller in the M. E. Church.

The death of Rob was a sad blow to the aged father and mother, James W. and Marietta Waller, who had centered much interest in this their youngest son. He was a true obedient boy and was the delight of his parents and gave them much promise for future usefulness as well as pleasure in the present.

His affliction was of short duration and everything was done that could be.

Death is sad in almost every phase of life, but especially so when the journey of life is prospective, as in this young man, and full of hope. He had arrived at that age where life is appreciative and where he saw many pleasures before him. Stimulated by the activities of youth, and encouraged by the happy surroundings and associations of life, he had much to live for.

Notwithstanding the heavy down-pour of rain on day of burial a large number of relatives and friends attended the burial. The flowers were numerous. Much sympathy exists for the bereaved family.

"Side Tracked."

There are all kinds of plays, some serious, some merry, and some with a slender thread of story to an entertainment that passes away the hour given to amusement. Of this latter kind, "Side Tracked" has been selected by Messrs. Ullman to appear at their Opera House, Thursday, October 24th. A truly merry entertainment and one evoking continuous laughter, with here and there a slightly serious vein almost as soon turned into merriment as it has appeared. A merry tramp, the seeming creature of an hour, appears at constantly opportune times, and continually protects two pretty sisters from annoyance, by thwarting the villain's attempted attentions. He is ever present from his first appearance in a box-car conveniently backed into stage prominence, until the end, when he turns gentleman and wins the hand of the pretty younger sister. He is the one living witness of the murder that takes place, and the one final prosecutor. He is always at hand when wanted, when not wanted, and at any time in any circumstance can be looked for. The performance is enlivened with taking musical and specialty features.

Tickets on sale at Box office. Prices, 25, 35, and 50c.

Captured Wild Man.

Citizens of Middleford, three miles from Seaford, asked if some assistance could not be sent them having had a great deal of trouble of late with a "wild man" as he is called. His name is Esau Perkins, he is married and has several small children. Several times recently he has threatened his wife's life and run her out of the house with a hatchet, declaring he would kill her and the children. Perkins goes dressed only in a shirt with the sleeves torn out and a ragged pair of overalls and presents the appearance of a man who has not eaten for several days. He wears a long growth of beard and long hair. A meeting was held by the town people and a posse of men sent out to capture him. After several attempts the wild man was finally captured and overpowered and sent to the hospital at Parnhurst.

MARRIAGE OF MISS JUDKINS

The Ceremony Took Place at Her Parents' Home on Division Street Wednesday of This Week.

Miss Content Sanford Judkins youngest daughter of Rev. W. E. Judkins D. D., of this city, and Mr. James F. Lee, of Roanoke, Va., were quietly married at noon last Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents on Division street. The bride's father officiated, assisted by Rev. W. T. Green, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, South.

Although quiet, the ceremony was an exceptionally pretty one. The house was beautifully decorated with palms, golden rod, and autumn foliage, forming in the parlor an altar before which the couple were married.

The bride entered the parlor with her brother, Mr. W. D. Judkins of New York City and met the groom at the altar, who was accompanied by his best man, Mr. Edward Tinsley of Roanoke. She wore a lovely gown of white organdie over taffeta silk, trimmed with duchess lace, long bridal veil, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Miss Esther McKenzie Judkins was maid of honor and entered the parlor alone, just ahead of the bride. She wore white with pink ribbons, and also carried roses. Miss Katherine Toadvin and Miss Helen Graham were the little flower girls.

Immediately after the marriage a wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party and the few invited guests present. Among whom were, Mrs. Joseph Lee, of Roanoke, the groom's mother; Mr. L. McKenzie Judkins, of Richmond, the bride's brother; Miss Cummings of Alexandria, Va.; Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Graham, Miss Irma Graham, Miss Nellie Jackson, Miss Dora Toadvin, Miss Mary Reigart, Mrs. E. S. Toadvin, Miss Emma Powell, and Miss M. Louise Tilghman of Salisbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee left on the two o'clock express for an extended bridal trip north after which they will reside at Roanoke, Va.

Salisbury Democratic Club.

The club rooms of the Salisbury Democratic Club were filled on Thursday evening when the club was formally organized. Every part of the town was represented and the greatest interest was displayed. Reports were made by individual members that in their neighborhood men who had been lukewarm and men who had voted the republican ticket for several years had expressed a desire to join the democrats in their fight this year. Two hundred and fifty members are already enrolled and more are coming in every evening.

Mr. Sewell T. Evans was unanimously elected President, Mr. C. Lee Gillis, Secretary, and Mr. A. R. Leonard assistant Secretary. It was decided that the club shall attend in a body the Mass Meeting to be held next Saturday in Salisbury at the Opera House.

Next Wednesday evening there will be a large turn out at the club rooms at which time the club will be addressed by prominent speakers. This will be followed by club meetings in Parsons and Nutters districts. The following vice presidents were appointed:

South Salisbury.—Jerome Morris, George Adkins, Benjamin C. Hearn, Larry Cordroy, Vernon Williams, Edgar Johnson.

California.—Ernest B. Hitch, Roland Perry, Charles Mitchell, Ernest Hillman, B. T. Hitchens, Levin Disharoon.

Salisbury.—C. M. Brewington, Wm. A. Ennis, Wm. C. Hutton, W. Jeff. Staton, Jeff Porter, Ernest Malone, Edw. Tindle, Wesley Kibbles, Samuel P. Maddox.

Parsons and Salisbury.—Jno. C. Lank, Lambert Adkins, A. R. Lohner, Emory L. Disharoon, Joseph E. Davis, J. A. D. Holloway, Ralph Murphy, Ernest Moore, Emma Kelliam, J. Frank Waller, F. L. Waller, Harry Dennis, M. C. Lucas, C. E. Harper.

An Unexpected Retort.

An eminent American lawyer, now deceased, was sadly given to intoxication. On one occasion he entered a church whilst a minister was holding forth on the future punishment of the wicked.

Fixing his eye upon the lawyer, who was reeling near the door, the preacher exclaimed: "There stands a sinner against whom I will bear witness in the day of judgment."

At this the lawyer folded his arms, planted himself as firmly as he could, and addressing the man in the pulpit, he electrified the whole congregation after this fashion:

"Sir I have been practicing in the criminal courts for twenty years, and I have always found that the greatest reason is the first to give State's evidence."—The Scotsman.

MR. GERMAN RETURNS.

After Crossing The Atlantic He Reports His Rash Step and Seeks A Reconciliation With His Family. Now in Delmar.

Mitchell H. German, who very mysteriously disappeared from his home in Delmar on August 26th with something over $10,000 in cash, has found the path of the wanderer a hard one and during the past few days has returned to Maryland with a heavy and penitent heart. It will be remembered that Mr. German stated to the public before he left that his intention was to establish a brick manufacturing plant at Aberdeen, Md. He never arrived there, and it was feared that he had met with foul play, but inquiry brought to light the fact that he was seen in Philadelphia. Further investigation showed that he had heavily mortgaged about all the property he owned, and his creditors closed in on what property there was left unincumbered, and the sheriff had advertised a sale of all his effects, to take place on Monday, October 21.

It now turns out that Mr. German crossed the Atlantic Ocean to Liverpool, England, where he remained sometime, evidently intending to put as many miles between himself and his old home as possible. Before old England had been reached, however, things began to assume a different aspect and Mr. German, who is a good man at heart, saw that he had made a grave mistake and deeply repented his rash step. It was not long after his landing that he began to open negotiations for his return. His son-in-law, Chas. Hickman of Brooklyn, received a letter from him in which he stated that he realized his wrong step and was in great trouble. He expressed a desire to return to his family and live on his farm near Delmar. Mr. Jay Williams, attorney at law in Salisbury was also placed in communication with Mr. German and very soon withdrew the divorce proceedings which he had instituted in behalf of Mrs. German.

A reporter of the ADVERTISER called on Mr. German Thursday in Delmar, where he arrived early that morning, and asked him for a statement. He replied that at present he was too busy trying to get his business affairs straightened out but would probably have a statement to give to the public later on. He stated that he would pay every dollar he owed in full and that no one would lose a cent by him.

A kindergarten has been established at the Wilmington Conference Academy and many little people of Dover are being instructed in the modern methods of learning. Miss Margaret Harper, a recent graduate of the Dover High School is the teacher and the class is rapidly increasing.

Pipes Galore

Never before was there exhibited such a fine of pipes in Salisbury as are now on exhibition in Watson's show window at 308 Main St. They consist of Mer-cham, best quality, Fine Briars, gold and silver mounted, plush lined cases, also plain briars with amber bits without case. A glance at them would make one think he was viewing the pipe booth at the Pan American. Would be pleased to quote prices.

MR. VANDIVER CONFIDENT.

The Democrats Will Win in Maryland.

Mr. Murray Vandiver, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee made the following signed statement in last Sunday's Baltimore Sun:

Messrs. Editors: We are conducting an energetic campaign and our reports are very encouraging from all parts of the State.

We ought to win, and I believe we shall win.

Our organization is very thorough and our rank and file are fully aroused to the importance of the election and to the necessity of constant work to bring out our vote.

Our tickets.—The personnel of our local tickets is exceptionally good, and voters who cast their ballots for those whom they believe to be the best candidates have no reason anywhere to vote against our ticket.

Man for man our tickets will compare favorably everywhere with those of the Republicans.

We ought to win, therefore, because we have the better tickets.

What We Stand For.—We ought to win also because what our party stands for in this contest should appeal to our people more strongly than that for which the Republicans stand.

Our party has been in power now nearly for two years. No man can fairly say during this period we have not given the people good, honest and efficient government, and, judging the future by the past, there is no sound reason why this satisfactory condition should be changed, and our State affairs put back into the hands of the Republicans.

Our finances are in a sound and healthy condition and are honestly and wisely managed.

They cannot be improved by a Republican Legislature, which would antagonize a Democratic Governor.

The basis of the assessment will not be increased nor will the tax rate be reduced by putting the Republicans in power.

The success of the Democratic party at the coming election makes certain that law and order will continue to prevail in the State. The contrast between the conditions which now exist and that which troubled us during four years of Republican administration of State affairs in the conduct of the lawless part of the colored people is so marked that it is seen and felt by everybody.

The Democratic party does not intend—and would not, under any circumstances—deal unjustly with the colored population, but the fact is that the enfranchisement of this race, so little prepared for citizenship, has resulted in all the States from Maryland south in disturbing the peace and good order of every community in which they hold the balance of power and where they regard themselves as factors in controlling the policies of State government.

Thirty years ago they were enfranchised without our consent and against our wishes. For purely political purposes they have been consolidated, taught and coerced to vote as solid phalanx against the Democratic party thus making for purely partisan purposes a race issue. It has resulted, as was inevitable, in inducing the ignorant and vicious elements of this race to believe that the political success of the party to which they are attached means license to disregard all the rules which are necessary for the peace and order of the community.

This condition is recognized everywhere where they exist in large numbers, and the States south of us have been compelled, with the approval of the country, to eliminate them as factors until such time as they shall have reached the point where they can exercise their citizenship with discretion and prudence and without race prejudice. In other words, the Anglo-Saxon in Maryland, as in Virginia, will control and shape the destinies of the Commonwealth. To those of us in Maryland this condition appeals with peculiar force. It must be met and disposed of in such a manner as to prevent the control of the State from passing out of the hands of the white population.

Our Public Schools.—Again our position on the great question of public education entitles us to the confidence and support of the people.

For more than 30 years the Democratic party in Maryland has steadfastly and liberally sustained our public school system, and we are pledged now by our platform to still further advance the interest and promote the development of our schools.

The next Legislature, if Democratic, will certainly redeem this emphatic pledge.

Primary Election Law.—The people may rest assured that if we are successful in the coming election a thoroughly satisfactory primary election law will be passed. Our platform is explicit on this point and our promise to the people will unquestionably be fully kept.

The Oyster Law.—Our present oyster law is an improvement on the law passed by the Republicans, and it has enabled us to put back into the Treasury a large part of the deficit left to us by them.

Some objections to it have been urged.

These shall have full consideration at the next Legislature, and in the language of our platform the defects in the law will be remedied.

The Extra Session.—The call for this session was so urgent and widespread that the Governor felt it to be his duty to respect the popular demand.

The State census was a necessity in order to frustrate a gross fraud which it was impossible to defeat in any other way.

So also in regard to the amendments to our Election law.

These amendments were imperatively demanded.

Upon both of these measures we take our stand, and we confidently believe that our action will be emphatically sustained and approved by the people.

We have tried the Republicans and our people are not likely soon to repeat the experiment.

All that is necessary to insure our success is for our white people who believe that this State ought to be managed by them in the interest of civilization, culture and social order which they represent, to come out on election day and assert their right to rule.

They are the representatives of the great preponderance of the intelligence and property of the State and are therefore entitled to control the administration of its affairs.

I believe they will so assert themselves and the result ought not to be doubtful.

The Republican party in Maryland would have no existence were it not for the solid colored vote. Being thus absolutely dependent on that vote the managers of the party must of necessity be more or less subservient to their colored allies, and it is manifest, therefore, that they cannot exercise that wholesome restraint over the lawless and disorderly element of their party, which is necessary for the peace and good order of the State.

There are no national issues in this campaign.

Our State convention, reflecting the sentiment of our party, decided that this campaign must be fought out on State issues only, and we mean to conduct it on that line.

My information leads me to believe that Democrats of every shade of opinion are standing together, and that they will vote for our ticket in November.

MURRAY VANDIVER.

Maudie Adams in "Quality Street", At The Academy.

The attraction at the Academy of Music next week is one which is sure to enlist the strongest interest of theatergoers, for the appearance of Maudie Adams in this city is always one of the big events of the theatrical year. Her advent this season is particularly welcome for she will appear in a new comedy by J. M. Barrie, author of "The Little Minister," entitled "Quality Street." The play has received the highest critical praise and popular favor in the few cities in which it has already been presented, and from all accounts, the gifted little American Actress has a role which forms a companion portrait to her Lady Babble, in "The Little Minister." Her new character Phoebe Throssel—"Phoebe of the Ringlet" as she is familiarly called—is one of the kind in which Americans like most to see her. She is a sweet tender, sprightly young woman, bubbling over with fun and humor, but she has moments of pathetic tenderness which win and hold our sympathy.

Mr. Barrie's new play is in four acts. It possesses the charm of wholesome sentiment, purity of atmosphere, and the exquisite blending of humor and pathos characteristic of all of his writings. It tells a quaint story of the love of Phoebe Throssel (Miss Adams) and Valentine Brown. Just when the latter's love making seems likely to result in an engagement, he goes off to the war, the action of the play taking place about the time of the Napoleonic Wars. Nine years elapse before his return home covered with honor. Phoebe and her sister have met with reverses in the meantime, and have been compelled to turn their pretty little home into a schoolroom for the little children of quality in their community. The returned soldier is at first somewhat shocked at the changed appearance of Phoebe, but through a pretty ruse of Phoebe, he sees her as she used to be, and eventually the lovers are brought happily together.

The quality of the play is very strongly suggested in the following quaint arrangement of scenes:

Act I Showing how ladylike they were in Quality Street.

Act II Of the little ladies and gentlemen who come to Phoebe's school.

Act III Provides a receipt for the making of a perfect female.

Act IV How Phoebe closed her school.

A Dog's Sympathy.

Two sporting dogs had been hunting in the same pack for years. At length the elder got his hind leg caught in a steel trap, which caused him to lose it just below the hock joint. This did not prevent him from running, however after it healed.

But his young friend and pupil, from that time forth, ran upon three legs—holding up the hind leg corresponding with the injured leg of his companion.

EIGHTY MILES AN HOUR.

Inauguration Of Faster Time On The Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Smyrna Times says: On the Delaware division of the Pennsylvania railroad the era of the fast flyer was inaugurated last week. The big new engine, No. 225, was taken on its initial trip by Eugene Jamison, engineer, and proved a wonder, as locomotives go. At some intervals in its run it made a record of 80 miles an hour.

No 225 is known as a Class Engine, and is the first of several similar ones which will be placed in service on the Delaware division. It is four-wheel connected, and has a pressure of 175 pounds to the square inch. The wheels are 80 inches in diameter. The locomotive was built in the Altoona shops, and the others are in course of construction there.

The flyers are designed for service on the main line of the Delaware division, of from Wilmington to Delmar, and will not be used on the branch roads. However, as the main line extends to Harrington those passengers bound to Lewes, the terminal on one branch, and Franklin City, the terminal on the other branch, of the D. M. & V., will have the pleasure of riding more than the distance of their journey behind the flyers.

The new locomotives will go into regular service about the first of next month, and No. 225 will take down the Norfolk Express. This is in keeping with various other improvements which have been made to the Delaware railroad, and which are calling forth expressions of appreciation from the patrons of the road. The installation of the new type of locomotives will lessen considerably the schedule between Delmar and Philadelphia and will improve the service in every way. It is probable that the big engines will necessitate the placing of heavier rails, which will make travel smoother.

Engineer Jamison, who took No. 225 on his maiden run, is enthusiastic in his praise of the big engine. He says that she is a beauty and answers as readily to every touch as one which has been in the service for years. He is one of the oldest and the best trusted engineers on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Issue Is The Schley Case.

It is significant that in the whole Sampson Schley controversy the line between the factions has been sharply drawn between the officers of those ships which did the greater part of the fighting on July 3d and those whose parts were not so prominent. Headed by Admiral Sampson and Capt. Chadwick, who were entirely out of the battle, the list of anti-Schley witnesses includes the officers of the Massachusetts, which was at Guantanamo coaling; the Texas, which appears to have played an inconsiderable part in the battle; the Iowa, which never got up more than 9 or 10 knots speed (by Admiral Evans' own statement); the Indiana, which was far to the rear, and the Marblehead, which was not in the fight.

The only officer who was distinguished by his bravery and work in this engagement, who has testified against Admiral Schley, was Commander Richard Wainwright of the Gloucester. The officers of the Brooklyn and the Oregon, which ships did almost all the work, have stuck by Admiral Schley in the face of everything. Not an officer of the Oregon has been presented as a witness by the Judge-Advocate. Capt. Cook bore testimony as to the gallant support rendered by the Oregon to the Brooklyn, which was fighting three Spanish ships alone.

The prosecution has endeavored to establish that the Brooklyn lost much time by the loop, yet she got around quickly enough to find herself engaging three Spanish cruisers by herself, and the other ships whose commanders have testified as to their burning desire to get into action and close quarters with the enemy were far in the rear. It remained for the Oregon to steam to the Brooklyn's assistance. Yet Capt. C. C. Clark of that ship has never been dubbed "Fighting Charlie."—Baltimore Sun.

Judges of the First Circuit.

The Baltimore Sun, in its issue of Friday gave an excellent picture of Chief Judge Page, with the following paragraph printed below it:

"Since the adoption of the Constitution of Maryland of 1867, creating the existing judiciary system of the State, there have been eight judges in the First circuit, comprising the counties of Worcester, Somerset, Wicomico and Dorchester. Of these three have been Chief Judges, viz: James A. Stewart, Levin T. H. Irving and the present Chief Judge, Hon. Henry Page. Judge Page is 60 years of age and his term will not expire until 1908. He was appointed by Gov. Frank Brown to succeed Chief Judge Irving September 10, 1899, and was elected for the full term of 15 years November 7, 1899, by a majority of 2,010 over Thomas S. Hodson. The vote was Page, 6,364; Hodson, 4,354. His residence is in Princess Anne, Somerset county."

THE BALTIMORE GRAIN MARKET.

Furnished by Stevens Brothers 226 South Charles Street.

WEDNESDAY'S REPORT.

WHEAT.—Receipts for today, 40,027 bus., viz, 5,555 bus. southern, and 34,472 bus. western. Shipments from elevators, 5,108 bus. Stock in elevators, 841,084 bus. The receipts of southern wheat today were somewhat fewer and the market ruled steady as compared with yesterday's close. Demand good and constant for prime wheats. Sales on grade at 74 cents for No. 2 red, 70 for steamer 3 red, and 65 cents for rejected. Small parcels, by sample, brought 66, 67, 68, and 72 cents, as to quality and condition. Market easier towards the close—quote No. 3 red aloft at 73½ cents.

CORN.—Receipts for today, 14,764 bus., viz, 28 bus. southern and 14,736 bus. western. Shipments from elevators 863 bus. Stock in elevators, 148,551 bus. The offerings of southern corn today were limited to two very small lots of new—scarcely sufficient to consider in making up the receipts. Both the above sold at 60 cents for white and yellow. The market for southern corn continues quiet, due to the regular smallness of the offerings. Quote prime lots old white and yellow aloft at 60½ to 63 cents. CORN is hard to quote accurately by the carload—there being few transactions in this quantity at the moment. $2.60@2.70 per bbl. in carlots while old is selling in a jobbing way at a considerable premium over these figures. Bag lots of new yellow cob on the wharf are worth $2.75 per bbl.

OATS.—Receipts for today, 2,475 bus., including—bus., for shipment; withdrawals from elevators, 9,629 bushels. Stock in elevators, 319,494 bus. Oats are firm at former range of prices, and as the day off-rings from first hands are kept well cleaned up, there is no accumulation. Market generally in healthy shape. Sales car No. 2 white, in No. 2 elevator, 40; car do. do., track Mt. Clare, 40; 2 cars No. 2 mixed, Jail Yard, 39; car No. 2 white, in No. 3 elevator, 40.

RYE.—Receipts for today, 3,270 bus.; withdrawals, 1,688 bus. Stock in elevators, 151,577 bus. Market for rye quiet and featureless. Exporters have no orders in hand from abroad, and the call for stock from local distillers is light. Prices are not more than steady.

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth, go at once to Dr. R. K. Truitt & Son's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They also cure biliousness, sick headache and constipation.

Mrs. Ellen Ripley, Chaplain Ladies Aid, Grand Army of the Republic, No. 7, 222 10th Ave., N. E., Minneapolis, Minn. Strongly Endorses Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Your Vegetable Compound cured me of ulceration of the womb, and getting such a complete cure I felt that the medicine had genuine merit and was well worth recommending to other sick women.

"For fifteen years I have been your friend. I have never written you before, but I have advised hundreds of women to take your medicine, in fact it is the only reliable remedy I know of for a sick woman.

"I have not yet found a case of ovarian or womb trouble which has not been relieved or cured by the faithful use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"You have brought health to hundreds of women in Minneapolis as you have no doubt to others over the country."—MRS. ELLEN RIPLEY.

$5000 FORFEIT IF THE ABOVE LETTER IS NOT GENUINE.

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine.

A DASH OF HUMOR.

Gleanings from Various Exchanges With A Savor of Wit.

SURE HE KNEW BEST.

Mamma—Dora, your father says that young man of yours, Mr. Hart, is deceiving you.

Dora—But he isn't mamma; for I asked him, and he said he wasn't. Of course he knows better than papa.—Boston Transcript.

THE WORM TURNS.

"Yes," said Mr. Henpeck, "I have my favorite flowers."

"And what may they be, pray?" sneered his wife.

"They are the ones that 'bust up' at night," he bravely managed to articulate.—Harper's Bazar.

SILENCE IS GOLDEN.

"There's a fellow who gives himself dead away every time he starts talking."

"Why, how's that?"

"He makes his living by posing as a deaf and dumb beggar."—Philadelphia Press.

FOOLING HER FRIENDS.

Sal—What did Lis want to go on that merry-go-round for?

Fan—So she could say she was sick. Folks might think she'd been on a sea voyage, you know.—Boston Transcript.

WORKING A MIRACLE.

He—That bath has done me—helped me wonderfully. I feel that I have become an entirely different man.

She—Yes? I'm thoroughly glad of that, for you sadly needed the change.—N. Y. Times.

NOT OVER ELATED.

"I suppose," said the effusive lady who was visiting the Mecktons, "that your wife is sure that she has the best husband that ever lived?"

"Yes," answered Meckton, with something like a sigh; "but at the same time I don't believe she thinks that is saying much for me."—Washington Star.

HAS HIS APPROVAL.

She—"Oh, Fred, you are so noble, so generous, so handsome, so chivalrous, so much the superior of every man I meet, I can't help loving you. Now, what can you see in plain little me to admire?"

He—"Oh, I don't know dear; but you certainly have very good judgment."—Tit-Bits.

PLAIN PEOPLE.

"The payble Ol lived wid before," said the new cook, "wor very plain, ma'am."

"Well, are we not plain here?" asked the lady.

"Troth, ye are so ma'am, but in a different way. The others wor plain in their way of livin', not in their looks, ma'am."—Philadelphia Press.

HE REALLY DID.

"My dear," said Mr. Hawkins to his better half, "do you know that you have one of the best voices in the world?"

"Indeed?" replied the delighted Mrs. H—, with a flush of pride at the compliment, "do you think so?"

"I certainly do," continued the heartless husband, "otherwise it would have been worn out long ago."—Tit-Bits.

HOW HE LOST IT.

The boy in tears naturally attracted the attention of the sympathetic man.

"What's happened, my boy?" the latter asked. "Perhaps I can help you."

"I lost a quarter," answered the boy, "and when I go home I'll get licked for it."

"Oh, well, don't cry," returned the sympathetic man. "Here's another quarter. How did you lose the first one?"

"Matching," promptly replied the boy. "I have no luck at all."—Chicago Post.

COMPOUND PROFITS.

Skinner—I just sold the last of those suburban houses I put up.

Wearer—What are you going to do with all the money?

Skinner—Invest it in quinine and sell it to the purchasers of the houses as soon as they have caught the malaria.—Leslie's Weekly.

TRUE MUSICAL INSTINCT.

Reilly—Couplings is a fireman with a true musical instinct.

McCarthy—I didn't know he had any talent in that line.

Reilly—Well, he has. When the music store burned yesterday Couplings played on six pianos all at once.—Leslie's Weekly.

A SURE INDICATION.

"Oh I visited such a woefully poverty stricken family this morning," said the sympathetic member of the charity committee.

"Indeed!" asked the chairman of the committee. "Were they very, very poor?"

"Poor! Man, it is pitiable. Why, they are so poor that they keep 14 dogs."—Baltimore American.

SLAUGHTER OF RICE BIRDS

Tens of Thousands For Market Are Taken Off Roosts By Night.

Charleston, S. C., Oct. 7.—Thousands of rice birds, known farther north as red birds, are being slaughtered daily in the fields around Georgetown to supply the markets of the East. The season has been profitable, and one firm in Georgetown has made the largest shipments ever recorded in this section.

Some time ago a dealer in Philadelphia offered to take this firm's entire output, regardless of price and the number of birds shipped. The Philadelphia dealer said he could easily handle 75,000 dozen at once, which gives a clear idea of the enormous demand for this toothsome bird. During the last week the Charleston buyers have had great difficulty in getting birds, as the price has jumped from 50 cents to 75 cents a dozen. But this increase has not stopped the sale here, and the city is feasting.

Daniel Crowley, a well-known hunter at Georgetown, has a novel way of handling rice birds, and he has made a little fortune from his labors. None of the little flyers sent out from his establishment are filled with shot, and on this account Crowley gets a larger price. This week he had 55 negroes picking feathers from the birds which were captured near his home.

"I have found that the shot birds are not easily sold," said Mr. Crowley, "and for that reason I never allow a piece of lead, however small, to tear the flesh. We have a good idea of the places where the birds roost, and at night I send out a crowd of negroes with flaming torches. The birds are blinded by the light, and there is no trouble in raking in barrels of the living ones. They are easily caught and are killed by having the skull gently crushed between the fore finger and thumb of a man's hand."

After the thousands of rice feeders are sent to the picking room and killed negroes are employed to clean them of feathers, and from the picking room they are passed to the coolers. Boxes containing 12 birds all of which have the heads intact, are put under pressure sufficiently powerful to freeze them, and in that condition they are shipped by the fast express trains to the markets of the country.

Within the past year Mr. Crowley has practically created a rice bird monopoly although the prices are fixed by the popular demand and not by this Georgetown bird king. There are many other shippers from the rice field section, but their methods of killing and packing differ from Mr. Crowley's and they are less successful for that reason. The novel sight of the night scenes when, with flaming torches, the fields are invaded by the bird catchers, is only surpassed by the other picture in the picking room, where hundreds of little negroes are cleaning the feathers from the meat.

In a few weeks, when the rice bird supply around Georgetown is weak, the Eastern market will be flooded with an imitation rice bird, which differs slightly from the real article. These are here called "oots." The feathers are black while the feathers of the rice bird are of a canary color, and the bill is longer. But after the feathers and the heads have been removed there is no way by which the difference can be detected, and the difference in flavor can only be noticed by the expert.

The oots are caught without difficulty, and can be bought from negroes for a trifle. Coming as they do at the end of the rice bird season, they command a ready sale, and unscrupulous dealers have found that money can be coined by selling the fakes.

A Fiendish Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c at R. K. Truitt & Sons' Drug Store.

A cow belonging to Patrick Caslin fell into a quarry hole at Beaver Dam, near Cockeysville, a distance of 40 feet, and brought up at the bottom in 10 feet of water. She was only slightly hurt.

A man talks about owning his business. But, as a matter of fact his business owns him. His whole life is regulated by the demands of the business. The time at which he rises, his breakfast hour, the time given to meals, are all determined by business obligations. He rushes through lunch because he "can't spare the time from business" to eat leisurely. He won't take a rest because he is needed at the store or office. He is in fact an absolute slave to business. The results which follow this slavery are to be seen on every hand. Men dyspeptic, irritable, nervous, with drawn faces and hollow eyes, sit at the desk or stand behind the counter until they collapse in a fit of sickness, or are taken by heart failure. Those who cannot escape the exactions of business will find a friend in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach, increases the action of the blood-making glands, increasing the vitality and physical vigor. It makes men strong and prevents those business break downs which so often terminate fatally.

Sewing as a business is an exacting and exhausting occupation. Long hours, fine work, poor light, unhealthy atmosphere—these are only some of the things which fret the nerves and hurt the general health. Often there is a diseased condition of the womanly organism which causes backache or headache and the working of the sewing machine under such conditions is akin to torture.

Thousands of women who work have written grateful letters to Dr. R. V. Pierce, whose "Favorite Prescription" has cured their womanly ills and established their general health. "Favorite Prescription" is a reliable, regular, healthy, dry, unhealthful and offensive drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free, and so avoid the delicate questioning, offensive examinations and obnoxious local treatments deemed necessary by some physicians. All correspondence private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for female weakness," writes Mrs. Susanah Farnsworth, of Pauls Store, Shelby Co., Texas. "I was troubled with bearing-down pains in my back and hips for six years, and wrote to Dr. Pierce for advice. I tried his 'Favorite Prescription' and six bottles cured me. I feel like a new person and I thank Dr. Pierce for my health. Life is a burden to any one without health. I have told a great many of my friends about the great medicine I took."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

WOULD OUR MATERIAL INTERESTS BE JEOPARDIZED?

In a recent editorial in the ADVERTISER this statement was made: that "Experience has shown that where there are colored people in any number the Republican Party is compelled to yield to their demands for recognition by putting them in position of trust—road supervisors, constables, etc. Human nature is the same in Wicomico that it is in Somerset and Charles; given the same conditions and we might expect the same results."

The Somerset Journal has taken occasion to quote this and comment at considerable length, assuming that the statement asserted that Somerset had negro road supervisors. As our Somerset friend is disposed to talk back we will tell him just exactly what we do mean. This will probably give him an opportunity to be equally frank. Is the Journal willing to state that it is catering for the negro vote and willing to say it is opposed to giving them any recognition? A categorical answer yes, or no, would no doubt be very interesting to many of its colored subscribers.

The ADVERTISER's position is this: We do not feel that the material interests of this county would be safe in the hands of such people as the negroes in Somerset have selected the last few years to manage public affairs there, whether they have selected negro constables and road supervisors or not.

The Democratic County Commissioners of Wicomico County have begun the work of building a system of public highways, supported in their efforts it is true by many good republican business men of the county, but the party must take the responsibility for the work in a large measure. Shell roads are being built and a system of gravel roads, such as are found in New Jersey is to be taken up. A board of Democratic Commissioners has made appropriation to begin this work, and it is believed in the county that this great question is being solved. It is here that our material interests lie. What has Republican Somerset done in this line, under republican rule, whether she has negro road supervisors or not? All this, it is true costs money, but how about the tax rate? Is the tax rate higher in Wicomico than it is in Somerset? Everybody knows the fact, higher in Somerset under Republican rule.

There is in Wicomico County an awakening to better methods of agriculture, and with it must necessarily go an improved system of public highways or more properly speaking there must precede such a system of road improvement as will invite better agricultural methods. If the ADVERTISER did not believe that the party was committed to these material improvements, or that it opposed them, it would not be reckoned among the party enthusiasts. Whether Somerset has had negro road supervisors or not is immaterial. This much however is undeniable; it has had office holders whom the negroes selected. It is also undeniable; that the negroes are not capable of selecting competent persons to rule. It is not to be understood of course that all the Republican office holders of the state have been incompetent, but it is true and cannot be controverted that in those parts of Maryland where the negroes have ruled for some years, that public affairs are in a deplorable condition and the people of Wicomico county are not willing for such a condition to exist here. It would jeopardize our material interests eventually if not at once. This is the ADVERTISER's position in plain language.

TRUTH VERSUS FICTION.

A few days ago at a Republican meeting at Cambridge, Md. Congressman Schrim and J. Frank Supple of Baltimore City; Hon. P. L. Goldborough and Hon. Frank Parran, candidate for Clerk of Court of Appeals, held forth to a large audience, composed mostly of democrats. From the tenor of the speeches, as reported, no democrat was converted. Messrs. Schrim and Supple were particularly severe in the abuse of Ex Senator Gorman and the democrats in general, also paying their respects to the new ballot law. It is not surprising the Republicans waxed wroth on both subjects, for they are afraid of the national reputation of Mr. Gorman for statesmanship, moderation and political ability. Geo. Washington and Thos. Jefferson were abused and lied about and the great men of this generation can expect no more consideration from their conscienceless political adversaries.

The Republicans are trying every scheme to play upon the unthinking and ignorant voter, to prejudice the voters against the new ballot law. The Republican orator and writers say it, the ballot law, disfranchises the white illiterate voter, then send reports to the Republican Headquarters that the black illiterates can vote all right. It used to be the common opinion that a white illiterate had as much sense as a black illiterate.

The truth about the new ballot law is that it is the longest step forward in legislation tending to remove the evil of buying votes. It makes every voter a free and independent citizen, black or white, literate or illiterate by preserving the absolute secrecy of the ballot. First it was introduced in Massachusetts, a rock ribbed Republican State, and the republicans of that State did not howl against it. Why then should it be such an evil thing in Maryland? Because the Republicans cannot with all their corruption fund from the National Republican Committee buy up the State of Maryland as done in the past. Because Republican employers cannot coerce their employees to vote against their convictions and their political and material welfare. Because residents of Maryland and legal voters therein will govern the State by their votes and not by Republican office holders at Washington and residents of Delaware, Pennsylvania and other States.

The Democratic party believes in "Home Rule." Mr. Supple also announced at the Cambridge meeting that the young, elegant and polished P. L. Goldborough would be Senator, McComas' colleague in U. S. Senate and Mr. Goldborough sat high and smiled knowingly. It is said Senator McComas and Mr. Goldborough are near and dear friends and relatives. Mr. Platt the oyster packer, Republican candidate for Comptroller, also is a relative of Senator McComas. Some people on the Eastern Shore of Maryland of the same faith as Mr. McComas and having political aspirations for higher honors are unfortunate in not being relatives of the junior Senator, as he seems to be, with his relatives, the whole show.

COL. WM. J. LEONARD.

In the death of Col. Wm. J. Leonard, not only Wicomico, but the State at large loses one of its eminent and notable citizens.

While he has been a prosperous man he has not been prominent as a mere money maker and his influence among his fellow citizens was due to the hold that he had upon the confidence of his fellow men, and this had for its basis his native intelligence, broad learning and sterling integrity of character.

In the discharge of his duties as a citizen his life work may be said to be divided into two parts—business and politics. As a business man his chief occupation was in the agricultural line, being one of the largest land owners in the county; and this begat in him a fellow feeling of sympathy for the farmers which in turn gave him a stronghold upon the tillers of the soil, and he believed that "he who makes two blades of grass grow where one grew before is a benefactor" of his kind. He therefore gave much attention to his farming interests. He was noted for his generous and considerate treatment of his tenants, and always maintained his close relations to them. It was often remarked that he seldom changed tenants. His regard for them was shown by one of the latest requests made of his family that his tenants should be his active pall bearers, a request that was faithfully observed.

Having passed the eighty fifth milestone on the highway of life, yet he knew nothing of the vicissitudes and decrepitude of old age. It may be truthfully said of him that he never became old except in years. Having outlived his generation by many years; yet he never lost his active interest in all the current events, local, state or national and was considered by many as one of the best informed men of this community, on recent as well as on facts of a past date and thereby he kept himself not only abreast of the times, but also in full sympathy with men of all periods of life. The young man found in him a congenial companion. Among his strong mental characteristics, he was especially noted for the accuracy of his memory of details of facts and dates local and general.

He was a vide mecum of births, deaths and marriages of the three counties of Worcester, Somerset and Wicomico; and was regarded as an authority upon all matters of family history. It may be truthfully said that much accurate tradition will be buried with him, remains, doubtless more than all that will be left behind of ancient data.

Col. Leonard's political life began with his early manhood and he maintained his interest in politics to his last days.

While intense in his partisanship he was an independent thinker and a vigorous speaker on the rostrum. He was never afraid and never hesitated to speak his opinion of men and things. He was well known as a man of great physical and moral courage and his plainness of speech sometimes made breaches in his social and political relations with his fellow citizens.

It may be said that his faults were the exaggeration, or the accomplishment as it were of his virtues.

He was a politician in the betterness of that word and not one of the Machiavellian type. Double dealing or hypocrisy was unknown to him and we never heard of any one accusing him of deception. He never made a pretense of virtue to accomplish a purpose personal or political. His attitude upon every political subject, as well as toward every public man was unmistakable and none ever had to ask where he stood. Being a man not only of fine physique and commanding appearance he was also conscious of his mental qualities which made him self reliant and tegat in him that degree of egotism which the strong man always has and must have to be a successful manly man, but it was not of the weak effeminate kind, made up of glitter and tinsel. These qualities of mind caused the people to instinctively recognize him in many respects as a leader, as primus inter pares.

Col. Wm. J. Leonard belonged to that type of manhood that leaves its imprint upon citizenship of the times.

—Representative William Allen, of Ohio, more generally known as "Old Bill" Allen, once gave a definition of democracy on the floor of the House, that is good enough to be pasted in the hat of every democrat and is as timely as though it had been given yesterday, instead of years ago. Said Mr. Allen:

"Democracy is a sentiment not to be appalled, corrupted or compromised; it knows no baseness; it cowers before no danger; it oppresses no weakness. It is the sole conservator of liberty, labor, and property. It is the sentiment of equal rights, of equal obligations—the very spirit of liberty itself invading the land."

Republican Insincerity.

"Among the promises the Republicans made in their State platform was, should they be successful in controlling the Legislature, the following—
'It (the Republican party) will adopt a compulsory primary election law, and make primaries as fair as it has made our general election law.'"

A bill for a primary election law—a very stringent measure designed to insure absolute fairness—was before the General Assembly of 1900, and every Republican member in the House and Senate voted against it.

In view of this fact it may be judged how sincere is the platform promise.

'It (the Republican party) will promote, foster and encourage the oyster industry of the State.'"

The above is from the speech of Chairman Goldborough at the Republican State Convention.

As a guarantee that the Republicans are sincere, they nominated Herman S. Platt, the head of Oyster Trust, for Comptroller. If elected he will be a member of the Board of Public Works, and the Board of Public Works controls the oyster police force. And between the police force and favorable acts by a Republican Legislature, under the dictation of Boss McComas, it can readily be imagined how the Republican party will "promote, foster and encourage the oyster industry."—Westminster Democratic Advocate.

—Sampson ought to be compelled to take the stand long enough to tell why he waited from May 20 until June 10 to inform Schley that the Spanish fleet was known to be at Santiago.

—If the democrats in Congress had any say about the big and accumulating Treasury surplus, they would solve the problem by reducing taxation, which would be beneficial to the people.

—British bond holders are becoming more alarmed every day over the continued increase in the expenses of the Boer war, and dread a further falling off in the price of bonds. Yes, it always comes high to wipe out a free people.

Children's Fertilizer.

That's a good name for Scott's Emulsion. Children are like young plants. Some will grow in ordinary soil. Others need fertilizers.

The nature of some children prevents them from thriving on ordinary food. Such children grow right if treated right.

All they need is a little fertilizer—a little extra richness. Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment.

Fertilizers make things grow. That's just what Scott's Emulsion does. It makes children grow in flesh, grow in strength, grow rich blood, grow in mind, grow happy. That's what we make it for.

NEW SILKS AND DRESS GOODS.

THE NEW FIRM'S FIRST FALL DISPLAY.

We open the season with the largest and most complete line of NEW DRESS GOODS AND SILKS.

NOTE.—We say the largest line of NEW SILKS AND DRESS GOODS. A few hints which might help you decide the color and weave you would like.

NOVELTIES IN DRESS GOODS

This is to be a plain season. The novelties are novel because of some clever weave or rich sheen finish rather than being given to striking figures and like features. Pretty shades of castor, tan, steel, brown, and new navy blue, are the reigning favorites. In colored goods there are some strong effects in a deep oxblood red, and very fetching shades of green for the few who can wear that color.

Among the novelties are London crash, a clever thing quite like crash only that it is in silky wool. Prunella cloth, Soleil, Melrose, Oscawona, Kersey Cloth, Venetian, Beaver and Broad Cloth, Satin Cloth. Reversible Rainy Day Skirtings, all wool home spun with neat stripes, special price 40 cents the yard. We are sole agents for a few of the above novelties for this city.

On the 10th, 11th and 12th we will have our special opening of ladies' Coats, Capes and Furs, Dress Goods and Silks.

You are invited to inspect our lines.

A Tired, Sleepy Man Went to His Room One Night And Thought He'd Read the News and Then Go to Bed.

He laid down on the sofa, opened his paper and commenced to read. The first thing he read was Thoroughgood's advertisement, the last thing was an "ad" about furniture. All at once he heard a commotion and then he heard a book case say to a chandelier that had got down from the ceiling and was sitting on top of the moulding, "light out, and leave me alone." A large folding bed opened down and said "keep quiet, the man wants to sleep." Then a swell new dresser, said to a tall screen, "I wish you'd move, so I can see what is going on," and the screen said to a chair, "I won't move, she needn't think she's the whole bedroom set because she's a swell dresser." And the man rolled off the sofa to get away from two pillows that had got "down" to fight, and he woke up when he hit the floor. In even a bedroom set the swell dresser gets the most attention, and there are more admiring glances go toward it than toward all the rest of the set. Its just so among any set—any set of men or women—the swell dresser gets the attention. And today it is so very, very easy to dress well. Any man can go into any set and command attention quicker if he dresses well than the man who dresses slouchy. A man with $10 in his pocket can come to Lacy Thoroughgood's store and get a grand Suit of Clothes, or he can get a splendid Overcoat that will do to wear anywhere. Lacy Thoroughgood's Clothing for men and boys is all wool, well made and in the best styles. Every Suit and Overcoat Thoroughgood sells has a Thoroughgood label sewed into it. It doesn't matter whether one pays Thoroughgood $6.50 or $18.50 for a Suit—that Suit must give reasonable satisfaction as to wear, endurance of seams, and shapeliness and color, or Thoroughgood owes the purchaser something. It surely will be whatever the occasion demands. Lacy Thoroughgood has twenty thousand dollars worth of Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Shirts, Collars, Cuffs, Suspenders and Hosiery, and Underwear for a certainty. Men's Suits $6.50, $8.50, $10.00, $12.50, $15.00. Men's Overcoats, $5.00, $6.00, $8.00, $10.00 and $15.00. Boys' Suits and overcoats, $2.50 to $6.50 and higher.

Very little was done at the Teachers' Institute in Upper Marlboro, and the meetings were adjourned till Wednesday out of respect to the memory of Dr. W. W. Davell, president of the Prince George's School Board, whose death was announced.

A piece of glass 1 by 1/2 inch was pulled out of the foot of Mr. V. T. Speecher, of Elligott City, which had been there for about 11 years. He ran it in when barefooted by stepping on it. The strange part is that he suffered very little from its presence, but felt relieved when it was removed.

"I had long suffered from indigestion," writes G. A. LeDela, Cedar City, Mo. "Like others I tried many preparations but never found anything that did me good until I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. One bottle cured me. A friend who had suffered similarly I put on the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. He is gaining fast and will soon be able to work. Before he used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure indigestion had made him a total wreck." Dr. L. D. Collier.

Changed Conditions of Life in the Country.

Isolation is the cause of most of the discomfort of country life, and isolation more than anything else puts the boy or man, woman or girl, at a disadvantage. The benefits of country life, of country raising, are manifest whether we study them in the city or in the country. It is the country-bred man who has the greatest endurance, who has the greatest capacity for work, who shows the greatest power to adapt himself to circumstances. It is, or it has been, the "boy from the country" who has moved slowly to the top in the calling, and he has done it because he has a sound mind in a sound body.

There are two tendencies observable in modern life. The city people are trying to live like the country people for their children the benefit of the country, without sacrificing the comforts and the advantages of life in town. The people of the country want free rural mail delivery from the Post-office; they want better school privileges; they want the telephone, local and long-distance; they want better roads, and they want the electric local lines, that they may have some of the benefits of city life.

Nothing is more marked at this time than the various movements for bringing the farm home into closer connection with neighbors and with the town or village. Home and Farm, looking back over its twenty five years' service, is happy in the belief that it has done something to promote these tendencies.

First, we must consider the road. There should be in every community a Good Roads Club. The Agricultural Bureau at Washington will send on application various pamphlets on good roads, and will send an engineer to plan and advise. Bad roads are the most expensive luxury which a busy people can enjoy.

Following good roads, you will have free delivery of your mail at your gate. You can write to your neighbor or to your village merchant, or to your distant friend, and get his response and not interrupt your day's work a moment. You can have your daily paper or your weekly paper at your gate. You can, in fact, use, with no additional cost, the whole postoffice department. Free rural delivery means much to the farmer.

Better schools must come, but they must come from the consolidation of the district schools into larger schools, with more teachers and better buildings. To bring the children from a distance you must arrange for a school wagon, making the route at regular hours, gathering the children from a distance and taking them back, in good weather and bad. This does not mean more expense, but less expense, and bigger and better schools.

Then the telephone should be extended from village to village, from farm to farm, so that you can talk almost any distance. It is a great labor saver, money saver and lifesaver.

Next, encourage the building of trolley lines, leading to the nearest railroad station, and use these lines for carrying your produce to market, instead of your plow horses and your farm wagon. You will ship more and you will get better results.

These things are spreading. They will not cover the whole country at once, but gradually. They have helped the towns and villages. Now let the farmers take advantage of them.—Home and Farm.

Going Back to Old Methods.

It is published that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has decided to expend $10,000,000 upon stone arch bridges. This is an interesting return to first principles in engineering. The Pennsylvania officials are but imitating the Roman builders who two thousand years ago along all the main roads of Europe were spanning fords and replacing temporary structures by round-arched viaducts of stone or masonry that considerable remains still exist. Medieval Europe, particularly in the south, continued the precedent, but in the well-wooded north timber was more used. And, of course, set tlers in America built at first of wood exclusively. All old bridges of great length were practically viaducts with frequent piers and short spans. The modern high truss idea permitted the erection of timber spans of much more than one hundred feet. Such work was expensive. The early years of the century saw the erection of many "covered bridges," whose cheap roofs protected timber trusses from the weather so effectively that many New England towns are still using them. After the war iron bridges rapidly replaced those wood. They were cheaper especially for long spans, but proved quite as short-lived. Twenty years ago steel succeeded to iron. Now after trying all these materials in turn, we come back to solid stone, and build by practically the same methods as those employed by Roman engineers two thousand years ago. In bridges of more than moderate span steel will continue to be used. But now that interest rates upon bonds have dropped to three and four per cent, the plan of building all shorter bridges of a material that lasts for centuries will everywhere be looked upon with increasing favor.

BIG PRICES FOR ANIMALS.

A Small Sized Fortune Needed to Buy a Giraffe.

Because of the difficulty of getting it to America and of keeping it alive after it arrives a good giraffe is quoted at $7,000.

Next to the giraffe in the aristocracy of cost come the rhinoceros and the hippopotamus, worth from $4,000 to $5,000 each. If a dealer could breed these animals, he could get rich, but the big mammals rarely breed in captivity. About the only place in America where hippopotami have been known to raise their young is in the menagerie in Central park, New York.

A chimpanzee of size is worth $5,000, and when one reaches the intelligence of the late Mr. Crowley, Chico or Johanna he is beyond a fixed price. The monkey kind are most uncertain property. The animal man says they are certain to die. But the ordinary ones can be bought very cheaply.

One can buy a nice young baby elephant for $1,000 at times, but a really good animal is worth from $1,500 to $3,000. An elephant does not command the maximum price because of the beauty of his countenance, the elegance of his figure, his intellectual endowments or his size, but because of a sweet, sunny disposition. A mean elephant is about the most evil of living things. Sooner or later he has to be killed, usually after he has slain two or three keepers and done more damage than he is worth. Of two animals of equally good disposition the larger and finer commands the higher price, of course, but the most magnificent beast with an inclination for murder is not worth as much as a very common one that is trustworthy—that is, ordinarily so, for the sweetest tempered have days when they seem inspired of Satan.—Junior Munsey.

NINE EGGS JUST COST $250.00.

Caroline County Court of Maryland has an Expensive Larceny Case.

The legal talent of Caroline county has been engaged during the week in the trial of a man for the larceny of nine eggs, and has cost the county $350. The accused was an old man, 75 years of age.

The witnesses was subjected to close cross examination to know if the eggs were good and one witness was put on the stand to establish an alibi, while a map of the country was introduced, showing the exact spot where the accused was on the day of the alleged theft, some miles distant. The jury remained out for fifteen minutes and rendered a verdict not guilty.

DELMAR

Oyster Supper and Bazaar which was held in the Masonic Temple, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the M. P. Church last week was quite a success. The hall was beautifully decorated with bunting, flags and flowers. Ladies gave a splendid supper. Net proceeds about $90.00.

R. W. Bennett of Philadelphia is visiting Rev. L. A. Bennett.

The revival meeting is still in progress at Charity M. P. Church, about three miles from town. Many have been converted to God and have united with the church. The meeting is being conducted by Rev. L. A. Bennett.

The remains of Wm. J. Adkins, age 23 years, of Wilmington, Del., were brought here Wednesday and interred in the M. E. Church Cemetery. Funeral services were held in the M. E. Church at 1.30 p. m., Rev. W. W. Sharp officiating. The body was accompanied by a delegation of members of Eureka Council, No. 1. Jr. O. U. A. M., of Wilmington to which the deceased belonged. The local Council of the order was also well represented and the burial services of the organization was performed at the grave.

Because he refused to partake of food stolen from Engineer Dunn with train No. 3, Wednesday a. m., an unknown colored tramp shot his comrade twice through the fleshy part of the arm. Engineer Dunn had placed his basket on the apron of the engine temporarily to step into the engine room for his oil cups. Upon his return he found his basket was missing and a few minutes afterwards the yard employees were startled by the reports of pistol shots. Investigation proved that a colored tramp had been shot by his comrade who had stolen the basket and insisted upon the wounded man eating a portion of the contents. His refusal so angered the thief that he tried to kill him. The assailant was arrested and is now in Salisbury jail.

JESTERVILLE

Rainy Sunday last

Indian Summer.

Hog cholera is epidemic.

The political caldron is beginning to boil.

The resulted of the registration is twenty stricken off, twenty contested, and eight appeal cases.

Messrs. Frank Turner and Wilbur Jester have completed the work of invoicing the goods of C. G. Messick and Larmore, who made an assignment for the benefit of their creditors.

Mr. Albert Willey and Miss Virginia Heath were married at Oak Grove church, by Rev. Mr. Dryden. There was a large congregation.

Farmers, altogether, in this immediate section and indeed the whole of Nanticoke district do not raise wheat enough to give its population bread enough for a breakfast. This is partly owing to the difficulty of getting it threshed out at harvest time. Not that wheat cannot be grown successfully, but the farmers prefer to devote their attention to other things which pay better; therefore we must import all the flour that is consumed and in the aggregate it amounts to a good round sum.

This is a good market for most all kinds of produce. Wagons from up the country make weekly trips here, and for prices rivals the Klondike, other things being equal.

ASK FOR A RECEIVER.

Members of Firm Disagree and Court is Petitioned to Dissolve Partnership.

Mr. James E. Ellegood, solicitor for plaintiffs, has filed a petition in Chancery in the Wicomico Circuit Court, praying the Court to dissolve the partnership hitherto existing between A. W. Robinson, J. Dallas Marvel, Harvey F. Marvel and Wm. H. Knowles.

Mr. Robinson and the Messrs. Marvel are the plaintiffs and Mr. Knowles is made the defendant. The petition sets forth that the firm, in April 1895, formed the partnership for the purpose of manufacturing crates, baskets, and other carriers at Sharptown, Wicomico County, Md., Messrs. Robinson and Knowles each becoming one third owners and the Messrs. Marvel each one sixth. At the time the partnership was formed no time was limited for the continuance of the said co-partnership and no provision made for closing up and dissolving it.

The bill also recites that at the same time a wholesale hardware business was started which for convenience and to save confusion was given the firm name of W. H. Knowles & Co., the interests, terms and conditions to be identical with those of the manufacturing co-partnership. Continuing the petition further recites that on a very recent date business stopped and discontinued because of irreconcilable disagreements between the said partners which make it difficult as well as unprofitable to attempt to continue the said partnership business.

Continuing the plaintiffs say that it was understood between all interested parties in the spring or summer of 1901 that the partnership would be dissolved at the close of that season, but that because of disagreements a satisfactory dissolution could not be effected. They declare that the business is now closed and no further partnership business can be conducted between said parties; that they cannot agree as to control and disposition of the property and that all efforts are remediless without the aid of the court.

The bill states that if relief is not speedily had much valuable raw material will go to waste, contracts lost and the manufacturing plant as well as the stock of hardware greatly depreciate in value. The Court is therefore implored to name a receiver for the business so that it may be disposed of without detriment to anybody.

All the members of the two firms are very prominent young business men of the Peninsula. Mr. Robinson is a son of Mr. James Robinson and a nephew of the late John Robinson, of Sharptown, and it was after the death of the latter that the present firm was organized to continue the business founded and prosecuted by the elder Robinsons.

Mr. Knowles was from a small boy an employee of the old firm; in fact both men grew up in the business and know its every detail thoroughly. Besides being aggressive and successful business men each has gained some distinction in politics, Mr. Robinson being a leader in his district of the democratic party and at one time serving it in the board of County Commissioners and later as a member of the House of Delegates. Mr. Knowles is at present a candidate of the Republican party for the House of Delegates.

The Messrs. Marvel reside at Laurel, Del., and are at the head of the important manufacturing business which the late Governor Marvel founded.

The firm of A. W. Robinson & Co. has recently erected an entire new plant in Sharptown with all modern improvements and appliances making it one of the best equipped of its kind on the Peninsula. It is understood that the business has regularly yielded handsome profits, and that the business steadily grows in value.

Friday morning the court named Mr. A. W. Robinson temporary receiver of the business which is equivalent in all likelihood to his being made permanent receiver.

Correct Dress.

The Military Short Out Coat, shaped in at the waist line, broad athletic shoulders, trousers cut full about the upper portion of the legs, is the favorite. Graceful and stylish most men think, and rather refreshing after carrying round a superfluous tail on your Sack Coat. Fancy chevrons—in dark and light tones—all the new over plain effects and stripes are shown by Kennerly & Mitchell. Prices ranging from $8 to $15.

COL. LEONARD'S WILL.

Mrs. Leonard is Named Executrix Without Bond.

Col. Wm. J. Leonard's last will and testament was filed at the office of the Register of Wills this week for probate. It was executed September 19th, 1890 and is witnessed by the late E. L. Wailes, in whose hand-writing the document appears, Mr. John M. Dashiell and Mr. Charles I. Wailes.

The will provides that Mrs. Leonard shall have the house and lot where the family live, on Division Street, during her natural life then it shall go to the children share and share alike.

The six children are left the farms as follows:

To Wm. Wirt Leonard the "home" farm near Salisbury known as "Wilton." Also his father's library, diamonds, pins, etc.

The testator's oldest daughter, Miss Mary D. Leonard is bequeathed the farm called "Avalon" adjoining the one willed to Wm. W. Leonard.

Mr. James F. Leonard, the other and younger son gets the property known as the "Leonard Farm" in the same vicinity, and his father's gold watch and chain.

The second daughter, Miss Helen Leonard is devised the farm known as "Plumpton" lying contiguous to the lands of her brothers and older sister.

The third daughter, Miss Elizabeth Fay Leonard receives all the land and houses belonging to the estate in Nutters district.

The youngest daughter, Miss Jean Leonard becomes the owner of "Denwood Den," and the part of Byrd's homestead which was bought from Mrs. Annie T. Morris, and the Manson Waller land in Sussex county, Delaware, near Blackwater.

The will provides that if any of the devised lands shall be sold before the death of the testator the money shall be paid out of the estate to the devisee as a part of that child's inheritance. All the personal property is devised to the wife and children, share and share alike.

Mrs. Leonard is left sole executrix of the will, and guardian of the minor children. The executrix is directed to give the daughters possession of their part at marriage or majority, whichever event may first occur.

The Washington hotel property at Princess Anne is not disposed of or mentioned in the will. In recent years Col. Leonard lost between $150,000.00 and $30,000.00 by loans to personal friends who afterward failed. All the children are or soon will be of age, except the two youngest daughters, Misses Fay and Jean.

Should Make Expenses Good.

The Wilmington Fire Department has ever been at the service of smaller places within reach when the latter were threatened by devastating fire, and ever will be. But there is a phase of this outside service that those who benefit thereby should give attention to.

The services of the local fire apparatus at fires outside the city are always attended with a certain amount of expenses. There is the wear and tear on engines and hose, the damage to hose by heavy water pressure, and occasionally a loss of material. At the fire in Salisbury, Md., on Sunday, at which two companies of the Wilmington Fire Department did splendid work, these two companies sustained a loss of two sections of hose and a suction.

It is but fair that the communities which receive the services of the Wilmington fire-fighters should [re]pay the companies for losses such as these. The services of the men are given freely, and without a cent of cost. But it should not be expected that the companies shall, in addition, bear the expenses of renewals made necessary by these services.

We are sure, once the matter is presented to them, that all outside places which hereafter may profit by the protection of the Wilmington Fire Department will act upon this suggestion.—Wilmington Every Evening.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

Annual Meeting Held This Year at Indiantown Church, Powellville.

The fall meeting of the O. S. Baptist Association was held this year, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week at Indiantown Church, Powellville.

The attendance was unusually large. The crowd Thursday numbered considerably over 1000 people, representing Wicomico, Worcester and Somerset counties, Maryland and Sussex county, Delaware. There were eleven elders present. They were Elders Durand, of Pennsylvania; Hubbel, McConnell, and Ker of New York; Lively, of Alabama; Rowe and Grafton, of Maryland; Meredith and Francis, of Delaware; Poulson of Virginia, and Chick of New Jersey.

Elder Chick preached the introductory sermon Wednesday morning. Each day of the three there was a morning and an afternoon sermon by one or another of the visiting elders. At noon each day a big lunch was spread in the grove near the Church and to this those of all faiths as well as those without faith, were invited and urged to come. These picnics are one of the features of the Baptist meetings.

The church, though small in membership is made up for the most part of sturdy, substantial citizens who live well at home and possess the true hospitality.

Following are excerpts from an exhortation delivered last year by Elder Poulson. It is typical of the Baptist faith and doctrine:

"The church of Christ is compared to a house, in fact is called a house, and is the home (dwelling-place) of the children, and for the honor and glory of God, and the welfare and comfort (spiritual health) of all who dwell therein. The care of the house is committed to the saints, and it is for them to take heed to the various duties that devolve on them in fulfilling that whereunto they are appointed. All good housekeepers are, and have need to be, constantly on the alert, that every part of the house is kept clean, and sweet, and pure, that nothing that would give offense be permitted to remain in the house. So the exhortations of Scripture are to the end of instructing the saints in the keeping of the house in order.

Accompanying exhortation is reproof and rebuke. We understand that the church is given the watch care over all its members, and if it becomes known to her that any are walking disorderly, it is her duty to labor with such to the end that they may be restored to the place they may have lost through their disorder. Thus we understand that the end or object of all labor is to restore, and not to destroy. However, in attending to this duty it is sometimes necessary to be very plain, and even sharp, as the apostle said to Titus, "Rebuke them sharply; that they may be sound in the faith." It may be a question, What is disorderly walk? We answer, Anything that is contrary to sound doctrine, and whatever tends to produce dissension, strife, confusion and division in the church, is disorder. We say that it behooves a church whenever such elements are discovered within her borders, for her to search out such disturbing elements and direct her labor toward their removal, and if there be no other way to remove them except by the exclusion of the offending one; then that must be done."

Many people were present from Salisbury at the meeting this week. Mr. George W. Menick is a Clerk of the Church.

Next Fall's meeting will be held at Broad Creek, Sussex County, Delaware.

Holiday—Tindle.

The marriage of Mr. Benjamin S. Holliday and Miss Nancy Tindle, both of Salisbury, took place in Trinity M. E. Church South, at eight o'clock last Tuesday evening, the pastor, Rev. W. Green officiating.

The ushers were Messrs. James Holliday, Garland Brittingham, "Carroll Fields, and William Wilkinson. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Jennie Tindle as bridesmaid and Mr. Joseph W. Hastings as best man. Miss Emma Powell played the wedding march.

The bride and her attendant wore very becoming gowns of brown cloth, and each carried bride roses. The church was very prettily decorated with palms and plants for the occasion.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother in California.

MR. MILLER'S PLANT BURNED.

Loss Estimated at $22,000. Insurance $14,750.

On Saturday afternoon about 3.30 o'clock an alarm of fire was given which proved to be Miller's kindling wood factory—this was the third fire that had occurred at this manufacturing plant within a very short time and most people in Salisbury thought it would result as had the other two, in only a small blaze. When the firemen arrived upon the scene, however, they immediately saw that they had a fierce fight on their hands and they set bravely at work to subdue the flames which had gained considerable headway in the top of the mill. Their efforts would undoubtedly have saved the mill building and the adjoining warehouses had they not encountered a stiff breeze that soon fanned the flames into a perfect fury. It was impossible to approach the mill only from the Division street side owing to the great sheets of flames and the dense smoke that was carried for hundreds of feet to the East and North East. Seeing that it was useless to make any further efforts to save the mill every energy was now turned towards protecting the adjoining property. With only one steamer in play, the other one having been disabled, the men could do but little, although they worked like demons to save the three big warehouses filled to the roof with kindling wood about ten feet from the mill. At one time several of the firemen were in imminent danger of suffocation and were only driven from their posts of duty when almost blinded by smoke.

The most determined efforts were made to save the warehouses as it was realized that if they burned the large mill of Jackson Bros. Co. with its millions of feet of lumber piled in the yard would be in great danger should the wind shift around. At this stage of the fire, however, a dozen engines couldn't have held in check the seething furnace of fire. It swept across Vine street and consumed two dwellings and a barn in just fifteen minutes. One was owned by Judge Holland and occupied by Mr. Frank Bonnevillie who succeeded in saving nearly all of his household effects, the other was owned and occupied by Mr. Joshua Morris who was also fortunate enough to remove his furniture with little damage. The flames were now enveloping the storage houses and their contents. As the side wall of one of these houses burst open the firemen were subjected to perhaps the hottest fire they have ever encountered. Jackson's mill hands aided in the work of protecting the mill and a night guard was put on in case of emergency. After burning fiercely for twelve hours from 3.30 in the afternoon to 3.30 the next morning, the wind changed and set the flames directly towards the Jackson plant. The roof caught in several places and at this time Mr. W. P. Jackson, who had been on duty all night, thought best to wire to Wilmington for assistance. Owing to some delay in securing a train, the special with two Wilmington engines did not leave for Salisbury until 7.39 Sunday morning. The engineer, who had been given orders to make the trip in as short time as possible without endangering his train, made the wonderful run from Wilmington to Salisbury, a distance 108 miles, in an hour and three quarters. The time included two stops. It was ten o'clock Sunday morning when the Wilmington department got to work but from then until eight o'clock Monday morning when the fire was under control they did good service and worked continuously.

The amount of the loss to Mr. Miller is about $22,000 with $14,750 insurance placed through the following agencies: W. S. Gordy, $1750; A. G. Tordvine & Son, $2000; White Bros., $11,000. The dwelling owned by Judge Holland was insured for $500 and that of Mr. Morris for $700 on dwelling and $800 on furniture.

Mr. Miller will rebuild but not on the same location as it is not thought safe to place the plant so near Jackson Bros. Co.'s mill. The trains of the N. Y. P. & N. railroad were delayed several hours on account of the fire, the flames sweeping clear across the track. Before the Wilmington department left on Monday they were thanked by a committee of Salisbury's business men for their good work so cheerfully rendered. Several speeches were made, that of Mr. L. Atwood Bennett being particularly happy. Chief Welch in responding said they were always ready to render aid to the good people of Salisbury. The fire was watched by hundreds of people and was visible at points fifteen miles away.

The firemen were given food and coffee at Schneck's hotel and by the people near the scene, at frequent intervals.

Tax Ditch Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the 26th day of November in the year nineteen hundred and one, is appointed as the time to hear objections to the return of
B. E. Figg, D. E. Holloway and Geo.
W. Parker the Commissioners upon the Tax Ditch in Pittsburg District, running across the lands of D. B. Farlow, Levi C. Wells, the heirs of Edward Haddock, Maggie Truitt and others, and that the Report of the said Commissioners upon said ditch will that day be ratified or rejected.

By order of Board of County Commissioners for Wicomico County.
SAMUEL P. WILSON, President.
H. L. TODD, Clerk.

THE PRESIDENT AND HIS GUEST.

Expressions of Opinion by Newspapers of the Southern States.

From the Memphis Commercial Appeal.
It is now incumbent on those white Democrats of the South who have received appointments at the hands of President Roosevelt to resign their offices. They cannot afford to remain the recipients of any favor at his hands.
Certainly there is no honor attached to his benevolence or bestowals.

From the Richmond Times.
Mr. Roosevelt may be amused, but as sure as he is President he will find out sooner or later that this is no joke. It is no laughing matter for the President of the United States to arouse the disgust of the people of a large and influential section of the country, and Mr.
Roosevelt will find it out before his public career shall have ended.

From the Chattanooga News.
If President Roosevelt believes that he can entertain negroes at the White House board and retain one farthing of respect at the South, he has misjudged our people. Before this incident transpired the people of the South respected him; now they hold him in contempt.

From the Charleston Evening Post.
Yet there is scarcely cause for any excitement about the matter and no reason for the South to denounce Roosevelt. He is acting according to his convictions, which lead him to a position quite incomprehensible to us; yet it is not to be denied that he is sincere and earnest in his attentions to the colored man. Can the same be said of those of us in the South who exalt Booker Washington and give him prominent place on committees and boards and invite him to address conventions, all the time feeling that we are holding out a false hope, and secretly desiring a failure of his efforts to raise his race to the level of a superior race?

From the Columbia (S. C.) State.
Booker Washington is educated, cultured, intelligent, honest, honorable and decent, respecting in his life the canons of morality and practicing also that virtue which is said to be next to Godliness. In these respects he differs from the vast majority of his race and for these excellencies he is esteemed and regarded above all other members of that race. Yet it is impossible to forget that he is a negro. And the sentiment of this country, North as well as South, is that negro should not aspire to social equality with white people.

From the New Orleans Time Democrat.
The negro is not the social equal of the white man. Social equality between the white race and the black race has never existed and never will exist. The truth of that statement is written in letters of living light in the records of the human race. It is the decision of the ages; and Mr. Roosevelt might as well attempt to rub the stars out of the firmament as to try to erase that conviction from the heart and brain of the American people.

From the New Orleans Picayune.
The Picayune regards this act on the part of the President as an official and not a social matter. Necessarily, if the President should take negroes of both sexes into social relations with his family it would excite a great deal of prejudice; but officially, as the Chief Magistrate of the Republic, which embraces in its citizenship people of all colors and many races, he may confer with and entertain people who are black, red, brown and yellow, as well as white and eat and drink with them.
If, however, he should endeavor to bring the peoples of all races, colors and conditions into the same social plane and into intimate intercommunication, it is much to be doubted if he could make it a success either politically or socially.

Who Lost in The Transaction.

A banker found a ten dollar bill. He gave it to his wife, who paid the butcher in settlement of his account. The butcher paid it to the farmer for a calf, and the farmer paid it to the merchant, who in turn paid it to the washerwoman;
and she owing the banker a note of ten dollars, went to the bank and paid the note. The banker recognized the bill as the one he had found, and which up to that time had settled fifty dollars of debt. On a careful examination, he found the bill was counterfeit.
The problem is—who lost in the transaction?

Get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets at Dr. R. K.
Truitt & Son's drug store. They are easier to take and more pleasant in effect than pills. Then their use is not followed by constipation as is often the case with pills. Regular size, 25c. per box.

The Democratic mass-meeting at Leonardtown Monday was well attended and the speech of Lloyd Wilkinson was enthusiastically received. The Democrats of the county are confident of success and seem to be thoroughly aroused.

TIMELY INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS.

Explicit Directions Prepared by the Attorney General of the State.

The following instructions to voters have been prepared by Attorney General Isidor Rayner, as directed by Article 33, Code of Public General Laws, and amendments thereto:
1 To vote. Enter room, step up to guard rail, give name and register residence to judges. Wait until your name is found upon the register, then get a ballot from judge in charge of ballots.
See that he has written your name, and number on the coupon attached to the ballot and his own name or initials on back of ballot itself.

2 Upon receiving your ballot, retire to one of the booths or compartments and prepare your ballot by marking with an indelible pencil after the name of every person or persons for whom you wish to vote and to the right thereof, in the blank space provided therefor, a cross, for example, (X) and in case of a question submitted to a vote of the people, by marking likewise in the appropriate space, a crossmark (X) against the answer you desire to give. If you wish to vote for some one whose name is not printed on the official ballot, you can write the name of such person in the blank space upon the ballot provided for that purpose.

3 In marking the ballot you may take with you into the polling place any written or printed memorandum of paper to assist you in preparing your ballot, except a fac-simile of the ballot to be voted. You must prepare and deposit your ballot without undue delay.
Before coming from behind the curtain in front of your compartment you must fold your ballot in the same way as it was folded when you received it, so that the marks you have made upon it shall be entirely concealed.

You then hand your folded ballot to the judge at the ballot box, giving him your name and registered address, and wait until he tears off the coupon containing your name and number, and strings it, and deposits your ballot in the ballot box. You must then leave the polling room and cannot again go behind the guardrail during the day.

4 A voter must not go into any compartment occupied by another, or converse with any other voter while engaged in compartment, nor can he occupy a compartment more than seven minutes if others are waiting.

5 You must not take any ballot outside the guardrail. If you spoil a ballot you must deliver the spoiled ballot to the judge in charge of the ballots, and you can receive another from him.
If you spoil THREE ballots you lose your vote.

6 A voter who is physically disabled from marking his ballot must make an affidavit to that effect if he desires assistance. The two polling clerks, after such affidavit has been made, can accompany him into one of the compartments and there mark his ballot as he instructs them, marking only the names of the candidates whom he shall name. The clerks are not allowed to read the ballot to him.

7 Any voter who shall allow his ballot to be seen by any person with the apparent intention of letting it be known how he is about to vote, or place any distinguishing mark on his ballot, or who shall make a false statement as to his inability to mark his ballot, or who shall interfere or attempt to interfere with any voter when inside the enclosed space in the polling-room, or when marking his ballot, or who shall endeavor to induce any voter before voting to show how he marks or has marked his ballot, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five ($5) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100) dollars, or by imprisonment in jail for a period not exceeding 60 days, or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

—One of the prettiest ghost stories is told as follows in the New York Sun as coming from the famous ghost-story town, Butler, New Jersey: This spiritual visitor is different from other ghosts that have made Butler famous, for it is a merry ghost, and taken up its habitation in a sawmill. Its presence has interfered with the work there. The ghost must have worked in a sawmill in his sojourn on earth, because he knows all about one. He is fond also of displaying his knowledge, for whenever any one gets near the mill the ghost lifts the water gates and the big wheel starts, to the surprise and alarm of hundreds who say they have been seen it.
A man, who didn't believe in the ghost, went into the mill alone one day last week. He came out a firm believer.
He declares the big wheel began to turn before he reached the mill. He knew there was no one inside, and so he investigated. While he was looking, the wheel stopped; in a few minutes it started again, and he says there was no one near it. Then he heard the big saw tearing through a log, he declares. He rushed upstairs and says he saw the ghost steering a log. Then he says he was hit over the head with a cent book, which the ghost held. The man was stunned for a moment, and when he came to he saw the ghost sitting on the log laughing. He says there is no doubt that it was a ghost, because the next moment it lay down on the carrier and the big saw cut through the spectral body, without leaving a trace of a tragedy. The man had a big bump on his head to prove his story.

Death of Judge Rossum.

Former Judge George M. Rossum, aged 67 years, the Republican nominee for State Senator from Caroline county, died suddenly last Monday evening of heart trouble. He was attacked about 7 o'clock and expired in a chair in the drug store of George & Redden. The funeral services were held Thursday morning at Christ Protestant Episcopal Church, D-n-ton and interment in the cemetery.

Judge Rossum was a frequent candidate for office on the republican ticket.
He was a lawyer by profession.

During the late war between the States he was an active Unionist, following the lead of the late Henry Winter Davis. In 1863 President Lincoln appointed him assessor of internal revenue for the First Congressional district, then composed of the entire Eastern Shore, which he resigned in 1865 in favor of Dr. Thomas King Carroll. In 1866 he was the Republican candidate for Congress and was defeated by the Hon. Hiram McCulloch. In 1867 he was appointed by Chief Justice Chase register in bankruptcy for the same district, which he held up to the repeal of the Bankrupt act. In 1871 he was elected over the late Philip W. Downes State's attorney for Caroline county, which office he held until January, 1880.
In 1883, with George A. Blanks of Cecil, he was a candidate for associate judge of the Second judicial circuit and defeated by a small majority in a strong Democratic circuit. In 1884 he was again a candidate for Congress and was defeated by the Hon. Charles H. Gibson. In 1889 he was a candidate for the State Senate, and was defeated by ex-Senator John F. Dawson. In 1890 and 1892 he was again a candidate of the Republican party for Congress, being defeated by Judge Henry Page and Robert F. Brattan, respectively. January 21st, 1896, on the death of Judge John M. Robinson, he was appointed by Gov. Lloyd Lowndes, chief judge of the Second circuit, composed of the counties of Caroline, Talbot, Queen Anne's Kent and Cecil. He took his seat on the bench of the Court of Appeals and was nominated for election by the people, but defeated in November, 1897, by Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce.

To Meet At Ocean City.

The executive council of the Maryland State Bar Association has determined to hold the next annual meeting of the association as soon as convenient after the adjournment of the Court of Appeals for the summer recess. This will allow of the meeting being held on June 25 or 26. It was also decided to hold the meeting at Ocean City or some place near Baltimore.

President John S. Wirt, of Blkton, was authorized to appoint a committee to prepare an amendment to the law regulating admission to the bar so as to increase the time of study from two to three years. The executive council is in favor of the amendment, which will probably be submitted to the next Legislature.

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth, go at once to Dr. R. K.
Truitt & Son's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They also cure biliousness, sick headache and constipation.

MISS LAURA HOWARD,

President South End Ladies' Golf Club, Chicago, Cared by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound After the Best Doctors Had Failed To Help Her.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I can thank you for perfect health to-day. Life looked so dark to me a year or two ago. I had constant pains, my limbs swelled, I had dizzy spells, and never knew one day how I would feel the next. I was nervous and had no appetite, neither could I sleep soundly nights. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, used in conjunction with your Sensitive Wash, did more for me than all the medicines and the skill of the doctors. For eight months I have enjoyed perfect health. I verily believe that most of the doctors are guessing and experimenting when they try to cure a woman with an assortment of complications, such as mine; but you do not guess. How I wish all suffering women could only know of your remedy; there would be less suffering I know."—LAURA HOWARD, 113 Newberry Ave., Chicago, Ill. —$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all women who are ill to write her for advice. Address Lynn, Mass., giving full particulars.

Richard—And what was that?

Robert—He said, "How are you?"—Boston Transcript.

ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY.

A Certain Man, having read some where that Opportunity knocks only once at each one's Door, concluded to sit up all night for fear he would miss the call. So while he was sitting near his Door there came a heavy knock thereon.

When he opened the Door a Stranger entered and Beat him all up and Took his Money and Warmths and Chided him for being so Easy.

"But," said the Man, thinking to excuse himself, "I thought it was Opportunity who knocked."

"So it was," responded the Other, "but it was My Opportunity."

Moral: It is Better to Carry your Opportunity with you.—Baltimore American.

A PESSIMISTIC OPINION.

"They say that in order to be happy," said the young woman who reads a great deal, "a man ought to be a fool or a philosopher."

"Yes," answered Miss Cayenne. "If a man is a fool he can't get a woman to accept him. And if he is as wise as philosophers are credited with being he won't propose."—Washington Star.

A WISE JUDGE

"Why did they throw the case out of court?"

"Well she claimed that he tried to kiss her."

"I should think that would have it all the worse for him."

"No; she declared on the stand that he didn't succeed."—Chicago Record Herald.

A PRACTICAL QUESS.

"What makes that friend of yours keep clamoring for the young man in politics?"

"I don't know," answered Senator Sorghum, "unless he thinks that some of the older fellows are getting too wary and hard to handle."—Washington Star.

CHRONIC.

Tramp—Would you kindly help a poor sick man, me lovely lady, who'd order be in the hospital, but's too proud to go?

Lady—Poor fellow! Here's a quarter. What is it you're sick with?

Tramp—Spring fever, mum.—Harper's Bazar.

THE SAME REMARK.

"What did Mame say when her father gave her that new gold watch?" asked one gladsome girl.

"Oh, the same thing that she always says. She remarked that she was having a perfectly lovely time."—Washington Star.

THOSE EQUINE MATHS.

Uncle Hlekyerick—Whoo, thar. Betsy! Dang it! Whar you gwine?

"Betsy—There's a furniture van ahead with a mirror in the rear end. I want to see if my hat's on straight."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

OR AGAIN; OFF AGAIN.

"What pretty white flowers they are on that plant."

"Yes, but they don't stay on very long."

"No?"

"No they're bachelor's buttons, you know."—Philadelphia Press.

A DULL PROGRAMME.

Auntie—Don't you want to go to Heaven?

Johnny—I don't know. I think it must be a place where people spend their time behaving themselves.—Puck.

"Why—er—lemme see," said the old man. "O! they're them country jays that blow off the gas."—Philadelphia Press.

RAISING CALVES.

Replenish the Dairy Herd by Growing the Heifer Calves.

There are two ways of replenishing dairy herds. One by going to auction sales and buying fresh cows from dealers and the other by raising heifer calves from the herd. The first method has some very serious objections. Cows bought at public sales from regular dealers are an unknown quantity to the buyer. He knows nothing whatever of the ancestry or pedigree, nothing of the performance of the cow up to date. He must rely wholly upon his judgment, based upon the appearance of the cow at the time of sale. The best judge cannot always tell what a cow will do by looking at her. Something can be told by her general form, size and shape of the udder and the like, but it is largely guesswork. I believe that I can truthfully say that one half of the cows bought at public auction turn out poorly and have to be turned over to the butcher at a great loss.

Another serious objection is that the cows are generally too old. The farmer or dairyman who raises a cow will keep her until she is 10 or 12 years old and then turn her off. Many of them are dehorned and it is impossible to determine their age with any degree of accuracy. A cow may be at her prime and have a splendid appearance, but after she is bought she lasts only a year or two. In other words, the chances are that the cow is bought just when she is beginning to decline. She grows less and less profitable every year. The introduction of disease by the purchase of cows at auction is also a serious matter. Tuberculosis is frequently introduced and occasionally minor diseases like contagious garget. The high price paid for these cows is also a great objection. In Chester county I believe that $50 has been the average price for the past year or two. Good cows sell for nearer $80 or $70 than $50. I believe this is too high a price.

The second method of replenishing the herd by raising calves has the advantage that you know all about the calves' ancestors. If you have a good cow that produced from 5000 to 8000 pounds of milk each year, keep her heifer calves and if a good sire has been used there is a likelihood of getting calves that will perform as well as their mothers. This is not always the case, but the chances of getting good producers are very much greater than when buying cows direct from the dealers. You do not run the risk of introducing disease by bringing in outside stock, and you always know the age of your cows and get the use of the cow during her long period of usefulness.

I have made an estimate, based upon pretty complete records, of the cost of raising a calf until she is two years old. When a heifer reaches that age she is self-supporting or at least should be if she is of any value. My method of feeding calves for the first two years and the cost is as follows: For the first two weeks I give new skim milk, 7 lbs. per day. For the next six weeks or at the end of two months the calf gets skim milk and about 2 lbs. of linseed meal per week. This linseed meal I scald and feed in the form of pudding. For the next four months I feed 4 lbs. of clover hay per day, 14 lbs. of oats and 1 lb. of dry bran. This brings the cost for the first six months up to $7.47. If the calf is dropped in the fall, the next six months will be spent on pasture without any additional feed. Pasture can be had for $1 per month, which brings the cost of keeping the animal up to $18.47 for the first year.

The second year she will eat clover hay, wheat, corn meal and bran valued at $19.05. This brings the cost of the heifer at the end of the second year to $37.52. I have allowed a fair price for all the feeds and am quite convinced that I can raise two year-old heifer calves for $50. If the calf is dropped in the spring, the cost will be somewhat greater, as the animal can make very little use of grass the first season and consequently will have to be fed during two winters and one summer, while when the calf is dropped in the fall you do not have to feed grain in the summer at all. The animal will live entirely on grass.

By this plan a dairyman can save from $30 to $40 per cow by raising his own stock and he will find that more than 5 per cent. of the calves raised will fall to develop into good cows, against 50 per cent. which prove unsatisfactory when bought at auction. Then another item which always enters into the problem is the fact that the dairy farmer has a much greater interest in the herd that he has raised himself. This in the end has a great deal to do with the profits.

Good cows can only be secured by keeping the good calves that are from animals which are known to be meritorious, but the farmers who buy their fresh cows and sell their calves when they are but a few days old, destroy all opportunities for selection. A good calf, however, is one that is bred for a special purpose, and the farmer, therefore, knows in advance what it should be when matured, and the calf will, if it is from good stock, probably not disappoint him.

By feeding up the herd until they are doing their best and then weeding out the unprofitable cows, breeding to be dairy animals and properly controlling the sanitary conditions and using a good supply of kindness the dairyman may expect to have an ideal herd in the course of a few years.

Latest Fads Of Fashion.

A lovely new shade of blue is known as sapphire.

Rows of yellow or green silk stitching on white felt brims are a millinery novelty.

Mediol collars appear on the new wraps of silk, velvet, plated mousseline and cloth.

Silver seems to be eclipsing gold in modishness. It is seen on many of the imported gowns and wraps.

The best craze grows apace. All kinds (and conditions) of beads are now strung round fashionable necks and upon all occasions.

Long crepe de chine scarfs bordered all around with marabout feathers are both a useful and decorative feature of the evening toilette.

The large flowing boas of fur will be worn more than ever this winter.

Small gunmetal buttons decorate dark flannel waists.

In the matter of neck trimming bows are tied in the front, and very seldom to the back. The most popular thing and the newest from Paris is the tiny thread of tulle inside the collar, ending in a rosette at the nape of the neck.

Some of the newest boas are made of taffeta, and are at once pretty and serviceable.

Shaggy felts and silky beavers form the foundation of the most fashionable hats.

White cloth embroidered in silver is a feature of some of the smartest new fur models.

Pretty pesticides are made of very fine white alpaca.

The gardenia will be the fashionable boutonniere of the season.

Newest blouses are made with collars of the same material, over which a tie and a turn-over are added.

So far as the sleeve is concerned the epaulet has gone out and the broad wristband or cuff has come in. Some of the newest fit the arm closely above the elbows where they are puffed. Some of the cuffs turn back at the wrist.

A Fiendish Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions.

No remedy helped him until he tried Eucalypti Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c at R. K. Truitt & Sons' Drug Store.

The Excuse

Made by many a man for taking a drink at the bar is that he needs a bracer. He feels weak, his stomach is "out of sorts" and liquor makes him "feel good." The tired man who sits on a pin leaps up with new energy, but no one would say that this energy was evidence of the strength giving power of a pin. So with the energy induced by liquors. They only spur the body on, but do not strengthen it.

Strength is made from food, properly digested and assimilated. When the stomach is diseased there is a failure to extract the nutrition from food and the body grows weak. The weak body needs strengthening, not stimulating. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, so that the nutrition of food is perfectly extracted and assimilated and the body nourished into health and strength.

There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is no other medicine "just as good" for diseases of the stomach and allied organs.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy have been of great benefit to me," writes (Prof.) Pleasant A. Oliver, of Viola, Fulton Co., Ark. "Before I used the above mentioned remedies my sleep was not sound; I suffered with a continual feeling of misery. I now feel like a new man."

STATUS OF THE CAMPAIGN.

The Democratic speakers who have been attending the meetings throughout the county this week have returned with very gratifying reports. They say the party people are all well pleased with the new election law. The voters seem to fully realize that the law was intended to give us a white man's government. It has become clear to all that the ridding the poll books of Virginia and North Carolina negro riff-raff will make the vote of the intelligent citizen the more potent. There will not be an ignorant or vernal negro voter to follow every intelligent voter who deposits his ballot to be counteracted by such a vote. The Democratic meetings of the county have been largely attended. The voters have shown intense interest in the matter; great enthusiasm has been manifested everywhere. The people seem to realize that much depends upon the election and they thoroughly understand the issue.

The Republicans have taken a singular position with regard to the illiterate voter. They assert unqualifiedly that the colored voter is going to be able to vote the ticket all right; that if he was lacking in anyway he has been taught and has learned to vote. On the other hand they are telling the illiterate whites that the object of the law was to disfranchise them—to deprive them of their rights as citizens. They take the position that the negroes are capable of learning how to vote, but that the whites are not. The white people of the county resent this imputation and are determined to show the Republican party that they are capable of voting the ticket. For the Republican party in this county to reduce the Democratic majority or to carry the county would argue that the negroes are more capable of handling a restrictive ballot intelligently than are the whites. There is no disguising it, this is the situation and the white people of the county and State are determined to demonstrate by ballot which is most capable of voting intelligently.

THE CRY OF "WOLF."

From interviews published in the Baltimore Evening News Chairman Goldsborough and others prominent in Maryland Republican politics the inference may be had that those gentlemen feel unequal to the task of rebutting the tactics of the democratic managers. In their floundering efforts to convince the public that the democratic party is in a panic they only show how desperate is their own struggle.

In politics the cry of "Wolf" from either side can have but one meaning. It is an attempt to fool the people by making them believe that the danger of destruction is in the ranks of the opposite side, and if the ruse is successful the party sounding the alarm, having diverted public attention can, unobserved, resort to ways that are dark and tricks that are hidden.

Mr. Goldsborough's apparently frank confession of helplessness is really pathetic. He and Senator McComas being such strangers to the devices of partisans the wonder is that they recognize one when they see it.

The republican attempt to scare the people of the State with the prospect of Mr. Gorman's returning to the United States Senate in 1903 the democrats win, is really amusing. It seems so funny that the republican leaders don't know that just such a "scare" is what the great majority of the people of Maryland, and it might be said, of the country, are hoping for. Since 1898 Marylanders have discovered their folly in retiring to private life a citizen who is not only one of the ablest and safest statesmen of this commonwealth, but of the country. They want him to return to the Council Chambers.

HYPOCRISY AND CALUMNY.

When Senator McComas was delivering his philippic against the ballot law at Hagerstown on Thursday the innocent hearer might have believed that all his twaddle about the wicked Democrats' intention to disfranchise the poor white laboring man by a property qualification, was true. "Force Bill" McComas having once endeavored to disfranchise the intelligent voters and property holders of the South, and there is no evidence he has had a change of heart, is therefore ready to believe his opponents are in favor of the converse and opposed to the laboring man, the honest and industrious mechanic and yeoman. The evil and hypocrisy see evil and wrong in others. Like begets like, hence the Hon. McComas' illusion.

This kind of false charges and misrepresentation is driving the good and true advocates of purity in elections to the support of the Democratic party. Hon. Wm. Cabell Bruce and other leading reformers and anti bribers of Baltimore are outspoken and active in the support of the Democratic party for its efforts to suppress bribery and give a free and honest ballot to the voters by the enactment of the ballot law at the extra session. "The galled jade winces" and when corruptionists of voters like McComas are deprived of the means of obtaining success by such means as have been employed in the past, then they become the Pharisee and are more righteous than others in their own opinion.

The election is drawing very near and all citizens in favor of a free ballot—all who are opposed to bribery and corruption, should be hustling for the success of the Democratic Party. Already the Republicans are gathering their corruption fund and if it cannot be used on Election Day in open bribery, the stealthy work of keeping voters from the polls is going on.

Under the iron boss rule of McComas and others the honest and true Republicans are being retired to the rear and their new Democratic and Republican recruits are forging to the front and are leading the Republican forces, at least such of the hosts as are subservient enough to follow. But it is a hopeful sign to see the numerous Republican revolts from such dictation and that such a crowd cannot lead the thinking and sensible men of their party to the polls and by success, endanger the property, rights and liberties of the people of Maryland.

Every Democrat and every honest Republican should study the sample ballot and when the day of election comes, have such a knowledge of the ballot and of the nominees on the ballot, that they will not lose that ballot by carelessness or vote for an unworthy man. The County and the State in the hands of intelligent and honest Democrats will be safe.

THE DEMOCRATIC POSITION.

The position which the Democratic party has assumed in the present campaign is a strong one. The actual beginning of the campaign was when the conditions in this State demanded an extra session of the Legislature. These conditions were forced by Republican politicians, who sought to divert the national census in Southern Maryland to party aggrandizement. Of this scandalous Republicans are keeping rigid silence, although they are seizing every opportunity to accuse the Democratic party of utilizing the State census for partisan purposes. The effort to increase legislative representation in Southern Maryland attracted greater attention to the make-up of the Republican party and its dependence for power upon negro voters, whose periodical importation was also emphasized by the census frauds. Whilst the election law has been made more stringent to prevent such immigration at election times, as well as to rebuke bribery, the election law is not the issue in this campaign. It is but an incident. Supposing, however, that it were the issue, we are at a loss to see why any apology is necessary for its enactment. Its aim is a distinct advance and its provisions are strictly in the interest of better citizenship. There can be no doubt that upon such an issue the Democracy could fearlessly face its adversary. The true issue, however, is the doctrine of white supremacy. As the supporters of this doctrine, the Democrats of Maryland have assumed a position similar to that taken in other States where a comparatively few white men seek to ride to power on negro shoulders. Democratic claim is that this is unfair to the great body of the white people as well as to the negro, by whom they are outvoted, and to whom office is denied. The Democratic position is, therefore, a very strong one. It is to place authority where it justly belongs that is urging renewed zeal upon those who toil and produce but are silenced by those who do not. The present campaign is being fought upon these lines. The matter of fairness or unfairness in methods does not figure to any greater extent than it always has in political campaigns. Republicans are no saints and they never were. Their walls about this time are only because possibilities do not appear to be in their direction and because denounced opportunities were not theirs to embrace. That is all there is of the hue and cry about fairness. Fairness will begin when those who are justly entitled to drive switch the reins from their unwarranted drivers—and from indications this will occur on November 5.—Marylander and Herald.

—Mr. Jay Williams, executor of the late Thomas B. Taylor, is making an inventory of the personal property of the deceased. The appraisers are Geo. R. Lowe and Isaac S. Bennett.

—The President of the choral class desires all the members and all desirous of becoming to meet in the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium on Friday evening this Oct. 25th, 1901 at 7.30 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

—Mr. and Mrs. Levin Hastings have sent out invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Alice Hastings to Mr. John G. Jones. The marriage will take place at their home in Delmar, Tuesday, November 6th, at noon.

—The Democrats will have an oyster party and speaking next Tuesday afternoon, October 30th, in Nutters district at the Nutters voting place. The Salisbury Brass Band will furnish music.

—Miss Addie Waller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Lee Waller, gave a party last Tuesday afternoon in honor of her twelfth birthday. A large company of Miss Addie's friends was present.

—The County Commissioners and judges of the Orphans Court were in session last Tuesday. The Commissioners will be in session again next Tuesday. The Orphans Court will meet again November 12th.

—Mr. Arthur Lowenthal will on the 26th of November open a five and ten cent store in the Jackson block, adjoining the dry goods store of his father, Main street. He expects to carry a large and varied stock.

—Providing permitting, the members and friends of Green Hill M. P. Church will hold an oyster supper on Friday Nov. 1st 1901. If the weather could be inclement on Friday it will be held the next day, Saturday Nov. 2nd, everybody is invited to come.

—Misses Edna Gillis and Edna Owens were Bridesmaids for Miss Beatrice Fitzgerald of Baltimore, who was married to Mr. Henry Dunning, of Baltimore, Thursday evening.

—Mrs. Sallie A. Dennis has left Salisbury and gone to reside with her brother at Havre de Grace, Md. Miss Brenizer, who has been Mrs. Dennis' companion here, will in the future dwell with Mrs. Annie T. Morris.

—Miss Mary Thomas Collins of Philadelphia spent Wednesday with the Misses Smith on Broad Street. Miss Collins was on her way to attend the marriage of her cousin Miss Caroline Wharton of Stockton, Md.

—Mr. V. Perry and family have moved into the house, 301 West Church street, which Mr. Perry some time ago bought from Mrs. Sallie A. Dennis. The late Dr. Dennis built the house, which is one of the most complete and comfortable in Salisbury.

—Miss Mildred White, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. White, celebrated her seventh birthday by entertaining a number of little folks at a party last Monday afternoon. Pretty little souvenirs were given each guest.

—Mr. Wm. T. Banks, who is a great admirer of fine horses, has just gratified his tastes by the purchase of a topsey pair of young bay harness mares, which are Virginia-bred and very prompt roadsters. They arrived from Baltimore a few days ago and are now at Duffy's stables.

—Rev. Chas. A. Hill assisted in the reopening services of Beckwith M. E. Church, Dorchester county, last Sunday. Hon. William H. Jackson accompanied him. Mr. Hill's pulpit at Salisbury Church was filled Sunday morning by Rev. G. W. Wilcox. In the evening Mr. J. Walter Huxington conducted the services.

—Mrs. James Bounds died last Sunday at her home near Siloam. Besides a husband five children survive her. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. T. H. Moore Monday afternoon in the Siloam church. Mrs. Bounds was the daughter of the late William Malone of Allen.

—Last year $1,473,729 were expended for horses, mules and wagons for the United States army, and there were shipped to the Philippines and China 4,881 cavalry horses, 4,337 horses for mounted infantry, 232 artillery horses, 3,518 draft mules and 765 pack mules.

—At democratic headquarters in Salisbury last Wednesday night a large gathering of voters were present, and many new names were added to their membership. Messrs. F. Leonard Wailes and Geo. W. Bell were the principal speakers.

—Willie Hitch, a fourteen year old lad employed at E. S. Adkins &amp; Co's factory got tangled up in some of the machinery last Wednesday afternoon and before he was rescued all his clothing except his shoes and stockings was stripped from him. The boy's escape from physical injury seems almost miraculous.

MARRIAGE INVITATIONS

We will give you the best plate or levant finish paper, printed to imitate the best engraving at a low price. Call or write for samples.

—Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Louise Jane Page, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Henry Page, of Princess Anne to Dr. Hubert Ashley Royster, of Raleigh, N. C. The ceremony will take place in the Presbyterian church, in Princess Anne, on Wednesday evening, November 6th, at half past 8 o'clock.

The Colonel will be retired on January 1st, 1903, and will then return to his home in Berkeley, Cal. Mrs. Henry Page, Jr., is a daughter of Col. Greenleaf. Judge Page and Col. Greenleaf spent Monday morning in Salisbury.

—Samuel Dwight Brown, son of Rev. J. McLain and Lee A. Brown of Warwick, Md., whose death was mentioned last week in these columns, was a former pupil of our public schools when his parents resided here a few years ago, and made a host of friends among his schoolmates and was beloved by his teachers Misses Fish and Dorman. He was 18 years, 2 months and 10 days old and gave promise of a life of honor and usefulness. He was a sweet singer and was prominent in Christian Endeavor and church work. He was a nephew of E. S. Adkins and K. V. White.

—Emory Ellis, the colored youth who was lately wounded last Saturday night at Fruitland by James Adams, also colored, stabbing him in the back with a knife is doing well at the Peninsula General Hospital and is likely to recover. The trouble began by three boys, the two mentioned above and Ephraim Morris, getting into a tussling match in which Ellis tore Adams' coat. This enraged the latter, and he immediately drew his knife and commenced cutting. The wounded man was brought to the Hospital and while sworn out for the arrest of the other two.

For Over Fifty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures all wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty cents a bottle.

An Ancient Foe

To health and happiness is Scrofula—so ugly as ever since time immemorial. It causes bunches in the neck, disfigures the skin, inflames the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weakens the bones, reduces the power of resistance to disease and the capacity for recovery, and develops into consumption.

"A bunch appeared on the left side of my neck. It caused great pain, was lanced, and became a running sore. I went into a general decline. I was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken six bottles my neck was healed, and I have never had any trouble of the kind since." Mrs. K. T. Snyder, Troy, Ohio.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

will rid you of it, radically and permanently, as they have rid thousands.

THEY'RE SO HANDY.

"YES, MA'AM. I can assure you that I have sold one to almost every lady whom I have called upon, of course I call upon none but the better classes, and only once in a while do I make a mistake and call upon one who cannot afford to pay for one. They're so handy—and here, the door to door salesman opened up a little tin box about a foot square—you can put all your solid silver in, put your diamonds and jewelry in a box and enclose that also, lock it up, and nobody, not even your husband, can get a thing, for you'll have the combination to the lock, and without the combination nobody can unlock it. Yes, Ma'am, Three Ninety Eight. Thank you, Oh, certainly, keep it right in the bottom part of your sideboard. She—now did any of the dozen other good women who bought tin safes for silver at $3.95 with small combination locks, did not realize how handy they were packing up their silver and jewelry for the up-to-date burglar, until she missed it, safe and all, the next morning, for she never once thought how handy it would be for a man to take the whole box and not stop to unlock it—but the 1901 burglar knows. Talk about handy, why, you can steal into Lacy Thoroughgood's Clothing and Hat Store, not disturb anybody in any other part of the store, get an Overcoat worth $15.00 for $12.50, $12.50 Overcoat for $10.00, $10.00 Overcoat for $3.00, and an $5.00 Overcoat for $5.00. Steal out quietly and not be noticed by anybody until you wear the Coat then everybody will notice you. Do you buy Clothing with open eyes? Do you ever stop to consider that money is never saved in buying common clothing? It is acknowledged that Lacy Thoroughgood does sell clothing—that Lacy Thoroughgood does sell good Hats. Do you care for that kind? You can't match Thoroughgood's Clothing values in Salisbury—Thoroughgood has passed all records in Clothing selling before the season has fairly started. There is reason for it. Best Clothing for the money—and that is proven by the big business done last Saturday. Well dressed men will be interested in the clothing sold by Lacy Thoroughgood this season, while the prices are small the Clothing has the fit elegance and appearance that characterizes the high class, exclusive TO-ORDER products. Steal in a few minutes and take a look if nothing else.

Talmage Sermon

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—In this discourse Dr. Talmage calls all people to gladness and opens all the doors of expectancy; texts, Genesis vi, 13, "Come," Revelations xii, 17, "Come."

Imperial, tender and all persuasive is the word "Come." Six hundred and seventy-eight times it is found in the Scriptures. It stands at the front gate of the Bible as in my first text, inviting antediluvians into Noah's ark, and it stands at the other gate of the Bible as in my second text, inviting the postdiluvians of all later ages into the ark of a Saviour's mercy. "Come" is only a word of four letters, but it is the queen of words, and nearly the entire nation of English vocabulary bows to its scepter. It is an ocean into which empties ten thousand rivers of meaning. Other words drive, but this beckons. All moods of feeling hush that word "Come." Sometimes it weeps and sometimes it laughs. Sometimes it prays, sometimes it tempts, and sometimes it destroys. It sounds from the door of the church and from the seraglio of sin, from the gates of heaven and the gates of hell. It is the herald of most of the past and the almoner of most of the future. "Come!" You may pronounce it so that all the heavens will be heard in its cadences or pronounce it so that all the woes of time and eternity shall reverberate in its one syllable. It is on the lip of saint and prodigal. It is the mightiest of all solicitations either for good or bad.

Today I weigh anchor and haul in the planks and set sail on that great word, although I am sure I will not be able to reach the farther shore. I will let down the fathom line into this sea and try to measure its depths, and, though I lie together all the cables and cordage I have on board, I will not be able to touch bottom. All the power of the Christian religion is in that word, "Come." The dictatorial and commendatory in religion are of no avail. The imperative mood is not the appropriate mood when we would have people savingly impressed. They may be coaxed, but they cannot be driven. Our hearts are like our homes; at a friendly knock the door will be opened, but an attempt to force open the door would land the assailant in prison. Our theological seminaries, which keep young men three years in their curriculum before launching them into the ministry, will do well in so short a time they can teach the candidates for the holy office how to say with right emphasis and intonation and power that one word, "Come!" That man who has such efficiency in Christian work and that woman who has such power to persuade people to quit the wrong and begin the right went through a series of losses and trials of twenty or thirty years before they could make it a triumph of grace every time they uttered the word "Come."

Slain by the Word "Come."

You must remember that in many cases our "Come" has a mightier "Come" to conquer before it has any effect at all. Just give me the accurate census, the statistics of how many are down in fraud, in drunkenness, in gambling, in impurity or in vice of any sort, and I will give you the accurate census or statistics of how many have been slain by the word "Come." "Come and click winged with me at this ivory bar." "Come and see what we can win at this gaming table." "Come, enter with me this doubtful speculation." "Come with me and read these hundred tracts on Christianity." "Come with me to a place of bad amusement." "Come with me in a gay boat through the underground life of the city." If in this city there are twenty thousand who are down in moral character, then twenty thousand fell under the power of the word "Come." I was reading of a wife whose husband had been overthrown by strong drink, and she went to the saloon where he was ruined, and she said, "Give me back my husband." And the bartender, pointing to a mandarin and battered man cowering in the corner of the barroom, said: "There he is. Jim, wake up; here's your wife come for you." And the woman said: "Do you call that my husband? What have you been doing with him? Is that the manly brow, is that the clear eye, is that the noble heart, that I married? What vile drug have you given him that has turned him into a fiend? Take your tiger claws off of him. Uncurl these serpent folds of evil habit that are crushing him. Give me back my husband, the one with whom I stood at the altar twenty years ago. Give him back to me. Victim was he, as many millions of others have been, of the word 'Come!'"

Now we want all the world over to harness this word for good as others have harnessed it for evil, and it will draw the five continents and the seas between them—yes, it will draw the whole earth to the banner of the word "Come." It is that woolen and persuasive word that will lead men to give up their sins. Was skepticism ever brought into love of the truth by an abolition of hot words against infidelity? Was ever the blasphemer stopped in his oaths by denunciation of blasphemy? Was ever the drunkard weaned from his cups by the temperance lecturer's mimicry of staggering and hiccuping? No. It was "Come" with me to church today and hear our singing! "Come and let me introduce you to a Christian man whom you will be sure to admire." "Come with me into associations that are cheerful and good and inspiring." "Come with me into joy such as you never before experienced."

Made Right With God.

With that word which has done so much for others I approach you today. Are you all right with God? "No," you say, "I think not; I am sometimes alarmed when I think of him; I fear I will not be ready to meet him in the last day; my heart is not right with God." It was "Come" with me to church today and hear our singing! "Come and let me introduce you to a Christian man whom you will be sure to admire." "Come with me into associations that are cheerful and good and inspiring." "Come with me into joy such as you never before experienced."

Christ who died to save you, come! What is the use in waiting? The longer you wait the farther off you are and the deeper you are down. Strike out for heaven! You remember that a few years ago a steamer called the Princess Alice, with a crew of excursionists aboard, sank in the Thames, and there was an awful sacrifice of life. A boatman from the shore put out for the rescue, and he had a big boat, and he got it so full it would not hold another person, and as he laid hold of the oars to pull for the shore, leaving hundreds helpless and drowning, he cried out, "Oh, that I had a bigger boat!" Thank God that I am not thus limited and that I can promise room for all in this gospel boat. Get in; get in! And yet there is room. Room in the heart of a pardoning God. Room in heaven.

I also apply the word of my text to those who would like practical comfort. If any ever escape the struggle of life, I have not found them. They are not certainly among the prosperous classes. In most cases it was a struggle all the way up till they reached the prosperity, and since they have reached these heights there have been perplexities, anxieties and crises which were almost enough to shatter the nerves and turn the brain. It would be hard to tell which have the highest fight in this world, the prosperities or the adversities, the consoling or the obscuring. Just as soon as you have enough success to attract the attention of others the envious and jealousies are let loose from their kennel. The greatest crime that you can commit in the estimation of others is to get on better than they do. They think your addition is their subtraction. Five hundred persons start for a goal of success, and ninety-nine are mad. It would take volumes to hold the story of the wrongs, outrages and defamations that have come

"On Fame's Eternal Camping-Ground."

The campaigns and battles of the Civil War were on a scale of surpassing magnitude. There were more than a score of single battles, sometimes extending over several days, in each of which the Federal side were greater than the aggregate of all our losses in all our other wars combined. How paltry seem the 5,000 killed and wounded in the War of 1812, or in the Mexico, or the war with Spain, compared with the 14,000 at Shiloh, 150,000 at the Chickahominy, 13,000 at Antietam, the same at Fredericksburg, 15,000 at Chancellorsville, 23,000 at Gettysburg, 16,000 at Chickamauga, 37,000 in the Wilderness, and 26,000 at Spottsylvania. The grand aggregate of destruction fairly staggers the imagination, accustomed as we have been for more than a generation to the figures: 93,000 by bullets, 186,000 killed by disease, 25,000 dead from other causes—a grand total of 304,000, about one in nine of every man who wore the uniform.

In no other war in all time has such respect been paid to the dead. Immediately after its close the Secretary of War was directed by congress "to secure suitable burial-places, and to have these grounds enclosed, so that the resting-places of the honored dead may be kept sacred forever." In seventy-nine separate and distinct national cemeteries the bodies of nearly 300,000 soldiers who died during the Civil War are interred, and the decoration of their graves with flowers on a fixed day has become a national custom. Some of the cemeteries contain each a silent army of over 10,000 soldiers, in serried ranks marked by the white headstones, or nearly half of which is inscribed "unknown." The world may be searched in vain for anything similar or kindred; there is no other such impressive sight.

On fame's eternal camping-ground, Their silent tents are spread; And glory guards, with solemn round, The bivouac of the dead.

—From "The United States Army," by GEN. F. V. GREENE, in the November Scribner's.

Save The Chestnut Trees. One of the most beautiful and valuable of our forest trees is the chestnut. The wood is so well suited for several purposes, especially in fence-making, that from being one of the most abundant trees in the State it has greatly decreased in recent years. In some portions of the State it has been attacked by a blight or insect which has almost caused its extinction in those parts. Young people are more especially interested in the chestnut trees because of the chestnuts they bear. In gathering the nuts very frequently the tree is damaged and its symmetry destroyed by breaking boughs and limbs. Persons who thus injure the trees should remember that only is the beauty of the tree marred, but the next year's crop is affected. If the boughs are threshed off by chestnut gatherers there will be nothing to bear next year's crop. Land owners would do well, therefore, to caution persons who go through their woods chestnut hunting to deal gently with the trees and not to kill the goose that lays the golden egg. The chestnut tree, by the way, is not only a beautiful and long-lived tree, but it is of exceedingly rapid growth, and it would be well for people to make a note of this for use on Arbor Day.—Baltimore Sun

What Good Roads Do. A gentleman riding over one of the county's stretches of good roads, near Salisbury, recently observed: "Wherever roads have been built—that is good, hard macadamized roads—there ample evidence is to be seen of the benefit that such improvements confer on a community. Everywhere there is an appearance of prosperity. For some reason or other the farms seem to be more productive and the farm buildings more comfortable."

As a matter of fact, farmers do not realize how big the interest is on money spent in building good roads. If they would give every year, for ten years, the amount that good roads would save them, they would have roads that would last them, with little annual repairing, for a century, and would enable them to carry to market their products at less than half the present cost of transportation.

Most farmers, however, know the benefit that comes from good roads, but it is difficult, somehow or other to get a concert of action in respect to public roads."

Tot Causes Night Alarm. "One night my brother's baby was taken with Croup," writes Mrs. J. C. Snider, of Crittenden, Ky. "It seemed it would strangle before we could get a doctor, so we gave it Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave quick relief and permanently cured it. We always keep it in the house to protect our children from Croup and Whooping Cough. It cured me of a chronic bronchial trouble that no other remedy would relieve." Infallible for Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at R. K. Truitt & Sons.

Chesapeake Cable. A five mile long telephone line cable which occupied three railroad bars at Pier No. 2. Canton was stretched across the Chesapeake Bay, from Sandy Point, on the western shore, to a spot two miles below Love Point, on the Eastern shore, Wednesday, by the Diamond State Telephone Company. The cable contains wires with five complete metallic circuits and 14 inches in diameter, with a protecting armor of 18 wires. Each wire is insulated with two wrappings of paper, twisted in pairs and bunched into a cone, which is wrapped with two thickness of insulation. The cable is to give direct telephone communications between Baltimore, Washington, Annapolis, etc., and all points on the Eastern Shore, through a single call. Connections will be made between the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company. The cable was placed on a barge and towed down the bay by the Chesapeake Lightering and Towing Company. The cable stations have already been erected and the land lines are up. The cable has been spliced, and is ready to be slowly laid over the stern of a barge. The officers of the Diamond State Company are H. A. Richardson, president, and W. H. Baker, general manager.

"Have by some surgeon Shylock on thy charge to stop his wounds lest he do bleed to death." People can bleed to death. The loss of blood weakens the body. It must follow that gain of blood gives the strength. The strengthening effect of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is in large part due to its action on the blood-making glands and increased supply of pure, rich blood it produces. It is only when the blood is impoverished and impure that disease finds a soil in which to root. The "Discovery" purifies the blood and makes it antagonistic to disease. When the body is emaciated, the lungs are weak, and there is an obstinate lingering cough, "Golden Medical Discovery" puts the body on a fighting footing against disease, and so increases the vitality that disease is thrown off, and physical health perfectly and permanently restored. It has cured thousands who were hopeless and helpless, and who had tried all other means of cure without avail.

Twenty-one one cent stamps to cover expense of mailing only will obtain a copy of Dr. Pierce's "Common Sense Medical Adviser, 108 pages, in paper cover. Send thirty-one stamps if cloth binding preferred. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A general destruction of orchards on Miles River Neck is expected, in order to rid the locality of the San Jose scale, which is prevalent all through the region. Professor Quaintance, State entomologist, is so impressed with the condition of affairs that he proposes to appoint a local inspector of orchards, for which position he now has the name of Clifford Morris of Miles River under consideration.

MOTHERHOOD. The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore dead organs, but Wine of Cardui does regulate derangements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriage; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years. Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

WINE OF CARDUI. 123 Market Street, Memphis, Tenn., April 14, 1901. In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had been married fifteen years and had never given birth to a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I am mother of a fine baby girl which was born March 31, 1901. The baby weighs fourteen pounds and I feel as well as any person could feel. Now my home is happy and I never will be without Wine of Cardui in my home again. Mrs. J. W. G. SMITH.

A FACT ABOUT THE "BLUES"

What is known as the "Blues" is seldom occasioned by actual existing external conditions, but in the great majority of cases by a disordered LIVER.

THIS IS A FACT which may be demonstrated by trying a course of

Tutt's Pills

They control and regulate the LIVER. They bring hope and buoyancy to the mind. They bring health and elasticity to the body.

IS IT CORRUPT PRACTICE?

Mr. Ellegood's Pertinent Questions to the Public.

Messrs. Editors:—I had hoped to have replies before this from the Central Committees of the three parties to my open letter touching the enforcement of the law against bribery in this county. I am pleased to say I have favorable responses from the Democratic and Prohibition Committees, but owing to the absence of the chairman of the Republican Committee, no reply has been received from that committee. Pending the consideration of this matter, let me propound to the editors and the public a few pertinent and important questions, which are not intended to be offensive, but with the hope that they will excite a discussion and cause some degree of agitation not only in your editorial columns but among your readers.

1. Is it a "corrupt practice" to aid and abet in the buying of votes? if so can a man engage in corrupting his fellow men and rightfully claim to be an incorruptible patriotic citizen; bearing in mind, among other effects the degrading penalties attached to election bribery?

2. If it is a "corrupt practice," isn't the man who aids and abets this corruption, making himself and the people the worse for his influence in that direction?

3. If it is a "corrupt practice," isn't the man who aids and abets in corrupting and degrading the people, also aiding and abetting in bringing about a political and moral condition dangerous to the perpetuation of our free institutions and consequently threatening to the personal liberty of the individual citizen; in other words, is there not danger, if this corruption continues to increase, of this government becoming a government of the rich and by the rich, if not for the rich, and of the corrupt also?

4. If this be a "corrupt practice" don't you believe that a man of honest convictions against bribery has but slight show of winning in a primary contest in either the Democratic or Republican primary, against a man who will corruptly use money?

5. If this be a "corrupt practice" don't you believe that a poor man, with or without these conscientious scruples, has small chance of winning as a candidate in either party, against a man who will corruptly use it.

I repeat that these questions are not intended to be offensive, for no prudent man who wants to help a cause, wishes to offend those whose influence he hopes to enlist in its behalf. They are questions affecting the people's rights in their social, religious, moral, political and financial aspects, for in a government deriving its powers from the consent of the governed, politics touch every condition of life and no man can say "I am out of politics." Every man, woman and child is in politics and can't get out of its baleful or beneficial influences as the case may be. Will our papers discuss and answer the above questions.

Respectfully,
JAS. E. ELLEGOOD.

As One Man Sees It.
COMMUNICATED.

DEAR EDITORS: Will you please spare me space enough to tell your readers how pleased I am to see that the Democrats are getting their eyes open.

They see what large crops are raised under Hanna Rule, and well show their appreciation by bringing poor bankrupt Wicomico Co. under the prosperous guidance of the "Dusky" party.

Hark! ye farmers to the word of wisdom.

Verily I say unto you if you vote the Republican ticket your crops will be twice as large next year as they will be if you vote for the Democrats (who are in darkness.)

After getting your eyes open you will be able to see what an honor it is to entertain such illustrious guests as Booker T. Washington and his race.

Yours Respectfully, OBSERVATION.

POWELLVILLE.

Most of this week has been devoted to religion and politics round about here.

The O. S. Baptist Association was in session here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Several hundred people were in attendance each day. Big lunches were brought and served at midday.

Politics is the absorbing topic just now. The orators of both parties are in harness and every section of the community is being visited.

We had a republican meeting in Powellville last Saturday night and a funny meeting it was. Leaving out the wagon load sent from Pittsburg district there were nineteen from Dennis district. We have understood that it has been reported several were moved to tears by the eloquence of one of the ex democrats on the ticket. We have made careful inquiry and find that there was one man who moaned aloud when he was disfranchised. Upon being asked what was the matter, he said "I am afraid I can't get any money for my vote this fall." Who says the ballot law isn't a good thing?

The New Laws.

Jesterville, Md.

Messrs. Editors:—If you have room in your valuable paper, kindly publish the following in the interest of fair play.

The politics of those who condemn the late election law are Republican of course. They must be Republican to keep in line with the usual spirit of opposition if for no other reason.

From an impartial stand point, it may be seen the Democrats are on the aggressive, and we have yet to hear some solid reasons why they were not justified, for the public good, in enacting the Election Law to thwart the growing and impending evil of bribery in a large measure, if not wholly. The Republicans charge that it is a disfranchising law will not hold. The Democrats had the courage to strike at the root of the evil, even though it might suffer some pruning itself. But in the matter of voting one's sentiments there need not be much difficulty, provided the intellectual attainments of the voter is somewhat superior to a guerrilla. There only needs to be care exercised when voting. One of our most intelligent citizens threw away his vote by carelessness when the Australian ballot system was first instituted.

By experiment it has been proven that a colored man who did not know "a from izard," could, with a few minutes instruction, vote a clean and full Republican ticket, and yet they call it a disfranchising Election Law. Bah!

(FAIR PLAY)

Death of Dr. John D. White.

Dr. John D. White, one of the oldest physicians of Worcester county, died at his home in Whiton, near Powellville, early Wednesday morning. He was found in his office Monday in a state of complete paralysis and sank rapidly until his death. For more than a year he was in declining health and never fully recovered from a stroke of paralysis suffered about that time. In his earlier years he was a surgeon in Wilmington, Del., but was in continual practice of medicine in Worcester and Wicomico counties since the fifties. He was a warm Southerner and during the Civil War rendered what aid he could to Confederates, many of whom rendezvoused in the swamps along the Pocomoke river, near his home. He leaves a widow, a daughter, Sarah; a sister, Mrs. S. E. Reed, of Philadelphia, and a younger brother, Mr. King V. White, of Powellville this county. The late Edward White, of Whiton, was a brother. Mr. Southey King White, vice principal of the Salisbury High School, is a nephew.

NERVE, ENERGY AND EYE-GLASSES

A constant dripping wears away a stone. A slight eyestrain injures the health because it is constant. The strain which just manifests itself as a slight discomfort should be remedied at once. This we guarantee to do with glasses. Delays are dangerous, best fitted at once by

Gray?

"My hair was falling out and turning gray very fast. But your Hair Vigor stopped the falling and restored the natural color."—Mrs. E. Z. Benomne, Cohoes, N. Y.

It's impossible for you not to look old, with the color of seventy years in your hair! Perhaps you are seventy, and you like your gray hair! If not, use Ayer's Hair Vigor. In less than a month your gray hair will have all the dark, rich color of youth.

Homer Smoot.

While young men of the Eastern Shore have won distinction in the various associations of life it has been the proud fortune of Homer Smoot of Gales town, Dorchester county to climb high in the field of sports.

In 1898 he began to play base ball at Chestertown, while a student at Washington College. In 1899 he joined an independent club at Atlantic City. In 1900 he started professionally by joining the Atlantic League at Allentown, Pa., occupying the position of centre field. On June 15, 1899 he was sold by that League to the Eastern League of Worcester, Mass., and after the deal he learned that the Worcester had paid $800 for the sale or transfer. He played the season with the Worcester closing his term Sept. 21st. He led the League in batting with a percentage of 360.

He declined an offer of $325 per month from the American League of Cleveland, Ohio made this week. He is considering several other offers. He played 196 games during the season, eleven of which were played in Buffalo.

He is 23 years old and weighs 180 pounds, five feet ten inches high. He was married last March to Miss G. nova Gordy of Gales town.

Sheriff Cullin, of Somerset county, left Princess Anne with a lot of prisoners sentenced to the penitentiary and House of Correction.
